FOR REFERENCE

NOT TO BE TAKEN FROM THIS ROOM

3 0081 010 574 329

LIBRARY
VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY
SIGILLUM UNIVERSITATIS VANDERBILTIAE
MDCCCLXXIII
HN '04
123829 [redacted]
[redacted]

A NEW

FRENCH-ENGLISH

DICTIONARY

A NEW

FRENCH-ENGLISH

DICTIONARY

FAIT EN FRANCE

A NEW

FRENCH-ENGLISH

AND

ENGLISH-FRENCH

DICTIONARY

COMPOSED ON A NEW PLAN

COMPILED FROM THE ENGLISH DICTIONARIES OF OGILVIE, WORCESTER, WEBSTER, LATHAM, JOHNSON, COOLEY, ETC., AND THE FRENCH DICTIONARIES OF THE "ACADÉMIE", OF BESCHERELLE, LITTRÉ, ETC., AND THE MOST RECENT AND APPROVED TECHNICAL WORKS

By

C. Ebenezer Clifton

E. CLIFTON AND A. GRIMAUX

A new edition entirely remodelled and largely increased

By

J. MAC LAUGHLIN

OFFICIER DE L'INSTRUCTION PUBLIQUE

Honorary professor at the « Collège Sainte-Barbe » and the Philotechnic Association

AUTHOR OF THE NEW ENGLISH-FRENCH AND FRENCH-ENGLISH DICTIONARY AND SEVERAL OTHER WORKS

FRENCH-ENGLISH PART

A NEW EDITION WITH SUPPLEMENT

PARIS

GARNIER FRÈRES, PUBLISHERS

6, RUE DES SAINTS-PÈRES, 6

Tous droits de reproduction, de traduction et d'adaptation réservés pour tous pays.
COPYRIGHT BY A.-P. GARNIER 1923

123829

PREFACE

Whoever considers the unceasing progress made during the last few years in all branches of science, art and industry, will easily understand what task lies before the publishers of any Dictionary to keep it as complete as possible, when so many new things have given rise to such a multitude of new words.

The task of the lexicographer is twofold when he has to deal with an international Dictionary, since each language has its new words. Frequent revisions are therefore necessary, and every important work of the kind would soon, unless remodelled from time to time, share the fate of many good, but now old-fashioned and for ever forgotten Vocabularies. Thus, a now excellent Dictionary could not, a few years hence, completely represent the language of the living generation, if it was not revised and modernized. It would, so to speak, be nothing but a fixed representation of the Past.

Such was now the great English-French Dictionary of Clifton and Grimaux, which was published about forty years ago, and had remained unrevised ever since.

VOCABULARY. — We have kept nearly all the words of the former vocabulary, even such of them as are now seldom used or obsolete. It is not, indeed, useless, it may even be interesting, to introduce into this vast repertory of two languages terms which may surprise or puzzle a reader who wishes to become acquainted with the authors of the past centuries. The addition of such uncommon or obsolete words does not materially modify the list of more frequently used terms, and may prove useful to explain them. Every word marked with a cross (+) is either a seldom used term, or an archaism.

Among the new words added to our Dictionary, we by no means scorned to introduce a host of familiar or popular expressions, and slang terms, now frequently used both in English and in French.

On the other side, it was necessary not to enlarge this work inordinately. We have gained a little space by suppressing the present and past participles which were found in the former text, and appeared to be superfluous.

We still, however, sometimes, and even not unfrequently, considered it as evidently useful to give them, whenever their spelling was irregular, or there was any obscurity in their meaning. We have also often brought under one head compound words which were formerly presented in their alphabetical order, so as to compress them into a narrower space.

We were also obliged to enlarge our text by adding the names of the chief French writers. The many literary quotations given as examples are always followed with the indication of their sources. Proverbs are many; they are placed at the end of the articles to which they refer. In short, the reader may see to what extent we have enlarged the vocabulary when he knows that we enriched it with nearly six thousand words.

ETYMOLOGY. — Etymology is a new feature of this Dictionary. We give it from the most recent and authorized works. Nothing was easier to indicate than the etymology of words derived from Greek or Latin, chiefly when a whole family of words springs from one root. In such cases, we stated it only for the chief word of the group. It was quite another task with such words as are practically insulated, or borrowed from very different languages, so that each of them was to be separately accounted for.

As to some words, the origin of which is so dark that the best writers on the matter, in spite of patient and learned research, could not discover it, or show it without any possible doubt, we only state that it is unknown or doubtful.

TYPOGRAPHY. — We may unhesitatingly say that the letter press used makes our pages clear and easy to read. The whole work is printed with entirely new types, cast especially for it.

J. Mac Laughlin.

ADVERTISEMENT

TO THE FIRST EDITION

A knowledge of foreign languages has now become absolutely necessary to everybody, at a time when literary, scientific, commercial and industrial relations between all countries have developed to such an extent that frontiers are almost a thing of the past.

Among all languages now spoken on earth, French and English are unquestionably those it is most needful to know. In France, a knowledge of English is chiefly indispensable to scholars, to men of science, to tradesmen, to manufacturers, and finally to students of the great social or political problems. All of them must know a language spoken in the British Islands, in North America, in the Eastern and Western Indies, in Australasia, and in all commercial centres.

It is therefore of the highest importance, we dare say even of paramount national interest, to multiply the means by which the learning of English may be made easier to Frenchmen, and vice versa. A good Dictionary is certainly the most efficient of all those means; it is one the place of which no method of teaching can supply.

Messrs. Garnier frères, who, for the last few years, have been publishing a series of works most precious for the study of classical and foreign languages, now undertake to add to that series a complete Dictionary of the English language. As they did with the Dictionaries they had already published, they took care to entrust the work to one of the best and ablest lexicographers, to M. Clifton, the author of a smaller English-French and French-English Dictionary, which has met with such deserved success.

His gift of deep observation, his clear and alert mind, the comparative study of the two idioms which had been his constant employment for thirty years, besides many excellent and highly esteemed works on the English language, fully justifies their choice of him, the best that could possibly be made. Unfortunately, death overtook Mr. Clifton before he could bring his work to an end.

The publishers then entrusted to Mr. Grimaux, whose long and close collaboration with the author was, in their opinion, the best of recommendations, the task of completing this Dictionary, while adhering with scrupulous exactness to the plan adopted by Mr. Clifton.

We make bold to assert that this Dictionary is much more complete than any of those hitherto published.

Not only all the words used by the classical writers of both countries, but also all new words admitted into the best English or French Dictionaries, — besides some few which have not appeared yet in any of them, though they are frequently to be met with in the pages of the best writers of our time, — will be found in it. It also comprises a considerable number of technical terms belonging to art, science, trade and industry, which would be vainly looked for in all former works of the kind.

All the words in our Dictionary, even the names of persons, places, etc., are placed in a strictly alphabetical order. All compound nouns, however, are grouped immediately after the first of the words of which they were formed.

The different acceptations of words are generally placed in their natural order, beginning with the meaning nearest to the etymological sense of the word, down to those which time and use have sanctioned. Whenever a word in one language corresponds to more than one meaning of a word in the other, those different meanings are explained by means of definitions or synonymous terms, and distinguished by letters in italics : a, b, c, etc. In the French English part, which we are now publishing, such definitions are always given in English, so that the English reader may not be obliged previously to translate the Dictionary, in order to understand the meaning of a French word, and may see immediately what is the exact translation of the word the meaning of which he wants to find out. Many examples have been added wherever it appeared necessary.

The pronunciation has been represented in the most precise manner by means of signs easy to understand. The reader will find further on an account of the principles of French pronunciation.

THE PUBLISHERS.

INTRODUCTION

PRONUNCIATION.

The French orthography, founded mostly on etymology, does not correspond exactly to the pronunciation. Hence the necessity of representing the sound of each letter occurring in a word by an appropriate character, to which a conventional value has been ascribed. The system of notation, adopted in this dictionary, is intended to prevent any confusion. So, the French é « fermé » is figured by é and not by its English equivalent long a.

Here is a synopsis of the French sounds, with the correspondent phonotypes or characters used in this work.

VOWELS

PURE OR SIMPLE.

	a,	â;	é.	è		ê;	e,	en;	eu.
as in	patte,	pâte;	dé,	fidèle,	dette,	fête;	de,	veuve,	feu;
repr. by	a,	â;	é,	è,	.	ê;	œ,	œ,	œ;

i,	î;	o,	o,	o;	ou,	ou;	u,	u.
il,	île;	botte,	nord,	beau;	foule,	voûte;	but,	buse.
î,	î;	o,	ó,	ô;	ou, w,	oû;	u,	û.

NASAL.

			Œ
an,	in,	on,	un
enfant,	vin,	bon,	un.
ân,	an,	ôn,	œn.

CONSONANTS

LABIAL.

p,	b;	f, ph,	v:	m.
pain,	bon:	fou, phare,	vin:	mer.
p,	b;	f,	v;	m.

DENTAL.

t,	d,	s hard, c soft.	z s soft.
table,	dans;	sur, ciel,	azur, rose.
t,	d;	s,	z.

PALATAL.

l,	ill, l liquid,	y;	n,	gn;	r.
la,	feuille,	yole;	non,	règne;	rue.
l,	y,	y;	n,	ny;	r.

GUTTURAL.

k, q, c hard,	g hard;	ch,	j, g soft.
camarade,	gant;	chaise,	joli.
k.	g, gh;	sh,	zh.

ASPIRATE.

h.
hache.
h.

VOWELS

The French language has seven pure vowels, a, e, eu, i, o, ou, u, and four nasal vowels, an, in, on, un.

A

A has two sounds :

I. — Short or slender a (represented by a), in patte, malle, canne, lame, la, ma, etc., is pronounced somewhat like the English short a in the words famine, machine.

This sound of a is also figured by e in the words femme, hennir, hennissement, solennel and its compounds solennité, solenniser, solennellement, and also in the termination emment of adverbs : ardemment, patiemment.

II. — Long or broad a (â), in pâte, mâle, las, âme, etc., is rather less open than the English long or « Italian » a, in far, farther, calf, father, bath.

A is mute in août, aoûteron, aoriste, Saône, and in the nasal vowel aim or ain.

AI is pronounced è or é.

AU is equivalent to ô.

E

E has four sounds :

I. — Close or slender é (é) sounds shorter than the English long a in fate, base, name. It is generally marked with the acute accent, as in été, pitié, aimé, bonté.

This sound is also figured by the following letters :

ER, a) in the infinitive of many verbs : aimer, chanter, in which the r is mute, except when followed by a vowel;

b) in many nouns or adjectives, as rocher léger.

EZ, a) in the second person of the plural of all tenses of verbs, except the perfect tense : vous aimez, vous chanterez :

b) in some words, as nez, chez, assez.

EF, in clef.

AI, in the first persons of the singular, a) of the present of indicative of the verb avoir : j'ai;

b) of the perfect tense of all the verbs in er : j'aimai, je trompai :

c) of the future of all verbs : j'aurai, je chanterai, je finirai, je recevrai, je rendrai.

Œ, in Œdipe, œsophage.

II. — Open, long or broad e (ê) is nearly equivalent to the English e in there, where. It is figured by.

Ê, as in tête, fête, même, être.

È, as in accès, thèse, ils chantèrent.

E, as in terre, guerre, mer, fer.

ES, as in les, des, mes, ses, tes.

AI, as in faîte faire, raison, maison, haine, aide, connaître, paix, faix, baigner, aimer, trait, laid.

EI, as in reine, Seine, peine.

III. — Intermediate or middle e (è) is pronounced nearly as the English short e in set, men, but longer. This sound is figured by the following letters :

È, as in fidèle, règle.

E, as in secte, ferme, renne, lettre, Noël, lacet, sujet, rets, respect, legs, nef, chef-d'œuvre, exode.

AI, as in fait, français, je chantais.

IV. — Guttural or surd e (œ) belongs more properly to the vowel eu, and is nearly equivalent to the English vowel in the words tun, sun. It is distinctly heard in monosyllables, as le, me, je, de, and in the first syllable of polysyllables, as in petit, venir, jeter, retourner, devenir.

In other cases, it is less perceptible or entirely mute, especially at the end of polysyllables, as in appeler, élever, âme, victoire, etc.

It is written ai, in faisant, bienfaisant.

E mute is used after the letter g to give it a soft sound, before a, o, u : il mangea, geôle, gageure.

EY has the value of e mute in Talleyrand (pron. tal'rân*).*

EU

EU, besides the preceding sound, which is represented by e not accented, has two sounds :

I — Long and grave eu (œ) has no equivalent in English. This sound may be obtained by pressing the lips a little forward, in such a manner as to leave to the breath a narrower passage than for the e in over, and by dwelling longer upon it.

This sound occurs :

a) at the beginning of words : eucharistie, eucologe, eudiste, Euménides, euphonie, euphraise ;

b) in monosyllables, or at the end of words : feu, cheveu, neuf, veuf, neveu, lieu, lieue, adieu, cieux, creux, deux, eux, gracieux, malheureux, périlleux, je veux, il peut, sieur, monsieur, etc.;

c) before tr : feutre, calfeutrer, neutre, neutraliser, neutralité, etc.;

d) before s or x, when those letters have the sound of z : creuse, creuser, gracieuse, yeuse, deuxième, etc.;

e) generally, before mute syllables when final : jeune, preuve, peuple, aveugle, neuve, veuve, ils veulent, que je veuille, etc.

f) when eu is marked with the circumflex accent : jeûne, jeûner ;

g) in many other words, as in jeudi, feudiste, feudataire, bleuir, rajeunir, rajeunissement, beugler, meunier, lieutenant, meule, veule, Teuton, Deutéronome, etc.

II. — Open or middle eu (œ) is nearly equivalent to the vowel heard in the English words furl burn, but lightly longer. This sound is figured by EU, a) before r: fleur, malheur, peur, seigneur, demeure, heure;

b) before articulated final consonants : filleul, tilleul, deuil.

ŒU, as in sœur, cœur.

Œ, as in œil, œillet.

UE, as in cueille, orgueil.

Eu has the sound of u in eu, j'eus, il eut, nous eûmes, etc.

I

I. — I is either long (î) or short (i). The long sound of i is heard in the English words marine, meet, seen, speak; the short sound is somewhat longer than the English short sound of i, in fig, pin.
I is mute in douairière, oignon, poignant, poignard, poignarder, poignée, poignet, Montaigne.

O

O has three sounds :

I. — Short o (o), in the words botte, hotte, sottise, police, etc., is somewhat longer than the English short o in not, rob.

II. — Long and broad o (ô), in the words nord, bord, is nearly the same as the English o in north, nor, lord.

III. — Long and open ô (ô) rather less open than the English long o in note, robe, bone, go, so. It is very long in côte, hôte, plutôt, and less in côtier, hôtel. It generally bears the circumflex accent, as may be seen in the preceding examples.
This sound is also figured by the following combinaisons of letters :

AU, as in vautrer, haut, faux, autel, hauteur.

EAU, as in eau, beau, beauté, nouveau.

OU

OU has two sounds :

I. — Long ou (oû), in the words voûte, goût, coût, toux, is the English sound of long oo in food, fool, moon, move, crude.

II. — Short or common ou (ou or w) is nearly equivalent to the vowel heard in the English words foot, good, wool, full, bull.

U

I. — U has no equivalent in the English language; and it can be learned only by oral instruction. It may be regarded as intermediate between the sound of long e and oo, partaking of both. This sound is long (û) in vue, buse, dû, and short (u) in but, cru, du.

U is generally mute after the consonant q; in some cases, it has the sound of ou. Following g, u is nearly always mute.

Y

I. — Y has the sound of i, except when it occurs between two vowels. In this case, y is pronounced like two successive ii, the first combining with the preceding vowel. Pays, aboyer, are pronounced as if they were written pai-is (that is, pè-i), aboi-ier (abwa-yé).

NASAL VOWELS.

AN

AN (â*n)* is a nasal sound that does not exist in English. If, in pronouncing the English word taunt, the speaker expels the air simultaneously through the nostrils and mouth, without allowing the tongue to touch the roof of the mouth, so as to articulate the n, he will pronounce the French words tant and temps.
This sound is represented by.

AN, as in an, banc, grand, sang, lance, enfant.

AM, as in ambition, jambe, ample, Adam, Samson.

EN, as in en, rendre, enivrer, ennui, encore, entre, silence, hareng, éloquent.

EM, as in embarras, emploi, emmener.
AEN, in Caen.

AON, in faon, paon, Laon.

IN

IN (an), when final or followed by any consonant except m or n, represent a nasal vowel, the nearest approach to which, in English, is the sound of a as heard in sank.

This sound is written :

IN, as in fin, vin, malin, je vins, il vint, instinct, cinq, incivil, inquiet.

IM, as in imbécile, important, limbe.

YN, as in lynx, larynx.

YM, as in thym, cymbale.

AIN, as in main, pain, saint, il craint, plaindre.

AIM, as in faim, essaim.

EIN, as in rein, sein, seing, ceinture, teint, peindre.

EN, as in agenda, appendice, doyen, moyen, examen, Européen, Benjamin, Mentor.

EM, as in sempiternel, Memphis, Wurtemberg.

ON

ON (ô*n*) is a nasal sound, having no equivalent in English. It is written :

ON, as in on, bon, ton, fond, tronc, long, fonds, mont, honte, raconter.

OM, as in nom, plomb, ombrer, tomber.

UN

UN (œ*n*) has no equivalent in English. This sound is represented by UN, as in un, commun, défunt, emprunt, emprunter.

UM, as in parfum, humble.

EUN, as in jeun.

DIPHTHONGS.

In the French diphtongs, the first element is always pronounced rapidly, whilst the second element is somewhat lengthened.

The following table contains all the diphthongs used in the French language. The pronunciation is figured by the letters that are between parentheses. It must be noted that in poetry diphthongs often disappear, and the two vowel-sounds are distinctly and separately pronounced.

IA (ya), in fiacre, diable, naïade.

IAN, IEN (yâ*n*), in viande, négociant, patient.

IÉ, IE, IER, IAI, IEZ (yé), in amitié, pied, premier, portier, je priai, je négociai, vous chantiez.

IÈ, IE, IAI (yè), in lumière, première, pièce, ciel, miel, Vienne, Guienne, assiette, fier, tiers, biais, niais.

IEN (ya*n*), in bien, rien, mien, ancien, Amiens, Athénien.

IEU, YEU (yœ), in Dieu, pieu, cieux, mieux, yeux.

IAU, (yô) in miauler.

IO (yo), in fiole, pioche.

ION (yô*n*), in passion, lion, action, nous aimions.

IOU (you), in chiourme, Montesquiou.

IU (yu), in diurne, reliure.

OUA, OA (wa), in douane, moabite.

OUÉ, OUER (wé), in bouée, bafouer.

OUE, OE, OE, OUAI, OUHAI (wè), in fouet, poêle, ouais.

OUI (wi), in oui, baragouiner.

OUAN, OUEN (wâ*n*), in louange, Ecouen, Rouen (but not in rouennerie, which is pronounced rwan'ri).

OUIN, OUEN, OIN, in baragouin, Saint-Ouen, loin, soin.

OI (wa), in loi, moi, fois, oiseau, voix, froid.

OI (wâ), in trois, croître.

UA (wa), in équateur, aquatique.

UE (uè), in écuelle, équestre.

UI (ui; after g, ui), in huile, lui, aiguille, Guise.

UIN (ua*n*), in juin, quinquagésime.

UAN (wâ*n*), in quantum.

There are also some double diphthongs, as :

AYA (èya), in payable.

AYAN (èyâ*n*), in ayant, payant, effrayant.

AYER (èyé), in délayer, payer.

AYEUR (èyœr), in frayeur.

OYAL (wayal), in royal, loyal.

OYAU (wayô), in royauté, noyau.

OYAN (wayâ*n*), in voyant.

OYER, OYEZ (wayé), in employer, foyer, soyez.

OYEN (waya*n*), in moyen, doyen.

OYON (wayô*n*), in voyons.

CONSONANTS.

The sounds of most of the French consonants are the same as in the English. The following remarks contain the general rules.

B

B (b), as in English. It is mute when final, except in radoub, rob, rumb, and at the end of proper nouns, as Job, Jacob, etc.

Before s and t, the sound of b is nearly that of the letter p.

C

C has two sounds :

I. — Soft c (s) sounds like the English hard s, before e, i, y, and before the vowels a, o, u, when marked with a cedilla (ç) : ceci, façade, leçon, reçu.

II. — Hard c (k) is heard :

a) before a, o, u: café, coq, vaincu;

b) before another consonant : climat, écrin, etc.;

c) at the end of words : lac, sec, avec, bouc, bloc, échec, Marc, etc.; except in some words, as accroc, banc, blanc, broc, clerc, cric, croc, échecs, escroc, estomac, franc, jonc, marc, porc, tabac, etc.

In second and its derivatives, c is pronounced as g. In certain Italian words, it is pronounced tsh.

CH

CH has equally two sounds :

I. — Common or soft ch (sh) is equivalent to the English digraph sh: charmer, chercher, chute.

II. — Hard ch (k) is pronounced like k:

a) when followed by a consonant, o when at the end of a word : Christ, chrétien, Utrecht, etc.; except in kirsch (kirsh), punch (pônsh), almanach (almana), and drachme (dragm');

b) in the words beginning in chir or chor: chiromancie, chirographaire, chorus, choriste, etc.; except in chirurgie (shirurzhi), chirurgien, chirurgical;

c) in the final syllabe chus of proper nouns : Antiochus, Bacchus;

d) in Italian proper nouns : Cherubini, Michel-Ange;

e) in the words beginning by psych, as psychologie, except Psyché and psychique;

f) in the following words : bacchanale, bacchante, brachial, chaos, catéchumène, chélidoine, chœur, choléra, écho, eucharistie, lichen, orchestre, orchis, synecdoche, trochaïque, and some others;

g) in the prefix arch in the following words only : archaïque, archaïsme, archange, archangélique, archéologie, archéologique, archéologue, archétype, archiépiscopal, archiépiscopat, archontat, archonte.

h) in many proper nouns, as Achab, Achaïe, Anacharsis, Calchas, Cham, Chanaan, Chéronée, Chersonèse, Machiavel, Melchisédec, Nabuchodonosor, Sanchoniaton, Tycho-Brahé, etc.

D

D (d), as in English, but less explosive. D is mute at the end of a word (except in sud and Talmud), unless pronounced with the first vowel of the following word, when it takes the sound of t, as in grand homme (grântom).

F

F (f), as in English. When it is joined with the next word, it is sometimes pronounced as v. In many words derived from the Greek, f is represented by ph.

F is generally pronounced at the end of words : chef, serf, neuf, veuf, vif, etc.; but it is mute in cerf, clef, œuf frais, œuf dur, bœuf gras, bœuf salé, nerf de bœuf, chef-d'œuvre, and in the plural termination of several nouns : des nerfs, des bœufs, des œufs, etc.

G

G has two sounds :

I. — Hard g (g, or, before e and i, gh) is pronounced like the English g in goi game, before a, o, u, or a consonant : gamme, gomme, grand, globe, gué, guise, guide, etc., but somewhat less explosive. In the last three examples, the letter u has no sound, and serves only to indicate the hard sound of g before e or i. But, in many words, u forms a diphthong with e or i, as in aiguille, arguer, ambiguïté, linguiste. Guise, etc. In the conjugation of verbs in guer, u is always mute before a and o : il brigua, nous voguons.

G is generally mute at the end of words : rang, hareng, coing, doigt, vingt, legs, Strasbourg, Wurtemberg, etc.; except in certain proper nouns, as Canning, Young, Berg.

When followed by a noun beginning with a vowel or mute h, final g is pronounced like k : de rang en rang (pron. dœ rân-kân rân), un sang illustre (œn sân-kil-lustr'), un long hiver (œn lôn-kivèr).

II. — Soft g (zh), before e, i and y, has the sound of English s in pleasure, or z in azure : gentil, manger, gymnase.

The hard g is rendered soft before a, o, u, by inserting the letter e between g and a, o, u : je mangeais, nous mangeons, geôle, gageure. The e after the g is then not to be sounded, but is considered as a mark to show that the g must be pronounced soft.

In foreing proper nouns, the g has the hard sound : Gellert (ghellèrt), Geruzez (ghéruzèz), etc.

In Bourg, the g is pronounced like k.

Gl has the sound of liquid l in imbroglio (anbrolyo), and in some Italian proper nouns : Broglie (broly), Saglio (salyo).

GN

GN (ny) is pronounced like ni in onion, minion : oignon, mignonne, vigne, etc. There are some exceptions, in which the g is distinctly heard, as diagnostic, igné, stagnant, etc., and at the beginning of a word : gnome, gnostique, Gnide.

In signet, gn is pronounced like n.

H

H is either aspirate or silent.

When h is deemed aspirate (h), it only communicates to the vowel the properties of a consonant; that is to say, when the preceding word ends with a vowel, that vowel is always pronounced; if it ends with a consonant, that consonant is never connected with the vowel that follows.

In most of the words, h is absolutely silent.

J

J (zh) has always the sound of s in pleasure, or z in azure; it is however sounded : i in some Italian proper names : Belgiojoso.

K

K (k) has the sound of k or hard c.

L

L has two sounds :

I. — A proper sound (l), like the English l.

Final l is not pronounced in the following words : baril, coutil, chenil, fournil, fusil, gril, gentil, nombril, outil, persil, sourcil, and in fils (son).

II. — A liquid sound (y), like l in brilliant. The modern pronunciation, however, lets the l entirely disappear, and substitute a long e sound for it.

This sound is represented by ill or ll in the middle of words, and final ille or il : meilleur, billet, fille, paille, bataille, travail, sommeil, seuil, œil, avril, babil, fenil, grésil, mil (millet), péril, etc.

But the l is not liquid : 1° in the termination illaire : armillaire, fritillaire, etc.; 2° in the verbs distiller, osciller, titiller, and their derivatives; 3° in billion, codicille, fibrille, imbécillité, mille, million, papille, pupille, pusillanime, squille, tranquille, ville, and their derivatives; 4° generally in proper nouns : Achille, Cyrille, Lille, etc.

The l is liquid in semoule.

M

M (m), when not nasal, is pronounced like the English m.

M is mute in damner, condamner, and their derivatives, and also in automne.

M, preceded in the same syllable by a vowel, is nasal : jambe, emporter, importuner, ombre. When followed by another m, it preserves its natural sound : immobile, immortel, mammifère, sommité, grammaire, homme, etc.

N

N (n) is pronounced like the English n, with the following exceptions :

1° Preceded by g in the same syllable, it has a liquid sound, as may be seen above.

2° When preceded in the same syllable by a vowel, and followed by any other consonant except n, n serves as a sign that the preceding vowel is nasal : roman, enfin, mon, un, aucun, examen, etc. However, the n resumes its natural sound in abdomen, amen, dictamen, gramen, hymen, lichen, Eden.

There is no nasal sound in annal, année, annexe, annihiler, honnir, inné, innocuité, septennat, etc.

P

P (p), as in English.

When preceded by m, or followed by t, and also when final, p is generally silent, as in temps, compter, sculpter, coup, trop, sept, septième, etc. In the following words, p preserves its sound : abrupt, concept, contempteur, contemptible, exemption, impromptu, présomptif, présomption, présomptueux, rédempteur, rédemption, rédemptoriste, sceptique, scepticisme, septennat, septentrion, symptôme, symptomatique, cap, cep, hanap, jalap, julep, salep, Alep, Gap, and other proper nouns.

PH, as in English, is equivalent to the letter f.

Q

Q (k), as in English, like k.

Except when final, this letter is always followed of u, which is generally silent : coq, cinq, qualité (kalité), que (kœ), qui (ki), quotidien, quelqu'un, etc.

But in the following words, qua, que, qui, are diphthongs and must be pronounced kwa, kué or kuè, kui : 1° adéquat, aquarelle, aquatique, équateur, équatorial, équation, exéquatur, in-quarto, liquation, loquace, quadragénaire, quadragésime, quadrature, quadruple, quaker, quarto, quartz, quaternaire, quatuor, quinquagésime, quinquagénaire ; 2° équestre, questeur, questure, liquéfaction ; 3° équiangle, équidistant, équilatéral, équimultiple, équitation, a quia, quibus, quiétisme, quiétiste, quinaire, quintuple, quintupler, Quirinal, quitus, requiem.

R

R (r), as in English when initial in a word or syllable; when final, if pronounced at all, it is strongly trilled, and never has the semi-guttural sound heard in cur, fir, etc.

When preceded by e, final r is generally mute : aimer, jouer, berger, léger, etc. But it is pronounced in amer, belvéder, cancer, cher, cuiller, enfer, éther, fer, fier, frater, gaster, hier, hiver, magister, mer, pater, stathouder, ver, Abner, Jupiter, Lucifer, Munster, Niger, Suger, etc.

The r is mute in monsieur, messieurs.

S

S has two sounds :

I. — Hard s (s), like the English s in sister, is heard in the beginning and in the middle of a word, when preceded or followed by a consonant : sang, sel, passant, penser, bourse, Christ, etc.

S is silent in Jésus-Christ, Duguesclin, Duquesne, and generally at the end of words : Paris, Judas, Thomas, armes, les, des, ses, mes, nos, leurs, tables, maisons, tu chantes, tu chantas, nous ferons, vous fûtes, etc.

But the s is pronounced in agnus, albinos, aloès, anus, as, blocus, cassis, cauris, cortès, dervis, fils, fœtus, en sus, gratis, hélas! ibis, iris, isatis, jadis, lampas, lapis, laps, las! lis (but not in fleur de lis), los, lotos, lotus, madras, maïs, mars, mérinos, métis, oasis, obus (obuz), ours, rachitis, sens (but not in sens commun, sens rassis), stras, vasistas, vis ; in all nouns in us derived from the Latin, as prospectus, omnibus, rébus, sinus ; in many proper nouns, as Adonis, Cérès, Joas, Lys, Madras, Pâris, Vénus, etc.

II. — Soft s (z) is pronounced like the English soft s of rose :

a) between two vowels : baiser, usage, Asie, rose, plaisir, etc.; except in asymétrie, asymptote, désuétude, monosyllabe, parasol, polysyllabe, préséance, présupposer, resaisir, resasser, vraisemblable, vraisemblance ;

b) before b and d : presbytère ;

e) in the prefix trans when followed by a vowel : transaction, transiger, transit, transitif, etc.; except in transir, transissement, Transylvanie ;

d) in the following words : Alsace, balsamine, balsamique, balsamite, balsamier, balsamum ;

e) at the end of a word, when the following one begins with a vowel or a silent h : nos amis, les hommes, leurs amis. When preceded by r, the s is generally elided : recours en grâce (pron. recour-en grâce).

T

T has two sounds :

I. — Hard or proper t (t) is like the English t in tit, table, turn. Th has the sound of t hard.

Final t is generally silent, unless pronounced with the following word : il allait à la ville, tôt ou tard, impatiemment attendu. When preceded by c or r (except in the adverb fort), the t is always silent : une mort affreuse (pron. mor-affreuse), l'art est difficile (pron. l'ar-est), à tort et à travers (pron. à tor-et), respect humain (pron. respèc-humain).

Final t is, however, pronounced at the end of the following words : abrupt, accessit, aconit, azimut, bismuth, brut, Christ (except in Jésus-Christ), chut, cobalt, débet, déficit, dot, est (east), et cætera, exact, exeat, fat, fret, granit, huit, indult, juillet, knout, lest, lut, luth, magnificat, malt, mat (at chess), net, obit, occiput, ouest, prétérit, prurit, rapt, rout, rut, sept, strict, tact, toast, transéat, transit, ut, vivat, whist, zénith, zest, zist, and some others.

Formerly, the letters ct were always mute at the end of words, as they still are in : abject, respect, suspect. But now, they are generally sounded, as in : direct, incorrect, intact, etc.

II. — Soft t (s) is pronounced like c in the English words cedar, civil, in the following cases :

a) in the terminations tial, tiel, tieux, tiaux, or tiaire, as in abbatial, impartial, initial, partial, primatial ; confidentiel, essentiel, partiel, pestilentiel, potentiel, substantiel ; ambitieux, captieux, factieux, prétentieux ; penitentiaux, sapientiaux ; pénitentiaire, plénipotentiaire, tertiaire, and their derivatives;

b) in the terminations atie, étie, eptie, ertie, itie, otie, utie, of nouns, as in aristocratie, autocratie, démocratie, diplomatie, primatie, théocratie, Croatie, Galatie ; prophétie ; ineptie ; inertie ; calvitie, impéritie, lithotritie ; épizootie, scotie, Béotie ; argutie, minutie ;

c) in proper nouns ending in tien : Dioclétien, Domitien, Titien, Egyptien, Vénitien ; and in tribunitien ;

d) in the termination tion of nouns, as in action, attention, affection, caution, édition, exception, invention, nation, notion, portion, réaction, station, etc., and in all their derivatives, as actionner, affectionner, cautionnement, exceptionnel, national, réactionnaire, stationnaire, etc. ;

e) in the termination tier of some verbs : balbutier, différentier, initier, transsubstantier ; except châtier ;

f) in the terminations tience, tient, tiemment, tienter : patience, impatience ; patient, impatient, quotient ; patiemment, impatiemment ; patienter, impatienter, etc. ;

g) generally in the intermediate syllables tia, tie, tié, tio : Spartiate, gentiane, initiation, insatiable, propitiation, propitiatoire, transsubstantiation ; balbutiement ; satieté ; gratiole ; and in initié, opuntia ; but not in étiage.

The letter t preserves its hard sound :

a) when the syllables tial, tiaux, tien, tion, tia, tio, etc., are preceded by s or x : bestial, bestiaux, Bastien, bastion, combustion, gestion, congestion, digestion, indigestion, suggestion, question, mixtion, immixtion, bestialité, bestiole ;

b) in the terminations tions and tiez of verbs in ter or tir : nous chantions, nous partions, vous chantiez, vous partiez ;

c) in nouns ending in tié : amitié, inimitié, pitié, moitié ;

d) in the syllables tien, tienne, of common nouns, adjectives or verbs : chrétien, chrétienne, chrétienté, entretien, maintien, tienne, antienne, il obtient, ils obtiennent ;

e) in the terminations tier, tière, of nouns or adjectives : abricotier, bénitier, charretier, entier, flibustier, laitier, miroitier, portier, tabletier ; charretière, entière, laitière, portière, etc.

V

V (v), as in English.

W

W is pronounced : 1° like the English w, in words of English origin, as : whig, whist, wilsonie, Washington, Westminster, etc. ; 2° like v, in words of German origin, as : wagon, Wauxhall, Wagram, Westphalie, Waterloo, Wurtemberg, etc. ; 3° like u, in Newton, New-York, etc.

X

X has five sounds :

I. — That of ks, as in the words axe, taxe, fixe, fluxion, etc.

X is generally silent at the end of a word; but it is pronounced in index, larynx, lynx, onyx, pharynx, phénix, préfix, silex, sphinx, storax, styrax, and generally in all proper nouns, Pollux, Styx.

II. — The sound of k in words beginning in exce, exci, exs : exception, excellent, exciter, exsangue, etc., and in xérès.

III. — The sound of gz, in xanthe and its derivatives, in Xante, Xavier, Xénophon, Xercès, Xipharès, and in all words that begin with ex and are followed by a vowel or the letter h : exact, exemple, exister, exaucer, inexorable, exhortation, exubérance.

IV. — The sound of hard s or ss, in Auxerre, Auxonne, Bruxelles, Cadix, dix, six, soixante.

V. — The sound of z : a) in the derivatives of deux, dix, and six : deuxième, dixième, dixièmement, sixième; b) at the end of a word, when it is joined with the initial vowel of the following word : une paix-inattendue, un choix-heureux, doux-à l'âme, deux-hommes, dix-enfants.

Y

Y (hy). This letter is somewhat aspirated in certain cases, and then may be considered as a consonant. This sound is figured, in this dictionary, by hy.

Z

Z (z), as in English. Except in proper nouns, final z is generally silent : assez, chez, nez, riz, vous aimez, vous chantiez, vous partirez, etc., unless it is followed by a word beginning with a vowel : chez-un tel, vous avez-aimé.

ACCENTUATION.

The accent, properly so called, or tonic accent, that is a stress of voice on certain syllables of words, must not be confounded with the orthographic accents used in the French language (the acute accent, the grave accent, the circumflex accent).

In French, there is no mark to direct the accent; it is always on the last syllable, except when this syllable is mute, that is to say ends in mute e. Thus, in marchons, the accented syllable is chons; in marche, the accent is on the first syllable.

When the tonic accent is on the last syllable of a word and the penultimate syllable is mute, the latter is dropped in the rapid pronunciation of conversation. Thus, charretier is pronounced charr'tier; pèlerin, pèl'rin; éperon, ép'ron; hallebarde, hall'bard'; hôtellerie, hôtell'-ri', etc.

No word in French can end in two consecutive mute syllables. Tis explains why the mute e is changed into an open e in the verbs of the first conjugation, whose penultimate syllable is mute : mener, je mène; acheter, j'achète; appeler, j'appelle; jeter, je jette.

The sign of the plural in nouns and adjectives (s) and in verbs (nt) does not prevent the last syllable from being mute; therefore it cannot be accentuated.

Words of more than two syllables have, on the first syllable, a secondary accent, fainter than the tonic o, primary one; such are : cavalier, cavalerie, belligérant, audacieux, circonvenir.

Quantity, that is to say the determining of long and short syllables, is in French quite a secondary thing, for, as Mr. Quicherat says, in pronunciation accent predominates. In the words bâton, vêtu, priera, evouera, the penultimate syllable is long; but the tonic accent renders emphatical the last syllable on which it is placed.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS

USED IN THE FRENCH-ENGLISH DICTIONARY.

Adj., adjective.
Adject., adjectively.
Adm., administration.
Adv., adverb; adverbial.
Adverb., adverbially.
Agr., agric., agriculture.
Alg., algebra.
Anat., anatomy.
Anc., ancient.
Angl., angling.
Antiq., antiquity.
Arboricult., arboriculture.
Arch., architecture.
Archæol., archæology.
Arith., arithmetic.
Art., article.
Artill., artillery.
Astrol., astrology.
Astron., astronomy.
Auscult., auscultation.
Aux., auxiliary.
Bak., baking, baker's trade.
Bank., banking.
Bell-foun., bell-founding.
Bill., billiards.
Blacksm., blacksmith's art.
Book-b., book-binding.
Book-k., book-keeping.
Books., bookseller's trade.
Bot., botany.
Brew., brewing.
Build., building.
Butch., butcher's term.
Cabinet-m., cabinet-making.
Callig., calligraphy, penmanship.
Can. law, canon law.
Card-pl., card-playing.
Carp., carpentry.
Cath., catholic.
Cath. Ch., Catholic Church.
Cath. Lit., Catholic liturgy.
Catopt., catoptrics.
Ch., church.
Chem., chemistry.
Civ. Eng., civil engineering.
Clock-mak., clockmaker's term.
Cloth-m., cloth-manufacture.
Coin., coining.
Collect., collectively.
Colloq., colloquially.
Com., commerce.
Comp., comparative degree.
Conch., conchology, conchyliology.
Conj., conjunction.
Conj., conjunc. phr., conjunctive phrase.
Cook., cookery.
Danc., dancing.
Defect., defective.
Demonst., demonstrative.
Dent., dentistry.
Diamond-cut., diamond-cutting.
Did., didactic.
Diopt., dioptrics.
Diplom., diplomatics.
Distil., distilling, distillery.
Draw., drawing.
Dress-m., dress-making.
Dy., dying.
Eccles., ecclesiastical.
Electr., electricity.
Engin., eng., engineering.
Engl., English.
Engrav., engraving.
Entom., entomology.
Equit., equitation.
F., fem., feminine.
Falc., falconry.
Fam., familiar.
Farr., farriery.
Fenc., fencing.
Feud., feudal, feudality.
Fig., figurative, figuratively.
Fin., finance.
Fish., fishing.
Forest., forest law.
Fortif., fortification.
Found., founding, foundery.
Fr., French.
Fut., future.
Gard., gardening.
Geneal., genealogy.
Geog., geography.
Geol., geology.
Geom., geometry.
Germ., German.
Gild., gilding.
Glass-bl., glass-blowing.
Glass-m., glass-making.
Goldsm., goldsmith's art.
Gr., Greek, Grecian.
Gram., grammar.
Gymn., gymnastics.
Hat-mak., hat-making.
Herald., heraldry.
Hist., history.
Horol., horology.
Horsem., horsemanship.
Hort., horticulture.
Hunt., hunting.
Hydraul., hydraulics.
Hydrog., hydrography.
Ichth., ichthyology.
Idiomat., idiom., idiomatical.
Imper., imperative mood.
Impers., impersonal, impersonally.
Indef., indefinite.
Indic., indicative mood.
Infin., infinitive mood.
Insur., insurance.
Interj., interjection.
Invar., invariable.
Ironic., ironically.
Irreg., irregular.
Jewel., jewelry.
Join., joinery.
Jurispr., jurisprudence.
Land-surv., land-surveying.
Lang., language.
Lat., Latin word.
Law-lang., in law language.
Law-t., law-term.
Leg., legislation.
Lit., literature.
Lit., liturgy.
Locksm., locksmith's art.

Log., logic.
Low Lat., low Latin.
M., masc., masculine.
Mach., machinery.
Magn., magnetism.
Mak., making.
Man., manege.
Mar. Com., maritime commerce.
Mason., masonry.
Math., mathematics.
Mat. Med., materia medica.
Mech., mechanics.
Med., medicine.
Metall., metallurgy.
Metaphys., metaphysics.
Meteor., meteorology.
Mil., Milit., military art.
Milit. Eng., military engineering.
Millin., millinery.
Min., mining.
Miner., mineralogy.
Mod., modern.
Mus., music.
Mythol., myth., mythology.
N., noun.
N., neuter.
Nat. Hist., natural history.
Naut., nautical affairs, navigation.
Needle-w., needle-work.
Neut., neutrally.
Nf., feminine noun.
Nm., masculine noun.
Nom., nominative case.
Numis., numismatics.
Obj., Object., objective case.
Obstet., obstetrics.
Opt., optics.
Ornith., ornithology.
Pag., pagan.
Paint., painting.
Palæog., palæography.
Pa. p., past participle.
Paper-mak., paper-making.
Parl., parliamentary language.
Past., pastry-cook's term.
Past. poet., pastoral poetry.
Pathol., pathology.
Pers., person, personal.
Perspect., perspective.
Pharm., pharmacy.
Philol., philology.
Philos., philosophy.
Phot., photography.
Phr., phrase, phrases.
Phrenol., phrenology.
Phys., physics, natural philosophy.
Physiol., physiology.
Pl., plur., plural.
Pn., proper noun.
Pnf., proper noun feminine.
Pnm., proper noun masculine.
Poet., poetry; poetically.
Pol. econ., political economy.
Polit., politics.
Popul., popular.
Poss., possessive.
Post-off., post-office.
Pott., pottery.
Pr., pron., pronounce.
Prep., preposition.
Prep., prepos, prepositional, prepositive
Pres., present tense.
Print., printing.
Pron., pronoun.
Prop., in the proper sense.
Pros., prosody.
Prov., proverb; proverbial; proverbially.
Pr. p., present participle.
Psychol., psychology.
Pyrotech., pyrotechny.
Railw., railways.
Rel., relative.
Rem., remark.
Rhet., rhetoric.
Road-mak., road-making.
Rom., Roman.
S., substantive, noun.
Script., Scripture.
Sculp., sculpture.
Semp., sempstressy.
Sf., feminine noun.
Sfpl., feminine plural noun.
Ship-b., ship-building.
Shoe-m., shoe-making.
Sing., singular.
Sm., masculine noun.
Smf., epicene noun, or noun with one termination only for both genders.
Sm. f., masculine noun, followed with the feminine termination.
Smpl., masculine plural noun.
Spinn., spinning.
Sport., sporting.
Station., stationery.
Statist., statistics.
St.-eng., steam-engine.
Stock-Ex., stock-exchange.
Subj., subjunctive mood.
Subst., substantively.
Sugar-m., sugar-making.
Superl., superlative degree.
Surg., surgery.
Surv., surveying.
Tail., tailoring.
Tal.-chandl., tallow-chandler's term.
Tann., tanning.
Tap., tapestry.
Technol., technology.
Theat., theatre; theatrical.
Theol., theology.
Trigon., trigonometry.
Turn., turnery.
Typ., typography.
Type-f., type-founding.
Univ., university
V., vide, see.
V., verb.
Va., verb active.
Verb., verbal.
Vers., versification.
Vet., Veter. Surg., veterinary surgery.
Vn., verb neuter.
V. refl., reflected verb.
Vulg., vulgar.
Weav., weaving.
Wheelwr., wheelwright's term.
Wire-dr., wire-drawing.
Writ., writing.
Zool., zoology.
÷, old, antiquated.

FRENCH AND ENGLISH DICTIONARY

A

A, à, sm. A, a. Un grand A, un A majuscule, a large A, a capital A. Un petit a, un a minuscule, a small a, a little a. Des a mal formés, ill-shapen, ill-formed Aes (or A's). Deux a, double A, two Aes (or A's). Une panse d'a, the first stroke of a small a. Il n'a pas fait une panse d'a, he has not done a stroke, he has done nothing. Il n'en a pas fait une panse d'a, he has had no hand in it has done nothing towards it. Ne savoir ni A ni B, not to know one's letters, to be utterly illiterate. Etre marqué à l'A, to be A 1., to be a man of eminent rank on merit : an allusion to the money coined at the Paris mint, which is marked with an A, and was long supposed to be superior to that struck at the provincial mints.

A, [abbreviation of Altesse, Highness]. H. For the plur., AA. Altesses, Highnesses. [The abbreviation is never used in English for the plural.]

A., 1. acquitté, paid ; 2. accepté, accepted (of bills, etc.) ; 3. argent, money, cash.

ABR., 1. abrégé, abridged, abbreviated ; 2. abbreviation.

ABS., Absolu, Absolute.

ACAD., Académie, academy.

A. C. F., Automobile Club de France, automobile Club of France.

A. C. I., Assuré contre l'incendie, insured against fire.

a. l., après livraison, after delivery (of goods).

A. M., Assurance mutuelle, mutual insurance.

am., amortissable, redeemable.

A. M. D. G., ad majorem Dei gloriam, to the greater glory of God.

amp., ampère, ampère.

A. P., à protester, to be protested (of bills, etc.).

ARR., arrivée, arrival.

ARR., ARROND., Arrondissement, arrondissement, parish.

ASCENS., Ascenseur, lift, elevator.

A. S. L. V., assurance sur la vie, life insurance.

A. S. P., accepté sous protêt, accepted under protest.

AUJ., aujourd'hui, to-day.

av., 1. avec, with ; 2. avenue, avenue.

AV. J.-C., avant Jésus-Christ, before Christ.

AV.-SC., Avant-scène, stage box (theatre).

AZ., azote, azote.

A, a, prép. The preposition à coalesces with the masculine definite article le when followed by a word beginning with a consonant or aspirated H, and with its plural les, being written au, instead of à le, in the former case, and aux, instead of à les, in the latter for both genders. This preposition is rendered into English in many different manners, the choice of the word being determined by the context as will be seen by the following examples :

1. at. Demeurer à Tours, à Paris, to reside at Tours, at (or in) Paris. A six heures, at six o'clock. A dix jours de vue, at ten days' sight. Vendre à perte, to sell at a loss. Au premier coup de feu, at the first shot.

2. to. Aller à Rome, to go to Rome. De Paris à Rouen, from Paris to Rouen. Ecrire à son ami, to write to one's friend. Gloire à Dieu ! glory to God ! A votre santé, to your health. Facile à apprendre, easy to learn.

3. in. A Londres, à Paris, in London, in Paris. Au faubourg Saint-Germain, in the faubourg St. Germain. Au mois de mars, in the month of March. Une blessure à l'épaule, a wound in the shoulder. L'argent à la main, money in hand. Dieu fit l'homme à son image, God made man in his own image. A mon avis, in my opinion. Cuit à l'eau, boiled (in water). Parler à son tour, to speak in one's turn. A la hâte, in haste, hastily.

4. into. Jeter au feu, à l'eau, to throw into the fire, into the water.

5. by. Vendre à la livre, à la douzaine, to sell by the pound, by the dozen. Payer au mois, à l'année, to pay by the month, by the year. A votre compte, by (or according to) your account. Un à un, one by one. Pas à pas, step by step.

6. of. Pensez à moi, think of me. Acheter à un marchand, to buy of a tradesman. Emprunter à un ami, to borrow of a friend.

7. with. A bras ouverts, with open arms. Se battre à l'épée, to fight with a sword. Pêcher à la ligne, to fish with a rod and line. Charger à balle, to load (a gun) with ball. Se mêler à la foule, to mix with the crowd. Je le dis à regret, I say it with regret. Une voiture à six places, a carriage with seats for six persons. Un cabriolet à quatre roues, a four-wheeled (or four-wheel) cab.

8. on. A pied, à cheval, on foot, on horseback. A genoux, on one's knees, kneeling. Aller à bord d'un vaisseau, to go on board of a ship. A cette occasion, on that occasion. Il porte un crêpe à son chapeau, he has crape on his hat. Elle portait des bracelets aux bras, she wore bracelets on her arms.

9. from. Otez le bâton à cet enfant, take the stick from that child. Prendre à un tas, to take from a heap. A ce que je vois, from what I see.

10. for. Traduire mot à mot, to translate word for word. Acheter au comptant, to buy for ready money. C'est à vous à (or de) parler, it is for you (it is your turn, your duty) to speak. A vie, for life. A jamais, for ever Quant à moi, as for me.

11. under. Être à couvert, to be under cover. A la peine (generally sous peine) de mort, under pain of death. Fouler aux pieds, to tread underfoot.

12. till. A demain, till to-morrow. Au revoir, till we meet again.

13. within. A dix pas de chez nous, within ten steps of our house. Le vaisseau est à (more generally en) vue de terre, the ship is within sight of land. Nous étions à portée de canon, we were within canon-shot. A portée de voix, within speaking distance, within ear-shot. A la portée de tout le monde, 1. within every body's reach, obtainable by all ; 2. intelligible to every body.

14. [preceded by de] between. De vous à moi, between you and me. De nation à nation, between nations, between one nation and another.

15. When used with de, expressed or understood, to indicate a number approximatively, à may be rendered in several manners : Cinq à six cents hommes, from five to six (between five and six) hundred men. Dix à douze francs, from ten to twelve francs, between ten and twelve francs, ten or twelve francs.

16. In phrases indicating ownership à is suppressed and the word following takes the possessive form. Ce cheval est à moi, à lui, à nous, à vous, à eux, à Jean, this horse is mine, his, ours, yours, theirs, John's. Mon frère a une maison à lui, my brother has a house of his own. Un ami à moi, a friend of mine.

17. When placed between two nouns or a noun and a verb, à is also suppressed, and the last word, or an adjective of similar meaning, is put first : Terre à blé, corn-land, arable land. Arbre à fruit, fruit-tree. Armes à feu, fire-arms, canne à sucre, sugar-cane. Moulin à eau, à vent, à vapeur, water-mill, wind-mill, steam-mill. La déesse aux yeux bleus, the blue-eyed goddess. Chapeau à larges bords, broad-brimmed hat. Chambre à coucher, sleeping-room,bed-room.

18. In many idiomatic phrases, à is entirely suppressed or replaced by a totally different word : Au secours ! help ! A l'assassin ! murder ! Une voiture à quatre chevaux, a carriage and four, a four-in-hand. J'ai ouï dire à mon père, I have heard my father say. J'ai trouvé à votre ami un air soucieux, I thought your friend looked very full of care. Tirons à qui jouera le premier, let us draw for first play, to see who shall play first. Une bonne à tout faire, a general servant.

19. The à before an infinitive generally marks what is to be done : J'ai à vous parler, I have to speak to you (I have something to tell you). Vous avez des lettres à écrire, you have some letters to write. Ils ont beaucoup d'argent à dépenser, they have plenty of money to spend. Ce n'est pas une question à faire, that's not a question to ask. La bibliothèque fut employée à attiser le feu, the library served to feed the fire.

AARON, arôn ; in poet. aärôn, pnm. Aaron : brother of Moses.

ABACA, abaka, sm. abaca, Manilla hemp.

ABAISSANT, E, abèsân-t, ânt', adj. abasing, degrading.

ABAISSE, abès', sf. 1. thin sheet of pie-paste ; 2. thin crust (of a pie or tart).

ABAISSÉ, E, abèsé, pa.p. abased, etc. Les yeux abaissés, with downcast eyes. V. ABAISSER.

ABAISSE-LANGUE, abèse'lângue, s. Med. tongue-depressor, tongue-spatula.

ABAISSEMENT, abès'mân-t, sm. 1. lowering : letting down, taking down, putting down, bringing down ; 2. falling, subsiding (of water, etc.) ; 3. fall, going down (of the barometer) ; 4. abatement, decline, reduction (of price, etc.) ; 5. humiliation, humbling (of persons or states) ; 6. abasement, degradation (of persons) ; 7. debasement (in races of men or animals) ; 8. Geom. letting fall (of a perpendicular) ; 9. Alg. reduction (of equations) ; 10. Astron. depression ; 11. Naut. dip (of the horizon) ; 12. Surg. couching (of a cataract). — volontaire, self-abasement, self-humiliation.

ABAISSER, abèsé-r [à ; baisser], va. 1. to lower : to reduce to a lower level, to let down, take down, put down, bring down, cast down (as the eyes) ; 2. to abate, to diminish, to reduce (value or price) ; 3. to sink, to lower (the voice) ; 4. to abase, to humble ; 5. to depress, to weaken ; 6. to degrade (persons) ; 7. to debase, to deteriorate (races or breeds) ; 8. Geom. to let fall (a perpendicular) ; 9. Alg. to reduce (an equation) ; 10. Surg. to couch (a cataract) ; 11. Hort. to cut short, to shorten (a branch) ; 12. Herald. to abase ; 13. to roll out, to roll thin (as pie-paste).

ABAISSER (s'), v. refl. 1. to lower, to get lower ; 2. to stoop ; 3. to fall ; 4. to sink ; 5. to subside, to go down (as floods) ; 6. to abase, to humble one's self ; 7. to debase, to demean one's self ; 8. to condescend, to stoop. Je ne m'abaisserai point à me justifier, I will not condescend (or stoop) to justify myself.

ABAISSEUR, abèsœr, adj. Anat. depriment : said of certain muscles.

ABAISSEUR, sm. 1. Anat. depressor : depriment muscle ; 2. Med. depressor : an instrument to hold down the tongue.

ABAJOUE, abazhou [à ; bas ; joue], sf. 1. cheek-pouch of certain monkeys and other animals) ; 2. [in the plural) jowls, flabby cheeks ; chaps (of a pig).

ABALIENATION, abalienâ'syôn, [Lat. : abalienatio], sf. Law.-t. cession, alienation (of land, cattle).

ABALOURDIR, abalourdir [balourd], va. to render dull or stupid (by ill-treatment), to stupefy.

ABALOURDISSEMENT,abalourdis'-man-t, sm. stupidness, dulness.

ABANDON, abândôn [Celt. ; O. Fr. : a, without ; bandon, power], sm. 1. abandonment : a) act of abandoning ; b) state of being abandoned ; c) relinquishment of a vessel and cargo to the assurers ; d) renunciation of rights ; 2. desertion : a) act of forsaking ; b) forsaken state ; 3. quitting, leaving ; 4. ease, freedom, unconstraint (in manners, speech, or style) ; 5. unreserve, open-heartedness. Faire — de, to abandon, to surrender, to give up. A l'—, unprotected, neglected, uncared for. Laisser à l'—, to leave to rack and ruin.

ABANDONNATAIRE, abândonatèr', smf. abandonee : person to whom anything is abandoned.

ABANDONNÉ, E, abândoné, pa. p. 1. abandoned, forsaken, deserted ; 2. surrendered, given up ; 3. addicted to vices ; 4. given up, given over (as a patient, by a physician). V. ABANDONNER.

ABANDONNÉ, E, adj. 1. abandoned, profligate, unprincipled, reckless ; 2. forlorn, wretched ; 3. obsolete (as usages, etc.) ; 4. exploded (as errors).

ABANDONNÉ, E, sm. f. 1. (in an ill sense) abandoned man or woman, wretch, reprobate, profligate ; 2. (in a good sense) forlorn creature.

ABANDONNEMENT, abândon'mân-t, sm. 1. abandonment : a) act of abandoning ; b) state of being abandoned ; 2. renunciation, relinquishment (of claims or rights) ; 3. assignment (of property for the benefit of creditors) ; 4. surrender, giving up, resignation (of one's self to the guidance of others) ; 5. forlornness, wretchedness ; 6. profligacy ; 7. Mar. Com. abandonment : surrender of wreck to insurers.

ABANDONNER, abândoné-r, [abandon], va. 1. to abandon : a) to forsake, to leave, to quit, to desert ; b) to relinquish, to surrender, to renounce, to forego. — sa maison, son pays, to abandon, to leave one's house, to quit one's country. — ses enfants, son drapeau, to desert one's children, one's flag. — un projet, un dessein, to abandon, to relinquish a project, a design. — un espoir trompeur, to give up a deceitful hope. Le courage l'abandonna, his courage forsook him, failed him ; he lost courage.

2. to throw down, to throw away. — ses armes, to throw away one's arms.

3. to let go, to let loose, to loose hold of. N'abandonnez pas cette corde, do not let go that cord, do not loose hold of that cord. N'abandonnez pas votre cheval, do not loose the reins, do not give your horse his head.

4. to neglect : to cease to cultivate. N'abandonnez pas votre voix, do not neglect your voice.

5. to give up, to give over (a patient whose recovery is hopeless). Les médecins ont abandonné ce pauvre homme, the doctors have given up this poor man.

6. (with à, to), to give up, to cede. Je vous abandonnerai ma maison, I will give up my house to you, I will let you have my house.

7. (with à, to) to confide, to entrust, to consign. Il a abandonné son fils à la conduite d'un sage gouverneur, he has consigned his son to the care of a judicious tutor.

8. (with à, to) to give up, to leave. — au pillage, to give up to pillage. — aux caprices du hasard, to leave to the caprices of chance.

9. Mar. Com. to abandon : to give up (wreck to the insurer).

ABANDONNER (s'), v. refl. 1. (with à) to entrust, to resign, to commit one's self to ; 2. (à) to give way to, to give loose to one's passions ; 3. (à) to give one's self up to, to indulge in ; 4. (à) to abandon one's self, to be addicted to (evil courses, ; 5. (à) to yield to (counsels) ; 6. to be disheartened, to prove false to one's self ; 7. to neglect one's person ; to be slovenly ; 8. to give free course, free scope (to one's talents) ; 9. to be easy, unconstrained (in speech and demeanour) ; 10. (in speaking of young children) to begin to walk unaided ; 11. Equit. to slacken pace ; 12. Mar. Com. to abandon (wreck to insurers).

ABAQUE, abak', [Lat. : abacus], sm. 1. Arch. abacus ; 2. Math. abacus ; counting-frame, ball-frame.

ABASOURDIR, abazourdir, [sourd, deaf], va. 1. to deafen, to stun (with noise) ; 2. to astound.

ABASOURDISSANT, E, abazourdisân, ânt adj. stunning, deafening.

ABAT, ABAS, aba, [abattre], sm. 1 heavy rain ; 2. avalanche of mud and stones.

ABATAGE, ABATTAGE, abatazh', sm. 1. felling (of timber), cutting, cutting down (of underwood) ; 2. slaughtering, killing (of oxen etc., for food) ; 3. throwing (of horses, etc., for surgical operations) ; 4. Naut. heaving down (for careening) ; 5. Fig. Fam. slashing, cutting up (of a critic).

ABATANT, ABATTANT, abatan-t, sm. 1. sinker : part of a stocking-frame ; 2. flap (of a table or shop-counter) ; 3. shutter.

ABÂTARDI, E, abâtardi, adj. V. ABATARDIR, 1. degenerate, debased, deteriorated ; 2. corrupt.

ABÂTARDIR, abâtardir, [de bâtard], va. 1. to render degenerate, to debase, to deteriorate : said of men, animals and plants ; 2. to corrupt (languages, doctrines).

ABATARDIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to degenerate, to deteriorate ; 2. to become corrupt

ABÂTARDISSEMENT, abâtardis'mân-t, sm. 1. degeneracy, deterioration ; 2. corruption (of languages, doctrines).

ABATÉE, abaté, sf. Naut. falling off. Faire une —, to fall off.

ABAT-FAIM, abafan, sm, [pl. des Abat-faim] large joint, heavy joint (of meat) ; substantial dish.

ABAT-FOIN, abafwân, sm. [pl. des Abat-foin] Agr. opening over a rack or crib through which hay is put down from the loft above.

ABATIS, ABATTIS, abati, sm. 1. cutting down, felling (of timber) ; 2. pulling down (of buildings) ; 3. old building materials ; 4. felled wood ; 5. Sport. killing, slaughter (of game) ; 6. giblets (of geese) ; 7. offal (of oxen, etc., killed for food) ; 8. Mil. abatais : extemporized breastwork of trees ; 9. beaten track, run (used by young wolves). On a fait un grand — de chênes dans cette forêt, a great many oaks have been felled in this forest.

ABAT-JOUR, abazhour, sm. 1. [pl. des Abat-jour] Arch. abat-jour : a window having the wall cut away slanting inside to admit more light ; 2. trunk-light : a window from which the light passes through a kind of tunnel ; 3. sky-light : slanting window in a roof ; 4. lamp-shade ; 5. sun-blind (of wood or linen) ; 6. prison-blind : admitting light, but excluding all view except of the sky.

ABATS, aba, sm. pl. butcher's offals : liver, lights, etc.

ABAT-SONS, abasôn, sm. [pl. des Abat-sons] louver window (of a bell-tower).

ABATTEMENT, abat'mân-t, [abattre], sm. 1. prostration (of bodily strength) ; 2. depression, lowness of spirits, low spirits ; 3. dejection, despondency ; 4. Med. depression of vital powers, collapse, prostration ; Her., abatement.

ABATTEUR, abatœr, sm. feller (of timber). Grand — de besogne, d'ouvrage, a hard-worker, a man who gets through a vast deal of work.

ABATTOIR, abat'war, [abattre], sm. slaughter-house.

ABATTRE, abatr', [irr. v. like battre], va. 1. to pull, take, or throw down. — une maison, un mur, to pull down a house, a wall. — des idoles, des statues, to throw down idols, statues.

2. to fell, to cut, hew, or chop down (with a sharp instrument) ; to knock down (with a blunt one). — des arbres, to fell trees. — un homme, un bœuf, to fell, to knock down a man, an ox.

3. to cut, to cut down : to mow (with a scythe), to reap (with a sickle). — les moissons, to cut down the harvest.

4. to strike down, to lay low (in a fig. sense). Un souffle est capable de nous —, a breath suffices to lay us low.

5. to beat down, to lay, to lodge. Un cruel aquilon abat les tendres moissons, a fierce north-wind beats down the tender crops.

6. to lay. La pluie abat la poussière, the rain lays the dust. Prov. : Petite pluie abat grand vent, a little rain will lay a great dust.

7. to slay, to kill, to destroy (enemies, noxious animals) ; 8. to slaughter, to kill (animals for food) ; 9. to cast, to throw (horses, oxen, etc., for operations or shoeing ; 10. to cut off, to cut away, to pare off ; 11. to shut down (a trap-door) ; 12. to prostrate (physical or moral energy) ; 13. to depress, to deject ; 14. to dishearten, to discourage. Se laisser —, to give way to discouragement, to despondency. Le vrai courage ne se laisse jamais —, true courage never allows itself to be cast down. Fen. Tél. xx. La moindre chose l'abat, the least thing discourages him. Il était tout abattu, he was quite dejected.

15. to overthrow, to subvert ; 16. to bring down, to humble ; 17. Méd. to couch (cataract) ; 18. Her. to abate ; 19. Naut. to heave down (for careening) ; to lower, to haul down (a yard, etc.).

ABATTRE, vn. Naut. to fall off. Faire —, to let swing.

ABATTRE (s'), v. refl. 1. to fall, to fall down ; 2. (with sur) to fall upon, to come down upon ; to burst on or over (as a storm) ; 3. (with sur) to alight on, to settle on (as birds) ; 4. to stoop, to make a stoop ; 5. (with sur) to pounce on ; 6. to fall (as the wind) ; 7. to abate (as a fever) ; 8. to give way to despondency ; to become low-spirited, dejected, discouraged ; 9. (in a reciprocal sense) to destroy each other.

ABATTU, E, abat'u, adj. V. ABATTRE. 1. depressed, prostrated ; 2. cast-down, dejected, down-hearted ; 3. overcome, overthrown. Courir bride abattue, to ride full speed.

ABATTURE, abatûr', sf. 1. beating down (of walnuts, acorns) ; 2. Sport. (in the pl.) foils : traces left by a stag.

ABAT-VENT, abavân, sm. [pl. des Abat-vent] 1. louver window (of a bell-tower or drying-room) ; louver board ; 2. Gard. screen : mat to protect plants.

ABAT-VOIX, abavwâ, sm. [pl. des Abat-voix] sounding-board (of a pulpit).

ABBATIAL, E, abasial, al', adj. [pl. m. Abbatiaux, abasiô], abbatial.

ABBAYE, abéi, [Lat. : abbatia], sf. abbey : monastery for monks or nuns. Prov. : pour un moine l'abbaye ne chôme pas, the abbey does not fail for want of one monk.

ABBÉ, abé, [Lat. : abbas, father], sm. 1. abbot : the superior of an abbey ; 2. abbé : a title given to catholic ecclesiastics in general.

ABBESSE, abès, sf. abbess : superior of a nunnery.

ABC, abécé, sm. 1. ABC : alphabet ; 2. ABC-book, primer, spelling-book, horn-book ; 3, ABC : rudiments of any art or science. [Written also ABCD].

ABCÉDER, absédé-er, vn. Med. to turn to (to become) an abscess.

ABCÈS, absè-z ; the final consonant is not heard before the following vowel in conversation, but in reading it often is, [Lat. : abcessus], sm. Med. abscess, apostheme.

ABCISSE, absis', V. ABSCISSE.

ABDÈRE, abdèr', npr. Abdera : a city of ancient Thrace now called ASPEROZA.

ABDIAS, abdias, npr. Obadiah : a Jewish prophet.

ABDICATION, abdikâsyôn, sf. 1. abdication : said chiefly of sovereigns ; 2. renunciation (of rights) ; 3. disowning, disinheriting (of a son). Faire —, to abdicate.

ABDIQUER, abdiké-r, [Lat. : ab, from ; dicāre, — atum, to proclaim), va. 1. to abdicate (sovereignty) ; 2. to resign (power or office) ; 3. to renounce (rights or possessions) ; 4. to disinherit, to disown (a son) ; 5. (in a neutral sense) to abdicate.

ABDIQUER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be abdicated ; 2. to neglect, to be unmindful of one's rights or duties.

ABDOMEN, abdomèn, [Lat.], sm. abdomen : a) the lower venter or belly ; b) the hindermost section of the body of insects.

ABDOMINAL, E, abdominal, al', adj. abdominal. Muscles abdominaux, abdominal muscles. Parois abdominales, abdominal parietes (or walls).

ABDOMINAUX, abdominô, sm. pl. Zool. abdominals : said of certain fishes and insects.

ABDUCTEUR, abductœr, adj. Anat. abducent.

ABDUCTEUR, sm. Anat. abductor.

ABDUCTION, abduksyôn, [Lat. : abductio ; abducĕre, to draw from), sf. Anat. and Log. abduction.

ABEAUSIR, abôsir, vn, S'ABEAU-sir, [beau], v. refl. Naut. to clear up, to become fair.

ABÉCEDAIRE, abésédèr', adj. 1. alphabetical ; 2. abecedarian : said of series of hymns, etc., each beginning with a successive letter of the alphabet ; 3. at the ABC. Un enfant —, a child learning his ABC.

ABÉCÉDAIRE, sm. ABC-book, primer, first reading-book, spelling-book.

ABECQUER, ABÉQUER, abéké-r, [bec], va. to feed (young birds that are unable to pick up ; sometimes said humorously in speaking of children).

ABÉE, abé, sf. 1. penstock (of a mill) ; 2. waste-gate (for superfluous water).

ABEILLE, abèy', [Lat. : apicula ; apis], sf. 1. bee ; 2. Apis, the Bee : a southern constellation, — domestique, — de ruche, honey-bee, hive-bee. — mâle, drone. — femelle ou reine, female or queen-bee. — neutre, working-bee, worker. Essaim d'abeilles, swarm of bees. La reine des abeilles, the queen-bee.

ABEL, abèl, pnm. Abel : second son of Adam.

ABÉLARD, abélar, pnm. Abelard.

ABELMOSCH, abèlmosk, sm. abel-moschus, Indian musk-seed.

ABERRATION, abèrâsyôn, [Lat. : aberratio], sf. aberration : a) deviation from the right line or course ; b) error, wandering, vagary. — de la lumière, des étoiles, aberration of light, of the stars. — des fluides. Med. aberration of fluids : passage of fluids out of their natural course. — des sens, du jugement, aberration of the senses, of the judgment. Aberrations morales, moral aberrations.

ABÊTIR, abêtir, [bête], va. to render dull or stupid, to stupefy, to embrute.

ABÊTIR, vn. s'ABÊTIR, v. refl. to get stupid, to grow more and more stupid.

ABÊTISSANT, E, abêtisân-t, ânt', adj. stupefying, embruting.

AB HOC ET AB HAC, abokétabak, [Lat.], adv. phr. of this, that, and the other ; confusedly, randomly, at random.

ABHORRANT, aborân-t, ABHORREUR, aborrœr, sm. abhorrer : a partisan of the court under Charles II. of England.

ABHORRER, aboré-r, [Lat. : ab, from ; horrēre], va. 1. ro abhor, to regard with horror ; 2. to loathe, to detest. Se faire — de ses voisins, to incur the abhorrence of one's neighbours.

ABIGAÏL, abigaïl, pnf. 1. Abigail : wife of Naboth ; 2. abigail : waiting-maid, lady's maid.

† ABIGÉAT, abizhéa, [Lat. : abigĕre]. sm. (old law) cattle-stealing.

† ABIGOTI, E, abigoti, [bigot], adj. become bigoted ; bigoted.

ABÎME, abîm', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; βυσσός, fond ; O. Fr. : abisme], sm. 1. abyss ; 2. the deep, the great deep ; 3. gulf ; 4. bottomless pit ; 5. unfathomable depth ; 6. mine, treasury (of wisdom, of science) ; 7. sea (of pleasures) ; 8. inscrutable mystery ; 9. Geol. abyss : deep natural cavity ; 10. Tal.-chand. tallow-vat. Etre sur le bord de l'—, to be on the point of ruin.

ABÎMER, abimé-r, va. 1. to cast, to plunge into an abyss ; 2. to overwhelm ; 3. to engulf, to swallow up ; 4. to ruin ; 5. to destroy, 6. to spoil, to injure ; 7. to silence, to vanquish, to crush (in discussion). La pluie a abîmé mon chapeau, the rain has spoiled my hat.

ABÎMER (s'), v refl. 1. to fall into an abyss ; 2. to be overwhelmed ; 3. to sink, to be swallowed up, to be engulfed ; 4. (with dans) to be absorbed in, to be plunged into, to be lost in ; 5. to spoil, to get spoiled.

AB INTESTAT, abantèsta, [Lat.], adv. phr. Juris. ab intestate. 1. Héritier —, heir-at-law ; 2. next of kin. Succession —, intestate's estate.

AB IRATO, abiratô, [Lat.), adv. phr. under the influence of anger, in anger.

ABJECT, E, abzhèkt or abzhè, abzhèkt', [Lat. : abjectus], adj. abject : mean, low, beggarly, base, vile, despicable.

ABJECTEMENT, abzhèkt'mân, adv. abjectly, meanly, basely, vilely.

ABJECTION, abzhèksyôn, sf. 1. abjection ; 2. abjectness, vileness, baseness, meanness ; 3. self-humiliation ; 4. rejected, out-cast.

ABJURATION, abzurhâsyôn, sf. abjuration : act of abjuring (religion, principles, friends). Faire —, to make abjuration, to abjure.

ABJURATOIRE, abzhuratwar, adj. abjuratory.

ABJURER, abzhuré-r, [Lat. : abjurāre], va. and n. to abjure, to renounce.

ABJURER (s'), v. refl. to be abjured, to be renounced. Des erreurs peuvent s'—, errors may be abjured.

ABLACTATION, ablaktâsyôn, [Lat. : ab, from ; lac, lactis, milk], sf. ablactation : ceasing to suckle.

ABLAIS, ablè, [Low Lat. : abladium], sm. pl. 1. emblements : growing crops ; 2. crops cut down but not housed.

† ABLAQUÉATION, ablakwéâsyôn, [Lat. : ab, from ; laqueāre], sf, ablaqueation : laying bare the roots of trees.

ABLATIF, ablatif, [Lat. : ab, out of ; latus, de ferre, to take], sm. Gram. ablative case, ablative.

ABLATION, ablâsyôn, sf. 1. Surg. ablation ; 2. Gram. aphaeresis.

ABLATIVO, ablativô, adv. promiscuously, higgledy-piggledy.

ABLE, abl', sm., ABLETTE, ablèt', [Lat. : albus, white], sf. Ichth. bleak : ablen, ablet, blay.

ABLÉGAT, abléga, [Lat. : ablegatus], sm. vice-legate, apostolic messenger.

ABLERET, ablœrè, sm. bleak-net.

ABLUANT, E, abluân-, ânt', adj. Surg. abluent, detergent.

ABLUER, ablué-r, [Lat. : abluĕre], va. to wash (old manuscripts) with an infusion of gall-nuts.

ABLUTION, ablusyôn, sf. ablution, washing.

ABNÉGATION, abnégâsyôn, [Lat. : abnegatio], sf. abnegation, self-abnegation, self-denial.

ABOI, abwa, [imit. ; Rom. : abay. V. aboyer], sm. 1. bark, barking, baying (of dogs) ; 2. (in the plur.) bay, last extremity, last gasp. Aux abois, 1. at bay ; 2. at the last extremity. Jusqu'aux derniers abois, to the last gasp, till death. Être aux abois, to be at bay, at extremity. Mettre, réduire aux abois, to bring to bay. Tenir aux abois, to hold at bay. Tenir en —, to delude with vain hopes. Le cerf est aux abois, the stag is at bay.

ABOIEMENT, ABOIMENT, abwamân-t, sm. 1. bark, barking, baying (of dogs) ; 2. Fig. barking (of envy).

ABOLIR, abolir, [Lat. : abolēre], va. 1. to abolish : to do away with ; 2. to repeal (laws) ; 3. to annul, to cancel (a debt, an obligation) ; 4. to wipe away, to efface (a crime).

ABOLIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to be abolished ; 2. to fall into desuetude.

ABOLISSABLE, abolisabl', adj. 1. abolishable ; 2. repealable.

ABOLISSEMENT, abolis-mân't, sm. 1. abolishment, abolition ; 2. Med. loss (of faculties).

ABOLITION, abolisyôn, sf. 1. abolition ; 2. repeal, repealing (of laws) ; 3. annulling, cancelling (of debts, etc.). Lettres d'—, letters of indemnity (barring all legal proceedings against a criminal).

ABOLITIONNISTE, abolisyonist', smf. abolitionist : partisan of the abolition of slavery.

ABOMINABLE, abominabl', [Lat. : ab, out of ; omen, presage ; abominări, to turn from as of a bad omen). adj. abominable. Une odeur —, an abominable, an intolerable stench. Il fait un temps —, the weather is wretched.

ABOMINABLEMENT, abominablœ-mân-t adv. abominably.

ABOMINATION, abominasyôn, sf. abomination. Avoir en —, to hold in abomination, to abominate.

ABOMINER, abominé-r, va. to abominate.

À-BON-COMPTE, a-bônkônt', sm. [pl. des A-bon-compte] advance-money : money advanced on account to meet current expenditure.

ABONDAMMENT, abôndamân-t, adv. 1. abundantly, in abundance ; 2. plentifully, plenteously ; 3. fully, amply ; 4. copiously, unsparingly.

ABONDANCE, abôndâns', [Lat. : ab, from ; unda, wave], sf. 1. abundance ; 2. plenty, ampleness, plentifulness, plenteousness ; 3. (of language) copiousness, 4. (in an ill sense) diffuseness ; 5. fulness (of the heart) ; 6. excessive growth (of weeds) ; 7. very weak wine and water (given to boys at boarding-schools). Parler, écrire d'—, to extemporize, to write, to speak off-hand. Parler d'— de cœur, de l'— du cœur, to speak from the fulness of the heart, from fulness of heart. Corne d'—, horn of plenty, cornucopia. Prov. : Abondance de biens ne nuit pas, store is no sore. De l'abondance du cœur la bouche parle, what the heart thinketh the mouth speaketh ; of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. Bib. Luke, VI, 45.

ABONDANT, E, abôndân, ânt', adj. 1. (with en) abounding in (or with), rich in ; 2. abundant : plentiful, plenteous ; ample, copious ; 3. prolific, teeming ; 4. fluent, voluble (in speech) ; 5. diffuse, prolix (in speaking or writing) ; 6. luxuriant. Pays — en blé, en mines, a country abounding with corn, rich in mines. Le minerai de fer est —, iron ore est abundant, plentiful. Sol —, teeming soil. Auteur —, a prolific author. Orateur —, 1. a fluent speaker ; 2. (in an ill sense) a verbose, wordy or prolix speaker. Faire un repas —, to make an abundant, a hearty meal. † D'abondant, further, besides. J'ajouterai d'—, I will further add.

ABONDER, abôndé-r, [Lat. : abundāre], vn. to bound : to be abundant, to have abundance. — en richesses, to abound in riches. Cet étang abonde en poissons, this pond abounds in (or with) fish. — dans son sens, to have plenty to say in defence of one's own opinions. — dans le sens de quelqu'un, to chime in with any one's opinions, to defend any one through thick and thin. Prov. : Ce qui abonde ne vicie pas, excess of right is no wrong.

ABONNÉ, E, aboné, smf. 1. subscriber (to a journal, a theatre, etc.) ; 2. person who engages to pay a fixed sum per week, month, etc., for goods supplied or work done ; 3. holder of a season-ticket (for a railway, concert, etc.).

ABONNEMENT, abon'mân-t, sm. 1. subscription (to a journal, a theatre, etc.) ; 2. contract (for goods or work for a term at a fixed rate) ; 3. composition for taxes or dues.

ABONNER, aboné-r, (from à, and bonne, old form of borne, limit), va. 1. to subscribe (to a journal) for (a person) to enter (any one) as subscriber ; 2. to contract for ; 3. to compound with. Je vous ai abonné au Moniteur, I have taken a subscription to the Moniteur for you.

ABONNER (s'), v. refl. 1. to subscribe (to a journal, etc.), to become a subscriber (to) ; 2. to make a contract or composition with. Je me suis abonné au Temps, I have become a subscriber to the Temps.

ABONNIR, abonir, [bon], va. to ameliorate, to improve (a person or thing). Une bonne cave abonnit le vin, a good cellar improves wine.

ABONNIR (s'), v. refl. to improve, to become or grow better. Le vin s'abonnit en bouteille, wine improves in bottles.

ABONNIR, vn. to improve, to get better (as wine by keeping).

ABORD, abor ; the d is never pronounced before a vowel ; in the plural abords, the s is heard as z before a vowel, but the d is mute (bord), sm. 1. approach, access (of a port, etc.) ; 2. access (of persons) ; 3. arrival : 4. (in the pl.) approaches ; 5. concourse, influx, attendance (of persons). A l'—, au premier —, at first meeting, at first view, at first blush. D'—, at first. Dans l'—, at first beginning, in the first place. Tout d'—, de prime —, at once, immediately. D'— que, as soon as.

ABORDABLE, abordabl', adj. 1. approachable, accessible ; 2. accostable. Homme très —, a man of very easy access.

ABORDAGE, abordazh', sm. Naut. 1. boarding (of an enemy's ship) ; 2. fouling, running foul, collision : coming into violent contact, through accident or negligence. Prendre à l'—, to take by boarding.

ABORDER, abordé-r, vn. 1. to arrive ; 2. to land (at or on) ; 3. to reach ; 4. (with de) to approach.

ABORDER, va. 1. to approach ; 2. to accost (a person) ; 3. to come to, to enter on, to broach a subject of discussion ; 4. to march on, to advance against, to fall on ; 5. Naut. to run foul of, to come into collision with ; 6. Naut. to board, to close with (an enemy's vessel). Vous, que je n'ai jamais abordé sans effroi, you, whom I never approached without fear. Volt. L'extrême hardiesse dont ils abordaient les malades, the extreme boldness with which they approached the sick. Fonten. Il m'a abordé dans la rue, he accosted me in the street.

ABORDER (s'), v. refl. 1. to accost each other ; 2. to run against each other ; 3. Naut. to run foul of, to come into collision.

ABORIGÈNE, aborizhèn', [Lat. : ab, from ; origo, origin], adj. aboriginal, indigenous.

ABORIGÈNES, aborizhèn-z, smpl. aborigines, aboriginals : primitive inhabitants.

ABORNEMENT, abôrn'mân-t, sm. marking of boundaries.

ABORNER, aborné'r, [borne], va. to place landmarks, to mark the boundaries (of fields).

ABORTIF, VE, abôrtif, tiv', [Lat. : abortivus], abj. abortive. Fœtus abortif, an abortive fœtus. Fleur abortive, an abortive flower.

ABORTIF, sm. abortive : drug producing abortion.

ABOT, abô, [Celt. : bot, foot], sm. hobble : a fetter to prevent horses from straying.

ABOUCHEMENT, aboûsh'mân-t, sm. 1. bringing face to face; 2. interview; 3. insertion (of one tube in the end of another) 4. Anat. anastomosis, inosculation (of veins, etc.).

ABOUCHER, aboushé-r [bouche, mouth], va. 1. to bring together, to arrange an interview between; 2. to joint, to join by insertion (as tubes, gas-pipes, etc.). Il faut les — ensemble, we must bring about an interview between them.

ABOUCHER (s'), v. refl. 1. to come together, to have an interview, to confer together; 2. Anat. to inosculate, to anastomose.

† ABOUGRISSEMENT, abougris'mân-t, sm. 1. stunting; 2. stuntedness. V. RABOUGRISSEMENT.

ABOUT, abou-t, [a; bout], sm. 1. Carp. but-end (of a plank); 2. eking-piece.

ABOUT (Edmond), novelist (1828-1885).

ABOUTAGE, aboutazh', sm. Naut. splicing (of ropes).

ABOUTEMENT, about'mân-t, sm. Carp. scarfing: joining end to end.

ABOUTER, abouté-r, va. to scarf: to join end to end.

ABOUTIR, aboutir, [bout, end], vn. 1. (with à) to abut on: to end at, to border on; 2. to end, to terminate in or at, to meet in or at; 3. to tend, to converge to; 4. to result in, to end in, to issue in; 5. Med. to come to a head; to break, to suppurate (as a tumour or boil). Faire —, 1. to make (anything) tend to; 2. Med. to bring to a head (a boil or abscess). N'— à rien, to lead to nothing, to come to nothing, to fail. Voilà à quoi aboutit la folle vanité des hommes, that is what the foolish vanity of men comes to. Fén. Ses négociations ont abouti, his negotiations have succeeded.

ABOUTISSANT, E, aboutisân-t, ânt, adj. 1. (with à) abutting on: bordering on, ending at or in; 2. (with à) leading into.

ABOUTISSANT, sm. 1. abuttal: adjoining land; 2. (in the plur.) details, particulars (of things); connexions, acquaintance (of persons). Savoir tous les tenants et aboutissants d'une affaire, to know the long and short, all the ins and outs, of an affair.

ABOUTISSEMENT, aboutis'mân-t, sm. 1. result, end, outcome; 2. eking-piece; 3. breaking, suppuration (of a tumour or boil).

AB OVO, abôvô, [Lat.], adv. phr. from the beginning, from the very first.

ABOYANT, E, abwayân-t, ânt', adj. barking, baying. Gouffre —, roaring gulf.

ABOYER, abwayé-r, [O. Fr.: abai, aboi; abayer, to gape], [the y is changed into i before a mute e: j'aboie, j'aboierai; the y remains and is followed by i as follows: nous aboyions, vous aboyiez; que nous aboyions, que vous aboyiez], vn. 1. to bark, to bay; 2. Sport. to give tongue; 3. (with à, après, contre) to bark at or after; 4. (with après or contre) to raise an outcry after or against; 5. (with après, to hunt after, to solicit (place or pension); to dun (a debtor). — à la lune, to bay the moon, to make a useless outcry, Prov.: Tout chien qui aboie ne mord pas, barking dogs seldom bite. Jamais bon chien n'aboie à faux, a good dog never barks at fault.

ABOYER, va. 1. to bark at, to bay; 2. to decry; 3. to dun.

ABOYEUR, abwayœr, sm. 1. barker; 2. Hunt. babbler: a dog apt to give tongue; 3. snarler, grumbler; 4. dun: importunate creditor; 5. hawker (of ballads, etc.); 6. Ornith. bar-tailed godwit.

ABRACADABRA, abrakad'abrâ, [magic word formed by Serenus, a doctor in the 2nd century], sm. abracadabra.

ABRACADABRANT, abrakad'abrânt, adj. Colloq. astounding, wonderful; incomprehensible.

ABRANCHES, abrânsh', [Gr.: ἀ, priv.; βράγχια, gills], sfpl. Zool. abranchia: an order of annelidæ having no gills or branchiæ.

ABRAQUER, abrak'ē-r, [Provenç. abracar], vn. Naut. to haul taut.

ABRASION, abrâzyô*n*, [Lat.: ab, off; radĕre, rasum, to scrape], sf. 1. Med. abrasion (of the skin); 2. scraping (of a decayed bone); 3. scaling (of teeth, to remove tartar).

ABRÉGÉ, E, abrézhé, pa. p. and adj. abridged, short.

ABRÉGÉ, sm. 1. abridgment (of a book); 2. compendium, epitome (of an art or science); 3. abstract, short account. En —, par —, briefly, concisely, in few words. Écrire un mot en —, to abbreviate a word in writing.

ABRÈGEMENT, abrèzh'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. abridging; 2. abridgment.

ABRÉGER, abrézhé-r, [O. Fr.: abregier; Lat.: abbreviāre], va. 1. to abridge (a book); 2. to abbreviate (a word); 3. to cut short, to curtail (a narrative); 4. to shorten (time or distance). — un ouvrage, to abridge a work. Les excès abrègent la vie, excesses shorten life.

ABRÉGER, vn. 1. to be shorter; 2. to be brief. Prenez ce chemin, il abrège, take this road, it is shorter. Pour —, to be brief; in short, in a word.

ABRÉGER (s'), v. refl. to be abridged, to be shortened, to be made shorter.

ABREUVAGE, abrœvazh, sm. 1. watering (of horses); 2. irrigating (of land); 3. bingeing (of casks), ABREUVÉ, E, abrœvé, adj. V. ABREUVER. — de chagrins, overfraught with grief. — d'amertume, full of bitterness. — de larmes, in a flood of tears, drowned (or bathed) in tears.

ABREUVEMENT, abrœv'mâ*n*, sm. watering (of animals).

ABREUVER, abrœvé-r, [Low Lat.: abeverāre; Lat.: ab; bibĕre, to drink], va. 1. to water (horses, etc.); 2. to give drink to, to treat, to regale (persons) with drink; 3. to water (plants); 4. to irrigate (meadows); 5. to saturate, to soak, to drench (with water); 6. to load, to overwhelm (with grief, affronts, etc.); 7. Technol. to binge (casks: to fill them with water so as to swell the wood and prevent leakage); 8. to prime, to size (preparatory to painting, on a porous material). — les terres, to drench the land. Qu'un sang impur abreuve nos sillons, let impure blood soak our furrows. R. de Lisle. Marseillaise.

ABREUVER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be watered, to go to water (as horses); 2. to be soaked or saturated; 3. to slake one's thirst, to drink one's fill. S'— de larmes, to be bathed (or drowned) in tears. C'est dans cette mare que les bestiaux s'abreuvent, it is at this pond the cattle drink. Il s'est abreuvé de gloire, he covered himself with glory. Je ne me suis pas encore abreuvé de sa vue, I have not yet glutted my eyes with the sight of him. A. Karr.

ABREUVOIR, abrœvwar, sm. 1. watering-place for cattle: horse-pond, horse-trough; 2. drinking-place (frequented by wild animals); 3. drinking-pot (in a bird-cage); 4. Arboricult. running sore (at the foot of a tree); 5. Mason. abreuvoir: interval between stones to be filled with grout (liquid mortar). — à mouches, a deep gash in the face.

ABRÉVIATEUR, abréviatœr, sm. abbreviator, abridger.

ABRÉVIATIF, VE, abréviatif, tiv', adj. abbreviatory, indicating abbreviation.

ABRÉVIATION, abréviasyô*n*, (Lat.: ab, from; breviatio], sf. abbreviation.

ABRÉVIATIVEMENT, abréviativ'mâ*n*-t, adv. by abbreviation.

ABRÉYER, abréyé-r, va. V. ABRIER.

ABRI, abri, [Ety. obscure; seems to come from abre, an old form for arbre, tree], sm. 1. shelter, cover; 2. refuge; 3. retreat; 4. Milit. dug-out. — contre la pluie, shelter from rain. Trouver un —, to find shelter, to get under cover. Cette rade est un — sûr, this roadstead is a safe refuge. Trouver un — dans sa dignité, to take refuge in one's dignity. Un — contre le malheur, a refuge from misfortune. Sous l'— d'un bois, under shelter, under cover of a wood. A l'—, under shelter, under cover. Se tenir à l'—, to keep under shelter. Mettons-nous à l'— ici, let us take shelter here. Se mettre à l'—, to get under shelter. A l'— de, 1. under shelter, cover of; 2. sheltered from, protected from, safe from. A l'— du danger. sheltered from danger. A l'— d'une erreur si dégradante, safe from so degrading an error. Il est à l'— de la misère, he is assured against poverty. Sans —, shelterless, homeless, houseless. Prov.: Un homme sans abri est un oiseau sans nid, a homeless man is a bird without a nest.

ABRICOT, abrikô, [Ar.: al-birquoq], sm. apricot. Confiture d'abricots, apricot jam. —-pêche, peach-apricot; a large species resembling a peach.

ABRICOTÉ, abrikoté, sm. candied apricots.

ABRICOTIER, abrikotyé, sm. apricot-tree.

ABRIER, abrié-r, [abri], va. Naut. to becalm, to take the wind out of (a ship's sails).

ABRITÉ, E, abrité, pa. p. sheltered, screened, harboured, protected. — du vent, sheltered from the wind. — par des retranchements, protected by entrenchments. Non —, unsheltered, etc.

ABRITER, abrité-r, av. 1. to shelter; 2. to screen; 3. to protect.

ABRITER (s'). v. refl. 1. to shelter one's self; 2. to take shelter; 3. to seek, to find protection. Il s'abritait sous le nom d'un grand homme, he sought protection under the name of a great man.

ABRIVENT, abrivân-t, [abri; vent], sm. 1. shelter (from wind); 2. 2. Milit. hut (for bivouacking); 3. screen, garden-mat (to protect plants, etc. from frost).

ABROGATION, abrogâsyô*n*, [abroger], sf. 1. abrogation (of laws, edicts or usages); 2. repeal (of acts of parliament).

ABROGEABLE, abrozhabl', adj. 1. that may be abrogated; 2. repealable.

ABROGER, abrozhé-r, [Lat.: ab, against; rogāre, — atum, to ask], va. 1. to abrogate (laws, edicts); 2. to repeal (statutes).

ABROGER (s'), v. refl. to be abrogated.

ABROUTI, E, abrouti, [a; brout], adj. browsed, cropped off (by cattle, said of young wood).

ABROUTISSEMENT, abroutis'mâ*n*-t, sm. browsing, cropping off.

ABRUPT, E, abrupt, upt', [Lat.: abruptus], adj. abrupt: rugged, steep, craggy, precipitous. Figures abruptes, abrupt (startling) figures. Style —, abrupt style. Sur les flancs abrupts d'une montagne, on a craggy mountains' side.

ABRUPTEMENT, abruptœmân-t, adv. abruptly.

ABRUTIR, abrutir, [brute], va. 1. to brutalize, to embrute, to brutify; 2. to stupefy; 3. to besot (with drink).

ABRUTIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to become brutalized, stupefied (by ill treatment); 2. besotted (by excessive drinking).

ABRUTISSANT, E, abrutisân-t, ânt', adj. 1. brutalizing, brutifying; 2. stupefying; 3. besotting.

ABRUTISSEMENT, abrutis'mân-t, sm. 1. brutishness, brutalization; 2. besottedness.

ABRUTISSEUR, abrutisœr, adj. m. 1. brutalizing; 2. (used also substantively) brutalizer.

ABRUZZE, abruz', pnf. Geog. Abruzzo: the name of three Neapolitan provinces. Les Abruzzes, the Abruzze.

ABSCISSE, absis' or apsis'; in most of the words beginning with abs, the b is pronounced p in rapid speaking, [Lat. : ab, from; scissio, cutting], sf. Geom. absciss (pl. ABSCISSES), abscissa (pl. ABSCISSÆ, or ABSCISSAS).

ABSENCE, absâns', [Lat. : ab, from, esse, to be], sf. absence : a) non-presence of persons or things; b) inattention (of mind); c) loss of consciousness; d) non-existence; e) non-appearance. — d'esprit, absence of mind. S'apercevoir de l'— de, to miss, to feel the want of. Il a souvent des absences, he is subject to fits of absence. Une—totale de goût, a complete want of taste.

ABSENT, E, absân-t, ânt', adj. absent: a) not present; b) missing; c) wanting; d) inattentive. — par congé, absent on leave. — de Paris, absent from Paris. Être — de chez soi, to be absent (or away) from home, to be out.

ABSENT, E, smf. person absent or missing. Prov. : Les absents ont toujours tort, the absent are always in the wrong.

ABSENTÉISME, absântéism', sm. absenteeism : non-residence of landowners.

ABSENTER (S'), absânté-r, v. refl. 1. to absent one's self; 2. to be absent; 3. to be away from home.

ABSIDE, absid', [Gr. : ἀψίς, voûte], sf. 1. Arch. apsis (of a church); 2. shrine (for relics).

ABSINTHE, absânt', [Gr. : ἀψίνθιον], sf. absinthe, bitters; wormwood; bitterness. Leur style est mêlé de fiel et d'absinthe, their style is a mixture of gall and wormwood. Grande —, — officinale, wormwood, artemisia absinthium. — marine, sea wormwood.

ABSINTHÉ, E, absanté, adj. Pharm. absinthiated.

ABSALON, absalôn, pnm. Absalon.

ABSOLU, E, absolu, [Lat. : absolutus], adj. absolute : a) unlimited, unrestricted; b) complete; c) not relative; d) positive; e) peremptory; Chem. pure. Pouvoir —, absolute (arbitrary) power. D'un ton —, in a peremptory tone. Promesse absolue, a positive (unconditional) promise. L'ablatif —, Gramm. the ablative absolute. Alcool —, absolute (pure, anhidrous) alcohol.

ABSOLU, sm. Metaph. the absolute.

ABSOLUMENT, absolumân-t, adv. absolutely : a) unrestrictedly; b) positively; c) peremptorily; d) utterly; e) without appeal.

ABSOLUTION, absolusyôn, sf. 1. absolution, pardon, forgiveness; 2. discharge (of a prisoner), acquittal.

ABSOLUTISME, absolutism', sm. absolutism; despotic government.

ABSOLUTISTE, absolutist', adj. and s. absolutist.

ABSOLUTOIRE, absolutwar, adj. absolutory, absolvatory. Jugement —, absolutory judgment.

ABSORBABLE, absôrbabl', adj. absorbable.

ABSORBANT, E, absôrbân, ânt, adj. 1. absorptive, absorbent; 2. Fig. absorbing, engrossing. Système —, vaisseaux absorbants. Anat. absorbent system, absorbent vessels. La magnésie est une terre absorbante, magnesia is an absorbent earth. Pensées absorbantes, absorbing, all-engrossing thoughts.

ABSORBANT, sm. Med. absorbent.

ABSORBEMENT, absôrbœmân-t, sm. absorption.

ABSORBER, absôrbé-r, [Lat. : ab, from; sorbēre, — sorptum, to suck in], va. to absorb : a) to imbibe; b) to suck in or up; c) to soak up, to swallow up, to ingulf; d) Fig. to engross (attention).

ABSORBER (s'), v. refl. to be absorbed, swallowed up.

ABSORPTION, absôrpsyôn, sf. absorption. — externe, absorption of composition. — interne, internal, intestinal absorption.

ABSORPTIVITÉ, absôrptivité, sf. absorptive power or faculty.

ABSOUDRE, absoûdre, [Lat. : absolvĕre], va. 1. to absolve; 2. to excuse; 3. to exonerate; 4. to pardon; 5. Colloq. to acquit (an accused person); 6. (in a strictly legal sense) to discharge (prisoners); 7. Theol. to absolve, to give absolution for, — de, to absolve of or from; to acquit of.

ABSOUDRE, vn. 1. to absolve; 2. to acquit; 3. to give absolution.

ABSOUS, OUTE, absou, soût', pa. p. of ABSOUDRE.

ABSOUTE absoût', sf. Cath. lit. 1. general absolution (given on Maunday-Thursday); 2. absolution (given at a funeral).

ABSTÈME, abstêm', [Lat. : abstemius], adj. and s. 1. abstemious; 2. an abstemious person; an abstainer (from all intoxicating liquors.)

ABSTENANT, E, abstœnân-t, ânt', s. abstainer.

ABSTENIR (S'), abstœnir, [Lat. : abs, from; tenēre, to hold], v. refl. 1. to abstain (from eating, drinking, etc.); 2. to refrain; 3. to forbear; 4. to decline, to refuse (to take possession of an inheritance). — de vin, to abstain from wine. Elle s'est abstenue d'écrire, she refrained from writing. Dans le doute, abstiens-toi, when in doubt, abstain. Cet héritier s'est abstenu de la succession, the heir refused to accept the inheritance. Deux des juges se sont abstenus, two of the judges withdrew (from the bench).

ABSTENTION, abstânsyôn, sf. 1. abstention (from exercising a right, as of voting at elections); 2. withdrawal (of a judge from the bench); 3. refusal (of an heir to administer to an estate).

ABSTERGENT, E, abstèrzhân-t, ânt', adj. Med. abstergent, cleansing.

ABSTERGENT, sm. Med. abstergent.

ABSTERGER, abstèrzhé-r, [Lat. : abstergere, — tersum], va. Med. to absterge, to cleanse.

ABSTERSIF, IVE, abstèrsif, siv', adj. abstergent, abstersive.

ABSTERSION, abstèrsyôn, sf. abstersion, cleansing.

ABSTINENCE, abstinâns, sf. 1. abstinence : a) the act of abstaining; b) low diet; 2. fasting. Jours d'—, fast days.

ABSTINENT, E, abstinân-t, ânt', adj. abstemious, sober.

ABSTRACTEUR, abstraktœr, sm. person fond of abstractions.

ABSTRACTIF, IVE, abstraktif, tiv', adj. abstractive.

ABSTRACTION, abstraksyôn, [Lat. : abstractio], sf. 1. abstraction; 2. abstract idea. Faire — de, to abstract, to exclude, to set aside. — faite des inconvénients, to say nothing of the inconveniences.

ABSTRACTIVEMENT, abstraktiv'-mân-t, adv. 1. abstractively; 2. abstractly, in the abstract.

ABSTRAIRE, abstrêr', [Lat. : abs, away from; trahĕre; tractum, to draw], va. to abstract : to separate, to detach.

ABSTRAIT, E, abstrê-t, êt, pa. p. V. ABSTRAIRE.

ABSTRAIT, E, adj. 1. abstract : opposed to concrete; 2. abstruse, recondite, transcendental (as an argument, a question, a subject); 3. abstracted, absent (in mind), rapt, engrossed (in thought).

ABSTRAITEMENT, abstrêt'-mân-t, adv. abstractly, abstractedly, in the abstract.

ABSTRUS, E, abstru-z, ûz', [Lat. : abstrusus] adj. abstruse : a) recondite, transcendental (as a science, an argument, a question); (in an ill sense) obscure. [Follows the noun]. Raisonnement —, abstruse reasoning.

ABSURDE, absûrd', [Lat. : absurdus; abs, from; surdus deaf], adj. absurd : a) opposed to reason; b) contrary to (or destitute of) common sense; c) preposterous. Raisonneur —, an absurd reasoner. Il est — de croire que..., it is absurd to believe that...

ABSURBE, sm. 1. the absurd; 2. absurdity, absurdities. Tomber dans l'—, to fall into the absurd, into absurdity. Démonstration par l'—, Geom. reductio ad absurdum. Réduire à l'—, 1. to drive (an antagonist) into absurdities; 2. to demonstrate the absurdities of (an argument, etc.).

ABSURDEMENT, absurdœmân-t, adv. absurdly : a) preposterously; b) nonsensically.

ABSURDITÉ, absurdité, sf. 1. absurdity : a) quality of being absurd; b) anything absurd; 2. absurdness; a) quality of being absurd; b) preposterousness; c) nonsensicalness. L'— d'un ouvrage, the absurdity or absurdness of a work. Mille absurdités, a thousand absurdities. Dire des absurdités, to utter absurdities, to talk nonsense. Cet homme est d'une — sans égale, that man has no equal for absurdity.

ABUS, abu-z [Lat. : ab, away; usus, use], sm. 1. abuse : a) misuse; b) abusive use, wrongful use c) perversion. On a retranché ces abus, those abuses have been suppressed. C'est un — du texte, it is a perversion of the text, — d'autorité, de pouvoir, abuse of authority, of power, — de confiance, 1. breach of trust : 2. embezzlement by a servant. — de jouissance, waste, dilapidation (of a house, etc. by an occupier). Appel comme d'abus, Law-t. appeal against an abuse of power.

2 mistake, error. C'est un abus de croire que..., it is mistake, an error to believe that... Vous comptez sur la justice des hommes : abus! you rely on human justice : you are wrong, to make a mistake.

ABUSER, abuzé-r, [abus], vn. 1. to abuse : to misuse, to waste. Le droit d'user et d'abuser, the right of using and abusing, of using and misusing. Usez, n'abusez pas, use, but do not abuse.

2. (with de) to abuse : to make an ill use of, to misemploy. — de ses avantages, de son loisir, de son temps, to abuse one's advantages, to misemploy one's leisure or time.

3. (with de) to take unfair advantage of (a person's good qualities) ; 4. to put upon, to ill-treat (an inferior) ; 5. to overwork (a horse, etc.) ; 6. to seduce (a maiden).

ABUSER, va. 1. to deceive, to impose on ; 2. to mislead ; 3. to seduce (a girl). Abusé par de vaines promesses, deceived by vain promises. Abusé par l'exemple, misled by example.

ABUSER (s'), v. refl. 1. to deceive one's self ; 2. to be deceived, deluded, mistaken.

ABUSEUR, abuzœr, sm. 1. deceiver, misleader ; 2. (adjectively) deceptive, deceitful.

ABUSIF, IVE, abuzif, ziv', adj. 1. abusive 2. Gram. improper.

ABUSIVEMENT, abuziv'-mân-t, adv. 1. abusively ; 2. improperly.

ABUTER, abuté-r, [a ; but], va. and n. 1. to abut ; 2. (at bowls or quoits) to throw for first play.

ABUTILON, abutilôn, sm. abutilon : a tropical plant of the order Malvaceæ.

ABYSSIN, E, abisan, in', adj. et s. Abyssinian.

ABYSSINIE, abisini, sf. Geog. Abyssinia : a country of Africa.

ACABIT, akabi, [Low Lat. : acapitum], sm. 1. taste, flavour, quality (of fruit, etc) ; 2. stamp, sort, nature (of persons). Poires d'un bon —, fine-flavoured pears. Gens de même —, people of the same stamp.

ACACIA, akasya, [Gr. : ἀκακία], sm. 1. acacia : gumtree of Senegal. — blanc ou vulgaire, faux —, common acacia, pseudacacia, locust-tree.

ACADÉMICIEN, akadémisyan, sm. 1. academic : academical or platonic philosopher ; 2. academician : member of an academy.

ACADÉMIE, akadémi, [Gr.: ἀκαδημία], sf. 1. Academe, Academus : name of the grove where Plato taught ; 2. the Academic or Platonic philosophy ; 3. academy : a) a literary or scientific society ; b) a superior school for teaching the arts and sciences ; c) division of the French University governed by a rector ; 4. riding-school, fencing-school ; 5. gaming-house ; 6 academy figure : drawing after a living model. — des Beaux-Arts, the Academy of Fine Arts. — nationale de musique, the Grand Opera of Paris.

ACADÉMIQUE, akadémik', adj. 1. Academic : belonging to Plato's philosophy or sect ; 2. academic, academical : of or relating to an academy, or body of learned men. Figure —, academy figure : a drawing from the life, for the purpose of study.

ACADÉMIQUEMENT, akadémik'mân-t, adv. academically.

ACADÉMISER, akadémizé, vn. to paint or sculpture from a model.

ACADÉMISTE, akadémist', sm. 1. pupil of a riding or fencing-school ; 2. riding or fencing-master.

ACADIE, akadi, sf. Acadia : an old name for Nova Scotia. V. NOUVELLE-ECOSSE.

ACADIEN, NNE, akadyan, dyèn', adj. and s. Acadian.

ACAGNARDER, acanyardé-r [from caynard], va. Colloq. 1. to render indolent, lazy, sluggish ; 2. to habituate to a life of sensual indulgence.

ACAGNARDER (s'), v. refl. 1. to become indolent and self-indulgent ; 2. to give way to sensual enjoyments.

ACAJOU, akazhou, [Braz. : acajaba], sm. 1. mahogany ; 2. cashew-nut : fruit of the anarcardium occidentale. Bois d'—, mahogany. — à noix, à pommes, cashew, cashew-nut tree. Meubles d'—, mahogany furniture.

ACANTHE, akânt', [Gr. : ἄκανθα, thorn], sf. acanthus : a) Bot. brankursine, bear's-breech ; b) Arch. ornament resembling an acanthus leaf.

ACANTHOPTÉRYGIENS, akântoptérizhyan, [Gr. : ἄκανθα, thorn ; πτερύγιον, fins], smpl. acanthopterygians : an order of fishes having bony spines on the fins.

ACARE, akar', ACARUS, akarus, [Gr. : ἀκαρής, minute], sm. Entom. acarus. — de la gale, itch acarus, itch insect.

ACARIÂTRE, akariâtr', (from the old verb acarier, to oppose face to face), adj. crabbed, cross-grained, morose. Une femme —, a cross-grained woman, a vixen.

ACARIDES, akar'id, ACARIENS, akar'iœ, mpl. Entom. acardiæ.

ACATALEPSIE, akatalèpsi, [Gr. : ἀ, priv.: κατάληψις, comprehension], sf. Med. acatalepsy : uncertainty of diagnosis.

ACATALEPTIQUE, akatalèptik', adj. acataleptic.

ACAULE, akôl', [Gr. : ἀ, priv. : καυλός, tige], adj. Bot. acaulous : stemless.

ACCABLANT, E, akâblân-t, ânt, adj. 1. overwhelming, overpowering, crushing, oppressive ; 2. tiresome, annoying ; Colloq. boring. Témoignage accablant, overwhelming evidence.

ACCABLEMENT, akâblœmân-t, sm. 1. prostration : low state, extreme depression of body or mind ; 2. despondency, dejection ; 3. overwhelming burden or load (of cares, business, etc.) ; 4. indignity, outrage. Etre dans l'— de la douleur, to be prostrated by grief, to be overwhelmed with grief.

ACCABLER, akâblé-r, [Low Lat. : accabulāre, to throw down with stones], va. 1. to overwhelm (with blows, misfortunes, honours, favours, etc.) ; 2. to overthrow, to overpower ; 3. to crush ; 4. to weigh down, to oppress, to deject. Je suis accablé de travail, I am overwhelmed with work. Des hommes que le poids d'années accable, men borne down with the weight of years. Fén.

ACCABLER (s'), v. refl. to overwhelm, to overburden one's self.

ACCABLER, vn. to be overwhelming, to overwhelm.

ACCALMIE, akalmi, [calme], sf. Naut. lull (during a storm).

ACCAPAREMENT, akapar'mân-t, sm. 1. monopolizing, monopoly ; 2. engrossing, forestalling, speculative purchase. Vu les accaparements de blés qu'il avait faits, seeing his speculative purchase of corn.

ACCAPARER, akaparé-r, [O. Ital. : accaparrare], va. 1. to monopolize, to engross ; 2. to forestall, to buy up ; 3. to swallow up, to absorb ACCAPAREUR, SE, akaparœr', œz', s. monopolizer, cornerer, engrosser, forestaller.

ACCASTILLAGE, akastiyazh', [Sp. : castillo], 1. Naut. upper works (of a ship) : 2. (formerly) the fore-castle and after-castle (of a ship).

ACCASTILLER, akastiyé-r, vn. to add the upper works (to a ship).

ACCÉDER, aksédé-r, [Lat. : accedĕre), vn. 1. to accede (to) ; 2. to acquiesce (in) ; 3. to comply (with). J'accède à votre proposition, I accede to your proposal.

ACCÉLÉRATEUR, TRICE, akséléraтœr tris', adj. accelerating, accelerative. Force accélératrice, accelerating power.

ACCÉLÉRATEUR, sm. Autom. accelerator.

ACCÉLÉRATION, aksélérasyôn, sf. 1. acceleration (of motion) ; 2. quickening (of the pulse) ; 3. hastening on (of works) ; 4. despatdch (of business).

ACCÉLÉRÉ, E, akséléré. pa. p. 1. accelerated, hastened, quickened ; 2. fast (as stage-carriages) ; 3. Milit. quick (as a march).

ACCÉLÉRER, akséléré-r, [Lat. : accelerāre), va. [the é in érer is changed into è before a mute syllable, as : j'accélère ; except in the future and the conditional, in which the é remains : j'accélérerai, nous accélérerions] 1. to accelerate ; 2. to hasten, to quicken.

† ACCENSER, aksânsé-r, va. Anc. Law-t, to lease (lands).

ACCENT, aksân-t, [Lat. : accentus], sm. 1. accent : a) stress laid on a particular syllable ; b) pronunciation, intonation ; c) strain, language ; d) diacritic mark employed to distinguish certain vowels. — tonique, tonic or syllabic accent. — provincial, provincial accent. — très prononcé, a very broad accent. — anglais, italien, gascon, English, Italian, Gascon accent. N'avoir pas d'—, to speak without any peculiar accent. De tristes accents, sad accents, sorrowful strain. — monotone et traînant, a monotonous drawling accent. Les doux accents de sa voix, the sweet sounds of her voice. En francais on emploie trois accents, l'— aigu (´), l'— grave (`) et l'— circonflexe (^), in French there are three accents, the acute, the grave, and the circumflex.

2. emphasis, stress (in oratory).

ACCENTEUR, aksântœr, sm. Ornith. accentor, warbler.

ACCENTUABLE, aksântuabl', adj. admitting an accent.

ACCENTUATION, aksântuasyôn, sf. accentuation, manner or action of accenting in speaking or writing.

ACCENTUÉ, E, aksântué, pa. p. 1. accented ; 2. accentuated. Voyelle accentuée, accented vowel. Langue très accentuée, strongly accented (or accentuated) language.

ACCENTUER, aksântué-r, va. 1. to accent (in speaking or writing), to accentuate (in speaking) ; 2. to lay emphasis or stress upon (words or phrases), to emphasize.

ACCEPTABLE, aksèptabl', adj. acceptable : worthy of acceptance.

ACCEPTANT, E, aksèptân-t, ânt', s. acceptant, acceptor (of a donation or legacy).

ACCEPTATION, aksèptasyôn, sf. acceptance. L'— d'une lettre de change, the acceptance of a bill of exchange. Présenter un billet à l'—, to present a bill for acceptance.

ACCEPTER, aksèpté-r, [Lat. : acceptāre], va. 1. to accept (a proposal, a condition, an offer, a present, an apology, a challenge, a bill of exchange) ; 2. to submit to, to consent to. Je ne puis — une telle proposition, I cannot accept such a proposal. — une lettre de change, to accept a bill of exchange. — le débat, to join issue, to agree to settle a difference by law. Accepté pour la somme de, accepted for the sum of.

ACCEPTER (s'), v. refl. to be accepted.

ACCEPTEUR, aksèptœr, sm. 1. accepter (in a general sense); 2. Com. acceptor (of a bill of exchange). Dieu n'est point — de personnes, God is no respecter of persons.

ACCEPTION, aksèpsyô*n*, sf. 1. acceptance, distinction, favour, preference; 2. acceptation, received meaning of words. Ce mot a plusieurs acceptions, this word has several acceptations. — propre, figurée, proper, figurative acceptation.

ACCÈS, aksè-z, [Lat. : accessus], sm. 1. (with à) access (to); 2. (with dans) entrance, admittance (into); 3. (with auprès de) access to (a person); 4. fit, outburst· paroxysm (of passion); 5. attack, fit (of disease); 6. paroxysm (of pain). Place, île, côte de facile —, place, island, coast of easy access. Donner — à la pitié, to give way to compassion. Par —, by fits.

ACCESSIBILITÉ, aksèsibilité, sf. accessibility, access. Libre — à tous les emplois, free access to all offices of trust.

ACCESSIBLE, aksèsibl', adj. accessible, approachable, easy of access.

ACCESSION, aksèsyô*n*, sf. 1. accession, act of acceding; 2. adhesion; 3. increase, addition. Par une — de pairs, by an addition of peers, by a new batch of peers. Par droit d'—, by right of accession.

ACCESSIT, aksèsit, [Lat.], sm. accessit : in college examinations, honourable mention accorded to a student who nearly obtained a prize. Il a eu un prix et deux accessits, he obtained one prize and two accessits.

ACCESSOIRE, aksèswar, adj. accessory : collateral, dependent.

ACCESSOIRE, sm. 1. accessory : a) dependency; b) collateral circumstance; c) detail, accompaniment (of a painting); 2. (in theatrical lang.) property : piece of furniture, etc. used on the stage; 3. conjuncture, emergency.

ACCESSOIREMENT, aksèswarmâ*n*-t, adv. accessorily.

ACCIDENT, aksidâ*n*-t, [Lat. : accidens; accidĕre, to happen], sm. 1. accident, mishap; incident; casualty. Un — imprévu, an unforeseen accident. Un — de chemin de fer, a railway accident. Des accidents bons et mauvais, lucky and unlucky accidents. Tous les accidents de la vie, all the vicissitudes of life. Les infirmités et les accidents de la vie humaine, the infirmities and mischances of human life. Une chose d'—, an accidental affair; a mere accident. Par —, by accident, accidentally. — de lumière, accident light (in a painting). —de terrain, an inequality of the soil.

2. Med. unexpected symptom; 3. Philos. accident, accidental. Dans la cire la blancheur n'est qu'un —, whiteness in wax is only an accident.

4. Mus. accidental : an occasional sharp, flat, or natural introduced in the course of a piece of music.

ACCIDENTALITÉ, aksidâ*n*talité, sf. accidentality, accidentalness.

ACCIDENTÉ, E, aksidâ*n*té, adj. undulating, uneven, rolling : said of a country diversified by hill and dale. La campagne par ici est très —, the country about here is very picturesque.

ACCIDENTEL, LE, aksidâ*n*tel, tèl', adj. 1. accidental; 2. Med. adventitious. Une mort accidentelle, accidental death. Un tissu accidentel, Med. an adventitious tissue.

ACCIDENTELLEMENT, aksidâ*n*tel'mâ*n*-t, adv. 1. accidentally; by accident'; 2. adventitiously.

ACCIDENTER, aksidâ*n*té-r, vn. to render uneven (as the surface of a park, etc.).

ACCIPITRIN, E, aksipitra*n*, trin', [Lat. : accipiter, hawk], adj. accipitrine : belonging to the hawk tribe.

ACCISE, aksiz', [Low Lat. : accisia], sf. excise : duty on the necessaries of life.

ACCLAMATEUR, aklamatœr, sm. applauder. Des acclamateurs à gages, hired applauders.

ACCLAMATION, aklamasyô*n*, sf. 1. acclamation : applause, cheers, cheering; 2. exclamation. Par —, by acclamation, unanimously.

ACCLAMER, aklamé-r, [Lat. : acclamāre], vn. 1. to cheer, to shout for joy; 2. (in an active sense) to acclaim, to cheer. On acclama à cette proposition, cette proposition fut acclamée, the motion was carried with cheers.

ACCLAMPER, aklâ*n*pé-r, va. Mar. to fish (a mast, etc.)

ACCLIMATATION, aklimatasyô*n*, sf. acclimation, acclimatization. La société d'—, the acclimatization society.

ACCLIMATÉ, E, aklimat,é pa. p. ; adj. acclimatized : inured to a climate; said of men, animals, and plants.

ACCLIMATEMENT, aklimat'mâ*n*-t, sm. acclimation, acclimatization.

ACCLIMATER, aklimaté-r, [climat], va. to acclimate, to acclimatize : to season, to inure, to accustom to a climate. S'acclimater, to become acclamatized, to get used to a climate.

ACCOINÇON, akwansô*n*, [a; coin], sm. furring : slip of timber nailed to rafters or joists to bring them to a level.

ACCOINTANCE, akwa*n*tâ*n*s', sf. 1. acquaintance; 2. intimacy, improper connéction (with a person of the opposite sex).

ACCOINTER (S'), akwa*n*té-r, [O. Fr. : acointer : Low Lat. : accognitāre], v. refl. to make acquaintance, to become acquainted, to be intimate (generally in an ill sense).

† ACCOISER, akwâzé-r, [coi, quiet], va. to calm, to quiet, to tranquilize.

ACCOLADE, akoad', [Lat. : ad collum, to the neck], sf. 1. accolade, : a) embrace; b) slight blow with a sword on the neck or shoulder [in conferring an order of knighthood] 2. Print. brace (⏟); 3. couple, brace (of young rabbits served on the same dish); 4. angular or segmental pediment (over a door or window). Donner l'—, to embrace, to dub a knight. Recevoir l'—, to be made a knight.

ACCOLADER, akoladé-r, va. Print. to join by a brace, to brace together.

ACCOLAGE, akolazh', sm. Gard. tying up, fastening (vine-branches, etc., to an espalier or prop.)

ACCOLER, akolé-r, va. 1. to embrace; 2. to tie up, to fasten (vines, etc., to props or espaliers); 3. Print. to brace, to join by a brace 4. to couple, to join together.

ACCOLURE, akolûr', sf. string, wire, bast, etc. (to fasten fruit-trees to espaliers).

ACCOMBANT, E, akô*n*bâ*n*-t, ânt', adj. Bot. accumbent : lying close together.

ACCOMMODABLE, akomodabl', adj. accommodable : that may be accommodated, settled, arranged.

ACCOMMODAGE, akomodazh', sm. 1. dressing, cooking (of food); 2. dressing (of a wig).

ACCOMMODANT, E, akomodâ*n*-t, ânt', adj. accommodating : compliant, complying, yielding, complaisant.

ACCOMMODATION, akomodâsyô*n*, sf. accommodation : adapting, adjusting.

ACCOMMODEMENT, akomod'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. arrangement, accommodation; 2. reconciliation (of litigants, adversaries, etc); 3. accommodation, settlement, adjustment (of differences, quarrels); 4. means of conciliation, accommodating expedient; 5. Paint. adaptation (of draperies, etc.). Entrer en voie d'—, to take steps towards an arrangement. En venir à un —, to come to terms, to effect a compromise. Prov. : Un bon accommodement vaut mieux qu'un bon procès, agree, for the law is costly.

ACCOMMODER, akomodé-r, [Lat. : accommodāre], va. 1. to accommodate : to supply with conveniences of any kind; 2. to suit : to be convenient to or for; 3. to arrange, to put in order (one's house or affairs); 4. to cook, to dress, to prepare (food); 5. to dress, to arrange (hair, etc,); 6. to accommodate, to treat. Cet aubergiste accommode bien ses pratiques, that innkeeper treats his customers well. [In this and similar acceptations accommoder is often used ironically in familiar language]. Je l'accommoderai bien, I will give it him well. — de toutes pièces, to say all sorts of bad things (of a person). Cette maison m'accommode bien, this house suits me well. Il est étrangement accommodé, he is quite an object. Le voilà bien accommodé, what a nice mess, what a pretty pickle he is in! On l'a accommodé tout de rôti, he was awfully maltreated.

7. to arrange, to settle (differences or disputes); 8. to conciliate (litigants or enemies); 9. (with de) to accommodate with, to oblige with, to give up to, to let (a person) have; 10. (with à) to conform, to bring into conformity with, to adapt to.

ACCOMMODER (s'), v. refl. 1. to take one's ease, to make one's self comfortable; 2. to make one's way, to get rich; 3. to come to terms, to effect a compromise; 4. to compound (with one's creditors); 5. (with à) to adapt one's self to; 6. to agree to, to comply with; 7. to make shift with; 8. to bear with, to put up with, to endure; 9. to procure, to purchase. Bien s'—, to get rich, to make one's way in the world. S'— de tout, to take things easily, to make no trouble of anything. Accommodez-vous, make yourself quite at home : often said ironically to a person who makes too free.

ACCOMPAGNATEUR, m., TRICE, f. akô*n*panyatœr, tris, s. Mus. accompanist.

ACCOMPAGNEMENT, akô*n*pany'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. accompagnying; 2. attendance, following; 3. concomitant; 4. accompaniment, accessory; 5. Mus. and Herald, accompaniment. L'— soutient la voix, the accompaniment keeps up the voice. — à grand orchestre, with full accompaniment.

ACCOMPAGNER, akô*n*panyé-r, [O. Fr. : a; compaignier], va. 1. to accompany; 2. to attend, to be in attendance on; 3. to escort; 4. to suit, to be in harmony, in keeping with, 5. Mus. to accompany; 6. (in a neuter sense) to play an accompaniment, to be an accompanist. Il voulut m'— jusqu'à la porte, he insisted on accompanying me to the door. Il accompagne bien, he is a good accompanist.

ACCOMPAGNER (s'), v. refl. 1. (with de) to take as companions, to join with; 2. Mus. to accompany one's self (on the piano, etc.); 3. to be accompanied by.

ACCOMPLI, E, akô*n*pli, pa. p. et adj. 1. accomplished; 2. perfect, highly finished; 3. thorough; 4. complete; 5. regular, out-and-out; 6. (in an ill sense) regular, thorough-paced, arrant, out-and-out. Trente ans accomplis, full thirty years. Un scélérat —, a thorough-paced scoundrel.

ACCOMPLIR, akônplir, [Lat. : ad ; complēre ; to fill up], va. 1. to accomplish. 2. to complete ; 3. to fulfil ; 4. to finish ; 5. to achieve ; 6. to execute, to carry out ; 7. to realize ; 8. to serve, to serve out (an apprenticeship, a noviciate, a term of service).

ACCOMPLIR (s'), v. refl. to be accomplished, fulfilled, realized.

ACCOMPLISSEMENT, akônplis'mân-t, sm. 1. accomplishment ; 2. completion ; 3. fulfilment ; 4. achievement.

ACCON, akôn, sm. Naut. flat-bottomed boat, lighter ; punt.

ACCORAGE, akôrazh', sm, sm. Naut. 1. shoring up (a vessel, for repairs) ; 2. set of shores employed for the purpose.

ACCORD, akór, [O. Fr. : acord ; from Lat. ad, to ; cor, cordis, heart], sm. 1. accord : unity of sentiments or opinions. D'un commun —, with one accord, with one consent ; Com. by mutual agreement. Dans un parfait —, in full, perfect accord. D'—, agreed ; granted. D'— avec, in accord with, in harmony with, in keeping with. Tomber d'—, to agree. Mettre d'—, to reconcile.

2. agreement, arrangement. L'— conclu entre la France et l'Angleterre, the agreement concluded between France and England.

3. (in the pl.) marriage preliminaries ; 4. union ; 5. harmony, just proportion ; 6. Mus. chord. — parfait, perfect chord. Accords consonants, dissonants, consonant, dissonant chords.

7. tune. Ce piano ne tient pas l'—, this piano does not keep in tune.

8. (in the pl.) strains, lays. De sublimes accords, sublime strains.

9. Paint. Archit. etc. harmony, keeping ; 10. Gram. concord, concordance.

ACCORDABLE, akòrdabl', adj. 1. consonant, agreeable ; 2. capable, susceptible of reconciliation, of arrangement ; 3. allowable, admissible ; 4. Mus. tunable.

ACCORDAILLES, akòrdày', sfpl. betrothal : meeting to settle preliminaries of marriage.

ACCORDANT, E, akòrdân-t, ânt, adj. 1. accordant ; 2. Mus. in chord, consonant ; 3. concordant.

ACCORDE, akòrd', ACCORDEZ, akôrdé, imper. of ACCORDER. Naut. 1. pull together ! row in time ! 2. (substantively) : Commander l'—, to order rowers to pull in time, to keep time.

ACCORDÉ, E, akòrdé, s. person betrothed, engaged to be married ; future bride-groom, future bride.

ACCORDEMENT, akòrd'mân-t, sm. reconciliation.

ACCORDÉON, akordéôn, sm. Mus. accordion.

ACCORDER, akòrdé-r, va. 1. to reconcile : to bring into accord, to one accord, to establish an accord between (enemies, etc.) ; 2. to conciliate ; 3. to admit (a proposition) ; 4. to accord, to concede, to grant (demands, favours, privileges) ; 5. to award (damages, etc.) ; 6. to give (a maiden) in marriage ; 7. Mus. to accord, to adapt (one's voice to an instrument) ; 8. to tune (a violin, a piano, etc.) ; 9. Paint. to harmonize (colours) ; 10. Gram. (with avec) to make agree with, to put in concord with. Il n'est pas facile d'— ces deux textes, it is not easy to conciliate those two texts. Accordez moi un petit moment, grant me a moment. Ce piano a besoin d'être accordé, this piano wants tuning.

ACCORDER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be reconciled (as enemies, etc.) ; 2. to be conciliated (as differences) ; 3. (with avec) to accord with, to be in accord with ; 4. to conspire, to contribute (to) ; 5. (with avec) to be consistent, in keeping, in harmony with ; 6. to agree to, to consent to, to adhere to ; 7. to agree with, to coincide with ; 8. to be accorded, granted, conferred ; 9. Gram. to agree, to be in concord with ; 10. Mus. to accord, to be in unison (as instruments).

ACCORDEUR, akòrdœr, sm. 1. reconciler, peace-maker ; 2. tuner (of pianos, etc.).

ACCORDOIR, akòrdwar, sm. 1. tuning-hammer (for a piano) ; 2. tuning-key (for a harp).

ACCORE, akòr', [Eng. : ashore], sm. Naut. 1. edge (of a reef, etc.) ; 2. shore : prop for a vessel under repair.

ACCORE, adj. scarped, steep : said of rocks or coasts.

ACCORER, akoré-r, va. Naut. to shore, to shore up, to prop.

ACCORT, E, akòr, òrt', [Ital. : accorto], adj. 1. complaisant, easy-tempered ; 2. insinuating, engaging ; 3. sly, clever.

ACCORTEMENT, akòrt'mân-t, adv. cleverly, dexterously.

ACCORTISE, akòrtiz, sf. complaisance, easy temper, easiness of temper.

ACCOSTABLE, akostabl', adj. 1. accostable ; 2. approachable ; 3. easy of access.

ACCOSTE, ACCOSTEZ, akost', akosté, imper. of ACCOSTER, Naut. 1. come alongside ! lay her alongside ! 2. (substantively) : Commander l'—, to order a vessel to be laid alongside (of a quay, etc.).

ACCOSTER, akosté-r, [Lat. : ad, to ; costa, side], va. 1. to accost (a person) ; 2. Naut. to come, to lay alongside of (a quay, vessel, etc.)

ACCOSTER (s'), v. refl. (with de). 1. to accost each other ; 2. to keep company with, to associate with, to frequent.

ACCOTEMENT, akot'mân, sm. Road-mak. side-way, side-road, driftway.

ACCOTER, akoté-r, [à ; côte], va. 1. to prop up (on one side), to wedge up ; 2. to lean (anything) to one side.

ACCOTER (s') v. refl. (with contre). 1. to lean against ; 2. Mech. to catch against each other (as wheels, etc.).

ACCOTOIR, akotwar, sm. 1. prop ; 2. arm, elbow, arm-rest (of a chair, etc.) ; 3. learning-stock ; 4. Shipb. shore, prop, stay.

ACCOUCHÉE, akoushé, sf. a woman in childbed ; a lying-in woman. Parée comme une —, dressed up in all her finery. Caquet d'—, idle gossip.

ACCOUCHEMENT, akoush'mân-t, sm. 1. accouchement, delivery ; Colloq. confinement ; 2. the act of delivering a woman ; 3. a painful or difficult task. Faire un cours d'—, to deliver lectures on midwifery, on obstetrics. L'art des accouchements, midwifery, obstetrics. Faire un —, to deliver a woman.

ACCOUCHER, akoushé-r, [Lat. : accubāre], vn. 1. to lie in, to be delivered, to be brought to bed, to be confined ; 2. (with de) to lie in of, to be delivered of. — avant terme, to have a premature confinement. Elle a accouché heureusement, she has been safely delivered. Elle est accouchée depuis un mois, she was confined a month ago.

3. Fig. (with de) to give birth to, to be delivered of (a poem, a project) ; 4. to speak out, explain one's self. Accouchez, speak out, explain yourself, out with it ! C'est la montagne qui accouche d'une souris, Colloq., it's making a great fuss about nothing.

ACCOUCHER, va. to attend (a woman) during childbirth, to deliver (a woman).

ACCOUCHEUR, akoushœr, sm. accoucheur, surgeon-accoucheur, man-midwife.

ACCOUCHEUSE, akoushœz, sf. midwife.

ACCOUDÉ, E, akoudé, pa. p. leaning on one's elbow, resting one's elbow (on a balustrade, etc.).

ACCOUDEMENT, akoud'mân-t, sm. 1. leaning on one's elbow ; 2. Milit. close position (elbow to elbow).

ACCOUDER (S'), s-akoudé-r, [coude, elbow], v. refl. 1. to lean on one's elbow ; 2. (with sur) to lean or rest one's elbow on.

ACCOUDOIR, akoudwar, sm. 1. arm or elbow (of a chair) ; 2. elbow-rest (of a carriage) ; 3. Arch. balustrade ; rail (across a window).

ACCOUER, akoué-r, va. to tie horses head and tail.

ACCOUPLE, akoupl', [a ; couple], sf. couple [for dogs).

ACCOUPLEMENT, akouplœmân-t, sm. 1. coupling : arranging in couples ; 2. yoking (of oxen) ; 3. pairing (of birds) ; 4. copulation (of animals for breeding ; 5. union, marriage ; 6. Autom. coupling. — à ruban, à bande, expanding band coupling or clutch. Un âne et un bœuf font un mauvais —, an ass and an ox make a bad pair, an awkward team.

ACCOUPLER, akouplé-r, va. 1. to couple ; to arrange in couples ; 2. to join, to put together ; 3. to pair (birds, etc., for breeding) ; 4. to yoke (oxen). Mots mal accouplés, ill-assorted words.

ACCOUPLER (s'), v. refl. to copulate (as animals).

ACCOURCIE, akour'si, sf. Popul. short cut, near way.

ACCOURCIR, akoursir, [court, short], va. 1. to shorten (space or time) ; 2. to curtail (a speech). — son chemin, to take a short cut.

ACCOURCIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to shorten, to become shorter ; 2. to contract, to shrink.

ACCOURCISSEMENT, akoursis'mân', sm. 1. shortening (of space or time); 2. contracting, contraction, shrinking.

ACCOURIR, akourir, [Lat. : ad, to ; currĕre, to run ; irr. v. like courir], vn. to run, to run up ; to hasten, to come running. — de toutes parts, to come running from all directions. Elles ont accouru en hâte nous porter secours, they ran up in haste to aid us. Elles sont accourues en foule, et ont contemplé ce triste spectacle, they came in crowds, and gazed at this sad sight. Le prince Eugène accourut d'Italie, Prince Eugène rushed back from Italy. Volt. J'étais accouru à son secours, I had hastened to his help.

ACCOURSE, akours', sf. Arch. outer gallery (leading to several rooms).

ACCOUTREMENT, akoutrœmân-t, sm. 1. attire, costume ; 2. (in an ill sense) accoutrement, uncouth costume, garb.

ACCOUTRER, akoutré-r, [Ety. uncertain], va. 1. to accoutre : to dress out or up ; 2. to abuse, to run down (in words) ; 3. to maltreat, to belabour (with blows).

ACCOUTUMANCE, akoutumâns', sf. custom, use, habit, habitude. L'— nous rend tout familier, use makes everything familiar.

ACCOUTUMÉ, E, akoutumé, adj. accustomed : used, habituated ; customary, usual. — aux luttes populaires, accustomed to popular struggles. Peu — à entendre la vérité, unaccustomed (little used, unused) to hear the truth. A l'heure accoutumée, at the usual hour.

A l'accoutumée, adv. phr. 1. as usual ; 2. according to (my, his, her, etc.) wont or custom.

ACCOUTUMER, akoutumé-r, [à ; coutume], va. 1. to accustom, to habituate ; 2. to inure (to privations, to toil). Il était trop accoutumé à, he was too well accustomed (or used) to. Avoir accoutumé, (in a neutral sense) to be accustomed, to be used, to be wont. Comme il avait accoutumé, as he was wont, according to his wont or custom.

ACCOUTUMER (s'), v. refl. (with à or avec) to accustom one's self to ; to get used to, inured to.

ACCRÉDITER, akrédité-r, [à ; crédit], va. 1. to bring into credit, to raise the credit of (a trader, etc.) ; 2. to sanction, to countenance ; 3. to bring into vogue ; 4. to accredit (an envoy, an agent). Un banquier accrédité, a banker of high standing. Une tradition accréditée, a received tradition.

ACCRÉDITER (s'), v. refl. 1. to get into credit ; 2. to ingratiate one's self (with) ; 3. to gain credit, to be received (as a report) ; 4. to gain ground, to get into favour, into vogue (as an opinion, a fashion).

ACCRÉDITEUR, akréditœr, sm. Com. guarantor.

ACCRESCENT, akrèsân-t, ânt', [Lat. : accrescens], adj. Bot. accrescent.

ACCRÉTION, akrésyôn, sf. Physiol. accretion.

ACCROC, akrô, [croc], sm. 1. rent (in a dress, etc.) ; 2. snag : anything that causes a rent ; 3. Fig. hitch, impediment, hinderance. Faire un — à, to make a rent in.

ACCROCHE-CŒUR, akrosh'-kœr, sm. heart-breaker ; kiss-curl : small curl laid flat on the temple. [Pl. des Accroche-cœur.]

ACCROCHEMENT, akrosh'mân-t, sm. 1. hooking, catching ; 2. collision, interlocking (of carriages).

ACCROCHE-PLAT, akrosh'plâ-t, sm. decoration plate-holder.

ACCROCHER, akroshé-r, va. 1. to hang on a hook ; 2. to suspend, to hang up ; 3. to hook together ; 4. to catch ; 5. to snag, to tear (a coat, etc.) ; 6. to run against, to run into (said of carriages) ; 7. to shelve : to postpone, to adjourn, to delay ; 8. to lay or get hold of ; 9. Naut. to grapple (a vessel) ; 10. Popul. to pawn. — sa montre, to pawn one's watch.

ACCROCHER (s'), v. refl. 1. (with à) to catch in, on, or against ; 2. to lay hold of each other ; 3. to hold on to, to cling to ; 4. to fasten one's self on (a person). Nous nous accrochâmes aux branches, we clung to the branches. Les petits vaisseaux d'autrefois s'accrochaient soudain, et les soldats combattaient des deux parts, the little ships of former times grappled together, and the soldiers fought on both sides. Montesq. Gr. des Rom. 4. Cet homme s'accroche à moi, that man fastens himself on me.

ACCROIRE, akrwâr, [croire], va. to believe : used in the infinitive only. Faire —, to make (a person) believe (a falsehood). Il nous l'a fait —, he made us believe it. En faire —, to impose upon, to deceive, to gull (by fine words). S'en faire —, to think too highly of one's self, to be self conceited, self-important, assuming.

ACCROISSEMENT, akrwas'mân-t, [croître], sm. 1. growth of animals or plants) ; 2. increase (in quantity, etc.) ; 3. aggrandizement, enlargement, extension (of dominions) ; 4. rise, rising (of rivers, etc.) ; 5. Miner. accretion (of crystals). Droit d'—, Law, right of accretion, by alluvion. Prendre d'—, to grow, to increase.

ACCROÎT, akrwâ, sm. growth (of plants).

ACCROÎTRE, akrwâtr', [ac., augm. ; croître], va. 1. to increase (wealth, power) ; 2. to enlarge, to extend (possessions, etc.) ; 3. to enhance (glory, reputation) ; 4. to advance, to aggrandize.

ACCROITRE, vn. 1. to grow ; 2. to increase ; 3. to extend ; 4. Law. to accrue. La part des absents accroît aux présents, the share of the absent accrues to those who are present. Ses richesses ont accru par une heureuse spéculation, his wealth has increased through a lucky speculation. Ses richesses sont accrues à un point incroyable, his wealth has increased to an incredible extent.

ACCROITRE (s'), v. refl. 1. to increase ; 2. to be increased ; 3. to grow.

ACCROUPIR (S'), akroupir, [à ; croupe], v. refl. to squat, to crouch.

ACCROUPISSEMENT, akroupis'mân-t, sm. squatting, crouching.

ACCRU, akru, sm. sprig, shoot produced by roots.

ACCRUE, akru, sf. 1. accretion : increase of land by alluvion ; 2. extension (of a forest) by the spontaneous growth of wood ; 3. net-mak. false loop, quartering.

ACCUEIL, akœy', sm. 1. reception ; 2 welcome. Bon —, a kind reception, a hearty welcome. Mauvais —, a bad reception. Etre d'un bon —, to receive kindly, to welcome kindly. Recevoir bon —, to receive, to meet with a kind welcome. Faire bon — à, 1. to welcome ; 2. to honour (a bill or draft).

ACCUEILLANT, E, akœyân-t, ânt', adj. (of persons) accessible, easy of access.

ACCUEILLIR, akœyîr, [Lat. : ad, to ; cueillir, IRR. V.], va. 1. to receive. — bien ou mal, to receive well or ill (a person, proposal, etc.).

2. (neutrally) to receive well, to welcome ; 3. to encounter, to be assailed by. Etre accueilli par une tempête, to encounter, to be assailed by a storm. Il n'est point de malheur qui ne m'ait accueilli, I have been assailed by all kinds of misfortunes.

4. to honour (a bill of exchange).

ACCUL, akul, [à ; cul], sm. 1. place without exit ; 2. corner ; 3. blind-alley ; 4. Fig. issueless position, hopeless predicament ; 5. earth (of a fox), burrow (of rabbits, etc.) ; 6. Naut. narrow creek, small cove.

ACCULÉE, akulé, sf. Naut. pooping, heaving astern.

ACCULEMENT, akul'mân-t, sm. 1. corner : position from which there is no escape ; 2. hopeless predicament.

ACCULER, akulé-r, [accul : à ; cul], va. 1. Hunt. to run home (a boar, a stag ; to run to earth (a fox or rabbit) ; 2. to corner, to drive into a corner ; 3. to bring to a stand ; 4. to nonplus (an antagonist, a disputant).

ACCULER (s'), v. refl. 1. (with à) to take one's stand against, to back against (a wall, tree, etc.) ; 2. to jib, to back (said of horses) ; 3. Naut. to heave astern.

ACCUMULATEUR, TRICE, akumulatœr, tris'), s. 1. accumulator, engrosser, monopolizer (of merchandise, etc.) ; 2. hoarder (of money) ; 3. Elect. accumulator. Batterie d'accumulateurs, accumulator battery.

ACCUMULATION, akumulâsyôn, sf. accumulation.

ACCUMULER, akumulé-r, [Lat. : accumulāre ; ad, to ; cumulus, a heap], va. 1. to accumulate : to heap up, to pile up, to hoard, to hoard up. — faute sur faute, to add fault to fault.

ACCUMULER, vn. to hoard. Il ne songe qu'à—, he thinks of nothing but hoarding.

ACCUMULER (s'), v. refl. to accumulate.

ACCUSABLE, akuzabl', adj. accusable, chargeable.

ACCUSATEUR, TRICE, akuzatœr, tris'. s. accuser. — public, public prosecutor.

ACCUSATIF, akuzatif, sm. Gram. accusative case, accusative.

ACCUSATION, akuzasyôn, sf. 1. accusation ; 2. impeachment (for state offences) ; 3. charge (before a police magistrate) ; 4. indictment (for larcenies, felonies, etc.) ; 5. reproach, imputation ; 6. Theol. avowal, self-accusation (of sins) ; 7. prosecution : party prosecuting. Chef d'—, count of an indictment or impeachment. Intenter une — contre, to prosecute, to lay an information against, to bring a charge against, to prefer an indictment. Dresser une —, to draw up an indictment. Prononcer la mise en —, to find a true bill. Former des accusations contre, to make imputations against.

ACCUSÉ, E, akuzé, s. 1. accused person ; 2. (in a criminal court) prisoner. — de réception, acknowledgment of receipt (of a letter, parcel, etc.)

ACCUSER, akuzé-r, [Lat. : accusāre], va. 1 to accuse ; 2. (with de). to accuse of, to charge with ; 3. to arraign, to prosecute, to bring to trial ; 4. (with de) to reproach with ; 5. to blame ; 6. to indicate, to betray ; 7. to argue, to imply ; 8. to complain (of ailments) ; 9. to tell (one's age, etc.) ; 10. to acknowledge (receipt of a letter, etc.) ; 11. Paint. to make perceptible, to bring out (muscles, etc., when veiled by drapery) ; 12. (at cards) to declare (one's game). — vrai, — faux, to state accurately, inaccurately.

ACCUSER (s'), v. refl. 1. to accuse one's self ; 2. to confess (to a sin).

ACEPHALE, aséfal, [Gr. : ἀ, priv. ; κεφαλή, head], adj. acephalous : headless. Substant. : Les huîtres sont des acéphales, oysters are acephala, acephalans.

ACÉPHALIE, asefali, [Gr. : ἀ, priv. ; κεφαλή, head], sf. acephalia : absence totale de la tête.

ACÉRAGE, asérazh', sm. steeling (of tools).

ACERBE, asèrb'. [Lat. : acerbus, acerb], adj. 1. acerb ; 2. harsh.

ACERBITÉ, asèrbité, sf. 1. acerbity ; 2. harshness ; 3. bitterness.

ACÉRÉ, E, pa. p. and adj. 1. steeled, A pointe acérée, steeled at the point, with a steel point.

2. sharp, keen ; 3. sharp-pointed ; 4. Fig. cutting, piercing, stinging. Plaisanteries acérées, stinging jests.

ACÉRER, aséré-r. [acier, steel], va. 1. to steel ; to edge or point with steel ; 2. Fig. to give point to, to add a sting to.

ACÉREUX, SE, aserœ, rœz', adj. Bot. acerose.

ACÉRURE, asérûr', sf. steel welded on the edge of cutting tools, steel edge or point.

ACESCENCE, asèsâns, sf. acescence, acescency.

ACÉTABULE, asétabûle, [Lat. : acetabulum, vase], sm. acetabulum.

ACÉTATE, asétat'. [Lat. : acetum, vinegar], sm. Chem. acetate. — de plomb, acetate of lead, sugar of lead, salts of Saturn.

ACÉTEUX, SE, asétœ, œz', adj. acetous.

ACÉTIFICATION, asétifikasyôn, sf. acetification.

ACÉTIQUE, asétik, adj. acetic.

ACÉTONE, asetōn, sf. Chem. acetone.

ACÉTYLÈNE, asetilen', [acétique], sm. acetylene. Lampe à l'—, acetylene lamp.

ACHALANDAGE, ashalândazh', sm. custom, connection (of a shop, etc.).

ACHALANDÉ, E, ashalândé, pa. p. and adj. accustomed : having customers. Boutique bien achalandée, well-connected shop. Marchand bien achalandé, tradesman having a good connection, thriving tradesman.

ACHALANDER, aschalândé, [chaland, customer], va. 1. to obtain custom, to accustom ; 2. to bring connection to (a shop).

ACHALANDER (s'), v. refl. to get custom.

ACHANTI, ashantī, npm. Geog. Achantee.

ACHANTIS, ashantī, s. and adj. Achantee. Les Achantis, the Achantees.

ACHARNÉ, E, asharné, [acharner], pa. p. and adj. 1. ravening, ravenous, rabid ; 2. fierce, ferocious, infuriate ; 3. desperate ; 4. relentless, ruthless, implacable ; 5. inveterate. Un animal — sur sa proie, an animal ravening after its prey. Ses ennemis acharnés, his ruthless enemies. Une lutte acharnée, a desperate struggle. Un persécuteur acharné, a relentless persecutor. Haine acharnée, implacable hatred.

ACHARNEMENT, asharnœmân-t, sm. 1. ravenousness, rabidness ; 2. ferocity, fierceness ; 3. unrelenting animosity ; 4. desperation ; 5. inveterateness, inveteracy ; 6. passion (for any pursuit or amusement).

ACHARNER, asharné-r, [Lat. : caro, carnis, flesh], va. 1. Hunt, to flesh (dogs, or hawks) ; 2. to excite, to incite, to stir up ; 3. to exasperate, to madden, to infuriate ; 4. to embitter, to envenom.

ACHARNER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be excited, fierce, rabid, infuriated ; 2. to be implacable, relentless, inveterate. On s'acharne quelquefois au jeu, one gets excited sometimes in playing. Il s'acharne à l'étude, he is passionately attached to study.

ACHAT, asha-t, [Low Lat. : acatum], sm. purchase : a) act of buying ; b) anything bought. — d'or et d'argent, gold and silver bought here. Livre d'achats, invoice-book. Prix d'—, purchase money, purchase price Faire l'— de, to purchase, to make the purchase of.

ACHATE, akat', pnm. Achates : an ancient Greek ; Fig. faithful friend.

ACHE, ash', sf. Bot. smallage, wild celery. — d'eau, water parsley. — de montagne, skirret.

ACHÉE, ashé, [Lat. : esca, food], sf. red earth-worms (used as baits in angling). (V. AICHE.)

ACHEMINEMENT, ashœmin'mân-t, sm. first step, preliminary, preliminary measure, preparation. Un — à la paix, a first step towards peace. Toute la vie est un — vers la mort, all life is a preparation for death.

ACHEMINER, ashœminé-r, [chemin, way], va. 1. to forward, to despatch, to send on (passengers, goods, etc.) ; 2. to promote, to prepare the way for ; 3. to train (a horse) for riding.

ACHEMINER (s'), v. refl. 1. to set out, to start (for a journey) ; 2. (with vers) to turn one's steps towards, to make for (a place) ; 3. to advance, to make one's way, to make progress, to progress.

ACHÉRON, ashérôn, pnm. Mythol. Acheron : a) a river in the infernal regions ; b) Poet. hell, death.

ACHETABLE, ash'tabl', adj. purchasable : to be bought, obtainable with money.

ACHETER, ash'té-r, [Low Lat. : accapitāre], va. 1. to purchase, to buy ; 2. to bribe (a functionary, a voter, etc.) ; 3. to suborn (witnesses). — une maison, . un cheval, to buy a house, a horse. — cher, to buy dear, to pay dear for. — au poids de l'or, to buy at a high rate. — en gros, en détail, to buy wholesale, to buy retail. — pour son compte, — par commission, to buy on one's own account, to buy on commission. — comptant, to buy for cash, for ready money. — à crédit, to buy on credit, on trust. — en bloc, to buy in the lump. — par le travail, to acquire by labour. J'ai acheté ces honneurs au prix de mon repos, I have obtained these honours at the cost of my repose, I have bartered my repose for these honours. — au poids, to buy by weight. Prov. : V. CHAT.

ACHETER, (de and à, are employed in the same sense : but the former is the more elegant and correct). A qui, de qui avez-vous acheté ce cheval ? of whom did you buy that horse ? Acheter à, in the sense of Acheter pour, is colloquial, nay almost vulgar, and is also equivocal : J'ai acheté un cheval à mon fils, I have bought a horse for (or of) my son. S... m'a acheté un manchon, S... has bought me a muff, or bought a muff of me.

ACHETER (s'), v. refl 1. to buy for one's self ; 2. to be bought, to be purchasable. Je me suis acheté une maison. I have bought myself a house. C'est un bien qui ne s'achète pas, it is a blessing not to be bought, a blessing money cannot buy.

ACHETEUR, ash'tœr, sm. 1. buyer, purchaser ; 2. chapman. C'est un grand —, he is a great buyer, he has a mania for buying.

ACHEVAGE, ash'vazh, sm. finishing (of pottery).

ACHEVALER, ash'valé-r, [formed from à cheval], va. and n. Milit. to occupy, to hold both sides of (a river, a road, etc.)

ACHEVÉ, E, ash'vé, pa. p. and adj. 1. (in a good or ill sense) perfect, thorough, regular, out-and-out ; 2. (in an ill sense) thorough-paced, downright, arrant, egregious ; 3. well-trained (as a horse) ; 4. worn-out. Orateur —, a perfect orator. Fou —, a perfect madman. Scélérat —, a regular scoundrel, a downright rascal. — par tant de malheurs, worn-out by so many misfortunes.

ACHÈVEMENT, ashèv'mân, sm. 1. finishing, completion ; 2. finish ; 3. conclusion, final scene (of a drama).

ACHEVER, asch'vé-r, [Lat. : ad ; caput, chef, head], va. 1. to finish : to bring to an end ; 2. to complete ; to give the finishing touch or stroke to ; 3. to kill, to dispatch (a person already wounded) ; 4. to ruin, to undo ; 5. Colloq. to do for. — une entreprise, to complete an undertaking. — ses jours, to end one's days. — de dîner, to finish dinner. — d'écrire, to leave off writing. Le cruel hiver de 1709 acheva de désespérer la nation, the cruel winter of 1709 completed the despair of the nation. Volt. Louis XIV. Ch. 21.

ACHEVER (s'), v. refl. 1. to come to an end, to end ; 2. to be completed, concluded. Sa vie s'acheva en paix, his life ended in peace.

ACHEVEUR, ash'vœr, sm. finisher.

ACHEVOIR, ash'vwâr, sm. 1. finishing-tool ; 2. finishing-room.

ACHILLE, ashil', pnm. Achilles : Mythol. a Greek hero. Tendon d'Achille, Achilles' tendon.

ACHILLÉE, achillé, sf. 1. Bot. achillea : milfoil, yarrow. — sternutatoire, sneezewort.

ACHIT, ashi, sm. achith : wild-vine of Madagascar.

ACHOPPEMENT, ashop'mân-t, sm. stumbling. Pierre d'—, stumbling-block ; obstacle, impediment.

ACHOPPER, ashopé-r. [à ; chopper], vn. to stumble. C'est là où tous ont achoppé, that is where all have stumbled. Pasc. Dispr. 2.

ACHORES, akôr, sm. pl. Med. tinea. V. TEIGNE.

ACHROMATIQUE, akromatik', [Gr. : ἀ, priv ; χρωματικός, coloured ; χρῶμα, colour], adj. Opt. achromatic.

ACHROMATISER, akromatizé-r, va. Opt. to achromatize.

ACHROMATISME, akromatism', sm. Opt. achromatism.

ACHROMATOPE, akro-matōp, s. and adj. affected with achromatopsia.

ACHROMATOPSIE, akromatop'si, [Gr. : ἀ, priv.: χρῶμα, colour], sf. Pathol. achromotopsia : daltonism.

ACHTHÉOMÈTRE, aktéomètr', [Gr. : ἄχθος, weight ; μέτρον, measure], sm. achtheometer : a weighing machine for carriages.

ACICULAIRE, asikulêr', [Lat. : acicula, small needle], adj. acicular : needle-shaped, said of crystals and leaves.

ACIDE, asid', [Lat. : acidus], adj. acid : sour, acetous. Fermentation —, acetous fermentation.

ACIDE, sm. Chem. acid.

ACIDIFIABLE, asidifiabl', adj. acidifiable.

ACIDIFIANT, E, asidifiân, ânt', adj. acidifying.

ACIDIFICATION, asidifikâsyôn, sf. acidification.

ACIDIFIER, asidifié-r, va. to accidify : to make sour.

ACIDIFIER (s'), v. refl. to become acid, to turn sour.

ACIDITÉ, asidité, sf. acidity : acidness, sourness.

ACIDULANT, E, asidulân-t, ânt, adj. acidulating.

ACIDULE, asidul' adj. acidulous, subacid.

ACIDULÉ, E, asidulé, adj. acidulated.

ACIDULER, asidulé-r, va. to acidulate.

ACIER, asyé, [Lat. : acies], sm. steel. — damassé, Damascus steel. — fondu, cast steel. — poule, blistered or blister steel. — étiré, — corroyé, shear steel, double-shear steel. — en feuille, sheet steel. Fil d'—, steel wire. Ressorts d'—, steel springs. Cœur d'—, Fig. heart of steel. Jarrets d'—, Fig. ironsides.

ACIÉRATION, asyérâsyôn. sf. conversion (of iron) into steel.

ACIÉRER, asyéré-r, va. to convert into steel; to make into steel.

ACIÉRER (s'), v. refl. to turn into steel; to be turned into steel.

ACIÉREUX, SE, asyérœ, œz', adj. fit for making steel.

ACIÉRIE, asyéri, sf. steelworks, steel-manufactory.

ACINACIFORME, asinasifòrm', [Lat. : acinax, sabre ; forme], adj. Bot. acinaciform : scimitar-shaped.

ACINIER, asinyé, sm. Bot. white thorn.

ACKERMAN, akerman' [Louise-Victorine Mme], poetess (1813-1890).

ACMÉ, akmé, [Gr. : ἀκμή, point], sm. Med. acme : crisis of a disease.

ACNÉ, akné, [Gr. : ἀκμή], s. Med. acne, acna.

ACOLYTE, akolit', [Gr. : ἀκόλυθος, an attendant], sm. 1. acolyte, acolyth : a) in the Rom. cath. church, a clerk in minor orders, next under the sub-deacon ; 2. (in an ill sense) confederate, accomplice.

ACOMPTE, akônt, [compte], sm. payment on account, instalment. Il a reçu deux a-comptes, he has received two instalments. V. COMPTE, for the adverbial phrase à compte, in two words.

ACON, V. ACCON.

ACONIT, akonit, [Gr. : ἀκόνιτος], sm. Bot. aconite : wolfsbane, monkshood.

ACONITINE, akonitin', sf. Chem. aconita, aconitine.

ACOQUINANT, E, akokinân-t, ânt', adj. captivating, attractive, enthralling.

ACOQUINER, akokiné-r, [Lat. : ad ; coquina, kitchen], va. 1. to attract, to captivate ; 2. to habituate, to accustom ; 3. to grow into a habit, to become habitual to ; 4. (neutrally) to be attractive, alluring, enthralling. Je ne m'étonne qu'un si bon métier vous ait acoquiné, I am not astonished that such a fine trade has attracted you. Le Sage. Gil Blas. On s'acoquine à servir ces gredins-là, je ne sais pourquoi, one gets accustomed to serving those rascals, I don't know why. Regnard. La Sérén. 9.

ACOQUINER (s'), v. refl. (with à) to become habituated, accustomed to, to contract a strong liking for.

ACOTYLÉDONE, akotilédon', [Gr. : ἀ priv. : κοτύλη, cavity], adj. Bot. acotyledonous : having no seed-lobes.

ACOTYLÉDONE, sf. Bot. acotyledon : acotyledonous plant.

ACOTYLÉDONÉ, E, akotilédoné, adj. Bot. acotyledonous.

ACOUMÈTRE, akoumètr', [Gr. : ἀκούω, I hear ; μέτρον, measure], sm. acoumeter : an instrument for measuring the extent of hearing.

A-COUP, akou, sm. (pl. des à-coups), 1. jerk ; 2. Milit. sudden halt.

ACOUSTIQUE, akoustik', [Gr. : ἀκούω, I hear], adj. 1. acoustic ; 2. Med. auditory. Cordon —, speaking-tube. Cornet —, ear-trumpet ; (when small and attached to the head) ear-cornet. Nerf, conduit —, auditory nerve, auditory canal. Voûte —, whispering gallery.

ACOUSTIQUE, sf. Phys. acoustics : the science of sounds.

ACQUÉREUR, akèrœr, sm. 1. purchaser (of an estate, a business, etc.) ; 2. Leg. vendee, bargainee.

ACQUÉRIR, akérir. [Lat. : acquirère ; ad, to ; quærère ; IRR. V.], va. 1. to purchase ; 2. to become possessor of (by purchase, exchange, inheritance or conquest) ; 3. to acquire ; 4. (of persons) to gain over, to win over (in a good or an ill sense) ; 5. to gain (affection, or favour) ; 6. to obtain ; 7. to incur (hatred, dislike). Prov. : Bien mal acquis ne profite jamais, ill-gotten goods seldom thrive.

ACQUÉRIR, vn. 1. to acquire, to obtain ; 2. to improve (as wines, etc., by keeping).

ACQUÉRIR (s'), v. refl. to be acquired, gained, obtained.

ACQUÊT, akè, [acquérir], sm. 1. acquisition ; 2. (used chiefly in the plural) Leg. acquest : property accruing to a husband or wife, and becoming their joint estate. Prov. : Il n'y a si bel acquêt que le don, no purchase like a gift.

ACQUIESCEMENT, akiès'mân-t, sm. (with à) 1. acquiescence in ; 2. submission to ; 3. compliance with ; 4. acceptance of.

ACQUIESCER, akiesé-r, [Lat. : adquiescère], vn. (with à) 1. to acquiesce in ; 2. to submit to ; 3. to comply (with).

ACQUIS, E, aki, kiz', pa. p. of ACQUÉRIR. 1. acquired ; 2. gained, won over. Bien mal —, ill-gotten wealth. Maladies acquises, Med. acquired or adventitious diseases (being neither congenital nor hereditary). Je vous suis acquis, I am at your disposal, yours to command. Un droit —, an unquestionable right.

ACQUIS, sm. 1. acquirement ; 2. (generally used in the plural) acquired knowledge, acquirements, attainments. Un — de facile étalage, an acquirement easily displayed. Il a beaucoup d'—, he has great acquirements.

ACQUISITION, akisisyôn ; in poet. -siòn, sf. 1. purchase : act of purchasing, thing purchased ; 2. acquisition : act of acquiring, thing acquired ; 3. acquirement ; 4. conquest, annexation.

ACQUISIVITÉ, akizivité, sf. Phrenol. acquisitiveness.

ACQUIT, aki, sm. 1. acquittance, discharge (of a debt, an obligation) ; 2. receipt (of a bill) ; 3. lead (at billards). — de douane, cocket : custom-house receipt. Pour — de conscience, for conscience' sake. Par manière d'—, perfunctorilly, for form's sake. Pour — (at the bottom of a bill), received, paid, settled. Donner l'—, to lead off (at billiards). Jouer à l'—, to play to decide who shall pay for all the company.

ACQUIT-A-CAUTION, aki-a-kôsyôn, sm. transire : custom-house permit ; excise bond.

ACQUITTEMENT, akit'mân-t, sm. 1. discharge, payment (of debts) ; 2. acquittal (of an accused person).

ACQUITTER, akité-r, va. 1. to clear, to free (person or estates) from debt or incumbrance ; 2. to pay, to pay off (debts) ; 3. to receipt (a tradesman's bill, etc.) ; 4. to perform, to fulfil (a promise, a duty) ; 5. to satisfy, to relieve (one's conscience) ; 6. to acquit (an accused person).

ACQUITTER (s'), v. refl. 1. (with de) to clear, to free one's self from (debts), to pay, to pay off ; 2. to acquit one's self (of an obligation, a performance) ; 3. to fulfil, to perform (a duty) ; 4. to recoup one's losses (at play), to be quits ; 5. to lead off (at billiards).

ACRE, akr'. [Engl.], sf. acre : land measure in England.

ÂCRE, âkr', [Lat. : acer, sharp], adj. 1. acrid ; 2. acrimonious, bitter. Saveur —, an acrid taste. Humeur —, acrid, acrimonious temper. Paroles âcres, bitter words.

ÂCRETÉ, âkrœté, sf. 1. acridity, acridness ; 2. acrimony, bitterness.

ACRIDIE, akridi, [Gr. : ἀκρίς, grasshopper], sf. Nat. Hist. cricket.

ACRIMONIE, akrimoni, [Lat. : acrimonia), sf. acrimony.

ACRIMONIEUX, SE, akrimoniœ, œz', adj. acrimonious.

ACROBATE, akrobat', [Gr. : ἄκρος, high ; βατεῖν, to walk], smf. 1. acrobate : rope-dancer ; 2. turncoat (in politics).

ACROBATISME, akrobatizm, sm. acrobatism.

ACROCÉPHALIE, akrosef'ali, [Gr. : ἄκρος, haut ; κεφαλή, head], sf. Anthrop. acrocephalia.

ACROGÈNE, akrozhèn', [Gr. : ἄκρος, summit : γεννάω, I produce], sm. Bot. acrogen.

ACROGÈNE, adj. Bot. acrogenous.

ACROMIAL, E, akromial, adj. Anat. acromial : belonging to the acromion.

ACROMION, akromiòn, [Gr. : ἄκρος, summit ; ὦμος, shoulder], sm. Anat. acromion : the terminal process of the spine of the scapula.

ACRONYQUE, akronik', [Gr. : ἄκρος, high ; νύξ, night], adj. Astron. acronycal : said of stars when they rise as the sun sets or set as the sun rises.

ACROPOLE, akropol', [Gr. : ἄκρος, high ; πόλις, city], sf. acropolis : citadel.

ACROSPIRE, akrospir', [Gr. : ἄκρος, summit ; σπεῖρα, anything spiral], sf. Bot acrospire.

ACROSTICHE, akrostish', [Gr. : ἄκρος, extreme ; στίχος, line], sm. acrostic.

ACROSTICHE, adj. acrostic, acrostical.

ACROTÈRE, akrotèr', [Gr. : ἀκρωτήριον, extremity], sm. Arch. acroter, acroterium.

ACTE, akt', [Lat. : actum], sm. 1. act : a) action, something done ; b) edict, decree, statute, law ; c) part of a play ; d) in universities, maintaining a thesis preparatory to taking a degree. — glorieux, glorious act. — criminel, criminal act. — généreux, act of generosity, generous action. — de vertu, act of virtue, virtuous action. — de contrition, act of contrition. — de foi, act of faith. — d'hostilité, act of hostility, hostile act. Faire — d'autorité, to show, to exert one's authority. Faire — de bonne volonté, to show one's good will (towards, a person). Faire — de complaisance, to show one's readiness to oblige. Faire — de présence, to make one's appearance, to present one's self, to be present. b) — judiciaire, judicial act. — de parlement, act of parliament. c) Tragédie en cinq actes, a tragedy in five acts. d) Soutenir un —, to keep an act, maintain a thesis.

2. deed : legal instrument, document. — faux, forged deed. — valable, deed good in law, valid deed. — notarié, deed drawn up by a notary and executed in his presence. — sous seing-privé, — privé, deed executed by private individuals without the intervention of a notary or other ministerial officer. — de dernière volonté, last will and testament. — de société, deed of partnership. — d'accusation, indictement, bill of indictment.

3. certificate. — de naissance, de mariage, de décès, certificate of birth, marriage, death.

4. official declaration, acknowledgment. Demander, donner, prendre — de, to demand, to give, to receive an official acknowledgment, a written certificate (of a fact). Expédition d'un —, copy of a deed, certificate, etc. Rédiger un —, to draw up a document. Prendre — de, (in colloq.lang.) to take note, a minute of (a fact, an admission, for the purpose of availing one's self of it at a future time.)

ACTES, sm. pl. 1. acts, records, rolls, proceedings : register of the decisions of courts of law, councils. Les actes des conciles, the acts of the councils.

2. acts : annals, historical narratives. Les Actes des Apôtres, des Saints, the Acts of the Apostles, of the Saints.

3. transactions. Les actes de la Société royale, the Transactions of the Royal Society.

ACTÉE, akté, [Gr. : ἀκτέα, elder], sf. Bot. actæa.—à épis, herb christopher,. baneberry.

ACTEUR, aktœr, sm. actor : a) one who takes a part in any action or event ; b) player, performer. Il a été le principal — dans cette grande révolution, he was the chief actor in that great revolution. V. ACTRICE.

ACTIF, VE, aktif, tiv', adj. active. Homme actif, active man. Vie active, active life, life of activity. Part active, active part (in any affair). Poison actif, active poison. Verbe actif, active verb. Voix active, active voice. Service actif, active service.

ACTIF, sm. 1. assets (of a trader) ; 2. Gram. active voice. L'actif et le passif d'un failli, a bankrupt's assets and liabilities.

ACTINIE, aktini, [Gr. : ἀκτίς, ray], sf. Nat. Hist. actinia : sea-anemone, animalflower.

ACTINISME, aktinisme, sm. actinism : the chemical force of the sun's rays.

ACTINOMÈTRE, aktin'ometre, [Gr. : ἀκτίς, ray ; μέτρον, measure], sm. actinometer : an instrument for measuring the heat intensity of the sun's rays, or the effect of light-rays.

ACTINOMORPHE, aktinomorf', [Gr. : ἀκτίς, ray ; μορφή, form], adj. Nat. Hist. actinomorphous.

ACTINOZOAIRES, aktinōzoair, [Gr.: ἀκτίς, ray ; ζῶον, animal], smpl, actinozoa pl animals of the class of cœlentarata.

ACTION, aksyôn ; in poet. aksiôn, [Lat. : actio], sf. 1. action : a) state of acting ; b) act, deed, anything done ; c) movement, motion ; d) operation ; e) influence, effect ; f) lawsuit ; g) gesture, gesticulation ; h) engagement, encounter, battle ; i) Paint. attitude, expression, j) series of events forming the subject of a poem, drama, etc. , k) motion, step (of a horse). L'— du feu sur les métaux, the action of fire on metals. — vitale, naturelle, mécanique, vital, natural, mechanical action. Mauvaise —, evil deed, bad action. Il nous faut des actions, et non pas des paroles, we want deeds, not words. Actions de grâce, thanksgiving. L'— du poison, de la médecine fut très rapide, the action of the poison, of the medicine was very rapid. — civile, civil action. Intenter une — à, to bring an action against, to sue at law. Etre en —, hors d'—, to be in gear, out of gear. Ce cheval a de l'—, that horse has good action, steps out well. L'— du temps, the work of time. Comme moyen d'— rien de plus souverain que l'exemple, as a means of influence, nothing is more powerful than example. Ste-Beuve. Prov. : Une bonne action trouve toujours sa récompense, good actions always bring their reward.

2. share (of a bank, railway, joint-stock company, etc.). — de capital, preference share. — de jouissance, bonus share. — nominative, personal action. — au porteur, share to bearer, negotiable or transferable share. — privilégiée, preference share. Les actions ont baissé, ont haussé, shares have fallen, gone down, or declined ; have risen, gone up or advanced.

3. session (of a council).

ACTIONNAIRE, aksyonèr', sm. shareholder, stockholder (in a joint-stock company).

ACTIONNER, aksyoné-r, va. to bring an action against, to sue ; to put in motion, to act upon.

ACTIONNER (s'), v. refl. to bestir one's self.

ACTIVANT, E, aktivân-t, ânt', adj. stimulating.

ACTIVEMENT, activ'mân-t, adv. actively : a) in an active manner ; b) Gram. in an active sense.

ACTIVER, aktivé-r, va. 1. to push on, to urge on, to hasten ; 2. to accelerate (motion) ; 3. to stir up, to brisk up (a fire).

ACTIVITÉ, aktivité, sf. 1. activity : a) power of acting ; b) diligence ; c) activeness, rapid operation ; 2. action ; 3. rapid execution (of works) ; 4. work. L'— d'un poison, the rapid action of a poison. L'— des travaux, the active progress of the works. En —, 1. in activity ; 2. (of military men and functionaries) in active service. En non-activité, Milit. unattached. Sphère d'—, sphere of action. Les fabriques sont en pleine —, the manufactories are in full work, are working full time.

ACTRICE, aktris', sf. actress : female performer or player. V. ACTEUR.

ACTUALITÉ, aktualité, [actuel], sf. 1. appropriateness to present circumstances ; 2. present interest ; 3. event of the day, passing event ; 4. novelty, fashion of the day, of the hour. Un ouvrage plein d'—, a work replete with present interest. Ces lois ont de l'—, those laws are well adapted to present circumstances. Le journalisme ne peut vivre que d'actualités, journalism can live only on passing events. Raym.

ACTUEL, LE, aktuèl, èl', [Lat. : actualis ; actum, act], adj. 1. actual : a) effective, real ; b) present ; 2. (with a verb in any tense but the present) then, for the time being, of the day. Le president — est, the present president is. La saison actuelle, the present season. La situation actuelle des affaires, the present state of affairs. La mode actuelle le demande, the fashion at present requires it. Le propriétaire — du château de Ferney a conservé la chambre de Voltaire telle qu'elle était à sa mort, the present owner of Ferney has preserved Voltaire's room in the state it was in at his death. A. Karr.

ACTUELLEMENT, aktuèl'mân-t, adv. 1. actually ; 2. at present, at the present moment, now ; 3. (after a verb in any tense but the present) then, at the moment, at that moment.

ACUITÉ, akuité, [Lat. : acutus ; acuĕre, to sharpen], sf. acuteness, sharpness (of a sound, of a pain).

ACULÉIFORME, akuléifòrm', [Lat. : aculeus, prick ; forme], adj. Bot., Zool. aculeate, aculeated.

ACUMINÉ, E, akuminé, [Lat. : acumen, point], adj. Bot., Zool. acuminate, acuminated : sharp-pointed.

ACUPONCTURE, akupônktur', [Lat. : acus, needle ; puncture], sf. Surg. acupuncture.

ACUPRESSURE, akupressure, [Lat. : acus, needle ; pressure], sf. Surg. acupressure.

ACUTANGLE, akutângl', adj. Math. acute-angled : having three acute angles.

ACUTANGULÉ, E, akutângulé, adj. Bot acutangular, acute-angled.

ADAGE, adazh', [Lat. : adagium], sm. adage. Un vieil adage, an old saw.

ADAGIO, adazhiô, [Ital.], 1. adv. adagio ; 2. sm. adagio. Un bel —, a fine adagio.

ADAM, adân, pnm. Adam : the first man. Le vieil —, Theol. the old Adam : man in a state of sin. Je ne le connais ni d'Ève ni d'—, he is no acquaintance of mine. Il se croit de la côte d'—, Fam. he thinks no small dirt of himself.

ADAMANTIN, E, adamântan, tin', [Gr. : ἀδαμάντινος], adj. 1. adamantine : made of or resembling adamant ; 2. adamantan : hard as adamant.

ADAPTATION, adaptàsyôn, sf, adaptation.

ADAPTER, adapté-r, [Lat. : adaptāre], va. 1. to adapt ; 2. to fit, to adjust ; 3. to suit.

ADAPTER (s'), v. refl. 1. to fit ; 2. to suit ; 3. to be applicable or suitable. — mal, 1. to fit badly ; 2. to be very unsuitable.

ADDITIF, VE, aditif, tiv', adj. additive.

ADDITION, adisyôn, [Lat. : ad, to ; dāre, to give], sf. 1. addition ; a) act of adding ; b) anything added ; c) a rule of arithmetic ; 2. score, reckoning (at a tavern, etc.) ; 3. Print. marginal note, side-note. Faire l'— de, to add up.

ADDITIONNEL, LE, adisyonèl, nèl', adj. additionnal. Centimes additionnels, a certain number of centimes per franc added to the usual taxes to meet extraordinary requirements. Clause additionnelle, rider : clause added to a legislative bill or other document.

ADDITIONNER, adisyonè-r, va. 1. to add (one thing to another) ; 2. (of number) to add together, to add up, to cast up. Additionner de sucre un sirop, to put more sugar into a syrup.

ADDUCTEUR, aduktœr, adj. Anat. adducent : said of muscles.

ADDUCTEUR, sm. Anat. adductor : adducent muscle.

ADDUCTION, aduksyôn, [Lat. : adducĕre ; ad, to ; ducĕre, to bring], sf. Anat. adduction : the action of adducent muscles.

ADELPHE, adèlf', [Gr. : ἀδελφός, brother], adj. Bot. adelphous, adelphic : having the stamens joined together.

ADEMPTION, adânsyôn, [Lat. : ademptio, taking ; adimĕre, to take], sf. Leg. ademption : suppression of a legacy .

ADÉNITE, adénit', [Gr. : ἀδήν, gland], sf. Med. adenitis : inflammation of a gland.

ADÉNOLOGIE, adénolozhi, [Gr. : ἀδήν, gland ; λόγος, science], sf. Anat. adenology : doctrine of the glands.

ADENT, adân-t, [Lat. : a, to ; dens, dentis, tooth], sm. Carpent. hook, tabling (of a scarf-joint).

ADEPTE, adèpt', [Lat. : adeptus], smf. adept.

ADÉQUAT, E, adékwa, kwat', [Lat. : adæquatus ; ad, to ; æquāre, to equal], adj. Philos. adequate.

ADHÉRENCE, adérâns', sf. Phys. Surg. and Pathol. 1. adhesion : state of adhering : 2. adherence (to principles or parties). l'— du poumon avec la plèvre, the adhesion of the lungs to the pleura.

ADHERENT, E, adérân-t, ânt, adj. adherent, adhering.

ADHÉRENT, sm. adherent.

ADHÉRER, adéré-r, [Lat. : ad, to ; hærēre, hæsum to stick], vn. (with à) to adhere to, to be attached to, to give in one's adhesion (to a party, etc.).

ADHÉSIF, VE, adézif, iv', adj. adhesive.

ADHÉSION, adézyôn, sf. 1. adhesion :

in a general sense, and in Surg.; 2. adherence (to parties or principles). Donner son — à un projet, to give in one's adhesion to a project.

ADIABATIQUE, adeabatik, [Gr. : ἀ priv.; διαβαίνω, I cross], adj. Phys. adiabatic : pertaining to change of air temperature, due to change of density. Compression —, a diabatic compression.

ADIANTE, adiânt, [Gr. : ἀδίαντος], sm. Bot. adianthum : maiden hair, a large kind of fern.

ADIEU, adyœ, [à; Dieu], adv. adieu, farewell, good-bye. Dire —, to bid adieu, to say farewell; to take leave. Visite d'—, farewell visit. Je ne vous dis pas —; sans adieu, I won't say good-bye. Il a dit — à la poésie, he has renounced, abandoned poetry. Si la fièvre vient à redoubler, — le malade, if the fever returns, good-bye to the patient. Prov. : Adieu paniers, vendanges sont faites, it's all up with us now. Adieu la fortune, adieu l'amitié, when good cheer is lacking, friends will be missing.

ADIEU, sm. adieu. Un dernier —, a last farewell. Des adieux touchants, an affecting farewell. Dire un — à, faire ses adieux à, to say good-bye to, to take a final, a last farewell of.

ADIEU-VA adyœ-va, sm. Naut. [an old naval command now replaced by Envoyez! helm a-lee].

ADIPEUX, SE, adipœ, œz', [Lat. : adeps, adipis, fat], adj. adipose.

ADIPOCIRE, adiposir', [Lat. : adeps, adipis, Lat; cira, wax], sf. Chem. adipocire : grave-wax.

ADIPOSE, adipô-ze, sf. Med. adiposes : the production of fat.

ADIPOSITÉ, adipôs'itē. sf. Med. adiposity : obesity.

ADIPSIE, adipsî, sf. Med. adipsia.

ADIRER, adiré-r, [à; dire], va. to lose, to mislay.

ADITION, adisyôn, [Lat. : aditio], sf. Leg. acceptance (of a succession).

ADJACENT, E, adzhasân-t, ânt, [Lat. : ad, to; jacēre, to lie], adj. adjacent, contiguous.

ADJECTIF, VE, adzhéktif, tiv', adj. adjective, adjectival.

ADJECTIF, sm. Gram. adjective.

ADJECTION, adzhèkzyôn, sf. Didact. objection : addition, junction.

ADJECTIVEMENT, adzhèktiv'mân-t, adv. adjectively.

ADJOINDRE, adzhwandr', [ad; joindre], va. 1. to adjoin, to appoint (as a coadjutor; an assistant, an associate, a colleague to any functionary).

ADJOINDRE (s'), v. refl. 1. to take to one's self (an aid or assistant); (with à) to join (as an assistant). Adjoignez-vous un aide, get an assistant. Il s'était adjoint à des voyageurs, he had joined some travellers.

ADJOINT, E, adzhwân-t, ant', adj. adjunct; assistant; deputy. Maire —, deputy mayor. Professeur —, professor adjunct, or assistant professor.

ADJOINT, sm. 1. associate, assistant : 2. deputy (of a mayor, or other functionary); 3. Gram. adjunct.

ADJONCTION, adzhônksyôn, sf. 1. adjunction (of one person or thing to another); 2. addition; 3. Gram. zeugma. L'— d'une lettre à un mot, the addition of a letter to a word.

ADJUDANT, adzhudân-t, sm. Milit. adjutant.

ADJUDICATAIRE, adzhudikatêr', smf. 1. purchaser, buyer (at sales); 2. contractor : successful tenderer for contracts.

ADJUDICATEUR, adzhudikatœr, sm. 1. auctioneer; 2. awarder : person who decides on tenders for contracts.

ADJUDICATION, adzhudikâsyôn, sf. 1. sale by auction; 2. award, awarding granting (of contracts for army supplies, execution of public works, etc.). — aux enchères. 1. selling by auction; 2. awarding, granting (leases, etc.), to the highest bidder. — au rabais, awarding (contracts for supplies, execution of works, etc.), to the lowest bidder, by sealed tenders. Obtenir des travaux publics par —, to obtain a contract for public works (in a competition by sealed tenders). Par —, by contract.

ADJUGÉ, E, adzhuzhé, pa. p. 1. adjudged; 2. knocked down, sold (to the highest bidder); awarded, adjudged (to the lowest tender). Une fois, deux fois, adjugé! going, going, gone!

ADJUGER, adzhuzhé-r, [Lat. : ad, to; judicāre, to judge], va. 1. to adjudge, to give judgment; 2. (with à) to award; 3. to sell, to knock down to (at auctions); 4. to grant (a contract, etc.); 5. to award (a prize). La maison lui fut adjugée à tant, the house was knocked down to him for so much. On lui adjugea l'éclairage des rues, the contract for lighting the streets was granted to him. — le prix, to award the prize.

ADJUGER (s'), v. refl. 1. to award to one's self; 2. to claim for one's self.

ADJURATION, adzhurâsyôn, sf. adjuration : a) exorcism; b) earnest entreaty.

ADJURER, adzhuré-r, [Lat. : adjurāre], va. to adjure.

ADJUTEUR, adzhutœr, sm. adjutor : helper, assistant.

ADJUVANT, E, adzhuvân-t, ânt', [Lat. : adjuvans, helping], adj. adjuvant : said of medicines.

ADJUVANT, sm. Med. adjuvant.

ADMETTRE, admètr', [Lat. : ad, to; mittĕre, to send], va. [conjugated like METTRE]. 1. (with dans) to admit into : a) to give admittance into a place; b) to receive into; c) to receive an opinion; d) to grant, to concede, to allow of, to be capable of; 2. to allow, to permit. — dans sa maison, to admit into one's house. — dans sa confiance, to admit (to receive) into one's confidence. J'admets vos raisons, I admit your reasons. Ses excuses furent admises, his excuses were received. Cette proposition n'admet pas de preuve, that proposition is incapable of proof. Cette affaire n'admet point de retard, that business will not admit (allow) of delay. J'admets qu'il en est ainsi, I admit (allow, grant) such to be the case. Admettons que cela soit vrai, let us suppose that to be true. Il fut admis à se défendre, he was allowed (permitted) to defend himself.

ADMINICULE, adminikul', [Lat. : adminiculum], sm. 1. Leg. adminicle : presumtive proof; 2. aid, help; 3. Med. adjuvant; 4. accessory ornaments (on a medal); 5. Bot. support (of a plant).

ADMINISTRATEUR, administratœr, sm. 1. administrator; 2. manager, director (of any large establishment); 3. trustee (of a charity); 4. governor (of a hospital); 5. guardian (of the poor).

ADMINISTRATIF, VE, administratif, iv', adj. administrative.

ADMINISTRATION, administrâsyôn, sf. 1. administration : a) the act or art of administering public or private affairs; b) ministry, executive, government; c) managing body of a public department or trading company; 2. trusteeship; 3. guardianship; 4. management, direction (of a business).

ADMINISTRATRICE, administratris', sf. administratrix. V. ADMINISTRATEUR.

ADMINISTRATIVEMENT, administrativ'mânt, adv. administratively.

ADMINISTRÉ, E, administré, pa. p. 1. administered, etc. V. ADMINISTRER; 2. (used substantively as the correlative of administrateur) citizen, inhabitant. Le maire et ses administrés, the mayor and his fellow-citizens. Le préfet et ses administrés, the prefect and the people (the inhabitants) of the department.

ADMINISTRER, administré-r, [Lat. : administrāre], va. 1. to administer : a) to manage, to conduct (a government, an estate, a business, etc.); b) to dispense, to distribute (justice); c) to give (medecine to a patient); d) to give (the sacraments) to; e) to deal, to inflict (blows). — des coups de poing, to cuff, to strike with the fists. — des coups de pied, to kick. — des coups de bâton, to thrash with a stick, to cudgel. 2. to administer the last sacraments to (a dying person); 3. to produce (proofs, witnesses in a court of justice).

ADMINISTRER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be administered, managed; 2. to administer to one's self, to take (medecine, wine, etc.)

ADMIRABLE, admirabl', adj. 1. admirable; 2. excellent; 3. (ironically) extraordinary, surprising, strange, fine. Vous êtes vraiment —, you are a pretty fellow, really!

ADMIRABLEMENT, admirablœmân-t, adv. 1. admirably, to admiration; 2. excellently.

ADMIRANT, E, admirân-t, ânt', adj. admiring.

ADMIRATEUR, m. TRICE, f. admiratœr, tris', n. 1. admirer; 2. (used adjectively) admiring. Un peuple admirateur, an admiring nation.

ADMIRATIF, IVE, admiratif, iv', adj. 1. inclined to admire; 2. expressing or indicating admiration. Point admiratif, Gram. point of admiration. D'un air admiratif, with an admiring look.

ADMIRATION, admirâsyôn, sf. admiration : a) act of admiring; b) object admired; c) passion, flame. Point d'—, admiration, note or point of admiration. Etre en — de, dans l'— de, to admire. Faire l'— de, être l'— de, to be the admiration of, to be admired by.

ADMIRATRICE, admiratris', V. ADMIRATEUR.

ADMIRER, admiré-r, [Lat. : ad, at; mirari, to wonder], va. 1. to admire; 2. to wonder at, to be amazed, astonished at.

ADMIRER, vn. 1. to admire; 2. (with de followed by an infinitive, or que by a subjunctive) to wonder, to be astonished, amazed.

ADMIRER (s'), v. refl. to admire one's self. Se faire admirer, to make one's self admired, to win admiration.

ADMIS, E, admi, iz', pa. of ADMETTRE, 1. admitted; 2. received. C'est un fait admis, it is an acknowledged fact.

ADMISSIBILITÉ, admissibilité, sf. admissibility.

ADMISSIBLE, admissibl', adj. admissible : said of persons and things.

ADMISSION, admisyôn, [admettre], sf. admission, admittance.

ADMIXTION, admikstyôn, [Lat. : ad,

·o ; mixtio, mixture], sf. admixtion, admixture.

ADMONESTATION, admonèstâsyô*n*, sf. 1. admonition ; 2. reprimand, caution.

ADMONESTER, admonèsté-r, [Lat. : admonēre], va 1. to admonish ; 2. to reprimand, to caution.

ADMONITEUR, admonitœr, sm. 1. admonisher ; 2. monitor.

ADMONITION, admonisyô*n*, sf. 1. admonition ; 2. caution, reprimand.

ADMONITRICE, admonitris', sf. 1. admonisher ; 2. monitress.

ADNÉ, E, adné, [Lat. : ad natus], adj. Nat. Hist. adnate.

ADOLESCENCE, adolesàns', [Lat. : adolescĕre, to grow], sf. adolescence, youth.

ADOLESCENT, E, adolesâ*n*-t, ânt', s. 1. adolescent : young person of either sex ; 2. youth, stripling : said of the male sex only ; 3. (sometimes used adjectively) : Une âme adolescente, a youthful soul. Vigne adolescente, a young vine (which has never borne fruit).

ADONIEN, adonian, or ADONIQUE, adonik', adj. and sm. adonic : said of a Greek or Latin verse containing a dactyl and a spondee.

ADONIS, adonis, sm. 1. Myth. Adonis ; a) beautiful youth beloved by Venus ; b) ironically, a young man proud of his personal appearance ; 2. Bot. adonis : a genus of plants including pleasant's-eye.

ADONISER, adonizé-r, va. 1. to dress up or out, to over-dress ; 2. to bedeck, to bedizen.

ADONISER (s'), v. refl. to bedizen, to over-dress one's self.

ADONNÉ, E, adoné, adj. 1. (with à) given to ; 2. (in an ill sense), addicted to.

ADONNER, adoné-r, vn. 1. Naut. to serve, to become favourable (as the wind) ; 2. to give, to stretch (as a rope).

ADONNER (s'), v. refl. 1. (with à) to apply, to denote one's self to ; to take to (in a good or ill sense) ; 2. to addict one's self to, to be given or addicted to (generally in a bad sense ; 3. to frequent (places or persons) ; 4. to take a certain direction, S'— à l'étude, to apply one's self to study. S'— à boire, to take to drinking. Ce chien s'est adonné à moi, this dog has taken (become attached) to me.

ADOPTABLE, adoptâble, adj. that can be adopted.

ADOPTANT, adoptâ*n*-t, sm. adopter.

ADOPTER, adopté-r, [Lat. : ad, to ; optāre, to choose], va. 1. to adopt : said of persons and things ; 2. (in deliberative assemblies) to carry, to agree to (a resolution, a motion) ; 3. to pass (a bill). La proposition fut adoptée à l'unanimité, the motion was carried unanimously.

ADOPTIF, IVE, adoptif, iv', adj. adoptive : applied indifferently to the adopter and the adopted. Fils —, adoptive son. Parents adoptifs, adoptive parents. Père —, foster-father.

ADOPTION, adopsyô*n*, sf. 1. adoption ; 2. carrying (of a motion, a resolution) ; 3. passing (of a bill, a law). Donner son fils en —, to resign one's son to an adoptive parent. Pays d'—, adopted country. Etude d'—, favourite study.

ADORABLE, adorabl', adj. adorable.

[May precede the noun, except the latter be a monosyllable beginning with a vowel or mute h.]

ADORATEUR, TRICE, adoratœr, tris', s. 1. adorer, worshipper ; in a religious sense ; 2. adorer, in a religious or general sense. — du feu, fire-worshipper. Peuple adorateur (adjectively), an adoring people. Un — de Bacchus, a drunkard, toper.

ADORATION, adorâsyô*n*, sf. 1. worship : religious homage ; 2. adoration : in a religious or general sense ; 3. homage (paid to the pope by the cardinals on his election).

ADORER, adoré-r, [Lat. : adorāre], va. 1. to adore : in a general sense ; 2. to worship, to adore : in a religious sense ; 3. to be very fond of. Il adorait sa fille, he was very fond of his daughter.

ADOS, adô, [adosser], sm. Gard. sloping bed (backed against a wall).

ADOSSÉ, E, adosé, adj. 1. backed (against a wall, etc.) ; 2. set back to back ; 3. Herald. addorsed.

ADOSSEMENT, ados'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. the being set back to back ; 2. backing. L'— de votre maison à un coteau, your house being backed against a hill.

ADOSSER, adosé-r, [à ; dos], va. with à or contre]. 1. to set a person's back against (a wall, etc.) ; 2. to lean (anything) against ; to rest, to support. Il endossa ses hommes à une muraille, he set his men with their backs to (or against) a wall.

ADOSSER (s'), v. refl. 1. to set one's own back (against) ; 2. to be backed (by) ; 3. to rest, to support one's self against. Il s'adossa contre un arbre et se défendit, he set his back against a tree and defended himself.

ADOUBER, adoubé-r, vn. to arrange, to adjust. J'adoube, I arrange (an expression used at chess, both in France and England, when a player touches a piece solely to arrange it.)

ADOUBER, va. Naut. to repair.

ADOUCIR, adousir, [doux], va. 1. to sweeten ; 2. to soften, to soften down (what is harsh, abrupt, or disagreeable) ; 3. to render or make milder (as the temperature) ; 4. to relieve, to alleviate, to allay (pain or anxiety) ; 5. to soothe, to assuage (grief) ; 6. to calm, to mollify, to appease (anger, fury) ; 7. to extenuate (a fault, an offence) ; 8. to mitigate, to diminish (a punishment) ; 9. to smooth, to smooth down (anything rough or uneven) ; 10. to polish (metals, etc.) ; 11. to unruffle (the brow), to give a milder expression to (the physiognomy) ; 12. to temper, to moderate, to modify.

ADOUCIR (s'), v. refl. 1. Prop. and Fig. to become, to grow, to get sweeter, softer or milder ; 2. to be assuaged, appeased, calmed down, or allayed ; 3. to be relieved, alleviated ; 4. to be mitigated.

ADOUCISSAGE, adousisazh', sm. 1. first polish (given to metals, etc.) ; 2. polishing powder ; 3. Dy. reducing, softening down (of colours).

ADOUCISSANT, E, adoucisâ*n*-t, â*n*-t', adj. and sm. Med. emollient, demulcent, lenitive.

ADOUCISSEMENT, adousis'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. sweetening (of what is sour, bitter, etc.) ; 2. softening (of what is hard or harsh) ; 3. making, rendering, growing milder (as the weather) ; 4. making, rendering gentle (what is fierce or savage) ; 5. relief, relieving, alleviation (of pain) ; 6. soothing, assuaging (of grief, etc.) ; 7 calming, appeasing, appeasement, allayment (of anger, etc.) ; 8. extenuating, extenuation (of a fault or offence) ; 9. palliation ; mitigation, diminution (of a punishment) ; 10. smoothing, smoothing down (of asperities) ; 11. tempering, modifying, modification ; 12. Arch. bed-moulding : a curved or sloping moulding connecting a projecting surface with a plane one ; 13. Paint. softening, toning, shading down ; 14. first polish (of metals).

† ADOUÉ, E, adoué, pa. p. of the obsolete verb ADOUER ; paired (as partridges).

AD PATRES, ad patrès, Lat. Aller ad patres, to sleep with one's fathers, to go to kingdom come, to die.

ADRAGANT, adragâ*n*-t, ADRAGANTHE adragânt', [corr. of tragacanthe], adj. Gomme adragant, gomme d'adragant, gum tragacanth, gumdragon.

ADRESSE, adrès', sf. 1. address : a) direction, superscription (on a letter, parcel, etc.) ; b) indication of a person's residence ; c) written discourse presented to a prince or other person in the name of a public body or of private persons ; d) dexterity, adroitness. L'— d'une lettre, the address of a letter. A l'— de, addressed to. Changer son —, to change one's address. Cela va à l'— d'un tel, that is intended for, is a cut at such-a-one. Vous vous trompez d'—, Fig. you come to the wrong shop. Bureau d'adresses, inquiry or intelligence office. — de félicitations, congratulatory address.

2. cleverness, adroitness, skill (of mind or body), expertness (of the body), handiness (in manual operations). Tour d'—, clever manœuvre, sleight of hand trick. Il avait l'— de, he was artful enough to.

ADRESSER, adrèsé-r, (O. Fr. : adréchier, to make straight), va. 1. to address ; a) to send a person, a letter, etc. b) to forward, to despatch (letters, parcels) ; c) to direct, to superscribe (letters, etc.) ; d) to speak to (a person) ; e) to make (a request), to put, to ask (questions), to offer up (prayers) ; f) to pay (attentions, devotions). Je vous ai adressé à l'homme qui pouvait le mieux vous renseigner, I sent you to the man best able to inform you. Sans doute il m'adressait ce discours, undoubtedly he meant that speech for me, he spoke at me. Maladresser, to misdirect. Coup bien adressé, a well aimed blow.

2. to direct, to turn (one's steps or thought).

ADRESSER (s'), v. refl. (with à) to address one's self to : to apply to, to have recourse to ; 2. to tend (as steps, paths) ; 3. to address, to speak to ; 4. to be addressed to, to be meant for (a person). S'— à, to apply to (a person), to apply at (a place). S'— ici, apply, enquire within. Je sais à qui je m'adresse, I know whom I have to deal with. Cela s'adresse à moi, that is intended for me.

ADRESSER, vn. 1. to hit the mark ; 2. (with à) to aim at.

ADRIEN, adrian, pnm. Adrian.

ADRIATIQUE, adriatik', adj. and sf. Adriatic. La mer —, the Adriatic, the Adriatic sea.

ADROIT, E, adrwâ-t, adrwât', [à ; droit], adj. 1. adroit, dexterous, clever, expert ; ready (in thought and act) ; 2. (in a bad sense) artful. Adroit tireur, clever marksman. — à tous les exercices, expert at all exercises. — à tromper, clever at deception. C'est un — fripon, he is a cunning knave.

3. (of things), dexterous, clever ; 4. (in a bad sense), cunning, artful. Manœuvre —, dexterous, clever manœuvre. — mensonge, artful lie. Son adroite vertu ménage son crédit, her dexterous virtue saves her credit.

ADROITEMENT, adrwât'mân-t, adv. 1. adroitly, cleverly, dexterously, expertly; 2. (in a bad sense) artfully.

ADULATEUR, TRICE, adulatœr, tris', sm. adulator, flatterer; sycophant.

ADULATEUR, TRICE, adj. adulatory, flattering, sycophantic.

ADULATION, adulâsyôn, sf. adulation: flattery, sycophancy.

ADULER, adulé-r, [Lat. : adulari], va. to adulate, to flatter.

ADULTE, adult', [Lat. : adultus; adolescĕre to grow], adj. 1. adult, full-grown, grown up; 2. (of plants) full-grown, of full growth. Age —, adult age.

ADULTE, smf. adult: a grown-up person of either sex.

ADULTÉRATION, adultérâsyôn, sf. 1. adulteration (of drugs, etc.); 2. debasement (of coin).

ADULTÈRE, adultèr', [Lat. : ad, to; alter, another], smf. 1. adulterer, m; 2. adulteress, f.

ADULTÈRE, adj. 1. adulterate, adulterous: said of persons and things; 2. impure.

ADULTÈRE, sm. adultery: violation of conjugal fidelity, called criminal conversation (crim. con.) in the English common-law courts. — simple, double, single adultery (when only one of the parties is married), double adultery (when both parties are married).

ADULTÉRER, adultéré-r, va. 1. to adulterate (drugs); 2. to debase (the coin); 3. to vitiate.

ADULTÉRIN, INE, adultéran, rin', adj. 1. adulterine adulterous: born of an adulteress; 2. Bot. hybrid.

† ADURENT, E, aduràn-t, ânt', [Lat. : ad, to; urĕre, to burn], adj. Med. burning: said of fevers.

ADUSTE, adust', [Lat. : adustus; adurĕre, to burn up], adj. adust: burnt up.

ADUSTION, adustyôn, sf. Med. adustion.

ADVENIR, advœnir, [Lat. : ad, to; venire, to come], vn. 1. to happen, to come to pass; 2. (with à) to befall. Advienne que pourra, come what come may, happen what may. Mal advienne à qui..., evil befall him who...

ADVENTICE, advântis', [Lat. : adventicius], adj. Didact., Med., Bot., adventitious. Maladies adventices, adventitious or acquired diseases.

ADVENTIF, IVE, advântif, iv', adj. 1. adventive; 2. Bot. adventitious.

ADVERBE, advèrb', [Lat. : ad; verbum], sm. Gram. adverb.

ADVERBIAL, E, advèrbial, al', adj. Gram. adverbial.

ADVERBIALEMENT, advérbial'mân-t, adv. adverbially.

ADVERBIALISER, advèrbializé-r, va. 1. to add an adverbial termination (to a word); 2. to use adverbially.

ADVERBIALITÉ, advèrbialité, sf. adverbial quality or character.

ADVERSAIRE, advèrsèr', [Lat. : adversarius], sm. adversary: opponent, antagonist, enemy.

ADVERSATIF, VE, advèrsatif, iv', adj. Gram. adversative.

ADVERSE, advèrs', [Lat. : ad, to; vertĕre, to turn], adj. 1. adverse: contrary, opposing, opposite; 2. Bot. apposite, opposed. Partie —, [in law courts] opposite party, the other side. Avocat —, counsel for the other side, opposing counsel.

ADVERSITÉ, advèrsité, sf. 1. adversity: misfortune, adverse fortune; 2. pl. misfortunes, troubles, afflictions.

ADYNAMIE, adinami, [Gr. : ἀ neg.; δύναμις, strength], sf. Med. adynamia, debility.

ADYNAMIQUE, adinamik', Med. adynamic.

AÉRAGE, aérazh', sm. ventilation (of rooms, mines, etc.). Puits d'—, air-shaft (of a mine).

AÉRATION, aérâsyôn, sf. 1. aeration: impregnation with air or carbonic acid; 2. ventilation. V. AÉRAGE.

AÉRÉ, E, aéré, adj. 1. ventilated; 2. aerated (as water); 3. (adjectively) airy, open to the air.

AÉRER, aéré-r, [Gr.; Lat. : aer, air], va. 1. to ventilate: to renew the air of a room, etc.; 2. to aerate (water); 3. to air (corn stored in garners).

AÉRIEN, NE, aéryan, ryèn', in poet. aérian, rièn', adj. aerial: airy, of or in the air. Armée aérienne, aerial army. Flotte aérienne, aerial fleet, airships. Perspective aérienne, aerial perspective. Voies aériennes, conduits aériens, Anat. air-passages. Cellule aérienne, air-cell. Vésicule aérienne, air-bladder (of a fish). Esprits aériens, airial spirits. Les champs aériens, the fields of air.

AÉRIFÈRE, aérifer', adj. aeriferous, air. Voies aérifères, air-passages.

AÉRIFICATION, aérifikâsyôn, sf. Chem. aerification: conversion of solids or liquids into gases.

AÉRIFIER, aérifié-r, [Lat. : aer, air; ferre, to bear], va. to aerify, to transform into liquid.

AÉRIFORME, aérifòrm', adj. aeriform.

AÉRISER, aérizé-r, va. Chem. to aerify: to convert into a gaseous form.

AÉRODROME, aérodrome, [Gr.: ἀήρ, air; δρόμος, a running], sm. aerodrome, flying-ground.

AÉRODYNAMIQUE, aérodinamik', [Gr.: ἀήρ, air; δύναμις, strength], sf. aerodynamics: science treating of the motion of elastic fluids.

AÉROGRAPHIE, aérografi, [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; γράφη, description], sf. aerography: description of the atmosphere.

AÉROHYDROPLANE, aéroidroplân, [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; ὕδωρ, water; planer], sm. aerhydroplane: boat that sildes on the water, propelled by screws above.

AÉROLITHE, aérolite', [Gr.: ἀήρ, air; λίθος, stone], sm. aerolite, aerolith: meteoric mass falling from the atmosphere.

AÉROLOGIE, aérolozhi, [Gr. : ἀήο, air; λόγος, discourse], sf. aerology: theory of the air.

AÉROMANCIE, aéromânsi, [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; μαντεία, divination], sf. aeromancy: divination by aerial phenomena.

AÉROMEL, aéromel, sm. manna.

AÉROMÈTRE, aéromètr', [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; μέτρον, measure], sm. aerometer: instrument for measuring the density of the air.

AÉROMÉTRIE, aérométri, sf. aero-metry: art of measuring the density of the air AÉROMOTEUR, aéromœter, [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; moteur], sm. motor worked by air.

AÉRONAUTE, aéronôt', [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; ναύτης, navigator], smf. aeronant.

AÉRONAUTIQUE, aéronôtik', adj. aronautic.

AÉRONAUTIQUE, sf. aeronautics: the art of navigating the air.

AÉRONEF, aéronef, [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; nef, ship], sm. airship.

AÉROPHOBE, aérofob', [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; φόβος, fear], smf. person afflicted with aerophobia.

AÉROPHOBIE, aérofobi, sf. Med. aerophobia: dread of air.

AÉROPHORE, aérofor', adj. V. AÉRIFÈRE.

AÉROPLANE, aéroplân, [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; planer; Lat. : planus, plane], sm. aeroplane, sm. flying-machine.

AÉROSPHÈRE, aérosfèr', sf. atmosphere.

AÉROSTAT, aérosta, [Gr. : ἀήρ, air; στάω, I stand; στάτος, standing], sm. aerostat: air-balloon.

AÉROSTATION, aérostâsyôn, sf. aerostation; navigation of the air.

AÉROSTATIQUE, aérostatik', adj. aerostatic: relating to aerostation or aerostatics.

AÉROSTATIQUE, sf. aerostatics: science treating of the equilibrium of the air and other gaseous fluids.

ÆSTHETIQUE, ÆTIOLOGIE. V. ESTHÉTIQUE, ETIOLOGIE.

AÉTITE, aétit', sf. aetites: eagle-stone.

AFATOMIER, afatomyé, sm. sloe-tree: the common black-thorn.

AFFABILITÉ, afabilité, sf. affability.

AFFABLE affabl', [Lat. : affabilis; ad, to; fari, to speak], adj. affable.

AFFABLEMENT, afabl'mân-t, adv. affably.

AFFABULATION, afabulâsyôn, [Lat. : affabulatio], sf. affabulation: moral of a fable.

AFFADIR, afadir, [à; fade], va. 1. to render insipid, to deprive of relish; 2. Fig. to render dull, tame, or spiritless; 3. to pall on (the stomach, the mind); 4. to disgust; 5. to deaden, to flatten (wines, etc.) — le cœur, to cause nausea.

AFFADIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to lose savour; 2. to become insipid, mawkish, nauseous.

AFFADISSANT, E, afadisân-t, ânt', adj. 1. vapid, insipid; 2. mawkish, nauseous, sickening.

AFFADISSEMENT, afadis'mân-t, sm. 1. loss of savour, sapidness, insipidity; 2. mawkishness, nausea, sickening sensation.

AFFAIBLIR, aféblir, [à; faible], va. 1. to weaken: a) to enfeeble, to debilitate; b) to impair; c) to reduce, to diminish; 2. to abate (glory, authority); 3. to debase (coinage); 4. (in a neuter sense) to become weak, to grow feeble.

AFFAIBLIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to become, to get, to grow weak or feeble; 2. to become impaired; 3. to grow faint (as hopes); 4. to decline; to fall off or away.

AFFAIBLISSANT, E, aféblisân-t, ânt', adj. weakening, debilitating, enfeebling.

AFFAIBLISSEMENT, aféblis'mân-t, sm. 1. weakening; 2. weakness; 3. debility, enfeeblement; 4. relaxation (of discipline); 5. diminution: falling-off; 6. debasement (of coinage).

AFFAINÉANTIR (S'), afféniântir (fainéant), v. refl. to become weak, effeminate.

AFFAIRE, afèr', [à: faire], sf. 1. affair: this English word, though derived from the French, does not render all the meanings of its original, but is often advantageously replaced by matter, thing, concern, question, and other expressions. — agréable, difficile, importante, agreeable, difficult, important affair. Une — d'intérêt, a money matter, a question of interest, C'est une étrange —, it is a strange affair, matter, business. — de cœur, love affair. — de rien, trifling affair, small matter. Ce n'est pas une —, it is a mere nothing. Une mauvaise —, a bad piece of business; a scrape. Assou- tir une —, to hush up an affair, a scandal. Le meilleur de l'—, the best of the affair, the cream of the matter, of the joke. C'est une bonne — de faite, it is a good job over, done. Une belle —, a fine affair; Ironic. a pretty job, a fine mess. Cela fera-t-il votre — ? Will this suit your purpose ? Cette maison fait mon —, that house just suits me, is just what I wanted. Point d'—, all in vain, to no purpose; nothing of the kind; devil a bit. Voyons, Monsieur, le temps ne fait rien à l'—, you see sir, time does nothing in the matter. Mol. Misan. i. 2.

2. business : in a general sense. C'est mon —, that is my business. J'en fais mon —, I make that my business, my affair. Il est en —, he is busy, he is engaged. Faire son — principale d'une chose, to make a thing one's chief (main, principal) business (or occupation). Faire —, to do business, to deal, to come to terms, to make a bargain. Parler d'affaires, to talk about business. Nous avons fait — ensemble, we have done business together, we have had dealings with each other. Son — est faite. 1. his business is settled, he is ruined; 2. (of a sick person) his fate is sealed, he is past recovery, it is all over with him. J'ai — chez mon banquier, I have business at my banker's, with my banker. Un marchand a — à toutes sortes de gens, a tradesman has business with, has to deal with, all sorts of people. J'ai — à des gens difficiles, I have to deal with impracticable people. Il a — à forte partie, he has to deal with a rough customer. Evitez d'avoir — avec des fripons, beware of dealing with rogues. Je lui ferai son —, 1. I will pay him out; 2. I will do for him. Mêlez-vous de vos affaires, mind your own business.

3. (in the pl.), trade, business. Se mettre dans les affaires, to go into business, to set up in trade, to become a tradesman. Il a quitté les arts pour les affaires, he has abandoned the arts for mercantile pursuits. Il s'est retiré des affaires, he has retired from business, has left off business. Dans les affaires, in business. Il a des affaires pardessus la tête, he is over head and ears in business.

4. (in the pl.) affairs : employed in a general sense to signify all concerns of a public or private nature. Affaires d'Etat, state affairs, public business. Affaires temporelles, spirituelles, temporal, spiritual affairs. Affaires ecclésiastiques, ecclesiastical affairs, church affairs. Un homme dont les affaires sont en bon état, en mauvais état, a man in good circumstances, in bad circumstances. Ses affaires vont mal, il est bien mal dans ses affaires, his affairs are in a bad state, he is greatly embarrassed. Il est au-dessus de ses affaires, he is beforehand in the world, he is well off, he has capital enough and to spare. Il est au-dessous de ses affaires, he is behindhand in the world, is short of cash, is in a state of insolvency.

Hommes d'affaires, agent; business man; steward. Cabinet, bureau d'affaires, agency-office, agent's office.

5. occupation. Les gens qui n'ont pas d'affaires, people who have no occupations, who have nothing to do. Méfiez-vous de l'homme qui n'a pas d'affaires, beware of the man who has no occupation, nothing to do. Il n'a d'autre — que de s'amuser, he has no other occupation, nothing to do but to amuse himself.

6. enterprise, undertaking. Le chemin de fer de L... a été une grande —, the L... railway was a great undertaking, a great enterprise.

7. speculation, operation. Une — d'or, a profitable speculation. Cette — peut réussir, that speculation may succeed, turn out well. J'ai fait hier une excellente —, I made a good speculation yesterday. Il se fait peu d'affaires à la Bourse, there is but little business doing at the stock-exchange. Faiseur d'affaires, stock-jobber, jobber, jobbing-dealer.

8. fortune. Son — est faite, his fortune is made. Il a faite son — en peu d'années, he made his fortune in a few years.

9. question, matter. C'est une — d'habitude, de goût, it is a question, a matter of habit, of taste. Cela ne fait rien à l'—, that has nothing to do with the question.

10. difficulty, embarrassment; Colloq. scrape, predicament, mess. Elle lui suscita mille affaires fâcheuses, she involved him in a thousand difficulties, in a thousand embarrassments. C'est toute une —, that is a difficult matter, an embarrassing affair. Se tirer d'—, to get out of a scrape, out of a predicament.

11. danger, dangerous illness. Tirer un malade d'—, to cure a patient of a dangerous illness. Ce malade est hors d'—, that patient is out of danger.

12. quarrel, dispute. Il se fait toujours des affaires, he is always getting into quarrels, into disputes. Vider une —, to settle a dispute, a difference.

13. battle, engagement, encounter, skirmish. Une — d'avant-poste, an affair, a skirmish of outposts. Quoiqu'il eût assisté à plusieurs affaires chaudes, though he had taken part in many hot engagements.

14. duel. C'était sa troisième —, it was his third duel. Il a plusieurs affaires sur les bras, he has several duels on hand.

15. law-suit, cause, case, prosecution, trial. — judiciaire, a law-suit. — civile, civil suit, cause. — criminelle, criminal case, prosecution, trial.

16. need, occasion. Avoir — d'une chose, to stand in need of, to need a thing. Avoir — d'une personne, to have occasion for, to need a person's assistance.

17. intrigue, love-affair, amour. Il a eu — à cette femme, he has had an intrigue with that woman. Prov. : Les affaires sont les affaires, business is business. Les affaires avant tout, business before pleasure. Il vaut mieux avoir — à Dieu qu'à ses saints, never deal with the man when you can deal with the master.

AFFAIRÉ, E, aféré, adj. busy : engaged, occupied, full of business, bustling. Trop —, overwhelmed with business. Faire l'—, to pretend to be busy.

AFFAIREMENT, affair'mâ*n*-t. sm. great occupation : condition of being very busy.

AFFAISSEMENT, afès'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. sinking; 2. settling, settling down, subsidence (as of the soil); 3. depression; 4. collapse; 5. sagging (of an overloaded floor, etc.).

AFFAISSER, afèsé-r, [à; faix), va. 1. to weigh down, to press down; 2. to sink; 3. to settle [the soil]; 4. to weaken; 5. to depress.

AFFAISSER (s'). v. refl. 1. to sink, to sink down; 2. to settle (as the soil); 3. to subside; 4. to crouch down; 5. to give way; 6. to collapse; 7. to succumb; 8. to sag as a floor).

AFFAITER, afaitē-r, [Lat. : affectāre], va. 1. to tame (of birds of prey); 2. to make supple, to form (of leather).

AFFALER, afalē-r, [Dut. : afhalen], va. 1. Naut. to ease, to overhaul (a rope or takle; 2. to lower (a boat, etc.); 3. to drive towards, the coast (said of the wind); 4. to exhaust, to lay prostrate. Le navire est affalé, the vessel is embayed.

AFFALER (s'), v. refl. 1. to slide down a rope; 2. to be driving towards a leeshore; 3. to be embayed, entangled on a leeshore.

AFFAMÉ, E, afamé, adj. 1. famishing, famished : pressed by hunger, hungry; 2. starving, starved; 3. (de) greedy of, hungering after, thirsting for : 4. (de) eager for. Etre — de, to be greedy of. Prov. : Ventre affamé n'a point d'oreilles, a hungry belly has no ears; a hungry man, an angry man.

AFFAMER, afamé-r, [Lat. : fames, hunger], va. to famish, to starve.

AFFANURE, afanur', [Lat. : ad, to; fœnum, hay], sf. harvest-pay (in kind).

AFFECTATION, afèktasyô*n*, sf. 1. affectation : artificial show, artifice; 2. appropriation (of funds to a certain purpose); 3. incumbrance : mortgage on an estate.

AFFECTÉ, E, afèkté, adj. 1. affected : feigned, touched; appropriated : set apart; 3. Alg. affected; 4. Med. affected : afflicted.

AFFECTER, afèkté-r, [Lat. : affectāre], va. 1. to affect; a) to aim at, to endeavour after, to seek; b) to have a preference, a predilection for; c) to be fond of; d) to make a parade, a show of; e) to feign, to assume; f) to touch (the feelings), to move (the passions); g) Med. to take effect on; h) Leg. (with de) to attaint (of), to charge (with).

2. (with à, to) to appropriate : to set apart, as funds for a certain purpose.

AFFECTER (s'), v. refl. to be affected : a) to be feigned or assumed; b) to be distressed or afflicted; c) to be injured.

AFFECTIF, VE, afèktif, iv', adj. 1. affective : capable of affecting; 2. emotional.

AFFECTION, afèksiô*n*, sf. 1. affection : a) state of being affected; b) state of the body or mind; c) passion; d) love, fondness; 2. liking, predilection, partiality, fancy (for persons or things); 3. Med. affection, disease. Par —, out of affection. Un témoignage d'—, a mark, a token of affection. Une — nerveuse, a nervous complaint.

AFFECTIONNÉ, E, afèksioné, adj. devoted, attached; loving, affectionate. Votre très — serviteur, your most devoted servant, Votre ami très —, your most affectionate friend.

3. (substantively) adherent, partisan.

AFFECTIONNÉMENT, afèksionémâ*n*-t, adv. affectionately.

AFFECTIONNER, afèksioné-r, va. 1. to like, to delight in: to have a liking, an affection, a fondness for; 2. to win the favour of; 3. to attach, to interest.

AFFECTIONNER (s'), v. refl. 1. (with à) to become attached to, to take to, to have a liking, a fancy, a passion for; 2. (à) to be fond of, to delight in; 3. to have a mutual affection, to love each other; 4. to side with, to take sides with.

AFFECTUEUSEMENT, afektuœz'mâ*n*-t, adv. affectionately, lovingly.

AFFECTUEUX, SE, afèktuœ, œz', adj. affectionate : fond, loving.

† AFFENAGE, afœnazh', [Lat. : fænum, hay], sm. foddering (of cattle).

† AFFENER, afœné-r, va. to fodder.

AFFÉRENT, E, aférâ*n*-t, â*n*t', [Lat. : ad. to; ferre, to carry], adj. 1. Leg. proper (to), belonging (to); 2. Med. afferent : conveying, said of the lymphatic vessels. Por- tion afférente, the part of an indivisible estate belonging to each co-parcener.

AFFERMABLE, afèrmâble, adj. farmable : which may be let out.

AFFERMAGE, afèrmazh', sm. 1. letting (as a landlord) ; 2. renting, taking (as a tenant) ; 3. farming or leasing (as the collection of taxes, dues, etc.).

AFFERMER, afèrmé-r, [ferme], va. 1. to let (as a landlord) ; 2. to take, to rent (as a tenant) ; 3. to farm out, to let, to lease (as the collection of taxes, tolls, etc.) ; 4. to farm, to take on lease (the collection of taxes, etc.).

AFFERMIR, afèrmir [Lat. : affirmāre], va. 1. to make firm, to give firmness to ; 2. to strengthen ; 3. to consolidate, (a throne, a government) ; to establish ; 4. to confirm (in a opinion), a resolution) ; 5. to fortify (courage) ; 6. to fix, to fasten (anything loose) ; 7. to harden, to impart firmness to as the gums).

AFFERMIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to become firm, to get firm ; 2. to gain strength, to grow stronger ; 3. to become consolidated (as a throne) ; 4. to grow hard, to harden ; 5. to become fast or fixed.

AFFERMISSEMENT, afèrmis'mân-t, sm. 1. act of strengthening, of consolidating ; 2. consolidation ; 3. strengthening ; 4. hardening (of the gums, etc.).

AFFÉTÉ, E, afété, adj. 1. affected ; 2. finical. — dans ses manières, affected in one's manners, Ce langage —, this affected language. Boil.

AFFÉTERIE, afet'ri, sf. 1. affectation, finicalness. Avec —, affectedly, finically.

AFFICHAGE, afishazh', sm. posting (of bills), bill-sticking.

AFFICHE, afish',(à;fiche) sf. 1. posting-bill, poster : placard stuck on walls, etc. ; 2. stake (for fastening boats). — de théâtre, play-bill. Petites affiches, advertising sheet, advertiser : periodical containing advertisements. — à la main, handbill. Faire — de, to make a show, a parade of. Homme- —, sandwich-man.

AFFICHER, afishé-r, va. 1. to placard, to stick or post up (bills) ; 2. to publish, to announce ; 3. to gazette ; 4. to make parade or show of (real or feigned sufferings, virtues, vices, etc.) ; 5. to expose. Défense d'—, stick no bills. Dévotion affichée, ostentatious piety.

AFFICHER (s'), v. refl. (in a bad sense) to thrust one's self on public notice, to court notoriety ; to put one's self forward to make one's self notorious. S'— pour homme sans mœurs, to proclaim one's own immorality. Cette femme s'affiche, that woman forgets all decency.

AFFICHEUR, afishœr, sm. bill-poster, bill-sticker.

AFFIDÉ, E, afidé, [Lat. : fidus, faithful], 1. trusty, trustworthy, reliable ; 2. (substantively) faithful adherent.

AFFILAGE, afilazh', sm. setting, sharpening, whetting (of edge-tools).

AFFILÉ, E, afilé, adj. 1. sharp, keen (said of knives and other cutting instruments) ; 2. (of the tongue) well-hung, well-oiled, glib, ready ; 3. (of young wheat-plants) wiry, frost-nipped. Cette femme a la langue bien affilée, that woman has a pretty sharp tongue.

AFFILÉE, afilē, sf. Continuation. D'—, consecutive, without stopping. L'alouette chante une heure d'—, the lark keeps on singing for an hour at a stretch. Michelet.

AFFILER, afilé-r. [fil], va. 1. (in a general sense) to sharpen ; 2. to whet (a knife, a scythe) ; 3. to set (a razor, a penknife, a saw) ; 4. Fig. to give edge, point, or keenness to ; 5. to plant (trees) in rows ; 6. Wire-dr. to put into the drawplate.

AFFILEUR, afilœr, sm. setter, sharpener (of cutting instruments).

AFFILIATION, afiliâsyôn, sf. affiliation : act of admitting or being admitted to a society, an association, etc.

AFFILIÉ, E, afilié, adj. 1. affiliated ; 2. (substant.) member, associate.

AFFILIER, afilié-r, [Lat. : ad, to ; filius, son] va. to affiliate : to unite, to associate.

AFFILIER (s'), v. refl. to join, to become a member of (an association, etc.)

AFFILOIR, afilwâr, sm. steel [for sharpening knives, etc.), knife-sharpener.

AFFILOIRE, afilwâr', sf. Join. whetstones, oilstones (for sharpening chisels, etc.)

AFFILURE, afilur', sf. pointing (of horse-shoe-nails, by cold-hammering).

AFFINAGE, afinazh', sm. 1. refining (or metals, sugar, saltpetre, etc.) ; 2. final shearing (of woollen cloth) ; 3. pointing (of needles) ; 4. final heckling (of hemp and flax). V. Raffinage.

AFFINER, afiné-r, [fin], va. 1. to refine : to purify, as metals, etc. ; 2. to heckle (flax) ; 3. to ripen (cheese, by keeping) ; 4. Fig. to mature, to improve (the taste) ; 5. to point (nails, etc.) ; 6. Naut. to become fine, to clear up (as the weather). — le goût, to refine the taste.

AFFINER (s'), v. refl. 1. to become purer ; 2. to ripen (as cheese) ; 3. Fig. to mature, to improve (as the taste).

AFFINERIE, afin'ri, sf. 1. finery, refinery (for metals, etc.) ; 2. small forge (for wire-drawing). Foyer d'—, refining hearth.

AFFINEUR, afinœr, sm. refiner (of metals, etc.).

AFFINITÉ, afinité, [Lat. : affinitas, neighbourhood], sf. affinity : a) relationship by marriage ; b) relation, connection, resemblance, congeniality between persons or things ; c) Chem. tendency to combine. Avoir de l'— avec, to have some affinity with ; to be congenial to. Il n'y pas d'— entre ces deux langues, there is no affinity between those two languages.

AFFINOIR, afinwâr, sm. fine heckle (for hemp and flax).

AFFIQUET, afikè, [fiche], sm. 1. trinket, knick-knack, gewgaw (used nearly always in the plural to designate small personal ornaments) ; 2. knitting-sheath.

AFFIRMATIF, VE, afirmatif, tiv', adj. affirmative ; dogmatic, positive (said chiefly of persons) : Log. opposed to negative.

AFFIRMATION, afirmasyôn, sf. 1. affirmation : a) act of affirming ; b) averment, asseveration ; c) Leg. declaration on oath ; 2. Log. predication.

AFFIRMATIVE, afirmativ', sf. affirmative. A l'—, in the affirmative. Répondre par l'—, to answer in the affirmative, to say yes.

AFFIRMATIVEMENT, afirmativ'mân-t, adv. affirmatively : a) in the affirmative ; b) positively, dogmaticaly.

AFFIRMER, afirmé-r, [Lat. : affirmāre], va. 1. to affirm : a) to declare or assert positively, to aver ; b) Leg. to declare on oath ; 2. Log. to predicate.

AFFIXE, afiks', [Lat. : affixus, stuck to], sm. 1. affix, postfix, suffix : syllable added at the end of a word ; 2. prefix : syllable placed at the beginning of a word.

AFFLEURÉ, E, aflœré, adj. 1. Carp. and Mas. laid level, laid flush ; 2. level, flush.

AFFLEUREMENT, aflœr'mân-t, sm. 1. levelling ; 2. Tech. making flush or level ; 3. Geol. and Min. cropping-out (said of a stratum appearing at the surface) ; 4. crop-out : stratum showing at the surface.

AFFLEURER, aflœré-r, [à ; fleur], va. 1. Carp. and Mas. to make level or flush, to lay level or flush ; 2. Phys. to bring to the right level (as an areometer) ; 3. to rise to the level of (as a river with regard to its banks) ; 4. to be even with (as a plumb-line) ; 5. Geol. and Min. to crop out (said of a stratum which shows at the surface) ; 6. Turn. to smooth off ; 7. Bak. to mix barley-rye, and wheat-flour in certain proportions ; 8. (in a neuter sense) to be or to lie level or flush.

AFFLEURIE, aflœri, sf. whites : the very finest flour.

AFFLICTIF, VE, afflictif, iv', adj. affecting the person. Peines afflictives, corporal punishment (as distinguished from penalties or fines levied on the offender's property).

AFFLICTION, afliksyôn, sf. affliction : a) mental suffering, grief, sorrow, distress, trouble ; b) cause of suffering, calamity, misfortune.

AFFLIGÉ, aflizhé, adj. 1. afflicted ; 2. (with de or par) afflicted with or by, troubled with or by ; 3. sorry, distressed, grieved ; 4. affected by disease, diseased. Je suis — de vous voir si malade, I am grieved to see you so ill. Je suis — que..., I am sorry that...

AFFLIGEANT, E, aflizhân-t, ânt', adj. 1. afflicting, distressing ; 2. grievous, sad. Il est — de voir comme ils se conduisent, it is sad to see how they behave.

AFFLIGER, aflizhé-r, [Lat. : affligĕre ; ad, to ; fligĕre, flictum, to dash down], va. 1. to afflict : to distress, to trouble, to grieve ; 2. (in an ascetic sense) to mortify. — la chair, to mortify the flesh (the body). La peste affligea Londres en 1665, London was afflicted by the plague in 1665.

AFFLIGER (s'), v. refl. (with de before the indirect regimen, if any). 1. to afflict, (distress, vex, torment) one's self (about) ; 2. to be afflicted (distressed, grieved, at or by) ; 3. to grieve (sorrow, mourn) over or at. Pourquoi vous affligez-vous tant ? why are you so grieved ?

AFFLOUAGE, aflouazh', sm. Naut. floating, getting afloat (a stranded vessel).

AFFLOUER, afloué, [à ; flot], va. Naut. to float, to get (or set) afloat (a vessel).

AFFLUENCE, afluâns', [Lat. : affluentia], sf. 1. (of fluids) afflux, abundant flow ; 2. (of people) affluence, concours, throng ; 3. (of things) influx, abundance, exuberance ; 4. Med. affluence, rush, determination (as of blood to the head, etc.).

AFFLUENT, E, afluân-t, ânt', adj. 1. tributary (as streams) ; 2. Med. affluent ; flowing to a particular part. Sang —, affluent blood.

AFFLUENT, sm. tributary : said of streams. Le Rhin et ses affluents, the Rhine and its tributaries (or its tributary streams).

AFFLUER, aflué-r, [Lat. : ad, to : fluĕre, to flow], vn. 1. to flow, to run (as rivers to the sea) ; 2. (of people) to flock, to throng : to arrive in crowds, in throngs ; 3. (of things) to abound, to arrive in abundance ; 4. Med. to rush (as blood to the head).

AFFLUX, aflu, sm. Med. affluxus, afflux, affluxion, rush, determination (as of blood to the head).

AFFOLÉ, E, afolé, adj. 1. (with de) infatuated with, madly in love with, dotingly fond of; 2. Naut. deranged, disturbed. Une boussole affolée, a deranged compass. Etre — de, to be infatuated with, to be dotingly fond of.

AFFOLEMENT, afol'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. madness insanity (caused by love); 2. Naut. disturbance, perturbation, error (of the magnetic needle).

AFFOLER, afolé-r, [fol, mad], va. 1. to drive mad, to infatuate (through love); 2. Naut. to perturb, to derange, to demagnetize (the needle of a compass); 3. to wound, to injure.

AFFOLER (s'). v. refl. (with de) to be infatuated with; to dote on or upon.

AFFORAGE, aforazh', [Lat. : ad, to; forum, market]. sm. 1. afforage : feudal due paid on wine sold by the grower; 2. judicial valuation (of anything to be sold).

AFFOUAGE, afouazh', [Lat. : ad, to; focus], sm. 1. estovers, firebote : right of cutting fuel in a forest; 2. supply of fuel (for iron-works); 3. (in feudal times) hearth-tax.

AFFOUAGEMENT, afouazh'mâ*n*-t, sm. (in feudal times) hearth-tax.

AFFOUILLEMENT, afouy'mâ*n*-t, sm. undermining (of a bank or bridge by a watercourse).

AFFOUILLER, afouyé-r, [à; fouiller], va. to undermine, to wash away (the banks of a stream).

AFFOURCHE, afoursh', [fourche], sf. Naut. small bower. Ancre, câble d'—, small bower anchor, cable : the second anchor and cable when two are used.

AFFOURCHER, afourshé-r, [à; fourche], va. 1. to set, to place astride; 2. Naut. to moor across; 3. vn. to be mooring across.

AFFOURCHER (s'), v. refl. 1. to get astride; 2. Naut. to be mooring across, to be moored across.

AFFOURRAGER, afourazhé-r, [à; fourrage] va. to fodder, to feed (as cattle).

AFFRAICHIE, afrèshi, sf. Naut, freshening wind.

AFFRAICHIR, afrèshir, [frais, fresh], vn. Naut. to freshen (as the wind).

AFFRANCHI, E, afrâ*n*shi, adj. 1. emancipated (from slavery); 2. delivered (from danger, oppression, or tyranny); 3. freed, relieved (from care or anxiety); 4. exempt, free (from paying customs or other dues); 5. paid, prepaid, postpaid; 6. carriage-paid (said of parcels). S'adresser par lettre affranchie, apply by letter postpaid. Les lettres non affranchies seront refusées, unpaid letters will be refused. Insuffisamment affranchie, insufficiently stamped (said of a letter).

AFFRANCHI, E, s. emancipated slave; freed man, m., freed woman, f.

AFFRANCHIR, afrâ*n*shir, [franc, free], va. 1. to free from slavery or obligations of any kind; 2. to enfranchise : to confer civil or political rights; 3. to emancipate (as slaves from servitude, citizens from political thraldom); 4. to liberate, to release, to discharge (a prisoner); 5. to deliver, to relieve, to set free (from tyranny, care, anxiety, or any inconvenience); 6. to absolve (from blame, etc.); 7. to exempt (from payment of taxes, tolls, dues, etc.); 8. to frank, to prepay, to pay the postage of letters; 9. to pay the carriage (of parcels, etc.); 10. Sport. to clear, to jump over (a ditch, or fence); 11. to fire (new casks, by burning spirits of wine in them to prevent the wood from communicating any bad taste to the wine, etc.); 12. Vet. Surg. to castrate (horses, bulls, etc.); 13. Naut. to free, to keep (the pumps of a vessel).

AFFRANCHIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to free one's self, to purchase one's freedom; 2. to become independent (as states); 3. (with de) to get free from, to be delivered from (tyranny, servitude, obligations); 4. (with de) to shake off, to throw off (the yoke of a conqueror or tyrant).

AFFRANCHISSEMENT, afrâ*n*shis'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. setting free; 2. enfranchisement, manumission, emancipation (from slavery, errors, etc.); 3. delivery, release, exemption (from taxes, etc.); 4. payment, prepayment (of postage); 5. payment of carriage (of parcels).

AFFRANCHISSEUR, afrâ*n*shisœr, sm. 1. deliverer, liberator, emancipator; 2. castrator, gelder, cutter (of horses, etc.)

AFFRE, âfr', [orig. unknown], sf. dread terror. Les affres de la mort, the terrors of death. [Chiefly used in the plural.]

AFFRÈTEMENT, afrèt'mâ*n*-t, [fret], sm. Mar. Com. freighting, chartering. Contrat d'—, charter-party.

AFFRÉTER, afrèté-r, va. Mar. Com. to freight, to charter (a vessel).

AFFRÉTEUR, afrétœr, sm. freighter, charterer (of a vessel).

AFFREUSEMENT, afrœz'mâ*n*-t, adv. frightfully, dreadfully, fearfully, horribly, horridly, shockingly, hideously. — laid, frightfully, hideously ugly.

AFFREUX, SE, afrœ-z, œz', [affre], adj. 1. frightful, dreadful, fearful, terrible, horrible, horrid, shocking; 2. hideous : excessively ugly; 3. odious, detestable, abominable. Un spectacle —, a frightful, terrible, horrible spectacle. Misère affreuse, dreadful poverty, fearful destitution. Il fait un temps —, it is abominable, shocking weather. Cet homme est aussi — de caractère que de visage, that man's character is as odious as his face is ugly.

AFFRIANDER, afriâ*n*dé-r, [à; friand], va. 1. to make or render dainty; 2. to entice, to allure, to tempt. Rien n'affriande comme l'espoir du gain, nothing is so alluring, so tempting as the hope of gain. Affriandé par des promesses, allured by promises. Affriandé de butin, eager for (after) booty.

AFFRIANDER (s'), v. refl. 1. to indulge one's self in dainties; 2. (with à) to contract a liking for.

AFFRICHER, afrishé-r, [friche], va Agr. to fallow, to leave untilled.

AFFRIOLANT, afriolâ*n*-t, adj. enticing, alluring : ensnaring; exciting facinating; tasty, luscious (fruit, bit).

AFFRIOLEMENT, afriolmâ*n*-t sm. enticement, allurement; facination witchery.

AFFRIOLER, afriolé-r, [à; frioler, to fry slightly], va. 1. to allure, to entice; 2. to decoy (birds, etc.)

AFFRITER, afritē, [frit], va. Cook. to season a frying pan; to prepare for frying.

AFFRONT, afrô*n*-t; pl. afrô*n*-z, [Lat. : ad, to; frons, frontis, front sm. 1. affront, insult, wrong, outrage. Dévorer, boire, avaler un —, to pocket an affront. Essuyer, recevoir un —, to receive an affront. Je ne puis digérer cet —, I cant' get over that insult. Subir un —, to endure, to put up with an affront.

2 disgrace, dishonour, discredit. Faire — à, to disgrace, to dishonour. Il fait — à toute sa famille, he is a disgrace to his whole family.

3. disgraceful check, shameful defeat.

AFFRONTÉ, E, afrô*n*té, adj. 1. barved, defied; 2. deceived, cheated; 3. Herald. affrontee : placed front to front.

AFFRONTER, afrô*n*té-r, va. 1. to front, to face, to meet front to front; 2. (in a good and ill sense) to brave, to defy; 3. to deceive, to cheat, to take in; 4. Surg. to bring close together (as the parts of a fractured bone, the edges of a wound); Technol. to place on the same level, to join flush. Il fallait de nouveau — la mer mugissante, we were again obliged to brave the roaring sea. Lamar. — la mort, to face death.

AFFRONTER (s'), v. refl. 1. to front each other, to stand face to face; 2. Surg. to meet.

AFFRONTEUR, EUSE, afrontœr, œz', s. deceiver, cheat, impostor.

AFFRUITER (S'), afruité-r, v. refl. Hort. to begin bearing : said of fruit-trees.

AFFUBLEMENT, afuble'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. muffler, wrapper; 2. (most frequently) a ridiculous dress.

AFFUBLER, afublé-r, [Low Lat. : affibulâre], va. to wrap up, to muffle up, to dress up (or out) : nearly always in a ridiculous sense. Plaisamment affublé, ludicrously dressed.

AFFUBLER (s'), v. refl. to muffle or dress one's self in any ridiculous manner. — d'un long manteau, to be wrapped up in a long cloak.

AFFUSION, afuzyô*n*, sf. Med. affusion : pouring of water, etc., on the body.

AFFÛT, afu, [fût : Lat. : fustis, stick], sm. 1. Artill. carriage (of a cannon); 2. Sport. hiding-place (for a sportsman to lie in wait for game); 3. (in a general sense) watch, catch, look-out. Choisir un bon —, to choose a good hiding-place. Chasser à l'—, to shoot from a hiding-place. Etre à l'—, 1. to lie in wait (for game, etc.) 2. to be on the watch, to catch, or look-out (for anything whatever). Il a l'esprit à l'—, he is on the alert.

AFFÛTAGE, afutazh', sm. 1. sharpening, whetting, setting (of edge-tools); 2. set or chest of tools; 3. re-dressing (of an old hat); 4. (formerly) place of a cannon in battery.

AFFÛTER, afuté-r, [affût], va. 1. to sharpen, to whet, to set (edge-tools); 2. to cut to a point, to point (a pencil); 3. to set, to give the proper pitch (to plane-irons); 4. (formerly) to place (a cannon) in battery.

AFFÛTIAU, afutiô, sm. knick-knack, gewgaw, trinket.

AFFÛT-TRAÎNEAU, afu-trènô, sm. Artill. sledge (for a cannon).

AFIN, afa*n*, [Lat. : ad, to; finis, end], conj. 1. (with de followed by the infinitive) to, in order to; 3. (with que followed by the subjunctive) in order that, so that. Afin d'aller à son but, to (or in order to) attain his end. Afin d'obtenir cette grâce, in order to obtain that favour. Afin que cela soit plus facile, in order that it may be easier. Afin qu'il pût, so that he might.

AFISTOLER, afistolé-r, va. Pop. to dress up, to make smart, or spruce.

AFRICAIN, E, afrika*n*, èn', adj. African.

AFRICAIN, E, s. African : a native of Africa, male or female.

AFRIQUE, afrik', sf. Africa.

AGAÇANT, E, agasâ*n*-t, â*n*t', adj. 1. provoking, annoying, teasing; 2. tantalizing; 3. bewitching, fascinating, enticing.

AGACE, AGASSE, agas', sf. Orn. magpie.

AGACEMENT, agas'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. setting on edge (of the teeth); 2. irritation (of the nerves).

AGACER, agasé-r, [Lat. : acuĕre, to sharpen], va. 1. to set on edge. Ce bruit agace les dents, that noise sets one's teeth on edge.

2. to irritate (the nerves); 3. to annoy, to tease, to plague, to torment, to tantalize; 4. to provoke, to encourage, to incite, to stimulate; 5. to excite (the passions). Rien ne m'agace autant que sa langue, nothing irritates me so much as her tongue. Le chat était souvent agacé par l'oiseau, the cat was often teased by the bird. La Fontaine. Fables.

AGACER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be set on edge (as the teeth); 2. to be irritated (as the nerves); 3. to provoke, to tease, to plague (each other).

AGACERIE, agas'ri, sf. enticement, allurement (by words, looks, or manners). Elle lui fait des agaceries continuelles, she is always trying to attract his notice, she is always setting her cap at him.

AGALACTIE, agalakti, [Gr. : ἀ, neg.; γάλα; γάλακτος, milk]; sf. Med. agalactia : absence of milk.

AGALLOCHE, agalosh, sm. Bot. agaluchin, agalochum.

AGAME, agam', [Gr. : ἀ priv.; γάμος, marriage), adj. Bot. agamous : said of plants without sexual organs.

AGAMI, agami, sm. Ornith. agami, (popularity) trumpeter.

AGAMIE, agami, sf. Bot. agamæ : class of agamous plants.

AGANTER, agân*t*é-r, va. Naut. 1. to catch, to clutch (a rope, etc.); 2. to forereach, to come up with (a ship).

AGAPE, agap', [Gr. : ἀγάπη, love], sf. 1. love-feast (of the primitive christians); 2. feast, banquet.

AGARIC, agarik, [Lat. : agaricus; Gr. : ἀγαρικόν], sm. Bot. agaric. — champêtre, common field-mushroom. — des pharmaciens, larch agaric : adrastic medicine.

† AGASSE, agas', sf. Orn. magpie.

AGATE, agat', [Gr. : ἀχάτης; Lat. : achates,] sf. 1. agate; 2. burnisher (made of agate).

AGATÉ, E, agaté, adj. agaty : containing agate.

AGATHE, agat', pnf. Agatha.

AGAVE, agav', AGAVÉ, agavé, sm. Bot. agave. — d'Amérique, American aloe.

AGE, azh', [Orig. unknown], sm. beam (of a plough).

ÂGE, âzh', [Lat. : ævum, age; O. Fr. : edage, edge], sm. age : a) ordinary duration of existence; b) any period of life; c) years, old age, decline of life; d) numerical term which a life or an existence has attained; e) period, epoch, century, time or times, day or days; f) generation, succession of men.

a) L'âge de l'homme ne passe pas communément quatre-vingt ans, the age of man does not commonly exceed eighty years. L'âge des chevaux n'est guère que de trente ans, the age of horses is rarely thirty years, horses seldom live thirty years. Age d'homme, âge commun, the ordinary age, the average age of man.

b) Age avancé, advanced age. Bas âge, childhood, tender age. Le bel âge, the spring time of life, youth. Un bel âge, a good old age. Il a quatre-vingts ans. c'est un bel âge, he is eighty, that is a good old age. Le bas âge, infancy. La fleur de l'âge, the prime of life. Un homme d'âge moyen, a middle-aged man. Age de raison, years of discretion. Age nubile, marriageable age. Age viril, manhood. Age d'homme, manhood, man's estate. Age critique, critical age, change of life. Il ne paraît pas son âge, he does not look his age. Elle porte bien son âge, she carries her age well; she does not look her age. Sur l'âge, elderly, rather old, getting old. Retour de l'âge, the turn of life, the downhill of life. Etre d'un certain âge, to be of a certain age, to be elderly, to be growing old. Etre d'âge à, en âge de, to be of an age to, to be old enough to. Etre entre deux âges, to be of middle age. Plus nous avançons dans l'âge, the older we get; the more we advance in years.

c) Le poids de l'âge, the weight of years. C'est un homme d'âge, he is an old man.

d) Quel âge a-t-elle? how old is she, what is her age? Il est de mon âge, he is of my age, of the same age as myself. Quel est l'âge de ce cheval, de ce chien, de cet arbre? what is the age of, how old is, that horse, that dog, that tree? Hors d'âge, aged : said of horses above seven years old, when their age can no longer be ascertained by their teeth. Age de la lune, the moon's age.

e) L'âge de la chevalerie, the age, the days of chivalry. Les âges avant le déluge, the age before the flood. Les merveilles de notre âge, the marvels of our age, century, days, times. Le moyen âge, the Middle Ages. L'âge d'or, the Golden Age. L'âge d'airain, de fer, the Bronze Age, the Iron Age. Sa gloire se transmettra d'âge en âge, his glory shall be handed down from age to age. Prov. : Chaque âge a ses plaisirs, every age has its pleasures. L'âge n'est fait que pour les chevaux, nothing's old but the devil. On apprend à tout âge, it is never too late to learn.

AGÉ, E. âzhé, adj. aged, old : a) having a certain age; b) advanced in years. Un enfant âgé de dix ans, a child ten years old, ten years of age. Un homme âgé, an old man, an aged man, a man stricken in years.

AGENCE, azhâ*n*s', [agent], sf. agency : business or office of an agent. Bureau d'—, agency office. — de commission, commission business.

AGENCEMENT, azhâ*n*s'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. arrangement, disposition; 2. (in the arts) combination, ordering, grouping (of figures, etc.), adjustment, arrangement (of draperies); 3. (in the plural) fittings, fixtures (of shops, etc.)

AGENCER, axhâ*n*sé-r, [Lat. : agĕre, to do), va. 1. to arrange, to dispose; 2. (in the arts) to combine, to group, to order; 3. to fit up (an apartment, a shop); 4. to bedeck, to bedizen, to dress up or out.

AGENCER (s), v. refl. to bedeck, to bedizen one's self.

AGENDA, azha*n*da, [Lat. : agendus], sm. 1. memorandum-book, note-book; 2. † agenda : ritual of a church.

AGÉNÉSIE, azhénézi, [Gr. : ἀ neg.; γένεσις, generation], sf. Med. agenesia : impotence.

AGENOUILLÉ, azh'nouyé, adj. kneeling, kneeling down. Un pauvre pèlerin était — devant une châsse, a poor pilgrim was kneeling before a shrine.

AGENOUILLEMENT, azh'nouy'mâ*n*-t, sm. kneeling.

AGENOUILLER (S'), s'azh'nouyé-r, [à; genou], v. refl. to kneel, to kneel down, to fall on one's knees.

AGENOUILLOIR, azh'nouywâr, sm. kneeling-stool, hassock.

AGENT, azhâ*n*-t, sm. agent : a) person or thing that has the power of acting, effective power; b) one who acts for others, deputy, substitute, factor, steward.

a) — naturel, natural agent. — chimique, chemical agent. b) — de circulation, circulating medium, currency. — comptable, 1. an accountant, actuary; 2. Naut. purser. — d'affaires, agent, business man. — de change, stock-broker. — diplomatique, — consulaire, diplomatic agent, consular agent. — de police, policeman. constable.

AGGLOMÉRAT, aglomera, sm. Mineral. agglomerate.

AGGLOMÉRATION, aglomérâsyô*n*, sf. agglomeration.

AGGLOMÉRÉ, E, aggloméré, adj. 1. agglomerated; 2. Bot. agglomerate.

AGGLOMÉRER, agloméré-r, [Lat. : agglomerāre], va. to agglomerate.

AGGLOMÉRER (s'), v. refl. to agglomerate.

AGGLUTINABLE, aglutinabl', adj. agglutinable.

AGGLUTINANT, E, aglutinâ*n*-t, â*n*t, adj. agglutinant : a) uniting as with glue; b) Physiol. incorporative, intercalative.

AGGLUTINANT, sm. Med. agglutinant : adhesive plaster.

AGGLUTINATEUR, TRICE, aglutinatœr, tris', adj. Med. agglutinative, agglutinating.

AGGLUTINATIF, TIVE, aglutinatif, tiv', adj. 1. Med. agglutinative : said of plasters and bandages; 2. sm. agglutinant.

AGGLUTINATION, aglutinâsyô*n*, sf. agglutination : a) Med. union, cohesion; b) Philol. incorporation, intercalation.

AGGLUTINER, aglutiné-r, [Lat. : agglutināre ad, to; gluten, glue], va. Med. to agglutinate : to unite as with glue, to join together.

AGGLUTINER (s'), v. refl. to be agglutinated : a) Med. to be united, joined together; b) Philol. to be incorporated, intercalated.

AGGRAVANT, E, agravâ*n*-t, â*n*t', adj. aggravating.

AGGRAVATION, agravâsyô*n*, sf. aggravation : a) Leg. increase, augmentation (of the guilt of a crime, of the punishment inflicted); b) Med. getting worse. L'— du mal, des symptômes, aggravation of the disease, of the symptoms.

AGGRAVE, agrave, sf. second monitory threatening further pains to excommunicated persons.

AGGRAVÉ, agravé, sf. Vet. Surg. foothalt : inflammation of the foot in dogs, pigs, etc.

AGGRAVER, agravé-r, [Lat. : aggravāre; ad, to; gravis, heavy], va. 1. to aggravate : to increase, to augment, to make worse.

AGGRAVER (s'), v. refl. 1. Med. to become aggravated, to get worse; 2. (with sur) to bear more heavily on, to be laid more heavily on.

AGGRÉGAT, AGGRÉGATION, etc. V. AGRÉGAT, etc.

AGIAU, azhiô, sm. trinket, knick-knack.

AGILE, azhil', [Lat. : agilis], adj. agile : nimble, quick.

AGILEMENT, azhil'mâ*n*-t, adv. with agility, nimbly.

AGILITÉ, azhilité, sf. agility; nimbleness, quickness.

AGIO, azhio, [Ital. : aggio, convenience], sm. Bank. 1. agio; 2. stock-jobbing.

AGIOTAGE, azhiotazh', sm. stock-jobbing, jobbing in public securities or merchandise of any kind.

AGIOTER, azhioté-r, vn. to job, to speculate in public securities or merchandise.

AGIOTEUR, m., EUSE, f., azhiotœr, œz', s. stock or money jobber, speculator.

AGIR, azhir, [Lat. : agĕre, to do], vn. 1. to act : a) to be in action ; b) to operate, to work, to take effect ; c) to behave, to conduct one's self. Le moment d'— est venu, the time to act (or for action) is come. — bien, to act right, to do right. — mal, to act wrong, to do wrong. Faire —, to cause to act, to set in motion. Laissez — le remède, allow the remedy to take effect, to operate. Le temps avait agi, time had done its work. — sur, to take effect on (or upon), to act on. Le feu agit sur les métaux, fire acts on metals. Vous avez agi en ami, you have acted as a friend, behaved or conducted yourself as a friend. Est-ce là — en père ? is that acting like a father ? Votre frère a mal agi envers moi, your brother has acted badly towards me, behaved very ill to me, has treated me ill. J'agirai selon mes idées, I will act according to my own mind.

2. (with contre) to proceed against, to prosecute (an offender) ; to sue (a debtor, etc.) — criminellement, to prosecute criminally. — civilement, to sue, to proceed (against).

AGIR (s'), v. refl. [used only in the third person singular, and always followed by de before a noun, pronoun, or infinitive]. 1. to be the question, to be in question, the point (or matter) in question. Voici ce dont il s'agit, this is the point in question. De quoi s'agit-il ? what is the point (the matter) in question ? what is the matter ? Il s'agit de vous dans cette affaire, you are concerned in this business. Il ne s'agit point de cela, that is not the question. L'affaire dont il s'agit, the matter, the business in hand.

2. to be at stake. Il s'agit de vos intérêts, your interests are at stake. Il s'agissait de notre honneur, our honour was at stake.

3. (with que and the subjunctive) : Il ne s'agit point que vous écriviez, il faut que vous y alliez vous-même, this is no case for writing, you must go in person.

AGISSANT, E, azhisâ*n*-t, â*n*t', adj. active : a) busy, stirring ; b) effective, efficacious, as a remedy. Homme —, an active man, a stirring man, a man of action. Remède —, an active remedy.

AGITABLE, azhitabl', adj. agitable.

AGITATEUR, azhitatœr, sm. agitator : a) one who agitates ; b) Chem. glass-rod for stirring fluids. — mécanique, Brew. mashing apparatus.

AGITATION, azhitâsyô*n*, sf. 1. agitation : a) act of shaking ; b) state of being shaken ; c) commotion ; d) stirring. shaking (of liquids) ; e) tumult, disturbance, trouble ; f) emotion, flutter, ruffle ; g) ventilation, discussion (of any subject ; h) Med. restlessness, unrest. L'— des vagues, the commotion, the surging of the waves. — populaire, agitation of the people. Calmer l'—, to calm, to appease the agitation, the excitement, the tumult. — morale, mental agitation.

2. tossing (of a ship at sea) ; 3. waving (of a flag, etc.) ; 4. jolting (of a carriage) ; 5. quivering (of the lips).

AGITER, azhité-r, [Lat. : agitāre], va. 1. to agitate : a) to stake ; b) to move, to set in motion, to stir ; c) to disturb, to perturb, to trouble ; d) to discuss, to examine, to deliberate on, to ventilate (a question). Il était très agité cette nuit, he was very restless last night.

2. to toss (as the waves do a ship) ; 3. to jolt (as a carriage), to shake (dice in a box, fluid in a bottle) ; 4. to brandish (a sword, a lance) ; 5. to wave (a flag, etc.) ; 6. to throw about (one's arms or legs). — les masses, to move the mob. Le jonc qu'agite le vent, the reed shaken by the wind. L'air agité par les vents, produit des orages, the air agitated by the wind, produces a storm. Le café m'agite trop, coffee excites me too much.

AGITER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be agitated, to be in agitation ; 2. to agitate one's self ; 3. to exert one's self ; 4. to move, to be in motion ; 5. to toss about ; 6. to wave (as a flag, etc) ; 7. to be agitated, disturbed, perturbed ; 8. to fume, to fret, to fret one's self ; 9. Med. to be agitated, to be restless ; 10. to be agitated, to be under discussion. Vous vous agitez inutilement, you excite yourself in vain. Les questions qui s'y agitent, the questions that they discuss. La mer s'agite, the sea is getting rough.

AGLOMERATION, AGLUTINATION, etc. V. AGGLOMÉRATION, AGGLUTINATION, etc.

AGNAN, anyâ*n*, sm. Naut. burr (on which the end of a rivet is flattened).

AGNAT, agna, [Lat. : agnatus : ad, to ; nasci, to be born), sm. agnate : said of male descendants of the same father.

AGNATION, agnâsyô*n*, sf. agnation : descent from the same father.

AGNATIQUE, agnatik', adj. agnatic.

AGNEAU, anyô, [Lat. : agnus), sm. 1. lamb : a) the young of the ewe ; b) lamb's flesh. Côtelette d'—, lamb chop. — pascal, paschal lamb. — sans tache, lamb without spot or blemish, spotless lamb. Laine d'—, lamb's wool. Il est doux comme un —, he is as gentle as a lamb.

AGNEL, anyèl sm. agnel : an old French gold coin so called from its bearing the figure of a lamb.

AGNELAGE, any'lazh', sm. lambing, yeaning (of ewes).

AGNELER, any'lé-r, vn. to yean, to lamb : to bring forth lambs.

AGNELET, any'lé, sm. lambkin, little lamb.

AGNELIN, any'la*n*, sm. lambskin tawed with the wool on it.

AGNELINE, any'lin', adj. f. Laine —, lamb's wool.

AGNELLE, anyèl', sf. ewe-lamb.

AGNELLEMENT, AGNÈLEMENT, anyèl'mâ*n*-t, sm. lambing, yeaning.

AGNÈS, anyès, sf. 1. Agnes : a) a woman's name ; b) a very timid bashful girl. Faire l'—, to do Agnes : to play the innocent. Ce n'est pas une —, she is not so innocent as you think.

AGNOSTICISME, agnostisism, [Gr. : ἄγνωστος, unknown], sm. agnosticism : doctrine which declares the absolute to be inaccessible to the human mind.

AGNOSTIQUE, agnostik, adj. smf. agnostic : one who holds the doctrine of agnosticism.

AGNUS, agnus, sm. Rom. Cath. agnus (lamb) ; agnus Dei : a wafer (or an image) bearing the figure of a lamb.

AGNUS-CASTUS, ag-nus-kastus, sm. Bot. agnus-castus or chaste-tree.

AGNUS DEI, agnus-déi, sm. agnus Dei : (lamb of God) name of a prayer commencing with these words.

AGONIE, agoni, [Gr. : ἀγών, contest], sf. 1. agony : anguish, pang ; 2. death agony, death struggle, pangs of death. Il a été à l'—, he has been at death's door.

AGONIR, agonir, va. Vulg. to abuse, to load with abuse.

AGONISANT, E, agonizâ*n*-t, â*n*t', adj. 1. dying, expiring, at the point of death ; 2. (substantively) a dying person. Les morts et les agoniasnts, the dead and the dying.

AGONISER, agonizé-r, [agonie], vn. to be dying, expiring ; to be at the point of death.

AGONISTIQUE, agonistik', [Gr. : ἀγωνίζω, combat], sf. agonistics : athletic exercises.

AGORAPHOBIE, agorafobi, [Gr.: ἀγορά, assembly ; φόβος, fear], sf. Pathol. agoraphobia : folly which consists in being afraid of the crowd.

AGOUTI, agouti, sm. Zool. agouti : a small animal of the order Rodentia.

AGRAFE, agraf', [orig. doubtful ; Welsh : craff, hook ; All. : greifen, to size ; Old Ger : chrâpfo, hook], sf. 1. hook, hook-and-eye (to fasten dresses, etc.) ; 2. clasp (for book-covers, cloaks, etc.) ; 3. snap (of a necklace, bracelet, etc.) ; 4. Arch. cramp, cramp-iron (to fasten stones together) ; 5. bracket : keystone of an arch ; 6. hook and staple (to fasten window-shutters). — et porte, hook-and-eye. — de diamants, diamond clasp.

AGRAFER, agrafé-r, [agrafe], va. to hook, to clasp : to fasten with hooks and eyes, or with clasps.

AGRAIRE, agrêr', [Lat. : agrarius ; ager. field], adj. 1. agrarian ; 2. land. La loi —, the agarian law. L'are est l'unité des mesures agraires en France, the are is the unity of land-measure in France.

AGRANDIR, agrâ*n*dir, [grand], va. 1. to enlarge, to extend. — une maison, to enlarge a house. — un parc, un domaine, to extend, to enlarge a park, a domain. — ses vues, to enlarge one's views. Je ferai — cette photographie, I will have this photograph enlarged.

2. to aggrandize : a) to increase the power, rank or dignity of persons ; b) to exalt, to elevate, to ennoble. Ce prince a agrandi sa nation, that prince has aggrandized his nation — la puissance de l'État, to increase the power of the State. — un sujet, to aggrandize, to exalt, to ennoble a subject. Il y a des passions qui agrandissent l'âme, there are passions, which elevate, ennoble the soul. Corneille a agrandi la scène française, Corneille aggrandized, elevated, dignified the French stage.

3. to give an appearance of increased size, of stoutness : said of garments with regard to the human figure.

4. to raise, to increase, to augment. — ses prétentions, to raise one's claims, one's pretensions.

5. to magnify (as a microscope : in this sense, GROSSIR is more generally and more correctly employed.

AGRANDIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to be enlarged, to enlarge : to become, to get (or grow) larger. Cette ville s'agrandit rapidement, this town is rapidly enlarging, growing larger. Cette ouverture s'est trop agrandie, this orifice has become too large.

2. to grow, to increase, to augment. Son courage s'agrandissait avec les dangers, his courage increased with the dangers.

3. to raise, to exalt, to elevate. L'âme s'agrandit par la contemplation des œuvres de Dieu, the soul is elevated by contemplating the works of God.

4. to aggrandize one's self. Cet homme croit s'— avec son domaine qu'il étend, that man fancies that he is aggrandizing himself while extending his domains.

AGRANDISSEMENT, agrândis'mân-t, sm. 1. enlargement : a) act of enlarging ; b) state of being enlarged ; c) widening, making larger. L'— d'une ville, d'un domaine, the enlargement, the growth of a town, the extension of an estate.

2. aggrandizement : increase in honour, rank, dignity, or importance.

3. elevation, ennobling, exaltation, raising, dignifying.

AGRANDISSEUR, agrândisœr, s. m. Phot. enlarger.

AGRAPHIE, agrafi, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; γράφειν, to write], sf. Med. agraphia : incapability of writing.

AGRASSOLE, agrasol', sm. gooseberry-bush.

AGRÉABLE, agréabl', [agréer], adj. 1. agreeable : a) pleasant ; b) pleasing ; c) charming, delightful ; d) pleasurable ; e) grateful ; f) acceptable ; g) welcome ; h) comfortable, nice. Lieu —, agreeable, pleasant place. Compagnon —, agreeable, pleasant companion. Physionomie, figure —, pleasing physiognomy, countenance. Une femme —, a pleasant woman. Une sensation —, a pleasurable sensation. — au goût, grateful to the taste : palatable. Des nouvelles agréables, welcome news. Si cela vous est —, if that is agreeable to you, if that suits you. Nous avons passé une soirée très —, we have had a very pleasant evening. Il est — de voir, it is agreeable, pleasing, pleasant to see. Avoir pour —, avoir —, to allow, to permit, to think fit. Nous prions Dieu d'avoir pour — nos oraisons, we pray God to accept our supplications. Bossuet.

2. (substantively) agreeable. Mêler l'utile à —, to blend the useful with the agreeable. Faire l'—, to act, to play the agreeable. Joindre l'— à l'utile, to combine the useful with the agreeable.

AGRÉABLEMENT, agréablœmân-t, adv. agreeably : pleasantly, pleasingly, charmingly, acceptably. V. AGRÉABLE.

AGRÉÉ, E, pa. p. of AGRÉER, to agree, and of AGRÉER, to rig. 1. received, accepted, admitted, etc. ; 2. rigged. Vaisseau complètement agréé, ship fully rigged.

AGRÉÉ, sm. lawyer, attorney, solicitor : a person admitted to plead before a tribunal of commerce.

AGRÉER, agréé-r, [Lat. : ad, to ; gratus, pleasing], va. 1. to accept : to receive favourably. Il agréa mes bons offices, he accepted my good offices. Veuillez — mes hommages, mes respects, please to accept my homage, my respects. Faire —, to procure the acceptation of.

2. to approve, to sanction. Le roi n'a pas voulu agréer sa nomination, the king would not approve his appointment.

AGRÉER, vn. (with à) to please, to be acceptable to. Cet homme m'agrée infiniment, that man pleases me mightily. Il ne lui agréait nullement de comparaître, it, by no means, pleased him to appear. V. Hugo.

AGRÉGAT, agréga, sm. Did. and Geol. aggregate : united mass.

AGRÉGATIF, VE, agrégatif, iv', adj. aggregative.

AGRÉGATION, agrégâsyôn, sf. 1. aggregate, aggregation ; 2. admission into a public body, corporation, or company ; 3. Univ. fellowship ; examination, concursus or competition for a fellowship.

AGRÉGÉ, agrézhé, sm. 1. Univ. fellow, supplementary professor.

AGRÉGER, agrézhé-r, [Lat. : aggregāre, to bring together ; ad, to ; grex, gregis, a flock], va. 1. to admit, to receive (into a public body) ; 2. Geol. to aggregate.

AGGRÉGER (s'), v. refl. (with à) to be aggregated with, to be united to or with.

AGRÉMENT, agrémân-t, sm. 1. consent : approbation, approval. Donner son — pour une chose, to give one's consent to a thing. Avec mon —, with my consent.

2. favour. Sa conduite lui a donné l'— du prince, his conduct has won him the prince's favour.

3. pleasantness, agreeableness ; 4. charm, attraction, pleasing quality. L'— des lieux, the pleasantness, the charm of the place. Un lieu d'—, an agreeable, a pleasant place. Un jardin d'—, pleasure grounds. Arts d'—, accomplishments.

5. Mus. grace-note. Ce chanteur fait trop d'agréments, that singer inserts too many grace-notes. Notes d'—, grace-notes.

AGRENER, agrœné-r, [à ; graine], va. to feed with corn (pleasants, partridges, etc.)

AGRÉNER, agréné-r, va. Naut. to bale out : to free a vessel from water.

AGRÈS, agrê-s, sm. pl. Naut. rigging, fittings, furniture. [GRÉEMENT is the word now used].

AGRESSEUR, agrèsœr, sm. aggressor. Il était l'—, he was the aggressor.

AGRESSIF, VE, agrèsif, iv, adj. aggressive.

AGRESSION, agrèsyôn, [Lat. : aggredi, gressus ; ad, to ; gradi, to step], sf. aggression.

AGRESSIVEMENT, agrèsiv'mân-t, adv. aggressively.

AGRESTE, agrèst, [Lat. : agrestis ; ager, field], adj. agrestic : a) (of places) rustic, wild, rude, savage ; b) (of persons) rude, savage, rustic, boorish. Manières agrestes, boorish manners.

AGRICOLE, agrikol', [Lat. : agricola], adj. 1. agricultural ; 2. (substantiv.) agriculturist. Pays —, agricultural country. Travail —, farm labour, field labour. Industrie —, agriculture, farming, husbandry.

AGRICULTEUR, agrikultœr, [Lat. : agricola], sm. 1. agriculturist, farmer ; 2. (adject.) agricultural. Peuple —, agricultural nation.

AGRICULTURE, agrikultur', [Lat. : agricultura], sf. agriculture, farming, husbandry, tilling.

AGRIFFER (S'), agrifé-r, [griffe], v. refl. to cling (by means of claws). Un chat agriffé à un arbre, a cat clinging to a tree.

AGRION, agrion, [Gr. : ἄγριος, wild], sm. dragon-fly.

AGRIOTE, agriot, [Gr. : ἄγριος, wild], sf. wild cherry.

AGRIPAUME, agripôm', sf. Bot. motherwort : leonurus cardiaca.

AGRIPPER, agripé-r, [à ; gripper], va. Pop. to snatch, to snatch up. Elle agrippe tout ce qu'elle voit, she seizes hold of everything she sees.

AGRIPPER (s'), v. refl. Pop. to cling, to lay hold of.

AGROGRAPHIE, agrografi, [Gr. : ἀγρὸς, field ; γράφω, I write], sf. description of things bearing upon agriculture.

AGRONOME, agronom', sm. scientific agriculturist.

AGRONOMIE, agronomi, [Gr. : ἀγρός, field ; νόμος, law], sf. agronomy : the theory of agriculture.

AGRONOMIQUE, agronomik', adj. agronomic : relating to scientific agriculture.

AGROSTEMME, agrostem', [Gr. : ἀγρὸς, field ; στέμμα, crown, sf. Bot. agrostemma, corn-cockle.

AGROSTIDE, agrostid', [Gr. : ἄγρωστις], sf. Bot. bentgrass : agrostis.

AGROUPER, agroupé-r, va. to group together, to place in groups.

AGUERRI, E, aghèri, ppa. p. and adj. 1. inured to war ; 2. inured, seasoned, hardened. — au froid, inured to the cold.

AGUERRIR, aghérir, [guerre], va. 1. to inure to war ; 2. to season, to harden. — une armée, to inure an army to war.

AGUERRIR s'), v. refl. 1. to become inured to war ; 2. to get inured, seasoned, accustomed (to), hardened (against). Tâchez de vous — contre les voluptés, strive to harden yourself against voluptuousness. Barthelemy.

AGUETS, aghé, [à ; guet], sm. pl. 1. lying in wait, watch ; 2. sing. ambuscade, ambush. Être aux —, to be lying in wait, to be on the watch, on the look-out. Mettre aux —, to set (persons) on the watch.

AGUICHER, aghi'chě-r, va. Pop. to entice, to allure, to decoy.

† AGUIMPÉ, E, aganpé, adj. wimpled, wearing a wimple.

AH, â, int. ah !

AHAN, aân, sm. laborious effort. Suer d'—, to toil and moil.

AHANER, aané-r, vn. to moil : to labour hard.

AHEURTEMENT, aœrtœmân-t, sm. stubborness, pigheadedness.

AHEURTER (S'), aœrté-r, (à ; heurt, shock], v. refl. (with à) to be stubborn in, to be obstinately wedded to (an opinion, etc.).

AHURIR, aurir, [à ; hure], va. to dumfound, to dumfounder : to flurry, to confuse.

AHURISSEMENT, â-uris'mân-t, sm. dumfounding, flurry, confusion.

AÏ, , sm. Zool. ai : the three-toed sloth.

AICHE or ÈCHE, ésh', [Lat. : esca, food], sm. lob-worms : used as bait for fish.

AICHER, éshé-r, va. Fish. to bait (a hook with a worm).

AIDANT, E, èdân-t, ânt, ppa. p. adj. aiding ; (substant.) aid, aider, helper ; (in an ill sense) abettor.

AIDE, èd', sf. 1. aid : a) help, assistance ; b) succour, relief ; c) tax ; d) Horsemansh, action used in managing a horse ; 2. chapel of ease, church dependent on a parish church. Leur — nous fut très utile, their aid, help, assistance was very useful. Donner —, to aid, to help. Être, venir en —, to lend assistance. Ainsi Dieu me soit en —, so help me God. A l'—, help ! A l'— de, by the aid or help of. Prov. : Un peu d'aide fait grand bien, every little helps. A qui se lève matin, Dieu aide et prête la main, he who doth not rise early never does a good day's work ; it is the early bird that catches the worm.

AIDE, smf. 1. assistant, helper ; 2. (in composition) assistant-, under- ; 3. Naut. mate (of a merchantman). Aide-de-camp, aide-de-camp. — des cérémonies, assistant-master of the ceremonies. — chirurgien, assistant-surgeon. — de cuisine, under-cook. — -maçon, mason's labourer. — major, adjutant (of a regiment).

AIDER, èdé-r, [Lat. : adjutāre], va. 1. to aid, to help, to assist; 2. to succour, to relieve (the poor); 3. to promote, to conduce to, to contribute to (the success of anything); 4. (in an ill sense) to abet. Aidé de son courage, aided, supported by his courage. Aider quelqu'un de ses conseils, de sa bourse, to help any one with one's advice, with one's purse. Aidez-moi à monter, à descendre, help me to get up, to get down; help me up, help me down. Aider quelqu'un à payer ses dettes, to help any one to pay his debts.

AIDER (s'), v. refl. 1. to help one's self; 2. to help, aid, assist one another or each other; 3. to bestir, to exert one's self; 4. (with de) to use, to employ, to make use of. Aidez-vous les uns les autres, help one another, Aidez-vous, be your own help; bestir, exert yourself. Il ne peut s'aider de ses membres, he cannot use his limbs, he has not the use of his limbs. Prov. : Aide-toi, le ciel t'aidera, heaven helps those who help themselves.

AIDER, vn. (with à). 1. to aid, to help, to assist; 2. to promote, to conduce, to contribute (to). Ils lui aidaient à tromper le roi, they helped him deceive (or in deceiving) the king. Aider à la lettre, 1. to add to the letter: to supply what is wanting to render an obscure text intelligible; 2. Fig. to add to or pervert the meaning of a passage.

AÏE, ay', interj. oh! (a cry of suffering).

AIEUL, ayœl, [Lat. : avus. grandfather], sm. 1. grandfather, Poet. grandsire; 2. (sometimes, but rarely) ancestor, forefather. Aïeul paternel, maternel, paternal, maternal-grandfather. Ses deux aïeuls ont assisté à ce mariage, his two grandfathers were present at the marriage. V. AÏEUX.

AÏEULE, ayœl', sf. grandmother. Aïeule paternelle, paternal grandmother.

AÏEUX, ayœ-z, sm. pl. ancestors, forefathers; Poet. sires, fathers.

† AIGAIRE, éghêr', [O. Fr. : aigue, water], sm. Agr. deep furrow (to carry off water).

AIGLE, ègl', [Lat. : aquila], sm. 1. Ornith. eagle. Aigle impérial, imperial eagle. Aigle royal, golden eagle (when young); ring-tailed eagle. Petit aigle, aigle criard ou tacheté, spotted eagle. Aigle à tête blanche, white-headed or bald-headed eagle. Aigle pêcheur, fishing eagle. Crier comme un aigle, to scream, to shriek, like an owl. Avoir des yeux d'aigle, to be eagle-eyed, to be keen-, or far-sighted. [In speaking of the female, aigle is often regarded as feminine]. Prov. : L'aigle ne chasse point aux mouches, eagles catch no flies.

2. (used figuratively to express superiority) eagle, genius, master-mind, paragon, oracle, star. C'est un aigle, he is a genius. Aigle de Meaux, Bossuet, bishop of Meaux.

3. eagle: an American gold coin worth 10 dollars; 4. reading-desk (in churches); 5. Astron. Aquila, the Eagle: a northern constellation.

AIGLE, sf., eagle: in Heraldry, and when signifying a military standard. Les aigles romaines, the Roman eagles.

AIGLEFIN, égl'fan, sm. V. AIGREFIN.

AIGLETTE, églét', sf. Herald. eaglet.

AIGLON, èglôn, sm., AIGLONNE, èglon', sf. eaglet, young eagle.

AIGRE, ègr', [Lat. : acer], adj. 1. acid, sour, tart, sharp (to the taste, or smell); 2. sharp, shrill, piercing (as sounds); 3. piercing, cutting (as the wind); 4. harsh (as colours); 5. eager, brittle (as metals); 6. Fig. acrimonious, sour, crabbed (of persons); 7. sour, tart, sharp, severe, harsh, acrimonious (as language).

AIGRE, sm. 1. acidity, sourness, tartness (in taste or smell); 2. sharpness; keenness (of cold); 3. lemon vinegar. Sentir l'—, to smell sour or stale.

AIGRE-DOUX, DOUCE, ègr'-dou, dous', adj. between sweet and sour, subacid; sourish, tartish. Des oranges aigres-douces, sourish oranges. Il me reçut d'un air qui tient de l'aigre-doux, he received me with a sourish look or air.

AIGREFIN, ègr'fan, sm. sm. 1. sharper; 2. Ichth. haddock.

AIGRELET, TE, ègr'lé, èt', adj. sourish, tartish, sub-acid. Fruit aigrelet, sourish, tartish, sub-acid fruit. Paroles aigrelettes, sourish tartish language.

AIGREMENT, ègr'mân-t, adv. Fig. sourly, tartly, harshly, acrimoniously.

AIGREMOINE, ègr'mwân', sf. Bot. agrimony.

AIGREMORE, ègrœmôr', sm. Pyrotech. charcoal powder, pulverized charcoal.

AIGRET, TE, ègrè-t, èt, adj. sub-acid, sourish, tartish.

AIGRETTE, ègrèt', [from aigron, pour héron], sf. egret or aigret: a) Ornith. the lesser white heron; b) crest, tuft, or top-knot of feathers on the head of certain birds; c) tuft or cluster of feathers, diamonds, etc., worn as an ornament on caps, hats, etc.; d) Phys. brush-light (emanating from electrified bodies); e) Bot. tuft of filaments on the seeds of plants; f) Herald. figure of the bird so called.

AIGRETTÉ, E, ègreté, adj. having an aigret.

AIGREUR, ègrœr, sf. 1. acidity, sourness, tartness (of taste or smell); 2. Fig. acrimony, sourness, sharpness, harshness, crabbedness (of tone or temper); 3. heart-burning, ill-feeling; 4. pl. Med. acid eructations, acidity of the stomach; 5. pl. harsh lines (in an engraving); 6. eagerness, brittleness (of metals). Ce vin a de l'—, this wine is sour. L'— de la discussion, the acrimony of the discussion. Il y a de l'— entre eux, there is some ill-feeling between them.

AIGRIÈRE, égrièr', sf. sour milk (for feeding pigs).

AIGRIR, ègrir, va. 1. to turn sour, to sour; 2. to irritate, to exasperate, to incense (persons); 3. to embitter, to aggravate (quarrels); 4. to increase, to augment, to aggravate (pains, sufferings, evils). Si le mal vous aigrit que le bienfait vous touche, if the injury embitters, let the benefit touch you. Rac. Esth. III, 1. Ne savez-vous pas qu'un peu de levain aigrit toute la pâte? know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Bib. 1. Cor. V, 6. Aigri par le malheur, soured by misfortune. Aigri par mes conseils, irritated by my counsels.

AIGRIR, vn. to become or turn sour. Le lait a aigri par l'influence du tonnerre, the milk has turned owing to the thunder.

AIGRIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to become or turn sour (as milk, wine, etc.); 2. to become irritated, exasperated, incensed; 3. to increase, to augment in violence or intensity. Le vin s'aigrit à l'air, wine turns sour in the air. Sa douleur s'aigrit de jour en jour, his grief increases daily. Montesq.

AIGRISSEMENT, ègris'mân-t, sm. 1. turning sour, turning (of milk, wine, etc.); 2. exasperation, embitterment.

AIGU, UË, ègu, [Lat. : acutus, sharp], adj. 1. sharp-pointed, sharp (as a needle, etc.); 2. well-pointed, stinging (as an epigram, satire, etc.); 3. acute: a) high and shrill, as sounds; b) violent, excessive (as pain); c) Med. violent and of short duration, opposed to chronic, said of diseases; d) Geom. said of angles less than 90 degrees; e) Gram. opposed to grave, said of accents. Bâton —, pointed stick. Epigramme aiguë, stinging epigram. Voix aiguë, shrill voice. Maladie aiguë, acute disease. Angle —, acute angle. A angle —, acute-angled. Accent —, acute accent ('). Pousser un cri —, to utter a shrill cry.

AIGUADE, ègad', [O. Fr. : aigue, water; Lat. : aqua], sf. Naut. 1. supply of fresh water; 2. watering-place (for ships). Faire —, to take in water.

AIGUAYER, ègayé-r, egéyé-r, va. 1. to wash (a horse's legs) in a pond or river; 2. to rinse, to rinse out (linen).

AIGUE-MARINE, èg'marin', sf. aquamarina: a precious stone.

AIGUIÈRE, èghièr', (O. Fr. : aigue, water], sf. ewer: water-jug.

AIGUIÉRÉE, eghieré, sf. ewerful, jugful.

AIGUILLADE, èguiyad', sf. goad, ox-goad.

AIGUILLAGE, èguiyazh', sm. Railw. switching.

AIGUILLAT, èguiya, sm. Ichth. common or picked dog-fish: the acanthias vulgaris, a kind of shark.

AIGUILLE, èguiy', [Lat. : acicula, small needle], sf. 1. needle: a) instrument used in sewing, knitting, etc.; b) the magnetized bar of a mariner's compass; c) Surg. instrument used in couching; d) Min. long and thin crystal; e) obelisk. a) — à coudre, sewing needle. — d'emballeur, packing needle. — à passer, bodkin. — à repriser (or à reprises), darning-needle. — à tricoter, knitting-needle. Ouvrage à —, needle-work, sewing. Travailler à l'—, to work with the needle, to do needle-work. Enfiler une —, to thread a needle. Disputer sur la pointe d'une —, to dispute about trifles. De fil en —, (passing) from one thing to another. Conter de fil en —, to relate things in natural sequence. Passer par le trou d'une —, to pass through the eye of a needle, to do impossibilities. Chercher une — dans une botte de foin, to look for a needle in a stack of hay. b) — aimantée, magnetic needle. — de déclinaison, declination needle. — d'inclinaison, dipping needle.

2. cock (of a common scale-beam), index (of philosophical scales); 3. hand (of a watch, clock, etc.). Petite —, hour hand. Grande —, minute hand. — à secondes, seconds hand or second hand.

4. Arch. spire (rising from the centre of a church tower), pinnacle (at the corners of towers); 5. king-post, central-post (of a pyramidal roof or wooden spire); 6. peak, mountain-peak.

7. Railw. point, switch. — à contre-poids, self-acting points.

8. Ichth. pipe-fish: Syngnathus acus.

AIGUILLÉE, èguiyé, sf. needleful.

AIGUILLER, éguiyé-r, va. Railw. to switch.

AIGUILLETAGE, èguiy'tazh', sm. Naut. seizing, frapping, lashing.

AIGUILLETER, eguiy'té-r, va. 1. to tag laces; 2. Naut. to seize, to frap, to lash.

AIGUILLETTE, èguiyèt', [aiguille], sf. 1. tagged lace; 2. shoulder-knot with tags: worn by military men, and sometimes by livery-servants; 3. slice (long and narrow; said of flesh); 4. narrow strip (of skin, etc.); 5. Naut. sennit, knittle (for seizing and lashing).

AIGUILLEUR, èguiyœr, sm. Railw. pointsman, switchman.

AIGUILLIER, èguiyé-r, sm. 1. needle-maker : in this sense the fem. Aiguillière is also used ; 2. needle-case.

AIGUILLON, èguiyôn, sm. 1. goad, ox-goad ; 2. Fig. spur, incentive, stimulus ; 3. sting (of bees, etc) ; 4. Script. Lang. prick, thorn : annoyance, temptation, molestation ; 5. Bot. prickle : thorn adhering to the bark only ; 6. spine, prickle (of a hedgehog). La louange des belles actions sert d'— à la vertu, the praising of noble actions is a stimulus to virtue. L'— de la chair, the thorn in the flesh. L'— de la vanité, the spur of vanity.

AIGUILLONNEMENT, èguiyon'mân-t, sm. goading.

AIGUILLONNER, èguiyoné-r, va. 1. to goad ; 2. to spur on, to incite, to stimulate. — les bœufs, to goad oxen. Aiguillonné par la faim, goaded, impelled by hunger. Aiguillonné de désirs, stimulated, incited by desires.

AIGUISAGE, èguizazh', AIGUISEMENT, èguiz'mân-t, sm. whetting, sharpening (of edge-tools).

AIGUISER, èguizé-r, [aigu, sharp ; Lat. : acuĕre], va. to whet, to sharpen, to give an edge or point to. — un couteau, to whet, to sharpen a knife. — ses couteaux, Fig. to prepare for battle. Pierre à —, hone, oilstone. [Fig.] : Une promenade vous aiguisera l'appétit, a walk will whet, will stimulate your appetite. Certains jeux aiguisent l'esprit des enfants, some games sharpen (or quicken) the wits of children. — une épigramme, to point (to give a point, a sting to) an epigram.

AIGUISERIE, èguiz'ri, sf. grinding-house (of a sword manufactory].

AIGUISEUR, èguizœr, sm, grinder (of swords, knives, etc,).

AIL, ay', sm. pl. AULX, ô, [Lat : allium], garlic. — d'Ascalon, shallot. — d'Espagne, rocambole. Gousse d'—, clove of garlic.

AILANTE, èlânte, sm. Bot. Ailanthus.

AILE, èl', [Lat. : ala], sf. 1. wing : a) limb of a bird, insect, etc. ; b) Fig. protection ; c) Arch. lateral extension of a building ; d) Fortif. flank ; e) flank (of an army or fleet) f) Bot. side-petal ; g) Clock-m. half, the width of the fly or regulator of the striking train. L'oiseau bat ses ailes, déploie ses ailes, the bird claps its wings, spreads its wings. Etre sur l'—, to be on the wing. Manger une — de poulet, to eat the wing of a fowl. Frapper à l'—, to hit in the wing, to wing (a bird, in shooting). Bouts d'ailes, pinions, firsts : small quills from the end of the wing. Sur les ailes du temps, du vent, on the wings of time, of the wind. Voler à tire-d'—, to fly swiftly, to wing a rapid flight. Tirer de l'—, to make wing. La peur donne des ailes, fear gives wings. Le mal a des ailes, evil flies fast. Battre des ailes, to flap the wings. Ne battre que d'une —, to have lost some of one's advantages, to be crippled, to be half-ruined. Il en a dans l'—, he is winged : a) he is injured in health, credit, or reputation ; b) he is over head and ears in love. Tirer une plume de l'— à quelqu'un, to extort some sacrifice from a person. Fig. Rogner les ailes à quelqu'un, to clip one's wings. Voler de ses propres ailes, to stand on one's own legs, to depend on one's own resources. Etre sous l'— de sa mère, to be under one's mother's wings. Sous les ailes du Seigneur, under the Lord's protection. Prov. : Sur les ailes du temps la tristesse s'envole, sorrow will wear out in time.

2. side-aisle, aisle (of a church) ; 3. Anat. outside wall (of the nostril) ; 4. Mach. leaf (of a pinion) ; 5. sweep, sail (of a windmill) ; 6. Autom. wing. mud-guard. — d'avant, front mud-guard. — d'arrière, rear mud-guard, rear wing ; 7. Naut. run : part of a ship. — de dérive, lee-board.

AILÉ, E, èlé, adj. winged : having wings. Vis ailée, thumb-nut (of a screw).

AILERON, èl'rôn, sm. 1. pinion : end of a bird's wing ; 2. Ichth. pectoral fin ; 3. float (of a water-wheel).

AILETTE èlèt' sf. 1. Arch. small wing (added to a house) ; 2. side-lining (of a shoe etc.). — de ventilateur vane, fan blade.

AILLADE, ayad', [ail], sf. garlic sauce.

AILLER, ayé, sm. halier : lark-net.

AILLEURS, ayœr, [Lat. : aliorsum], adv. elsewhere : a) somewhere else, in another place, in some other place ; b) anywhere else, in any other place ; c) to another person, to some other person. Votre esprit est —, your mind is elsewhere. Nous avons dit —, we have said elsewhere. Cette pensée se trouve dans Fénelon et —, that thought is found in Fénelon and elsewhere. Je tâcherai de l'avoir —, I will endeavour to procure it elsewhere, from some other quarter. Nulle part —, nowhere else. Vous ne le trouverez nulle part —, you will find it nowhere else, you will not find it anywhere else. Partout —, everywhere else, in any other place. Par —, by some other means. Je recevrai mes lettres par —, I shall receive my letters by some other conveyance, through some other channel. Son cœur était donné —, his heart was given elsewhere, to another person. S'il aimait — if he loved elsewhere (another, some other, or any other person). Son mécontentement vient d'—, his dissatisfaction proceeds from another cause.

AILLEURS (D'), adv. phr. 1. moreover, besides ; 2. further, in addition to which ; 3. otherwise, in other respects. Deux capitaines d'— si sages, two captains otherwise so prudent, in other respects so wise. Fen. Tél. xvi. D'—, je vous dirai cela une autre fois, besides, I will tell you that another time.

AIMABLE, èmabl', [Lat. : amabilis], adj. 1. lovely : worthy of or exciting love, lovable. Un enfant, un lieu, un objet —, a lovely child, place, object. La vertu est —, virtue is lovely.

2. amiable : a) pleasing, agreeable ; b) gracious. Une personne, un caractère —, an amiable person, disposition. Un homme —, an amiable man. Manières aimables, amiable, pleasing, endearing manners. Une conduite —, endearing conduct. Il s'est rendu — à toute la famille, he has endeared himself to the whole family.

3. kind. Vos attentions aimables, your kind attentions. Vous seriez bien aimable, de me rendre ce service, you would be very kind, it would be very kind of you, to render me this service.

4. (substant.) amiable, pleasing. Faire l'—, to do, to affect the amiable.

AIMABLEMENT, èmablœ'mân-t, adv. amiably.

AIMANT, E, emân-t, ânt', [aimer], adj. loving. Naturel —, a loving disposition, AIMANT, èmân-t, [Gr. : ἀδάμας, αντος, diamond], sm. 1. loadstone ; 2. magnet (natural or artificial). Pierre d'—, loadstone, natural magnet. Les pôles d'un —, the poles of a magnet. — en fer à cheval, horse-shoe magnet. Fig. La douceur est un — qui attire tous les cœurs, gentleness is a loadstone, a magnet that attracts all hearts.

AIMANTAIRE, émântèr', adj. magnetic. Fer —, magnetic iron.

AIMANTATION, emântásyôn, sf. magnetization.

AIMANTÉ, E, èmânté, adj. magnetic. Aiguille aimantée, magnetic needle.

AIMANTER, èmântér, va. to magnetize.

AIMANTER (s'), v. refl. to be magnetized, to become magnetic. Le fer s'aimante par divers procédés, iron is magnetized in various ways.

AIMANTIN, E, èmântan, in', adj. 1. magnetic ; 2. adamantine, adamantean.

AIMÉ, E, èmé, adj., and pa. p. of AIMER. 1. loved, beloved ; 2. (subst.) beloved one, person beloved. Aimé de Dieu, beloved of God. Aimé de tous, loved by all. Bien aimé, well-beloved.

AIMÉE, èmé, np. f. Amy.

AIMER, èmé-r, [Lat. : amāre], va. 1. to love ; 2. to like, to have a partiality for, to be partial to, to be fond of, to delight in. — son père, ses enfants, ses amis, to love one's father, children, friends. Cette jeune personne a épousé l'homme qu'elle aimait, that young lady has married the man she loved. Il aime les enfants, he likes children, he is fond of children. Il aime le théâtre, la musique, les chevaux, he likes music, the theatre, horses. J'aime le fruit, le lait, les huîtres, I like fruit, milk, oysters. Aimer le scandale, les querelles, to take pleasure in scandal, in quarrelling. La violette aime l'ombre, the violet grows best in the shade. Le saule aime l'humidité, the willow likes moisture, flourishes most in moist (or damp) ground. Aimer quelqu'un de..., to like a person for... Je vous aime d'avoir pris sa défense, I like you for defending him, for having taken his part. Faire aimer, to cause to be loved. Se faire aimer, to make one's self beloved, to get friends. Prov. : Qui aime bien, châtie bien, spare the rod and spoil the child. Qui m'aime, aime mon chien, love me, love my dog. Qui aime bien, tard oublie, love me little, love me long. Quand on n'a pas ce que l'on aime, il faut aimer ce que l'on a, they that have no other meat, bread and butter are glad to eat. C'est trop aimer quand on en meurt, they love too much that die for love.

Aimer à, aimer de, (followed by an infinitive) to like, to be pleased with. J'aime à voir comme vous l'instruisez, I like to see, how you teach him. Il aime à lire, à chasser, he likes (or is fond of) reading, shooting.

Aimer mieux, to like better, to prefer. Il aime mieux son argent que ses amis, he prefers his money to his friends, he likes his money better than his friends. J'aimerais mieux ne pas y aller, I would rather (or I had rather) not go there.

Aimer que, followed by the subjunctive. J'aime qu'on soit sincère avec moi, I like people to be sincere with me.

AIMER, vn. to love, to be in love. Il aima longtemps sans espoir, he loved long without hope, he long cherished a hopeless passion.

AIMER (s'), v. refl. 1. to love, to be fond of one's self ; 2. to love, to like each other ; 3. to delight (in), to like. Cette personne s'aime trop, that person is too found of herself. Aimez-vous les uns les autres, love one another. Il s'aime à la campagne, he loves the country, he delights in a country life. La sarcelle s'aime dans les marécages the widgeon delights in marshes. Deux pigeons s'aimaient d'amour tendre, two pigeons loved each other fondly. La Font.

AIMEZ-MOI, èmé-mwâ, sf. Bo. myosotis, forget-me-not.

AINE, èn, [Lat. : inguen], sf. groin : the hollow between the thigh and the abdomen.

AÎNÉ, E, èné, [O. Fr. : ains, before ; né, born], adj. 1. eldest ; 2. elder, senior. Fils —, fille aînée, eldest son, eldest daughter. Mon frère —, ma sœur aînée, my eldest brother, sister : elder is used when there is but one other brother or sister. M. Lenoir aîné, Mr. Lenoir senior (or the Elder). Fils — de l'Église, the eldest son of the Church : formerly said of the king of France.

AINÉ, E, s. eldest, elder, senior. C'est là l'— de ses fils, that is the eldest of his sons : the elder if there be only two. C'est mon —, he is my elder, my senior ; he is older than I am.

AÎNESSE, ènés, sf. primogeniture : priority of birth. Droit d'—, the law, the rights of primogeniture ; birthright. Esaü vendit son droit d'—, Esau sold his birthright.

AINSI, ansi, [Lat. : in sic, in this wise] adv. so, thus : in this or that manner, way, or state. Il s'exprima —, he expressed himself thus, in this wise, manner. Les choses étant —, things being in this state. — va le monde, so goes the world. — dit, — fait, so said, so done ; no sooner said than done. Et — des autres choses, — du reste, — de suite, and so forth, and so on. S'il en est —, si c'est —, if so, if such be the case. — Dieu me soit en aide ! so help me God ! — soit-il, so be it ! — donc, c'est donc — que, thus then, in this way then. Est-ce —, est-ce donc — que vous obéissez à votre maître ? is it thus that you obey, is this then how you obey your master ? Comme la lumière chasse les ténèbres, — la vérité chasse l'erreur, as light dispels darkness, so does truth dispel error. — dit le renard, et les flatteurs d'applaudir, so said the fox, and the flatterers began to applaud. La Font. Fab.

AINSI, conj. 1. so thus ; 2. therefore. — je conclus que, so I conclude that. —, il est évident que, thus, it is evident that — vous refusez mes services ? so you refuse my services ? Il vous a promis, — comptez sur lui, he has promised you, therefore rely on him. — donc, so then.

Ainsi que, 1. as, even as, just as ; 2. as well as, likewise, in like manner, also. — que je l'espère, as I hope. On se pique aux chardons — qu'aux envieux, one is stung by thistles just as one is by the envious. V. Hugo. La chose s'est passée — que je vous l'ai dit, the thing happened in the way I told you. S'il est ainsi que, if so be that, if it so be that, if it be the fact that. Quand ainsi serait que, even were it so, even were it the fact that.

AIR, èr, [Gr. : ἀήρ], sm. 1. air : a) the atmosphere ; b) air in motion wind, breeze ; c) any aeriform fluid, gas. — pur, vif, tempéré, pure, keen, mild air. — natal, native air. — infect, malfaisant, infected, unhealthy air : malaria. Mauvais —, infection, contagion. Changer l'—, to renew, to change the air. Prendre le mauvais —, to catch the infection. — libre, — renfermé, open air, confined air. — vicié, 1. vitiated or foul air ; 2. choke-damp (in mines). Arbres de plein —, trees growing in the open air (without support or protection), standard trees, standards. Prendre l'—, 1. to take the air, to take an airing ; 2. to flee, to run away, to abscond. Faire prendre l'— à, to give an airing to. Prendre l'— du bureau, to ascertain the state of affairs, the state of feeling in official quarters, to see how the land lies, which way the wind blows. Fendre l'—, to cleave the air. Le ballon s'enleva dans les airs, the balloon rose into the air. Battre l'—, to beat the air, to make useless efforts. Donner de l'— à une chambre, to let the air into a room. Donner de l'— à un tableau, to give distinctness to a painting : to make the principal figures stand out well. Il n'y a pas un souffle d'—, there is not a breath of air. Libre comme l'—, as free as the air. Courant d'—, current of air, draught. Coup d'—, cold, swelled face, etc. (caused by having been in a draught). Vivre de l'— du temps, to live on air, to be utterly destitute. — fixe, fixed air : carbonic acid gas. — vital, oxygen gas. Air inflammable, hydrogen gas.

En l'air, 1. in the air ; 2. unfounded, imaginary, empty, vain, idle, silly ; 3. without cause ; 4. in a flutter, agitated, fluttered ; 5. in disorder, in confusion ; 6. unsupported. Châteaux en l'—, castles in the air. Fortune en l'—, imaginary wealth. Contes en l'—, idle stories. Paroles, projets en l'—, idle, empty words, wild talk, baseless projects. Menaces en l'—, idle threats. Soupçons en l'—, unfounded suspicions. Personnages en l'— imaginary persons. Etre en l'—, to be in a flutter, in a state of excitement. Mettre en l'—, to excite, to agitate, to get agog. Il y a quelque chose dans l'—, there is something brewing, something in the wind. Avoir un pied en l'—, to be ready to move, to act. Dans son cabinet tout est en l'—, in his study everything is in disorder. L'aile droite de l'armée était en l'—, the right wing of the army was unsupported.

2. Naut. V. AIRE, and ERRE.

3. air : look, appearance, mien, bearing. Son — froid et réservé, his cold reserved air, his air of cold reserve. — gai, cheerful air. — timide, timid, bashful air. — majestueux, majestic air, mien, bearing. — de simplicité, de cordialité, air of simplicity, of cordiality. Elle a l'— d'une dame de province, she has the look, the air, the appearance of a provincial. Avoir l'—, to look, to appear. Elle a l'— fâchée, she looks offended. [In phrases of this kinf when the participle or adjective does not agree in gender with air, the words d'être are understood]. Cette poire a l'air mûre, this pear looks ripe. Il a l'— comme il faut, he looks gentlemanlike. Il a l'— grand, he has a grand air, a noble bearing. Il a mauvais —, he has a low, an ungentlemanly appearance. Il a l'— mauvais, he looks crabbed, ill-tempered. Il a bon —, he has a gentlemanly appearance. Il a l'— bon, he looks good-natured, has a good-natured look.

4. likeness, resemblance. Un — de famille, a family likeness.

5. manner, way. Ils traitent du même — l'honnête homme et le fat, they treat honest men and coxcombs in the same manner. Le bel —, elegant manners. Prendre des airs, to assume airs. Prendre les airs du monde, to assume airs of distinction. Il prend un — crâne, he puts on a bold look. Se donner de grands airs, to assume lofty airs. Vous avez l'— tout drôle, how queer you look ! Cela n'a l'— de rien, it looks no how ; it has neither shape nor make.

6. welcome, reception. Elle nous fit un — honnête, she gave us a polite reception. L'— gracieux que sa majesté m'a fait, the gracious reception his majesty gave me.

7. Paint. air, attitude, turn (of the head.)

8. Mus. tune, air melody. L'— va bien aux paroles, the tune is well-suited to the words. — à boire, a drinking song, an anacreontic. Un — national, a national air.

9. gait, paces (of a horse, etc.).

AIRAGE, èrazh', sm. Technol. weathering : angle which the sails of a windmill make with their plane of revolution.

AIRAIN, èrân, [Lat. : æs, æris], sm. bronze, brass : a) copper alloyed with tin, zinc, etc. ; b) anything made of this metal ; c) want of feeling, ruthlessness ; d) impudence, effrontery. Statue d'—, bronze statue. Ce climat fertile sous un ciel d'—, this fertile clime under a brazen, a burning sky. L'— tonne, the cannon roars. L'— sonnant, Script. sounding brass. Cœur d'—, iron heart, ruthless, unfeeling heart. Front d'—, 1. (bad sense) brazen face ; 2. (good sense) bold front, unwavering attitude. Avoir un front d'—, to have a brazen face, to be brazenfaced. Montrer un front d'—, to show a bold front, to assume an unflinching attitude. Mur d'—, insurmountable obstacle. Le siècle d'—, the age of brass. Prov. : Les injures s'écrivent sur l'airain, et les bienfaits sur le sable, injuries are engraven on brass and benefits on the sand.

AIRE, èr', [Lat. : area], sf. 1. thrashing-floor, barnfloor ; 2. Geom. area : superficies ; 3. surface, space ; 4. platform (of a bridge, etc.) ; 5. table (of an anvil) ; 5. face (of a hammer) ; 7. aerie, eyrie or eyry (of an eagle, etc.). 8. Archit. pugging : coarse mortar under a floor to exclude noise from the floor below ; 9. bottom, bed (of a dock or basin) ; 10. smallest pan (of a saltmarsh). — de vent, Naut. point of the compass. — d'un vaisseau, way, speed of a ship. Couper les bois à tire et à —, to cut down all the underwood leaving only staddles for timber.

AIRÉE, èré, sf. floor, floorful (of wheat, etc., to be thrashed).

AIRELLE, èrél', sf. Bot. common whortleberry or bilberry.

AIRER, èré-, [aire], vn. to build an eyrie. L'aigle avait airé sur un rocher, the eagle had built its eyrie on a rock.

AIS, è [Lat. : axis, beam], sm. 1. board : thin plank of wood ; 2. stave (of a cask) ; 3. Book-b. press-board ; 4. Print. wetting-board; 5. butcher's block or board.

AISANCE, èzâns', [aise], sf. a. ease : a) facility ; b) freedom, unrestraint of body or mind ; 2. easy circumstances, competency. Il est dans l'—, he is in easy circumstances, he is well off. Il jouit d'une honnête —, he enjoys, possesses a decent competency.

3. Jurispr. easement : right of way, etc., over a neighbour's ground.

4. pl. water-closet, privy. Fosse d'aisances, cesspool.

AISCEAU, èsô, sm. howel : cooper's tool.

AISE, èz', [Bret. : eaz, easy], sf. 1. joy, gladness. Sauter d'—, to jump for joy. Leur — a peu duré, their joy, their gladness was of short duration. Ne pas se sentir d'—, to be beside one's self with joy.

2. enjoyment, gratification Ils avaient toute l'— que la situation comportait, they had every enjoyment that circumstances allowed.

3. ease. Etre à son —, 1. to be at ease ; 2. to be well off. Il est à son — partout, he is at his ease (or he feels at home) everywhere. Etre mal à son —, to be ill at ease : a) to be (or feel) embarrassed ; b) to be unwell, indisposed. Mettre quelqu'un à son —, to put, to set any one at his ease. Se mettre à son —, to make one's self at home, to make free. Etre, vivre à son —, to be at ease, in easy circumstances, to lead an easy life. En prendre à son —, to do as one likes, to take things easy (or easily). Parler à son —, to talk flippantly, lightly (of other people's difficulties or troubles). Elle lui dit qu'il en parlait fort à son —, she told him that it was very easy for him to talk. Je ne demande que paix et —, all I ask is a quiet life.

4. pl. comforts, conveniences, enjoyments. Dieu vous prive d'une partie de vos aises, God takes away some of your comforts. Les aises de vie, the comforts, conveniences of life. Aimer ses aises, to indulge one's self, to be self-indulgent.

† AISE (A L'), adv. phr., at ease, comfortably. Assis à l'—, comfortably seated. Il tient six personnes à l'— dans cette voiture, that carriage holds six persons comfortably. Un cheval qui porte à l'—, an easy-going horse.

AISE, èz, adj. glad; delighted. Combien il sera — ! how glad he will be ! J'en suis bien —, I am very glad of it. Je suis bien— de l'apprendre, I am very glad, very happy to hear it. Je suis aise de mon sort, I am content with my lot.

AISÉ, E, èzé, adj. 1. easy. Cela est bien—, that is very easy. Il est — de dire, de prouver cela, it is easy to say, to prove that. Rien n'est plus —, nothing is easier. Cela vous est bien — à dire, it is very easy for you to say that. Un homme — à vivre, a man easy to live with, an easy-tempered man. Une voiture aisée, an easy carriage. Une route aisée, an easy road. Des souliers aisés, easy shoes. Un air —, an easy air, deportment. Manières aisées, easy manners. Mouvements aisés, easy movements. Pinceau —, Paint. easy pencil. Vers aisés, easy (flowing, smooth) verses. Morale aisée, easy morality, loose morals.

2. in easy circumstances, well off, well-to-do, of independent fortune. C'est un homme —, he is a man of independent fortune. Une famille aisée, a well-to-do family.

AISÉMENT, èzémân-t, adv. easily. Ce cheval galope —, this horse has an easy gallop.

AISNE, èn', Aisne : a department of France.

AISSADE, èsad', sf. Agr. mattock.

AISSANTE, èsânt', sf. AISSEAU, èsô, sm. shingle : thin board for covering roofs.

AISSELLE, èsél, [Lat. : axilla], sf. 1. arm-pit ; Anat. axilla ; 2. Bot. axil, axilla.

AISSIEU, èsiœ, sm. V. ESSIEU.

AITIOLOGIE, ètiolozhi, sf. V. ETIOLOGIE.

† AÎTRES, èytr', [Ety. doubtful ; Lat. : artium, porch ; used as êtres, persons), sm. pl. persons, beings. Connaître les — d'une maison, to know the ins and outs of a house.

AIX-LA-CHAPELLE, èx-la-shapel', s. Aix-la-Chapelle or Aachen : a town of Rhenish Prussia.

AJOINTER, azhwanté-r, [à ; joint], va. Techn. to join end to end.

AJONC, azhôn, [Low Lat. : adjotum, place planted with furze], sm. furze, gorse, whin. — d'Europe, furze.

AJOURNEMENT, azhournœmân-t, sm. 1. summons, citation (to appear before a tribunal) ; 2. adjournment (of a debate, etc.) ; 3. postponement.

AJOURNER, azhourné-r, [à ; jour], va. 1. to summon, to cite : to fix a day for a person to appear before a tribunal ; 2. to subpœna (witness) ; 3. to adjourn (a debate, etc.) ; 4. to postpone, to put off, to defer.

AJOURNER (S'), v. refl. 1. to adjourn ; 2. to be adjourned, to be postponed or deferred. Le sénat s'est ajourné, the senate has adjourned. Cette affaire ne peut s'—, this business cannot be post postponed.

AJOUTAGE, azhoutazh', sm. Techn. piece added, eking piece. — réglable, Autom. adjustable nozzle. — à gouttes réglables, adjustable drip nozzle.

AJOUTÉ, sm. addition : words added. Il y a des ajoutes à toutes les pages, there are additions on every page.

AJOUTER, azhouté-r, [Lat. : ad, to ; juxta, near], va. 1. to add (to). — une aile à une maison, to add a wing to a house. — foi à, to believe, to credit, to put faith in.

2. (in a neuter sense) to add. Il ajoute tous les jours à son domaine, he is every day adding (making additions) to his estate. Vous avez tort, ajoute-t-il, you are wrong, added he. — au conte, to embellish a story.

AJOUTER (S'), v. refl. to be added, to be superadded.

AJOUTOIR, azhoutwar, sm. V. AJUTAGE.

AJUST, azhu, AJUS, azhu, sm. Naut. sheet-bend, fisherman's knot.

AJUSTAGE, azhustazh', sm. 1. Mint. adjusting (of coins) ; 2. Tech. fitting.

AJUSTEMENT, azhustœmân-t, sm. 1. adjustment : a) the act or result of adjusting ; b) conciliation, reconciliation (of things apparently opposite) ; c) settlement, arrangement (of differences, disputes) ; 2. fitting (of the different parts of machines, etc.) ; 3. weighing, sizing (of blanks for coins) ; 4. arrangement, fitting up (of a house) ; 5. laying out (of a garden) ; 6. dress, toilet, attire ; 7. ornament, adornment (for the person).

AJUSTER, azhusté-r, [O. Fr. : adjuster ; à ; juste], va. 1. to adjust : a) to make exact ; b) to conciliate, to reconcile ; to bring into agreement (things apparently opposite) ; c) to settle, to arrange (difficulties, disputes) ; 2. to fit (one thing to another) ; 3. to weigh, to size (blanks for coins) ; 4. to arrange, to fit up (a house, etc.) ; 5. to lay out (a garden) ; 6. to dress, to ornament, to adorn ; 7. to bedizen, to trick out ; 8. to tune, to put in tune; 9. to aim (a shot, a blow) ; 10. to aim at, to take aim at (with a gun, etc.) ; 11. Naut to bend, to tie (one rope to another). — une balance, to adjust (to rectify) a balance or pair of scales. — un habit à quelqu'un, to fit a coat on any one. Ajustez ce manche à la bêche, fit this handle to the spade. Ajustons un peu nos cheveux, let us put our hair a bit in order. Mol. Préc. rid. 6. — un différend, to adjust, to settle a dispute. — un tuyau d'orgue, to put an organ pipe in tune. Ajustez vos flûtes. Fig. be consistent with yourself, with yourselves. N'y a-t-il pas moyen d'— cela avec quelques pistoles ? is there no way of adjusting this matter with the help of a few pistoles ? Mol. Pourc. iii. 6. On l'a ajusté de toutes pièces, he has been terribly abused (with words), bemauled, pummelled (with blows). Vous voilà bien ajusté, you are now in a pretty pickle. Il ajuste bien, he is a good marksman, a good shot. — les rênes, to hold the reins even (in riding or driving).

AJUSTER (S'), v. refl. 1. to be adjusted : a) to be reconciled ; b) to reconcile one's self ; c) to be adapted ; d) to adapt one's self ; e) to tally, to agree ; 2. to fit ; 3. to prepare, to get ready ; 4. to dress one's self ; (in an ill sense) to bedizen one's self, to trick one's self out. Ces deux pièces s'ajustent bien, those two pieces are well adjusted, fit well together. Ces deux hommes ne sauront jamais s'—, those two men will never agree. Chacun s'ajuste de son mieux, every one dresses (or dresses himself) as well as he can. Ajustons-nous au temps, let us adapt ourselves to the times.

AJUSTEUR, azhustœr, sm. 1. Mint. sizer (of coins) ; 2. Technol. fitter.

AJUSTOIR, azhustwar, sm. Mint. balance (for coins).

AJUTAGE, ajutazh', [ajouter], sm. Hydraul. ajutage : conducting-tube to facilitate the discharge of fluids.

ALAMBIC, alânbik, [Ar. : al, the ; Gr. : ἄμβιξ, cup], sm. 1. Chem. alembic : an old form of still now seldom used ; 2. still (for distilling). Passer à (or par) l'—, to examine minutely, to sift thoroughly. Mettre à l'—, to subtilize on.

ALAMBIQUÉ, E, alânbiké, pa. p. 1. distilled ; 2. (adj.) over-refined, fine-spun, fine-drawn, subtilized, strained.

ALAMBIQUER, alânbiké-r, va. and n. 1. to over-refine, to subtilize ; 2. to puzzle. — son esprit, s'— l'esprit, la cervelle, to puzzle one's head, one's brains.

ALANGUIR, alânghir, [à ; langueur], va. to render languid, to bring down, to weaken. — par la fièvre, to weaken by fever.

ALANGUISSEMENT, alânghis'mân-t, sm. languidness, languishment.

ALARGUER, alarghé-r, [Lat. : largus, wide], va. 1. Naut. to sheer off ; 2. to fall off (to leeward).

ALARMANT, E, alarmân-t, ânt', adj. alarming.

ALARME, alarm', [Ital. : all' arme, to arms], sf. alarm : a) cry or signal of danger ; b) terror, fright, sense of danger ; c) disquiet, uneasiness. Canon, cloche d'—, alarm-gun, alarm-bell. Sonner l'—, to sound an alarm. Tenir en —, to keep in constant alarm. L'— est au camp, Fig. the camp is roused.

ALARMER, alarmé-r, va. to alarm : a) to give a signal of danger ; b) to terrify, to frighten.

ALARMER (S'), v. refl. 1. to alarm one's self, to be alarmed, to take alarm, the alarm ; 2. to be uneasy, disquieted. Ne vous alarmez pas, don't get into a fright.

ALARMISTE, alarmist', smf. alarmist : a) one easily alarmed ; b) one who spreads alarming reports.

ALATERNE, alatèrn', sm. Bot. alaterne, privet : rhamnus alaternus.

ALBANIE, alban'i, sf. Geog. Albania.

ALBÂTRE, albâtr', [Gr. : ἀλάβαστρον], sm. 1. alabaster ; 2. snowy whiteness. — gypseux, gypseous alabaster. — calcaire, calcareous alabaster. Blanc comme —, white as alabaster, white as snow. Sein d'—, snow-white bosom.

ALBATROS, albatros, [Lat. : albatus, clothed in white], sm. Ornith. albatross.

ALBERGE, albèrzh', sf. cling-stone-peach.

ALBERGIER, albèrzhié, sm. cling-stone-peach tree.

ALBINISME, albinism', [Lat. : albus, white], sm. albinism, albinoism : anomalous absence of colour in man, animals, or plants.

ALBINOS, albinos, sm. albinos : person affected with albinism.

ALBION, albiôn, [Lat. : albus, white], nf. Albion : Great Britain.

ALBRAN, albrân, sm. V. HALBRAN.

ALBUGINÉ, E, albuzhiné, adj. Anat. albugineous. Tunique albuginée de l'œil, the albuginea of the eye : the sclerotic.

ALBUGINEUX, EUSE, albuzhinœ, œz' [Lat. : albus, white), adj. albugineous, whitish.

ALBUGO, albugo, sm. Med. albugo, leucoma.

ALBUM, albom, [Lat. : albus, white], sm. album : a) blank book for autographs, poetry, sketches, etc.; b) sketch-book, scrap-book.

ALBUMEN, albumèn, [Lat. : white of egg], sm. albumen : a) perisperm of seeds; b) white of an egg.

ALBUMINE, albumin', sf. albumine : the immediate principle of the white of eggs.

ALBUMINÉ, E, albuminé, adj. Bot. albuminous.

ALBUMINEUX, EUSE, albuminœ, œz; adj. albuminous ; containing albumen.

ALBUMINOÏDE, albuminoïd', [albumine; Gr. : εἶδος, form], adj. albuminoid.

ALBUMINURIE, albuminurie, [albumine ; Gr. : οὐρεῖν, to urine], sg. Med. albuminuria.

ALCADE, alkad', [Ar. : al, the ; qaid, governor], sm. alcade, alcalde : Spanish magistrate.

ALCAÏQUE, alkaïk', adj. and sm. alcaic : kind of verse in Greek and Latin.

ALCALESCENCE, alkalèsâns', sf. Chem. alkalescence.

ALCALESCENT, E, alkalèsân-t, ânt, adj. Chem. alkalescent.

ALCALI, alkali, [Ar. : alkali], sm. Chem. alkali.

ALCALIFIANT, E, alkalifiâ-t, ânt', adj. Chem. alkalifying.

ALCALIMÈTRE, alkalimètr', [Ar. : alkali ; Gr. : μέτρον, measure], sm. Chem. alkalimeter.

ALCALIMÉTRIE, alkalimétri, sf. Chem. alkalimetry.

ALCALIN, E, alkalan, in', adj. Chem. alkaline. Terres alcalines, alkaline earths.

ALCALINITÉ, alkalinité, sf. Chem. alkalinity, alkalineness.

ALCALISATION, alkalizâsyôn, sf. Chem. alkalization.

ALCALISER, alkalizé-r, va. Chem. to alkalize.

ALCALOÏDE, alkaloid, [alkali ; Gr. : εἶδος, form], sm. alkaloid. La morphine est un —, morphia is an alkaloid.

ALCARAZAS, alkaraza, [Span. from Ar. : al ; quaraz, jug], sm. alcarraza : a vessel of porous earth for cooling water.

ALCÉE, alsé. [Gr. : ἀλκή, remède], sf. Bot. hollyhock : althæa rosea.

ALCHIMIE, alshimi, [Ar. : al kimia ; al, the ; Gr. : χυμός, juice], sf. alchemy.

ALCHIMILLE, alshimiy', sf. Bot. lady's mantle. — commune, common lady's mantle : alchemilla vulgaris. — des champs, field lady's mantle : alchemilla arvensis.

ALCHIMIQUE, alshimik', adj. alchemical, alchemic.

ALCHIMISTE, alshimist', sm. alchemist.

ALCIDE, alsid', [Gr. : ἀλκή, strength], sm. 1. Alcides, Hercules ; 2. Fig. hercules, very strong man. C'est un —, he is a hercules.

ALCOOL, alkool, [Ar. : al, the : cohl, fine powder], sm. alcohol. — absolu, absolute, pure, or anhydrous alcohol.

ALCOOLAT, alkôola, sm. aromatized spirit.

ALCOOLATURE, alkôolatur', sf. tincture : alcoholic extract.

ALCOOLE, alkôolé, sm. tincture.

ALCOOLIQUE, alkôolik', adj. alcoholic.

ALCOOLISATION, alkôolizâsyôn, sf. Chem. alcoholization.

ALCOOLISER, alkôolizé-r, va. Chem. to alcoholise.

ALCOOLISME, alkôolism', sm. alcoholism : morbid state produced by the excessive use of alcoholic drinks.

ALCOOLOMÈTRE, alkôolomètr', [alcool ; Gr. : μέτρον, measure], sm. alcoholometer.

ALCORAN, alkôrân, [Ar. : al, the ; Koran], sm. Alcoran, Koran.

ALCOVE, alkôv', [Span. : alcoba, sleeping-room], sf. alcove : recess for a bed.

ALCYON, alsiôn, [Gr. : ἀλκυών; ἅλς, sea ; κύων, which breeds young], sm. Orn. halcyon, kingfisher. Nids d'—, edible swallows'nests.

ALCYONIEN, alsyônian, adj. m. Jours alcyoniens, halcyon (or happy) days.

ALDÉBARAN, aldébarân, [Ar., shining], sm. Aldebaran : the Bull's Eye, a star of the first magnitude, in Taurus.

ALÉA, alea, [Lat. : game with dice], sm. chance, hazard.

ALEATOIRE, aléatwar', [Lat. : alea, chance ; aleatorius], adj. aleatory : a) depending on chance ; b) hazardous. Les assurances, les opérations de bourse à terme, les paris sont des contrats aléatoires, insurances, time-bargains, and wagers, are speculations on contingencies. Vente —, aleatory sale. Jeux aléatoires, games of chance. Tout cela est fort —, all that is very uncertain, very hazardous.

ALEMBERT, alâmbĕr, (Jean-le-Rond d'), philosophe (1717-1783).

ALÊNE, alèn', [Span. : alesna, awl], sf. 1. awl, shoemaker's awl ; 2. Ichth. white skate. En alêne, Bot. awl-shaped, subulate : said of leaves.

ALÉNÉ, E, aléné, adj. Bot. awl-shaped, subulate.

ALÉNIER, alènié, sm. awl-maker.

ALÉNOIS, alénwâ, [alène, piquant], adj. m. Cresson —, garden-cress : Lepidium sativum.

ALENTIR, alântir, [lent, slow], va. 1. to slacken (speed) ; 2. to abate, to cool down (passion, ardour).

ALENTIR (s'), v. refl. to slacken : a) to flag ; b) to abate, to cool down.

ALENTOUR, alântour, [à l'entour], adv. around, about. Les villages d'—, the villages around, the neighbouring, the surrounding villages.

ALENTOURS, alântour, sm. pl. 1. neighbourhood, vicinity, environs, places around ; 2. persons about (a king, prince, etc.) ; familiars, intimates, connections. Les — du château, the environs of (the country round) the mansion. Des hommes puissants par leurs —, men powerful by their connections.

ALEP, alèp, nm. Aleppo.

ALÉPINE, alépin', [d'Alep], sf. bombazine : a tissue with a silk warp and worsted weft.

ALÉRION, alèriôn, [Lat. : ala, wing], sm. Herald. spread eaglet without beak or talons.

ALERTE, alèrt', [Ital. : all'erta, on the coast], interj. look out ! be on your guard ! Milit. to arms !

ALERTE, sf. alert, alarm. Donner une —, to give an alarm. A la première —, at the first alarm. En —, on the alert, on the look-out.

ALERTE, adj. 1. alert : a) vigilant, watchful, wide awake ; b) sharp, smart, quick-witted, shrewd ; c) active, stirring, quick, nimble. Domestique peu —, slow or slow-going servant.

ALÉSAGE, alézazh', sm. boring smooth, inside-turning (of steam-cylinders, pump-barrels, cannon, etc.

ALÉSER, alézé-r, [lé, side], va. to bore smooth, to turn smooth (the inside of cannon, etc.).

ALÉSOIR, alézwâr, sm. boring machine.

ALESTER, alèsté-r, ALESTIR, alèstir, [lest], va. Naut. to lighten, to make lighter (a vessel or its rigging).

ALÉSURE, alézur', sf. scraps (of iron, etc., cut out by a boring machine).

ALETTE, alet' sf. V. AILETTE.

ALEUROMÈTRE, alerometr', [Gr. : ἄλευρον, flour ; μέτρον, measure], sm. aleurometer : instrument intended to measure the quantity of gluten in flour.

ALEUTES, alœt', nf. Iles Aleutes or les Aleutes, Aleutian islands or Catherine Archipelago.

ALEVIN, ALVIN, al'van, [Gr. : ἁλιεύς, fisherman, from ; ἅλς, the sea], sm. fry, young fish (for stocking ponds, etc.).

ALEVINAGE, al'vinazh', sm. 1. fish-breeding, rearing of fry ; 2. young fish.

ALEVINER, al'viné-r, va. to stock (a pond, etc.) with fry.

ALEVINIER, al'vinyé, sm. breeding pond (for fish).

ALEXANDRE, aléksândr', npm. Alexander.

ALEXANDRIEN, NE, alèksândrian, drièn', adj. Alexandrian : of or from Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIN, alèksândran, adj. and sm. Alexandrine : verse of twelve syllables.

ALEXIPHARMAQUE, alèksifarmak', [Gr. : ἀλέξειν, to expel ; φάρμακον, venin], adj and sm alexipharmic : said of medicines suppose to expel morbific principles.

ALEXIS, alexis (Paul), dramatist et essayist (1847-1901).

ALEZAN, E, alzân, zan', [Ar. : halsa, cheval bai], adj. chestnut : applied chiefly to horses and mares. — clair, light chestnut. [Substantively :] Un alezan, a chestnut horse. Une alezane, a chestnut mare.

ALÈZE, alèz', [lé, side], sf. 1. Med. bed-guard : an old sheet doubled several times ; 2. widening piece : a narrow board joined to another ; 3. Gard. osier band (to tie up a branch).

ALFA, alfa, [Ar.], sm. alfa, halfa : a gramineous plant, in Algeria.

ALFÉNIDE, alfenid, (Halphen pn.), sm. Britannia-metal : metallic alloy used in the manufacture of spoons, etc.

ALGALIE, algali, [Gr. : ἀργαλεῖον, instrument], sf. Surg. catheter : a tubular sound.

ALGANON, alganôn, [Low Lat. : arganum ; Lat. : organum, instrument], sm. chain (of a galley-slave).

ALGARADE, algarad', [Span. : algarada, a sudden attack], sf. a. military incursion ; 2. rating, upbraiding, objurgation.

ALGAROTH, algarot, (from Victor Algarotti 1712-1764), ALGEROTH, alghœrot, sm. Pharm. Poudre d'—, algarot : an oxychloride of antimony.

ALGASELLE, algazél', sf. ALGAZEL, algazèl, sm. Nat. Hist. antelope, gazelle : Antilope dorcas.

ALGÈBRE, alzhèbr', [Ar. : al ; djebr, reduction], sf. algebra : a) literal arithmetic ; b) treatise on algebra ; c) anything difficult to understand. C'est de l'— pour moi, it is algebra to me, all Greek to me.

ALGÉBRIQUE, alzhébrik', adj. algebraical, algebraic.

ALGÉBRIQUEMENT, alzhébrik'mân-t, adv. algebraically.

ALGÉBRISTE, alzhébrist', sm. algebraist.

ALGER, alzhé, pnm. Geog. Algiers.

ALGÉRIE, alzhéri, pnf. Geog. Algeria.

ALGÉRIEN, NE, alzhéraiɴ, èn', adj. and s. Algerine, Algerian.

ALGIDE, alzhid', [Lat. : algidus, which freezes], adj. cold. Fièvre —, cold fever, ague.

ALGONQUIN, algônkaɴ, sm. 1. Algonquin : Red Indian of Canada ; 2. clown, boor, bumpkin.

ALGORITHME, algoritm', [Ar.], sm. Math. algorithm.

ALGUAZIL, algwazil, [Ar. : al; the ; wazir, vizier], sm. alguazil : police officer in Spain.

ALGUE, aig', [Lat. : alga], sf. Bot. alga, wrack. — marine, grass-wrack : alga marina. Les algues, the algæ.

ALIBI, alibi, [Lat. : alius, other ; ibi, there], sm. (pl. ALIBIS). Law-t. alibi. Plaider l'—, to plead an alibi.

ALIBIFORAIN, alibiforaɴ, [alibi ; forain], sm. evasion, evasive answer.

ALIBILE, alibl', [Lat. : alibilis, from alĕre, to nourish], adj. alible, nutritive.

ALIBILITÉ, alibilité, sf. nutritive quality.

ALIBORON, aliborôɴ, [Lat. : alibi, elsewhere], sm. ass, donkey ; wiseacre. Maître —, master long-ears. C'est un maître —, Fig. he is an ass, a stupid fellow.

ALIBOUFIER, aliboufié, sm. Bot. storax : styrax officinalis.

ALICHON, alishôɴ, sm. float (of a water-wheel).

ALIDADE, alidad, [Ar. : alidada, rule], sf. index (of a plane-table, sextant, etc.). — à pinnules, à lunette, index with sight-vanes, with a telescope.

ALIÉNABILITÉ, aliénabilité, sf. alienability : capacity of being alienated.

ALIÉNABLE, aliénabl', adj. alienable.

ALIÉNATAIRE, aliénatèr', smf. alienee : person to whom any property is sold.

ALIÉNATEUR, m., TRICE, f. aliénatœr, tris', s. alienator.

ALIÉNATION, aliénasyôɴ, sf. alienation : a) sale of property ; b) estrangement, change of affection ; c) madness. — d'esprit, — mentale, mental alienation, insanity, lunacy, madness. La colère est une courte —, anger is a brief madness.

ALIÉNÉ, E, aliéné, adj. 1. alienated : sold, transferred : said of estates ; 2. alienated : a) estranged : b) separated ; 3. insane, deranged, mad.

ALIÉNÉ, E, sm. f. lunatic : madman, madwoman. Hôpital d'aliénés, lunatic asylum, mad-house.

ALIÉNER, aliéné-r, [Lat. : alienāre : alienus, stranger ; alius, other], va. 1. to alienate : a) to sell (estates or rights) ; b) to transfer, to turn over ; c) to estrange (affections), to render hostile. — son bien, to alienate, to sell, to dispose of one's property. Il aliéna l'esprit de son peuple, he alienated the mind of his people. — l'esprit, to derange, to deprive of reason.

ALIÉNER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be alienated ; 2. to alienate one's self ; 3. to lose one's reason, to go mad, to become insane.

ALIÉNISTE, aliénist', sm. mad-doctor, alienist : specialist for insanity.

ALIFÈRE, alifèr', [Lat. : aliferus ; ala, wing ; ferre, to bear], adj. aliferous : having wings.

ALIFORME, aliform', [Lat. : ala, wing ; forme], adj. aliform : wing-shaped.

ALIGNEMENT, aliny'mâɴ-t, sm. 1. setting in a straight line (as houses in streets) ; 2. line, straight line ; 3. Milit. alignment, dressing ; 4. Astron. alieneation : a mode of indicating the position of stars ; 5. squaring (of accounts), etc. ; 6. Print. lining, ranging (of letters). Etre d'—, to be in line, in a straight line. Prendre un —, to trace out, to stake out a line. Perdre l'—, to get out of line. Rentrer dans l'—, to fall into line.

ALIGNER, alinyé-r, [ligne], va. 1. to set, to arrange in a line, in a straight line ; 2. to trace, to lay out, to stake out a line ; 3. to square, to put into precise order (as words, phrases, figures, etc.) ; 4. Milit. to dress : to put troops in line ; 5. Print. to range (letters) ; 6. Hunt. to line (a bitchwolf).

ALIGNER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be in line ; 2. Milit. to fall into line ; 3. to fight a duel ; 4. Print. to line. Ces lettres ne s'alignent pas bien, these letters do not line (d. n. range) well.

ALIMENT, alimâɴ-t, [Lat. : alimentum ; alĕre, to nourish], sm. 1. aliment, colloq. food : nutriment, nutrition, nourishment, sustenance ; 2. supply (as of fuel and water for steam engines, oil for lamps, etc.) ; 3. maintenance, sustenance ; 4. pl. Eng. Law-t. alimony. Scotch. Law-t, aliment : allowance for maintenance. Le bœuf est un — substantiel, beef is substantiel food. L'eau est le principal — des plantes, water is the principal aliment of plants. Des biens destinés à l'— des pauvres, estates set apart for the maintenance of the poor. La santé du corps fait trouver bons les aliments les plus simples, the health of the body contents itself with the simplest food. J.-J. Rouss.

ALIMENTAIRE, alimâɴtèr', adj. 1. alimentary : having the quality of aliments ; 2. alimental : nourishing. Canal —, alimentary canal. Substances alimentaires, alimentary (or alimental) substances : all kinds of food. Régime —, dietary ; alimentary regimen. Pension —, alimentary allowance ; alimony (when given to a wife, son, etc.). Provision —, alimentary allowance. Pompe —, feed pump (of a steam-engine).

ALIMENTATION, alimâɴtâsyôɴ, sf. alimentation : a) nutrition in animals and plants ; b) diet, food ; 2. supplying, supply (of a market, etc.). 3. feeding (of a fire, an engine, etc.). Avoir une bonne —, to have plenty of good food. Changer d'—, to change one's diet. L'— des plantes, the nutrition, nutriment of plants. — d'une ville, d'un marché, the supplying, provisioning of a town, a market. Appareil d'—, feeding apparatus (of a steam-engine, boiler, etc.). Tuyau d'—, feed-pipe. — d'un four à chaux, d'un poêle, the feeding of a lime-kiln, of a stove.

ALIMENTATIVITÉ, alimâɴtativité, sf. Phren. alimentativity.

ALIMENTER, alimâɴté-r, va. 1. to feed : a) to give food to, to nourish, to nurture ; b) to supply (rivers, engines, etc.), with water, a furnace with fuel ; c) to keep up (or alive) a fire, hatred, animosity, etc. ; 2. to maintain, to support (a person) ; 3. to supply (with provisions or merchandize).

ALIMENTER (s'), v. refl. to be fed, nourished, supplied, kept alive, etc.

ALIMENTEUX, TEUSE, alimantœ-z, tœz', adj. Med. alimental : nutritive, nourishing.

ALIMOCHE, alimosh', sf. Zool. tawny vulture.

ALINÉA, alinéa, [Lat. : ad, to ; linea, line), sm. pl. ALINÉA or ALINÉAS. 1. paragraph : a) the beginning of a fresh paragraph ; b) the paragraph itself ; 2. Print break. Lisez jusqu'au premier —, read down to the first break. Cet — est trop long, this paragraph is too long.

ALIPÈDE, alipèd', [Lat. : ala, wing ; pes, pedis, foot], adj. Zool, cheiropterous.

ALIQUOTE, aliko, ot', [Lat. : aliquot, some], adj. 1. Math. aliquot ; 2. (Subst.) aliquot part. Méthode des parties aliquotes (des parties proportionnelles). Arith. practice.

ALISE, aliz', sf. beam-tree berry.

ALISIER, alizyé, sm. beam-tree : pyrus aria.

ALISME, alism', [Gr. : ἄλισμα], sm. Bot. water-plantain : alisma.

ALITER, alité-r, [à ; lit], va. 1. to confine to one's bed, to compel to keep one's bed, (Colloq.) ; to lay up ; 2. to pack, to arrange in layers (as herrings, etc.). Il est alité depuis huit jours, he has kept his bed for the last week. Elle est alitée depuis plusieurs années, she has been bedridden for years.

ALITER (s'), v. refl. to take to one's bed, to lay up (through illness or age).

ALITRONC, alitrôɴ, [Lat. : ala, wing ; truncus, trunk], sm. Entom. alitrunk.

ALIVRER, alivré-r, [livre, pound], va. to weigh out in pound packets.

ALIZARI, alizari, [Span. from Ar.], sm. madder-root.

ALIZARINE, alizarin', sf. alizarine : colouring principle of madder.

ALIZE, aliz', etc. V. ALISE, etc.

ALIZÉ, alizé, [O. Fr. : alis, reguler, smooth], adj. and sm. Vents alizés, Naut. trade-winds.

ALKEKENGE, alkékâɴzh', [Ar.], sf. Bot. winter-cherry : physalis alkekengi.

ALKERMÈS, alkèrmès, adj. and sm. alkermes. Elixir — ou — liquide, alkermes elixir.

ALLAISE, alèz', sf. sand-bank, (in a river).

ALLAITANTE, alètâɴt', adj. f. suckling, giving suck.

ALLAITEMENT, alèt'mâɴ-t, sm. suckling.

ALLAITER, alèté-r, [à ; lait], va. 1. to suckle : to give suck ; 2. to rear, to bring up.

ALLANT, alâɴ-t, âɴt', adj. 1. fond of walking exercise ; 2. stirring, bustling. Il est encore très —, he is still very active.

ALLANT, alâɴ-t, sm. goer. Allants et venants, goers and comers.

ALLANTOÏDE, alâɴtoid', [Gr. : ἀλλᾶς, ἄντος, saussage ; εἶδος, forme], sf. Anat. allantoid, allantois : membrane of the fœtus.

ALLÉCHANT, E, alèshâɴ-t, âɴt', adj. alluring, enticing.

ALLÈCHEMENT, alèsh'mâɴ-t, sm. 1. allurement, lure, enticement ; 2. Engrav. careful execution.

ALLÉCHER, alèshé-r, [Lat. : allicĕre, to attract], va. [J'allèche, j'allécherai], to allure, to lure, to entice.

ALLÉE, alé, sf. 1. going. L' — est facile, le retour est très difficile, going is easy, coming (or getting) back again is very difficult. Allées et venues, going and coming : going backwards and forwards, to and fro, up and down, in and out ; useless applications, visits, attendance. Il a perdu son temps en allées et venues, he has lost his time in useless applications.

2. passage : narrow entrance to a house ; 3. alley, walk, path (in a garden, park, wood, etc., generally between rows of trees). — couverte, 1. a shady walk ; 2. Celtic Antiq. cromlech.

ALLÉGATION, alégâsyôn, sf. 1. quoting, citing (of an authority); 2. allegation, assertion, fact asserted.

ALLÈGE, alèzh', [alléger], sf. 1. apron (of a window) : the thin wall between the sill and the door; 2. Naut. lighter; 3. Railw. tender (of a locomotive).

ALLÉGEABLE, alézhabl', adj. relievable : that may be alleviated.

ALLÉGEANCE, alézhâns', sf. a. (from alléger) alleviation, relief; 2. (from Low Lat. allegientia) allegiance, fealty. Serment d'—, Eng. Law. oath of allegiance.

ALLÉGEMENT, alézh'mân-t, sm. 1. lightening, easing, relieving (from weight), as of a floor, a ship, etc.), 2. alleviation, mitigation (of grief, pain, etc.); 3. alleviation : what alleviates or relieves; 4. Engrav. lightness of touch. Un bien faible —, a very slight alleviation.

ALLÉGER, allézhé-r, [léger, light], va. [j'allège, j'allégeai, j'allégerai], 1. to lighten, to ease, to relieve; 2. to lighten, to diminish (a load); 3. to relieve (from pain or trouble); 4. to alleviate, to ease, to allay (suffering); 5. to soothe (grief) — les charges publiques, to lighten the public burdens. — le contribuable, to relieve the taxpayer.

6. Naut. to buoy up (a cable); to ease, to slacken (a rope); 7. Horsem. to ease (a horse, by sitting back in the saddle).

ALLÉGER (s'), v. refl. 1. to lighten one's self, to ease one's self (of a burden); 2. to get, to grow lighter; 3. to find relief, to be relieved.

ALLÉGIR, alézhir, va. 1. Carp. to reduce in size, to make less, to thin; 2. Horsem. to ease (a horse by sitting back in the saddle).

ALLÉGORIE, alégori, [Gr. : ἄλλος, other; ἀγορὰ, discourse], sf. allegory.

ALLÉGORIQUE, alégorik', adj. allegoric, allegorical.

ALLÉGORIQUEMENT, allégorik'mân-t, adv. allegorically.

ALLÉGORISER, alégorizé-r, va. to allegorize : to explain allegorically.

ALLÉGORISEUR, alégorizœr, sm. (in a bad sense) allegorizer.

ALLEGORISTE, alégorist', sm. allegorist.

ALLÈGRE, alègr', [Lat. : alacer, quick], adj. 1. active, brisk; 2. vivacious, sprightly lively; 3. gay, cheerful, jolly, lighthearted, joyful.

ALLÈGREMENT, alègr'-mân-t, adv. briskly, gailly cheerfully.

ALLÉGRESSE, alégrès', (allègre], sf. 1 activity, briskness; 2. sprightliness, vivacity; 3. cheerfulness, gaiety, lightheartedness, joy, glee.

ALLEGRETTO, alégrètô, [Ital.], sm. and adv. Mus. allegretto.

ALLÉGRO, alègrô, [Ital.], sm. and adv. Mus. allegro.

ALLÉGUER, alèghé-r, [Lat. : allegâre], va. 1. to cite, to quote (an authority); 2. to allege : to plead, to urge; 3. to adduce (a proof).

ALLÉLUIA, alléluya, [Heb.], sm. 1. alleluia, hallelujah; 2. Bot. common woodsorrel.

ALLEMAGNE, almany', sf. Germany.

ALLEMAND, E, almân, ând, adj. German.

ALLEMAND, E, sm.f. 1. German (man or woman); 2. sm. German language, German. Une querelle d'—, a groundless quarrel.

ALLEMANDE, almând, sf. allemande : a dance.

ALLER, alé-r, [Orig. unknown; Lat. : ambulâre], 1. to go : a) to proceed from one place, state, or condition to another; b) to run; b) to extend, to reach; d) to move to work (as machinery); e) to be propelled (as ships, etc.); f) to have recourse to; g) to touch, to affect. — et venir, to go and come, to go backwards and forwards, in and out, to and fro. a). — de Paris à Rome, to go from Paris to Rome. — en Italie, to go to Italy. — à l'église, 1. to go to church (for divine service); 2. to go to the church (for any purpose except worship). — au marché, 1. to go to market (as a buyer or seller); 2. to go to the market (as a spectator merely). — au bal, au concert, au spectacle, to go to the ball, the concert, the theatre. — chez son voisin, to go to one's neighbour's. — vite, to go fast. — doucement, 1. to go gently; 2. to go softly, silently. — par le chemin le plus court, to go (to take) the shortest way. — à travers champs, to go across the fields. — par monts et par vaux, to go over hill and dale. — à pied, à cheval, en voiture, to go on foot, on horseback, in a carriage. — à la chasse, à la pêche, to go out walking, hunting, fishing; Colloq. to go a-walking, a-hunting, a-fishing. — au feu, to go under fire : to advance on an enemy when firing. Ce cheval va très bien au feu, that horse behaves well under fire. Ce chien va à l'eau, this dog takes the water. — aux voix, 1 to go to a vote, to count votes; 2. (Parl.) to go to a division, to divide. — aux renseignements, aux informations, to make inquiries, to seek information. — la découverte, to go on the look-out. — au bois, à l'eau, à la provision, to go for, to procure wood, water, provisions. — au plus pressé, to attend to the most urgent business first. — son chemin, to keep on one's course, to attend to one's business. — son petit bonhomme de chemin, to keep plodding on quietly and perseveringly. Cela va tout seul, that is an easy matter, that is easy sailing. Cela va sans dire, that is a matter of course. Il va sans dire que, it is unnecessary to say that. Tout va à la débandade, everything is falling into confusion, in going to ruin. Les premiers vont devant, first come first served. A force de mal — tout ira mieux, by dint of failures, we shall succeed at last; things will take a turn. Cela va par-dessus le marché, that goes, is given into the bargain. Ce sentier va tout droit, this path runs quite straight. Les fleuves vont à la mer, rivers run (flow) to the sea. Cette allée va en pente, this path slopes downwards. Cette pièce d'étoffe va en biais, de biais, that piece of cloth is cut on the cross. Cette pièce de terre va en pointe, this piece of land runs to a point. La forêt va depuis la ville jusqu'à la rivière, the forest reaches, extends from the town to the river. Cette montagne va jusqu'aux nues, that mountain reaches the clouds, reaches up to the clouds. Son nom ira à la postérité, his name will reach (go down, be handed down to) posterity. Cette machine ne va pas bien, that machine does not go, does not work well. Ma montre va mal, my watch goes wrong. Cette horloge va trop vite, that clock is too fast, goes too fast. Ma pendule va quinze jours, my time-piece goes a fortnight. Les navires vont à voiles, à rames, à vapeur, ships are propelled by sails, oars, or steam. Une girouette va selon le vent, a weathercock turns with the wind. — en justice, to go to law. Ces paroles vont à l'âme, those words affect the soul. Ses accents vont au cœur, his accents, his tones go to the heart, touch the heart.

2. to advance, to get on, to make progress. Cet écolier va très vite, l'autre a bien de la peine à —, this pupil advances very fast, the other finds great difficulty in getting on. Ce travail va rapidement, this work advances rapidly. Ces arbres vont lentement, those trees get on slowly, are of slow growth.

3. to move, to be in motion. Les planètes vont toujours, the planets are always in motion. Le temps va toujours, time is always moving on, never stands still.

4. to grow, to get, to become. — mieux, to get better, to be getting better. — de mieux en mieux, de mal en pis, to get better and better, to get, to grow, worse and worse. Le commerce va mal, va bien, trade is bad, is good. Le commerce va plus mal, va mieux, trade is getting worse, is getting better (is improving).

5. to be, to do (when inquiring about health). Comment allez-vous ? how are you ? how do you do ? Je vais très bien, I am quite well. Son pouls va bien, his pulse is good, is regular. Comment va-t-il ce matin ? how is he this morning ?

6. to travel. — en poste, to travel post, — par mer, par terre, par le chemin de fer, to travel by sea, by land, by rail.

7. to fit. Cet habit ne vous va pas, that coat does not fit you. Ces bottes me vont bien, these boots fit me well. Cette clef ne va pas à la serrure, this key does not fit the lock. Votre chapeau va bien mal, your hat fits badly, is a very bad fit. — comme un gant, to fit like a glove.

8. to become. Cette toilette ne va pas à une dame âgée, that toilet does not become, is not becoming for, an elderly lady.

9. to suit, to harmonize with, to agree with. Cette dentelle va bien à votre robe, that lace harmonizes well, agrees well with your dress. Le rose va aux blondes et le rouge aux brunes, pink suits fair complexions, and red suits dark ones. Cela ne me va pas, that does not suit me.

10. to last, to continue. Ce travail-là ira à deux ans, that work will last (occupy, extend over) two years. La session ira jusqu'au mois d'août, the session will last till August. Cet habit n'ira pas jusqu'à l'hiver, this coat will not last till the winter.

11. to aim at, to lead to. — à la fortune, (of persons) to aim at fortune; (of things) to lead to fortune. Tous chemins vont à Rome, all roads lead to Rome.

12. to obtain, to attain. — aux emplois par la faveur, to obtain places, offices by favour. — à la fortune par des voies honorables, to obtain wealth, to attain a high position, to make a fortune, by honourable means. C'est un homme fait pour — à tout, he is a man able to attain the highest position. Cette tragédie est allée aux nues, that tragedy has obtained a brilliant success.

13. to tend Tous ses vœux vont à la paix, all his wishes tend to (are in favour of) peace.

14. to amount. Son amour va jusqu'à la folie, his love amounts to madness. Les dépenses vont jusqu'à mille francs, the expenses amount (come) to a thousand francs.

15. to act. Ce serait aller contre tous les usages reçus, that would be acting contrary (going counter) to all received usages. Un homme qui va droit en tout, a man who acts uprightly, in everything. — le droit chemin, to act honourably, uprightly. Il n'y va pas de main morte, he goes at it in right earnest; he does not mince matters. Il faudra bien que vous alliez droit, you must be sure to act straightforwardly, to be upright in your dealings. Il va selon son caprice, he acts according to his caprice.

16. to stand, to bear. Ce vase va au feu, that pot will stand the fire. Cette robe va à la lessive, this dress will bear washing, will wash.

17. to be going to, to be on the point of to be about to : expressing an immediate future, which is often rendered in English by the present participle, or the future with the adverb soon. Je vais travailler, I am going to work. On va dîner, they are going to dine. Il va venir, he is coming. Nous allons voir ce qu'il dira, we shall soon see what he will say. Ces plantes vont périr si on ne les arrose pas, these plants will wither away, if they are not watered. Il s'imagine que cela va décider la question, he fancies that that will settle the question. J'allais me coucher lorsque vous êtes arrivé, I was going to bed when you arrived. Le combat allait cesser, the fighting was drawing to a close, was nearly over.

18. (followed by a present participle) to go, to continue, to keep on. Son mal, son inquiétude va croissant, va diminuant, his disease, his anxiety, keeps on increasing, keeps on diminishing. Il va criant par la ville, he goes shouting about the town. Ce ruisseau va en serpentant, this brook goes on winding, goes meandering along.

19. (the imperative followed by an infinitive) mind (or take care that) you don't, beware of. Ne va pas t'exposer au froid et à l'humidité, mind you don't expose yourself to cold and damp. Par de nouveaux refus n'allez pas l'irriter, beware of irritating him by further refusals. [A similar sense is sometimes given to other moods and tenses :] Je n'irai pas faire cette sottise, I will take care not to commit that folly. Je ne suis pas allé faire l'expérience, I took care not to make the experiment.

20. (sec. pers. of the imperative) ; 1. go ! begone ! away ! be off ! depart ! avaunt ! 2. (to a coachman) go on ! drive on ! 3. (as interjections) well !

21. (first pers. pl. of the imper.) 1. come along ! let us go ! let us be off ! 2. come ! come ! Allons donc ! pooh ! pshaw !

22. to go to stool, to go to the water-closet, to have an evacuation. Faire —, to purge. Le remède qu'il a pris l'a fait —, the medicine he took operated upon him.

Aller au-devant de, 1. to go to meet (a person) ; 2. to meet, to anticipate (objections).

Aller ensemble, 1. to go together, to be a match, to match, to make (or form) a set, a pair. Ces deux couleurs ne vont pas bien ensemble, those two colours do not match well, do not harmonize. La harpe et le violoncelle vont bien ensemble, the harp and the violoncello go well together. Ces gens-là sont faits pour — ensemble, those people go well together, are made for each other. Ces quatre estampes vont ensemble, those four prints make a set. Ces deux bas vont ensemble, those two stockings make a pair, are fellows.

Aller de pair avec, to be equal to, to rank with. Cicéron va de pair avec Démosthène, Cicero ranks with Demosthenes.

Aller grand train, 1. to walk fast, to stride along ; 2. to ride fast, to drive fast ; 3. Fig. to live at great expense, to keep a large establishment.

Aller loin, to go far. Cela va trop loin, that is going too far. Son imagination va si loin qu'elle se perd his imagination goes so far, runs so wild, that it loses itself. Cette vengeance est allée trop loin, that vengeance went too far, was carried too far. Cet homme ira loin dans les sciences, that man will attain distinction in the sciences. La dépense ira plus loin qu'on ne pense, the expense will go beyond (will exceed) what is supposed.

Aller sur, to be about. Cette dame va sur quarante ans, that lady is not far from forty, is nearly forty years of age. Ce cheval va sur quatre ans, that horse is nearly four, (in stable language) is rising four.

Ne pas aller sans, not to be without. Nos plus doux plaisirs ne vont point sans tristesse, our sweetest pleasures are not without a dash of sorrow, our sweetest pleasures have some drawback.

Faire aller, 1. to make go ; 2. to set going, to set in motion ; 3. to drive ; 4. to put a trick on, to catch, to take in. Faire — un cheval, to make a horse go. Faire — une machine, etc., to set going, to tart a machine, etc. Cette roue hydraulique fait — six paires de meules, that water-wheel drives six pairs of stones. Ce drôle nous a fait —, this rascal has tricked us.

Laisser aller, 1. to let go, to let loose, to loosen, to give free course to. Je le laisse — où il veut, I let him go wherever he pleases. Laisser tout —, to let things take their course, to neglect one's affairs.

Se laisser aller, 1. to give way to, to yield to ; 2. to indulge one's self in ; 3. to neglect one's person, to give way to slovenly habits ; 4. to give way to discouragement.

En aller, to happen, to turn out. Il n'en ira pas de cela comme vous pensez, that matter will not turn out as you expect. Il en va de cette entreprise comme de l'autre, that business turns out like the other.

Aller en, to continue, with the present participle. La fièvre, au lieu de diminuer allait en augmentant, the fever instead of abating went on increasing. Mon esprit diminue, au lieu qu'à chaque instant, on aperçoit le vôtre — en augmentant, my faculties diminish, whereas at each moment, one may perceive that yours go on increasing. La Font. Fab. XII, 1.

Y aller, 1. to set about, to proceed with (a thing) ; 2. to stake, to play ; 3. (impersonally) to be at stake. Allez-y doucement, set about it gently, go gently to work, proceed with precaution. Ne pas y — de main morte, to go at it tooth and nail, with all one's might. Il y va de bonne foi, he acts sincerely. N'y pas — par quatre chemins, not to beat about the bush ; to take the bull by the horns. J'y vais de vingt francs, I stake twenty francs. Il y va de votre fortune, your fortune is at stake. Il y va de mon honneur, my honour is concerned, is at stake. Il y va de votre vie, your life is at stake, you risk your life. Quand il devrait y — de ma vie, even were my life at stake.

ALLER, sm. going : journey to a place. Aller et retour, the journey there and back. Billet d'— et retour, return ticket. Avoir l'— pour le venir, to have one's trouble for one's pains. Le pis —, the worst that can happen. Un pis —, a last shift, last resource. C'est votre pis —, it is your last shift, your last resource. Au pis —, at the worst. Prov. : Au plus long aller petit fardeau pèse, the lightest burden becomes heavy in time.

ALLER (S'EN), v. refl. 1. to go away, to go off, to be off, to take one's self off, to leave ; (in an ill sense) to slink, to sneak off or away. Va-t'en, allez-vous-en ! be off with you ! begone ! get you gone ! take yourself off. S'en — de Paris, to go away from Paris, to leave Paris. Ils s'en sont allés en France, they are (or have) gone off to France. Il s'en est allé au galop, he galoped off. Je m'en vais, I am off, I am going off. Elle s'en est allée hier, she went away, she left yesterday. Cette affaire s'en va au diable, that business is going to the bad. Il faut que nous nous en allions, we must leave, go away.

2. to die, to be dying, to be sinking. Ce malade est au plus mal, il s'en va, this patient is extremely ill, he is dying. Il s'en ira à la chute des feuilles, he will die in the autumn, in the fall. Ma tante est plus mal, elle s'en va tous les jours, my aunt is worse, she is sinking every day.

3. to be carried off. Son rhumatisme s'en est allé par les sueurs, his rheumatism was carried off, was cured by sweating.

† 4. (generally followed by a past participle) to be nearly, to be well nigh. La chose s'en va faite, the affair is nearly finished. La messe s'en va dite, mass is nearly over. Il s'en va midi, it is nearly noon.

5. to go, to disappear, to be wasted, frittered away. Son argent s'en va personne ne sait comment, his money goes, disappears, nobody knows how. Sa vie s'en va en plaisirs, his life is wasted, frittered away in pleasures.

6. to be going. Je m'en allais vous trouver, I was going to look for you. Ce malade s'en va mourir, this patient is near his end.

7. to fade away, to fade, to be on the decline. Sa beauté s'en va, s'en est allée, her beauty is fading, has faded away. Tout s'en est allé en fumée, it all came to nothing.

8. to leak, to rub (as a cask, etc.).

9. to leak out, to run out (as a liquid), to escape (as gas) ; to evaporate. L'éther s'en ira si vous ne bouchez pas bien le flacon, the ether will evaporate if you do not well cork the bottle.

10. (at cards) to throw away. Vous avez eu tort de vous en aller de votre as, you were wrong to throw away your ace.

ALLEU, alœ, [Celt. : all, all. ; od, property], sm. Feud. Law. 1. allodium ; 2. allodial tenure. Franc-alleu, freehold.

ALLIACÉ, E, aliasé, [Lat. : allium, garlic], adj. Bot. alliaceous.

ALLIAGE, aliazh', [allier], sm. 1. alloy : a) Chem. a mixture of two or more metals, etc. ; b) the baser metal mixed with others ; c) any impure mixture. Le bronze est un —, bronze is an alloy. Le cuivre sert d'— à l'or copper is used as an alloy with gold. Il y a peu de vertus sans quelque —, there are few virtues without some alloy.

2. Arith. alligation. — direct, alligation medial. — inverse, alligation alternate.

ALLIAIRE, alièr, [Lat. : allium, garlic], sf. Bot. alliaria, Jack-by-the-hedge.

ALLIANCE, aliâns', sg. 1. alliance : a) union between sovereign states ; b) match, matrimonial union ; 2. wedding ring ; 3. union, combination (in a general sense). — offensive et défensive, offensive and defensive alliance. La Sainte —, the Holy Alliance.

ALLIÉ, E, alié, pa. p. 1. alloyed ; 2. allied (by treaty or marriage) ; 2. s. ally (by treaty or marriage) ; 4. relation (by marriage).

ALLIER, alié-r, [Lat. : alligāre, lier], va. 1. to alloy : to mix, to combine metals ; 2. to match, to marry ; 3. to unite, to blend together.

ALLIER (s'), v. refl. 1. to combine (as metals); 2. to unite, to ally, to form an alliance; 3. to intermarry; to harmonize with, to suit.

ALLIER, alyé, [Gr. : ἁλιεὺς, fisher], sm. ballier : net for partridges and quails.

ALLIGATOR, aligatôr, [Span. : el lagarto], sm. alligator : American and Australian crocodile.

ALLITÉRATION, alitérâshyô*n*, sf. alliteration.

ALLOBROGE, alobrozh', [Lat. : allobrox], sm. 1. Allobroge (a warlike people); 2. Fig. Hottentot; boor, lout, clown, country bumpkin. Avez-vous jamais vu un pareil — ? have you ever seen such a boor ?

ALLOCATION, alokâsyô*n*, [Lat. : allocatio; allocāre], sf. 1. allocation : allowing a sum of money, an item in an account; 2. marshalling (a bankrupt's assets); 3. grant, allowance, supply, allotment.

ALLOCUTION, alokushyô*n*, [Lat. : allocutio; ad, to; loqui, to speak], sf. allocution : a formal address.

ALLODIAL, E, alodial, [alleu; formerly alleudial], adj. allodial.

ALLODIALITÉ, alodialité, sf. allodial tenure.

ALLONGE, alô*n*zh', [long], sf. 1. lengthening piece, eking-piece; 2. leaf (of a table); 3. allonge, rider (of a bill of exchange).

ALLONGÉ, E, alô*n*zhé, adj. 1. lengthened; 2. long; 3. Bot. elongated, elongate.

ALLONGEMENT, alô*n*zh'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. lengthening; 2. elongation; 3. delay, procrastination.

ALLONGER, alô*n*zhé-r, [long], va. 1. to lengthen; 2. to prolong, to protract (a lawsuit); 3. to spin out (a story); 4. to let out (a strap); 5. to extend, to stretch out (one's arm, etc.); 6. Fenc. to allonge (a thrust); 7. Cook. to thin (a sauce); 8. (neutr.) to cause delays. — le cou, to stretch out the neck. — le visage (to pull or put on), a long face. — le parchemin, to protract a lawsuit. — la ruade, to kick out, to lash out (as a horse). — un coup de poing, to give a blow with the fist.

ALLONGER (s'), v. refl. 1. to lengthen : to get, to become, to grow longer; 2. to extend, to stretch out; 3. to be extended, to be stretched out. Les jours s'allongent, the days are lengthening, getting longer.

ALLOPATHE, alopat', sm. Med. allopathist.

ALLOPATHIE, alopati, [Gr. : ἄλλος, other; πάθος, suffering], sf. Med. allopathy : opposed to homœopathy.

ALLOPATHIQUE, alopatik', adj. allopathic.

ALLOPATHIQUEMENT, alopatik'mâ*n*-t, adv. allopathically.

ALLOTROPIE, alotropi, [Gr. : ἄλλος, other; τρόπος, change], sf. allotropy.

ALLOUABLE, alouabl', adj. allowable.

ALLOUER, aloué-r, [Lat. : allocāre; O. Fr. : alouer, to grant], va. 1. to allow, to admit, to pass (an item in an account); 2. to allow, to grant (extra-pay, an indemnity).

ALLUCHON, alushô*n*, sm. Mach. cog : wooden or iron tooth mortised in the rim of a large wheel; wiper (in a horizontal wheel).

ALLUMAGE, alumazh', sm. lighting (of lamps, etc.); Autom. ignition. — spontané, automatique, spontaneous, self ignition.

ALLUME-FEU, alume fœ, sm. fire-lighter.

ALLUME-GAS, alume gaz, sm. gas-lighter.

ALLUMER, alumé-r, [Lat. : ad, to; lumen, light], va. 1. to light (a fire, a lamp) 2. to kindle (a fire, hatred, anger, the flames of war); 3. to light up (as a room); 4. to excite, to fire, to inflame (the blood, the passions, etc.); 5. to fetch; to put water into a pump to make it suck. — sa pipe, to light one's pipe. La guerre était allumée entre les Français et les Iroquois, war was kindled between the French and the Iroquois. Chateaubriand.

ALLUMER (s'), v. refl. 1. to light, to take fire; 2. to be lighted, to burn; 3. to kindle; 4. to light up; 5. to be excited, fired, inflamed.

ALLUMETTE, alumèt', sf. match. — -bougie, wax vesta. — -amorphe, safety match. — chimique, lucifer, congreve. Boîte d'allumettes, box of matches. Frotter une —, to strike a match.

ALLUMETTIER, alumétyé, sm. match-manufacturer, match-maker.

ALLUMEUR, EUSE, alumœr, œz', sm. f. lamplighter.

ALLUMIÈRE, alumièr', sf. 1. match manufactory; 2. match-box.

ALLUMOIR, alumoir, sm. lighter : any apparatus used to give a light. — électrique, electric gas-lighter.

ALLURE, alur', [aller], sf. 1. gait : carriage, bearing, air, way, manner, conduct; 2. pace, gait (of a horse, etc.); 3. turn, course (of things); 4. amour, intrigue; 5. Naut. course (of a vessel), trim (of the sails); 6. pl. tracks (of a stag). Cette affaire prend une mauvaise —, that affair is taking a bad turn, has a bad look. Je le connais à son —, I know him by his gait.

ALLUSIF, IVE, aluzif, iv', adj. allusive.

ALLUSION, aluzyô*n*; in poet, aluziô*n*, [Lat. : allusio; ad, to; ludĕre, lusum, to play], sf. allusion : hint, suggestion, reference. Faire — à, to allude to, to have reference to, to refer to.

ALLUVIAL, E, aluvial, al', ALLUVIEN, ENNE, aluvya*n*, yèn', adj. alluvial.

ALLUVION, aluvyô*n*, [Lat. : alluvio; ad, to; luo, to wash], sm. alluvion, alluvium. Terres d'—, alluvial soil.

ALMAGESTE, almazhèst', [Ar. : al, eth; Gr. : μέγιστος, very large), sm. almagest : a collection of astronomical observations made by the ancients.

ALMANACH, almana, [origin unknown], sm. 1. almanack, almanac : annual calendar, to which a variety of information respecting the sun, planets, etc., is sometimes annexed. — du commerce. Trade Directory. C'est un — de l'an passé, it is an old almanack, of no more value than an old almanack.

2. prediction, prognostication. Faire des almanachs, to make predictions, to set up for a prophet.

ALOES, aloès, [Gr. : ἀλόη], sm. 1. Bot. aloes; 2. Mat. Med. aloes : a drastic drug. Bois d'—, aloe-wood; more correctly, agallochum-wood, eagle-wood.

ALOÉTINE, aloétin', sf. purified extract of aloes.

AOÉTIQUE, aloétik', adj. aloetic : extracted from aloes, containing aloes.

ALOI, alwa, [aloyer; à; loi], sm. 1. standard : degree of purity of gold or silver; 2. quality (of things in general), degree, condition (of persons). Or de bon —, de mauvais —, gold of a high, of a low standard. Style de bas —, low, debased style. Homme de bas —, a low fellow.

ALOPÉCIE, alopési, [Gr. : ἀλωπεκία; ἀλώπεξ, fox], sf. Med. baldness, alopecy, fox-evil : alopecia.

ALORS, alôr, [à · lors], adv. then : a) at that time, at that moment; b) in that case, Les hommes d'—, the men of the (or that) day, of the (or that) time. Le ministère d'—, the then ministry, the ministry of the day. Jusqu'—, till then, until then. Alors comme —, when that time comes we shall decide on the course to be taken, shall see what must be done. — que, (used in poetry instead of lorsque) when.

ALOSE, alôz', [Lat. : alausa], sf. Ichth. common shad, allice shad : clupea alosa.

ALOSIER, alozyé, sm. ALOSIÈRE, alozyér', sf. shad-net.

ALOUETTE, alouèt', [Lat. : alauda], sf. lark. Se lever au chant de l'—, to rise with the lark. Terres à alouettes, sandy soils. — des bois, wood-lark. — commune, — des champs, common lark, field-lark, skylark. — à hausse-col noir, shore-lark. — huppée, crested lark. — des prés, pipit, titlark. — de mer, dunlin, sandpiper. Si le ciel tombait, il y aurait bien des alouettes prises, if the sky were to fall, larks would be cheap. Attendre que les alouettes tombent toutes rôties, to wait till fortune comes wooing.

ALOURDIR, alourdir, [lourd], va. 1. to render heavy, dull, inactive; 2. to dull (the senses).

ALOURDIR (s'), v. refl. to grow or become heavy, dull, inactive.

ALOURDISSEMENT, alourdis'mâ*n*-t, sm. heaviness, dulness.

ALOYAGE, alwoyage, [aloi], sm. mixture : action d'aloyer.

ALOYAU, alwâyô, [Ety. unknown], sm. surloin, sirloin (of beef).

ALOYER, alwâyé-r, [aloi; Lat. : alligāre], va. 1. to bring (gold or silver) to the legal standard; 2. to alloy (pewter).

ALPACA, alpaka, sm. Zool. alpaca.

ALPACA, alpaka, ALPAGA, alpaga, [Span.; Ar. : al, the; Peru. : paco], sm. alpaca : a tissue made with the wool of the alpaca.

ALPES, alp', sf. pl. 1. the Alps; 2. any high mountains.

ALPESTRE, alpèstr', adj. Alpine : of or belonging to the Alps. Plantes alpestres, Alpine plants.

ALPHA, alfa, sm. Alpha : first letter of the Greek alphabet. L'— et l'oméga, the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end.

ALPHABET, alfabè-t, [alpha and beta], sm. 1. alphabet · 2. primer : first reading-book Par —, alphabetically. N'en être qu'à l'—, to be only at the alphabet, at the A B C (of a science, etc.). Renvoyer à l'—, to put back, to send back to the alphabet.

ALPHABÉTIQUE, alfabétik', adj. alphabetic, alphabetical. Par ordre —, alphabetically, in alphabetical order. Répertoire —, alphabetical index.

ALPHABÉTIQUEMENT, alfabétik'mâ*n*-t, adv. alphabetically.

ALPHÉNIC, algénik, sm. Pharm. alphenic : white barley-sugar.

ALPIN, E, alpa*n*, in', adj. Alpine : belonging to the Alps or other high mountains.

ALPINISME, alpinizm, sm. alpinism : mountain climbing.

ALPISTE, alpist', [Alpes], sm. fox-tail grass. — des Canaries, Canary grass.

ALQUIFOUX, alkifou, sm. galena, lead-glance : a native sulphuret of lead.

ALSACE, alsas', pnf. Geog. Alsatia.

ALSACIEN, ENNE, alsasya*n*, syèn', adj. and s. Alsatian.

ALSINE, alsin'. [Gr. : ἀλσίνη], sf. chickweed.

ALTAÏQUE, altaïk', adj. Altaic, Altaian.

ALTAVELLE, altavèl', sf. Ichth. stingray.

ALTÉRABILITÉ, altérabilité, sf. alterability, alterableness.

ALTÉRABLE, altérabl', adj. alterable : liable to change, especially in a chemical sense.

ALTÉRANT, E, altérân-t, ânt', adj. 1. Med. alterative; 2. thirst-producing, causing thirst; 3. sm. alterant, alterative medicine. L'iode est un —. iodine is an alterative, an alterant.

ALTÉRATIF, IVE, altératif, iv', adj. Med. alterative.

ALTÉRATION, altérasyôn, sf. 1. alteration : chemical change; 2. deterioration, change for the worse; 3. impairing, weakening (of health, strength. etc.); 4. perversion, misinterpretation (of a law); 5. falsification (of a text); misstatement, distortion, misrepresentation (of facts); 6. debasement (of coin); 7. tainting, spoiling (of meat); 8. discomposure, change (of countenance, voice, etc.); 9. thirst, thirstiness.

ALTERCATION, altèrkâsyôn, sf. altercation : wrangle, wrangling.

ALTÉRER, altéré-r, va. [Lat. : alterāre; alter, other], va. 1. to alter : a) to change the nature of a substance, in a chemical sense. Une température trop élevée altère les liqueurs, too high a temperature produces a chemical change in liquors. Certains poisons altèrent la composition du sang, some poisons alter (change) the composition of the blood.

2. to change for the worse, to spoil, to deteriorate, to injure, to damage, to impair. — la beauté, to spoil beauty. Le soleil altérera ces couleurs, the sun will spoil those colours, those colours will not stand the sun. — la santé, to injure health.

3. to debase (the coinage); 4. to taint, to spoil (meat); 5. to corrupt. — les mœurs, to corrupt morals. — un texte, une langue, to corrupt a text, a language.

6. to weaken, to impair, to mar. — l'amitié, to weaken friendship. — le bonheur, to mar happiness.

7. to agitate, to disturb, to discompose (the features). Quel sujet inconnu vous altère ? what unknown cause disturbs you ?

8. to falsify, to distort (the truth); 9. to misstate, to misrepresent (facts).

10. to make thirsty. La chaleur altère tous les animaux, heat makes all animals thirsty. Je suis altéré, I am thirsty. Altéré de sang, thirsting for (or after) blood, bloodthirsty.

11. (in a neuter sense) to excite thirst. Les salaisons altèrent, salt provisions excite thirst.

ALTÉRER (s'), v. refl. 1. to alter, to be altered : to undergo a chemical change; 2. to be injured, damaged, spoiled; 3. to taint (as meat); 4. to spoil, become spoiled (as food, etc., through long keeping); 5. to be corrupted, debased (as morals); 6. to become discomposed (as the features); 7. to fall (as the countenance); 8. to degenerate, to deteriorate (as a race of men or animals.).

ALTERNANCE, alternâns', sf. 1. Bot. Geol. alternation; 2. succession.

ALTERNANT, E, alternân-t, ânt', adj. alternating, alternate.

ALTERNAT, alterna-t, sm. alternity : alternate exercise of a right or privilege.

ALTERNATIF, IVE, alternatif, iv', adj. 1. alternate; 2. alternative. Mouvement —, 1. alternate motion (as that of the heart); 2. Mech. reciprocating motion, backward and forward motion. Culture alternative, Agr. rotation (or succession) of crops. Pétales alternatifs, Bot. alternate petals. Emploi —, 1. alternate use; 2. office held in rotation (or in turns). Proposition, obligation, alternative, alternative, proposition, obligation.

ALTERNATION, alternâsyôn, sf. 1. alternation : change, vicissitude; 2. rotation, succession; 3. Alg. permutation. — des produits, Agr. rotation of crops.

ALTERNATIVE, altèrnativ', sf. 1. alternation : reciprocal succession; 2. alternative : choice, option; 3. dilemna. La vie est une — de peine et de plaisir, life is an alternation of pain and pleasure. Il n'y a pas d'—, there is no alternative. Il se trouve dans une cruelle —, he is in a sad dilemna.

ALTERNATIVEMENT, altèrnativ'mân-t, adv. alternately : by turns, in turns. Sortir —, to go out (of office) by rotation.

ALTERNE, altèrn', adj. 1. Geom. Bot. alternate. Angles alternes internes, alternate internal angles, Feuilles alternes, alternate leaves.

ALTERNER, altèrné-r, [Lat. : alternāre; alter, other], vn. 1. to alternate; 2. Agr. to farm on the rotation system. On alterne chaque année, the crops are changed every year. — un champ, (active sense) to change the crop of a field. Dans cette avenue les ormeaux alternent avec les tilleuls, elms alternate with lime-trees in this avenue.

† ALTERQUER, altèrké-r, vn. to altercate, to wrangle.

ALTESSE, altès', [Lat. : altus, high; Ital. : altezza], sf. highness; 2. prince, princess. Son — royale, le prince de W., his Royal-Highness, the Prince of W. Son — royale, la princesse de W., her Royal Highness, the Princess of W. Leurs altesses royales, le prince et la princesse de W., their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of W.

ALTHÆA, altéa, sm. Bot. marshmallow : Althœa officinalis.

ALTIER, ÈRE, altyé, tyèr, adj. 1. haughty, proud; 2. lofty. Un caractère —, a haughty temper. Une démarche altière, a proud, haughty bearing. Le cèdre —, the lofty cedar. Mine altière, lofty look.

ALTIÈREMENT, altyèr-mân-t, adv, proundly, haughtily.

ALTIMÈTRE, altimètr', sm. altimeter, height indicator,

ALTIMÉTRIE, altimétri, [Lat. : altus, high; Gr. : μέτρον, measure], sm. altimetry : measuring of heights.

ALTITUDE, altitud', [Lat. : altitudo], sf. altitude : height above the level of the sea.

ALTO, alto, [Ital.), sm. 1. viola, alto viola, tenor violin; 2. alto, counter-tenor.

ALTRUISME, altruism', [Lat. : alter, other; Ital. : altrui], sm. Philos. unselfishness, regard for others.

ALTRUISTE, altruist', adj. unselfish.

ALUDE, alud', sf. aluta : coloured sheepskin for binding books.

ALUDEL, aludèl, sm. Chem. aludel : a sublimating apparatus.

ALUMELLE, alumèl', [Lat. : lamella, blade], sf. 1. blade (of a sword or knife); 2. Naut. iron sheathing (of the capstan holes, etc).

ALUMINAIRE, aluminèr, adj. Min. aluminiferous.

ALUMINE, alumin', [Lat. : alumen, alum], sf. Min. alumina, alumine, alum.

ALUMINÉ, E, aluminé, adj. Chem. aluminous.

ALUMINER, aluminé-r, va. Chem. to mix with alum.

ALUMINEUX, EUSE, aluminœ, œz, adj. Chem. aluminous.

ALUMINIUM, aluminiœm, sm. Chem. aluminium.

ALUN, alœn, [Lat. : alumen], sm. alum. — calciné, burnt alum. — de plume, plume alum. — de roche, rock or roch alum.

ALUNAGE, alunazh', sm. Dy. aluming : steeping in a solution of alum.

ALUNATION, alunâsyôn, sf. alum-making.

ALUNER, aluné-r, va. Dy. to alum : to steep in alum-water.

ALUNERIE, alunœri, sf. alum-works.

ALUNIÈRE, alunièr', sf. alum-pit.

ALUNIFÈRE, alunifèr', [Lat. : alumen; ferre, to bear], adj. aluminiferous.

ALUNITE, alunit', sf. alunite, alumstone.

ALVÉOLAIRE, alvéolêr', adj. Anat. alveolar, alveolary.

ALVÉOLE, alvéol', [Lat. : alveolus, dim. of alveus. cavity], sm. 1. cell (of a honey-comb); 2. socket (of the teeth); 3. Nat. Hist. alveole, alveolus.

ALVÉOLÉ, E, alvéolé, adj. Nat. Hist. alveolate.

ALVIN, E, alvan, in', [Lat. : alvus, belly], adj. Med. alvine.

ALYSSE, alis', sm. Bot. alyssum, madwort.

AMABILITÉ, amabilité, sf. 1. amability, amiableness; 2. kindness, favour. Il m'a fait l'— de, he did me the favour of.

† AMADIS, amadis', sm. close-fitting sleeve (buttoned at the wrist).

AMADOU, amadou, [Ety. doubtful : O. Fr. ' amadour, amorous; Provençal : amadou, a name for amadouvier], sm. amadou, German tinder.

AMADOUER, amadoué-r, va. to coax, to wheedle, to cajole, to flatter.

AMADOUERIE, amadouœri', sf. amadou manufactory.

AMADOUEUR, EUSE, amadouœr, œz', smf. 1. coaxer, wheedler; 2. amadou-maker.

AMADOUVIER, amadouvyé, sm. the amadou fungus : polyporus igniarius.

AMAIGRIR, amègrir, [maigre, thin], va. 1. to make or render lean, lank, thin or spare; 2. to emaciate, to waste, to bring down (by fasting or sickness); 3. Agr. to impoverish (soil) · 4. Arch. to thin : to diminish or reduce the thickness of a stone, a piece of timber, etc. : 5. Paint. to reduce: to tone down (any too prominent part); 6. vn. to produce leanness : to remove stoutness or corpulence.

AMAIGRIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to become, get or grow lean, thin, or spare : to lose flesh, to fall off, to waste away; 2. Sculp, to shrink (as a plaster model in drying).

AMAIGRISSEMENT, amègris'mân-t, sm, growing thin, lean, or spare : loss of flesh. falling off, wasting away.

AMALGAMATION, amalgamâsyôn, sf. Chem. amalgamation.

AMALGAME, amalgam', [Gr. : ἅμα, together; γαμῶ, I marry], sm. amalgam : a) combination of mercury with another metal; b) any mixture of discordant elements.

AMALGAMER, almagamé-r, va. to amalgamate : a) Chem. to combine mercury with any metal; b) to mix discordant elements.

AMALGAMER (s'), v. refl. to amalgamate : to unite, to combine.

AMANDAIE, amândé, sf. almond orchard.

AMANDE, amând', [Gr. : ἀμυγδάλη], sf. 1. almond ; 2. kernel (of stone fruit) ; 3. nucleus, embryo (of a seed). Amande cassée, shelled almond. — en coques, unshelled almond. — douce, — amère, sweet, bitter almond. — pralinée, à la praline, burnt almond, sugar-almond. — lisse, almond comfit. En —, almond-shaped. Huile d'—s, oil of almonds. Pâte d'—s, almond paste (used as a cosmetic).

AMANDÉ, amandé, sm. milk of almonds : a cooling beverage.

AMANDIER, amândyé, sm. almond-tree.

AMANT, amân-t, [Lat. : amans, from amāre, to love], sm. 1. lover, colloq. sweet heart ; 2. suiter, wooer, admirer ; 3. Fig. lover, votary, admirer (of the arts, of the Muses, of nature, etc.) ; 4. (in an ill sense) paremour, gallant, protector ; 5. pl. lovers (of bath sexes). Un — fidèle, a true, a faithful lover. Cette femme a un —, that woman has a paramour. Ces deux amants vont se marier, those two lovers are about to be married.

AMANTE, amânt', sf. 1. lover, Colloq. sweetheart ; 2. (in an ill sense) mistress, paramour. V. AMANT.

AMARANTE, amarânt', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; μαραίνειν, to fade], sf. 1. Bot. amaranth , 2. amaranth colour ; 3. Adject. amaranth, amaranth-coloured. — blette, amaranthus blitum. — à queue, love-lies-bleeding, amaranthus caudatus. — des jardiniers, cockscomb, velvet-flower.

AMARANTINE, amarântin', sf. Bot. globe amaranth, gomphrena globosa.

AMARESCENT, E, amarêsân-t, ânt', adj. bitterish.

AMARINAGE, amarinazh', sm. Naut. manning (of a prize).

AMARINER, amariné-r, [Lat. : ad, to ; mare, sea]. va. 1. Naut. to man (a prize) ; 2. to season, to inure to the sea.

AMARQUE, amark'; sf. Naut. buoy : a sea-mark.

AMARRAGE, amarazh', sm. 1. Naut. lashing, seizing (of ropes, etc.) ; 2. mooring (of a ship).

AMARRE, amar', [Lat. : ad, to ; mare, sea], sf. 1. Naut. mooring : rope or chain to moor a vessel ; 2. lashing (of a gun, etc.) ; 3. rope (thrown to a boat, or to a man falling overboard). — de bout, head-fact. — de travers, breast-fast. — d'arrière or de poupe, stern-fast. — de touée, towline, tow-rope. Puits d'amarres, Civ. Eng. tying-down well, mooring-shaft (of a suspension-bridge).

AMARRER, amaré-r, va. 1. Naut. to moor (a vessel) ; 2. to lash (a gun etc.) ; 3. to belay, to hitch, to make fast (a rope, etc.) ; S'— à quatre, to moor with four hawsers (two on each side of the vessel).

AMARYLLIS, amarilis, [Gr.], sf. Bot. amaryllis, daffodil, daffadowndilly.

AMAS, ama-z, [Lat. : ad, to ; massa; mass], sm. 1. heap (of stones, sand, ruins) ; 2. mass (of water, etc.) ; 3. store, hoard (of money, provisions, etc.) ; 4. accumulation, agglomeration ; 5. gathering, crowd, throng (of people) ; 6. (in an ill sense) mob, horde ; 7. Min. pipe-vein. Faire amas, to collect, to accumulate.

AMASSER, amassé-r, [amas], va. 1. to amass : a) to collect ; b) to heap up, to pile up, to accumulate ; c) to hoard, to hoard up ; 2. to gather up ; to gather, 3. (in a neuter sense) to hoard money, etc.) ; 4. to pick up (anything fallen). L'avare n'amasse que pour —, the miser only hoards for the sake of hoarding. Massillon.

AMASSER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be amassed ; 2. to heap up ; 3. to hoard ; 4. to collect, to throng around , 5 to gather.

AMASSETTE, amasset', sf. Paint. palette-knife, pallet-knife.

AMASSEUR, EUSE, amasœr, œz', smf. 1. hoarder (of money) ; 2. gatherer, picker-up.

AMATELOTAGE, amatœlotazh, sm. Naut. classing sailors in pairs.

AMATELOTER, amatœloté-r, [matelot], va. Naut. to class sailors in pairs.

AMATEUR, amatœr, [Lat. : amator ; amāre], sm. 1. amateur : lover, admirer ; 2. (adjectively) fond of, having a passion for (the arts, books, etc.) ; (in an ill sense) smatterer.

AMATI, amati, sm. an Amati : violin made by Amati, of Cremona.

AMATIR, amatir, [mat], va. 1. Goldsm. to deaden (gold, etc.) ; 2. Mint. to blanch (blanks for coinings).

AMATIVITÉ, amativité, sf. Phrenol, amativeness.

AMAUROSE, amorôz', [Gr. : ἀμαυρός, dark], sf. Med. amaurosis, gutta serena.

AMAUROTIQUE, amorotik, adj. 1. amaurotic ; 2. (substantively), person afflicted with amaurosis.

AMAZONE, amazôn', or amazôn', [Gr. : ἀ, neg., μαζός, mamelle], sf. 1. Amazon : a) one of the Amazons, a fabulous race of female marriors ; b) a courageous woman ; 2. riding-habit ; 3. horse-woman, female equestrian ; 4. adject. Amazonian.

AMBAGES, ânbazh', [Lat. : windings], sf. pl. ambages ; circumlocution, roundabout form of speech.

AMBALARD, anbalar', sm. Technol. barrow for the transport of the pulp in paper manufactories.

AMBASSADE, ânbassad', [Low Lat. ambactiāre ; ambactus, servant], sm. 1. embassy : a) functions of an ambassador ; b) person or persons sent with a message ; c) residence of offices (of an ambassador) ; 2. Colloq. message, errand. Il fait partie de l'—, he is attached to the embassy. En — as an ambassador.

AMBASSADEUR, ânbassadœr, sm. 1. ambassador ; 2. Colloq. messenger.

AMBASSADRICE, ânbasadris', sf. 1. ambassadress ; 2. Colloq. female messenger.

AMBATTAGE, ânbatazh, sm. Wheelw. shoeing (of a wheel). V. EMBATAGE.

AMBE, ânb', [Lat. : ambo, both, two], sm amb : a combination of any two of the numbers from 1 to 90 in the old French lotteries.

AMBESAS, ânbœzas, [Lat. : ambo, two ; Fr. : as], sm. ambsace, two aces, double ace (at backgammon and other games played with dice).

AMBIANT, E, anbiân-t, ânt', [Lat. : ambiens, ientis], adj. ambient, circumambient. L'air —, the circumambient air.

AMBIDEXTÉRITÉ, ânbidekstérité, [ambidestre], sf. ambidexterity, double dealing.

AMBIDEXTRE, anbidèkstr', [Lat. : ambo, two ; dextera, right hand], adj. 1. ambidextrous ; 2. subst. ambidexter.

AMBIEUX, EUSE, ânbiœ, œz', [Lat. : ambire, to go about], adj. winding, forming sinuosities.

AMBIGU, Ë, ânbigu, [Lat. : ambiguus ; ambi, about ; agĕre, to drive], adj. 1. ambiguous ; 2. sm. ambigu : a collation composed of a medley of dishes all served up at once. Réponse ambiguë, ambiguous answer.

AMBIGUITÉ, ânbiguité, sf. ambiguity, ambiguousness.

AMBIGUMENT, ânbigumân-t, adv. ambiguously.

AMBITÉ, E, ânbité, adj. Technol. not clear, untransparent (of glass).

AMBITIEUSEMENT, ânbisiœz'mân-t, adv. ambitiously. Écrire —, to write in a ambitious (or pretentious) style.

AMBITIEUX, EUSE, ânbisiœ, œz', adj. 1. ambitious : a) aspiring ; b) pretentious ; 2. substant. an ambitious person. — du pouvoir, ambitious of power, aspiring to power.

AMBITION, ânbisyôn, [Lat. : ambitio ; ambire, to seek ardently], sf. ambition. Une — effrénée, unbridled ambition, boundless ambition. Noble —, praiseworthy ambition. Il est dévoré d'—, he is eaten up with ambition, he is the slave of ambition. Prov. L'ambition perd l'homme, ambition is the ruin of a man.

AMBITIONNER, ânbisyôné-r, va. to ambition [very rarely used], to be ambitious of, to aspire to. — les dignités, to aspire to dignities. Ce que j'ambitionne le plus, c'est..., what I most aspire to is..., the great object of my ambition is...

AMBLE, ânbl', [Lat. : ambulāre, to walk about], sm. Man. amble. Grand —, fast amble. — doux, easy amble. Aller l —, to amble. — rompu, racking, racking pace.

AMBLER, ânblé-r, vn. to amble.

AMBLYGONE, ânbligon, [Gr. : ἀμβλύς, obtuse ; γωνία, angle], adj. amblygon : obtuse-angled.

AMBLYOPE, ânbliop', sm. f. 1. weak-sighted person ; 2. Ichth. amblyopsis : blind fish.

AMBLYOPE, adj. weak-sighted, amblyopic.

AMBLYOPIE, ânbliopi, [Gr. : ἀμβλυωπία], sf.-Med. amblyopia, amblyopy : incipient amaurosis.

AMBON, ânbôn, [Gr.: ἄμβων], sm. Arch. ambo, ambon.

AMBOUTISSOIR, ânboutiswar, sm. Tech. riveting punch. V. EMBOUTISSOIR.

AMBRE, ânbr', [Ar. : anbar], sm. amber. — gris, ambergris. — jaune, yellowamber.

AMBRÉ, E, ânbré, adj. 1. perfumed with ambergris ; 2. amber coloured, amber-yellow.

AMBRETTE, ânbrèt', sf. Bot. ambrette, musk-seed : Abelmoschus moschatus. Graine d'—, musk-seed.

AMBROISE, ânbrâwz', pnm. Ambrose ; Ambrosius.

AMBROISIE, ânbrwâzi, Gr. : ἀμβροσία], sf. ambrosia. — du Mexique, Mexican goosefoot, Mexican tea : Chenopodium ambrosioides.

AMBROSIAQUE, ânbroziak, adj. ambrosial, fragrant, which has a perfume of ambrosia.

AMBROSIEN, NE, ânbrozani, èn', adj. Ambrosian : said of a chant and liturgy introduced by St-Ambrose, bishop of Milan.

AMBULACRE, ânbulakre, [Lat. : ambulacrum], sm. 1. Conch. ambulacrum : row of pores or spaces through which the tube-feet of sea-urchins protrude ; 2. Hort. place planted with regular rows of trees.

AMBULANCE, ânbulâns', [ambulant], sf. Mil. 1. ambulance, field-hospital ; 2. provisional hospital.

AMBULANCIER, ÈRE, ânbulânsié, èr ; sm. f. stretcher-bearer, ambulancier : person attached to an ambulance or field-hospital.

AMBULANT, E, ânbulân-t, ânt', [Lat. : ambulāre, to walk about], adj. 1. ambulant, ambulatory ; 2. itinerant, strolling. Hôpital —, ambulance, field-hospital, provisional hospital. Comédiens ambulants, strolling players. Musiciens ambulants, itinerant musicians, wandering minstrels. Mener une vie ambulante, to lead a wandering life. Marchand —, pedlar, hawker. Érysipèle —, flying erysipelas.

AMBULATOIRE, â*n*bulatwâr', adj. 1. ambulatory; 2. itinerant; 3. changing, liable to change.

AMBUSTION, â*n*bustiôn, [Lat. : ambustus, burnt about], sf. ambustion, burn, cauterisation.

AME, âm', [Lat. : anima], sf. 1. soul : the spiritual and immortal part of man; b) the intellectual and moral faculties; c) heart, affections; d) a human being, a person; e) Colloq. thing, creature; f) animal existence, life, last breath; g) animating principle, prime mover; h) spirit, essence; i) courage, energy; j) generosity, nobleness of mind. L'immortalité de l'âme, the immortality of the soul. Les âmes des trépassés, the souls of the dead, of the departed. Charge d'âmes, cure of souls. Donner son âme au diable, to sell one's soul to the devil. Dieu veuille avoir son âme, God rest his soul, may God receive his soul. Avoir la mort dans l'—, to be grieved to death. Une — en peine, a tormented spirit. Une âme noble, généreuse, a noble, a generous mind. Grande âme, powerful mind. Ame basse, a low, grovelling mind. Une — de boue, a base, ungenerous soul. L'— d'un laquais, a grovelling soul. Il se donne au ministre corps et âme, he gives himself to the minister body and soul. Il est l'âme damnée du prince, he is the prince's tool, instrument. Tranquillité d'âme, peace of mind. Chacun peut disposer de son âme, every one can dispose of his heart, his affection. Ville de dix mille âmes, a town of ten thousand souls. Il n'a vu âme vivante, he did not see a single soul, a single creature. Il n'y a pas — qui vive, there is not a living soul. Pauvre âme! poor soul, poor thing, poor creature. C'est une bonne âme, he (or she) is a good soul, creature. Venez et recevez l'âme de Mithridate, come and receive the last breath of Mithridates. Racine, Mithr. v, 5. Rendre l'âme, to breath one's last, to give up the ghost, to die. Il a l'âme sur les lèvres, he is at his last breath, last gasp. Sur mon âme, on my life, on my soul. Elle fut l'âme de l'entreprise, she was the soul, the prime mover of the enterprise. Cet homme était l'âme du parti, that man was the soul, the leading mind, the master mind of the party. L'ambition, l'âme de notre conduite, ambition, the soul, the moving principle of our conduct. La bonne foi est l'âme du commerce, good faith is the soul, the essence of trade. La sculpture donne de l'âme au marbre, sculpture gives life, expression to marble. Elle chante avec âme, she sings with much feeling, expression. Donner de l'âme à un ouvrage, to give life, animation to a work (of art). Cet habit n'a plus que l'âme, this coat is worn threadbare, is but the ghost of its former self.

2. motto (of a heraldic device); 3. sound-post (of a violin, etc.); 4. valve, clack (of a pair of bellows); 5. small wood (in the middle of a faggot); 6. core (of a plaster model); 7. chamber (of a cannon); 8. middle strand (of a rope); 9. pith (of a quil).

AMÉ, E, amé, adj. beloved, well-beloved : an old form of aimé, formerly used in royal proclamations, etc. A nos âmés et féaux conseillers, to our well-beloved and faithful councillors.

AMÉDÉE, amédé, nm. Amadeus.

AMEILHON, améilôn, (Hubert-Pascal), miscellaneous writer (1730-1811).

AMELET, am'lé, sm. Arch. small fillet (used in the capitals of columns).

AMÉLIORABLE, améliorable, adj. improvable, capable of improvement.

AMÉLIORANT, E, améliorân-t, â*n*t', adj. ameliorating, improving.

AMÉLIORATION, améliorasyô*n*, sf. amelioration, improvement (in the state of a patient, in the value of an estate, etc.).

AMÉLIORER, amélioré-r, [Lat. : ad, to; melior, better], va. 1. to ameliorate : to improve, to make better; 2. to purify (metals). Terres améliorées par la culture, land improved by cultivation. — sa position, to better one's position.

AMÉLIORER (s'), v. refl. to ameliorate : to get better, to improve, to mend.

AMELOT DE LA HOUSSAYE amelo de la ousé, (Nicolas), historien (1624-1706).

AMEN, amèn [Hebr.] sm. 1. amen : so be it; 2. end, conclusion. Il dit — à tout, he says amen (he consents) to everything. De pater à —, from first to last, from beginning to end.

AMENAGE, amœnazh', [amener], sm. carriage : a) the act of carrying; b) the price paid for it.

AMÉNAGEMENT, aménazh'mâ*n*-t, [aménager], sm. 1. division of a forest into copses (or coppices) for successive cutting; 2. disposition (of a house, grounds, etc.); 3. Naut. V. EMMÉNAGEMENTS.

AMÉNAGER, aménazhé-r, [à : ménager], va. 1. to divide (a forest) into coppices for cutting; 2. to cut up, to saw (timber into boards, etc.); 3. to arrange, to lay out in order. Sa maison est bien aménagée, his house is well furnished and in order.

AMENDABLE, amâ*n*dabl', adj. 1. improvable (as land); 2. liable to fine, punishable by fine.

AMENDE, amâ*n*d', [Lat. : menda, fault], sf. fine : a pecuniary penalty. Me mettrait-on à l'— ? would they fine me? Mille francs d'—, a thousand francs fine, a fine of a thousand francs. — honorable, amende honorable : a) a public penance formerly inflicted; b) in modern times an apology. Faire — honorable, to make an apology, to apologize. Les battus payent l'—, the vanquished pay the costs, the weakest go to the wall.

AMENDEMENT, amâ*n*d'mâ*n*-t, [amender], sm. 1. amendment, improvement. Le projet de loi a subi plusieurs amendements, the bill has undergone several amendments.

2. improving or improvement of land (by warping, or the application of composts, marl, lime, sand, etc.); 3. fertilizer : any substance organic or inorganic used for improving land.

AMENDER, amâ*n*dé-r, [Lat. : emandāre, to correct], va. 1. to amend : to improve, to mend; 2. to reclaim; 3. to fine. — le sol, to bring land into a better heart, to improve land by the application of composts, parl, etc. Les engrais amendent le sol, manures improve the soil. Les bons exemples ont amendé ce jeune homme, good examples have reclaimed this young man. On a amendé le projet de loi the bill has been amended.

4. vn. to improve, to get better to mend.

AMENDER(s'), v. refl. to amend, to improve, to mend. Prov. : Mal vit qui ne s'amende, it is a poor soul that does not mend; it is a long lane that has no turning.

AMENER, âmené-r [à; mener], va. to bring; to draw; to introduce; to bring in, on over, to; to cause; to throw (at dice); (mar.) to lower; to strike. La guerre amène bien des maux, war brings in its train many evils. Il faut nous — votre fils, la prochaine fois, you must bring us your son, next time. Les marchandises sont amenées par train jusqu'ici, goods are brought here by train. Quel bon vent vous amène? Fam. what favourable wind blows you this way? Ils ont amené leur pavillon, they have lowered their colours. — la conversation sur un sujet, to turn the conversation upon a subject.

AMÉNITÉ, aménité. [Lat. : amœnitas amœnus pleasant] sf. amenity : a) agreeableness (of situation); b) mildness (of temperature); c) urbanity (of manners).

AMÉNOMANIE aménomani [Lat. : amœnus, pleasant; Gr. : μανία, mania], sf. Med. amenomania : form of insanity characterized by morbid gaiety.

AMÉNORRHÉE, aménorré, [Gr. : ἀ, neg.; μήν, μηνὸς, month; ρεῖν, to flow], sf. Med. amenorrhœa : absence or suppression of menstruation.

AMENTACÉES, amântasé, [Lat. : amentun, catkin], sf. pl. Bot. amentaceæ, pl. : an order of plants bearing amenta or catkins).

AMENTIFÈRE, amântifèr', adj. Bot. amentaceous.

AMENUISER, amœnuizé-r, [à; menuiser], va. to reduce (in size), to make thin or slender. — une planche, to thin down, to plane down a board.

AMENUISER (s'), v. refl. to become thin to get thinner.

AMER, ÈRE, amer, êr; [Lat. : amarus], adj. 1. bitter : a) hot and acrid; b) sharp, poignant; c) biting, cutting, stinging; d) painful; e) excessive, intense. L'absinthe est amère, wormwood is bitter. Avoir la bouche amère, to have a bitter taste in one's mouth. Douleur amère, poignant grief. Larmes amères, bitter tears. Une raillerie amère, cutting, stinging raillery. Reproche —, a bitter (sharp, severe) reproach. Il est d'une bêtise amère, he is excessively foolish, he is an arrant fool, an out-and-out blockhead.

2. briny. L'onde amère, the briny waves, the salt sea waves.

3. sm. bitter, anything bitter. Les amers, Med. bitters, bitter medicines.

4. gall, gall-bladder (of the ox, also of the carp and some other fish). — de bœuf, gall-bladder of the ox, ox-gall.

5. sm. Naut. sea-mark, land-mark.

AMÈREMENT, amèr-mâ*n*-t, adv. bitterly. Pleurer —, to weep bitterly.

AMÉRICAIN, E, amérika*n*, kèn', adj. and smf. American : often applied in a limited sense to the United States. Le continent américain, the American continent. Les côtes américaines, the American coasts. Les Américains des États-Unis, the Americans of the United States. Une Américaine, une dame américaine, an American lady. A l'américaine, in the American fashion. Vol à l'américaine, the confidence-thrick, swindle. Avoir l'œil —, to have a keen eye, to be wide-awake.

AMÉRICANISER, amérikanizé-r, va. to Americanize.

AMÉRICANISME, amérikanism, sm. Americanism.

AMÉRIQUE, amérik', sf. Geog. America. — centrale, central America. — du Nord, North America. — du Sud, South America.

AMERTUME, amertum', [amer], sf.

bitterness : a) bitter taste ; b) sorrow, affliction, vexation, distress ; c) sharpness, severity. L'— de l'absinthe, the bitterness of wormwood. Dans l'— de son âme, in the bitterness of his soul. Le calice d'—, the cup of bitterness. Abreuver d'—, 1. to embitter (life, etc.) ; 2. to overwhelm (a person) with bitterness, trials, vexations. Il y a trop d'— dans ses écrits, there is too much bitterness, (severity, causticity) in his writings.

AMÉTHYSTE, amétist', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; μέθη, drunkenness], sf. Min. amethyst : a precious stone of a violet-blue tint. Fausse —, fluor spar, Derbyshire spar, — orientale, oriental amethyst : violet corindon.

AMÉTROPIE, ametropi, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; μέτρον, measure ; ὤψ, eye], sf. Med. ametropia.

AMEUBLEMENT, amœbl'mân-t, [meuble], sm. furniture. set of furniture. Un — de velours, de damas, a suite of furniture upholstered with velvet, with damask.

AMEUBLIR, amœblir, [meuble], va. 1. Jurispr. to give realty (real property) the character of personalty (personal property) ; 2. Agr. to pulverize, to loosen (soil, so as to render it mellow).

AMEUBLISSEMENT, amœblis'mân-t, sm. 1. Jurispr. conversion of realty into personalty ; 2. mellowing, loosening, pulverizing (of soil).

AMEULONNER, amœloné-r, [à ; meulon, meule], va. Agr. to cock (hay, in the field).

AMEUTER, amœté-r, [meute], va. 1. to train (hounds) to hunt in a pack, to hunt together ; 2. collect, to bring together ; 3. to raise, to stir up, to excite. Il ameuta les faubourgs, he raised the faubourgs, he got up a riot in the suburbs.

AMEUTER (s'), v. refl. 1. to rise (in rebellion), to rebel. Le peuple s'ameuta contre les patriciens, the people rose against the patricians.

AMI, E, ami, [Lat. : amicus, friend], smf. 1. friend : a) one who is attached to another by affection and intimacy ; b) favourer, promoter ; c) supporter, adherent ; d) companion ; e) ally (in speaking of states) ; f) an animal or plant evincing a preference or predilection ; g) anything producing a pleasant effect. — de cœur, bossom friend. — à toute épreuve, well-tried friend. — de collège, college friend. — d'enfance, friend of one's young days, of one's youth. — de la vielle roche, staunch friend. — jusqu'à la bourse, friend in all things but lending money. Chambre, lit d'—, spare bedroom, spare bed. — des lettres, des arts, favourer, patroniser, amateur of letters, of the arts. Parler, agir en —, to speak, to act as a friend, like a friend. Traiter quelqu'un en —, to treat one as a friend. Je vous demande de faire cela pour lui en —, I beg you to do him that favour as a friend (i. e. for nothing). Le ministère et ses amis, the ministry and their friends, supporters, adherents. — de table, de bouteille, table friend, pot companion, boon companian. La France tira peu de secours de ses amis, France obtained but little help from her friends, her allies. Le chien est l'— de l'homme, the dog is the friend, the companian of man. Le concombre est l'— de l'eau, the cucumber likes water, requires a great deal of water. Le vin est — du cœur, wine gladdens the heart. Il est fort — de la bouteille, he is very fond of the bottle. Le vert est — de l'œil, green is pleasant to the eye. Odeurs amies du cerveau, scents good for the head.

2. (in an ill sense, generally accompanied by the adjective bon, bonne). Bon —, *galant, lover, protector, paramour. Bonne amie. sweetheart, mistress, paramour.

3. (used as an endearing, familiar, or contemptuous compellation). Mon —, mon cher —, my friend, my dear friend. [Mon amie, is often familiarly contracted into m'amie, in adressing a near relation or an inferior.] L'ami, ferez-vous ce message pour moi ? friend, my good fellow, will you do this errand for me ? Prov. : Ami au prêter, ennemi au rendre, quick to borrow, slow to repay. Ami à pendre et à dépendre, a friend through thick and thin. Il est bon d'avoir des amis partout, it is good to have friends every where. L'ami de tout le monde n'est l'ami de personne, everybody's friend is nobody's friend. Aujourd'hui amis, demain rivaux, friends to-day, to morrow rivals. Les bons comptes font les bons amis, short reckonings make long friends. On connait l'ami au besoin, a friend in need is a friend indeed. Mieux vaut l'ami en voie que denier en courroie, a friend at court is better than a penny in the purse. Rien n'est plus dangereux qu'un ignorant ami. save me from my friends.

AMI, E. adj. 1. friendly ; 2. propitious ; 3. beloved ; 4. harmonious ; 5. courteous. Sentiments d'amis, friendly feelings. — lecteur, gentle reader. Visage ami, friendly countenance. Une divinité amie, a propitious deity. Peuples amis, friendly nations. Couleurs amies, harmonious colours. Pôles amis, Magn. poles that mutually attract each other.

AMIABLE, amiabl', adj. amicable : friendly, kind, courteous. Accueil —, a kind reception. A l'—, amicably, as between friends, in a friendly manner, without going to law. Vente à l'—, sale by private contract. — compositeur, friendly arbitrator or referee (for settling disputes without going to law.)

AMIABLEMENT, amiabl'mân-t, adv. amicably : kindly, courteously.

AMIANTE, amiânt', [Gr. : ἀμίαντος, incorruptible], sm. Min. amianth, amianthus : a kind of asbestos.

AMICAL, E, amikal, al', adj. amicable : friendly. Relations amicales, friendly relations, friendly terms.

AMICALEMENT, amikal'mân-t, adv. amicably : like a friend, like friends.

AMICT, ami, [Lat. : amictus], sm. amice, amict or amess : part of a priest's robes.

AMIDE, amid', sf. Chem. amide.

AMIDOL, amidol, sm. Chem. amidol : developer employed in photography.

AMIDON, amidôn, [Fr. : ἀ, neg. ; μύλη, millstone ; ἄμυλος, cake of fine meal], sm. starch : a) a fecula used to stiffen linen ; b) Chem. the amylaceous substance of plants.

AMIDONNER, amidoné-r, va. to starch : to stiffen with starch.

AMIDONNERIE, amidonœri, sf. starch-manufactory, starch-works.

AMIDONNIER, amidonyé, sm. 1. starch-maker, or manufacturer ; 2. dealer in starch.

AMIEL, amiel [Henri-Frédéric], Swiss poet and moralist (1821-1881).

AMIGDALE. V. AMYGDALE.

AMINCI, E, amansi, pa. p. or adj. 1. become or made thin ; 2. sharpened, emaciated (as the features) ; 3. drawn in (as the waist) ; 4. slim, slendor.

AMINCIR, amansir, [à ; mince, thin], va. 1. to make thin or thinner ; 2. to plane down (a board, etc.) ; 3. to make (a person) look slim or slender, to give an appearance of slimness or slenderness. Cette toilette amincit la taille, that toilet gives an appearance of slimness to the figure.

AMINCIR (s'), v. refl. to become or grow thin.

AMINCISSEMENT, amansis'mân-t, sm. 1. thinning : making thin, slim or slender ; 2. planing down (a board) ; 3. filling down (metals) ; 4. thinness.

AMIRAL, amiral, [Ar. : amir, chief], sm. 1. admiral : a) the flag-officer of a fleet ; b) the admiral's flag-ship ; 2. guard ship (in a military port). Grand —, lord-high-admiral. Vice- —, vice-admiral. Contre- —, rear-admiral. Vaisseau —, flag-ship. [Pl. des AMIRAUX].

3. Conch. admiral, cone-shell.

AMIRALAT, amirala-t, sm. admiralship.

AMIRALE, amiral', sf. 1. admiral's wife ; 2. (formerly) galley carrying the admiral's flag.

AMIRAUTÉ, amirôté, sf. 1. (formerly) admiralship ; 2. admiralty, admiralty court : for trying maritime causes ; 3. admiralty. Conseil d'—, board of admiralty. Bureaux de l'—, admiralty offices.

AMISSIBLE, amisibl', [Lat. : amissibilis], adj. Theol. and Law-t. amissible : losable.

AMISSION, amisyôn, [Lat. : amissio ; amittĕre, to lose], sf. Theol, amission : loss.

AMITIÉ, amityé, [Lat. : amicitia], sf. 1. friendship : a) intimacy arising from mutual esteem ; b) affection, fondness, love ; c) friendly feeling. Les liens d'une étroite —, the bonds of close friendship. Mon — pour vous, my friendship for you. Si je ne vous aimais que d'—, if I loved you only from friendship, only as a friend. Par bonne —, de bonne —, out of pure friendship, with the best intentions. — de vieille date, friendship of long standing. Par pure —, out of true friendship. Burke se lia d' — avec Samuel Johnson, Burke contracted a friendship with Samuel Johnson. Villem. Faire — à quelqu'un, to show one's friendship for a person. Avoir de l' — pour, to feel friendship for, to have a friendly feeling for. Une — de père, a fatherly friendship, fondness, affection. Pour gagner l'— des dames, to win the friendship, the friendly feeling, the favour of the ladies. Rompre l'—, to break off one's friendship. Prov. : L'amitié rompue n'est jamais bien soudée, broken friendship is never well mended.

2. amity (between states, nations etc.). Il y avait paix et — entre ces puissances, there were peace and amity between those powers.

3. attachment : affection, fondness. Le chien a de l'— pour son maître, the dog is attached to, is fond of, his master.

4. liking. Prendre — pour, to take a liking to. Le capitaine prit — pour moi, the captain took a liking to me. Prendre quelqu'un en —, to take a great liking to any one, to be partial to any one.

5. friendly act, kindness, favour, pleasure. Capable de tout faire, hormis une —, capable of anything, except a friendly act, kind action. Faites-moi l'— de m'écrire, do me the favour, the kindness of writing to me.

6. attraction, sympathy. Il y a de l'— entre le fer et l'aimant, there is an attraction between iron and the loadstone. L'— du lierre pour l'orme, the sympathy, the friendship of ivy for the elm.

7. harmony, congruity. L'— des couleurs, the harmony of colours.

8. pl. regards, compliments, respects, love, Ils se firent beaucoup d'amitiés, they gave each other many marks of friendship. Faites mes amitiés à ma sœur, à tous mes amis, give my love to my sister; my kind regards, compliments, respects to all my friends.

9. pl. kind attentions. Il nous fait mille amitiés, he pays us a thousand kind attentions.

AMMAN, ammân, sm. amman : the chief of certain Swiss cantons.

AMMI, ammi, sm. Bot. ammi : bishops-whort, bishopsweed : a medicinal plant.

AMMODYTE, amodit', [Gr. : ἄμμος, sand ; δύω, I go in], adj. ammodyte : burrowing in the sand, said of a genus of fishes which includes the launce and sand-eel.

AMMON, am'on, [Gr. : ἄμμος, sand], sm. 1. surname of Jupiter in Upper Egypt; 2. Conch. ammonite. Corne d'—, cornu ammonis ; fossil-shell like a ram's horn.

AMMONIAC, AQUE, amoniak, ak', adj. Chem. ammoniacal, ammoniac. Gaz —, ammoniacal gas. Gomme ammoniaque, ammoniacum, gum ammoniac. Sel —, salt ammoniac.

AMMONIACAL, E, ammoniakal, kal, adj. ammoniacal.

AMMONIAQUE, ammôniak', [Gr. : Ἄμμων, Ammon : surname of Jupiter], sf. Chem. ammonia. — liquide, spirits of hartshorn, sal volatile.

AMMONIQUE, ammonik', adj. Chem. ammoniacal.

AMMONITE, ammonit', sf. Conch. ammonite : a fossile shell.

AMMONUIM, ammoniœm, sm. Chem. ammonium : a hypothetical metal.

AMMONIURE, ammoniur', sf. AMMONIATE, ammoniat', sm. Chem. ammoniuret.

AMNÉSIE, amnézi, [Gr. : ἀ, neg ; μνῆσις, memory], sf. Med. amnesia : loss of memory.

AMNIOS, amnios, [Gr. : ἀμνίος], sm. Anat. amnios : caul covering the fœtus.

AMNISTIE, amnistie, [Gr. : ἀμνηστία, forgetfulness], sf. amnesty : act of oblivion, general pardon granted by sovereign authority. Il fut compris dans l'—, he was included in the amnesty.

AMNISTIÉ, E, amnistié, pa. p. 1. amnestied, pardoned ; 2. subst. person amnestied, pardoned rebel : person included in an amnesty.

AMNISTIER, amnistié-r, va. to amnesty : to pardon by amnesty, to grant an amnesty to.

AMODIATEUR, amodiatœr, [Lat. : ad, to ; modium, measure], sm. leaseholder, tenant holding a farm on lease.

AMODIATION, amodiasyôn, sf. leasing, letting on lease.

AMODIER, amodié-r, va. to let on lease, to lease out. [Amodier and its derivatives are especially used when the tenant does not pay rent in cash but gives the landlord a certain modus or portion of the produce in kind].

AMOINDRIR, amwandrir, [à ; moindre], va. 1. to lessen, to diminish ; to extenuate a fault) ; to curtail (privileges, prerogatives).

2. vn. to lessen, to diminish, to decrease to grow less, to fall off (as income).

AMOINDRIR (s'), v. refl. to grow less, to decrease, to fall off.

AMOINDRISSEMENT, amwândris'mân-t, sm. diminution, lessening, decrease, falling off ; curtailment (privileges, etc.).

AMOLLIR, amolir, [à ; mou ; Lat. : mollire ; mollis, soft], va. 1. to soften ; 2. to mollify ; 3. to unnerve, to enervate ; 4. to weaken ; 5. to damp, to cool (courage). La chaleur amollit la cire, heat softens wax. La pluie amollit la terre, rain softens the ground. Rien ne peut — cet esprit implacable, nothing can mollify that implacable spirit. Volt. La volupté amollit le corps et l'âme, pleasure unnerves, enervates both body and mind. Les guerriers amollis laissent dormir leurs armes, the warriors unmanned let their arms rest. Delille.

AMOLLIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to soften, to become soft ; 2. to be mollified ; 3. to become unnerved, enervated ; 4. to become effeminate ; 5. to get weak or feeble ; 6. Naut. to fall (as the wind).

AMOLISSANT, E, amollissân-t ânt', adj. enervating. Des voluptés amollissantes, enervating pleasures.

AMOLLISSEMENT, amolis-mân-t, sm. 1. softening flagging ; 2. mollification ; 3. enervation ; 4. weakening (of courage, etc.).

AMOME, amôm, [Gr. : ἄμωμον], sm. Bot. amonum : a genus of plants including those which yield cardamoms, ginger, grains of paradise.

AMONCELER, amônsœlé-r [à ; monceau], [the l is doubled before a mute syllable : j'amoncelle, j'amoncelai, j'amoncellerai, amoncelant], 1. to heap up : to pile up (stones or wood) ; to amass (riches) ; to collect, to accumulate (proofs, authorities) ; 2. to lay in heaps (as corn in the field) ; 3. to drift, to drive into heaps. — des richesses, to heap up, to amass, to accumulate riches. Le vent amoncelle la neige et le sable, the wind drifts snow and sand.

AMONCELER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be heaped or piled up ; 2. to gather, to collect ; 3. to be gathering or collecting ; 4. to accumulate. Les nuages s'amoncellent, the clouds are gathering.

AMONCELLEMENT, amonsèl'mân-t, sm. accumulation : a) the act of heaping or pilling up ; b) heap, pile ; c) collection, gathering ; d) drifting, drift (of snow, sand, etc.).

AMONT, amôn, [à ; mont], sm. upper part (of a river). Pays d'—, en —, the countries up the river, on the upper part of the river. Aller en —, to go up the river. Venir d'—, to come from the upper part of the river, to come down the river. Vents d'—, easterly winds : a term applied by French coasting sailors in the Bay of Biscay and British Channel to winds blowing from any point between N. E. and S. E. En — du pont, above the bridge. Bercy est en — de Paris, Bercy is up the river above Paris.

AMORÇAGE, amorsâge, sm. 1. priming of small arms ; 2. Angl. baiting ; catching on (of people).

AMORCE, amôrs', [O. Fr. : amors, pp. of amordre], sf. 1. bait : a) anything used to attract fish to a hook, or animals to a trap ; b) lure, allurement ; 2. priming (of a fire-arm) ; 3. train (of powder, to fire a mine) ; 4. water put into a dry pump to make it suck. Mettre l'— à l'hameçon, to bait the hook. Les amorces du plaisir, the allurements of pleasure. Sans brûler une —, without firing a shot. Craignez d'un vain plaisir les trompeuses amorces, beware of the deceitful allurements of an idle pastime. Boil. Art. p. I.

AMORCEMENT, amôrs'mân-t, sm. 1. baiting (of a fish-hook, etc.) ; 2. ground-baiting : bait thrown into the water.

AMORCER, amôrsé-r, va. [The c takes the cedilla before o and a, amorçons, j'amorçai,] 1. to bait (a hook or trap) ; 2. to lure, to allure, to decoy ; 3. to prime (fire-arms) ; 4. to fetch (a pump) ; 5. to exhaust (a siphon) ; 6. Technol. to begin : to make a small hole, with a gouge or centre-bit for an auger, with a prich-punch for a drill ; 7. to thin, to flatten, the ends of iron-bars ready for welding. — un hameçon, to bait a hook. — une souricière, to bait a mouse-trap. Quand le pêcheur amorce l'eau, when the angler throws ground-bait into the water.

AMORCER (s'), v. refl. Ces fusils s'amorcent seuls, those guns are self-priming.

AMORCEUR, EUSE, amorsœr, œs, smf. tempter : one who allures, baits or tries to catch.

AMORÇOIR, amôrswar, sm. Technol. wimble ; instrument for beginning holes : the gouge or centre-bit for augers, the prickpunch for drills.

AMOROSO, amoroso [Ital.], adv. Mus. amoroso, con amore : tenderly.

AMORPHE, amorf', [Gr. : ἀ, neg., μορφή, form]. adj. amorphous : devoid of regular form. Phosphore —, amorphous (or red) phosphorus. Allumettes amorphes, safety matches.

AMORPHIE, amôrfi, [amorphe], sf. amorphy : absence of regular form.

AMORTIR, amôrtir, [à ; mort], va. 1. to deaden : a) to weaken, to break (the force of a stream, blow, fall, or shock) ; b) to calm down, to assuage (the passions) ; c) to reduce, to abate (inflammation, etc.) ; d) to blunt (the senses, the feelings) ; e) to slacken (a fire) ; f) Paint. to tone down, to soften down (the glare of colours) ; g) to diminish, to subdue (the intensity of light) ; h) to take off the rank taste (of herbs, vegetables, etc., by immersion in boiling water) ; i) to slacken the speed of a vessel. — l'aire d'un bâtiment, to deaden a ship's way. Le temps amortit les afflictions, time diminishes one's afflictions. Il rencontra, en tombant, une branche qui amortit sa chute, when falling he met with a branch which deadened his fall. Les passions non amorties s'éveillent encore pour brûler, passions unsubdued, burst forth again with renewed vigour. G. Sand. Une balle amortie, a spent ball. Un coup amorti, a deadened blow.

2. to pay, to liquidate (a debt) ; 3. to buy up, to redeem (an annuity) ; 4. to sink (money or property, in the purchase of a life-annuity) ; 5. Law-t. to amortize : to alienate land in mortmain ; 6. Cook. to make (meat) tender by long keeping ; 7. Autom. to damp.

8. vn. Naut. to get neaped or beneaped.

AMORTIR (s'), v. refl. to be deadened, weakened. V. AMORTIR.

AMORTISSABLE, amôrtisabl', adj. redeemable : said of annuities, etc.

AMORTISSEMENT, amôrtis'mân-t, sm. 1. deadening, weakening, diminishing ; 2. liquidation, paying off, payment (of a debt) ; 3. redemption : buying up (of annuities, etc.) ; 4. Arch. any ornament that finishes the upper part of a building : coping (of a wall), pediment (over a window or door), finial (of a pinnacle, pyramid, spire) ; 5. Naut. the state of a vessel beneaped. Caisse d'—, sinking-fund. Fond d'—, 1. fund for paying off a debt ; 2. depreciation fund (for renewing the plant and rolling stock of a trading company).

AMORTISSEUR, amòrtis'œr, sm. Mech., Autom. buffer. — à air, air-buffer, dashpot. — à air comprimé, air cushion shock absorber. — de choc, shock absorber. — pneumatique, pneumatic shock absorber.

AMOUILLE, amouy', sf. Agr. biestings.

AMOUILLER, amouyé-r, [à ; mouiller], vn. Agr. to be down-calving.

AMOULER, amoulé-r, [à ; meule], va. Techn. to grind (on a grindstone). — Pneumatique, pneumatic shock absorber.

AMOUR, [Lat. : amor], sm. love : a) passionate affection between persons of different sexes, the tender passion ; (in an ill sense) amour ; b) strong affection (for persons), fondness, passion ; c) darling, person or thing beloved ; d) Myth. Love (Cupid, the god of love) ; pl. the Loves ; e) any very pretty person or thing.

a) L'— est un tyran qui n'épargne personne, love is a tyrant who spares no one. Mourir d'—, to die of love. Se marier par —, to marry for love. Avoir de l'— pour, to be in love with. Languir d'—, to be love-sick. Un véritable — brave tous les dangers, true love will brave all dangers. [In this acceptation the plural amours is feminine, whether taken in a good or an ill sense]. Mes premières amours, my first love. Ses amours scandaleuses, his scandalous amours. Faire l'— à, to make love to, to court, to woo. Filer le parfait —, to make love long and faithfully. C'est un parfait remède d'—, she is a perfect antidote for love: she is a very ugly woman Etre en —, to be proud : said of female animals in their coupling season. La terre est en —, the land is in a state favourable to vegetation. Maison d'—, house of ill-fame, a brothel.

b) L'— des parents pour leurs enfants, the love of parents for their children. — paternel, maternel, filial, paternal, maternal filial love. L'— des sciences, the love of the sciences. — du plaisir, du jeu, love of pleasure, love of gaming. Deux pigeons s'aimaient d'— tendre, two pigeons loved each other tenderly. La Font. Fab. IX, 2. Ce général avait gagné l'— de ses soldats, this general had won the love, the hearts of his soldiers. Il sentit renaître son courage et son — pour la vertu, he felt his courage and his love for virtue revive. Fén. Il le fit pour l'— de moi, he did it for my sake. Pour l'— de Dieu, 1. for the love of God, for God's sake : without any interested motive ; 2. (in an ironical sense) carelessly, negligently, reluctantly, grudgingly. Il l'a fait comme pour l'— de Dieu, he did it reluctantly, with an ill grace.

Amour de soi, love of self, self-love : the instinct of self-preservation. L'— de soi est irrépréhensible et même nécessaire, self-love is blameless and even necessary.

Amour-propre, 1. self-love, love of self, self-esteem ; 2. self-conceit. Il faut avoir un peu d'— -propre, a little self-love is indispensable. Il a trop d'— -propre pour se rendre jamais coupable d'une bassesse, he has too much self-esteem ever to be guilty of a mean action. L'— -propre est le père des illusions, self-love is the source of self-deception. Selon La Rochefoucauld, l'—, propre est le mobile de toutes nos actions, according to Rochefoucauld, self-love (or self-interest) is the motive of all our actions. Il est pétri d'— -propre, he is eaten up with self-conceit.

c) J'ai vu mon —, I have seen my love, my lady-love. Cet enfant est l'— de sa mère, this child is his mother's darling. (Sometimes pl. in this sense : Il a quitté ses amours, he has left his lady-love.] Et fussiez-vous du monde et l'amour et l'effroi, and were you both the love and the dread of the world. Mon amour (sometimes contracted into m'amour), my love, my darling : an endearing expression addressed to a husband, wife, daughter, etc. Lacs d'—, love-knot.

d) L'Amour est aveugle, Love is blind. Porte surmontée d'Amours nus, a door surmounted by naked Cupids. Le carquois de l'—, Cupid's quiver.

e) Quel — d'enfant ! what a lovely child ! Cette montre est un —, this watch is a beauty. — en cage, Bot. wintercherry, alkekengi. Pomme d'—, love-apple, tomato.

[REM. — Amour was considered as both masculine anf neuter by the great writers of the 16th and 17th centuries. At present it never takes both genders, except when it signifies the passion of one sex for the other, and even then its singular is feminine only in poetry. In the plural it is feminine both in poetry and in colloquial language). Prov. : L'amour est plus fort que la mort, love is stronger than death. On revient toujours à ses premières amours, we always return to our first love. On ne badine pas avec l'amour, those who play bowls must expect rubbers. Au battre faut l'amour, come blows, love goes. On ne vit pas d'amour et d'eau fraîche, lips however rosy must be fed. Amour, toux et fumée en secret ne font demeurée, love, smoke and a cough cannot be hid. Amour et seigneurie ne veulent point de compagnie, love and lordship like no fellowship. Froides mains, chaudes amours, a cold hand, a warm heart.

AMOURACHÉ, E, amourashé, adj. (de, with) enamoured, in love.

AMOURACHER, amourashé-r, va. (in an ill sense) to enamour, to inflame with love.

AMOURACHER (s'), v. refl. (de, with) to be (or become) enamoured, to fall in love, to be smitten.

AMOURETTE, amourèt', sf. 1. amourette, love-affair, intrigue ; 2. pl. Cook. spinal marrow of veal or mutton. — des prés, Bot. quaking-grass.

AMOUREUSEMENT, amourœz-mân-t, adv. 1. lovingly ; 2. (ill sense) amorously ; 3. (with painters) con amore. Ce petit tableau est peint —, or — peint, this little picture is painted con amore.

AMOUREUX, EUSE, amourœ, rœz, adj. 1. in love. Il est — de cette femme, he is in love with that woman. Eperdument —, desperately in love, over head and ears in love.

2. amorous : inclined to love ; arising from love. Certaines nations sont plus amoureuses que les autres, some nations are more amorous than others. Transports —, amorous transports.

3. amatory. Lettres amoureuses, love-letters, amatory correspondence. Chanson —, love song.

4. (de) enamoured (with), fond (of). J'étais — de la poésie, I was enamoured with poetry. — de la gloire, fond of, enamoured with glory.

5. Paint. delicate, soft, mellow.

6. s. lover, spark, sweetheart.

AMOUR-PROPRE, V. AMOUR.

AMOVIBILITÉ, amovibilité, sf. 1. removability : liability to removal or dismissal, said of officials ; 2. uncertain tenure (of an office, etc.).

AMOVIBLE, amovibl', [Lat. : amovēre, to move), adj. 1. removable : liable to dismissal ; 2. held during pleasure : in speaking of appointments, pensions, etc. not permanent or for life.

AMPELOTHERAPIE, ânpelotérapi, [Gr. : ἄμπελος, vine ; thérapie], sf. Med. ampelotherapy : method of cure by grapes.

AMPÈRE, ânpair [Ampère, French electrician, died 1836], sm. Phys. ampere : unit of current. — -heure, ampere-hour.

AMPÈREMÈTRE, ânpérmèt're, sm. ampere-meter.

AMPHIBIE, ânfibi, [Gr. : ἀμφί, doubly ; βίος, life], adj. 1. amphibious : said of animals and plants that can exist either in water or on dry land ; it is also applied figuratively to men. Ils sont amphibies, ils vivent de l'église et de l'épée, they are amphibious, living both by the grown and the sword. La Bruy. 8.

2. sm. amphibian (pl. amphibians or amphibia) : an amphibious animal ; Fig. a man who joins in turns two opposite parties, or practises two different trades.

AMPHIBIEN, ENNE, ânfibiœ, en, adj. amphibious, smpl. amphibians.

AMPHIBOLE, ânfibol, [Gr. : ἀμφίβολος, ambiguous], sm. Med. 1. amphibole : period in sickness which is intermediary between the stationary period and that of defervescence ; 2. Miner. the name given to hornblende.

AMPHIBOLOGIE, ânfibolozhi, [ἀμφίβολος ; λόγος, speech], sf. amphibology.

AMPHIBOLOGIQUE, ânfiboloshik', adj. amphibological.

AMPHIBOLOGIQUEMENT, ânfiboloshik'mân-t, adv. amphibologically.

AMPHIBRAQUE, ânfibrak', [Gr. : ἀμφί, around ; βραχύς, short], sm. Pros. amphibrach : a foot of two short syllables.

AMPHICTYONIDE, ânfiktionid', adj. entitled to be represented in the Amphictyonic council.

AMPHICTYONIE, ânfiktioni, sf. the league, the council of the Amphictyons.

AMPHICTYONIQUE, ânfiktionik', adj. Amphictyonic.

AMPHICTYONS, ânfiktiôn, [Gr. : ἀμφικτύων], sm. pl. Amphictyons.

AMPHIGOURI, ânfigouri, [Gr. : ἀμφί, around ; γῦρος, circle], sm. 1. burlesque composition ; 2. farrago of nonsense, rigmarole.

AMPHIGOURIQUE, ânfigourik', adj. unintelligible, nonsensical, ludicrous.

AMPHIGOURIQUEMENT, ânfigourik'mân-t, adv. unintelligibly, nonsensically.

AMPHIMACRE, ânfimakr', [Gr. : ἀμφί, around ; μακρός, long], sm. Pros. amphimacer : a foot composed of a short syllable between two long ones.

AMPHISBÈNE, ânfizbèn'. [Gr. : ἀμφισβαίνα], sm. Nat. Hist. amphisbœna : a kind of serpent that can go either head or tail first.

AMPHISCIENS, ânfisiân, [Gr. : ἀμφί, around ; σκιά, shadow], sm. pl. Geogr. amphiscians, amphiscii : a term applied to the inhabitants of the torrid zone, because their shadows at noon point to the north during one part of the year and to the south during the other part.

AMPHITHÉATRAL, E, ânfitéâtral, al' adj. amphitheatrical.

AMPHITHÉÂTRE, ânfitéâtr', [Gr. : ἀμφί, round about ; θέατρον, theatre], sm. 1. amphitheatre : a) an oval or circular theatre with seats gradually rising all round ; b) the spectators therein contained ; 2. (in a modern theatre) the higher seats behind the different tiers of boxes fronting the stage; 3. theatre, lecture-room (of a college, etc.). Le terrain va, s'élève en —, the ground rises in the form of an amphitheatre.

AMPHITRITE, ânfitrit', [Gr.], nf. Mythol. Amphitrite : Neptune's wife ; Fig. the sea.

AMPHITRYON, ânfitriôn, [Gr.], sm. amphytrion : host, entertainer, the giver of a feast.

AMPHORE, ânfor', [Lat. : amphora], sf. Antiq. amphora.

AMPHORIQUE, ânforik', adj. Auscult. amphoric. Résonance —, amphoric resonance.

AMPLE, ânpl', [Lat. : amplus, large, wide], adj. ample : a) large, wide, extended, spacious ; b) full (as a garment) ; c) abundant, plenteous, plentiful, copious ; d) liberal (as a reward, etc.). Dans l'— sein de la nature, in nature's ample bosom (womb, lap). Un plus — théâtre, a wider stage. Une — moisson, an abundant, a plentiful harvest. Un manteau — et flottant, an ample, flowing cloak, a full and flowing cloak. Une — récompense, a liberal reward. In law language : Plus — informé, further inquiry. Renvoyer un accusé jusqu'à plus — informé, to remand a prisoner for further inquiry, for additional evidence.

AMPLECTIF, IVE, ânplèktif, iv', [Lat. : amplecti, to embrace], adj. Bot. amplective.

AMPLEMENT, ânpl'mân-t, adj. amply : largely, widely, at large, abundantly, copiously, fully.

AMPLEUR, ânplœr, sf. 1. ampleness : breadth ; 2. (of garments) fulness ; 3. (of style) breadth. L'— d'un manteau, the fulness of a cloak. — du front, breadth of forehead. L'— de la pensée et du style, breadth of thought and of style.

AMPLEXICAULE, ânplèksikôl', [Lat. : amplexus, embrace caulis, stem], adj. Bot. amplexicaul.

AMPLIATIF, IVE, ânpliatif, iv', adj. ampliative.

AMPLIATION, ânpliâsyôn, [Lat. : ampliatio], sf. 1. office copy, duplicate [of a deed, etc] ; 2. expansion (as of the chest in breathing) Pour —, (words placed at the bottom of a duplicate), true copy.

AMPLIER, ânplié-r, [Lat. : ampliāre], va. 1. Law-t. to defer, to postpone ; 2. Nat. Hist. to amplify, to make wider.

AMPLIFIANT, E, ânplifiân-t, ânt', adj. Opt. magnifying.

AMPLIFICATEUR, ânplifikatœr, sm. 1. (in an ill sense) amplifier : exaggerator ; 2. Phot. amplifier, enlarger.

AMPLIFICATIF, IVE, ânplifikatif, iv', adj. Opt. magnifying.

AMPLIFICATION, ânplifikâsyôn, sf. 1. amplification ; 2. development (of a subject) ; 3. (in an ill sense) exaggeration; 4. magnifying (by means of a lens).

AMPLIFIER, ânplifié-r, [Lat. : amplificāre], va. 1. to amplify : to develop, to expiate upon, to enlarge upon (a subject) ; 2. to exaggerate (a statement, a narrative, sometimes used neutrally in this sense) ; 3. to magnify (as a lens). Les voyageurs ont l'habitude d'—, travellers are apt to exaggerate.

AMPLITUDE, ânplitud', [ample], sf. 1. amplitude : a) largeness, extent ; b) Artill. point-blank range, horizontal range (of a cannon-ball ; c) Naut. arc of the horizon between the point where the sun, etc., rises or sets and the true east or west points ; 2. Astron. diurnal arc (the arc described by any heavenly body between its rising and setting). L'— est ortive ou occase, nord ou sud, amplitude is ortive or occiduous, north or south. — magnétique, magnetic amplitude : counted from the magnetic east or west points.

AMPOULE, ânpoul', [Lat. : ampulla], sf. 1. ampulla : a bellied phial ; 2. blister : especially applied to those produced on the feet by long walking, or on the hands by rowing, etc. ; 3. Bot. ampulla, spongiole ; 4. Elect. bulb, bulb lamp ; 5. Anat. ampulla. La Sainte —, Ampulla Remensis : the bottle which formerly contained the sacred oil used in anointing the kings of France.

AMPOULÉ, E, ânpoulé, adj. (in speaking of language) turgid, bombastic, inflated. Discours —, fustian, bombast. Un style —, bombast.

AMPOULÉMENT, ânpoulémân-t, adv. turgidly, bombastically.

AMPOULETTE, ânpoulèt', sf. 1. Artill. wooden fuse or fusee (of a shell) ; 2. Naut. half-minute glass.

AMPULLACÉ, E, ânpulasé, adj. Nat. Hist. ampullaceous.

AMPUTATION, ânputâsyôn, sf. Surg. amputation. Faire l'— de, to amputate, to cut off. — circulaire, — à lambeaux, circular amputation, flap amputation.

AMPUTER, ânpute-r, [Lat. : amputāre], va. Surg. to amputate : to take off, to cut off.

AMULETTE, amulet', [Lat. : amuletum], sf. amulet : charm, talisman. [Some few authors make amulette masculine].

AMUNITIONNER, amunisyoné-r, [munetion], va. to provide with stores, to provision.

AMURE, amur', [Lat. : ad murum, to the wall], sf. Naut. tack (of a sail Amures à tribord, starboard tacks aboard.

AMURER, amuré-r, va. Naut. to haul aboard a tack.

AMUSABLE, amuzabl', adj. amusable : capable of being amused.

AMUSANT, E, amuzân-t, ânt', adj. amusing : entertaining, diverting, pleasing.

AMUSEMENT, amuz'mân-t, sm. 1. amusement : a) entertainment, diversion, pastime ; b) trifling ; 2. deception, pretext 3. loss of time, delay, put-off. Doux —, pleasing amusement Vain —, futile amusement. — innocent, innocent amusement. Le travail est pour lui un véritable —, occupation is for him real amusement. Tout ce que vous me dites là n'es qu'un —, al you say is a mere deception, pretext. Pas tant d'—, allez-y de suite, have done with trifling (loitering or delay), go at once. J'ai assez de vos amusements je veux être payé, you have put me off long enough, I wish to be paid. Être l'— d'une société, to be the butt, the laughing-stock of a company.

AMUSER, amusé-r, [à ; muser], va. 1. to amuse : a) to occupy the mind agreeably ; b) to keep in expectation, to play with, to trifle with (a person) ; c) to idle away, to trifle away, to waste (time, etc.) ; 2. to deceive, to mislead ; 3. to beguile (sorrows, sufferings). Ce roman m'a fort amusé, this novel has greatly amused me. Cette aventure a amusé tout Paris, this adventure has been amusing all Paris. Quand il s'aperçut qu'on l'amusait, when he perceived they were trifling with him. Après avoir ainsi amusé sa vie, after thus idling away his life. — l'ennemi, to deceive, to mislead the enemy — sa tristesse, to beguile one's sorrow. — le tapis, to talk for talking's sake, to talk against time.

AMUSER (s'), v. refl. 1. to amuse, to enjoy one's self, to divert one's self ; 2. to be amused ; 3. to waste (to loiter, idle, or trifle away) one's time ; 4. to make fun or sport (of a person or thing). Il s'amuse à faire des vers, he amuses himself with writing verses. Elle s'est fort amusée à cette soirée, she greatly enjoyed herself at that party. Vous êtes-vous bien amusée ? did you enjoy yourself ? Amusez-vous bien, enjoy yourself well. S'— de quelqu'un, aux dépens de quelqu'un, to make fun, to make sport of a person, to amuse one's self at any person's expense. Il s'est amusé trop en chemin, he has been loitering too long on the way. S'— à la moutarde, to be amused with (devote one's attention to) trifle S'— aux bagatelles de la porte, to be amused with trifles, to strain at gnats, to fool away one's time.

AMUSETTE, amuzèt', sf. 1. toy, plaything ; 2. petty amusement, child's play ; 3. amuzette : a small cannon invented by Marshal Saxe. Les poupées sont les amusettes des jeunes filles, dolls are girl's playthings. Ce n'est pour lui qu'une —, it's only child's play to him.

AMUSEUR, EUSE, amuzœr, œz', smf. amuser.

AMYGDALE, amigdal', [Gr. : ἀμυγδάλη, almond], sf. Anat. tonsil : either of the two glands commonly called the almonds of the ears.

AMYGDALIN, E, amigdalan, n', adj. Chem. amygdaline.

AMYGDALINE, amigdalin', sf. Chem. amygdalin.

AMYGDALITE, amigdalit', sf. Med. amygdalitis ; inflammation of the tonsils.

AMYGDALOÏDE, amigdaloïd', [Gr. : ἀμυγδάλη, almond; εἶδος, forme], sf. Min. amygdaloid.

AMYLACÉ, E, amilasé, [Gr. : ἄμυλον, starch], adj. amylaceous resembling starch.

AMYLE, amil', [Gr. : ἄμυλον, starch], sm. Chem. amyl or amyle.

AMYLÈNE, amilèn', sm. Chem. amylene.

AMYLIQUE, amilik', adj. Chem. amylic.

AN, ân, [Lat. : annus, year] sm. 1. year : twelve months, a twelvemonth. Il y a un —, a year ago, a twelvemonth ago. Il reviendra dans un —, he will return in a year, a year hence. Avoir soixante ans, to be sixty (years of age). Elle n'a pas encore vingt ans, she is not yet twenty, she is still in her teens. Agé d'un —, a year (or one year) old ; (in speaking of horses, etc.) yearling. Un poulain d'un —, a yearling colt (or simply a yearling). Tous les ans, every year. Tous les deux ans, every two years, every other year, biennially. De trois en trois ans, every third year, every three years, triennially. Le premier jour (or simply le jour) de l'—, New Year's Day. Le jour de l'—, New Year's Day. Bon —, mal —, one year with another, on an average of years. Il a dix mille francs par —, he has ten thousand francs a year. Une fois, deux fois par —, once, twice a year. Un — et un jour, a year and a day. Bout de l'—, anniversary mass (celebrated a year after a person's death). L — du monde, l'— de grâce, l'— de Notre-Seigneur, the year of the world, of grace, of our Lord. L'an mil huit cent soixante-huit, the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight. Bon jour et bon —, a happy New Year to you. Il va sur ses cinquante ans, he will soon be fifty. Je m'en moque comme de l'— quarante, I don care a rap for it.

2. pl. years, days ; (when used absolutely) old age. Dès ses jeunes ans, from his young days, from his early youth. La fleur des ans, the prime of youth, the springtime of life. Dans (or sur) ses vieux ans, in his old age, his old days. Le poids, le fardeau des ans, the weight, the burden of years, of age. L'injure des ans, the wear and tear of years, the ravages of time. V. ANNÉE.

ANA, ana, 1. a Latin suffix added to names with the sense of belonging to, as: Menagiana, the thoughts or sayings of Ménage.

2. nm. ana : a collection of thoughts, sayings, etc.

3. (from the Greek ἀνά, of each) ana : in physicians' prescriptions abridged into A A, signifying that an equal quantity of each ingredient mentioned is to be used.

ANABAPTISME, anabatism', [Gr. : ἀνά, anew ; baptisme], sm. anabaptism.

ANABAPTISTE, anabatist', sm. 1. anabaptist ; 2. adj. anabaptistic, anabaptist.

ANABLEPS, anablepss, [Gr. : ἀναβλέπω, I raise my eyes], sm. Ichth. anableps : a sort of bony fishes with projecting eyes.

ANACAMPTIQUE, anakânptik', [Gr. : ἀνά, anew ; κάμπτειν, to reflect], adj. Phys. and Geom. anacamptic.

ANACARDE, anakard', [Gr. : ἀνά ; καρδία, heart], sm. Bot. cashew-nut, cashew-apple : the fruit of the anacardium occidentale.

ANACARDIER, anakardyé, sm. anacardium, cashew-nut tree.

ANACATHARTIQUE, anakatartik', [Gr. , ἀνά, above ; καθαιρεῦν, to purge], adj. and sm. Med. anacathartic.

ANACHORÈTE, anakorèt', [Gr. : ἀνά, aside ; χωρέω, I go], sm. 1. anchoret, anchorite ; 2. recluse. Mener une vie d'—, to lead the life of an anchorite, of a recluse.

ANACHRONISME, anakronism', [Gr. : ἀνά, backwards ; χρόνος, time], sm. anachronism ; error in chronology.

ANACOLUTHE, anakolut', [Gr. : ἀν, neg. ; ἀκόλουθος ; companion], sf. Gram. anacoluthon : want of sequence in the construction of a sentence.

ANACONDA, anakon'da, sm. Nat. hist. anaconda : a large South American Python.

ANACOSTE, anakost', sf. anacosta : a kind of serge.

ANACRÉONTIQUE, anakréôntik', adj. anacreontic : in the manner of Anacreon.

ANAÉROÏDE, anaéroïd', ANÉROÏDE, anéroïd', adj. aneroid. Le baromètre —, the aneroid barometer. V. ANÉROÏDE.

ANAGALLIS, anagalis, [Gr.], sm. Bot. anagallis, pimpernel. V. MOURON.

ANAGLYPHE, anaglif', [Gr. :ἀνάγλυφος; ἀνά, up; γλύφειν, to carve], sm. anaglyph : ornament carved in low relief.

ANAGOGIE, anagozhi, [Gr.], sf. Theol. anagogy : rapture, ecstasy.

ANAGOGIQUE, anagozhik', adj. Theol. anogogical : spiritual.

ANAGRAMMATIQUE, anagramatik', adj. anagrammatical.

ANAGRAMMATISER, anagramatizé-r, vn. to anagrammatize.

ANAGRAMMATISTE, anagramatist', sm. anagrammatist.

ANAGRAMME, anagram', [Gr. : ἀνά, again ; γράμμα, letter], sf. anagram.

ANAGYRE, anazhir', ANAGYRIS, anazhiris, [Gr. : ἀνά, up ; γυρός circle], sm. Bot. bean-trefoil, anagryis fœtida.

ANAL, E, anal, anal', [Lat. : anus], adj. Anat. anal. Veine —, anal veine. Nageoire anale, anal fin.

ANALECTES, analèkt' [Gr. : ἀνάλεκτα], sm. pl. Philol. analecta, analects.

ANALEMME, analèm', [Gr. : ἀνάλημμα, height], sm. Astron., Geom. analemma.

ANALEPSIE, analépsi, [Gr. : ἀνάληψις], sf. Méd. analepsy.

ANALEPTIQUE, analèptik', adj. et sm. Méd. analeptic. Un bon —, an excellent analeptic.

ANALGÉSIE, analzhézi, ANALGIE, analzhi,[Gr. : ἀν, neg. ; ἄλγος, pain], sf. Med. analgesia, analgia : absence of pain.

ANALOGIE, analozhi, [Gr. : ἀναλογία, proportion], sf. analogy. — frappante, remarquable, évidente, striking, remarkable, evident analogy. Il y a — entre le cheval et l'âne, there is some analogy between the horse and the ass. Raisonner par —, to reason by (or from) analogy, by way of analogy ; to reason analogically.

ANALOGIQUE, analozhik', adj. analogical. Raisonnement —, reasoning by analogy, analogical reasoning.

ANALOGIQUEMENT, analozhik'mân-t, adv. analogically.

ANALOGUE, analog', adj. 1. analogous, similiar. L'italien et le français sont des langues analogues, Italian and French are analogous languages.

2. sm. analogue ; Colloq. like, fellow, counter-part. Ce mot n'a point d'— en anglais, this word has nothing corresponding to it in English.

ANALYSABLE, analizable, adj. analysable.

ANALYSE, analiz', [Gr. : ἀνάλυσις], sf. analysis : a) resolution of a body or subject into its component parts ; b) synopsis, abstract, precis, digest, summary of a letter or other composition) ; critical examination, review, critique (of a literary work) ; d) Gram. parsing. — chimique, chemical analysis. — qualitative, quantitative, qualitative, quantitative analysis. L'— est opposée à la synthèse, analysis is the opposite of synthesis. Je ferai l'— de cette eau, I will analyze this water. Ce journal donne l'— de toute les nouvelles publications, this journal gives reviews of all new publications. Faire l'— de, Chem. to analyse ; Gram. to parse. En termes de mathématiques, l'analyse est l'algèbre, in the language of mathematics, analysis signifies algebra. L'— transcendentale, transcendental analysis : the differential and integral calculus. En dernière —, after mature examination, in conclusion, after all. Je crois, en dernière —, que ce problème est insoluble, I think, after all, that this problem is insolvable.

ANALYSER, analizé-r, va. to analyse (or analyze) : to make an analysis of ; to review ; to parse. V. ANALYSE. — une substance, to analyse a substance. — une phrase, to parse a sentence. — un livre, une pièce de théâtre, to criticize, to review a book, a play.

ANALYSEUR, analizœr, sm. analyser. Locke, ce profond — de l'esprit humain, Locke, that profound analyser of the human mind.

ANALYSTE, analist', sm. analizer, analyst, one skilled in mathematical analysis.

ANALYTIQUE, analitik', adj. 1. analytic, analytical ; 2. sf. analytics. J'ai suivi la voie —, I have followed the analytical process (or method). Géométrie —, mécanique —, analytical geometry, analytical mechanics (in which algebra or the infinitesimal calculus is employed).

ANALYTIQUEMENT, analitik'mân-t, adv. analytically.

ANAMNÉSIE, anamnezy, [Gr. : ἀνάμνησις], sf. Pathol. anamnesis : the recallnig of things to the memory.

ANAMORPHOSE, anamôrfôz', [Gr. : ἀνά, back ; μορφή, form], sf. Perspect. and Bot. anamorphosis.

ANANAS, anana, [Peruvian origin], sm. 1. pine-apple, ananas : names of both plant and fruit ; 2. pine-strawberry. Serre à ananas, pinery.

ANANIE, anani, nm. Ananias.

ANANDRAIRE, anândrair, ANANDRE, anândr', [Gr. : ἀν, neg.; ἀνήρ, ἀνδρός, male], agj. Bot. anandrous.

ANANTHE, anânt', [Gr.: ἀν, neg; ἄνθος, flower], adj. Bot. anathous : without flowers.

ANAPESTE, anapèst', [Lat. : from Gr. : ἀνάπαιστος], sm. anapest : a foot of two short syllables and one long.

ANAPESTIQUE, anapèstik', adj. anapestic.

ANAPHONÈSE, anafonêz', [Gr. : ἀνά, up ; φωνή, voice], sf. Med. anaphonesis : exercise of the voice.

ANAPHORE, anafor', [Gr. : ἀνά, up ; φέρω, I bear], sf. Rhet. anaphora : repetition.

ANAPHRODISIAQUE, anafrodiziak', [Gr.: ἀν, neg ; aphrodisiaque], adj. and sm. Med. anaphrodisiac.

ANAPHRODISIE, anafrodizi, sf. Med. anaphrodisia.

ANAPHRODITE, anafrodit', [Gr. : ἀν, neg ; aphrodite], adj. Med. anaphroditic, impotent.

ANAPLASTIE, anaplasti, [Gr. : ἀνάπλασις ; ἀνά, again ; πλάσσειν, to form], sf. Surg. anaplastics.

ANAPLASTIQUE, anaplastik', adj. Surg. anaplastic.

ANAPLÉROTIQUE, anaplérotik', [Gr. : ἀνά, again ; πληροῦν, to fill], adj. Med. anaplerotic.

ANAPNÉOGRAPHE, anapneograf, [Gr. : ἀναπνοή, breathing ; γράφειν, to write], sm. anapnograph : instrument to measure and register the breathing movements.

ANARCHIE, anarshi, [Gr. : ἀν, neg. ; ἀρχή, government], sf. anarchy : absence of government ; confusion, disorder.

ANARCHIQUE, anarshik', adj. anarchical, anarchic. Etat —, a state of anarchy.

ANARCHISER, anarshizé-r, va. to anarchize : to throw into disorder, to disorganize.

ANARCHISTE, anarshist', sm. anarchist.

ANARCHISME, anarshism, sm. anarchism : the negation of government.

ANARRHIQUE, anarrik', sm. Ichth. anarrhichas, wolf-fish.

ANASARQUE, anazark', [Gr. : ἀνά, against ; σάρξ, flesh], sf. Med. anasarca : diffused dropsy.

ANASTATIQUE, anastatik', [Gr. : ἀναστατικός] sf. Bot. anastatica : rose of Jericho.

ANASTIGMAT, anastigna, sm. Phot. anastigmat.

ANASTOMOSE, anastomôz', [Gr. : ἀναστόμωσις ; ἀνά ; στόμα, mouth], sf. Anat. anastomosis : inosculation (as of veins, etc.).

ANASTOMOSER (S'), anastomosé-r, v. refl. Anat. to anastomose, to inosculate.

ANASTOMOTIQUE, anastomotik', adj. Anat. anastomotic.

ANASTROPHE, anastrof', [Gr. : ἀνά, back ; στρέφω, I turn], sf. Gram. anastrophe.

ANATHÉMATISER, anatématisé-r, va. 1. to anathematize : to declare accursed ; 2. to reprobate, to blame severely.

ANATHÉMATISME, anatématism, [Gr. :

ἀναθεματισμός], sm. anathematism, anathema.

ANATHÈME, anatèm, [Gr. : ἀνάθεμα], sm. 1. anathema : a) person or thing accursed and consigned to perdition, by ecclesiastical authority ; b) curse accompanying or following excommunication ; c) reprobation, blame, opprobrium, malediction (in a general sense). Frapper d'—, to declare accursed, to anathematize. Lancer un — contre, to launch an anathema against. Tout l'— des malheurs publics tombe sur vous seul, all the blame, the opprobrium of the public calamities falls on you alone.

2. adj. anathema : accursed. Qu'il soit — et un objet d'horreur, let him be anathema, let him be accursed, and an object of horror.

ANATIFE, anatif', [Lat. : anas, anatis, duck ; ferre, to bear], sm. Nat. His, barnacle anatifa.

ANATOCISME, anatosism, [Gr. : ἀνατοκισμός, the renewing of interests], sm. anatocism : compound interest.

ANATOMIE, anatomi, [Gr. : ἀνά, asunder ; τομή, cutting], sf. anatomy : a) the art of dissecting ; b) a skeleton ; c) analysis, examination. — descriptive, descriptive anatomy. — pathologique, médicale, chirurgicale, artificielle, pathological (or morbid) medical, surgical (or topographical), artificial anatomy. — comparée, comparative anatomy. L'— d'une plante, the anatomy of a plant. L'— d'un discours, the analysis of a speech.

ANATOMIQUE, anatomik', adj. anatomical.

ANATOMIQUEMENT, anatomik'mân-t, adv. anatomically.

ANATOMISER, anatomisé-r, va. to anatomize : a) to dissect (a dead body) ; b) to examine minutely ; c) to analyse (a book, etc.).

ANATOMISTE, anatomist', sm. anatomist.

ANATROPE, anatrop', [Gr. : ἀνά, again ; τρέπειν, to turn]. adj. Bot. anatropous.

ANCELOT, anselō, [Jacques], dramatist and essayist (1794-1854).

ANCESTRAL, ALE, ânsestral, adj. ancestral.

ANCÊTRE, ânsètr', [Lat. : antecessor], smf. ancestor, ancestress.

ANCÊTRES, ânsètr', sm. pl. ancestors : forefathers. Un de ses —, one of his ancestors, an ancestor of his. Homme qui compte une longue suite d'—, a man who counts a long line of ancestors, of ancestry.

ANCHE, ânsh', [O. H. Ger. : ancha, chin-bone], sf. 1. reed (of a clarinet, oboe, etc.) ; 2. reedpipe (of an organ). Jeu d'anches, reedstop (of an organ).

ANCHER, ânshé-r, va. to put a reed to (an instrument).

ANCHILOPS, ânkilops, [Gr. : ἄγχι, near ; ὤψ, eye], sm. Med. anchilops.

ANCHISE, ânshiz', pnm. Anchises.

ANCHOIS, ânshwâ, [Span. : anchoa], sm. Ichth. anchovy. Beurre d'—, anchovy paste.

ANCHOITÉ, E, ânshwâté', adj. cured, prepared anchovy-fashion.

ANCHUSE, ânkuz', sf. Bot. bugloss.

ANCIEN, NE, ânsyan, syen', [Lat. : ante, before], adj. 1. ancient : old, belonging to a remote past ; long existent, long known, not new.— palais, monument, ancien (or old) palace, monument. Anciennes coutumes, traditions, erreurs, ancient (or old) customs, traditions, errors. Histoire ancienne et moderne, ancient and modern history. Date plus ancienne, older (or more ancient) date. Les anciens Grecs, the ancient Greeks. Les langues anciennes, the ancient languages. Notre ancienne amitié, our old friendship. Les temps anciens, ancient, old (or olden) times ; days of yore.

2. old : not new, belonging to the past. L'Ancien et le Nouveau Testament, the Old and the New Testament. L'ancienne alliance, the Old Covenent (the Mosaic Dispensation, opposed to la nouvelle alliance, the New Covenant, the Gospel Dispensation). Elles savent tous les Noëls anciens et nouveaux, they know all the Christmas carols, old and new. Une invention ancienne, an old invention. [In scripture lang. : l'— homme, the old man, unregenerated man.]

3. old : former, late (in speaking of retired officials, professional man or tradesmen). Un — préfet, an old prefect, an ex-prefect. L'— maire et son successeur, the ex-mayor (or the late mayor) and his successor. L'— président, the former, the late president. Mon — maître, my old master. Un — épicier, a retired grocer. Un — ami, an old friend, a former friend : a person with whom we have ceased to be intimate. Un ami —, an old friend, a friend of long-standing : one with whom we have long been, and still are, intimate.

4. old-looking, old-fashioned. Elle est grande avec une figure longue et ancienne, she is tall with a long old-fashioned face.

ANCIEN, NE, sm. f. 1. ancient : one who lived long since ; 2. elder : an aged person, used as a title of dignity in some nations and in certain religious bodies ; 3. senior : in speaking of functionaries or officers ; 4. (in colloq. lang.) old fellow, old boy ; 5. in pop. lang. the Old One, the devil. Les anciens étaient persuadés, the ancients were persuaded. Un — a dit, an ancient (or an ancient writer) has said. Nous devons respect à nos anciens, we owe respect to our elders. Les anciens du canton, the elders of the canton. Les anciens du peuple d'Israël, the elders of the people of Israel. A l'armée, à grade égal, le plus — commande, in the army, among officers of equal rank, the senior (he whose commission bears the earliest date) takes the command. Le conseil des anciens, the council of the ancients (under the French republican constitution of the year III, 1795-96). Comment cela va-t-il, mon — ? how are you, old boy, old fellow ?

ANCIENNEMENT, ânsyén'mân-t, adv. anciently, of old, formerly, in the days of yore.

ANCIENNETÉ, ânsyèn'té, sf. 1. ancientness ; anciency [little used] ; 2. ancientry (of families) ; 3. seniority : older date of reception into a body, or of appointment to office ; 4. antiquity. L'— d'une famille, the ancientness of a family. Ils ont rang selon leur —, they rank according to seniority (of reception or appointment, not of age). Par —, by seniority. De toute —, from all antiquity, from time immemorial.

ANCILE, ânsil', [Lat.], sm. Rom. Antiq. ancile : the shield of Mars supposed to have fallen from heaven.

ANCILLAIRE, ânsilair [Lat. : ancilla, maid-servant], ancillary, subservient, subordinate (with to).

ANCIPITÉ, E, ânsipité, [Lat. : anceps, ancipitis, two-edged], adj. Bot. ancipital, ancipitous : two-edged.

ANCOLIE, ânkoli, [Lat. : aquilegia], sf. Bot. columbine : Aquilegia vulgaris.

ANCONE, ânkôn', pn. Ancona.

ANCÔNE, E, ânkoné, [Gr.: ἀγκών, elbow], adj. 1. anconal ; 2. sm. anconal muscle.

ANCRAGE, ânkrazh', sm. Naut. anchorage, anchoring-ground.

ANCRE, ânkr', [Low Lat. : ancora], sf. 1. Naut. anchor : fig. anything that gives security ; 2. Arch. brace ; 3. grapnel (of an air-balloon) ; 4. Horol. crutch, anchor (of a clock) ; lever, detached lever (of a watch). — de poste, bower-anchor, bower. — de veille, spare or waist anchor. Maîtresse —, grande —, (formerly — de Miséricorde), sheet anchor. — d'affourche, small bower anchor. — de flot, de jusant, de terre, du large, flood, ebb, shore, sea anchor (so called from the direction in which they are cast). — borgne, anchor with only one arm (or blade). — à jet, de touée, stream anchor, kedge. — de cape or — flottante, floating anchor. Jeter, mouiller l'—, to cast anchor, to anchor. Lever l'—, to weigh anchor. Brider l'—, to shoe anchor. Chasser sur ses ancres, to drag one's anchors. Etre à l'—, to lie, to ride at anchor. Fatiguer à l'—, to ride hard at anchor. Fig. : C'était mon — de salut, it was my sheet anchor (last hope or resource). Une dernière —, a last shift. Echappement à —, anchor or crutch escapement (of a clock), detached lever (of a watch).

ANCRÉ, E, ânkré, pa. p. 1. anchored ; Fig. firmly established, fixed ; 2. Mason. braced. Vaisseau bien —, ship well-anchored. Pierres ancrées de fer, stones joggled (joined together) with iron. La vanité est si ancrée dans le cœur de l'homme, vanity is so firmly fixed, so deeply rooted in the human heart. Pascal. Pensées, Part. I. 5.

ANCRER, ânkré-r, vn. 1. to cast anchor, to anchor.

2. to fix, to establish, to take root in ; 3. to brace (walls).

ANCRER (s'), v. refl. to anchor one's self : to fix, to establish, to install one's self, to get a firm footing.

ANCRURE, ânkrur', [ancrer], sf. 1. clamp of iron fixed between the stones of a building to hold them fast ; 2. Technol. crease in cloth) ; 3. S-iron, T-iron (at the end of a tie-rod, used to keep walls from bulging).

ANCYLE, ânsile, [Gr. : ἀγκύλος, bent], sm. Ichth. ancylus : sort of freshwater snail.

ANDAIN, ândan, [Ital. : andare, to walk], sm. swath (in mowing).

ANDALOU, ândalou sm Andalusian horse.

ANDALOUS, OUSE, ândalou, ouz', ANDALOUSIEN, ENNE, ândalouzyan, èn', adj. and s. Andalusian.

ANDALOUSIE, ândalouzi, sf. Geogr. Andalusia.

ANDANTE, ândânté ou ândânt. [Ital.], adv. and sm. andante.

ANDELLE, ândèl', sm. Andelle beech : the best kind of firewood brought to Paris.

ANDOUILLE, ândouy', [Low Lat. s. inductilis, pudding, from inducĕre, to bring into], sf. 1. chitterling stuffed with hashed meat ; 2. roll, twist (of tobacco-leaves) ; 3. Slang. muff. Faire l'—, to play the fool. S'en aller en brouet d'—. to come to nothing. Vêtu comme une —, well muffled up.

ANDOUILLER, ândouyé, [Lat. : ante, before ; French : œil, eye], sm. antler (of a stag, etc.).

ANDOUILLETTE, ândouyèt', [andouille], sf. veal force-meat in the form of a sausage, forced-meat ball.

ANDRÉ, ândré, pnm. Andrew.

ANDRIEUX, ândriœ (François), poet (1759-1833).

ANDRINOPLE, ândrinopl', pn. 1. Adrianople; 2. Rouge d'—, Turkey red.

ANDROGÉNIE, ândrozhiny, [Gr. : ἀνήρ, ἀνδρός, man ; γένος, race],sf. androgyny: succession of male to male.

ANDROGYNE, ândrozhin', [Gr. : ἀνήρ, ἀνδρός,man, male ; γυνή, woman, female], sm. 1. androgyne, androgynus, hermaphrodite ; 2. adj. Anat. and Bot. androgynous.

ANDROÏDE,ândroïd',[Gr.:ἀνήρ, ἀνδρός, man ; εἶδος, form], sm. android : an automaton in the form of a man.

ANDROMAQUE, ândromak', pnf. Andromache.

ANDROMÈDE, ândromèd', sf. An-dromeda : a) Myth. the daughter of king Cepheus ; b) Astron. a northern constellation.

ANDROPHOBE, ândrofôbe, [Gr. : ἀνήρ, ἀνδρός, man, φόβος, fear], sm. and adj. misanthrope.

ANDROPHOBIE, ândrofoby, sf. misanthropy : aversion to men.

ANDROPHORE, ândrofor', [Gr. : ἀνήρ, ἀνδρός, man ; φορός, which bears], sm. Bot. androphorum.

ANDROPOGON, ândropogôn, [Gr.: ἀνήρ, ἀνδρός,man ; πώγων, beard], sm. Bot. andropogon, lemon-grass.

ANE, ân', [Lat. : asinus ; O. Fr. : asne], sm. ass, jack-ass, donkey : Fig. dolt, stupid fellow, blockhead. Têtu comme un — as obstinate (or stubborn) as an ass, a donkey. C'est un — bâté, he is a very stupid, ignorant fellow. Bonnet d'—, fool's cap. Oreilles d'—, ass's ears. Dos d'—, ass's back, a steep ridge. Pont en dos d'—, an ogival bridge (with a steep descent from the middle to each end). Une promenade à l'—, a donkey-ride. Pont aux ânes, pons asinorum : a very easy problem. C'est le pont aux ânes, every fool knows that. Tête d'—, 1. ass's head ; 2. Ichth. miller's-thumb, bull-head. Sérieux comme un — qu'on étrille, as serious as a judge. C'est l'— revêtu de la peau du lion, it is the daw in peacock's feathers. Il cherche son —, il est dessus, he is looking for his knife and it is in his hand. Il fait l'— pour avoir du son, he affects simplicity to get what he wants. Il y a plus d'un — à la foire qui s'appelle Martin, there's more than one jack at the fair. Le plus — des trois n'est pas celui qu'on pense, the greatest fool of the three is not the one that is supposed. La Font. Fab., XI, 3. Prov. : Faute d'un point, Martin perdit son âne, a miss is as good as a mile. C'est brider son âne par la queue, it is putting the cart before the horse ; it is going against the grain. Un âne ne trébuche pas deux fois sur la même pierre, it is a silly fish that is caught twice with the same bait. On ne peut faire boire un âne s'il n'a pas soif, a man may lead his horse to the water, but twenty cannot make him drink. A laver la tête d'un âne, on perd sa lessive, there is no washing a blackamoor white.

ANÉANTIR, anéântir, [à ; néant], va. 1. to annihilate, to ruin, to crush ; 2. to annul (a document); 3. to suppress, to abolish (privileges, etc.). Les barbares ont anéanti l'empire romain, the barbarians destroyed the Roman empire. Le feu a tout anéanti, the fire has destroyed everything. L'homme ne peut pas plus créer qu'—, man can no more create than he can utterly destroy. De Bonald.

4. to prostrate, to paralyse ; to be thunderstruck, to dumbfound. J'ai vu des femmes que la crainte de la douleur anéantissait, I have seen women whom the fear of pain would paralyse (or prostrate).

ANÉANTIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to be annihilated, destroyed ; to come to nothing; 2. to prostrate one's self, to humble one's self. Comment se sont anéantis tant de travaux ? how have so many great works got effaced ? Volney.

ANÉANTISSEMENT, anéântis-mân-t, sm. 1. annihilation : reducing to nothing, destruction, ruin ; 2. abolition, suppression (of privileges, etc.) ; 3. self-humiliation, self-abasement ; 4. prostration (of body or mind).

ANECDOTE, anèkdot', [Gr. : ἀνέκδοτος, not published], sf. anecdote.

ANECDOTIER, anèkdotyé, sm. anecdotist : relater of anecdotes.

ANECDOTIQUE, anèkdotik', adj. anecdotival, anecdotic. Pièce —, a dramatized anecdote. Histoire —, history in anecdotes.

ANECDOTISER, anèkdotizé-r, va. To relate in anecdotes, to collect anecdotes.

ÂNÉE, âné, sf. ass load.

ANÉLECTRIQUE, anélèktrik', [Gr. : ἀν, neg. ; electric], adj. anelectrical : said of substances in which electricity may be developed but cannot be retained.

ANÉMIE, anémi, [Gr. : ἀν, neg. ; αἷμα, blood], sf. Med. anæmia : deficiency of red corpuscles in the blood, poorness of blood.

ANÉMIQUE, anémik', adj. affected with anæmia.

ANÉMIQUE, smf. person affected with anæmia.

ANÉMOGRAPHE, anémograf, [Gr.] sm. anemograph : an instrument for measuring and recording the direction and force of the wind.

ANÉMOGRAPHIE, anémografi, [Gr. : ἄνεμος, wind; γραφή, description], sf. anemography.

ANÉMOMÈTRE, anémomètr' [Gr. : ἄνεμος, wind ; μέτρον, measure], sm. anemometer : an instrument to measure the strength and velocity of the wind.

ANÉMONE, anémon', [Gr. : ἄνεμος, wind], sf. 1. Bot. anemone : wind-flower. — des fleuristes, garden anemone. — pulsatille, anemone pulsatilla, pasque-flower —. hépatique, noble liverwort, anemone hepatica. Greffe, patte d'—, anemone bulb or root.

2. Zool. — de mer, sea anemone, actinia.

ANÉMOSCOPE, anémoskop', [Gr. : ἄνεμος, wind ; σκοπεῖν, to examine], sm. anemoscope : weather-cock, wind-vane, with a dial to mark the direction of the wind.

ANENCÉPHALE, anânséfal', [Gr. : ἀν, neg. ; ἐγκέφαλον], 1. adj. anencephalous : said of a fœtus born without a brain ; 2. sm. anencephalus.

ÂNERIE, ân'ri, [âne], sf. 1. gross stupidity, gross ignorance ; 2. gross blunder, piece of gross stupidity. Dire des âneries, to say foolish things ; Fam. to make an ass of one's self.

ANÉROÏDE, anéroid, [Gr. : ἀν, neg. : νηρός, wet], adj. aneroid. V. BAROMÈTRE.

ÂNESSE, ânès', sf. she-ass, she-donkey. Lait d'—, ass's milk.

ANESTHÉSIE, anèstézi, [Gr. : ἀν, neg. : αἴσθησις, sensibility], sf. Med. anæsthesia, anæsthesis : loss of feeling.

ANESTHÉSIQUE, anèstézik', adj. Med. anstæhetic.

ANETH, ané, sm. Bot. dill, anethum. — odorant, common dill, anethum graveolens.

ANÈTHOL, anètol, sm. anethol : essence of anise solidified.

ANEVRISMAL, anévrismal, al', adj. Med. aneurismal.

ANÉVRISME, anévrism', [Gr. : ἀνεύρυσμα dilatatkon], sm. Med. aneurism. — vrai, true aneurism. — du cœur, aneurism of the heart.

ANÉVRISMATIQUE, anévrismatik', adj. Med. aneurismal.

ANFRACTUEUX, EUSE, ânfraktuœ, œz', adj. anfractuous.

ANFRACTUOSITÉ, ânfraktuôzité, [Lat. : anfructus, anfructuosus], sf. anfractuosity : a) sinuosity, cavity ; b) Anat. sinuous depression.

ANGARIE, angary, [Gr. : ἀγγαρία, constraint], sf. Naut. exaction of service of ships in time of war.

ANGE, ânzh, [Gr.: ἄγγελος, messenger], sm. 1. angel a) a spiritual being ; b) a very pious person ; c) a charming woman ; 2. Artill. chain-shot ; 3. Ichth. angel-fish. — exterminateur, destroying angel. — déchu, fallen angel. — gardien, guardian angel. Cette femme est un — de piété, that woman is an angel for piety. Avant le mariage anges si gracieux, before marriage such charming angels. Être aux anges, to be in raptures, to be in high glee. Rire aux anges, 1. to laugh heartily ; 2. (in an ill sense) to laugh without knowing why. Lit d'anges, bedstead with a canopy. Manches d'anges, very wide sleeves reaching only to the elbow. La voix d'un —, the voice of an angel. Chanter comme un —, to sing like an angel.

ANGÈLE, ânzhèl', pnf. Angela.

ANGÉLIQUE, ânzhélik', adj. angelical, angelic : a) of or belonging to angels ; b) perfect. Les chœurs angéliques, the angelic choirs. Résignation, beauté —, angelic resignation, beauty. Le docteur —, the angelical doctor, St. Thomas Aquinas.

ANGÉLIQUE, sf. Bot. angelica, archangelica officinalis. — confite, candied angelica.

ANGELIQUE, pnf. Angelica.

ANGÉLIQUEMENT, ânzhélik'mân-t, adv. angelically, like an angel.

ANGÉLOLATRIE, ânzhélolatry, [Gr. : ἄγγελος, angel ; λατρεία, worship), sf. angelolatry : angel-worship.

ANGELOT, ânzhœlo, sm. 1. angel : a gold coin issued under Louis IX. ; 2. angelot : a kind of cheese made in Normandy ; 3. Ichth. angel-fish.

ANGÉLUS, ânzhélus, sm. 1. angelus ; Rom. Cath. Lit., a prayer beginning with the word angelus ; 2. angelus bell (rung three times a day). Sonner l'—, to ring the angelus.

ANGINE, ânzhin', [Lat. : angina], sf. Med. angina. — tonsilaire, quinsy, amygdalitis. — couenneuse, pseudo-membraneuse, croup. — diphtéritique, diphtheria, diphtheritis. — maligne ou gangréneuse, malignant sore-throat. — de poitrine, breast-pang ; heart-stroke, angina pectoris.

ANGINEUX, EUSE, ânzhinœ, œz', adj. Med. anginal, anginose.

ANGIOCARPE,ânzhiocarp',[Gr.:ἀγγεῖον, case ; καρπός, fruit],adj. Bot. angiocarpous.

ANGIOGRAPHIE, ênzhiografi, [Gr. : ἀγγεῖον,case; γράφω, I describe], sf. Ana. angiography.

ANGIOLOGIE, ânzhiolozhi, [Gr. : ἀγγεῖον, vessel ; λόγος, speech], sf. Anat. angiology.

ANGIOSPERME, ânzhiospèrm', [Gr. : ἀγγεῖον, vase ; σπέρμα, seed], adj. Bot. angiospermous.

ANGIOSPERMIE, ânzhiospèrmi, sf. Bot. angiosperms : a class of plants having their seeds inclosed in a distinct pericarp.

ANGLAIS, E, ânglé, èz, [Angle, name of a Germanic people], adj. English, British. La langue anglaise, the English language.

ANGLAIS, sm. 1. Englishman, English-boy ; 2. English language ; 3. an English horse ; 4. Slang. dummy : with drapers, etc., a sham package to imitate rolls of cloth, etc. Il montait un bel —, he rode a handsome English horse.

ANGLAISE, sf. 1. English woman, girl or lady ; 2. anglaise : a dance ; 3. a kind of binding used in upholstery ; 4. running hand (in writing) ; 5. ringlet : long loose curl. A l'—, in the English fashion or style. Filer à l'—, Fam. to give the slip, to take French leave. Porter des anglaises, to wear curls.

ANGLAISER, ânglèzé-r, va. to nick (a horse) : to sever the depriment muscles of the tail.

ANGLE, ângl', [Lat. : angulus], sm. 1. Geom. angle ; 2. corner : the point where two lines meet ; 3. bend, turn, elbow (in a river, street, etc.). L'— d'incidence est égal à l'— de réflexion, the angle of incidence is equal to the angle of reflection. — optique ou visuel, optival or visual angle. — facial, facial angle. — droit, aigu, obtus, right, acute, obtuse angle. — sphérique, spherical angle. Abattez les angles de cette planche, cut off the corners of that plank. La maison se trouve à l'— de cette rue, the house stands at the corner of that street.

ANGLER, ânglé-r, va. Technol. to shape to an angle.

ANGLET, ânglé, sm. Mason. channel, splay (in rusticated work).

ANGLETERRE, ângl'tèr', sf. England. Dentelle de point d'—, English point lace.

ANGLEUX, EUSE, ângloe, œz', adj. lobed, wrinkled : many-cornered, as the kernel of a walnut.

ANGLICAN, E, ânglikân, an', adj. 1. Anglican : chiefly said of the established Church of England ; 2. smf. Anglican : a member of the Church of England. L'Église anglicane, the Church of England.

ANGLICANISME, ânglikanism', sm. anglicanism : doctrine of the Church of England.

ANGLICISER ânglisizé-r, va. to anglicize : to give an English form to (words).

ANGLICISME, ânglicism,' sm. anglicism.

ANGLO-AMÉRICAIN, E, ânglo-amérikan, èn', adj. and s. Anglo-American.

ANGLO-DANOIS, ânglo-danwâ, adj. 1. Anglo-Danish ; 2. smf. Anglo-Dane.

ANGLO-FRANCAIS, E, ânglo-frânsé, èz', adj. and s. Anglo-French.

ANGLOIS, ânglwâ, sm. a kind of plum tart.

ANGLOMANE, ângloman', adj. 1. madly fond of English fashions, etc., English-mad ; 2. smf. anglomaniac : person prejudiced in favour of everything English.

ANGLOMANIE, ânglomani, [anglo ; Gr. : μανία], sf. anglomania.

ANGLOPHOBE, ânglofob', adj. 1. holding the English in hatred , 2. smf. anglophobist.

ANGLOPHOBIE, ânglofobi, [anglo ; Gr. : φόβος, hatred], sf. anglophobia : hatred of the English.

ANGLO-SAXON, ONNE, ânglosaksôn, on', adj. and smf. Anglo-Saxon.

ANGOISSE, ângwâs', [Lat. : angustia, strait ; Low-Breton, angou, narrow], sf. 1. anguish : pang, agony, violent pain (of body or mind) ; 2. spasm. Ce malade éprouve des angoisses très douloureuses, this patient experiences most painful spasms. Poire d'—, 1. choke-pear : a hard unpalatable fruit ; Fig. anything extremely disagreeable ; 2. an iron gag. Avaler des poires d'—, to undergo extreme mortifications. Faire avaler des poires d'—, to give a bitter pill to swallow. Les angoisses du remords, the anguish of remorse. Bossuet.

ANGOISSER, ângwâsé-r, va. to anguish : to put to great pain.

ANGON, ângôn, sm. 1. javelin, short pike (used by the old Franks), 2. Fish. lobster-hook.

ANGORA, ângora, s. Geog. 1. Angora : a town of Asia Minor ; 2. adj. Angora : of or from Angora. Chat —, or simply un —, an Angora cat.

ANGOUMOIS, ângoumwâ, nm. 1. Angoumois : a province of France ; 2. angoumois : a subacid species of apricot.

ANGROIS, ângrwâ, sm. wedge for a hammer-head.

ANGUICHURE, ânghuishur, sf. Hutn. huntsman's horn-belt.

ANGUIFORME, ânguiform', [Lat. : anguis, snake ; forme], adj. anguilliform : in the form of a snake.

ANGUILLADE, ânghiyad', [anguille), sm. cut, lash, lashing (with an eelskin, a whip, or rope's end).

ANGUILLE, ânghiy', [Lat. : anguilla, a small snake], sf. 1. Ichth. eel ; 2. Artill. groove-board ; 3. Naut. pl. bilge-ways, launching-ways. — argentée, silver eel. — commune, common eel. — long-bec, sharp-nosed eel. — plat-bec, the grig. — de mer, conger-eel, conger. — de sable, sand-eel. — de Surinam or torpille, the electrical eel. Échapper comme une —, to be as slippery as an eel. Il ressemble à l'— de Melun ; il crie avant qu'on l'écorche, he cries out before he is hurt. Il y a quelque — sous roche, there is a snake in the grass, some secret manœuvring on foot. Nœud d'—, slipknot. Il veut rompre l'— au genou, he is trying to do impossibilities. Prov. : Pour trop presser l'— on la perd, grasp all, lose all.

ANGUILLER, ânghiyé, sm. Naut. limber-hole.

ANGUILLÈRE, ânghièr, sf. 1. eel-basket (for catching eels) ; 2. eel-pond.

ANGULAIRE, ângulèr', [angle], adj. angular. Figure —, angular figure. Mouvement —, Mech. angular motion. Vitesse —, angular velocity. Pierre —, corner-stone. Dent —, corner-tooth, canine tooth.

ANGULAIREMENT, ângulèr'mân-t, adv. angularly.

ANGULÉ, E, ângulé, adj. Bot. angulate, angulated.

ANGULEUX, EUSE, ânguloe, œz', adj. 1. angular : having many angles or corners ; 2. rough, rugged. Visage —, angular features, harsh features, strongly marked features, hatchet face.

ANGUSTICLAVE, ângustiklav', [Lat. : angustus, narrow ; clavus, knot in form of a nail], sm. angusticlave : robe of the ancient Roman knights.

ANGUSTIE, ângusti', [Lat. : angustus, narrow], sf. Med. stricture.

ANGUSTIFOLIÉ, E, ângustifolié, [Lat. : angustus, narrow ; folium, leaf], adj. Bot. angustifoliate, angustifolious : narrow-leaved.

ANGUSTURE, ângustur', [Angustura, a town in South America], sf. Mat., Med. angostura bark. Fausse —, false angostura bark : the bark of the strychnos nux vomica.

ANHÉLATION, anélâsyôn, sf. Med. anhelation : short-breathing.

ANHÉLER, anelé-r [Lat. : anhelāre], vn. to breathe with difficulty.

ANHÉLEUX, EUSE, anéloe, œz', adj. Med. anhelose : panting.

ANHYDRE, anidr', [Gr. : ἀν, neg. ; ὕδωρ, water], adj. Chem. anhydrous. Chaux —, quick lime.

ANHYDRITE, anidrit, sf. Geol. anhydrite.

ANICROCHE, anikrosh', [croche], sf. impediment, obstacle, hinderance ; Colloq. hitch, a screw loose. Pourvu qu'il ne survienne pas d'anicroches, provided we meet with no obstacle.

ÂNIER, ÈRE, ânièr', smf. ass-driver, donkey-driver.

ANIL, anil, [Port., indigo], sm. Bot. anil : indigofera anil.

ANILINE, anilin', sf. Chem. aniline.

ANIMADVERSION, animadvèrsyôn, [Lat. : animadversio ; anima, soul ; ad, against : vertĕre, to turn], sf. animadversion : censure, blame.

ANIMAL, animal, [Lat. : animal, from anima, life], sm. (pl. Animaux). 1. animal L'homme est un — raisonnable, man is a reasoning, a rational animal, an animal endowed with reason. L'homme sait dominer sur tous les animaux, man has dominion over all animals, over the whole brute creation. — domestique, tame, domestic animal. Animaux sauvages, wild animals.

2. (in an ill sense) animal, creature ; stupid fellow, blockhead, dolt, boor, lout. Quel —, what an animal, what a stupid fellow ! C'est un assez mal plaisant —, he is a rather disagreeable creature. Un sot —, a foolish creature. Un vilain —, a beastly fellow.

ANIMAL, E, animal, al', adj. animal : a) belonging to animals ; b) sensual : opposed to intellectual, spiritual, or rational. Vie animale, animal life. Règne —, animal kingdom. Chimie animale, animal chemistry Nourriture animale, animal food (flesh meat). Noir —, animal charcoal, bone black. Personnes qui ont les esprits animaux fort agités persons whose animal spirits are very lively. Malebr. Recher. de la Vérité II. I, I.

ANIMALCULE, animalkul', [Lat. : animalculum, pl. animalcula], sm. animalcule. Les animalcules des madrépores, the animalcules (or animalcula) of the madrepores.

ANIMALCULISME, animalkulism', sm. animalculism, spermatism.

ANIMALCULISTE, animalkulist', sm. animalculist.

ANIMALIER, animalyé, ANIMALISTE, animalist', sm. painter (or sculptor) of animals.

ANIMALISABLE, animalizabl', adj. animalizable.

ANIMALISATION, animalizâsyôn, sf. animalization.

ANIMALISER, animalizé-r, va. to animalize : to convert into animal substance. La digestion et la respiration animalisent les aliments, digestion and respiration animalize food.

ANIMALISER(s'), v. refl. to be animalized (assimilated to the substance of an animal).

ANIMALITÉ, animalité, sf. 1. animality : animal nature as opposed to human nature ; 2. the animal kingdom. L'— des éponges est douteuse, the animality (the animal nature) of sponge is doubtful.

ANIMATEUR, TRICE, animatœr, tris, adj. animating, animative : life-giving. Principe —, the animating principe.

ANIMATION, animasyôn, in poet. siôn, sf. 1. animation : a) the state of being animated; b) liveliness, life, spirit; c) ardour, vigour; d) activity, bustle; 2. Med. quickening (of the fœtus).

ANIMÉ, E, animé, pa. p. and adj. 1. animated : a) endowed with life, quickened, vivified; b) inspirited, inspired, excited, stimulated; c) lively, sprightly, spirited, vivid, busy, stirring, bustling. Corps animés, animated bodies. Chaque particule de matière organique contient des milliers d'atomes animés, every particle of organic matter contains thousands of animated atoms. Le corps est — par l'âme, the body is animated (quickened, vivified) by the soul. Ce missionnaire est — d'un saint zèle, that missionary is animated (inspired, actuated) by a holy zeal. — de sentiments bienveillants, animated with (actuated, under the influence of) kindly feelings. — par le succès, inspirited, encouraged by success. Discours —, an animated speech. Débat —, an animated (warm, spirited) debate. Description animée, animated, lively, vivid description. Scène animée, an animated (busy, stiring) scene. Rue animée, busy street. Ville animée, busy, bustling town.

2. angry, incensed, exasperated. Il paraissait — et parlait avec chaleur, he appeared angry and spoke with warmth. Je me sentais — à chaque instant, I felt more incensed every moment. Il était — contre son frère, he was incensed against his brother.

3. high, heightened [as the colour of the complexion when under emotion]; bright. Son teint — par l'émotion, his colour heightened by his emotion. Ses yeux animés, her bright eyes.

4. eager (for), bent (on). — au carnage, à l'étude, eager for bloodshed, bent on study.

5. (in the Fine Arts) life-like. Ce marbre, ce bronze semble —, this marble, this bronze looks life-like, seems to be endowed with life.

6. Herald. animé : said of the horse when represented in action, or of a horse's head when the eyes are borne of a different colour from the head itself.

7. impelled, driven. Un projectile — d'une grande force, a projectile impelled with great force.

ANIMÉ, animé, sm. Pharm. anime or animi, gum animi : a resin procured from the hymenæa courbaril.

ANIMER, animé-r, [Lat. : anima, life], va. 1. to animate : a) to endow with life, to quicken, to vivify; b) to enliven, to give animation or life to; c) to fill with ardour, to encourage, to stimulate; d) to inspire. Le principe qui anime tous les corps vivants, the principle which animates all living bodies. Le soleil anime tout par sa chaleur, the sun vivifies, quickens all nature with his heat. Jadis une multitude vivante animait cette enceinte, formerly a living multitude animated (enlivened, gave animation to) this spot. — la conversation, to enliven conversation. — un discours, to enliven (to give life, animation, spirit to) a speech. Une même passion anime tous les cœurs, one and the same passion animates, actuates every heart. César animait ses soldats par son exemple, Cæsar animated, encouraged, stimulated, inspirited his soldiers by his own example. — quelqu'un de son esprit, to inspir a person with one's own sentiments.

2. (in an ill sense) to incense, to irritate, to excite, to incite, to exasperate, to stir up. Il anima le peuple contre la noblesse, he stirred up the people against the nobility. — les passions, to excite the passions.

3. to impart colour, brightness, vivacity, life. — le teint, to heighten the colour, the complexion. — les yeux, to impart brightness, animation to the eyes.

4. to propel, to impel. La force qui anime le boulet, the force which impels the cannon-ball.

5. (in the Fine Arts) to render life-like, to give life or animation to. C'est un sculpteur qui anime ses figures, he is a sculptor who gives life to his figures, who makes his figures life-like.

6. to brisk up (a horse); 7. to stimulate, to keep open (a blister); 8. to quicken (a step, in dancing).

ANIMER (s'), v. refl. 1. to become (get or grow) animated; 2. to cheer up, to take courage, to be encouraged; 3. to get (or grow) warm; 4. to be incensed (or exasperated), to chafe; 5. Paint. to become life-like, to assume the appearance of real life. Ses traits se sont animés, his features became animated. La nature s'anime sous son pinceau, nature starts into life under his pencil. Il s'est animé contre moi, he got much excited against me.

ANIMISME, animism', sm. Med. animism.

ANIMISTE, animist', sm. animist.

ANIMOSITÉ, animôzit,é [Lat. : animositas], sf. animosity : a) violent enmity; b) passion, heat. Agir par —, avec —, to act from (or with or out of) animosity. Avoir de l'— contre, to feel animosity towards (or against).

ANIS, ani-z, [Gr. : ἄνισον], sm. 1. anise, pimpinella anisum; 2. aniseed comfits. Graine d'—, aniseseed, aniseed. — étoilé, star aniseed.

ANISER, anizé-r, va. to flavour with aniseed.

ANISETTE, anizèt', sf. anisette : a cordial flavoured with aniseed.

ANKYLOSE, ânkilôz', [Gr. : ἀγκύλωσις], sf. Surg. ankylosis. Vrai —, complete, bony, or true ankylosis. — fausse, incomplete, spurious, or false ankylosis.

ANKYLOSER, ânkilozé-r, va. Surg. to ankylose : to make stiff. Genou ankylosé, stiff, ankylosed knee.

ANKYLOSER (s'), v. refl. to become ankylosed, to grow stiff (as a joint).

ANNAL, E, annal, al', [Lat. : annalis, annual], adj. (pl. m. annaux) yearly, for a year. Location annale, yearly letting.

ANNALES, annal, [Lat. : pl. of annalis; annus, year], sf. pl. annals.

ANNALISTE, annalist', sm. annalist.

ANNAMITE, annamit, s. and adj. Annamite : native of Annam.

ANNATE, annat', [Low Lat. : annata; annus, year], sf. annals pl. the first year's income of a bishopric or living formerly paid to the pope.

ANNEAU, anô, [Lat. : annellus, ring], sm. 1. ring; 2. link (of a chain); 3. bow (of a key, or of a watch); 4. curl, ringlet, curly look (of hair); 5. coil (of a serpent) — brisé, split-ring (for keys, etc.) — nuptial, wedding ring. — pastoral, pastoral (or bishop's) ring. — du pêcheur, the Fisherman's ring (used for sealing papal bulls). Anneaux de Saturne, Saturn's rings. — ombilical, Anat. umbilical ring. — astronomique, astronomical ring (formerly used in taking the sun's or moon's altitude). — solaire (or horaire), ring-dial. Greffe en —, flute-grafting.

ANNÉE, ané, [Lat. : annus], sf. 1. year; period or the earth's revolution in its orbit; Colloq. twelvemonth. Les quatre saisons de l'—, the four seasons of the year. — bissextile, bissextile, leap-year. — civile, civil year. — julienne, grégorienne, Julian year, Gregorian year. —, solaire ou tropique, solar or tropical year. — républicaine, year of the French republic (beginning at the autumnal equinox). — scolaire ou scolastique, school year, academic year. — pluvieuse, chaude, sèche, wet (or rainy), year, hot, dry year. — abondante, abundant year. — de disette, year of scarcity. Bonne, mauvaise —, good, bad year (with regard to crops). — commune ou moyenne, average year, on an average of years. Une — dans l'autre, one year with another. L'— prochaine, l'— qui vient, next year. L'— suivante, the next year, the following year. D'— en —, from year to year. L'— qui court, the present year. Il y a bien des années que nous ne nous sommes vus, it is many years since we saw each other. A l'—, by the year. Plein d'années, full of years, well stricken in years, of (or at) a ripe old age. Perdre les plus belles années de sa vie, to lose the best years of one's life. Dans ses dernières années, in the latter part of his life. Je vous souhaite la bonne —, I wish you a happy new year.

2. yearly income or pension, rent (of a house, etc.). Je suis d'une — en retard, I am a year's income in arrears, I am a year behindhand. Son locataire lui doit trois années, his tenant is three years' rent behindhand, in arrear.

3. year : period of any planet's revolution. L'— de Jupiter est près de douze fois plus longue que la nôtre, Jupiter's year is nearly twelve times the length of ours.

Syn. AN. ANNÉE. — These two words have generally the same meaning, but nevertheless cannot be used indifferently. An is preceded by an adjective only in a few stereotyped phrases which we have given. (V. AN.), and is chiefly used in dates and calculations. In the following sentences An cannot be substitued for Année : Une belle année, une mauvaise année, une année abondante. La première année, la seconde année, J'ai reçu une année de mon revenu.

ANNELÉ, E, an'lé, pa. p 1. annulated 2. curled, curly (as hair); 3. Zool. and Bot. annulate, annulated, ring-streaked; 4. sm. pl. Les annelés, annelides, earthworms. Colonne annelée, annulated column.

ANNELER, an'lé-r, va. [J'annelle, j'annelais, j'annelai, j'annellerai; annelant.] 1. to curl (hair); 2. Agr. to ring (pigs).

ANNELET, an'lè, sm. annulet : a) Arch. flat moulding, fillet; b) Herald. small ring.

ANNÉLIDES, anélid', sm. pl. Zool. annelida, annelides : earthworms.

ANNELURE, anœlur', sf. curling (of hair).

ANNEXATION, anèksâsyôn, sf. anexation.

ANNEXE, anèks', [Lat. : ad, to; nectère, to tie], sf. 1. annex, annexation : anything annexed; 2. district-church, chapel of ease (dependent on a parish church); 3. rider, schedule, voucher (annexed to a report, etc.); 4. dependency, appurtenance (of an estate).

ANNEXER, anèksé-r, va. to annex.

ANNEXER (s'), v. refl. to be annexed.

ANNEXION, anèksyôn, sf. annexation, annexment : the act of annexing.

ANNEXIONNISTE, anèksyonist, adj. 1. annexionist : tending to or favouring annexation; 2. s. annexionist : partisan of annexation.

ANNIHILATION, anniilâsyôn, [annihiler], sf. annihilation, annulment.

ANNIHILATIONNISME, anniilâsyonism, sm. annihilationism : the belief that the soul dies with the body.

ANNIHILER, anniilé-r, [Lat. : annihilāre; ad, to; nihil, nothing), va. to annihilate, to annul.

ANNIHILER (s'), v. refl. to be annihilated.

ANNILLE, aniy', [Lat. : anellus, little ring], sf. 1. rynd (or rind) : iron receiving the spindle of the upper millstone; 2. Herald. millrind.

ANNIVERSAIRE, anivèrsèr', [Lat. : anniversarius; annus, year], adj. anniversary. Fête —, anniversary festival.

ANNIVERSAIRE, sm. 1. anniversary; 2. Cath. Lit. anniversary service (or mass) for the dead. Un glorieux —, a glorious anniversary. — de naissance, birthday.

ANNOMINATION, anominâsyôn, [Lat. : ad, to; nomināre, to name], sf. Rhet. annomination.

ANNONCE, anôns', sf. 1. announcement : notice, notification; 2. banns (of marriage); 3. advertisement (in newspapers, etc.); 4. sign. Faire une — dans les journaux, to advertise in the public papers. Cette apparente stupidité est souvent l'— des âmes fortes, that apparent stupidity is often the sign of strong minds. J. J. Rousseau.

ANNONCER, anônsé-r, [Lat. : annuntiāre], va. 1. to announce : to make known, to declare, to give notice of, to inform (a person of a thing); 2. to presage, to forebode; 3. to foretell, to predict; 4. to be the precursor, the harbinger of; 5. to preach (the gospel); 6. to publish (the banns of marriage); 7. to advertise (in the public journals). — une victoire, to announce a victory. Les journaux ont annoncé la paix, the papers have announced peace. Il ne m'annonce pas même par lettre ce qu'il fait, he does not even inform me (let me know) by letter what he is doing. Annoncez-vous, introduce yourself, announce yourself. — la compagnie, to announce the company, the guests. Sans se faire —, without sending in his (or her) name. Ce vent annonce la tempête, this wind forebodes a storm. Cela ne m'annonce rien de bon, that bodes me no good. On a annoncé la vente dans les journaux, the sale has been advertised in the papers. Une dépêche nous annonce l'arrivée du bateau, a telegram informed us of the arrival of the boat.

8. to give proof, to show, to manifest, to evince. Ceux qui annoncent de l'instruction, those who give proof of (show, manifest or evince) some education, instruction, or learning.

ANNONCER (s'), v. refl. 1. to announce one's self, to make one's self known, to present one's self; 2. to reveal, to manifest one's self. S'annonçant comme consul, announcing himself as consul. Dès que le printemps s'annonce, as soon as spring makes its appearance. Il y a des caractères qui s'annoncent presque en naissant, there are characters which manifest themselves almost from their birth. S'— bien, to promise well, to look (or to be) promising, to make a good beginning. Cette entreprise s'annonçait bien, mais elle a mal tourné, that enterprise looked promising, but it has turned out badly.

ANNONCEUR, anônsœr, sm. announcer : a) one who announces; b) formerly, in theat. lang., the performer who announced the pieces to be played on the following day.

ANNONCIADE, anônsiad', sf. Annunciade : a) the name of several orders of nuns; b) a nun of any of the said orders; 3. sm. Annunciation : the name of an order or knighthood founded in 1362 by Amadeus VI.

ANNONCIATION, anônsiâsyôn, sf. 1. annunciation, announcement; 2. the Annunciation : a) the Archangel Gabriel's salutation to the Virgin Mary; b) festival kept on the 25th of March, popularly called Lady-day.

ANNOTATEUR, anotatœr, sm. annotator.

ANNOTATION, anotâsyôn, sf. annotation.

ANNOTER, anoté-r, [Lat. : annotāre], va. to annotate. Texte annoté par un habile critique, text annotated (or with notes) by a skilful critic.

ANNUAIRE, annuèr', [Lat. : annuus, annual], sm. year-book, annual, annuary. — du commerce, Trade Directory. — de la marine, Navy List. — militaire, Army List. — du clergé, Clergy List. — du Bureau des Longitudes, an almanac published by the astronomers of the Paris Observatory.

ANNUALITÉ, annualité, sf. quality of being annual.

ANNUEL, LE, annuèl, èl', [Lat. : annualis; annus, year], adj. annual, yearly : a) occurring every year; b) lasting one year only). Plantes annuelles, annuals. Dignité annuelle, annual dignity (dignity held for one year only). Mouvement — de la terre, the annual revolution of the earth.

ANNUEL, sm., annual : daily mass for a year after a person's death.

ANNUELLEMENT, annuèl'mân-t, adv. annually a) yearly; b) a-year, per annum. Son domaine rend — dix mille francs, his estate brings in ten thousand francs a-year.

ANNUITÉ, annuité, sf. annuity : a sum paid or received annually for a term of years or for life.

ANNULABLE, annulabl', adj. voidable : that may be annulled, cancelled, or reversed.

ANNULAIRE, annulèr', [Lat. : annularius], adj. annular : a) having the form of a ring; b) adapted to receive a ring. Eclipse —, annular eclipse. Doigt —, ring-finger : the fourth finger.

ANNULATIF, VE, annulatif, iv', adj. annulling, cancelling, reversing.

ANNULATION, annulâsyôn, sf. 1. annulment, voidance (of a contract, etc.); 2. cancelling (of a deed); 3. reversal (of a judgment).

ANNULÉ, E, annulé, adj. Nat. Hist. annulate, annulated : having rings or annulations.

ANNULEMENT, annul'mânt, sm. Naut. annulling, annulment (of a signal).

ANNULER, annulé-r, [Lat. : annulāre; ad, to; nullus, none], va. 1. to annul : to void, to render null and void; 2. to cancel (a deed, a contract); 3. to reverse, to quash, to set aside (a judgment); 4. to nullify, to baffle, to quash, to foil. — une commande, to cancel an order.

ANNULER (s'), v. refl. to become null.

ANOBLI, E, anobli, smf. person ennobled (by royal favour). Les nouveaux anoblis the newly made nobles.

ANOBLIR, anoblir, [Lat. : à; noble], va. to ennoble : to confer on a person the rank and privileges of nobility.

[Anoblir was also formerly employed in the sense of to make illustrious but has long ceased to have that meaning. On peut être anobli sans être ennobli, a man may be made a noble, without being made illustrious, V. ENNOBLIR.]

ANOBLISSEMENT, anoblis'mân-t, sm. ennoblement. Lettres d'—, letters of nobility.

ANODE, anod, [Gr. : ἄνοδος, rising way], sf. Phys. anode.

ANODIN, E, anodan, in', [Gr. : ἀν, neg.; ὀδύνη, pain], adj. 1. anodyne : assuaging pain; 2. palliative; 3. dull, tame, spiritless. Un remède —, anodyne remedy, an anodyne. Dans l'état actuel des choses, il ne faut pas de remèdes anodins, in the present state of affairs, we want something more than palliatives. Des vers anodins, tame, spiritless verses

4. sm. anodyne. On emploie les anodins contre les névralgies, anodynes are employed against neuralgia.

ANODONTE, anodont, [Gr. : ἀνόδους], adj. anodontous, toothless.

ANOMAL, E, anomal, al', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ὁμαλός, equal]., plm. ANOMAUX, anomô, adj. 1. anomalous : deviating from rule; 2. Gram. irregular.

ANOMALIE, anomali, sf. anomaly : a) irregularity; b) the angular distance of a planet from its last perihelion as seen from the centre of the sun.

ANOMALISTIQUE, anomalistik', adj. Astron. anomalistic. Année —, anomalistic year.

ANOMIE, anomi, [Gr. : ἀνωμία, irregularity], sf. Zool. anomia : beaked cockle.

ÂNON, ânôn, sm. ass's foal, young ass. L'ânesse et son —, the ass and her foal ANONE, anon', sf. Bot. anona : custard-apple.

ÂNONNEMENT, anon'mân-t, [ânonner] sm. boggling : hemming and hawing, hesitation in reading or speaking.

ÂNONNER, anoné-r, [ânon], vn. 1. to boggle : to hem and haw, to hesitate, in reading or reciting; 2. va. to boggle over or through (a piece of poetry, etc.).

ANONYMAT, anonima, sm. anonymousness, anonymity.

ANONYME, anonim', [Gr. : ἀ, ἀν, neg.; ὄνομα, name], 1. adj. anonymous. Auteur —, anonymous author. Pamphlet —, anonymous pamphlet. Société —, an incorporated joint-stock company. La Banque de France est une société —, the Bank of France is an incorporated company.

2. smf. anonymous person; 3. sm. anonymousness : the state of being anonymous. Ce libelle est d'un —, this libel is by an anonymous writer.

ANONYMIE, anonimi, sf. anonymity.

ANOPLOTHÉRIUM, anoplotèriœm, [Gr. : ἄνοπλος, unarmed; θηρίον, animal], sm. Zool. anoplotherium.

ANORDIE, anròdi, [Nord], sf. Naut. northerly wind.

ANORDIR, anòrdir, vn. Naut. to veer to the north (as the wind).

ANOREXIE, anoreksi, [Gr. : ἀν, neg.; ὄρεξις, appetite], sf. Med. anorexy, anorexia : absence of appetite.

ANORMAL, E, anòrmal, al', [Gr. : ἀ, neg.; normal), pl. m ANORMAUX, anòrmô, adj. abnormal, anormal : irregular.

ANORTHOSCOPE, anortoscop, [Gr : ἀν, neg.; ὀρθός, right; σκοπεῖν, to examine], sm. anorthoscope : an instrument to produce certain optical illusions.

ANOSMIE, anosmi, [Gr. : ἀν, neg.; ὀσμή, odour], ANOSPHRÉSIE, anos-frézi, sf. Med. anosmia : loss of smell.

ANOTTO, anotto, sm. anotto : a dye-stuff.

ANOURE, anour', [Gr. : ἀν, neg. ; οὐρά, tail], adj. 1. anourous : tail-less ; 2. sm. tail-less animal.

ANOXÉMIE, anoksemy, [Gr. : ἀν, neg. ; αἷμα, blood], sf. Pathol. anoxyemia, anoxæmia.

ANQUETIL, ankêtil (Louis-Pierre), historian (1723-1806).

ANSE, ans', [Lat. : ansa], sf. 1. handle (of a basket) ; 2. ear, handle (of a pot, a bomb, etc.) ; 3. bight, cove, creek, inlet, small bay ; 4. bight, loop (of cord, etc.), — de panier, 1. basket-handle ; 2. Arch. surbased (or elliptical) arch. Faire danser l'— du panier, to make illicite profits : said of servants who cheat their employers in marketing. Faire le pot à deux anses, to set one's arms a kimbo. Faire le panier à deux anses, to have a lady hanging on each arm.

ANSE, ANSÉATIQUE. V. HANSE, HANSÉATIQUE.

ANSÉ, E, ansé, adj. 1. ansated ; 2. Herald. anserated.

ANSER, ansé-r, va. to put a handle to (a basket, etc.).

ANSÉRINE, ansérin', [Lat. : anser goose], adj. Peau —, Med. goose-skin.

ANSERINE, sf. Bot. goose-foot : wild-spinage, English mercury.

ANSETTE, ansèt', sf. 1. small handle (as of a cup etc.) ; 2. bow, loop (through which the ribbon of a knight's cross is passed) ; 3. Naut. hem (of a sail).

ANSPECT anspèk [Engl. : handspike] sm. Naut. handspike.

ANSPESSADE anspèsad' [Corrup. of Ital. : lancia spezzata], sm. lance-corporal.

ANTAGONISME, antagonism, [Gr. : ἀνταγώνισμα, ἀντί ; ἀγωνίζομαι, I struggle] sm. antagonism.

ANTAGONIST, antagonist', sm. 1. antagonist ; 2. Anat. antagonist, antagonistic.

ANTAGONISTE, adj. 1. antagonist ; 2. Anat. antagonist, antagonistic.

ANTAN, antan, [O. Fr. ! ant ; Lat. : ante, before], sm. last year. Les neiges d'—, last year's snows. Je m'en soucie comme des neiges d'—, I care naught for it. Où sont les neiges d'— ? where are the snows of last year ? Here to-day, gone to morrow.

ANTANACLASE, àntanaklaz', [Gr.: ἀντί, against ; ἀνάκλασις, repercussion], sm. Rhet. antanaclasis.

ANTARCTIQUE, antarktik', [Gr. : ἀντί, opposite ; Arctic], adj. antarctic, Pôle —, the antarctic (or south) pole.

ANTARÈS, antarès, sm. Antares : star of the first magnitude in the constellation Scorpio.

ANTE, ant', [Lat. : hasta ; O. Fr. : hanste, anste], sf. handle (of a painter's pencil).

ANTE, ant', [Lat. : anta], sf. 1. piece of wood placed in front of the wing of a wind mill, to support it ; 2. pl. Arch. facings (of a doorway, etc.) ; antæ, pilasters.

ANTE-BOIS, antœbwa, sm. chair-rail : a rail laid on the wall to keep chairs from injuring paper-hangings.

ANTÉCÉDEMMENT, antésédaman, adv. antecedently, previously.

ANTÉCÉDENCE, antésédans, [Lat. : ante, before ; cedĕre, cessum, to go], sf. antecedence : a) precedence ; b) the apparent western motion of a planet.

ANTÉCÉDENT, E, antésédân-t, adj. antecedent : preceding, precious, anterior.

ANTÉCÉDENT, sm. 1. antecedent : a) anything that goes before ; b) Math. first term of a ratio ; c) Gram. the noun to which a relative refers ; d) the first term of a hypothetical proposition.

2. pl. antecedents : previous conduct, past life or character (of a person). Il a de bons antécédents, he has good antecedents ; his character is good. Il est sans antécédents, nothing is known of his antecedents, of his previous (or past) conduct.

ANTÉCHRIST, antékrist, [Gr. : ἀντί, against ; Christ], sm. 1. Antichrist ; 2. a wicked wretch.

ANTÉDILUVIEN, NE, antédiluvian, èn, [Lat. : ante, before ; diluvium, deluge], adj. antediluvian.

ANTÉFIXE, antéfiks, [Lat. : antefixa], sf. Arch. antefixa (pl. antefixæ), Greek tile.

ANTÉHISTORIQUE, antéhistorik, [Lat. : ante, before ; historique], adj. prehistoric.

ANTENNE, antèn', [Lat. : antenna], sf. 1. Naut. lateen-yard ; 2. sprit or spar (of a sheer-hulk) ; 3. cross-row (of casks, etc., in a ship's hold) ; 4. Nat. Hist. antenna (pl. antennæ) : horn, feeler (of insects).

ANTENNIFIÈRE, antènnifèr', [Lat. : antenna, feeler ; ferre, to bear], adj. antenniferous.

ANTENNULE, antènul', sf. palp : small antenna of insects.

ANTENOIS, E, antœnwâ, wâz, ANTENAIS, E, antenê, êz, [antan], adj. and s. yearling, year-old : said of lambs, etc.

ANTÉNUPTIAL, E, anténupsial, al', [Lat. : ante, before ; nuptial], adj. antenuptial : before marriage.

ANTÉOCCUPATION, antéokupâsyôn, [Lat. : ante, before ; occupation], sf. Rhet. prolepsis : anticipation of objections.

ANTÉPÉNULTIÈME, antépénultyèm', [Lat. : ante, before ; pénultième], adj. 1. antepenultimate ; 2. sf. antepenultima, antepenult.

ANTÉRIEUR, E, antériœr, œt', [Lat. : anterior], adj. 1. anterior : a) prior, previous, in point of time ; b) Anat. being in front. Un fait —, an anterior, a previous fact. Ce fait est — de six mois à celui dont je vous parle, that fact was six months anterior (was anterior by six months) to that of which I speak. Le muscle — du nez, the anterior muscle of the nose.

2. fore, front (wtih regard to position) ; 3. Bot. frontal. La partie antérieure d'une maison, d'un vaisseau, the front part of a house, the fore part of a ship. Stigmate —, frontal stigma (of a flower).

ANTÉRIEUREMENT, antériœr'mân-t, adv. anteriorly, previously.

ANTÉRIORITÉ, antériorité, sf. anteriority, priority (with regard to time).

ANTÉVERSION, antévèrsyôn, [Lat. : ante before ; version], sf. Surg. anteversion (of the uterus).

ANTHÉLIE, antéli, [Gr. : ἀνθήλιον, little flower], sf. Meteorol. anthelion (pl. anthelia).

ANTHÉLIX, antéliks, [Gr. : ἀντί, before ; ἕλιξ, helix], sm. Anat. anthelix.

ANTHELMINTIQUE, antèlmantik', [Gr. : ἀντί, against ; ἕλμινς, ἕλμινθος, worm], adj. and sm. Med. anthelmintic, helminthic, vermifuge.

ANTHÉMIS, antémis, [Gr. : ἀνθεμίς, little flower], sm. Bot. anthemis, camomile.

ANTHÈRE, antèr', [Gr. : ἀνθηρός, flowered), sf. Bot. anther.

ANTHÉRIDIE, antéridi, sf. Bot. antheridium (pl. antheridia).

ANTHÉRIFÈRE, antérifér', [anthère ; [Lat. : ferre, to bear], adj. Bot. antheriferous.

ANTHÉROLOGIE, antérology, [Gr. : ἀνθηρός, flowered ; λόγος, speech], sf. ornamented style of language.

ANTHOLOGIE, antolozhi, [Gr. : ἄνθος, flower ; λέγειν, to gather], sf. anthology : a) a collection of flowers ; b) Fig. a selection of poetry.

ANTHRACIFÈRE, antrasifèr', [Gr. : ἄνθραξ, coal ; Lat. : ferre, to bear], adj. Mineral. anthraciferous, anthracitic.

ANTHRACITE, antrasit', [Gr. : ἄνθραξ, coal], sm. Mineral. anthracite, glance-coal, blind-coal.

ANTHRACOTHÈRE, antrakotèr', [Gr. : ἄνθραξ, αχος, coal ; θήρ, animal] sm. Paleontol. anthracotherium.

ANTHRAX, antraks, [Gr. : coal], sm. 1. Med. anthrax. — malin, carbuncle ; 2 dipterous insect : black-bodied fly.

ANTHROPOGRAPHIE, antropografi, [Gr.: ἄνθρωπος, man ; γράφω, I describe], sf. anthropography.

ANTHROPOLITHE, antropolit', [Gr. ἄνθρωπος, man ; λίθος, stone], sf. Paleont. anthropolite.

ANTHROPOLOGIE, antropolozhi, [Gr. ἄνθρωπος, man ; λόγος, discourse], sf. anthropology.

ANTHROPOLOGIQUE, anthropolozhik', adj. anthropological.

ANTHROPOLOGISTE, antropolozhist, sm. anthropologist : one who treats of anthropology.

ANTHROPOMÈTRIE, antropométri, [Gr. : ἄνθρωπος, man ; μέτρον, measure], sf. anthropometry : the art of measuring the different parts of the human body.

ANTHROPOMORPHE, antropomôrf, adj. anthropomorphous.

ANTHROPOMORPHISME, antropomôrfism, [Gr. : ἄνθρωπος, man ; μορφή, form] sm. antropomorphisme : the representation of the Deity in the form of man, or as having human passions and affections.

ANTHROPOMORPHITE, antropomôrfit', sm. anthropomorphist, anthropomorphite.

ANTHROPOPATHIE, antropopati, [Gr. : ἄνθρωπος, man , πάθος, passion], sf. anthropopathy. V. ANTHROPOMORPHISME.

ANTHROPOPHAGE, antropofazh', adj. 1. anthropophagous ; 2. smf. man-eater, cannibal. Les antropophages, the anthropophagi.

ANTHROPOPHAGIE, antropofazhi, [Gr. : ἄνθρωπος, man ; φαγεῖν, to eat), sf. anthropophagy, cannibalism.

ANTHYLLIDE, antilid', sf. Bot. kidney-vetch, lady's-fingers (Anthyllis vulneraria).

ANTI, anti, [Gr. : ἀντί], a prefix in some cases representing the Greek anti (agajnst), in others the Latin ante (before), which are always distinguished in English, as : antiscorbutique, antiscorbutic ; antichambre, antidate, antechamber, antedate.

ANTIACIDE, antiasid, [anti ; acide], adj. and s. antiacid, antacid.

ANTIAPHRODISIAQUE, antiafrodiziak, [Gr. : ἀντί, against ; aphrodisiaque], adj. antiaphrodisiac : antivenereal.

ANTIAPOPLECTIQUE, antiapoplèktik', [anti ; apoplectique], adj. Med. anti-apoplectic.

ANTIAR, antiar, sm. Bot. antiaris, the upas-tree. V. UPAS.

ANTIARINE, antiarin', sf. Chem. antiarine : the poisonous principle of the upas-tree.

ANTIARISTOCRATE, antiaristokrat', smf antiaristocrat.

ANTIARTHRITIQUE, ântiartritik', adj and sm. antiarthritic.

ANTIBILIEUX, ântibiliœ, [anti; bilieux], adj. Med. antibilious.

ANTIBRACHIAL, E, ântibrakial, al', [anti; brachial], adj. Anat. antibrachial: pertaining to the fore-arm.

ANTICARDE, antikard, ANTICARDIUM, anticardiœm, [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; καρδία, heart], sm. Med. anticardium: pit of the stomach.

ANTICHAMBRE, ântishâmbr', [Lat.: ante, before; chambre], sf. antechamber: waiting-room, outer room. Faire —, to dance attendance. Faire faire —, to keep (a person) waiting. Propos d'— idle gossip.

ANTICHRÈSE, ântichrèz', [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; χρῆσις, ready], sf. Law-t. assignment of the revenue of real estate (for the payment of a debt).

ANTICHRÉTIEN, ENNE, ântikrétiaṅ, tièn adj. antichristian.

ANTICHRISTIANISME, ântikristianism', [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; christianisme], sm. antichristianism.

ANTICIPANT, E, ântisipân-t, ânt, adj. Med. anticipating, anticipant.

ANTICIPATION, ântisipâsyôn, sf. 1. anticipation: the act of anticipating. — de payement, anticipation of payment. Par —, by anticipation, beforehand, before the regular (or appointed) time. Il dépense son revenu par —, he spends his income before he receives it.

2. Com. advance (or money, on a consignment of merchandise); 3. Law-t. encroachment. — sur un droit, sur une terre, encroachment on a right, on an estate.

4. Rhet. prolepsis; 5. (in Kant's philosophy) judgment à priori.

ANTICIPÉ, E, ântisipé, pa. p. anticipated; (adject.) anticipative anticipatory; premature.

ANTICIPER, ântisipé-r, [Lat.: anticipāre, atum; ante, before; capĕre, to take], va. 1. to anticipate: to take, enjoy, suffer or realize beforehand; 2. to forestall; 3. to antedate.

ANTICIPER, vn. (with sur) 1. to anticipate: to pay, spend, or receive beforehand. — sur ses revenus, to anticipate (to spend beforehand) one's income.

2. to encroach on, to usurp; 3. to forestall; 4. to antedate. — sur son voisin, to encroach on one's neighbour, — sur les droits, sur les terres d'autrui, to encroach on (to usurp) the rights, the estates of others.

ANTICIVIQUE, ântisivik', adj. anti-civic.

ANTICIVISME, ântisivism', sm. anticivism: hostility to the civic state or condition.

ANTICLINAL, E, ânticlinal, al', adj. Geol. anticlinal.

ANTICONSTITUTIONNEL, ELLE, ântikônstitusyonèl, èl' adj. anticonstitutional.

ANTICRÉPUSCULE, ântikrépuskul', sm. Astron. after-glow, second-twilight.

ANTIDARTREUX, EUSE, ântidartrœ, trœz', adj. antiherpetic, antidartrous.

ANTIDATE, ântidat', sf. antedate, prochronism.

ANTIDATER, ântidaté-r, va. to antedate. — un contrat, to antedate a contract.

ANTIDÉRAPANT, antidérapân, [anti; déraper], sm. and adj. clogging, non skidding anti-slipping (of covers of automobile tyres). Protecteur — à rivets, non-skid cover with studs.

ANTIDIARRHÉIQUE ântidiaréik', adj. Med. antidiarrhœtic.

ANTIDOTAIRE, ântidotèr', sm. antidotary: book of antidotes.

ANTIDOTE, ântidot', [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against, δίδωμι, to give], sm. antidote: a) counter-poison; b) remedy, cure. Un — infaillible, an infallible antidote. Le travail est le meilleur — contre l'ennui, work, study, occupation) is the best antidote for listlessness.

ANTIDRAMATIQUE, ântidramatik', adj antidramatic: contrary to the rules of dramatic art.

ANTIDYSENTÉRIQUE, ântidisântérik', adj. Med. antidysenteric.

ANTIENNE, ântyèn', [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; φωνή, voice, chant], sf. anthem. Entonner une —, to intone (to strike up, to sing) an anthem. Chanter toujours la même —, to be always harping of the same string, saying the same thing. Annoncer une triste —, to announce, to bring bad news.

ANTIÉPILEPTIQUE, ântéepileptik', adj. and sm. antiepileptic.

ANTIÉVANGÉLIQUE, ântiévânzhélik', adj. antievangelical.

ANTIFÉBRILE, ântifébril', adj. and sm. Med. antifebrile.

ANTIGOUTTEUX, EUSE, ântigoutœ, œz', adj. Med. antiarthritic.

ANTILAITEUX, EUSE, ântilètœ, tœz' adj. and sm. Med. antigalactic.

ANTI-LIBAN, ânti-libân, nm. Anti-Lebanon.

ANTILLES, ântiy', sf. pl. the Antilles. Les Grandes —, the Greater Antilles. Les Petites —, the Lesser Antilles. La mer des —, the Caribbean Sea.

ANTILOÏMIQUE, ântiloïmik'. [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; λοιμὸς, plague), adj. and sm. Med. antiloimic.

ANTILOGIE, ântilozhi, [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; λόγος, discourse], sf. antilogy, contradiction.

ANTILOPE, ântilop', [English], sf. Zool antelope. La gazelle, le chamois, le bubale des anciens sont des antilopes, the gazelle, the chamois and the hubalis of the ancients are antelopes.

ANTIMIGRAINE, ântimegren, sm. Med. antimegrim: remedy against headache.

ANTIMILITAIRE, ântimilitèr', adj. antimilitary.

ANTIMILITARISME, ântimilitarizm, sm. antimilitarism: feeling against military service or the exces of the military spirit.

ANTIMOINE, ântimwan', [Lat.: antimonium], sm. Mineral and Chem. antimony. — diaphorétique, flowers of antimony. Foie d'—, liver (or crocus) of antimony.

ANTIMONARCHIQUE, ântimonarshik', adj. antimonarchical.

ANTIMONIAL, E, ântimonial, al', adj. and sm. antimonial. Les antimoniaux, antimonial medicines.

ANTIMONIATE, ântimoniat, sm. Chem. antimoniate.

ANTIMONIÉ, E, ântimonié, ANTIMONIFÈRE, ântimonifèr', adj. antimonial: containing antimony. Vin antimonié, antimonial wine.

ANTIMONIQUE, ântimonik', adj. antimonic. Acide —, antimonic acide.

ANTINATIONAL, E, ântinasyonal, al', adj. antinational.

ANTINOMIE, ântinomi [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; νόμος, law], sf. antinomy: contradiction between laws.

ANTINOMIEN, ântinomian, sm. Antinomian: sectary of the 16th century.

ANTIOCHE, ântyosh, pn. Geog. Antioch.

ANTIPAPE, ântipap', sm. antipope.

ANTIPAPISME, ântipapism', sm. antipapism.

ANTIPAPISTE, ântipapist', sm. antipapist.

ANTIPARLEMENTAIRE, ântiparlœmantair, sm. antiparliamentary, not parliamentary.

ANTIPATHIE, ântipati, [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; πάθος, feeling], sf. antipathy: a) natural contrariety; repugnance, aversion; b) want of affinity. Une — naturelle, a natural antipathy. — pour une personne ou une chose, antipathy to (or against) a person or thing. Avoir une — pour quelqu'un, to have a dislike for a person. Il y a — entre ces couleurs, there is disagreement between those colours. Par —, from (or out of) antipathy.

ANTIPATHIQUE, ântipatik', adj. 1. antipathetic, antipathetical: having an antipathy; averse, repugnant; 2. Med. antipathic: opposite, unlike, contrary. Cet homme m'est —, that man is my antipathy, my aversion.

ANTIPATRIOTIQUE, ântipatriotik', adj. antipatriotic.

ANTIPÉRIODIQUE, ântipériodik', adj. and sm. Med. antiperiodic: said of medicines which put a stop to the periodicity of diseases.

ANTIPÉRISTALTIQUE, ântipéristaltik', [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; péristaltique], adj. Med. antiperistaltic.

ANTIPÉRISTASE, ântipéristaz', [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against, περίστασις, circumstance], adj. antiperistasis: reaction of opposite qualities.

ANTIPESTILENTIEL, ELLE, ântipèstilânsièl, èl], adj. antipestilential.

ANTIPHERNAUX, ântifèrnò, [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; φερνή, dowry], adj. m. pl. Law-t Biens —, property given to a wife by her marriage settlement.

ANTIPHILOSOPHIQUE, ântifilozofik' adj. antiphilosophical.

ANTIPHLOGISTIQUE, ântiflozhistik', adj. and sm. Chem. antiphlogistic.

ANTIPHONAIRE, ântifonèr', ANTIPHONIER, ântifonyé, sm. Rom. Cath. Lit. antiphonar or antiphonary.

ANTIPHONE, ântifon', [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; φωνή, voice], sm. Rom. Cath. Lit. antiphon or antiphony.

ANTIPHRASE, ântifras', sf. Rhet. antiphrasis.

ANTIPHYSIQUE, ântifisik', adj. antiphysical: contrary to nature.

ANTIPIED, ântipyé, sm. Zool. forefoot (of a quadruped).

ANTIPODE, ântipod', [Gr.: ἀντὶ, opposite; πούς, ποδός, foot], sm. antipode: a) one of the antipodes; b) hence, any person, place, or thing diametrically opposed to another. Les habitants de la Nouvelle-Zélande sont nos antipodes, the inhabitants of New-Zeeland are our antipodes. Je voudrais qu'il fût aux antipodes, I wish he were at the antipodes (at the devil, at Jericho).

ANTIPOÉTIQUE, ântipoètik', adj. antipoetical.

ANTIPSORIQUE ântipsorik', [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; ψώρα, itch], adj. and sm. Med. antipsoric: said of remedies for the itch.

ANTIPUTRIDE, ântiputrid', adj. and sm. antiputrefactive, antiseptic: counteracting putrefaction.

ANTIPYRETIQUE, ânperetik, adj. and s. Med. antipyretic.

ANTIPYRINE, ântipirin [Gr.: ἀντὶ, against; πῦρ, fire, fever], sf. Med. antipyrine.

ANTIPYROTIQUE, ântipirotik', adj. and sm. antipyrotic : curing burns.

ANTIQUAILLE, ântikiy', [Ital. : anticaglia ; Lat. : antiquus, antique], sf. 1. worthless antique, old curiosity, piece of antiquity ; 2. pl. worthless antiquities ; old furniture, lumber, rubbish ; 3. antiquity, the ancients. Sa chambre est remplie d'antiquailles, his room is full of old lumber. Un chercheur d'antiquailles, a hunter after antiques, antiquities. Les Latins, les Hébreux et toute l'—, the Latins, the Hebrews, and all antiquity, all the ancients.

ANTIQUAIRE, ântikèr', sm. antiquarian, antiquary.

ANTIQUE, ântik', [Lat. : antiquus], adj. 1. antique : a) ancient, not modern ; b) worthy of the ancients ; c) past, former. Médaille, vase —, antique medal, antique vase. Usage —, antique (or ancient) custom. Ouvrage d'une simplicité —, a work of antique simplicity, of a simplicity worthy of the ancients.

2. antiquated, old-fashioned, quaint, quaint-looking. Vêtements, meubles antiques, old-fashioned garments, furniture. Une — beauté, an antiquated beauty. Il a l'air —, he has an old-fashioned look, a quaint look.

ANTIQUE, sm. the antique : the masterpieces of ancient art. Beau comme l'—, as beautiful as the antique. Étudier, copier l'—, to study, to copy the antique.

ANTIQUE, sf. antique : antiquity (seldom used in the singular in this sense) relic of old times. Une belle —, a fine antique. Le cabinet des antiques, the museum of antiquities.

A antique, adv. phr. 1. after the antique, in the antique style ; 2. in an old-fashioned manner.

ANTIQUEMENT, ântik'mân-t, adv. antiquely : a) in ancient times ; b) in an old-fashioned manner ; c) quaintly.

ANTIQUER, ântiké-r, va. Book-b. to apply antique ornaments (on the edges of books).

ANTIQUITÉ, ântikité, [Lat. : antiquitas], sf. antiquity : a) times long past ; b) the ancients ; c) relic of ancient times ; d) old age. L'— d'une ville, the antiquity, the ancientness of a town. Les héros de l'—, the heroes of antiquity, of ancient times. De toute —, from the remotest antiquity, from the most ancient times. L'— raconte, antiquity relates, the ancients relate. L'— grecque et romaine, Greek and Roman antiquity. Les antiquités de Rome et d'Athènes, the antiquities of Rome and of Athens. [In this sense, the plural is more used than the singular both in French and English.] Avoir un air d'—, to look old, to have the appearance of great age.

ANTIRAISONNABLE, ântirèzonabl', adj. contrary to reason.

ANTIRATIONALISME, ântirasyonalism', sm. antirationalism.

ANTIRÉALISME, ântiréalism, sm. antirealism.

ANTIRÉFORMISTE, ântiréformist', sm. antireformist, antireformer.

ANTIRELIGIEUX, EUSE, ântirœlizhiœ, œz', adj. antireligious.

ANTIRÉPUBLICAIN, E, ântirépublikan, èn', adj. and s, antirepublican.

ANTIRÉVOLUTIONNAIRE, ântirévolusyonèr', adj. 1. antirevolutionary ; 2. (subst.) antirevolutionist.

ANTISCIENS, ântissyan, [Gr. : ἀντί, opposite ; σκία, shadow], sm. pl. antiscii, antiscians : having opposite shadows, persons living in countries respectively north and south of the place where the sun is vertical, and whose shadows consequently fall in opposite directions at noon.

ANTISCORBUTIQUE, ântiskòrbutik', adj. and sm. Med. antiscorbutic.

ANTISCRIPTURAIRE, ântiskripturèr', [Gr. : ἀντί, against ; Lat. : scriptura, writing], sm. antiscripturist : one who denies the authenticity of the Scriptures.

ANTISCROFULEUX, EUSE, ântiskrofulœ, œz', adj. 1. antiscrofulous ; 2. pl. antiscrofulous medicines.

ANTISÉMITE, ântisémit, [anti ; sémite], smf. anti-Semite.

ANTISÉMITIQUE, ântisémitik, adj. antisemitic . hostile to the Jews.

ANTISÉMITISME, ântisémitism, sm. antisemitism : system of those hostile to the influence of the Jews.

ANTISEPTIQUE, ântisèptik', adj. and sm. antiseptic.

ANTISOCIAL, E, ântisocial, al', adj. antisocial.

ANTISOCIALISTE, ântisosialist, smf. and adj. antisocialist ; unfriendly to socialism.

ANTISPASMODIQUE, ântispasmodik', adj and sm. Med. antispasmodic.

ANTISPASTE, ântispast', [Gr. : ἀντί, against ; σπάω, I draw], sm. Pros. antispast : a foot of four syllables, composed of an iambus and a trochee.

ANTISPIRITUALISME, ântispiritualism, sm. antispiritualism.

ANTISTROPHE, ântistrof', [Gr. : ἀντί, against ; στρέφω, I turn], sf. Pros. antistrophe : a) stanza opposed to the strophe ; b) Rhet. interversion of words in repeating a sentence.

ANTISYPHILITIQUE, ântisifilitik, adj. and sm. Med. antisyphilitic.

ANTITHÉNAR, ântiténar, [anti ; thénar], sm. Anat. antithenar ; palm of the hand, sole of the foot.

ANTITHÈSE, ântièz', [Gr. : ἀντίθεσις], sf. Rhet. antithesis.

ANTITHÉTIQUE, ântitétik', adj. antithetic, antithetical.

ANTITOXIQUE, ântitoksik, [Gr. : ἀντί, against, τοξικόν, poison], adj. antitoxic, antidotal.

ANTITRINITAIRE, ântitrinitèr, sm. antitrinitarian.

ANTITROPE, ântitrop', [Gr. : ἀντί, against ; τρέπω, I turn], adj. Bot. antitropous, antitropal.

ANTIVÉNÉRIEN, ENNE, ântivéněryan, èn', adj. and sm. antiveneral, antisyphilitic.

ANTIVERMINEUX, EUSE, ântivèrminœ, œz', adj. and sm. anthelmintic, vermifuge.

ANTIVIVISECTION, ântiviviseksyon, sf. antivivisection.

ANTIZYMIQUE, ântizimik, [Gr. : ἀντί, against ; ζύμη, yeast], adj. antizimic : preventing fermentation.

ANTLIE, ântli, sf. Zool, antlia.

ANTOINE, ântwan', pnm. Antony, Anthony.

ANTOISER, ântwosé-r, [toiser], va. to heap up manure ; to form a dung-hill.

ANTOIT, ântwâ, sm. bent-lever (used by shipwrights).

ANTONIN, ântonan, pnm. Antoninus. — le Pieux, Antoninus Pius.

ANTONOMASE, ântonomaz', [Lat. : Gr. : ἀντονομασία], sf. Rhet. antonomasia.

ANTRE, ântr', [Lat. : antrum], sm. 1. cave, cavern : natural cavity in rocks ; 2. den (of wild beasts, of thieves, etc.) ; 3. Anat. antrum : cavity in certain bones.

ANUER, anué-r, [orig. unknown ; perhaps from Lat. : annuĕre, to approve], va. to choose the right moment for firing at (partridges, etc. when on the wing).

ANUITER (S'), anuité-r, [a ; nuit], v. refl. to be benighted : to be overtaken by the night.

ANURIE, anuri, [Gr. : ἀν, neg ; οὖρον, urine], sf. Med. anuria : suppression of urine.

ANUS, an'us, [Lat. :], sm. Anat. anus.

ANVERS, ânvèr, pn. Geog. Antwerp.

ANXIÉTÉ, ânksiété, [Lat. : anxietas], sf. 1. anxiety, anxiousness uneasiness ; 2. Med. restlessness. Inquiétude, — et angoisse sont trois degrés du même état, restlessness, anxiety and anguish are three degrees of the same state.

ANXIEUSEMENT, ânksiœz'mân-t, adv. anxiously.

ANXIEUX, EUSE, ânksiœ, œz', [Lat. : anxiosus], adj. Med. anxious. Un regard —, an anxious look.

AORISTE, aorist', [Gr. : ἀόριστος], sm. Gr. Gram. aorist.

AORTE, aòrt., [Gr. : ἀορτή], sf. Anat. aorta. L'— pectorale, abdominale, the thoracic aorta, the abdominal aorta. La crosse de l'—, the arch of the aorta.

AORTIQUE, aòrtik, adj. Anat aortic or aortal.

AORTITE, aòrtit', sf. Med. aortitis : inflammation of the aorta.

AOÛT, ou, [Lat. : Augustus], sm. 1. August : the eight month of the Gregorian year ; 2. harvest : harvest-time. L'— n'a pas commencé, harvest has not begun. Dès qu'on aura fait l'—, as soon as harvest is over. La mi-août (pron. mi-ou), the middle of August. Je vous paierai avant l'—, I will pay you before next harvest La Font. Fab. I, 1.

† AOÛTAGE, aoutâge, sm. harvest work, harvest.

AOÛTEMENT, a-out-mân-t, sm. 1. ripening (of fruit) ; 2. lignification (of young shoots).

AOÛTER, -aoûté-r, va. and vn. 1. to ripen (fruit) ; 2. to lignify.

AOUTER (s'), v. refl. 1. to ripen ; 2. to lignify.

AOÛTERON, out'ròn. sm. harvest-man, monthsman.

APACHE, apash, [name given to red Indians in the West United States and in Mexico), sm. bandit in Paris, hooligan, bully, debauched ruffian. Une bande d'apaches, a gang of hooligans, of thieves.

APAGOGIE, apagozhi, [Gr.: ἀπαγωγή], sf. Rhet. apagogy : reductio ad absurdum.

APAISEMENT, apèz-mân-t, sm. appeasement.

APAISER, apèzé-r, [Lat. : ad, to ; pacem, peace], va. to appease : a) to pacify, to quiet ; b) to assuage, to allay, to moderate ; c) to soothe, to compose ; d) to calm, to hush, to still ; e) to lay, to lull (the wind) ; f) to satisfy, to stay (hunger) ; g) to allay, to slake, to quench (thirst) ; h) to reconcile (enemies) ; i) to make up (a quarrel, etc.) ; j) to quell, to put down, to suppress (a revolt, rebellion, etc.). — un père irrité, to appease an angry father. — le peuple, to appease the people. — un chien, to still, to quiet a dog. — une révolte, to put down a revolt. — les flots, la mer, la tempête, le vent, to still the waves, to calm the sea, to lull the storm, the wind. La pluie a apaisé le vent, the rain has laid the wind. Apaise ta douleur, moderate thy grief.

APAISER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be appeased calmed, quieted, assuaged, etc. : in speaking of persons or things personified ; 2. to subside (as anger) ; 3. to abate, to remit (as fevers) ; 4. to lull, to moderate, to abate (as winds or storms) ; 5. to compose one's self. Il s'apaisera bientôt, he will soon be appeased, will soon calm down. Cette grande colère s'apaisera, this violent anger will subside. La douleur physique s'apaise, physical (or corporal) pain abates, subsides. L'incendie s'apaisa peu à peu, the conflagration gradually subsided.

APAISEUR, apèzœr, sm. appeaser, peace-maker.

APALACHES, apalash', sf. pl. 1. the Appalachian or Alleghany mountains (in North America) ; 2. (adject.) : Les monts Apalaches, the Appalachian mountains.

APALACHINE, apalashin', sf. Bot. Appalachian tea, emetic holly.

APANAGE, apanazh', [Low Lat. : apanāre, apaner, to give bread], sm. 1. appanage or apanage : an allowance or domain granted to the younger branches of a sovereign house ; 2. attribute, prerogative ; 3. lot, portion. La toute-puissance est l'— de Dieu, omnipotence is the attribute or prerogative of God. Les infirmités sont l'— de la vieillesse, infirmities are the lot (or portion) of old age. Le présent seul est de notre —, the present alone is ours.

APANAGER, apanazhé-r, [apanage], va. to endow with an apanage.

APANAGISTE, apanazhist', adj. et s. apanagist.

APANTHROPIE, apântropi, [Gr. : ἀπὸ, far, from; ἄνθρωπος, man], sf. apanthropy : aversion to human society.

APAPELARDIR (S'), apap'lardir, [à ; papelard], v. refl. to become a canting hypocrite.

APARINE, aparin', sf. Bot. cleavers, goose-grass, galium aparine.

APARITHMÈSE, aparitmèz', [Gr. : ἀπαρίθμησις], sf. Rhet. aparithmesis : enumeration of particulars.

APARTÉ ou A-PARTÉ, aparté, adv. Theat. aside. Ce vers doit être dit —, that verse must be spoken aside (so as to be supposed inaudible to the other performers).

APARTÉ, sm. Theat. an aside : words spoken aside.

APATHIE, apati, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πάθος, passion], sf. apathy : want of feeling, indifference. Tomber dans l'—, to sink into apathy, to become apathetic. On ne peut le tirer de son —, it is impossible to rouse him from his apathy, his indifference.

APATHIQUE, apatik', adj. apathetic, apathetical : without feeling, insensible, passionless. — humeur, apathetic humour.

APENNINS, apènan, sm. pl. the Apennines.

APENS, apân, V. GUET-APENS.

APEPSIE, apèpsi, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πέψις, cooking], sf. Med. apepsy : indigestion.

APERCEPTIBILITÉ, apèrsèptibilité, sf. perceptibility : a) quality of being perceptible ; b) faculty of perceiving.

APERCEPTIBLE, apèrsèptibl', adj. perceptible : capable of being perceived.

APERCEPTIF, IVE, apèrsèptif, iv', adj. apperceptive : capable of perceiving.

APERCEPTION, apèrsèpsyôn, [Lat. : ad, to ; percipĕre, to receive by the senses], sf. Psychol. apperception : perception which reflects on itself.

APERCEVABLE, apèrsœvab'l, adj. perceivable, perceptible.

APERCEVANCE, apèrsœvâns', sf. perception : faculty of perceiving.

APERCEVANT, apèrsœvân-t, adj. m. Cheval —, a horse with ears too prominent.

APERCEVOIR, apèrsœvwar, [Lat. : ad, to ; percipĕre, to perceive], va. [J'aperçois, tu aperçois, il aperçoit, nous apercevons, vous apercevez, ils aperçoivent ; j'apercevais, nous apercevions ; j'aperçus, nous aperçûmes ; j'apercevrai, nous apercevrons ; j'apercevrais, nous apercevrions ; aperçois, apercevez ; que j'aperçoive, que tu aperçoives, qu'il aperçoive, que nous apercevions, que vous aperceviez, qu'ils aperçoivent ; que j'aperçusse, que nous aperçussions ; apercevant, aperçu.] to perceive : a) to catch sight of, to catch a glimpse of, to descry ; b) to discern ; c) to notice, to remark, to observe. Nous vous aperçûmes de loin, we perceived (caught sight of, descried) you at a distance. Une vapeur si subtile qu'on ne peut l'—, a vapour so thin as not to be perceived (or discerned). En passant par telle rue il aperçût la personne qu'il cherchait, on passing such a street he caught sight of the person he was looking for. J'aperçois venir sa mortelle ennemie, I see his (or her) mortal enemy approach (or approaching). Bacon est le premier qui ait aperçu cette vérité, Bacon was the first to perceive (see, observe) that truth. J'aperçois bien son intention, I clearly perceive (see, discern) his intention.

APERCEVOIR (s'), v. refl. (with de) to perceive : a) to see, to become (or to be) aware (or sensible) of ; b) to notice, to observe, to remark. Il s'aperçut du piège qu'on lui tendait, he perceived the snare laid for him. Elle s'est aperçu de son erreur, she perceived (become aware or sensible of) her mistake.

APERÇU, E, apèrsu, sm. 1. rapid view, glance ; 2. rough (or approximative) estimate ; 3. sketch, outline, summary view, brief statement (or description). Les aperçus d'un homme d'Etat, statesmanlike views. Je n'en ai qu'un —, I have but a faint knowledge of the matter. Un — de la dépense, a rough estimate of the outlay. Donner un — de la cause, to give a brief statement (sketch, outline) of the cause. Pavillon d'—, Naut. made-out flag (to show that a signal has been seen and understood). Un — des prix, a list of prices.

APÉRITIF, IVE, apéritif, iv', adj. Med. aperient, aperitive : opening, laxative.

APERITIF, sm. 1. Med. aperient : opening or laxative medicine ; 2. appetizer ; Fam. pick-me-up : alcoholic liqueur taken before meals, such as a vermouth or an absinthe, with the notion that it gives an appetite.

APERTEMENT, apèrt'mân-t, [Lat. : apertus, open), adv. openly, manifestly.

APERTISE, apèrtiz;, sf. feat (of skill, etc.).

APÉTALE, apétal;, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πέταλον, petal], adj. Bot. apetalous.

APÉTALÉ, E, apétalé, adj. Bot. apetalous.

APÉTALIE, apétali, sf. Bot. absence of petals.

APETISSEMENT, apœtis'mân-t, sm. lessening, diminution.

APETISSER, apœtisé-r, [à ; petit ; Low Lat. : ad, to ; pittittum, small], va. 1. to lessen, to diminish, to reduce (in size) ; 2. vn. to diminish, to shorten (or get shorter.) [Apetisser is now rarely used, being replaced by rapetisser in the first acceptation, and by raccourcir, in the second. See those words.]

APETISSER (s'), v. refl. to get smaller, to shrink, to contract (V. rétrécir, the verb most commonly used in this sense).

APEURÉ, apœré, [neol., à ; peur], adj. frightened.

APEUREMENT, apœrmân-t, sm. fear, fright.

APEX, apèks, [Lat., the peak of the flamen's cap], sm. apex : summit.

APHANIPTÈRES, afaniptèr', [Gr. : ἀφανής, obscure ; πτερόν, wing], sm. pl. Ent. aphaniptera : an order of insects, of which the flea is the type.

APHANITE, afanit', sf. Geol. aphanite.

APHASIE, afazy [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πάσις, speech], sf. Pathol. aphasia : speechless.

APHÉLIE, aféli, [Gr. : ἀπό, from; ἥλιος, sun], sm. 1. Astron. aphelion ; 2. (adject.) as its aphelion (or greatest distance from the sun) : said of a planet. L'— est l'opposé du périhélie, aphelion is the opposite of perihelion.

APHÉRÈSE, aférèz', [Gr. : ἀφαίρεσις], sf. 1. Rhet. aphæresis ; 2. Surg. ablation.

APHIDIEN, ENNE, afidyan, èn', [Gr. : ἄφις, ιδος, plant-louse], adj. and s. Entom. aphidian, aphis, pl. aphides : plantlice.

APHLOGISTIQUE, aflozhistik', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; φλόξ, flame], adj. aphlogistic : flameless.

APHONE, afon', adj. aphonous : without voice.

APHONIE, afoni, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; φωνή, voice], sf. Med. aphony : loss of voice.

APHORISME, aforism', [Gr. : ἀπό, from ἀφορίζω, I separate], sm. aphorism : maoxim, adage, proverb.

APHORISTIQUE, aforistik', adj. aphoristic, aphoristical.

APHRODISIAQUE, afrodiziak', [Gr. : ἀφροιδισιακός; Ἀφροδίτη, Venus], adj. 1. Med. aphrodisiac, aprodisiacal ; 2. sm. aphrodisiac.

APHTE, aft', [Gr. : ἄπτω, I inflame], sm. Med. aphta : a small ulcer or sore on the mucous membrane of the mouth ; 2. pl. aphtæ, infantile sore mouth, [in pop. lang.) thrush.

APHTEUX, EUSE, aftœ, œz, adj. Med. aphtous.

APHYLLE, afil', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; φύλλον, leaf], adj. Bot. aphyllous : leafless.

API, api, [Lat. : apium, from Appius, a Roman who obtained apples by grafting], sm. Hort. api : malum appianum, a very small dessert apple, of a bright red on one side and greenish white on the other. Pomme d'—, api. Ses joues sont comme des pommes d'api, her cheeks are like two rosy apples.

APIAIRE, apièr, [Lat. : apis, bee], adj. 1. Zool. apiarian : relating to bees ; 2. pl. the bee-tribe.

APICAL, E, apikal, al', [Lat. : apex, point], adj. apical.

APICULE, apikul', sm. Bot. apiculus.

APICULÉ, E, apikulé, adj. Bot. apiculate, apiculated.

APICULTEUR, apikultœr, [Lat. : apis, bee] sm. apiarist, bee-master.

APICULTURE, apikultur', [Lat. : apis, bee ; culture], sf. apiculture, bee-keeping.

APIQUAGE, apikazh', sm. Nau. placing apeak (a yard, etc.)

APIQUER, apiké-r, [à ; pic], vn. 1. Naut. to be apeak : said of the anchor when the vessel is directly over it ; 2. va. to top : to lay apeak (the yards, etc.).

APIS, apis, sm. Astrom. Apis : a small southern constellation.

APITOYER, apitwâyé-r [à ; pitié], va. [J'apitoie, j'apitoierai ; j'apitoierais ; in all the other tenses the y is retained.] to move to compassion (or to pity), to excite the pity or compassion of (a person).

APITOYER (s') v. refl. to be moved to pity (by), to feel pity (for). S'— sur les malheurs de quelqu'un, to feel pity for, to compassionate the misfortunes of a person.

APIVORE, apivor', [Lat. : apis, bee ; vorāre, to devour], adj. apivorous : feeding on bees.

APLAIGNER, aplènyé-r, APLANER, a-plané-r, [plan ; Lat. : ad, to ; planus], va. to lay the nap of (woollen cloth).

APLANI, E, aplani, adj. 1. made even, level, flat, smooth ; 2. Fig. removed (as difficulties).

APLANIR, aplanir, (à ; plan). va. 1. to render even, flat, level, or smooth ; 2. to smooth down, to remove (difficulties).

APLANIR (s'), v. ref. 1. to become even or level ; 2. to be removed, to disappear. Le terrain s'aplanit vers le nord, the ground becomes level towards the north. On promit que toutes les difficultés s'aplaniraient, they promised that all the difficulties should be removed, should disappear.

APLANISSEMENT, aplanis'mân-t, sm. 1. making even or level, levelling, smoothing ; 2. levelness, evenness, smoothness ; 3. removal, disappearances (of difficulties or obstacles).

APLATER, aplaté-r, [à ; plat], va. Naut. to divide (sailors) into messes.

APLATIR, aplatir, à ; plat], va. 1. to flatten : to make flat, to beat flat ; 2. to lower, to depress, to debase ; 3. to hush up. — une surface bombée, to flatten a convex surface. — un bifteck, to beat flat a beafsteak. — un chapeau d'un coup de poing, to flatten a hat with a punch. L'intérêt aplatit l'âme, self-interest debases the soul. La terre est aplatie vers les pôles, the earth is flattened at the poles. Plaques de fer aplaties sur l'enclume, iron plates flattened on the anvil. Intelligences aplaties, debased intellects. Courage aplati, depressed courage. L'affaire des poisons est tout aplatie, the affair of the poisonings is quite hushed up. Sphéroïde aplati, oblate spheroid. Il s'est aplati devant eux, Fig. he crouched down before them. — quelqu'un, Fam. to make mince meat of any one.

APLATIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to be flattened : to flatten, to become (get or grow) flat ; 2. to become depressed, to lower, to sink, to fall. Les balles s'aplatissent sur la plaque d'un tir, balls are flattened against an iron target. Mon courage se hérisse au lieu de s'—, my courage bristles up instead of sinking. Montaigne. La tumeur s'aplatit, the tumour is sinking.

APLATISSAGE, aplatisazh', sm. 1. flattening : 2. Fig. crushing defeat. Quel — ! what a crushing defeat !

APLATISSEMENT, aplatis-mân-t, sm. 1. flattening : a) making or becoming flat, flatness ; 2. oblateness (of a spheroid) ; 3. Fig. depression, crushing, silencing.

APLATISSERIE, aplatisœri, sf. Metal. flatting-mill.

APLATISSEUR, aplatisœr, sm. flatter, flattener : one who flattens metals, etc. — de corne, horn-presser.

APLATISSOIR, aplatiswâr', sm. flatting- (or flattening-) tool.

APLATISSOIRE, aplatiswâr', sf. Metal. flatting-mill, rolling-mill.

APLET, aplè, sm. herring-net.

APLOMB, aplôn, [à ; plomb, lead], sm. 1. perpendicular, perpendicularity. Technol. plumb ; 2. equilibrium : equipose, balance ; 3. assurance, self-possession, self-command self-control. Ce vieux clocher a bien conservé son —, that old steeple has well preserved its perpendicular, perpendicularity (or plumb) Ce balcon est hors d'—, this balcony is out of plumb. Il répondit avec —, he replied with assurance, with self-possession. Avec un — imperturbable, with a brazen face. Ce jeune homme a beaucoup d'—, that young man has plenty of assurance. Il ne manque pas d'—, celui-là, Fam. that fellow has face enough for anything.

D'aplomb, adv. phr. 1. perpendicular, upright ; (with mechanics) plumb ; 2. perpendicularly, in plumb ; 3. in equilibrium. Cette pendule ne va pas, parce pu'elle n'est pas —, this clock does not go, because it is not perpendicular.

APLUSTRE, aplustr', [Lat. : aplustrum], sm. 1. Naut. aplustre : top ornament of the poop on ancient ships ; 2. a sort of moth.

APLYSIE, aplizi, [Gr. : ἀπλυσία, dirt], sf. Zool. sea-hare, aplysia depilans.

APNÉE, apné, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πνεῖν, to breathe], sf. Med. apnœa : suspension of breathing.

APOCALYPSE, apokalips', [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; καλύπτω, I cover], sf. apocalypse : revelation. L'—, the Revelation of St. John. Style d'—, obscure style. Le cheval de l'—, the pale horse of the apocalypse ; Fig. a wretched hack, a sorry jade.

APOCALYPTIQUE, apokaliptik', adj. apocalyptic, apocalyptical. Style —, obscure style.

APOCO, apoko, [Ital. : a, of ; poco little], sm. ninny, nincompoop, simpleton.

A POCO A POCO, apokoapoko, [Ital.], adv. Mus. by little and little, gradually.

APOCOPE, apokop', [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; κόπτω, I cut], sf. Gram. apocope : elision of a letter or syllable at the end of a word.

APOCOPÉ, E, apokopé, adj. Gram. apocopated.

APOCRISIAIRE, apokriziér', [Gr. : ἀπό, from : κρίσις, judgment], sm. apocrisary : a) chancellor (of the Byzantine emperors ; b) envoy (of a church) ; c) administrator (of a monastery) ; d) high-almoner (of Charlemagne).

APOCRYPHE, apokrif', [Gr. : ἀποκρύπτειν, to hide]. adj. 1. apocryphal, apocryphical : not canonical, of doubtful authority. Auteur —, apocryphal author : one of doubtful authority. Nouvelle —, false news. Livres apocryphes, the apocrypha.

2. sm. apocryphal : any non-canonical writing.

APOCYN, aposin, [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; κύων, dog], sm. Bot. apocynum. — gobe-mouches, dogsbane.

APOCYNACÉ, ÉE, aposinasi, adj. Bot. apocynaceous : relating to the genus apocynum.

APOCYNACÉES, aposinasé, APOCYNÉES, aposiné, sfpl. Bot. apocynaceæ family of apocynaceous plants, the dogbane family.

APODE apod' [Gr. : ἀ, neg. : πούς, ποδός, foot], sm. Zool. apode, apodon (pl. apoda) : said of certain animals without feet, and of fishes without ventral fins.

APODE, adj. Zool. apodal : without feet, without ventral fins.

APODICTIQUE, apodiktik', [Gr. : ἀποδεικτικός], adj. apodictic, apodictical : evident beyond contradiction.

APODOSE, apodoz', [Gr. : ἀπόδοσις, narration], sf. Rhet. apodosis : second member of a phrase.

APOGÉE, apozhé, [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; γῆ, earth], sf. 1. Astron. apogee : the point at which a heavenly body is farthest from the earth, opposed to perigee ; 2. Fig. zenith, height, greatest height. Sa puissance est à son —, his power is at its greatest height. A l'— de sa gloire, in the zenith of his glory. L'— de la félicité, the height of felicity.

APOGÉE, adj. Astron. at the apogee : said chiefly of the moon. La lune est —, the moon is at her apogee.

APOGRAPHE, apograf', [Gr. : ἀπόγραφον, copy], sm. apograph : transcript, copy.

APOJOVE, apozhov', [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; Lat. : Jove, abl. of Jupiter], sm. Astron. apojove : the point in the orbit of any of Jupiter's moons which is farthest from the planet.

APOLLON, apollôn, [Gr.], pn. 1. Myth. Apollo ; 2. A man handsome like Apollo. L'— du Belvedère, Apollo Belvidere. Les Fils d'—, the sons of Apollo : the poets.

APOLOGÉTIQUE, apolozhétik', adj. 1. apologetic, apologetical ; 2. sm. Apologeticus: Tertullian's apology for the Christians ; 3. sf. Theol. apologetics : a systematic exhibition of the evidences of Christianity.

APOLOGIE, apolozhi, [Gr. : ἀπολογία], sf. apology : a) defence, vindication ; b) excuse, exculpation. Ecrire une —, to write an apology. Faire l'— de, to make an apology. Faire l'— de, to make an apology for, to apologize for (a person).

APOLOGISTE, apolozhist', sm. apologist.

APOLOGUE, apolog', [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; λόγος, discourse], sm. apologue. L'— du Loup et de l'Agneau, the apologue (or fable) of the Wolf and the Lamb.

APONEVROSE, aponévrôz', [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; νεῦρον, nerve], sf. Anat. aponeurosis : tendon by which musles are fastened to a bone.

APONÉVROTIQUE, aponévrotik', adj. Anat. aponeurotic.

APONEVROTOMIE, aponévrotomi, [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; νεῦρον, nerve ; τομή, section], sf. Surg. aponeurotomy.

APOPHTEGME, apoftègm', [Gr. : ἀπόφθεγμα], sm. apophthegm (frequently, but less correctly, spelt APOTHEGM).

APOTHYGE, apofizh', [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; φυγή, escape], sf. Arch. apophyge : the scape or spring of a column.

APOPHYSE, apofiz', [Gr. : ἀπό, from ; φύομαι, to be born], sf. apophysis : a) Anat. process of a bone ; b) Bot. a swelling beneath the theca of certain mosses.

APOPLECTIQUE, apoplèktik', adj. 1. Med. apoplectic. Complexion —, apoplectic constitution. Symptôme —, apoplectic symptom.

2. smf. apoplectic : person affected by, or liable to, apoplexy.

APOPLEXIE, apoplèksi, [Gr. : ἀποπληξία ; ἀπό, from ; πλήσσειν, to strike], sf. Med. apoplexy. — cérébrale, cerebral apoplexy. — sanguine, sanguineous (or sanguine) apoplexy. — séreuse, serous apoplexy. — pulmonaire, pulmonary apoplexy. — fulminante, apoplexia fortissima (or fulminans). Il fut frappé d'—, he was struck with apoplexy, he had an attack of apoplexy, an apoplectic fit (or stroke). Tomber en —, to have an apoplectic fit.

APOSTASE, apostaz', [Gr. : ἀπόστασις], sf. Med. apostasis : formation of an abscess APOSTASIE, apostazi, [Gr. : ἀποστασία], sf. apostasy : abandonment of one's religion, opinions, or party.

APOSTASIER, apostazié-r, va. to apostatize : to abandon one's religion, opinions, or party.

APOSTAT, aposta, pl. aposta-z, [Gr. : ἀποστάτης, deserter], 1. adj. m. apostate, apostatical ; 2. sm. apostate.

APOSTÈME, apostèm', sm. V. APOSTUME.

APOSTER, aposté-r, [à ; poste), va. to post : to place or set on the watch, for some nefarious purpose. — des espions, to set spies. — des témoins, to suborn (false) witnesses.

A POSTERIORI, apostériori, [Lat. :] adv. phr. a posteriori.

APOSTILLATEUR, apostiyatœr, sm. annotator, commentator.

APOSTILLE, apostiy', [Low Lat. : apostilla ; Lat. : ad posita, placed near], sf 1. apostil : rider, side-note, marginal note ; 2. postcript (of a letter) ; 3. recommendatory note (supporting the prayer of a petition, etc.).

APOSTILLER, apostiyé-r, va. 1. to add a rider or recommendatory note (to a petition, memorial, etc.) ; 2. to add a post-script (to a letter).

APOSTOLAT, apostola, [Gr. : ἀποστολή, departure], sm. apostleship, apostolate.

APOSTOLICITÉ, apostolisité, sf. Theol. apostolicity, apostolicalness, apostolicism.

APOSTOLIQUE, apostolik', [Gr. : ἀποστολικός ; ἀπὸ, from ; στέλλω, I send], adj. apostolic, apostolical.

APOSTOLIQUEMENT, apostolik'mân-t, adv. apostolically.

APOSTIS, aposti-z, sm. Naut. gunwale or gunnel (of a boat).

APOSTROPHE, apostrof', [Gr. : ἀπόστροφος ; ἀπὸ, from ; στρέφω, I turn], sf. 1. apostrophe : a) Rhet. sudden address ; b) Gram. the mark of elision ['] ; 2. (in an ill sense) reproach, sarcasm ; 3. violent blow (leaving a mark on the face).

APOSTROPHER, apostrofé-r, va. to apostrophize ; to address, to rebuke severely, to fly at. — quelqu'un d'un soufflet, to give a person a punch on the head.

APOSTUME, apostum', [Gr. : ἀπὸ, from ; ἵστημι, to put], sm. Med. aposteme, imposthume : abscess.

APOSTUMER, apostumé-r, vn. Med. to imposthumate : to come to a head, to form an abscess.

APOTHÈME, apotèm', [Gr. : ἀποτίθημι, to lower], sm. 1. Geom. apothem : a perpendicular from the centre to any side of a regular polygon ; 2. Chem. apothema : an insoluble substance formed by the oxidation of vegetable extractive matter.

APOTHÉOSE, apotéôz', [Gr. : ἀπὸ, from θεός, God], sf. apotheosis : the act of placing among the gods. On lui décerna l'—, his apotheosis was decreed.

APOTHÈSE, apotèz', [Gr. : ἀπόθεσις, preservation], sf. Surg. apothesis : propre position of a fractured limb after being set.

APOTHICAIRE, apotikèr', [Gr. : ἀποθήκη, store-house ; ἀπὸ, away], sm. apothecary. Mémoire d'—, an extravagant bill. — sans sucre, a fiddler without a fiddle, a cobbler without an awl. [Pharmacien is now used instead of apothicaire].

APOTHICAIRERIE, apotikèrœri, sf. 1. apothecary's shop ; 2. dispensary.

APÔTRE, apôtr', [Gr. : ἀπὸ, from ; στέλλω, I send ; Lat. : apostolus ; O. Fr : apostle], sm. apostle. Les douze apôtres, the twelve apostles. Le Symbole des Apôtres, the Apostles' Creed. Le Grand — des Gentils, the great Apostle of the Gentils (St. Paul). Il s'est fait l'—, de cette nouvelle doctrine he made himself the apostle of this new doctrine. Ironical : Bon —, 1. pretended saint, sanctimonious rascal ; 2. cunning knave. Faire le bon —, to act or sham the honest man. Les Actes des Apôtres, the Acts of the Apostles.

APOZÈME, apozèm', [Gr. : ἀπόζεμα], sm. Med. apozem, apozesis : decoction.

APPARAÎTRE, aparètr', [Lat. : apparēre], vn. [J'apparais ; j'apparaissais ; j'apparus ; j'apparaîtrai ; apparaissant ; apparu] to appear : a) to be (or to become) visible ; b) to be plain or evident c) to seem. Dieu apparut à Moïse, God appeared to Moses. Il lui apparut un spectre, a spectre appeared to him. Une voile apparut à l'horizon, a sail appeared in the horizon. Cela apparaît, that is clear (or evident). Il m'apparaît, it appears (or seems) to me. La mort lui apparaissait glorieuse, death appeared (or seemed) glorious to him. Faire — de ses pouvoirs, Diplom. to show, to produce one's powers. S'il vous apparaît que cela soit, Law-lang., if it appears to you that such be the case.

[Apparaître is conjugated with both avoir and être : Ces spectres m'ont apparu ou me sont apparus, those spectres have appeared to me. Avoir, however, signifies an action, and être a state].

APPARAT, apara, [Lat. : ad, to ; paratus], sm. 1. pomp : state, solemnity ; 2. (in an ill sense) parade, display, ostentation, showing off. Discours d'—, a set, formal, or studied speech delivered on the occasion of some solemnity. Festin d'—, a grand banquet. Avec grand —, with great pomp, in great state. Il fait tout avec —, he does everything with great parade, with great ostentation or display.

APPARAUX, aparô, sm. pl. Naut. furniture : all the apparatus necessary for the working of a ship.

APPAREIL, aparèy', [Lat. : apparatus, prepared], sm. 1. preparation, preparative (for any grand occasion or solemnity) ; 2. pomp, magnificence ; 3. equipment, apparel, attire. L'— d'une fête, d'une cérémonie, the preparations, preparatives for a festival, for a ceremony. On fait de grands appareils pour son entrée, great preparatives are making for his entry. — de guerre, warlike preparations, the pomp and circumstance of war. — de pointage, Milit. sighting gear. — à signaux, signalling stores.

4. apparatus : a) a machine, instrument, or appliance used for performing operations in the sciences, arts, etc. ; b) Physiol. a collection of organs all ministering to the same functions ; c) Surg. said of the different modes of cutting for the stone. — simple, compliqué, a simple, a complicated apparatus. — de chimie, chemical apparatus. — digestif, digestive organs. — respiratoire, respiratory organs. — de locomotion, locomotive apparatus. Phot. — de photographie, photographic apparatus. — photographique d'agrandissement, enlarging photographic apparatus. — de chauffage, heating apparatus. Electr. — commutateur, switch board. — à gaz, gas apparatus.

5. Surg. case of instruments and appliances for dressing wounds ; bandage, dressing (of a wound). Faire un premier —, to apply a first dressing. Lever un —, to take off, to remove a dressing.

6. Arch. draughting and dressing of stones (for walls, arches, etc.) ; 7. course : layer of stones. Grand —, course of large stones. Petit —, courses of small stones. — réglé, regular courses (all of the same thickness). — oblique, oblique bond. — en épi, en feuille de fougère ou en arête de hareng, herring-bone bond.

8. Naut. purchase : capstan, windlass, tackle, lever, etc.

9. Mach. gear, gearing.

Prov. phr. Faute de bon — ou autrement, for want of propre care or otherwise.

APPAREILLADE, aparèyad', sf. Sport. pairing (of partridges).

APPAREILLAGE, aparèyazh', sm. 1. Naut. getting under sail : preparing to set sail ; 2. Agric. pairing or matching (of horses or other beasts of draught, for working together).

APPAREILLEMENT, aparèy'mân-t, sm. matching, pairing (as domestic animals for working or breeding).

APPAREILLER, aparèyé-r, [à : pareil], va. 1. to match ; 2. Arch. to mark stones for cutting and dressing (so as to fit well together) ; 3. to prepare, to make ready ; 4. to dress (cloth, etc.) ; 5. Naut. to set (a sail), to clear (an anchor, etc.) — des gants, des souliers, des vases, to match gloves, shoes, vases. — des chevaux, to match horses (for working together or for breeding).

6. vn. Naut. to sail, to get under sail, to set sail. Nous appareillâmes le lendemain, we sailed the next day.

APPAREILLER (s'), v. refl. 1. to join one's self to one's like ; 2. to pair (as birds). Ils sont dignes de s'—, they are worthy of each other, they are a good match, a good pair.

APPAREILLEUR, aparèyœr, sm. 1. Arch. stone-dresser ; 2. Technol. forwarder, dresser.

APPAREILLEUSE, aparèyœz', sf. (in an ill sense) procuress, go-between.

APPAREMMENT, aparamân-t, adv. apparently : a) evidently, manifestly ; b) seemingly, in appearance ; c) probably.

APPARENCE, aparâns', [Lat. : apparēre], sf. 1. appearance : a) external aspect, outward show, look ; b) semblance, show, not reality ; c) likelihood, probalibity. L'— d'un objet, the appearance of an object. Il ne faut pas toujours juger sur l'—, we must not always judge by appearances, La Font. Fab. XI, 7. Toutes les apparences sont contre vous, all appearances are against you. Avoir l'—, to have the appearance, to seem. Avoir de l'—, to appear to advantage. Ne pas avoir d'—, to appear to disadvantage, to make no show, no appearance. La récolte a une belle —, the harvest looks promising. Il tâche de sauver les apparences, he endeavours to save appearances. Je vois trop d'— à tout ce qu'il dit, I see too much probability in all he says.

En —, apparently, in appearance. Pour les apparences, for appearance' sake. Selon les apparences, according to appearances.

2. trace, vestige. Il ne reste plus à cette femme aucune — de beauté, that woman no longer retains any trace of beauty.

APPARENT, E, aparân-t, ânt', adj. 1. apparent : a) visible, plain, evident, manifest ; b) seeming, not real. Son droit est —, his right is apparent. Une tache apparente, a visible stain. L'horizon —, the visible horizon. Une piété apparente, seeming (or sham) piety. Le mouvement — du soleil autour de la terre, the apparent (seeming) motion of the sun round the earth. La hauteur apparente du soleil, the apparent altitude of the sun.

2. (of things) noticeable, conspicuous, remarkable. La maison la plus apparente de la ville, the most noticeable house in the town.

3. (of persons) notable, conspicuous, remarkable, eminent, distinguished : in this acceptation apparent is often used substantively. La personne la plus apparente d'une société, the most eminent, or distinguished person in a company.

4. specious, plausible. Voilà ce qu'on pouvait dire de plus — pour soutenir cet état, such are the most plausible arguments in support of this position.

APPARENTÉ, E, aparânté, adj. [nearly always qualified by mal or bien] related, connected (by birth or marriage). Bien —, well-related, of good family. Mal —, of low birth. Elle est fort bien apparentée, she is well-connected, she belongs to a good family.

APPARENTER aparânté-r [Lat. : parens, parentis, parent], va. to marry, to give relations by a matrimonial alliance. Bien — ses enfants to marry one's children well, to marry one's children into good families.

APPARENTER (s'), v. refl. (with à) to marry into. S'— à la noblesse, to marry into a noble family.

† APPARESSER, aparèsé-r, [à ; paresse], va. to render lazy or indolent (in body or mind). La chaleur apparesse, hot weather makes (people) indolent.

APPARIEMENT, APPARÎMENT, aparimân-t, sm. matching, pairing.

APPARIER, aparié-r, [à ; paire ; Lat. : par], va. to pair : to match in pairs. — les chevaux de carrosse, to match carriage-horses. — des gants, des bas, to pair gloves, stockings : to arrange them in pairs. — les oiseaux, to match birds (for breeding).

APPARIER (s), v. refl. to pair, to couple : said chiefly of birds.

APPARIEUR, EUSE, aparieur, œz', s. f. matchmaker : matrimonial agent.

APPARITEUR, aparitœr, [Lat. : apparitor], sm. 1. apparitor of an ecclesiastical court) ; 2. bedel, beadle (of a university).

APPARITION, aparisyôn, [apparaître], sf. 1. appearing, appearance ; 2. apparition : angel, ghost, spectre, phantom. A l'— de la nouvelle lune, on the appearing (or appearance) of the new moon. Alors notre ami fit son —, then our friend made his appearance. Sa brusque — les surprit, his sudden appearance surprised them. Il ne fit qu'une courte —, he made but a short appearance (or stay). Bien des gens croient encore aux apparitions, many people still believe in apparitions, in ghosts.

APPAROIR, aparwâr, vn. [Law-t. used only in the infinitive and the third pers. sing. pres. ind. : il appert.] to appear, to be apparent. Comme il appert par jugement du tribunal, as appears from a judgment of the tribunal. Il a fait — de son bon droit, he has shown, has established his just right.

APPARTEMENT, apartœmân-t, [Ital. : appartamento ; Low Lat. : appartimentum; partitio, division), sm. 1. apartments, suite (or set) of apartments ; 2. (under the old French monarchy) drawing-room : evening reception at Court. — à louer meublé ou non meublé, apartments to let (or to be let) furnished or unfurnished. Un — de quatre pièces, an apartment, a flat of your rooms. — de garçon, apartments (or lodging) for a single gentleman (generally consisting of two or three rooms without a kitchen).

APPARTENANCE, apartœnâns', [ap-partenir), sf. appurtenance, appertenance. Une maison et ses appartenances, a house and its appurtenances.

APPARTENANT, E, apartœnân-t, ânt', adj. appertaining, belonging. Une maison à lui appartenante, a house belonging to him.

APPARTENIR, apartœnir, [Lat. : ad, to ; pertinere], vn. [J'appartiens, nous appartenons, ils appartiennent ; j'appartenais, j'appartins ; j'appartiendrai ; appartenant, appartenu]. 1. to appertain, to belong ; a) to be the property, the attribute of ; b) to be in the service of : to be related to, connected with. L'Algérie appartient à la France, Algeria belongs to France. Tout cet argent m'appartient, all that money belongs to me. Je m'appartiens, I am my own master, I am free to act as I please. Le droit de grâce appartient au souverain, the right of pardon belongs to the sovereign. Cet homme vous appartient, that man belongs to you (is in your service). Il n'appartient d'aucun côté à la famille H., he does not in any way belong (is in no way related) to the H... family. Choses qui appartiennent à la philosophie, things appertaining, belonging to (or connected with) philosophy.

2. v. imp. Il appartient, 1. it is the duty, office, province of, it is for ; 2. it becomes, it behoves, it is meet, it is fit. Il appartient à un bon juge de..., it is the duty, the province, of an upright judge to... Il ne m'appartient point de,... il is not for me to... it ill becomes me to... Ironically : Il vous appartient bien de parler de générosité, it is all very fine for you to talk of generosity ! you are a fine fellow to talk of generosity ! Ainsi qu'il appartiendra, as shall be (or may be) deemed advisable. A tous ceux qu'il appartiendra, to all whom it may concern.

APPAS, apâ'z, [appât], sm. pl. 1. attractions, charms ; 2. (in an ill sense) attractions, allurements, seductions. V. APPAT.

APPÂT, apâ ; pl. apâ'z, sm. 1. bait to attract fish or wild animals) ; 2. Fig. bait, lure, allurement, enticement. Mettre l'— à un piége, à un hameçon, to bait a trap, a hook. Cette promesse n'est qu'un —, that promise is only a bait, a lure. L'— du gain, des honneurs, the lure, the allurement of gain, of honours APPÂTER, apâté-r, [appât], va. 1. to bait : to lay baits for ; 2. to feed (birds that cannot pick up, or children and persons unable to feed themselves. Il faut l'— comme un enfant, he has to be fed like a child.

3. to attract, to allure, to draw on.

APAUMÉ, E, apômé, [à ; paume], adj. Herald. appaumee.

APPAUVRIR, apôvrir, [à ; pauvre, poor], va. to impoverish : a) to make poor ; b) to exhaust (soil), — un pays, to impoverish, to pauperize a country. — une langue, to impoverish a language. Une alimentation insuffisante appauvrit le sang, an insufficiency of food impoverishes the blood. Ce système d'éducation appauvrit l'intelligence, that system of education impoverishes, starves the mind. Un pays appauvri par la guerre, a country impoverished by war. Sang appauvri, impoverished blood.

APPAUVRIR (s), v. refl. to impoverish one's self, to become impoverished : to grow or become poor. Les riches qui se sont appauvris, the rich who have impoverished themselves, or have sunk into poverty. Cette terre s'appauvrit d'année en année, that land grows (or gets) more and more impoverished every year.

APPAUVRISSEMENT, apôvris'mân-t, sm. 1. impoverishment (of a person, state, country, language, etc.) ; 2. degeneration, deterioration (of a breed of animals).

APPEAU, apô, [form of appel], sm. 1. call : an instrument for imitating the cries of birds or animals, bird-call, quail-pipe, partridge-call ; 2. decoy, decoy-bird, decoy-duck ; 3. Horol. bell for striking the quarters and half-hours.

APPEL, apèl, [Lat. : appellatio, call], sm. 1. call. Il n'a pas entendu votre —, he did not hear your call. Ce cri est un — au secours, that cry is a call for help. La cloche sonne l'— au dîner, the bell is ringing the dinner-call, is ringing for dinner.

2. calling over (of names). Faire l'— des jurés, des témoins, to call over the names of jurymen, of witnesses. — nominal, (in political and other deliberating assemblies) calling over the names of members : call of the House (in the English parliament). Manquer à l'—, to be absent.

3. appeal : recourse, petition, entreaty. Faire un — à la charité publique, à la générosité, au patriotisme d'une personne, to make an appeal to public charity, to the generosity, the patriotism of an individual. Il restait sourd a mon —, he remained deaf to my appeal. Faire — à la bourse de quelqu'un, to make an appeal to a man's purse.

4. challenge : calling out to fight a duel ; defiance. Les appels sont défendus comme les duels, challenges are forbidden as well as duels. Il n'a pas répondu à l'—, he did not answer the challenge.

5. Sport. call, cry (to encourage or direct dogs or horses).

6. Com. and Bank. call (for funds). Cette société a déjà fait un second — de fonds à ses actionnaires, that company has already made a second call on its share-holders.

7. Fenc. appel, appeal : a beat with the right foot.

8. Law-lang. calling on (of a cause for trial) ; 9. appeal (to a higher court against the judgment of a lower). Cour d'—, court of appeal. Acte d'—, notice of appeal. Causes et moyens d'—, grounds of appeal. Aller interjecter —, to lodge an appeal, to give notice of appeal. Sans —, without appeal. Sujet à —, open (or liable) to appeal ; appealable. — à minima, an appeal made by the public prosecutor against a judgment of a police tribunal on the ground of the insufficiency of the punishment awarded.

10. Milit. roll-call ; 11. calling out (of conscripts, to join the army) ; 12. beat or ruffle of the drum, sound of bugle (for roll-call or to fall in for duty). A l'—, at muster. Battre l'—, to beat the assembly. Faire l'—, to call the roll. Feuille d'—, muster-roll.

13. Naut. growing : direction of a cable or rope.

APPELABLE, ap'labl', adj. Law-t. appealable.

APPELANT, E, ap'lân-t, ânt', adj. Law-t. 1. adj. appellant, appealing ; 2. s. appellant. La partie appelante, the party appellant (or appealing), the appellant. L'— et l'intimé, the appellant and the appellee (or respondent) 3. decoy, decoy-bird.

APPELÉ, E, ap'lé, pa. p. called, named, etc. V. APPELER. Octave ensuite — Auguste, Octavius afterwards called Augustus. Beaucoup d'appelés et peu d'élus, many are called, but few chosen.

APPELER, ap'lé-r, [Lat. : appellāre], va. [takes a double l before a mute syllable : J'appelle, nous appelons, vous appelez, ils appellent; j'appelais, nous appelions; j'appelai, nous appelâmes; j'appellerai, nous appellerons; j'appellerais, nous appellerions; appelle, appelons, appelez; que j'appelle, que nous appelions, que vous appeliez, qu'ils appellent; que j'appelasse; appelant, appelé.] 1. to call : a) to ask, command, or beckon to come; b) to invite, to summon; c) to designate (for), to appoint (to); d) to attract; e) to direct; f) to name, to style.

a) Appelez votre ami, call your friend. — chacun par son nom, to call each person by name. — de la main, des yeux, du geste, to beckon with the hand, with a look, with a gesture. — le garcon, to call (or call for) the waiter. — au secours, à son secours, to call for help, to call to one's aid. Il appela la ruse à son secours, he called cunning to his aid. Louis XIV appela Colbert à ses conseils, Louis XIV, called Colbert to his councils. — son chien, to call one's dog. La brebis appelle son agneau, the ewe calls for her lamb. Le coq appelle les poules, la poule ses poussins, the cock calls (clucks or chucks) the hens, the hen her chickens.

b) Les cloches appelaient les chantres à matines, the bells were calling the chanters to matins. La patrie est en danger, l'honneur nous appelle, our country is in danger, honour calls us. Mes affaires m'appellent ailleurs, my business calls me elsewhere. Je vais où les destins m'appellent, I go where the fates call me. Dieu vient de l'— à lui. God has just called (or taken) him to Himself (said of a person deceased). Quand il plaira à Dieu de m'—, when it shall please God to call me. Dieu l'appela à la vie religieuse, God called him to the religious life.

c) Il fut appelé au trône, he was called to the throne. — quelqu'un à siéger dans le Sénat, to call a person to a seat in the Senate, — à une chaire un habile professeur. to call (or appoint) an able professor to a chair. Le génie de Turenne l'appela au commandement des armées, Turenne's genius designated him for the command of armies.

d) Un bruit extraordinaire appela notre attention, an unusual noise attracted our attention. Elle appela le regard par sa beauté peu commune, she attracted notice by her uncommon beauty.

e) Je veux — votre attention sur cette affaire, I wish to call (or direct) your attention to that matter.

f) Comment appelez-vous cet homme? what is that man's name? On l'appelle Jean, his name is John. Comment appellerez-vous votre premier enfant? what shall you call (what name shall you give to) your first child? Cette ville fut ainsi appelée du nom de son fondateur, that city was so called from the name of its founder. — les choses par leur nom, to call things by their right names : to be plain-spoken. J'appelle un chat un chat, et Rollet un fripon, I call a spade a spade, and Rollet a rascal. Boil. Sat. 1. Elle l'appela voleur, she called him a thief. Hérodote, qu'on appelle le père de l'histoire, Herodotus who is called the father of history. J'appelle un véritable ami celui qui...! I call a true friend one (or him) who... C'est ce qu'on appelle franchir les bornes de la décence, that is what we call overstepping the bounds of decency. Voilà ce qu'on peut — de la peinture, de la poésie, etc., that is what may truly be called painting, poetry, etc.

2. to call over (a list of names).

3. to call in : to send for. — un médecin, to call in a doctor. — la police, to call in the police. [In some phrases to call out has a similar meaning : — la garde, la troupe, les pompiers, to call out the guard, the military, the fireman.]

4. to call for : a) to summon to one's presence; b) to demand, to require, to claim. — un médecin, to call for a doctor. Ces abus appellent une réforme, those abuses call for (require) a reform. Ce crime appelle toute la sévérité des lois, this crime calls for (demands) all the rigour of the laws. Cette question appelle toute votre attention, that question demands all your attention. Un mensonge en appelle un autre, one lie calls for another.

5. to call down : to invoke. — sur quelqu'un le mépris public, to call down public contempt on a person. — les bénédictions du ciel sur un pays, to call down (to invoke) the blessing of heaven on a country. — des malédictions sur, to call down curses on.

6. to call on (or upon) : to invoke. Il appela en témoignage le ciel et la terre, he called on (or called) heaven and earth to witness, he invoked the testimony of heaven and earth.

7. to call out : to challenge (for a duel).

8. to excite. Ces colifichets sont propres à — les respects de la multitude, these bawbles (or gewgaws) are calculated to excite the respect of the multitude. Ni les fleurs, ni les forêts, ni le torrent n'appelaient vos regards, neither the flowers, nor the forests, nor the torrent excited your attention. G. Sand.

9. to announce. La corneille appelle la pluie, the crow announce rain. Le coq appelle le jour, the cock announces the dawn.

10. Law-lang. to call, to call on (a cause for trial); 11. to call up, to cite, to summon (before a tribunal); 12. to subpœna (a witness). — en justice. (in civil causes) to sue; (in criminal causes) to prosecute. — en témoignage ou comme témoin, to subpœna (or to call) as a witness.

13. Milit. to call over (the muster-roll); 14. to call out. — les vétérans, la réserve, to call out the veterans, the reserve. On a appelé le contingent de cette année, this year's levy (of conscripts, or recruits) has been called out. Être appelé sous les drapeaux, to be called into the service.

APPELER, vn. 1. to call. Il appela et personne ne vient, he calls but no one comes.

2. to appeal : a) Law-t, to have recourse to a superior tribunal against the judgment of an inferior court; b) Fig. to demur, to object to an opinion, etc. Il a appelé de ce jugement, he has appealed from (or against) that judgment. — d'abus ou comme d'abus, to appeal to a civil tribunal against a judgment or act of an ecclesiastical authority on the ground of abuse of power. J'appelle de votre décision, I appeal from (or demur to) your decision. En —, to appeal (against). Il en a appelé, 1. he has given notice of appeal, has lodged an appeal; 2. Colloq. he has got over it, has recovered (said of a person who has recovered from a dangerous illness). Vauban est infaillible, on n'en appelle point, Vauban is infaillible, there is no appeal from his decision. La Bruy, 12. J'en appelle à votre conscience, I appeal to your conscience (on the point). En — à la postérité, to appeal to posterity. Il pouvait en — à l'épée, he might have appealed to the sword.

3. Sport. to give tongue (as a dog when on the scent of game).

4. Naut. to grow : to stretch out (as a cable or rope).

APPELER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be called or named. La mort ne peut s'— un mal, death cannot be called an evil. Comment vous appelez-vous? what is your name? Comment s'appelle cette plante? what is this plant called, what is the name of this plant? Parce que je m'appelle Lion, because my name is Lion. Voilà ce qui s'appelle parler, that is something like speaking.

2. to call or style one's self. Le monarque de la Perse s'appelle le roi des rois, the Persian monarch calls (or styles) himself the king of kings.

3. to call or shout to each other. Pour ne pas se séparer dans le bois, ils s'appelaient de temps en temps, in order not to get separated in the wood, they called (or shouted) to each other at intervals.

APPELLATIF, IVE, apèllatif, iv', adj. Gram. appellative. Nom —, appellative or noun appellative.

APPELLATION, apèllasyôn; in poet. siôn, sf. 1. calling; 2. naming, 3. appellation; 4. Law-t. appeal. — des lettres, naming the letters (in spelling). Mille appellations charmantes, a thousand pretty appellations, La cour a mis l'— à néant, the court has dismissed the appeal.

APPENDANT, E, apândân-t, ânt', adj. appendant.

APPENDICE, apandis', [Lat. : appendix], sm. 1. appendix : a) supplement to a book; b) Nat. Scien. a part in continuity or connection; 2. appendage (as the tail of an animal); 3. Anat. apophysis, process.

APPENDICIFORME, apandisifòrm', adj. appendiciform.

APPENDICITE, apandiscit, sf. Med. appendicitis : inflammation of the vermiform appendix of the cæcum.

APPENDICULAIRE, apandikulèr', adj. appendicular.

APPENDICULE, apandikul', sm. appendicule : small appendage.

APPENDICULÉ, E, apandikulé, adj. Hist. Nat. appendiculate.

APPENDRE, apândr, [Lat. : ad, to; pendĕre, to hang], va. to append : to hang up against). Une offrande appendue aux colonnes du temple, an offering appended to the columns of the temple.

APPENTIS, apânti, sm. pent-house, lean-to : a shed built against a main wall.

APPERT, apêr, impers. v. V. APPAROIR.

APPESANTI, E, apœzânti, pa. p. 1. made heavy; 2. weighed down; 3. (adject.) heavy, dull, sluggish.

APPESANTIR, apœzântir, [à; pesant, heavy], va. 1. to make or render heavy; 2. to weigh down, to oppress; 3. (with sur, on) to lay heavy, to bear hard; 4. to impair, to dull (the mental powers). La pluie avait appesanti ses habits, the rain had made his clothes heavy. Le sommeil appesantit ses yeux, ses paupières, sleep made his eyes, his eye-lids heavy. L'oisivveté appesantit le corps et l'esprit, idleness impairs the powers of both body and mind. Chaque jour le tyran appesantit son joug, the tyrant made his yoke heavier every day.

APPESANTIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to become, to get, or grow heavy; 2. to be weighed down or oppressed; 3. (with sur, on, upon), to be heavy, to lie (or be laid) heavy; 4. to be impaired, to get or grow dull (in speaking of the mind. Le drap s'appesantit lorsqu'on le trempe dans l'eau, cloth becomes heavy when dipped in water. La main de Dieu s'appesantit sur Israel, the hand of God lay heavy on Israel.

5. (with sur) to dwell on or upon, to expatiate on, to insist on. L'auteur s'appesantit trop sur son sujet, the author dwells too long on his subject. Il s'appesantit trop sur les détails, he dwells too much on details. La Bruy. Je veux bien ne pas m'appesantir là-dessus, I am quite willing (or well pleased) not to insist on that point.

APPESANTISSEMENT, apœzântis'mân-t, sm. 1. heaviness (of body or mind) ; 2. dulness (of the mental faculties) ; 3. chastisement.

APPÉTENCE, apétâns', sf. appetence, appetency : an instinctive craving. Dans certaines gastralgies on observe une vive — pour les acides, certain gastralgies cause an eager craving for acids.

APPÉTER, apeté-r, [Lat. : appetĕre, to desire], va. [J'appète ; j'appéterai] to crave or desire (instinctively).

APPÉTIBILITÉ, apétibilité, sf. appetibility desirability.

APPÉTIBLE, apétibl', adj. appetible, desirable.

APPÉTISSANT, E, apètisân-t, ânt', adj. 1. appetizing : exciting appetite ; 2. tempting. Mets —, an appetizing dish. Elle est gentille et fort appétissante, she is pretty and very tempting.

APPÉTIT, apéti, pl. apéti-z, [Lat. : appetitus, desire], sm. 1. appetite : a) natural desire to gratify any of the senses ; b) desire for food, stomach ; c) object of eager desire. — sensuel, charnel, dépravé, sensual, carnal, depraved appetite. Un bon —, a good appetite. Un — de cheval, a wolf's appetite. Exciter, éveiller, aiguiser l'—, to excite, to rouse, to whet the appetite. Gagner de l'—, to get an appetite. Manger avec —, to eat with appetite, with relish. Oter, émousser l'—, to take away. to spoil one's appetite. Demeurer, rester sur son —, to leave off eating while able to eat more ; to check one's appetite.

A l'— de, adv phr. for the sake of. Il a fait des bassesses à l'— de quelques francs, he has been guilty of mean actions for the sake of a few francs. Prov. : Il n'est chère que d'appétit ; à bon appétit il ne faut pas de sauce, hunger is the best sauce. L'appétit est le meilleur cuisinier, hunger makes hard bones sweet beans. L'appétit vient en mangeant, appetite comes with eating ; much would have more.

APPÉTITIF, VE, apétitif, iv', adj. appetitive.

APPÉTITION, apétisyôn, sf. appetition, ardent desire.

APPIÈCEMENT, apiès'mân-t, sm. piecing. V. RAPIÈCEMENT.

APPIEN, ENNE, appyan, pyèn, adj. Appian : of Claudius Appius (312 B.C.)

APPLAUDIR, aplôdir, [Lat. : ad, to ; plaudĕre, plausum, to applaud], vn. 1. to applaud : a) to praise by clapping the hands or by cheering b) to praise, to approve, to commend. A son entrée tout le monde applaudit, at his entrance everybody applauded (or cheered). — aux acteurs, to applaud the performers.

2. va. to applaud. — une pièce, une scène, un acteur, un orateur, to applaud a play, a scene, an actor ; to applaud or cheer an orator. Il est applaudi de tout le monde, he is applauded by everybody.

APPLAUDIR (s'), v. refl. (with de). 1. to applaud or praise one's self (for) ; 2. to glory (in) ; 3. to congratulate one's self (on), to rejoice (at or over). Les sots s'applaudissent sans cesse, fools are always praising themselves. Il s'applaudit de ce qu'il a fait, he glories in what he has done.

APPLAUDISSEMENT, aplôdis'mân-t, sm. applause : a) clapping of hands, cheers, plaudits ; b) praise, commendation. Un tonnerre d'applaudissements, a thunder of applause. Longs applaudissements, prolonged cheers, continued cheers. Salve d'applaudissements, round of applause, round of cheers, of cheering.

APPLAUDISSEUR, aplôdisœr, sm. (generally in a ill sense) applauder. Des applaudisseurs à gages, hired applauders.

APPLICABILITÉ, aplikabilité, sf. applicability, applicableness.

APPLICABLE, aplikabl', adj. applicable, appliable : a) that may be applied ; b) intended (for). Une amende — aux pauvres, a fine applicable to (or for the benefit of) the poor. Argent — à cette dépense, money applicable to that expense. Cette règle n'est pas — à tous les cas, that rule is not applicable to (does not apply in) all cases. Cette loi n'est pas — aux mineurs, that law is not applicable (does not apply) to minors.

APPLICATION, aplikâsyôn ; in poet. siôn) sf. application : a) the act of applying, laying or putting on ; b) the thing applied ; c) the act of directing or referring a remark, criticism, law, etc., to a particular person or case ; also, of applying a principle or a process to a particular purpose ; d) the act of fixing the mind, intentness of thought, intense study, mental effort, attention ;) appropriation of funds, etc. ; f) Geom. laying of one figure on another to prove equality or inequality ; g) Theol. imputation.

a) L'— d'une couche de vernis sur un tableau, d'un emplâtre sur une plaie, the application of a coat of varnish to a painting, of a plaster to (or on) a sore.

b) On me tint deux jours avec des applications sur le bras, I was kept two days with applications (dressings) on my arm. Je suis tenté d'étrange sorte de lui faire sur le mufle une —, I am strangely tempted to give him a slap on the chops. Mol. Dépit am. II. 7.

c) L'— d'une fable, the application (the moral) of a fable. L'— que vous faites de ce principe, the application you make of this principle. Cette loi n'a point ici d'—, that law has no application, does not apply, in this case. L'— rigoureuse d'une loi, the strict application (or enforcement) of a law. Les juges ont été trop indulgents dans l'— de la peine, the judges have been too indulgent in the application of (in awarding) the punishment. L'— de l'astronomie à la géographie, de la chimie à la médecine, de l'algèbre à la géométrie, the application of astronomy to geography, of chemistry to medicine, of algebra to geometry. Dentelle d'—, applique lace. — d'Angleterre, Honiton lace. Cette méthode est susceptible d'une multitude d'applications, this method is capable of numerous applications. L'— de ce procédé n'a pas réussi, the application of this process did not succeed.

d) Il est capable d'une — soutenue, he is capable of persistent application. Cela ne peut se faire sans quelque — de mémoire, that cannot be done without some effort of memory. Cette étude demande une grande —, that study requires intense application. Il met toute son — à vous plaire, he spares no effort to please you.

e) Cet argent a son —, this money has its appropriation. On a détourné ces fonds de leur —, these funds have been diverted from their proper application.

f) Les chrétiens seront justifiés par l'— des mérites de Jésus-Christ, Christians will be justified by the imputation (or application) of the merits (or righteousness) of Christ.

APPLIQUE, aplik', sf. Tech. 1. setting, charging, mounting (of ornaments on plate or jewellerie) ; 2. bracket, wall-bracket. — à gaz, gas bracket. Pièce d'—, a separate part of a piece of plate joined to it by a hinge, a rivet, etc.

3. Cabinet-m, inlaid work ; 4. triangular lamp, bracket lamp (used to light passages, etc.).

APPLIQUÉ, E, apliké, pa. p. and adj. 1. applied. V. APPLIQUER. Un emplâtre — sur une tumeur, a plaster applied to a tumor. Soufflet bien —, a well-applied blow. Argent — à des dépenses utiles, money applied (employed or devoted) to useful expenses. Science appliquée aux arts, science applied to the arts.

2. attentive, sedulous ; 3. studious. Votre enfant est — à son devoir, your child is attentive to his duty. Un élève —, a studious pupil.

APPLIQUÉE, sf. Geom. applicate-ordinate, double ordinate.

APPLIQUER, apliké-r, [Lat. : applicāre], 1. to apply : a) to put, lay, set, place on, to, or against ; b) to put to a particular use ; c) to appropriate, to convert to use, to employ ; d) to make use of, as suitable or fitting ; e) to attribute, to impute, f) to enforce (a law), to award (a punishment ; g) to give, to devote, (one's attention, etc.).

a) — un cataplasme, un emplâtre sur une plaie, to apply a poultice, a plaster to a sore — des ventouses à, to apply cupping-glasses to, to cup (a person). des couleurs sur une toile, to apply colours to canvas, to lay colours on canvas. — un patron sur l'étoff que l'on veut tailler, to apply a pattern to (to lay a pattern on) the stuff to be cut. Appliquez votre main sur mon cœur, apply your hand to (lay or place your hand on or against) my heart. Il prit la coupe et l'appliqua sur ses lèvres, he took the cup and applied (put or raised) it to his lips. — un sceau sur la cire, to apply a seal to wax. — un fer chaud à l'épaule, to brand on the shoulder with a hot iron. — des échelles contre la muraille, to set (or place) ladders against the wall.

b) — un système, une science, to apply a system, a science. — l'algèbre à la géométrie, la chimie à l'agriculture, to apply algebra to geometry, chemistry to agriculture. On peut — ce procédé dans une foule de cas, this process may be applied in many cases. On a appliqué la force expansive de la vapeur à la locomotion, the expansive force of steam has been applied to locomotion.

c) — une somme d'argent, to apply (or employ) a sum of money. Il s'est appliqué tous les goûts de l'entreprise, he appropriated to himself (or converted to his own use) all the profits of the enterprise.

d) — un vers à quelqu'un, to apply a verse to any one. — un proverbe à propos, to apply a proverb appropriately. Ne vous appliquez pas ce reproche, do not apply that reproach to yourself. Il s'applique à lui-même tout ce qu'on dit, he applies to himself everything that people say. Pour — cette maxime à mon sujet, to apply this maxim to my subject.

e) S'— une qualité, un avantage, to attribute (or apply) to one's self a quality, an advantage. Ce professeur s'applique tous les éloges qu'on donne à ses élèves, that professeur applies (or attributes) to himself all the praise given to his pupils.

f) — un homme à la torture, to put a man to the rack. Le maximum de la peine lui fut appliqué, the maximum punishment was applied (or awarded) to him.

g) — son esprit à la recherche de la vérité to apply (or give) one's mind to the search for truth. — son attention à, to devote one's attention to.

2. (in a neuter sense) to require close application or study. Les échecs appliquent beaucoup, chess requires very close application 3. to stick, to stick up, to post (bills, placards); 4. to give, to deal, to administer (a blow, kick, or beating). — des affiches contre un mur, to stick bills on a wall. 5. to administer (the sacraments).

APPLIQUER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be applied: to be put, laid, set, placed, on, to, or against. Les emplâtres qui s'appliquent sur la peau, plasters which are applied to (or laid on) the skin.

2. to apply one's self, to devote, to give one's mind or attention (to a thing), to make it one's study, to strive, to endeavour (to). Je me suis appliqué à, I applied myself to, I made it my study to. Ceux qui s'appliquent trop aux petites choses, those who devote their attention (give their minds) too much to trifles. S'— à l'étude des sciences, to apply one's self to the study of the sciences. Cet enfant ne veut pas s'—, that boy will not study, has no application.

3. to apply: to be applicable, to suit. Cette loi ne s'applique pas au cas dont il s'agit, that law does not apply (is not applicable) to the case in question.

APPOGIATURE, apodzhyatur', [Ital.: appogiatura], sf. Mus. apoggiatura.

APPOINT, apwan-t, [Lat.: ad, to; punctus, salary), sm. 1. Com. appoint: balance due on an account; 2. old money (to complete a payment made in banknotes or large coins). Faire l'—, to make up a sum with small change.

APPOINTÉ, E, apwanté, adj. 1. Law-t. referred (for further deliberation); 2. salaried: having a salary; 3. Herald. appointee: placed point to point; 4. sm. Milit. soldier or officer receiving extra pay.

APPOINTEMENT, apwant'mân-t, sm. 1. Law-t. order, rule (for further examination of a cause); 2. pl. salary: yearly stipend. Recevoir de faibles, de gros appointements, to receive a low, a high salary. Il a mille écus d'appointements, he has a salary of one thousand crowns. [Fam. lang.:] C'est lui qui fournit à l'—, it is he who supplies the needful.

APPOINTER, apwanté-r, va. 1. Law-t. to refer (for further inquiry); 2. to salary, to give a salary (a clerk, etc.); 3. Milit. to punish (a soldier with extra drill or fatigue duty); 4. to point, to cut to a point; 5. to tack, to stitch together.

APPOINTEUR, apwwantœr, sm. Law-t. referee.

APPOINTIR, apwantir, [à; pointe], va, to give a point to. — des aiguilles, to point needles.

APPONTEMENT, apônt'mân-t, [à; pont], sm. 1. wooden stage or bridge; 2. Naut. gang-board, landing stage.

APPORT, apôr, [apporter], sm. 1. market: formerly said of the Grand Chatelet market in Paris; 2. Law-t. property (real or personal) which a husband or wife brings to the common estate (V. COMMUNAUTÉ); 3. (in partnerships) share of capital (contributed by each partner); 4. Law-t. deposit (of documents). Acte d'—, deposit receipt: acknowledgment of documents deposited.

APPORTER, apòrtè-r, [Lat.: ad, to; portāre], va. 1. to bring: a) to carry anything to a person or place; b) to have in one's self; c) to contribute, to furnish, to supply; d) to cause, to produce, to give rise to.

a) — de Lyon à Paris, to bring from Lyons to Paris. Apportez-moi le livre qui est sur la table, bring me the book that lies on the table. — du dehors, de loin, to bring from abroad, from afar. — des marchandises par eau, to bring goods by water.

b) Les vices que nous apportons en naissant, the vices we bring with us at our birth. — des consolations, to bring consolation.

c) Dans cette société les uns apportent leur industrie, les autres leurs capitaux, in that company (or partnership) some contribute their personal exertions, others their cash. Elle apporte en mariage dix mille livres de rente, she brings her husband an income of ten thousand francs. La vieillesse apporte souvent des infirmités, old age often brings (is often attended with) infirmities. La guerre apporte bien des calamités, war brings or causes many calamities. Cette entreprise a apporté de grands bénéfices, that undertaking brought (yielded or produced) large profits.

2. to bring forward, to adduce, to allege, to cite (an author), to produce (proofs. — de bonnes raisons, to bring forward (or adduce) good reasons.

3. to apply. — remède or un remède, to apply a remedy.

4. to bestow, to use, to employ. — une grande attention à une affaire, to bestow great attention on an affair. Il faut que vous y apportiez beaucoup de précaution, you must use great precaution in that matter. Il a apporté beaucoup de soins à l'examen de cette affaire, he examined that affair with the most minute care.

APPORTIONNER, aporsyoné-r, va. to apportion.

APPOSER, apôzé-r, [à; poser; Lat.: ad, to; ponĕre, to put), va. 1. to affix: to put, to set (a seal on anything). — un sceau sur un acte, to affix (to set, or put) a seal to a document. — les scellés, Law-t. to seal up, to put under seal (as the property of a deceased person).

2. to append, to put (one's signature to a document); 3. to insert, to add. — une clause, une condition à un contract, to add a clause to (or insert a clause in) a contract.

APPOSITION, apôzisyôn, sf. 1. affixing: setting or putting to (as of seals); 2. appending (of a signature, etc.); 3. addition, insertion: anything added to a document; 4. Mineral and Gram. apposition. Les minéraux croissent par —, minerals grow by apposition.

APPRÉCIABILITÉ, aprésiabilité, sf. appreciability.

APPRÉCIABLE, aprésiabl', adj. appreciable. Quantité à peine — aux sens, a quantity scarcely appreciable by the senses.

APPRÉCIATEUR, TRICE, aprésiatœr, tris', smf. 1. appreciator; 2. valuer, appraiser. Il trouva des appréciateurs de son talent, he found appreciators of his talent.

APPRÉCIATIF, IVE, aprésiatif, iv', adj. appreciative. Dresser un état appréciatif, to draw up an estimate, a valuation.

APPRÉCIATION, aprésiasyòn, sf. 1. valuation, estimate; 2. appreciation: the act of appreciating. — d'une propriété, the valuation of an estate. L'— du mérite d'un homme, the appreciation of a man's merits.

APPRÉCIE, aprési, sf. official average (of the prices of grain).

APPRÉCIER, aprésié-r, [Lat.: appreciāre; ad, to; pretium, price], va. 1. to value: to estimate the value of merchandize or property in general. Ce diamant a été apprécié à mille livres, this diamond has been valued at one thousand pounds.

2. Fig. to appreciate. — les qualités, le mérite, les services de quelqu'un, to appreciate the qualities, the merits, the services of a person. — un livre, un auteur, to appreciate a book, an author. J'apprécie vos avis, I appreciate (set a high value on) your counsels, your opinions. Se faire — par les honnêtes gens, to win, to obtain the good opinion of all honest men.

APPRÉCIER (s'), v. refl. 1. to appreciate one's self; 2. to set a value on. Les hommes d'un réel mérite savent s'—, men of real merit know their own value. Ces deux nobles cœurs surent s'—, these two noble hearts knew how to appreciate each other. Ce tableau ne saurait s'—, this picture is beyond all price, is invaluable.

APPRÉHENDER, apréandé-r, [Lat.: apprehendĕre; ad, to; prehendĕre, -hensum, to lay hold of], va. to apprehended: a) to take up, to take into custody, to arrest (for a criminal offence); b) to arrest (for debt); c) Fig. to be apprehensive, to be under the apprehension; to fear, to dread. On l'a appréhendé au corps, he has been apprehended, arrested, or taken up. J'appréhende un conflit, I am apprehensive of a conflict. — le froid, to fear, to dread the cold. — les suites d'une faute, to fear (to dread, to be apprehensive of) the consequences of a fault. J'appréhende qu'il ne vienne pas, I apprehend (fear, am apprehensive, or am under the apprehension) that he will not come. J'appréhende qu'il ne vienne, I fear (am under the apprehension) that he will come. [These last two examples show that when the thing apprehended is not desired, the verb in the subjunctive requires ne... pas and only ne when the thing is desired.]

APPRÉHENSIBILITÉ, apréansibilité, sf. apprehensibility

APPRÉHENSIBLE, apréansibl', adj. apprehensible.

APPRÉHENSIF, IVE, apréansif, iv', adj. apprehensive: fearful.

APPRÉHENSION, apréansyôn; in poet. siôn, sf. apprehension: a) the faculty of conceiving ideas; b) Log. the first idea conceived of anything; c) fear, dread. Il avait l'— vive, le discernement bon, he was a man of quick apprehension, of good discernment. Avoir des appréhensions, to be under apprehension.

APPRENDRE, aprândr', [conj. like the verb craindre: Lat.: apprehendĕre], va. [J'apprends, j'apprenais, j'appris, j'apprendrai, que j'apprenne, apprenant, appris.] 1. to learn: a) to obtain a knowledge of, to make one's self acquainted with (an art, a science, etc.); b) to acquire the habit of; c) to be informed (or apprized) of, to hear; d) to know, to be assured.

a) J'apprendrai l'allemand. I shall learn German. — à jouer du piano, to learn to play (or to play on) the piano. Est-ce que les gens de qualité apprennent aussi la musique? do people of quality also learn music? Mol. B. Gen. 1, 2. — par cœur, to learn by heart, by rote: to commit to memory. — à fond to learn thoroughly. — des nouvelles, to hear news.

b) Il a appris à ses dépens, he has learned to his cost. J'ai appris à supporter le malheur, I have learned how to bear misfortune.

c) J'ai appris par votre lettre I have learned from (or by) your letter. Apprends le reste, hear the rest. J'ai tout appris de lui et par lui, I have heard (or learned) everything about him and from himself. Dès que César eût appris par ses éclaireurs que,.., as soon as Cæsar had learned from (or been apprized by) his scouts, that... Quelles nouvelles avez-vous apprises ? what news have you heard? Il vient d'— la mort de son fils, he has just heard (been apprized or informed) of his son's death.

d) Il apprendra qui je suis, he shall learn or know) who I am. Qu'est-ce que j'apprends ? what do I hear ?

2. (in a neuter sense) to learn. Il apprend continuellement, he is always learning. — facilement, to learn easily (or with ease). On apprend à tout âge, one may learn at any age ; it is never too late to learn. Je l'ai appris de bonne part, I have it on good authority.

3. to teach. [To learn was very generally employed in this sense till near the end of 18th century, but it is now incorrect and vulgar.] — la grammaire à un enfant to teach a child grammar, to teach grammar to a child. J'ai appris à lire à mon fils. I have taught my son to read. — un métier à quelqu'un, to teach a person a trade. L'histoire nous apprend que..., history teaches us that... Les bêtes nous apprennent à vivre, animals teach us how to live. Je lui apprendrai bien à vivre, à parler, I will teach him better manners (how to conduct himself properly). Je veux — à vivre à votre mère, I will teach your mother good manners. Mol. Fem. sav. v. 2.

4. to apprize, to inform, to tell. On m'a appris la mort de votre oncle, I have been informed (or apprized) of your uncle's death. L'histoire ou la tradition nous apprend que..., history or tradition informs (tells or teaches) us that. Prov. : On apprend à tout âge, it is never too late to learn ; live and learn. On apprend à hurler avec les loups, he who lives with cripples learns to limp. Ce qu'on apprend au ber (for berceau) dure jusqu'au ver, what is bred in the bone won't come out of flesh.

APPRENDRE (s'), v. refl. 1. to teach one's self ; 2. to teach each other ; 3. to be learned ; 4. to know, to come to one's knowledge. Cette dame s'est appris à filer, that lady has taught herself to spin. Ils se sont appris à tourmenter les gens, they have taught each other to torment people. Les arts s'apprennent par la pratique, the arts are learned by practice. Une bonne nouvelle ne s'apprend jamais assez vite, good news is never known (never comes) too soon.

APPRENTI, E, aprànti, [from apprendre], smf. 1. apprentice : a) boy or girl learning a trade. Fig. novice, tyro, beginner. Un apprenti menuisier, a joiner's apprentice. Cette couturière a trois apprenties, this dress-maker has three apprentice girls, three apprentices.

2. adj. apprenticed (to a shopkeeper or artisan) ; articled (to an artist or professional man).

APPRENTISSAGE, apràntisazh', sm. apprenticeship : a) the act of learning an art or a trade ; b) the time served by an apprentice ; c) Fig. first steps in any career. Faire son —, to serve one's apprenticeship. Contract (or police) d'—, indentures of apprenticeship. Mettre en —, to put apprentice, to bind apprentice, to apprentice. Sortir d'—, to complete one's apprenticeship, to be out of one's time. Au sortir d'—, on completing one's time. Fig. Faire l'— de la guerre, de la politique, to learn the art of war, of statesmanship.

APPRESSÉ, E, aprèsé, (presser), adj. Bot. appressed or apprest.

APPRET, aprè-t, pl. aprè-z, [Lat. : ad, to ; paratus, prepared], sm. 1. preparation : a) the act of preparing ; b) anything prepared. L'— de tout ce qui était nécessaire pour son voyage, the preparation (or preparing) of everything necessary for his voyage.

2. preparative : precious measure, anything prepared. Les apprêts d'un bal, d'un voyage, the preparatives (or preparations) for a ball, for a voyage.

3. Fig. affectation, affectedness : stiffness in manner, style, or language. L'— de ses manières, the affectation of his manners ; his affected manners.

4. cooking, dressing, preparing (of food, etc.) ; 5. dressing : finishing of cotton and linen tissues ; 6. hot-pressing (of woollens) ; 7. dress, dressing : the solution of gum, starch, etc., used to stiffen cottons and linen ; 8. Paint. priming : the first coat of colour applied ; 9. painting on glass.

APPRÊTAGE, aprètazh', sm. dressing : the application of a stiffening or glaze to tissues.

† APPRÊTE, aprèt', sf. sippet : long and narrow slice of bread.

APPRÊTÉ, E, aprèté, pa. p. 1. prepared, made ready ; 2. cooked, (dressed as food) ; 3. packed (as cards, for the purpose of cheating) ; 4. studied. Un ragoût bien —, a well-made ragout. Exorde apprêtée, a studied (or cut and dry) exordium, Grâces apprêtées, studied graces.

APPRÊTER, aprèté-r, [Low Lat. : ad, to ; præsto, ready ; O. Fr. : aprestar, aprester], va. 1. to prepare : a) to make or get ready. — le dîner, to prepare (or get ready) the dinner. Il apprêtait ses armes, he was preparing his arms (or weapons). Vous vous apprêtez bien des désagréments, you are preparing many annoyances for yourself.

2. to cook, to dress (food). Comment faut-il — ce lièvre, how must this hare be dressed ?

3. to dress : to finish calicos, leather, etc., by applying a dressing, glaze, or varnish ; 4. to hot press (woollens).

APPRÊTER, vn. 1. to cook : to dress food. Cette cuisinière apprête bien, this cook is clever at her business. — à manger, to cook.

2. — à rire, to give cause for laughter, to set people laughing, Vous allez — à rire à tout le monde, you will make everybody laugh at you, will make yourself a general laughing-stock.

APPRÊTER (s'), v. refl. 1. to prepare one's self, to prepare, to get ready ; 2. to be preparing (or in preparation) ; 3. to be gathering or brewing (in speaking of a storm) ; 4. to be near at hand, to approach. Je m'apprête à partir, I am preparing myself to start. Le dîner s'apprête, the dinner is preparing or in preparation. Un orage s'apprête, a storm is gathering, is brewing.

APPRÊTEUR, EUSE, aprètœr, œz', smf. dresser, finisher.

APPRIMÉ, E, aprimé, adj. Bot. appressed.

APPRIS, E, apri, iz', pa. p. V. APPRENDRE. 1. learned ; 2. taught, instructed ; 3. brought up, trained. Une leçon apprise par cœur, a lesson got by heart, learned by rote. Mal —, ill-bred, unmannerly. C'est un mal —, he is an ill-bred fellow. En homme bien —, like a well-bred man.

APPRIVOISABLE, aprivwazab'l, adj. tamable.

APRIVOISEMENT, aprivwaz'mân-t, sm. taming, domestication (chiefly said of wild animals).

APPRIVOISER, aprivwazé-r, [Low Lat. : apprivitiāre, formed from ad, to ; privus, private], va. to tame : a) to domesticate, to reclaim from wildness ; b) to make (or render) docile, familiar, or sociable ; c) to subdue, to conquer (as pride, passion, etc.). — un lion, un ours, to tame a lion, a bear. C'est un homme d'une humeur sauvage, on a bien de la peine à l'—, he is a man of a savage humour, it is no easy matter to tame him, to render him sociable. — l'orgueil de quelqu'un, to tame, to subdue a person's pride.

APPRIVOISER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be tamed; 2. to grow, get or become tame (in speaking of animals) ; 3. (avec, with) to get familiar or sociable (in speaking of persons), familiar (with), used or accustomed to (things). L'ours s'apprivoise facilement, the bear is easily tamed, soon gets tame. Cet enfant s'est apprivoisé peu à peu avec nous, this child has gradually become familair, sociable with us. S'— avec le vice ou le danger, to become familiar with (or accustomed to) vice or danger.

APPROBATEUR, TRICE, aprobatœr, tris', s. mf. 1. approver : one who approves or sanctions. L'— du médisant devient son complice, the approver of the slanderer becomes his accomplice.

2. adj. approving. Regard approbateur, an approving look, a look of approval (or of approbation).

APPROBATIF, IVE, aprobatif, iv', adj. approving, approbatory. Geste approbatif, an approving gesture, a gesture of approbation or approval.

APPROBATION, aprobàsyon ; in poet. sion, [Lat. : approbatio ; approbāre, to approve], sf. approbation, approval. Donner son —, to give one's approbation. Je n'en ferai rien sans votre —, I will do nothing without your approbation. Livre imprimé avec — et privilège du roi, a book printed with the royal approbation and privilege. Ce discours eut l'— générale, that speech met (or was received) with general approbation.

APPROBATIVEMENT, aprobativ'mân-t, adv. approvingly, with approbation.

APPROCHABLE, aproshabl', adj. 1. approachable (as places) ; 2. accessible (as persons or places).

APPROCHANT, E, aproshân-t, ânt', adj. 1. like, akin, near akin, not unlike. La manière de ce peintre est fort approchante de celle du Titien, this painter's manner is very like (or near, akin to) Titian's. Un barbare — de la brute, a barbarian akin to the brute. Je n'ai pas dit cela ni rien d'—, I did not say that or anything like it (or akin to it).

2. approximate, approximative. Les calculs astronomiques, quoique extrêmement approchants, astronomical calculations, though closely approximative. Ce n'est pas cela, mais quelque chose d'—, it is not that, but something like it.

3. near, close at hand. La nuit, de plus, était fort approchante. moreover night was close at hand.

4. adv. Il a vingt ans —, he is nearly, twenty. Il avait cinq cents hommes ou —, he had five hundred men or thereabouts. Il est huit heures ou —, it is eight o'clock or thereabouts.

5. prep. about, near to. Nous partîmes — six heures, we started about six o'clock.

APPROCHE, aprosh', [à ; proche, near], sf. 1. approach : a) drawing, getting, or coming near ; b) access, means of access ; c) Milit. (in the plural) covered trenches, etc., made by besiegers. a) L'— des ennemis, the approach of the enemy. A notre — il prit la fuite, on our approach he took to flight. L'— de la nuit lui fit doubler le pas, the approach of night made him quicken his pace. A l'—, aux approches de l'hiver, on the approach of winter. A l'— du danger son courage l'abandonna, on the approach of danger his courage failed or forsook him. b) L'— ou les approches d'une ville, d'un camp, the approach or approaches to a town, to a camp. Défendre l'— d'un poste. to defend the approach to a post. Il est aisé de défendre les approches de ce camp, it is easy to defend the approaches of that camp. Nettoyer les approches, to clear the trenches or approaches : to drive back the besiegers.

2. access. Ces notaires sont des gens d'approche difficile, notaries (or lawyers) are persons of difficult access. Regn. Légat. II, 7.

3. conflict. A voir de tels amis venir aux mortelles approches, to see such friends come into mortal conflict. Corn. Horace. III. 2.

4. Hort. Greffé par —, en —, inarching, grafting by approach.

5. Opt. Lunette d'—, spy-glass, field-glass : a portable refracting telescope.

6. Print. erroneous joining of words or letters ; 7. approaching words too widely spaced.

8. Type f. spacing. Les lettres de cette fonte sont de bonne — the letters of this fount space well (i. e. stand at equal distances form each other.

APPROCHER, aproshé-r, va. 1. to bring, put, place or draw near, nearer or close (to approach is scarcely English in this sense, but examples of it may be found in good authors]. — une chose d'une autre, to put or place one thing nearer to another. Approchez cette table, draw the table near or nearer. Approchez cet enfant de mon lit, bring the child close to my bed. Cette lunette approche les objets, that telescope brings objects nearer.

2. to approach : a) to draw or come near to ; b) to have access to. Ne vous approchez pas, do not approach (or come near) us. Le gardien n'approchait ce lion qu'en tremblant, the keeper did not approach (or go near) the lion without trembling. Si vous m'approchez je fais feu, if you approach me (or come nearer to me), I will fire. Il fait le bonheur de tous ceux qui l'approchent, he makes all those who approach him happy.

APPROCHER, vn. to approach : a) to draw, come, go, or be near (in space or time) ; b) to resemble, to be like. L'heure, le temps approche, the hour, the time approaches (or is approaching). a) La tempête approchait, the storm was approaching (or was coming on). Le bruit approche, the noise approaches, is getting nearer. — de la porte, to approach (or go nearer to) the door. Celui qui approchait le plus de lui, he who was nearest him. — de la vérité, to approach (or come near) the truth. — de sa fin, de sa mort, to be near one's end, one's death. N'approchez pas de ce chien, il vous mordra, do not go near (or approach) that dog, he will bite you. — du but, to shoot close to the bull's eye, to be near the mark ; Fig. to make a good guess, to be near attaining one's object. Regardez la cible, vous verrez que j'ai approché du but, look at the target, you will see that I went very near the bull's eye.

b) Ces nuances approchent beaucoup l'une de l'autre, those shades are very nearly alike. Son style approche de celui de Cicéron, his style resembles (or is not unlike) that of Cicero. Aucune de ses sœurs n'approche de sa beauté, not one of her sisters approaches her for beauty (is equal to her in beauty).

APPROCHER (s'), v. refl. to approach : a) to draw, go, come, or get near (or nearer), close (or closer) ; b) to be near or at hand. Il s'approcha d'elle avec respect, he approached her with respect. Approchez-vous de moi, come nearer (or closer) to me. Approchez-vous du feu, draw nearer the fire (or to the fire).

c) L'éternité s'approche, eternity is approaching, is at hand. La vieillesse s'approche, old age is coming on, is at hand.

[S'approcher de quelqu'un, signifies the mere act of going to him. Approcher quelqu'un, implies a certain degree of intimacy.]

APPROFONDIR, aprofôndir, [à ; profond], va. 1. to deepen : to make deeper. — un puits, un canal, to deepen a well, a canal.

2. to dive deep into, to fathom ; to examine (or search) thoroughly, to make a profound (or an exhaustive) study of. — une science, une question, to dive deep into (to make an exhaustive study of) a science, a question. — un mystère, to fathom a mystery. — les hommes, to make a profound study of man. Notre cœur devient un abîme que nous ne pouvons plus —, our heart becomes an abyss that we can no longer fathom.

APPROFONDIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to deepen, to get deeper. Le lit de ce fleuve s'approfondit tous les jours, the bed of that river gets deeper every day.

2. to be thoroughly examined, scrutinized, or investigated. Les mystères de la vie humaine ne doivent pas trop s'—, the mysteries of human life must not be too deeply scrutinized.

3. to learn to know one's self thoroughly. Que l'homme s'examine, s'analyse, et s'approfondisse, let man, by self-examination and analysis, learn to know himself thoroughly.

APPROFONDISSEMENT, aprofôndis'-mân-t, sm. 1. deepening ; 2. elaborate research, profound investigation.

APPROPRIATION, apropriasyôn, sf. appropriation : a) adaptation or application to a particular use ; b) conversion to one's own use or benefit ; (in a bad sense) embezzlement ; c) any operation which facilitates the combining of substances with each other. L'— d'un local au service des malades, the appropriation of premises for the use of the sick. Cet homme n'a pas craint de se faire l'— d'un dépôt, that man did not shrink from the appropriation (or embezzlement) of a trust (or deposit).

APPROPRIER, aproprié-r, [Lat. : appropriāre], va. 1. to appropriate : a) to consign to a particular person or use ; b) to adapt, to suit. — un champ à la production des céréales, to appropriate a field to the production of bread-corn. On a mal approprié cet édifice à sa destination, this house has been badly adapted to its destination. — son langage aux circonstances, son style au sujet qu'on traite, to adapt one's language to circumstances, one's style to the subject treated. Un marais approprié à la culture, a marsh appropriated to cultivation. Des remèdes appropriés, suitable (or proper) remedies.

2. (as a pronominal verb) to appropriate (to one's self) · a) to make one's own, to claim or consider as one's own ; b) to convert to one's own use, to embezzle. Ce tuteur s'est approprié les biens de sa pupille, this guardian has appropriated (converted to his own use, embezzled) his ward's property. S'— une pensée, to make a thought one's own (by novelty or propriety of expression).

3. to clean, to put in order, to set to rights (as clothes, a room, a house).

APPROPRIER (s'), v. refl. to adapt or accommodate one's self (to). Cet auteur songe peu à s'— à ses lecteurs, that author cares little about adapting himself to his readers.

APPROUVER, aprouvé-r, [Lat. : approbāre ; ad, to ; probāre, to test], va. 1. to approve : a) to consent to ; b) to like, to be pleased with, to admit the propriety of [in this sense approve of is much used on colloquial language] ; c) to commend, to signify approbation ; d) to sanction officially. Le père n'a pas voulu — ce mariage, the father was unwilling to approve (would not consent to) that marriage. Je n'approuve pas cette clause, I do not approve that clause.

b) J'approuve cette manière d'écrire, I approve (or approve of) that way of writing. Tout le monde approuve sa conduite, everybody approves of his conduct.

c) — du regard, de la tête, to approve with a look, with a nod ; to look, to nod approbation ; d) Le conseil de l'Université a approuvé son ouvrage, the council of the University has approved his work. Lu et approuvé, read and approved. Son avis fut fort approuvé, his opinion was highly approved (or approved of).

2. (in a neuter sense). Ils approuvent et désapprouvent souvent sans raison, they often approve and disapprove without reason.

APPROVISIONNEMENT, aprovizion'mân-t sm. 1. supplying, supply (of provisions and necessaries), victualling (of an army or fleet) ; 2. provisions, supply, store, stock (of provisions). L'— de Paris, the supplying of Paris with provisions, the supply of Paris. — en munitions, Milit. ammunition supply. Un grand — de blé, a large stock, store, or supply of corn. Cette place a un — suffisant pour six mois, that fortress has provisions sufficient for six months. Nos approvisionnements sont épuisés, our stores (or supplies) are exhausted. Faire un — de bois pour l'hiver, to lay in a stock of wood for the winter.

APPROVISIONNER, aprovizioné, [à ; provision], va. 1. to supply (with provisions or stores of any kind) ; 2. to victual (a fleet, an army).

APPROVISIONNER (s'), v. refl. 1. to provide one's self (with) ; 2. to lay in a stock or store (of) ; 3. Naut. to take in a supply of. S'— de bois pour l'hiver, to provide one's self with wood (or to lay in one's stock of wood) for the winter. S'— de charbon, Naut. to take in a supply of coal ; to coal. L'armée s'était approvisionnée de tout ce qui était nécessaire, the army had been supplied with everything necessary.

APPROXIMATIF, IVE, aproksimatif, iv', [Lat. : approximāre, — atum, to approach], adj. approximative.

APPROXIMATION, aproksimàsyôn, sf. approximation : a) Math. continual approach ; b) rough guess or calculation. Par —, approximatively, at a rough guess. Méthode d'—, method of approximation (of approaches).

APPROXIMATIVEMENT, aproksimativ'mân-t, adv. approximatively, by approximation : Colloq. by a rough guess or calculation, there or thereabouts.

† APPROXIMER, aproksimé-r, va. to approximate, to approach.

APPUI, apui, [Lat. : ad, to ; podium, pied, du Gr. : πούς, ποδός], sm. 1. support : a) prop. ; b) stick, cane, or staff (for walking) ; c) prop or shore (for a wall, etc.). Il faut un — à cet arbre, that tree requires a prop. Ce vieillard ne peut pas marcher sans un —, this old man cannot walk without a stick. Ce bâton me sert d'—, this stick serves me as a support. Mur d'—, bearing-wall (to support a beam, etc.) ; retaining-wall (of an embankment).

2. rail, hand-rail (of a balcony, staircase, window, etc.) ; 3. Arch. sill (of a window) ; 4. balustrade, parapet (of a roof, etc.). L'— de cette croisée est dangereux, il est trop bas, the hand-rail of that window is dangerous, it is too low. Mettre des pots de fleurs sur l'— de la fenêtre, to set flower-pots on the window-sill. — évidé, a perforated or open-work parapet, a balustrade. A hauteur d'—, breast-high. Mur à hauteur d'—, a breast-high wall. Fig. : Remettre quelqu'un à hauteur d'—, to bring a person down to the ordinary level.

5. Fig. support : a) aid, help ; b) protection ; c) protector, supporter, prop, staff, stay. a) Vous avez tort de compter sur son— you do wrong to rely on his support (help, aid). Donnez-lui votre —, give (or lend) him your support. L'argent est un puissant —, money is a powerful support ; b) La vertu trouve — contre la tyrannie, virtue finds protection against tyranny. Corn. ; c) Sois mon —, mon guide, be my support (or stay), my guide. Cet homme est l'— de toute sa famille, that man is the support, the stay of all his family. Ses enfants sont les appuis de sa vieillesse, his children are the supporters, the stay of his old age.

6. Arch. support : buttress, pillar, pier ; 7. corbel : piece of stone or timber projecting from a wall to support the end of a beam.

8. rest (of a lathe) ; 9. Horsem. appui, mouth (of a horse). Ce cheval n'a pas d'— this horse has no mouth, is tender-mouthed Ce cheval a l'— lourd, that horse is heavy in hand.

10. Mech. fulcrum (of a lever). Point d'—, fulcrum, point of support.

11. Gram. emphasis, stress.

ADV. AND PREPOS. PHRASES : A l'—, in support, in corroboration. Pièces à l'—, d'un compte, pièces à l'—, vouchers, justificative documents. A l'— de mon dire, to support my assertion. Sans —, unsupported unaided, friendless, helpless. Aller à l'— de la boule, 1. to drive one's partner's bowl nearer the jack ; 2. Fig. to help (a person), to support or second (a motion, a proposal).

APPUI-LIVRES, apui-livre, sm. book-holder, book-rest.

APPUI-MAIN, apui-man, sm. [pl. APPUIS-MAIN.] Paint. maulstick or hand-rest.

APPUI-QUEUE, apui-kœ, sm. jigger, bridge, rest (for the cue at billiards).

APPUI-TÊTE, apui-tét', sm. [pl. APPUIS-TÊTE.] Photog. head-rest.

APPULSE, apuls', [Lat. : appulsus ; ad, to ; pellĕre, to drive], sf. Astron. appulse: the near approach of the moon to a star, etc.

APPUYER, apuyé-r, [Low Lat. : appodiāre, from podium], va. [J'appuie, nous appuyons, ils appuient ; j'appuyais ; j'appuierai, etc., the y being always changed into i before e mute.] 1. to support : a) to sustain, to prop ; b) to aid, to help ; c) to second, to back ; d) to enforce. — une muraille par des piliers, un édifice par des arcs-boutants, to support a wall by pillars, a building by buttresses. — un arbre, to prop (or prop up) a tree. — une échelle contre un mur, to prop (or set) a ladder against a wall. Je vous appuierai de tout mon pouvoir, I will support (aid or help) you with all my might. — une demande, to support, (or second) a demand (or application). — un avis, une proposition, to support (or uphold) an opinion, to second a motion. Il appuya ses leçons par son exemple, he enforced his lessons by his own example.

2. to lean, to rest. — ses coudes, ses mains sur une table, to lean one's elbows, one's hands on a table. Appuyé sur un coude il semblait fermer les yeux, leaning on one elbow he seemed to close his eyes. Je la vis appuyée contre la muraille, I saw her leaning against the wall.

3. to clap (to or against), to bring into contact (with). Il lui appuya le genou sur la poitrine, he clapped one knee on his breast. — l'éperon à un cheval, to clap the spur to (to spur on) a horse. — des deux, to clap spurs (to a horse).

4. to base, to found, to ground. Sur quoi appuyez-vous ces assertions ? on what do you base (or found) these assertions ? Son droit est appuyé sur de bons titres, his right (or claim) is grounded (or founded) on good titles.

5. Milit. to support ; to rest. Il envoya un régiment de dragons pour — son infanterie, he sent a regiment of dragons to support his infantry. Il appuya l'aile droite de son armée au fleuve, et la gauche à un bois, he rested the right wing of this army on the river and the left on a wood.

6. Sport. to encourage (dogs with horn or voice).

7. Fenc. — la botte, 1. to remain on the lunge after having hit ; 2. Fig. to urge or press a point, to drive home an argument.

8. Naut. to haul taut. — les bras du vent, haul taut the weather braces.

APPUYER, vn. 1. (with sur) to rest on, to be supported by or on. Cette voûte appuie sur des piliers, this vault rests on pillars, or is supported by pillars. La poutre appuie sur ce mur, the beam is supported by (or bears on) this wall.

2. (with sur) to bear or press hard on. Appuyez davantage sur le cachet, bear harder on the seal. Pour bien écrire il ne faut pas —, to write well, you must not bear hard (on the pen). N'appuyez pas, l'endroit est sensible, do not bear hard, the place is tender.

3. (with sur) to insist on, to dwell on, to lay stress on (a fact, an argument), to lay stress or emphasis on (a word). Cet argument sur lequel on appuie avec tant de force, this argument on which they insist so vehemently, on which they lay so much stress. Il avait appuyé un peu trop sur ce dernier article, he had insisted rather too much (had laid rather too much stress) on this last article. — sur un mot, to lay stress (or emphasis) on a word, to emphasize a word.

4. Mus. to hold (on a note).

5. Milit. — sur la droite ou à droite, to bear (keep or go) to the right.

6. Horsem. to bear on the bit, to be heavy in hand : said of a horse that holds down its head.

APPUYER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be supported or sustained. L'édifice s'appuie sur de hautes colonnes, the building is supported by (or on) lofty columns. Une maison qui s'appuie contre une colline, a house backed (or built) against a hill.

2. (with sur) to lean on : to support one's self with ; (with contre) to lean against : to recline on, to toil on or against. S'— sur un bâton, to lean on a stick. Son bras s'appuie sur le mien, his arm leans on mine. S'— contre une muraille, un arbre, to lean against a wall or a tree. Ne vous appuyez-vous sur cette table, Don't lean on that table. Appuyez-vous sur moi, lean on me.

3. (with sur) to rely or depend on or upon ; to trust to, to confide in. S'appyuant sur la faveur du ministre, relying on (or trusting to) the minister's favour, protection or countenance. S'— sur soi-même, to rely on one's self. S'— sur un roseau, to lean on (or trust to) a broken reed. S'— sur une autorité, un passage, un usage, to ground one's opinions (or arguments) on an authority, a passage, a custom.

4. (with de) to rely on, to obtain the support or aid of. S'— de la protection, du crédit, de l'amitié de quelqu'un, to rely on the protection, credit, or friendship of a person.

5. (with contre) to strengthen one's self against. Pour s'— contre Galérius, il donne à Constantin sa fille, to strengthen himself against Galerius he gave Constantine his daughter. Bossuet, His. univ.

6. Milit. (with à). L'aile gauche de l'armée s'appuyait à un marais, the left wing of the army rested on (or was protected by) a marsh.

APPUYOIR, apuiywar, sm. 1. leaning-stock ; 2. tinman's tool to press plates together while soldering.

ÂPRE, âpr', [Lat. : asper), adj. 1. harsh : rough to the touch : gruff or grating to the ear ; rough, sharp or tart to the taste. Un corps — au toucher, a substance harsh or rough to the touch. Une voix —, a harsh or gruff voice. Vin —, harsh (acid or acrid) wine. Fruit —, harsh or sour fruit.

2. rough, uneven, rugged. Chemin —, a rough road. Côte —, a rugged coast.

3. rude, inclement (as a climate). Une température —, a raw temperature.

4. Fig. harsh : a) rigorous, severe, strict, austere. — déplaisir, harsh (severe or stern) displeasure. — réprimande, a harsh or severe reprimand. — vertu, harsh (stern or austere) virtue.

5. Fig. violent, fierce. Une — jalousie, a violent jealousy. Leur haine devenait plus —, their hatred became more violent, more intense. Un combat —, a fierce struggle.

6. eager, greedy, grasping. — au gain, greedy of (or grasping after) gain. Homme —, a greedy or grasping man. — à la curée, eager for prey. Un homme — à la curée, a man greedy (eager or grasping) after money, office, or power.

ÂPREMENT, apr'mân-t, adv. 1. harshly : roughly, severely, rigorously ; 2. acridly, tartly ; 3. fiercely, violently ; 4. eagerly, greedily, graspingly. Réprimander —, to reprimand harshly. Le froid a commencé bien —, the cold has set in with great severity.

APRÈS, aprè-z, [à ; près], prep. 1. after : a) indicating posteriority in time or place ; b) next to, in rank or order ; c) on pursuit of. a) — son départ, after his departure. Six mois — le siège de P, six months after the siege of P. — le coucher du soleil, after sunset ; after the sun has gone down. — le dîner il est sorti, after dinner he went out, [Often without the article]. — déjeûner, dîner, souper, after breakfast, dinner, supper. [With regard to place, APRÈS may sometimes be rendered by behind, beyond, further on, or next to :] — ce vestibule est un magnifique salon de réception, after (next to or beyond) this vestibule, there is a splendid reception room. Marcher — quelqu'un, to tread in a person's steps. — cela il ne faut s'étonner de rien, after that we must not be surprised at anything. — coup, too late. Nous allons déjeuner, — quoi nous nous mettrons en route, we will now go to breakfast, after which we will set off. — tout, after all, all things considered.

b) Le premier — le roi, the first after the king. Immédiatement — ceux-là, immediately after those. — l'or et le platine, l'argent est le plus cher des métaux, after gold and platinum, silver is the dearest metal.

c) Les chiens courent — le lièvre, the dogs are running after the hare. Les gendarmes courent — un voleur, the police are running after (are in pursuit of) a thief. Nous courons — un bonheur que nous ne saurions trouver, we seek after happiness which we cannot find. Être — une personne, to be after a person ; to importune, to be at a person's elbow. Il est toujours — nous, he is always after us. Il crie — moi sans cesse, he is always chiding me. Mettre une personne — une autre, to set a person to watch (or to act as a spy on) another. Se mettre — quelqu'un, to fall upon, to attack, to maltreat a person.

2. about, at. Etre — une chose, to be about or after a thing, to be busy with a thing. Etre — sa toilette, to be at one's toilet. Il y a longtemps que nous sommes — ce travail, we have been about this job a very long time. Mettre quelqu'un — un ouvrage, to set one about a job, to set one to work at a job. [In this sense the complement is frequently understood :] Avez-vous lu ce livre ? Je suis —, have you read that book ? I am reading it now.

3. behind. Le fleuve qui était — notre camp, the river which was behind (or beyond) our camp. Fuir sans regarder — soi, to flee without looking behind, without looking back.

4. for. Attendre — quelqu'un, to wait for a person. J'attends — vos ordres, I am waiting for (or I await) your orders. Languir —, to pine for (or after). On est venu demander — vous, somebody has been here asking for (after) you.

5. against. Crier —, to cry out against. Ce n'était qu'un cri — lui, there was but one cry against him ; everybody was crying out against him.

6. on, upon. Plusieurs médecins ont déjà épuisé leur science — elle, several doctors have already exhausted their skill on her.

7. (used with the past and sometimes the present tense of the infinitive mood). — avoir chanté il se retira, after having sung (or after singing) he withdrew. — avoir bu ou — boire, after having drunk, after drinking. — boire il n'est plus capable de rien, after drinking, he is fit for nothing. — avoir lu la lettre, il la déchira, after reading the letter he tore it up. — s'être promené il est rentré déjeuner, after taking a walk, he returned to breakfast.

8. (followed by que and a verb :). — que vous aurez parlé il parlera, after you have (or shall have) spoken, he will speak. — que je fus arrivé, after I had arrived.

D'APRÈS, prep. phr. 1. from ; 2. after ; 3. according to, in conformity with. Peindre d'— nature, to paint from nature. D'— son extrême bonté, from his extreme kindness. Tableau d'— Raphael, a painting after Raphael. D'— l'avis du conseil, according to the council's opinion. D'— votre ordre, in conformity with your order.

APRÈS, adv. 1. after : a) afterward or afterwards, with regard to time ; b) next, with regard to place or order ; c) about V. APRÈS, prep. 2d accep. a) Vingt ans —, twenty years after or afterwards. Peu de temps —, shortly after, not long after or afterwards. b) Il plaça mon frère le premier et me mit immédiatement —, he placed my brother first and put me next or immediately after. Vous irez devant et lui —, you will go first and he next. Vous trouverez l'antichambre et — l'escalier, you will find the antechamber and next the stairs. — tout, quel mal y a-t-il ? after all, what harm is there ? Si alors, je ne viens pas, — ? suppose then I don't come, when then ? Il vous a dit qu'il nous avait vus, — ? he told you he had seen us, what next ? Eh bien, —, well, what of that ? Prov. : V. MANCHE, PANSE, PLUIE.

CI-APRÈS, adv. phr. further on, below ; (in law style) hereinafter. Vous verrez ci- —, you will see further on (or below). Ci- — mentionné, hereinafter-mentioned.

D'APRÈS, adv. phr. next, following. L'année d'—, the next (or following) year.

APRÈS-DEMAIN, aprè-dœma*n*, adv. the day after to-morrow. [Sometimes used substantively :] Quand cette — sera passée, when that day after to-morrow shall have passed.

APRÈS-DÎNÉ, APRÈS-DÎNER, aprè-diné, sm. [pl. APRÈS-DÎNÉS, APRÈS-DÎNERS.] after dinner, V. APRÈS-DÎNER.

APRÈS-DÎNÉE, apré-diné, sf. [pl. APRÈS-DÎNÉES] after-dinner : afternoon, or evening, according as the dinner is early or late. [Most properly written APRÈS-DÎNER.]

APRÈS-MIDI, aprè-midi, sf. or sm. afternoon.

APRÈS-SOUPÉ, APRÈS-SOUPER, aprè-soupé, sm. [pl. APRÈS-SOUPÉES, APRÈS-SOUPERS.] after-supper, V. APRÈS-SOUPPÉE.

APRÈS-SOUPÉE, après-soupé, sf. after-supper : evening or night, according to the souper-hour. [Now written APRÈS-SOUPER.]

APRETÉ, âprœté, [âpre], sf. 1. harshness : a) roughness to the touch ; b) gruffness to the ear ; c) roughness, sharpness, tartness to the taste.

2. roughness, uneveness, ruggedness (of a road, etc.). L'— des chemins, the roughness of the roads. L'— d'une côte, the ruggedness of a coast.

3. rudeness, inclemency. L'— de la saison, the inclemency of the season.

4. Fig. harshness : asperity, rigour, severity, sterness, austerity. Une — de nature, an asperity of temper, a sternness of character or disposition. — des reproches, harshness oi reproach.

5. violence, fierceness ; 6. eagerness, greediness, avidity. — à l'argent, lust of gold.

À PRIORI, a priôri, adv. V. PRIORI.

À PROPOS, a propo, adv. V. PROPOS.

APSIDE, apsid', [Gr. : ἀψίς, ἴδος, arch], sf. 1. Astron. apsis : the point in the orbit of a planet or satellite nearest to, or furthest from, its primary. — supérieure, the superior apsis : aphelion (of the earth) ; apogee (of the moon). — inférieure, inferior apsis : perihelion, perigee.

2. Arch. V. ABSIDE.

APSYCHIE, apsishi, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; ψυχή, soul], sf. Med. syncope : fainting-fit ; swoon.

APTE, apt', [Lat. : aptus, fit], adj. 1. Law-t, capable. — à succéder, capable of inheriting.

2. qualified, fit, capable. Il est — à remplir cet emploi, he is qualified (or fit) for, capable of, filling that office.

APTÈRE, aptèr', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πτερόν, wing], adj. Entomol. and Bot. apterous : wingless, said of insects and certain seeds.

APTERYX, aptériks, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πτερόν, wing], sm. Ornith. apteryx.

APTITUDE, aptitud', sf. aptitude : a) aptness, fitness ; b) capacity, inclination, disposition, tendency. Il n'a guère d'— aux mathématiques, he has little aptitude (capacity, inclination) for mathematics.

APUREMENT, apur'mâ*n*-t, sm. auditing, final passing (of accounts).

APURER, apuré-r, [à ; pur], va. to audit : to verify and pass (an account).

APYRE, apir', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πῦρ, fire, adj. Chem. and Min. apyrous : infusible.

APYRÈNE, apirèn', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πυρήν, grain], adj. Bot. apyrene : bearing fruit without kernels.

APYRETIQUE, apirétik', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; πυρετός, fever], adj. Med. apyretic : free from fever.

APYREXIE, apireksi, sf. Med. apyrexia : absence of fever.

AQUAFORTISTE, akwafortist, [Lat. : aqua, water fortis, strong], sm. aquafortist.

AQUAPUNCTURE, akwapunktur, [Lat. : aqua, water ; punctura, puncture], sf. Surg. aquapuncture.

AQUARELLE, akwarèl', [Lat. : aqua, water], sf. aquarelle : a) drawing in water colours ; b) a water-colour drawing.

AQUARELLISTE, akwarèlist', sm. water-colourist.

AQUARIUM, akwarium, [Lat. : aqua, water], sm. aquarium, vivarium.

AQUATILE, akwatil', adj. aquatile.

AQUATINTA, akwatanta, or AQUATINTE, akwatant', [Lat. : aqua, water ; tinta, coloured ; tingĕre, tinctum, to wet, to colour], sf. aquatinta, aquatint : an engraving imitating Indian ink drawings.

AQUATIQUE, akwatik', adj. aquatic : a) watery, marshy (as land) ; b) inhabiting water, growing in water. Animal, plant —, an aquatic : aquatic animal or plant.

AQUEDUC, ak'duk, or AQUÉDUC, akéduk, [Lat. : aqua, water ; ducĕre, ductum, to lead], sm. aqueduct : a) a conduct for conveying water to a town, etc. ; b) Anat. a canal, said of certain passages in the body ; c) improperly, a culvert, or arched drain under a road. Pont — (or pont-canal), a canal aqueduct (for carrying a canal over a river or valley).

AQUEUX, EUSE, akœ, œz', [Lat. :

aquosus], 1. aqueous : consisting of or containing water; 2. watery, waterish : having the appearance or taste of water. La partie aqueuse du sang, the aqueous portion of the blood. Légumes, fruits aqueux, watery vegetables or fruits.

A QUIA, akuia [à ; Lat. : quia, because], phrase used adverbially, embarrassed ; nonplussed, stumped. Il est à quia, he is nonplussed.

AQUICHER, akwishé-r, va. Slang. Pop. to decoy, to allure.

AQUIFÈRE, akuifèr', [Lat. : aqua, water ; ferre, to carry], adj. water-bearing. La couche —, the water-bearing stratum.

AQUIFOLIACÉES, akuifoliasé, [Lat. : aquifolium, kind of holly], sf. pl. Bot. aquifoliaceæ : a family of plants including the holly.

AQUILANT, akilân-t, [Lat. : aquila, eagle], or AQUILAIN, akilan, adj. 1. eagle-coloured ; 2. sm. eagle-coloured horse.

AQUILIN, akilan, [Lat. : aquilinus ; aquila, eagle], adj. aquilline. Nez —, aquiline (or Roman) nose.

AQUILON, akilôn, [Lat. : aquilo, — onis, north wind], sm. 1. Aquilon : the north wind, Boreas ; 2. cold wind ; 3. the north ; 4. storm, tempest.

AQUITAINE, akitèn', sf. Aquitania : a province of ancient Gaul.

AQUOSITÉ, akôzité, [Lat. : aquositas], sf. aquosity, aqueousness.

ARA, ara, [abbreb. of araraca, in Guarani], sm. Orn. arara, Carolina parrot.

ARABE, arab', [Lat. : arabus], adj. 1. Arabian ; 2. Arabie : said of language, writing, and literature. Les chiffres arabes, Arabian figures, ciphers, or numerals.

3. grasping, greedy, sordidly selfish.

ARABE, smf. 1. Arab, Arabian : a native of Arabia : 2. Fig. usurer, miser, hunks, grasping curmudgeon ; 3. Arabian horse, an Arab.

ARABESQUE, arabèsk', [arabe ; Ital. : arabesco], adj. 1. Paint. Sculp. arabesque : 2. sm. arabesque : a fanciful style or ornament used in Arabian and Moorish architecture ; 3. pl. f. arabesques : ornaments consisting of foliage, flowers, etc.

ARABIE, arabi, sf. Geog. Arabia.

ARABINE, arabin', sf. arabine : the essential principle of gum Arabic and Senegal gum.

ARABIQUE, arabik', adj. Arabic, Arabian. Gomme —, gum Arabic. Golfe —, the Red Sea.

ARABLE, arabl', [Lat. : arabilis ; arāre, to plough], adj. arable : ploughed land, as opposed to pasture.

ARACHIDE, arashid', [Gr. : ἀραχίδνα, vetch], sf. ground-nut, earth-nut, peanut ; arachis hypogæa.

ARACHNIDE, araknid', [Gr. : ἀράχνη, spider], sf. Entom. arachnidan ; pl. arachnida.

ARACHNITIS, araknitis, ARACHNOÏDITIS, araknoïditis, sf. Med. arach-nitis arachnoiditis : inflammation of the arachnoides or arachnoid membrane.

ARACHNOÏDE, araknoid', [Gr.: ἀράχνη, spider ; εἶδος, form], sf. Anat. arachnoïdes, arachnoid membrane (of the brain).

ARACK, arak, [Arab. : araca], sm. arrack : spirit distilled from rice or palm juice.

ARAGON, aragôn, sm. Geog. Aragon : a province of Spain.

ARAGONAIS, E, aragoné, èz, adj. and s. Aragonese.

ARAIGNÉE, arenyé, [Gr. : ἀράχνη ; Lat. : aranea], sf. 1. spider ; 2. spider's web, cobweb ; 3. Milit. Eng. small branch (of a mine) ; 4. well-drag : a kind of grapnel for recovering buckets ; 5. Naut. crowfoot. Toile d'—, cobweb ; Fig. flimsy sophistries. Pattes d'—, spider's legs ; Fig. long lean fingers. — de mer, crab. Avoir une — dans le plafond, to have a tile loose ; to have a bee in one's bonnet.

ARAIRE, arèr', [Lat. : aratrum, plough], sm. swing-plough.

ARAMÉEN, ENNE, araméan, èn', adj. Aramæan, Aramaic : of Syria.

ARAMER, aramé-r, [à ; rame], va. Technol. to stretch cloth on a roller, to tenter.

ARANÉEUX, EUSE, aranéœ, œz', adj. araneous : resembling a spider or a cobweb.

ARANÉIFORME, aranéifòrm', adj. araneiform : spiderlike.

ARANÉOLOGIE, aranéolozhi, [Lat. : aranea, spider ; Gr. : λόγος, discourse], araneology : treatise on spiders.

ARANÉOLOGUE, aranéolog, sm. araneologist, arachnologist.

ARASEMENT, araz'mân-t, sm. Arch. 1. levelling : making level or flush ; 2. flush shoulder (of a tenon).

ARASER, arazé-r, [à ; ras], va. 1. Arch. to level, to bring to a level (as the top of a wall, etc.) ; 2. Milit. to level, to demolish (buildings, etc.).

ARASES, araz', sf. pl. Arch. levelling-stones, levelling course (on the top of a wall).

ARATOIRE, aratwar', [Lat. : arator ; arāre, to plough], adj. agricultural, farming. Instruments aratoires, agricultural (or farming) impliments. Travaux aratoires, farm (or field) work ; husbandry, tillage.

ARBALÈTE, arbalèt', [Lat. : arcus, bow ; balista, machine for throwing missiles], sf. 1. cross-bow, arbalist or arbalest ; 2. trap (for moles, etc,). Cheval en —, a trace-horse before two wheelers (shaft-horses).

ARBALÉTRIER, arbalétrié, sm. 1. cross-bow-man, arbalister ; 2. Carp. principal rafter ; 3. Orn. swift, deviling.

ARBALÉTRIÈRE, arbalétriair, sf. loop-hole for cross-bow shooting.

ARBITRAGE, arbitrazh', [Lat. : arbitrium], sm. arbitration. — de change, abritration of exchange.

ARBITRAIRE, arbitrèr', [Lat. : arbitrarius], adj. arbitrary : a) dependent on the will only ; b) voluntary, optional ; c) despotic. La plupart des noms donnés aux choses ne sont pas des signes arbitraires, most of the names given to things are not arbitrary designations. Qu'on soit juste, il suffit ; le reste est —, be just, that is enough ; the rest is optional. Cet ennemi du pouvoir —, this enemy of arbitrary (or despotic) power.

ARBITRAIRE, sm. 1. arbitrariness : mere will and pleasure ; 2. despoticalness, despotism.

ARBITRAIREMENT, arbitrèr'mân-t, adv. 1. arbitrarily ; 2. despotically.

ARBITRAL, E, arbitral, al', adj. arbitral : decided by arbitrators, by arbitration. Jugement —, judgment by arbitrators, arbitral award.

ARBITRALEMENT, arbitral'mân-t, adv. by arbitration, by arbitrators.

ARBITRATION, arbitrâsyôn, sf. Law-t rough estimate, approximate valuation.

ARBITRE, arbitr', [Lat. : arbiter], sm. 1. arbitrator : arbiter, referee, person chosen to decide disputes. Choisir pour —, to choose as arbitrator. S'en rapporter à des arbitres, to submit (a dispute) to arbitrators. Tiers —, umpire : one who decides between arbitrators. — rapporteur, referee.

2. sm. f. arbiter, arbitress ; supreme ruler, master or mistress. Vous êtes l'— de mon sort, you are the arbiter of my fate. Dieu est l'— du monde, God is the arbiter, the supreme ruler of the world.

3. Metaphys. will. Libre —, free will. [Franc —, is sometimes, but rarely, used in the same sense.]

ARBITRER, arbitré-r, va. 1. to arbitrate : to award as an arbitrator, to decide, to settle ; 2. to estimate, to value, to fix (the amount of costs, damages, etc.).

ARBORÉ, E, arboré, pa. p. V. ARBORER, adj. 1. Bot. arboreous ; 2. Zool. living in trees or bushes. Tige arborée, ligneous stalk.

ARBORER, arboré-r, [Lat. : arbor, tree], va. 1. to erect : to raise, to set up. — un étendard, to raise a standard. — l'étendard de la révolte, to raise the standard of revolt, to revolt against established authorities.

2. to don, to wear, to use ; Colloq. to sport. — un chapeau à larges bords, to sport a broad-brimmed hat.

3. to declare in favour of, to make an open profession of. Il arbora le spinozisme, he made a public profession of Spinozism.

4. Naut. to hoist (a flag) ; to set up (a mast).

ARBORESCENCE, arborèsans', sf. Bot. arborescence.

ARBORESCENT, E, arborèsân-t, ânt', adj. Bot. arborescent.

ARBORICOLE, arborikol', [Lat. : arbor, tree ; colère, to dwell], adj. Zool. perching, living in trees.

ARBORICULTEUR, arborikultœr, sm. arboriculturist.

ARBORICULTURE, arborikultur', [Lat. : arbor, tree ; cultura, culture], sf. arboriculture : planting and management of forest trees.

ARBORISATION, arborizasyôn, sf. arborization : figure of a tree or plant in minerals, or on windows during frosty weather.

ARBORISÉ, E, arborizé, adj. Min. arborized : presenting arborizations.

ARBORISTE, arborist', sm. 1. arborist : nursery-man ; 2. † herbalist.

ARBOUSE, arbouz', [Provençal : arbossa ; Lat. : arbutus], sf. arbute-berry : the fruit of the arbutus or strawberry tree.

ARBOUSIER, arbouzyé, sm. arbute, arbutus or strawberry-tree. — traînant, black bearberry tree. — des Alpes or raisin d'ours, red bearberry tree.

ARBRE, arbr', [Lat. : arbor], sm. 1. tree. — forestier, forest tree. — fruitier, fruit tree. — d'ornement, ornamental tree. — en espalier, espalier tree, wall tree. Jeune —, sapling. — en (or de) plein vent, standard tree, standard. — de haute futaie, timber tree. Un beau brin d'—, a fine stick of timber. — sur pied, standing tree. — nain, — en buisson, dwarf-tree. — vert, evergreen. — à pain, bread-fruit tree. — à cire, wax-tree. — à suif, tallow-tree. — de Judas, Judas-tree. — de Sainte-Lucie, mahaleb cherry-tree. — à la vache, cow-tree. — à vermillon, kermes oak. — de Noël, Christmas-tree. L'— de vie, the tree of life. L'— de la science du bien et du mal, the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

2. Fig. Ce grand — de la maison

d'Autriche, that mighty tree (or stem) of the house of Austria. Se tenir au gros de l'—, to side with the strongest party, to go with the majority. Entre l'— et l'écorce il ne faut pas mettre le doigt, never interfere in a quarrel between man and wife. Il ne faut pas juger de l'— sur l'écorce, one must not hang a man by his looks. — de Jessé, — généalogique, genealogical tree : pedigree drawn up in the form of a tree. Prov. : Chaque arbre se connaît à son fruit ; tel arbre, tel fruit, the tree is known by its fruit. L'arbre ne tombe pas du premier coup, an oak is not felled with one blow. Quand l'arbre est bas, chacun court aux branches, he that is down, down with him.

3. Machin. shaft. — coudé, — en manivelle, — en villebrequin, cranked shaft. — horizontal, — de couche, lying or horizontal shaft. — intermédiaire, middle or intermediate shaft. — moteur, driving shaft. — vecteur, upright millshaft, main shaft. — à cames, cam shaft, tumbling shaft. — oscillant, rocking or oscillating shaft. — de parallélogramme, parallel-motion shaft. — des roues, — extérieur, paddle-shaft. — d'hélice, screw shaft. — du tiroir, eccentric shaft. — de mise en marche, starting shaft. — d'embrayage ou d'enclanchement, control shaft. — de distribution, cam shaft.

4. Horol. arbor : spindle, axis of a wheel. — du grand ressort ou du barillet, arbor of the main-spring barrel. — de la fusée, arbor of the fusee.

5. Naut. mast (of lateen-rigged vessels). — de mestre, mainmast. — de trinquet, fore mast.

ARBRISSEAU, arbrisô, sm. shrub : small tree. Lieu planté d'arbrisseaux, shrubbery.

ARBUSTE, arbust', sm. bush, shrub. Lieu d'arbustes, shrubbery.

ARC, ark ; in the pl. the s is always mute ; des arcs attachés is pronounced dezarkatashé, [Lat. : arcus], sm. 1. bow, long-bow (to shoot with). Tirer de l'—, to shoot with the bow. Tireur d'—, archer. L'art de tirer de l'—, archery. A portée d'—, within bow-shot. Bander un —, to bend, to string a bow. Débander un —, to unbend, to unstring a bow ; Fig. Il faut débander l'—, relaxation is a necessity. Tendre l'—, to string the bow. Détendre l'—, to unstring the bow ; Fig. to unbend the mind, to take relaxation. Avoir plusieurs cordes à son —, to have several strings (or two strings or more than one string) to one's bow ; Fig. to have more than one resource. Prov. : Débander l'arc ne guérit pas la plaie, unstringing the bow does not heal the wound.

2. Arch. arch. — de triomphe, arc triomphal, triumphal arch. — angulaire, — en mitre, en fronton, mitre arch : formed of two straight lines. — déprimé, depressed or Saxon arch. — en plein cintre, semicircular arch. — en plein cintre brisé, drop arch. — en plein cintre exhaussé, stilted arch : having the centre above the impost. — bombé or en cintre surbaissé, or en segment de cercle, segmental arch : having the centre below the impost. — gothique, — en talon, ogee. — en tiers point, arc pointu (V. OGIVE), pointed arch, Gothic arch. — outrepassé, horseshoe arch. — surbaissé, arc en anse de panier, surbased or elliptical arch. — surhaussé, stilted arch. — trilobé, trefoil arch. — polylobé, multifoil arch. — Tudor (ou gothique surbaissé), Tudor arch. — zigzagué, zigzag arch. — renversé, inverted arch. — de décharge, relieving arch.

3. Meteorol. bow. V. ARC-EN-CIEL.

4. Geom. arc : any part of a curved line. — de cercle, d'ellipse, de parabole, arc of a circle, of an ellipse, of a parabola. L'— est plus long que sa corde, the arc is longer than its chord.

5. Astron. arc. : — diurne, nocturne, diurnal arc, nocturnal arc : the arcs which any heavenly body describes from rising to setting or from setting to rising.

6. Anat. arch. L'— du colon, de l'aorte, the arch of the colon, of the aorta.

7. Naut. camber, cambering (of a timber).

ARCADE, arkad, sf. 1. Arch. arcade : an opening in the form of an arch ; 2. piazza : a gallery or walk inclosed by a series of such arches. Les arcades du Palais-Royal, the arcades of the Palais-Royal. — borgne or aveugle, sham arcade, decorative arcade. V. ARCATURE. Cet aqueduc se compose de deux rangées d'arcades superposées, that aqueduct is composed of two rows of arcades superposed. — de verdure, arbor, bower : an arcade formed of foliage.

3. Anat. arch. — palmaire, palmar arch. — sourcilière, superciliary arch.

4. straddle (of a pair of spectacles) ; 5. horse-shoe curve (of the balustrade of a balcony or staircase).

ARCANE, arkan', [Lat. : arcanus, secret], sm. 1. Alch. arcanum ; 2. nostrum, quack medicine.

ARCANNE, arkan', sf. red chalk, ruddle.

ARCANSON, arkànsôn, sm. black colophony, black rosin or resin.

ARCASSE, arkas', [Lat. : arca, chest], sf. 1. Naut. stern-frame ; 2. cheek (of a block or pulley).

ARCATURE, arkatur', [arc], sf. Arch. a series of blind or sham arcades : used to decorate the face of walls.

ARC-BOUTANT, arboutàn, pl. ARCS-BOUTANTS, arboutàn, sm. 1. Arch. flying-buttress, arch-butment ; 2. Fig. buttress, mainstay : principal supporter of any cause. Ce ministre a été longtemps l'— de l'État, that minister has long been the mainstay, the buttress of the state.

3. Naut. boom, carling, stanchion ; 4. Carp. spur ; 5. stretcher (of an umbrella). — de misaine, fore-sail boom.

ARC-BOUTER, arbouté-r, va. 1. to buttress ; 2. to prop or set against.

ARC-DOUBLEAU, ardoublô, pl. ARCS-DOUBLEAUX, ardoublô, sm. projecting arch : a massive rib projecting from the inner surface of a straight vault, and dividing it into bays.

ARCEAU, arsô, [arc], sm. 1. Arch. arch, vault ; 2. Surg. arculus : a kind of cradle, to keep bed-clothes from touching a sick-person.

ARC-EN-CIEL, arkànsyèl, pl. ARCS-EN-CIEL, arkànsyèl, sm. rainbow.

ARCHAÏQUE, arkaik', adj. archaic, archaical : old, antiquated.

ARCHAÏSME, arkaism', [Gr. : ἀρχαῖος, ancient], sm. archaism : an antiquated form of speech.

ARCHAL, arshal, [Lat. : orichalcum, brass], sm. latten, brass. Fil d'—, small, wire (whether brass or iron).

ARCHANGE, arkànzh', [Gr. : ἀρχάγγελος], sm. archangel.

ARCHANGÉLIQUE, arkànzhélik', adj. 1. archangelic, archangelical ; 2. sf. Bot. garden angelica ; archangelica officinalis.

ARCHE, arsh', [Lat. : arca, a chest], sf. 1. arch (of a bridge) ; 2. ark : a) a kind of ship ; b) a chest or coffer. L'— de Noë, Noah's ark. L'— d'alliance, the Ark of the Covenant. L'— sainte, l'arche du Seigneur, the ark of the Lord. C'est l'— sainte. Fig. that is forbidden ground, a forbidden subject. L'— du témoignage, the Ark of the Testimony. La maîtresse — du pont, the middle arch of the bridge.

3. Naut. pump-box, pump-casing.

4. Antiq. sarcophagus.

ARCHÉE, arshé, [Gr. : ἀρχή, beginning], sf. archeus : a) in ancient philosophy, the immaterial principle presiding over all natural phenomena ; b) Alch. the central fire.

ARCHÉE, sf. Arch. span (of an arch).

ARCHELET, arsh'lè-t, [dim. of archet, bow], sm. 1. small drill-bow ; 2. hoop (of a fishing-net).

ARCHÉOGRAPHIE, arkéografi, [Gr. : ἀρχαῖος, ancient ; γράφω, I describe], sf. archæography : the description of ancient monuments.

ARCHÉOLOGIE, arkéolozhi, [Gr. : ἀρχαῖος, ancient ; λόγος, discourse], sf. archeology, archæology.

ARCHÉOLOGIQUE, arkéolozhik', adj. archeological, archæological.

ARCHÉOLOGUE, arkéolog', sm. archeologist, archæologist.

ARCHER, arshé ; pl. arshé-r, [arc], sm. 1. archer : a) one armed with a bow ; b) formerly, a police officer, thief-taker ; c) tipstaff (of a court of law).

ARCHEROT, arsh'rô, sm. little archer : Cupid.

ARCHET, arshè-t ; pl. arshè-z, sm. 1, bow (of a violin or other stringed instrument) ; Pop. fiddle-stick ; 2. Surg. arculus : hoops to keep the bed-clothes from touching a sick person ; 3. head, arched top (of a child's cradle) ; 4. drill-bow ; 5. wire-saw (for cutting precious stones, etc.) ; 6. spring (of a type-founder's mould).

ARCHÉTYPE, arkétip', [Gr. : ἀρχή, beginning ; τύπος, type], sm. 1. archetype ; 2. original standard (of weights and measures) ; 3. adj. archetypical, archetypal.

ARCHEVÊCHÉ, arshœvèshé, sm. 1. archbishopric : jurisdiction, dignity of an archbishop ; 2. archbishop's palace.

ARCHEVÊQUE, arshœvèk', [Gr. : ἀρχή, principality ; ἐπίσκοπος, bishop], sm. archbishop.

ARCHI, arshi, [Gr. : ἀρχή], 1. a prefix added to nouns and adjectives, chiefly in colloquial and burlesque language, to indicate an excessive degree, as : Archifou, stark mad, utterly mad. Archipédant, archpedant ; 2. before nouns and adjectives relating to high offices, it signifies : chief, high, grand, head ; and in some few instances is pronounced arki.

ARCHIABBÉ, arshiabé, sm. archabbot.

ARCHIATRE, arshiatr', [Gr. : ἀρχίατρος, ἰατρός, doctor], sm. archiater, head physician.

ARCHICAMÉRIER, arshikamérié, sm. arch-chamberlain (of the Roman Court).

ARCHICHANCELIER, arshishànselyé, sm. arch-chancellor, high chancellor.

ARCHIDIACONAT, arshidiakona, [Gr. : ἀρχή ; diaconat], sm. archdeaconship (dignity).

ARCHIDIACONÉ, arshidiakoné, sm. archdeaconry (jurisdiction).

ARCHIDIACRE, arshidiakr', sm. archdeacon.

ARCHIDUC, arshiduk, sm. arshduke : an Austrian title.

ARCHIDUCAL, E, arshidukal, al', adj archducal.

ARCHIDUCHÉ, arshidushé, sm. 1.

archduchy (territory); 2. archdukedom (dignity).

ARCHIDUCHESSE, arshidushes', sf. archduchess.

ARCHIÉPISCOPAL, E, arkiépiskopal, al', adj. archiepiscopal.

ARCHIÉPISCOPAT, arkiépiskopa, sm. 1. archiepiscopacy (dignity); 2. archiepiscopate (jurisdiction). [ARCHBISHOPRIC is used in both these senses.]

ARCHIÈRE, arshièr', [arc], sf. 1. loop-hole (for bowmen); 2. a narrow window.

ARCHIFAUX, arshifō, adj. absolutely false.

ARCHILUTH, arshilut, sm. archluth : formerly, an instrument for thorough-bass.

ARCHIMAGE, arshimazh, sm. archimage : chief magician or enchanter.

ARCHIMANDRITAT, arshimàndrita, sm. functions or dignity of an archimandrite.

ARCHIMANDRITE, arshimàndrit', [Gr. : ἀρχή, supremacy; μάνδρα, fold, enclosure], sm. archimandrite : the title given to the superiors of certain convents in the Greek Church.

ARCHIMILLIONNAIRE, arshimilionèr, sm. and adj. multimillionaire.

ARCHINE, arshin', [arche], sf. small wooden arch (to support the earth in a quarry.)

ARCHIPEL, arshipèl, [Gr. : ἀρχή, chief; πέλαγος, sea], sm. 1. Geog. archipelago; 2. (when preceded by the definite article only) the Archipelago : the Greek Archipelago.

ARCHIPOMPE, arshipônp', or ARCHE DE-POMPE, artsdœpónp', sf. Naut. pump-box.

ARCHIPRESBYTÉRAL, E, arshiprèsbitéral, al', adj. of or belonging to an arch-presbyter or archpriest.

ARCHIPRESBYTÉRAT, arshiprèsbitéra-t, sm. archpresbytery (dignity).

ARCHIPRÊTRE, arshiprêtr', sm. arch presbyter, archpriest.

ARCHIPRÊTRÉ, arshiprêtré, sm. arch-presbytery (jurisdiction).

ARCHITECTE, arshitèkt', [Gr. : ἀρχός, chief; τέκτων, builder], sm. architect.

ARCHITECTONIQUE, arshitèktonik', [Gr.: ἀρχιτεχτονικός], adj. 1. architectionic: relating to the technical processes of architecture; 2. sf. architectonics : the art of building.

ARCHITECTONOGRAPHE, arshitèktonograf', [Gr.: ἀρχός, chief; τέκτων, builder; γράφω, I describe], sm. architectonographer, describer of buildings.

ARCHITECTONOGRAPHIE, arshitèktonografi, sf. architectonography : description of buildings.

ARCHITECTURAL, E, arshitèktural, al', adj. architectural. Termes architecturaux, architectural terms.

ARCHITECTURE, arshitèktur', [Lat. : architectura, from Gr.], sf. architecture. — civile, militaire, navale, hydraulique, civil, military, naval, hydraulic architecture. — ogivale or gothique, pointed or Gothic architecture.

ARCHITRAVE, arshitrav', [Gr. : ἀρχός, chief; Lat. : trabs, beam], sf. Arch. architrave.

ARCHITRAVÉ, E, arshitravé, adj. architrave. Corniche architravée, or simply, une architravée, an architrave cornice.

ARCHITRÉSORIER, arshitrézoryé, sm. arch-treasurer, high-treasurer : a dignity under Napoleon I.

ARCHITRICLIN, arshitriklan, [Gr. : ἀρχός, chief, τρεῖς, three; κλίνη, bed, dining-room], sm. Rom. Ant. architriclinus : organizer of a banquet.

ARCHIVES, arshiv', [Lat. : archivum, from Gr. : ἀρχαῖος, ancient], sf. pl. 1. archives : records, state-papers; 2. record-office, state-paper office. — publiques ou nationales, public or national archives or records. — privées, private or family archives or records.

ARCHIVISTE, arshivist', sm. archivist, keeper of records.

ARCHIVOLTE, arshivolt', [Lat. : arcus, arch; volutus, vaulted], sf. Arch. archivolt.

ARCHONTAT, arkônta, sm. archonship.

ARCHONTE, arkônt', [Gr. : ἄρχων, a chief], sm. archon : chief magistrate of ancient Athens.

ARCHURE, arshur', [arche], sf. hoof, casing (of millstones).

ARCIFORME, arsifôrm', [Lat. : arcus, arch; forme], adj. arciform : arched, curved.

ARÇON, arsôn, [Lat. : arcus, arch], sm. 1. saddle-bow : the arched part of a saddle-tree. — de devant, pommel. — de derrière, cantle. Etre fermé dans (ou sur) les arçons, 1. to be firm in the saddle, to have a good seat on horse-back; 2. Fig. to be staunch to one's principles; to be true as steel. Perdre, vider les arçons, to lose one's seat : 1. to be unhorsed, to be thrown from one's horse; 2. Fig. to be disconcerted, non-plussed, embarrassed. Se remettre dans les arçons, to regain one's seat, to remount : to regain favour.

2. felting-bow. — mécanique, felting-machine.

ARÇONNAGE, arsonazh', sm. felting.

ARÇONNER, arsoné-r, va. to felt.

ARÇONNEUR, arsonœr, sm. felter.

ARCTATION, arktàsyôn, [Lat. : arctatio], sf. Med. arctation : contraction.

ARCTIQUE, arktik'. [Lat. : articus, from Gr. : ἀρκτικός], adj. arctic. Pôle —, the arctic (or north) pole.

ARCTURUS, arkturus; in poet. ARCTURE, arktur', sm. Astron. Arcturus : a star of the first magnitude in the constellation Bootes.

ARCUATION, arkuâsyôn, [Lat. : arcuatio, arcus], sf. Med. arcuation : curving of the bones in rickety children.

ARCURE, arkur', sf. Gard. arcuation : layering of vines, etc.

ARDÉLION, ardéliôn, [Lat. : ardelio], sm. busybody, meddler.

ARDEMMENT, ardamân-t, adv. ardently : a) fervently, passionately; b) intensely, violently; c) earnestly, eagerly, zealously.

ARDENT, E, ardân-t, ânt, [Lat. : ardens, from ardēre, to burn], adj. 1. burning : a) flaming, fiery, blazing, glowing; b) producing heat or fire; c) burning-hot, intensely hot. Charbon —, live-coal, burning-coal. Fournaise ardente, fiery furnace. Chandelle ardente, burning (or lighted) candle. Torche ardente, blazing, flaming torch. Miroir —, burning mirror : concave lens. Verre —, burning-glass : convex lens. Le soleil est — aujourd'hui, the sun is burning-hot to-day. Fièvre ardente, burning fever. Les ardentes fureurs de l'été, the burning heats of summer. Chapelle ardente, chamber of death : a place fitted up with numerous lighted tapers as a repository for a corpse during the interval between death and burial. Chambre ardente, an exceptional tribunal formerly instituted in France for the trial of great criminals, and so called because its capital sentences were carried into execution by burning at the stake.

2. Fig. ardent : a) burning, violent, intense, fierce; b) eager, earnest; c) sanguine; d) hot, hot-headed; e) spirited. Passion ardente, ardent passion. Une ardente vengeance, fierce vengeance. Un naturel —, an ardent (or sanguine) temperament. Amour, zèle, désir —, ardent love, zeal, desire. — à la poursuite de la gloire, ardent (or eager) in the pursuit of glory. L'ardente soif du gain, an ardent thirst for gain. Boil. Une haine ardente, burning (or intense) hatred. Une ardente jeunesse, impetuous, hot-headed youth. — à nous défendre, eager in our defence. Vous les verrez toujours ardents à vous complaire, you will ever find them eager (or anxious) to please you. Je le trouvais — pour mes intérêts, I found him ardent (or zealous) for my interest.

3. (of animals, especially horses) fiery, high-mettled, mettlesome, spirited; 4. (of colours) bright, vivid, glaring.

5. (of the hair) red, sandy, carroty. Cheveux d'un blond —, sandy hair.

6. Naut. griping : said of a ship whose head tends to come up to the wind when sailing close-hauled.

ARDENT, sm. ignis fatuus; Colloq. will-o'-the wisp, jack-a-lantern.

ARDER, ardé-r, ARDRE, ardr', ARDOIR, ardwâr, va. and vn. to burn.

ARDEUR, ardœr, [Lat. : ardor, oris], sf. 1. ardour, heat, burning heat, intense heat (as of the sun, fire or fever). L'— du soleil, the intense heat of the sun. L'— de la fièvre, the burning heat of the fever. [ARDOUR is seldom used in any but the figurative sense.]

2. Fig. ardour : a) fervour, fervidness (of love, affection, zeal); b) passion, intense desire; c) intensity, intenseness (of application); d) eagerness, earnestness; e) sanguineness; f) courage, fire, spirit. L'— de son zèle, de son affection, de sa dévotion, the ardour of his zeal, of his affection, of his devotion. L'— de la jeunesse, the ardour (or impetuousness) of youth. Ses paroles enflammèrent l'— de ses soldats, his words excited the ardour of his soldiers.

3. love, passion, flame. Il lui cacha son —, he concealed his passion from her.

4. fierness, spirit, mettle (in speaking of horses); 5. vividness, glare (of colours). Un cheval plein d'—, a high-spirited horse, a horse of mettle.

6. Med. sensation of heat. — d'estomac, heart-burn. — d'entrailles, a sensation of heat in the bowels.

† ARDEZ, ardé, for REGARDEZ, look!

ARDILLON, ardiyôn, [O. Fr. : hardillon; Celtic origin, ard, point], sm. 1. tongue (of a buckle); 2. Print. point (laid on the tympan to secure a good register). Cette boucle a deux, a trois ardillons, this buckle has a double, a triple tongue. Boucle sans —, a tongueless buckle. Il n'y manque pas un —, Fig. everything is complete.

ARDISIE, ardizi, sf. Bot. ardisia.

ARDOISE, ardwaz', [Etym. unknown], sf. 1. slate; 2. slate-colour. — de toiture, roofing slate. Toiture en —, slated roof, slating. Couvreur en —, slater. — à écrire, writing slate. Carrière d'—, slate quarry. Crayon d'—, slate pencil.

ARDOISÉ, E, ardwazé, adj. 1. slated; 2. slate-coloured.

ARDOISER, ardwazé-r, va. 1. to slate (a roof); 2. to paint, stain, or dye of a slate-colour.

ARDOISEUX, EUSE, ardwazœ, œz', adj. slaty : of slate, resembling slate.

ARDOISIER, ÈRE, ardwazié, èr', adj. Miner. slate-like, slaty.

ARDOISIER, sm. slate-digger, slate quarry-man.

ARDOISIÈRE, sf. slate-quarry.

ARDU, E, [Lat. : arduus], adj. arduous; a) steep, hard to climb ; b) Fig. hard to perform, difficult. Montagne ardue, a steep mountain. Sentier —, an arduous (steep or difficult) path. Matière ardue, a difficult matter.

ARDUITÉ, arduité, sf. arduity, arduousness.

ARE, ar', [Lat. : area, surface], sm. are : the unit of land measure in the French metrical system ; it contains 100 square metres, equal to 119.603329 square yards.

ARÉAGE, aréazhe, [are], sm. surface of land measuring so many ares.

AREC, arèk, ARÉCA, aréka, [Lat. : areca], sm. Bot. areca. — catechu, pinang palm, betel-nut palm. — d'Amérique, cabbage-palm (of the West Indies). Noix d'—, areca-nut, betel-nut.

ARÉFACTION, arékfasyôn, [Lat. : arefacère, to make dry ; arēre, to be dry; facère, to make], sf. arefaction, desiccation (of drugs).

ARÉNACÉE, arénasé, [Lat. : arenaceus], adj. Geol. arenaceous : sandy.

ARÉNAIRE, arénèr', adj. Bot. arenarious : growing in sandy soils.

ARÉNATION, arénâsyôn, sf. Med. arenation : the application of a sand-bath.

ARÈNE, arèn', [Lat. : arena, sand], sf. 1. sand, sands ; 2. arena (of an amphitheatre). Les brûlantes arènes de la Libye, the burning sands of Libya. Entrer, descendre dans l'—, 1. to enter the arena (or the lists) ; 2. Fig. to accept a challenge, to take part in a dispute or controversy.

3. pl. amphitheatre. Les arènes de Nîmes, the amphitheatre of Nîmes.

ARÉNER, aréné-r, vn. to sink, to sag : said of a floor. [S'aréner, is also used in the same sense.]

ARÉNEUX, EUSE, arénœ-z, œz', adj. arenose, sandy.

ARÉNULEUX, EUSE, arénulœ-z, œz, [arène], adj. arenulous.

ARÉOLAIRE, aréolèr', adj. areolar. Tissu —, areolar or cellular tissue.

ARÉOLATION, aréolâsyôn, sf. areolation.

ARÉOLE, aréol', [Lat. : areola, dim. of area], sf. 1. areola : a) Bot. and Anat. interstice between fibres or vessels ; b) dark circle round the nipple ; c) inflamed circle round pustules ; 2. halo (round the moon).

ARÉOLÉ, E, aréolé, adj. Bot. and Entom. areolate.

ARÉOMÈTRE, aréomètr', [Gr. : ἀραιός, thin ; μέτρον, measure], sm. Phys. areometer : an instrument to measure the density of fluids.

ARÉOMÉTRIE, aréométri, sf. Phys. areometry.

ARÉOMÉTRIQUE, aréométrik', adj. Phys. areometric, areometrical.

ARÉOPAGE, aréopazh', [Gr. : ἀρειόπαγος ; Ἄρης, Mars ; πάγος, hill], sm. Areopagus : a) a tribunal of ancient Athens ; b) Fig. any assembly of wise or learned men.

ARÉOPAGITE, areopazhit', sm. Areopagite : member of the Areopagus.

ARÉOSTYLE, aréostil', [Gr. : ἀραιός, rare ; στῦλος, column], sm. Arch. areostyle : an edifice with columns more than three diameters apart.

ARÉOTECTONIQUE, aréotektonik, [Gr. : ἄρειος, warlike ; τεκτονική, architecture], sf. areotectonics : the art of fortifying, of attacking and defending fortresses.

ARÉOTIQUE, aréotik, [Gr. : ἀραιός, rare], adj. Med. areotic ; attenuant.

ARER, aré-r, [Lat. : arāre, to plough], vn. Naut. to drive (as a ship that drags her anchors).

ARÊTE, arèt', [Lat. : arista, spine ; ear of corn], sf. 1. bone (of a fish), fish-bone ; 2. skeleton (of a fish) ; 3. Bot. awn : beard, glume of barley, wheat, etc. ; 4. Geom. edge : line of meeting of two planes forming a dihedral angle ; 5. Arch. and Carp. arris : sharp edge formed by the meeting of two flat or curved surfaces. Avaler une —, to swallow a fish-bone. Poutre à vive arête, square beam with sharp arrises or edges. — mousses, rounded edge. — abattue, canted or chamfered edge. — de voûte, groin of an arch. Appareil en — de poisson, Mason. herring-bone bond. Voûte d'—, groined vaulting.

6. ridge (of a bayonet or sword blade).

7. ridge, dividing ridge : the crest of a mountain dividing two water-sheds.

8. border of an anvil.

9. Veter. rat's-tails, grease : mangy tumours on a horse's legs.

ARÉTHUSE, arétuz', sf. 1. Mythol. Arethusa ; 2. Bot. arethusa. — bulbeuse, arethusa bulbosa.

ARÊTIER, arètyé, [arête], sm. Arch. hip-rafter.

ARÊTIÈRE, arètyèr, sf. layer of plaster or mortar, on roofs.

ARGALE, argale, sm. Ornith. argala, Indian adjudant : a kind of stork.

ARGALI, argali, sm. Zool. argali : wild sheep of central Asia.

ARGANEAU, arganô, sm. V. ORGANEAU.

ARGÉMA, arzhéma, ARGÉMON, arzhémôn, [Gr. : ἄργεμα], sm. Med. a superficial ulcer of the cornea.

ARGÉMONE, arzhémon', sf. Bot. argemone : Mexican poppy.

ARGENT, arzhân-t, [Lat. : argentum, silver], sm. 1. silver : one of the precious metals. — en lingot, en barre, silver in ingots, in bars, bar silver, silver bullion. — orfévré or travaillé, silver plate. — monnayé, coined silver. Blanc comme l'—, white as silver. — vierge or natif, virgin or native silver. — bas, inferior silver, silver of a low standard. — de bon aloi, standard silver. — battu or en feuille, silver leaf or foil. — fulminant, fulminate of silver, fulminating silver. — rouge, silver glance, argentite. — corné, horn silver, chloride of silver. Vif —, quicksilver, mercury. D'—, silverwhite, silvery, white as silver. La lune jetait un voile d'— sur la campagne, the moon threw a silvery veil over the country.

2. silver, silver coin. Voulez-vous être payé en or, en — ou en billets de banque ? will you be paid in gold, in silver, or in banknotes ? — blanc, silver coin.

3. money, cash : any currency, whether metallic or paper. Avoir beaucoup d'—, to have a great deal of money, to be rich or wealthy. Etre en —, to have plenty of money, to be in funds. — comptant, cash, ready money. — courant, current money. Un — fou, no end of money. — mort, — qui dort, money lying dead, unemployed capital. — en caisse, cash in hand. — mignon, money reserved for purposes of pleasure. — frais, money just received. Quoi ! tu prends pour de bon — ce que je viens de dire, what ! you take for ready-money what I have just said ! Mol. D. Juan. V, 2. Etre à court d'—, to be short of money, of cash. Il en veut pour son —, he is determinated to have his money's worth. Etre cousu d' —, avoir de l' — à gogo, to have any amount of money. Faire — de tout, to turn everything into money, to make the most of everything. Jeter de l'— par la fenêtre, to throw money away. Manger son —, to squander money. Payer — sec, — bas, — sur table, to pay in hard cash, to pay money down. Une affaire d'—, a money matter. Placer de l'—, to invest money. Trouver de l'—, to find, to raise money. Un bourreau d'—, a spendthrift. L'— est un bon passe-partout, money is a golden key to open every lock. Il est chargé d'— comme un crapaud de plumes, all the money he has he may put in his eye.

Prov. : Mettre de bon argent contre du mauvais, to throw good money after bad ; to persevere in a losing speculation. Argent comptant porte médecine, ready money is a panacea. Point d'argent, point de Suisse, no penny, no paternoster. Argent fait rage, amour, mariage, money is all-powerful. Qui n'a pas argent en bourse, ait miel en bouche, he that has no silver in his purse, should have silver on his tongue. Qui a de l'argent a des coquilles, where money, there friends. L'argent est un bon serviteur et un méchant maître, money is a good servant but a bad master. L'argent est le nerf de la guerre, money makes the mare to go. V. PLAIE, TEMPS.

4. Herald. argent. Cette maison porte d'— au lion de sable, that family bears argent with a lion sable. [Pearl is used instead of argent in describing the arms of British peers.]

ARGENTAGE, arzhantâge, sm. silvering, silver-plating.

ARGENTAL, E, arzhântal, al', adj. argental : containing silver.

ARGENTÉ, E, arzhânté, pa. p. 1. silvered 2. adj. silver-white, silvery, silver ; in poet. argent.

ARGENTER, arzhânté-r, va. to silver : a) to cover with silver, to plate or wash with silver ; b) Fig. to whiten, to make white like silver.

ARGENTERIE, arzhanteri, sf. silver plate, plate.

ARGENTEUR, arzhântœr, sm. silverer : silver-plater, silver-washer.

ARGENTEUX, EUSE, arzhantœ-z, œz', adj. Pop. moneyed : rich, wealthy.

† ARGENTIER, arzhântyé, sm. 1. treasurer (of a princely or royal household) ; 2. finance minister, minister of finance.

ARGENTIFÈRE, arzhântifèr', [Lat. : argentum, silver ; ferre, to bear], adj. argentiferous : containing or yielding silver.

ARGENTIN, E, arzhântan, in', adj. 1. silvery, silver ; 2. silver-toned, silvery ; in poet. argentine ; silver-tinted, white as silver, silvery-white. Gris —, silver-gray.

ARGENTINE, arzhântin', sf. 1. Bot. argentina : wild tansy, potentilla anserina ; 2. Ichth. argentine : a small fish of the salmon family ; 3. Min. argentine : nacreous carbonate of lime.

ARGENTINE, adj. f. République argentine, the Argentine Republic (of Rio de la Plata).

ARGENTURE, arzhântur', sf. silvering : a) silver-plating or washing ; b) the art of silvering.

ARGILE, arzhil', [Gr. : ἄργιλλος, sf. 1. clay, argil (seldom used) ; 2. Fig. clay, dust of the earth : the material part of man. — réfractaire, fire-clay. — compacte, stiff, tenacious clay. — figuline, loamy clay. — plastique, plastic clay, potter's clay. — smectique, fuller's earth. — à porcelaine, porcelain clay, kaolin. Tous les hommes sont faits de la même argile, all men are made of the same clay, same dust of the earth.

ARGILEUX, EUSE, arzhilœ-z, œz', adj. argillous, clayey.

ARGILIÈRE, arzhiliér, sf. clay-pit.

ARGILIFÈRE, arzhilifèr', [argile ; Lat. : ferre, to bear], adj. argilliferous.

ARGILIFORME, arzhiliform', ARGILOÏDE, arzhiloïd, [argile ; Gr. : εἶδος, form], adj. argilloid : resembling clay.

ARGILITE, arzhilit', sf. argilite, clayey slate.

ARGILLACÉ, E, arzhilasé, adj. Geol. argillaceous.

ARGILOLITHE, arzhilolit', [argile ; Gr. : λίθος, stone], sm. Geol. clay-stone.

ARGO, argô, [Gr. : Ἀργώ), sm. Astron. Argo, Argo navis : a southern constellation.

ARGON, argôn, sm. Sport. springe (for taking woodcocks, etc.).

ARGON, argôn, [Gr.], sm. Chem. argon : a simple gas : a constituent element of the atmosphere.

ARGONAUTE, argonôt', [argo], sm. 1. Gr. Myth. Argonaut ; 2. argonaut, (commonly called) paper argonautilus (the argonaute papyracé of French naturalists).

ARGOT, argo [Ety. unknown], sm. 1. slang, cant, flash language : the gibberish spoken by thieves, beggars, etc. ; 2. slang : terms peculiar to certain professions. — des coulisses, — du théâtre, stage slang, theatrical slang.

ARGOT, sm. Hortic. stub : the part of a branch left in pruning, which always dies as far as the next eye or bud.

ARGOTER, argoté-r, va. and vn. to cut off the stubs left in pruning.

ARGOTIER, IÈRE argotié-r, ièr, smf. slang talker.

ARGOTIQUE argotik' adj. slangy, canting.

ARGOTISER, argotizé-r vn. to talk slang.

ARGOUSIER, argouzyé, sm. Bot. sea-buck-thorn.

ARGOUSIN, argouzan, [for algousin, corr. from Span. Al quazil] sm. convict-warder ; Pop. policeman, bobby, peeler ; Slang, boss, foreman.

ARGUE, arg', [for orgue, from Lat. : organum], sf. 1. rough draw-bench (for wire) ; 2. a public office where gold ingots were rough-drawn, assayed, and stamped.

ARGUER, arghé-r, va. to rough-draw (an ingot).

ARGUER, argué-r, [Lat. : arguĕre, to prove], va. (J'argue, tu argues, il argue, etc., the gu always forming a syllable.) 1. to accuse, to charge with. — une pièce de faux, to allege that a document is forged.

2. to argue : to draw an inference, to infer, to conclude. Qu'arguez-vous de cela ? what do you argue (infer or conclude) from that ? (Sometimes used in a neuter sense :) Vous arguez à tort de ce principe, you wrongly argue (infer, conclude) from this principle.

ARGUMENT, argumân-t, [Lat. : argumentum], sm. argument : a) reason, plea ; b) proof, evidence ; c) summary of the subject of a poem, etc. ; d) Astron. a quantity on which another quantity depends. — solide, sound argument. — captieux, captious argument. — en forme, formal argument, a syllogism. — ad hominem, argumentum ad hominem. Tirer un — de, to draw an argument, a proof from.

† ARGUMENTANT, argumântân-t, sm. arguer, wrangler, disputant.

ARGUMENTATEUR, argumântatœr, sm. (in all ill sense) arguer, reasoner.

ARGUMENTATION, argumântâsyôn, sf. argumentation : the art or act of reasoning.

ARGUMENTER, argumânté-r, vn. 1. to argue, to discuss : to hold an argument. — selon les règles, to argue according to rule.

2. (with de, from) to argue (infer or conclude) from.

3. (in an active sense) to argue with (a person), to press (a person) with arguments.

ARGUMENTEUR, argumântœr, sm. arguer, disputant.

ARGUS, argus, sm. 1. Argus : a) Myth. a fabled personage with a hundred eyes ; b) a vigilant person ; c) a spy, a person set to watch. Avoir des yeux d'Argus, to have a hundred eyes, to be very watchful.

2. Ornith. argus pheasant ; 3. Entom. argus : a kind of spotted butterfly ; 4. Conch. argus-shell.

ARGUTIE, argusi, [Lat. : argutia], sf. quibble, quirk.

ARGUTIEUX, EUSE, argusiœ-z, œz', adj. quibbling.

ARGYROSE, arzhirôz', [Gr. : ἄργυρος, silver], sf. Min. silver-glance : a sulphide or sulphuret of silver.

ARIA, aria, [O. Fr. : harier, to worry], sm. bother, mess, row. Quel aria ! what a bother.

ARIANISER, arianizé-r, vn. to incline to arianism.

ARIANISME, arianism', [arien, from Arius of Alexandria, died 336], sm. Arianism : the doctrines taught by Arius.

ARIDE, arid', [Lat. : aridus], adj. arid : a) dry ; b) dried up, parched with heat ; c) barren, sterile. Terre —, arid soil. Sujet —, dry (or uninteresting) subject. Esprit —, barren mind.

ARIDITÉ, aridité, sf. aridity : a) dryness ; b) barrenness, sterility (of soil, of mind, of a subject ; c) insensibility, absence of unction (in a religious sense). — de la peau, dryness of the skin.

ARIEN, NE, arian, èn, [Arius], adj. and s. Arian. Les Vandales étaient Ariens, the Vandals were Arians (followers of Arius).

ARIETTE, ariètt, [Ital. : arietta], sf. Mus. arietta.

ARILLE, ariy', [Lat. : arillus], sf. Bot. aril, arillus : the seed-coat of certain plants. L'— du muscadier, mace.

ARILLÉ, E, aryé, adj. Bot. arillate, arillated.

ARISTARQUE, aristark', pnm. 1. Aristarchus : a famous Greek critic ; 2. aristarch : a severe and just critic.

ARISTÉ, E, aristé, [Lat. : arista], adj. Bot. awned, bearded, glumed (as barley, etc.).

ARISTOCRATE, aristokrat', smf. 1. an aristocrat ; 2. adj. aristocratic.

ARISTOCRATIE, aristokrasi, [Gr. : ἄριστος, best ; κράτος, power], sf. aristocracy. L'— est toute puissante ici, the aristocracy is all powerful here. L'— des talents, the aristocracy of talent.

ARISTOCRATIQUE, aristokratik', adj. aristocratic, aristocratical.

ARISTOCRATIQUEMENT, aristokratik'mân-t, adv. aristocratically.

ARISTOCRATISER, aristokratizé-r, va. to aristocratize.

ARISTOLOCHE, aristolosh, Gr. : ἄριστος, best ; λοχεία, child-birth], sf. Bot. aristolochia, birthwort. — clématite, aristolochia clematitis. — serpentaire, Virginian snake-root, aristolochia serpentaria.

ARISTOPHANE, aristofan, pnm. Aristophanes.

ARISTOPHANESQUE, aristofanesk', adj. Aristophanic.

ARISTOTÉLICIEN, NE, aristotélisyan, èn, adj. 1. Aristotelian ; 2. sm. Aristotelian.

ARISTOTÉLIQUE, aristotélik', adj. Aristotelic.

ARISTOTÉLISME, aristotélism', sm. Aristotelianism.

ARITHMÉTICIEN, arithmétisyan, sm. arithmetician.

ARITHMÉTIQUE, aritmétik', [Gr. : ἀριθμός, number ; τέχνη, art.], sf. 1. arithmetic. — universelle, universal arithmetic : algebra. — politique, political arithmetic.

2. adj. arithmetical. Rapport (or raison) —, arithmetical ratio. Proportion —, arithmetical proportion. Moyen —, arithmetical mean. Progression —, arithmetical progression.

ARITHMÉTIQUEMENT, arithmétik'mân, adj. arithmetically.

ARITHMOGRAPHIE, arithmografi, [Gr. : ἀριθμός, number ; γραφή, writing], sf. arithmography : the art of expressing by conventional signs quantities the composition of which is known.

ARITHMOMANCIE, arithmomansi, [Gr. : ἀριθμός, number ; μαντεία, divination] arithmomancy : divination by means of numbers.

ARITHMOMÈTRE, arithmomètr', [Gr. : ἀριθμός, number ; μέτρον, measure], sm. arithmometer : a calculating machine.

ARLEQUIN, arlœkan, [Ital. : arlecchino], sm. 1. harlequin : a) a buffoon clothed in a many-coloured dress ; b) Fig. a turn-coat, a person who is ever changing sides in politics ; 2. Ornith. gambet, spotted redshank ; 3. broken victuals, a plate of remnants of meat.

ARLEQUINADE, arlœkinad', sm. harlequinade : a piece of buffoonery.

ARMADA, armada, [Span., navy], sf. armada.

ARMADILLE, armadiy', [Span. : armadillo], sf. 1. armadilla : a small fleet ; 2. armadillo : a) Zool. armadillo, tatou ; b) Entom. pill-beetle.

ARMAND, armân, 1. pnm. Armand ; 2. sm. Vet. Surg. spiced mash.

ARMATEUR, armatœr, [Lat. : armator, from arma, arms], sm. 1. ship-owner ; 2. owner or captain of a privateer ; 3. † privateer (vessel).

ARMATURE, armatur', [Lat. : armatura], sf 1. iron-work, braces : to strengthen masonry, etc.) ; 2. fittings (as of a pump, etc.) ; 3. Electr. collecting plate (of a condenser) ; 4. Magn. armature : a) the capping and casing of a natural magnet ; b) a piece of soft iron connecting the poles of a horse-shoe magnet ; 5. Geol. crust (of organic fossils) ; 6. Mus. signature : the flats or sharps placed immediately after the clef. — de chaudière, boiler fittings.

ARME, arm', [Lat. : arma, arms], sf. 1. arm : any instrument intended for attack or defence (in this sense, the plural arms is mostly used) ; 2. weapon. Armes offensives, défensives, offensive, defensive arms. — à feu, armes à feu, fire-arm, fire-arms.

Armes blanches, swords sabres, bayonets; Milit. side-arms. Armes piquantes, stabbing arms. Armes tranchantes, cutting weapons. Armes tranchantes et piquantes, cut and thrust arms. Le choix des armes, the choice of arms (in duelling). Homme d'armes, man-at-arms : a man armed cap-a-pie. Armes courtoises, arms of courtesy, blunt arms : used formerly in tournaments. Place d'armes, parade, exercise-ground. Salle d'armes, armoury : a place in which arms are kept. Port d'armes, 1. Milit. carryring arms : the soldier's first position : 2. Sport. license to kill game, game certificate. Appeler le peuple aux armes, to call the people to arms. Porter les armes, to bear or carry arms, to be a soldier. Il n'a jamais porté les armes contre notre pays, he has never borne arms against our country. Prendre les armes, to take up arms, to take arms. Poser les armes, mettre les armes bas, to lay down one's arms Fig. to give in, to yield, to submit. Rendre les armes, to give up, to surrender one's arms (to a conqueror); Fig. to acknowledge one's self vanquished, to avow one's defeat. Faire tomber les armes des mains de quelqu'un, Fig. to disarm, to pacify, to appease a person. Les armes lui tombèrent des mains, he was disarmed, pacified, appeased. Être sous les armes ou en armes, 1. to be under arms or in arms; 2. Fig. to be prepared (or ready) for action; 3. (in speaking of ladies) to be in full toilet, in grand array, to be elaborately dressed; Colloq. to be in high feather, to be dressed in one's best. Les dames de la cour étaient sous les armes, the Court ladies were in grand array, in full toilet. Passer par les armes, to put to the sword, to shoot. Faire passer par les armes, to condemn to military execution. Les espions furent saisis et passés par les armes, the spies were seized and shot.

3. Milit. arm : each of the different kinds of troops composing an army. Chacun choisit l'— qu'il voulut; il entra dans l'— de la cavalerie, every one chose what arm he pleased; he entered the cavalry arm. Troupes de toutes armes, troops of all arms.

4. Fig. arm, weapon : means of attack or defence. Les armes de la prudence, de l'éloquence, the arms of prudence, of eloquence. Cette loi leur mettait à la main une — terrible, that law placed a terrible arm (or weapon) in their hands, that law gave them a terrible power. Ils ont fourni des armes contre eux-mêmes, they furnished weapons, arms, against themselves. Contre un pareil malheur ma constance est sans armes, against such a misfortune my constance is unarmed, defenceless. Mol. Psy. I. I. Faire — de tout, to use every available weapon, to employ every means that can serve one's purpose. Le ridicule est l'— favorite des Français, ridicule is the favourite weapon of the French. Mass. Battre quelqu'un de ses propres armes, to fight a man with his own weapons. Passer l'— à gauche, Colloq. to go to kingdom come; to kick the bucket. Haut les armes! lodge arms! Portez armes! shoulder arms! Présentez armes! present arms! Arme au bras! stand at ease! Arme à terre! ground arms! Arme à volonté! slope arms!

5. Nat. Hist. arm : as the teeth, horns, claws, stings, etc., of animals and insects; thorns, prickles, etc., of plants.

6. Technol. hand-saw (used by pianoforte manufacturers).

ARMES, sf. pl. 1. arms : war, military enterprise; army, troops. Les lois sont muettes au milieu des armes, the laws are silent in the midst of war. Nos armes ont été heureuses, our arms, our troops have been successful. Affermir l'État par les armes, to strengthen the state by war, by military exploits. Suspension d'armes, suspension of hostilities, an armistice (or truce). Faire ses premières armes, to make one's first campaign. Un fait d'armes, a feat of arms, a brilliant exploit. Les armes sont journalières, the fortune of war is uncertain.

2. armour. Endosser ses armes, to put on one's armour.

3. fencing. Salle d'armes, fencing-school. Maître d'armes, fencing-master. Faire, tirer des armes, to fence. Tireur d'armes, fencer. Assaut d'armes, a fencing-match. Tout le secret des armes ne consiste, qu'en deux choses : à donner et ne point recevoir, the great secret (or art) of fencing consists in two things : in giving and not receiving. Mol. Bourg. II. 3.

4. Herald. arms, armorial bearings, coat of arms. Les armes de France, the arms of France. Quelles sont vos armes? what are your arms, your armorial bearings? La lettre fut scellée du sceau de ses armes, the letter was closed with a seal bearing his arms. Armes parlantes, canting (or punning) arms. Armes fausses or à enquerre, irregular arms.

ARMÉ, E, adj. armed. V. Armer. — à la légère, light-armed. Pesamment —, heavy (or heavily) armed. La force armée, the troops, the military. — jusqu'aux dents, armed to the teeth. A main armée, by force of arms, by force. Insectes armés d'aiguillons, insects armed with stings. Vaisseau — en guerre, a ship equipped for war. Bâton — de fer, an iron-shod stick, a stick tipped with iron.

ARMÉE, armé, sf. 1. army; Bibl. host; 2. host, multitude. — navale, fleet (consisting of three squadrons). Les armées de terre et de mer, the land and sea forces. Un corps d'—, an army corps. — permanente, standing army. Mettre l'— sur le pied de la guerre, to put the army on a war footing. — de campagne, field army. Le Dieu des armées, the Lord of hosts. Une — de jeunes écrivains, a host of young writers. L'— du crime, the army of criminals. L'— du salut, the Salvation Army.

ARMELINE, armœlin', sf. hermine skin (or pelt).

ARMEMENT, armœmân-t, [Lat. : armamenta], sm. 1. arming : the act of supplying with arms; 2. accoutrements (of troops); 3. armament : levying of troops, preparation for war; 4. Naut. equipment, fitting out (of ships); 5. a small fleet; 6. Mus. signature : the flats or sharps place after the clef; 7. slate covering (of a wall). L'— d'une place, d'une troupe, the arming of a fortress, of a troop.

ARMENGAUD, armaingò, [Désiré], historian and critic (1797-1869).

ARMÉNIE, arméni, sf. Armenia.

ARMÉNIEN, ENNE, arménian, èn', adj. and s. Armenian.

ARMER, armé-r, [Lat. : armāre]. va. 1. to arm : a) to supply with arms; b) to cover with armour; c) to rouse, to excite to arms; d) to fortify; e) Magn. to apply an armature. — un soldat, un régiment, to arm a soldier, a regiment. — de toutes pièces, de pied en cap, to arm (a man) cap-a-pie. — une place de guerre, to arm a fortified town (with cannon). Le fer homicide n'armera plus sa main, murderous steel will no longer arm his hand. Le fanatisme a souvent armé les peuples les uns contre les autres, fanaticism has often armed nations against each other. Il faut d'un noble orgueil — votre courage, a noble pride must fortify your courage. Racine. — un aimant, to arm a magnet, a loadstone.

2. Fig. to excite, to provoke, to set (against), to render hostile. — le père contre le fils, l'ami contre l'ami, to set father against son, friend against friend. Ses vices ont armé tous les honnêtes gens contre lui, his vices have set (or excited) all honest men against him.

3. to dub (a knight); 4. to cock (a gun or pistol); 5. to shot (a cannon); 6. Hort. to protect (a young tree, by placing thorns, etc., round it); 7. to clamp (a beam, a millstone, etc.) with iron hoops; 8. to shoe (a stick, a pile). — un pieu, un pilot d'une pointe en fer, to shoe a stake, a pile with iron.

9. Naut. to equip, to fit out (a ship); 10. to man (a boat, a pump); 11. to rig (a capstan); 12. to ship (oars).

13. Mus. to put the signature to (the clef)

ARMER, vn. 1. to arm : to take arms, to prepare for war. Les circonstances devenant menaçantes, la France arma, the situation having become menacing, France armed, began to arm.

2. Naut. to ship, to embark Il arma sur le Terrible, he shipped on board the Terrible.

ARMER (s'), refl. 1. to arm one's self. S'armant aussitôt, arming himself immediately. Il s'arma d'une épée, he armed himself with a sword. [Fig. :] S'— de patience, to take patience. S'— de résignation, to become resigned. S'— de courage ou de résolution, to take (or summon up) courage or resolution. S'— d'effronterie, to put on a brazen face, to have recourse to impudence.

2. to take (or take up) arms. Il s'arma contre sa patrie, he took arms against his country.

3. to protect (or secure) one's self; to take, wear, or carry (as a protection or security); to take (one's precautions). S'— d'un manteau contre le froid, to wear a cloak as a protection against the cold. S'— contre la pluie, contre le mauvais temps, to take precautions against the rain, against bad weather.

4. Man. to be unmanageable : said of a horse that resists the action of the bit.

ARMET, armè, [arme], sm. 1. helmet, head-piece : 2. head, brains. Quand le vin lui barbouille l'—, when wine muddles his brains.

ARMILLAIRE, armillèr', adj. armillary. — sphère, armillary sphere.

ARMILLE, armiy', [Lat. : armilla, bracelet], sf. Arch. annulet, fillet.

ARMINIANISME, arminianism', sm. Arminianism : the doctrines of Arminius (1560-1609).

ARMINIEN, arminian, sm. Arminian : a follower of Arminius.

ARMISTICE, armistis', [Lat. : arma, arms; Low Lat. : armistitium], sm. armistice : temporary cessation of hostilities.

ARMOIRE, armwar', [Lat. : armarium], sf. 1. cupboard; 2. wardrobe, press, hanging-press (for clothes). — à glace, wardrobe with looking-glass door.

ARMOIRIES, armwari, [Lat. : arma, arms], sf. pl. Herald. arms, coat of arms, armorial bearings (or ensigns); (when represented in a lozenge at a funeral) hatchment, achievement.

ARMOISE, armwaz', [Low Lat. : artemesia], sf. 1. Bot. artemisia absinthium : wormwood. V. ARTEMISE; 2. armosine : a kind of black silk.

ARMOISIN, armwazan, sm. armosine, armozeen : a plain black silk, sarsenet.

ARMON, armôn, [Lat. : artemo], sm. futchel, fore-guide (of a four-wheeled carriage].

ARMORIAL, armorial, adj. 1. armorial ; 2. sm. armorial register, book of heraldry.

ARMORIER, armorié-r, va. to emblazon, to put a coat of arms on (a carriage, a seal, etc.). Cachet armorié, a seal with a coat of arms on it. Ecu armorié, an emblazoned shield.

ARMORISTE, amorist', sm. armorist, emblazoner.

ARMURE, armur', [Lat. : arma, arms], sf. 1. armour : defensive clothing of metal ; 2. Fig. defence ; 3. armature (of a magnet) ; 4. Technol. braces, clamps : pieces of iron used to strengthen anything ; 5. Naut. fish (of a beam, etc.). — à l'épreuve, proof armour. Revêtir son —, to put on one's armour.

ARMURERIE, armurœri, sf. 1. gunmaking, gunsmith's trade ; 2. gunsmith's shop.

ARMURIER, armurié, sm. 1. gunsmith ; 2. sword-cutler ; 3. Naut armourer.

ARNAULD, arnō (Antoine), theologian and writer (1612-1694).

ARNICA, arnika, ARNIQUE, arnik', [Apparently a Corrup. of Gr. : πταρμική], sf. Bot. arnica, leopard's bane.

ARNICINE, arnisin', sf. Chem. arnicine : the bitter principle of arnica.

ARNOTTO, arnotô, sm. Bot. arnotto.

AROMATE, aromat', sm. aromatic : flagrant vegetable substance.

AROMATIQUE, aromatik', adj. aromatic, aromatical.

AROMATISATION, aromatizâsyôn, sf. aromatization.

AROMATISER, aromatizé-r, va. to aromatize : to flavour with aromatics.

AROME, arôm', [Gr. : ἄρωμα]. sm. aroma : spicy flavour or smell.

ARONDE, arônd', sf. [the old form of HIRONDELLE]. 1. swallow (bird) ; 2. Ichth. (or HIRONDELLE DE MER) flying-gurnard ; 3. Moll. pearl-oyster, avicula margaritifera ; 4. Fortif. the re-entering angle of a crown- or horn-work. Queue d'—, Carp. and Join. dove-tail, swallow-tail. Assemblage queue d'—, dove-tail joint, dove-tailing. Queue d'— recouverte (or à recouvrement), lap (or lapped) dove-tail. Queue d'— perdue, mitred dove-tail.

ARONDELLE, arondel, sf. Fish. large ground fishing-line.

ARPAILLEUR, arpayœr, sm. [a corruption of ORPAILLEUR.] gold-finder, gold-digger.

ARPÈGE, arpèzh', [Ital. : arpeggio], ARPÈGEMENT, arpèzh'mân-t, sm. Mus. arpeggio.

ARPÉGER, arpézhé-r, vn. Mus. to play in arpeggio : to strike the notes of a chord in rapid succession.

ARPENT, arpân-t, [Lat. : arvus, field ; pendĕre, to value], sm. 1. arpent : an old French land-measure varying in different provinces from 3 roods to 2 acres English ; 2. cross-cut saw.

ARPENTAGE, arpântazh', sm. land-measuring, land-surveying. Faire l'— d'un champ, to measure a field.

ARPENTER, arpânté-r, va. 1. to measure, to survey (land) ; 2. to stride along ; to walk with long steps and rapidly. Il arpenta sa chambre, he strode up and down (or about) his room. Il arpenta les champs, he strode along (or across) the fields. [Neutr. :] Voyez comme il arpente ! see how he strides along :

ARPENTEUR, arpântœr, sm. 1. land-measurer, land-surveyor ; 2. Ornith. golden plover.

ARPENTEUSE, arpântœz', sf. Entom. geometer, looper : a name given to the larvæ of certain night-moths.

ARPON, arpôn, sm. cross-cut saw.

ARQUÉ, E, arké, pa. p. and adj. 1. arched, curved ; 2. cambered (as a beam, etc.) ; 3. bend, crooked ; 4. Bot. fornicate, fornicated ; 5. Arch. fornicated, arched. Cheval —, weak-kneed horse.

ARQUEBUSADE, arkœbuzad', sf. arquebusade : shot of an arquebuse. Eau d'—, Phar. arquebusade water, arquebusade.

ARQUEBUSE, arkœbuz', [Ital. : archibuso], sf. arquebuse : old fashioned hand-gun.

ARQUEBUSERIE arkœbuzœri, sf. gunsmith's trade.

ARQUEBUSER, arkœbuzé-r, va. to shoot (with an arquebuse or other fire-arm).

ARQUEBUSIER, arkœbuzyé, sm. 1. gunsmith ; 2. arquebusier : a soldier-armed with an arquebuse.

ARQUER, arké-r, [Lat. : arcuāre, to bend over ; arcus, arch], va. 1. to arch ; 2. to curve, to bend round ; 3. to camber (timber).

ARQUER, vn., ARQUER (s'), v. refl. 1. to curve, to arch ; 2. to bend, to give way. Cette poutre commence à —, (or à s'arq.), that beam is beginning to bend, to give way. Les jambes de cet enfant se sont arquées, that child's legs are bent (or bowed).

ARRACACHE, arakash, sm. Bot. arracacha : an esculent resembling the par nip.

ARRACHAGE, arashazh', sm. 1. Agr. pulling up (of hemp, flax, turnips) ; 2. digging up (of potatoes, trees, etc.).

ARRACHÉ, E, arashé, adj. 1. pulled out, torn off or away, etc. V. ARRACHER ; 2. Herald. Arrachée : a) erased (said of the head or limb of an animal) ; b) eradicated (said of a tree or plant with the roots exposed).

ARRACHE-BOUCHON, arachbush'on, sm. cork-grip, cork-puller.

ARRACHE-CLOU, arash-clew, sm. nail-puller.

ARRACHEMENT, arash'mân-t, sm. 1. pulling up (by the roots) ; 2. plucking out, off, or away ; 3. tearing off, down, or away ; 4. grubbing or stocking up (of stumps, roots, etc.) ; 5. digging up (potatoes, etc.). — des mauvaises herbes, weeding.

6. Arch. pulling out (of stones, so as to make a toothing to join a new wall to an old one) ; 7. the lower stones of a vault, engaged in the wall from which it springs.

ARRACHE-PIED, arash'pye, used only in the adv. phr. D'ARRACHE-PIED, without intermission, uninterruptedly, continuously, consecutively, together. J'ai travaillé six heures d'—, I have worked (or stuck to my work for) six hours without intermission.

ARRACHER, arashé-r, [Lat. : ex radicāre, to root up], va. 1. to pull up by the roots. — des pommes de terre, to pull up potatoes.

2. to pull or draw out (a nail) ; 3. to draw, pull out, or extract (a tooth) ; 4. to tear or pull out (the hair) ; 5. to tear or pluck out (the eyes), to scratch out (with nails or claws). Elles étaient prêtes à s'— les yeux, they were ready to tear or scratch each other's eyes out. Je me ferai — cette mauvaise dent, I will have this bad tooth pulled out.

6. to stock, grub, or stub up (roots or stumps of trees).

7. to tear or tear away. — un enfant à sa mère, des bras de sa mère, to tear away a child from its mother, from its mother's arms. — quelqu'un de sa retraite, to tear a man from his retreat. On s'arrachait les journaux hier soir, people scrambled (there was a regular rush) to get the newspapers last night.

8. to snatch or snatch away, to snatch off (by a sudden movement). Il arracha le livre de ma main, he snatched the book from my hand. — le chapeau à quelqu'un, to snatch off a person's hat. — la victoire à l'ennemi, to snatch the victory from the enemy.

9. to wrest, to wrench (by continued efforts). On lui arracha le poignard des mains, they wrenched the dagger from his hands. On lui arrachera le pouvoir, they will wrest the power from him. La plèbe arracha cette loi aux patriciens, the common people wrested this law from the patricians.

10. Fig. to eradicate, to root out. Arrachez-lui du cœur ce dessein, eradicate that design from his heart.

11. Fig. to extort, to draw out, to get (a thing) out of (a person). On ne peut lui — un mot, one cannot get a word out of him. — de l'argent à une personne, to get money out of a person.

12. to wring, to draw. Ces soupirs que la tristesse m'arrache, these sighs which sorrow wrings from me. — des larmes à quelqu'un, to draw tears from a person. Arrachez-lui son secret, wring his secret from him. La douleur de cet enfant m'arrache le cœur, that child's grief wrings my heart.

13. to take, to take away. — la vie à quelqu'un, to take a person's life. On lui arracherait plutôt la vie que de le faire consentir à une lâcheté, he would rather die than concent to a base action.

14. to save, to rescue. — quelqu'un à la misère, à la captivité, à la mort, to rescue (or save) any one from misery, from captivity, from death.

15. to force away, to drive or draw away. La vieillesse m'arrache aux affaires, old age compels me to retire from business.

16. to pull, tear, or strip off. — la peau à un animal, l'écorce à un arbre, to strip off the skin of an animal, the bark of a tree.

17. Hatmak. to pull or pick out (the coarse shining hairs of beaver's fur) ; 18. Engrav. to scrape out (the lines of a plate that require altering).

[Arracher is followed by de when a person or thing is separated from anything or place : Arracher un clou d'une muraille ; arracher un enfant des bras de sa mère ; arracher un homme d'un lieu ; but by à when anything is forcibly taken from a person or thing personified : arracher un œil à un homme ; arracher un enfant à sa mère, de l'argent à un avare ; arracher quelqu'un à la mort, à la vengeance de ses ennemis. Prov. : Il vaut mieux laisser son enfant morveux que de lui arracher le nez, of two evils choose the least.

ARRACHER (s'), v. refl. to tear or force one's self away. Je me suis arraché à mes livres. I have torn myself from my books. J'ai résolu de m'— de Paris, I have resolved to tear (or force) myself away from Paris. S'— au sommeil, to rouse one's self from sleep. Arrachez-vous de ce lieu funeste, fly from this fatal spot. Elle s'est arraché les cheveux, she tore her hair.

ARRACHEUR, arashœr, sm. 1. extirpator, extractor; 2. potato-digger : an agricultural implement. — de dents, tooth-drawer : a mountebank who draws teeth. Mentir comme un — de dents, to lie like a mountebank. — de cors, corn-cutter.

ARRACHEUSE, arashœz', sf. fur-picker : one who picks the coarse hairs out of beaver's fur.

ARRACHIS, arashi, sm. 1. a young tree pulled up by the roots; 2. the crime of stealing young trees.

ARRACHOIR, arashoir, sm. rooter, eradicator.

ARRAISONNER, arèzoné'r, [à; raison], va. 1. to reason or argue with (a person); 2. Naut. to hail and interrogate (a vessel as to her name, destination, etc.).

ARRANGÉ, E, arân*zh*é, adj. 1. arranged, etc. V. ARRANGER; 2. steady, staid, sedate.

ARRANGEANT, E, arân*zh*ân-t, ânt', adj. accommodating, obliging.

ARRANGEMENT, arân*zh*'mân-t, sm. 1. arrangement : a) the act of arranging; b) the orderly disposition of things; c) preparation, measure; d) adjustment, settlement (of disputes); e) compounding (with one's creditors); f) adapting of music for other instruments than those for which it was composed; g) fitting up (of rooms, etc.); h) repairing (of watches, etc.); i) planning, laying out (of gardens, etc.). Il s'est chargé de l'— de mes livres, he has undertaken the arrangement of (or to arrange) my books. L'— des mots, des idées, the arrangement (or proper order) of words, of ideas. Leur procès s'est terminé par un — à l'amiable, their lawsuit has been terminated by an amicable arrangement. Aucun d'eux n'a voulu entrer en —, not one of them was willing to come to an arrangement, to come to terms. Prendre des arrangements avec ses créanciers, to make arrangements (or to compound) with one's creditors.

2. economy, management, order. Il faut mettre plus d'— dans vos affaires, dans vos dépenses, you must introduce better order or greater economy into your expenditure.

ARRANGER, arân*zh*é-r, [à; ranger], va. 1. to arrange : a) to put in regular order; b) to reduce to order; c) to adjust, to settle (differences, etc.); d) to make arrangements for; e) to contrive (a plan, etc.); f) to repair, clean, or put in order (a watch, or anything broken, or out of order); g) Mus. to adapt a piece of music for other instruments than those for which it was composed. a) — des livres, to arrange books. — une maison, une chambre, to arrange (fit up, or put in order) a house, a room. — sa barbe, to arrange, (to shave or trim) one's beard. — sa cravate, to arrange (or adjust) one's cravat. b) — ses idées, ses paroles, to arrange one's ideas, one's words. L'art d'— les mots, the art of arranging words. Arrangez les chaises autour de la table, put the chairs round the table. — ses affaires, to arrange (or put in order) one's affaires. c) — une affaire, un différend, une querelle, to arrange, settle, or adjust an affair, a difference, a quarrel. — un procès à l'amiable, to settle or terminate a lawsuit in a friendly manner, to come to an amicable adjustment. d) — un voyage, to make arrangements for a journey. — un mariage, to arrange (or make arrangements for) a marriage. e) — un plan, un projet, to contrive a plan, a scheme. f) — une montre, to repair or clean a watch.— une lampe, to repair a lamp (when broken), to trim a lamp (after it has been used). La bonne n'a pas arrangé la lampe, the servant has not trimmed the lamp. g) Hummel a arrangé en quatuors deux symphonies de Beethoven, Hummel has arranged as quartetts two of Beethoven's symphonies.

2. to regulate, to order. Cet homme a bien arrangé sa vie, that man has well regulated his life, has led a well-ordeed life.

3. to suit : to satisfy, to please, to accommodate. Il n'est aucune loi qui arrange tout le monde, there is no law that suits (or satisfies) everybody. Il répondit qu'un tel mariage ne l'arrangeait pas, he replied that such a marriage did not suit him. Cela m'arrange à bien des égards, that suits me in many respects. Cela ne m'arrange pas, that will not suit me, will not do for me. Je ferais tout pour vous —, I would do anything to accommodate you.

4. to dress, to trim up, to adorn : (in an ill sense) to trick out, to dress up or out, to bedizen. Tandis qu'elles se font arranger, while they are getting dressed.

5. Ironic. to give (one) his desserts, to give it one well; Fam. to serve (one) out. Il a fait l'impertinent, mais je l'ai bien arrangé, he was impertinent, but I gave him his deserts.

6. Colloq. to maltreat, to treat badly, to put (one) into a sad plight. Comme l'orage vous a arrangé, what a plight the storm has put you in.

7. to lay out (a garden, pleasure grounds, etc.).

ARRANGER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be arranged. Tout s'arrangea parfaitement, everything was perfectly arranged. Quinze cents chambres s'arrangeaient autour de douze salles, fifteen hundred chambers were arranged round twelve halls. Bossuet. His. Univ. Si les choses peuvent s'—, if matters can be arranged.

2. to place one's self, to range one's self. Arrangez-vous près du feu, place yourself near the fire. Arrangez-vous autour de la table, place or range yourselves round the table.

3. to settle one's self, to settle down. Il s'arrangea dans son fauteuil pour dormir, he settled himself in his armchair to take a nap.

4. to make arrangements or preparations. Je m'arrangerai pour vous payer dans un mois, I will make arrangements for paying you in a month. Arrangez-vous comme vous voudrez, take your own course, do as you like. Arrangez-vous, settle it together.

5. to put one's house in order. S'— chez soi, to make one's house comfortable, to get or put one's house to rights.

6. to enter into arrangements, to come to terms; to compound with creditors. Ils n'ont voulu s'—, ils plaideront, they have refused to enter into arrangements, they will go to law.

7. to agree. Ils se sont arrangés pour partir ensemble, they have agreed (or arranged) to start together.

8. to manage : a) to make shift (with); b) to find means, or to make shift (to); c) to order or conduct one's affairs. Je m'arrangerai de peu, I shall manage (make shift, or be content) with little.

9. to adapt one's self to. Les grandes âmes sont celles qui s'arrangent le mieux dans la situation présente, great minds are those which adapt themselves best to existing circumstances.

ARRANGEUR, arân*z*hœr, sm. arranger.

ARRENTEMENT, arânt'mân-t, sm. renting (land, etc.) : a) letting on rent; b) taking on rent.

ARRENTER, arânté-r, [à; rente], av. to rent : a) to let (as landlord); b) to take (as tenant).

ARRÉRAGER, arèrazhé-r, vn. to be or get in arrear or arrears (in speaking of rent or interest). Laisser —, to let arrears run on or accumulate. Se laisser —, to allow one's arrears to run on.

ARRÉRAGES, arérazh', [Lat. : ad, to; retro, behind], sm. pl. arrears : rent, interest, or dividends overdue.

ARRESTATION, arèstâsyôn; in poet. siôn, sf. 1. arrest : the seizure of a person on any legal process; 2. apprehension (on criminal process only : in this sense apprehension has no plural); 3. custody. On a fait de nombreuses arrestations, numerous arrests have been made. Il a été trois mois en —, he has been three months in custody.

ARRÊT, arê-t, sm. 1. judgment, award (of a civil court); 2. sentence (of a criminal court). Rendre, prononcer un —, to give, to pronounce judgment. Prononcer un — de mort, to pass sentence of death. Casser un —, to quash, to reserve a judgment.

3. decree (of a sovereign or supreme authority). Les arrêts du sénat de Rome, the decrees of the Roman senate.

4. decision, order (of an administrative authority). Par un — du ministre de l'intérieur, by a decision of the Home department.

5. attachment (seizure of either persons or property); 6. arrest (of persons). On a fait — sur sa personne et sur ses biens, an attachment has been issued against both his person and his property. Il a fait — sur l'argent qui revient à son débiteur, he has laid an attachment on the money due to his debtor. [Saisie-arrêt or opposition are the terms at present used in this sense.] Maison d'—, prison, jail, lock-up.

7. Milit. (generally in the plural) arrest. Arrêts forcés ou de rigueur, close arrest. Arrêts simples, open arrest. Mettre un militaire aux arrêts, to put a soldier under arrest. Lever les arrêts, to release from arrest. Forcer les arrêts. to break (one's) arrest.

8. Man. the act of stopping. Un cheval rude sur l'—, a hard-mouthed horse, a horse hard to stop.

9. Fig. fixedness, fixity, steadfastness (of purpose, opinion, or principle.)

10. stoppage, halt, pause, cessation, interruption. L'— des affaires commerciales, the stoppage or interruption of business transactions. Le médecin a reconnu un — dans la marche de la maladie, the physician has observed a halt in the progress of the disease. Temps d'—, pause, temporary cessation or interruption. Il y eut un temps d'— dans les persécutions, there was a temporary cessation of the persecutions. Point d'—, Mus. pause.

11. Sport. pointing, making a point, Chien d'—, pointer, setter. Être à l'— ou en —, to be pointing, or making a point. Tenir le gibier en —, to remain on the point. Forcer l'—, to run in on the game, to flush or put up the game.

12. breeching, backing-strap (of a horse's harness); 13. rest (of a lance); 14. stop (of a gun-lock, watch, or other mechanism); 15. Technol. catch, scotch, stay; 16. fastening stitch (at the end of a seam). Robinet d'—, stop-cock. Mettre une lance en —, to couch a lance.

17. Naut. embargo (on vessels).

ARRÊTÉ, E, arêté, pa. p. stopped, arrested, checked, hindered, detained, fixed. V. ARRÊTER. Au temps arrêté, at the appointed time. Dessein —, fixed purpose. Ouvrage —, Paint. completed, finished work.

ARRÊTÉ, sm. 1. resolution (of a deliberative assembly); 2. decision, order (of an administrative or judicial authority). Par — du ministre, by a decision of the minister. — de compte, account agreed on, account stated · final statement of an account.

ARRÊTE-BŒUF, arèt'bœf, sm. Bot. rest-harrow, ononis spinosa.

ARRÊTE-NEF, arèt'nèf, sm. Ichth. sucking-fish, remora.

ARRÊTE-PORTE, arèt'port', sm. door-scotch, prop, or hook. — en caoutchouc, india rubber door-spring.

ARRÊTER, arêté-r, [Lat. : ad, to; restāre, to stand still), va. 1. to stop : a) to put an end to any motion or action; b) to stanch (the flow of blood, etc.); c) Mach. to throw out of gear. — un homme, un cheval, to stop a man, a horse. — une pendule, to stop a clock. Rien ne peut — le temps, nothing can stay the hand of time. — ses pas, to come to a stand. A cet endroit il arrêta l'orateur, at this point he interrupted the speaker. — le carrosse, to stop the carriage. — une hémorragie, to stop, stanch or arrest a hæmorrhage. — une machine, to stop (to throw out of gear) a machine.

2. to hinder, to prevent. Il allait faire une mauvaise spéculation, mais je l'ai arrêté à temps, he was going to make a bad speculation but I prevented (or stopped) him in time. Quel est l'obstacle qui vous arrête ? what is the obstacle that hinders (stops or prevents) you ? Cela m'a arrêté d'écrire, that prevented me from writing.

3. to delay, to detain. La flotte était arrêtée par le mauvais temps, the fleet was detained by the foul weather. La foule l'arrêta quelque temps, the crowd delayed him for some time. La galerie de Florence vous arrêtera longtemps, the gallery at Florence will detain you a long while.

4. to restrain : to hold back. Aucune considération ne peut l'—, no consideration can restrain him. C'était un jeune homme qu'il était difficile d'—, he was a young man whom it was difficult to restrain (to curb, to keep within bounds).

5. to obstruct. Ces nombreux incidents retardent et arrêtent l'action du drame, these numerous incidents retard and obstruct the action of the play.

6. to arrest : a) to stop; b) to seize the person of a debtor; to take up, to apprehend, to take in (or into) custody (on criminal process). a) — les progrès d'une insurrection, to arrest the progress of a insurrection. — l'incendie, to arrest (or stop) the progress of a fire, of a conflagration. b) — un homme pour dettes, to arrest a man for debt. — un voleur, to arrest (apprehend, take up, or take into custody) a thief. — prisonnier, to take prisoner.

7. Law-t. attach : to seize the person or goods on civil process. — un débiteur, to attach (or arrest) a debtor. Ses créanciers ont arrêté sa voiture et ses chevaux, his creditors have attached (or seized) his carriage and horses.

8. to seize. — les exemplaires d'un pamphlet, to seize the copies of a pamphlet.

9. to check. — l'avance de l'ennemi, to check the enemy's advance. — l'ardeur des combattants, to check the ardour of the combatants. On arrêta ce généreux élan, they checked that generous outburst. Cette maladie a arrêté sa croissance, that illness has checked his growth. — le désordre, la sédition, to check (or repress) disorder, sedition.

10. to fix, to fasten. — un volet que le vent agite, to fasten a shutter swayed about by the wind. — une planche avec des clous, to fasten or fix a board with nails. — un point, to fasten a stitch (in sewing) [Fig.] — ses yeux, ses regards sur une personne ou une chose, to fix one's eyes, one's look on a person or thing. — ses pensées sur un sujet, to fix one's thoughts on a subject. Il a essayé de tout, rien n'a pu l'—, he has tried everything, nothing has been able to fix him.

11. to resolve to decide. Qu'a-t-on arrêté dans cette assemblée ? what has been resolved in this assembly? J'ai arrêté de donner ma démission, I have decided (or determined) to resign (or to give in my resignation). Nous avons arrêté de partir ensemble, we have decided to start together. — un plan de conduite, to decide (or determine) on a line of conduct. Voulez-vous que nous arrêtions les conditions par écrit ? shall we settle the terms in writing ?

12. to agree on. — un compte, 1. to agree on (the amount of) an account; 2. to balance an account. — les parties, to agree on the items (of an account).

13. to conclude, to strike. — un marché, to conclude (strike or make) a bargain. Nous n'avons qu'à — le prix, the only point to settle is the price.

14. to engage, to hire (a servant, a lodging); 15. to book, to take or secure beforehand (one's place in a stage-coach, etc.). J'ai fini par — un appartement, I have at length taken an apartment.

16. Sport. to set, to point, to make a point at. Mon chien arrête les perdrix et les cailles, my dog sets partridges and quails.

17. Agr. to stop the growth of (a shoot or branch by pinching or cutting off the end).

ARRÊTER, vn. 1. to stop : a) to halt; b) to pull (or draw) up (in speaking of a horse or carriage); c) to stay, to remain. Mes affaires ne me permettent pas d'— en chemin, my business will not allow me to stop (or loiter) by the way. Je ne puis — qu'un temps fort court, I can stop (stay or remain) but a very short time. Nous arrêtâmes quelques jours à Bordeaux, we stopped (or stayed) a few days at Bordeaux. Arrêtez ! ne dites pas un mot de plus ! stop ! (hold ! or forbear !) don't say another word.

2. to cease, to leave off (speaking, working, etc.), to pause (in speaking). Ces paroles firent — l'autre, these words made the other pause. Il n'arrête pas, he does not cease, his tongue is continually going.

ARRÊTER (s'), v. refl. 1. to stop : a) to come to a stand or standstill; b) to break or leave off, to pause (in speaking). Il courait; à ce bruit, il s'arrêta tout à coup, he was running; at this noise, he stopped suddenly (or all of a sudden). Il s'est brusquement arrêté au milieu de son récit, he stopped (he broke off) abruptly in the middle of his narrative. Nous nous arrêtâmes à une auberge sur la route pour faire boire nos chevaux, we stopped (or halted) at a wayside inn to water our horses. Il y a des hommes qui peuvent parler trois heures d'horloge sans s'—, some men there are who are capable of talking for three hours, by the clock, without stopping. P.-L. Courier. Il s'arrêta un instant et puis il reprit, he stopped (or paused) a moment, and then he resumed. Ma montre vient de s'—, my watch has just stopped. Arrêtez-vous ! stop ! hold ! forbear ! S'— en beau chemin, to stop in the midst of success; to relinquish (or desist from) a promising enterprise.

2. to stay, to remain. Nous nous sommes arrêtés quinze jours à Genève, we stayed a fortnight at Geneva. [Fig. :] Il faut que l'histoire s'arrête dans ses propres limites, history must remain within its proper limits. P.-L. Courier.

3. to loiter. Il s'arrête à tous les coins de rue, he loiters at the corner of every street.

4. to be stanched or arrested (as a hæmorrhage).

5. (with à) to fly on, to choose, to make choice of. Après avoir écouté diverses propositions, il s'arrêta à la première, after hearing divers proposals, he fixed on the first.

6. to pay attention (to), to limit (or confine) one's attention (to); to mind. Quoi ! vous vous arrêtez aux songes d'une femme, what ! you pay attention to a woman's dreams ? Corn. Poly. I. 4. Il s'arrête à des apparences, he limits his attention to appearances, he looks to appearances only. S'— à des bagatelles, to limit one's attention to trifles; to stick at (or to stand upon) trifles. Ne vous arrêtez pas à ce qu'il dit, pay no attention to (or never mind) what he says.

7. to dwell (on), to insist (on), to expiate (on). Il s'arrêta longtemps sur les services qu'il vous avait rendus, he dwelt long on the services he had rendered you. [V. ARRÊTER, va. which is used with the personal pronoun in most of its acceptations.]

ARRÊTISTE, arêtist', sm. compiler of, and commentator on, the judments and decrees of supreme tribunals. [In England, the word Reporter is commonly used in this sense.]

ARRÊTOIR, arêtwar, sm. stop (of a bayonet).

† ARRHEMENT, arèmânt, sm. the giving of earnest money.

ARRHER, aré, va. to give earnest or earnest-money, to handsel.

ARRHES, ar', [Lat. : arrha, pledge], sf. pl. 1. earnest : a) handsel : money given to bind a bargain; b) pledge; 2. deposit, gage. Donner des —, to give a deposit. Si le marché est conclu, donnez-moi des arrhes, if the bargain be concluded, give me some earnest or earnest-money.

ARRIAN, ariân, sm. Orn. cinereous vulture.

ARRIÈRE, aryèr', [Lat. : ad, to; retro, behind], adv. 1. avaunt ! begone. —, Satan ! Satan, avaunt ! Get thee behind me, Satan !

2. (with a complement) away with, out upon, have done with. — ceux dont la bouche souffle le chaud et le froid, away with (or out upon) those whose mouth blows hot and cold ! La Font. Fab. V. 7. — la raillerie, have done with raillery !

3. Naut. astern. Avoir vent —, to have the wind astern. Filer vent —, to run before the wind. Droit —, right abaft.

ARRIÈRE, sm. 1. rear, back part, hind part (of anything); 2. Naut. stern : the after part of a ship; 3. Sport. : Prendre les arrières, to try back : to endeavour to recover the scent when the dogs are at fault. Les canons de l'—, the stern guns. Les voiles de l'—, the after-sails. Le bâtiment est trop sur l'—, the ship draws too deep (or has too deep a draught) at the stern.

EN ARRIÈRE, adv. phr. 1. back, backwards. Il fit un pas en —, he made a step backwards, he stepped back. Retourner en —, to turn or return back. Cette affaire ne va ni en avant ni en —, that business goes neither forward nor backward.

2. behind (as to place); behind, behindhand; late, as to time. Il est resté bien loin en —, he remained very far behind (or in the rear).

3. behind one's back. Il me loue en présence et me déchire en —, he praises me to my face and abuses me behind my back.

4. behindhand, backward, in arrear or arrears (in speaking of payments, work, etc.). Être en —, to be behindhand. Ce fermier est en — pour ses payements, that farmer is behindhand (or in arrear) in his payments. Il ne s'est pas mis au courant de son travail, il est en —, he is not well up to his work, he is in arrears or behindhand.

5. interj. stand or keep back! begone! avaunt! away!

EN ARRIÈRE DE, prepos. phr. 1. behind; 2. behindhand, in arrear or arrears. Un objet placé en — d'un autre, an object placed behind another. En — des gens, behind people's backs. Il est en — de trois termes, he is three quarters in arrear. Ce jeune homme est bien en — de ses camarades, that young man is far behind (or less advanced than) his companions. Ces gens-là sont en — de leur siècle, those people are behind their age.

ARRIÉRÉ, E, aryéré, pa. p. delayed, deferred. V ARRIÉRER.

ARRIÉRÉ, E, adj. 1. backward: behindhand, behind in progress; 2. in arrear or arrears: overdue (as payments); not done, not executed (as work, etc.). Province arriérée, backward province (where education is at a low ebb). Enfant —, a backward child. Cet employé est toujours —, that clerk is always behindhand or in arrears (with his work). Payement —, payment in arrear or overdue.

ARRIÉRÉ, sm. arrear, arrears (of payments, work, etc.). Payer l'—, to pay the arrears. J'ai beaucoup d'— dans ma correspondance, I am greatly in arrears with my correspondence; I have a great arrear of correspondence.

ARRIÈRE-BAN, aryêr'-bân, sm. Feud. arrière-ban [pl. ARRIÈRE-BANS.]

ARRIÈRE-BEC, aryêr'-bèk, sm. Arch. downside cut-water (of bridge piers in tidal rivers). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-BECS.]

ARRIÈRE-BOUCHE, aryêr'-boush', sf. Anat. pharynx: fauces, back of the mouth. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-BOUCHES.]

ARRIÈRE-BOUTIQUE, aryêr'-boutik', sf. back-shop. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-BOUTIQUES.]

ARRIÈRE-CABINET, aryêr'-cabinè, sm. back-closet. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-CABINETS.]

ARRIÈRE-CADET, aryêr'-cadè-t, sm. son of a cadet (or younger son). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-CADETS.]

ARRIÈRE-CAUTION, aryêr'-kôsyôn, sf. surety of a surety. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-CAUTIONS.]

ARRIÈRE-CHANGE, aryêr'-shânzh', sm. interest on interest. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-CHANGES.]

ARRIÈRE-CHŒUR, aryêr'-kœr, sm. choir behind the high altar.

ARRIÈRE-CORPS, aryêr'-kôr, sm. 1. Arch. recess: recessed portion of a house front, opposed to AVANT-CORPS, projection; 2. Join. sunk panel, coffer (in wainscoting); 3. receding portion (of any work). [Pl. ARRIRÈE-CORPS.]

ARRIÈRE-COUR, aryêr-kour, sf. back-court, back-yard. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-COURS.]

ARRIÈRE-DOS, aryêr'-dô, sm. reredos (of an altar). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-DOS.]

ARRIÈRE-ESSAIM, aryêr'-èsan, sm. cast or after-swarm (of bees).

ARRIÈRE-FAIX, aryêr'-fè, sm. Anat. after-birth, placenta, secundine; Agr. cleaning (of cows, ewes, etc.). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-FAIX.]

ARRIÈRE-FENTE, aryêr'-fânt', sf. slit (on the palm-side of a glove). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-FENTES.]

ARRIÈRE-FIEF, aryêr-fiéf, sm. rere-fief or rerefeud: fief held under a mesne lord. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-FIEFS.]

ARRIÈRE-FLEUR, aryêr'- flœr,sf. second blossom. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-FLEURS.]

ARRIÈRE-FOIN, aryêr'-fwan, sm. Agr. after-math, latter-math: second crop of hay. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-FOINS.]

ARRIÈRE-GARANT, aryêr-garân-t, sm. surety of a surety. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-GARANTS.)

ARRIÈRE-GARDE, aryêr'-gard', sf. 1. Milit. rear-guard; 2. Naut. rear division; 3. guardship (in a port). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-GARDES.]

ARRIÈRE-GORGE, aryêr-gorzh, sf. back of the throat: the pharynx behind the tonsils.

ARRIÈRE-GOÛT, aryêr'-gou, sm. aftertaste. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-GOUTS.]

ARRIÈRE-GRAISSE, aryêr-grès', sf. Agr. unexhausted manure (left in land after a crop).

ARRIÈRE-GRAND'MÈRE, aryêr'-grân-mer, sf. great-grandmother. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-GRAND'MÈRES.]

ARRIÈRE-GRAND-ONCLE, aryêr'-grânt onkle, sm. brother of great grandfather or great-grandmother. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-GRANDS-ONCLES.]

ARRIÈRE-GRAND-PÈRE, aryêr'-grân-pêr, sm. great-grandfather. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-GRANDS-PÈRES.]

ARRIÈRE-GRAND'TANTE, aryêr'-grantant, sf. sister of great-grand father of great-grandmother. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-GRAND'-TANTES.]

ARRIÈRE-MAIN, aryêr'-man, sf. 1. the back of the hand. Avoir l'— belle, to play the back-stroke well (at tennis).

2. sm. back-stroke, back-handed stroke (at tennis); 3. sm. hind quarters (of a horse). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-MAINS.]

ARRIÈRE-NARINES, aryêr'-narin', sf. pl. Anat. posterior orifices of the nostrils; (Lat.) nares posteriores.

ARRIÈRE-NEVEU, aryêr'-nœvœ, sm. 1. grand-nephew: grandson of a brother or sister; 2. pl. latest posterity, latest descendants. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-NEVEUX.]

ARRIÈRE-NIÈCE, aryêr'-niès', sf. grand-niece: grand-daughter of a brother or sister.

ARRIÈRE-PENSÉE, aryêr'-pânsé, sf. 1. by-end, by-purpose, ulterior design; 2. reserve, reticence, mental reservation. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-PENSÉES.]

ARRIÈRE-PETITE-FILLE, aryêr'-pœtit'-fiy', sf. great-grand-daughter. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-PETITES-FILLES.]

ARRIÈRE-PETIT-FILS, aryêr'-pœti-fis, sm. great-grandson. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-PETITS-FILS.]

ARRIÈRE-PETITS-ENFANTS, aryêr'-pœtizânfân, sm. pl. great-grandchildren.

ARRIÈRE-PLAN, aryêr'-plân, sm. background (of a painting or landscape). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-PLANS.]

ARRIÈRE-POINT, aryêr'-pwan, sm. back-stitch, back-stitching. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-POINTS.]

ARRIÈRE-POINTEUSE, aryêr'pwantœz', sf. back-stitcher, stitcher. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-POINTEUSES.]

ARRIÈRE-PORT, aryêr'-por, sm. inner harbour or port. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-PORTS.]

ARIÉRER, aryéré-r, va. to delay, to defer, to postpone, to put off (a payment, etc.).

ARRIÉRER (s'), v. refl. 1. to stay behind, to lag behind; 2. to get or fall into arrears; 3. to be or get behindhand. Dans une marche longue et rapide beaucoup de soldats s'arrièrent, in a long and rapid march many soldiers lag behind. Ce fermier s'arrière d'année en année, that farmer gets farther in errears every year. Malgré mes efforts, ma besogne s'arrière, in spite of my efforts, my work is behindhand.

ARRIÈRE-RANG, aryêr'-rân, sm. Milit. rear-rank. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-RANGS.]

ARRIÈRE-SAISON, aryêr'-sèzôn, sf. 1. latter end of the season: a) in a general sense, the latter part of autumn; b) in speaking of corn and wine, the time immediately preceding the harvest or the vintage; 2. Fig. decline (or autumn): the latter years of life. Les fruits de l'—, the later autumnal fruits. Le blé se vend plus cher dans l'—, wheat is dearer just before harvest. Ce vin ne se boit que dans l'—, this wine is not drinkable till the end of the season (or till just before the vintage). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-SAISONS.]

ARRIÈRE-SENS, aryêr'sân, sm. concealed sense, by-sense, by-meaning. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-SENS.]

ARRIÈRE-TRAIN, aryêr'-tran, sm. 1. hind-carriage: the hind wheels, etc., of a four-wheeled vehicle; 2. hind-quarters (of an animal). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-TRAINS.]

ARRIÈRE-VASSAL, aryêr'-vasal, sm. under-vassal: one who holds lands under a mesne lord (vassal in capite). [Pl. ARRIÈRE-VASSAUX.]

ARRIÈRE-VIEILLESSE, aryêr-vièyèss', sf. extreme old age. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-VIEILLESSES.]

ARRIÈRE-VOUSSURE, aryêr'-vousur', sf. arch on the inner-face of a wall over a door or window. [Pl. ARRIÈRE-VOUSSURES.]

ARRIMAGE, arimazh', sm. 1. Naut. stowage, stowing (of cargo); 2. trimming (of the hold, to give the vessel proper stability). Bois d', stowage billets, fathom-wood.

ARRIMER, arimé-r, [origin doubtful; Span.: arrumar; Dan.: rummet, bottom of the hold], va. 1. Naut. to stow (cargo); 2 to trim (the hold). — en breton, to stow (casks, etc.) a-burton (or athwart-ships).

ARRIMEUR, arimœr, sm. Naut. stevedore: stower of cargo.

ARRISER, arizé-r, va. 1. Naut. to lower (the yards); 2. to frap or reef (sails).

ARRIVAGE, arivazh', sm. arival: said of ships, boats, or the goods they carry.

ARRIVANT, E, arivân, [pres. part. of arriver], sm. one coming, comer. Les arrivants et les partants, comers and goers.

ARRIVÉ, E, arivé, pa. p. 1. arrived, come, happened. V. ARRIVER. 2. smf. comer, arrival: person arrived. Le dernier —, the last comer (or arrival).

ARRIVÉE, arivé, sf. 1. arrival: the act of arriving at, or coming to, a place; 2. Fig. coming, advent. Son — m'a fait grand plaisir, his arrival gave me gr at pleasure. A l'— du train, on the arrival of the train. A mon — en Angleterre, on my arrival in England. L'— du printemps, the advent (or coming) of spring.

3. Naut. falling off, lee-lurch.

D'ARRIVÉE, adv. phr. 1. on arriving; 2. at first; 3. immediately, at once.

ARRIVER, arrivé-r, [à; rive; Lat.: ripa, bank], vn. 1. to arrive: a) to come to shore ; b) to come to any place whatever. Nous arrivâmes à une plage déserte, we arrived at (or off) a dessert coast. La flotte arriva devant Alger, the fleet arrived at (or off) Algiers. Tous les vaisseaux arrivèrent heureusement en Afrique, all the ships arrived safe (or safely) in Africa. Le blé arrivera par la Seine, the wheat will arrive by the Seine. Le paquebot vient d'—, the steamer has just arrived. — à bon port, to arrive safe (in speaking of persons or things) ; to come to hand (of things only). Nous sommes arrivés à bon port, we reached home in safety ; we got there all right. — à Paris, to arrive at (or in) Paris. Nous arriverons à Londres à sept heures, we shall arrive at or in London at seven o'clock. Vous arrivez bien à propos, you arrive (or come) very opportunely. Il n'était pas encore arrivé, he had not yet arrived. Les convives commencent à —, the guests are beginning to arrive. Les hirondelles arrivent au printemps, swallows arrive in (or with) the spring. Avant que la nouvelle de cette défaite arrivât, before the news of that defeat arrived. Arrivez ! come on ! come along ! Il arrive à grands pas, he comes striding along, he approaches with rapid strides. Nous arrivons, we are almost there, almost at the end of our journey.

2. to approach, to come (to). On arrive au moulin par une chaussée étroite, you approach the mill by (or along) a narrow causeway. Cet enfant arrive à l'âge de puberté, this boy is approaching the age of puberty. J'arrive au point le plus difficile, I now come to the most difficult point.

3. to reach : a) to arrive (at), to come (to) ; b) to amount (to). La lettre n'est pas arrivée à son adresse, the letter did not reach its address. Une dépêche m'est arrivée de Rome, a despatch has reached me from Rome. Voici des présents qui vous arrivent, here are some presents arrived (or come) for you. Les bruits arrivèrent aux oreilles de la police, the rumours reached (or came to) the ears of the police. La dépense n'arrivera pas à mille francs, the expense (or outlay) will not reach (or amount to) one thousand francs.

4. to come, to come on, to approach ; to be coming, coming on, or approaching. La vieillesse arrive, old age approaches, is coming on. La nuit arrivait, night was coming on (or approaching). Le temps des élections arrivait, election time was approaching, was near at hand.

5. to come, to flow : to present itself, as an idea or a word. Les idées m'arrivaient en foule, the ideas came to me in crowds. Les idées lui arrivent plus vite que les paroles, his ideas flow faster than his words.

6. to get (at). Voulant — à la vérité, wishing to get at (or arrive at) the truth.

7. to gain or obtain access (to). Il n'a pu — jusqu'au ministre, he could not gain access to the minister ; he could not get to see the minister.

8. to attain. — aux plus grands honneurs, to attain the highest honours. Peu d'hommes arrivent à la vieillesse, few men attain old age. Il arriva à ses fins, he attained his ends. — bon premier, Fam. to carry all before one, to beat hollow.

9. to succeed. Avec de la persévérance il est rare qu'un homme n'arrive pas, with perseverance it is seldom that a men does not succeed, does not make his way in the world. Il est arrivé à jouer assez bien dans ce concert, he succeeded in playing (or he managed to play) pretty well in that concert. L'homme est arrivé à découvrir les lois qui régissent le système planétaire, man has succeeded in discovering the laws which govern the planetary system.

10. to happen, to occur ; to come to pass, to take place. Voici tout ce qui vient d'— devant moi, this is all that has just occurred (happened, come to pass, or taken place) in my presence. De grands événements arrivent, 1. great events are taking place, are coming to pass ; 2. great events are approaching, are near at hand.

11. to befall, to happen or occur (to). S'il avait su ce qui devait lui — dans sa vieillesse, if he had known what was to befall him in his old age. Cela peut — à tout le monde, that may happen to everybody. Cela ne m'arrivera jamais, that will never happen to me, that will never be my case. Que cela ne vous arrive plus, never let that happen to you again, never do so again. C'est une chose qui arrive tous les jours, that is a thing which happens every day, it is a thing of daily occurrence.

12. (with de) to become of. Je ne sais ce qui arrivera de votre ami. I do not know what will become of your friend.

13. Naut. to bear away, to pay or fall off, to veer ; 14. to bear up ; 15. (with sur) to near, to bear down upon. Laissez —, let her pay off. N'arrivons pas ! or sans —, don't fall off. Arrive un peu ! weather the helm ! N'arrivons plus, veer no more ! — vent arrière, to bear up before the wind. Ces deux frégates arrivèrent l'une sur l'autre et se lâchèrent leur bordée, those two frigates bore down on each other and poured in their broadsides.

IL ARRIVE, v. impers. 1. to arrive, to reach ; 2. to happen, to chance ; 3. to be the lot or fate of. Il arriva des gens que nous n'attendions pas, some people a r e l whom we did not expect. Il m'est arrivé de Londres un paquet, a parcel has reached me from London. Il est arrivé des nouvelles d'Espagne, news has arrived from Spain. Comme il arrive ordinairement, as it commonly happens, as it usually happens. Il arriva que je le rencontrai, it happened that I met him, happened to meet him. S'il vous arrive jamais de venir par ici, if you ever chance to pass this way. Il ne m'arrivera plus de parler inconsidérément, I shall never again speak inconsiderately. Or, il arriva que le pauvre homme mourut, now it came, to pass that the poor man died. Bib. Luc. xvi, 22. Quoi qu'il arrive, whatever may happen. Il en arrivera ce qu'il pourra, whatever may come of it, whatever the consequences may be. Arrive qui plante ! come what may ! Cela arrive bien, that comes in the nick of time. V. MALHEUR, MARÉE, MARS.

ARRIVISTE, arivist', sm. Neol. a push-ahead, an scrupulous competitor : one determined to succeed.

ARROBE, arob', [Span. : arroba], sf. arroba : a) a weight used in the Spanish and Portuguese settlements equal to 25 lb. avoirdupois ; b) a liquid measure equal to 3.54 imp. gal. for wine, and to 2.78 for oil.

ARROCHE, arosh', sf. Bot. arache. — des jardins. — cultivée, garden orache, or mountain spinach. — puante, stinking goose-foot.

ARROGAMMENT, arogamân-t, adv. arrogantly.

ARROGANCE, arogâns', [Lat. : arrogantia], sf. arrogance. C'est le comble de l'—, it is the height of arrogance.

ARROGANT, E arogân-t, ânt', [Lat. : arrogans, antis], adj. 1. arrogant : haughtily pretentious, over-bearing. Homme —, arrogant man. Ton —, arrogant tone. Paroles arrogantes, arrogant language.

2. s. an arrogant person. L'arrogant ! the arrogant fellow ! L'arrogante ! the arrogant creature !

ARROGER (S'), arozhé-r, [Lat. : arrogāre ; ad, to ; rogāre, to ask, to claim], v. refl. [takes an e after the g before a and o : Nous nous arrogeons ; je m'arrogeais ; je m'arrogeai ; arrogeant.] to arrogate to one's self, to claim. Ils se sont arrogé ce privilège, they have arrogated that privilege.

† ARROI, arwâ, [Lat. : ad, to ; Germanic, rāt, provision ; Ger. : gerät, utensil], sm. array ; 2. plight, pickle. Être en mauvais —, to be in a wretched plight, in a sad pickle. V. DÉSARROI.

ARRONDI, E, arôndi, pa. p. 1. rounded. Des galets arrondis par le frottement, pebbles rounded by friction. Une période bien arrondie, a well-rounded period.

2. adj. round, roundish ; 3. Bot. rotund, rounded. Visage —, round (or full) face.

ARRONDIR, arôndir, [à ; rond], va. 1. to round : a) to make circular, globular, or cylindrical ; b) to make full and flowing, as periods. — une boule, une meule, to round a bowl, a millstone. — ses phrases, to round one's phrases.

2. Colloq. and Fig. to enlarge (landed estates), to increase (riches). Il a bien arrondi sa pelote, he has well feathered his nest.

3. Paint. and Sculp. to round off : to give relief to ; 4. Technol. to round ; 5. Naut. to double (a cape, etc.) to weather (when sailing to windward). — un cap, to double or weather a cape. — une île, to sail round an island.

ARRONDIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to become, get, or grow round ; 2. to assume a spherical form (as drops of any liquid). Même l'ivoire s'arrondit sous la main du tourneur, ivory even grows round under the turner's hand. Sa taille s'arrondit, she is getting stout : a) she is getting fat ; b) she is in the family way. Toutes les gouttes s'arrondissent, all drops assume the spherical form.

3. to round off (or to enlarge) one's possessions, to increase one's wealth. J'ai acheté ce coin de terre pour m'—, I have bought that patch of land to round off my own. Le plaisir de s'—, the pleasure of adding field to field (or house to house). Sa fortune s'arrondit, his wealth is increasing.

ARRONDISSAGE, arôndisazh', sm. Technol. rounding : the act of making round.

ARRONDISSEMENT, arôndis'mân-t, sm. 1. rounding : the act of making round ; L'— de ce globe m'a coûté beaucoup de temps, the rounding of that globe took me a long time. L'— de ces figures est parfait, Paint., the rounding (or relief) of those figures is perfect.

2. roundness (of a plane surface or of a solid) ; rotundity, sphericity (of a ball, globe, etc.). L'— de la terre est l'effet de la gravité, the sphericity of the earth is the effect of gravity.

3. arrondissement : district (of a department), ward (of a city). Paris est divisé en vingt arrondissements, Paris is divided into twenty wards or districts.

ARRONDISSEUR, arondisœr, sm. Technol. rounding-tool (for the teeth of combs).

ARROSAGE, arôzazh', [arroser], sm. 1. watering (of fields, by means of canals or trenches). V. IRRIGATION ; 2. Technol. sprinkling, wetting. V. ARROSEMENT.

ARROSEMENT, arôz'mân-t, sm. 1. watering (of plants, streets, etc., by hand or engines) ; 2. sprinkling (of the floor of a room) ; 3. basting (of meat while roasting) ; 4. paying all round (at lansquenet and other games, when the dealer has to pay all to players, or all have to pay him). Pompe d'—, watering-engine, garden-engine.

ARROSER, arôzé-r, [Lat. : ad, to · ros, roris, dew ; Low Lat. : arrosāre], va. 1. to water. — une plante, un jardin, to water a plant, a garden. — les rues, to water the streets. Le Danube arrose bien des pays, the Danube waters (or flows through) many countries. [Fig. :] — la terre de ses sueurs, to work hard for a bare living. — son pain de ses larmes, to lead a life of privations and suffering — la terre de son sang, to shed one's blood (on the battle field). — ses créanciers, to quiet one's creditors by partial payment.

2. (in a neuter sense ; to water. Voici le moment d'—, now is the time for watering (or to water). [Fig.] : Pendant que Saint-Bernard plante et arrose, Dieu donne l'accroissement, whilst Saint-Bernard planted and watered, God gave the increase. Fén.

3. to sprinkle. — une chambre, to sprinkle (the floor of) a room. — l'autel du sang de la victime, to sprinkle the altar with the blood of the sacrifice (or victim).

4. to shower down on. En nous arrosant de sa grâce invisible, by showering down on us his invisible grace.

5. to wet, to soak. J'ai été bien arrosé, I have been thoroughly soaked (by the rain).

6. to bedew, to bathe, to lave, to wash. Elle lui arrosa la main de quelques larmes, she dropped a few tears on his hand. La Madeleine arrosa de ses larmes les pieds de Notre Seigneur, Mary Magdalen washed the feet of our Lord with her tears. Arrosé de larmes, bathed in tears.

7. to wash down. Il arrosa le tout d'une bouteille de vin, he washed down the whole with a bottle of wine. Brill.-Sav. Physiol.

8. to moisten, to wet. Le plasma, boisson miellée, arrose sa gorge desséchée, plasma, a beverage sweetened with honey, moistens his parched throat. M.-Brun.

9. Agr. to irrigate. — une prairie, to irrigate a meadow.

10. to baste (meat while roasting) ; 11. to pay all round (said at lansquenet and other games when the banker has to pay all the players, or all the players have to pay him).

ARROSOIR, arôzwar, sm. watering-pot.

ARROW-ROOT, arôroot, [Engl.], s. arrow-root.

ARRUGIE, arruzhi, [Lat. : arrugia], sf. Min. drain, channel (for carrying off water).

ARS, ar, [Lat. : artus, members], sm. pl. 1. Veter. the fold at the junction of the shoulder and chest of a horse ; 2. plat-veins : the vein on the inner side of the shoulder. Cheval frayé aux —, horse galled on the inner side or the shoulder. [The word ars is sometimes but, improperly, applied to the corresponding veins of the hind quarters :] Saigner aux quatre —, to bleed a horse in all four legs.

ARSENAL, arsœnal, (of doubtful origin ; Ital. : arsenale), sm. arsenal. — maritime, naval arsenal, government dock-yard.

ARSÉNIATE, arséniat', sm. Chem. arseniate.

ARSENIC, arsœnik, [Lat. : arsenicum, from Gr. : ἄρσην, male, man ; νικάω, I kill), sm. Chem. arsenic : a) the metal ; b) arsenious acid. — blanc, white arsenic, arsenious acid.

ARSENICAL, E, arsœnikal, adj. arsenical.

ARSENICAUX, arsœnikô, sm. pl. arsenical compounds, arsenical medicines.

ARSÉNIÉ, E, arsénié, ARSENIFÈRE arsœnifèr', ARSÉNIQUÉ, E, arsénikė, adj. Chem. arsenized, arsenicated.

ARSÉNIEUX, EUSE, arséniœ, œz', adj. Chem. arsenious.

ARSÉNIQUE, arsénik', adj. Chem. arsenical.

ARSÉNITE, arsénit', sm. Chem. arsenite.

ARSÉNIURE, arséniur', sm. Chem. arseniuret.

ARSIS, arsis, (Gr., elevation), sm. Gram., arsis : accented syllable.

ARSOUILLE, arsuil, sm. Fam. Pop. debauchee, libertine, low cad.

ART, ār ; the t is never pronounced before a vowel ; in the plural the s is also generally mute, but some few persons pronounce it as z before a following vowel, [Lat. : ars, artis], sm. 1. art : a) practical skill guided by rules ; b) by extension, the instinctive ingenuity of animals; c) a profession or trade ; d) skill, address, talent, contrivance, ingenuity ; e) human skill, as opposed to nature ; f) a set of rules for practical guidance ; g) artifice, cunning.

a) L'— de la poésie, de la peinture, de l'architecture, the art of poetry, of painting, of architecture. La Vénus de Milo est un chef-d'œuvre de l'—, the Venus of Melos is a master-piece of art. L'— de la médecine, l'— de guérir, the art of mecidine, the art of healing (or the therapeutic art). Sa maladie est au-dessus des ressources de l'—, his complaint is beyond the resources (or the reach) of art. L'— de l'éloquence, l'— oratoire, l'— de la parole, the art of eloquence, the orator's art, the art of speaking. L'— typographique, the art of printing. Les maîtres de l'—, the masters of the art : the leading men in any art. Les hommes, les gens de l'—, professional men. Termes de l'—, terms of art, technical terms.

b) L'— merveilleux avec lequel les abeilles construisent leurs cellules, the marvellous art with which bees construct their cells.

c) Les arts utiles à l'homme, the arts useful to man. Les Beaux-Arts, the fine arts. Les arts libéraux, the liberal arts or professions. Les arts mécaniques, the mechanical arts. Les arts industriels, the industrial or manufacturing arts. L'— militaire, military art. L'— du forgeron, du potier, the smith's, the potter's art or trade. Chez ce peuple tous les arts sont encore dans l'enfance, in that country all the arts are still in their infancy.

d) Une fourmi, un moucheron montrent cent fois plus d'art que l'horloger le plus parfait, an ant, a gnat exhibits a hundred times more contrivance than the most perfect clock-maker. Je voudrais avoir l'— de vous plaire, I would fain possess the art of pleasing you. Agir, se conduire avec —, to act, to conduct one's self with address (skill, or judgment) ; (in an ill sense) with artfulness, artifice, cunning, or craft.

e) Un lieu fortifié par la nature et l'—, a place fortified both by nature and art. Demosthène devait plus à l'art, Cicéron à la nature, Demosthenes was more indebted to art, Cicero to nature.

f) L'art poétique d'Horace, Horace's Art of Poetry. L'art d'aimer d'Ovide, Ovid's Art of Love.

g) Il y a dans la grâce de cette femme plus d'— que de naturel, the gracefulness of that woman is owing to art more than to nature, is more artificial than natural. L'— perce dans toutes ses paroles, artifice is apparent in his every word.

2. pl. Les arts, (unaccompanied by any qualifying word) the fine arts. Les arts d'agrément, accomplishments.

3. a kind of fishing net.

ARTABAN, artaban, nm. Artaban : a Persian king, remarkable for pride. Fier comme —, as proud as Lucifer.

ARTÉMISE, artémiz', sf. Bot. artemesia ; wormwood. V. ARMOISE.

ARTÈRE, artèr, [Gr. : ἀρτηρία], sf. Anat. artery ; Fig. great thoroughfare : any principal means of communication, whether road, river, or canal. Trachée-artère, the trachea or windpipe.

ARTÉRIALISATION, artérializâsyôn, sf. Physiol. arterialization : hæmatosis of the blood.

ARTÉRIALISER, artérializé-r, va. Physiol. to arterialize (the blood).

ARTÉRIEL, LE, artériel, èl', adj. arterial. Sang —, arterial blood. Tunique artérielle, the middle coat of an artery. Trachées artérielles, breathing-tubes or tracheas (of (insects).

ARTÉRIOLE, artériol', sf. small artery.

ARTÉRIOLOGIE, artériolozhi, [Gr. : ἀρτηρία, artery ; λόγος, discourse], sf. arteriology.

ARTÉRIOTOMIE, artériotomi, [Gr. : ἀρτηρία, artery ; τομή, section], sf. Surg. arteriotomy.

ARTÉRITE, artérit', sf. Med. arteritis : inflammation of an artery.

ARTÉSIEN, NE, artésyan, èn', [Lat. : artesianus, of Artois, from having been first sunk there in 1126], adj. Artesian. Puits —, Artesian well. Fontaine artésienne, Artesian fountain.

ARTHRALGIE, artralshi, [Gr. : ἄρθρον, articulation ; ἄλγος, pain], sf. Med. arthralgia : articular neuralgia.

ARTHRITE, artrit', [Gr. : ἀρθοῖτις, gout ; ἄρθρον, articulation], sf. Med. arthritis : inflammation of a joint.

ARTHRITIQUE, artritik', adj. Med. arthritic, arthritical : affecting the joints.

ARTHRODIE, artrodi, [Gr. : ἀρθρωδία, articulation], sf. Anat. arthrodia.

ARTHROPODES, artropod, [Gr. : ἄρθρον, articulation ; πούς, ποδὸς, foot], sm. pl. Zool. Bot. arthopoda.

ARTHROPYOSE, artrôpioz, [Gr. : ἄρθρον, articulation ; πύον, pus], sf. Med. arthropyosis : suppuration of a joint.

ARTHROSE, artrôz, [Gr. : ἄρθρωσις], sf. Anat. arthrosis : articulation.

ARTICHAUT, [Ital. : articiocco], artishô : Low Lat. : articactus, articoctus ; the t is always mute ; in the plural the s is pronounced as z before a vowel), sm. 1. Gard. artichoke ; 2. thistle-headed spike (placed on the top fences). — d'hiver, Jerusalem artichoke, topinamburi. — des Indes, batata, sweet potato. — des toits, houseleek. Cul d'—, bottom (or cheese) of an artichoke.

ARTICHAUTIÈRE, artishôtièr', sf. 1. artichoke-bed, artichoke-plot ; 2. artichoke-kettle.

ARTICLE, artikl', [Lat. : articulus, a little joint], sm. 1. joint : a) Anat, a movable articulation ; b) part of an animal's limb, or of the limb or body of an insect ; c) Bot. the length of stem between two knots in grasses, canes, etc. Amputation dans l'—, Surg. amputation at the joint. Il a été blessé à l'un des articles du petit doigt, he has been wounded in one of the joints of his little finger. Les antennes et les pattes sont divisées en un plus ou moins grand nombre d'articles, the antennæ and feet are divided into a greater or less number of joints. Le corps des insectes est divisé en un nombre très variable d'articles, the body of insects is divided into a very variable number of joints (rings or segments). La tige et les branches de la prêle sont composées de plusieurs articles, the stem and branches of horse-tail grass are composed of several joints.

2. conjuncture, point (of time). A l'— de la mort, at the point of death.

3. article : a) a distinct portion of a book, newspaper, or other composition ; b) clause, section (of a law, contract, treaty, etc.) ; c) particular point, detail [of a statement] ; d) item of an account) ; e) object of trade, commodity ; f) gram. one of the parts of speech.

a) Avez-vous lu l'— qui a paru ce matin dans le « Moniteur » ? have you read the article which appeared in this morning's Moniteur ? — de fond, leading article. — Londres, — Paris, London leader, Paris leader.

b) L'— 6 de cette loi porte que..., the sixth clause of that law provides (or enacts) that... Cet — du traité est clair, that article (clause, stipulation) of the treaty is clear.

c) Interroger sur faits et articles, Law-t. to interrogate as to facts and circumstances (particulars, details) : to subject to a searching examination.

d) Examiner un compte — par —, to examine an account item by item. — de dépense, de recette, an item of expenditure, of receipts. Débattre, contester, allouer, rayer un —, to discuss, to dispute, to allow, to strike out an item.

e) Beaucoup d'articles de toilette, de bijouterie, many articles of toilet, of jewelry. La soie est un — sur lequel il y a peu à gagner, silk is an article on which there is little profit, little to gain. Le tabac est un grand — de commerce, tobacco is a great article of trade. Faire l'—, to puff up one's goods, to be a good salesman. Cet — s'écoule facilement, this article sells well, is of ready sale. — de Paris, Paris article.

3. subject, matter, affair, point, head, score, business. Cet — est difficile, that is a difficult matter (or subject). Je passerai sur cet —, I will pass over that point. Sur cet — j'ai bien des choses à dire, on that subject (point, head, score) I have many things to say. C'est un — à part, that is quite a distinct affair. C'est un autre —, that is another thing, a different matter. Il était d'une délicatesse extrême sur l'— du point d'honneur, he was excessively fastidious on the subject of the point of honour. — de foi, article of faith. V. FOI.

ARTICULAIRE, artikulèr', adj. Med. articular : belonging to or affecting the joints.

ARTICULATION, artikulâsyôn, sf. 1. articulation : a) Anat. joint, arthrosis ; b) Entomol. joint, junction ; c) Bot. joint ; d) Mechan. working or movable joint ; e) Physiol. the act of uttering articulate sounds ; f) Gram. a consonant ; g) pronunciation, enunciation (of words). Maladies des articulations, articular affections, diseases of the joints. L'— de la tête avec le corselet (d'un insecte), the articulation (junction, or joining) of the head with the corselet (of an insect). — labiale, dentale, linguale, labial, dental, lingual, articulation. Avoir l'— nette, to have a distinct pronunciation. — embarrassée, embarrassed articulation. Les voix et les articulations, the vowels and the consonants.

2. Law-t. declaration : allegation, formal pleding or stating of facts.

ARTICULÉ, E, artikulé, pa. p. 1. articulated : a) Anat. jointed, joined b) Zool. having articulations ; c) Bot. jointed, vertebrated ; d) uttered, pronounced. Deux os articulés l'un avec l'autre, two bones articulated one with the other. Animaux articulés, V. ARTICULÉS. La tige des graminées est articulée, the stem of grasses is articulated (jointed or knotted). Débit bien —, a delivery well articulated. Paroles mal articulées, words badly articulated, indistinctly pronounced.

2. articulate : articulated, distinct. Voix articulée, articulate voice.

3. Law-t. declared : formally pleaded or stated.

ARTICULÉS, sm. pl. Zool. articulata, articulated animals : Cuvier's first division of invertebrate annelida.

ARTICULER, artikulé-r, va. to articulate : a) Anat. to join together the bones of a skeleton ; b) Paint. Sculp. to show the joints (of a figure) ; c) Mech. to connect by movable joints ; d) to utter articulate sounds. — les mots, to articulate, to utter words. J'entendais — votre nom, I heard your name pronounced (or uttered). [In a neuter sense :] Elle articule mal, she articulates badly.

2. Law-t. to declare : to allege, to set forth, to state in pleading ; 3. to advance, to affirm, to assert. — un fait, to allege a fact.

ARTICULER (s'), v. refl. 1. Anat. and Entom. to be articulated ; 2. to become distinct. Le fémur s'articule avec l'os de la hanche, the thigh-bone is articulated with the hip-bone. Les rochers se dressent et s'articulent, the rocks rise and become distinct.

ARTIFICE, artifis, [Lat. : artificium ; ars, artis, art ; facĕre, to make], sm. 1. artifice ! a) art ; b) artistic skill ; c) ingenuity, contrivance ; d) device, expedient, stratagem. Cette pièce n'est pas conduite sans —, this play is not destitute of artifice, of artistic skill. L'— qui fait mouvoir cet automate, the contrivance which sets in motion this automaton. L'innocent — dont je me sers pour soulager mes peines, the innocent artifice (device, expedient) which I employ to relieve my sufferings. Cette famille se soutient par —, this family is put to shifts or expedients for a living or livelihood.

2. (in a bad sense) artifice : cunning, craft, guile, wile, deceit. — grossier, détestable, gross, detestable artifice. Avoir recours à l'—, to have recourse to artifice (cunning or craft). Un homme sans —, a man without guile. Les artifices d'une coquette, the artifices (wiles, devices, or stratagems) of a coquette.

3. fire-work, fireworks. Pièce d'—, a firework, piece of fireworks. Feu d'—, fireworks, a pyrotechnic display. Il y aura un feu d'—, there will be a display of fireworks ; fireworks will be let off. [Fig. :] C'est un feu d'—, it is only a transient blaze, it is only fire and noise : said of a brilliant speech or literary composition possessing no real merit.

ARTIFICIEL, LE, artifisièl, èl', adj. artificial : opposed to natural. Des fleurs artificielles, artificial flowers. Des dents, des cheveux artificiels, artificial (or false) teeth, false hair. Jour —, artificial day : the time from sunrise to sunset, as opposed to the natural day of twenty-four hours.

ARTIFICIELLEMENT, artifisièl'mân-t, adv. artificially.

ARTIFICIER, artifisyé, sm. fire-work-maker, pyrotechnist.

ARTIFICIEUSEMENT, artifisiœz'mân-t, adv. artfully : cunningly, craftily.

ARTIFICIEUX, SE, artifisiœz, œz', adj. artful : wily, guileful, sly, cunning, crafty. Discours —, an artful speech. Femme artificieuse, an artful (or wily) woman. C'est un — coquin, he is a cunning rogue (or rascal). Ces artificieuses fictions de l'éloquence, those artful fictions of eloquence. Paroles artificieuses, crafty words.

ARTILLÉ, E, artiyé, adj. Naut. armed : mounted, provided with cannon.

ARTILLERIE, artiyœri ,[Lat. : artilluns, engine, dim. of ars, artis, art], sf. artillery : a) formerly, all kinds of missile weapons ; b) at present : ordnance, cannon, guns, with their ammunition ; c) an arm of the military service. Pièce d'—, piece of ordnance (or of artillery) : cannon, mortar, etc. Grosse —, heavy artillery. Un régiment d'—, a regiment of artillery. — de campagne, field artillery. — à cheval, horse (or mounted) artillery. — à pied, foot artillery. — de siège, siege artillery.

ARTILLEUR, artiyœr, sm. artilleryman : artillerist, gunner.

ARTIMON, artimôn, [Lat. : artemo, onis], sm. Naut. mizzen (or mizen) : mizzen mast, mizzen-sail. Mât, voile d'—, mizzen-mast, mizzen-sail.

ARTISAN, artizân, [Ital, : artigiano, from Lat. artitus, skilled in the arts ; ars, artis, art], sm, 1. artisan : a) formerly, artist ; b) at present, mechanic, handicraftsman, operative, workman ; 2, Fig. architect, artificer, author, originator, cause. Les grands artisans de la parole, the great artists of eloquence Il a été l'— de sa fortune, he has been the architect of his own fortune. Un — de désordres, de calomnies, d'impostures, an originator of disorder, of calumnies, of impostures.

ARTISON, artizôn, sm. (a popular name for all insects that destroy clothes, paper, wood, etc.), moth, worm, woodfretter.

ARTISONNÉ, E, artizonné, adj. moth-eaten, worm-eaten. Bois —, worm-eaten wood.

ARTISTE, artist', [art], smf. 1. artist : a) a person skilled in the fine arts ; b) Fig. an adept in anything ; 2. artiste : this French form is restricted in English use to persons practising any arts except the fine arts. Ce peintre, ce sculpteur est un grand —, this painter, sculptor is a great artist. Une jeune —, 1. a young artist (painter, etc.) ; 2. a young artiste (actress, singer, etc.): — dramatique, artiste : actor, actress ; player, performer. Les artistes de l'Opéra, the artistes, the performers of the Opera. — capilaire, — en cheveux, hair-dresser, hair-worker.

3. adj. artist. Cet homme est né —, this man was born an artist. Le monde —, the artistic world.

ARTISTEMENT, artist'mân-t, adv. artistically : skilfully, cleverly, dexterously.

ARTISTIQUE, artistik', adj. artistic, artistical.

ARTOCARPE, artokarp', [Gr. : ἄρτος, bread ; καρπός, fruit], sm. Bot. breadfruit tree : artocarpus incisa.

ARUM, arom, sm. Bot. arum. Arum maculé ou tacheté, cuckoo-pint, wake-robin.

ARUSPICE, aruspis', [Lat. : aruspex, icis ; ara, altar ; inspicĕre, to observe], sm, aruspex, aruspice : in ancient Rome, a diviner by the entrails of victims.

ARUSPICINE, aruspisin', sf. aruspicy.

ARYEN, NE, ary*an*, aryèn', [Sans. : arya, noble], adj. Aryan. Les langues aryennes, the Aryan (or Indo-European) languages.

ARYTÉNOÏDE, aritenoïd, [Gr. : ἀρύταινα, funnel ; εἶδος, form], adj. and sm. Anat. arytenoid : said of two small cartilages of the larynx.

ARZEL, arzèl, [Ar. : ardjel], sm. white-foot : a horse having one or both of the hind feet white.

AS, às, [Lat. : as, from Gr. : εἷς, one], sm. 1. ace (of cards, dice, and dominoes) ; 2. as : a weight and coin of ancient Rome. As de pique, ace of spades ; Fig. a bitter tongue, a spiteful person.

ASARET, azarè-t, [Lat. : asarum], sm. Bot. asarabacca, asarum Europæum : a plant possessing emetic properties.

ASBESTE, asbest', [Gr. : ἄσβεστος], sm. Mineral. asbestos or asbestus.

ASBOLINE, asbolin', [Gr. : ἀσβόλη, soot], sf. Chem. asboline : an extract of wood soot.

ASCAGNE, ascany', npm. Ascanius : the son of Eneas.

ASCARIDE, askarid', [Gr. : ἀσκαρίς], sm. Entom. ascaris [pl. ascarides] : a genus of entozoa, or intestinal worms.

ASCÈLE, asèl', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; σκέλος, leg], adj. legless : having no legs.

ASCENDANCE, asâ*n*dâ*n*s', sf. 1. ascending line (of kindred) ; 2. rising (of a star, etc.) ; 3. ascendency, predominating influence.

ASCENDANT, E, asâ*n*dâ*n*-t, [Lat. : ascendĕre, ascensum, to climb], adj. 1. ascending : a) tending upwards, rising ; b) Astron. appearing above the horizon, crossing the ecliptic towards the elevated pole, as the moon or a planet ; approaching the elevated pole, as the sun ; c) Law and Geneal. preceding in lineal descent ; d) Math. increasing ; e) Bot. running upwards, as branches from a trailing stem ; f) Mus. rising from lower to higher notes. Mouvement —, ascending (or upward) motion. Marée ascendante, ascending (or rising) tide. Aorte ascendante, the ascending aorta. Astre —, rising star. Latitude ascendante, ascending latitude : said of a star, etc., between the ecliptic and its elevated pole. Nœud —, ascending node : the point where the moon or a planet crosses the ecliptic towards the elevated pole. Signes ascendants, ascending signs : the six signs of the zodiac in which the sun approaches the elevated pole. Ligne ascendante, the ascending line : as son, father, grandfather, etc. Progression ascendante, ascending (or increasing) progression.

2. Astrol. ascendant. Astre, signe —, ascendant sign, planet (that which is rising at the moment of a person's birth).

ASCENDANT, sm. 1. ascendant : a) Astron. the point of the ecliptic just rising ; b) Astrol. the sign or planet rising at a person's birth ; c) ascendency, controlling influence, authority ; d) Law and Geneal. lineal predecessor, as a father, grandfather, etc. L'— qu'il a pris sur moi, the ascendant (or ascendency) he had gained over me. Pour prendre l'— sur eux, to gain ascendency (or the ascendant) over them. L'aïeul est l'— au deuxième degré, the grandfather is the ancestor in the second degree.

3. Fig. predominating inclination, propensity, proclivity ; ruling passion. On a de la peine à vaincre son —, it is difficult to overcome one's ruling passion. Cet — malin qui nous force à rimer, that malignant propensity (or proclivity) which impels us to rhyme. Boileau, Sat. IX.

ASCENSEUR, asâ*n*sœr, sm. lift ; in America, elevator. Boileau, Sat. IX.

ASCENSION, asâ*n*syô*n*, sf. 1. ascent : a) the act of rising ; b) motion upwards ; 2. rise, rising. L'— d'un aérostat, the ascent of a balloon. L'— du mercure dans le baromètre, the rise or rising of mercury in the barometer. L'— de l'eau dans une pompe, the ascent or rising of water in a pump. L'— de la sève dans la tige, the ascent or rising of the sap in the stem.

3. Astron. ascension. — droite, right ascension : the point of the equinoctial which rises with a heavenly body in a right sphere or comes to the meridian with it in a right or oblique sphere. — oblique, oblique ascension : the point of the equinoctial which rises with a star, etc., in an oblique sphere.

4. ascension : a) the visible rising of Christ to heaven ; b) Ascension-day, Holy Thursday : the festival commemorating that event. L'— du Christ, the ascension of Christ. L'— est quarante jours après Pâques, Ascension-day, or Holy Thursday is forty days after Easter. Une belle ascension de ce peintre, a fine Ascension by that painter.

ASCENSIONNEL, LE, asâ*n*syonèl, èl', adj. ascensionel. Force ascensionnelle, ascensional power. Mouvement —, ascensional or upward motion ; up-stroke (of a steam piston).

ASCÈTE, asèt', [Gr. : ἀσκητής, exercising], smf. ascetic : hermit, recluse.

ASCÉTIQUE, asétik', adj. 1 ascetic. Vie, auteur, ouvrage —, ascetic life, author, work.

2. smf. ascetic. Les extases des ascétiques, the ecstasies of the ascetics.

3. sf. the doctrine of asceticism ; 4. sm. pl. treatise on ascetics. Les Ascétiques de Saint-Basile, St. Basil's Ascetics.

ASCÉTISME, asétism', sm. asceticism.

ASCHÉE, ashé, sf. Sport. red-worms (used as bait by anglers).

ASCIDIE, asidi, [Gr. : ἀσκίδιον, leathern bag], sf. Zool. ascidian [pl. ascidians or ascidia] : a kind of mollusk.

ASCIENS, asy*an*, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; σκιά, shadow], sm. pl. Ascians, Ascii : without shadow, applied to the inhabitants of the torrid zone.

ASCITE, asit', [Gr. : ἀσκός, pouch], sf. 1. Med. ascites : abdominal dropsy ; 2. adj. ascitic. Elle mourut d'une hydropysie —, she died of ascitic dropsy.

ASCITIQUE, asitik', adj. Med. ascitic.

ASCLÉPIADE, asklépiad', [from the Greek poet Asclepiades], sm. 1. Pros. asclepiad : a verse of four feet ; 2. adj. asclepiadic.

ASCLÉPIAS, asklépias, sm. ASCLÉPIADE, asklépiad', sf. Bot. asclepias : milk-wort, swallow-wort.

ASEPSIE, asepsi, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; σηπτός, rotten], sf. Med. asepsis.

ASEPTIQUE, aseptik, adj. aseptic.

ASEPTOL, aseptol, sm. Chem. aseptol : an antiseptic solution.

ASIARCAT, aziarka, sm. Anc. Hist. asiarchate.

ASIARQUE aziark', [Gr. : ἀσιάρχης], sm. Anc. Hist. asiarch.

ASIE, azi, sf. Geog. Asia. — Mineure, Asia-Minor.

ASIATIQUE, aziatik', adj. Asiatic : a) of or belonging to Asia ; b) luxurious (as manners), extravagant, exaggerated (as language).

ASILE, azil', [Lat. : asylus], sm. 1. asylum : a) place of refuge ; sanctuary, when a church or other consecrated building ; b) refuge, any place affording concealment (or protection from pursuit or danger) ; c) a charitable establishment for the indigent, sick, or helpless. Les temples païens et autrefois les églises étaient des asiles, pagan temples, and churches formerly, were asylums (places of sanctuary or of refuge). Droit d'—, right of sanctuary. Dans le temple voisin chacun chercha un —, all took refuge in the neighbouring temple. Il trouva un — à l'étranger, he found an asylum (or a refuge) abroad. — des indigents, asylum for the poor : poor-house, work-house. — pour la vieillesse, alms-house for the aged poor. Salle d'—, infant school.

2. home, abode, house, dwelling-place. Sans —, homeless, houseless. — de nuit, night refuge. Il trouva un — chez un de ses amis, he found a home with one of his friends.

3. retreat. Un — champêtre, a rural retreat. Un doux —, a pleasant retreat. Le dernier —, the last abode : the grave. Nous l'avons accompagné à son dernier —, we followed him to his last abode.

4. refuge, protection · said of both persons and things. Vous êtes mon —, you are my refuge, my protection. La solitude est un — contre les passions, solitude is a refuge from the passions. La justice des tribunaux est l'— des faibles, the justice of the tribunals is the protection (or refuge) of the weak.

ASILE, asil', sm. Entom. hornet-fly.

ASINE, azin', [Lat. : asinus, ass], adj. of the ass kind. Bête —, an ass. Race —, the ass breed.

ASITIE, azisi, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. : σῖτον, food], sf. Med. asitia : absence of appetite.

ASMODÉE, asmodé, pnm. Asmodæus.

ASPARAGINE, asparazhin', [Lat. : asparagus], sf. Chem. asparagine : a crystalized extract of asparagus.

ASPECT, aspè, or aspè-k ; pl. aspè-z, [Lat. : aspectus ; ad, to ; specĕre, to look], sm. 1. sight : seeing a person or thing. Trembler à l'— d'une chose terrible, to tremble at the sight of any thing terrible. A l'— du bourreau elle s'évanouit, at the sight of (or on seeing) the executioner she fainted. Au premier —, at first sight. A l'— de ces ruines il s'arrêta, at the sight of (or on seeing) these ruins, he halted. A l'— de la mort, du danger, at the sight (or in the presence) of death, of danger.

2. aspect : a) view ; b) appearance, look (of persons or things) ; mien, air, presence (or persons) ; c) point of view, side, phase, bearing ; d) frontage towards any point ; e) Astrol. relative position of the planets : a) J'ai acheté un château agréable dans le plus bel — de la nature, I have bought a pleasant mansion (or country-seat) in the finest aspect of nature.

b) Son — et son langage inspiraient la vénération, his aspect (appearance) and his language inspired veneration. L — farouche du bandit, the ferocious aspect (or looks) of the bandit. Ce vallon a un — pittoresque, this valley has a picturesque aspect. Cette femme a un — imposant, that lady has an imposing presence. L'inondation donna à la plaine l'— d'un lac immense, the flood gave the plain the aspect (or appearance) of an immense lake.

c) Envisager tous les aspects d'un sujet, to view a subject in all its bearings. L'avenir se présente sous un heureux —, the future presents itself under a favourable aspect. Vous n'avez considéré cette entreprise que sous l'— le plus favorable, you have only looked at the brightest side of this speculation. Je l'ai examiné sous tous les aspects, I have examined it from every point of view (or in all its phases or bearings).

d) En sorte que la maison fût tournée à un — sain, so that the house might have a healthy aspect. Fén. Télem. 12.

e) Les astrologues comptaient cinq aspects, qu'ils nommaient conjonction, sextil, quartil, trin et opposition, astrologers used to count five aspects, which they called conjunction, sextile, quartile, trine, and opposition.

ASPERGE, aspèrzh', [Lat. : asparagus], sf. 1. Bot. asparagus ; 2. head (or shoot) of asparagus ; the French word is generally used in the plural, the English word has no plural. Manger des asperges, to eat asparagus. Botte d'asperges, bundle of asparagus. Fosse d'asperges, asparagus bed. Pointe d'asperges, the tip (or top) of asparagus shoots. C'est une — montée, Fig. he is as thin as a lath.

ASPERGEMENT, aspèrzh'mân-t, sm. V. ASPERSION.

ASPERGER, aspèrzhé-r, [Lat. : aspergere, to sprinkle], va. (Aspergeons, aspergeâtes, aspergeant.) to sprinkle. Elle s'est évanouie ; on l'aspergea d'eau froide pour la faire revenir, she fainted, they sprinkled her with cold water to restore her. Le prêtre aspergea les fidèles d'eau bénite, the priest sprinkled the congregation with holy water.

ASPERGÈS, aspèrzhès, sm. 1. sprinkler, holy-water sprinkler, aspergillum ; 2. sprinkling of holy water (during mass).

ASPERGIÈRE, aspèrzhyèr', ASPERGERIE, aspérzhœri, sf. asparagus bed or plot ; (if on a large scale) asparagus field.

ASPERGILLIFORME, aspèrzhilifôrm', adj. Bot. aspergilliform.

ASPÉRIFOLIÉ, E, aspérifolié, [Lat. : asper, rough ; folium, leaf], Bot. asperifoliate, asperifolious.

ASPÉRITÉ, aspérité, [Lat. : asperitas ; asper, rough], sf. 1. asperity : a) roughness, uneveness, inequalities (of a surface) ; b) harshness, crabbedness, moroseness (of temper) ; c) harshness ruggedness (of style) ; 2. ruggedness, roughness (of a road, etc.).

ASPERME, aspèrm', adj. Bot. aspermous seedless.

ASPERSION, aspèrsyôn ; in poetry, aspèrsiôn, sf. 1. aspersion : sprinkling ; 2. Theol. affusion.

ASPERSOIR aspèrswar, [asperger], sm, holy-water sprinkler or brush.

ASPÉRULE, aspérul', [Lat. : asper, rough], sf. Bot. asperula, woodruff.

ASPHALTE, asfalt', [Gr. : ἄσφαλτος], sm. asphalt, asphaltum : mineral pitch Jew's pitch.

ASPHODÈLE, asfodèl', [Gr. : ἀσφόδελος], sm. Bot. asphodel.

ASPHYXIANT, E, asfiksiân-t, ânt, adj. asphyxiating : suffocating.

ASPHYXIE, asfiksi, [Gr. : ἀσφυξία ; ἀ, neg. ; σφύξις, pulse], sf. Med. asphyxia, asphyxy : a) syncope, suspension of pulsation [little used in this sense] ; b) suspended animation caused by submersion, suffocation, strangling, or irrespirable gases.

ASPHYXIÉ, E, asfiksié, pa. p. asphyxiated, suffocated. — par la vapeur du charbon, suffocated by the fumes of charcoal [Sunstant.] Secours pour les asphyxiés, assistance for suffocated or drowned persons.

ASPHYXIER, asfiksié-r, va. to asphyxiate : to suffocate.

ASPHYXIER (s'), v. refl. to asphyxiate or suffocate one's self : to commit suicide by means of charcoal fumes.

ASPIC, aspik, [Gr. : ἀσπίς], sm. 1. asp, aspic : a venomous serpent ; 2. Fig. slanderer, backbiter. Une langue d'—, a serpent's tongue, a spiteful tongue.

3. Bot. spike-lavender, broad-leaved lavender ; 4. Culin. a dish of cold meat or fish with jelly.

ASPIRAIL, aspiray', sm. Technol. airhole, draught-hole (in a furnace).

ASPIRANT, E, aspirân-t, ânt', adj. sucking, suction. Pompe aspirante, suction pump.

ASPIRANT, E, smf. 1. aspirant (to) ; 2. candidate (for). — au doctorat, aspirant to the doctor's degree. Une aspirante au brevet d'institutrice, a candidate for the diploma of governess. Un — aux emplois académiques, an aspirant to academic functions. Aspirant de marine, a midshipman.

ASPIRATEUR, TRICE, aspiratœr, tris', adj. inhaling. La force aspiratrice des végétaux, the inhaling power of plants.

ASPIRATEUR, sm. Chem. aspirator : an apparatus used to draw air or gases through bottles or other vessels.

ASPIRATION, aspiràsyôn ; in poet. aspiràsiôn, sf. 1. inspiration : inhalation, drawing of air into the lungs ; 2. inhaling, inhalation (of smoke, etc.) ; 3. suction, sucking (of water or other fluids as in pumps) ; 4. Phys. exhausting or drawing out (air or gases) ; 5. aspiration : a) breathing after, ardent wish or desire ; b) Gram. rough breathing (of a vowel or consonant). L'— de l'air dans les poumons, the inspiration (or inspiring) of air into the lungs. L'— de la fumée du tabac, the inhaling of tobacco smoke. Tuyau —, suction-pipe or feed-pipe (of a pump). Les aspirations continuelles de l'âme vers un monde meilleur, the constant aspirations (or yearnings) of the soul after a better world). Th. Gaut.

ASPIRÉE, sf. Gram. aspirate. Le chi grec est une aspirée, the Greek chi is an aspirate.

ASPIRER, aspiré-r, [Lat. : aspirāre ; ad, to ; spirāre, to breathe], va. 1. to inspire : to inhale, to draw in (the air) ; 2. to inhale (air, smoke, gases, etc.) ; 3. to sniff, to snuff up (the air, etc.) ; 4. to suck in or up (as water or any fluid) ; 5. Phys. to exhaust, to draw out. — l'air, to inhale the air. Les poumons qui aspirent et exhalent l'air, the lungs which inhale and exhale the air. Le cheval aspire l'air de ses larges naseaux, the horse snuffs up the air with his wide nostrils. Cette pompe aspire l'eau avec beaucoup de force, this pump sucks (or draws) up the water with great power. L'eau aspirée par les végétaux, the water inhaled (sucked in) by plants. Une h aspirée, an aspirated h.

6. Fig. to drink in : to listen eagerly to. Comme autrefois, quand vous aspiriez ma voix, as formerly, when you drank in (or hung upon) my words.

7. Gram. to aspirate. Aspirez cette h, aspirate that h.

ASPIRER (s'), v. refl. to be aspirated. Cette h s'aspire, that h is aspirated.

ASPIRER, vn. 1. to draw breath, to breathe. — fortement, to draw a long breath to breathe hard.

2. to aspire : to desire eagerly, to long for, to aim at. — à la couronne, aux honneurs, to aspire to the crown, to honours. — à l'immortalité, to aspire to (or after) immortality. — à commander, to aspire to command.

ASPIRINE, aspirin, sf. Pharm. aspirine.

ASPLENIE, aspleni, [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; σπλήν, spleen], sf. Bot. asplenium : spleenwort, a genus of ferns.

ASPRE, aspr', sm. asper : a Turkish coin.

ASSA, assa, sm. assa : a gum resin. Assa-dulcis, benzoin. Assa-fœtida, assa-fœtida.

ASSAGIR, asazhir, [à ; sage], va. to render wise ; to calm, to moderate.

ASSAGIR, vn. to become wise.

ASSAILLANT, asayân-t, sm. assailant : assaulter, aggressor.

ASSAILLIR, assayir, [Lat. : ad, to ; salire, to leap], va. (J'assaille, nous assaillons ; j'assaillis, nous assaillîmes ; j'assaillirai ; que j'assaille, que nous assaillions ; que j'assaillisse.) to assail : to fall upon with violence, to attack, to assault. — les ennemis dans leurs retranchements, to assail (attack or assault) the enemy in their entrenchments. — un camp, to attack a camp. Être assailli d'une grêle de pierres, to be assailed with a shower of stones. Une tempête nous assaillit au sortir du port, a tempest assailed us on leaving the port. Nous fûmes assaillis par un vent épouvantable, we were assailed (or overtaken) by a fearful gale.

ASSAILLIR (s'), v. recip. to attack each other.

ASSAINIR, asènir, [à ; sain], va. to make or render healthy (or salubrious). Les habitants ont assaini le pays en desséchant les marais, the inhabitants have rendered the country healthy by draining its marshes. — une ville, to improve the sanitary condition of a town.

ASSAINISSEMENT, asènis'mân-t, sm. 1. improving the sanitary condition, rendering or making healthy or salubrious (by cleansing, draining, etc.) ; 2. healthiness, salubrity, improved sanitary condition (of a place.)

ASSAISONNANT, E, asèzonân-t, ânt, adj. seasoning, flavouring. Plantes assaisonnantes, Agr. plants giving an improved relish to herbage.

ASSAISONNEMENT, asèzon'mân-t, sm. 1. seasoning ; 2. seasoner, condiment, sauce : anything used as seasoning ; 3. Fig. seasoning, zest, relish. Le poivre est un —, pepper is a seasoner (or condiment). La viande était bonne, mais l'— ne valait rien, the meat was good but the sauce was good for nothing.

ASSAISONNER, asèzoné-r, [à ; saison], va. 1. to season : to give a relish to, to render palatable ; 2. to give a zest to (conversation, etc.), — une salade, to season (or dress) a salad. Les mauvais cuisiniers ne savent rien — avec justesse, bad cooks do not know how to season anything properly. L'appétit assaisonne tout, appetite give a relish to everything ; a good appetite is the best sauce. L'art d'— les plaisirs, the art of giving a zest to pleasures. Légumes assaisonnés à l'huile, vegetables seasoned with oil.

ASSAISONNEUR, asèzonœr, sm. seasoner.

ASSASSIN, asasan, [Ar. : haschischin, nom de brigands connus en Orient à l'époque des croisades], sm. 1. assassin ; (in a more general sense) murderer, m. murderess, f. ; 2. beauty-spot : small black patch formerly worn by women under the eye. A l'—! murder ! Crier à l'—, to cry or shout « murder ! » — gagé, hired assassin.

ASSASSIN, E, assasan, in', adj. 1.

murderous, murdering; 2. killing. Fer —, murderous steel. Poignard d'—, a murderer's dagger. Des yeux, des regards assassins, killing eyes, killing glances. Mouche assassine, beauty-spot : black patch stuck under the eye.

ASSASSINANT, E, asasinân-t, ânt, adj. 1. tiresome, wearisome, annoying, boring; 2. cruel, ruthless. Des redites assassinantes, wearisome repetitions.

ASSASSINAT, asasina-t; pl. asasina-z, sm. 1. assassination : murder; 2. Law-t. wilful murder; 3. murderous attack (or assault), brutal outrage, ruffianly act; 4. moral murder (or assassination) : said of an atrocious calumny. — juridique, judicial murder : injust capital punishment.

ASSASSINER, asasiné-r, va. 1. to assassinate : to murder (by secret assault, with malice prepense). On l'assassina dans son lit, he was murdered in his bed. Faire —, to assassinate, to cause (or compass) the assassination of. Henri III fit — les Guise, Henry III assassinated the Guises (or caused the Guises to be assassinated).

2. to commit a murderous assault on, to assault in a ruffianly manner. C'est — un homme que de le calomnier de la sorte, it is murdering a man to calumniate (slander or libel) him in such a manner.

3. to torment or to plague (a person) to death; 4. to pester, to bore. Leur vicieuse coutume d'— les gens de leurs ouvrages, their abominable habit of plaguing people to death with their books. Mol. Critique, 8. Il m'a cent fois assassiné de la lecture de ces vers, he has bored me a hundred times by reading his verses.

ASSATION, assâsyon, [Lat. : assatio; assāre, to roast], sf. Med. assation : boiling of food or drugs in their own juices.

ASSAUT, asô-t; pl. asô-z, [Lat. : assaltus; ad, to; salire, to leap], sm. assault : a) storming of a fortified place, as apposed to sap or siege; b) Fig. attack, shock, violence, fury; c) urgent solicitation; d) fencing-math; Fig. struggle for superiority in anything whatever. a) Donner l'— à une ville, to storm a town. Emporter d'—, to carry by storm. Condé fut pris d'—, Condé was taken by storm. Livrer à une place un — furieux, to make a furious assault on a place. b) Les assauts de la tempête, the shocks, the violence (or fury) of the tempest. Sa fortune a essuyé un rude —, his fortune has experienced a severe shock. Résister aux assauts des passions, des tentations, to resist the assaults of the passions, of temptations. c) Sa vertu a eu à soutenir de rudes assauts, her virtue has been exposed to severe assaults. d) — d'armes, assault of arms, fencing-match. Faire — de, to struggle for superiority in, to vie with, to rival (any one) in. Faire — d'esprit, de science, de plaisanterie, to vie with, to rival (another) in wit, science, humour (or jesting).

† ASSAVOIR, assavwar [à; savoir], va. to know. Je te fais —, I have to inform you, to let you know.

ASSE, âss, (Louis-Eugène-Auguste), historian and essayist (1830-1891).

ASSEAU, asô, sm. slater's hammer.

ASSÉCHAGE, aséshazh, ASSÈCHEMENT, asèsh'mân-t, sm. draining (of mines, etc.).

ASSÉCHER, aséché-r, [à; sécher], va. (J'assèche, j'assécherai, etc.) 1. to drain : to draw off water from; 2. vn. Naut. to be dry, to be left dry (at low water).

ASSELINE, âselin (Gilles-Thomas], poet (1682-1767); (Louis), essayist and historian (1829-1878).

ASSELINEAU, aselinô, [François-Alexandre-Charles), critic, novelist and essayist (1821-1874).

ASSEMBLAGE, asânblazh', sm. 1. assemblage : a) collection, gathering (of persons or things); b) union, combination (of things); c) jumble : always in an ill sense. Cette société est un — de gens de toute espèce, that company is an assemblage (or gathering) of all sorts of people. Tout — de parties peut être désuni, every union or assemblage of parts may be dissolved. Ce mot est formé par l'— de plusieurs syllabes, this word is formed by the assemblage or union of several syllables. L'— des qualités qui font l'homme d'État, the combination of the qualities which make the statesman. Ce discours n'est qu'un — de phrases incohérentes, this speech is only a jumble of incoherent phrases.

2. Carp. and Join. framing : joining together of timbers, etc.; 3. scarfing : joining longitudinally; 4. joint, scarf. — à repos, à paume, single step scarf. — à mi-bois, single step scarf in which half the thickness of each timber is out away. — à mortaise et à tenon, mortise and tenon joint. — à enfourchement, double mortise and tenon joint. — à trait de Jupitre, French scarf. — à queue d'aronde, dove-tail joint. — par entailles, tabling, notched scarf. — à rainures et à languettes, plough and tongue joint. Porte d'—, framed door. — à bouement, scribing, — à onglet, mitre clamp.

5. Book-b.; Print. gathering : putting together the sheets of a work in the order of their signatures.

ASSEMBLÉE, asânblé, sf. 1. assembly : a) persons met together for any purpose; b) a congregation of persons for public worship; c) a deliberative body; d) company, party met for social enjoyment. — choisie, select assembly. Grande, nombreuse —, great, numerous assembly. Une — délibérante, a deliberative assembly. — nationale, national assembly. — constituante, constituent assembly. — de famille, family party. — publique, public assembly. Salle d'—, assembly-room.

2. meeting (of shareholders, of creditors, of the members of literary, scientific or other societies). Convoquer une —, to convene or call a meeting. Dissoudre une —, to dissolve a meeting.

3. Sport. rendez-vous, place of meeting.

4. fair, feast (in certain provinces).

5. Milit. assembly : call for the men to fall in by companies. Lieu, quartier, place d'—, place of assembly.

ASSEMBLER, asânblé-r, [Lat. : ad, to; similis, like; simul, together], va. 1. to collect : to gather, bring, or get together. — des matériaux pour bâtir, to collect materials for building. — les parties éparses, to bring together the scattered parts.

2. to assemble : a) to convene, to convoke a deliberative assembly; b) to call (a meeting); c) to muster (soldiers). — les chambres, to convoke the chambers. Constantin assemble à Nicée le premier concile général, Constantine assembled the first general council at Nicæa.

3. to put or join together (as the different parts of a machine, of a garment, etc.); 4. Book-b. to gather : to put together the sheets of a book in the order of their signatures; 5. Carp. to join together (as timbers by mortising, scarfing, etc.); 6. Join. to frame together (by mortising, dove-tailing, etc.). 7. Autom. — la jante, to fit on the rim.

ASSEMBLER (s'), v. refl. 1. to assemble : to meet, to come together; 2. to join, to combine. Le conseil s'assemble, the council is assembling. Les actionnaires de cette compagnie s'assemblent deux fois par an, the shareholders of that company meet twice a year, hold two meetings every year. La haine, le mépris, contre moi tout s'assemble, hatred, contempt — everything combines against me. Volt. Prov. : Qui se ressemble s'assemble, birds of a feather flock together.

ASSEMBLEUR, EUSE, asânblœr, œz', smf. 1. Book-b. gatherer (of sheets into books); 2. collector, compeller. L'— des nuages jura par le Styx, the cloud-compeller (or cloud-compelling Jove) swore by the Styx. La Font. Fab. VIII. 20.

ASSENER, asœné-r, va. [Lat. : assignāre; ad, to; signāre, to mark], va (J'assène, j'assènerai, etc.), to deal, to apply. Il lui assena un coup de bâton sur la tête, he dealt (or gave) him a blow on the head with a cudgel. Un coup de langue bien assené, a well-aimed sarcasm.

ASSENTEMENT, asânt-mân-t, [assentir], sm. Sport. scent (of game).

ASSENTIMENT, asântimân-t [assentir], sm. assent : a) voluntary consent; b) approbation. Ne donnez point votre — à cette décision, do not give your assent to that decision. L'— de tous les peuples de l'antiquité consacra l'esclavage, the approbation of all the nations of antiquity sanctioned slavery.

ASSENTIR, asântir, [à; sentir], vn. (J'assens, j'assentais, j'assentis, j'assenterai, que j'assente, assentant). 1. to assent. — à une proposition, to assent to a proposition.

2. Sport. to scent, to trace by the acent.

ASSEOIR, aswar, [Lat. : assidēre; ad, near; sedēre, to sit], va. (J'assieds, tu assieds, il assied, nous asseyons, vous asseyez, ils asseyent; j'asseyais, nous asseyions; j'assis, nous assîmes; j'assiérai, nous assiérons; or j'asseyerai, nous asseyeons; j'assiérais, nous assiérions; or j'asseyerais, nous asseyerions; assieds, asseyons, asseyez : que j'asseye, que nous asseyions; que j'assisse, que nous assissions; asseyant; assis, assise. The following forms are also used but less commonly : j'assois, tu assois, il assoit; j'assoyais; j'assoirai; j'assoirais; assois, assoyons, assoyez; que j'assoie, que nous assoyons; assoyant.)

1. to seat : to set on a seat. — un malade, un enfant, to seat a sick person, a child. Asseyez-le sur le gazon, seat him on the grass. Faire —, to cause to be seated : to ask (one) to take a seat. L'ayant fait —, having made him sit down (or take a seat). Il les fit — sur un banc de gazon, he made them sit down on a turf-covered bank. Faire — quelqu'un à sa table, to seat a person at one's table.

2. to place, to set. — une statue sur son piédestal, une colonne sur sa base, to set a statue on a pedestal, a column on its base.

3. to establish, to found. — un trône, to establish a throne. — un empire, un gouvernement, to found (or establish) an empire, a government.

4. to ground, to base, to found. — son opinion sur l'événement, to base (or ground) one's opinion on the event. Avant d'— son jugement, before founding one's judgment.

5. to lay. — les fondements d'une maison, to lay the foundations of a house — un impôt sur, to lay (or impose) a tax on. — les impôts sur le superflu des richesses, to lay or impose taxes on the superfluities of wealth.

6. Milit. to pitch (a camp).

7. to charge, to secure. — une dot, une rente sur un bien-fonds, to charge (or secure) a dowry, an annuity on landed estate.

8. Man. — un cheval, to pull a horse back (so as to bring his hind legs well under him).

ASSEOIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to seat one's self, to take one's seat; to be seated, to sit down, to take a seat. Asseyez-vous, je vous prie, pray be seated, pray sit down (or take a seat). Asseyez-vous sur le canapé, take a seat on the sofa. Nous nous assîmes dans un pré, we sat down in a meadow. Venez vous — à côté de moi, come and sit down beside me. Allez vous —, Fam. Vulg. be off, shut up.

2. to perch (as a bird). Le rossignol s'assoit sur une branche, the nightingale perches on a branch.

3. to be seated or situated. Le château de Villiers s'asseyait au revers d'une colline boisée, Villier's castle stood on the farther side of a wooded hill.

ASSERMENTÉ, E, asèrmânté, pa. p. sworn. Interprète —, sworn interpreter. Prêtre —, a priest who took the oath to the civil constitution (in 1790).

ASSERMENTER, asèrmânté-r, [à; serment], va. to swear (or swear in). — un fonctionnaire public, to swear in a public functionary.

ASSERTIF, IVE, asèrtif, iv', adj. assertive.

ASSERTION, asèrsyô*n*; in poét. asèrsiô*n*, [Lat. : assertio], sf. assertion. — vraie, fausse, a true, a false assertion.

ASSERVIR, asèrvir, [à; servir; Lat. : servus, serf], va. (J'asservissais, asservissant.) 1. to reduce to a state of servitude or dependency (as a country or nation); 2. to enslave, to inthral; 2. to subdue, to subjugate, to conquer. Ce conquérant avait asservi plusieurs nations, that conqueror had subjugated several nations. César asservit son pays, Cæsar enslaved his country. Les sciences exactes nous ont asservi les éléments, the exact sciences have subdued the elements to our use.

ASSERVIR (s'), v. refl. to be the slave (of); to submit (to). S'— à l'étiquette, to be the slave of etiquette. Je ne saurais m'— à tous vos caprices, I cannot be the slave of (or submit to) all your caprices.

ASSERVISSABLE, asèrvisabl', adj. susceptible of being enslaved or inthralled.

ASSERVISSANT, E, asèrvisâ*n*-t, ânt', adj. 1. enslaving; 2. slavish, servile. Joug —, enslaving yoke. Conditions asservissantes, slavish (degrading, humiliating) conditions.

ASSERVISSEMENT, asèrvis'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. enslavement; 2. servitude, slavery, bondage; 3. slavish subjection; 4. subservience. L'— de la Grèce par les rois macédoniens, the enslavement of Greece by the kings of Macedon. Tenir un peuple dans l'—, to hold a people in slavery. — aux usages, aux idées reçues, slavish subjection to custom, to received notions.

ASSERVISSEUR, asœrvisœr, sm. enslaver.

ASSESSEUR, asèsœr, [Lat. : assessor], sm. assessor : an assistant judge.

ASSEZ, asé-z; some few persons, however, do not pronounce the z on the following vowel in familiar conversation [Lat. : ad, to; satis, enough], adv. 1. enough. L'avare n'a jamais —, the miser never has enough. Vous avez — fait, you have done enough. — bon, good enough. Vous n'êtes pas — fort pour lui tenir tête, you are not strong enough to hold your own against him. Il est — riche pour acheter ce domaine, he is rich enough to purchase that domain. J'ai — d'argent, — d'amis, I have money enough, friends enough, plenty of money, plenty of friends. A-t-il — de biens pour vivre ? has he property enough to live on ? C'est — parlé, — disputé, we have talked enough, disputed enough. C'est — parler, — disputer, there has been talking enough, disputing enough. — peu, little enough. C'est un homme d'— peu d'esprit, he is a man of little wit, not overdone with wit. — souvent, often enough : too often. Assez ! enough ! C'en est —, that is enough of it, that is enough. J'en ai —, I have had enough of it.

2. sufficiently. On ne peut — estimer un tel avantage, we cannot sufficiently prize (or we cannot overvalue) such an advantage. On l'a — puni, he has been sufficiently punished.

3. plenty. — d'autres, plenty of others. — de livres sont pleins de toutes les minuties des actions de guerre, plenty of books are full of all the particulars of martial deeds.

4. rather, pretty, somewhat, tolerably. Cette femme est — jolie, that woman is rather pretty. Cet ouvrage est — bien fait, this work is pretty well done. Une lettre — longue, a rather long letter. — petit, rather (or somewhat) small. — bien, pretty well, tolerably well. — douteux, somewhat doubtful.

5. long enough. J'ai bien — vécu, I have lived quite long enough. — et trop longtemps, long enough and too long.

6. sm. enough. — vaut festin, enough is as good as a feast. Séparer le peu d'avec le beaucoup, l'— d'avec le trop, to separate little from much, enough from too much. — n'y a, si trop n'y a, there is never enough when nought is left.

ASSIDU, E, asidu, [Lat. : assiduus], adj. assiduous : a) punctual in attendance; b) diligent, industrious; c) unremitting, unceasing. Ce médecin est — auprès de son malade, that physician is assiduous in attending his patient. Un élève —, an assiduous (diligent, industrious) pupil. — à l'étude, assiduous in study. Ces plaintes assidues, these assiduous (unceasing) complaints. Rendre des soins assidus à quelqu'un, to render assiduous (unremitting) attentions to a person. Visites assidues, assiduous visits.

ASSIDUITÉ, asiduité, sf. 1. assiduity : a) punctual attendance; b) application, diligence, industry. L'— de cet employé lui valut de l'avancement, the assiduity (diligence) of that clerk procured him promotion. Son goût pour s'instruire, son — à l'étude, his taste for learning, his assiduity in his studies.

2. pl. assiduities, assiduous attentions : often taken in an ill sense. Je n'aime pas les assiduités de mon fils dans cette maison, I do not like my son's assiduities in that house. Avoir des assiduités auprès d'une femme, to pay assiduous attentions to a woman.

ASSIDÛMENT, asidumâ*n*-t, adv. assiduously : sedulously; diligently, industriously.

ASSIÉGÉ, E, asiézhé, pa. p. 1. besieged; 2. beset. Nous sommes assiégés de soucis, we are beset with cares.

3. sm. person besieged. Les assiégés, the besieged.

ASSIÉGEANT, E, asiézhâ*n*-t, ânt', adj. 1. besieging; 2. sm. besieger. Troupes assiégeantes, besieging troops. Parmi les assiégeants, among the besiegers.

ASSIÉGER, asiézhé-r, [Low Lat. : assediâre; Lat. : ad, to; sedes, siege], va. (J'assiège, nous assiégeons; j'assiégeais; j'assiégeai; j'assiégerai; j'assiégerais.) 1. to besiege : a) to lay siege to; b) to beset, to environ; c) to throng or crowd round, to wait or linger about. a) On va — cette ville, they are going to besiege that town. Le roi fut assiégé dans sa capitale, the king was besieged in his capital. b) L'incendie nous assiégeait de tous les côtés, the conflagration (or fire) surrounded us (was approaching us) on all sides. Mille ennuis m'assiègent, a thousand cares besiege (or beset) me. c) La foule assiégeait les portes du tribunal, the crowd thronged round the doors of the tribunal. Je n'assiège pas la porte des grands, I do not wait about the doors of the great. Boss. III. Vêtur. 3.

2. to beset, to dun, to importune, to harass. Les créanciers l'assiègent à toute heure, his creditors beset (dun, or importune) him at all hours.

ASSIETTE, asyèt', [verbal noun from asseoir; Lat. : ad, to; situs, placé], sf. 1. position : a) posture of a person or animal; b) resting-place, support, firm placing (of one thing on another). Ce malade ne peut se tenir longtemps dans la même —, this patient cannot remain long in the same position (or posture). Déranger quelqu'un de son —, to derange a person from his position. L'— d'une pierre, d'une poutre, to firm placing (or laying) of a stone, of a beam. — de pied, firmness of foot, good foot-hold.

2. seat : balance of the body, in riding on horseback. Perdre son —, to lose one's seat (or balance). Un bon cavalier ne perd jamais son —, a good rider never loses his balance.

3. Naut. trim. L'— d'un vaisseau dépend en grande partie de son arrimage, the trim of a vessel chiefly depends on the stowing of the cargo.

4. site, situation. L'— de cette maison, de cette ville est très avantageuse, the site (situation, or position) of that house, of that town is very advantageous. Choisir l'— d'un camp, to choose the site of a camp.

5. assessment : the act of laying taxes on persons or property; 6. basis (of taxation). L'— d'un impôt, the assessment (levying or imposition) of a tax. L'— la plus solide de l'impôt c'est la propriété foncière, real estate (land and houses) is the most assured basis of taxation. Faire l'— des impôts, to assess taxes. Changer l'— des impôts, to change the incidence of taxation. L'— d'une rente, the property (real or personal) on which an annuity is charged.

7. Woods and Forests. Faire l'— des ventes, to mark out lots of wood for sale.

8. state (of the mind) : temper, humour. Il n'a pas l'esprit dans une bonne —, his mind is not in its proper state, in its usual equilibrium; he is rather out of sorts; he is not quite himself. N'être point dans son — ordinaire, not to be in one's usual temper (or disposition of mind) to be unhinged; (or out of sorts). Tant il est aisé de démonter l'esprit de son — ordinaire, so easy is it to throw the mind off its usual balance.

9. plate : a) small dish to eat of; b) plateful. — d'or, d'argent, de porcelaine, de terre, a gold, silver, porcelain, earthenware plate. — plate, creuse, a shallow plate, a deep plate. — à potage, soup plate. — de dessert, a dessert plate. — Assiettes blanches, clean plates. — de fruits, plate (or dish) of fruit. Manger une — de soupe, to eat a plate (or plateful) of soup. Piquer l'— to dine out habitually, to be a spunger

Piqueur d'—, ou pique—, diner-out, spunger, trencher-friend, hanger-on. Son — dîne pour lui, he pays whether present or not.

ASSIETTÉE, asyètè, sf. plateful. Manger une — de soupe, to eat a plateful of soup.

ASSIGNABLE, asinyabl', adj. assignable. Une durée sans limite —, a duration without assignable limit.

ASSIGNANT, E, asinyân-t, ânt', smf. plaintiff (in a law-suit).

ASSIGNAT, asinya, sm. 1. assignment (of property to secure the payment of an annuity, etc.); 2. assignat : paper-money issued during the first French revolution.

ASSIGNATION, asinyâsyôn; in poet. siôn, sf. 1. assignment : assignation, transfer of property for the payment of a debt, etc.; 2. cheque (on a banker), draft, order for the payment of money; 3. Law-t. writ of summons, writ : notice of action in a civil court; summons (before a police court); subpœna (to compel the appearance of witness). Faire donner une —, to serve notice of action; to serve a summons (on a defendant), a subpœna (on a witness).

4. assignation : appointment to meet; 5. rendezvous : place of meeting.

ASSIGNÉ, E, asinyé, pa. p. 1. charged (on), secured (on); 2. summoned, cited (before a tribunal, as defendant); 3. subpœnaed (as a witness); 4. appointed, fixed. Une rente assignée sur un bien-fonds, an annuity charged on landed estate; a rent-charge. Être — sur un bon, sur un mauvais fonds, to be charged on a good, a bad security. Ce payement est — sur les brouillards de la Seine, that payment has no better security than a draft on Aldgate pump. Se trouver au lieu —, to be present at the place appointed.

5. s. defendant (in any civil cause).

ASSIGNER, asinyé-r, Lat. : assignāre; ad, to; signum, sign], va. 1. to assign : a) to charge on, to make payable at, out of, or by; b) to indicate, to specify, to determine; c) to fix, to appoint; d) to allot, to allow, to attribute. a) Sur quel fonds cette dépense sera-t-elle assignée ? on what fund will that expenditure be charged ? Il m'assigna une rente sur ses biens patrimoniaux, he assigned me a rent-charge on his paternal estates. b) — une différence, to assign a difference. — les motifs d'une détermination, to assign the reasons of a determination. c) — un jour pour le payement d'une dette, to assign (fix or appoint) a day for the payment of a debt. — des limites à, to assign (or fix) limits to. d) — à chacun son rang, sa tâche, to assign to each his rank, his task. — un traitement, to assign a salary (to a person).

2. Law-t. to serve a writ (or notice of action) on, to cite (before a court of law); to summon (before a police tribunal); to subpœna (a witness). Faire —, to serve a writ on, to give notice of action to, to summon. Plusieurs témoins furent assignés, several witnesses were subpœnaed.

ASSIMILABILITÉ, asimilabilité. sf. Physiol. assimilability (of food). — des substances, the assimilability of substances.

ASSIMILABLE, asimilabl', adj. assimilable : a) that may be likened, comparable; b) Physiol. capable of assimilation.

ASSIMILATEUR, TRICE, assimilatœr, tris', adj. assimilating, assimilative. Organes assimilateurs, assimilating organs. Forces assimilatrices, assimilative (or assimilating) powers.

ASSIMILATIF, IVE, asimilatif, iv', adj. assimalitive.

ASSIMILATION, asimilàsyôn, sf. assimilation : a) comparison, the act of likening or comparing; b) Physiol. the faculty of appropriating substances for nutrition, possessed by all organized beings, whether plants or animals; the act of assimilating; c) Gram. the euphonic change of the final consonant of a prefix, as illisible instead of in-lisible. L'— n'est qu'un des actes de la nutrition, assimilation is only one of the acts of nutrition.

ASSIMILÉ, E, asimilé, pa. p. assimilated; a) compared; b) appropriated (as a means of nutrition). Alexandre — par Boileau à un fou furieux, Alexander, compared by Boileau to a raving madman. Substances assimilées, assimilated substances.

ASSIMILER, asimilé-r, [Lat. : assimilāre; ad, to; similis, like], va. to assimilate : a) to bring to the likeness (of) or to a resemblance (with); b) to liken, to compare (to); c) Physiol. to appropriate extraneous substances as a means of nutrition, said both of animals and plants. a) L'ivrognerie assimile l'homme à la brute, drunkenness assimilates man to the brute. b) Comment — des choses si contraires ? how assimilate (liken or compare) things so different ? c) L'animal ne peut s'— que les substances animales ou végétales, animals can assimilate only animal or vegetable substances. La plante seule peut s'— les matières inorganiques, plants alone can assimilate inorganic substances.

ASSIMILER (s'), v. refl. to assimilate one's self : a) to bring one's self to the likeness (of); b) to liken or compare one's self (to); c) Physiol. to assimilate, to be assimilated. a) Par ses vices cet homme s'assimile à la brute, by his vices that man assimilates himself to (degrades himself to the level of) the brute. b) Pensez-vous que j'ose m' — à ce grand homme ? do you think that I dare compare myself to that great man ? c) Les substances nutritives s'assimilent plus ou moins facilement, nutritive substances assimilate (or are assimilated) with greater or less facility.

ASSIS, E, asi, iz', pa. p. V. ASSEOIR. 1. seated, sitting (of persons or animals); 2. seated, situated (of things); 3. laid, imposed (as taxes). — dans un bon fauteuil seated in a good arm-chair. Ville assise sur une colline, a town seated (or situated) on a hill. On gagne peu par des impôts mal assis, little is gained by taxes injudiciously imposed.

ASSIS, sm. sitting. Voter par — et levé, to vote by sitting down or standing up.

ASSISE, asiz', [asseoir], sf. 1. Mason. course (of stones or bricks). Maçonnerie par assises, coursed masonry, coursed work. Assises réglées, regular courses (all of the same height, with joints properly broken). Mur sans assises, a rubble wall. Une — de parpaings, a thorough course. — de moteur. Autom. engine foundation or bed.

2. Geol. stratum (of rocks, etc.); 3. Geol. layer : said of the courses of denuded rocks in mountains which do not rise with a regular slope; 4. Law-t. court. V. ASSISES.

ASSISES, asiz', sf. pl. 1. assizes, court of assize ! a) a court for the trial of persons accused of murder, felony, etc.; b) a code of laws; 2. (in feudal times) court-leet, court-baron. Être renvoyé devant la cour d'—, to be committed for trial at the assizes. Les assises de Jérusalem, the assizes of Jerusalem : a code of laws enacted by the crusaders for the kingdom of Jerusalem. Tenir ses — dans une maison, dans une société, to be the oracle of a house, of a company.

ASSISTANCE, asistâns', sf. 1. presence, attendance : personal presence (of a public functionary, etc.). Droit d'—, fee for attendance, attendance fees.

2. auditory, audience, company : persons present at any place; 3. congregation (of persons assembled for public worship). Son discours ravit toute l'—, his speech delighted the whole auditory. Le prédicateur toucha l'—, the preacher moved (or affected) the congregation.

4. council (of a religious order); 5. (among the Jesuits) country or province confided by the general of the order to the management of an assistant.

6. assistance : aid, help, succour. Donner ou prêter — à quelqu'un, to give or lend assistance to a person. A qui refusa-t-elle jamais son —, to whom did she ever refuse assistance ? — publique, relief board, poor-law relief : in France, a constitued body for administering to the relief of the poor.

ASSISTANT, E, asistân-t, ânt, adj. assistant. Prêtre —, assistant priest. Évêque —, assistant bishop.

ASSISTANT, E, smf. assistant : a) a monk or nun who assists a superior in the exercise of his or her functions; b) one who accompanies an inmate of a religious house in interviews with externs.

ASSISTANTS, sm. pl. by-standers, lookers-on : persons present. Un des assistants, one of the bystanders, a looker-on.

ASSISTÉ, E, assité, pa. p. 1. attended : accompanied; 2. assisted : aided, helped; 3. relieved : receiving relief. — de son avocat, attended by his counsel. — de vos conseils, assisted by your advice. Les pauvres qui ne sont pas assistés, the poor who do not receive public relief. Hospice des enfants assistés, the Foundling Hospital (of Paris).

ASSISTER, asisté-r, [Lat. : assistĕre, to stand by : formed from ad, to and sistĕre), vn. 1. to attend, to be present (at). Il assistait en personne, he attended (or was present) in person. — à un mariage, to be present at a wedding. Tout Paris assista à ses funérailles, all Paris was present at (or attended) his funeral. — à la messe, to attend mass. — à un jugement, to be on the bench during a trial (to be one of the judges).

2. to witness. Racine, Molière, Boileau ont assisté aux orages de la Fronde, Racine, Molière, Boileau witnessed the troubles of the Fronde.

ASSISTER, va. 1. to assist : a) to aid, to help; b) to succour or relieve (a person in distress). J'assistais comme avocat le prévenu, I assisted the accused as his counsel. Dieu vous assiste ! God help you !

2. to attend, to accompany. Se faire — de, 1. to obtain, to procure the assistance (of a friend, etc.); 2. to procure the attendance of (an official). Il était assisté du commissaire de police, he was attended (accompanied) by the commissary of police. Il se fit — par des sergents de ville, he obtained the assistance of some police officers. — un malade à la mort, to attend a dying person (as spiritual adviser).

ASSOCIABLE, asosiabl', adj. associable, sociable.

ASSOCIATION, assosiâsyôn, sf. association : a) union of persons for a particular purpose; b) Comm. partnership, copartners; c) confederacy, league; d) combination (of things); e) connection (of ideas). — religieuse, scientifique, littéraire, religious, scientific, literary association. — commerciale, trading company. Acte, contrat d'—, deed of partnership, partnership deed. — illicite, an illicit (unauthorized) association. — de malfaiteurs, band, confederacy of criminals or evil-doers. — en participation, Comm., joint adventure. Les ouvriers forment des associations pour se secourir, the working classes form associations (societies, clubs, or unions) for mutual assistance. [Fig. :] L'— des mots, des idées, the association of words, of ideas.

ASSOCIÉ, E, asocié, sm. 1. associate : a) companion ; b) an honorary member of certain learned societies ; c) confederate (in a good or ill sense) ; d) accomplice (in an ill sense).

2. Comm. partner, copartner. J'ai pris un —, I have taken a partner. — commanditaire, a sleeping partner. — principal, head partner, principal, senior partner (of a trading firm).

ASSOCIER, assosié-r, [Lat. : associāre : ad, to ; socius, a companion], va. 1. to make (a person) one's associate, partner, colleague, companion ; accomplice (in an ill sense). Il associa son fils à son commerce, he made his son partner in his business, he took his son into partnership. Il refusa de m'— à cette noble entreprise, he refused to make me his associate in that noble entreprise. S'— quelqu'un, to make a person one's colleague, partner, assistant.

2. to make (a person) participate or share (in a good or ill sense) ; to make (a person) a party to (generally in an ill sense). Associez les pauvres à vos biens, make the poor participators of (or sharers in) your wealth. A ses secrets desseins il voulut m'—, he wished to make me a party to his secret designs.

3. (in speaking of academies, etc.), to elect as an associate (or member). L'Académie ne pouvait manquer de s'— un écrivain aussi distingué, the (French) Academy could not fail to elect so eminent an author as one of its members.

4. to associate : to link together, to connect, to join, to unite. C'est l'intérêt qui associe ces deux individus, self-interest is the link which unites those two individuals. — l'agréable avec l'utile, to associate or join the agreeable with the useful. Il associe avec facilité ses idées, he easily associates (links together or connects) his ideas.

ASSOCIER (s'), v. refl. 1. to become (a person's) associate, partner, colleague, assistant, companion, etc., to enter into partnership with. Nous nous sommes associés pour cette entreprise, we have entered into partnership for that enterprise. Quoi ! vous vous associez à un pareil homme ? what ! do you enter into partnership with such a man ? Les animaux qui s'étaient associés avec le lion, the animals who had entered into partnership with the lion.

2. to share, to join, participate (or take part) in, to be a party to, a sharer or participator in. Nous nous associerons à votre fuite, we will share (or join you in) your flight.

3. to associate (with) : to frequent, to keep company (or make friends) with. Il ne faut pas qu'un jeune homme s'associe avec toute espèce de gens, a young man must not associate with all sorts of people.

4. to be associated or connected with each other ; to join, to go together, to harmonise with each other. Voilà deux mots qui s'associent bien, those two words go well together. Ces deux idées ne peuvent s'—, those two ideas cannot be associated (or do not harmonize) with each other.

ASSOLEMENT, asol'mân-t, sm. 1. Agr. rotation of crops ; 2. dividing of a farm into soles (distinct portions) to receive a succession of different crops. — triennal avec jachère, two corn-crops and a fallow. — triennal, the three shift (or course) rotation : peas beans or roots, wheat, barley or oats, and clover. — quadriennal, the four course rotation : consisting of corn, roots, and green crops alternately. — simultané, any white crop with clover.

ASSOLER, asolé-r, [à ; sole], va. Agr. to divide a farm into soles (distinct portions) for the rotation of crops, to apply the rotation system to (a farm).

ASSOMBRIR, asônbrir, [à ; sombre], va. 1. to make sombre, to overshade : to darken, to obscure ; 2. Fig. to throw a gloom over. Ces arbres assombrissent notre maison, these trees overshade (or darken our house. Les nuages assombrissent le ciel the clouds darken, obscure the sky.

ASSOMBRIR (s'), v. refl. to become or get sombre or gloomy ; to be overcast (in speaking of the sky). Le ciel s'assombrit, the sky is overcast, has become gloomy. Dans la maladie les idées s'assombrissent, in sickness one's thoughts become gloomy.

ASSOMMANT, E, asomân-t, ânt', adj. 1. knocking-down, crushing (in speaking of maces, clubs and other blunt weapons) ; 2. overwhelming, overpowering ; 2. tiresome, tedious, boring. La masse antique était une arme assommante, the ancient mace was a skull-crushing weapon. Travail —, overwhelming toil or labour. Bavard —, tiresome babbler or prater.

ASSOMMEMENT, asomœmân-t, sm. knocking down, slaughtering (of an ox, etc.)

ASSOMMER, asomé-r, [à ; somme], va. 1. to knock down, to fell to the ground, to knock on the head : to kill with a club or other blunt weapon. — un bœuf, to knock down (or slaughter) an ox.

2. to beat or belabour unmercifully.

3. to stun, to crush, to overwhelm. La mort de mon ami m'a assommé, the death of my friend has stunned (or overwhelmed) me. Il croyait m'— avec saint Augustin et les autres Pères, he exspected to crush (or overwhelm) me with St. Augustine and the other Fathers.

4. to pester, to bore, to weary out, to tire to death. Ce saint homme qui m'assommait de latin, this holy man, who pestered (or bored) me with Latin. Je suis assommé de ses bavardages, I am bored with his babbling.

ASSOMMEUR, asomœr, sm. Butch. slaughter-man : one who knocks down or kills oxen.

ASSOMMOIR, asomwâr, sm. 1. bludgeon, loaded cane ; 2. life-preserver : a short elastic weapon loaded at the end, often carried for self-defence ; 3. pole-axe (for slaughtering oxen) ; 4. dead-fall : a sort of trap for destroying stoats, weasels, etc. ; 5. low bar, wine-shop. Coup d'—, a knock-down blow (with a bludgeon, etc.) Fig. stunning or crushing blow (said of any great affliction or calamity).

ASSOMPTIF, VE, asônptif, iv', adj. Log. and Herald. assumptive : assumed. Proposition assomptive, assumptive proposition. Armes assomptives, assumptive arms.

ASSOMPTION, asônpsyôn ; in poet. siôn, Lat. : assumptio], sf. 1. assumption : a)] Log. the second proposition of a syllogism ; b) any thing taken for granted.

2. Assumption : a) taking up to heaven, said especially of the Virgin Mary ; b) the festival commemorating that even (Aug. 15) ; c) a painting representing it.

ASSONANCE, asonâns', sf. assonance : an imperfect rhyme, as perde and superbe, in which the last consonant differs.

ASSONANT, E, asonân-t, ant', [Lat. : assonans, from assonāre, ad to ; sonāre, to sound], adj. assonant : resembling, but not identical, in sound.

ASSORTI, E, asòrti, pa. p. ; adj. 1. assorted. Un mari et une femme bien assortis, a well-matched husband and wife ; a well-assorted couple. Ce mariage lui paraissait mal assorti de toutes les manières, this marriage appeared to him ill-assorted (or unsuitable) in every respect. Couleurs mal assorties, ill-assorted colours.

2. matched, paired. Un attelage bien —, a well-matched team (of horses, etc.).

3. stocked : having an assortment of goods. Magasin bien —, well-stocked shop.

ASSORTIMENT, asortimân-t, sm. assortment : a) suitableness, harmony, matching of things put together ; b) set, collection of things which usually go together ; c) diversified stock of the same kind of goods. L'— de ces couleurs est agréable, the harmony of those colours is pleasing. Un — de diamants, de bijoux, de vaisselle, a set of diamonds, of jewels, of plate. — d'outils, a set of tools. Ce marchand a un bel — de soieries, de dentelles, this tradesman has a fine assortment of silks, of lace. [In the book-trade :] Livres d'—, books purchased for sale : as opposed to livres de fonds, which a bookseller publishes himself.

ASSORTIR, asòrtir, [à ; sort], va. [J'assortis, nous assortissons ; j'assortissais ; j'assortis ; j'assortirai ; assortissons ; que j'assortisse ; assortissant.] 1. to assort : to select and bring together things in some respects alike or suited to each other ; sometimes said of persons also. — des couleurs, des fleurs, to assort colours, flowers : to select such as harmonize with each other.

2. to match, to suit. Son esprit et son humeur étaient faits pour — le reste, his mind and temper were made to match the rest. Hamilt. Gramm. 4. — des chevaux, to match or pair horses (for a carriage).

3. to stock (a shop) ; to supply with an assortment of goods. — un magasin, to stock a shop. Allez chez ce marchand, il vous assortira, go to that shop-keeper, he will suit you.

ASSORTIR, vn. to match, to suit : to harmonize with. Ce tableau n'assortit point à son pendant, this painting does not match (harmonize with) its pendant (fellow).

ASSORTIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to be assorted, to harmonize with, to suit. Ces couleurs s'assortissent bien, those colours are well assorted, harmonize well. [Fig. :] Leurs humeurs ne s'assortissent point, their tempers do not harmonize (or agree), are ill assorted.

2. to supply, provide or to suit one's self (with). Je m'assortis de quelques livres, I provided myself with a few books.

ASSORTISSANT, E, asòrtisân-t, ânt', adj. suitable, suited (to or for) ; matching, suiting ; harmonizing, in harmony or keeping (with). Cette doublure n'est pas assortissante à la robe, this lining is not in harmony with (does not match) the dress. On prend des manières assortissantes aux choses qu'on dit, people assume manners suited to (or harmonizing with) what they say. J.-J. Rouss. Hél. 11, 21.

ASSORTISSOIRE, asòrtisswar, sf. box of various articles assorted.

ASSOTER, asoté-r, [à ; sot], va. to infatuate : to befool, to make a fool of.

ASSOTER (s'), v. refl. to be (or become) infatuated. Il s'est assoté d'une femme qui le ruinera, he has become infatuated with a woman who will ruin him.

ASSOUCHEMENT, asoush'mân-t, [souche], sm. Arch. base (of the triangle of a pediment).

ASSOUPI, E, asoupi, pa. p. 1. rendered sleepy or drowsy ; 2. allayed, lulled (as pain) ; 3. appeased, quieted, hushed (as quarrels, etc.) ; 4. hushed up (as a scandal, etc.) ; 5. adj. drowsy, sleepy, somnolent, heavy with sleep ; sleepy-headed, drowsy-headed. Si dans notre querelle à jamais assoupie, if in our quarrel for ever hushed. Volt. Tancr. 1. 2. L'affaire n'est pas tout à fait assoupie, the affair is not quite hushed up (not quite forgotten). Il n'est qu'—, he is only dozing.

ASSOUPIR, asoupir, [Lat. : assopire], va. [J'assoupis, j'assoupissais ; j'assoupis ; j'assoupirai ; assoupissant.] 1. to render or make drowsy. Les fumées du vin l'assoupissent, the fumes of wine make him drowsy. Un livre ennuyeux assoupit le lecteur, a dry (or dull) book makes the reader drowsy (sends the reader to sleep).

2. to allay, to lull. Les narcotiques assoupissent la douleur, narcotics allay (or lull) pain.

3. to appease, to quiet, to hush. — une querelle, to appease a quarrel. — un bruit, to hush (or silence) a rumour, a report.

4. to hush up. On cherchait à — cette affaire, they endeavoured to hush up that affair (or to keep that affair secret).

ASSOUPIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to become drowsy ; 2. to doze, to slumber, to take a nap ; 3. to be lulled or allayed (as pain) ; 4. to diminish, to die away, to be hushed up (as a scandal, etc.). Il s'assoupit chaque jour après son dîner, he takes a nap (or doze) every day after dinner. Sa douleur va bientôt s'assoupir, his pain will soon be lulled.

ASSOUPISSANT, E, asoupisân-t, ânt', adj. soporific : causing sleep, sleepy, sleeping. Potion assoupissante, sleeping (or sleepy) draught. Remède —, soporific (or sleeping) medicine, a soporific. Lecture assoupissante, sleepy reading : reading that sends one to sleep.

ASSOUPISSEMENT, asoupis'mân-t, sm. 1. drowsiness, sleepiness ; 2. slumber ; 3. Fig. supineness, carelessness, indolence. Je tombai dans un profond —, I fell into a deep slumber. Il est tombé dans un honteux —, he has sunk into disgraceful supineness. L'— d'une querelle, d'un scandale, the appeasing of a quarrel, the hushing up of a scandal.

ASSOUPLIR, asouplir, [à ; souple], va. 1. to supple : a) to make supple, soft, or flexible ; b) Fig. to make yielding, compliant, submissive ; 2. to train (as persons or animals) ; to break (or break in) horses. — une étoffe, to supple a textile fabric. — un caractère violent, to supple (or tame down) a violent character.

ASSOUPLIR (s'), v. refl. to become supple, soft or flexible, yielding or compliant. Le cuir s'assouplit dans l'eau, leather becomes supple in water. Son caractère altier n'a pu s'—, his haughty spirit could not be made to yield.

ASSOURDIR, asourdir, [à ; sourd], va. 1. to deafen : to make deaf, to stun (said of noises), to prevent from hearing ; 2. to deaden (the sound of a bell, etc., by muffling). Trop de bruit nous assourdit, too much noise deafens us, prevents us from hearing. Je suis assourdi par le bruit, I am deafened by the noise.

3. Paint. to tone down (colours that are too glaring) ; 4. Naut. to muffle (oars).

ASSOURDISSANT, E, asourdisân-t, ânt', adj. deafening. Bruit —, deafening noise.

ASSOURDISSEMENT, asourdis'mân-t, sm. 1. deafness, dulness of hearing ; 2. din, deafening noise. Cet — dura longtemps, this deafness lasted for a long time. N'ai-je pas assez de l'— des flots ? have I not enough with the din of the waves ? V. Hugo, Orient. 35.

ASSOUVI, E, assouvi, pa. p. satiated : a) satisfied, sated ; b) gorged, glutted. Sa faim n'est pas encore assouvie, his hunger is not yet satiated. Son ambition n'étant pas encore assouvie, his ambition not being yet satiated, his ambition being still unsated. — de sang, de carnage, sated or glutted with blood, with carnage.

ASSOUVIR, asouvir, [Low Lat. : assopire], va. [J'assouvis ; j'assouvissais ; j'assouvis ; j'assouvirai ; assouvissant.] to satiate : a) to sate, to glut, to gorge ; b) to sate, to gratify, to satisfy. Il ne peut — sa faim, he cannot satiate, satisfy his hunger. — sa cupidité, son avarice, to satiate (or satisfy) one's cupidity, one's avarice. — sa colère, to gratify one's anger. — ses yeux d'une chose, to sate one's eyes with a thing ; (in an ill sense) to gloat over a thing.

ASSOUVIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to satiate one's self ; 2. to be satiated ; 3. to gorge one's self ; 4. to be gorged or glutted. Cette bête vorace ne peut s'—, this voracious beast can never be satiated. S'— de sang, de carnage, to sate one's self with blood, with carnage. Ils ne peuvent s'— de l'hyperbole, they can never be satiated with hyperbole (can never have enough of hyperbole).

ASSOUVISSEMENT, assouvis'mân-t, sm. satiating : a) glutting ; b) satisfying, gratifying, gratification. L'— de la faim, the satiating (or satisfying) of hunger. L'— des désirs, des passions, the gratifying of desires, of the passions.

ASSUJÉTIR, ASSUJETTIR, asuzh-étir, [à ; sujet], va. 1. to subject : to subdue, to reduce to subjection. — une province, to subject (or subdue) a province. Les Gaulois furent assujettis par les Romains, the Gauls were subjected by the Romans. Carthage fut assujettie aux Romains, Carthage was subjected to the Romans. — les passions, to subdue the passions. Il assujettissait ses désirs au joug de la raison, he subjected his desires to the yoke of reason.

2. Fig. to bind, to tie down, to confine. Les règles de l'art assujettissent l'ouvrier, the rules of art bind (or are binding on) the workman.

3. to fix, to fasten, to make fast : to tie or bind fast. — une planche, to fasten down a plank.

ASSUJETTIR (s'), v. refl. to subject one's self, to submit. S'— aux lois, to submit to the laws. S'— aux caprices de quelqu'un, to submit to the caprices of a person.

ASSUJETTISSANT, E, asuzhètisân-t, ânt', adj. requiring assiduous attention : tying, confining : said of things only. Cette profession est assujettissante, that profession requires assiduous attention.

ASSUJETTISSEMENT, asuzhètis'mân-t, sm. 1. subjection : slavery, thraldom, dependence ; 2. Fig. subjection : constraint.

ASSUMER, assumé-r, [Lat. : assumère : ad, to ; sumère, sumptum, to take], va. to assume. — (ou — sur soi) la responsabilité d'une chose, to assume (or take on one's self) the responsibility of a thing.

ASSURANCE, asurâns', sf. 1. assurance : a) certainty, certain expectation ; b) confidence, reliance, trust ; c) formal promise, protestation ; d) self-confidence, boldness, spirit ; e) insurance (against risks of any kind). On ne peut plus douter de cette nouvelle, on en a une entière —, that news can no longer be doubted, we have full assurance of it. J'ai l'—d'obtenir cette place, I have the certainty (or assurance) of obtaining that place.

b) J'ai la ferme — qu'il vous aidera, I have full confidence that he will help you. Vous pouvez prendre ce drap en toute —, you may take that cloth in full confidence.

c) Je vous donne l'— que je ferai mon possible, I give you the assurance that I will do my best.

d) Il parle avec —, he speaks boldly (or with boldness). Cet orateur n'a pas assez d'—, this speaker has not sufficient assurance (or self-confidence). Une noble —, a noble self-confidence. Une mâle —, a manly boldness.

e) — maritime, marine insurance. — mutuelle, mutual insurance. — contre la grêle, insurance against hail. — contre l'incendie, fire insurance. — sur la vie, life assurance or insurance. — contre les accidents, insurance against accidents. Compagnie d'— contre l'incendie, sur la vie, fire insurance company, life insurance (or assurance) company. Compagnie d'— mutuelle, mutual insurance company. Association d'— mutuelle, mutual assurance association. Bureau d'—, insurance-office. Courtier d'—, insurance broker. Police d'—, policy of insurance. Prime d'—, premium of insurance. Annuler une —, to cancel an insurance. Sans —, uninsured.

2. security : guarantee. Ne traitez pas si l'on ne vous donne une solide assurance, do not treat, unless they give you good security. Je vous donnerai une bonne —, I will give you ample security.

3. safety, security. Pourrais-tu dormir en — ? could you sleep in safety ? C'est ce qui fait l'— du pays, that is what constitutes the security of the country.

ASSURÉ, E, assuré, adj. 1. secure. Une retraite assurée, a secure (or safe) retreat. Un rempart —, a secure rampart.

2. sure, certain : positive, indubitable. Présage —, a sure presage. Il est — que, it is certain that. Tenez-le pour —, consider it certain. Des nouvelles assurées, positive news.

3. firm, steady. Il ira au supplice d'un pas —, he will go to execution with a firm step. Des pas mal assurés, tottering steps. D'une main mal assurée, with a trembling hand.

4. bold, confident ; (in an ill sense, and before the noun) impudent, shameless. Contenance assurée, bold mien (or bearing). Un — menteur, an impudent liar.

ASSURÉ, E, s. insured. Tous les assurés ont été indemnisés, all the insured have been indemnified.

ASSURÉMENT assurémân-t, adv. 1. assuredly : certainly, surely, to be sure ; 2. securely ; 3. boldly, confidently, with assurance. Oui, —, yes, certainly. — non, assuredly (or certainly) not. Croyez-vous qu'il pense ce qu'il dit ? — —, do you believe that he thinks what he says? — To be sure (or assuredly), I do.

ASSURER, asuré-r, [à; sûr], va. 1. to secure: a) to make firm, steady, stable, or fast, to fasten; b) to provide for the security of, to give safety to; c) to make sure; d) to guarantee.

a) — un mur qui menace ruine, to secure (or shore up) a wall which threatens to fall. — un plancher, to secure (or prop up) a floor. — un vaisseau avec ses ancres, to secure a vessel with her anchors. Le vent agite ce volet, il faut l'—, the wind blows that shutter about, it must be fastened. — une table, to steady a table.

b) Il assure sa vie par cette précaution, he secures his life by that precaution. — sa fortune, sa puissance, to secure one's fortune, one's power.

c) Il s'assura par là votre amitié, he thereby secured your friendship. Elles se sont assuré d'avance une loge à l'Opéra, they secured (or engaged) beforehand a box at the Opera. — des vivres et des munitions à l'armée, to secure (or make sure of) provisions and ammunition for the army.

d) Ce traité assure la paix, that treaty secures (guarantees or is a guarantee of) peace. Ce mariage assure le bonheur de sa fille, this marriage secures his daughter's happiness.

2. to reassure. Un oracle m'assure, un songe me travaille, an oracle reassures me; a dream troubles me.

3. to settle (on). Il a assuré par son testament tous ses biens à son neveu, by his will he has settled all his property on his nephew. — à quelqu'un une rente, une pension, to settle an annuity, a pension on a person.

4. to assert, to declare. Il assure un mensonge aussi hardiment que la vérité, he asserts a falsehood as boldly as the truth. Cette femme assure qu'elle n'a que vingt ans, that woman declares that she is only twenty.

5. to assure. Assurez-le de ma reconnaissance de mon respect, assure him of my gratitude, of my respect. Vous pouvez l'— que je lui suis très dévoué, you may assure him that I am most devoted to him. Nous sommes assurés du succès, we are assured (or certain) of success. Je vous en assure, I assure you of it. [In a neuter sense:] Je lui assurais que..., I assured him that... J'ai assuré à votre ami qu'il n'y avait rien à craindre, I assured your friend that there was nothing to fear.

6. to insure: to secure against risk. J'ai assuré (ou fait assurer) mon navire, I have insured my ship. La compagnie des assurances mutuelles a assuré cette maison contre l'incendie, the mutual insurance company has insured this house againt fire. — pour l'aller, to insure out. — pour le retour, to insure home. Maison assurée contre l'incendie, house insured against fire. Je suis assuré, I am insured (or I have insured my house, etc.). Cette poutre est mal assurée, that beam is not secured (or is badly fixed or fastened).

7. Naut. — son pavillon, to fire a gun on hoisting a ship's national colours.

8. Horsem. — un cheval, to train a horse to go through all his movements with ease and precision. — la bouche d'un cheval, to get a horse a good mouth, to accustom a horse to the bit.

ASSURER (s'), v. refl. 1. to secure one's self: a) to make firm or stable; b) to take precautions (against). a) Assurez-vous bien dans cette position, secure yourself well in that position. Il faut d'abord vous — sur votre cheval, you must first get a good seat on horseback. b) Il s'assura contre cet événement, he secured himself against that event.

2. (with dans, en, sur, à) to rely on, to put trust (or one's trust) in, to trust in or to. Malheur à celui qui ne s'assure que dans ses richesses, woe to him who trusts only in his riches. S'— en quelqu'un, to rely on (or trust in) a person. Celui qui s'assure en son innocence, he who trusts to his innocence. Ne vous assurez point sur ce cœur inconstant, do not trust (or put your trust, in that inconstant heart. Rac. Mithr. I. 5. Je m'assure encore aux bontés de mon frère, I still rely on my brother's kindness. Racine. Faut-il que je m'assure au rapport de mes yeux? must I trust to the evidence of my own eyes? Mol. D. Gar. IV. 7.

3. to ascertain, to satisfy (or convince) one's self. Je m'assurerai s'il a dit la vérité, I will ascertain whether he has told the truth. Il s'est assuré que tout cela était faux, he has satisfied himself that all that was false.

4. to feel assured, to be certain, to make, to be, or feel sure. Assurez-vous que je viendrai, be sure that I will come. Qui peut s'— d'être toujours heureux? who can be (or make) sure of being always happy? La Font. V. 17.

5. (with de) to seize, to make one's self master of, to take possession of; to secure, seize, or arrest (a person). Il s'assura de cette ville, he made himself master of that town, he took (or secured) possession of that town. Ils s'assurent d'une barque, they get hold (or possession) of a boat.

6. (with de) to secure the aid or support of. Il faut vous — d'un journal accrédité, you must secure the support of an influential newspaper. S'— de la faveur du préfet, to secure the prefect's favour.

ASSUREUR, assurœr, sm. 1. insurer; 2. underwriter: one who signs a marine insurance policy.

ASSYRIE, asiri, sf. Geog. Assyria.

ASSYRIEN, ENNE, asiriœn, en, adj. Assyrian.

ASSYRIOLOGIE, asiriolozhi, [Assyrie: Gr.: λόγος, discourse], sf. assyriology; the science of Assyrian antiquities.

ASTARTE, astarte, sf. 1. Myth. Astarte: a Syrian goddess; 2. Zool. astarte: a genus of mollusks.

ASTATIQUE, astatik', [Gr.: ἄστατος, unstable], adj. Phys. astatic. Aiguille —, astatic needle.

ASTER, astèr, [Gr.: ἀστήρ, star], sm. Bot. aster, starwort.

ASTÉRIE, astéri, sf. 1. Zool. asterias, starfish; 2. Min. star-stone, asteria, asteriated sapphire. — fossile, asteriatite.

ASTÉRISME, astérism', sm. Astron. constellation.

ASTÉRISQUE, asterisk', sm. Print. asterisk (*).

ASTERNAL, E, astèrnal, al', [Gr.: ἀ, neg. + στέρνον, the chest], adj. Anat. asternal: said of the ribs which do not meet the sternum.

ASTÉROÏDE, astéroïd', [Gr.: ἀστήρ, star: εἶδος, form], sm. 1. Astron. asteroid or planetoid: a small planet; 2. Meteorol. aerolite.

ASTHÉNIE, asténi, [Gr.: ἀ, neg.; σθένος, strength], sf. Med. asthenia, debility.

ASTHÉNIQUE, asténik', adj. Med. asthenic.

ASTHMATIQUE, asmatik, [asthme], adj. 1. Med. asthmatic, asthmatical; 2. (substantively) asthmatic.

ASTHME, asm', [Gr.: ἆσθμα, from ἄημι, to breathe].

ASTI, asti, ASTIC, astik, sm. 1. Shoem. longstick: an tool made of bone, wood, or metal, to smooth the surface of leather; 2. Technol. polisher, polishing-stick.

ASTICOT, astiko, sm. [ety. unknown], gentle: flesh maggot used for bait.

ASTICOTER, astikoté-r, va. Colloq. to tease, to plague, to annoy.

ASTIQUER, astiké-r, [astic], va. 1. to smooth, to polish; 2. Colloq. to trim up (one's person).

ASTOME, astom', [Gr.: ἀ, neg, στόμα, mouth], adj. Nat. Hist. astomous, astomatous: having no mouth.

ASTRACAN, ASTRAKAN, astrakân, sm. Astracan lamb's fur.

ASTRAGALE, astragal', [Gr.: ἀστράγαλος, jointure], sm. 1. astragal: a) Arch. a semicircular moulding; b) Milit. a bead or convex moulding on cannon; c) Black-sm. convex bar on the top of an iron balustrade.

2. astrogalus: a) Anat. the ankle-bone; b) Bot. the sweet milk-vetch, wild liquorice.

ASTRAL, E, astral, al', adj. astral. Influences astrales, astral influences. Année astrale, sidereal year.

ASTRE, astr', [Lat.: astrum; Gr.: ἀστήρ], sm. 1. any heavenly body: sun, moon, star, planet, comet; 2. pl. skies; 3. Astrol. planet, star. L'— du jour, the orb of day, the sun. — de la nuit, the orb of night, the moon. Votre gloire montera aux astres, your glory will reach the skies. Fén. Tél. II. Sous quel — faut-il que je sois né? under what planet must I have been born? Racine, Mithr. I. 2. — bénin, benignant planet or star. Il est né sous un — malheureux, he was born under an unlucky planet. Consulter les astres, to consult the planets.

ASTRÉE, astré, [Gr.: ἀστήρ; Lat.: astræa], sf. 1. Astræa: a) Myth. the daughter of Zeus and Themis, the goddess of justice; b) Astron. the constellation now called Virgo; also the name of a minor planet (discovered by Hencke in 1845).

2. astræa: a genus of reef-building corals.

ASTREINDRE, astrandr', [Lat.: astringĕre, to bind], va. [J'astreins, nous astreignons; j'astreignais; j'astreignis; j'astreindrai; que j'astreigne; que j'astreignisse; astreignant, astreint.] 1. to bind (or tie) down, to constrain, to force, to compel; 2. to restrict, to limit. On l'astreignit à observer la règle, they compelled him to observe the rule.

ASTREINDRE (s'), v. refl. 1. to bind or tie one's self; 2. to bind or tie one's self down; to force one's self. Cet homme ne peut s'— au moindre travail, that man cannot force himself to do the least work. Il est astreint à un rude labeur, he is bound to a toilsome task.

ASTRICTIF, IVE, astriktif, iv', adj. Med. astrictive: binding, astringent.

ASTRICTION, astriksyôn, sf. astriction: a) Med. the action of an astringent; b) Surg. contraction.

ASTRINGENCE, astranzhâns', sf. Med. astringency.

ASTRINGENT, E, astranzhân-t, ânt', adj. 1. astringent; 2. sm. astringent. Le perchlorure de fer est un bon —, the perchloride of iron is a good astringent.

ASTROBOLISME, astrobolism', [Gr.: ἄστρον, star; βάλλειν, to throw], sm. Med. astrobolismus, astroblesia: a) sudden paralysis attributed to the influence of some heavenly body; b) appoplexy, sun-stroke.

ASTROÏTE, astroït, [Gr.: ἄστρον, star], sf. astroite: a) Nat. Hist. a species of madrepore: b) Mineral. asteria, starry-stone.

ASTROLABE, astrolab', [Gr.: ἄστρον, star; λαβή, apprehension], sm. astrolabe:

a) Anc. Astr. a circular instrument long since disused; b) a kind of armillary sphere; c) a celestial planisphere.

ASTROLÂTRIE, astrolatri, [Gr.: ἄστρον, star; λατρεία, worship], sf. astrolatry: star-worship.

ASTROLOGIE, astrolozhi, [Gr.: ἄστρον, star: λόγος, discourse], sf. astrology: a) formerly astronomy, or the science of the stars: b) in modern use, the chimerical art of predicting future events by the planets. — judiciaire, judicial astrology.

ASTROLOGIQUE, astrolozhik', adj. astrologic, astrological.

ASTROLOGIQUEMENT, astrolozhik'-mân-t, adv. astrologically.

ASTROLOGUE, astrolog', sm. astrologer, star-gazer: one who predicts future events. [Fig. :] Ce n'est pas un grand —, he is no conjurer.

ASTRONOME, astronom', [Gr.: ἄστρον, star; νόμος, law], sm. 1. astronomer; 2. (in a disparaging sense) star-gazer.

ASTRONOMIE, astronomi, [Gr.: ἀστρονομία], sf. astronomy: a) the science of the stars; b) a book explaining its principles. — mathématique, physique, nautique, mathematical, physical, nautical astronomy.

ASTRONOMIQUE, astronomik', adj. astronomical; astronomic (rarely used, except in poetry).

ASTRONOMIQUEMENT, astronomik'-mân-t, adv. astronomically.

ASTUCE, astus', [Lat.: astutia; astus, crafty], sf. 1. artfulness, low cunning, deepness, craft, craftiness: always in an ill sense; 2. wile: crafty, artful or cunning trick. Vous connaissez l'— de votre adversaire, you are aware of the craft (low cunning or deepness) of your adversary. Employer de petites astuces, to have recourse to crafty tricks.

ASTUCIEUSEMENT, astusiœz'mân-t, adv. artfully, cunningly, craftily.

ASTUCIEUX, EUSE, astusiœ-z, œz', adj. artful, deep, cunning, crafty, wily: always in an ill sense. Homme —, artful or crafty man. Conduite astucieuse, artful conduct. Question astucieuse, artful (or insidious) question.

ASYLE, azil, sm. V. ASILE.

ASYMÉTRIE, azimétri, [Gr.: ἀ, neg.; σὺν, with; μέτρον, measure], sf. asymmetry: a) want of proportion: b) Math. incommensurability.

ASYMÉTRIQUE, azimétrik', adj. asymmetral, assymmetrical.

ASYMPTOTE, azanptot', [Gr.: ἀ, neg.; σὺν, with; πίπτω, I fall], sf. Geom. asymptote.

ASYMPTOTIQUE, azanptotik', adj. asymptotical, asymptotic.

ATAGHAN, atagân, sm. ataghan, yataghan: a Turkish dagger.

ATALANTE, atalânt', sf. Atalanta: a) Gr. Myth. the daughter of Jasus and Clymene; b) a minor planet discovered in 1855.

ATARAXIE, arataksi, [Gr.: ἀ, neg.; τάραξις, emotion], sf. Philos., Pathol. ataraxy: apathy.

ATAVIQUE, atavik, adj. atavistic.

ATAVISME, atavism', [Lat.: atavus, avus, grandfather], sm. Physiol. and Bot. atavism: 1. reversion of certain characteristics from ancestors; 2. tendency of hybrids to return to the primitive type.

ATAXIE, ataksi, [Gr.: ἀταξία, imperfection], sf. Med. ataxy, ataxia: irregularity.

ATAXIQUE, ataksik', adj. Med. ataxic.

ATELIER, atœlyé, [attelle; O. Fr.: astelle, splinter of wood], sm. 1. workshop: factory, manufactory, mill, any place where artisans or operatives work; 2. workmen, workwomen, hands, employed in a workshop, factory, etc. L'— d'un menuisier, joiner's workshop. Les ateliers d'une imprimerie, the composing-rooms, press-rooms, etc., of a printing-office. Les ateliers d'un arsenal, the gun-factories, smitheries, laboratories of an arsenal. L'— demande une augmentation de salaire, the hands (workmen, workwomen) demand higher wages. Un chef d'—, a foreman, overseer. — de modiste, milliner's work-room.

3. studio (of an artist); 4. pupils, assistants (engaged in a studio). Personne n'est admis à visiter son —, no one is allowed to see his studio. Cet artiste a congédié tout son —, this artist has dismissed all his pupils. Il est sorti de grands artistes de l'— de ce sculpteur, that sculptor's studio has turned out some eminent artists.

5. gang (of labourers, navvies, etc., employed in earth-works).

6. Naut. shed, loft. — de construction, building-shed (in a dockyard). — de gréement rigging-loft. — des poulies, block-shed.

7. lodge (of Freemasons).

8. Astron. Apparatus Sculptoris, Sculptor's Workshop: a southern constellation.

ATERMOIEMENT, atèrmwâmân-t, sm. 1. delay, time (allowed to an embarrassed debtor by his creditors); 2. (when a percentage of the debt is remitted) compounding, composition; 3. (in an ill sense) put-off, evasion. [Written also Atermoîment.]

ATERMOYER, atèrmwâyé-r, [à; O. Fr.: termoyer; terme), va. 1. to delay, to put off (the payment of a debt); 2. vn. to put off, to delay, to procrastinate.

ATERMOYER (s'), v. refl. to compound (or arrange) with one's creditors.

ATHALAME, atalam', [Gr.: ἀ, neg.; θάλαμος, bed], adj. Bot. athalamous.

ATHALIE, atali, 1. pnf. Athaliah. 2. sf. Entom. saw-fly.

ATHALLE, atal', [Gr.: ἀ, neg.; θάλλος, leafage], adj. Bot. athallous, leafless.

ATHANASE, atanaz', pnm. Athanasius. Le symbole de saint Athanase, the Athanasian creed.

ATHÉE, até, [Gr. ἀ, neg.; Θεός, God], sm. 1. atheist; 2. adj. atheistical, atheist. C'est un —, he is an atheist. Sentiment — atheistical sentiment.

ATHÉISME, atéism, sm. atheism.

ATHÉISTIQUE, atéistik', adj. atheistical, atheistic.

ATHÉNÉE, aténé, sm. 1. Athenæum: the temple of Minerva at Athens; 2. Athenæum: a literary institution.

ATHÈNES, atèn', pn. Athens: the capital of Greece.

ATHÉNIEN, NE, aténian, èn, adj. and s. Athenian.

ATHERMANE, atèrman', ATHERMIQUE, atèrmik, [Gr.: ἀ, neg.; θερμός, heat], adj. Phys. athermanous: impervious to heat.

ATHÉROME, atérom', [Gr.: ἀθήρα, boiled], sm. Surg. atheroma: an encysted tumour.

ATHLÈTE, atlèt', [Gr.: ἀθλητής], sm. 1. athlete: wrestler; 2. Fig. champion. Les athlètes de la foi, the champions of the faith.

3. Fig. antagonist, adversary. Vous aurez affaire à un rude —, you will have to deal with a formidable antagonist (Colloq. with a rough customer).

ATHLÉTIQUE, atlétik', adj. 1. athletic: stalwart, stalworth, lusty, robust. Taille —, † stalworth build.

2. sf. athletics: athletic exercises, wrestling, etc.

ATHLÉTIQUEMENT, atlétik'-mân't, adv. athletically.

ATHLÉTISME, atlétism', sm. athleticism: devilion to athletics.

ATHORACIQUE, atorasik', [Gr.: ἀθωράκιστος], adj. Nat. Hist. athoracic: having no thorax.

ATINTER, atanté-r, va. to dress up or out, to dress showily. Une jeune fille tout atintée, a young girl showily dressed.

ATLANTE, atlânt', sm. Arch. atlas (pl. atlantes): a male figure used instead of a column.

ATLANTIDE, atlântid', pnf. Altantis: a large island supposed by the ancients to have existed in the Atlantic ocean.

ATLANTIQUE, atlântik', [Gr.: ἀτλαντικός, of Atlas], adj. 1. Altantic; 2. atlas: said of certain large-sized paper; 3. sf. the Atlantic, the Atlantic ocean.

ATLAS, atlas, pnm. 1. Altas: a range of mountains in Africa; 2. sm. atlas: a) volume of maps, plates, tables, etc.; b) Anat. the first vertebra of the neck; c) a richly embroidered Indian satin.

ATMIDOMÈTRE, atmidomètr', sm. Phys. atmometer: an instrument to measure the rate of evaporation.

ATMOMÈTRE, atmomètr', [Gr.: ἀτμίς, ιδος, vapour; μέτρον, measure].

ATMOSPHÈRE, atmosfèr', [Gr.: ἀτμός, vapour; σφαῖρα, sphère], sf. atmosphere: a) the gaseous fluids surrounding the earth, sun, planets, etc.; b) the air of a country, town, room, etc.; c) Phys. any stratum of fluid surrounding an isolated body; d) Mechan. the unit of measure for the pressure of steam, etc. a) L'— est chargée de vapeurs, the atmosphere is charged with vapours. — nuageuse, cloudy atmosphere. L'— du soleil, the atmosphere of the sun. La lune n'a pas d'—, the moon has no atmospheré. b) L'— viciée d'une salle encombrée, the vitiated atmosphere of a crowded room. [Fig. :] Une — de vice, de corruption, an atmosphere of vice, of corruption. c) L'— électrique, the electric atmosphere.

ATMOSPHÉRIQUE, atmosférik', adj. atmospheric, atmospherical. Phénomène —, atmospheric phenomenon. Pression —, atmospheric pressure. Soupape —, atmospheric valve air or vacuum valve (of a steam engine).

ATOCIE, atosi, [Gr.: ἄτοκος, sterile), sf. Med. atocy: sterility.

ATOME, atom, [Gr.: ἄτομος, not divided], sm. atom: a) an indivisible particle of matter; b) mote in a sunbeam; c) Fig. anything extremely small: iota, jot, mite, speck. — chimique, — physique, chemical atom, physical atom. Les hommes sont des atomes sur ce globe qui n'est lui-même qu'un — dans l'immensité, men are atoms on this globe which is itself but an atom in the immensity of space.

ATOMIQUE, atomik', adj. Chem. atomic, atomical. Théorie —, atomic theory. Poids —, atomic weight.

ATOMISME, atomism', sm. Philos. atomism: atomic philosophy.

ATOMISTE, atomist', sm. Philos. atomist, atomician.

ATOMISTIQUE, atomistik', adj. Chem. atomic, atomical. Théorie —, atomic theory.

ATONE, aton, [Gr.: ἄτονος], adj. want of tone, in vitality.

ATONIE, atoni, [Gr.: ἀ, neg.; τόνος, tone], sf. Med. atony: debility want of tone.

ATONIQUE, atonik', adj. Med. atonic.

ATOUR, atour, [from atourner], sm.

(chiefly used in the pl.) attire : personal ornament. Elle avait ses plus beaux atours, she was dressed in her best, in all her finery. Dame d'—, lady of the bedchamber. Femme d'—, bedchamber woman.

ATOURNER, atourné-r, [à ; tourner], va. (generally in a disparaging or ironical sense) to bedizen, to dress up or out, to deck (or trick) up or out.

ATOUT, atou, [à ; tout], sm. Card.-pl. 1. trump, trump-card, Jouer —, to play a trump, to lead trumps. Couper avec l'—, to trump (a card).

2. Fig. and Colloq. blow, slap, cuff ; 3. rebuff, reverse. Donner ou appliquer un —, to punch any one's head. Il a reçu un fameux —, he has received a stunning blow ; he has experienced a sad reverse.

ATOXIQUE, atoksik', [Gr. : ἀ, neg. ; τοξικόν, poison], adj. non-poisonous.

ATRABILAIRE, atrabilèr, ATRABILIEUX, EUSE, atrabilioe, œs, adj. 1. atrabiliary, atrabiliarious : a) Anc. Med. full of black bile ; b) in modern use, malencholic, hypochondriacal ; 2. s. atrabilarian, hypochondriac. Capsules atrabilaires, atrabiliary capsules : the renal capsules.

ATRABILE, atrabil', [Lat. : ater, atra, black ; bilis, bile, gall], sm. anc. Med. atrabilis : black bile.

ÂTRE, ât'r, [Lat. : ater, atra, black], sm. hearth : a) fireplace, hearthstone ; b) floor or bottom of an oven, kiln, blast-furnace, etc. Il n'y a rien de si froid que cet âtre, the hearth is always cold (there is never a fire) in that house.

ATRÉSIE, atrézi, [Gr. : ἀ, neg ; τρῆσις, perforation], sf. Surg. imperforation : occlusion of natural orifices.

ATRIUM, atriom', sm. Rom. Arch. atrium.

ATROCE, atros', [Lat. : atrox, ocis], adj. 1. atrocious : a) extremely cruel or wicked ; b) outrageous, heinous (in speaking of crimes, etc.) ; c) Poet. felon. Homme —, an atrocious man. Crime —, heinous (or atrocious) crime. Son âme —, his felon soul. Injure —, outrageous insult.

2. excruciating, exquisite (as pain, tortures) ; 3. most disagreeable, horrid, horrible. Il fait un temps —, it is horrid weather.

ATROCEMENT, atros'mân-t, adv. 1. atrociously : cruelly, outrageously ; 2. excruciatingly ; 3 horribly, horridly.

ATROCITÉ, atrosité, sf. 1. atrocity : a) atrociousness, atrocious character or quality ; b) anything atrocious ; 2. wickedness, cruelty, inhumanity. L'— d'une action, d'un crime, the atrocity (or atrociousness) of an action, of a crime.

ATROPHIE, atrofi, [Gr.: ἀ, neg. ; τροφή, food], sf. Med. atrophy : wasting away.

ATROPHIER, atrofié-r, va. Med. to cause atrophy. La compression atrophie les muscles, compression causes atrophy of the muscles.

ATROPHIER (s'), v. refl. Med. to be atrophied, to waste away.

ATROPINE, atropin', [Lat. : atropa, nightshade], sf. Chem. atropia : the active principle of atropa belladona.

ATROPOS, atropos, pnf. 1. Mythol. Atropos : one of the Fates ; 2. sf. Zool. atropos, death's-head moth.

ATTABALE, atabal', [Ar. : al, the ; thabol, drum], sm. attabal : a Moorish tabor or drum.

ATTABLER, atablé-r, [à ; table], va. to set (or seat) at table (for eating, drinking or playing).

ATTABLER (s'), v. refl. to seat one's self at table, to sit down to table. Ils se sont attablés pour jouer aux échecs, they sat down to play at chess.

ATTACHANT, E, atashân-t, ânt', adj. attaching, interesting, engaging. Lecture, étude attachante, interesting study, pleasant reading.

ATTACHE, atash', sf. 1. tie : anything used as a fastening ; halter (to tie up a horse, etc.) ; tether (cord or chain to fasten a horse, cow, etc., to graze) ; chain (to fasten up a dog) ; leash (to lead a dog). Mettre un chien à —, to tie (or chain) up a dog. Chien d'—, yard-dog, bandog. Prendre des chevaux à l'—. to take in horses at livery, to keep a livery stable. Payer tant pour l'—, to pay so much for stabling. [Fig. :] Être toujours à l'—, to be tied down to business, to work like a slave. Sans nulle — et sans souci, having no tie or care.

2. Anat. attachment (of a muscle) ; 3. Build. tie, brace ; 4, string, lace (of shoes) ; 5. rivet, clamp (wire used in mending earthenware) ; 6. cluster (of diamonds), diamond brooch with pendants ; 7 post (of a windmill) ; 8. Civ. Engin. fastening, fixture. Puits d'—, tie-well of a suspension-bridge.

9. Naut. Port d'—, port of register ; port where a ship is registered.

10. Fig. attachment : a) tie, bond ; b) liking, inclination. Pour cette enfant leur — est visible, their attachment to that child is evident. Il aura bien de la peine à rompre cette —, he will find great difficulty in breaking that tie (bond or connection). Il a de l'— pour sa maison, pour ses livres, he is attached to his house, to his books. Avoir de l'— au jeu, pour le jeu, à l'étude, pour l'étude, to be fond of play, of study.

11. Fig. adhesion, assent, consent. Je ne veux rien faire sans votre —, I will do nothing without your adhesion (or consent). Lettres d'—, royal letters patent sanctioning the execution of a decree, a papal bull, etc.

ATTACHÉ, E, atashé, pa. p. V. ATTACHER. 1. attached : fixed, fastened, joined, in a general sense, particular modes of fastening being expressed by the words tied, bound, (with a cord, etc.) ; chained (with a chain) ; nailed, screwed, rivetted, bolted (fastened with nails, screws, rivets, or bolts) ; sewed (with a needle), pinned (with a pin) ; stuck, pasted, glued, gummed, etc. — au poteau, chained to the stake. — au pied du mât, Naut. lashed to the foot of the mast. Il avait les mains attachées derrière le dos, his hands were tied behind his back. — à la croix, nailed to the cross. Bancs attachés avec des clous, des vis, benches fastened with nails or screws, nailed down, screwed down. [Fig. :] — à l'Église par les liens de paix et de charité, attached (or bound) to the Church by the bonds of peace and charity. Un homme — à ses pas le suivait partout, a man, dogging his steps, followed him everywhere. Tenir les yeux attachées à la terre, to keep one's eyes fixed (or rivetted) on the ground. Je restai à genoux les yeux attachés à la pierre, I remained on my knees, gazing at the stone.

2. Fig. attached : a) bound by affection, habit, conviction, duty, or interest ; b) faithful, devoted (to) ; c) attaching (to), dependent (on) ; d) attendant (on), inseparable (from) ; e) wedded (to), tenacious (of). a) Être — à sa famille, to be attached to one's family. Il m'est très —, he is much attached to me. Je suis fort — à sa personne, I am strongly attached to his person. — au parti de la noblesse, attached to the party of the nobles. C'était un espion — à la haute police, he was a spy attached to the secret police. Être trop — à la vie, to be too much attached to life. — au jeu, addicted to gaming. b) Comme ils voulaient demeurer attachés à l'Évangile, as they were resolved (or determined) to remain faithful to the Gospel. c) Leur fortune est attachée à celle de l'État, their fortune is dependent on [is attached to or bound up with) that of the state. d) Contre la défiance attachée au malheur, against the mistrust attaching to (or inseparable from) misfortune. e) Être — à ses opinions, à ses préjugés, to be wedded to (or tenacious of) one's opinions, one's prejudices.

3. (adjectively) earnest (in), eager (to), intent (on), bent (on) ; 4. absorbed ; 5. fond (of). — à l'étude, earnest in study. Vous m'avez vue attachée à vous nuire, you have seen me eager to injure you, intent (or bent) on injuring you. Rac. Phèd. II. 5. C'est Vénus tout entière à sa proie attachée, it is Venus all intent on her prey. Rac. Phèd. II, 3. — selon sa coutume, il ne vit pas son ami s'avancer, absorbed as was his wont, he did not see his friend approach.

ATTACHÉ, sm. 1. attache (of an embassy) ; 2. follower, adherent. Le secrétaire d'ambassade et les attachés, the secretary to the embassy and the attachés. Il y a tantôt quarante ans que je me compte parmi vos attachés, for nearly forty years I have counted myself among your followers or adherents.

ATTACHEMENT, atash'mân-t, sm. 1. attachment : a) passion or affection that binds a person ; b) tie or bond of affection ; c) adherence, fidelity. Elle me sert depuis vingt ans avec l'— d'une fille à son père, she has served me for twenty years with a daughter's attachment to a father. Avoir de l'— pour sa femme, pour ses enfants, to be attached to one's wife, one's children. L'— qu'il a auprès du prince est une vraie servitude, his attachment to the prince is real slavery. Il a un grand — pour elle, he has a strong attachment (affection) for her. Avoir de l'— à un parti, to be attached to a party. Renoncer à toute espèce d'—, to renounce every kind of attachment. Leur — inviolable aux intérêts du peuple, their inviolable attachment (or fidelity) to the interests of the people. Avoir de l'— à l'étude, to be attached to (or to have a great liking for) study.

2. pl. Archit. memoranda of work done or materials employed in those parts of a building which will not be visible when the whole is finished.

ATTACHER, atashé-r, [à ; attache ; O. Fr. : atachier], va. 1. to attach : a) to fasten, to fix (in a general sense) ; b) to tie, to bind, to chain. Naut. to lash ; c) to nail, tack, screw, bolt or pin ; d) to sew (with needle and thread) ; e) to stick (with any adhesive substance), to glue, to paste, to gum. — un cheval à un poteau, to fasten (or tie) a horse to a post. — des chevaux à une voiture, to put horses to a carriage. On lui attacha les mains, they tied (or bound) his hands. — au gibet, to hang on a gallows. — un martyr au poteau, to chain a martyr to the stake. — les vignes aux échalas, to tie vines to their props. — avec des clous, des vis, des boulons, des chevilles, des épingles, etc., to fasten together with nails, screws, bolts, pegs, pins, etc. to nail, screw, bolt, peg, pin together. — avec une courroie, to strap, to fasten with a strap. — une tapisserie à une muraille, to tack or nail a piece of tapestry to a wall. — un ruban avec une épingle, to pin on a ribbon. — un bouton à un habit, to sew a button on a coat. — une étiquette avec de la colle de pâte, to stick on a label with paste, to paste on a label.

2. Fig. to attach : a) to join, to unite, to connect; b) to make dependant (on); c) to attribute or assign (to); d) to bind by passion, affection, interest or duty; e) to associate, to adjoin. a) L'hymen qui nous attache en une autre famille, the marriage which unites (or connects) us with another family. On lui conféra ce titre avec toutes les prérogatives qui y sont attachées, they conferred on him that title and all the prerogatives attached to (or connected with) it. b) J'attache ma destinée à la vôtre, I attach my fate to yours, I make my fate dependant on yours. Cette mère attachait son bonheur à celui de ses enfants, this mother attached her happiness to (made her happiness dependant on) that of her children. c) — de l'importance à quelque chose, to attach importance to a thing. J'attache beaucoup de prix à votre estime, I set a high value on (I highly prize) your esteem. — un sens, une idée à un mot, to attach a meaning, an idea to a word. Il attache à ce mot un tout autre sense, he attaches to that word a very different meaning. d) Tout ce qui nous attache à la vie, all that attaches (or binds) us to life, all that makes us cling to life. Il ne faut pas — tant d'importances à ce qu'il dit, you must not attach so much importance to what he says. L'ambition l'attache à ce parti, ambition attaches (or binds) him to that party. e) — son nom à un événement, to attach one's name to (or associate one's name with) an event. Ce jeune homme sera attaché au ministère, that young man will be attached to the ministry.

3. to fix. — les yeux sur quelqu'un, to fix one's eyes (looks or gaze) on a person. Il attachait les regards de la foule, he fixed the attention (attracted the notice) of the crowd.

4. to apply. — son esprit à l'étude, to apply (or give) one's mind to study. Rien de ce que je vois ne saurait m'—, nothing that I see has any charm for me.

5. to interest, to please, to captivate. Ce roman n'attache point le lecteur, this novel does not interest the reader.

ATTACHER (s'), v. refl. 1. to attach one's self: a) to fasten, to cling (on or to); b) to stick, or stick close (to or by). La vigne s'attache à tout ce qu'elle rencontre, the vine attaches itself to (fastens on or clings to) everything that comes in its way. Votre chien s'est attaché à mon habit, your dog laid hold of my coat. La poix s'attache à la main, pitch sticks to the hand. [Fig. :] S'— aux pas de quelqu'un, to stick close to a person's steps. Un mouchard s'était attaché à ses pas, a police spy had dogged his steps. S'— au barreau, to become a barrister.

2. to be attached, to attach. Une grande gloire s'attache à cette action, great glory attaches (or is attached) to that action. Un puissant intérêt s'attache à ces souvenirs, a powerful interest is attached to those memories.

3. to be fixed (or rivetted). Mes regards s'attachèrent longtemps sur elle, my eyes were long rivetted on her.

4. to cleave, to cling. Les vieillards s'attachent à ce qu'ils craignent de perdre, old people cling to what they fear to lose. Plus nous nous attachons à la vie, plus la fin en sera amère, the more we cling to life, the bitterer its end will be. Fén.

5. to become attached (by affection, habit, etc.). Nous nous attachâmes l'un à l'autre, we become attached to each other. Le Sage. Je m'attachai à lui, et il s'attachait à moi, I became attached to him and he to me. Tout enfant s'attache à sa nourrice, every child becomes attached to its nurse. Le chien s'attache, le chat ne s'attache pas, the dog becomes attached (shows attachment), the cat does not. Buffon. Le chat.

6. to secure attachment, to win. On s'attache les bons serviteurs par les bons traitements, the attachment of good servants is secured by good treatment. Germanicus s'était attaché les cœurs de ses soldats, Germanicus had won the hearts of his soldiers.

7. to apply one's self (to), to devote one's attention (to), to set one's mind (on), to be intent (on). S'— à l'étude, to apply one's self to study. Il ne s'attache qu'à des bagatelles, he devotes his attention to nothing but trifles. Cet écrivain s'attache particulièrement à être clair, this author is chiefly intent on being clear. Je m'attache à remplir mon devoir, I make it my endeavour to fulfil my duty.

8. to be wedded to (or tenacious of). Il s'attache trop à ses opinions, he is too obstinately wedded to his opinions. S'— aveuglément à ses premières idées, to adhere blindly to one's first ideas.

9. Paint. Les objets s'attachent dans ce tableau, the objects are too close together (are too crowded) in this picture.

ATTAQUABLE, atakabl', adj. attackable, assailable: a) liable to attack; b) questionable, open to attack or dispute, as a judgment, a decision, an opinion, a document.

ATTAQUANT, atak*ân*-t, sm. attacker, assaillant. Les attaquants furent repoussés, the assaillants (or the attacking party) were driven back.

ATTAQUE, atak', sf. 1. attack: a) onset, onslaught, charge (of combatants); b) Milit. assault (of a fortress, etc.); c) aggression (on persons or things, by speech or writing); d) Med. fit; touch, twinge (of pain). — vigoureuse, imprévue, vigourous, unforeseen attack. On donnera l'— au point du jour, the attack will be made at dawn. Les attaques de la critique, the attacks of the critics. Les attaques contre la société, contre le gouvernement, the attacks on society, on the government. — de goutte, d'apoplexie, an attack (or fit) of gout, of apoplexy, an apoplectic fit. — de nerfs, nervous attack, hysterical fit, fit of hysterics.

2. Milit. approach (of besiegers).

ATTAQUÉ, E, ataké, pa. p. attacked. V. ATTAQUER. Bien —, bien défendu, that was a Rowland for an Oliver; he gave him as good as he brought.

ATTAQUER, ataké-r, [Ital. attaccare; doublet of attacher], va. 1. to attack: a) to commence an act of hostility upon, to assail, to assault, to fall on or upon; b) to invade, to encroach on; c) to deteriorate, to injure, to corrode; d) to impugn (an opinion, statement or decision), to dispute the authenticity or validity of (documents, wills, contracts, etc.); e) to affect, to seize on (as diseases or pains). a) — l'ennemi, to attack the enemy. — une place forte, to attack (or assault) a fortress. Des voleurs l'attaquèrent sur la grand'route, robbers attacked him on the highway. — un pâté, un gigot, to attack (to make an attack, an onslaught on) a pie, a leg of mutton. — une maladie, to attack, combat, or counteract a disease. Cet ouvrage attaque la religion, les mœurs, that work attacks (makes an attack on) religion, on morals. Le ministère fut vivement attaqué dans les chambres, the ministry was fiercely attacked in parliament. — en justice, to sue, to enter an action against, to prosecute. b) — les droits de quelqu'un, to attack (or invade) a person's rights. c) La rouille attaque le fer, rust attacks (eats away) iron. Les acides attaquent la plupart des métaux, acids will attack (corrode or eat away) most of the metals. Le blé fut attaqué par des charançons, the wheat was attacked (or injured) by weevils. d) Cette définition a été attaquée par plusieurs philosophes, that definition has been impugned by several philosophers. C'est une opinion qu'on attaquera vivement, it is an opinion that will be fiercely attacked (impugned or disputed). Les héritiers attaquèrent le testament, the heirs disputed the validity of the will. e) Le scorbut attaqua la flotte, the scurvy attacked the fleet. Il fut subitement attaqué d'une paralysie, he was suddenly attacked with paralysis. Le croup attaque principalement les enfants, the croup chiefly affects children. Il est attaqué de la poitrine, his lungs are attacked, he is consumptive.

2. to commence, to begin, to enter upon, to open (a conversation, discussion, etc.) — quelqu'un de conversation, to begin, to open a conversation with a person. Le sujet que j'attaquerai, the subject I shall discuss. — d'amitié, to make friendly advances (to a person).

3. to strike (a note, in singing); 4. to spur (a horse); 5. Naut. to stand in for, to near, to bear down upon (a cape, an island).

ATTAQUER (s'), v. refl. 1. to attack: a) to fall upon, to fall foul of: b) to affect, to seize (as a disease). S'— à plus fort que soi, to attack a person stronger than one's self, to meet with more than one's match. S'— aux honnêtes gens, to attack (or fall foul of) honest people. Un valet qui s'attaque à son maître, a valet who falls foul of (or bandies words with) his master. Mol. Amph. III. 2. Le mal s'attaqua si fort aux poumons, the disease attacked the lungs so violently.

2. to be attacked. Le poumon s'attaque, the lungs are attacked.

3. to attack one another or each other. Ils s'attaquèrent l'un l'autre avec violence, they attacked each other with violence.

ATTAQUEUR, atakœr, sm. attacker.

ATTARDER, atardé-r, [à; tarder], va. to delay. Je ne sais ce qui a pu l'— ainsi, I do not know what can have delayed him so, can have made him so late.

ATTARDER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be belated; 2. to linger behind. Ne vous — pas, do not be late.

† ATTEIGNEMENT, atèny'm*ân*-t, sm. attainment.

ATTEINDRE, at*a*ndr', [Lat.: attingĕre; ad, to; tingĕre, to touch], va. [J'atteins, nous atteignons, ils atteignent; j'atteignais; j'atteignis; j'atteindrai; j'atteindrais; atteins, atteignons; que j'atteigne, que nous atteignions; que j'atteignisse; atteignant, atteint.] 1. to attain: a) to reach, to arrive at, to get at, to get to; b) to gain. [Attain, in modern usage, is chiefly employed in a figurative sense.] Cet enfant brise tout ce qu'il peut —, that child breaks everything he can reach (or get at) everything within his reach. La vigne atteint le premier étage, the vine reaches to the first floor. Vous n'avez pas encore atteint l'âge exigé, you have not yet attained the age required. Le blé a, cette année, atteint un prix très élevé, wheat has this year attained (reached) a very high price. Il atteindra son but, he will attain (or gain) his end.

2. to hit, to strike. — le but, to hit the mark. Un éclat d'obus l'atteignit à la jambe, a splinter (or fragment) of shell struck him in the leg. Il l'atteignit d'un coup de pierre, d'un coup de fusil, he hit him with a stone, with a gun-shot.

3. to injure, to harm, to hurt. Ces calomnies ne peuvent m'—, those calumnies cannot hurt me. Les maux de la guerre atteignent toute la population, the evils of war injure (or affect) the whole population. Ce danger ne peut m'—, that danger cannot injure (touch, reach, or affect) me. Il a été atteint dans sa fortune par les événements politiques, he has been injured in his fortune (his fortune has suffered) by political events.

4. to reach, to arrive at, to get to. Nous atteindrons la ville avant la nuit, we shall arrive at (or reach) the town before night. Il atteignit le but avant vous, he reached the goal before you. Pouvez-vous — ce livre sur ce rayon ? can you reach that book on the shelf ?

5. to overtake, to come up with; to catch. On eut beau courir, on ne put — le voleur, they ran in vain, they could not overtake (or catch) the thief. Nous ne pûmes — le bâtiment anglais, we could not overtake (or come up with) the English vessel. — l'ennemi par une marche forcée, to overtake the enemy by a forced march. Tôt ou tard la peine atteint le coupable, sooner or later punishment overtakes the guilty.

6. to equal, to come up to. Pour — ceux que nous regardons comme supérieurs, to equal those whom we regard as superiors. Cette traduction n'atteint pas l'énergie de l'original, this translation does not come up to (does not equal) the energy of the original.

7. to attack. Il fut atteint d'une maladie dangereuse, he was attacked by a dangerous disease.

ATTEINDRE, vn. 1. to attain ; 2. to reach : a) to get at ; b) to get to. — à la perfection, to attain (or attain to) perfection. Vous ne pourrez — au dernier rayon de cette bibliothèque, you cannot reach (or get at) the highest shelf of that book-case. — au but, to reach (or get to) the goal, the winning-post ; Fig. to succeed. Il n'est pas permis à un mortel d'—de plus près à la divinité, it is not vouchsafed to mortals to attain near to (or unto) divinity. Volt. L. XIV. 34. [Atteindre à always implies difficulty and effort.]

ATTEINT, E, ata*n*-t, a*n*t', pa. p. V. ATTEINDRE. 1. attained : gained 2. struck : a) hit, wounded ; b) affected, seized, afflicted ; 3. sharged (with), accused (of) : 4. overtaken. Le but ayant été —, the end (or object) having been attained. Mortellement — d'une flèche empennée, mortally wounded with a feathered arrow. — de la peste, struck (or seized) with the plague. Les frayeurs dont vous êtes —, the fears by which you are affected (or assailed). Il est — et convaincu d'avoir volé, he has been accused and convicted of theft. Les troupes qui fuyaient, atteintes par la cavalerie, furent taillées en pièces, the flying troops, being overtaken by the cavalry, were cut to pieces.

ATTEINTE, ata*n*t', sf. 1. reach ; 2. anything that reaches, touches or affects a person or thing injuriously : blow, stroke, attack, fit, touch ; (hence, the effect produced) pain, suffering, shock, harm, injury wrong, offence. Hors d'—, 1. beyond reach, out of reach ; 2. unassailable ; 3. irreproachable. Le fugitif est à cette heure hors d'—, the fugitive is at this moment out of reach. Porter — à la réputation de quelqu'un, to injure the reputation of any one. Sa réputation est hors d'—, his reputation is unassailable. Je maintiens que ce décret est hors d'—, I maintain that this decree is unassailable. Tout ce qu'il y a de plus hors d'— à l'infidélité, all that is most beyond the reach (safest from the attacks) of infidelity. Femme sage, honnête et hors d'—, a woman prudent, virtuous, and irreproachable. — mortelle, mortal wound, death-wound ; Fig. violent (mental) shock. La vigne se ressent encore des atteintes de la gelée, the vine is still suffering from the effects of the frost. Sa santé n'a jamais reçu aucune —, his health has never been affected (or impaired). Une légère — de goutte, a touch (twinge or slight attack) of the gout. Il a déjà éprouvé quelques atteintes de l'apoplexie, he has already experienced several slight attacks of apoplexy.

3. Vet. Surg. attaint : confusion or cut on the heel of a horse's forefoot caused by his over-reaching, or on the hind-foot when struck by a horse behind him.

ATTELABLE, at'labl', adj. fit for harness : (said of horses).

ATTELAGE, at'lazh', sm. 1. team (of horses or other beasts of draught) ; 2. pair of horses (for a carriage). — de bœufs, a yoke of oxen : two oxen yoked together.

ATTELER, at'lé'r, [Lat. : ad, to ; telum, trace ; O. Fr. : astelet, the wooden part in a horse's collar] ; V. ATTELLE, va. [J'attelle, j'attelais ; j'attellerai, j'attellerais, attelant, attelé.] 1. to put to (as horses to a carriage) ; 2. to put horses to a carriage. — des chevaux à un carrosse, — une voiture, to put horses to a carriage. C'est ordinairement le cocher qui attelle, the coachman usually puts the horses to. Attelez ! put the horses to ! Nous fîmes —, we had the horses put to. Bœufs attelés à la charrue, oxen yoked to the plough. Voitures attelées de deux chevaux, de quatre chevaux, carriage and pair, coach (or carriage) and four. Napoléon attelait des rois au char de ses victoires, Napoleon made kings draw his triumphal car. V. Hugo, Odes. II. 4.

3. to associate, to link (or couple) to (or with). Pourquoi m'avez-vous — à un pareil homme ? why have you associated (or coupled) me with such a man ? Il fit — à son char les rois qu'il avait vaincus, he linked to his car kings that he had overcome. Fén. Tél. XIX.

ATTELER (s'), v. refl. 1. to harness one's self (to) ; 2. to be harnessed or coupled with. Les animaux ne doivent s'— qu'avec des compagnons d'égale force, animals should be harnessed only with companions, of equal strength. Le peuple s'attelait à la place des chevaux et traînait sa voiture en triomphe, the people took the place of the horses and drew his carriage in triumph. A. Karr.

ATTELLE, atèl', [O. Fr. : astelet, astelle ; from Lat. : hasta, lance], sf. 1. hame : the part of a horse-collar to which the traces are attached ; 2. Surg. splint.

ATTELOIRE, atèlwâr, sf. draught-peg, draught-staple (of a cart-shaft).

ATTENANT, E, at'nâ*n*-t, â*n*t', [part. of the old verb : attenir, tenir à], adj. adjoining : contiguous, next. La maison attenante, the adjoining (or next) house. Son jardin est — au mien ou du mien, his garden joins mine, is contiguous or next to mine.

ATTENANT, adv. close by. Je demeure tout —, I live close by.

ATTENANT, prep. adjoining, close to. Une chambre — à la galerie, a room adjoining the gallery. Le mur — à (ou de) la porte, the wall adjoining (or close to) the door.

ATTENDANT, atândân-t, pr. p. V. ATTENDRE. En — mieux, till something better turns up. En — l'heure, till the time comes.

EN ATTENDANT, adv. phr. in the mean time, in the interim (or interval), meanwhile, meantime. En — il s'est reposé, meanwhile he rested himself. Je lisais le journal en —, I read the newspaper whilst waiting.

EN ATTENDANT QUE, conj. phr. till, until. En — qu'il vienne, till he comes. [In poetry the en is often suppressed.]

ATTENDRE, atândr', [Lat. : attendĕre], va. [J'attends, tu attends, il attend, nous attendons ; j'attendais ; j'attendis ; j'attendrai ; j'attendrais ; que j'attende ; que j'attendisse ; attendant ; attendu.] 1. to wait for : to stay or stop for. Il y a plus d'une heure que je vous attends ici, I have been waiting for you here above an hour. Je vous attendrai chez moi jusqu'à dix heures, I will wait (stay or stop) at home for you till ten o'clock. Le dîner vous attend, dinner is waiting for you. Il attendait le beau temps, he waited for fine weather. J'attendais le train à la station, I was waiting at the station for the train. Ma voiture m'attendait à la porte, my carriage was waiting for me at the door. Le temps se passe, les années ne t'attendront pas, time runs apace, you have no time to lose. G. Sand. Un coup n'attendait pas l'autre, one blow did not wait for the next ; the blows came in rapid succession. Je suis las de vous —, I am tired of waiting for you. — sous l'orme, to wait till doomsday, for an event that will never happen. Attendez-moi sous l'orme, Colloq. and ironic. I wish you may get it. Faire — une personne, to make a person wait, to keep a person waiting. Se faire —, to keep people waiting for one, to arrive late. Faire — une chose à quelqu'un, to keep a person waiting for a thing.

2. to await : a) to look forward to : b) to be in reserve for. — l'ennemi de pied ferme, to await the enemy unflinchingly. — la mort avec courage, to await death with courage. Ce voleur attend la punition de son crime, this robber awaits the punishment of his crime. Voilà le sort qui vous attend, such is the fate that awaits you. La misère attend le dissipateur, poverty (or destitution) awaits the spendthrift. Je n'en attends rien de bon, I exspect no good of him.

3. to expect : to look for, to count on, to hope. J'attends son retour depuis longtemps, I have been long expecting his return. L'armée attend des renforts, the army is expecting reinforcements. J'attends ce service de votre complaisance, I expect this service from your complaisance. Les apôtres attendaient que leur maître délivrerait Israël du joug des nations, the apostles expected that their master would deliver Israel from the yoke of the Gentiles. Mass. Car. fausse confiance. N'attendez pas de trouver son livre sans imperfections, do not expect to find his book without imperfections. Fén. Tél. XII.

4. Man. to put off, to postpone (the breaking in or training of a horse).

5. to keep. — de la viande, to keep meat (or let meat hang) till tender. — du vin, des fruits, etc., to keep wine, fruits, etc., till best fit for consumption.

ATTENDRE, vn. to wait : a) to be waiting ; b) to stay, to stop. Attendez ici un moment, wait (stay, stop) here a moment. Il est las d'—, he is tired of waiting. Vous ne perdez rien pour —, you will lose nothing by waiting. Attendez ! il me vient une idée, hold ! (stay ! wait a bit !) a thought strikes me. Il attend que son fils revienne, he waits (or is waiting) till his son shall return, waits for his son's return. Faire —, to keep (one) waiting, to make (one) wait. Il fait — ses créanciers, he makes his creditors wait. He keeps his creditors waiting. Se faire —, to be late (or long) in coming. — à, to wait till (or for). Il attend à la belle saison, au printemps, he waits (or is waiting) till the fine season, till the spring. — après, to wait for. Le Messie était attendu par les juifs, the Messiah was expected by the Jews. Ce sont des honneurs longtemps attendus, these were honours long waited for. Apportez-lui ce livre, il attend après, take that book to him, he is waiting for it. J'attends après cet argent pour payer ce billet, I am waiting for that money to take up (or pay) that bill of exchange. Prov.: Tout vient à point à qui sait attendre, time and patience conquer all things. Il ennuie à qui attend, waiting is tiresome.

ATTENDRE (s'), v. refl. 1. to wait for each other or for one another. Nous nous sommes attendus et nous sommes partis ensemble, we waited for each other and set off together.

2. to expect : a) to look forward to, to look for ; b) to be aware of ; c) to hope, to fear, to apprehend. a) Je m'attends à vous voir demain, I expect to see you to morrow. Il s'attend à rencontrer bien des obstacles, he expects to encounter a great many obstacles. Plus tôt qu'on s'y attendait, sooner than was expected. Je m'attends qu'il viendra, I expect he will come. Ne vous attendez pas que je le fasse, do not expect me to do it. b) Il s'attend bien à ce qui doit arriver, he is well aware of what must happen. c) Tous s'attendent à retourner dans leur patrie, all expect (or hope) to return to their own country. Après cela, on peut s'— à tout, after that, anything may be expected, we may expect (or fear) the worst. Je ne m'attendais pas à cela, I did not expect that.

3. to rely on, to count on, to trust to. Ne t'attends qu'à toi seul, rely on thyself alone. La Font. Fab. Après ce coup, à qui dois-je m'—, after this blow, on whom shall I rely ? Rac. Brit. II, 6. Il ne faut pas vous — à lui, you must not rely on him. Attendez-vous-y, expect nothing of the kind ; Colloq. I wish you may get it ! Prov. : Qui s'attend à l'écuelle d'autrui, dine souvent par cœur, he that waits on another man's trencher makes many a late dinner.

ATTENDRI, E, atândri, pa. p. 1. softened, made or become tender ; 2. kept or hung, till tender (as poultry, game, etc.) ; 3. Fig. moved, touched, affected, excited to pity. Pour que le fer soit —, il n'y a que de le chauffer, to soften iron, you have only to heat it.

ATTENDRIR, atândrir, [à ; tendre], va. 1. to make tender or soft, to soften. Cela attendrit la viande, that makes meat tender. On attendrit le fer à force de chaleur, iron is softened by means of heat. Avant d'avoir attendri sa vue en se tenant en un lieu obscur, before making one's sight more sensitive by remaining in a dark place. Desc. Diopt. 9.

2. to excite to pity, to move, to affect, to touch. La vertu souffrante attendrit tous les cœurs, suffering virtue moves (touches, affects) every heart. D'un luth joyeux, il attendrit les sons, he softened the sounds of a merry lute. Béranger, Bonne Vieille.

ATTENDRIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to become or get tender. La viande s'attendrit à la cuison, meat becomes tender by being cooked. Les choux s'attendrissent à la gelée, cabbages get tender in frosty weather.

2. to be mollified, softened, moved (to pity), touched, affected, melted ; to relent. Son père s'est attendri en voyant son repentir, his father relented (was touched, moved to pity) on seeing his repentance. S'— sur le sort des malheureux, to feel compassion for the lot of the unfortunate. S'— pour quelqu'un, to feel disposed to assist a person. Elle feignit de s'— pour Ulysse, She feigned to be affected for Ulysses, Fén. Tél. I.

ATTENDRISSANT, E, atândrsân-t, ânt', adj. touching, moving, affecting. Spectacle —, an affecting sight. Paroles attendrissantes, touching words.

ATTENDRISSEMENT, atândris'mân-t, sm. 1. making tender, tenderness.

2. feeling (of pity or compassion), tenderness, sensibility, emotion (caused by the gentler passions). Ces paroles lui causèrent un grand —, these words deeply moved him. Verser des larmes d'—, to shed tears of emotion. Je profitai de l'— où je le trouvai, I took advantage of the melting mood in which I found him.

ATTENDU, E, atându, prep. considering, an account of, on the ground of, owing to. Il fut exempt de cette charge — ses infirmités, he was exempted from that duty on account of his infirmities.

ATTENDU QUE, conj. phr., considering that, seeing that ; Law lang. whereas, considering that, on the ground that. — qu'il n'était pas gentilhomme, on the ground that he was not of gentle birth. — que l'acte ne renferme pas cette clause, le tribunal déclare... whereas (or considering that) the deed does, not contain this clause, the court declares...

ATTENIR, atenir, [tenir ; à], vn. to adjoin, to be contiguous to.

ATTENTAT, atânta-t ; in the pl. atânta-z, [Lat. : attentatum, part. of attentāre], sm. attempt (to commit an offence or a crime), attack or assault (on persons or property), outrage. C'est un — contre les libertés publiques, it is an attempt against (or an attack on) the public liberties. — à la pudeur, criminal (or indecent) assault. Il s'est rendu capable de plusieurs attentats, he has been guilty of several criminal attempts, of several crimes.

ATTENTATOIRE, atântatwâr', adj. that makes an attempt or attack (on), attacking, assailing. Mesure — à la propriété, a measure assailing the rights of property. Cette sentence est attentatoire à l'autorité du parlement, this judgment is an attack on the authority of the parliament.

ATTENTE, atânt', (attendre), sf. 1. waiting : the act of waiting, the time waited. Etre dans l'— de, to be waiting for. Il a passé huit jours dans l'—, he waited a whole week. Salle d'—, waiting-room. Pierre d'—, toothing : stone left projecting at the end of a wall intended to be lengthened ; Fig. any partial commencement of a work intended to be executed at a future time. Table d'—, tablet of stone or wood intended to receive an inscription, a painting, or sculptured ornament. Fig. Ce jeune homme est une table d'—, this young man is one of great promise. Ligature d'—, Surg., provisional or temporary ligature.

2. expectation : a) the act of expecting ; b) the person or thing expected. Être dans l'— d'un événement, to be in expectation of an event. Ce prince a répondu à l'— qu'on avait de lui, that prince has fulfilled the expectations entertained respecting him. Tromper, frustrer l'—, to deceive, to disappoint expectations. Contre l'— de tout le monde, contrary to the universal expectation. Contre toute —, against all exspectation. Mon bonheur surpassait mon —, my joy exceeded my expectations. Rac. Baj. VI. 1. Dans l'— de vous lire, awaiting your reply.

ATTENTER, atânté-r, [Lat. : attentāre], vn. to make an attempt (on or against). — à la vie de quelqu'un, to make an attempt on a person's life. Ils avaient déjà attenté sur sa vie, they had already made an attempt on (or attempted) his life. — à ses jours, to make an attempt on one's own life, to attempt suicide.

ATTENTER, va. to attempt. Ils ne voulaient rien — contre le roi ni contre la reine, they were unwilling to attempt anything against the king or the queen. Boss. Var. 10. Guise attenta trop peu pour un tyran, mais trop pour un sujet, Guise attempted too little for a tyrant, but too much for a subject. Volt. Henr. III. Ayant attenté le plus grand de tous les crimes, having attempted the greatest of all crimes.

ATTENTIF, IVE, atântıf, iv', adj. attentive : a) heedful, mindful ; b) vigilant, watchful. Rendre son auditoire —, to make one's hearers attentive. Prêter une oreille attentive, to lend an attentive ear. Porter un œil — sur toutes les parties de l'État, to keep a watchful eye over all parts of the state. Il fut fort — à ce que rien ne nous manquât, he was very careful that we should want for nothing. Le berger, soigneux et —, est debout auprès de son troupeau, the shepherd, careful and vigilant, is standing near his flock. La Bruy. — à ses études, attentive to (or intent on) one's studies. C'est un homme très —, he is a man full of attentions, he is a very polite man. Soins attentifs, assiduous attentions. Etre — auprès d'une femme, to pay attentions (or make one's court) to a woman.

ATTENTION, atânsyôn ; in poet. siôn, [Lat. : attention—em], sf. attention : a) application of the mind to anything ; b) heed, care ; c) notice ; d) regard, consideration ; e) act of courtesy, of civility. Cette étude exige une grande —, une — continuelle, that study requires great attention, assiduous attention. Donner, prêter son — à, to give one's attention to, to pay attention to. Ayez — à votre langue, take heed to your tongue, be watchful over your tongue. Il n'a d'— à rien, he heeds nothing, he minds (or pays attention to) nothing. Vous aurez de l'— à votre santé, you will pay attention to (or take care of) your health. Sév. 292. Il voulait qu'on eût de l'— pour sa femme, he was desirous that they should take some notice of his wife. Hamil. Gramm. 4. Faire — à, to take heed of, to mind, to take care of, to be mindful of. Ils ne firent pas assez — à un avis si salutaire, they did not pay sufficient attention to a warning so salutary. Fén. Tél. XVI. Il s'est attiré l'— du public, he has attracted public notice. Sans qu'on y fît —, without any one's noticing, heeding or observing it ; unnoticed, unobserved. Il lui fit faire une — particulière sur..., he made him bestow particular attention on... Cela mérite —, that deserves notice. On n'a pas plus d'— pour lui que pour les autres, no more consideration is paid to him than to others. Je fus touché de cette délicate —, I was touched by that delicate attention. Faites-y bien —, mind what you are about. Plein d'—, mindful, all attention. N'y faites pas —, take no notice of that. Attention ! attention ! mind, or be attentive ! look out ! — ! je vais donner le signal, look out ! I am about to give the signal.

FAUTE D'ATTENTION, adv. phr., for want of attention, through inattention, inadvertently.

ATTENTIONNÉ, E, atânsioné, adj. attentive, full of attentions.

ATTENTIVEMENT, atântiv'mân-t, adv. attentively, with attention, intently. J'ai suivi — les leçons du professeur, I have attentively followed the professor's lessons.

Quand je considère — cette parabole, when I attentively consider that parable.

ATTÉNUANT, E, aténuân-t, ânt', adj. Med. 1. attenuant, diluent; 2. Law-t, extenuating. Circonstances atténuantes, extenuating circumstances.

ATTÉNUANT, sm. Med. attenuant, diluent: a medicine supposed to thin the humours.

ATTÉNUATION, aténuâsyôn, sf. 1. attenuation: Med. the act of making thin, the state of being thin; 2. Law-t, extenuation. L'— du corps par le jeûne, the attenuation of the body by fasting.

ATTÉNUÉ, E, aténué, pa. p. and adj. attenuated; weakened, wasted away (as persons); diluted (as fluids); Bot. tapering, taper. Un corps — par les jeûnes, a body debilitated by fasting. V. ATTÉNUER.

ATTÉNUER, aténué-r, [Lat.: attenuâre, atum; ad, to; tenuis, thin], va. 1. to attenuate: a) to make thin or weak; b) to debiliate, to weaken (as persons), to dilute (fluids). Les jeûnes, les veilles, les fatigues l'ont atténué, fasting, watching, and fatigue have debilitated (or emaciated) him. — les humeurs, Med. to attenuate humours: to render them less viscous.

2. to extenuate: to render less grave, to palliate. Son repentir a atténué sa faute, his repentance has extenuated his fault. Les circonstances ont atténué le délit, the circumstances extenuated the offence.

ATTÉNUER (s'), v. refl. 1. to become attenuated (weakened or debilitated); 2. to be extenuated. Le délit s'atténue ou s'aggrave par les circonstances, the offense is extenuated or aggravated by the circumstances attending it.

ATTERRAGE, atèrazh', sm. 1. proximity to land; 2. landfall, making land; landing. V. ATTERRISSAGE.

ATTERREMENT, atèr'mân-t, sm. 1. throwing to the ground, overthrow; 2. prostration.

ATTERRER, atèré-r, [à; terre; Lat.: ad, to; terra, land], va. 1. to throw to the ground, to throw down; (with wrestlers) to throw; (with pugilists) to floor. Après un moment de lutte il l'atterra, after a moment's struggle he threw him. Il saisit le taureau par les cornes et l'atterra, he seized the bull by the horns and threw (or brought) him to the ground.

2. to overthrow, to overturn, to subvert. Les Goths achevèrent d'— la puissance romaine, the Goths definitively subverted the power of Rome (or completed the overthrow of the Roman power).

3. † to cast down, to overwhelm. Ce dernier malheur l'atterra, this last misfortune overwhelmed him.

ATTERRER, vn. Naut. to make the land, to make land: to come in sight of land. [Atterrir is the word mostly used in this sense at present.]

ATTERRIR, atèrir, [à; terre], vn. Naut. 1. to make land (or the land); 2. to land. (of a ship, a balloon). La chaloupe a atterri à marée montante, the long-boat reached the land at high water. La chaloupe est atterrie dans une crique, the long-boat is ashore (or aground) in a creek.

ATTERRISSAGE, atèrizazh', sm. Naut. landfall, making land. Nous avons fait notre — un tel jour, we made land (came in sight of land) on such a day. Faire un bon —, to make a good land-fall: to make land at the point desired. — d'un ballon, landing of an airship.—facile, smooth landing. Terrain d'—, landing-place, landing-ground (for aeroplan).

ATTERRISSEMENT, atèris'mân-t, sm. 1. Geol. alluvium: deposit of earthy matters by rivers or the sea; 2. Law-t. alluvion, accretion of land by the retreat of water.

ATTESTATION, atèstâsyon; in poet. siôn, [Lat.: attestatio], sf. attestation: a written or vivâ voce testimonial as to character, etc. — de bonne vie et mœurs, a certificate of good morals. Muni des meilleures attestations, holding the very best testimonials. — du médecin, du maire, doctor's, mayor's certificate. — sous serment, an affidavit.

ATTESTER, atèsté-r, [Lat.: attestâri; ad, to; testis, witness], va. to attest: a) to certify; to bear witness to; b) to call or take to witness; c) to give proof of, to prove. a) Il a attesté sous serment que..., he has attested (or certified) under oath that..., he has made a declaration upon oath that... Il nous attesta le fait, he bore witness to the fact. b) J'atteste les dieux que..., I call the gods to witness that... — le ciel, to take Heaven to witness. Les ruines de Palmyre attestent son ancienne splendeur, the ruins of Palmyra attest (prove or bear witness to) its ancient splendour.

ATTICISME, atisism', [Gr.: ἀττικισμός; Ἀττικός, Athenian, Attic], sm. atticism: a) an elegant, concise, or witty manner of expression; b) Gr. Gram. an Attic idiom or phrase.

ATTICISTE, atisist', sm. atticist: writer who affects the Attic style.

ATTIÉDI, E, adj. and pa. p. of ATTIÉDIR, tepid, luke-warm.

ATTIÉDIR, atyédir, [à; tiède], va. 1. to make tepid or lukewarm: as water, etc., — de l'eau chaude en y mêlant de l'eau froide, to make hot water lukewarm by the admixture of cold. — de l'eau en la mettant au feu, to take the chill off (or to warm) water by setting it on the fire. L'absence attiédit l'amitié, absence is apt to cool friendship. Eau attiédie, tepid or lukewarm water.

2. Fig. to make lukewarm: a) to cool down, to cool, to chill; b) to weaken, to diminish, to abate. Le temps attiédit leur amour, time cooled down (or chilled) their love. Ce revers attiédit leur ardeur, leur zèle, this check cooled their ardour, abated their zeal. Zèle attiédi, abated zeal. Je ne trouve partout que des cœurs attiédis, I find everywhere none but lukewarm hearts. Créb. Elect. III. 5.

ATTIÉDIR (s'), v. refl. to get, grow, or become lukewarm (or tepid); to get warm, to get cool. Cette eau s'est attiédie au soleil, this water has got warm in the sun. Éloignez cette eau du feu pour qu'elle s'attiédisse, remove that water from the fire that it may cool. [Fig.:] Son zèle s'est attiédi, his zeal has abated (or cooled), has grown lukewarm. Les plus fervents s'attiédissent quelquefois, the most fervent grow lukewarm at times.

ATTIÉDISSEMENT, atyédis'mân-t, sm. 1 the state of becoming lukewarm (or cooling down); 1. lukewarmness, coolness; abatement, diminution (of ardour, zeal, etc.).

ATTIFER, atifé-r, [à; the old verb tiffer, to adorn the head], va. to dizen, to bedizen, to bedight, to dress up (or out), to trick out (or up). Elle aime à — sa petite fille, she is fond of tricking out her little girl. Qui vous a ainsi attifé, who has bedizened you in this way?

ATTIFER (s'), v. refl. to bedizen one's self, to dress or trick one's self up (or out).

ATTIFET, atifè, sm. top-knot: formerly a kind of head-dress for women.

ATTIQUE, attik', [Gr.: ἀττικός], adj. 1. Attic: a) belonging to Athens, the capital of Attica; b) pure, elegant, classic. Goût —, Attic taste. Dialecte —, Attic dialect. Sel —, Attic salt, wit.

2. Arch. attic: said of a low story generally at the stop of a house. Base —, attic base. Ordre —, attic order.

ATTIQUE, sm. Arch. attic: a low story above the entablature of the main elevation of a building — continu, an attic continued round the four sides of a house. — interposé, an attic story between two lofty ones.

ATTIQUEMENT, attik'mân-t, adv. in the Attic manner or dialect. [The Latin word atticè is often used by English writers.] S'exprimer —, to speak with Attic purity.

† ATTIRABLE, atirabl', [attirer], adj. attractable. Le fer est — à l'aimant, iron is attractable by the magnet.

ATTIRAGE, atirazh, ATTIRAIL, atiray', [attirer], sm. 1. apparatus, appliances, requisites, equipage, accoutrements, luggage: the tools, implements, utensils, instruments, tackle, etc., necessary for the practise of any trade, art, profession, or occupation. — de chasse, hunting equipage; shooting, tackle; sportsman's tackle, equipments, accountrements. — de cuisine, kitchen utensils, requisites, or appliances. — de guerre, appliances of war. Tout l'— d'une imprimerie, all the apparatus, working-stock, or plant of a printing-office. — de ménage, household goods. — de pêche, fishing tackle. L'attirail de la mort, the trappings of death. La Font. Fab., III, 7. — de toilette, toilet requisites. — de voyage, travelling requisites, equipage, equipment, accoutrements; a traveller's luggage.

2. Fig. pageant, pageanty, show, parade. Qu'était-il besoin de tout cet attirail, what need was there for all this parade? Mol. L'attirail de vos vanités et vos pompes mondaines, the pargeantry of your vanities and worldly pomp. Fléch. I. 328.

ATTIRANT, E, atirân-t, ânt', adj. attractive: engaging, inviting, alluring, winning, fascinating. Manières attirantes, attractive (or engaging) manners. Politesse attirante, winning politeness.

ATTIRER, atiré-r, [à; tirer], va. 1. to attract, to draw. L'aimant attire le fer, the magnet attracts iron. L'ambre frotté attire certains corps légers, amber when rubbed attracts certain light substances. La laine attire l'humidité de l'air, wool attracts the dampness of the air. [Fig.:] Ceux que la nouvelle avait attirés, those whom the news had attracted or drawn together. Cette tragédie attire beaucoup de monde, that tragedy attracts (or draws) great numbers of people. — les regards de la foule, to attract (or draw) the attention of the crowd. Je ne sais quel charme m'attire vers elle, I do not know what charm attracts (or draws) me towards her. Attiré par la beauté du site, attracted by the beauty or the site, of the spot. Je sentais dans cet inconnu je ne sais quoi qui m'attirait à lui, I felt consciousof something in this stranger which attracted (or drew) me to him. Fén. Tél. 18.

2. to draw or lead on, to allure, to invite, to entice. Il nous attire par des promesses trompeuses, he draws (or lures) us on (allures or entices us) by deceptive promises.

3. to lead to, to bring on. Un malheur en attire un autre, one misfortune brings on (or leads to) another. Une déception en attire une autre, one deception leads to another.

4. (with the personal pronoun) to draw on one's self, to bring down on one's self. S'— la haine du public, to draw on one's self the hatred of the public, to incur the public hatred. S'— beaucoup d'ennemis, to draw many enemies on one's self, to make one's self many enemies. Votre conduite vous attirera le mépris des honnêtes gens, your conduct will bring down on you (or will expose you to) the contempt of honest people. Il s'attirait sans cesse de méchantes affaires, he was always bringing troubles on himself, always getting into scrapes.

5. to win, to gain. Il sut attirer ma confiance, he managed (or found means) to win my confidence.

ATTIRER (s'), v. refl. to attract each other or one another. Les corps célestes s'attirent les uns les autres, the heavenly bodies mutually attract each other.

ATTISE, atiz', sf. log, billet (of fire wood chez les brasseurs).

ATTISER, atisé-r, [Lat. : ad, to ; titio, fire brand], va. 1. to mend or make up (a wood fire), to poke or stir up (a coal fire), to enliven (a fire) ; 2. Fig. to stir up, to inflame, to excite. — le feu, to stir up the fire ; 3. Fig. to add fuel to the fire, to throw oil on the flames. Nous attisons le feu dévorant de la convoitise, we stir up (or make fiercer) the devouring fire of our desires. Boss. Nécess. 2. — les passions, to stir up the passions.

ATTISEUR, atizœr, sm. 1. fire-maker ; 2. any one who is always poking (or meddling with) the fire.

ATTISOIR, atizwâr, ATTISONNOIR, atiszonwâr, sm. fire-rake ; poker.

ATTITRÉ, E, atitré, adj. 1. regularly appointed. 2. bribed, mercenary, hired. Les fournisseurs attitrés de la maison du prince, the purveyors in ordinary to the prince's household. Témoin —, bribed (or suborned) witness ; a knight of the post. Assassin —, a hired assassin.

ATTITRER, atitré-r, [à ; titre ; used almost exclusively in the past part., as an adjectif], va. to assign a title or functions to, to give preference to (a person for a particular purpose) — les chiens, Sport. to place dogs in convenient positions for pursuing game.

ATTITUDE, atitud', [Ital. : attitudine, from the Lat. : aptitudinem from aptus], sf attitude : posture of the body ; also applied figuratively to things personified. Belle — a fine attitude. — forcée, forced or constrained attitude. — du respect, de la soumission, attitude of respect, of submission ; respectful, submissive attitude. — imposante, imposing attitude. Être toujours en —, to affect attitudes, to artitudinize. [Fig. :] Le gouvernement par son attitude a rassuré les amis de la paix, the attitude of the government reassured the friends of peace. L'Allemagne avait pris une — peu rassurante pour le continent, Germany had assumed an attitude anything but reasuring for the continent.

ATTOUCHEMENT, atoush'mâ*n*-t, [attoucher], sm. 1. touch, touching, feeling 2. Geom. contact. Notre Seigneur guérissait les malades par le seul —, Our Lord healed the sick by merely touching them. Point d'—, point of contact.

ATTOUCHER, atoushé-r, [à ; toucher], va. to touch.

ATTRACTEUR, TRICE, atraktœr, tris', adj. attracting. Corps —, attracting body.

ATTRACTIF, IVE, atraktif, iv', adj. 1. attractive : a) having power to attract, b) inviting, alluring. Force attractive, attractive force or power. Aspect —, attractive aspect. Air —, attractive (inviting, engaging) air or mien.

2. Med. attrahent. Remèdes attractifs, attrahent medicaments.

ATTRACTIF, sm. Med. attrahent.

ATTRACTION, atraksyô*n*, sf. 1. attraction. L'— paraît adhérente à la matière, attraction appears inherent in matter. — moléculaire, molecular attraction, attraction of cohésion. — magnétique, magnetic attraction. — locale, local attraction : the effect produced on a ship's compasses by the iron used in her construction.

2. side-show.

ATTRACTIONNAIRE, atraksyonèr', sm. attractionist : name given formerly to the partisans of the system propounded by Newton.

ATTRAIRE, atrêr', [Lat. : attrahère, to draw], va. [J'attrais, nos attrayons, vous attrayez, ils attraient, j'attrayais, no perfect, j'attrairai ; j'attrairais ; attrais, qu'il attraie, attrayons, attrayez, qu'ils attraient ; que j'attraie, que nous attrayions, que vous attrayiez, qu'ils attraient ; no imperfect subj. ; attrayant, attrait.] to attract, to draw, to allure, to entice.

ATTRAIT, atrè-t ; pl. atrè-z, [Lat. : attractus ; ad, to ; trahère, to draw], sm. 1. attraction : a) the state of being attracted, inclination, liking, taste, disposition ; b) attractive quality, allurement, charm. a) Se sentir de l'— pour la musique, pour la danse, to feel an attraction or inclination for music, for dancing. Je me sens de l'— pour lui, I feel an attraction or liking for him. Je sentais un — violent vers la même carrière, I felt a strong attraction (or felt strongly attracted) towards the same career. b) L'— du plaisir, de la gloire, de la richesse, the attractions or the allurements of pleasure, of glory, of wealth. Elle était parée de tous les attraits de la jeunesse et de la beauté, she was adorned with all the attractions (or charms) of youth and beauty. Les attraits de la grâce, the consolations, the joys of divine grace.

2. Fish. bait.

ATTRAPE, atrap', sf. 1. trap, gin (for catching pigeons or game) ; 2. Fig. catch, trick, take-in. Une boîte d'attrapes, a box of sugar-plums, lozenges, etc., each of which contains some bitter or acrid substance. 3. Technol. crucible-tongs ; 4. Naut. relieving-rope or tackle.

ATTRAPE-LOURDAUD, atrap'lourdô, ATTRAPE-NIAIS, atrap'-nié, ATTRAPE-NIGAUD, atrap'nigô, sm. 1. fool-trap, catch-flat, take-in : any trick to deceive simpletons ; 2. catch-penny : any worthless article offered for sale. [These three words are by many authors written the same both in the sing. and pl. ; but some add an s to the first and third in the plural.]

ATTRAPE-MOUCHE, atrap-moush', sm. 1. Bot. fly-trap ; 2. Ornith. fly-catcher. V. GOBE-MOUCHE. Dionée —, Venus's fly-trap, Carolina catch-fly plant. [Pl. ATTRAPE-MOUCHE or ATTRAPE-MOUCHES.]

ATTRAPE-PARTERRE, atrap'partèr', sm. (in theatrical language) claptrap.

ATTRAPER, atrapé-r, [à ; trappe], va. 1. to trap, to entrap : to catch with a trap, snare, or other contrivance. — un renard dans un piège, des oiseaux avec de la glu, to trap a fox, to catch birds with lime-twigs. [Fig.] Il s'est laissé — au piège, he has fallen into the trap or snare.

2. to catch : a) to seize so as to hold or stop from motion ; b) to seize by pursuit, to overtake ; c) to come upon, to surprise ; d) to take, as a contagion or disease ; e) to seize, to apprehend, to hit on, to hit off ; f) to acquire ; g) to trick, to take in, to over-reach, to deceive, to dissappoint. a) — un papillon, to catch a butterfly. Je vais vous jeter une orange, attrapez, I will throw you an orange, catch it. Attrape qui peut, catch who catch can! b) Nous l'attraperons à la première halte, we shall catch him at the first halt. On a couru après le voleur sans l'—, they ran after the thief without overtaking him. c) Je l'ai attrapé à me voler des fruits, I caught him stealing my fruit. Que je vous attrape encore ! don't let me catch you again ! Vous prétendiez ne jamais lire de romans, je vous y attrape, you pretended that you never read novels, I have caught you at it. d) — un rhume, to catch a cold, to take cold. — la fièvre, to catch a fever. e) — le sens d'un passage, to hit on, catch or seize the sense of a passage. Le peintre a bien attrapé votre ressemblance, the painter has successfully caught or hit off your likeness. La ressemblance est bien attrapée, the likeness is hit off to the life. f) Cet écrivain croit avoir attrapé la manière de Tacite, that writer thinks he has caught (or acquired) the style of Tacitus. Cet artiste a bien attrapé la manière hollandaise, this artist has thoroughly well caught the Dutch style. g) Ce charlatan a attrapé bien du monde, that charlatan has taken in a great many people. Etre attrapé, to be caught, taken in, disappointed. Bien fin qui pourrait l'—, he will be pretty sharp the one who catches him. Il vous attrapera, prenez-y garde, look out for yourself, or he will do you.

3. to cheat, to dupe, to deceive. Les plus fins y sont attrapés, the most cunning are taken in or deceived by it.

4. to cheat, cozen, dupe, bilk, or do out of. Cet escroc lui a attrappé beaucoup d'argent, that swindler has cheated him out of a great deal of money. Ce pendard de Scapin m'a attrapé cinq cents écus, that rascally Scapin has done me out of five hundred crowns. Mol. Fourb. III, 7.

5. to get or catch hold of, to reach. Tâchez d'— cette branche, try to reach that branch.

6. to get, to obtain. Il a enfin attrapé l'emploi qu'il sollicitait, he has at last got the place he solicited. Ce conscrit a attrapé un bon numéro, that conscript has drawn or got a lucky number. Il attrape toujours le meilleur lot, he always gets the best prize. J'ai attrapé la plus mauvaise place, I got the very worst place.

7. to receive, to get. — un coup d'épée, to receive a sword wound.

8. to hit, to strike. La balle l'a attrapé au bras, the ball struck him in the arm. Je l'ai attrapé d'un coup de pierre, I hit him with a stone, I threw a stone and hit him.

IDIOM. AND PROV. PHR. — le bout de l'année, to be all right at the year's end, to make both ends meet. Attrapé ! caught ! you are caught ! you are in for it. Attrapez-moi toujours de même, take me in like that as often as you like. Il fallait voir comme elle m'a attrapé ! you should have seen how she let me have it !

ATTRAPER (s'), v. refl. 1. to run against ; 2. to over-reach one another ; 3. to over-reach : said of horses when they strike the hind feet against the fore-feet in walking. Je me suis attrapé à une porte, I ran against a door. Les deux filous se sont attrapés l'un l'autre, the two rogues overreached each other. Ils se sont rudement attrapés, they abused each other finely.

ATTRAPEUR, EUSE atrapœr, œz', smf. deceiver, deluder. C'est un — de successions, he is a legacy-hunter, a fortune-hunter.

ATTRAPOIRE, atrapwâr, sf. 1. trap, gin, snare (for catching animals); 2. trick, take-in, swindling dodge.

ATTRAYANT, E, atréyân-t yânt', adj. attractive : alluring, engaging, enticing. Une physionomie peu attrayante, a repulsive physiognomy.

ATTREMPER, atrânpé-r, [à ; tremper], va. 1. to anneal (glass); 2. to temper (steel).

ATTRIBUABLE, atribuabl', adj. attributable.

ATTRIBUER, atribué-r, [Lat. : ad, to, tribuĕre, to give], va. 1. (with à) to assign to, to confer on, to invest with. — au Conseil d'État la connaissance de telles et telles affaires, to assign to the Council of State (or to invest the Council of State with) the cognizance of such and such affairs. Les fonctions attribuées au préfet de police sont très nombreuses et très diverses, the functions assigned to (or vested in) the prefect of police are very numerous and diverse. On a attribué de beaux émoluments à cet emploi, handsome emoluments have been assigned (attached or annexed) to that office.

2. to attribute : to ascribe, to impute. Il attribuait tous ses succès au hasard, he attributed all his success to chance. On lui attribua la victoire, the victory was attributed to him. On lui attribue le pamphlet qui vient de paraître, they attribute (ascribe or impute) to him the pamphlet which has just appeared. On lui attribue des vices qu'il n'a pas, they impute to him vices which he has not. On attribuait jadis à ce remède des propriétés merveilleuses, marvellous properties were formerly attributed (or ascribed) to that remedy.

ATTRIBUER (s'), v. pron. to attribute to one's self, to arrogate, to claim. S'— des droits, des titres, etc., to arrogate (or claim) rights, titles, etc. De sorte que des deux côtés on s'attribua la victoire, so that each side claimed the victory. Le nom de Père du peuple s'attribue justement à Louis XII, the name of Father of the people is justly attributed (or given) to Louis XII.

ATTRIBUT, atribu-t ; pl. atribu-z, sm. 1. attribute : a) power or quality belonging to or inherent in a person or thing ; b) Fine Arts. emblem, symbol ; c) Log. predicate. La toute-puissance est un des attributs de Dieu, omnipotence is one of the attributes of God. Ce droit est un des attributs de ma charge, that right is one of the attributes of my office. Le trident est l'— de Neptune, the trident is the attribute of Neptune. Les attributs de la musique, d'un art, d'une science, the attributes of music, of an art, of a science. Dans la phrase : « Dieu est tout-puissant, » Dieu est le sujet, tout-puissant l'attribut, in the phrase : « God is all-powerful » God is the subject, all-powerful the attribute.

2. ATTRIBUT, sm. technol. sign, shop-sign. Peintre d'attributs, sign-painter.

3. Milit. insignia (pl. on uniform, but not of rank).

ATTRIBUTIF, IVE, atributif, iv' adj. attributive.

ATTRIBUTION, atribusyôn ; in poet. siôn, sf. 1. conferring. — de jurisdiction, the conferring of jurisdiction.

2. prerogative, privilege, powers. Ces charges ont de grandes attributions, those offices confer extensive privileges, powers, rights.

3. province, department, functions, powers (of a public functionary, etc.) ; 4. cognizance (of a judge or tribunal). Ceci entre dans les attributions du préfet, this is comprised in the prefect's functions. Il empiète sur mes attributions, he encroaches on my province. Cette affaire est dans les attributions de tel magistrat, de tel tribunal, that affair falls under the cognizance of (or is cognizable by) such and such a magistrate or tribunal.

ATTRISTANT, E, atristân-t, ânt', adj. saddening : sad, sorrowful, melancholy, afflicting. Nouvelles attristantes, sad news. Souvenirs —, melancholy recollections.

ATTRISTER, atristé-r, [à ; triste], va. to sadden : to make sad, sorrowful, or melancholy ; to grieve, to afflict. Cette nouvelle attrista tous les cœurs, that news saddened (or grieved) every heart. Cela attriste, that is saddening (or makes one sad). Il a l'air bien attristé, he looks very sad.

ATTRISTER (s'), v. refl. to grieve, to sorrow ; to give way to grief or sorrow ; to distress one's self, to be grieved or distressed. Vous vous attristez sans motif, you distress yourself (or you grieve) without cause. Il s'attrista beaucoup de cet événement, he was greatly distressed by that event.

ATTRIT, E, atrit-t, it', [Lat. : attritus], adj. Theol. attrite.

ATTRITION, atrisyôn ; in poet. siôn, sf. attrition : a) Phys. friction ; b) Surg. slight abrasure of the cuticle ; also, the complete crushing of any part ; c) Theol. sorrow for sin, arising solely from the fear of punishment.

ATTROUPEMENT, atroup'mân-t, sm. mob : a disorderly and tumultuous assembly in the public streets. La sédition commença par des attroupements, the sedition began by the assembling of mobs. La force armée eut ordre de dissiper l'—, the military received orders to disperse the mob. La loi contre les attroupements, the Riot Act.

ATTROUPER, atroupé-r, (à ; troupe), va. to assemble (people in a crowd or mob) ; to collect, bring, or draw together.

ATTROUPER (s'), v. refl. to troop, assemble or collect together ; to form a mob ; to flock together. On s'attroupa dans les rues, crowds gathered together in the streets.

ATYPIQUE, atipik',[Gr. : ἀ, neg.; τύπος, type], adj. Med. atypic : having no regular type, irregular.

AU (ô) sing., AUX, ô-z, pl. contractions of the preposition à and the definite article le, les. Au is employed before singular nouns masculine beginning with a vowel or a mute h : au temple, au seigneur, au héros. Aux is used with plural nouns whether masculine or feminine : aux champs, aux hommes, aux femmes. V. à.

AUBADE, ôbad', (aube, break of day], sf. 1. morning serenade : music played, as a compliment, under a person's windows in the early morning ; 2. (in an ironical sense), mock music, marrow-bones and cleavers : any offensive noise intended to annoy or insult ; 3. lecture, abuse, reproach.

AUBADER, ôbadĕr, Pop. to scold severely.

AUBAGE, ôbazh', sm. thin boards (for the panels of carriages).

† AUBAIN, ôbain, [Low Lat. : albanus, from albi, elsewhere], sm. alien : in old law, a foreigner subject to the droit d'aubaine. V. AUBAINE.

AUBAINE, ôbèn, [from aubain], sf. 1. succession to the estate of a deceased alien. Droit d'—, an old feudal right by which the French kings claimed the property of aliens dying in their dominions.

2. Fig. god-send, windfall : any unexpected advantage. C'est là pour vous une —, that is a regular god-send for you. [Ironic]. Une mauvaise —, a bad affair, an unlucky chance.

AUBE, ôb', [Lat. : albus, white], sf. 1. dawn, daybreak. L'— du jour, break of day, day-break. Se lever avant l'—, to rise before day-break.

2. alb : a long white tunic worn by Catholic priests.

AUBE, ôb, [Lat. : alvus, belly], Hydraul. 1. float, float-board (of a water-wheel).

2. Naut. float, paddle-board. Aubes mobiles, feathering paddles or floats. Roues à aubes mobiles, feathering paddle-wheels.

AUBE, sf. Geogr. Aube, a river and department of France.

AUBÉPIN, ôbépan, sm. V. AUBÉPINE.

AUBÉPINE, ôbépin', (Lat. : alba spina, white thorn], sf. hawthorn, whitethorn. Fleurs d'—, May, Maybloom.

AUBÈRE, ôbĕr', [Ety. doubtful ; Lat. : albidus, whitish : Span : overo, egg-coloured], adj. and sm. fleabitten, dappled : said of the colour of a horse. L'— clair, dapple-gray. L'— rougeâtre, dapple-bay.

AUBERGE, ôberzh', [Ger. : Herbergè], sf. inn : public-house, tavern. Descendre à l'—, to put up at an inn. Vivre à l'—, to live at an inn. Tenir —, 1. to keep an inn ; 2. to keep open house ; to receive a great number of guests. Une — de village, a village inn. Une — sur la route, a road-side (or way-side) inn.

AUBERGINE, ôbèrzhin', [Span., from Ar. : al badindjan, which has furnished the Span. word alberengena and the French aubergine], sf. Bot. aubergine, solanum melongena : egg-plant, a plant of the same kind as the mad-apple.

AUBERGISTE, ôbèrzhist', sm. inn-keeper : publican, tavern-keeper ; Colloq. host, m. hostess, f. ; landlord, m. landlady, f. Appelez l'—, call the landlord, the landlady.

AUBERON, ôbœrôn, [Ety. unknown], sm. catch (of a lock).

AUBERY, ôberi [Antoine], historian (1616-1695).

AUBE-VIGNE, ôb'-viny', sf. Bot. traveller's joy : clematis vitalba.

AUBIER, ôbyé, [Lat. : albus, white], sm. sap-wood, sap ; (in Bot. language) alburnum.

AUBIFOIN, ôbifwan, [Lat. : albus, white ; fænum, hay), or AUBITON, obitôn, sm. blue-bottle, blue centaury.

AUBIGNÉ, ôbinyé, [Théodore-Agrippa d'], historian (1552-1630).

AUBIN, ôban, [from English hobby], sm. Horsem. Canterbury gallop, hand-gallop ; canter.

AUBINER, ôbiné-r, vn. Horsem. to canter.

AUBINER, ôbiné-r, [orig. unknown], Hortic. to strike (vine-cutting) : to plant them in trenches for propagation.

AUBOUR, ôbour, [Lat. : albus, white], sm. 1. sap-wood, sap ; 2. Bot. laburnum : cytisus laburnum.

AUBRIER, ôbrié, [Low Lat. : hoberarius], sm. Ornith. hobby : a small species of falcon.

AUBRYET, ôbrié, [Xavier], essayist and humorist (1827-1883).

AUCUN, ôkœn ; before a word beginning with a vowel or mute h : oku-n ; as, aucun ami, ôku-n ami ; but only when the word after aucun is a noun ; in the plural, the s is pronounced as z before a vowel sound [Ital. : alcuno, from Lat. : aliquis unus], adj. m. AUCUNE, ôkun', adj. f. 1. any. Avez-vous entendu aucun discours qui vous fît croire ? have you heard any speech which made you believe ? Je n'ai jamais fait aucun mal, I have never done any harm. Je ne me mêlais plus d'aucunes affaires, I no longer took part in any affairs, in any business. Montes. L. pers. 8. Sans exception aucune, without any exception. Il a obtenu ce qu'il demandait sans aucun frais, he obtained what he wanted without any expense. Le parlement défendit qu'on prît aucuns deniers dans les recettes publiques pour les soudoyer, the parliament forbade that any of the public money should be taken to pay them. Volt. L. XIV. 5. La république n'avait ni aucunes troupes régulières ni aucun officier expérimenté, the republic had neither any regular troops nor any experienced officer. Volt. L. XV. 21.

2. (preceded or followed by the negative particle ne) no, not any. Aucun philosophe n'ignore que..., no philosopher is ignorant that... Il ne manquait d'aucunes choses, he wanted for nothing. N'ayant aucun emploi qu'à passer une vie douce et innocente, having no occupation but to live a pleasant and innocent life. N'ayant aucuns soins ni passions qui me troublassent, having no cares or passions to trouble me. Desc. II. I. Le bon historien n'est d'aucun temps ni d'aucun pays, the good historain is of no time and of no country. Fén. Aucun poète, aucun historien de cette nation ne peut être comparé aux nôtres, no poet, no historian of that nation can be compared to ours.

AUCUN, E, (pronounced the same as the adjective above, except that the masculine singular always retains its nasality before a word beginning with a vowel sound) indef. pron. 1. any, any one : pl. some, some persons, some few. Je ne crois pas qu'aucun puisse y parvenir, I do not believe that any one can attain it. Cela me défend de penser qu'aucun me lo dispute, that forbids me to think that any one disputes it with me. Je doute qu'aucun de vous le fasse, I doubt that any of you will do it. De tous ceux qui se disaient mes amis, aucun m'a-t-il secouru ? of all those who called themselves my friends, has any one helped me ? Aucuns ont assuré comme chose positive, some have asserted as a positive fact. Aucuns disent, et je n'ai pas de peine à le croire, some say, and I can easily believe it. Phèdre était si succinct qu'aucuns l'en ont blâmé, Phædrus was so succinct (brief) that some have found fault with him on that head. La Font. Fab. VI. I.

2. (with the negative particle ne) none (sing. or pl.), no one, not one. Je ne connais aucun de vos juges, I do not know one (or any one) of your judges ; I know none (or I do not know any) of your judges. Aucun n'est content de son sort, no man is satisfied with his lot. Aucun d'eux n'assouvit la soif qui me dévore, not one of them assuages the thirst which devours me. Aucun de nos grands écrivains n'a travaillé le genre de l'épopée, none of our great writers have (or has) attempted the epopee (or epic style). Volt. Essaie, poesie ép. chap. IX. Il n'y aucun de ses amis qui ne partageât sa fortune avec lui, not one of his friends but would have shared his fortune with him. Aucun n'est prophète chez soi, no one is a prophet in his own country. La Font. Fab. VIII. 26.

3. (used absolutely) none, not one, none whatever. Y avait-il là quelqu'un de vos amis ? Aucun, was any one of your friends there ? Not one. Quels faits peut-il alléguer à l'appui de son opinion ? Aucun, what facts can he allege in support of his opinion ? Not one (or none whatever).

† AUCUNEFOIS, ôkun'fwâ, adv. sometimes, at times.

AUCUNEMENT, ôkun'mân-t, adv. 1. any way, in any way (or wise), by any means, at all. Est-il — question de..., is there any question of... Je ne crois pas qu'on puisse — soutenir, I do not think it can be in any way maintained. Je ne puis le souffrir —, I cannot suffer it on any account (or by any means).

2. (when directly affected by the negative particle ne, or when used alone in reply to an assertion or question) in no way (or wise), by no means ; not in any way, not in the least, not at all. Cela ne modifie — mon opinion, that does not in any way modify my opinion. Je ne le connais —, I do not know him at all, I have no knowledge of him whatever. Est-ce que je vous incommode ? —, monsieur, do I inconvenience you ? Not in the least, sir.

AUDACE, ôdas', [Lat. : audacia, from audax, which from audeo], sf. 1. audacity : a) daring, boldness, hardihood, intrepidity ; b) presumption, impudence ; 2. audaciousness, impudent presumption. [Audacity is sometimes used in a bad sense ; audaciousness always.] Etre plein d'—, to be full of daring (or hardihood). — héroïque, heroic daring. Madame, excusez mon —, Madam, escuse my boldness, my presumption. Pour excuser l'— de ces figures, to excuse the boldness of these (rhetorical) figures. Avec —, insolently. Se payer d'—, to face it out.

3. daring act, bold expression; bold stroke.

AUDACIEUSEMENT, ôdasiœz'mân-t, adv. audaciously : a) daringly, boldy ; b) impudently.

AUDACIEUX, EUSE, odasiœ-z, œz', (audace) adj. 1. audacious : a) bold, daring ; b) impudent, brazen-faced · 2. sm. Un projet —, a bold project. Un jeune —, a daring youth.

AU DEÇA, ô-dœsa, adv. phr. on this side. Au deça des Alpes, on this side of the Alps. Rester au deça de ses prétentions, to stop short of one's claims. V. Deça.

AU DEDANS, ô-dœdân, adv. phr. inside, within. Le glaive au dehors, le remords au dedans, the sword without, remorse within. Il est au dedans de la maison, he is inside the house. V. DEDANS.

AU DEHORS, ô-dœôr, adv. phr. outside, without : abroad. Au dehors de la maison, outside the house. Formidable au dehors, méprisable au dedans, formidable abroad, contemptible at home. V. DEHORS.

AU DELA, ô-dœla, adv. on that side, beyond. V. DELA.

AU-DESSOUS, ô-dœsou-z, adv. phr. below, beneath. V. DESSOUS.

AU-DESSUS, ô-dœsu-z, adv. phr. above, over, upwards. V. DESSUS.

AU-DEVANT, ô-dœvân, adv. phr. before, etc. V. DEVANT.

AUDIENCE, ôdiâns', [Lat. : audientia], sf. 1. audience : a) hearing, the act of hearing ; b) liberty or opportunity of speaking with or before any one c) auditory, persons collected to hear ; d) in Spain and Spanish America, a supreme court ; the district over which its jurisdiction extends. Donnez-moi un moment d'—, give me a moment's audience (or hearing). Il a obtenu une — favorable, he obtained a favourable hearing. Demander, accorder une —, to request, to grant an audience. Les ambassadeurs furent admis à l'— du roi, the ambassadors were admitted to the king's audience. Salle d'—, audience-chamber. — particulière, private audience. — publique, public audience. — solennelle, solemn audience. Toute l'— en fut scandalisée, the whole audience (assembly) was scandalized by it.

2. sitting (of a court or tribunal). — publique, open court. — à huis clos, closed court, sitting with closed doors, in camera. En pleine —, in open court. L'— est levée, the sitting is ended. Tenir l'—, to be sitting (of a judge), to preside. Cette affaire occupera trois audiences, that affair wil occupy three sittings.

3. court, sessions-hall. On le mit hors de l'—, he was turned out of court.

AUDIENCIER, ôdiânsyé, sm. crier (of a court of law).

AUDITEUR, ôditœr, sm. 1. hearer, auditor, m. or f., auditress, f. Les auditeurs l'ont applaudi, his auditors (or hearers) applauded him.

2. auditor : a) a person charged to examine accounts ; b) a kind of ecclesiastical functionary.

AUDITIF, IVE, ôditif, iv', adj. Anat. auditory. Nerf —, auditory nerve.

AUDITION, ôdisyôn, [Lat. : auditio] sf. 1. hearing : the act of hearing ; 2. Physiol. audition : the sense, the act of hearing ; 3. auditing (of an account). Il est difficile de juger d'une pièce de théâtre à la première —, it is difficult to judge of a play at the first hearing (or after hearing it only once). L'— des témoins, the hearing (or examination) of witnesses. — musicale, musical perfomance.

AUDITOIRE, ôditwâr, sm. 1. auditory : a) lecture-room, hall (of a tribunal, etc.) ; b) audience : persons assembled to hear ; 2. congregation : persons assembled in a place of worship. Ce professeur a toujours un nombreux —, that professor always has a good audience, a good many hearers.

AUDITORAT, ôditora-t, sm. auditorship : an ecclesiastical office.

AUGE, ôzh', [Lat. : alveus, whence aljo, alge, auge), sf. 1. trough : a vessel to hold food or water for animals ; horse-trough, pig-trough, etc. ; 2. Mason. tray, hod (for mixing plaster of Paris or carrying mortar) ; 3, the cavity between the branches of a horse's lower jaw ; 4. pentrough, penstock (of a water-mill) · 5. (more correctly AUGET) bucket (of an overshot water-wheel) ; 6. trough (of a grind-stone) ; 7. Naut. tarbucket. — galvanique, pile à —, galvanic trough. — de rafraîchissement, Metall. cooling-trough.

AUGÉE, ôzhé, sf. trayful, hodful, bossful (of plaster or mortar).

AUGELOT, ozhœlo, sm. Agr. trench (in which vine-cuttings are planted).

AUGER, ôzhé, (Louis-Simon), essayist and critic (1772-1829).

AUGET, ozhè, [auge], sm. 1. small trough ; 2. seed-trough or drawer (of a bird-cage) ; 3. spout (of a mill-hopper) ; 4. bucket (of an over-shot water-wheel). Roue à augets, overshot water-wheel.

AUGIER, ôzhié, [Emile], dramatic poet (1820-1699).

AUGMENT, ôgmân-t, sm. 1. Gr. Gram. augment ; 2. Med. augmentation, augment : the period during which the symptoms of a disease continue to increase ; 3. (in old French law) increase (of jointure).

AUGMENTABLE ôgmântabl', adj. augmentable.

AUGMENTATEUR, TRICE, ôgmântatœr, tris', smf. augmenter.

AUGMENTATIF, IVE, ôgmântatif, iv', adj. Gram. augmentative.

AUGMENTATION, ôgmântâsyôn ; in poet. siôn, sf. 1. augmentation : increase, accession, addition, enlargement, growth ; 2. increase, rise (of salaries, wages); 3. rise, advance (of prices).

AUGMENTER, ôgmânté-r, [Low Lat. : augmentāre, from augēre; augmentum, increase], va. to augment : a) to increase, to enlarge, to make larger or more numerous; b) to raise rents, prices, wages, etc. Chaque jour il augmente sa fortune, he augments (or increase) his fortune every day. — le prix des denrées, to raise (or advance) the price of provisions. — sa maison, ses terres, to enlarge one's house, one's estate. Cela augmentait la discorde, that increased the discord. — les gages de ses ouvriers (or simply — ses ouvriers), to raise the wages of one's work-people. — un employé, to raise a clerk's salary. Ces ouvriers veulent qu'on les augmente, these workmen demand higher wages. Vous allez être augmenté, they are going to raise your salary, your wages.

AUGMENTER, vn. 1. to augment : a) to increase (in size, number, amount, or intensity); b) to rise, advance, improve (in speaking of prices). Sa fortune a augmenté du double cette année, his fortune has doubled this year. Le froid va en augmentant, the cold keeps increasing. Ses forces augmentent, his strength increase. Le prix du blé augmente, the price of wheat is rising.

2. to rise, advance, or improve in price. Le sucre augmente, sugar is rising.

3. Naut. — de voiles, to set (or clap on more sail.

AUGMENTER (s'), v. refl. to augment : to increase in size, length, number, or intensity; 2. to be augmented or increased. Leurs richesses s'augmentent, their wealth augments or increases. Son courage s'augmentera par les difficultés, his courage will be increased by the difficulties.

AUGURAL, E, ôgural, al', adj. augural. Bâton —, augural staff, augur's staff. Science augurale, the science of augury. Collège —, the college of augurs.

AUGURE, ôgur', [Lat. : augur, augurium], sm. 1. Rom. Hist. augur : soothsayer, diviner. César fut désigné le souverain des augures, Cæsar was appointed chief of the augurs.

2. augury : omen, sign (of a future event). De bon —, of good augury or omen. De mauvais —, ill-omened, ominous (of evil). Cet événement est un bon —, ou d'un bon —, that event is a good omen (or bodes well). Je tire bon — de cette réponse, I augur well from that reply. C'est un oiseau de mauvais —, he (in speaking of a man) is a bird of ill omen. Être de bon —, de mauvais — pour, to bode well, to bode ill to or for. Allez, Catilina, ne craint pas les augures, Go, Catilina has no fear of omens. Volt. Catil. I, 3.

AUGURER, ôguré-r, va. to augur. — Mieux de l'avenir, to augur better of the future. De ce soupir que faut-il que j'augure? what most I augur (or what omen must I draw) from that sigh? Rac. Iphig. I. 3. — bien d'une chose, to augur well (to have a favourable opinion) of a thing.

AUGUSTE, ôgust', [Lat. : augustus], adj. august : imposing awe or veneration, majestic, noble, grand. Air, présence —, majestic air, august presence. Un — personnage, an august personage : said of any member of a sovereign family.

AUGUSTE, pnm. Augustus : a title given to Octavius by the Roman senate, now used as a man's name; Fig. patron of learning and the arts.

† AUGUSTE, pnm. August : the month of August. Le roi ordonna du cardinal de Bouillon, par ses lettres du mois d'Auguste (que nous nommons si mal à propos août), the king ordered Cardinal de Bouillon by his letters of the month of August (which we so inappropriately call août). Volt. Louis XIV. Quiétisme.

AUGUSTEMENT, ôgust'mân-t, adv. augustly, majestically.

AUGUSTIN, ôgustan (dimitive of Auguste), pnm. 1. Augustine; 2. sm. Augustine (or Austin) friar, Augustinian. Saint-Augustin, Print. English : a size of type next larger than pica.

AUGUSTINE, ôgustin', pnf. 1. Augustina; 2. nf. Augustinian nun; 3. spirit-lamp foot-warmer : a foot-stool with a spirit-lamp inside.

AUJOURD'HUI, ôzhourdui, [abbrev. au, jour de hui · hui, Lat., hodie, to-day], adv. 1. to-day, this day. Elle arrivera —, she will arrive to-day. Je l'ai vu —, I have seen him to-day. Il fait bien chaud —, it is very hot to-day. On a remis l'affaire à —, the affair had been put off (or postponed) till to-day. Le jour d'—, this day. Il part dès —, he starts (or leaves) this very day. D'— en huit, en quinze, this day week, this day fortnight. Il y a — (ou d'auj.) huit jours, quinze jours, a week, a fortnight ago to-day; a week back, a fortnight back. Jusqu'—, (ou jusqu'à —), till to day (or this day). [Jusques — was the form used by the great writers of the 17th century, but is now obsolete.] A dater, à partir d'—, from to-day, from this day forth (or forward). D'— seulement je jouis de ma gloire, from this day only do I enjoy my glory. Rac. Andr. II, 5. Ce n'est pas d'— que je le connais, I have known him longer than to-day.

2. the present day or time, at the present day or time, now, nowadays. Les hommes d'—, the men of the present day, the men of the day, of the period. Les modes d'—, the fashions of the day. Vous êtes — ce qu'autrefois je fus, you are now what I rmerly (or once) was. Au siècle d'—, in the present century. — que la vapeur abrège les distances, now that steam shortens distances. — où ce vice a infecté tous les âges, now that (or nowadays when) this vice has infected persons of every age. Mass. Prod.

3. one day, to-day. — elle dit blanc et demain elle dit noir, one day she says white, another day black. — sur le trône, demain dans un cachot, to day on the throne. tomorrow in a dungeon. Corn.

4. sm. to-day. Les hommes n'ont qu'un —, men have but one day. — passé, ce sera trop tard, after to-day it will be too late. Prov. : Aujourd'hui chevalier, demain vacher, to-day a man, to morrow a mouse. Aujourd'hui en chère, demain en bière, here to-day and gone to-morrow, to-day me tomorrow thee. Aujourd'hui en fleurs, demain en pleurs, to day in gold, too-morrow in the mould.

AULARD, ôtar [François-Victor-Alfonse], historian (b. 1849).

AULIQUE, ôlik', [Lat. : aulicus; aula, court; Gr. : αὐλή], adj. Aulic. Conseil —, Aulic Council; the supreme court of the old German Empire. Conseiller —, Aulic councillor.

† AULIQUE, sf. thesis.

AULNAIE, ôné, etc. V. AUNAIE, etc.

AULOFFÉE, ôlofé, sf. Naut. luffing up.

AULX, ô, pl. of AIL, which see.

AULOSTOME, ôlostom', [Gr. : αὐλός, flute; στόμα, mouth], sm. Ichth. flute-mouth, trumpet-fish.

AUMAILLES, ômay', [Lat. : animalia, animals], sf. pl. horned cattle, black cattle.

AUMÔNE, ômôn', [Lat., from Gr. : ἐλεημοσύνη, compassion, alms], sf. 1. alms; 2. alms-giving : the practice of giving alms; 3. alms-deed : the act of giving alms. Faire l'—, to give alms (or an alms, the word being properly of the singular number, though often used as if plural). Demander l'—, to ask an alms, to beg. Donner l'— à, to give alms to, to bestow charity on. Vivre d'—, to live on charity. Mettre, réduire à l'—, to reduce to beggary. Une femme forte, pleine d'aumônes et de bonnes œuvres, a strong-minded woman, full of alms deeds and good works. Boss. Le Tellier. La petite — est la bonne, the smallest gratuity is thankfully received. Il a l'air de demander l'— au coin d'un bois, he looks like a highwayman. Il semble qu'on lui demande l'—, it is like drawing money out of him, he pays what he owes as if he were making a present of it.

4. (in feudal times) land held for charitable purposes. — fieffée, real estate held in frankalmoigne.

AUMÔNER, ômôné-r, va. Old Law. to fine, or to pay a fine, for the benefit of the poor.

AUMÔNERIE, ômônœri, sf. almonry : the office or residence of an almoner.

AUMÔNIER, ÈRE, ômônyé, yèr', adj. charitable, almsgiving.

AUMÔNIER, sm. 1. almoner; 2. chaplain (of a college, hospital, regiment, or ship). Grand —, grand almoner; lord high almoner (in England).

AUMÔNIÈRE, sf. 1. almoner (of a nunnery, etc.); 2. alms-bag : purse suspended from the waist.

AUMUCE, AUMUSSE, ômus', [Origin doubtful; Ger. : Mütze, cap, from Lat. : almucia], sf. amice, amess, almuce : originally a fur cap worn by certain ecclesiastics; at present, a fur ornament worn on the arms.

AUNAGE, ônazh', [auner], sm. alnage : a) measuring (cloth, etc.) by the ell; b) properly, measure in ells, but often used in speaking of other units of length; c) a duty on cloth formerly paid by dealers. Vérifiez l'— de cette pièce de velours, verify the measure of that piece of velvet.

AUNAIE, ônè, [aune], sf. alder-plot, alder-grove, plantation of alders.

AUNÂTRE, ônâtr', sf. Bot. gray or white alder.

AUNE, ôn', [Lat. : ulna], sf. ell : a) an old French measure for cloth, etc., equal to 1 m. 183 mill., or 46.5 English inches; b) an ell length of anything; c) ell-wand, ell-stick (to measure with). Une — de soie, an ell of silk. Large d'une —, ell-wide. Savoir ce que vaut l'—, to know the cost of a thing. Je sais ce qu'en vaut l'—, I know it to my cost. Avoir le visage allongé d'une —, to pull a long face, to look disappointed. Tant du long de l'—, excessively, to excess. On y babille tout du long de l'—, there is no end to the chattering there. Il en aura tout du long de l'—, he will catch it finely, he will have a bad time of it. Les hommes ne se mesurent pas à l'—, men are not to be judged by their height or size. Mesurer les autres à son —, to measure other people's corn by one's own bushel. Au bout de l'— faut le drap, all things come to an end, there is an end to all things.

AUNE, ôn, [Lat. : alnus], sm. Bot. 1. alder, alder-tree, alder-bush; 2. alder-wood. — commun, common or black alder.

AUNÉE, ôné, sf. Bot. elecampane : inula helenium.

AUNER, ôné-r, va. to measure (by the ell). Une pièce d'étoffe bien aunée, a piece of cloth accurately measured ; Fam. — l'habit de quelqu'un, to measure a man's jacket (with a stick).

AUNEUR, ônœr, sm. alnager : formerly an official measurer. — juré, sworn alnager.

AUPARAVANT, ôparavân-t, [au, par, avant], adv. 1. before, previously ; 2. first. Quelques mois —, some months before. L'hiver d'—, the previous winter. Si vous voulez partir, dites-nous — ce qu'il faut faire, if you are resolved to go, first tell us what must be done. [Aup. is now always used absolutely : such forms as. — l'année prochaine, — de faire, and — qu'il fit, though found in the great authors of the 17th century, have become obsolete.]

AUPRÈS, ôprè-z, [au, près], adv. near, close by, hard by ; at hand, near or close at hand. Être tout —, to be quite near or close at hand. Tout — coule une petite rivière, close by runs a rivulet. Si vous n'êtes pas —, nous ne pourrons le faire, if you are not near at hand, we shall not be able to do it.

AUPRÈS de, prep. phr. 1. near, near to, close to or by. Venez — de moi, come near or close to me. Il est logé — du palais, he lodges (or lives) near the palace. Sa maison est tout — de la mienne, his house stands quite close to mine. Une maison de campagne — de Paris, a country-house near Paris. Je l'ai vu périr — de moi, I saw him perish by (or at) my side. Fén. Tél. xvii.

2. about (a person) : in attendance on, in the service of. Ce malade a — de lui un médecin très habile, this sick man is attended by a very skilful physician (or has a very skilful physician in attendance on him). Je ne voudrais pas avoir un tel homme — de moi, I would not have (or keep) such a person about me.

3. to : a) to the presence of ; b) Fig. in the opinion of. Etre admis — du prince, to be admitted to the prince (or to the prince's presence). Avoir libre accès — de quelqu'un, to have free access to a person. L'ambassadeur d'Espagne, — de l'Empereur d'Autriche, the ambassador of Spain to the Emperor of Austria. Elle l'a noirci — de sa sœur, she calumniated him to her sister. Il s'est justifié — de moi, he has justified himself to me.

4. with : a) under the care of ; b) Fig. in the opinion or esteem of. Cette jeune personne a toujours vécu — de ses parents, this young lady has always lived with her parents. Trouver grâce — de, to find favour with. Etre bien — d'une personne puissante, to be in high favour with a powerful person. Usant de son autorité — du maître de la maison, using his authority with the master of the house. Il cherche à me nuire — de vous, he seeks to injure me with you (or in your esteem).

5. to, in comparaison (or compared) with or to. Il est heureux — de nous, he is happy compared with us. Votre malheur n'est rien — du mien, your misfortune is nothing to mine, nothing in comparison with or to mine. La terre n'est qu'un atome — du reste de l'univers, the earth is but an atom compared with the rest of the universe.

AURA, ora, [Lat., vapour], sf. Med. aura : a vapour or an emanation from the body. — épileptique, hystérique, the aura of epilepsy, of hysteria.

AURANTIACÉES, orânsiase, [Lat. : aurantium, orange-tree], sf. pl. Bot. aurantiaceæ : an order of plants including the orange-tree.

AURATE, ôrat', sm. Chem. aurate.

AURÉLIE, ôréli, pnf. Aurelia.

AURÉLIEN, ôrélyan, pnm. Aurelian.

AURÉOLE, ôréol', [Lat. : aureolus, gold colour ; aurum, gold], sf. 1. aureola : Paint. the luminous circle represented round the head of saints ; 2. halo of glory (in speaking of heroes, etc.) ; 3. Med. areola : the dark circle round the nipple, V. ARÉOLE ; 4. Astron. corona : a luminous circle round the sun during an eclipse.

AURÉOLER, ôréolé-r (auréole) va. to encircle, to form a halo round.

AURICULAIRE, ôrikulèr', [Lat. : auricularius ; auricula, dim. of auris, the ear], adj. 1. auricular : a) belonging or related to the ear ; b) relating to the auricles of the heart. Artère, veine —, auricular artery, vein. Conduit, nerf —, (in this case auditif is more correct), auditory conduit, nerve. Témoin —, ear witness. Confession —, auricular confession. Doigt —, the little finger. Plumes auriculaires, Ornith. auricular feathers. Diphtongue —, ear diphthong (in which two vowel sounds are heard).

2. sm. the little finger.

AURICULE, ôrikul', [Lat. : auricula, little ear], sf. 1. auricle : pavillon of the ear, the outer ear ; 2. Bot. auricula : a) small appendage at the base of a petal, leaf, etc. ; b) a flower, also called bear's ear ; 3. Ornith. auricular : tuft of feathers about the ear of a bird.

AURICULÉ, E, ôrikulé, adj. Bot. auricled, auriculated.

AURIFÈRE, ôrifèr', [Lat. : aurum, gold, ferre, to bear], adj. auriferous : containing gold.

AURIFICATION, ôrifikâsyôn, sf. Dent. stopping or plugging (decayed teeth) with gold.

AURIFIER, ôrifié-r, va. to stop or plug (decayed teeth) with gold.

AURIFIQUE, ôrifik', adj. aurific, auriferous : gold-producing.

AURIFORME, ôrifòrm, adj. Nat. His. auriform : ear-shaped.

AURILLARD, ôriyar'. V. ORILLARD.

AURIPENNE, ôripèn, [Lat. : aurum, gold ; penna, feather], adj. Ornith. golden-winged.

AURIQUE, ôrik', [Lat. : auris, ear], adj. Naut. trapezoidal : quadrilateral, but not square, said of sails. Voile —, shoulder-of-mutton sail, Bermuda sail, lug-sail.

AURIQUE, ôrik, [Lat. : aurum, gold], adj. Chem. auric : obtained from gold. Acide —, auric acid.

AURISCALPE, ôriskalp', [Lat. : auris, ear ; calpĕre, to scratch], sm. auriscalp : a surgical instrument for the ear.

AURISCOPE, ôriskop, OTOSCOPE, ôtoskōp, [Lat. : auris, ear ; Gr. : σκοπεῖν, to look], sm. Med. auriscope : instrument for examining the Eustachian massage of the ear.

AURISTE, ôrist, [Lat. : auris, ear], sm. aurist : ear-doctor : specialist for diseases of the ear.

AUROCHS, ôrocks, [Ger. : Auerochs], sm. Zool. aurochs : Bos urus, a kind of wild ox.

AURONE, ôron', sf. Bot. southernwood : Artemisia abrotanum.

AURORE, ôrôr', [Lat. : aurora], pnf. 1. Aurora : Myth. the goddess of the dawn.

2. sf. dawn : a) day-break or peep of day, morning twilight ; b) Fig. dawning, commencement, beginning. Avant l'—, before dawn. A l'—, at day break. C'est un plaisir de voir lever l'—, it is a pleasure (or it is pleasant) to see (or watch) the rising dawn. Sév. lett. 200. L'— commençait à paraître, the dawn was beginning to appear. L'— aux doigts de rose, rosy-fingered dawn (or morn). Fén. Les pleurs de l'—, morning-dew. [Fig.:] L'— de la vie, the dawn (or dawning) of life. C'est l'— d'un beau jour, it is the dawning of brighter days, of happier times. L'— d'un beau règne, the dawn (or beginning) of a glorious reign. Une beauté dans son —, a dawning beauty, a beauty in her dawn.

3. morning, day. Dès ma première —, from the day of my birth. Jusqu'à sa dernière —, to his latest (his dying) day. Comme une fleur qui n'a vu qu'une —, like a flower which has seen but a single day. Rac. Esth. i, 5.

4. Poet. the east. Qu'un vent vienne à souffler du soir ou de l'—, if a breeze happen to blow from the setting or the rising sun, from the west or the east. Lamar. Harm. i. 5.

5. Meteorol. aurora : the polar lights. Aurore boréale, aurora borealis, northern lights. — australe, aurora australis, southern lights.

AURORE, invar. adj. saffron, reddish yellow : the colour of the sky at dawn. De la soie —, saffron, (or reddish yellow) silk. Ruban —, saffron ribbon. Garnitures —, saffron trimmings.

AURORE, sm. saffron colour : reddish yellow.

AURURE, ôrur', [Lat. : aurum, gold], sm. Chem. a combination of gold and another metal.

AUSCULTATION, ôskultâsyôn, sf. Med. auscultation. L'— est directe (ou immédiate) et indirecte (ou médiate), auscultation is direct (or immediate) and indirect (or mediate)

AUSCULTER, ôskulté-r, [Lat. : auscultāre, to listen], va. Med. to auscultate, to practise auscultation.

AUSONIE, ôzoni, [Lat. : ausonia], sf. Anc. Geog. Ausonia : a poetical name for Italy.

AUSPICE, ôspis', [Lat. : auspicium ; avis, bird ; spicĕre, to observe ; auspex, auspicis, a bird-seer], sm. auspice : a) Rom. Hist. divination by the flight of birds ; b) Fig. omen ; c) generally in the plural, influence, protection, favour. Sous de bons, sous de mauvais auspices, under good, under evil auspices. Heureux —, a happy omen. Jamais hymen fut formé sous un plus noir auspice, never was a marriage celebrated under a more gloomy auspice (or omen). Rac. Mithr. i. 2. Né sous les plus heureux auspices, born under the most happy auspices. Nous sommes en sûreté, sous ses auspices, we are safe under his auspices. Sév. 225. J'entreprendrai cette affaire sous vos auspices, I will undertake this business under your auspices.

AUSSI, ôsi, [Lat. : aliud sic, later alsi, and then, aussi), adv. 1. also, too, likewise. Il y avait — un de mes amis, one of my friends was also there. Je l'aurais trompé —, I should have deceived him also (or likewise). Lui et les autres —, him (or he) and the others also (or as well). Comptez — les dépenses accessoires, reckon (or count) the accessory expenses also or likewise. Dites-lui — que je ne veux plus le voir, tell him also (likewise, further, or besides) that I will see him no more. Il dit — qu'il avait du poisson chez lui, he also said, that he had some fish at home.

2. as (before an adjective or adverb followed by que), as much (before a past participle) ; so or so much (after a negative). Si le soleil est — grand qu'il paraît, if the sun is as large as it looks (or appears). J'ai — soif que vous, I am as thirsty as you are. Vous les connaissez — bien que moi, you know them as well as I do. L'âne est — humble, aussi patient, aussi tranquille que le cheval est fier, ardent, impétueux, the ass is as humble, patient, and quiet as the horse is spirited, fiery, and impetuous. Buffon. Âne. Cette maison est — fréquentée que jamais, that house is as much frequented as ever.

3. neither (generally with inversion of the verb and subject). Comme je ne sais d'où je viens, — je ne sais où je vais, as I do not know whence I come, neither do I know whither I am going. Pascal. Pensées, IX. I. [In such constructions modern writers always use non plus instead of aussi.]

4. so : used with adjectives and adverbs. Dans une patrie — glorieuse, in a country so glorious. Avec une sagesse — rare, with wisdom so rare, so unusual. La voyant dans une position — brillante, seeing her in a position so brilliant, in so brilliant a position. — peu encourageant, so disheartening, so discouraging. Il est bon ; — tout le monde l'aime, he is good, therefore every body likes him.

AUSSI, conj. so, and so, therefore : for that reason, consequently. Il sert un maître qui le maltraite, — le veut-il quitter, he serves a master who ill-treats him, and so he wishes to leave him. Ces étoffes sont belles, — coûtent-elles cher, these stuffs (or tissues) are handsome, and therefore dear (or expensive). Il m'a prié de t'écrire ; — le fais-je, he requested me to write to you ; therefore (consequently or accordingly) I do so.

AUSSI BIEN, adv. phr. indeed, in fact, for, as. Je ne veux point aller au spectacle, — bien est-il trop tard, I do not want to go to the play, indeed it is too late. Il ne s'agit pas de réfuter ces rêveries qui, — bien tombent d'elles-mêmes, there is no occasion to refute these idle dreams, which, indeed, refute themselves. Vous êtes, aussi bien, le véritable roi, you are, in fact, the true king. Corn. Nicom. II. 2. Peut-être que tu mens aussi bien comme lui, perhaps you are as untruthful as he is. Corn. Ment. IV, 7.

AUSSI BIEN QUE, conj. phr. as well as, equally. Que l'univers s'étonne du supplice — bien que du crime, let the universe be astounded by the punishment as well as by the crime. Perdez-en la mémoire — bien que le vue, let it pass from your memory as well as from your sight. [The verb following two substantives connected by aussi bien que may be either in the singular or plural :] Cela n'empêche pas que toute sa divinité — bien que toute son humanité ne soit..., that does not prevent all his divinity as well as all his humanity from being... Pascal, Prov. 16. Celui qui parle — bien que celui qui écoute seront enveloppés dans une même ruine, he who speaks as well as he who hears will be involved in one and the same ruin. Fléch. Serm. I.

AUSSIÈRE, ôsiêr', sf. Naut. hawser. V. HAUSSIÈRE.

AUSSITÔT, ôsitô, [aussi ; tôt], adv. 1. immediately, at once. J'irai —, tout —, I will go at once (or immediately). — après votre départ, immediately (or directly) after your departure. — dit, — fait : — pris, — pendu, no sooner said than done.

2. (with or without que) as soon as. Votre père y sera — que vous, your father will be there as soon as yourself. — la lettre reçue, vous partirez, as soon as (or directly) the letter comes, you will start. — le jour paraît, as soon as daylight appears. — fait que dit, done as soon as said, no sooner said than done. — que la nouvelle se répandit..., as soon as the news spread.... — qu'il aura fait son travail, as soon as he has done his work. Prov. : V. VEAU.

AUSTER, ôstêr, [Lat. : auster], sm. auster : the south wind.

AUSTÈRE, ôstêr', [Lat. : austerus], adj. austere : a) harsh, rough, sharp (to the taste) ; b) stern, strict, rigid (in a moral sense) ; c) Fine Arts, stern, severe. a) Le coing a une saveur —, the quince has a harsh taste. Vins austères, rough wines. b) Un homme —, an austere (or stern) man. Jeûne —, rigid fast. — fierté, stern haughtiness. Austères pour les autres, doux pour eux-mêmes, austere (or strict) towards others, indulgent to themselves. c) Le genre — est opposé au genre gracieux, the severe style is opposed to the graceful. Mener une vie —, to lead an austere life.

AUSTÈREMENT, ôstêr'mân-t, adv. austerely: a) sharply, roughly; b) sternly, severely, strictly. Il a vécu —, he lived austerely : he led an austere life.

AUSTÉRITÉ, ôstérité, [Lat. : austeritas] sf. 1. austereness : roughness, sharpness (of taste) ; 2. austerity; a) austereness, sterness, severity ; strictness ; b) an act of mortification. L — de ses mœurs, the austereness of his morals. — républicaine, republican austerity. L'— de la règle de saint Bruno, the austerity (or strictness) of St. Bruno's rule. Son corps est affaibli par les austérités, his body is debilitated by austerities.

AUSTRAL, E, ôstral, al', adj. austral : pl. m. AUSTRAUX, ôstrô, [Lat. : australis : auster, the south wind], southern, antartic. Terres australes, austral (or antartic) regions. Latitude australe, south latitude. Signes austraux, the southern signs : those south of the equator.

AUSTRALASIE, ôstralazi, sf. Australasia.

AUSTRALIE, ôstrali, sf. Australia.

AUSTRALIEN, ENNE, ôstralyân, en', adj. et s. Australian.

AUTAN, ôtân, [Provençal : autan, from Lat. : altanus ; altum, the sea], sm. 1. southwind ; 2. Poet. Auster : southern blast. L'— furieux, the furious southern blast.

AUTANT, ôtân-t, [Lat. : aliud, other ; tantum, so much], adv. 1. as much, as many. Mettez une pierre à sa place, elle vous vaudra tout autant, put a stone in its place, it will be worth quite as much to you. Je vous en rendrai mille fois —, I will return you a thousand times as much. Prêtez-moi une douzaine de plumes, je vous en rendrai —, lend me a dozen pens, I will return you as many. Cela vaut cent francs ; j'en veux tout —, it is worth a hundred francs, and I will have just so much for it. Prov. : Autant vaut être mordu d'un chien que d'une chienne, it is all one whether you are bit by a dog or a bitch.

2. as well, as good. Cela est fini ou — vaut, it is finished or as good (as finished). C'est un homme mort, ou — vaut, he is a dead man or as good (as dead). — vaudrait parler à un sourd, you might as well talk to a deaf person. — faire cela sur-le-champ, you may as well do it immediately. Ce cheval me coûte neuf cent quatre-vingts francs, — dire mille francs, this horse costs me nine hundred and eighty francs, as well say a thousand francs.

3. (with de) so much, so many. C'est — d'épargné, de gagné, it is so much saved, so much gained. — de têtes, — d'avis, so many men, so many minds. — de trous, — de chevilles, as many pegs as holes ; a peg for every hole.

4. (with que) as much as, as many as ; as good as, as well as. Vous avez — d'argent, — d'amis, que nous, you have as much money, as many friends, as we have. Je vous aime — que vous m'aimez, I love you as much as you love me. Travaillez — que vous voudrez, work as much as you like.

5. however much or many. — qu'il y a, de toile dans votre magasin, je prends tout, however much linen you may have in your shop, I will take it all. — que vous êtes, venez avec nous, however many you may be, come with us.

6. (before an adjective or adverb, and followed by que) as... as. — bien, as well as. — mal, as ill (or badly) as. Il s'en est acquitté — bien qu'il pouvait, he has acquitted himself of it as well as he could.

7. (repeated in comparisons) : — il a de vivacité, — vous avez de lenteur, he is as brisk as you are sluggish. — que les armées navales étaient disciplinées, — les troupes de terre étaient mal tenues et méprisables —, just in the same degree as the naval forces were well disciplined, the land army was ill-appointed and contemptible. Volt. L. XIV. 10. — que ce dessein était utile, — l'exécution en était pénible, the design was just as useful as its execution was difficult.

8. (with que) in so far as, in as much as. Une juste action n'a ce caractère qu'autant qu'elle est volontaire, a just action can claim that character only in so far as it is voluntary. — qu'il est en moi, as far as in me lies. — que je puis me rappeler, as far (or as well) as I can remember. — que l'a permis le malheur des circonstances, in so far as the untowardness of the circumstances permitted. Cornelius Nepos, auteur ancien et judicieux — qu'élégant, C. N. an ancient author, judicious as he is elegant. Boss. His. I. 52. Ce livre est bon — que je puis en juger, this book is good, so far as I can judge.

D'AUTANT, adv. phr. by as (or so) much, in the same proportion, to the same extent, Augmenter d'— la somme, to increase the sum by so much. Donnez-moi cent francs, vous serez quitte d'—, give me a hundred francs, you will be quit (clear) to that extent. Cela vous soulagera d'—, that will relieve you by so much. A la charge (or à charge) d'—, on condition of a return (or of a like return). Je vous rendrai ce service à la charge d'—, I will do you that service on condition of a return (or on condition that you do as much for me). Il fallait rester à table une partie de la journée, et boire d'—. J. J. Rouss. Hél. I. 23.

D'AUTANT QUE, conj. phr. as, for as much as, in as (or so) much as. D'— qu'elle est la seule chose qui nous rend hommes, as (or in so much as) it is the only thing that makes us men. Desc. Méth. I. 2. D'— qu'il m'a semblé inutile de..., or (or for) as much as it semed to me useless to.... D'— que je sache, as far as I know, for aught that I know.

D'AUTANT PLUS, D'AUTANT MOINS, D'AUTANT MIEUX, adv. phr. all the more, all the less, all the better. Il fut d'— plus facile à le repousser, it was all the easier to repulse him. Montrez-vous désintéressé vous en serez d'— plus estimé, show yourself desinterested, you will be all (so much) the more esteemed. Je suis d'— moins disposé à le servir, I am so much the less disposed to serve him.

D'AUTANT PLUS, MOINS, or MIEUX QUE, conj. phr. so much the more (or less or better) as, all the more (or less or better) as. D'— plus que nous savons fort bien que..., all the more (or so much the more) as we know very well that... Le philosophe est d'— plus coupable qu'il pêche sciemment, the philosopher is all the more guilty as (or because)he sins knowingly. L'air est d'—plus épais qu'il se trouve plus près de la terre, the air is all the denser as it is nearer to the earth. Il est d'— moins formidable qu'il est sans armes, he is all the less formidable as (or because) he has no arms. Je l'estime d'—plus qu'il est pauvre. I esteem him so much the more as he is poor.

AUTEL, ôtèl, [Lat. : altare, from altus, high], sm. 1. altar : a) Antiq. a stone structure for sacrifices ; b) extraordinary honours ; c) Rom. Cath. table at which mass is celebrated ; d) Fig. religion. a) Dans Rome les autels fumaient des sacrifices, in Rome the altars smoked with the sacrifices. Conduire une victime à l'—, to lead a victime to the altar. Conduire à l'—, Fig. to marry a person. Dresser, élever, consacrer un —, to set up, to raise, to consecrate an altar. b) Ce héros mérite qu'on lui élève des autels, that hero deserves to have altars erected to him, deserves the highest honours. c) Le prêtre monte à l'—, the priest goes up to the altar. Le saint sacrifice de l'—, the mass. Le saint sacrement de l'—, the holy sacrament of the Lord's supper, the eucharist. Qui sert à l'—, doit vivre de l'—, every one must live by his profession ; the labourer is worthy of his hire. d) Respectez les autels, respect religion. Cet homme prendrait jusque sur l'—, that man would rob a church. Les ministres des autels, the ministers of religion. L'— et le trône, the altar (or religion) and the throne ; church and king. Élever — contre —, 1. to raise altar against altar, to set up one religion against another ; 2. to struggle for superiority. Le maître —, le grand —, the high altar. Nappe d'—, altar-cloth. Pierre d'—, altar stone.

2. Astron. Ara : a southern constellation ; 3. Metall. fire-bridge (of a furnace).

AUTEUR, ôtœr, [Lat. : auctor or autor ; augêre, auctum, to increase], sm. 1. author : a) first cause, creator, maker, originator, founder ; b) producer of any original composition, literary or artistic ; c) inventor of any new contrivance ; d) discoverer of anything previously unknown ; e) perpetrator (of a crime) ; f) printed or manuscript book. a) L'— de toutes choses, Dieu, the author of all things, God. L'— de cette guerre, the author, the originator of that war. Il est l'— de sa fortune, he is the maker of his own fortune. Une femme fut l'— de l'entreprise, a woman was the originator of the enterprise. Les auteurs de mes jours, the authors of my being ; my parents. L'— d'une conspiration, the author (or originator) of a plot (or conspiracy). L'— d'un faux bruit, the originator of a false report. L'amour, le doux — de mes cruels supplices, Love, the sweet cause of all my sufferings. Corn. Cid. v. 4. b) L'— d'un livre, the author or authoress of a book. [Author may be applied to a man or a woman ; authoress to a woman only.] L'— du Cid, the author of the Cid. Mme Deshoulières — de poésies pastorales, Mme. Deshoulières, the author or authoress of some pastoral poems. Il ou elle est l'— de ce tableau, he or she is the painter of this picture. Les auteurs grecs et latins, the Greek and Latin authors. Les auteurs anciens et modernes, ancient and modern authors. Il est —, he is an author. Un — dramatique, a dramatic author. c) L'— d'un procédé, d'une machine, the inventor of a process, of a machine. L'— d'une invention, the author of an invention, an inventor. d) L'— d'une découverte, the author of a discovery, a discoverer. e) Les auteurs de ce crime atroce furent tous arrêtés, the perpetrators of this atrocious crime were all arrested. f) Lire, citer, commenter, expliquer, critiquer un —, to read, quote, annotate, explain, criticize an author.

2. informant, authority. Si vous doutez de ce que je raconte, je vous nommerai mon —, if you doubt what I relate, I will name my authority, I will give you the name of my informant. Mes droits d'—, my copyright.

3. Law-t. vouchee : person cited in guarantee. On lui disputait la possession de sa terre, il appela ses auteurs en garantie, his possession of the estate was disputed, he cited his vouchees to support his title.

AUTEUR, adj. Une femme —, a female author, an authoress. Une de mes chances était d'avoir toujours dans mes liaisons des femmes auteurs, a chance I had was to be always connected with women writers. J. J. Rous. Conf. IX.

AUTHENTICITÉ, ôtantisité, sf. authenticity : genuineness, authenticalness. L'— d'un acte, d'un écrit, the authenticity of a deed (legal instrument), of a document.

AUTHENTIQUE, ôtântik', adj. authentic, authentical ; a) property attested ; b) resting on sufficient authority. Contrat, acte —, authentic contract, authentic deed. Copie —, authentic or office copy. Ce passage n'est pas —, this passage is not authentic.

AUTHENTIQUE, sf. 1. original, original text (of any document) ; 2. pl. Authentics : a Latin version of Justinian's Novella.

AUTHENTIQUEMENT, ôtântik'mân-t, adv. authentically.

AUTHENTIQUER, ôtântiké-r, va. Old Law-t. to authenticate. Faire — un acte, to have a deed authenticated (to get it attested by the proper official). Acte authentique, authenticated deed (document).

AUTOBIOGRAPHIE, ôtobiograf', sm. autobiographer.

AUTOBIOGRAPHIE, ôtobiografi, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, one's self ; βίος, life ; γράφω, I write], sf. autobiography.

AUTO, ôto, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self], auto : familiar abbrev. of automobile.

AUTOBUS, ôtobüs, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self, auto ; bus, abbrev. of omnibus], sm. autobus, motor-bus.

AUTO-CAMION, ôto-kam'ion, sm. motor lorry.

AUTOCARPIEN, ôtokarpian, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; καρπὸς, fruit], adj. Bot. autocarpous : of such fruit as consists only of the pericarp.

AUTOCHTONE, ôtokton, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; χθών, the soil], sm. autochthon : an aboriginal inhabitant.

AUTOCHTONE, adj. autochthonal, autochthonous : aboriginal.

AUTOCINÉSIE, ôtosinesi, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, sef ; κίνησις, movement], sf. autocinesis self-movement of living matter, as of spermatozoids.

AUTOCLAVE, ôtoklav', [Gr. : αὐτὸς self ; Lat. : clavis, key], adj. and sm. Autoclave, or Marmite —, autoclave, Papin's digester.

AUTOCOPIE ôtocopi, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; copie], sf. copier : copying apparatus self copier, hectograph.

AUTOCOPISTE, ôtokopist', sm. 1. hectograph : machine to produce copies ; 2. a person who produces from a hectograph.

AUTOCRATE, ôtokrat', [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; κράτος, strength], sm. autocrat.

AUTOCRATIE, ôtokrasi, sf. autocracy a) government by one person ; b) Med. the vital principle.

AUTOCRATIQUE, ôtokratik', adj. autocratic.

AUTOCRATRICE, ôtokratis', sf. auto cratix : female autocrat.

AUTOCYCLE, ôtosîkle, [Gr.: αὐτὸς, self ; cycle], sm. motor cycle : bicycle or tricycle mechanically worked.

AUTODAFÉ, ôtodafé, [Port. : auto da fe, act of faith], [Pl. DES AUTODAFÉS], sm. auto-da-fé (pl. autos-da-fé) : execution by burning at the stake. [Fig. :] Faites un autodafé de ces papiers compromettants, make an auto-da-fé (a bonfire or a fire) of those compromising papers.

AUTODIDACTE, ôtodidakt', sm. a self-taught person.

AUTODIDAXIE, ôtodidaksi, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; διδάσκειν, to teach], sf. self-teaching, self-instruction.

AUTODIDACTIQUE, ôtodidaktik', adj. autodidactic : self-teaching. Méthode —, self-teaching method. Tenue des livres —, book-keeping without a master

AUTODYNAMIQUE, ôtodinamik', [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; δύναμις, power], adj. autodynamic : moved by its own force.

AUTOGÈNE, ôtozhene, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; γένομαι, to be born], adj. autogenous : self-generated.

AUTOGNOSE, ôtognose, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self; γνῶσις, knowledge], sf. that which is acquired by a study of one's self.

AUTOGRAPHE, ôtograf', [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; γράφειν, to write], adj. autographic, autographical : written by one's own hand Lettre —, autograph letter.

AUTOGRAPHE, sm. autograph : an original signature or manuscript. Une collection d'autographes précieux, a collection of valuable autographes.

AUTOGRAPHIE, ôtografi, sf. auto-graphy : the reproduction of facsimiles of manuscript by lithography or other processes.

AUTOGRAPHIER, ôtografié-r, va. to autograph : to produce facsimiles of a writing by lithography, a copying-press, etc.

AUTOGRAPHIQUE, ôtografik', adj. autographic, autographical.

AUTOMATE, ôtomat', [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; μάτος, effort], sf. automaton : a) a self-acting machine (especially those which imitate the actions of men or animals) ; b) Fig. machine, tool, instrument. Cet homme n'est qu'un —, 1. that man is a mere machine : he acts mechanically, without thinking 2. that man is a mere tool or instrument (in other people's hands).

AUTOMATE, adj. 1. automaton ; 2. automatic. Canard —, automaton duck. Dans sa vie — l'habitude lui tient lieu de raison, in his automatic life, habit takes the place of reason.

AUTOMATIE, ôtomasi, sf. automatic condition, automatic power, spontaneity.

AUTOMATIQUE, ôtomatik', adj. automatic, automatical, spontaneous. Le mouvement — du cœur, the automatic action of the heart.

AUTOMATIQUEMENT, ôtomatik'mân, adv. automatically, like an automaton.

AUTOMATISER, ôtomatizé-r, va. to automatize : to reduce to the state of an automaton or machine.

AUTOMATISME, ôtomatism', sm. automatism : a) Physiol. action independent or the will ; b) Philos. spontaneity ; c) (in general language) automatic state or action.

AUTOMÉDON, ôtomédôn, pnm. 1. Automedon : 2. charioteer of Achilles ; 2. charioteer, coachman, driver ; Colloq. Jehu.

AUTOMNAL, E, ôtomnal, nal' adj.

autumnal, autumn. Fièvres automnales, autumnal fevers, autumn fevers.

AUTOMNATION, ôtomnàsyô*n* (automne), sf. Agr. autumnation : the influence of autumn on plants.

AUTOMNE, ôton-, [Lat. : autumnus], smf. autumn : a) the fall of the year, the fall ; in the northern hemisphere, the peroid between the September equinox and the winter solstice ; b) Fig. the period preceding old age ; c) decline, decadence. Un — chaud et sec, a hot and dry autumn. L'— orageux, the stormy autumn. Les fruits d'une éternelle —, the fruits of an eternal autumn. J'allai à Bruxelles l'— dernière, I went to Brussels last autumn. L'— de la vie, the autumn of life. Nous sommes dans l'— du bon goût, we are now in the decline (or decadence) of good taste. [Automne, is generally regarded as masculine, but good writers of the present day, as well as of past centuries, sometimes make it feminine, especially in poetry and when it precedes an adjective : cette automne délicieuse.]

AUTOMOBILE, ôtomobil, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; Lat. : mobilis, mobile], sm. motor-car.

AUTOMOBILE, adj. automobile, self-acting. Canot —, motor-boat.

AUTOMOBILISME, ôtomobilism, sm. motoring.

AUTOMOBILISTE, ôtomobilist, sm. motor-carist.

AUTOMOTEUR, TRICE, ôtomotœr, tris', adj. self-acting, self-moving : said of machines

AUTONOME, ôtonom', [Gr : αὐτὸς ; ὄ-μος, law], adj. autonomous : self-governing, independent. Faites des principautés des puissances libres et autonomes, make the principalities free and self-governing (or independent) powers. Quelques penseurs autonomes, La Bruyère, Fénelon et autres, some independent thinkers, La Bruyère, Fénelon, and others.

AUTONOMIE, ôtonomi, sf. autonomy : home-rule, self-government, independence.

AUTONOMISTE, ôtonomist, sm. autonomist : supporter of home-rule.

AUTONYME, ôtonim, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; ὄνυμα, name] adj. autonym : of a book published with the author's name.

AUTOPLASTIE, ôtoplasti, [Gr. : αὐτὸς, self ; πλάσσειν, to form], sf. Surg. autoplasty, morioplasty.

AUTOPLASTIQUE, ôtoplastik', adj. autoplastic.

AUTOPSIE, ôtopsi, [Gr. : αὐτοψία ; αὐτὸς, self ; ὄψις, sight], sf. autopsy : a) intuitive vision, self-examination ; b) Surg. post-mortem examination. — cadavérique, post-mortem examination.

AUTOPTIQUE, ôtoptik, adj. autoptical, autopsic, autopsical.

AUTORISABLE, ôtorizabl', adj. authorizable.

AUTORISATION, ôtorizàsyô*n* ; in poet. siô*n*, sf. authorization : authority. Il a agi sans mon —, he acted without my authorization (or authority). L'— du gouvernement est nécessaire pour cela, the authorization of the government is necessary for that.

AUTORISER, ôtorizé-r, [Lat. : auctor, author], va. 1. to commission : to invest authority. C'est le roi qui autorise les magistrats, the king commissions the magistrates, invests the magistrates with their authority.

2. to authorize : a) to empower, to give authority, power, or right (to a person) ; b) to sanction (things) ; c) to warrant, to justify (persons or things) ; d) to afford a pretext for, to render justifiable or excusable (as acts, etc.). a) Je vous autorise à parler en mon nom, I authorize you to speak in my name. — une société anonyme, to authorize (or give legal sanction to) a joint-stock company. Elle voulait hypothéquer son bien, son mari ne l'avait pas autorisée, she wanted to mortgage her estate, her husband had not authorized her. b) Comment un général peut-il — de semblables violences ? how can a general authorize (or sanction) such violent deeds ? — des abus, to sanction abuses. c) Rien ne peut vous autoriser à violer vos promesses, nothing can justify you in breaking you promises. La loi autorise ce refus, the law authorizes (sanctions or justifies) this refusal. Les lois de ce pays autorisent encore l'esclavage, the laws of that country still sanction slavery. d) L'exemple des chefs autorisait les soldats à se livrer à toute sortes d'excès, the example of their officers afforded the soldiers a pretext for all sorts of excesses. L'inconduite de la mère autorise celle de la fille, the mother's misconduct is some excuse for the daughter's. Manufacture non autorisée, unauthorized manufacture. Une pratique autorisée par l'Écriture, a practice authorized (or sanctioned) by the Scriptures.

AUTORISER (s'), v. refl. 1. to acquire authority. Ces magistrats, pour s'— nourrissaient la division entre les deux ordres, these magistrates, to acquire authority (or to establish their own authority), fomented divisions between the two orders. Boss. His. III. 7.

2. to become authorized ; to get, obtain, or acquire authority. Les coutumes s'autorisent par le temps, customs become authorized (or acquire authority) by time, in course of time.

3. (with de) to allege or cite as an authority, justification or pretext. Il s'autorise de votre exemple pour parler ainsi, he alleges your example as his authority (or justification) for speaking thus. Je ne m'autorise du nom de personne, I shelter myself under no man's name : I act on my own responsibility.

AUTORITÉ, ôtorité, [Lat : auctoritas, from aucto, I increase], sf. authority : a) legal power, dominion, rule, or sway ; b) government ; c) in the pl., agents of government ; d) influence, consideration, weight ; e) evidence, testimony ; f) precedent, act or decision worthy to be followed ; g) authorization. a) L'— divine, divine authority. — royale, royal authority. L'— spirituelle, temporelle, temporal, spiritual authority. L'— des lois des magistrats, the authority of the laws of the magistrates. L'— d'un père sur ses enfants, the authority of a father over his children. Usant de son — sur ses subordonnés, using his authority over his subordinates. Coup d'—, an act af authority, an imperious act. Par — de justice, under an execution. La vente eut lieu par — de justice, the sale was effected under an execution. Faire une chose de son — privée, to do a thing by one's own authority. Etre en —, to be in authority (in office or in power). D'—, with a high hand, authoritatively. Prendre un ton d'—, to assume an authoritative, an imperious tone. Il veut tout emporter d'—, he wants to carry things with a high hand. b) L'— supérieure, the executive government. Les agents de l'—, the government agents. c) Les autorités constituées, the constituted authorities. Les autorités civiles et militaires, the civil and military authorities. d) Il a bien de l'— dans son corps, dans sa famille, he has great authority (or influence) in his corps, in his family. Ses talents et sa probité lui ont acquis une grande — dans son pays, his talents and his probity have given him great authority in his country. Quelles — dans ses paroles ! what authority (or weight) in his words! Avoir de l'— auprès de quelqu'un, to have authority (or influence) with a person. e) Un historien dont l'— est imposante, an historian of imposing authority. D'après l'— de Villehardouin, on Villehardouin's authority or testimony. Des bruits sans —, rumours without authority. f) Les historiens anciens me fournissent cent autorités pour prouver ce que j'avance, the ancient historians afford me a hundred authorities in support of what I put forth. Faire —, to be an authority, to form a precedent. g) J'osai l'employer sans votre —, I ventured to employ it without your authority (or authorization). Sous votre — souffrez qu'on le publie, allow it to be published under your authority, with your authorization.

AUTO-TAXI, ôtotaksi, sm. taxi-cab.

AUTOUR, ôtour, [Lat. : astur], sm. Ornith. goshawk.

AUTOUR, ôtour, [au ; tour], adv. around, round, round about. La campagne — est couverte d'hommes, the country around (or round about) is covered with people. Tout —, all round. Il regarda tout — si on le suivait, he looked all round to see if any one was following him. Ici —, hereabout, hereabouts. Il demeure ici —, he lives hereabouts, he lives somewhere here.

AUTOUR DE, prep. phr. round, around, about. Il y a de très belles promenades — de la ville, there are fine walks round the town. Tourner — de la montagne, to turn round the mountain. Tourner — du pot, to beat about the bush. — de la tête, du bras, round the head, the arm. Il ne sait pas ce qui se passe — de lui, he does not know what is passing around him. Il n'a — de lui que des gens de mauvaise réputation, he has none about him but people of evil repute. Vous tournez — de la question, you beat about the bush ; you avoid the question.

AUTOURSERIE, ôtoursœri, [autour], sf. Falc. goshawk-training.

AUTOURSIER, ôtoursyé, sm. goshawk-trainer, falconer.

AUTRAN, ôtrân [Joseph], poet (1813-1877).

AUTRE, ôtr', [Lat. : alter], adj. 1. other. Je n'ai jamais vu son — frère, I have never seen his other brother. Il m'a invité avec deux autres personnes, he invited me with two other persons. Entre autres choses il exigea que ..., among other things he required that... L'une et l'—, both. D'une ou d'— manière, cela se fera, one way or other, it shall be done. L'une et l'— saison est favorable, both seasons are favourable. Des cris se firent entendre dans l'un et l'— camp, cries were heard in both camps. D'autres temps, d'autres mœurs, other times, other manners ; manners change with the times. Volt. Orph. v. 2. [Often used with a noun understood :] Je garde ce cheval, et je vous cède l'—, I will keep this horse, and let you have the other. Mon chapeau est usé, je vais en acheter un —, my hat is worn out, I will buy another. Des deux livres que vous demandez, voici l'un, voilà l'—, of the two books you want, here is one and there is the other. C'est tout un ou tout —, it is all one or the other ; all oil or all vinegar. De temps à —, from time to time, sometimes, at times. D'année à —, de jour à —, from year to year, from day to day ; every year, every day. Il augmente d'année à — sa réputation, he increases his fame from year to year (or every year). — part, elsewhere. D'une part... et d'— part, on the one hand... and on the other hand. [Autres is sometimes expletive :] Vous autres Français vous n'êtes pas..., you Frenchmen are not... Vous autres Américains, you Americans.

2. second, new. Il le regarde comme un — lui-même, he regards him as a second self. Il parle comme un — Élie devant cette — Jézabel, he speaks like a second (or another) Elisha before this second (or this new) Jezebel. Racine. Ath. II. 9.

3. different. C'est bien un — homme, he is quite a different (or another) man. Ce vin est bien un — vin que celui d'hier, this wine is very different from what we had yesterday. Il est devenu tout —, he is quite changed.

AUTRE, indef. pron. other. J'aime mieux que vous l'appreniez d'un — que de moi, I would rather you should learn it from another than from me. Je prends celui-ci, et je vous laisse l'—, I will take this, and leave the other to you. Prendre quelqu'un pour un —, to form an erroneous opinion of a person. Vous voulez me faire votre dupe ; vous me prenez pour un —, you want to make me your dupe ; you have mistaken your man. Volt. lett. Ils s'aiment l'un et l'—, they love each other (or one another). Ils se poursuivent les uns les autres, they pursue one another. L'un et l'—, both. L'un ou l'—, either. Ni l'un, ni l'—, neither. Ni l'un, ni l'—, ne savent ce qu'ils disent, they neither of them know what they are talking about. Qui voit l'un voit l'—, if you see one you see the other ; they are both alike. J'ai donné dix francs à l'un et à l'autre, I have given ten francs to each of them. Il y en a des uns et des autres, the are some of all sorts, there are good and bad L'un vaut l'—, one is as good (or as bad as the other ; there is no difference between them. L'un dans l'—, l'un portant l'—, one with another, on the average. Comme dit l'—, as they say, as people say, as the saying is. D'autres vous diront, others will tell you. Il se méfie toujours des autres, he always mistrusts others (or other people). Ne parlez pas de cela à d'autres qu'à vos amis, do not speak of it to any but your friends. A d'autres tell that to your granny ! tell that to the marines ! (an expression of disbelief). Parler de choses et d'autres, to talk of this and that. Il en sait bien d'autres, he knows many another trick (or dodge). Il n'en fait jamais d'autres, he is capable of nothing else that's just like him. J'en ai vu bien d'autres I have seen (endured) worse than that. Tu n'es pas au bout, tu en verras bien d'autres there is more yet (that is not all), you will see stranger things than that. Le Sage. Gil. Blas.

AUTREFOIS, ôtr'fwa, [autre ; fois], adv. formerly, in the olden time, of yore, in days of yore. C'était — l'usage, it was the custom formerly. Les hommes d'—, the men of former times, of the olden time.

AUTREMENT, ôtr'mân-t, adv. otherwise : a) differently ; b) else, or else. a) Je pense —, I think otherwise. Il en est bien —, it is far otherwise. Il écrit — qu'il ne pense, he writes otherwise than he thinks ; he thinks one thing and writes another. Tout —, very differently, quite otherwise. b) Faites ce que je vous dis, — tout est fini entre nous, do as I tell you, otherwise (or else, or if not) all is over between us ; do as I say, or I will have nothing more to do with you. Je ne m'en inquiète pas —, I do not trouble myself much about it. C'est un homme qui n'est pas — riche, he is not a very rich (or not an over rich) man. Est-il malade ? Pas —, is he ill ? Not very. Sans se contraindre — dans leurs passions, without putting much constraint on their passions. Tout —, quite differently, quite otherwise. Cet historien rapporte le fait bien (tout) —, that historien relates the fact quite otherwise.

AUTRICHE, ôtrish, pnf. Austria.

AUTRICHIEN, ENNE, ôtrishyan, shyièn', adj. and s. mf. Austrian.

AUTRUCHE, ôtrush', [Lat.: avis struthio, from Gr.: στρουθός, bird], sf. Ornith. ostrich. Duvet d'—, ostrich, ostrich down. Plumes d'—, ostrich feathers. Il — un estomac d'—, he has the stomach of an ostrich.

AUTRUCHON, ôtrushon, sm. young ostrich.

AUTRUI, ôtrui, [autre : Lat. : alterius, gen. of alter], sm. other, others, other people, one's neighbour. Remarquant les fautes d'—, remarking other people's failings. Souffrir des maux d'—, to feel for other's woes. Ne fais pas à — ce que tu ne voudrais pas qu'on te fît à toi-même, do not do to others what you would not have them do unto you. Il ne faut pas désirer le bien d'—, we must not covet our neighbour's goods (or the goods of others). Prov. : Mal d'autrui n'est que songe, other people's misfortunes are easily borne. Qui s'attend à l'écuelle d'autrui, a souvent mal dîné, he that waits for another man's trencher, eats many a late dinner.

AUVENT, ôvân-t, [au ; vent], sm. 1. penthouse, lean-to : shed projecting over a door, etc. ; 2. peak (of a cap).

AUVERGNAT, E, ôvernya, nyat', adj. and s. Auvergnat.

AUVERGNE, ôvèrny', sf. 1. Auvergne : an ancient province of France ; 2. tan-liquor.

AUVERGNER, ôvèrnyé-r, va. to soak skins in tan-liquor.

AUVERNAT, ôvèrna, [for auvergnat], sm. Auvernat : a strong-bodied red wine, produced near Orleans.

AUX, ô-z, contraction of A LES. V. AU.

AUXANOMÈTRE, ôksanomètr', [Gr. : αὐξάνω, I increase ; μέτρον, measure], sm. auxanometer : instrument for taking the measurement of the growth of plants.

AUXILIAIRE, ôksiliêr', [Lat. : auxilium, help], adj. auxiliary. Troupes auxiliaires, auxiliary troops. Verbes auxiliaires, auxiliary verbs. Muscles auxiliaires, auxiliary muscles. Vents auxiliaires, favourable winds.

AUXILIAIRE, sm. 1. auxiliary : aid, assistant : 2. Gram. auxiliary verb.

AUXOMÈTRE, ôksomètr', [Gr. : αὔξω, I increase ; μέτρον, measure], sm. Opt. an instrument to measure the magnifying power of lenses.

AVACHIR, avashir, [à : Ger. : weich, soft], va. to distort, to pervert, to impair. Nous avons avachi notre jugement en le frottant de folles opinions et de mauvaises mœurs, we have distorted our judgment by constant contact with foolish notions and bad morals. Montaigne. Des souliers avachis, shoes worn (or trodden) out of shape.

AVACHIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to get to become flabby or to wear out of shape (as shoes, clothes, etc.) ; 2. to get or become flabby : said of persons. Cette femme s'est avachie, that woman has lost all shape.

AVAL, aval, [Lat. : ad, to ; vallis, valley], sm. the lower part of a river. J'ai marché à l'— de l'Anio jusqu'à un champ d'oliviers, I walked down the Anio as far as an olive-grove. Chat. Italie, 22. Pays d'—, the down-stream country. Vent d'—, westerly wind, sea-breeze (on the west coast of France). En —, down stream, downwards. Rouen est en — de Paris, Rouen is lower down the river than Paris.

AVAL, adv. down-stream, down the river, downwards. Un des bateaux allait amont, l'autre —, one of the boats was going up-stream, the other down-stream. En — de, below. V. A VAU-L'EAU.

AVAL, sm. Com. guaranty, surety : a signature at the bottom of a bill of exchange to guarantee its payment. Donneur d'—, guarantor. [Pl. AVALS.]

AVALAGE, avalazh', [avaler], sm. 1. cellaring, lowering of wine, etc., into a cellar ; 2. Naut. navigating down stream.

AVALAISON, avalèzon, [aval], sf. 1. torrent, freshet (caused by melted snow) ; 2. Naut. (in the west of France) a persistent wind from the west ; 3. a heap of stones brought down by a torrent.

AVALANCHE, avalânsh', aval ; [Lat. : ad, to ; vallis, valley], sf. avalanche : snow-slip.

AVALANT, E, avalân-t, ânt', adj. going down stream. Bateaux montants ou avalants, boats going up or down stream, up or down the river. Arche avalante, arch (of a bridge) through which the current is strongest.

AVALASSE, avalas', sf. V. AVALAISON.

AVALÉ, E, avalé, adj. pendant, hanging down, flabby ; sloping (in speaking of the shoulders of a man, of the rump of a horse). Joues avalées, flabby cheeks. Oreilles avalées, pendant or pendulous ears (of a dog, rabbit, etc.).

AVALER, avalé-r, [aval], va. 1. to lower (as wine into a cellar) ; 2. to vail, to take off (one's cap, bonnet, etc., as a mark of respect) ; 2. Hort. to lop or cut off (a branch close to the trunk) ; 4. Sport. to slip off (a dog's collar when starting him after game).

5. to swallow ; a) to perform the act of deglutition ; to gobble up, to tuck in or down (food) ; to toss down one's throat, to swill, to drink or drain off, to quaff liquids) ; b) Fig. to look at with eargerness, avidity or fury ; c) to endure, to put up with, to pocket (an affront, or anything disagreeable). a) — une tasse de bouillon, to swallow (or take) a basin of broth. — une arête, une épingle, to swallow a fishbone, a pin. Il avalerait la mer et les poissons, nothing could satisfy his appetite ; Fig. his greed is insatiable. J'ai cru qu'il m'avalerait, tellement il était en colère, I thought be would swallow me (would eat me up), he was in such a rage. On lui fera — cela, they will make him swallow that, make him believe that. — sa langue, to yawn incessantly, to be bored to death. — sa cuiller, to decamp. — sa gaffe, (in sailor's slang) to lose the number of one's mess, to kick the bucket ; to die. — le calice, to drain the cup of sorrow to the dregs. — des couleuvres, to sip sorrow, to be exposed to mortifications. b) Il avalait à longs traits le plaisir de la voir, with long draughts he drank in the pleasure of seeing her. Hamil. Gramm. 8. Ils avalaient l'huître des yeux, they devoured the oyster with their eyes. La Font. Fab. IX. 9. On avale la calomnie comme du champagne, they drink down calumny like champaign. Vol. Lett. c) Pour nous fa're — nos tristes destinées, to make us endure our sad lot. — un affront, to pocket an affront. Pour lui fa.re — le soufflet, to make him put up with the blow. On lui en fera — bien d'autres, there's much more that he will have yet to put up with. Ils ne connaissent pas les horreurs que vous avalez comme l'eau, they know nothing of the horrors which you endure so patiently (or make so light of). Mass. Ferv. Les Mailly trouvèrent cette place avec raison bien mauvaise, mais il la fallut avaler, The M. with reason found this place very bad, but they had to put up with it, St. Simon. 3. 55.

6. Comm. to guarantee (a bill of exchange by adding one's signature).

AVALER, vn. to swallow. Il ne peut plus —, he is no longer able to swallow. Ne faire que tordre et avaler, to give one's food a twist and bolt it ; to eat ravenously.

AVALER (s'), v. refl. 1. to be swallowed ; 2. to hang down ; 3. Naut. to go down stream.

AVALEUR, avalœr, sm. swallower. — de gens, — de charrettes ferrées, braggadocio, braggart. — de pois gris, a glutton, an enormous eater.

AVALIES, avali, sf. pl. mortling, pelt-wool : wool from the skins of slaughtered sheep.

AVALISTE, avalis', sm. Comm. guarantor : endorser of a bill of exchange.

AVALOIRE, avalwâr, sf. 1. swallow. Quelle — il a ! what a swallow he has !

2. breeching (of a draught-horse's harness) ; 3. weir (to catch fish) fish-trap.

AVANÇAGE, avânsazh', (avancer), sf. stand, cabstand, coach-stand (for hackney carriages).

AVANCE, avâns', [avancer], sf. 1. projection : a) the state of jutting out, as one part of a building before another, one house before another in a street ; b) the part so jutting, a jutty, a jutting out. Faire (ou former) une —, to project, jut out, or stand out, to make a projection. Une petite — qu'avait un toit, a small projection formed by a roof.

2. advance : a) distance (or time) in advance, start ; b) advance-money, money paid in advance. a) Ce coureur a gagné une — de vingt-cinq pas sur son concurrent, this runner has got twenty-five paces in advance (or head) of his competitor. Il a deux lieux d'— sur nous, he is two leagues in advance (or ahead) of us. Prendre l'— sur quelqu'un, to get the start of a person : to start before him, or to get ahead of him after starting together. Prendre ou gagner de l'— sur, to get ahead of, or to be in advance of (in time or espace). Donner de l'— à quelqu'un, to give a person a start (in time or space). Avoir une heure, une lieue d'— sur quelqu'un, to have an hour's start, a league's start of a person. Déterminer l'— ou le retard d'une montre marine, Naut. 1. to rate a chronometer : to ascertain whether it gains or loses ; 2. to ascertain whether a chronometer is fast or slow (too fast or too slow). b) Faire une — de mille francs, to make an advance of a thousand francs, to advance a thousand francs. Je lui ai fait une — considérable sur mon loyer, I made him a considerable advance on my rent. J'en serai pour mes avances, I shall be in for (or lose) all the money I have advanced. Être en —, to be in advance (in one's payments) ; to have a balance in one's favour (in a current account).

3. work done, step in advance, point gained. J'ai fait mes recherches pour écrire mon livre, c'est une grande —, c'est autant d'—, I have made my researches to write my book, that is a great step in advance, that is so much to the good. Avoir rassemblé ses matériaux c'est une véritable —, to have collected one's materials is a great step in advance. C'est une grande — que d'avoir son esprit en repos, to have one's mind at ease is a great point gained. Sév. lett.

4. pl. advances. Répondre aux avances d'amitié qu'on nous fait, to respond to the friendly advances made to us. Je veux faire les premières avances pour nous réconcilier, I wish to make the first advances towards our reconciliation.

D'AVANCE, PAR AVANCE, adv. phr. in advance, beforehand. Payer quelqu'un par —, to pay a person beforehand. Payer d'— une année de son loyer, to pay a year's rent in advance. Il a payé par —, he has paid in advance, paid beforehand. Il faut le prévenir d'—, you must inform him beforehand, give him notice beforehand.

[A L'AVANCE is sometimes used in the same sense, but less correctly.]

AVANCÉ, avânsé, pa. p. advanced, etc. V. AVANCER. Poste avancé, advanced post, out-post. Ouvrages avancés, advanced works, outworks. Argent —, money advanced. La proposition avancée, the proposition advanced. — en âge, advanced in age, stricken in years. Ils se croient bien avancés, they think themselves well advanced. Je ne suis pas bien avancé dans mes études, I am not well advanced (I am rather backward or behindhand) in my studies. Élève —, an advanced (or forward) pupil. Élève peu —, a backward pupil. Un démocrate —, an advanced (ultra or extreme) democrat. Leur civilisation est assez avancée, their civilization is rather advanced. Je n'en suis pas plus avancé, I am not any more advanced (none the forwarder, richer, wiser, or better) for it. Le voilà bien — ! Iron. much good has that done him ! much the better is he for it ? Être — dans un travail, to be well advanced in a work. L'été était fort —, the summer was far advanced, it was late in the summer. Ouvrage fort —, work well (or fairly) advanced. La nuit était fort avancée, the night was far advanced (was well nigh spent or was drawing to a close).

AVANCÉ, E, adj. 1. forward, precocious, early. Un jeune —, a forward (or precocious) youth. Les arbres, les fruits, les fleurs sont fort avancés, the trees, fruit, flowers, are very forward.

2. late. Jusqu'à une heure avancée du jour, de la nuit, till a late hour of the day, of the night.

3. spoilt (as meat, fish, fruit, by over-keeping). Viande avancée, spoilt (or tainted, meat. Poisson —, spoilt (stale or stinking, fish. Figue avancée, over-ripe (or rotten) fig. Ce faisan était bien assez —, that pheasant was quite high enough.

AVANCÉ, sm. zealot, ultra. Les avancés de la secte, du parti, the zealots (or ultras) of the sect, of the party.

AVANCÉE, sf. Milit. 1. advanced (or advance) guard, advanced post, out-post ; 2. Angling. part of a line bearing the leads.

AVANCEMENT, avâns'mân-t, (avancer), sm. advancement : a) progress, improvement, advance ; b) promotion (in the army, in an administration) ; preferment (in speaking of ecclesiastics) ; c) rise in social position, success in the world ; d) Law-t. an advance of money, etc. a) Je remarque un grand — dans cet élève, I observe great progress in this pupil. Il est plein de zèle pour l'— des sciences, he is full of zeal for the advancement of the sciences. L'— de cet édifice n'est pas sensible, the progress of this building is not perceptible. b) Je vous souhaite l'— que vous méritez, I wish you the promotion you deserve. Volt. Lett. 25 Juillet, 1762. Cet officier a eu un — très rapide, that officer has met with very rapid promotion. Solliciter, obtenir de l'—, to solicit, to obtain promotion (in the army, in office, etc.), preferment (in the church). Travailler à l'— de sa famille, to labour for the advancement of one's family. Un art que j'ai cultivé aux dépens de ma fortune et de mon —, an art which I have cultivated to the detriment of my advancement (rise or success) in the world. Volt. Lett. d'Argental. 21 juin 1761. d) — d'hoirie, advancement of inheritance : assignment of personal or real estate to a child, in anticipation of the share falling to him on his parents' decease.

AVANCER, avânsé-r ; the c is always pronounced as s in all the inflections of avancer, and takes the cedilla (ç) before terminations beginning with a or o [Low Lat. : abante ; ab, from ; ante, before], va. to advance : a) to move, put, push, thrust bring, or draw forward ; to hold out (as the hand) ; b) to raise in rank or dignity ; c) to promote, to forward ; d) to accelerate, to hasten ; e) to put on (as a watch or clock) ; f) to propose, to hold forth or out, to propound, to broach, to bring to view or notice ; g) to pay beforehand, to supply with funds ; h) to gain, a) — un lit, un fauteuil, to push (or pull) forward a bed, an arm-chair. — la main, to hold out, to put forth, one's hand. Avancez cette table vers moi, push that table towards me. b) Il a été avancé par le ministre, he has been promoted by the minister. c) — un ouvrage, to forward a work. Ses travaux ont fort avancé la science, his labours have greatly promoted science. Cela ne m'avance guère, that does not advance (help or forward) me much. d) — la mort de quelqu'un, to hasten a person's death. La paresse avance la vieillesse, idleness hastens old age. — le jour ou l'époque, to hasten the day or the epoch. Le chagrin avança la mort de mon père, grief hastened the death of my father (or my father's death). La chaleur avance la végétation, heat hastens (accelerates or promotes) vegetation. e) — le diner, to hasten the dinner. — l'horloge, to put the clock on. J'ai avancé son départ, I hastened his departure. Votre montre retarde, avancez-la de dix minutes, your watch is too slow, put it on ten minutes. f) Il prouve ce qu'il avance, he proves what he advances (says or asserts). Je n'avance rien que je ne prouve, I assert nothing I cannot prove. Pascal. Prov. 7. — une nouvelle doctrine, to broach or propound a new doctrine. — une fausseté, to advance a falsehood. Quand j'avance un fait c'est que j'en suis sûr, when I advance an opinion, it is because I am sure of it. g) J'ai avancé trois mois de gages à mon domestique, I have advanced my servant three months' wages Je lui ai avancé vingt mille francs pour s'établir, I have advanced him twenty thousand francs to set him up in business. h) Qu'aurais-je avancé jusque-là, what should I have gained (or profited) so far ? J. J. Rouss. Em. V. Vous n'avancez rien de ne pas avaler le poison, you gain nothing by not taking the poison.

AVANCER, vn. to advance : a) to go (come, get, move, push) forward, onward or on, to go ahead ; b) to make progress, to progress ; c) (with vers) to go (come or move) towards ; d) to go, to proceed ; e) to project, to jut (stick, stand, or run) out ; f) to encroach ; g) to be promoted ; h) to be fast (or too fast), to gain (as watches, etc.). a) Aimer mieux retourner qu'—, to prefer turning back to going on. L'ennemi avançait, the enemy was advancing, was pushing forward. L'armée avance dans le pays, the army is advancing in the country. Faites — cet homme, make that man come (or step) forward. b) — dans ses études, to advance (or make progress) in one's studies. — en âge, en sagesse, to advance in years, in wisdom. Ce travail avance lentement, this work advances slowly. L'impression de cet ouvrage n'avance guère, the printing of that book makes little progress. c) Elle avance vers nous, she is advancing towards us. d) Ses vaisseaux n'ont avancé qu'un mille, his vessels have advanced only a mile. e) Le môle avance bien loin dans la mer, the mole (the pier) advances (runs) out a long way into the sea. Un toit qui avance, a roof that projects, a projecting roof. Le balcon n'avance pas assez, the balcony does not project enough, does nor stand out far enough. f) Vous avez avancé d'un mètre sur mon terrain, you have encroached a metre on my ground. g) Cet officier est trop vieux, il n'a plus l'espoir d'—, that officer is too old, he no longer has the hope of being promoted. k) Cette horloge avance de dix minutes, this clock is ten minutes fast (or too fast). Ma montre avance d'une minute par jour, my watch gains a minute a day.

AVANCER (s'), v. refl. to advance : a) to go (come, move, or push) forward, onward or on ; b) to get on, to make progress, to progress ; c) (with vers) to go, come, or proceed towards ; d) to go, to proceed ; e) to approach ; f) to project, to jut (stick, stand, or run) out. a) S'— sur la scène, to come forward on the stage. Il s'avança jusqu'au mur, he advanced as far as the wall. [Fig. :] Il y en avait même qui s'avançaient jusqu'à dire, there were some even who went so far as to say. Je reconnais que je me suis trop avancé, I acknowledge that I have gone too far. b) S'— dans la carrière des honneurs, to advance in the career of honours. Cependant Moïse s'avançait en âge, meanwhile Moses was advancing in years. Boss. His. I. 3. L'hiver s'avance, the winter is getting on, is far advanced. c) Sans attendre une réponse, je m'avançais hardiment, without waiting for an answer, I advanced boldly. d) S'— hors du port, to proceed out of port. S'— au combat, to advance to battle. e) Ne vous — pas trop avec lui, do not go too far with him. f) Le cap s'avance dans la mer, the cape juts out (projects or runs out) into the sea. Le mont Taurus qui s'avance vers l'ouest, Mount Taurus, which runs to the west.

AVANCEUR, avânsœr, sm. advancer, forwarder.

AVANIE, avani, [Late Gr. : ἀβανία, calumny], sf. 1. molestation, annoyance, exaction : a word originally employed in the Levant to designate the vexatious proceedings of Turks towards Christians ; 2. outrage, insult, affront. Une sanglante —, an atrocious outrage, a gross insult.

AVANT, avân-t, [Lat. : ad, to ; ante, before], prep. 1. before : a) marking priority in position or order ; b) priority in time. a) Il marchait — moi, he walked on before me. Mettre la fin — le commencement, to put the end before the beginning. La maison où il loge est — l'église, the house in which he lives is before the church Il faudrait mettre ce chapitre — l'autre, this chapter should be placed before the other. L'article se place toujours — le substantif, the article is always placed before the substantive. b) L'homme fut créé — la femme, man was created before woman. On vous a nommé — moi, you were appointed before me (or before I was). — la fin de l'année, before the end of the year. — Jésus-Christ, before Christ. Je suis parti — le jour, I started before daylight. Je partirai — un mois, I shall set off in less than a month. Elle est accouchée — terme, she was confined permaturely (or before her time). Les hommes d'— le déluge, the men before the flood : the antediluvians. Je vous prie de remarquer — tout, I beg you to observe before anything. [D'avant is often used with the noun understood :] Le jour d'—, the day before ; the preceding [or previous] day. La nuit d'—, the provious night. V. Avant de, etc.

2. above : marking preference. Mettre Alexandre — Annibal, to place Alexander above Hannibal. — tout il faut prendre nos précautions, above all, we must take our precautions. Posons — toutes choses cette vérité, let us above (or before) all things lay down this truth.

AVANT DE, AVANT QUE DE, prep. phr. (followed by a verb in the infinitive) before. — de or — que de partir, before starting. — que d'écrire, apprenez à penser, before writing (or before you write) learn to think. — de louer ce livre, lisez-le, before you praise this book, read it. (In the single sentence following in Racine the de is suppressed). Mais — que partir, je me ferai justice, but before leaving I will right myself. Racine. Mithr. III. 1. — de faire or dire droit. Law-t. before giving final judgment.

AVANT QUE, conj. phr. (followed by a verb in the subjunctive) before. Venez me voir — que je parte, come and see me before I start. J'irai en Italie — qu'il soit un an, I shall go to Italy, before a year has passed. — que vous parliez, daignez m'écouter un moment, before you speak, deign to hear me a moment (or for a moment). [Avant que is sometimes used with the expletive ne :] — que sa soif ne s'éteigne, before his thirst is slaked.

AVANT, adv. 1. far : in space or time ; in this sense avant is nearly always preceded by one of the adverbs si, bien, trop, plus, assez, fort. N'allez pas si —, do not go so far. Creuser bien — dans la terre, to dig far (or deep) into the ground. Nations qui habitent bien — dans les terres, nations that live far inland (or far from the sea). Bien — en mer, far out at sea, well out at sea. Bien — dans l'hiver, far into the winter, in the depth of winter. La balle n'avait pas pénétré bien —, the ball had not penetrated very far (or very deep). N'allez pas trop — dans les bois, do not go too far into the woods. N'allons pas plus —, let us not go farther, let us go no farther. Assez —, far enough. On combattit fort — dans la nuit, they fought far into the night (till late at night). [Fig. :] Cette maxime avait pénétré bien — dans son esprit, this maxim had penetrated (or sunk) deep into his mind. Vous poussez les affaires trop —, you push matters too far. Pénétrer fort — dans les sciences, to make great advances in the sciences. Mais je vais trop —, et deviens indiscrète, but I am going too far, and becoming indiscreet. Je puis passer plus avant et dire..., I may go farther, and say... Pour ne pas entrer trop — dans la question, not to go too far (or too deep) into the question. Quelques-uns passant plus —, ont déclaré que..., some persons, going farther, have declared that... [Naut.] — partout ! pull away, all oars !

2. before. Quelques jours —, some days before. Vous vous y êtes pris trop tard, j'avais parlé —, you are too late, I had spoken before. Elle est plus libre qu'—, she is freer than before.

EN AVANT, adv. phr. 1. on, onward, forward, ahead, in advance. Aller en —, to go onward (forward or ahead). Pousser son cheval en —, to push (urge or spur) on one's horse. Se pencher en —, to lean forward. Ce cheval est beau de la main en —, that horse has a fine fore-hand (or fine fore-quarters). Faire marcher son armée en —, to march one's army forward. Allez en —, et cette lecture vous attachera, go on, and that reading will interest you. Marcher en —, to walk in advance of or before (a person, etc.). Envoyer en —, to send forward. Mettre en —, to put, push, or bring forward ; [Fig. :] to propound, to put forth, to advance, to allege. Mettre quelqu'un en —, to bring a person into notice ; to make a person act or speak. Se mettre trop en —, to be too forward, to make one's self too forward. Tels étaient les motifs de guerre qu'on mettait en —, such were the reasons alleged for the war. Une des causes qui poussaient les Gracques à mettre en — la loi agraire, one of the causes which induced the Gracchi to bring forward (or to propose) the agrarian law.

2. Milit. on ! forward ! En —, marchez ! on ! onward ! march !

EN AVANT DE, prep. phr. before, in advance of, beyond. S'étant porté à huit lieues en — de Metz, having advanced to eight leagues beyond Metz. Il était à dix pas en — de nous, he was ten paces in advance of (or before) us. Cet homme est fort en — de son siècle, that man is far in advance of his age (of his contemporaries).

AVANT, sm. 1. front, forepart (of a carriage, etc.). Décharger l'—, to lighten the forepart, to lighten the load in front.

2. Naut. forepart, head, stem. Les voiles de l'—, the fore-sails. Ce navire est sur l'— (or sur le nez), that ship is trimmed by the head : i. e. she draws deeper at the head than at the stern. De l'— en arrière, from stem to stern. Aller à l'—, to have head-way, to go ahead ; (Fig. of persons) to be precipitate or hasty (in one's proceedings). Aller de l'—, to be under way. C'est un navire qui va de l'—, she is a good sailer. Être de l'— de son estime, to be ahead of one's reckoning. Gagner l'— de, to get ahead of. Être de l'—, de, to be ahead of.

AVANTAGE, avântazh', [avant], sm. 1. advantage : a) state, quality, circumstance, or opportunity favourable to success ; b) superiority ; Colloq. whip-hand upper-hand ; c) success. a) Offrir, présenter ou procurer des avantages, to offer, present, or procure advantages. Les avantages de la paix, the advantages (or the blessings) of peace. Un grand, un considérable —, a great, a considerable advantage (or benefit). Tirer — de, to turn to account, to take advantage of, to profit by. Chacun voulait tirer — des circonstances each wished to profit by the circumstances, to turn the circumstances to account. Quel — y a-t-il ? what advantage is there ? Quel — pourriez-vous en tirer ? what profit could you reap from it ? Au plus grand —, to the best advantage. Tirer — de tout, to turn everything to account, to make the best of everything. Parler à l'— d'une personne, to speak highly of a person. Être habillé à son —, to be dressed to advantage. b) Les avantages de la figure, de la jeunesse, de la naissance, de la fortune, de l'esprit, du pouvoir, the advantages of personal appearance, of youth, of birth, of fortune, of the mind, of power. Avantages naturels et acquis, natural and acquired advantages. Il avait un port majestueux, avantage qui a un grand prix, he had a majestic presence (bearing or deportment), an advantage of inestimable value. J'ai l'— de connaître M. votre père, I have the advantage

(or the honour) of knowing your father. c) Comme l'— de l'ennemi était dans sa cavalerie, as the enemy's advantage (or superiority) lay in his cavalry. Avoir l'— sur quelqu'un, to have the advantage (the upper-hand or whip-hand) of a person. d) Avoir l'— dans une bataille, to have the best of a battle. De part et d'autre, on s'attribua les avantages de la journée, both sides claimed the victory. Poursuivre ses avantages, to follow up one's advantages, one's successes.

2. Jurispr., donation, voluntary gift. A titre d'—, as a gift, or donation.

3. (in games of chance or skill) odds : points given by the stronger player to his antagonist.

4. Naut. — du vent, du dessous le vent, weather-gage, lee-gage. Avoir l'— du vent, to have the weather-gage.

AVANTAGER, avâ*n*tazhé-r ; the g always retains its soft sound, and an e is inserted before terminations beginning with a or o : avantageai, avantageons, va. to advantage : to give an advantage or give advantage or advantages to. Il a été avantagé par la nature des dons les plus précieux, he has been advantaged (endowed or favoured) by nature with the most precious gifts. Anciennement la loi avantageait les aînés, formerly the law gave advantages to (was all in favour of) the eldest son.

AVANTAGER (s') v. refl. 1. to give each other mutual advantages (by settlement or will) ; 2. to turn to one's own advantage. Les deux époux se sont avantagés, the husband and wife have made settlements (or wills) in each other's favour.

AVANTAGEUSEMENT, avâ*n*tazhœz'-mâ*n*-t, adv. advantageously : well, highly. L'armée — postée the army advantageously posted. Se marier —, to marry well. Parler — d'une personne, to speak highly of a person. S'habiller —, to dress to the best advantage.

AVANTAGEUX, EUSE, avâ*n*tazhœ-z, œz', adj. 1. advantageous : a) of advantage, profitable, beneficial, useful ; b) favourable ; a) La manière de cultiver la plus avantageuse, the most advantageous (or profitable) mode of cultivation. Ses exploits furent avantageux à l'Empire, his exploits were advantageous (beneficial or serviceable) to the empire Il est — de prendre ses précautions, it is advantageous (or useful) to take one's precautions. Proposition avantageuse, an advantageous offer or proposal. Sa fille a trouvé un parti —, his daughter has found an advantageous (or excellent) match. b) Avoir de quelqu'un une opinion avantageuse, to have a favourable (or a high) opinion of a person. L'issue avantageuse de votre affaire, the favourable issue of your affair. Il en avait fait un portrait fort —, he had given a very favourable portrait of her.

2. noble, commanding, imposing. Pythagore était d'une taille avantageuse, Pythagoras was a man of noble stature.

3. (of dress) becoming : enhancing or improving a person's appearance. Une coiffure très avantageuse, a very becoming head-dress.

4. presuming, pretentious, priggish. Prendre un ton, un air —, to assume a pretentious (or priggish) tone or air. C'est un homme —, he is a presuming (pretentious or priggish) fellow.

AVANT-BASSIN, avâ*n*-bassâ*n*, sm. fore-dock : advanced basin of a port. (Pl. avant-bassins).

AVANT-BEC, avâ*n*-bèk, sm. Engin. up-stream cut-water (of a bridge), [Pl. avant becs.]

AVANT-BOUCHE, avâ*n*-boush', sf. Anat. front of the mouth (between the lips and the teeth). [Pl. avant-bouches].

AVANT-BRAS, avâ*n*-brâ, sm. Anat. fore-arm. [Pl. avant-bras.]

AVANT-CALE, avâ*n*-kal', sf. Naut. launch-ways (extending from a building slip to the water). [Pl. avant-cales].

AVANT-CŒUR, avâ*n*-kœr, ANTI-CŒUR, ânti-kœr, sm. Vet. surg. tumour on a horse's chest. [Pl. avant-cœurs, anti-cœurs.]

AVANT-CORPS, avâ*n*-kor, sm. Arch. fore-part, fore-front : part of a building projecting from the general line of the front ; opposed to arrière-corps, [Pl. avant-corps.]

AVANT-COUR, avâ*n*-kour, sm. Arch. front-yard, front-court, entrance-court : opposed to arrière-cour. [Pl. avant-cours.]

AVANT-COUREUR, avâ*n*-kourœr, sm. 1. fore-runner, precursor, harbinger : said of both persons and things ; 2. Milit. advanced guard ; 3. Med. precursory (or premonitory) symptom ; 4. (adject.) precursory, premonitory [Pl. avant-coureurs.]

AVANT-COURRIER, IÈRE, avâ*n*-kouryé, yèr', smf. 1. fore-runner, precursor, harbinger. L'aurore, l'avant-courrière du soleil, dawn, the harbinger of the sun [Pl. avant-courriers, ières.]

AVANT-DERNIER, IÈRE, avâ*n*-dèrnyé, yèr', adj. 1. last but one ; 2. (subst.) the last but one. L'avant-dernier paragraphe, the last paragraph but one. Il est l'avant-dernier. he is the last but one.

AVANT-FOSSÉ, avâ*n*-fossé, sm. Fort. advance fosse. [Pl. avant-fosses.]

AVANT-GARDE, avâ*n*-gard', sf. 1. van guard (of an army); 2. van (of a fleet) ; 3. guard-ship (of a port). [Pl. avant-gardes.]

AVANT-GOÛT, avâ*n*-goû, sm. foretaste, taste by anticipation. Un — de la béatitude du ciel, a foretaste of heavenly bliss [Pl. avant-goûts].

AVANT-HIER, avâ*n*-tyèr, adv. and sm. the day before yesterday. Je l'ai vu —, I saw him the day before yesterday. Vous aviez tout — pour prendre un parti, you had all the day before yesterday to make up your mind. — au soir, the evening before last.

AVANT-JEU, avâ*n*-zhœ, sm. prelude, preparation, preliminary. [Pl. avant-jeux.]

AVANT-MAIN, avâ*n*-mâ*n*, sm. 1. fore-hand stroke (at tennis) ; 2. fore-handed blow ; 3. (at cards) lead : the player having the right to play first ; 4. fore-hand or fore-quarters (of a horse). [Pl. avant-mains.]

AVANT-MUR, avâ*n*-mur, sm. 1. Arch. a wall backed against another ; 2. Fort. outer or outmost wall. [Pl. avant-murs.]

AVANT-PÊCHE, avâ*n*-pesh', sf. Hort. early Anne peach.

AVANT-PIED, avâ*n*-pyé, sm. 1. Anat. metatarsus ; the front part of the boot ; 2. Shoe-m. vamp (of a shoe, etc.]. [Pl. avant-pieds.]

AVANT-PIEU, avâ*n*-piœ, sm. Agr. hedger's iron-bar. [Pl. avant-pieux.]

AVANT-POIGNET, avâ*n*-pwânyé, sm. Anat. metacarpus : the part of the hand between the fingers and the wrist. [Pl. avant-poignets.]

AVANT-PORT, avâ*n*-pôr, sm. Naut. outer-port, tide-harbour, [Pl. avant-ports].

AVANT-PORTAIL, avâ*n*-portï, sm. fore-portal. [Pl. avant-portails].

AVANT-PORTE, avâ*n*-port, sf. outer door : door preceding the entrance door.

AVANT-POSTE, avâ*n*-post', sm. Milit. out-post. [Pl. avant-postes.]

AVANT-PREMIÈRE, avâ*n*-prœmière, sm. meeting of critics and amateurs to hear a piece before the first performance. [Pl. avant-premières].

AVANT-PROJET, avâ*n*-prozhè, sm. first draft (of a law, etc.). [Pl. avant-projets.]

AVANT-PROPOS, avâ*n*-propô, sm. 1. preface, introduction (of a book) ; 2. preamble, introductory remarks (preceding a speech or conversation). [Pl. avant-propos].

AVANT-QUART, avâ*n*-kar, sm. Clock-mak. warning : a single stroke given a short time before striking the hours or quarters [Pl. avant-quarts.]

AVANT-SCÈNE, avâ*n*-sèn', sf. 1. proscenium : in ancient theatres, the part of the stage on which the actors appeared ; in modern theatres, the front of the stage between the footlights and the curtain ; 2. Fig. the events which preceded and led to the action of a play. Loges d'—, stage-boxes, [Pl. avant-scènes.]

AVANT-TOIT, avâ*n*-twâ, sm Arch. projecting roof. [Pl. avant-toits.]

AVANT-TRAIN, avâ*n*-trâ*n*, sm. 1. fore-carriage : the fore-part of any four-wheeled vehicule ; 1. fore-hand or fore-quarters (of a horse). [Pl. avant-trains.]

AVANT-VEILLE, avâ*n*-vèy', sf. the day before the eve, two days before. L'— de Noël, the day before Christmas eve, two days before Christmas. [Pl. avant-veilles.]

AVAOUSSÉ, avaoussé, AVAUX, avô, Bot. sm. the kermes-oak.

AVARE, avar', [Lat. : avarus, greedy], adj. 2. avaricious : miserly, stingy, penurious, niggardly. Homme, femme —, an avaricious (miserly, stingy, penurious, or niggardly) man, woman. Ces deux époux sont aussi avares l'un que l'autre, that man and his wife are equally avaricious. Caractère —, humeur —, miserly character, miserly disposition, Prov. : A père avare, enfant prodigue, niggard father, spendthrift son.

2. sparing : not lavish or wasteful ; careful. Être — de son temps, to be sparing of one's time. Ce général est — du sang de ses soldats, that general is sparing of his soldier's blood. Être — de louanges, de compliments, to be sparing of praise, of compliments. Le ciel lui a été — de ses dons, heaven has been sparing of its gifts to him. Pour qui la nature semble — de ses richesses, for whom nature seems sparing of her bounties.

3. greedy : grasping. Et l'— Achéron ne lâche pas sa proie, and the greedy Acheron does not release (let go or give up) its prey. Racine. Phèd. II. 5.

AVARE, smf. miser. Un — est toujours misérable, a miser is always miserable. Un — parfait, a thorough miser. Prov. : L'avare et le cochon ne sont bons qu'après leur mort, the miser and the pig are of no use till dead.

AVAREMENT, avar'mâ*n*-t, adv. avariciously, stingily, with a niggard hand. Il est juste qu'il ne dépense ses grâces —, it is just that he should dispense his favours with no niggard hand.

AVARICE, avaris', [Lat. : avaritia], sf. 1. avarice : avariciousness, penuriousness, stinginess, niggardliness ; 2. an act of avarice, or a niggardly act, meanness. — insatiable, sordide, insatiable, sordid avarice. L'— est un des sept péchés capitaux, avarice is one of the seven capital sins. L'— est la mère de tous les maux, covetousness is the root of all evil. Il se refuse tout par —, he denies (or refuses) himself everything out of (from or through) avarice. Tant de médisances mordantes, tant d'avarices sordides, so many stinging slanders, so many sordid meannesses.

AVARICIEUSEMENT, avarisiœz'mân-t, adv. avariciously, stingily, greedily.

AVARICIEUX, EUSE, avarisiœ-z, siœz', adj. avaricious : miserly, stingy ; greedy, covetous. Un homme —, an avaricious man. [Sometimes used as a substant. :] Un — qui aime devient libéral, a miser becomes generous when in love.

AVARIE, avari, [of doubtful origin. ; Ital. : avaria], sf. 1. damage : injury done to any goods during conveyance by land or water ; 2. (in maritime commerce and assurance) average. — ordinaire, damage to goods conveyed by land or inland navigation. Sans —, undamaged. — maritime, damage suffered by a ship or her cargo. Avaries grosses ou communes, general average : any sacrifice made or expense incurred for the general safety of ship and cargo. Avaries simples ou particulières, particular average : damage or partial loss suffered by the ship alone, or by the cargo alone. Régler les avaries, to state the averages. Règlement d'avaries, statement of averages. Franc d'—, free of average.

3. Neol. euphemism for syphilis.

AVARIÉ, E, avarié, adj. 1. damaged ; 2. syphilitic. Des marchandises avariées, damaged goods. Le vaisseau est fort avarié, the ship is much damaged.

AVARIER, avarié-r, va. to damage : to spoil, to injure. La pluie a avarié les foins, the rain has damaged (or spoilt) the hay.

AVARIER (s'), v. refl. to spoil, to become spoilt. Ces blés se sont avariésdans le grenier, this wheat has become spoilt in the granary.

A VAU-DE-ROUTE, a vô-d'-rout' [vau, old form of aval], adv. phr. in disorder, helter-skelter. La cavalerie s'en allait à vau-de-route, the cavalry fled helter-skelter.

A VAU-L'EAU, a-vô-lô, adv. phr. down stream. Le corps du noyé s'en allait à vau-l'eau, the body of the drowned man was carried away by the current.

AVÉ, avé, AVE MARIA, avé maria, [Lat.], sm. Ave, Ave Maria : a) the angel's salutation to the Virgin Mary ; b) a prayer beginning with this word ; c) the time necessary to say this prayer ; d) bead indicating an Ave on a rosary or chaplet ; e) the part of the sermon at which the preacher invokes the Virgin's aid. a) Récitez cinq Pater et cinq Avé, say five Paternosters and five Aves. b) Je reviendrai dans un Avé, I will be back in a moment. c) Je suis arrivé avant l'Avé, I arrived before the Ave Maria.

AVEC, avèk, [O. Fr. : avuec, avecque, formed from Lat. av = ad, apud ; nec from hoc], prep. 1. with : a) noting junction, connection, association, being or acting together in space or time ; b) nothing the cause, instrument, means or manner (in this sense avec is sometimes equivalent to by ; c) as regards, in respects to, on the side of, towards ; d) against, in opposition to ; e) in spite of, notwithstanding, for ; f) considering, taking into account ; g) noting some peculiarity about a person or thing ; h) to, noting comparison ; i) accompanied by ; j) according to.

a) Il se promenait — ses enfants, he was walking out with his children. S'entretenir — quelqu'un, to converse with a person. Il s'est marié — ma sœur, he has married my sister. Nous étions l'un — l'autre, we were together. Vin mêlé — de l'eau, wine mixed with water. Il parviendra — le temps, he will succeed with (or in) time, in the course of time. Nos goûts changent — les années, our tastes change with years, with the lapse of years. Il est — les royalistes, he is with the royalists. Je pense — Platon que..., I think with Plato that... Je vous ai envoyé mon domestique — une lettre, I have sent my servant to you with a letter. Le soldat marche — son sac et ses armes, the soldier marches with his knapsack and arms. — ces gens-là il faut toujours être en discussion, with those people one must always be disputing.

b) Frapper — une hache, to strike with an axe. Tuer — une épée, to kill with a sword. Attacher — des chaines, to bind with chains. Il ne marche qu'— un bâton, he walks only with a stick, he cannot walk without a stick. Carreler — de la brique, to floor with bricks. Bâtir — du bois, to build with (or of) wood. Ce papier a été fabriqué — du coton, this paper is made of (or with) cotton. Écrire — une plume, — un crayon, to write with a pen, with a pencil. Écrivez ce mot — un seul r, write that word with one r only. — le secours du ciel, with the help of heaven, with God's help. Je dirai — votre permission, with (or by) your leave (or permission) I will say. — courage, audace, ruse, zèle, with courage, daring, cunning, zeal. — le moindre effort, il pourrait..., with the least effort, he might... Et tu crois m'éblouir — cet artifice ? and you expect to dazzle (or blind) me with (or by) this artifice ? Les ennemis furent repoussés — perte, the enemy was repulsed with loss.

c) Être en paix — les autres et — soi-même, to be at peace with others and with one's self. Etre bien ou mal — quelqu'un, to be on good or bad terms with a person. Il ne procède pas de bonne foi — nous, he does not act honestly with or towards us. N'êtes-vous pas à merveille — Bancel ? are you not on the best of terms with Bancel ? Comment êtes-vous — M. d'Aix, how do you stand with M. d'Aix ?

d) Faire la guerre — quelqu'un, to make war with (on or against) a person. Combattre — un ennemi, to fight with an enemy. Être en dissentiment — quelqu'un, to be at odds (or at variance) with a person. L'ours a-t-il la guerre — les ours ? does the bear make war with (or against) bears ?

e) — cela, in spite of that. — ça ! Coll. nonsense ! what next ! — tout cela, notwithstanding all that, for all that. — tout cela vous n'en êtes pas moins sa dupe, for all that (or in spite of that) you are none the less his dupe. — tout le respect que je vous dois, with all (or in spite of all) the respect I owe you.

f) J'ai peine à croire qu'— son orgueil insupportable il ait pu..., I hardly (or scarcely) think that with all his intolerable pride he can have... Vous, — votre habitude de ne rien négliger..., you, with (or taking into account) your habit of neglecting nothing...

g) Que veut cet homme — son air sévère, what does that man want with his stern look ? Le bonhomme, — sa face enluminée, nous faisait l'éloge de la tempérance, the worthy man, with his carbuncled face, gave us a speech in praise of temperance. Où est-elle allée — sa belle robe ? where did she go with her fine dress ?

h) Oserez-vous vous comparer — un savant aussi distingué ? will you venture to compare yourself with (or to) a scholar so eminent ?

i) Mon frère — son ami est allé au bois de Boulogne, my brother with his friend has gone to the Bois de Boulogne. Presque toute la Livonie, — l'Esthonie entière, avait été abandonnée par la Pologne au roi de Suède, almost all Livonia, with the whole of Esthonia, had been given up by Poland to the king of Sweden. Volt. Ch. XII. [In the 17th century, the plural verb appears to have been employed in phrases of this kind. La Fontaine says : Le singe — le léopard gagnaient de l'argent à la foire, the monkey and the leopard made money at the fair.]

j) — vous il n'y a jamais rien de bien fait, with you (or according to you) there is never anything well done.

2. (used adverbially) with it. Il a pris mon manteau et s'en est allé —, he has taken my cloak and gone off with it.

D'AVEC, prep. phr. from. Distinguer le maître d'— le serviteur, to distinguish the master from the servant. Distinguer l'ami d'— le flatteur, la fausse monnaie d'— la bonne, to distinguish the friend from the flatterer, false money from good. Séparer l'or d'— l'argent, to separate gold from silver (or the gold from the silver).

AVECQUE, AVECQUES, åvèk', prep. V. Avec. [This old form of avec is still occasionally used in burlesque poetry for the sake of an additional syllable.]

† AVEINDRE, avandr', [Lat. : ad, to ; venire, to come to, at], [J'aveins, nous aveignons, ils aveignent ; j'aveignais ; j'aveignis ; j'aveindrai ; aveins ; que j'aveigne ; que nous aveignions ; que j'aveignisse ; avenant, aveint.] va. to fetch or take (from, off, or out of). Aveignez-moi une serviette de l'armoire, fetch me a napkin from (or out of) the cupboard.

AVEINE, avèn', sf. the Norman form of Avoine, which see.

AVEINIÈRE, avénièr', sf. oat-field, field of oats.

AVELANÈDE, av'lanèd', or VELANÈDE, vœlaned', sf. valonia : the commercial name for the acorn-cups of the quercus œgilops, much used in tanning.

AVELINE, av'lin', [Lat. : avellana, or abellana : noix d'Abella, in Campania], sf. Bot. filbert.

AVELINIER, av'linyé, sm. filbert-tree : corylus avellana.

AVELLE, avèl', sf. Ichth. bleak.

AVÉNACÉ, E, avénasé, [Lat. : avena, oat], adj. avenaceous : belonging to, or like oats.

AVENAGE, av'nazh', [Lat. : avena, oat], sm. Law-t. avenage : rent paid in oats.

† AVENAMMENT, av'namân-t, adv. engagingly, pleasingly.

AVENANT, E, rv'nânt, ânt', [avenir ; Lat. : ad, to ; veniens, coming], adj. 1. [of the person) personable, comely, good-looking ; 2. (of persons, manners, etc.) engaging, prepossessing, pleasing. Un homme —, a personable (or good-looking) man. Une femme très avenante, a very engaging woman. Air —, prepossessing (or engaging) air. Manières avenantes, engaging, pleasing or prepossessing manners. Homme mal —, an ill-looking (or unprepossessing) man. Manières mal avenantes, forbidding (repulsive or repellent) manners.

A L'AVENANT, adv. phr. in keeping, in conformity, in the same proportion or degree ; to correspond, to match. Mme H. amusante au possible, méchante à l'—, Mme H. extremely amusing (or entertaining), satirical in the same degree. St. Simon. 89. 207.

A L'AVENANT DE, prep. phr. answering to, corresponding with, in conformity with, in keeping with. Être à l'— de, to correspond with, to match, to be in conformity or keeping with. Et tout à l'—, and everything to match. Le dessert fut à l'— du repas, the dessert was in keeping with the repast.

AVENANT, sm. 1. Law-t. a daughter's share in an intestate parent's estate; 2. Insur. rider, or ryder : an addition or change made in a policy of insurance.

AVÈNEMENT, aven'mân-t, [avenir], sm. 1. arrival, approach; Fig. advent. L'— de la Réforme au XVI^e siècle, the advent of the reformation in the sixteenth century.

2. Theol. coming, advent. Le premier, le second — du Christ, the first, the second coming (or advent) of Christ.

3. accession (to an office or dignity). Charles XII à son —, Charles XII. on his accession (to the throne) A son — au pontificat, on his accession to the pontificate.

AVÈNERON, avèn'rôn [aveine], sm. Bot. wild oats.

† AVENIR, av'nir, [Lat. : advenire], [J'aviens, j'avins, j'aviendrai, avenant, avenu.] vn. to happen, to occur, to befall. V. Advenir, the only form used.]

AVENIR, sm. future. a) futurity, time or times to come; b) future lot, fate, destiny or prosperity; c) posterity. Dans un — prochain, in an early future, at no distant day. L'humanité qui ignore l'—, man who is ignorant of the future. Lire dans l'—, to read the future, to have an insight into futurity. Prédire l'—, to foretell (or predict) future events. Sur l'— insensé qui se fie, mad is he who trusts to the future. b) Quel que soit l'— que le ciel nous réserve, whatever the future (lot, destiny or fate) heaven may have in store for us. Nul espoir d'un meilleur —, no hope of a happier future. Assurer l'— de ses enfants, to secure the future of one's children. Se faire un —, to secure one's future welfare. N'avoir plus d'—, to have no hopes for the future (or no hopes of future success). Un jeune homme d'—, a promising young man, a youth of good promise. Cette entreprise a beaucoup d'—, that undertaking is very promising (or promises great success). c) Que dira l'—, what will posterity (or the future) say ?

A L'AVENIR, adv. phr. in future, for the future, henceforth, from this time forth.

A-VENIR, av'nir, sm. Law-t. writ of summons addressed to a defendant in a civil suit.

AVENT, avân-t, [Lat. : adventus; O. Fr. : advent], sm. Advent : the four weeks preceding Christmas. Le troisième dimanche de l'—, the third Sunday in Advent. Prêcher l'—, to preach the Advent sermons. L'Avent de Bossuet, Bossuet's Advent sermons.

AVENTURE, avântur', [Lat. : adventurus, about to happen], sf. 1. adventure. — heureuse, malheureuse, étrange, a fortunate, an unfortunate a strange adventure. Il lui arrive toujours quelque — singulière, some singular adventure always happens (or is always happening) to him. Raconter ses aventures, to relate one's adventures. Chercher —, to be on the look-out for something. Je fus témoin d'une — amusante, I was witness to an amusing adventure. [Often used in the pl. as the title of a book :] Les aventures de Don Quichotte, the Adventures of Don Quixote. Courir après les aventures, to seek adventures; to run into hazardous enterprises.

2. chance : fortuitous circumstances or event, hazard. La vie est sujette à bien des aventures, life is subject to many chances. Dit-on quelle — a terminé ses jours, do they say what chance has cut short his life ? Rac. Phèd. II. 1. Par quelle — il était sur ces côtes, by what chance he was on those coasts.

3. fortune, fate, luck. Cherchez votre — ailleurs, seek your fortune elsewhere. Circé pleurait sa funeste —, Circe bewailed her unhappy fate. Dire la bonne —, to tell fortunes. Se faire dire sa bonne —, to have one's fortune told. Il faut que je me fasse dire par elles ma bonne —, I must have my fortune told by them. Mol. Mar. f. 9. Diseur, diseuse de bonne aventure, fortune-teller. Tenter l'—, to try one's luck.

4. venture, enterprise, speculation. Pour avoir part en si belle —, to share in so promising a venture. Ce que je considère comme le dernier bonheur de son —, what I consider as the final success of his enterprise (or speculation). Homme d'—, an adventurer.

5. intrigue, love-affair. Cette femme a eu des aventures, that woman has had several intrigues.

6. (ou Grosse aventure) Naut. bottomry. Contrat à la grosse —, bottomry bond. Mettre à la grosse —, to lend money on bottomry.

7. Surg. Mal d'—, whitlow.

A L'AVENTURE, adv. phr. 1. as chance may decide, hap-hazard, at hap-hazard : without plan or purpose. La plupart des gens, n'ayant pas de principes, vivent à l'—, the greater part of mankind, having no fixed principles, live at hap-hazard.

2. at a venture, at random. J'ai fait mes ordonnances à l'—, I gave my prescriptions at a venture. Chacun a la liberté de dire à l'— ce qu'il pense, every one has the liberty of saying at random what he thinks. Lâcher à l'—, to blurt out (a word, a reply).

D'AVENTURE, PAR AVENTURE, adv. phr. by chance, peradventure, perchance, haply. Si d'—, si par —, il arrivait quelqu'un, if perchance, by chance, any one should come. Le moindre vent qui d'— fait rider la face de l'eau, the least breeze which happens (or chances) to ripple the surface of the water. La Font. Fab. I. 22. Accourus d'—, met (or brought together) by chance.

AVENTURÉ, E, avânturé, pa. p. 1. ventured : risked, hazarded; 2. (adject.) hazardous. C'est de l'argent bien —, that is money well ventured. Argent — dans une spéculation douteuse, money risked or hazarded in a doubtful speculation. Une affaire aventurée, a hazardous affair.

AVENTURER, avânturé-r, va. to venture : to risk, to hazard. — une somme, to venture a sum. — sa fortune, to risk, to hazard one's fortune. — sa vie, to expose or risk one's life. — sa personne, to expose one's life.

AVENTURER (s'), v. refl. to venture one's self, to venture, to risk, to hazard. S'— dans un pays inconnu, to venture into (or venture one's self in) an unknown country. S'— dans une affaire, to venture on an affair. Craignez de trop vous —, mind you do not venture too far.

AVENTUREUSEMENT, avânturœz'mân-t, adv. 1. adventurously 2. by chance.

AVENTUREUX, EUSE, avânturœ, œz, adj. 1. adventurous, venturous; 2. venturesome : foolishly adventurous, apt to run into danger; 3. hazardous : full of risk. Esprit, caractère —, adventurous mind, character. Vie, existence aventureuse, an adventurous life or existence. Une humeur aventureuse, a venturesome disposition. C'est un homme extrêmement — au jeu, he is very venturesome at play. projet —, a hazardous project (or scheme)

AVENTURIER, RIÈRE, avânturyé, r'; the final r of the masculine is always mute, but the s of the plural is heard as z before a vowel, adj. adventurous, ent resome; Fig. interloping. Des gens av turiers et hardis, bold adventurous peo..e. Vie aventurière, a life of adventures. V. Aventureux.

AVENTURIER, sm. adventurer : a) a person fond of hazardous enterprises; b) soldier of fortune; c) buccanier, rover, free-booter; d) a merchant vessel without escort in time of war; e) a man who lives by trickery and intrigue. a) On vit bientôt arriver dans cette colonie des aventuriers de tous les pays, adventurers from all countries were soon seen in the colony. b) Au moyen âge les aventuriers étaient en grand nombre dans les armées des nations occidentales, in the middle ages adventurers were numerous in the armies of the western nations. e) Il ne faut pas se fier à cet —, you must not trust (or put confidence in) that adventurer.

AVENTURIÈRE, sf. adventuress : always in an ill sense. Cette femme n'est qu'une —, that woman is nothing but an adventuress.

AVENTURINE, avânturin', sf. 1. avanturine or aventurine : a) an artificial gem; b) Mineral. a species of quartz; 2. (used as an invariable adject.) avanturine-coloured.

AVENU, E, av'nu, pa. p. V. Avenir. 1. happened, occurred; 2. having happened, having occurred. Ce qu'on craignait est —, what was apprehended has happened (occurred or come to pass). Il faut regarder ce crime comme non —, this crime must be regarded as not having occurred (or as non-existent).

3. Non avenu, Law-t. null and void : in speaking of a document, law proceedings.

AVENUE, av'nu, sf. avenue : a) way leading to a place, approach; b) road or path bordered by trees; vista. Ils ont occupé toutes les avenues du port, they have occupied (or seized) all the avenues or approaches to the port. On arrive au château par une grande —, the approach to the mansion is by a grand avenue. Planter une — de châtaigniers, to plant an avenue of chesnut-trees. Ouvrir des avenues dans un parc, dans une forêt, to open vistas in a park, in a forest. De longues et fraîches avenues, long and verdant avenues. [Fig. :] Les avenues de la fortune, the road to fortune.

AVÉRAGE, avérazh, [avérer], sm. average : mean or medium of given quantities. Sur trois ans l'— a été de..., for three years the average was.

AVÉRÉ, E, avéré, adj. proved (to be true) : demonstrated, established. C'est un fait — par l'histoire de M. de Thou, it is a fact proved by the history of M. de Thou. Voilà un fait — et public, that is a fact proved and known to everybody. Vous êtes convaincu, le crime est avéré, you are convicted, the crime is proved.

AVÉRER, avéré-r, [Lat. : ad; verus, true], (J'avère, j'avérerai.) va. to prove or establish by evidence, to ascertain the truth of. Il avéra le fait, he proved the fact. J'ai su par mes yeux — aujourd'hui le commerce secret de ma femme et de lui, I have this day had ocular proof of the secret intercourse between my wife and him. Mol. Sgan. Sc. 16.

AVÉRER (s'), v. refl. to be proved.

AVERNE, avèrn', sm. 1. Avernus : a lake in Campania; 2. Poet. the infernal regions, hell.

AVÉRON, avérôn, sm. Bot. wild-oats, V. Avéneron.

AVERSE, avèrs', [verser], sf. shower, a sudden and heavy shower. V. Verse.

AVERSION, avèrsyôn; in Poet. siôn, [Lat. : aversio; ab, from; vertère; to turn], sf. 1. aversion : dislike, disinclination (for persons or things). Avoir de l'— pour, to have an aversion for (to or towards). Le peuple l'avait en —, the people held him in aversion. Prendre quelqu'un en —, to take a dislike to (or to conceive an aversion for) a person. Elle avait une grande — contre lui, she had a great aversion for (to or towards) him. Une condition qui me livre à l'objet de mon —, a condition which delivers me up to the object of my aversion. Vous n'en avez pas d'—, you have no aversion to or for it. (Colloq. :) Bête d'—, aversion : object of aversion. C'est ma bête d'—, he (or she) is my aversion : the person I most dislike.

2. averseness. Son — pour le travail, his averseness (or aversion) to work.

AVERTI, E, avèrti, pa. p. and adj. informed, apprised, advised ; warned, cautioned. — par ses amis de la disgrâce qui le menaçait, informed. (advised or apprised) by his friends of the disgrace which threatened him. — de se tenir sur ses gardes, having been advised (or warned) to keep on his guard. Être bien —, mal —, to be well informed, to be misinformed. Tenez-vous pour —, consider yourself warned, take this as a warning. Prov. : Un bon —, en vaut deux, forewarned, forearmed.

AVERTIN, avèrta*n*, [Lat. : vertex, giddiness ; vertĕre, to turn], sm. Vet. Surg. sturdy, turn-sick, or gid : a disease of sheep caused by a hydatid on the brain.

AVERTIR, avèrtir, [Lat. : ad ; vertĕre, to turn], va. to apprize, to inform : to warn, to give warning or notice. — une personne de quelque chose, to inform (or apprize) a person of a thing. Je vous avertis que votre ami est arrivé, I have to inform you that your friend has arrived. Je l'ai averti de la conduite de son fils, I have apprized him of his son's conduct. Avertissez votre ami du danger auquel il s'expose, warn your friend of the danger to which he is exposed. Avertissez-le de venir, tell him to come. Les chiens avertissent de l'approche des voleurs, dogs give warning of the approach of thieves. Les infirmités m'avertissent de songer à la mort, my infirmities warn (or admonish) me to think of death. Sans menacer, sans —, without threat or warning. Faire —, to send word, to let know.

AVERTIR (s'), v. recip. to warn each other.

AVERTISSEMENT, avèrtismâ*n*-t, sm. 1. warning, hint, caution. — utile, salutaire, useful salutary warning. Avertissements réitérés, repeated warnings. C'est un — du ciel, it is a warning from heaven.

2. advertisement : short notice prefixed to a book by the publisher or editor. Lisez l'— avant de parcourir l'ouvrage, read the advertisement before perusing the work. C'est un — au lecteur, it is a hint, a notice to the reader.

3. warning : an official caution addressed to a journal which has exceeded the limits of tolerated discussion.

4. notice : call or summons to pay taxes.

AVERTISSEUR, avèrtisœr, sm. 1. callboy (of a theatre) ; 2. alarm-signal. — de bicyclette, cycle bell. — d'incendie, fire-alarm. — pour voiture, magasin, reflecting mirror for a carriage, a shop. — télégraphique, telegraphic alarm.

AVET, avè-t, sm. Bot. silver-fir.

AVETTE, avèt', [Lat. : apis, bee], sf. the hive-bee.

AVEU, avœ, [avouer], [pl. Aveux], sm. 1. consent : approbation, authorization. Il ne fait rien sans mon —, he does nothing without my consent. Il a obtenu l'— de son père pour ce mariage, he has obtained his father's consent to this marriage. C'est de votre — qu'il a fait cela, he did that with your authorization.

2. Law-t. acknowledgment. L'— d'une dette, the acknowledgment of a debt.

3. avowal, confession, acknowledgment, admission. Faire l'— d'une erreur, d'une faute, d'un crime, to make an avowal or confession of (to avow or confess), an error, a fault, a crime. Rétracter un —, to retract a confession. Arracher ou tirer des aveux, to extort confessions or avowals. Après l'— de sa faute, after acknowledging his fault. Leur silence paraissait un —, their silence appeared an admission. De l'— de tout le monde, Molière est le plus grand poète comique qui ait jamais paru, it is admitted by everybody that Molière is the greatest comic poet that has ever appeared. Il est certain, de l'— des Juifs, que..., it is certain, from the admission (or testimony) of the Jews, that..., Il est certain, de leur propre —, que, it is certain, from their own admission, that...

4. declaration. Je lui fis l'— de ma flamme, I made her a declaration of my love, of my passion.

5. Feud. Law. act establishing the character of a vassal. Homme sans —, a man whom no lord owns as his vassal ; Fig. (in modern phrase) a vagabond, a vagrant.

AVEUGLANT, E, avœglâ*n*-t, â*n*t', adj. blinding. — comme l'éclair, blinding like lightning. La passion la plus aveuglante, c'est l'amour, love is the most blinding passion.

AVEUGLE, avœgl', [Lat. : ab, without ; oculus, eye], adj. 1. blind : a) deprived of sight, sightless ; b) without perception, discernment, or judgment ; c) ignorant, unenlightened ; d) not based on reason, unreasoning, unreflecting ; e) thoughtless, reckless, headlong. a) Être —, to be blind. Devenir —, to become blind. Il fut — dans sa vieillesse, he was blind in his old age. Ce n'est pas l'amour qu'il fallait peindre —, c'est l'amour-propre, it is not love, but self-love, that should be painted blind. b) Être — sur ses défauts, to be blind to one's own defects. Les amants sont aveugles, lovers are blind. Changer son cheval borgne contre un —, to change from bad to worse. Il faut qu'il soit bien — pour ne pas voir ce qui se passe chez lui, he must be very blind not to see what is going on in his own house. L'ambition et la colère rendent les hommes aveugles, ambition and anger make men blind. c) — sur mon sort, blind as to my future fate. d) Presque toutes les religions demandent une foi —, nearly all religions exact a blind belief. Il a en son père une confiance —, he has a blind confidence (or has implicit confidence) in his father. Soumission —, blind submission. Complaisance —, blind (unreflecting) compliance or complaisance. Il fut l'— instrument de leur vengeance, he was the blind (or unconscious) instrument of their vengeance. e) Fureur —, blind rage or fury. Passion —, blind (or reckless) passion.

2. Hémorroïdes aveugles, Med. blind (or dry) piles. L'intestin —, Anat. the cæcum.

3. Tapis —, Com. Smyrna carpets in which the patterns are imperfectly executed. Fenêtre —, blind window.

4. Serpent —, Nat. Hist. cæcilia : blind worm. slow-worm.

AVEUGLE, smf. blind man, blind woman. blind person ; pl. blind persons, the blind. Un pauvre —, a poor blind man. Une vieille —, a blind old woman. Prov. : Au royaume des aveugles les borgnes sont rois, in the kingdom of the blind, one-eyed men are kings. Crier comme un aveugle qui a perdu son bâton, to make a great noise, a great outcry over a trifle. C'est un aveugle qui en conduit un autre, it is one blind man leading another. Un aveugle y mordrait, one may see it with half an eye. Il n'est pire aveugle que celui qui ne veut pas voir, none so blind as those who will not see.

AVEUGLE, sm. Nat. Hist. cæcilia : blind-worm..

A L'AVEUGLE, EN AVEUGLE, adv. phr. blindly : without knowledge, judgment or reflection.

AVEUGLE-NÉ, NÉE, adj. and s. born blind, blind from birth. Un enfant —, a child born blind. Une femme —née, a woman born blind. Les aveugles-nés, the born-blind.

AVEUGLEMENT, avœgl'mâ*n*-t, sm. blindness : a) privation of sight : in this sense cécité is most generally used ; b) darkness ; c) intellectual darkness, ignorance, error, delusion, illusion. a) Son — même ne lui avait rien ôté de sa gaieté ordinaire, even his blindness in no way diminished his habitual cheerfulness. b) Quel — de ne pas se laisser convaincre ! what blindness not to allow one's self to be convinced ! La Bruy. Quel étrange — ! what strange infatuation ! c) L'— où l'idolâtrie les avait plongés, the blindness into which idolatry had plunged them.

AVEUGLÉMENT, avœglémâ*n*-t, adv. blindly : without exercising reason or judgment. Il s'est — jeté dans le péril, he blindly rushed into danger (or the danger). Croire, obéir —, to believe, to obey blindly. Suivre — ses caprices, to follow blindly one's caprices.

AVEUGLER, avœglé-r, va. 1. to blind : a) to deprive of sight ; b) to render unable to see ; c) to dazzle ; d) Fig. to deprive of discernment or judgment, to delude. a) L'impératrice Irène fit — son fils Constantin l'an 797 de notre ère, the empress Irene caused her son Constantine to be blinded in the year 797 of our era. b) La poussière nous aveugle, the dust blinds us. c) La trop grande lumière nous aveugle, too much light dazzles our eyes. L'éclat du soleil m'aveugle, the brightness (or glare) of the sun blinds me. d) L'amour-propre l'aveugle, self-love blinds him. La prospérité aveugle l'homme, man is blinded by prosperity. La superstition qui aveugle l'esprit de l'homme, superstition which blinds the mind of man. Être aveuglé par la passion, to be blinded by passion. Aveuglé par la poussière, blinded by the dust. Aveuglé par la passion de l'or, blinded by the love of gold. Ôte-lui cette nue dont la sombre épaisseur aveugle sa raison, remove from him that cloud whose gloomy density obscures his reason. L'ambition peut m'éblouir, mais non pas m'—, ambition may dazzle but cannot blind me. Corn. Pom. II. 3.

2. Naut. to fother : to stop a leak. Deux voies d'eau qu'on s'efforça vainement d'—, two leaks which we vainly attempted to fother.

AVEUGLER, vn. to cause blindness, to destroy the sight. A la longue, le grand soleil, le grand éclat de la neige peut —, exposure to a blazing sun or to the dazzling whiteness of snow may, in time, cause blindness.

AVEUGLER (s'), v. refl. 1. to blind one's self, to deprive one's self of sight. Œdipe, selon la fable, s'aveugla de ses propres mains, according to the fable, Œdipus blinded himself (tore out his eyes) with his own hands.

2. (with sur) to be blind, to shut or close one's eyes against or to. S'— sur ses défauts, to be blind to one's own defects. Ce père s'aveugle sur la conduite de son fils, that father is blind to his son's conduct. Ils s'aveuglaient sur l'évidence de ces prodiges, they closed (or shut) their eyes against the evidence of these prodigies.

AVEUGLETTE, avœglèt', [aveugle], sf. used only in the adverbial phrase. : A l'aveuglette, groping or feeling about (as in the dark). Chercher à l'—, to grope (or feel) about for a thing. Aller à l'—, to feel one's way.

AVIATEUR, aviatœr, sm. aviator, flying-man, airman.

AVIATION, aviason, [Lat. : avis, bird], sf. aviation, flying. Champ d'—, enclosure, aviation course.

AVIATIK, aviatik, [Lat. : avis, bird], sm. aeroplane.

AVICOLE, avikol, [Lat. : avis, bird ; colère, to dwell], adj. Zool. living on birds (of parasites.)

AVICULAIRE, avikulèr', adj Naut. Hist. avicular : a) eaten by birds ; b) living on birds. Polygomme —, knot-grass Mygale —, bird-catching spider. Hippobosque —, forest-fly.

AVICULE, avikul', [Lat. : avicula, little bird], sf. Nat. Hist. avicula : the pearl-oyster. [V. Aronde.]

AVICULTEUR, avikültœr, sm. bird-fancier, bird-breeder ; aviarist.

AVICULTURE, aviküItur, [Lat. : avis, bird ; cultura, culture], sf. aviculture.

AVIDE, avid', [Lat. : avidus], adj. 1. greedy, eager ; avid. Cet homme est si —, qu'il dévore plutôt qu'il ne mange, that man is so greedy that he devours rather than he eats. Des enfants avides, greedy children. — de carnage, greedy of carnage. — de sang, greedy of blood, thirsting or thirsty for blood, blood-thirsty. Être — de gloire, d'honneurs, de richesses, to be avid of (or eager for) glory, honours, riches : Une — espérance, an eager hope. Leurs mains de sang avides, their hands eager for blood. Un regard —, an eager look. Des yeux avides, eager eyes.

2. covetous, grasping. Un homme —, a covetous man. Il ne faut pas être si —, you must not be so covetous. Des hommes avides qui se revêtent de toutes les conditions pour en avoir les avantages, grasping men who assume all conditions in order to enjoy their advantages. La Bruy. 8.

AVIDEMENT, avid'mân-t, adv. greedily, eagerly, covetously. Manger, boire —, to eat, to drink greedily. Contempler —, to contemplate eagerly. L'amour — croit tout ce qui le flatte, love eagerly believes whatever flatters it.

AVIDITÉ, avidité, [Lat. : aviditas], sf. avidity : a) greediness ; b) eagerness ; c) covetousness. Manger avec —, to eat with avidity (or greediness). L'— du gain, avidity or greediness of gain. Il lut ce livre avec —, he read this book with avidity (or eagerness). Ecouter avec —, to listen with avidity, with eagerness. Et sous un faux semblant de libéralité, soûler ma vengeance et votre —, and under a false show of liberality, glut my vengeance and your covetousness.

AVILIR, avilir, [vil], va. 1. to debase, to degrade : to dishonour, to disgrace. Ses habitudes l'ont avili aux yeux de tout le monde, his habits have degraded him in everybody's opinion. Il avilit son rang, he disgraces his rank. — son nom, to disgrace (or dishonour) one's name. Est un homme plus avili ? is there a more degraded man ?

2. to depreciate : to diminish the money value of (goods, etc.). L'encombrement sur le marché avilit les marchandises, an overstocked market depreciates goods, brings down the prices of goods. Des marchandises avilies, depreciated merchandise.

3. to disparage. Le burlesque, si justement avili depuis, était alors fort à la mode, burlesque, so justly disparaged since, was then in great favour. D'Alemb. II. 168.

AVILIR, vn. to be degrading. L'avarice avilit, avarice is degrading.

AVILIR (s'), v. refl. 1. to debase, degrade, dishonour, or disgrace one's self. Qu'est-ce que la noblesse, si l'on peut s'avilir sans la perdre ? what is nobility, if a man can degrade himself without losing it ?

2. to depreciate, to become of less value (as goods) ; to fall (as prices).

AVILISSANT, E, avilisân-t, ânt', adj. debasing, degrading. Conduite avilissante, degrading (or debasing) conduct.

AVILISSEMENT, avilis'mân-t, sm. 1. debasement, degradation ; 2. depreciation (of goods, etc.) ; 3. disparagement, discredit.

AVILLON, aviyon, [from aiguillon], sm. hind claw in birds of prey.

AVINÉ, E, aviné, pa. p. and adj. 1. seasoned with wine (as casks). Une futaille avinée, a seasoned cask.

2. soaked or stained with wine ; 3. drunken, drunk, intoxicated. Tables avinées, tables stained with wine. Un homme —, a drunken fellow. Il est —, he is drunk or intoxicated. Avoir les jambes avinées, to have crooked legs, to stagger from intoxication.

AVINER, aviné-r, [à ; vin], va. to season with wine. Aviner une cuve, une futaille, to season a vat, a cask.

AVION, aviôn, sm. Neol. for aéroplane, sm. aeroplane, airplane.

AVIRON, avirôn, [à ; viron ; virer, to turn], sm. oar (for rowing boats). Avirons montés à pointe, à couple, single-banked oars, double-banked oars. — de galère, sweep : a large oar used in small sailing vessels.

AVIRONNERIE, aviron'ri, sf. oarmaker's shed or shop.

AVIRONNIER, avironyé, sm. oarmaker.

AVIS, avi-z, [Lat. : ad, to ; visum, what is seen], sm. 1. opinion : what is thought or opined, mind, sentiment. Donner son —, to give one's opinion. C'est mon —, it is my opinion. Ils étaient d'— différents, d'— contraires, they were of different opinions, of contrary opinions. Il m'est —, or (in colloq. lang.) m'est —, I am of opinion, in my opinion, to my thinking, to my mind. Il lui est— que, he is of opinion that. Son —, a prévalu, a été rejeté, his opinion prevailed, was rejected. Être de l'— de quelqu'un, to be of some one's opinion, to agree in opinion with some one. [In many colloquial phrases mind is the exact synonyme of opinion :] A mon —, to my mind, in my opinion. Dire son —, to speak one's mind. Selon mon —, according to my opinion, to my mind (or thinking), as I think. Prov. : Autant de têtes, autant d'—, so many men, so many minds. Deux avis valent mieux qu'un, two heads are better than one. Un bon avis vaut un œil dans la main, good advice is as good as an eye in the hand ; good counsel never comes amiss.

2. opinion, decision or vote (expressed or given by a member of a tribunal, council or any deliberative body). Les — des membres de la commission furent unanimes, the opinions of the members of the commission were unanimous. Prendre les —, to take the votes. Aller aux —, to proceed to a vote. — du conseil d'État, decision (or declaration) of the Council of State (as to the interpretation of a regulation or oridinance). — de parents, decision of a family-council (respecting a minor's or a lunatic's person or estate). — de médecins, the decision of a consultation of physicians.

3. counsel, advice : in this sense advice has no plural Donner des —, to give advice (or counsel). S'il veut suivre vos —, if he will follow your advice, your counsel (or counsels). Sauf meilleur —, if nothing better be proposed, if no better counsel be given. Faute d'—, for want of advice. Il y a jour d'—, there is no hurry, there is time. Prendre des lettres d'—, Fig. to act with all due reflection. — amical, paternel, friendly, paternal advice. Il a profité des — de sa mère, he has profited by his mother's advice (or counsels). Donneur d'—, an officious adviser : one who is always proffering advice unasked. Je n'ai que faire de vos —, I want none of your advice.

4. notice ; warning. — important, important notice. — au public, notice to the public, public notice. Il ne faut pas que les vieillards négligent les — que la nature leur donne, old or aged men (persons or people) must not neglect the warnings which nature gives them.

5. advertisement : a short notice perfixed to a book by the publisher or editor. — au lecteur, advertisement to the reader ; Fig. hint, caution, a word to the wise.

6. intelligence, information, news notice ; Comm. advice. Je vous donnerai — de tout ce qui se passera, I will keep you informed of all that takes place. Il m'a transmis des — sûrs, he has sent me reliable intelligence (or information). Je serai prêt à partir au premier —, I shall be ready to start at the first notice. On a reçu — de Rome, intelligence has (letters or advices have) been reveived from Rome. Suivant l'— de, as per advice. Lettre d'—, letter of advice.

AVISÉ, E, avizé, pa. p. 1. perceived, espied, seen ; imagined, devised. Ce fut à lui bien —, that was well imagined on his part ; that was a good idea (or a bright thought) of his.

AVISÉ, E, adj. 1. prudent, circumspect, cautious ; 2. (preceded by well or ill) advised. C'est un homme sage et —, he is a wise and prudent (or cautious) man. Il est fort —, he is very circumspect. Un — compère, a deep (or cunning) fellow. [Substant. :] C'est un mal —, he is an imprudent (or ill-advised) man. [Generally written Malavisé, which see.]

AVISER, avisé-r, [à ; viser], va. 1. Colloq. to espy : to see or perceive, to catch sight of. Je l'avisai dans la foule, I espied (or caught sight of) him in the crowd. Si pour mon infortune il ne m'eût avisé, if, to my sorrow, he had not espied me.

2. to inform. Va le faire — que je suis ici, go and inform him (or let him know) that I am here.

3. to advise : a) to give advice ; b) Comm. to send a letter of advice to. Un fou avise bien un sage, a fool may give a useful hint to a wise man. Un verre de vin avise bien un homme, a glass of wine brightens up a man's ideas.

AVISER, vn. 1. (with à) to think of, on or about, to reflect on, to see to or about, to take care. — à un moyen, to think of a means. Avisez à ce que vous devez faire, think (or think of) what you ought to do. Il est temps d'— à cela, it is time to think of it (to see to it or about it). On avisa à ce qu'il fût bien logé, they took care that he should be well lodged. Avisez-y bien, consider it well. Avisez-y, see to it. Il est temps d'y —, it is time to see to it. J'aviserai que..., I will see (or take care) that...

2. to think, to be of opinion, to decide. Les États avisèrent qu'il fallait mettre un terme à la guerre, the States decided that the war must be brought to a close. Qui vous a fait — de ce tour ? who made you think of that trick ? who put that trick into your head ?

AVISER (s'), v. refl. 1. to bethink one's self. Comme un homme qui s'avise tout à coup, like a man who suddenly bethinks himself. Je me suis avisé trop tard que, I too late bethought myself that. On s'avisa à la fin de lui donner de l'émétique, they at last bethought themselves of giving him an emetic. Mol. Le Fest. III. I.

2. to think of : a) to imagine, to devise ; b) to reflect on, to consider ; c) to take it into one's head. a) S'— d'un bon expédient, to imagine a good expedient. J'ai ajouté tous les ornements dont j'ai pu m'—, I have added all the ornaments I could think of. b) Je ne m'en suis pas avisé, I did not think of it. Il ne s'avise de rien, he thinks of nothing. c) Il s'avisa de se marier, he took it into his head to marry. Prov. : On ne s'avise jamais de tout, we cannot think of everything.

3, to venture, to dare, to presume. Si vous vous avisez de parler mal de moi, vous vous en repentirez, if you venture (or dare) to speak ill of me, you shall repent it.

AVISO, avizo, sm, advice-boat, dispatch boat.

AVITAILLEMENT, avitay'mân-t, sm, victualling : a) supplying with provisions ; b) stock or store of provisions.

AVITAILLER, avitayé-r, (O. Fr. : vitaille for victuaille], va, to victual : to supply a ship or fortress with provisions.

AVITAILLER (s'), v, réfl, to victual : to lay in a store of provisions,

AVITAILLEUR, avitayœr, sm, victualler, contractor for victualling (of a place, a camp, a ship, etc.)

AVIVAGE, avivazh', sm. 1. brightening, polishing (of metals) ; 2. bringing-out, heightening (of colours) ; 3. applying mercury to the tinfoil (in looking-glass making).

AVIVER, avivé-r, [à ; vif] va. 1. to brighten : to give colour, or polish to ; 2. to quicken or brisk up (a fire) ; 3. to heighten, to freshen (a colour) ; 4. to polish (metals, marble, etc.) ; 5. to hew, to square (round timber) ; 6. Fig. to quicken, to enliven, to give freshliness or life to. — un tableau, to heighten the colours of a painting. — une statue de bronze, to polish a bronze statue. — le marbre, to polish marbre. Le vent avive le feu, the wind quickens (or brisks up) a fire. La marche a quelque chose qui avive mes idées, walking has the effect of quickening my ideas.

AVIVER (s'), v. refl. 1. to become brighter, to brighten ; 2. to revive, to become animated ; 3. to become sharper or more acute (as pain). Une couleur qui s'avive, a coolur that becomes brighter. Sa douleur s'aviva, his pain became more acute.

AVIVES, aviv', sf. pl. Vet. Surg. 1. the parotid glands (of a horse) ; 2. vives : swelling or congestion of the said glands.

AVIVOIR, avivaw, sm. burnisher : tool used by gilders for spreading good leaf.

AVOCASSER, avokasé-r, [avocat], vn. 1. to practise as a barrister ; 2. (in modern usage always taken in an ill sense) to be a pettifogging lawyer, to pettifog.

AVOCASSERIE, avokas'ri, sf. (always in an ill sense) ; 1. pettifoggery, pettifogging ; 2. chicanery.

AVOCASSIER, ÈRE, avokasyé, ér', adj. (always in an ill sense) pettifogging. La gent avocassière, the pettifogging crew.

AVOCASSIER, sm. pettifogger.

AVOCAT, avoka-t ; the t is pronounced before a vowel in oratory only ; in the pl. it is always mute, and the s is heard as z before a vowel or mute h : Avocats habiles, avokazabil, [Lat. : advocatus ; ad, to ; vocāre, to call], sm. 1. barrister, barrister-at-law counsellor ; counsel (sing. and pl.) : all these words have the same meaning in England and Ireland, but cannot be employed indifferently ; (in Scotland) advocate. — fameux, célèbre, éloquent, famous, celebrated, eloquent barrister (or lawyer). Votre — a, vos avocats ont bien plaidé, your counsel have pleaded well. — plaidant, barrister who pleads in court. — consultant, chamber-counsel ; one who gives opinions on points of law. — principal, leading barrister. — général, — du roi, advocate-general, king's advocate : law-officers of the crown having functions in some degree resembling those or the attorney-general and solicitor-general in England. — de Ponce-Pilate, — sans cause, — de causes perdues, a briefless barrister.

2. advocate : upholder, defender ; intercessor. Il ne faut pas se faire l'— de l'injustice, one must not become the advocate (or defender) of injustice. — du diable, devil's advocate : Rom. Cath. Rel. advocatus diaboli : the person appointed at Rome to show reason why any one proposed for canonization should not receive it. Se faire l'— du diable, to defend a bad cause. Je serai votre — auprès de votre père, I will be your advocate (or intercessor) with your father. Prov. : Bon avocat, mauvais voisin, a good lawyer, a bad neighbour.

AVOCATE avokat' sf. (female) advocate, defender, intercessor. Sa mère fut son —, his mother was his advocate ; his mother defended him, interceded for him. La sainte Vierge l'— des pécheurs, the Holy Virgin, the intercessor for sinners.

AVOCATIER, avokatyé, sm. Bot. persea gratissima, avocado-pear, alligator-pear.

AVOCETTE, avoset', sf. Ornith. avocet or avoset.

AVOINE, avwan', [Lat. : avena], sf. 1. oat : the oat plant ; oats : the grain ; 2. pl. the oat-crop. L'— commune, the common oat, common oats. La folle —, the wild oat, wild oats. Un picotin d'—, a feed of oats. L'— sur pied, standing (or growing) oats. Les avoines sont belles cette année, the oat-crop is good this year. Couper, faucher, faire les avoines, to cut down, to mow, to house (or get in) the oat-crop. [The old form, aveine, survives in a few proverbial phrases : Cheval d'aveine, cheval de peine, a wellfed horse can work hard : a labourer well paid, of work is not afraid. Cheval faisant la peine ne mange pas l'aveine, the hardest-worked horse is not always the best fed ; those who work hardest are not always the best paid.]

AVOIR, avwar, [Lat. : habēre ; O. Fr. : aveir, to have], va. [J'ai, tu as, il a ; nous avons, vous avez, ils ont ; j'avais ; j'eus, nous eûmes, vous eûtes, ils eurent ; j'aurai ; j'aurais ; aie, ayons, ayez ; que j'aie, que tu aies, qu'il ait, que nous ayons, que vous ayez, qu'ils aient ; que j'eusse, qu'il eût, que nous eussions ; ayant ; eu, eue, in this verb, the diphthong eu has the sound of the vowel u.] 1. to have : a) to possess ; b) to possess as quality or characteristic, and, in a more extended sense, to be in any way connected with or affected by, in speaking of persons or things ; c) to hold, to carry ; d) to wear, to have on ; e) to obtain, to get, to procure : f) to know ; g) to entertain, to hold, to feel ; h) (with à followed by a verb in the infinitive) to be under the necessity or obligation of, to be compelled by duty to ; i) (with ne... qu'à to have but to, to need only ; j) as an auxiliary verb, avoir indicates the completion of an action.

a) — du bien, to have property. — un emploi, to have a situation. — de l'argent, to have money. — une maison, une terre, to have a house, an estate. — de la fortune, to have a fortune. — de grands appointements to have a handsome salary. N'— rien, to have nothing. — un revenu de tant par an, to have an income of so much a year (or to be worth so much a year). Il a dix mille francs de rente, he has ten thousand francs a year. — de quoi vivre, to have enough to live on, to have a competency. [Colloq. :] — de quoi, to have ample means, to be rich. C'est un homme qui a de quoi, he is well off, he is a man of ample means. — des parents, des enfants, des amis, des voisins, des élèves, to have parents, children, friends, neighbours, pupils. Il avait des enfants de ses deux femmes, he had children by both his wives. Elle avait un fils du roi, she had a child by the king. Nous avons de belles promenades dans notre ville, we have some fine walks in our town. N'— pas d'enfants, to have no children — abondance de beaux habits, to have plenty of fine clothes.

b) L'homme a une tête, des bras, des jambes, etc., man has a head, arms, legs, etc. — de beaux yeux, to have fine eyes. — le bras cassé, to have a broken arm. — une bonne tête, to have a good head. — de la force, de l'agilité, de l'intelligence, to have (or possess) strength, agility, intelligence. — des vertus, des vices, to have virtues, vices. Les hommes qui ont de la prudence, men who have prudence. — connaissance de, to have a knowledge of, to know, to be acquainted with. — des soupçons de, to have suspicions of, to suspect. — des droits, to have rights. Ils ont pour eux la justice, they have justice on their side. — la fièvre typhoïde, la petite vérole, to have the typhus fever, the small-pox. — mal à la tête, mal aux yeux, mal au doigt, to have the head-ache, bad eyes, a bad (or sore) finger. — la parole. V. Parole. Votre chien a de longues oreilles, your dog has long ears. Cette vache n'a pas de cornes, that cow has no horns. Cet oiseau a un chant très agréable, that bird has a pleasing song. Le chien a beaucoup d'attachement à son maître, the dog is much attached to his master. Cette ville a de beaux édifices, that town has some fine buildings. Votre château a un parc magnifique, your mansion stands in a splendid park. Votre maison a cinq étages, you house has five stories. Cette table a deux tiroirs, this table has (or contains) two drawers. Ma montre a une aiguille à secondes, my watch has a seconds hand. Ce fruit a une forme allongée et une belle couleur, that fruit has an elongated form and a fine colour. L'architecture de cette maison a un caractère imposant, the architecture of that house has (or is of) an imposing character. Un tel accident peut — des suites fâcheuses, such an accident may have very disagreeable consequences.

c) — à la main une coupe, une boîte, to have (or hold) in one's hand a cup, a box. Il n'avait pas de canne en venant, he had no stick when he came.

d) Il avait ce jour-là un habit bleu, he that day wore a blue coat. — une bague au doigt, to wear a ring on one's finger. Ayant un casque sur la tête, having a helmet on his head.

e) On n'a pas ce livre facilement, it is not easy to procure (or obtain) that book. J'ai eu ce cheval très bon marché, I had this horse very cheap. Il a eu tout ce qu'il demandait, he has had (obtained or got) all he asked for. Elle aura le prix, she will have (or obtain) the prize. On a deux livres de pommes pour dix sous ? we have (or get) two pounds of apples for ten sous. On ne peut rien — de cet ouvrier, one can get nothing from that workman. Ce n'est pas un homme que vous aurez facilement, he is a man whom you will not have (or gain over) easily.

f) Trouvant que j'avais peu de latin, il entreprit de m'en enseigner davantage, finding that I knew but little Latin, he undertook to teach me more. J. J. Rous. Conf. 3.

g) J'ai une opinion tout à fait opposée, I entertain a quite opposite (or contrary) opinion. Je n'ai aucune estime pour lui, I have (or feel) no esteem for him. J'ai l'intention de, I have the intention to, I intend to.

h) J'ai à faire une visite, I have a visit to make (or to pay). J'ai à vous remercier, I have to thank you. Il a une maison à vendre, he has a house to sell. Avoir un champ à cultiver, to have a field to cultivate. Le sénat lui ayant fait dire qu'il eût à retirer ses troupes de toutes les provinces, the senate having intimated to him that he must withdraw his troops from all the provinces. Vertot. Révol. rom. x. Le décret du sénat ordonnait qu'on eût à les poursuivre aux dépens du public, the decree of the senate ordered that they should be prosecuted at the public expense. Vertot. Révol. rom. 1.

i) N'— qu'à, to have but (or only) to, to need but (or only). Vous n'avez qu'à lever les yeux, you have only to (or you need only) raise your eyes. Vous n'avez qu'à dire un mot, et la chose sera faite, you have but to say the word and the thing will be done.

j) J'ai dit que..., I have said that... Je crois — entendu dire, I think that I have heard say. Ce qui a été dit par vous, what has been said by you.

2. when followed by a noun without an article, avoir is often rendered by to be and the noun by an adjective : — faim, soif, chaud, froid, to be hungry, thirsty, hot, cold. — honte, peur, raison, tort, to be ashamed, afraid, right, wrong. — coutume de, to have the habit of, to be accustomed to. — familiarité avec, to be familiar (or intimate) with.

3. to be : in speaking of age, length, breadth, etc. — quinze ans, to be fifteen years old (or years of age), to be fifteen. — de l'âge, to be aged (or old). Cette planche a six pieds de long et dix pouces de large, this plank is six feet long and ten inches wide. Une rue qui a douze mètres de large, a street that is twelve metres wide.

4. to be the matter with, to ail. Qu'avez-vous que vous ne mangez pas ? Je n'ai rien, what ails (or what is the matter with) you that you do not eat ? Nothing ails me, or there is nothing the matter with me. Les médecins n'ont pu dire encore ce qu'il a, the physicians have not yet been able to say what ails him.

Idiomat. phr. En —, to be angry, offended or vexed with, to be irritated (or to have a spite) against ; to meet with a reverse or disappointment. Je ne sais à qui il en avait, I don't know whom he was offended with. Je lui demandais à qui elle en avait, I asked her whom she was offended with (or had a spite against). Vous en aurez, you shall get your deserts, you will catch it. En — dans l'aile, to be winged ; Fig. to meet with a loss, reverse, or disappointment. En — pour son argent, to have one's money's worth. Il n'en a pas pour longtemps, he has not long to live. J'en ai bien assez, I have had quite enough of it. En avez-vous pour longtemps ? will it take you long to finish ? J'en ai encore pour plus d'un mois, I have enough for more than a month still.

— beau (followed by a verb in the infinitive) to be in vain, to be useless. Il a beau se remuer, il ne réussira pas, it is useless for him to exert himself, he will not succeed. J'ai beau faire et beau dire afin de l'irriter, all I can do or say fails to irritate him. Ils ont beau se cacher, it is useless for them to hide themselves, they hide themselves in vain. On a beau avoir des troupes, it is useless to have troops. J'avais beau crier, personne ne m'entendait, I shouted in vain (or shouting was useless), no body heard me.

Y AVOIR, IL Y A, etc. v. impers. Il y a, there is, there are. Il y avait, il y eut, there was, there were. Je sens qu'il y a un Dieu, I feel that there is a God. La Bruy. Il y a lieu de croire, de craindre, there is reason to think, to fear. Il y eut beaucoup de sang versé, there was a great deal of blood shed. Il y a trois jours, three day ago or since. Il y a un an, a year ago. Il y a longtemps que je suis ici, I have been here a long time. Il y a deux heures que nous attendons ici, we have been waiting here these two hours. Il y aura des vices tant qu'il y aura des hommes, there will be vices as long as there are men. Il y en a qui disent, there are people (or persons) who say. Il y avait au moins deux mille personnes, there were at least two thousand persons. Y a-t-il rien de plus indigne ? is there anything more disgraceful ? Pourvu qu'il y ait assez d'argent, provided there be (or there is) money enough. Peut-il y avoir des doutes sur cette question ? can there be any doubts on that question ? Ces juifs sont des hommes comme il n'y en a point, those Jews are men whose likes (or whose fellows) are not to be found. Did. Nouv. Max. Phil. 25. Il n'y a qu'à parler, it is only necessary to speak, you have only to speak. Y ayant, there being. N'y ayant qu'une vérité de chaque chose, there being but one truth of each thing. Y ayant des gens qui gagnaient leur vie de cette manière, there being people who gained their living in that manner.

TO BE, to express a distance. Combien y a-t-il de Paris à Orléans, how far is it from Paris to Orleans ? Il n'y a pas très loin, it is not very far.

AVOIR, sm. 1. fortune, property : whatever a person possesses. Tout son — était chez ce banquier, his whole fortune (or all his property) was in the hands of that banker. Cette maison, cette terre est un bel —, that house, that estate is a fine property. Ce n'est pas beaucoup, mais c'est tout mon —, it is not much, but it is all I have.

2. Book-keep. credit, creditor ; credit-side, creditor-side (of an account). Doit et —, debtor and creditor sides. Établir un compte par doit et —, to make out a debtor and creditor account.

AVOISINANT, E, avwazinân-t, ânt', adj. neighbouring, adjoining, adjacent. Les maisons avoisinantes, the neighbouring (or adjoining) houses. Les champs avoisinants, the neighbouring (or adjacent) fields.

AVOISINÉ, E, avwaziné, pa. p. Être bien —, mal —, to have good neighbours, bad neighbours ; to be in a good neighbourhood, in a bad neighbourhood.

AVOISINER, avwaziné-r, [voisin], va. to border on (or upon) ; to be contiguous or adjacent to. Les terres qui avoisinent la forêt, the lands bordering on (or adjacent to) the forest. Les provinces qui avoisinent la France, the provinces which border on France. [Poet.] : Cet arbre avoisine le ciel de son vaste branchage, that tree rears its mighty branches to the sky. Une tour qui avoisine les cieux, a tower reaching to the skies. [Fig. :] Une uniformité qui avoisine l'ennui, a wearisome uniformity.

AVOISINER (s') v. refl. 1. to be contiguous or adjoining. Maisons qui s'avoisinent, adjoining houses.

2. to approach, to be approaching, to get near. Le jour de Pâques s'avoisine, Easter is approaching.

AVORTÉ, E, avòrté, adj. abortive. Fruit —, abortive fruit. [Fig. :] Talent —, abortive talent. Desseins avortés, abortive designs.

AVORTEMENT, avòrtœmân-t, sm. abortion : a) Physiol. expulsion of an imperfect fœtus ; b) (in speaking of women) miscarriage caused by criminal means ; c) Bot. imperfect development. ; d) Fig. miscarriage, failure. Cette entreprise a abouti à un —, that entreprise has ended in failure.

AVORTER, avòrté-r, [Low Lat. : abortâre ; Lat. : ab, from ; oriri, to rise], vn. 1. Med. to abort, to miscarry (said of women only). Faire —, to procure (or cause) abortion.

2. (of animals in general) to cast or drop young prematurely ; (of mares) to slip foal ; (of cows) to slip calf ; (of ewes) to slip lamb. Les brebis avortent fréquemment, ewes often slip lamb.

3. to be abortive : to fall off prematurely. Cette année presque tous les boutons des poiriers ont avorté, this year nearly all the fruit-buds of the pear-trees have fallen off.

4. Fig. to prove abortive : to fail, to come to nothing. Le projet venant à —, the scheme happening to fail. L'entreprise avorta faute de fonds, the undertaking failed (or came to nothing) from want of money. Faire —, to frustrate, to cause the failure of ; to nip in the bud. Cet accident fit — l'entreprise, that accident caused the failure of the undertaking. Les talents que la misère fait —, the talents which poverty nips in the bud.

[Avorter is conjugated with avoir to express the act : Cette femme a avorté hier, that woman aborted (miscarried or had a miscarriage) yesterday. Ses projets ont avorté par sa faute, his schemes have failed through his own fault. Être is used to indicate a state : Cette femme est avortée, this woman is suffering from a miscarriage. Leurs desseins sont avortés, their designs are frustrated.]

AVORTON, avòrtôn, sm. abortion : a) the produce of an untimely birth ; b) animal, plant, or fruit imperfectly developed ; c) stunted, ill-formed person ; d) Fig. anything imperfect in design or execution. Un informe —, a shapeless abortion. Ces pêches sont des avortons, those peaches are abortions. Ce n'est qu'un —, he is a mere abortion (or is but half a man). Cet ouvrage n'est qu'un —, that work is a mere abortion. Un auteur de mérite n'aurait pas dû mettre au jour un pareil —, a talented author ought not to have published such an abortion.

AVOUABLE, avouabl', adj. avowable.

AVOUÉ, E, avoué, sm. 1. attorney, attorney-at-law, solicitor ; Colloq., lawyer ;

2. Feudal law-t. patron, defender (of a church or abbey). Charge d'—, an attorney's practise. Acheter une charge d'—, to buy an attorney's practice. Étude d'—, an attorney's office. Clerc d'—, attorney's (or lawyer's) clerk, law-clerk.

AVOUER, avoué r; in the future and conditional tenses j'avouerai, j'avouerais, the e is always mute even in poetry [à; vouer], va. 1. to avow : a) in feudal language, to own as one's lord; b) in modern usage, to approve or sanction persons or things; c) to confess, to acknowledge, to own; d) to recognise as one's own; e) to admit, acknowledge. b) — une personne, to avow a person : to acknowledge as one's agent. Des moyens que l'honneur avoue, means which honour can avow. c) — sa faute, ses méfaits, to acknowledge (avow or confess) one's fault, one's misdeeds (or bad actions). Il avoue l'avoir dit, he admits having said it. Vous avouerez que votre conduite a été blâmable, you will own that your conduct has been blamable. d) — un enfant, to recognize (or own) a child. Mon père ne peut plus l'— pour sa fille, my father can no longer acknowledge her as his daughter. Il n'avoua jamais ce pamphlet, he never avowed (owned or acknowledged himself the author of) that pamphlet. — une dette, to acknowledge a debt; Fig. to confess one's error, to acknowledge one's self in the wrong. Le but avoué de son départ, the avowed object of his departure. C'est un fait avoué, it is an acknowledged or admitted fact.

AVOUER (S'), v. refl. 1. (with de) to name (or give a reference to) as a guarantee; 2. to confess or acknowledge one's self; 3. to be avowed, confessed or acknowledged. S'— coupable, to confess one's guilt. Cela ne peut s'—, that cannot be avowed, that is not avowable.

AVOUERIE, avoûri, sf. Feudal law-t. avowry.

AVOYER, avwâyé, [Lat. : advocâre, to call), sm. advoyer, avoyer : a chief magistrate in several Swiss cantons.

AVRELON, avrœlòn, sm. Bot. rowan-tree, mountain-ash.

AVRIL, avriy' or avril; the former is the pronunciation given by the Academy, but the latter is very general, [Lat : aprilis], sm. April; Fig. the spring-time of life. La mi-avril, mid-Avril; the middle of April. Poisson d'—, 1. Pop. mackerel fish; 2. April fool's errand or trick. Donner un poisson d'— à quelqu'un, to make a person an April fool. Recevoir un poisson d'—, to be made an April fool. Petit —, Sport. the rutting time of stags, etc. Prov. : Jamais Avril n'est sans épi, never did April pass without corn in the blade. En Avril, s'il tonne, c'est nouvelle bonne, when April blows his horn, 'tis go d for hay and corn. En Avril, n'ôtez pas un fil, till April's out, don't cast a clout. Avril pleut aux hommes, mai pleut aux bêtes, April showers bring forth May flowers.

AVRILLÉ, E, avriyé, adj. Agr. sown in April. Blé —, spring (or spring-sown) wheat (as opposed to winter wheat, which is sown in autumn).

AVRILLET, avriyé, sm. Agr. spring-wheat (or summer wheat).

AVUER, avué-r, [à; vue], va. Sport. to mark down (partridges, etc.).

AVULSION, avulsyôn, Lat. : avulsio], sf. Surg. avulsion : evulsion, extraction (of a tooth, etc.).

AVUNCULAIRE, avœnkulèr', [Lat. : avunculus, uncle], adj. avuncular : of or pertaining to an uncle.

AXE, aks', [Lat. : axis], sm. 1. axis : a) the line, real or imaginary, passing through the centre of any body, on which it revolves or may be supposed to revolve; b) Math. a straight line with respect to which the different parts of a magnitude are symmetrically arranged; Bot. the stem or caudex of a plant. Si le soleil est fixe ou tourne sur son —, whether the sun be fixed or turn on its axis. — de rotation, axis of rotation : the line round which a body revolves. L'— d'un cône, d'un cylindre, the axis of a cone, of a cylinder, Axes coordonnés, axes of coordinates, — optique, axis of the eye, optical axis. — d'un cristal, axis of a crystal (a line round which the different faces are symmetrically arranged). — d'un édifice, axis of a building : a line dividing a building into two equal and symmetrical parts. — d'une rue, the axis of a street : a line down the middle of a street dividing it into two equal parts. — de soulèvement ou axe anticlinal, Geol. anticlinal axis. — synclinal, synclinal axis. — magnétique, magnetic axis : the line uniting the two poles of a magnet. — tournant, axle-tree. 2. Mech. axle. — coudé, cranked axle. — moteur, driving axle. — à deux leviers, ou — en T, cross axle. — du secteur, spindle of segment. — de vis, screw arbor.

AXIAL, E, aksial, adj. axial : pertaining to an axis.

AXIFÈRE, aksifèr', [Lat. : axis; ferre, to bear], adj. Bot. axiferous : having an axis or stem.

AXIFUGE, aksifuzh, [Lat. : axis; fugĕre, to flee from), adj. axifugal, centrifugal

AXILE, aksil', adj. Bot. axile : lying in the axis.

AXILLAIRE, aksillèr', [Lat. : axilla, armpit], adj. axillary : a) Anat. belonging to the axilla (armpit); b) Bot. situated in the axil or axilla (the angle formed by a branch and stem or by a leaf and branch). a) Nerf —, axillary nerve. Glandes axillaires, axillary glands. b) Fleurs axillaires, axillary flowers. Plante à fleurs axillaires, axil-flowering plant.

AXIOMATIQUE, aksiomatik', adj. axiomatic, axiomatical.

AXIOME, aksiôm', [Gr. : ἀξίωμα], sm. axiom a self-evident truth.

AXIOMÈTRE, aksiomètr', [Gr. : ἄξων, axis; μέτρον, measure], sm. Naut. tell-tale (of the tiller).

AXIS, aksis, [Lat.], sm. axis : a) the second vertebra of the neck; b) Zool. the Bengal (or Indian) stag.

AXONGE, aksônzh, [Lat. : axungia; ungĕre, to anoint], sf. Pharm. axunge, axungia; hog's lard; prepared fresh lard; in the British Pharmacopœia, adeps præparata.

AXILE, aksil', adj. Bot. non-ligneferous.

AYANT, éyân-t, pr. p. V. Avoir. N'— pas d'armes, having no weapons, being unarmed. — faim, being hungry. — les pieds nus, having bare feet, being barefoot. [Used as an auxiliary :] — ainsi parlé, having spoken thus.

AYANT CAUSE, pl. Ayants cause, sm. Law t. assign : person to whom property rights have been assigned by will, deed of gift or of sale. Les héritiers et les ayants cause, the heirs and assigns.

AYANT DROIT, pl. Ayants droit, sm. party interested, claimant. Chacun des ayants droit, each of the parties interested.

AYE-AYE, âi-âi, sm. Zool. aye-aye : a small quadruped found in Madagascar.

AYLANTHE, élânt', sm. Bot. ailanto, ailantus.

AZALEA, azaléa, AZALÉE, azalé [Gr. : ἀζαλέος], sf. Bot. azalea, false honeysuckle.

AZÉDARAC, AZÉDARACH, azédarak, [from Ar.], sm. Bot. melia azedarach : bead-tree, pride of India.

AZEROLE, az'rol', [Span. : azarolia, from Ar. azral], sf. Bot. azarole, Neapolitan medlar : fruit of the cratægus azarolus.

AZEROLIER, az-rolié, sm. Bot. azarole-tree : cratægus azarolus.

AZIMUT, azimut, [Ar. : al, the; semt, way], sm. azimuth : an arc of the horizon between any vertical circle and the meridian. — magnétique, magnetic azimuth : the arc of the horizon between the true meridian of a place and the magnetic meridian.

AZIMUTAL, E, azimutal, al', adj. azimuthal azimuth. Erreur azimutale, azimuthal error, error in azimuth (in speaking of a transit instrument). Cercle —, azimuth circle. Cadran —, azimuth dial.

AZIMUTAL, sm. Naut. azimuth compass.

AZOOTIQUE, azoôtik', [Gr. : ἀ, neg.; ζῷον, animal], adj. Geol. azote, azootic : having no organic remains.

AZOTATE, azotat', sm. Chem. azotate nitrate (the latter word is most used by English chemists).

AZOTE, azot', [Gr. : ἀ, neg.; ζωή, life], sm. azote, nitrogen. Gaz —, (adject,) nitrogen.

AZOTÉ, E, azoté, adj. Chem. azotized.

AZOTEUX, EUSE, azitœ, œz', adj. Chem. azotous, nitrous.

AZOTIMÈTRE, azotimetr', azote; [Gr. : μέτρον, measure], azotimetre : apparatus for dosing out azote.

AZOTIQUE, azotik', adj. Chem. azotic, nitric.

AZOTITE, azotit', sm. Chem. azotite, nitrite.

AZOTURE, azotur', sf. Chem. nitride.

AZTÈQUE, aztèk', sm. Aztec : one of the aboriginal inhabitants of Mexico.

AZUR, azur, [Ar. : al-azurd, bleu], sm. 1. smalt : a pigment composed of glass fused with cobalt; 2. (a colour) azure, sky-blue; 3. Herald. azure : a tincture denoted by horizontal lines. — de Hollande, Dutch blue. Pierre d'—, lazulite, azure-stone. — de cuivre, blue carbonate of copper, blue verditer. Boules d'—, blue-balls (used to tinge linen blue). Le soleil se couchait dans une nuée d'or et d'—, the sun was setting in a cloud of gold and azure. Voiture, lettr. 10. Là de plus beaux soleils dorent l'— des cieux, there brighter suns gild the azure of the skies. A. Chen. 99. L'écu de France était à trois fleurs de lis or en champ d'—, the shield of France was three fleurs de lis gold in a field azure.

AZURÉ, E, azuré, adj. azure, azured. La voûte azurée, the azure vault, the blue sky.

AZURER, azuré-r, va. to azure : to tint with blue. Le regard n'y voit rien que le ciel et l'onde qu'il azure, the eye there sees nothing but the sky and the sea which it azures. La Mart. Médit. 24.

AZURESCENT, E, azurèsân-t, ânt', adj. azurescent.

AZURIN, E, azurân, in', adj. pale-azure, pale-blue. [Azurn was used by Milton in this sense, but is now obsolete].

AZY, AZI, azi, sm. rennet made of skim milk and vinegar.

AZYGOS, azigos, [Gr. : ἀ, neg.; ζυγός pair, yoke], adj. 1. Anat. azygous; 2. sf. azygos. La veine azygos ou l'azygos, the azygous vein, the azygos.

AZYME, azim, [Gr. : ἄζυμος; ἀ, neg.; ζύμη, yeast, leaven], adj. 1. azymous, unleavened; 2. sm. azym or azyme : unleavened bread. Pain —, unleavened bread, La fête des azymes, the feast of unleavened bread.

B

B, bé, sm. B : the second letter of the alphabet. Un B majuscule, a capital B. Un B minuscule, a small (or little) B. Être marqué d'un B (être borgne, bigle, bossu, boiteux, etc.), to be one-eyed, cross-eyed, humpbacked, lame, etc. Ne parler que par B et par F, to be a hard swearer, to be always swearing : B and F being the initials of two vulgar French (bougre ; foutre).

B., 1. boréal, boreal, northern ; 2. boulevard, boulevard ; 3. basse, bass ; 4. Rouen (frappée à), Rouen (struck at) ; 5. bénéfice, profit ; 6. bore, boron (chem.).

BA., baryum, Barium.

B. A., Balneum arena, (bain de sable), sand-bath.

BAG., bagages, baggage.

B.-ALPES, Basses-Alpes, Lower-Alps.

BANQ., Banque, Bank.

B. A. P., billets à payer, bills payable.

B. A. R., billets à recevoir, bills receivable.

Bard., Boulevard, Boulevard.

B.-ARTS, Beaux-Arts, Fine Arts.

BAS.-PYR., Basses-Pyrénées, Lower-Pyrenees.

BAT., bataillon, battalion.

BB., Strasbourg (frappée à), Strasburg (struck at).

B.-D.-R., Bouches-du-Rhone, Bouches-du-Rhône.

BÉN , BÉNÉF., bénéfice, profit.

BIBLIOGR., bibliographie, bibliography.

BI-MENS., bi-mensuel, fortnightly.

B. M., 1. Beata Maria, Bienheureuse Marie, Blessed Virgin ; 2. Balneum Mariæ, Bain-Marie, bain-marie.

B. P. F., Bon pour francs, good for... francs, cheque.

B.-PYR., Basses-Pyrénées, Lower-Pyrenees.

BR., 1. broché, stitched ; 2. brochure, brochure, pamphlet.

B.-RHIN, Bas-Rhin, Lower-Rhine.

B. S. G. D. G., breveté, sans garantie du gouvernement, patented without government guarantee.

BUR., bureau, office.

B. V., Balneum vaporis, bain de vapeur, Vapour-bath.

BABA, baba, [Pol. : baba], sm. bun : a plum (or currant) cake.

BABEL, babèl, [Heb., confusion, the oriental name of Babylon], sf. Babel, Tower of Babel : a) Babylon ; b) a scene of confusion and uproar. Cette assemblée est la Tour de Babel, that assembly is a Babel,is a scene of utter confusion.

BABEURRE, babœr, [bas ; beurre], sm. buttermilk.

BABICHE, babish', sf. BABICHON ba-, bishôn, [Corr. of barbichon], sm. a lapdog.

BABICHE, sf. a short beard : a corruption of BARBICHE, which see.

BABIL, babiy', [imit.], sm. 1. (in a good sense) prattle, chatter ; 2. (in an ill sense) babble, prate, prating, twaddle, twaddling ; 3. chatter (of birds) ; 4. babble babbling (of a dog that has lost the scent). Je ne hais pas le babil des enfants, I do not dislike the prattle of children. L'éternel babil des soi-disant philosophes, the everlasting twaddle of self-styled philosophers. Il n'a que du —, he is all talk. On entendait au loin le — d'un ruisseau, in the distance the babbling of a rivulet was heard, G. Sand.

BABILLAGE, babiyazh', sm. babbling, prattling, chatter, chattering, twaddle, twaddling.

BABILLARD, E, babiyar, ard' ; in the masc. the d is always mute, but the s of the plural is heard as z before a vowel, adj. 1. prattling, babbling, chattering ; 2. twaddling, prating ; 3. talkative, loquacious. Enfant —, a prattling child. Pie babillarde, a chattering pie, a talking magpie. Chien —, a babbling dog, a dog that gives tongue without occasion.

BABILLARD, E, smf. 1. babbler, prater, chatterer, twaddler. C'est un franc —, he is a great babbler (or chatterer). Quelle incommode babillarde que cette femme ! what a tiresome babbler that woman is !

2. sm. mill-clack : part of the hopper of a mill.

BABILLEMENT, babiy'mân-t, sm. babbling, babblement ; loquacity, talkativeness.

BABILLER, babiyé-r, vn. 1. to prattle, to chatter ; to babble, to prate ; 2. to babble, to gossip, to give tongue (as a hound that has lost the scent). Cet enfant ne fait que babiller, that child does nothing but chatter.

BABILLERIE, babiyœri, sf. babbling, chattering.

BABINE, babin', BABOUINE, babouin', [Lat. : labina, dim. of labia, lips], sf. pendant lip (of certain animals) pl. chops. Ne tirez pas la — de ce chien, don't pull that dog's lip. Les babines d'une vache, d'un chien, the lips (or chops) of a cow, of a dog. [Sometimes used colloquially in speaking of persons :] Il s'en lèche les babines, he is smacking his lips (or gills) over it. Il s'en est donné par les babines, he has had a good blowout (or a hearty meal) ; Fig. he has got through all his property.

BABIOLE, babiol', [of doubtful origin ; Ital. : babbola], sf. 1. plaything, toy ; 2. (anything of little value or importance) bauble, trifle, gew-gaw, gimcrack, knick-knack. Donner des babioles à un enfant, to give toys (or playthings) to a child. Il ne s'amuse qu'avec des babioles, he finds amusement only in trifles. Son cabinet n'est rempli que de babioles, his cabinet is full of nothing but knick-knacks.

BABION, babiôn, sm. babian : a small baboon.

BABIROUSSA, babirousa, BABIRUSSA, babirusa, [Malay : bâbi, hog ; rûsa, deer], sm. babiroussa : the horned hog of Java.

BÂBORD, bâbôr, [Fr. : bas ; bord], sm. Naut. 1. larboard, port : the left side of a vessel ; the latter word is now always used in the British navy ; 2. the port or larboard watch. Faire feu — et tribord, to fire both broadsides ; Fig. to leave no stone unturned, to use all the means at one's command.

BÂBORD, adv. Naut. larboard, to port, a-port. — la barre ! port the helm ! helm a-port ! — tout ! hard a-port !

BÂBORDAIS, bâbôrdè-z, sm. man belonging to the port or larboard watch. Les bâbordais, the port watch.

BABOUCHE, baboush', [Ar. : bâboudj, from Persian], sf. babouche : Turkish slipper.

BABOUIN, babouan [uncertain orig. ; apparently from babine, lip], sm. 1. baboon ; 2. monkey : a mischievous or tiresome child (boy). C'est un petit —, he is a tiresome monkey. Baiser le —, to humiliate one's self. Faire baiser le —, to exact submission from.

BABOUINE, babouin', sf. 1. monkey, jade, hussy (in speaking of a girl) ; 2. a pimple on the lip. V. BABINE.

BABOUVISME, babouvism', sm. Babouvism : the doctrine of absolute equality, so called from Babeuf, a zealot of the great French revolution (1760-1797).

BABOUVISTE, babouvist', sm. Babouvist : a partisan of absolute equality, as advocated by Babeuf.

BABYLONE, babilon', [Heb. : babel, confusion], sf. 1. Babylon : 2. Fig. Babel : a scene of confusion and uproar.

BABYLONIE, babiloni, sf. Anc. Geog. Babylonia.

BABYLONIEN, ENNE, babiloniân, ien, adj. Babylonian : pertaining to Babylon.

BAC, bak, [Celtic ; Dut. : trough], sm. 1. ferry-boat ; 2. Brew. bac, cooler, cooling-vat ; 3. tank (to receive rain-water) ; 4. fish-tank.

BACCALAURÉAT, bakalôréa, [Low Lat. : baccalaureus], sm. baccalaureate : bachelorship, bachelor's degree.

BACALIAU, bakaliô, sm. salt ling, salt codfish.

BACCARA, bakara, [orig. unknown], sm baccara : a game at cards.

BACCHANAL, bakanal, [Lat. : bacchanalis ; Bacchus], sm. Colloq. row, shindy, uproar. Faire du —, to kick up a row.

BACCHANALE, bakanal', sf. 1. bacchanal : a tumultuous dance ; 2. Fig. noisy revel ; 3. pl. Antiq. bacchanalia : feast in honour of Bacchus ; 4. sing. La Bacchanale de Poussin, Poussin's Bacchanalian dance : a famous painting.

BACCHANALISER, bakanalizé-z, vn. to make a noise, to revel, to riot.

BACCHANTE, bakânt', [Bacchus], sf. bacchante : a) priestess of Bacchus, a bacchanal ; b) Fig. a disreputable woman, a termagant.

BACCHUS, bakus, sm. Bacchus : a) the god of wine ; b) Fig. wine.

BACCIFÈRE, baksifèr, [Lat. : bacca, berry ; ferens, bearing], adj. Bot. bacciferous : berry-bearing.

BACCIFORME, baksifôrm, [Lat. : bacca, berry ; forme], adj. Bot. berry-shaped.

BACCIVORE, baksivor', [Lat. : bacca, berry ; vorāre, to devour], adj. baccivorous : feeding on berries.

BACHAT, bascha, [bac], sm. hog-trough, pig-trough.

BACHAUMONT, bashōmon, (François Le Coigneux de), poet and essayist (1624-1702) ; — (Louis Petit de) prose-writer (1690-1771).

BÂCHE, bâsh', [bac], sf. 1. Gard. forcing-frame, hot-bed frame ; 2. cistern (of a pump) ; 3. Fish. drag-net (for shallow-water) ; 4. cart-, waggon-, or rick-cloth ; (when covered with tar or paint) tarpauling ; (when stretched over hoops) tilt ; 5. tank, cistern. — alimentaire, feeding cistern. — à eau froide, cold water cistern. — du condenseur, hot-well.

† BACHELETTE, bash'lèt', sf. spinster : young girl, lass, damsel.

BACHELIER, bash'lyé, [O. Fr. : bas ; chevalier], sm. Feud. 1. knight bachelor ; 2. bachelor : a) one who has taken the first university degree; b) an unmarried man. — ès lettres, ès sciences, bachelor of letters, of sciences.

BACHELIÈRE, bash'lyière, sf. woman provided with the degree of bachelor.

BÂCHER, bâshé-r, va. to cover with a tarpauling or water-proof cloth; to tilt.

BACHIQUE, bashik', [Bacchus], adj. bacchic, bacchical: jovial, convivial. Chanson —, a drinking song, an anacreontic.

BACHON, bashon, BACHOU, bashou, [bac], sm. wooden vessel, a tub.

BACHOTTE, bashot', [bachot], sf. copper skillet or hand-bowl (used by papermakers).

BACHOT, basho-t, [from bac], sm. 1. wherry: flat-bottomed small boat, passage-boat; 2. School cant. baccalaureate. Il a passé son —, he has passed his bachelor exam.

BACHOTEUR, bashotœr, sm. ferryman, boatman.

BACILE, basil', sf. Bot. samphire; crithmum maritimum.

BACILLAIRE, basilair, [bacille], adj. bacillary, bacillar: consisting of little rods.

BACILLE, basil, [Lat.: bacillus, little rod], sm. Biol. bacillus: microbe of a vegetable character in the form of little rods. — du choléra, the cholera bacillus. Pl. Bacilli.

BACILLIFORME, basiliform, adj. bacilliform.

BACILLOSCOPIE, basiloskopi, [Lat. bacillus; Gr.: σκοπεῖν, to examine], sf. bacterioscopy: microscopic examination of bacteria.

BÂCLAGE, bâklazh', sm. 1. arranging of boats, etc., in tiers near a quay; 2. closing of a port by chains, etc.; 3. stoccado, stockade (across a river); 4. hasty, scamped work.

BÂCLER, bâklé-r, [of doubtful origin], va. 1. to bar up (a door or window); 2. to close with chains or cables (as the entrance of a port); 3. to stockade (a river, to erect a stockade across it); 4. to moor (a boat near a quay); 5. Colloq. to patch up, to cobble up, to knock up, to hurry through, to slubber (work of any kind). Il ne fait que — sa besogne, he only slubbers his work. Il a bâclé sa tragédie en quinze jours, he botched, cobbled or patched up his tragedy in a fortnight. C'est une affaire bâclée, it is a patched up affair. Cette affaire est bâclée, that affair is settled.

BACTÉRICIDE, baktērisid, [Gr.: βακτηρία, stick; Lat.: cædere, to kill], sm and adj. bactericide, bactericidal.

BACTÉRIDIE, baktéridi, sf. bacteridium.

BACTÉRIE, baktéri, [Gr.: βακτηρία, stick], sf. Med. bacterium, pl. bacteria.

BACTÉRIEN, ENNE, baktérian, adj. bacterial: pertaining to bacteria.

BACTÉRIOLOGIE, baktériolozhi, [Gr.: βακτηρία; λόγος, discourse], sf. Med. bacteriology: the scientific study of bacteria.

BACULITE, bakulit, [Lat.: baculum, stick], sf. baculite: genus of fossil shells, allied to the ammonites.

BADAUD, E, badô, badôd', the final d of the masculine is always mute, but the s of the plural is heard as z before a vowel, [Lat.: badāre, to gape; Provençal: bādau; Fr.: bayer], smf. a gaping simpleton; cockney, saunterer, booby, sawney: the first is said almost exclusively of Londoners. Un franc —, une vraie badaude, a regular nunny or simpleton (male or female). Les badauds de Paris, the cockneys of Paris.

BADAUD, E, adj. silly, foolish.

BADAUDAGE, badôdazh', sm. sauntering, cockneyism.

BADAUDER, badôdé-r, vn. to go sauntering about, to gape with wonder or curiosity (like a simpleton).

BADAUDERIE, badôd'ri, sf. sauntering, acting or talking like a simpleton; cockneyism (in speaking of a Londoner); idle talk.

BADE, bad', pn. Geog. 1. Baden: a grand duchy; 2. Baden-Baden: a watering place in Baden.

BADELAIRE, bad'lêr', [Ety. unknown] sm. Herald. short scimetar.

BADERNE, badèrn', [Breton: badern], sf. 1. Naut. dolphin (of a mast); 2. fender: matting, mat (made of old rope or spun yarn) used to prevent chafing, or laid on the deck to prevent horses, etc., from slipping); 3. Fig. a worn-out person or thing. Fig. rubbish.

BADIANE, badian', [Pers.; badian], sf. Bot. aniseed-tree: illicium anisatum (producing star or Chinese aniseed).

BADIGEON, badizhôn, [orig. unknown,] sm. 1. Mason. whitewash, limewash (white or coloured); 2. badigeon: a) a cement of powdered stone and plaster; b) putty, for wood-work.

BADIGEONNAGE, badizhonazh', sm. 1. whitewashing, lime-washing (of walls); 2. Med. painting on the skin as with a tincture of iodine.

BADIGEONNER, badizhoné-r, va. 1. to lime-wash, to whitewash, to colour: to wash walls with a solution of lime, whiting, or colour; 2. to badigeon: to fill holes or remedy defects in a statue, etc. V. Badigeon.

BADIGEONNEUR, badizhonœr, sm. 1. whitewasher, lime-washer, colour-washer: mason or plasterer who washes walls with white or colour; 2. dauber: a sorry painter.

BADIN, E, badan, in', [same as badaud], adj. 1. merry, playful, sportive; 2. jocular, jocose, jesting. Cet homme est —, he is a merry fellow. Elle est fort badine, she is very playful. Il a l'humeur badine, he is of a playful (or merry) disposition. Esprit —, a sportive wit. Air, ton —, playful air, playful tone. Style —, playful, jocose style. Des vers badins, playful poetry; (in an ill sense) licentious poetry.

3. foolish, silly. Dieu me garde d'être assez — pour..., God keep me from being foolish enough (or such a fool as) to... Mol. Dép. am. I. 2.

4. s. jester, joker. C'est un —, he is a joker.

BADINAGE, badinazh', sm. 1. playfulness, sportiveness; 2. jesting, joking, jest, joke; 3. trifle, child's play; 4. foolery, fooling. Le — de son humeur, the playfulness of his humour. Un innocent —, an innocent jest. Ceci n'est point un —, this is no joke. Imitez de Marot l'élégant —, imitate the elegant playfulness of Marot. Boil. Art. p. I. [Colloq.:] Ce travail n'est pour lui qu'un —, that work is only child's play for him. Que prétendez-vous avec tout ce — ? what do you mean by all this fooling?

BADINANT, badinan-t, sm. spare horse (accompanying a team).

BADINE, badin', [from badiner], sf. 1. switch: a small flexible walking stick, a riding stick; 2. pl. Smith. a light pair of tongs.

BADINEMENT, badin'mân-t, adv. playfully, sportively.

BADINEMENT, sm. V. Badinage.

BADINER, badiné-r, va. 1. to play, to frolic. — avec ses compagnons tout le jour, to play all day with one's companions. Laissez — les enfants, let the children play. Ce cheval badine avec son mors, this horse plays with his bit. On ne badine pas avec l'amour, there should be no trifling with love. A. de Muss.

2. to trifle: to be playful or sportive. Il badine agréablement dans ses lettres, dans sa conversation, he trifles agreeably in his letters, in his conversation.

3. to joke, to jest. C'est un homme qui aime à —, he is a man who likes to joke, to have his joke. Ne voyez-vous pas qu'il badine ? do you not see that he is joking? Vous badinez; ce que vous dites n'est pas croyable, you are joking (or jesting), what you say is incredible. C'est assez —, enough of joking, have done with joking. C'est un homme qui ne badine pas, he is a man that never jokes: he is always in earnest, serious or stern.

4. Fig. to flutter or wave about, to play freely, to hang loose. Laissez — le voile, let the veil hang loose. Cette dentelle est trop tendue, il faut qu'elle badine, that lace is stretched too tight, it must play freely, must be left loose. Acad.

BADINER, va. to have one's joke with, to joke, to rally, to banter. Elle a bien badiné les autres, mais aussi elle a été badinée à son tour, she has freely joked others, but she has been bantered in her turn.

BADINERIE, badin'ri, sf. joke, jest, pleasantry, trifling, idle talk. Ce n'est qu'une —, it is only a jest.

BADOURS, badour, sm. pl. Smith. middle-sized tongs.

BADROUILLE, badrouy', [orig. unknown], sf. Naut. swab: a large mop.

BAFFETAS, bafta, [Pers.: baft, woven], sm. baffetas: a kind of coarse Indian cotton piece goods.

BAFOUER, bafoué-r, [of uncertain orig., perhaps from bab, an abbreviation of babine], va. to scout, to flout, to scoff at. On l'a bafoué, they scouted (or scoffed at) him.

BÂFRE, bâfr', sf. Pop. 1. blow-out, tuck-out: a copious meal; 2. guttling, gormandizing.

BÂFRER, bâfré-r, vn. to guttle, to gormandize.

BÂFREUR, bâfrœr, sm. guttler, gormandizer.

BAGACE, bagas', sf. cane-trash. V. Bagasse.

BAGAGE, bagazh', [O. Fr.: bague, a bundle], sm. 1. baggage (of an army, etc.); 1. luggage (of travellers). Voyageur sans —, a traveller without luggage. Plier, trousser, to pack off, to be off, bag and baggage, to decamp; Fig. to die, to make one's exit. Il faut que vous fassiez enregistrer votre —, you must have your luggage registered. Il n'a qu'un mince —, his stock is not very great. — littéraire, literary knowledge.

BAGARRE, bagar', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. hubbub, row; 2. brawl, squabble, confusion, tumult; 3. crowd, crush. Être dans une —, to be in a fray. Se tirer, se sauver de la —, to get out of the crush.

BAGASSE, bagas', [Span.: bagazo], sf. 1. bagasse, cane-trash; 2. refuse (of indigo), indigo waste.

BAGASSE, [Provençal: bagassa], sf. slut, hussy, jade: a loose woman.

BAGATELLE, bagatèl', [of doubtful origin; Ital.: bagatella, a trifle, a charlatan's trick], sf. 1. bagatelle: a) trifle, anything of little value or importance; b) gimcrack, knick-knack, bauble, trinket. Mille francs : c'est une — pour un homme aussi riche, a thousand francs! that is a trifle for so rich a man. Cette boutique n'est pleine que de bagatelles, that shop is full of nothing but knick-knacks (gimcracks or trinkets). Les bagatelles qu'on porte sur soi autant pour la vanité que pour l'usage, the trinkets (baubles or gimcracks) that people wear as much from vanity as for use. Il se fâcha pour une —, he took offence about a trifle.

2. frivolity, trifling, nonsense. S'amuser à des bagatelles, to amuse one's self with trifles (or frivolities); to trifle away one's time. Bagatelles de la porte, trifles (fooleries imagined by showmen to induce the public to go in). S'amuser aux bagatelles de la porte, to be amused with trifles, to fiddle-faddle. La bagatelle à part, trifling apart. — que tout cela! that is all nonsense! Bagatelle! stuff and nonsense.

BAGNE, bany. [Ital. : bagno, bath], sm. 1. bagnio, convict prison, hulks; 2. Gard. tub containing sifted mould for flower-pots.

BAGNOLE, bagnol, [bagne], sf. 1. box for the transport of horses on the railway; 2. Pop. dim. of bagne, hulks; convict settlement; 3. wretched dwelling, tumble-down house; bad, or rickety barrow or cart.

BAGNOLET, banyolé, sm. 1. Naut. tarpauling (to cover the cables in undecked vessels); 2. ancient head-dress of women.

BAGOU, bagou, [argot : gueule], sm. Cant. gab, gift of the gab, tongue well hung. Il a du —, he has the gift of the gab; his tongue is well hung. Quel — what a gab!

BAGUAGE, bagazh', [bague], sm. Gard. circling, girdling: making a circular incision through the bark of a branch.

BAGUE, bag', [Lat. : bacca, round pearl, ring], sf. 1. finger-ring, ring; 2. Fig. ring. Une — garnie de diamants, a diamond ring. Une — en or, a gold ring. C'est une — au doigt, it is as good as money; it is a great advantage, a ready resource. Ce n'est qu'une — au doigt, it is a post with nothing to do. Bagues et joyaux, Law-t. rings and jewels: the personal ornaments belonging to a wife and which she can claim on her husband's decease.

3. pl. Milit. baggage. Sortir vie et bagues sauves, to get away from a captured fortress with what baggage one can carry. [Fig. :] Sortir, revenir bagues sauves, to get or come off without loss or injury.

4. ring. Jeu de —, 1. running at the ring: an old game of skill, in which persons riding at full speed endeavoured to pass a lance through a suspended ring; 2. merry-go-round, roundabout. Courir la —, to run at the ring; Fig. to make a rapid excursion or trip.

5. Naut. grommet, hank. — à dégréer, traveller.

BAGUENAUDE, bag'nôd', [origin unknown], sf. Bot. bladder-nut; trifle.

BAGUENAUDER, bag'nôdé-r, vn. to trifle away one's time, to fiddle-faddle. Il ne fait que —, he does nothing but trifle.

BAGUENAUDERIE, bag'nôd'ri, sf. idle talk, nonsense.

BAGUENAUDIER, bag'nôdyé, sm. 1. trifler. 2. ring-puzzle: a toy.

BAGUENAUDIER, sm. bladder-nut tree, bastard senna-tree. Feuilles de —, bladder-senna.

BAGUER, baghé-r, [bague], va. 1. Tail. to tack in the lining of a coat, to baste, to stitch, etc.; 2. Gard. to girdle, to circle: to make a circular incision round a branch.

BAGUETTE, baghèt', [Ital. : bacchetta, from Lat. baculus, stick], sf. 1. switch; 2. rod, wand: official or professional emblem; 3. ramrod (of a gun, etc.); 4. stick (of a rocket); 5. Chem. glass-rod; 6. Arch. baguette, filet. — de fée, fairy's wand. — à gants, glove-stretcher. — d'huissier, usher's rod. — magique, a magician's or conjuror's wand. — divinatoire, 1. divining-rod; 2. dowsing-rod: used by those who pretend to find underground springs — de tambour, drum-stick. — à mèche, candle-rod. Mener à la —, to rule despotically. Obéir à la —, to obey slavishly, to yield passive obedience. Passer un soldat par les baguettes, Milit. to make a soldier run the gantlet.

BAGUEUR, baghœr, sm. Gard. knife for girdling a tree.

BAGUIER, baghyé, sm. ring-case, ring-box, ring-stand.

BAH, bâ, interj. bah! pshaw!

BAHUT, bahu-t, (origin unknown), sm. trunk: chest, generally with a convex lid. En —, presenting a curved section or surface (as the top course of a parapet or wall, the beds or walks of a garden).

BAHUTIER, bahutyé, sm. trunk-maker Faire comme les bahutiers, to be like a trunk-maker, more noise than work.

BAI, E, bé, [Lat. : badius, chestnut coloured], adj. 1. bay: used only in speaking of horses. Un cheval —, a bay horse. Une jument baie, a bay mare. [The words fauve, clair, cerise, foncé, châtain, marron, brun, etc., are often added to qualify the adj. bai, and the compound word so formed is invariable: Des chevaux — clair, — brun. light-bay, dark-bay horses.]

2. sm. a bay horse. Un beau —, a beautiful bay (or bay horse).

BAIE, bè, [Low Lat. : baia], sf. Geog. bay: properly, a golf with a narrow entrance.

BAIE, sf. Arch. bay: an opening in a wall or partition for a door or window.

BAIE, [bayer], sf. trick, hoax. J'ai donné cette baie à bien d'autres qu'à vous, I have played (or put) this trick on many others besides you, Corn. Donneur de baies, a trickster, a hoaxer.

BAIE, [Lat. : bacca, berry], sf. Bot. berry. Plante à baies, berry-bearing plant. Dimanche des Baies, (Or des Rameaux), Palm Sunday.

BAIGNADE, bènyad, sf. bathing, bath: Fam. dousing, ducking.

BAIGNÉ, E, bènyé, pa. p. bathed, suffused. V. Baigner. Ses beaux yeux étaient baignés de larmes, her beautiful eyes were suffused with tears. Il avait les yeux baignés de larmes, his eyes were full of tears, he was all in tears. Elle paraît baignée dans l'excès de la joie, she seems to swim in an excess of joy, Mme de Sév. Baigné de sueurs, in a profuse perspiration, dripping with perspiration. On le laissa baigné dans son sang, they left him weltering in his blood. Les plaines baignées par l'Euphrate, the plains bathed (washed or watered) by the Euphrates. Un magnifique panorama baigné d'air et de lumière, a magnificent panorama suffused with air and light.

BAIGNER, bènyé-r, [Lat. : balneāre], va. to bathe: a) to lave in water: b) Med. to foment or lave with any fluid; c) to wet, to bedew; d) to wash, to lave (in speaking of rivers or seas). — un enfant, to bathe a child. — un chien, to bathe a dog, to give a dog a bath (or a swim). Se — les yeux, les pieds, etc., to bathe one's eyes, one's feet, etc. — une plaie, to bathe, to foment a sore. — son visage de larmes, to bathe one's face in (or with) tears. Les pleurs baignaient son visage, tears bedewed his face. — son lit de larmes, to bathe one's bed with tears. Le Nil baigne l'Ethiopie, the Nile bathes (or waters) Ethiopia. Le fleuve qui baigne ces parages, the river which bathes those shores. La rivière baignait les murailles de la ville, the river washed the walls of the town.

BAIGNER, vn. to float, to swim: a) to soak, to be steeped, soaked or immersed; b) to dip. Il faut que ces herbes baignent dans l'alcool, dans le vinaigre, those herbs must soak (be soaked, steeped or immersed) in alcohol, in vinegar. Des olives qui baignent dans la saumure, olives that soak (or float) n pickle. Cet arbre baigne dans l'étang, that tree dips (or bathes) in the lake. — dans son sang, to welter in one's blood.

BAIGNER ((SE), v. refl. to bathe, to bathe one's self, to take a bath. Se — dans la rivière, to bathe in the river. Mon chien aime beaucoup à se —, my dog is very fond of bathing (or of being in the water) [Fig. :] Se — dans le sang, to bathe in blood, to revel in blood. Il se baigne dans la confiance, he is full of confidence, he is over-confident.

BAIGNEUR, EUSE, bènyœr, yœz', s. 1. bath-keeper, bath-man, bath-woman; 2. bathing man: one who helps others to bathe, to swim; 2. bather: one who takes baths. Nos bains de mer attirent une foule de baigneurs et de baigneuses, our sea-bathing places attract a crowd of bathers, male and female.

BAIGNEUSE, sf. 1. a kind of cap formerly worn by women; 2. bathing-dress.

BAIGNOIR, bènywâr, sm. bathing-place (in a river, etc.).

BAIGNOIRE, bènywâr' sf. 1. bath: bath-tub; 2. Theat. box on a level with the pit. — grillée, a latticed box.

BAIL, bay, pl. BAUX, bô, [Low Lat. : ballium], sm. lease. — à ferme, farm lease. — de maison, à loyer, lease of a house. — à cheptel, lease of a farm with its live stock. Baux de trois, six ou neuf ans, leases for three, six, or nine years. — à vie, lease for life. — à terme, lease for years, for a term of years. — emphytéotique, building-lease, improving-lease (generally for ninety-nine years). Faire ou passer un —, to execute a lease. Rompre ou résilier un —, to cancel a lease. [Fig. and Colloq. :] Cela n'est pas de mon —, that is not in my bond, I am not bound (or responsible) for that. Je n'ai pas fait de —, I am under no engagement. C'est comme si je renouvelais un — de vie, it is as if I took a new lease of my life, Mme de Sév.

BÂILLANT, E, bâyân-t, ânt', adj. 1. gaping, yawning; 2. Bot. dehiscent: gaping. Péricarpe —, dehiscent pericarp.

BÂILLANTS, sm. pl. Ornith. fissirostres: a class of wide-mouthed birds of the order Passeres, including the swallow and the goat-sucker.

BAILLARD, bayar, sm. BAILLARGE, bayarzh', sf. Agr. sprat (or battledore) barley.

BAILLE, bay', [Low Breton : balek, tub], sf. Naut. bucket, small-tub. — de combat, match-tub.

BAILLE-BLÉ, bay-blé, sm. spout (of the hopper of a corn-mill).

BÂILLEMENT, bây'mân-t, sm. 1. yawning, gaping; a yawn, a gape. Un long —, a long yawn. Avoir de fréquents bâillements, to be subject to yawning. Manifester son ennui par des bâillements, to show one's weariness by yawning.

2. chink: gap or opening between things that should fit close together.

3. Pros. hiatus: harshness of pronunciation caused by the concurrence of a final and an initial vowel.

BAILLER, bayé-r, [Low Lat. : bajulāre, to carry], va. 1. to give. — des coups, to give (or deal) blows. Comme vous bailles des soufflets, how free you are with your blows, Mol. Amph. 1. 2. Je m'en vais te — une comparaison, I will give you a comparison. — sa foi, to pledge one's faith, one's troth. En — d'une belle, la — bonne ou belle, to try to impose on (or humbug) a person. — le lièvre par l'oreille, to deceive with fair promises.

2. Law-t. to give, to grant, to serve with (a writ, etc.). — à ferme, to give (or grant) a lease, to let on lease. Pourquoi ne veut-il pas vous — sa fille ? why will he not give you his daughter ? Mariv.

BÂILLER, bâyé-r, [O. Fr. : baaillier ; Lat. : batāre, to open the mouth], vn. 1. to yawn : to gape from weariness, listlessness, or drowsiness. Nous bâillons en voyant — les autres, we yawn through seeing others yawn. On bâillait à cette comédie, that play made people yawn. — de sommeil, to yawn with sleep.

2. to gape : to chink, to show chinks or crevices ; 3. (in speaking of a door, etc.) to be a-jar (or on the jar). Les ais de cette cloison bâillent, the boards of that partition are badly joined (or do not fit close).

BAILLERESSE, bayœrès', sf. Law-t. lessor (female). V. Bailleur.

† BAILLET, bayé, adj. m. sorrel (in speaking of the colour of a horse).

† BAILLEUL, bayœl, sm. bone-setter.

BAILLEUR, bayœr, [bail, lease], sm. 1. Law-t. lessor (male). Le — et le preneur, the lessor and the lessee.

2. — de fonds, 1. capitalist, money-lender ; 2. Com. sleeping-partner.

3. — de bourdes, hoaxer, mystifier.

BÂILLEUR, EUSE, bâyœr, œz', sm. yawner, gaper. Un bon — en fait bâiller deux, gaping is catching.

BAILLI, bayi, [Low Lat. : bajulus, protector], sm. bailiff : a judicial functionary.

BAILLIAGE, bayazh', sm. bailiwick : a) tribunal presided by a bailiff ; b) jurisdiction of a bailiff ; c) bailiff's residence.

BAILLIAGER, ÈRE, bayazhé, -èr', adj. belonging to a bailiwick.

† BAILLIE, bayi, sf. Feud. law-t. power, authority. Mais la fortune qui m'a en —, but fortune which has me in her power.

BAILLIVE, bayiv', [bailli], sf. bailiff's wife.

BÂILLON, bâyô*n*, [bâiller], sm. 1. gag : anything put into the mouth to prevent speech ; 2. muzzle (to keep a horse, a dog, etc., from biting) ; 3. Surg. a piece of cork or other substance to keep the mouth open during an operation. Mettre un — à, to gag ; Fig. to silence. L'argent est le —, le plus en usage dans nos temps, money is the gag most used now-a-days.

BÂILLONNER, bâyoné-r, va. to gag. — une personne, to gag a person. [Fig. :] — la presse, to gag (or silence) the press. Il fut bâillonné par les voleurs, he was gagged by the thieves. [Fig. :] La presse bâillonnée par des lois rigoureuses, the press gagged (silenced) by severe laws.

BAILLOQUE, bayôk, sf. Com. bayock : speckled ostrich feather (brown and white).

BAILLOTTE, bayot, [baille], sf. tub.

BAIN, ba*n*, [Lat. : balneum], sm. 1. bath : a) bathing, the act of immersing the body in water or other fluid ; b) the fluid used ; c) tub or vessel to bathe in ; d) Chem. a medium for communicating heat ; e) Phot. immersion or washing in certain liquids, the liquids used ; f) metal in a fused state.

a) — entier, a complete bath. — local ou topique, local or topical bath. Demi-—, half-bath : immersion to the waist only. — de siège, hip-bath. — de pieds, foot-bath. — de propreté, bath for ablution. — russe, Russian bath. — de santé, bath taken medecinally. — turc, Turkish bath. — chaud, froid, tiède, hot, cold, tepid bath. — d'air chaud, hot air bath. Bains sur place, bains à domicile, baths on the premises, baths sent to persons' own houses. — de natation, swimming bath.

c) — simple, bath in pure water. — composé ou médicamentaux, medicated bath. — de lait, milk bath. — gélatineux, gelatine bath. — sulfureux, sulphureous (or sulphur) bath. — de son, bran bath. — d'eau minérale, mineral water bath. — de vapeur, vapour bath. Chauffer un —, to heat a bath. Se mettre au —, entrer dans le —, to get into a bath. [Fig. :] — de grenouilles, de crapauds, a frogs' or toads' bath : a pool of foul water. C'est un — qui chauffe, (said of a dark threatening cloud) there is a storm brewing.

c) — de zinc, de marbre, zinc bath, marble bath. Remplir, vider un —, to fill, to empty a bath. La chambre ou salle de —, the bath room. Fond de —, bath linen (to cover the bottom of a bath).

d) Chem. Bain-marie (pl. des bains-marie), a water-bath. — de sable, de cendres, sand-bath, ash-bath. — de vapeur, steam bath. — de son, bran-bath. — de boue, — de vase, mud bath.

e) Phot. — réducteur, (ou de chlorure). toning bath. — à sensibiliser, sensitizing (or exciting) bath. — d'albumine, albumen bath. — d'argent, silver bath. — de chlorure de sodium, salt bath. — d'hyposulfite de soude, fixing bath. — fixateur, fixing bath. — de virage, toning bath.

f) Mettre un métal en —, to melt or fuse a metal. Argent en —, fused or melted silver.

2. bathing. C'est le meilleur endroit de la rivière pour le —, that is the best place in the river for bathing. Ce matin le — était excellent, the bathing was excellent this morning.

3. pl. baths : a) bath-house, bathing establishment ; b) watering-place, spa, mineral waters ; c) bathing. Bains publics, public baths. Entreprise de bains, bath-house, bathing-establishment. Les bains de Cauterêts, de Vichy, etc., the baths, the waters of Cauterêts, of Vichy, etc. c) — de mer, 1. sea-bathing ; 2. sea-side costume 3. bathing costume. Son médecin lui a recommandé les bains de mer, his physician has prescribed sea-bathing. Les bains sont fort utiles dans certaines affections nerveuses, bathing is (or baths are) very beneficial in some nervous affections.

BAIN-MARIE, ba*n*-mari, [pl. Bains-Marie.] sm. Chem. bain-marie, water-bath.

BAÏONNETTE, bayonèt, [from Bayonne, in France], sf. bayonet. Charger à la —, to charge with the bayonet. Croiser la —, to bring the bayonet to the charge. Enlever à la —, to carry with the bayonet, at the point of the bayonet. Mettre la — au canon, to fix bayonet. Remettre la —, to unfix bayonet.

BAÏOQUE, bayok, [Ital. : baiocco], sf. bajocco : formerly a copper coin in the Papal States, worth about a half penny.

BAIRAM, BEIRAM, bèram, sm. Bairam : a religious festival among Mussulmans.

BAISEMAIN, bèz-ma*n*, [baise ; main], sm. 1. kissing of hands, kissing hands : a) homage paid by a vassal to his lord in feudal times ; b) homage paid to the sovereign in the English and other courts ; 2. pl. compliments, respects. Faites mes baisemains à vos sœurs, present my compliments to your sisters. [In the following adverbial phrase this wood is feminine :] A belles baisemains, with slavish humility, cringingly, crouchingly.

BAISEMENT, bèz-mâ*n*-t, [baiser, to kiss], sm. 1. kissing, kissing of the foot ; 2. † Geom. osculation. — de la mule pontificale, the kissing of the Pope's toe.

BAISER, bèzé-r, [Lat. : basiāre, to kiss], va. to kiss : a) to salute by applying the lips ; b) to touch gently or slighty : a) — quelqu'un à (ou sur) la bouche, à (ou sur) la joue, au (ou sur le) front, to kiss a person on the lips, on the cheek, on the forehead ; to kiss a person's lips, cheek, forehead. — la main d'une femme, to kiss a lady's hand. Son père le baisa et le congédia, his father kissed and dismissed him ; his father dismissed him with a kiss. Elle portait un reliquaire qu'elle baisait avec effusion, she carried a reliquary which she kissed fervently. — la main, to kiss one's hand, to send a kiss (to a person). — les mains, to pay compliments or respects. Je vous baise les mains, my compliments (or respects) to you. [Ironic. :] Oh ! pour cela, je vous baise les mains, oh ! on that point I must beg to be excused ; in that case, I cannot agree with you. Vous devriez — les traces de ses pas, you ought to kiss the very ground he walks on ; you ought to be extremely grateful to him. — la terre, to kiss the ground, to humiliate one's self. — la croix, to kiss the cross.

b) Les flots qui baisent sans murmure les flancs de ce rocher, the waves which noiselessly kiss (or lave) the sides of that rock.

BAISER (SE), v. refl. to kiss one another (or each other) a) to bill (as pigeons) ; b) to touch (as things). Ces deux enfants se baisent souvent, those two children often kiss each other. Ces deux pigeons sont toujours à se —, those two pigeons are always billing each other. Ces deux arbres se baisaient et s'entrelaçaient, those two trees touched and intertwined their boughs.

BAISER, sm. 1. kissing : saluting with the lips ; 2. kiss : a salute with the lips. Le — était chez les anciens une manière fort ordinaire de se saluer, among the ancients kissing (or a kiss) was a very common mode of salutation. Un — d'amitié, a kiss of friendship, frienldy kiss. Donner, recevoir, rendre, prendre, refuser, dérober un —, to give, receive, return, take, refuse, steal a kiss. Elle lui a laissé prendre un —, she allowed (or suffered) him to take a kiss. Elle lui a refusé un —, she refused him a kiss. Un doux —, a sweet kiss, — de paix, kiss of peace. Un — de Judas (ou de traître), a Judas's kiss, treacherous kiss. [Poet.:] Les baisers du zéphyr, the kisses (or caresses) of the zephyr.

BAISEUR, EUSE, bèzœr, œz', smf. kisser.

BAISOTER, bèzoté-r, va. to kiss frequently, to be always kissing.

BAISOTER (SE), v. refl. to be always kissing one another.

BAISSE, bès', [bas ; Low Lat. : bassus], sf. 1. fall, decline (in price). Les sucres, les cafés ont éprouvé de la —, sugars and coffees have undergone a decline. Cette nouvelle produisit une grande — à la Bourse, this news caused a great fall on the Stock-exchange. Être en —, to be falling (or declining), to have a downward tendency. Les fonds publics et les actions de chemins de fer sont en —, the public funds (or government stock) and railway shares are falling, are declining. Jouer à la —, to speculate for the (or a) fall. Joueur à la —, bear (on the Stock-exchange).

2. fall, subsidence, going down (of the waters of a river; 3. reflux, ebb (of the tide).

BAISSÉ, E, bèsé, pa. p. 1. lowered, etc. V. Baisser; 2. bowed down, hanging down; drooping (as the head); 3. downcast, cast down (as the eyes); 4. broken, declining (through old age). L'œil morne et la tête baissée, with lustreless eye and drooping head. Les yeux baissés vers la terre, with down-cast eyes. Revenir les oreilles baissées, to return crestfallen. V. Oreille.

TÊTE BAISSÉE, adv. phr. headlong : a) fearlessly, regardless of danger; b) with all one's might; c) thoughtlessly, blindly. Nos troupes fondirent sur l'ennemi tête baissée, our troops rushed headlong on the enemy. Quand quelqu'un nous emploie, on doit, tête baissée, se jeter dans ses intérêts, when any one employs us, we ought to throw ourselves headlong (heart and soul or with all our might) into his interests. Donner tête baissée dans un piège, to run headlong into a snare. Il n'est pas homme à donner tête baissée dans le mariage, he is not a man to rush headlong into wedlock.

BAISSEMENT, bès'mân-t, sm. 1. lowering; 2. bowing, bending, drooping (of the head).

BAISSER, bèsé-r, [bas; Lat. : bassiāre, bassus, low], va. 1. to lower : a) to diminish the height of; b) to move downwards; c) to put down, to let down, to pull down; d) to drop, to let fall; e) to bring down, to humble; f) to sink, to let fall (one's voice in speaking); g) Mus. to flatten the pitch of an instrument; h) to diminish, to reduce, to bring down (prices).

a) — une maison, un toit, une clôture, to lower a house, a roof, a fence.

b) — un tableau, une glace, to lower a painting, a looking-glass. — un pont-levis, to lower or let down a drawbridge. — la lance devant quelqu'un, to lower one's lance to a person; Fig. to yield, to give way to a person. — l'épée, le drapeau, to lower one's sword, to lower or dip one's flag (as a salute). — la main à un cheval, to loose the reins, to give a horse his head.

c) — un store, to lower a blind. — un voile, to put, draw or let down a veil.

d) Theat. — le rideau, to drop (or let fall) the curtain.

e) — l'orgueil d'une personne, to bring down, lower, or humble a person's pride. — ses prétentions, to lower one's pretentions.

f) — la voix, to sink, to lower one's voice. — le ton, to lower one's voice; Fig. to lower one's tone, to speak less loudly, less arrogantly.

g) — le ton d'un morceau de musique, to transpose a piece of music into a lower key. — un instrument, to lower (or flatten) the pitch of an instrument.

h) Les boulangers ont baissé le prix du pain, the bakers have lowered or reduced the price of bread.

2. Naut. — le drapeau, to strike : to haul down one's colours, as an acknowledgment of defeat; Fig. to yield, to surrender, to give in.

3. to bow (the head, in token of submission). Saint Augustin baissait la tête sous l'autorité de l'Église, St. Augustine bowed his head (or submitted) to the authority of the Church. Boss. Instr. I. Il faut — la tête et souffrir, we must bow our heads and suffer.

4. to hang or hang down (one's head from sorrow or shame). Il baissait la tête comme une fleur qui se penche sur sa tige, he hung down his head like a flower drooping on its stem. Après cet échec il s'en alla baissant l'oreille, after that check, he went off crestfallen.

5. to cast down (the eyes), to look down. Tu pleures et tu baisses les yeux, you weep and cast down your eyes. La modestie fait — les yeux, modesty makes one look down.

BAISSER, vn. 1. to fall : to subside, to go down, to get low (or lower) (as the waters of a river, etc.), to ebb (as the sea). La rivière a baissé de trois pieds, the river has fallen three feet. Le vin baisse dans le tonneau, the wine is getting low in the cask. Le soleil baisse, the sun is getting low, is going down.

2. to decline : a) to decrease, to diminish; b) to fall, to sink, to go down (as prices); c) to break, to fail, to get impaired; d) to wane, to fall off, to decay, to sink. a) Le froid, la chaleur baisse, the cold, the heat is decreasing or diminishing. b) Les huiles et les savons baissent, oils and soaps are declining (falling in price or going down). La rente baisse, the funds (or stocks) are falling. Les fonds baissent, stocks are falling. Les actions de cette compagnie baissent, the shares of that company are falling. c) Ce vieillard baisse rapidement, that old man is breaking fast. Le malade baisse à vue d'œil, the patient is perceptibly sinking. Sa vue baisse, his sight is failing. Sa mémoire baisse, his memory is failing (or getting impaired). d) Le jour baisse, the day is waning or on the wane. Dès ce moment Carthage commença à —, from that moment Carthage began to decline.

3. to deteriorate : to lose flavour or strength. Ce vin commence à —, this wine is deteriorating (or spoiling).

4. Mus. to get flat, to get out of tune. Une corde neuve baisse presque toujours, a new string nearly always gets flat (or lower in pitch).

BAISSER (SE), v. refl. 1. to stoop. Il faut se — beaucoup pour entrer dans cette caverne, one must stoop low to get into that cavern. Baissez-vous davantage, stoop lower. Il n'y a qu'à se — et en prendre, you have only to stoop and take it; you have only to ask and have. [Ironic. :] On dirait, à l'entendre, qu'il n'y a qu'à se — et en prendre, to hear him, one would suppose that it might be had for asking.

2. to drop, to fall. A cette nouvelle sa tête se baissa sur sa poitrine, at this news his head dropped on his breast.

3. to be depressed or dejected. C'est un homme qui ne se hausse ni ne se baisse, he is a man who is never excited or depressed; he is a man of equable temperament.

BAISSER, sm. setting (of the sun). Averti par le — du soleil, warned by the setting of the sun. Vers le — du soleil, towards sunset (or sundown). Plusieurs vaisseaux avaient appareillé au — du soleil, several vessels had set sail at sunset.

BAISSIER, bèsyé, sm. Stock-Ex. bear : seller, speculator for the fall.

BAISSIÈRE, bèsyèr', sf. 1. bottom, foot (of a cask of wine, ale, etc. : the thicker fluid resting on the dregs or sediment); 2. Agr. hollow : low place in which water collects on ploughed land.

BAISSOIR, bèswar, [baisser], sm. brine-tank (in salt-works).

BAISURE, bèzur [baiser], sf. kissing-crust.

BAJOIRE, bazhwar', sf. double-headed coin or medal (with two heads facing each other or superposed).

BAJOUE, bazhou, [bas; joue], sf. chap : cheek of a pig.

BAJOYER, bazhwayé, [orig. doubtful; perhaps from bajoue], sm. chamber wall (of a canal lock).

BAL, bal, [Low. Lat. : ballāre, to dance], sm. ball : assembly for dancing. — public, public ball. — champêtre, country ball. — costumé ou travesti, fancy ball. — paré, dress bal. — de bienfaisance, de charité, charity ball. Aller au —, to go to the ball. Donner un —, to give a ball. Courir le —, to frequent balls. [Fig. :] Donner le — à quelqu'un, to ill-treat, to abuse a person. Mettre le — en train, to commence a discussion. Mettre une carte au —, to stake money on a card.

BALADE, balad, sf. Pop. stroll, walk. Se payer une —, to take a stroll.

BALADER, (se), baladé, v. refl. Pop. to walk about, to stroll about, to gallivant. Il est allé se — par là, he's gone strolling somewhere about there.

BALADEUR, EUSE, baladœ, œs, smf. stroller : one who takes a walk, flâneur.

BALADEUR, adj. Autom. shifting. Arbre à cames —, shifting cam shaft. Train —, sliding double change speed wheels.

BALADEUSE, baladœz, sf. 1. trailer : a carriage trailed behind another (tramway, bicycle, etc.); 2. a street hand-barrow for fruit, vegetables etc.

BALADIN, E, baladan, in', [bal], smf. 1. dancer; 2. sm. buffoon, jack-pudding, merry-andrew, zany; 3. simpleton, ninny.

BALADINAGE, baladinazh', sm. 1. coarse jesting; 2. sorry joke or jest.

BALAFRE, balafr', [Lat. : bis labrum, double lip], sf. 1. gash : slash, especially on the face; 2. scar, cicatrice (left by a gash).

BALAFRÉ, E, balafré, pa. p. gashed, scarred. Guise le Balafré, Guise the Scarred.

BALAFRER, balafré-r, va. to gash : to wound on the face.

BALAI, balè, [Low Breton : balan, the shrub : broom], sm. 1. broom, besom (when made of twigs); 2. broom, long-brush, house-brush (when made of bristles). — de bouleau, birch-broom. — de cheminée, hearth-brush. — de crin, hair-broom, house-brush, long-brush. Donnez un coup de — dans cette pièce, give a sweep in this room, give this room a sweep. — de plume, feather-broom, feather-duster. — à laver, a mop. Manche à —, 1. broom-stick, besom-stick; 2. brush-handle; 3. Fig. a thin person. Nettoyer un plancher avec un —, (à laver), to mop a floor. Enlever de l'eau avec un —, to mop up water. Faire — neuf, to do one's work well at first, to be very attentive to one's duties : said of new servants, etc. C'est le — neuf, a new broom sweeps well. Rôtir le —, to lead a life of drudgery, a life of privations. Brûler le —, to lead a wild and disorderly life, a life of debauchery.

3. Falc. tail (of a hawk); 4. Sport. brush : hairy tip of a dog's tail.

5. Naut. — du ciel, north-east wind.

BALAIEMENT, balèmân-t, sm. V. Balayage.

BALAIS, balè, [Low Lat. : balascus, from Pers. badakchān, a place near Samarcand], adj. m. balas. Rubis —, balas ruby, Fig. grog-blossom : a red blotch or carbuncle on a drunkard's nose.

BALANCE, balâns', [Lat. : bilanx; bis, double; lanx, lancis, a dish, scale], sf. 1. balance : a) pair of scales, scales; b) equilibrium, equiponderance of powers; c) the difference between a debtor and creditor account. a) — juste, injuste, just balance, unjust balance. Les bassins, le fléau, la languette d'une —, the scales (dishes, pans, or plates), beam, index (cock or tongue) of a balance. Le trait de la —, the turn of the scales. — d'essai, assay-balance. — de précision, philosophical balance. — romaine, steelyard. — à bascule, weighing-machine.

— à lettres, letter-scales (or balance). — à ressort, spring balance. — de torsion, torsion balance. [Fig. :] Cette considération emporte la —, that consideration preponderates or turns the scale. Tenir la — juste, to hold the scales (or balance) even. Faire pencher la —, to turn the scale. Tenir la — égale entre deux parties, to hold the balance even between two parties ; to be impartial. Mettre dans la — les actions de deux grands hommes, to weigh, to compare the actions of two great men. Mettre en — les raisons de part et d'autre, to weigh the reasons on both sides,on either-side. Ses droits peuvent-ils entrer en — avec les miens ? can his rights be compared with (or weighed against) mine ?

b) La — de l'Europe était en péril, the balance (or the equilibrium) of Europe was in danger. Le gouvernement parlementaire vise à établir la — des pouvoirs, the parliamentary government aims at establishing the balance of powers.

c) La — de son compte, en ma faveur, est de deux mille francs, the balance of his account is two thousand francs in my favour. Faire la —, to strike a balance, to draw out a balance-sheet. — du commerce, balance of trade : the difference between the value of imports and exports.

2. suspense. Être en —, to be in suspense, to fluctuate, to waver, to be doubtful. La victoire a été longtemps en —, the victory was long in suspense was long doubtful, Vertot. Rév. rom. XI. Il est en —, il ne sait à quoi se résoudre, he is in suspense, and does not know what resolution to take. Tenir l'esprit en —, to keep the mind in suspense.

3. Astron. Libra, the Balance : the sign of the zodiac into which the sun enters at the autumnal equinox.

BALANCÉ, balansé, sm. Danc. 1. balancing : setting to one's partner ; 2. step in dancing.

BALANCELLE, balansèl', sf. Naut. felucca.

BALANCEMENT, balâns'mân-t, sm. 1. balancing : movement up and down or backwards and forwards ; 2. swaying, swinging (of a carriage or anything suspended) ; 3. rocking (of a boat on the water) ; 4. waving (of the branches of a tree by the wind) ; 5. nodding (of a plume or an aigrette), 6. waddling (swaying of the body from side to side in walking) ; 7. hesitation ; 8. Astron. libration (of the moon) ; 9 Paint. balance, balancing : symmetrical arrangement of figures in a picture, etc. ; 10. Med. compensation, as between hypertrophy and atrophy.

BALANCER, balansé-r ; the c takes the cedilla when followed by a termination beginning with a or o : il balançait, nous balançons, va. 1. to balance : a) to hold or put in equilibrium, to poise ; b) to equal in weight, importance, authority, or influence ; to be a match for : to counterbalance. a) Un danseur de corde qui ne balance pas bien son corps risque de tomber, a rope-dancer who does not well balance his body is in danger of falling. — un javelot, une épée, to poise a javelin, to brandish a sword. — un compte, to balance an account. — une composition, Paint. to balance a composition ; to arrange its different groups in equilibrium. — une figure, to balance, to dispose the limbs in accordance with the centre of gravity. b) — les pertes par le gain, to balance the losses by the gain. Lanfranc balançait la réputation de Bérenger, Lanfranc's reputation equalled Berenger's. Condillac ne peut seul — Locke, Descartes, Malebranche et Leibnitz, Condillac cannot himself alone equal L., D., M. and L. Chateaub. Gén. III. 2. 3. Quels que soient ses forfaits, sa gloire les balance, whatever his crimes, his glory counterbalances (or outweighs) them. Ses vertus balancent tous ses vices, his virtues counterbalance all his vices.

2. to swing, to sway, to wave, to rock. — ses bras, to swing one's arms. — son corps à droite et à gauche, to sway one's body to the right and left.

3. to weigh : to examine, to compare. — les avantages de la guerre et de la paix, to weigh the advantages of war and of peace. Après avoir tout balancé, on résolut..., after mature consideration, they resolved... — les raisons de part et d'autre, to weigh the reasons on both sides. Les arbres balancés par les vents, trees swayed about by the winds. La victoire est balancée, the victory is undecided (or doubtful). La joie est balancée par la peine, joy is counterbalanced by suffering. Mais, tout bien balancé, j'ai reconnu que..., but, all things well considered I have decided that...

4. Colloq. 1. to cheat, to overmatch, to hoax ; 2. to dismis, to give the sack, to get rid of. Le malheureux a été balancé dans cette circonstance, the poor fellow was overmatched on that occasion. On l'a tout simplement balancé, he has been simply turned off.

BALANCER, vn. 1. to oscillate. Toutes les causes physiques et tous les effets qui en résultent balancent entre certaines limites, all physical causes and all the effects resulting therefrom oscillate between certain limits.

2. Fig. to hesitate, to waver, to fluctuate : to be in suspense, undecided or doubtful. Il consentit sans —, he consented without hesitation. Tandis que le cœur balance entre ces objets, while the heart hesitates (or wavers) between these objects. Voilà ce qui me fait —, that is what makes me hesitate. Il balance à prendre le parti que vous conseillez, he hesitates to take the resolution you advise. Ne balançons plus à prévenir le coup, let us no longer hesitate to anticipate the blow. Il n'y avait plus à —, there was no longer room for hesitation. La victoire balançait, the victory was in suspense, was undecided.

3. Danc. to set to one's partner ; 4. Sport. to dodge about (in speaking of dogs or game) ; 5. to hover (as a hawk).

BALANCER (SE), v. refl. 1. to swing or sway (backwards and forwards, up and down, or from side to side). Cette femme se balance trop en marchant, that woman swings too much (has too much of a swing) in walking.

2. to swing or sway (on an apparatus called a swing).

3. to balance, to be counterbalanced, to counterbalance each other, to be equal. Pour que les recettes et les dépenses se balancent, so that the receipts and the expenditure may balance or counterbalance each other. Ce compte se balance par mille francs au crédit, au débit, this account shows a balance of a thousand francs on the creditor side, on the debtor side. Nos comptes se balancent, our accounts show an even balance ; our accounts are square.

BALANCIER, balânsyé, sm. 1. scale-maker, scale-and-weight-maker, balance-maker ; 2. pendulum (of a clock) ; 3. balance, balance-wheel (of a watch, chronometer or portable clock). — compensateur. 1. compensation pendulum (for clocks) ; 2. compensation balance-wheel or balance (for chronometers, etc.

4. coining-press, coining-machine ; 5. balancing-pole (used by rope-dancers).

6. Naut. gimbals : a contrivance for suspending the mariner's compass, a lamp, etc.,at sea, so as always to retain the proper position ; 7. fly (of a cutting or punching-press), — à vis, fly-press, cutting-press.

8. Mechan. fly, flier (to regulate the movement of certain machines) ; 9. Civ. Eng. sweep or swipe (of a lock-gate) ; 10. St. Eng. beam (of a land engine) ; side-lever (of a marine engine). Grand —, main beam. — transversal, cross-beam. — porte-balai, Autom. brush-holder segment.

BALANCINE, balansin', sf. Naut. lift (of a sail). — de grande vergue, — de misaine, main lift, fore lift.

BALANÇOIRE, balâns'war', sf. 1. sway : a plank placed on a fulcrum to sway up and down, 2. swing : a suspended seat to be swung backwards and forwards [In this last sense escarpolette is the old and proper French word) ; 3. Fam. chaff. Quelle —, what stuff ! what a fib !

BALANÇON, balânsôn, sm. deal batten : a small plank.

† BALANDRAN, balândrân, ou BALANDRAS, balândra, [Ital. : palandrana], sm. balandran : a) formerly, a cloak of state ; b) a rough cloak or overcoat.

BALANDRE, balândr', [Low Lat. : palandaria], sf. Naut. bilander : a small transport vessel.

BALANE, balan', [Gr. : βάλανος, acorn], sm. Conch. balanus, sea-acorn, acorn-fish.

BALANIFÈRE, balanifèr', [balane ; Lat. : ferre, to bear], adj. Bot. acorn-bearing.

BALANITE, balanit, [Gr. : βάλανος, acorn], Med. balanitis : inflammation of the glans penis.

BALAUSTE, balôst', [Gr. : βαλαύστιον], sf. Bot. balausta, pomegranate.

BALAUSTIER, balôstyé, sm. Bot. pomegranate tree.

BALAYAGE, balèyazh', BALAYEMENT, [balai], balèmân-t, sm. sweeping (of streets and roads).

BALAYÉ, E, balèyé, pa. p. swept. V. Balayer. Les nuages balayés par les vents, the clouds swept away by the winds.

BALAYER, balèyé-r, [balai], Je balaye ou balaie, tu balayes ou balaies, il balaye ou balaie, nous balayons, vous balayez, ils balayent ou balaient ; je balayais, nous balayions, vous balayiez ; je balayerai ou balaierai ; je balayerais ou balaierais ; balaye, balayez ; que je balaye, que nous balayions, que vous balayiez, qu'ils balayent ; que je balayasse ; balayant, balayé. va. to sweep : a) to clean with a broom, to sweep out ; b) to remove with a broom : to sweep away, off, down, up, or out. — une rue, une chambre, to sweep a street, to sweep or to sweep out a room. — la poussière, to sweep up the dust. Balayez ces immondices, sweep up (out or away) this filth. [Fig.]:Le vent a balayé le ciel,les nuages du ciel, the wind has swept (or cleared) the sky, has swept away the clouds from the sky. Le vent balaya en quelques minutes la brume répandue sur la campagne, the wind, in a few minutes, dispersed the mist hanging over the country, Chateaub. Les rues furent balayées par la fusillade, the streets were swept (or cleared) by volleys of musketry. — les corsaires, to sweep away freebooters (from the sea). — les mers. to scour the seas. Sa robe balaye la terre, her dress sweeps along the ground.

BALAYETTE, balèyèt', sf. small broom.

BALAYEUR, EUSE, balèyœr, œz', smf. sweeper. — de rue, street sweeper, scavenger.

BALAYEUSE, balèœz, sf. sweeping-machine.

BALAYURES, balèyur', sf. pl. 1. sweepings; 2. Fig. refuse. Les — des rues, the sweepings of the streets. Les — de la mer, sea-ware: weeds and other refuse left by the sea. Cet homme, rejeté comme les — du monde, this man, rejected as the rubbish (or scum) of the world. [The singular balayure is sometimes but rarely used in the 2nd acceptation.]

BALBUTIANT, balbusiân-t, pa. and adj. balbutient, stammering, stuttering. En —, stammeringly, stutteringly. Fillettes balbutiantes, stuttering girls.

† BALBUTIE, balbusi', sf. stammering, stuttering; lisping (in speaking of children): imperfect speech. La — de l'enfance, the lisping of childhood.

BALBUTIEMENT, balbusimân-t, sm. stammering, stuttering, lisping.

BALBUTIER, balbusié-r, [Lat.: balbutire, from balbus, stuttering], vn. 1. to stammer, to stutter, to lisp (as children); 2. Fig. to hem and haw. Quand la mémoire vacille, la langue balbutie, when the memory fails, the tongue stammers. Il a voulu parler sur cette affaire, mais il n'a fait que —, he wanted to speak on that matter, but he only hemmed and hawed. Elle balbutia et ne répondit rien, she stammered and answered nothing. G. Sand.

BALBUTIER, va. to stammer, to stammer out. — un compliment, to stammer out a compliment.

BALBUTIEUR, balbusiœr, sm. stammerer, stutterer.

BALBUZARD, BALBUSARD, balbuzar, [Eng.: bald-bazzard], sm. Ornith. osprey, fishing eagle or bald-buzzard.

BALCON, balkôn, [Ital.: balcone; of German origin.: Balken beam], sm. 1. Arch. balkony: a) a projecting gallery in the front of a house; b) in theatres dress-circle; c) Naut. the stern gallery of a ship; 2. balustrade (across the lower part of a window).

BALDAQUIN, baldakan, [Ital.: baldacchino], sm. baldachin: a) tester of a bed; b) canopy (over a throne, altar, etc.).

BALE, bal', sf. Bot. glume: husk of certain grasses. V. Balle.

BÂLE, bâl', sf. Geog. Basle, Basel: a canton and town of Switzerland.

BALÉARES, baléar', adj. pl. Les îles — Geog. the Belearic isles.

BALEINE, balèn' [Lat.: balæna], sf. 1. Zool. whale. Pêche de la —, whale-fishery. Blanc de —, spermaceti. Fanon (ou barbe) de —, whale-bone, whale-fin. Huile de —, whale oil.

2. whale-bone. Les baleines d'un parapluie, d'un corset, the whale-bones (or ribs) of an umbrella, of a corset (or pair of stays).

3. Astron. Cetus: a southern constellation.

BALEINÉ, balèné, adj. whale-boned: stiffened with whale-bone, as stays, etc.

BALEINEAU, balènô, sm. Zool. whale-calf, young whale.

BALEINIER, ÈRE, balènyé, yèr', adj. whaling: appertaining to the whale-fishery. Navire —, whaling-ship, whaler, whale-ship. Industrie baleinière, whale-fishing industry.

BALEINIER, sm. 1. whaler: a) person engaged in the whale-fishery; b) whale-ship; 2. whalebone-dealer.

BALEINIÈRE, balènyèr', sf. whale-boat.

BALEINOPTÈRE, balènoptèr', [baleine; Gr.: πτερὸν, wing], sm. Zoolog. balænoptera, rorqual, fin-backed whale, finner-whale.

BALENAS, bal'nâ, [baleine] sm., whale's pizzle.

† BALÈVRE, balèvr', [ba; Lat.: bis, double; lèvre; V. Balafre], sf. 1. the lip (in popular lang.), the under-lip: an expression of contempt; 2. Arch. over-plus lip: accidental projection of a stone in a wall caused by excessive pressure; 3. Found. projection on the surface of a casting.

BALINE, balin', sf. coarse woollen wrapping or packing-cloth.

BALISAGE, balizash', [baliser], sm. Naut. erecting of beacons, laying of buoys; buoying (for the guidance of vessels).

BALISE, baliz', [origin unknown], sf. Naut. 1. beacon, sea-mark, buoy; 2. tow-path, towing-path. Bâtiment —, light-ship. — de sauvetage, safety-beacon. Droit de —, beaconage: dues paid for the maintenance of beacons.

BALISE, sf. Bot. Indian shot: the seed of the Indian-shot plant.

BALISEMENT, baliz'mân, sm. erecting and maintaining of beacons, laying of buoys.

BALISER, balizé-r, va. Naut. to put up beacons in, to lay down buoys in. — une passe, to mark a passage (or channel) with beacons or buoys.

BALISEUR, balizœr, sm. 1. an officer charged with the erection and maintaining of beacons, laying of buoys, etc.; 2. overseer of towing-paths.

BALISIER, balizyé, [origin unknown], sm. Bot. Indian-shot plant.

BALISTE, balist', [Lat.: ballista], sf. 1. balista or ballista: an ancient engine of war for throwing stones, etc.; 2. Ichthyol. balistes, file-fish.

BALISTIQUE, balistik', sf. ballistics: the science of projectiles.

BALIVAGE, balivazh', [baliveau], sm. Forest. staddling: selecting and marking young trees to be left standing.

BALIVEAU, balivô, [Low Lat.: bayvellus], sm. 1. Forest. staddle; 2. Hort. a young tree raised from seed not grafted; 3. Mason. scaffold-pole.

BALIVER, balivé-r, va. to reserve young trees from being cut down in a forest.

BALIVERNE, balivèrn', [origin unknown], sf. 1. trifle, fiddle-faddle; 2. nonsense, stuff, fudge, bosh. S'occuper de balivernes, to devote one's attention to trifles, to fiddle-faddle. Je n'entends rien à ces balivernes, that is all stuff (or bosh) to me. Balivernes que tout cela, that's all stuff.

BALIVERNER, balivernérr, vn. to fiddle-faddle, to faddle (or trifle) one's time away. [may be used actively:] Êtes-vous folle de me — avec vos contes bleus ? are you mad, to banter me with your cock and bull stories? Regnard. Ménech. II. 3.

BALLADE, balad', [Low Lat.: ballāre, to dance; Proven.: ballade, from ballar, to dance], sf. ballad: a) a song; b) a narrative in verse; c) an air sung by dancers. Le refrain de la —, the burden (or chorus) of a ballad. [Fig.:] C'est le refrain de la —, it is the old story over again.

BALLAGE, balazh', sm. Metal. balling (of iron).

BALLANT, E, balân-t, ânt', adj. 1. swinging; 2. Naut. loose: forming a bight. Aller les bras ballants, to swing one's arms in walking. Corde ballante, a loose rope, a rope hanging in bights.

BALLAST, balast, [Eng.], sm. ballast: a) Naut. stone, iron, etc., to steady a ship; b) Railw. gravel to cover the sleepers.

BALLASTAGE, balastazh', sm. Railw. ballasting (of the permanent way).

BALLE, bal', [origin doubtful; Gr.: βάλλω, I throw], sf. 1. ball: a) a small globe of elastic material used to play with, also the game played; b) a bullet or shot for fire-arms; c) Print. instrument for inking the type. a) Jouer à la balle, to play with a ball, to play at ball. Lancer la —, to throw the ball. Avoir la — belle, to receive a good ball; Fig. to have a good opportunity, a good chance. Renvoyer la —, to return the ball; Fig. to return a compliment, to give tit for tat. Son adversaire lui a bien renvoyé la —, his adversary gave him as good as he brought. Se renvoyer la —, to keep up the ball; to keep up a conversation; to bandy compliments or jokes. Prendre la — au bond, to take the ball on the rebound, on the bounce; Fig. to seize on (or profit by) an opportunity. Juger la —, to know where a ball will fall; Fig. to foresee the issue of an affair. Enfant de la —, the son of a tennis-court keeper; Fig. anyone who follows his father's trade or profession. A vous la —, the ball is yours, it is your turn to play; Fig. it is your turn now (to speak or act), that was meant for you, that was a hit at you. C'est ma —, that's my business.

b) — de fusil, de pistolet, musket ball, pistol ball. Fusil chargé à —, musket (or gun) loaded with ball. — de calibre, regulation ball (of muskets), ball of the right caliber, ball of the right size. Une — l'atteignit au front, a ball struck him in the forehead. — ramée, two or three balls fastened together with wire. — perdue, wasted ball, random ball; Fig. useless effort. — morte, spent ball. Milit. Balle de feu, fire-ball. Tirer à —, to fire ball cartridge. — à queue, Naut. loggerhead.

2. Slang. a franc, a franc-piece.

3. bale: package; 4. pack (of a pedlar). — de coton, bale of cotton; Naut. a white fleecy cloud. Marchandises de —, goods of inferior quality; packman's, pedlar's, or hawker's goods (these being generally of bad quality). Un rimeur de —, a sorry rhymester. Homme de —, man of little talent or influence. Choses de —, things of no value.

BALLE, BALE, bal, [Ger. Balg], sf. Bot. glume: floral envelop or corn, and grasses; 5. chaff (of oats); 6. husk (of certain seeds).

BALLE-QUEUE, bal-kœ, sf. Ornith. wagtail.

† BALLER, balé-r, vn. to dance, to jig.

BALLERINE, balœrin', sf. ballet-girl, ballet-dancer.

BALLET, balé-t; the t is heard in the sing. before a vowel; in the pl. it is mute and the s is heard as z before a vowel, sm. ballet. Maître de ballets à l'Opéra, ballet master at the Opera. — pantomime, ballet.

BALLIER, balyé, sm. Agr. chaff-house.

BALLON, balôn, [balle], sm. balloon: a) windball (driven by the hand), foot-ball to be kicked); b) air-balloon, aerostat; c) Naut. a Siamese brigantine-rigged vessel; d) the round top of a mountain. — dirigeable, air-ship. b) — captif, captive balloon. — d'essai, pilot balloon: small balloon sent up to show the direction of the atmospheric currents; Fig. a feeler. Envoyer un — d'essai, to send out a feeler. d) Le — de Guebwiller a 1426 mètres de hauteur au-dessus du niveau de la mer, the Guebwiller balloon is 1426 metres above the level of the sea. Enfler, gonfler un —, to fill a balloon.

BALLONET, baloné, sm. air-bag. — à empennage, stabilizing ballonet.

BALLONNÉ, E, baloné, adj. 1. swelled out, distended (as the abdomen by gases); 2. (in speaking of cows, etc.) hoven.

BALLONNEMENT, balon'mân-t, sm. 1. Med. tympanites or tympany : distension of the abdomen; 2. Vet. Surg. hoven.

BALLONNER, baloné-r, [ballon], va. to swell, to distend. Les fourrages verts ballonnent les bestiaux, green food will swell cattle (will cause hoven in cattle).

BALONNER (SE), v. refl. to swell, to distend. Le ventre se ballonne dans cette maladie, the abdomen swells in that disease.

BALLONNIER, balonyé, sm. ball-maker, football-maker.

BALLOT, balo; the l of the sing. is heard only in oratory; it is always mute in the plur. and the s is heard as z before a vowel [dim. of balle], sm. bale : pack, package. Ouvrir un — de marchandises, to open a bale of goods. [Fig. :] Voilà votre vrai —, that is just your affair, just what you want, just the thing for you. Elle eut bientôt trouvé le vrai —, she had soon found what she wanted.

BALLOTE, balot' [Gr. : βαλλωτή], sf. Bot. ballota, horehound.

BALLOTIN, balotan, sm. small bale, parcel.

BALLOTADE, balotad', [ballotter], sf. Horsem. ballotade.

BALLOTTAGE, balotazh', [ballotter], sm. 1. balloting, ballot; 2. second ballot : in elections when no candidate has obtained the absolute majority, or more than half the number of votes given. Scrutin de —, vote by ballot.

BALLOTTE, balot', sf. 1. ballot-ball, ball [Boule is now used instead of Ballotte.]; 2. Bot. horehound. [In this sense Ballote is the more correct orthography.]; 3. vessel or tub in which the gathered grapes are put.

BALLOTTEMENT, balot'mân-t, sm. 1. tossing, tossing (or shaking) about; 2. Obstet. ballottement.

BALLOTTER, baloté-r, va. to toss, to toss (or shake) about; Fig. to knock about. La mer nous a ballottés trois jours et trois nuits, the sea tossed us about (or we were tossed about on the sea) for three days and nights. Voilà comme les hommes sont ballottés par la fortune, see how men are knocked about by (or are the sport of) fortune. Volt, Lettres, Mariott. 20 fév. 1767.

2. Tennis. to bandy (the ball); to knock or drive the ball backwards and forwards without playing a regular game; Fig. to toss or send about, to toss, drive, or send from pillar to post (said of persons), to make sport of. Après avoir été ballotté de la mort à la vie, after having been bandied (or tossed) about between life and death. Mme de Sév.

3. to ballot between : to subject to election by ballot. — deux candidats, to ballot between two candidates. Il a été ballotté avec un tel, there was a ballot between him and such a one.

4. to pack in bales or parcels.

BALLOTTER, vn. 1. to shake about (as a door or window ill-fastened); 2. to shuffle about, to turn from one thing to another.

BALLUCHON, balushôn, [ballot], sm. Fam. packet, bundle.

BALNÉAIRE, balnéair, [Lat. : balneum, bath], adj. balneal : pertaining to a bath or to bathing. Station —, ville —, bathing, watering place or resort. Saison —, bathing season.

BALNÉATION, balnéazyon, sf. bathing the act of bathing.

BALNÉOLOGIE, balnéolozhi, [Lat. : balneum, bath; Gr. : λόγος, discourse], sf. balneology : the scientific study of bathing and of mineral springs.

BALNÉOTHÉRAPIE, balnéotérapi, [Lat. : balneum, bath; Gr. : θεραπεύω, I cure], sf. Med. balneotherapy : medical treatment by a method of baths.

BALOURD, E, balour, ourd', [orig. unknown; Ital. : balordo], smf. thick-head, thick-skull, dunder-head, dullard, dolt, dunce.

BALOURDISE, balourdiz', sf. 1. stupid blunder (in act or speech); 2. doltishness, dulness.

BALSAMIER, balzamyé, sm. V. Baumier.

BALSAMIFÈRE, balsamifèr', [Lat. : balsamum, balsam; ferre, to bear], adj. Bot. balsamiferous.

BALSAMINE, balzamin', [Gr. : βάλσαμον, balsam], sf. Bot. garden balsam : impatiens balsamina. — des bois, yellow balsam, touch-me-not : impatiens noli-metangere.

BALSAMIQUE, balzamik', adj. balsamic, balsamical; balmy. Odeur —, balsamic odour. Respirant l'air — du printemps breathing the balmy air of spring.

BALSAMIQUE, sm. balsamic.

BALSAMITE, balzamit', sf. Bot. costmary, ale-cost : pyrethrum tanacetum.

BALTIQUE, baltik, adj. Geog. Baltic. La mer —, the Baltic sea. Les provinces baltiques, the Baltic provinces : Livonia, Esthonia, Courland.

BALUSTRADE, balustrad', sf. 1. balustrade : a row of balusters; 2. breast-high railing.

BALUSTRE, balustr', [Gr. : βαλαύστιον, pomegranate flower], sm. 1. baluster; 2. balustrade : row of balusters, railing; 3. Arch. baluster : the lateral part of the Ionic volute.

BALUSTRER, balustré-r, va. to balustrade : to enclose with balusters.

BALZAC, balzak [Honoré de], novelist (1799-1850).

BALZAN, balzân, [Ital. : balzano], adj. m. Cheval —, white-footed horse.

BALZANE, balzan', sf. white mark round a horse's leg.

BAMBELLE, bânbèl', sf. Mech. connecting-rod. V. Bielle.

BAMBIN, E, bânban, in', [Ital. : bambino], smf. little boy, little girl : brat, baby, bantling.

BAMBOCHADE, bânboshad', [Ital. : Bamboccio, a Italian painter], sf. 1. Paint. low-life; 2. low-life painting or drawing, scene from low life.

BAMBOCHE, bânbosh', [Ital. : bamboccio], sf. 1. large puppet; 2. Fig. (disparagingly, of persons), little imp, bit of a thing, grub; 3. spree, rig, lark; drinking bout. Faire des bamboches, to go (or be) on the spree, to be larking, to have a lark.

4. small bamboo cane.

BAMBOCHER, bânboshé-r, vn. to go (or be) on the spree.

BAMBOCHEUR, EUSE, bânboshœr, œz', smf. dissolute person (of either sex); loose fellow, rake; loose woman.

BAMBONNER, bânbonné-r, [Gr. : βαμβαίνω, I stutter], to mumble, to speak between the teeth.

BAMBOU, bânbou [Mal. : bambu] : sm. 1. Bot. bamboo : the tallest of the arborescent grasses; 2. bamboo, bamboo cane or walking-stick.

BAMBOULA, bânboula, smf. 1. sort or primitive drum among the negroes; 2. nigger dance; 3. Pop. negro, nigger, blackamoor.

BAN, bân, [bannir], sm. ban : a) public notice or proclamation; b) in feudal times, convocation of the chief vassals for military service; the vassals assembled; c) sentence of banishment, of outlawry or of enforced residence in a particular place; d) fine inflicted for breaking a ban; e) the governor of certain provinces. a) Battre un —, to beat a ban, to make a proclamation with beat of drum. — de vendange, vintage ban (fixing the day for vintage to begin). Four à — (ou four banal), town oven : public oven belonging to the lord of the manor. — de mariage, bans (or banns) of marriage. Dispense de bans, marriage license. Publier les bans, to publish the banns. Faire publier les bans, to put up the banns; to have the banns published, to be asked in church. b) Il ne leva que le —, he convoked only the ban (the feudal barons). Le — et l'arrière-ban, the feudal barons and their vassals, the whole military force of a district or country. Fig. Convoquer le — et l'arrière-ban, to collect all one's supporters, to make a general appeal for help. c) Le — qui a mis l'exilé hors de son pays, the ban which has driven the exile from his country. Rompre son —, to break one's ban : to return from exile : to leave one's assigned place of abode. Mettre au —, to evict, to turn out of society; Fam. to send to Coventry. Mettre au — de l'empire, (in Germany) to put under the ban of the empire. d) Le comte pouvait faire payer aux vassaux le ban, the count could exact a fine from the vassals. e) Jellachich, — de Croatie, Jellachich, ban of Croatia.

BANAL, E, banal, al', [ban], adj. 1. banal : belonging to a manor or township. Four —, town oven. Taureau —, town bull.

2. common, at every one's disposal. Témoin —, a knight of the post : a witness ready to depose to anything for money.

3. hackneyed, trite, common-place. Expression banale, a hackneyed (or common-place) expression. Excuse banale, a trite (or common) excuse. Des consolations banales, common-place consolations.

BANALEMENT, banal'mân-t, adv. tritely, in a common-place manner.

BANALITÉ, banalité, sf. 1. Feudal law. banality : socome, bond socome; 2. common-place. Les compliments ne sont que des banalités, compliments are but common-places (or stereotyped forms of speech).

BANANE, banan', [Span. and Port. banana, from the native name in Guinea], sf. Bot. banana : fruit of the banana-plant, a variety of the plantain.

BANANERIE, banan'ri, sf. bananery : banana plantation.

BANANIER, bananyé, sm. banana-plant, banana : a perennial herbaceous plant; musa sapientium.

BANAT, bana, sm. banat : a) dignity of a ban; b) province governed by a ban.

BANC, bân; [Ger. : Bank], the final c is always mute; the s of the plural is heard as z before a vowel. sm. 1. bench : a long seat for several persons; 2. form (in schools), 3. bank (of turf); 4. pew (enclosed seat in a place of worship). — de bois, wooden bench. — de pierre, stone bench. Un — à dos, seat or bench with a back. Un petit —, a foot stool. Un — de gazon, a turf seat. Les bancs d'un théâtre, the benches (or seats) of a theatre. Bancs dégarnis, empty benches. — des ministres, the ministerial bench, the treasury bench. Bancs de l'opposition, the opposition benches. Le — des évêques, the bishops' bench, the episcopal bench (in the British parliament). Banc du Roi (ou de la Reine), the King's (or the Queen's) Bench : a supreme tribunal in England. Le — de l'œuvre, the churchwarden's pew (in a church). Les bancs des avocats, the barristers' benches. Le — des accusés, the prisoners' bench ; (in England) the dock : the place where accused persons stand before a tribunal, seats not being allowed except in case of illness. Les bancs d'une école, the benches or forms of a school. Être encore sur les bancs, to be still at school, at college. Se mettre sur les bancs, to commence one's studies (at school or college).

5. Naut. bank (of oars, in a row-galley), thwart (seat for rowers in a small boat) ; 6. bank (of sand, rock, or coral) ; 7. field (of ice) ; 8. shoal (as fish). Ce navire a échoué sur un — de sable, that ship has stranded on a sand bank. Le — de Terre-Neuve, the bank of Newfoundland. Un — de corail, a coral bank (or reef). — de harengs, a shoal of herrings. Un — d'huîtres, an oyster-bed.

9. bed, stratum (of stone in a quarry). Le — du ciel, the uppermost bed.

10. Techn. bench, frame, bed. — à river, rivetting bench. — à tirer, draw-bench. — de forerie, boring bench. — à broches, spinning frame. — d'un tour, bed of a lathe.

11. Autom. carrier, stand. — d'essai, — d'épreuve, brake carrier.

12. Agr. balk : strip of land left unploughed.

BANCAL, E, bânkal, al', [orig. doubtful ; perhaps from banc], adj. bandy-legged. C'est une bancale, she is bandy-legged.

BANCAL, E, smf. bandy-legs, bandy-legged person. Des bancals, bandy-legged people.

BANCAL, sm. a curved (or scimitar-shaped) sabre.

BANCHE, bânsh', [banc], sf. Geol. a bank of argillaceous marl visible at low water.

BANCO, bânko, [Ital.], adj. Exch. banco : said of money of account as distinct from currency.

BANCROCHE, bânkrosh', [perhaps Ger. : Bein, leg ; Fr. : croche], adj. 1. bandy-legged, crooked-legged, baker-legged ; 2. rickety, rachitic.

BANDAGE, bândazh', [bande], sm. 1. Surg. bandage ; 2. truss (for a rupture) ; 3. bandaging : the art or act of applying bandages. Appliquer un —, to apply a bandage. Ce chirurgien entend très bien le —, this surgeon has great skill in bandaging. — herniaire, a truss for a rupture.

4. tyre (of a wheel) ; 5. hoop (to strengthen a beam, etc.). Le — de ces roues ne vaut plus rien, the tyre of those wheels is good for nothing, is worn out. — à talons, flanged tyre. — en caoutchouc, rubber tyre. Pneu avec — en caoutchouc plein, pneumatic tyre with auxiliary solid tyre. — creux, pneumatic tyre.

BANDAGISTE, bândazhist, sm. 1. bandage-maker ; 2. truss-maker.

BANDE, bând', [Teutonic origin ; Ger. : Band ; binden, to bind], sf. 1. band : a long and narrow piece of cloth, paper, metal, etc. ; strip, slip, stripe, streak, strake, are synonyms of band but cannot be used indifferently. — de toile, de drap de broderie, a band or strip of linen, of cloth, of embroidery. — de papier, strip, slip, band of paper. — de cuir, de fer, copper band, iron band. Mettre des bandes à une roue, to put strakes (or a tyre) on a wheel ; to shoe a wheel. La — d'un billard, the cushion of a billiard-table. Toucher la —, to touch the cushion. Mettre un journal sous —, to put a newspaper under cover (for despatch by post). Une — de terre, a strip of ground, of land. Une — de gazon, a strip of turf, a turf border. L'azur du ciel traversé par des bandes verdâtres, the azure of the sky traversed by greenish streaks. Une — lumineuse s'élevait à l'horizon, a luminous streak arose in the horizon.

2. Surg. bandage ; 3. Astron. fascia, belt (of the planets Jupiter and Saturn) ; 4. Arch. band, fascia : a plain moulding ; 5. cushion (of a billiard-table) ; 6. string (of saveloys or sausages) ; 7. Herald. bend. Porter argent à la — sable, to bear argent with a bend sable ; 8. stair-tread.

8. Naut. heeling, lying along ; 9. side, shore. — de l'est, the east side (of a ship or line of battle) ; the east shore (of an island). — de ris, reef-band. Donner de la —, être à la —, to heel, to lie along, to be heeled down (for careening). Demi —, parliament-heel.

BANDE, sf. band : troop, company ; gang, crew, set ; flight (of birds). Des bandes armées couraient la campagne, armed bands were scouring the country. La — des conjurés, the band of conspirators Je rencontrai une — de jeunes gens qui se rendaient à la foire, I met a company (or troop) of young people who were going to the fair. Une — joyeuse, a jovial crew, a merry set. Toute cette — de débauchés qu'il traîne à sa suite, all that band (set or crew) of debauchees who follow in his train. Une — de voleurs, a band (or gang) of thieves. Une — de loups, de poissons, d'oiseaux, a pack of wolves, a shoal of fish, a flight of birds. Faire — à part, to form a separate band. Les bandes noires, the black bands : 1. companies of speculators who, during the first French revolution, bought up the estates of the nobles to sell them in small lots, also houses, churches, etc., to pull them down and sell the materials ; 2. a gang of dealers frequenting sales whose object is to bid so as to dupe honest buyers; 3. any gang of swindlers who procure goods on false pretences.

BANDÉ, E, bândé, pa. p. ; adj. 1. bound up, bandaged ; 2. bent, strung (as a bow) ; 3. Her. bendy : of a shield divided into an equal number of bends. La blessure étant bandée, the wound being bound up (or bandaged) Il avait les yeux bandés, he was blindfolded.

BANDEAU, bândó, [bande], sm. 1. head-band, frontlet : fillet to encircle the head. Un — royal, a royal diadem. Un — de veuve, a widow's band (or cap). Les cheveux en —, the hair worn smooth and a plat, parted in the middle.

2. bandage (over the eyes). Mettre un — sur les yeux de quelqu'un, to blindfold a person. La justice est représentée avec un — sur les yeux, justice is represented with a bandage over her eyes. [Fig.] Il a un — sur les yeux, he is blind to what is passing. Faire tomber le — de dessus les yeux de quelqu'un, to open a person's eyes. Dans cet âge où la maturité fait tomber le — de la crédulité, at the age, when maturity dissipates the blindness of credulity. Volt. Fanat. II. 6.

3. Arch. band, fillet ; string-course (in masonry) ; 4. valance (of window or bed curtains).

BANDELETTE, bând'lèt', [dim. of bande], sf. 1. bandelet, bandlet : a) narrow band ; b) Surg. small bandage ; c) Arch. fillet, a small flat moulding. Surg. Bandelettes agglutinatives, strips of adhesive plaster.

2. flat bar-iron.

BANDER, bândé-r, va. 1. to bind up, to bandage. — une blessure, to bind up (or bandage) a wound. — les yeux, to put a bandage over the eyes, to blindfold.

2. to bend (a bow), to set (or wind up) a spring, to cock (a gun or pistol) ; 3. to tighten (a cord) ; 4. Naut. to draw taught or taut (a cable or rope) ; 5. Arch. to key up or in (an arch). — son esprit, to bend (or apply) one's mind.

BANDER, vn. to be tight. Cette corde bande trop, this cord is too tight.

BANDER (SE), v. refl. 1. to bind up or bandage any part of one's person. Se — la jambe, to bind up (bandage or apply a bandage to) one's own leg. Se — les yeux, to blindfold one's self ; Fig. to shut one's eyes, to refuse to see.

2. to withstand, to resist, to stand stiff against ; 3. to band against. Il se bande contre ma volonté, mais je viendrai à bout de lui, he resists my will, but I shall manage him. Ils se sont tous bandés contre leur supérieur, they have all banded themselves against their superior.

BANDEREAU, bând'rô, sm. trumpet-sling, bugle-sling.

BANDEROLE, bând'rol', sf. 1. Naut. pendant, pennant ; 2. streamer, bandrol : flag used in public rejoicings ; 3. shoulder-belt, cross-belt ; 4. sling (of a musket). — de Montfaucon, gallows-bird : a rascal that deserves hanging.

BANDEROLÉ, E, bând'rolé, adj. Zool. striped, streaked.

BANDIÈRE, bândièr', sf. V. Bannière. En front de —, in battle array.

BANDINE, bândin', sf. Agr. buckwheat.

BANDIT, bândi ; the t is seldom pronounced in conversation ; in the pl. the s is heard as z before a vowel (Ital. : bandito), sm. 1. bandit : ruffian, robber ; 2. vagrant, vagabond. Il fut attaqué par quatre bandits, he was attacked by four robbers. Courir comme un — qui n'a ni feu ni lieu, to wander about like a vagabond without house or home. Être fait comme un —, to be dressed like a vagabond.

BANDOIR, bândwâr, sm. spring (of certain mechanisms used to tighten).

BANDOLIER, bândolyé, BANDOULIER, bândoulyé, [bande ; Span. : bandolero], sm. highwayman, brigand.

BANDOULIÈRE, bândoulyèr', [Span. : bandolera], sf. 1. Milit. bandoleer : cross-belt, formerly worn by infantry ; 2. shoulder-belt, belt (worn in France by game-keepers, beadles, etc.). Porter en —, to carry by a belt passing over one shoulder and under the opposite arm.

BANDURE, bândur', sf. Bot. pitcher-plant, nepenthes distillatoria.

BANIAN, baniân, [Eng. from Sans.), sm. 1. Banian : a Hindoo of the Banian (or trading) caste ; 2. (in France) a naval officer who engages in trade contrary to the rules of the service ; 3. Bot. banyan.

BANLIEUE, bânlyœ, [ban ; lieue], sf. outskirts, environs, dependencies (of a town).

BANNE, ban', [Lat. : benna], sf. 1. hamper (a large basket) ; 2. coal-cart ; 3. cart-, waggon-, boat-, or rick-cloth, tarpauling, tilt (when raised on hoops) ; 4. awning (to protect from the sun) ; 5. Min. corf or corb : a basket to draw up coal, ore, etc.

BANNEAU, banó, [banne], sm. 1. small hamper 2. cart, tumbril.

BANNER, bané-r, va. to cover (a cart, etc.) with a cloth or tarpauling to tilt.

BANNERET, ban'rè, the t is not heard in conversation ; in the pl. the s is pronounced as z before a vowel sm. banneret. [Adject. :] Chevalier- —, knight-banneret.

BANNETON, ban'tô*n*, sm. cauf : a perforated chest to keep fish in.

BANNETTE, banet', sf. small hamper or basket.

BANNI, E, bani, pa. p. ; adj. banished : a) sent into exile ; b) driven away, expelled, excluded. Ayant été — par un acte arbitraire, having been banished by an arbitrary act. — de la cour, banished (driven, excluded or dismissed) from the court.

BANNI, E, smf. exile : a banished person ; pl. the banished. Obtenir le rappel d'un —, to obtain the recall of an exile. Les bannis furent rappelés, the banished (or the exiles) were recalled.

BANNIÈRE, banyêr', (bande ; Low Lat. : bandum flag]. sf. banner : standard, flag, colours, streamer. Se ranger sous la — de quelqu'un, Fig. to side with (or take sides with) a person. Déployer sa —, to prepare for the fight. — de partance, Naut. blue-peter : flag announcing the immediate sailing of a vessel. La — d'une confrérie, d'une corporation, the banner of a confraternity, of a corporation. Les processions se battaient les unes contre les autres pour l'honneur de leurs bannières, the processions would fight each other for the honour of their banners. Volt. L. xiv. 2. V. Croix.

BANNIR, banir, [from O. Fr. ban, banishment], va. to banish : a) to exile ; b) to drive or send away, to dismiss, to exclude. Les Tarquins furent bannis, the Tarquins were banished (or exiled). Un décret le bannissait de l'Italie, a decree banished him from Italy. Vous le bannissez de votre présence, you banish him from your presence. — de son âme tout souci, to dismiss all care from one's mind. Il a banni le souvenir de vos bienfaits, he has banished the memory of your benefits. La crainte bannit la pitié, fear drives away pity (or compassion). L'inquiétude bannissait le sommeil, anxiety banished (or drove away) sleep. Mais il ne put sitôt en — la pensée, but he could not so soon banish (dismiss or drive away) the thought, Racine, Esther, I. 1.

BANNIR (SE), v. refl. 1. to banish (or exile) one's self ; 2. to keep aloof, to sever one's self from. Se — de la société, du monde, to keep aloof from society from the world.

BANNISSABLE, banisabl', adj. liable to be banished, deserving banishment.

BANNISSEMENT, banis'mân-t, sm. banishment : a) the act of banishing ; b) exile. Six ans après son —, six years after his banishment. Le — des Stuarts ne devait jamais finir, the banishment (or exile) of the Stuarts was destined never to end. Voltaire.

BANQUAIS, bâ*n*ké, [banc], sm. Naut. banker : vessel or seaman engaged in the Newfoundland fishery.

BANQUE, bâ*n*k', [Ital. : banca, bench on which the changers sat], sf. 1. banking business, banking. Faire la —, to carry on a banking business, to be a banker, to keep a bank.

2. bank : banking-house, banking-firm. Maison de —, banking-house (or firm). La maison de — Coutts et Cie est une des plus anciennes en Angleterre et en Europe, the banking-house (banking-firm or bank) of Coutts and Co, is one of the oldest in England and in Europe. Porter, mettre de l'argent à la —, to carry money to (or to put money in) the bank. Avoir un compte en —, to have an account open at a bank. Ouvrir un compte en —, to open a bank-account. Action de la —, bank share ; (in England) bank stock. Carnet de —, bank-book. — de circulation (or d'émission), bank of issue. — de dépôt, deposit bank. — d'escompte, discount bank. Billet de —, bank-note (payable on demand) ; bankbill, bank-post bill (payable at a certain date or at so many days' sight). Mandat sur une —, draft, cheque or order on a bank.

3. bank : among gamesters, the money deposited on the table by the player who stands against all the other players. Faire la —, to be banker. Faire sauter la —, to break the bank.

4. (in printing offices) payment (of wages). Jour de —, pay-day. Livre de —, wages-book, pay-book.

5. Naut. banker : vessel engaged in the Newfoundland fishery.

BANQUEREAU, bâ*n*krô, sm. Naut. small sand-bank.

BANQUEROUTE, bâ*n*krout', [Ital. : banca rotta], sf. bankruptcy. Faire —, to be (or to become) bankrupt. Faire — à, 1. to be bankrupt in, to fail in, to forfeit ; 2. to disappoint. Faire — à l'honneur, to be bankrupt in honour, to forfeit one's honour. Il devait être de notre partie, mais il nous a fait —, Fam. he ought to be of our party, but he has disappointed us. [French-law-t. :] — simple, bankruptcy caused by reckless trading or extravagance. — frauduleuse, fraudulent bankruptcy. La — simple est punie par un emprisonnement qui ne peut dépasser deux ans, simple bankruptcy is punishable by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years. La — frauduleuse est punie de travaux forcés, fraudulent bankruptcy is punished by penal servitude. V. Faillite.

BANQUEROUTIER, ÈRE, bâ*n*k'routyé, tyèr ; the r of the masc. is always mute, but the s of the plural is heard as z before a vowel, smf. 1. bankrupt. — frauduleux, fraudulent bankrupt. V. Banqueroute.

2. adj. bankrupt. Gouvernement —, bankrupt government.

BANQUET, bâ*n*ké ; the t is heard only in oratory ; in the pl. it is always mute and the s is heard as z before a vowel, [Ital. : —banchetto, dim. of banco], sm. banquet. — nuptial, nuptial banquet, wedding dinner. Salle de —, banquet-hall, banqueting-house. Le — sacré (or divin), the holy communion, the Lord's supper. Le — des élus, the banquet of the elect, the heavenly banquet. [Poet. :] — de la vie, de la nature, the banquet of life, the banquet (or feast) of nature.

BANQUETER, bâ*n*k'té-r, [Je banquète or banquette ; je banquèterai or banquetterai.] vn. to banquet : to feast, to fare daintily. Il aime à —, he likes good cheer.

BANQUETEUR, bâ*n*k'tœr, sm. banqueter : a lover of good cheer.

BANQUETTE, bâ*n*ket', [dim. de banc], sf. 1. bench : long seat generally covered and stuffed. Jouer devant les banquettes, Theat. to play to empty benches.

2. seat on the top of a coach, etc., knife-board (of an omnibus) ; 3. foot-path, foot-pavement (raised path by the side of a carriage-road) ; 4. Civ. Eng. service-path (by the side of a canal, railway, etc. ; in this sense the technical word is banquet or banquette) ; 5. Fort. banquette : foot-bank for musketeers behind the parapet ; 6. Arch. the wall between a window-sill and the floor ; 7. Join. wain-scoting, casing (of a window).

BANQUIER, bâ*n*kyé ; the r is always mute ; in the pl. the s is heard as z before a vowel, [banque] sm. banker : a) one who keeps a bank, money-dealer, money-agent, bill discounter ; b) the player who keeps the bank in games of chance c) Naut. banker : a vessel engaged in the Newfoundland cod-fishery.

BANQUISE, bâ*n*kiz', [banc ; Eng. : ice], sf. Naut. fast-ice, land-ice ; floating ice bank, iceberg.

BANQUISTE, bâ*n*kist', [banque, bench], sm. mountebank, juggler.

BANS, banz, sm. Hunt. litter for hounds.

BANSE, bâ*n*s', [Ger. : Banse, barn], sf. flat : a large square wicker basket.

BANTAM, bâ*n*tam, pr. n. Geog. Bantam : a kingdom in Java.

BANTAM, adj. bantam. Coq —, poulet —, bantam cock, bantam hen. Des bantams, bantams.

BANVILLE, bâ*n*vil, (Théodore de), poet (1823-1891).

† BANVIN, bâ*n*va*n*, [ban ; vin], sm. Feudal-t. wineban : a) a feudal lord's exclusive right to sell wine for a certain time after the vintage ; b) a proclamation fixing the date for the vassals to begin selling.

BAOBAB, baobad, sm. Bot. baobab, monkey-bread tree ; adansonia digitata.

† BAPAUME, bapôm, [orig. not known], sf. Nav. condition of a ship when unable to advance. En —, at a standstill.

BAPTÊME, batêm, [Gr. : βαπτίζω, I wash], sm. 1. baptism : a Christian sacrament, the administration of which to infants is colloquially styled christening by the members of the Anglican church. Nom de —, baptismal name, Christian name. Extrait de —, certificate of baptism. — de feu baptism of fire : the martyrdom of catechumens or unbaptized converts. — par immersion baptism by immersion, by dipping. — par aspersion, baptism by sprinkling. — du sang, baptism of blood : martyrdom. — de la ligne or des tropiques, Naut. baptism of the line given as a ducking : a practical joke and performed by sailors on persons who cross the Line (the equator) for the first time. — sous condition, hypothetical baptism : when administered to a person who may possibly have been previously baptized. Recevoir le —, to be baptized.

2. christening : a religious ceremony performed on naming bells, ships, etc.

BAPTISER, batizé-r, [Gr. : βαπτίζειν], va. 1. to baptize, Colloq. to christen. — par immersion, par aspersion, to baptize by immersion, by sprinkling. [Fig. and proverb.] Voilà un enfant bien difficile à —, that is no easy matter ; that is a difficult piece of business.

2. to christen : to name a ship, etc. with a certain ceremonial ; 3. to nickname (a person or thing) ; 4. to water, to mix water with (one's wine).

BAPTISEUR, baptizœr, sm. baptiser.

BAPTISMAL, E, batismal, al', adj. baptismal a) of or pertaining to baptism. Fonts baptismaux, the baptismal font. Eau baptismale, the water of baptism.

BAPTISTAIRE, batistêr, adj. 1. of baptism. Registre —, register of baptisms. Extrait —, certificate of baptism.

2. sm. certificate of baptism ; church (or parish) register.

BAPTISTE, batist', pnm. Baptist. Saint Jean —, St. John the Baptist.

BAPTISTÈRE, batistêr', sm. baptistery : place where baptism is administered.

BAQUET, baké-t ; the t is not heard in conversation ; the s of the pl. is pronounced as z before a vowel [dim. of bac], sm. 1. tub ; 2. Mason. tray (for mixing plaster) ; 3. Print. wetting-trough. — magnétique, magnetic tub ; Mesmer's tub.

BAQUETER, bak'té-r, va. to bale (water out of a tub, etc.

BAQUETURES, bak'tur', sf. pl. drippings (of wine, etc., in a tap-tub).

BAR, bar, [Ger. : Barsch, perch], sm. 1. Ichth. maigre, sciæna aquila ; 2. Herald. mullet.

BAR, bar, [Eng. : bar], sm. bar, drinking bar.

BARAGOUIN, baragwan, [forged from Low Breton : bara, bread ; gwin, wine], sm. gibberish : jabber, jargon. Je ne puis rien comprendre à ce —, I cannot understand a word of that gibberish.

BARAGOUINAGE, baragwinazh, sm. gibberish, jabber, jabbering.

BARAGOUINER, baragwiné-r, vn. 1. to talk gibberish. Ces étrangers croient parler français, ils ne font que —, those foreigners fancy they are speaking French, they are only talking gibberish.

2. to jabber applied contemptuously to persons speaking a foreign tongue. J'ai voyagé avec des étrangers qui n'ont fait que —, I have been travelling with foreigners who did nothing but bber.

BARAGOUINER, va. to jabber. Cet Allemand baragouine le français, that German mangles French, speaks French incorrectly. — un discours, to jabber a speech. Je ne me souviens jamais comment diantre ils baragouinent ce nom-là, I can never recollect how the deuce they pronounce that name. Mol. G. Dan. 1. 2.

BARAGUINEUR, EUSE, baragwinœr, œz, smf. jabberer.

BARANDAGE, barândazh', [perhaps from Proven. baranda, weir], sm. Fish. to net (a river) : to place a net across.

BARAQUE, barak', [Ital. : baraca, from barra, bar], sf. 1. barrack hut : temporary building to shelter soldiers, fishermen, etc. ; 2. booth, covered stall (in a fair) ; 3. hovel ; a paltry house. Sa maison n'est qu'une —, his house is but a hovel, a wretched hole. Quelle —, what a hovel !

BARAQUEMENT, barak'mân-t, sm. 1. hutting : a) erecting of huts ; b) lodging in huts ; 2. camp of huts.

BARAQUER, baraké-r, va. to hut : to lodge soldiers in huts.

BARAQUER (SE), v. refl. to hut or house one's self. Les soldats se baraquèrent comme ils parurent, the soldiers housed themselves as best they could.

BARATE, barat', sf. Naut. strip of canvass (to strengthen a sail).

BARATERIE, barat'ri, sf. Naut. barratry : fraud committed by the captain of a ship to the prejudice of owners or insurers.

BARATTAGE, baratazh', sm. churning (milk or cream).

BARATTE, barat', [Celt. : barax, tub], sf. Agr. churn. — commune, plunge churn. — flamande, barrel churn.

BARATTER, baraté-r, va. to churn.

BARBACANE, barbakan', [Ar. : barbak-kaneh, a towered gateway], sf. 1. Fort. barbican (or barbacan) : a) loop-hole in the wall of a fortress ; b) tower or outwork to defend a town-gate or a bridge ; 2. Civ. Eng. weeping-hole : small opening like a loop-hole in a retaining wall to allow water to escape from behind it ; 3. slit (in a cellar-door, for ventilation).

† BARBACOLE, barbacol, [from Barbacola, schoolmaster in the Carnaval of Lulli (1675), sm. pedagogue, pedant.

BARBACOU, barbakou, [barbe à cou], sm. Ornith. barbacou, monasa.

BARBADE, barbad', s. Geogr. Barbadoes, Barbados : one of the windward Islands belonging to the Lesser Antilles. Jambe de —, Barbadoes leg : a disease similar to the elephantiasis of the Arabs.

BARBARE, barbar', [Gr. : βάρβαρος, stranger], adj. 1. barbarian : Greek and Roman Hist. foreign to Greece or Rome. Les rois barbares, the barbarian kings. [Subst. :] Les barbares de la Germanie, the barbarians of Germany. Il se réfugia dans le pays des barbares, he took refuge in the country of the barbarians.

2. barbarous : a) uncivilized, savage, barbarian ; b) incorrect, uncouth (as language or style) ; c) cruel, inhuman, savage, brutal. a) Peuples sauvages et barbares, savage and barbarous nations. b) Cette manière de parler est —, that mode of speech is barbarous. Un style —, a barbarous (or barbaric) style. Ces peuplades parlent une langue —, those hordes speak a barbarous language. c) Un homme —, a barbarous (or cruel) man.

BARBARE, sm. barbarian. Ces gens-là sont sans pitié, ce sont des barbares, those people have no pity (feeling or compassion), they are barbarians. Cet homme est sans goût et incapable d'apprécier les beautés de l'art, c'est un —, that man is destitute of taste and incapable of appreciating the beauties of art ; he is a barbarian, a Goth, a Vandal.

BARBARÉE, barbaré, [Lat. : barbara], sf. Bot. treacle mustard, erysimum babarea.

BARBAREMENT, barbar'mân-t, adv. barbarously, cruelly.

BARBARESQUE, barbaresk', [Ital. : barbaresco], adj. Barbary, of Barbary. Les Etats barbaresques, the Barbary States. Corsaire —, a Barbary (or Moorish) corsair.

BARBARESQUES, sm. pl. the Moors (of Barbary). Ils sont en guerre, avec les — they are at war with the Moors, with the Barbary States.

BARBARIE, barbari, [Lat. : Barbaria], sf. 1. barbarism : barbarousness, absence of civilization, learning or refinement. Les siècles de —, the ages of barbarism, the barbarous ages. Charlemagne lutta contre la —, Charlemagne struggled against barbarism. Vivre dans un temps de —, to live in barbarous times. — de language, barbarousness (or barbarism) of language.

2. barbarity : a) barbarousness, cruelty, inhumanity ; b) a barbarous act. Ils exercèrent leur — sur les vaincus, they exercised their barbarity on the vanquished. Faire un acte de —, to commit a barbarous act. Tant de barbaries l'avaient rendu la terreur de ses sujets, so many barbarities had made him the terror of his subjects. Les barbaries commises par les Espagnols dans le nouveau monde, the barbarities committed by the Spaniards in the new world.

3. Geog. Barbary, the Barbary States.

BARBARIN, barbarân, sm. Ichth. surmullet.

BARBARINE, barbarin', sf. Bot. warted (or Barbary) gourd, cucurbita verrucosa.

BARBARISER, barbarizé-r, vn. to barbarize : to use barbarisms in speaking or writing.

BARBARISME, barbarism', sm. barbarism : a) Gram. a form of speech contrary to the purity and exactness of language ; b) an offence against, or infringement of any rule. De fréquents barbarismes déshonorent les ouvrages de ce grand orateur, frequent barbarisms disfigure the works of this great orator. Chateaub. Gén. III. 4. 2. — de phrase, incorrect form of speech.

BARBE, barb', [Lat. : barba], sf. 1. beard : a) the hair on the chin, lips and cheeks or men ; Fig. the face, a person with a beard ; b) hair hanging from the under-jaw of the goat, bison, etc. ; c) bristles on the muzzle of cats, tigers, etc., whiskers, smellers ; d) bristles or feathers about the beak of certain birds ; e) chuck, the underside of a horse's jaw against which the curb-chain presses ; f) the brushy end of a plate of whalebone, whale-fin ; g) vane, web (of a quill or feather) ; h) minute fungi forming masses of mould on the surface of organic bodies ; d) awn of barley, wheat, etc. ; j) Bot. barb, a bristly growth on certain plants ; k) Astron. a luminous train issuing from the nucleus of a comet on the side opposite to the tail. a) — blanche, — grise, a white beard, a gray beard. — vénérable, a venerable beard. — rase, a shaven beard. Porter la — longue, to wear a long beard. Porter toute sa —, to wear a full beard. Faire la — à quelqu'un, to shave a person ; Fig. to beard, to get the better of (or have the advantage over) a person. Se faire la —, faire sa —, to shave one's self, to trim one's beard. Se faire faire la —, to get shaved, to get one's self shaved. Se teindre la —, to dye one's beard. Un bassin (or plat) à —, a barber's bassin, a shaving dish. Brosse à —, shaving-brush. Jours de —, shaving days. [Fig. :] Faire (or dire) quelque chose à la — de quelqu'un, to do (or say) a thing to a person's face, to beard a person. Rire dans sa —, to laugh in one's sleeve, in one's beard ; to rejoice in secret. Une jeune —, a young man, a downy-cheeked youth. Une —-bleue, a blue-beard. Une — grise, une vieille —, a gray beard, an old man. b) La — d'un bouc, d'un singe, d'un bison, the beard of a goat, of a monkey, of a bison. Avoir une — de bouc, to wear a billy goat, a pointed beard. f) Barbes de baleine, whale's beard, whalebones, whale fins : this last, though incorrect, is the common name in the trade. h) Ces confitures ont de la —, these preserves are mouldy, are covered with mould, [Fig. :] Prendre de la — en route, to get mouldy by the way : to be a long time on the way. Prov.: A barbe de fou, on apprend à raire (raser), on a fool's beard the barber learns to shave. Barbe rousse et noirs cheveux, ne t'y fie si tu ne veux, trust not a man with a red beard and black hair. Barbe bien étuvée est à demi rasée, a beard lathered is half shaved. Du côté de la barbe est la toute-puissance, man rules the roost.

2. gill, wattle (of a cock, of a turkey, etc.) ; 3. barbel, barbule, wattle (filament hanging from the lower jaw of other fishes) ; 4. fin (of the turbot and other flat-fish) ; 5. lappel, barb (of a woman's head-dress) ; 6. ear-lap- [pet of a travellingcap) ; 7. curtain (of a velvet half-mask) : a row of lace falling over the mouth and chin ; 8. Technol. rough edge (of castings and other metal work) ; 9. deckle : rough edge of uncut paper ; 10. barb : the recurved point of arrows, fish hooks, etc. ; 11. pl. Vet. surg. barbels : folds of mucous membrane under the tongue of a horse or an ox.

12. Bot. (the first element in the name of many plants) : — à Dieu, clematis vitalba, traveller's joy. — de bouc, de chèvre, purple goal's beard. — de capucin, wild chicory or succory. Petite — de chèvre, meadow-sweet, queen of the meadow. — de Jupiter, Jupiter's beard, houseleek. — de moine, dodder. — de renard, astragalus, sweet milk vetch, wild liquorice.

13. Naut. end (of a plank) ; head (of a ship. Etre mouillé en — d'un vaisseau, to be moored ahead of a vessel. Faire — au vent, to meet, face (or go against) the wind. Tirer en —, (ou à barbette), to fire over a parapet or bulwark (not through an embrasure or porthole).

BARBE, sm. 1. barb, Barbary horse ; Poet. barbary ; 2. adj. Barbary, Cheval —, barb, Barbary horse.

BARBÉ, E, barbé, adj. 1. Herald. barbed, wattled : in speaking of a cock with wattles of a different tincture ; 2. Bot. barbate, barbated, barbellate : bearded, ringent.

BARBEAU, barbô, sm. 1. Ichth. barbel ; 2. Bot. blue-bottle, blue-centaury. [Adjectiv. :] Bleu —, light blue : colour of the blue-bottle. Soie —, light-blue silk.

BARBELÉ, E, barb'lé, adj. barbed, bearded. Des flèches barbelées, barbed arrows. Réseaux de fils de fer barbelés, barbed wire entanglement.

BARBERIE, barbœri, 1. sf. the barber's trade ; 2. barber's shop.

BARBERON, barb'rô*n*, sm. Bot. salsify.

BARBET, ETTE, barbè-t, bèt', [barbe], smf. and adj. 1. barbet, water dog, poodle. Un chien —, a poodle dog, Une chienne barbette, a poodle bitch. Être crotté comme un —, to be all over dirt.

2. Fig. police spy ; 3. Ichth. red gurnet.

BARBETTE, barbèt', sf. 1. whimple (worn by certain nuns) ; 2. Milit. barbette a platform from which guns can be fired over a parapet. [Fig. :] Coucher à la —, to sleep on a mattress laid on the floor. Tirer en —, to fire in barbette.

BARBEY D'AUREVILLY, barbé d'orevyi (Jules), novelist (1808-1889).

BARBEYER, barbèyé-r, vn. Naut. to shiver (as a sail in the wind).

BARBICHE, barbish, [barbe], sf. 1. a small beard, a billy-goat beard ; 2. Bot. nigella, devil-in-a-mist, devil-in-a-bush ; 3 bitch barbet (or poodle).

BARBICHET, barbishè-t, BARBICHON, barbishô*n*, [dim. of barbet], sm. 1. little barbet, barbet pup ; 2. a superstitious and ignorant ecclesiastic.

BARBIER, barbié, [barbe], sm. barber : shaver. Garçon —, a journeyman barber. Chirurgien- —, barber-surgeon. Prov. : Un barbier rase l'autre, claw me and I'll claw thee.

BARBIER, (Antoine-Alexandre), biographe (1763-1825) ; — (Henri-Auguste), poet (1805 1882) ; — (Jules), dramatic author (1825-1901).

BARBIER D'AUCOUR, barbié dôcour, prose-writer (1641 1694).

BARBIFÈRE, barbifèr', [Lat. : barbe, beard ; ferre, to bear), adj. Bot. bearded, barbate, barbellate.

BARBIFIÉ, E, barbifié, adj. barbified, shaven, trimmed.

BARBIFIER, barbifié-r, [Je barbifiais, nous barbifiions ; que je barbifie, que nous barbifiions.] va. to barbify, to shave. Se faire —, to get shaved.

BARBIFIER (SE), v. refl. to shave one's self.

BARBILLE, barbiy', sf. burr : rough edge of blanks for coins.

BARBILLON, barbiyô*n*, [barbe], sm. 1. Ichth. young barbel ; 2. gill or wattle (of a cock), wattle (of a turkey) ; 3. barbule, barbel, wattle : a vermiform process appended to the mouth of certain fishes ; 4. barb : the recurved point of an arrow, fish-hook, etc. ; 5. pl. Vet. Surg. barbels, barbles : membranous folds under a horse's or an ox's tongue : 6. Falc. a disease of the tongue (in hawks).

BARBILLONNER, barbiyoné-r, va. to raise the barb (of a fish-hook).

BARBIROSTRE, barbirostr', [Lat. : barba, beard ; rostrum, beak], adj. Ornith. barbirostral : having bristles about the beak.

BARBITON, barbitô*n*, [Gr.], sm. Mus. barbiton : a kind of lyre.

BARBON, barbô*n*' [barbe], sm. 1. (always in a disparaging sense) graybeard, dotard, fogey : all these words are generally qualified by old. Lui déjà vieux —, elle jeune et jolie, he already an old graybeard, she young and pretty. La Font. Enfant au premier acte et — au dernier, a child in the first act, a dotard, in the last, Boileau, Art. p. 3. Faire le —, to play the old man, to set up for a sage : to be grave or serious beyond one's years.

2. Bot. andropogon, sweet-flag.

BARBOTAGE, barbotazh', [barboter], sm. 1. dabbling, paddling, splashing (in water or mud) ; 2. Agr. mash : bran and water for horses, etc.

BARBOTE, barbot', sf. 1. Ichth. burbot, eel-pout ; 2. Bot. vetch.

BARBOTEAU, barbotô, sm. Ichth. loach, loche.

BARBOTEMENT, barbot'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. dabbling, paddling, splashing about ; 2. sputtering, spluttering.

BARBOTER, barboté-r, [onoma.], vn. 1. to dabble, paddle (in water or mud). Les canards aiment à —, ducks like to dabble (or grope about) in mud.

2. to puddle, dabble, wade or splash about (in water or mud). On barbote dans les rues, one has to wade in the streets ; the streets are very muddy.

3. Naut. to duck : to bob up and down without making way ; Fig. to make little progress.

4. to sputter, to splutter, to mumble : to speak indistinctly.

BARBOTER, va. 1. to sputter or splutter out, to mumble ; 2. Slang. to pilfer, to steal. Grondant entre mes dents, je barbote une excuse, grumbling between my teeth, I mumble an excuse. Réynier, Sat. 10.

BARBOTEUR, barbotœr, sm. the common duck.

BARBOTEUSE, barbotœz', sf. drab, draggle-tail, street-walker.

BARBOTIÈRE, barbotyèr', sf. duckpond.

BARBOTIN, barbotâ*n*, sm. Slang. 1. thing stolen, theft ; 2. stealing, thieving.

BARBOTINE, barbotin', sf. wormwood flowers ; santonica (in the British Pharmacopœia).

BARBOUDE, barboud', sf. Geog. Barbuda : one of the Carribee Islands.

BARBOUILLAGE, barbouyazh', sm. 1. daubing, coarse painting on a wall, ceiling, etc. ; 2. daub : a worthless painting or picture ; 3. scrawl, scribble : illegible writing, 4. rigmarole : a disconnected speech or literary composition. Ce tableau n'est qu'un affreux —, that picture is only a hideous daub. Je ne puis déchiffrer ce —, I cannot decipher this scrawl. Je ne comprends rien à tout ce —, I can make nothing of all this rigmarole.

BARBOUILLÉ, E, barbouyé, pa. p. ; adj. 1. daubed, smeared, besmeared ; 2. bescrawled, bescribbled ; 3. blotted (with ink). Tout — de boue, all bedaubed with dirt. Un nez — de tabac, a nose begrimed with snuff, a snuffy nose.

BARBOUILLER, barbouyé-r, [origin uncertain ; perhaps bar as a prefix ; bouille ; O. Fr. for bourbier], va. 1. to daub : a) to bedaub, to besmear, to soil, to dirty, to begrime, to blot (paper with ink) ; b) to paint coarsely. Ses camarades l'ont barbouillé de boue, his companions have daubed, (bedaubed or besmeared) him all over with mud. Il se barbouilla le front avec des mûres, he bedaubed his forehead with mulberries. — d'encre une page, to blot (daub, bedaub or besmear) a page with ink. Cet écolier barbouille tous ses cahiers, this pupil blots all his copybooks. Je me suis barbouillé les mains, I have soiled my hands. Il a fait — de jaune toutes les portes de sa maison, he has had all the doors of his house daubed with yellow.

2. to scrawl, to scribble ; to spoil or waste (paper, with worthless writing). — du papier, to scrible over (to spoil) paper. Cet auteur a barbouillé bien du papier dans sa vie et n'a jamais écrit une bonne page, that author has spoilt a vast deal of paper in his day, and has never written one good page, Trévoux.

3. to blacken, to disparage, to run down. Elle se croit offensée, et elle est femme à vous — terriblement dans le monde, she thinks herself offended (or injured) and she is a woman to blacken you terribly in the world, Dancourt, Chev. à la mode III. 2.

4. to sputter, to splutter, to mumble : all these words may be followed by out. Il nous barbouilla je ne sais quelle excuse, he sputtered (or mumbled) out I do not know what excuse. — un discours, un compliment, to splutter (or mumble) out a speech, a compliment.

5. to muddle, to jumble, to bungle : a) to state or relate confusedly ; b) to bemuddle, to render muddle or confused. Je ne sais pas comment il a barbouillé cette histoire, mais je n'y ai pas compris un mot, I do not know how he muddled up that story, but I did not understand a word of it. Il nous a barbouillé une théorie à laquelle personne n'a rien compris, he gave us a muddled sketch of a theory which no one could understand.

BARBOUILLER, vn. 1. to daub : to paint badly. Il barbouilla longtemps sans rien faire de reconnaissable, he daubed a long while without producing any thing worth owning.

2. to scrawl. to scribble : a) to write a bad hand, to write without order or method. Il n'écrit pas, il barbouille, he does not write, he scrawls.

3. to sputter, to splutter, to mumble : to speak indistinctly or confusedly. Il ne peut pas dire quatre mots sans —, he cannot say four words without spluttering, without making a muddle of them. Il a barbouillé tout le long de son discours, he spluttered all through his speech ; he made a muddle of his speech.

BARBOUILLER (SE), v. refl. 1. to daub one's self : to bedaub, to smear, besmear, or begrime one's self. L'enfant s'est barbouillé de confiture, the child has besmeared himself with jam. Je me suis bien barbouillé les doigts, I have bedaubed my fingers finely.

2. Fig. Se — de grec et de latin, to cram one's self with Greek and Latin, Mol. F. Sav. IV. 3.

3. to compromise one's self. Cet homme s'est bien barbouillé, that man has sadly compromised himself, sadly injured his reputation.

4. to lower, to get cloudy (as the sky). Le ciel, le temps se barbouille, the sky, the weather is getting cloudy : the weather is changing to rain.

BARBOUILLEUR, barbouyœr, sm. 1. dauber : a) coarse painter, lime or whitewasher ; b) sorry painter (of pictures), J'ai fait venir un — pour blanchir ce mur, I have sent for a painter to whiten that wall.

2. scribber, scrawler : a) one who writes a bad hand ; b) a sorry author. Allez, petit grimaud, — de papier, go you little scribbler, pitiful quill-driver, Mol. F. Sav. III. v.

3. babbler, driveller : idle talker. Faites taire ce — ! silence that driveller !

BARBOUILLON, barbouyô*n*, sm. smatterer. Il était vraiment musicien, et je n'étai qu'un —, he was really a musician, and I only a smatterer.

BARBOUTE, barbout', sf. moist sugar over-charged with syrup.

BARBU, E, barbu, [barbe], adj. 1. bearded ; 2. Bot. barbate, barbated, bearded. Homme —, bearded man. Comète barbue, bearded comet. Blé —, bearded wheat.

BARBU, sm. Ornith. barbet : a tropical bird of the order scansores.

BARBUE, barbu, sf. Ichth. brill.

BARBULE, barbul, [dim. of barbe], sf. Nat. Hist. barbule : said of the small hooks on the barb of feathers.

BARBURE, barbur', [barbe], sf. Found. beard : rough edges of a casting.

BARCAROLLE, barkarol', [Ital. : barca, boat], sf. Mus. barcarolle (boat-song).

BARCASSE, barkas', sf. Naut. an old tub : a wretched ship.

BARCELONE, barsœlon', s. Geogr. Barcelona : the chief town of Catalonia, in Spain.

BARCELONNETTE, barsœlonèt', sf. V. BERCELONNETTE.

BARD, bar, [Ger. : Bahre, stretcher, sm. hand-barrow, a sort of stretcher.

BARDAGE, barddazh', [bard], sm. conveyance, conveying on a hand-barrow.

BARDANE, bardan, [Low Lat. : bardana], sf. Bot. burdock..

BARDE, bard', [Ital. : barda, caparison], sf. 1. barb or bard : armour for a horse ; 2. bard : thin sheet of bacon wrapped round a fowl, etc., for roasting.

BARDE, [Celtic origin ; Lat. : bardus], sm. bard ' a) a Celtic minstrel ; Fig. a poet.

BARDÉ, E, bardé, pa. p. 1. barded : a) covered with defensive armour, as a horse ; b) larded, covered with a thin broad slice of bacon, as a fowl for roasting. Un poulet — de lard, a pullet larded with (or wrapped) in bacon.

2. covered (or loaded) with. — de cordons, covered with knightly orders.

3. Fig. interlarded. Un ouvrage — de proverbes, de latin et de grec, a work interlarded with proverbs, with Latin and Greek.

4. Herald. caparisoned : said of a horse.

5. carried on a hand-barrow.

BARDEAU, bardô, [bard], sm. 1. shingle : thin board used for covering roofs instead of tiles ; 2. Bot. wayfaring tree, viburnum lantana ; 3. Print. case for spare sorts, fount-case.

BARDELLE, bardèl', [dim. of bard], sf. 1. pannel : a kind of rustic saddle ; 2. bullion-bar : the arm of a glass-maker's table.

BARDER, bardé-r, va. 1. to bard : to put armour on a horse ; 2. Cook. to lard : to envelop with bards (slices of bacon) ; 3. to load (stone) on a barrow or lorry.

BARDEUR, bardœr, sm. barrow-man, lorry-man (in a stone-yard).

BARDIS, bardi, sm. 1. Naut. partition (in a ship's hold, to separate different kinds of corn laden in bulk) ; 2. water-board (to widen a gangway).

BARDIT, bardit, [barde], sm. bardit : war-song of the ancient Germans.

BARDOIRE, bardwâr, sf. cockchafer.

BARDOT, bardo, [barde, sort of saddle ; Ital. : bardotto], sm. 1. hinny : the off spring of a she-ass by a stallion ; 2. drudge : a workman on whom all disagreeable jobs are thrust by his companions ; 3. butt, laughing-stock : object of ridicule ; 4. Print. waste paper.

BARÈGE, barèzh', [from Barèges, a village in the pyrenees], sm. barege : a thin tissue for ladies' dresses.

BAREGES, barézh', s. Geog. Bareges : a watering-place in the pyrenees.

BARÈGINE, barégin', sf. Chem. baregine : a substance found in the sulphurous springs of Bareges.

BARÊME, barêm', [from François Barrême, author of Comptes faits or ready reckoner ; 1640-1703], sm. ready-reckoner.

BARET, baré, BARRIT, sm. the roar of the elephant.

BARET, [Eugène], prose-writer and translator (1816-1887).

BARETTE, barèt, sf. Crochet and Needle-w., small bar (connecting two adjacent parts).

BARFOUL, barfoul, [Span. : barfol], sm. coarse calico used by negroes for waist-cloths.

BARGE, barzh', [Low Lat. : barga, boat], sf. 1. barge : a large boat with a square sail used on the Loire ; 2. Agr. hayrick.

3. Ornith. godwit : limosa. — commune ou — à queue noire, black-tailed godwit. — rousse, — aboyeuse, ou — à queue rayée, bar-ailed godwit.

BARGUETTE, barghèt, [barge], sf. ferry-boat (for cattle).

BARGUIGNAGE, barghinyazh', sm. 1. bargaining, haggling, chaffering ; 2. Fig. wavering, hesitating, hesitation.

BARGUIGNER, barghinyé-r, [Low Lat. : barcaniâre to bargain], vn. 1. to bargain. to higgle or haggle, to chaffer ; 2. Fig. to hesitate, to waver ; Colloq. to boggle, to hang fire, to hum and haw. — avec un marchand, to haggle (or chaffer) with a dealer. — pour dire son opinion, to hesitate in giving one's opinion. A quoi bon tant — et tant tourner autour du pot ? what is the good of so much haggling and beating about the bush ?

BARGUIGNEUR, EUSE, barghinyœr, œz', smf. higgler, haggler, boggler.

BARGUILLE, barghiy', sf. Agr. reed, boon or shove : the woody fibre of hemp.

BARIGOULE, barigoul', [Proven. : barigoulo], sf. 1. Bot. a kind of edible mushroom ; 2. Cook. : Artichauts à la —, artichokes fried in oil.

BARIL, bari ; the l is always mute ; the s of the plural is heard as z before a vowel, (of doubtful origin,), sm. 1. barrel, cask, keg. Un — d'huile, d'anchois, a barrel of oil, of anchovies. Mille harengs font un —, a thousand herrings make a barrel. Le — de poudre contient 50 kilogrammes, a barrel of powder contains 50 kilogr. (110lb. 40 z. avoirdupois).

2. Milit. fire-barrel : a cask filled with grenades, etc. ; 3. barrel-spring (to make a door shut) · 4. box of tin-plate : 450 sheets.

BARILLAGE, bariyazh', sm. 1. barrel-making, cask-making : 2. Naut. casks containing stores.

BARILLE, bariy', [Span. : barilla], sf. 1. Bot. saltwort, salsola soda ; 2. Comm. barilla : crude soda ash, impure carbonate of soda.

BARILLERIE, bariyœri, sf. cask or barrel-making.

BARILLET, bariyè, [baril], sm. 1. small barrel, rundlet, cask or keg : 2. Horol. barrel : the round box containing the mainspring of a watch or clock ; 3. Jewel. casket (in the form of a barrel) ; 4. barrel or chamber (of a pump, in which the piston works) ; 5. Anat. middle-ear : the cavity of the tympanum ; 6. cylinder of a revolver. Un — d'huîtres, a keg of oysters. Un — de rhum, a rundlet of rum. Un — de figues, a drum of figs.

BARILLON, bariyô*n*, [baril], sm. 1. small barrel ; 2. tank (for fish).

BARIOLAGE, bariolazh', sm. medley, mixture (of various colours) : variegation, variegatedness. Le — des plumes de cet oiseau, the medley of colours in the feathers of that bird. [Fig. :] Un — d'expressions étranges, d'idées incohérentes, a medley (or patchwork) of strange (odd, ill-assorted) expressions, of incoherent ideas.

BARIOLÉ, E, bariolé, adj. motley, piebald ; many-coloured, many-hued, party-coloured, divers-coloured ; variegated, checkered, diapered : presenting a variety of contrasting (or ill-assorted) colours. Des champs bariolés comme un riche tapis, fields diapered like a rich carpet. — de rouge, de bleu et de blanc, comme le valet de carreau, variegated with red, blue, and white, like the knave of diamonds. Les murs étaient bariolés d'hiéroglyphes, the walls were checkered with hieroglyphs. Style —, a checkered (or piebald) style.

BARIOLER, bariolé-r, [origin unknown], va. to paint or colour with contrasting (or ill-assorted) tints ; to daub with a motley mixture of colours ; to variegate, to checker, to diaper.

BARITEL, baritèl, sm. Technol. whim elevator, hoisting machine. — à chevaux, a horse-whim.

BARIUM, BARYUM, bariœm, sm. Chem. barium.

BARLE, barl', sf. Min. fault (in a seam of coal).

BARLONG, GUE, barlô*n*, ông', [bar, as a prefix ; long], adj. 1. oblong : (said of an elongated parallelogram, and more especially of a quadrangle having two parallel and unequal sides) ; 2. lopsided : (in speaking of garments) having one side longer than the other.

BARLOTIÈRE, barlotyer, sf. Technol. thin cross bar to strengthen window frames.

BARNABÉ, barnabé, pnm. Barnabas.

BARNABITE, barnabit', sm. barnabite : a monk of an order so called.

BARNACHE, barnash', BARNACLE, barnakl', BARNICLE, barnikl', (perhaps from Irish bairneach), sf. Ornith. barnacle or bernicle, barnacle (or bernicle) goose ; anser bernicla or leucopsis. — à collier, brent goose brent barnacle. V. Bernacle.

BAROLOGIE, barolozhi, [Gr. : βάρος, weight ; λόγος, discourse], sf. Phys. barology : the science of weight or gravity.

BAROMÈTRE, baromètr', [Gr. : βάρος, weight ; μέτρον, measure], sm. barometer : a) Phys. an instrument to measure the pressure of the atmosphere ; b) Fig. the whole of the symptoms indicating the state of individual or public feeling or opinion. — à cuvette, cistern barometer — à siphon, siphon barometer. — a tube incliné ou en équerre, diagonal barometer. — à cadran ou à poulie, wheel-barometer. — anéroide, aneroid barometer. — métallique ou de Bourdon, Bourdon's barometer, the metallic barometer (constructed on the principle of the metallic manometer or steam-gauge). Le — est à pluie, à beau fixe, the barometer is (or stands) at rain, at set fair. Le — de l'opinion publique, the barometer of public opinion.

BAROMÉTRIQUE, barométrik', adj. barometric, barometrical. Vide —, Torricellian vacuum.

BAROMÉTROGRAPHE, barométrograf', [Gr. : βάρος, weight ; μέτρον, measure ; γράφειν, to write], sm. barometrograph : self-registering barometer.

BARON, barõn [ety. doubtful ; Low Lat. : baro, —onem ; O. Fr. : barum ; Celt. : bar, hero], sm. 1. baron : a title of nobility ; 2. Fig. prince, leading-man, chief. Les hauts barons de la finance, du commerce, de l'industrie, the princes of the moneyed, the mercantile and manufacturing interests.

3. Old-law-t. husband. Il fallait qu'une femme fut autorisée par son —, it was necessary for a wife to be authorised by her husband. Montesq. Esp. des Lois. xxviii. 25.

BARON, (Michel Beyron), comic writer and actor (1653-1729).

BARONNAGE, baronazh', sm. baronage : a) the whole body of the barons ; b) the dignity of baron.

BARONNE, baron', sf. baroness : a) formerly, a noble lady possessing a barony ; b) in modern usage, the wife of a baron.

BARONNET, baronè-t, sm. baronet : an English title.

BARONNIAL, E, baronial, al', adj. baronial. Droits baronniaux, baronial rights.

BARONNIE, baroni, sf. barony : an estate giving the title of baron.

BAROQUE, barok', [Span. : barrueco], adj. 1. irregular ; rough, ill-shaped, in speaking of pearls : 2. Fig. odd, strange, queer, queer-looking, uncouth ; whimsical, fantastic. Perle —, an ill-shaped (or imperfect) pearl. Un collier de perles baroques, a necklace of irregular pearls. Un meuble —, a queer-looking piece of furniture. Un costume —, an uncouth costume. Un chapeau —, a queer-looking hat ; (in slang language) a queer tile. Expression, style —, strange expression, odd (queer or whimsical) style.

BAROQUERIE, barok'ri, sf. 1. oddness, queerness ; 2. oddity, whimsicality.

BAROSCOPE, baroskop', [Gr. : βάρος, weight ; σκοπεῖν, to examine], sm. Phys. baroscope : a sort of barometer.

BAROSME, barosm', [Gr. : βάρυς, heavy ; ὀσμή, smell], sm. Bot. barosma : a genus of S. African strong-scented evergreen rutaceous shrubs.

BAROT, báro (François-Odysse), novelist (b. 1830).

BAROTHERMOGRAPHE, barotermograf, [Gr. : βάρος, weight ; θερμός, hot ; γράφειν, to write], sm. barothermograph : instrument for recording both temperature and pressure, in the atmosphere.

BARQUE, bark', [Ital. : barca], sf. 1. boat : barge, lighter, small sailing vessel ; 2. Fig. and Poet. bark. — de pêcheur, fishing-boat. — pontée, decked boat. Les marins donnent le nom de — aux bâtiments qui jaugent moins de 150 tonneaux, sailors apply the word barque to vessels of less than 150 tons' burden. Conduire la —, to steer the boat ; Fig. to conduct (or manage) an enterprise. Il a bien conduit sa —, he has well managed his affairs. La — de Saint-Pierre, the Catholic church. La — de Caron, (in pop. lang., — à Caron), Charon's bark (or ferryboat). Passer la — à Caron, to pass the Styx, to die.

BARQUÉE, barké, sf. boat-load, boat-ful.

BARQUEROLLE, bark'rol', sf. 1. canal boat, barge, lighter ; 2. (in the Adriatic) boat, wherry.

BARQUETTE, barkèt sf. 1. small boat ; 2. piece of pastry in the shape of a boat ; 3. box or tray (for carrying hot viands).

BARRAGE, barazh', [barre], sm. 1. barrier (across a street or road) ; 2. toll-bar, toll-gate ; 3. toll : money paid to pass a toll-gate ; 4. bar (of rocks across a river) ; 5. barrage : dam or weir to raise the level of a river for navigation.

BARRAS, barà, sm. Comm. barras, galipot : a kind of resin which exudes from the white pine.

BARRE, bar', [orig. apparently Celt., but unknown, common to all European languages), sf. 1. bar : a) a piece of wood, iron or other substance, long in proportion to its breadth and thickness ; b) a fastening for a door, etc. ; c) ingot of gold or silver ; d) a piece of wood placed across the middle of the heads of wine-casks to strengthen them ; e) swing-bar (to separate horses in a stable) ; f) lever of a coining or cutting press, etc. ; g) a barrier separating the part of a hall occupied by the judges, etc. of a tribunal, or the members of a political assembly from the space allotted to strangers, etc. ; h) Herald. a line drawn diagonally across the shield ; i) Mus. a line drawn perpendicularly across the staff, the space included between two such lines ; j) obstacle, hinderance, barrier ; k) Old-law-t. peremptory exception entirely cutting off a plaintiff's claim ; l) Hydrog., a line of sandbanks or rocks obstructing the entrance of a river or port.

a) — de bois, de fer, a wooden bar, an iron bar. — d'appui, a hand-rail : a breast-high bar across a window. Une — de cheminée, cross-bar, fire-bar (laid across dog-irons to keep the fire from falling). Donner des coups de — à quelqu'un, to cudgel a person soundly. Jeter, lancer la —, to throw the bar ; to play at throwing the bar. [Fig. :] Cet homme est une — de fer, that man is as inflexible, as unyielding, as an iron bar.

b) Il serait malaisé d'enfoncer cette porte il y a une bonne — derrière, it would be no easy matter to burst open that door, there is a strong bar behind it.

e) — d'or, d'argent, bar of gold, of silver ; gold bar, silver bar. Or en —, argent en —, bar gold, bar silver. [Fig. :] C'est de l'or en —, it is as good as hard cash, as good as ready money. Oh ! s'il n'était pas mort, c'était de l'or en —, oh ! if he were not dead, it would be gold for me. Reg. Joueur, III. 3.

d) Il faut percer ce muid au-dessus de la —, au-dessous de la —, that cask must be tapped above the bar, below the bar. Etre au-desous de la —, to be more than half gone ; Fig. to be on the decline, to be deteriorating, to be getting the worse for wear. Il a soixante-dix-neuf ans : l'esprit n'est-il pas au-dessous de la — à cet âge ? he is seventy-nine years old ; is not the mind getting the worse for wear, getting below par (or below the mark) at that age ?

g) Les comparutions en personne ont lieu à la — de la cour, appearance in person is made at the bar of the court. Il a parlé à la —, he spoke at the bar. Se présenter à la — d'un tribunal, to appear at the bar of a tribunal.

h) Il porte de gueules à la — d'argent, he bears gules with a bar argent. — de bâtardise, bastard bar, bend sinister. Ces bâtards de Bourbon ont changé leur — de bâtards en bande comme les princes de cette maison, these Bourbon bastards have changed their bastard bar into a bend like the princes of that house. St.-Simon, 44. 6.

j) Qui voulait mettre — entre cette canaille, who wished to oppose a bar (barrier or obstacle) to this rascaldom. Bien semble être la mer une — assez forte, the sea indeed seems a sufficient barrier.

l) Attendant un vent favorable pour franchir la — (du Nil) et remonter à Rosette, waiting for a favourable wind to cross the bar (of the Nile) and run up to Rosetta. Chateaub. Itin. III. 61.

2. stroke, line (made with a pen or pencil). Tirer une — sur les passages que l'on veut retrancher, to draw a line through the passages to be suppressed. Faites une — sous ces trois mots, c'est une citation, draw a line under (or underline) those three words, they are a quotation. On met une — sous les mots qui doivent être imprimés en italiques, we draw a line under (or we underline) the words which are to be printed in italics. Cet enfant ne fait encore que des barres, that child as yet makes only straight strokes.

3. stripe (of colour, across the ends of a blanket, etc.).

4. Poet. streak. Cependant une — d'or se forma dans l'Orient, meanwhile a golden streak appeared in the East.

5. Naut. bar, handspike, lever. — de pompe, pump-brake (or handle). — d'arcasse, transom. — de hune, cross-tree, trestle-tree. — d'écoutille, hatch bar. — de cabestan, de virevaut, capstan bar, windlass bar, handspike.

6. Naut. helm, tiller. — au vent ! weather the helm ! up with the helm ! — sous le vent ! helm a-lee ! down with the helm ! — à tribord ! starboard the helm ! Bâbord la — ! port the helm ! Droit la — ! right the helm ! Change la — ! shift the helm !

7. Hydrog. bore : a high wave caused at the entrance of some rivers by the rushing of the tide.

BARRES, sf. pl. 1. prison-bars, prisoner's base (a game). Jouer aux —, to play at prisoner's base ; Fig. to run after a person without finding him ; to miss one another. Toucher —, to get safe to a place. Ne faire que toucher —, to call at a place without stopping. Avoir — sur quelqu'un, to have the advantage (whip-hand or upper hand) of a person. Tenir — à quelqu'un, to oppose (or resist) a person.

2. bars (of a horse's mouth) : the interval between the tusks and grinders where the bit acts.

3. hip straps (of a horse's harness).

BARRE, [Joseph], historian (1692-1764).

BARRÉ, E, baré, pa. p. ; adj. ; 1. barred ; 2. crossed out, struck out. Portes barrées de fer, doors barred with iron. Rue barrée, a barred street, no thoroughfare. Trois mots barrés, three words struck out (or crossed out). Dents barrées, barred teeth : teeth with crooked fangs, which cannot be extracted without breaking away part of the jaw. Écu —, barred shield. Chèque —, crossed cheque.

BARRÉ [Pierre-Yves], vaudevillist (1749-1832) ; — (Léopold), actor and dramatic author (1819-1899).

BARREAU, barô, [barre], sm. 1. bar (of wood or metal). Les barreaux d'une chaise, the bars (or cross-bars) of a chair. — aimanté, a magnetized bar, a bar-magnet. Le — d'une presse typographique, the bar of a printing press. Fenêtre garnie de barreaux, a window secured by bars, by a grating. Regarder à travers les barreaux, to look through the bars or grating (of a prison). Etre sous les barreaux, to be in prison.

2. bar : a) the place set apart for barristers in a court of justice ; b) the profession, of barrister ; c) the whole body of barristers. Fréquenter le —, to plead at the bar, to practise at the bar. Il se destine au —, he intends to be a barrister. Etre appelé au —, to be called to the bar. Tout le — est de cet avis, the whole bar is of this opinion. Il faut consulter le —, you must consult the bar. L'éloquence du —, the eloquence of the bar, forensic eloquence.

BARRÉOLES, baréol', sf. pl. Gymnast. parallel bars.

BARRER, baré-r, [barre], va. 1. to bar : a) to fasten with a bar, to close, stop up, or obstruct (with bars or any other obstacle), to intercept ; b) to strengthen with a bar, as the head of a cask, c) Fig. to thwart, to hamper, to cut off, to intercept ; d) to mark with a bar, line or stroke, to cancel, to cross, strike or dash out (with a pen, etc.] ; e) Herald. to add a bar or bend to a coat of arms.

a) — une porte, to bar a door. — une fenêtre, to bar a window : to put iron bars (or a grating) to a window. — une rue, to bar (stop or block up) a street. On a barré le passage avec des planches, the passage has been barred (or stopped up) with planks, with a boarding. Les décombres des maisons démolies barraient la rue, the materials of the houses pulled down blocked up the street. Des sables barrent l'entrée du port, sand banks bar the entrance of the port. — le chemin à quelqu'un, to stop a person, to stop a person's progress.

b) — un tonneau,une table, to bar a cask, a table : to strengthen the head of a cask or a table by putting a bar across it.

c) — quelqu'un, — le chemin à quelqu'un, to stop a person, to thwart a person. On l'a barré dans tous ses projets, he was barred (thwarted or obstructed) in all his designs.

d) J'ai barré ces deux lignes, I have crossed out those two lines. On barra deux clauses dans l'acte, they cancelled two clauses of the deed. Barrez ces trois mots, strike out those three words. Ce billet est barré, this bill is cancelled.

2. Vet. Surg. — une veine, to bar a vein, to tie up (or apply a ligature to) a vein.

3. Sport. to beat : to traverse a field in all directions, as a dog in search of game.

BARRER (SE), v. refl. to close against one's self, to exclude one's self from.

BARRETTE, barèt', [Ital. : baretta], sf. berretta : a) a kind of flat cap ; b) a red square cap worn by cardinals. A Venise les nobles portaient la — dans les rues, at Venise the nobles wore the berretta in the streets. Recevoir la —, to be raised to the cardinalate. [Fig. :] J'ai bien parlé à sa —, I have given him a good wigging ; I have given him a bit of my mind.

BARRICADE, barikad, [barre ; barrique, barrel ; Ital. : barricata], sf. barricade. Il y avait des barricades dans toutes les rues, there were barricades in all the streets.

BARRICADER, barikadé-r, va. to barricade. — une rue, to barricade a street. — une porte, to barricade a door, to place furniture, etc. against a door, to prevent its being forced open.

BARRICADER (SE), v. refl. 1. to barricade one's self ; 2. Fig. to shut one's self up. Il se barricade tout le jour dans sa chambre et n'en sort que le soir, he shuts himself up in his room all day, and goes out in the evening only.

BARRIÈRE, barièr', [barre], sf. 1. barrier : a) bars placed to close an entrance to a place ; b) any material obstacle ; c) Fig. hinderance, obstacle ; d) limit, bound.
a) Franchir une —, to pass a barrier. Il força les barrières, he forced the barriers. b) Les Alpes présentaient leur —, the Alps presented their barrier. Ile trouvèrent l'Océan pour —, they found the Ocean for a barrier. Il s'était fait de morts une noble —, he had made himself a noble barrier (or rampart) of dead enemies. Rac. Mithr. v. 4. c) L'indolence est la seule — qui vous arrête, indolence is the only barrier which stops you, is the only obstacle in your way. d) Les barrières du devoir, the bounds of duty. Mettre des barrières à la licence, to set bounds to licentiousness.

2. lists, tilt-yard (for tournaments). Combat à la —, a combat in the lists.

3. town-gate ; 4. town toll-house (where town dues are paid on goods entering). Il fut arrêté à la —, he was arrested at the town gate. Les barrières furent incendiées lors de l'émeute, the town toll-houses were burnt down during the riot. Commis de la —, collector of town dues.

5. Agr. post-and-rail fence ; field-gate ; stile (for foot-passengers to pass a fence).

6. toll-gate, toll-bar (on a road, bridge etc.).

BARRIÈRE, (Théodore), dramatic author (1823-1877).

BARRIQUAUT, barikô, [barrique], sf. cask, keg : little barrel.

BARRIQUE, barik', [Proven. : barrica ; baril], sf. 1. barrel, cask. Descendre une — à la cave, to let down a barrel into the cellar. Une — de vin, a hogshead of wine. La — de Bordeaux contient 228 litres, the Bordeaux cask contains 228 litres (50 imperial gallons).

2. Fish. lamprey-net.

BARRIT, bari, BARRISSEMENT, barismân, [Lat. : barritus], sm. the cry, the roar of the elephant.

BARROT, baro, [barre], sm. Naut. small beam.

BARROTER, baroté-r, [barrot], va. to load a vessel up to the bars.

BARROTIN, barotan, sm. Naut. ledge (between the beams of a deck).

BARS, bar, sm. Ichth. basse, sea perch. V. Bar.

BARTAS, baretas (Guillaume de Saluste), poet (1544-1590).

BARTAVELLE, bartavèl', sf. Ornith. red partridge, Guernsey partridge.

BARTHÉLEMY, Bartél'mi, pnm. Bartholomew. La Saint- —, the festival of St. Bartholomew, St. Bartholomew's day, the massacre of St. Bartholomew (24 Aug. 1572) ; Fig. massacre, destruction, suppression. Faire une Saint- — de..., to destroy, to suppress, to put down, to annihilate.

BARTHÉLEMY (Auguste-Marseille), poet (1796-1867) ; — (L'abbé Jean-Jacques), antiquary and prose-writer : Voyage du jeune Anacharsis en Grèce (1716-1795).

BARYTE, barit', [Gr. : βαρύς, heavy], sf. Chem. baryta.

BARYTON, baritôn, [Gr. : βαρύς, heavy ; τόνος, tone], sm. 1. Mus. barytone : a voice intermediate between bass and tenor ; 2, Gr. Gram. barytone : a word not marked with an accent on the last syllable.

BARYTONE, baryton', adj. Gram. barytone.

BARYUM, BARIUM, bariœm, [Gr. : βαρύς, heavy], sm. Chem. barium : a white metal.

BAS, BASSE, bâ-z, bâs', [Lat. : bassus, thick], adj. 1. low : a) not high or elevated, below the usual height ; b) placed or situated below adjacent or related things : in this sense the French positive is often more elegantly rendered by the English comparative lower (see No. 2 below) ; c) below the usual rate, price, value or standard ; d) not deep, shallow, in speaking of water, etc. ; e) inferior in rank, circumstances or importance (see No 2 below) ; f) not loud or noisy, as sounds ; g) Mus. not acute or high, grave ; flat, below the true pitch ; h) mean, abject, base, vile, contemptible ; i) vulgar, common ; j) corrupt, as language ; k) early.

a) Maison basse, low (or low-built) house. Siège —, low seat. Table basse, low table. Porte basse, low door. Plafond —, low ceiling. Cette partie de la côte est fort basse, this part of the coast is very low. Un homme de basse stature, a man of low stature, a short man. Les bas-côtés d'une église, the aisles (or side-aisles) of a church. Basse mer, basse marée, low water, low tide, ebb tide. La rivière est basse, the river is low. Le vin est —, the wine is low, is nearly out. Le soleil est —, the sun is low. Le jour est —, the day is declining, is drawing to a close. La basse température de ce climat, the low temperature of that climate.

b) Basses terres, lowlands, low-lying lands (as opposed to uplands). Tout le pays — est inondé, all the low country is (all the lowlands are) flooded. Lieux — et marécageux, low and marshy places (grounds or lands).

c) — prix, low price. Acheter à — prix, to buy cheap, to buy at a low rate. La rente est basse, the funds (or stocks) are low. Les fonds publiques sont —, the public funds are low. Le change est —, the exchanges are low. Or de — aloi, gold of a low standard. Le — commerce, the retail trade, the petty traders, the small tradesmen.

d) La mer est basse en cet endroit, the sea is shallow at that spot. [Fig. :] Les eaux sont basses chez lui, he is at a low ebb, he is short of money.

e) Les basses classes de la société, the lower ranks or classes of society. Le — peuple, the populace, the mob. Un homme de — lieu, de basse naissance, de basse condition, a man of mean origin, of low (or humble) birth, of mean condition. Le — clergé, the inferior (or lower) clergy. Reprocher à quelqu'un sa basse extraction, to reproach a person with his low birth or origin. Les basses cartes, the low (or small) cards. Maître des basses œuvres, a nightman.

f) A voix basse, d'un ton —, in a low voice or tone, in a whisper. Ils s'entretenaient à voix basse, they conversed in low tones, in a whisper. Répondre d'un ton —, to answer in a low tone. [Fig. :] Vous avez parlé d'un ton trop —, you have spoken too gently, too mildly. Forcer quelqu'un à parler d'un ton plus —, to make a person assume a lower (or humbler) tone, to make a person sing small.

g) Une des plus basses notes de la gamme, one of the lowest notes of the gamut. Vous l'avez pris sur un ton trop —, you began in too low a key, at too low a pitch. Ce morceau est écrit d'un ton trop — pour ma voix, this piece is written in too low a key for my voice. Cet instrument est trop —, this instrument is too flat (is of too low a pitch), Chanter à basse note, to sing in an under-tone, in a low tone. Messe basse, low mass. — -dessus, basse-contre, basse-taille, see these words in their alphabetical order.

h) Avoir des sentiments —, to entertain low thoughts (or sentiments). Une basse flatterie, vile flattery. Faire des actions basses, to do mean actions. Il a des inclinations basses, he has abject inclinations. Des goûts —, low tastes. Une basse jalousie, contemptible jealousy. Une vengeance basse et cruelle, a mean and cruel vengeance. V'ce —, a low (or degrading) vice. Un homme — et servile, a low and servile fellow. Avoir l'âme basse, to have a mean soul. Avoir l'esprit —, to be of a low mind, to be low-minded. Figure, physionomie basse, a mean looking face, physiognomy.

i) Terme —, a low (or vulgar) word. Expressions basses, low expressions. Style —, low style. Le — comique, low comedy. Plaisanterie basse, a vulgar pleasantry.

j) La basse latinité, low Latinity. Le — latin, low Latin : the Latin of the Lower Empire and middle ages. Le — allemand, low German : an inferior dialect of the Germany language.

k) Le carême est — cette année, Lent is (comes or falls) early this year.

2. lower : not upper or higher, used when the position, rank, or importance of one thing is tacitly compared with that of another. La basse région de l'air, the lower region of the air. Le — -ventre, the lower belly, the abdomen. Le — étage, la partie basse d'une masion, the lower story, the lower part of a house. Le — bout de la table, the lower end of the table. Les basses voiles d'un vaisseau, the courses (or lower sails) of a ship. La basse chambre, the Lower House, the House, of Commons (in England). Les basses classes d'une école, the lower forms (or classes) of a school. Les basses classes de la société, the lower classes of society. Dans (ou en) ce — monde, in this lower (or nether) world, here below. La basse Autriche, Lower Austria. La basse Égypte, Lower Egypt. La basse Normandie, Lower Normandy. La basse Bretagne, Lower Brittany. Un — -Breton, un — -Normand, a native of Lower Brittany, of Lower Normandy. Le — -breton, the dialect of Lower Brittany. Les basses Pyrénées, les basses Alpes, the lower Pyrenees, the lower Alps : the parts nearest the sea. Les Basses-Pyrénées, les Basses-Alpes, the Lower-Pyrenees, the Lower-Alps : the departments so called. Le — Danube, the lower Danube. Le — Rhin, the lower Rhine. Les Pays-Bas, the Netherlands, Holland. Le préfet du Bas-Rhin, the prefect of the Lower-Rhine (the department so called). La basse Seine, the lower Seine : the part of the river between Paris and the sea. Le Bas-Empire, the Lower Empire : the Roman Empire from the time of Constantine to the taking of Constantinople by the Turks.

3. down, hanging down (as the head ears, etc.) : downcast (as the eyes). Marcher la tête basse, to walk with one's head hanging down (or drooping). Un front triste, un œil —, a gloomy brow, a downcast eye. Ce chien porte les oreilles basses, la queue basse, that dog hangs down his ears, his tail. Avoir l'oreille basse, Fig. to be crestfallen, to be disconcerted, ashamed, or mortified.

4. short, near (in speaking of the sight). Avoir la vue basse, to be short-sighted (or near-sighted).

5. cloudy, lowering. Le temps est —. the weather is cloudy.

6. — âge, infancy, tender age.

7. Faire main basse sur, to lay violent hands on ; to seize, to steal, to carry off ; to kill, to slay, to put to the sword, to give no quarter ; Fig. to lash severely. Les écoliers entrèrent dans le jardin et firent main basse sur tous les fruits, the school-boys got into the garden and stole all the fruit. Les vainqueurs firent main basse sur tout ce qui se présenta les armes à la main, the victors killed every one that appeared in arms. Dans le monde on épargne souvent les vices, mais on fait toujours main basse sur les ridicules, in the world (or in society) vices are often spared, but follies are always severely lashed.

8. Au — mot, at the least, at least, at the lowest. Cette terre a coûté, au — mot, cent mille francs, this estate cost, at the least, one hundred thousand francs. Il y a eu dans ce combat, au — mot, deux cents tués, there were at least (at the very least) two hundred killed in that engagement.

BAS, sm. 1. bottom, lower part ; 2. foot, bottom (of a mountain, ladder, page, list, etc.) ; 3. small (of the leg) ; 4. Mus. lower register, lower notes (of the human voice). Il venait du — du pays, he came from the lower part of the country. Le — de l'escalier. the foot of the staircase. Il le saisit par le — du corps, he seized him by the lower part of his body. Le — du pavé, the lower side of the pavement, the kennel, the gutter. Il y avait au — de la lettre trois lignes d'une écriture différente, there were at the bottom (or end) of the letter three lines in a different hand. Son nom se trouvait au — de la liste. his name was at the bottom of the list. Le — d'une robe, the bottom, hem or lower edge of a robe or dress Notre argent est au —, our funds are low, we are out of cash. La voix de ce chanteur est belle dans le —, this singer's voice is fine in the lower register.

5. Fig. down. Il y a des hauts et des — dans la vie, there are ups and downs in life. La vie est mêlée de haut et de —, de blanc et de noir, life is checkered with ups and downs, with white and black. Avoir du haut et du — dans l'humeur, to be of an uneven (or capricious) temper.

6. the low. Le trivial et le — défigurent la tragédie, the trivial and the low disfigure tragedy.

BAS, adv. low : a) not high ; b) not loud. a) Cet oiseau vole —, that bird flies low. Descendre plus —, to go down lower. Cela est placé trop —, that is placed too low. Le coup est parti de plus —, the shot came from below. Cette petite fille est assise trop —, that little girl is seated too low, has too low a seat. Après cette grande marée la mer est descendue fort —, after that high tide the sea went down very low, ebbed very low. Trois étages plus —, three stories lower. Il demeure trois portes plus —, he lives three doors lower down. Etre bien — percé, to be tapped very low, to be drawn almost to the dregs (as a cask of wine, etc.) ; Fig. to be in very low circumstances, to be almost ruined. Boiter tout —, to be very lame. Etre bien —, to be very low : a) to be very weak, as a sick person ; b) to be short of money. Ses pertes multipliées l'ont mis bien —, his repeated losses have brought him very low. Jouer argent —, to play money down, to play for ready money, Plus —, farther on, below. Comme nous verrons plus—, as we shall see farther on.

b) Parler —, to speak low. Parlez plus —, speak lower. La voix de ce chanteur ne peut descendre plus — qu'une telle note, that singer's voice cannot go lower than such a note.

COULER BAS, verb. phr. 1. Naut. to sink, to send to the bottom ; 2. (Neut.) to sink, to founder. Couler — un navire, to sink a ship. La chaloupe coula, the boat sank, foundered.

METTRE BAS, verb. phr. (in an active sense). 1. to lay down. Mettre les armes —, mettre — les armes, mettre armes —, to lay down one's arms ; Fig. to yield, to give in, to submit.

2. to take off (one's coat, hat, etc.). Il mit habit —, he took (pulled or stript) off his coat. Mettre chapeau —, to take off one's hat, to uncover one's self. [In this phrase the verb is often suppressed.] Chapeau bas ! take off your hats ! hats off !

3. to overthrow, to put down. De l'Orient mettant — l'empire overthrowing the empire of the East. Il a mis — les puissants, he has put down the mighty.

4. Fig. to lay aside, to put away. Mettez — toute rancune, lay aside all rancour. Mettant leur haine —, laying aside their hatred.

5. Naut. to haul down or strike (one's colours), to strike or lower (sails). Mettre pavillon —, to strike one's colours ; Fig. to surrender, to yield. Ses trois vaisseaux en rade avaient mis voiles —, his three vessels in the roadstead had struck sail.

METTRE BAS, verb. phr. (in a neuter sense) 1. to bring forth young : said of the females of all mammalia, but particular terms are applied to some animals : to cub, to whelp (as lions, tigers, bears, foxes and other beasts of prey) ; to litter (as rabbits and other animals that produce many young at once) ; to foal (as mares, asses, etc.) ; to calve (as cows) ; to yean, to lamb (as sheep) ; to yean, to kid (as goats) ; to pup, to whelp (as dogs) ; to kitten (as cats) ; to pig, farrow, or litter, (as swine) ; to calve or cub (as whales) ; to fawn (as deer).

2. to shed or cast horns. Le cerf a mis —, the stag has cast or shed its horns.

TENIR BAS, verb. phr. to keep down or under : to keep in subjection. Le peuple a besoin qu'on le tienne — pour son propre bien, the populace requires to be kept under for its own good. Fén. Tél. 13.

A BAS, adv. phr. 1. down. Tous mes arbres sont à —, all my trees are down (cut down or felled). Son crédit est à —, his credit has gone down (or is low). Ils mirent tous les privilèges à —, they put down (suppressed or did away with) all privileges. Ma fortune est à —, my fortunes are low, at a low ebb. Mettre ou jeter à —, to pull or throw down ; Fig. to overthrow. Cette maison n'est bonne qu'à mettre à —, that house is good for nothing but to be pulled down. Il le veut élever, il le peut mettre à bas, he is pleased to exalt him, he may bring him low. Son système est à —, his system is overthrown (is exploded).

2. off with. A bas les chapeaux ! off with your hats : hats off !

3. down, come or get down : a command. A bas ! à bas ! Messieurs, il est défendu de monter sur les bancs, come down, gentlemen, it is forbidden to get on the benches.

4. down with : a cry of disapprobation. A bas les ministres ! down with the ministers !

A BAS DE, prep. phr. down from, off, out of. Se jeter à — d'un mur, to jump down from (or jump off) a wall. Sauter à — de cheval, to jump off one's horse. Il la mit à — de son cheval, he helped her off her horse ; he helped her to alight from her horse. Sauter à — du lit, to jump out of bed, to get out of bed.

EN BAS, adv. phr. 1. below. Où est votre père ? Il est en bas. Where is your father ? He is below, down-stairs. Les émanations qui viennent d'en —, the emanations that come from below. Chercher une chose en haut et en —, to seek or search for a thing above and below (or up-stairs and down). Tirer en — or par en —, to pull from below, to pull at the bottom.

2. downwards. Tomber la tête en —, to fall head downwards (or head first). Rouler de haut en —, to roll downwards. to roll from top to bottom. [Fig. :] Traiter or regarder quelqu'un de haut en —, to treat, look at (or eye) a person with contemptuous arrogance.

EN BAS DE, prep. phr. at the bottom or foot of. Il était en — de la colline, he was at the foot (or bottom) of the hill. On le trouva évanoui en — de l'échelle, they found him in a swoon at the foot of the ladder.

PAR BAS, adv. phr. 1. below; 2. Med. downwards. Il est logé par —, he lodges below (or on the ground floor). Il a quatre chambres par —, he has four rooms on a lower floor, on the ground floor. Cette drogue fait aller par haut et par —, that drug operates upwards and downwards.

ICI-BAS, adv. phr. here below, in this lower (or nether) world. Le bonheur se rencontre rarement ici-bas, happiness is seldom found here below. D'ici-bas, of this lower world.

LÀ-BAS, adv. phr. down yonder, yonder. Il est —, he is yonder, down yonder. Allez voir ce qui se passe —, go and see what is going on yonder.

BAS, bâ-z, [bas, the lower part; formerly bas-de-chausses], sm. stocking. Une paire de —, a pair of stockings. Des — de soie, de coton, de laine, silk, cotton, worsted stockings. — drapés, milled stockings. — à côtes, ribbed stockings. — à jour, stockings with open-work clocks, open-work stockings. Etre sans — et sans souliers, to be without shoes and stockings. Les coins, la couture, le talon, le pied d'un —, the clocks, the seam, the heel, the foot of a stocking. Ravauder des —, to mend (or darn) stockings. Ressemeler des —, to new-foot stockings. Cela lui va comme un — de soie, that fits him like a glove, that is just the thing for him.

BASAL, E, bazal, al', [base], adj. Zool. basal: pertaining to the base.

BASALTE, bazalt' [Lat. : basaltes], sm. Geol. basalt.

BASALTIFORME, bazaltifôrm', adj. basaltiform.

BASALTIQUE, bazaltik', adj. basaltic.

BASANE, bazan', [Span. : badana, from Ar. bithana, lining], sf. 1. basil: tanned sheep-skin; 2. Book-bind. sheep. Relié en —, bound in sheep-skin.

BASANÉ, E, bazané, pa. p. 1. tanned sunburnt, embrowned; 2. (adject.) swarthy, tawny. Un teint — par le grand air, a complexion tanned by exposure to the sun and air. Ses mains basanées, his tanned (or sunburnt) hands.

BASANER, bazané-r, va. to tan : to embrown by exposure to the sun.

BASANER (SE), v. refl. to become tanned or sunburnt.

BAS-BLEU, bâ-blœ, sm. blue-stocking : a term applied offensively to literary ladies. Cette femme est un bas-bleu, that lady is a blue-stocking. Ces femmes sont des bas-bleus, those ladies are blue-stockings.

BASCONETTE, baskonèt', BASCOUETTE, baskouèt', sf. Ornith. the long-tailed titmouse.

BASCULE, baskul', [battre; cul], sf. 1. a poise; 2. swipe, sweep, plier (of a drawbridge); 3. sweep or swipe (of a well); 4. see-saw : sway for children. Faire la —, to sway up and down; to tip up, down or over. Il marcha sur une planche qui a fait la — et il est tombé he walked on a plank which tipped up, and down he went. Couteaux à —, balance-handle table-knives. [Fig. :] Système de —, seesaw policy : that which consists in alternately seeking support from opposite parties.

5. Mech. reciprocating, see-saw (or up and down) motion; or pont à —, weigh-bridge, weighing machine for heavy goods, cart-steelyard; 6. crank (of a bell); 7. Lock-m. lever : the piece that throws out the bolts of a lock; 8. rocker : the piece of curved wood on which a cradle or chair-rests. Chaise à —, rocking-chair. Des enfants qui jouent à la —, children playing at see-saw.

BASCULER, baskulé-r, vn. to see-saw, to tip up, to sway up and down.

BAS-DESSUS, bâ-dœsù, sm. Mus. second (or low) treble voice, second soprano, mezzo-soprano.

BASE, baz', [Gr. : βάσις], sf. 1. base : a) lowest part of anything, foundation, bottom, foot; b) Fig. basis, foundation, fundamental principle, ground-work, grounds; c) Math. the side opposite to the summit of any figure; the radix or basis of logarithms, of a system of notation; d) Geog. base-line; e) Anat. and Bot. the part opposite to the apex; f) Mus. the fundamental note; g) Chem. the electro-positive ingredient of a salt, oxide, etc.; h) the principal ingredient in any compound substance.

a) La — d'une montagne, d'un rocher, the base of a mountain, of a rock. La — d'un clocher, the base (or foot) of a steeple. La — d'une colonne, d'un piédestal, base of a column, of a pedestal. — corinthienne, Corinthian base. Poser une colonne sur sa —, to place a column on its base. La — de la muraille, du rempart, the base (or foot) of the wall, of the rampart. [Poet. :] La terre tremble sur ses bases, the earth trembles (or totters) on its foundations.

b) Cette règle qui est la — de tout jugement, this rule, which is the basis of all judgment. Jeter les bases d'un traité, to lay down the bases of a treaty. La — d'un système, the basis (fundamental principle or groundwork) of a system. La justice est la — de toute autorité, justice is the basis (the main support) of all authority. Tout ce raisonnement porte sur une — fausse, all this argumentation (or reasoning) rests on a false basis. Cela pèche par la —, it is fundamentaly wrong.

c) La — d'un triangle, the base of a triangle. La — d'un cône, d'un cylindre, d'une pyramide, the base of a cone, of a cylinder, of a pyramid. La surface d'un parallélogramme est le produit de sa base par sa hauteur, the superficies (or area) of a parallelogram is the product of its base by its height (or breadth). La — de notre système de numération est dix, ten is the base (basis or radix) of our system of notation. Les logarithmes ordinaires n'ont pas la même — que ceux de Napier, the common logarithms have not the same radix as Napier's.

e) La — de la triangulation française a été prise sur la route de Melun à Lieusaint, the base (or base-line) of the French trigonometrical survey was measured along the road from Melun to Lieusaint.

f) La — du cœur, the base (or wider end) of the heart. La — du cerveau, the base of the brain. La — d'une feuille, the base of a leaf.

g) La plupart des bases ne sont que des oxydes métalliques, most of the bases are metallic oxides. La — d'un sel, the base of a salt.

h) La — de ces pilules est l'aloès, aloes is the base of these pills. Le cacao est la — du chocolat, cacao [or cocoa] is the base of chocolate.

2. Mus. tonic, key-note.

BASELLACÉ, ÉE, bazelassé, adj. Bot. basellaceous.

BASELLACÉS, [Low Lat.], spl. Bot. basellaceæ : a small family of climbing plants.

BASELLE, bazèl', sf. Bot. basella.

BASER, bazé-r, va. to base : to ground, to found. — un système sur des faits, to base (or found) a system on facts.

BASER (SE), v. refl. 1. to be based, grounded, or founded; 2. to take one's stand. Ce système se base sur des faits incontestables, this system is based on indisputable facts. C'est là-dessus qu'il se base, he takes his stand on that, he makes that his basis.

BAS-FOND, bâ-fôn sm. 1. bottom : low alluvial, soil, dale, dell; 2. Naut. shallow water : water deep enough for navigation, as opposed to haut-fond, which is not navigable. [Pl. bas-fonds.]

BASICITÉ, bazisité, sf. Chem. basicity : capability of forming a base.

BASIFICATION, bazifikâsyôn, sg. Chem. basification, basifying.

BASIFIXE, bazifiks', adj. Bot. fixed at the base.

BASIGÈNE, bazizhèn', [Lat. : basis; genus], adj. Chem. basigenous.

BASILAIRE, bazilèr', [base], adj. Anat. basilar, basilary.

BASILE, bazil', pnm. Basil; Fig. a vile slanderer (a meaning derived from a character in the Barbier de Séville).

BASIL, bazil, sm. basil : the slope given to the iron of a joiner's plane.

BASILIC, basilik, [Gr. : βασιλικός, royal], sm. Bot. sweet-basil (a pot-herb).

BASILIC, [Gr. : βασιλίσκος, little king], sm. basilisk, cockatrice : a) a fabulous serpent or lizard whose look was supposed by the ancients to be fatal to life; b) Hist. Nat. a saurian reptile; c) a large cannon formerly used. Elle le regardait avec des yeux de —, she looked as if she could kill him.

BASILICON, bazilikôn, [Gr.], sm. Med. basilicon, yellow basilicon : a suppurating ointment.

BASILIQUE, bazilik', [Gr. : βασιλικός, royal; Lat. : basilica], sf. basilic, basilica : a) formerly a royal palace, or a court of justice; b) in modern use, a large church built in the form of the ancient basilica.

BASILIQUE, adj. and sf. La veine —, la —, Anat. the basilic vein, the basilica.

BASILIQUES, sm. pl. Basilica, Basilics : a digest of laws written in Greek by order of the emperor Basil I.

BASIN, bazan, [corr. from bombasin], sm. dimity : a twilled fabric of cotton and linen.

BASIQUE, basik', adj. Chem. basic.

BAS-LATIN, bâ-latan, sm. low Latin. V. Bas, adj.

BAS-MÂT, bâ-mâ, sm. Naut. lower mast. [Pl. Bas-mâts].

BASOCHE, bazosh', [Lat. : basilica, tribunal], sf. basoche : a) a court established by the clerks of the proctors practising in the old parliament of Paris for enforcing discipline and settling differences among themselves; b) the whole corporation of law-clerks.

BASOCHIEN, bazoshyan, sm. member of the basoche.

BASQUE, bask', [Ety. doubtful; apparently from Lat. : Vasco, Vascones, whence by a change of V into B and G, have come Bascos, Basconia and Gasconia], sf. 1. skirt (of a coat of any kind); 2. tail or skirt (of a dress-coat or jacket); 3. flap, lappet (of any material). [Fig. :] Il est toujours pendu à mes basques, he is always clinging to my skirts, he is always at my heels.

BASQUE, sm. 1. Basque : a) a native of the Basque country in France or Spain ; b) the language spoken by the Basques. Le pays — français, the Basque province of France : part of the department of the Lower-Pyrenees. Les provinces basques espagnoles, the Basque provinces of Spain : the provinces of Biscay, Alava and Guipuzcoa. Courir comme un —, to run like a lamp-lighter. Tambour de —, tambourine.

2. adj. Basque. La langue —, the Basque language.

BASQUINE, baskin', sf. basquine : a kind of bodice or corsage with a short skirt all round, so called from being part of female costume among the Basques.

BAS-RELIEF, bâ-rœliěf, [Pl. Bas-reliefs.] sm. Sculpt. bass-relief, low-relief, basso-relievo, basso-rilievo. [This last is pure Italian, and its plural is bassi-rilievi.]

BASSE, bâs', [bas, low), sf. Mus. 1. bass : the lowest part of a musical composition ; 2. bass-voice : 3. bass-string (of any instrument) ; 4. bass, bass-viol, violoncello ; 5. bass-viol player, violoncellist. — chiffrée, figured bass. — continue, thorough bass. [Fig. :] C'est la — continue de son discours, that is the burthen of his song, he is always harping on that string. Cet homme a une belle —, that man has a fine bass-voice. Ce piano a de belles basses, this piano has fine bass-strings. Jouer de la —, to play the bass-viol or violoncello. C'est une bonne —, he is a good violoncellist.

BASSE, sf. Naut. ridge or reef : rocks rising nearly to the surface and over which the sea breaks.

BASSE-CONTRE, bâs'-kôntr', sf. Mus. 1. the lowest bass-voice ; 2. the part written for such voice. [Pl. Basses-contre.]

BASSE-COUR, bâs-kour, sf. 1. Agr. farm-homestead, farm-yard ; 2. (of a dwelling-house) back-yard : the court containing the stables, coach-houses, etc. Nouvelles de —, servants' gossip, unreliable news.

BASSE-COURIER, IÈRE, bâs'kouryé, tyèr', smf. Agr. farm-servant (male or female) employed about the homestead. [Pl. Basse-couriers, Basse-courières.]

BASSE-ÉTOFFE, bâs-étof, sf. a mixture of lead and tin.

BASSE-FOSSE, bâs'-fos', sf. dungeon. Cul de —, the deepest dungeon.

BASSE-LISSE, bâs'-lis', sf. 1. low-warp ; 2. low-warp tapestry. [Pl. Basses-lisses.]

BASSE-MARCHE, bâs'marsh, sf. Technol. treadle of a loom.

BASSEMENT, bâs'mân-t, adv. 1. basely, meanly, vilely, scurvily, sordidly. Il a agi —, he has acted basely. Il s'est — conduit, he has behaved vilely (or scurvily).

2. meanly, humbly, lowly. Ceux qui sont nés —, those who are lowly born, the low-born ; (in a disparaging sense) the base-born.

3. vulgarly. S'exprimer —, to express one's self vulgarly, to use low (or vulgar) language.

BASSESSE, bâsès, sf. 1. lowness; opposed to height ; 2. Fig. baseness, meanness. — d'âme, meanness of soul. Il y a de la — à faire le bien pour en tirer bénéfice, there is meanness in doing good with a view to gain. L'homme est rempli de — et de vanité, man is full of meanness and vanity.

3. a base, mean or scurvy action ; meanness. Commettre une —, to commit a mean action, to be guilty of meanness. Ce qui me paraît la dernière des bassesses, which appears to me the meanest of actions ! Faire une —, to do a base action. Faire des bassesses, to behave rudely.

4. abasement, depression, inferiority ; (in a good sense) humility. Ce n'est pas là ce que l'apôtre appelle la douceur du zèle et de la charité ; c'est plutôt une — de courage que rien ne réveille ni n'élève, that is not what the apostle calls the meekness of zeal and of charity, but rather a depression of courage which nothing can rouse or elevate. Mass. Confér, Vices.

5. meanness, lowness, humbleness (of birth, etc.). Reprocher à quelqu'un la — de sa naissance, to reproach a person with his low birth.

6. vulgarity, lowness, meanness (of thought, style, or language).

BASSET, bassè-t, [bas], sm. 1. basset : a short-legged, sporting dog ; 2. Fig. a short bandy-legged man. — à jambes torses, a turnspit-dog.

3. Cor de basset, basset horn : a kind of curved clarinet.

BASSE-TAILLE, bâs'-tay', sf. 1. bass-voice ; 2. bass-singer ; 3. Sculpt. V. Bas-relief. [Pl. Basses-tailles.]

BASSETTE, basèt', sf. basset : a game at cards.

BASSIN, basan, [Celt. : bac, cavity], sm. 1. basin : a) a kind of deep dish or bowl ; b) the contents of such a dish ; c) reservoir ; d) piece of water in a park or garden ; e) port, pool (of a river where ships are moored) ; f) part of a river or canal included between two bridges ; g) Geog. and Geol. the whole surface drained by a river ; h) a plain surrounded by hills ; i) Anat. pelvis. — à laver les mains, wash-hand basin, hand-basin (or basin). — à barbe, shaving-dish. — de marbre, a marble basin. — de la mer, the basin of the sea. — de la Seine, the basin of the Seine. Cette ville est située dans un magnifique —, that city is situated in a magnificent basin. — de partage, Civ. Eng. summit level reservoir (of a canal).

2. plate : used for collecting contributions in churches, etc. Il mit quelques pièces de monnaie dans le —, he put a few coins on the plate. [Colloq. :] Cracher dans le —, to contribute, to make a contribution, to club, to fork out.

3. pan (of a water-closet, etc.) ; 4. bed-pan (for sick persons) ; 5. hand-bowl (used by bakers, etc.).

6. Naut. dock. — d'échouage, careening dock, dry-dock. — de radoub, graving dock. — à flot, wet dock. Droits de —, dock dues.

BASSINAGE, basinazh', sm. Gard. syringing (of plants).

BASSINANT, basinân, adj. Fam. boring, annoying.

BASSINE, basin', [bassin], sf. 1. large pan (of copper or other metal), preserving-pan ; 3. Chem. evaporating-pan or dish.

BASSINÉE, basiné, sf. panful.

BASSINEMENT, basin'mân-t, sm. 1. warming (with a warming-pan) ; 2. bathing, washing.

BASSINER, basiné-r, va. 1. to warm (as a bed) ; 2. to foment, to bathe (as the eyes, a sore, etc.) ; 3. Fam. to bore, to annoy ; 4. to damp or sprinkle (with water) ; 5. Gard. to syringe (plants, etc.). Ses yeux ayant été bassinés avec une décoction de mauves, his eyes having been bathed (or fomented) with a decoction of mallows. Il me bassine avec ses histoires, he pesters me with his tales.

BASSINET, basinè-t, [bassin], sm. 1. pan (of a flint-lock gun, etc.) ; 2. a steel head-piece ; 3. Anat. calyx ; 4. Bot. creeping crow-foot.

BASSINOIRE, basinwâr', sf. warming-pan.

BASSIOT, basiô, sm. a small tub used by distillers for brandy.

BASSISTE, basist', sm. bass-viol player, violoncellist.

BASSON, basôn, sm. 1. Mus. bassoon : a bass wind-instrument ; 2. bassoon player, bassoonist ; 3. bassoon-stop (of an organ).

BASSORINE, basorin', [from Bassora], sf. Chem. bassorine : a principle found in Bassora gum.

BASSOTIN, basotan, [dim. of bassin], sm. Dye-w. indigo vat.

BASTANT, E, bastân-t, ânt', [baster], adj. sufficient.

BASTE, bast', interj. 1. enough of that ! ; 2. pooh ! pshaw ! nonsense ! ; 3. Naut. belay ! make fast ! — pour cela ! let that pass !

BASTE, sm. basto : the ace of clubs at quadrille.

† BASTER, basté-r, [Lat. : bastāre, to suffice], vn. to suffice.

BASTERNE, bastèrn', [Lat. : basterna], sf. bastern : car drawn by oxen.

BASTIDE, bastid', [Provenç. : bastir, to build], sf. 1. country-house ; 2. small fortress.

BASTILLE, bastiy', sf. 1. a fortress ; 2. the Bastille : a fortress of Paris used as a state prison till destroyed by the people in 1789 ; 3. a prison.

BASTILLÉ, E, bastyé, adj. Herald. having reversed crenels.

BASTIN, bastan, sm. Naut. coir rope.

BASTINGAGE, bastangash', sm. Naut. barricading, netting, bulwark netting. Filets de —, boarding netting.

BASTINGUE, bastang', [Ital. : bastinga], sf. Naut. waist cloth.

BASTINGUER, bastanghé-r, va. Naut. to barricade (with hammocks, etc.), to rig the boarding netting.

BASTION, bastiôn, [Ital. : bastione], sm. Fort. bastion. — casematé, casemated bastion. — coupé, detached bastion.

BASTIONNÉ, E, bastioné, adj. bastioned, defended with bastions.

BASTIONNER, bastionné-r, va. to bastion, to provide with bastions.

BASTONNADE, bastonad', [O. Fr. : baston, bâton, stick], sf. bastonade, bastinado, cudgelling. Donner, recevoir la —, to give, to receive a cudgelling.

BASTRINGUE, bastrang', [orig. unknown], sm. 1. public-house ball ; 2. Pop. row, shindy uproar ; 2. Wheelwr. spokeshave.

BAS-VENTRE, bâ-vântr' sm. Anat. abdomen : the lower belly.

BAT, bat, [battre], sm. tail (of a fish). Ce poisson a tant de pouces entre l'œil et le —, this fish measures so many inches from the eye to the tail (or is so many inches long).

BÂT, bâ, [Low Lat. : bastum, from Gr. : βαστάζειν, to carry a load], sm. pack-saddle. Cheval de bât, a pack-horse ; Fig. a drudge. Chacun sait où le bât le blesse, every man best knows where his own shoe pinches.

BATACLAN, bataklân, [onomat.], sm. traps, rattle-traps, equipage. Et tout le —, the whole bag of tricks ; and the rest of it.

BATAIL, batay', [battre], sm. Herald. clapper of a bell, when of a different tincture from the bell itself.

BATAILLE, batay', [Low Lat. : battualia, from battuěre, to beat], sf. 1. battle : fight, engagement, action. Clovis gagna la — de Tolbiac, Clovis won the battle of Tolbiac. — navale, naval battle, action or engagement, sea-fight. Donner (or livrer) —, to give battle. Présenter la —, to offer battle. — rangée, pitched battle. Corps de —, main body (of an army), centre (of a fleet). Cheval de —, charger, war-horse ; Fig. main argument, favourite subject of discussion. Champ de —, field of battle, battle-field. [Fig. :] Le champ de — lui est resté, he remained master (or in possession) of the field ; he had the best of it. Choisir son champ de —, to choose the subject of debate, to choose one's ground.

2. order of battle, battle-array. Ranger une armée en —, to draw up an army in battle-array, in order of battle. Marcher en —, to march in order of battle. [Fig. :] L'armée que Jésus-Christ a mise en — contre les erreurs, the army which J. C. has arrayed against error. Bossuet. Instr. 2.

3. battle-piece, battle-scene : painting of a battle. Les Batailles d'Alexandre par Le Brun, Alexander's battles by Le Brun.

4. struggle, conflict, effort. Il a bien fallu donner des batailles pour..., it cost many a struggle to...

5. beggar-my-neighbour : a game at cards.

BATAILLÉ, E, batayé, adj. Herald. Cloche bataillée, a bell having a clapper of a different tincture.

BATAILLER, batayé-r, vn. 1. to give battle, to battle ; 2. Fig. to battle, to fight or struggle hard. Il n'est rien de si beau que tomber bataillant, there is nothing so glorious as to fall fighting. Il a bien fallu — pour lui arracher cette concession, we had a hard struggle to extort from him that concession.

BATAILLEUR, EUSE, batayœr, œz', smf. 1. fighting man or woman, person fond of fighting : 2. disputer, disputatious person.

BATAILLEUR, EUSE, adj. disputatious.

BATAILLON, batayô*n*, sm. 1. Milit. battalion : a) properly, a troop of infantry composed of several companies and forming part of a regiment ; b) any body of armed men. Le front d'un —, the front of a battalion. — carré, hollow-square, battalion formed in square. École de —, battalion drill (or exercise). Chef de —, major. Les bataillons français franchissaient déjà les Alpes, the French battalions (or troops) were already crossing the Alps.

2. (in an ill sense) troop, regiment ; flight (of birds). Elle a un — d'enfants, she has a regiment (or troop) of children. Comme on voit dans les airs ces bataillons de grues, as these flights of cranes are seen in the air, Boileau.

BÂTARD, E, bâtar, ard' [O. Fr. : bastard, from bast, bât, pack-saddle], adj. 1. bastard : illegitimate, natural, born out of wedlock. Un enfant —, a bastard child, a natural (or an illegitimate) child. Fille bâtarde, a bastard daughter, a natural daughter. Ligne, race bâtarde, bastard line or race : the descendants of an illegitimate ancestor.

2. mongrel (of animals) ; wild (of plants) ; hybrid (of animals, plants, etc.). Lévrier —, mongrel greyhound, lurcher : a mixed breed of the greyhound and some other dog Olivier —, wild olive-tree.

3. degenerate. Les critiques regardent le drame comme un genre —, the critics regard melodrama as a degenerate kind of dramatic composition.

4. intermediate : not belonging to any regular or recognized class or order. Porte bâtarde, house-door : intermediate in size between those large enough to admit carriages and an ordinary door. Vache bâtarde, a cow that gives less milk when again in calf. Écriture bâtarde, a slanting round-hand. Marées bâtardes, neap tides.

BÂTARD, E, sm. bastard (male or female) : natural son, natural daughter, illegitimate child.

BÂTARD, sm. 1. Naut. parrel, parrel-truss.

BÂTARDE, sf. 1. a kind of cannon, long since disused ; 2. a half-fine file ; 3. Callig. sloped round hand.

BATARDEAU, batardô, sm. 1. embankment (of a river or moat) ; 2. Civ. Eng. cofferdam ; 3. Fort. batardeau.

BÂTARDEAU, bâtardô, sm. a little bastard.

BÂTARDIÈRE, bâtardyêr', sf. nursery of grafted fruit-trees.

BÂTARDISE, bâtardiz', sf. 1. bastardy : the state of a bastard ; 2. Feud. Law-t. the right of the lord to an intestate bastard's estate.

BATATE, batat', sf. patate : Carolina potato, the sweet potato. V. Patate, the more correct orthography.

BATAVE, batav', adj. Batavian.

BATAVE, smf. Batavian, Hollander, Dutchman, Dutchwoman.

BATAVIE, batavi, sf. Batavia : a) Anc. Geog. the country of the Batavi, now called Holland or the Netherlands ; b) Mod. Geog. the capital of the Dutch East Indies.

BATAVIQUE, batavik', adj. only used in the expression : Larmes bataviques Rupert's drops. V. Larme.

BATAYOLE, batéyol', sf. Naut. stanchion.

BÂTÉ, E, bâté, pa. p. saddled. C'est un âne —, Fig. he is a stupid donkey, a stupid fellow. Prov. : L'âne du commun est toujours le plus mal bâté, what belongs to everybody is always badly cared for.

BATEAU, batô, [Celt. : bat, boat], sm. 1. boat : the generic term for wherries, barges, lighters and other small craft, but sometimes applied to large vessels. — à voiles, sailing boat. — à vapeur, steam-packet, steam-boat, steamer. — de passage, wherry, passage boat. — poste, mail-boat, — brise-glace, ice-boat. — lesteur, ballast-lighter. — pêcheur (or de pêcheur), fishing-boat or smack. — pilote, pilot boat. — sous-marin, submarine boat. — de provisions, bumboat. — drageur, dredging-machine. — de sauvetage, life-boat. — d'agrément, pleasure-boat. — plat, flat-bottomed boat. Pont de bateaux, bridge of boats. Aller en —, to go for a sail, a row. Être du même —, Fig. to row in the same boat. Etre dr dernier —, to be up to date, of the latest fashion. Porter —, to be navigable (of a river). Être encore tout étourdi du —, to be still giddy with the motion of the boat ; Fig. to be still suffering from past fatigue, trouble or anxiety. [Ironic.]: Il n'en vient que deux en trois bateaux, it takes three boats to carry two such important persons. Arriver en trois (or en quatre) bateaux, to arrive with great fuss, to arrive in great state.

2. Slang. deception. Monter un —, to try to take in, to deceive. Monter un — à quelqu'un, to play a trick (a joke) on any one. Quel — ! what a joke !

3. boat-load, boatful ; 4. boat-shaped dish (for radishes, etc.) ; 5. shell or body (of a carriage).

BATELAGE, bat'lazh', sm. 1. boating, conveyance by boat ; 2. boat-hire, boatman's fare.

BATELAGE, sm. juggling, juggler's tricks.

BATELÉE, bat'lé, sf. 1. boatload, boatful ; 2. Colloq. lots, oceans : a great quantity or number.

BATELET, bat'lè, [dim. of bateau), sm. little boat, punt.

BATELEUR, EUSE bat'lœr, œz', [Low Lat. : bastellus, stick, rod] smf. 1. juggler, mountebank ; 2. buffoon, make-fun make-sport.

BATELIER, ÈRE, bat'lyé, lyèr', [bateau], smf. boatman, boatwoman ; (on the Thames) waterman.

BATELLERIE, batèl'ri, sf. boating, water-carriage, inland navigation. Les chemins de fer pour les transports font concurrence à la —, the railways compete with the boating trade for the carriage of goods.

BÂTER, bâté-r, [bât], va. to put a pack-saddle on, to saddle (a beast of burden).

BÂTER, vn. to succeed, to go on, to turn out. Cela bâte mal, that does not go on well. La campagne de Portugal n'avait pas bien bâté, the campaign of Portugal had not succeeded well.

BATHOMÈTRE, batometr', [Gr. : βαθύς, deep ; μέτρον, measure], sm. Phys. bathometer : an instrument for measuring depths in the water.

BATHYMÉTRIE, batimétri', sf. bathymetry : measuring or sounding of depths.

BÂTI, E, bâti, pa. p. 1. built : a) construcked, founded ; b) formed, made, shaped. a) Maisons mal bâties, ill-built houses. Une terre bâtie, ground built on. Terrain non —, ground not built upon. Villes bâties sur la mer, towns built on the sea, on the sea-coast. b) Un homme bien —, a well-built (well-made or well-shaped) man. Un grand mal —, a tall gawky, a lanky awkward fellow. [Fig. :] Il est ainsi —, such is his nature (temper, character, habit, way, or disposition). Je ne sais pas si vous êtes — comme moi, I don't know whether you are like me (or whether you resemble me).

2. basted : tacked or run together as the parts of a garment before being properly sewed.

BÂTI, sm. 1. Build. stud-work : brick-nogging (when the intervals of the studs are filled up with bricks); 2. Technol. frame, frame-work ; 2. Join. styles (of a panelled door, etc.) ; 4. bed (of a lathe) ; 5. basting, basting-threads.

BÂTIER, bâtyé, [bât], sm. pack-saddle maker, saddler.

BATIFOLAGE, batifolazh', sm. frolicking, rollicking, romping.

BATIFOLANT, batifolân, adj. gamesome, frolicsome, playful.

BATIFOLER, batifolé-r, [Ital. : battifolle, rampart ; place to amuse one's self], vn. 1. to frolick, to rollick, to romp ; 2. to jest, to make fun.

BATIFOLEUR, batifolœr, sm. rollicker, funny fellow.

BÂTIMENT, bâtimân-t, [bâtir], sm. 1. building : a) structure, edifice ; b) act of building, building trade. a) Les bâtiments publics de cette ville sont de beaux édifices, the public buildings of that town are fine edifices. Une ferme, une grange sont des bâtiments rustiques, a farm-house, a barn are rustic buildings. Ce — qui menace ruine, this building that threatens ruin. b) Entrepreneur de bâtiments, master-builder, building contractor. Le — est sorti de terre, the building has got above ground. Le — va à ce moment, the building trade is brisk just now. Les ouvriers en —, the building-trades. Peintre en —, house painter.

2. Naut. vessel : a ship of any kind. — de guerre, ship of war, war-ship, (when larger than a frigate) man of war. — marchand (ou de commerce), merchant-ship, merchantman. — de transport, transport vessel, transport. — à rames, à voiles, à vapeur, row-boat, sailing-vessel, steam-vessel, -ship, -boat, or -packet. — mixte, sailing vessel with auxiliary screw. Construire, équiper, armer un —, to build, equip, arm a ship or vessel.

3. Pl. buildings : administration of the crown buildings. Villacerf eut les bâtiments à la mort de Louvois, Villacerf became superintendent of the crown buildings after the death of Louvois. St. Simon. 33. 131.

BÂTIR, bâtir, [bât ; Low Lat. : bastîre], va. 1. to build : a) to construct, to erect ; b) to cause to be built ; c) to found ; d) Fig. to raise, to establish, to rest. a) — une maison, une église, un palais, to build a house, a church, a palace. — sur pilotis, to build on piles. L'hirondelle bâtit son nid avec une patience admirable, the swallow builds its nest with admirable patience. Faire —, to build, to have built, to cause to be built. A cause d'une maison qu'il faisait —, on account of a house he was building. b) Louis XIV a bâti le château de Versailles, Louis XIV built the palace of Versailles. c) La ville d'Alexandrie fut bâtie par Alexandre, the city of Alexandria was built (or founded) by Alexander. d) — sa fortune sur la ruine d'un tel, to build one's fortune on the ruin of such a one. — un système sur une hypothèse, to build a system on a hypothesis.

2. (with tailors and semptresses) to baste, to run or tack together (the different parts of a garment).

BÂTIR, vn. to build, etc. [V. Bâtir, va.] Aimer à — (ou à faire —), to be fond of (or to have a mania for) building, to be building mad. — à chaux et à ciment, to build with good materials ; Fig. to build on a good foundation, on a rock. — en l'air, — sur le sable, to build castles in the air, to build on the sand ; Fig. to form vain projects. C'est — sur un faux principe, that is building on a false principle. — sur le devant, Fam. to grow stout (or corpulent).

BÂTIR (SE), v. refl. 1. to be built ; 2. to build for one's self. Les maisons qui se bâtissent aujourd'hui, the houses which are built now. Il se bâtit une maison de campagne, he built himself a country house. Il se bâtit beaucoup de maisons dans notre quartier, many houses are building in our neighbourhood.

BÂTIS, bâti-z, sm. V. Bâti, sm.

BÂTISSE, bâtis', sf. the maconry (of a building), the shell or outer walls (of a house).

BÂTISSEUR, bâtisœr, sm. 1. builder : one who has a mania for building ; 2. a sorry (poor or incompetent) architect. C'est un grand —, he is always building.

BATISTE, batist', sf. cambric : a fine linen tissus first made by Baptiste, a weaver of Cambrai. Toile de —, cambric. Mouchoir de —, cambric handkerchief. — d'Écosse, Scotch cambric.

BATITURES, batitur', sf. V. Battitures.

BÂTON, bâtô*n*, [O. Fr. : baston, from Low Lat. bastum, from Gr. : βαστάζειν, to support], sm. 1. stick, : a piece of wood, or other substance, long and of small diameter. Gros —, thick stick. — noueux, knotty stick. — de fagot, faggot stick. — de cire, de réglisse, de sucre d'orge, stick of sealing-wax, of liquorice, of barley-sugar. [Fig. :] Mettre des bâtons dans les roues, to raise up obstacles, to create difficulties, to put a spoke in (one's wheel). Battre l'eau avec un —, Fig. to beat the air. Faire sauter le — à quelqu'un, to make a person do a thing in spite of himself, to compel anyone to do a thing willy-nilly. A bâtons rompus, by fits and starts, desultorily, off and on.

2. walking-stick, staff, cane ; (when intended as a weapon) cudgel, club, single-stick. Coup de —, blow with a stick. Une volée de coups de —, a shower of blows, a good beating (or drubbing). Jouer du —, to play at single-sticks, to fence with sticks. Mener le — haut, to rule with a high hand. — à deux bouts, quarter-staff. — de vieillesse, the support (staff or prop) of old age. Cet enfant sera un jour le — de votre vieillesse, that child will one day be the support of your old age. Sortir d'une place le — blanc à la main, to eave a fortress without arms or baggage. Sortir d'un emploi le — blanc à la main, to leave an employment (or office) without a penny in one's purse. Tour du —, perquisites, by-gains, sly pickings.

3. (a symbol of authority, office, profession) baton, batoon, staff, rod, wand. — de maréchal, marshal's baton or truncheon — pastoral, a bishop's crosier. Le roi lui a donné le —, the king gave him the marshal's staff, made him marshal of France. — de mesure, the baton of the conductor of an orchestra.

4. staff (of a flag, banner, processional crucifix, etc.) ; 5. bar, cross-bar, splat (of chair ; 6. perch (for a parrot) ; 7. (in writing) straight down-stroke.

8. Math. Bâtons de Napier, Naper's rods (or bones) : a contrivance for facilitating multiplication and division. — astronomique, — de Jacob, cross-staff, forestaff : an instrument for taking altitudes, long since disused. — d'arpenteur, surveying cross.

9. Naut. — de foc, gib-boom. — de flamme, stock of a pendant. — de girouette, vane-spindle. — de pavillon, flag-staff, — à mèche, linstock.

10. Herald. baton, batoon.

11. Bot. — de Saint-Jean, polygonum orientale. — de Jacob, — royal, yellow asphodel. — d'or, yellow wall-flower. — de Saint-Jacques, hollyhock.

BÂTONNAGE, bâtonazh, sm. the putting into sticks certain liquified substances as wax, liquorice, etc.

BÂTONNAT, bâtona-t, sm. president-ship of the corporation of barristers. V. Batonnier.

† BÂTONNÉE, bâtoné, sf. the quantity of fluid raised by each stroke of a pump piston.

BÂTONNER, bâtoné-r, va. 1. to beat with a stick, to cane, to thwack, to cudgel ; 2. to cross (or strike) out, to suppress (a word, a line, a paragraph).

BÂTONNET, bâtoné, sm. 1. cat, tipcat : a boy's game ; 2. Vet. Surg. a small mallet (to strike the fleam in bleeding horses).

BÂTONNIER, bâtonyé, sm. 1. staff-bearer (of a confraternity) ; 2. chief or president of the corporation of barristers.

BÂTONNISTE, bâtonist', sm. singlestick player, cudgel-player.

BATRACHITE, batrakit',[Gr.: βάτραχος, frog], sf. Min. batrachite, frogstone.

BATRACIEN, batrasyan, sm. Nat. Hist. batrachian : an animal of the order Batrachia.

BATTAGE, batazh', [battre], sm. 1. Agr. threshing or thrashing (of corn) ; 2. beating (of cloth, etc.) ; 3. churning (of butter).

BATTANT, E, batâ*n*, â*n*t', adj. 1. fighting, inclined to fight. Je ne suis point — de peur d'être battu, I am no fighter (I am averse to fighting) for fear of being beaten. Mol. Mener —, to pursue a beaten enemy ; Fig. to press hard, to follow up on's advantage. Dans la discussion il eut le dessus et fut mené — par son adversaire, in the discussion he had the worst of it and was driven from pillar to post by his opponent. [Subst..] Les battants et les battus, the beaters and the beaten.

2. going, at work, working. Métier —, a loom at work. Porte battante, swing-door, pulley-door, self-shutting door.

3. pelting, driving, pattering. Une pluie battante, a pelting rain.

4. beating. Tambour —, with beat of drum, with drums beating. Mener quelqu'un tambour —, to press hard (or to be hard) on a person. Faire une chose tambour —,to do a thing openly.

5. Naut. fit for fighting. Vaisseau bien —, a vessel well adapted for combat, a good fighting ship.

6. bran-new, bran-fire new, spick-and-span new. Un habit tout — neuf, a bran-new coat.

BATTANT, sm. 1. clapper (of a bell) ; 2. leaf (of a folding-door) ; 3. flap (of a shop-counter) ; 4. batten (of a loom) ; 5. bird-trap ; 6. Naut. fly : the free end of a flag.

BATTANT-L'ŒIL, batâ*n*-lœy, sm. woman's morning cap with a broad border. [Pl. Battant-l'œil.]

BATTE, bat', [battre], sf. 1. beater : an instrument for beating ; 2. wooden-sword (of a harlequin) ; 2. Agr. churn-staff, plunger (of a plunge-churn) ; 4. bung-starter : a long-handled mallet, used to extract the bung of a cask ; 5. turf-beetle (used in forming grass-plots) ; 5. bat to strike a ball.

BATTÉE, baté, sf. 1. quantity that the beater, binder, comber, etc. can form at one time ; 2. part of the door-frame against which the door strikes when closing.

BATTE-LESSIVE, bat'-lèsiv', BATTE-MARE, bat'-mar', BATTE-QUEUE, bat'-kœ, sf. Ornith. wagtail. [All three words have the plural the same as the singular.]

BATTELLEMENT, batèl'mâ*n*, sm. Arch. the doubled row of tiles at the eaves of a roof.

BATTEMENT, bat'mâ*n*-t, [battre], sm. 1. beat, beating ; 2. clapping (with the hands) ; 3. stamping (with the feet) ; 4. flapping (of wings) ; 5. shuffling (of cards) ; 6. Danc. battement ; 7. Med. beating (of the heart, etc.) ; throb, throbbing palpitation : these last three words imply an abnormal action. Les battements du cœur, the beating of the heart. Il est sujet aux battements du cœur, he is subject to palpitation of the heart

8. beat, beating, oscillation (of a pendulum) ; 9. Mus. trill, shake ; 10. Join. ledge or flange covering the junction of the leaves of a folding door.

11. Naut. shivering (of a sail).

BATTE-QUEUE, bat kœ, sm. Ornith. wag-tail.

BATTERAND, bat'râ*n*, BATTRANT, bat-râ*n*, sm. stone-digger's maul.

BATTERIE, bat'ri, [battre], sf. 1. fight, fighting : scuffle, fray, affray (between quarrelsome and disorderly persons). Il y a toujours dans cette rue quelque —, there is always fighting in that street.

2. Milit. beat, beating (of the drum). Quelle est cette — ? C'est l'assemblée, la retraite, what beat is that ? It is the assembly (or long roll); the tattoo (when in garrison or quarters), the retreat (when in the field).

3. battery : a) Artill. a place constructed to mount cannon or mortars for action ; b) the ordnance placed therein ; c) a company of artillerie with their guns, etc. ; d) Fig. attack, means of attack ; e) Elect. a number of Leyden jars connected together ; f) Galv. a pair or series of pairs of excited plates ; g) Hat-m. felting-room.

a) Dresser, établir une —, to erect a battery. Mettre les pièces en —, to place ordnance in battery. — de canons, d'obusiers, de mortiers, battery of cannon, of howitzers, of mortars. Démonter une —, to dismount a battery. — blindée, cachée ou couverte, covered or concealed battery. — flottante, floating battery. — à barbette, barbet battery. — à ricochet, ricochet battery. — à redans, indented battery. — de brèche, breaching battery. — de bricole ou d'écharpe, oblique battery. — de campagne, field battery. — d'enfilade, enfilading (or raking) battery. — de plein fouet, direct battery. — de niveau, horizontal battery. — de revers à dos, battery for reverse fire.

b) Il commande la première —, he commands the first battery. Toutes les batteries de ce régiment sont sur le pied de guerre, all the batteries of that regiment are on a war footing.

c) Fig. Dresser ses batteries, to erect one's batteries, to prepare one's means of action. Avoir de bonnes batteries, to have powerful means at command. Changer ses batteries, to change one's batteries (or one's tactics). Démonter les batteries à quelqu'un, to baffle (or frustrate) a person's schemes (or plans).

4. Naut. tier or deck (of guns), broadside (of a ship). — flottante, floating battery block-ship. Première ou basse —, the lower (or the lowest) deck guns. Vaisseau qui a sa — noyée, ship that carries her lower deck guns too near the water-line. Ce vaisseau a six pieds de —, that vessel carries her lowest tier of guns six feet above the water-line

5. hammer : the pan cover of flint-lock, fire-arms 6. Metal. flatting-mill ; 7. stamping or pounding apparatus 8. Civ. Eng pile-driver ; 9. Mus. beating : a) a peculiar manner of striking on a guitar , b) a series of arpeggio notes ; 10. a set of instruments or utensils. — d'orchestre, the percussive instruments (drum, cymbals, etc.) of an orchestra. — de cuisine, kitchen utensils (pots, saucepans, skillets, fryingpans, etc.).

11. Elect. and Autom. — d'accumulateurs accumulator battery. — d'allumage, ignition battery. — de réserve, spar battery. — de renfort auxiliaire, auxiliary battery. d'éclairage,lighting battery, storage battery for electric lamps.

12. jingle (of words). Chercher un détour pour trouver une — de mots, to go out of one's way to find a jingle of words.

BATTEUR, batœr, sm. beater: a) a person who beats or thrashes another b) one who beats or crushes any substance c) Sport. one who beats woods, etc. for game. Un — de gens, a cudgeller or fustigator. en grange, thresher (of corn). — d'or, gold-beater. — de fer, an inveterate fencer or swordsman. — de pavé, rambler, great walker : one who is always running about the streets. — d'estrade, 1. Mil. scout ; 2. foot-traveller , (in an ill sense) tramp.

BATTEUSE, batœz', sf. 1. beater ; 2. thresher (of corn). — mécanique, thrashing machine. — d'œufs, egg-beater. V. Batteur.

BATTITURES, batitur', sf. pl. blacksmith's cinders : the scales that fall from hot iron when forged, the protoxide of iron.

BATTOIR, batwâr, sm. 1. beater : any tool or instrument to strike with ; 2. battledore, racket (used at tennis, etc.); 3. beetle, bat : a flat wooden beater used by washerwomen ; 4. Fig. clapper, applauder (at a theatre, etc.). Des mains comme des battoirs, hands like washerwomen's bats ; shoulder-of-mutton hands.

BATTOIRE, batwâr', sf. churn. V. Baratte.

BATTOLOGIE, batolozhi, [Gr. : βάτος, Battus, king of Cyrene who stuttered; λόγος, word], sf. battology : tautology, useless repetition.

BATTOLOGIQUE, batolozhik', adj. battological, tautological.

BATTRE, batr', [Lat. : battuĕre], [Je bats, tu bats, il bat, nous battons, vous battez, ils battent ; je battais ; je battis, nous battîmes ; je battrai je battrais ; bats, battons, battez ; que je batte, que nous battions ; que je battisse, que nous battissions ; battant, battu.] va. 1. to beat : a) to strike repeatedly, to ply with blows ; b) to play on (a drum) c) to break smaller, to pound, to pulverize d) to extend by beating, to hammer (as a metal) ; e) to agitate, to mix by beating , f) to thrash, to drub, to belabour, to bemaul ; (with a stick or cane) to cane, (with a cudgel) to cudgel ; (with a whip) to whip, to lash ; g) to conquer, to overcome, to defeat, to worst ; h) to go about, to traverse, to scour.

a) — des habits, des chaises, des tapis, to beat clothes, chairs, carpets (to get out the dust). — l'air, l'eau, to beat the air, the water Fig. to make vain or useless efforts. — une rivière, to beat a river (in fishing with nets). — les buissons, to beat the bushes (to drive out game). — le sol, to beat the ground (in order to make it firm or level). — le fer, to fence, to practise fencing ; Fig. to study or work hard, to practise any trade or profession.

b) — le tambour, la grosse caisse, to beat the drum, the big drum. — le rappel, to beat the roll-call. — l'assemblée, la générale, to beat the assembly, the general. — la retraite, to beat the tattoo (for soldiers on garrison to return to quarters) ; to beat the retreat (for soldiers to retire from action). — la chamade, to beat a parley ; Fig. to yield, to surrender ,to give in or up to acknowledge one's self defeated (in argument, etc.). — la mesure, to beat time (in music). — les cartes, to shuffle the cards.

c) — du plâtre, to beat plaster (of Paris). — du poivre, de la cannelle, to pound.pepper, cinnamon d) — de l'or, de l'argent, to beat gold, silver (into thin leaves).—le fer à chaud, to hammer, to forge iron. — le fer à froid, to coldhammer iron ; e) — des œufs, to beat (or beat up) eggs. — une sauce, to beat a sauce. — du beurre, to churn, to make butter.

f) On le battit de verges, he was beaten with rods. Battez ce chien qui veut mordre, beat (or flog) that dog for offering to bite. Elle le fit battre par ses gens, she made her servants give him a thrashing (or drubbing). — quelqu'un comme plâtre, to give a person a good (or sound) beating (flogging or drubbing). —le chien devantle lion, to reprimand an underling in the presence of a person of higher rank who has been guilty of the same fault. — à plates coutures, to beat to a mummy, to beat black and blue, to rib-roast.

g) — les ennemis, to beat (defeat or rout) the enemy. Notre aile gauche battit l'aile droite de l'ennemi, our left wing beat the enemy's right. Il me bat toujours aux échecs, he always beats me at chess. — quelqu'un de raisons sans réplique, to beat a person with irrefutable arguments.

h) — le pavé, to run about the streets, to be always walking about. — l'estrade, (an old military phrase) to go on the scout, on the look-out. — la campagne, 1. to beat up, to scour, to ramble over a country ; Fig. to ramble (or to be desultory) in one's speech ; to rave ; 2. to give an evasive answer, to reply evasively ; 3. to be lightheaded or delirious. Nous avons battu la plaine, le bois, sans trouver de gibier, we have beaten the plain, the wood without finding any game. — le pays, Milit. to explore, to scour a country. — du pays, to go over a great deal of ground, to travel about. Dans cette conversation nous avons battu bien du pays en peu de temps, in this conversation we have gone over a deal of ground in a short time. — la mer, to beat or cruise about. Nous avons battu la mer longtemps sur les côtes occidentales de l'Afrique, we cruised a long while off the west coast of Africa. — la semelle. 1. to strike the soles of one's shoes against another person's, to get warm ; 2. to beat hoof, to tramp, to be on the tramp.

2. to batter, to beat down. — en brèche, to batter in breach, to breach. — une place en ruine. to batter down a fortress. [Fig. :] — quelqu'un en ruine, to overwhelm a person in argument. — en ruine un système, to overthrow (or demolish) a system. — en ruine un argument, to utterly refute an argument.

3. to strike. — le briquet (or le fusil), to strike the steel, to strike a light. Il faut — le fer pendant qu'il est chaud, we must strike the iron while it is hot ; To make hay while the sun shines. — la ligne, to strike a line (with a chalked or coloured cord).

4. to coin. Le droit de — monnaie n'appartient qu'à l'État, the right of coining belongs only to the State. — monnaie, to coin money; Fig. to raise money, to procure funds ; Colloq. to raise the wind. Il a battu monnaie en vendant ses livres, he has raised money by selling his books.

5. to beat against, to dash against. Les vagues battent le rocher, the waves beat against the rock. Le fleuve grossi vint — les murailles de la ville, the swollen river beat against (washed or bathed) the walls of the town. Les voiles battent les mâts, the sails beat (or flap) against the mats.

6. to thrash, to beat out (corn) ; 7. to tew (hemp) , 8. to swingle (flax) 9. to shuffle (cards) ; 10. to hit (at back-gammon or trictrac).

11. Civ. Eng. to drive (piles). — jusqu'à refus de mouton, to drive (a pile) till it will go no further, to drive home.

BATTRE, vn. 1. to beat : a) to strike or dash (against) b) to be beaten (as a drum) ; c) to throb, to palpitate, to go pit-a-pat (as the heart), to throb (as the pulse) ; d) to flap (as a sail against a mast). a) La grêle bat contre les toits, contre les fenêtres, the hail beats against the roofs, beats (or patters) against the windows. Les flots battaient contre la digue, the waves beat (or dashed) against the embankment. b) Le tambour bat, the drum beats (or is beating). La générale bat, the general is beating, the drums are beating the general. — aux champs, to beat a salute. c) Les artères battent, the arteries beat (throb or pulsate). Tant que le cœur me battra, so long as my heart shall beat, so long as I live. Il vous faisait — le cœur, he made your heart beat (or go pit-a-pat). — du flanc, Vet. Surg. to pant, to be short-winded.

2. to clap (with the hands), to stamp (with the feet) ; 3. to flap or clap (wings), to flutter. — des mains, to clap with the hands, to clap, to applaud. — des ailes, to clap (or flap) its wings. — d'une aile, to use only one wing. [Fig. :] Ne — que d'une aile, to be almost done over, to have lost one's strength, credit, or influence.

3. to clink, to be loose (as a horse's shoe).

4. — en retraite, Milit. to beat a retreat, to fall back ; Fig. to give way, to yield.

5. to work, to be working (as looms etc.).

6. to fight. On les fit — they made them fight, they set them fighting. — froid à quelqu'un, to fight shy of, to behave coldly towards, to turn or give the cold shoulder to a person.

BATTRE (SE), v. refl. 1. to beat one's self. Le lion irrité se battait de la queue, the irritated lion beat (or lashed) himself with his tail. Se — à la perche, Hawk. to be restless on the perch ; Fig. to torment one's self uselessly.

2. to fight. Se — à coups de poing, to fight with fists, to go to fisticuffs. Se — à l'épée, au pistolet, to fight with swords, with pistols. Se — en duel, to fight a duel. Les deux armées se battirent avec un courage égal, both armies fought with equal courage.

BATTU, E, batu, pa. p. ; adj. V. Battre. 1. beaten ; 2. thrashed ; 3. battered ; 4. dinned ; 5. scoured, explored. L'enfant — par le maître, the child beaten (or flogged) by the master. — de verges, beaten with rods. Les Francais battus en 1557 par les Espagnols, the French beaten in 1557 by the Spaniards. Grain —, thrashed corn. Il y a longtemps que j'ai les oreilles battues de ces discours, I have long had my ears dinned with this talk. Chemin —, beaten path or track. On n'ose pas s'écarter du chemin —, they dare not deviate from the beaten track. Le mur — en brèche, the wall battered in breach. Rocher — par les vagues, a rock beaten by the waves. La tempête dont la flotte fut battue, the storm by which the fleet was assailed. La campagne battue par un parti de cavalerie, the country scoured by a troop of cavalry. Prov. : Autant vaut bien — que mal —, in for a penny, in for a pound ; one may as well be hanged for a sheep as for a lamb.

BATTU, sm. a person beaten. Les batteurs et les battus, the beaters and the beaten.

BATTUE, batu, sf. Sport. battue. Faire une —, to make a battue : to beat a game preserve, a wood, etc. ; Fig. to make an exploring excursion.

BATTURE, batur', [battre], sf. 1. gold lacquer, gold lacquering ; 2. Naut. reef, coral reef.

BAU, bó, [O. Fr. : balc, from Ger. Balken, beam], sm. Naut. beam. Maître (or grand) —, midship beam. Faux-baux, orlop beams. — de force, knee.

BAUBI, BAUBIS, bôbi, sm. Sport. hound trained to run hares, foxes, and wild-boars.

BAUD, bó, sm. Barbary hound, staghound.

BAUDELAIRE, bôdelair (Charles), poet (1821-1867).

BAUDER, bôdé-r, va. Sport. to bay, to bark, to give tongue (as dogs).

BAUDET, bôdé, [O. Fr. : bald, baud, gay, proud], sm. 1. jackass, ass, donkey : a) a male ass ; b) Fig. a very stupid person ; 2. pl. horses : trestles used by sawyers to support timber while being sawn.

BAUDIR, bôdir, [O. Fr. : baud], va. Sport. to excite or encourage (dogs) by voice or horn.

BAUDRIER bôdrié [O. Fr. : baudrei from O. H. Ger. Balderich girdle] sm. baldrick cross belt, shoulder-belt. — d'Orion, Astron. Orion's belt.

BAUDROIE, baudrwâ, sf. Ichth. angler, fishing-frog, sea devil : lophius piscatorius.

BAUDRUCHE, bôdrush', [origin. unknown), sf. gold-beater's skin, court-plaster.

BAUGE, bôzh', [Low Lat. : baugium], sf. 1. lair (of a wild-boar) ; Fig. a miserable bed ; 2. mortar made of loam and chopped straw ; 3. a kind of coarse drugget.

BAUGUE, bôg', BAUQUE, bôk', [Low Lat. : batcha, reed], sf. sea-weeds thrown up by the sea (on the coasts of the Mediterranean.

BAUME, bôm', [Lat. : balsamum; Gr. : βάλσαμον], sm. 1. balsam, balm : a fragrant resinous substance used as medicine. — de Giléad ou de la Mecque, balm (or balsam) of Gilead, Mecca balsam. — de copahu, balsam of copaiba. — du Pérou, balsam of Peru. — de soufre, balsam of sulphur. — de Tolu, balsam of tolu. — universel, elixir, universal remedy. Bois de —, balsam wood. — d'acier, steel balsam : a balsam containing steel filings ; (in pop. lang.) dentist's instrument for extracting teeth. Votre dent est gâtée, il n'y a que le — d'acier qui vous guérira, your tooth is decayed, nothing but cold steel will cure you. Fleurer comme —, to have a pleasant smell. Sa réputation fleure comme —, he is in good repute, in good odour.

2. Fig. balm : anything that soothes care, grief, sorrow, or suffering. Ces quelques lignes semblaient distiller un — salutaire sur sa blessure, these few lines seemed to pour a salutary balm into his wound. Quand la paix répand son — sur les maux qu'ils ont endurées, when peace pours its balm over the sufferings they have endured. Béranger, Ménétr. Je n'ai point de foi dans son —, I put no faith in his promises.

3. Bot. balm, garden-balm, balm-mint.

BAUMIER, bômyé', sm. Bot. balsam-tree : amyris.

BAUQUE, bôke, V. Baugue.

BAUQUIÈRE, bôkièr, [bau], sf. Shipb. clamp, sea-craft.

BAUX, bô-z, pl. of Bail and Bau, which see.

BAVARD, E, bavar, ard' ; the d of the masculine is always mute and the s of its plural is not generally pronounced before a vowel (bave), adj. 1. talkative, prating, chattering, loquacious, garrulous ; 2. blabbing, tale-telling, tattling, gossiping.

BAVARD, E, smf. 1. prater, chatterer, chatter-box ; 2. blab, tell-tale.

BAVARDAGE bavardazh' sm. 1. talkativenesss, loquacity, garrulity ; 2. idle talk, babble, babbling, prating, prate, gossip ; 3. blabbing, tattling.

BAVARDER, bavardé-r [bavard], vn. 1. to chatter, to prate ; 2. to gossip, to talk uncautiously.

BAVARDERIE, bavard'ri, sf. 1. talkativeness, garrulity ; 2. prate, prating, tattling, chatter, chattering.

BAVARDINER, bavardiné-r, vn. to prattle, to tattle, to gossip.

BAVARDISE, bavardiz', sf. prate, chatter, gossip, idle talk.

BAVAROIS, E, bavarwâ-z, wâz', adj. and smf. Bavarian. Les Bavarois, the Bavarians.

BAVAROISE, sf. bavaroise : a drink made of milk, tea, or any other infusion and sweetened with any aromatized syrup instead of sugar.

BAVE, bav', [onomat.], sf. 1. drivel, slaver : saliva escaping from the mouth involuntarily ; 2. slabber, slobber ; slaver (of babies) ; 3. foam (from the mouth of a dog, etc.) ; 4. slime (of a snail, and other reptiles).

BAVÉOLE, bavéol', sf. Bot. blue cornflower, blue centaury.

BAVER, bavé-r, [bave], vn. 1. to drivel, to slaver : to let saliva escape from the mouth ; 2. to slabber or slobber ; to slaver (as babies) ; 3. to foam (at the mouth) ; 4. (in an active sense) to beslobber ; 5. to dribble.

6. Fig. (with sur) to beslaver.

BAVETTE, bavèt', sf. 1. slabbering-bib (for a baby) ; 2. bib (of an apron). Être encore à la —, to be still a baby. Tablier à —, an apron with a bib, a bibbed apron. Tailler une bavette, Fam. to gossip.

3. Butch. — d'aloyau, thin flank (of veal or beef).

BAVEULE, bavœl', sf. V. Bavéole.

BAVEUSE, bavœz, sf. Ichth. blenny.

BAVEUX, SE, bavœ-z, œz', adj. 1. drivelling, slabbering, slavering (as of babies) ; 2. moist (said of an omelette when the white of the eggs is not set) ; 3. Surg. proud. Chair baveuse, proud flesh, fungous flesh (in a wound or ulcer) ; 4. Print. slabbery, slabbered (said of letters) : not printed clearly.

BAVIÈRE, bavyèr', sf. Geog. Bavaria.

BAVOCHÉ, E, bavoshé, adj. 1. Print. blurred, mackled : printed in a slovenly manner ; 2. Engr. not clear, slovenly.

BAVOCHER, bavoshé-r, [baver], vn. 1. Print. to print indistinctly, to be full of monks or blots ; 2. Engr. to be blurred or indistinct (as the lines of an engraving).

BAVOCHURE, bavoshur', sf. Print. blur.

BAVOIR, bavwar, sm. V. Bavette.

BAVOLET, bavolé, [bas ; volet], sm. 1. cap, headgear (of a peasant woman) ; 2. curtain (of a woman's bonnet) ; 3. Fig. country-girl, peasantess.

† BAVOLETTE, bavolet, [bavolet], sf. woman wearing a bavolet : old-fashioned closed-in bonnet.

BAVURE, bavur', [bave], sf. fash, seam (of metal castings or plaster casts).

BAYADÈRE, bayadèr' [Port. : bailadeira], sf. bayadere : an East-Indian dancing-girl.

BAYARD, beyar [Jean-François-Alfred], dramatic author (1796-1821).

BAYART, BAYART bayar, sm. hand-barrow.

BAYAUDIER, bayôdyé, sm. V. Bajoyer.

BAYER, bèyé-r, formerly bayé-r [O. Fr. : béer ; Low Lat. : baāre or batāre to be open] [conj. like balayer.] vn. 1. to gape, to stand gaping and staring. — aux corneilles, to gape in the air, to stand gaping like a simpleton. Vous rêvez et bayez aux corneilles, you dream and gape like a fool, Mol. Tart. I. I.

2. Fig. (with après) to gape after, to hanker after, to long for.

BAYEUR, SE, bèyœr, œz' ; formerly bayœr, œz', smf. gaper, gaping simpleton.

BAYEUX, bayœ (Georges), historien and essayist (1752-1792).

BAYLE, bail (Pierre), philosopher (1647-1706).

BAYONNETTE, bayônèt', [Pers., market], sf. V. Baïonnette.

BAZAR, bazar, [Pers.], sm. bazaar, bazar.

BAZARDER, bazardé, va. Fam. to sell, to get rid of at any price.

BDELLIUM, bdèliœm, [Gr. : βδέλλιον], sm. bdellium : a resinous gum.

BDELLOMÈTRE, bdèlomètr', [Gr.: βδάλλω, I suck ; μέτρον, measure], sm. Surg. bdellometer : an instrument that draws blood like a leech and measures the quantity drawn.

BÉANT, E, bé*an*-t, ânt', [O. Fr. : béer, to be open], adj. gaping, open-mouthed ; yawning. Rester, demeurer bouche béante, to stand gaping. Une troupe béante, a gaping crowd. Un gouffre —, a yawning gulf.

BÉARN, béarn, sm. Geog. Bearn : an old province of France near the Pyrenees.

BÉARNAIS, E, béarnè-z, èz', adj. and smf. Bearnese : a) of or belonging to Bearn ; b) a native of Bearn. Le —, the Bearnese : Henry the Fourth of France.

BÉAT, E, béa-t, at', [Lat. : beatus, happy], smf. 1. devotee : a very devout person ; 2. (in an ill sense) a sanctimonious person, a hypocrite ; 3. Cath. Rel. a beatified person.

BÉAT, E, adj. (in an ill sense) sanctimonious, affectedly religious.

BÉATEMENT, béatmàn, adv. peacefully ; santimoniously.

BÉATIFICATION, béatifikàsyôn, sf. beatification.

BÉATIFIER, béatifié-r, va. to beatify : a) Cath. rel. to rank a person with the blessed ; b) Colloq. to make happy. Cette nouvelle l'a béatifié, this news has made him happy.

BÉATIFIQUE, béatifik', adj. beatific. Vision —, beatific vision.

† BÉATILLES, béatiy', [Lat. : beatus, happy], sf. pl. tit-bits, dainties (such as cocks' combs, sweet-breads, etc. used in pies and stews).

BÉATITUDE, béatitud', [Lat. : beatitudo ; beatus, happy], sf. beatitude, blessedness : a) bliss, unalloyed, happiness ; b) a blessing ; c) an ecclesiastical title of honour. Les neuf béatitudes, the nine beatitudes : the blessings pronounced by Christ in the Sermon on the Mount.

BEAU, bô, or BEL, bèl, BELLE, bèl', mpl. BEAUX, bô-z, [Lat. : bellus], adj. [Bel is used instead of Beau before nouns beginning with a vowel or mute h, and in several adverbial phrases, which will be found further on.] 1. beautiful ; in Poet. beauteous ; presenting qualities that please any of the senses or the intellect. Un bel enfant, a beautiful child. Une femme belle à ravir, an exquisitely beautiful woman. Avoir l'air beau, to look beautiful. Un beau visage, a beautiful face. De beaux bras, beautiful arms. De belles couleurs, beautiful (or fine) colours. Un beau rouge, bleu ou vert, a beautiful red, blue, or green. Un bel oiseau, a beautiful bird. Un beau cheval, a beautiful horse. Un beau paysage, a beautiful landscape. Une belle vue. a beautiful view. Un beau lac, a beautiful lake. Un bel arbre, a beautiful tree. Un beau jardin, a beautiful garden. Un beau palais, a beautiful palace. Une belle statue, a beautiful statue. Un beau tableau, a beautiful picture. Une belle pensée, a beautiful thought. Une belle symphonie, a beautiful symphony. Une belle composition, a beautiful composition.

2. fine : a) lofty, elevated, exalted ; b) noble, generous ; c) glorious, palmy ; d) honourable ; e) accomplished, clever, skilful ; f) good-looking, handsome ; g) elegant, fashionable ; h) smart, spruce ; i) happy, fortunate, favourable ; j) great, large, good ; k) pleasant, nice, agreeable ; l) Ironic. pretty, nice, precious ; m) fair, beautiful.

a) Un beau génie, a fine genius. Il a un beau talent, he has fine talents. Belle imagination, a fine imagination. Un beau discours, a fine speech. Une belle pensée, a fine (or beautiful) thought. De très belles expressions, very fine expressions. Il laisse de beaux ouvrages, he leaves some fine works. Il y a dans ce livre de beaux passages, there are some fine passages in that book. Les beaux-arts, the fine arts. Bel-esprit. V. Esprit. Les belles-lettres, polite literature.

b) De beaux sentiments, fine (generous or noble) sentiments. Un beau caractère, a fine character, a noble (or generous) disposition. Conduisez ou suivez une fureur si belle, lead or follow so noble a rage. Vous ne souffrirez pas que le fils d'un Scythe commande au plus beau sang de la Grèce, you will not suffer the son of a Scythian to command the noblest blood of Greece. Rac. Phèd. I. 3.

c) Les beaux temps de notre histoire, the glorious times of our history. Les plus beaux temps de son règne, the palmiest days of his reign. Ce sera un beau jour pour lui, that will be a glorious day for him.

d) Une belle conduite, honourable conduct. Une belle victoire, a glorious victory. C'est la plus belle page de son histoire, it is the finest page of his history. Un beau nom, a glorious (or honourable) name.

e) Un beau danseur, a fine (or accomplished) dancer. Un beau diseur, a fine (or clever) talker, a good conversationist.

f) Un bel homme, a fine (or handsome) man. Une belle femme, a fine woman. g) Un beau monsieur, a fashionable gentleman, a well-dressed man. Une belle dame, an elegant lady. Le beau monde, the world of fashion, the fashionable world. h) Comme vous voilà beau (or belle) aujourd'hui ! how smart (or spruce) you are to-day ! Se faire beau, to smarten (or spruce) one's self up.

i) Un très beau succès, a very happy success. Un bel emploi, a fine situation. Être en belle passe, to be in a favourable position ; Ironic. to be in a fine (or nice) mess, in a pretty scrape. Un beau commencement, a fine beginning. L'occasion est belle, the opportunity is favourable. Avoir, donner beau jeu, to have, to give good cards (or a good hand) ; Fig. to have, to give a good chance, a good opportunity.

j) De belles pommes, fine apples. Une belle quantité d'or, a large quantity of gold. Une belle somme d'argent, a good sum of money. Une belle fortune, a fine (handsome or large) fortune. Belle provision de livres, a good store (or stock) of books. De belles promesses, fine promises. Une belle et bonne fluxion de poitrine, a serious inflammation of the lungs. Vous ne l'aurez jamais plus belle, you will never have a finer opportunity. Il y a beau temps qu'il est parti, he has been gone a great while, he went away long ago. Un beau mangeur, a great eater.

k) Il ferait beau chanter tant d'illustres merveilles, it would be fine to sing so many famous marvels. Il fait beau voir deux armées se disposer au combat, it is a fine sight to see two armies preparing for battle. Il fait beau voir un orage quand on est à l'abri, it is pleasant to see a storm from a safe retreat.

l) Me voilà dans un bel état, here I am in a nice mess. Vous avez fait un beau coup, you have performed a fine feat, you have made a nice job of it. Être dans de beaux draps, to be in a fine pickle (mess). C'est un beau fripon, he is a precious rascal. Tout cela est beau et bon, mais, all that is very nice and fine, but. Le chat et le renard, comme beaux petits saints, s'en allaient en pèlerinage, the cat and the fox, like nice little saints, went on a pilgrimage. La Font. Fab. IX. 13. Mourir de sa belle mort, to die a natural death. En dire (or en conter), en faire de belles, to say, to do foolish things. Je vous ferai chanter de belle sorte, I will make you sing to a fine tune. On lui en fera voir de belles, they will give it him finely (or nicely). L'échapper belle, to have a narrow escape. Vous me la donnez (or baillez) belle, you are deceiving me

m) Un beau jour, a fine day. Par un beau temps, in fine (or fair) weather. Quel beau ciel ! what a beautiful sky ! Il fait beau temps, il fait beau, le temps est beau, it is fine, the weather is fine. Une belle mer, a smooth (or calm) sea. Les beaux jours, the fine season. [Fig. :] Les beaux jours, les belles années, le bel âge, the palmy days of youth, the springtime of life. Il partit un — jour et on ne l'a jamais revu depuis, he went away one fine day, and has never been seen since. Il fera beau quand il reviendra, it will be a long time before you see him again. Un beau jour il pourra se sauver avec votre caisse, some fine day he may run away with your cash-box. Fig. Faire la pluie et le beau temps, to have great influence ; to do wonders.

3. handsome : a) somewhat beautiful or elegant ; b) ample, large (as an estate) ; c) liberal, generous (as a gift or action).

a) Un bel homme, a handsome man. Une belle femme, a fine (or handsome) woman. Charles le Bel (de France), Charles the Fair. Philippe le Beau, Philip the Handsome (the father of the Emperor Charles V, of Germany). De beaux traits, fine (or handsome) features. Une belle jambe, a handsome leg. Un beau chien, a handsome dog. De beaux meubles, handsome furniture.

b) Un beau revenu, a handsome income. Une belle fortune, a handsome fortune. De beaux bénéfices, handsome profits. c) Un beau cadeau, a handsome present.

4. fair. Le beau sexe, the fair sex, the softer (or gentler) sex, the fair. Une belle personne, a fair maid, a fair lady. Ma belle amie, ma belle enfant, ma belle, my fair one, my beauty, my belle.

5. fit, fitting, proper, becoming, suitable, Il y a un langage qui est beau pour les vieillards, there is a mode of speech which becomes elderly persons. Il n'est pas — que vous ayez pris sa place, it is not well fitting, that you should have taken his place. Prov. : La belle plume fait le bel oiseau, fine feathers make fine birds. Beau est qui bien fait, handsome is that handsome does. Quand il fait beau, prends ton manteau, in fair weather prepare for foul. Beau parler n'écorche pas la bouche, fair words break no bones. Ce qui est beau de loin ne l'est pas toujours de près, what looks well at a distance is not always so when near. A beau jour, beau retour, one good turn deserves another. Qui vient est beau, qui apporte est encore plus beau, promises are all very fine but actions are better. A beau mentir qui vient de loin, travellers may tell lies with impunity.

6. (in compound words) step-, -in-law. V. Beau-père, Belle-mère, etc. in the alphabetic order.

BEAU, sm. 1. the best. Quand on achète il faut prendre du beau, when you buy, choose the best (or what is really good of its kind). Je vous ai dit le beau de l'aventure, mais voici le laid, I have told you the best of the adventure, but now comes the worst.

2. beauty. Voilà le beau de l'affaire, that is the beauty (the cream) of the affair. Le beau de cette victoire est que..., the beauty of this victory is that... Où est le beau dans un monceau d'or ? where is the beauty of a heap of gold ? Faire le beau, to assume fine manners and graces ; to try fascination. Ce petit chien fait le beau, this little dog sits up and begs.

3. (in literature and art) the beautiful. Inspirer le goût du beau, to instil a taste for the beautiful. Ce qu'on appelle beau idéal est le plus haut degré de beauté que la raison puisse concevoir ou que l'imagination puisse s'imaginer, what we call the beau ideal is the highest degree of beauty that the mind can conceive or the imagination fancy.

4. fop, coxcomb. Je me défie de tous ces beaux, I mistrust all those fops.

5. fair. Le baromètre se tient au beau, au beau fixe, the barometer stands at fair, at set fair.

BEAU, BEL, BELLE, adv. Ce cheval porte beau, this horse carries his head handsomely. En beau, under a favourable aspect, flatteringly. Cette affaire se présentait en beau, that affair presented itself under a favourable aspect. Voir tout en beau, to see the bright side of everything. Peindre en beau, to give a favourable (or flattering) description (or picture). Tout beau, gently, softly, fairly and softly. Bel et beau, bel et bien, bien et beau, fully and fairly, entirely, thoroughly, completely, fully, roundly. Je lui répondrai bel et bien, I will answer him roundly. Il l'a fait bel et bien, he did it fully and fairly. Dites-lui bien et beau, tell him roundly (or plainly). J'ai beau dire et faire, I have said and done all in vain.

BEAUCOUP, bôkou-p, [beau ; coup], adv. 1. (with de) a great deal, a good deal (followed by a sing. noun or pronoun) ; a great many, a good many (with a plural noun or pronoun) ; much (with the sing.), many (with the pl.) ; (in speaking of time long, a long while. — d'argent, a great deal of money. Il n'a pas — d'argent, he has not much money. — de livres, a great many books. [Much and many are always followed by of before a pronoun :] Prenez-moi quelques-uns de ces crayons, j'en ai —, take some of those pencils, I have a great many of them (or simply a great many). Il me faut du papier, et vous en avez —, I want some paper and you have a great deal (of it). — de gens pensent ainsi, many people think so. — s'en plaignent, many complain of it. C'eût été — d'avoir mérité son estime, it would have been a great thing to have merited his esteem. Il a — d'autorité sur moi, he has great authority over me. Un homme qui sait —, a man who knows a great deal. Manger —, to eat a great deal. Il ne mange pas —, he does not eat much. Il reste — à faire, much remains to do (or to be done). On lui promit —, they made him great promises. C'était — pour moi, ce n'était rien pour vous, it was a great deal for me, it was nothing for you. C'est — s'il vous regarde, it will be a great deal if he even looks at you.

2. far, much (before an adjective or adverb in the comparative). Un chemin — plus facile, a much (or far) easier road. Je l'aimerais — mieux, I should like it much better. — plus, much more, far more.

À BEAUCOUP PRÈS, adv. phr. nothing like, near ; by far, by a great deal. Il n'est pas, à — près aussi riche que vous, he is nothing like (he is not nearly) so rich as you ; he is not so rich as you by a great deal. Je suis son aîné à — près, I am his elder by a great deal (or by far).

DE BEAUCOUP, adv. phr. by much, by far. Vous êtes plus savant de —, you are more learned by far. De — le plus riche, by far the richest. Il s'en faut de —, far from it. Il s'en faut de — que vous m'ayez payé tout ce que vous me devez, you have not paid me all you owe, far from it ; you are far from having paid me all you owe. Il s'en faut de — que la somme y soit, the sum is far from being made up. Il s'en fallait de — que la Russie fût aussi puissante, Russia was far from being so powerful. [Without de :] Il s'en faut — qu'il soit aussi habile que son frère, he is far from being as clever as his brother.

BEAUCOURT, bocour, [Marquis de, Gaston du Fresne], historian (b. 1833).

BEAU-FILS, bôfis, sm. 1. son-in-law : the husband of one's daughter ; 2. step-son : the son of one's wife or husband by a previous marriage.

BEAU-FRAIS bô-frè sm. Naut. fresh breeze.

BEAU-FRÈRE, bô-frèr', sm. 1. brother-in-law : the brother of one's wife or husband ; 2 step-brother, half-brother : said of brothers who have only one parent in common.

BEAUMARCHAIS, bômarshé, [Pierre-Augustin, Caron de], dramatic author (1732-1799).

BEAU-PÈRE, bô-pèr, sm. 1. father-in-law : the father of one's wife or husband ; 2. step-father : the second husband of one's mother.

BEAUPRÉ, bôpré, [Eng. : bowsprit], sm. Naut. bowsprit. Mât de —, bowsprit.

BEAUTÉ, bôté, [beau], sf. beauty : a) that assemblage of properties in persons or things which pleases the senses, especially the eye, and delights the mind ; when used in an abstract sense : beautifulness, beauteousness, loveliness ; b) a particular grace or feature ; c) a beautiful person. a) La — idéale, ideal beauty. — morale, moral beauty. — virile, manly (or masculine) beauty. — féminine, womanly (or feminine) beauty. La — d'un paysage, d'une forêt, d'une fleur, d'une couleur, the beauty of a landscape, of a forest, of a flower, of a colour. La — d'un lion, d'un cheval, the beauty of a lion, of a horse. La — d'une pensée, d'une doctrine, d'une expression, the beauty of a thought, of a doctrine, of an expression. Sa — est déjà fanée, her beauty is already on the wane. Conserver sa —, to keep one's beauty. La — de sa taille, the beauty (or elegance) of her figure. Tache, grain de —, beauty spot. Miracle de —, a paragon of beauty (or loveliness). Prov. : Beauté n'est qu'image fardée, beauty is only skin deep.

b) Les beautés de la nature, the beauties of nature. Les beautés de l'éloquence, the beauties of eloquence. Lorsque dans un poème les beautés prédominent, when beauties predominate in a poem. Cela est de toute —, it is perfectly beautiful. C'est une des grandes beautés de son ouvrage, that is one of the chief beauties of his work. Les beautés de l'histoire romaine, the beauties (finest passages) of Roman history.

c) Une jeune —, a young beauty. Heureuse la — que le poète adore, happy the beauty whom the poet adores. Toutes les beautés de la ville assistaient au concert, all the beauties (or belles) of the town attended the concert. Une — sur le retour, an antiquated beauty.

BÉBÉ, bébé, [Eng. : baby], sm. 1. baby ; 2. a baby-doll ; 3. a dwarf. [Nicholas Ferry, the celebrated dwarf of Stanislas, king of Poland, was called Bébé.]

BEC, bèk, [of Celt. origin.], sm. 1. beak : a) bill or a bird, turtle, tortoise, etc. : b) Fig. the mouth of a person ; c) Bot. a process terminating the fruit of certain plants. a) Long —, long beak or bill. Oiseau à — long, a long-beaked (or -billed) bird. Le héron au long —, the heron with a long beak. La Font. Fab. vii. 4. — crochu, hooked beak. Donner un coup de bec, to peck, to give a peck ; Fig. to give a sly wipe. Avoir — et ongles, to have both beak and claws ; Fig. to have the means of self-defence ; to be well able to defend one's self. Montrer à quelqu'un son — jaune, to show a person his ignorance. V. Béjaune. Blanc —, a beardless boy. Tenir quelqu'un le — dans l'eau, to keep one in suspense. Mener quelqu'un par le —, to lead anyone by the nose. Passer la plume par le — à quelqu'un, to balk or thwart a person. Se laisser passer la plume par le —, to allow one's self to be taken in. — à —, face to face, in private confab. Avoir bon —, to have one's tongue well hung, to be a fluent talker. Avoir le — affilé, to have a sharp tongue. N'avoir que du —, to be all tongue, all chatter. Avoir une prise de —, to have a dispute. Se prendre de — avec quelqu'un, to dispute, to bandy words with anyone. Être pris par le —, to be convicted out of one's own mouth, to be caught by one's own words. S'humecter le —, Fam., to wet one's whistle. Clore le —, donner sur le — à quelqu'un, to silence a person, to make one shut up. Pincer le —, to put on a sulky look. Faire le — à une personne, to give one his cue, to tell one what to say. Caquet bon —, a magpie : Fig. a chattering woman. Mon pauvre petit —, tu la peux si tu veux, my little chick, you can do it if you wish, Mol. Éc. des f. v. 4.

2. snout (of certain insects, fishes, and other animals) ; 3. spout (of a jug) ; 4. rostrum, neck (of an alembic or still) ; 5. nib (of a pen) ; 6. rostrum, beak, prow (of a galley or ship) ; 7. mouth-piece (of a clarinet, or other wind-instrument) ; 8. burner (of a lamp or gas light) ; 9. Arch. drip (of a moulding) ; 10. Civ. Eng. cutwater, starling (of a bridge) ; 11. Geog. point (of land, formed by the confluence of two rivers). Le — Auer, the incandescent Auer gas-burner. — d'âne. V. Bédane.

BÉCABUNGA, békabœnga. V. Beccabunga.

BÉCANE, bekan, sf. bike, bicycle.

BÉCARD, békar. V. Beccard.

BÉCARRE, békar, sm. and adj. Mus. natural. Ré —, D natural.

BÉCASSE, békas', [bec], sf. 1. Ornith. woodcock, scolopax rusticola ; 2. Fig. goose, ninny, idiot. — de mer, Ornith. oyster-catcher. C'est une —, she is a goose, a simpleton. Brider la —, to snare the bird ; Fig. cozen, to deceive, to cheat a person.

BÉCASSEAU, békasô, sm. a young woodcock.

BÉCASSINE, békasin', sf. Ornith. snipe. Petite —, judcock, jack-snipe. Tirer la —, to conceal one's skill (at cards)

BÉCASSONIER, békasonyé, sm. duck-gun (for shooting water-fowl).

BÉCAU, békô, sm. young snipe. [Pl. Bécaux.]

BECCABUNGA, békabœnga, sm. Bot. beccabunga : veronica beccabunga, brook-lime speedwell.

BECCARD, békar, sm. Ornith. merganser.

BEC-CORNU bèk-kôrnu. V. Becque-cornu.

BEC-COURBE bèk-kourb' sm. Ornith. avocet. [Pl. Becs-courbes.]

BEC-D'ÂNE, bèdân', sm. Carp. mortise chisel, cross-cut chisel. [Pl. Becs-d'âne.]

BEC-D'ARGENT, bèk-darzhân', sm. Ornith. tanager. [Pl. Becs-d'argent.]

BEC-DE-CANE, bek-dœ-kan', sm. Surg. duck's-bill forceps. [Pl. Becs-de-cane.]

BEC-DE-CICOGNE, bèk-de-sigony', sm. Bot. stinking crane's-bill, herb Robert. [Pl. Becs-de-cigogne.]

BEC-DE-CORBIN, bèk-de-kôrban, sm. 1. pointed hook (in the form of a raven's bill) ; 2. halberd (with a hook on one side of the head and an axe on the other) ; 3. Naut. rave-hook (used by calkers). Canne à —, hooked walking-stick. Gentilhomme au —, gentleman halberdier of the guards. [Pl. Becs-de-corbin.]

BEC-DE-FAUCON, bèk-dœ-fôkôn, sm. Nat. Hist. hawk-bill turtle ; caretta imbricata.

BEC-DE-GRUE, bèk-dœ-gru, sm. Bot. crane's-bill, stork's bill ; the geranium gruinum of Linnæus. [Becs-de-grue.]

BEC-DE-HACHE, bèk-dœ-ash', sm. Ornith. oyster-catcher. [Pl. Becs-de-hache.]

BEC-DE-HÉRON, bèk-dœ-érôn, sm. Bot. heron's-bill, geranium arduinum. [Pl. Becs-de-héron.]

BEC-DE-LIÈVRE, bèk-dœ-lyèvr', sm. 1.

1. hare-lip ; 2. hare-lipped person. [Pl. Becs-de-lièvre.]

BEC-DE-PERROQUET bèk-dœ-pèroké, sm. Ichth. parrot-fish. [Pl. Becs-de-Perroquet.]

BEC-DE-PIGEON bèk-dœ-pizhôn, sm. Bot. pigeon's-bill, geranium columbinum. [Pl. Becs-de-pigeon.]

BEC-D'OIE, bek-dwâ, sm. Ichth. dolphin. [Pl. Becs-d'oie.]

BEC-D'OISEAU, bèk-dwâzô, sm. Nat. Hist. duck-bill, water-mole, ornithorhynchus. [Pl. Becs-de'oiseau.]

BEC-DUR, bèk-dur, sm. Ornith. gross-beak. [Pl. Becs-durs.]

BEC-EN-CISEAUX, bèk-ân-sizô, sm. Ornith. skimmer, sheer-water, rhynchops. [Pl. Becs-en-ciseaux.]

BEC-EN-SCIE, bèkânsi, sm. Ornith. merganser, goosander.

BECFIGUE, bèfig', sm. Ornith. beccafico, pettychaps, fig-pecker.

BEC-FIN, bèk-fan, sm. Ornith. warbler : the popular name of the sylviadæ.

BÉCHAMELLE, béshamèl, [from Louis Béchamel, epicure XVII, c.], sm. Cook. bechamel : a sauce made of flour, butter and cream or milk.

BÊCHARD, béshar, [bêche], sm. Agr. strong double-headed hoe (used instead of a spade).

BÉCHARU, bésharu, sm. Ornith. flamingo.

BÊCHE, bèsh', [Low Lat. : besca, from Celt. bec], sf. 1. Gard. spade ; 2. Entom. vine-weevil. Bêche de mer, Nat. Hist. trepang, sea-slug.

BÊCHER, bèshé-r, va. and vn. 1. to dig ; 2. Fam. Pop. to criticise severely, to speak ill of, to slander. — un jardin, to dig a garden. — autour d'un arbre, to dig round (or about) a tree.

BÊCHETON, bèsh'ton, sm. BÊCHETTE, bèshèt', [bêche], sf. a small spade, trowel (for loosening the soil round plants).

BÊCHEUR, bèshœr, sm. digger ; hard-worker.

BÉCHIQUE, béshik', [Gr. : βηχικός, from βήξ, cough], adj. and s. Med. bechic. Des béchiques adoucissants, emolient bechics.

BÊCHOIR, béschwâr, [bêcher], sm. Agr. mattock : a strong square hoe for turning the soil.

BEC-PLAT, bèk-pla, sm. Ornith. shoveller. [Pl. Becs-plats.]

BEC-POINTU, bèk-pwantu], sm. Ichth. white skate. [Pl. Becs-pointus.]

BECQUABO, bèkabo, BECQUEBOIS, bèk'-bwâ, [bec ; bois], sm. Ornith. woodpecker.

BECQUE-CORNU, BEC-CORNU, bèk-kôrnu, sm. oaf, fool, blockhead.

BECQUÉ, bèké, adj. Herald. beaked : having the beak of a different tincture.

BECQUÉE, bèké, sf. beakful, billful. Donner la — à un oiseau, to feed a bird with a stick.

BECQUEROLLE, bèk'rol sf. Ornith. snipe.

BECQUETER, bèk'té-r, va. [Je becquète, je becquèterai,] to peck (as a bird).

BECQUETER (SE), v. refl. 1. to peck each other ; 2. to bill (caress) each other. Raisins becquetés par les oiseaux, grapes pecked by the birds.

BEC-TRANCHANT, bèk-trânshân, sm. Ornith. auk, razor-bill [Pl. Becs-tranchants.]

BÉCUNE, békun', [bec], sf. Ichth. becuna, sphyrœna vulgaris.

BEDAINE, bœden, [O. Fr. : boudine, from boude, big belly], sf. Colloq. paunch, belly, guts. Remplir sa —, to stuff one's belly.

BÉDANE, bédan', [countraction of Bec-d'ane, sm. mortise-chisel.

BEDEAU, bœdô, [Low Lat. : bidellus ; Ger. : Büttel], sm. 1. beadle (of a church) ; 2. (formerly, a university official) bedel.

BEDEAUDE, BEDAUDE, bœdôd', sf. Ornith. Royston crow, hooded crow.

BÉDEGAR, BÉDEGUAR, béd'gar, sm. Bot. bedeguar : rose-gall, sweet-brier sponge : an excrescence found on rose-bushes.

BEDON, bœdôn, [like bedaine), sm. (formerly) drum ; Fig. fat-sides. — de Biscaye, a tambourine. Un gros —, a great fat fellow.

BEDONDAINE, bœdôndèn', sf. 1. paunch, big belly ; 2. fat-pipes ; 3. (formerly) a catapult (for throwing large stones).

BÉDOUIN, bédwan, [Ar. : bedoui, dweller in the desert], sm. 1. Bedwin or Beduin : a nomadic Arab ; 2. Fig. a savage, a brute ; 3. adj. Bedwin.

BÉE, bè, [O. Fr. : béer, to be open], adj. Futaille à gueule bée, a cask with the head taken out ; an open cask.

BÉE, bé, sf. bay : a) an opening in a wall ; b) opening of a race-course.

BÉER, béé-r, V. Bayer.

BEELZÉBUTH, belzébu, [Heb. : baal, lord ; zebub, a fly], nm. Beelzebub : the devil.

BEFFROI, bèfrwâ, [O. Fr. : berfroi, beffroi, from High Ger. berc, protection ; fride, state of peace], sm. 1. bell-tower, belfry ; 2. alarm-bell , 3. timber framing (of a wooden steeple or windmill).

BÉGAUD, E, bégô, ôd', [bègue], adj. silly, foolish.

BÉGAYANT, E, béghèyân, ânt', adj. 1. stuttering, stammering ; 2. lisping (as children).

BÉGAYEMENT, béghèy'mân, BÉGAIEMENT, béghèmân, sm. 1. stammering, stuttering, 2. lisping (of children).

BÉGAYER, béghèyé-r, [bègue, from Low Lat. bigāre, to repeat], [conj. like balayer.] vn. 1. to stammer, to stutter. Il bégaye si fort que l'on ne peut l'entendre, he stutters so much that one cannot understand him.

2. to lisp (as children). Les enfants commencent à — à douze ou quinze mois, children begin to lisp a few words when twelve or fifteen months old.

3. to speak vaguely, confusedly, falteringly.

BEGAYER, va. 1. to stammer, to stammer out ; 2. to lisp (as children). Il s'est mis à — un compliment, he attempted to stammer out a compliment. Le francais ne fut plus la première langue bégayée par les enfants des nobles, French was no longer the first language lisped by the children of the nobles. A. Thierry. Angleterre.

BÉGONIA, bigonia, [from Michel Begon, 1638-1710], sm. Bot. begonia.

BÉGU, bégu, [orig. unknown], adj. Cheval —, a horse that never razes (never loses the mark indicating seven years of age).

BÉGUARD, bégar, BÉGUIN, bégan, [from Lambert le Bègue, founder in the XIIth century], sm. 1. Beghard, Beguin : a name given to certain heretics of the 12th century ; 2. lay-brother (in certain orders of monks).

BÈGUE, bèg', [Low Lat. : bigāre, to repeat], adj. 1. stammering, stuttering ; 2. (subst.) stammerer, stutterer.

BÉGUEULE, béghœl', [bée ; gueule], sf. haughty (or disdainful), prude. Faire la —, to play (or act) the prude.

BÉGUEULE, adj. haughtily (or disdainfully) prudish, squeamish.

BÉGUEULERIE, béghœl'tri, sf. prudery, prudishness.

BÉGUIN, bégan, sm. 1. beguine : a kind of cap so called from that worn by the Beguines. Je lui ai bien lavé son —, I have given him a good rating. V. Béguard.

2. infatuation. Avoir un — pour, Fam. to be in love with, to be gone on.

3. biggin : a) a baby's first cap ; b) a kind of pipkin for boiling water, etc.

BÉGUINAGE, béghinazh', sm. 1. a convent of Beguines ; 2. superstitious devotion, puerile devotion.

BÉGUINE, béghin', sf. Beguine : a) formerly, woman holding the heresy of the Beguins or Beghards ; b) a kind of nun in Belgium and Holland ; c) Fig. an affectedly devout woman. V. Béguard.

BÉHEN, béhèn, [Ar.], sm. Bot. behen, bladder-campion, spattling poppy.

BEIGE, bèzh', [Ital. : biglio, grey], adj. raw, natural : not dyed, in speaking of wool. Laine —, raw wool. Serge —, drap —, serge, cloth of raw wool.

BEIGE, sf. serge of raw wool.

BEIGNET, bènyè ; the t is always mute ; but the s of the pl. is pronounced z before a vowel. [O. Fr. : bigne, swelling], sm. fritter. — de pommes, apple fritter.

BÉJAUNE, bèzhôn', [bec ; jaune], sm. 1. Falc. eyess or eyeas : a young hawk, with the beak still yellow ; 2. Fig. a silly young fellow, ninny, sawney ; 3. apprentice, beginner (in any trade or profession). Montrer à quelqu'un son —, to show a person his ignorance. Payer son —, to pay one's footing (as a beginner).

BEL, bèl, adj. m. V. Beau. Charles le Bel, Charles the Fair. Philippe le Bel, Philip the Fair.

BÉLANDRE, bélândr', [Dutch : bylander], sf. Nav. bilander : a vessel used on the canals in Holland.

BÊLANT, E, bèlan-t, ânt', adj. bleating. Les brebis bêlantes, the bleating ewes. Prov. : Bœuf saignant, mouton bêlant, beef and mutton are best when underdone.

BÊLEMENT, bèl'mân-t, [bêler], sm. bleating (of sheep).

BÉLEMNITE, bélèmit', [Gr. : βελεμνίτης, arrow-shaped stone], sf. Paleol. belemnite, thunderstone : the fossile shell of an extinct cephalopod.

BELER, bèlé-r, [Lat. : balāre], vn. to bleat, to baa (said of sheep). Prov. V. Brebis.

BEL-ESPRIT, bèl-èspri, sm. a wit, a fine genius.

BELETTE, bœlèt, [beau], sf. Nat. Hist. weasel, mustela vulgaris.

BELGE, bèlzh', adj. and s. Belgian. Les Belges, the Belgians.

BELGIQUE, bèlzhik', sf. Geog. Belgium.

BELGIQUE, adj. Belgic.

BÉLIAL, bélial, [Heb. hurtful], sm. Bib. Belial : evil spirit, the demon. Les enfants de —, the sons of Belial.

BÉLIER, bélyé ; the r is always mute : but the s of the pl. is pronounced z before a vowel, [Flem. : bel, bell : the ram bearing the bell], sm. 1. ram : a male sheep ; 2. Milit. battering-ram ; 3. Astron. the Ram, Aries : the first sign of the zodiac. — hydraulique, hydraulic ram. Le retour du —, the return of spring.

BELIÈRE, bélyèr', sf. clapper-ring : the ring supporting the clapper of a bell.

BELÎTRE, bélitr', [Ger. : Bettler, beggar], sm. rascal, scamp, varlet.

BELLADONE, bèladon', [Ital. : bella, fair, donna, lady], sf. Bot. belladonna, deadly-nightshade ; atropa belladonna.

BELLÂTRE, bèlâtr', [bell], smf. 1. faded beau, m, faded belle, f. ; 2. (adject.) beauish.

BELLE, bèl', adj. f. V. Beau.

BELLE, sf. belle fair lady; (in the pl.) the fair, the fair sex.

BELLE-DAME, bèldam', sf. 1. Bot. orache. V. Arroche; 2. Entom. thistle-butterfly, cynthus cardui. [Pl. belles-dames.]

BELLE-DE-JOUR, bèl'-dœ-zhour, sf. Bot. convolvulus tricolor. [Pl. belles-de-jour.]

BELLE-DE-NUIT, bèl-dœ-nui, sf. Bot. marvel of Peru, mirabilis jalapa. [Pl. belles-de-nuit].

BELLE-D'ONZE-HEURES, bèldônz'œr', sf. Bot. star-of-Bethlehem, ornithogalum umbellatum. [Pl. belles-d'onze-heures.]

BELLE-D'UN-JOUR, bèl'-dœn-zhour, sf. Bot. day-lily, hemerocallis, [Pl. belles-d'un-jour.]

BELLE-FILLE, bèl'-fiy', sf. daughter-in-law: a) the wife of one's son; b) step-daughter: the daughter of one's wife (or husband) by a previous marriage. [Pl. belles-filles.]

BELLES-LETTRES. bèl'lettr', sf. pl. polite literature; belles-lettres.

BELLEMENT, bèl'mân-t, [beau, bel], adv. gently: softly, slowly.

BELLE-MÈRE, bèl'-mèr, sf. mother-in-law: a) the mother of one's wife or husband; b) step-mother: the wife of one's father who has remarried. [Pl. belles-mères.]

BELLE-SŒUR, bèl-'sœr, sf. sister-in-law: a) the wife of one's brother or the sister of one's wife; b) step-sister: half-sister. [Pl. belles-sœurs.]

BELLIGÉRANT, E, bèlizhérân-t, ânt', [Lat.: belligerāre; bellum, war; gerĕre, to carry on], adj. belligerent. Puissances, parties belligérantes, belligerent powers, or parties.

BELLIGÉRANTS, sm. pl. belligerents.

BELLIQUEUX, EUSE, bèlikœ-z, kœz', [Lat.: bellicosus], adj. 1. warlike, martial: inclined to war; 2. bellicose: quarrelsome.

BELLIS, bèlis, [Lat.], sm. Bot daisy, field daisy.

BELLISSIME, bèlisim', [Ital.: bellissimo], adj. most beautiful, very beautiful.

BELLONE, bèlon', sf. 1. Myth. Bellona the goddess of war; 2. Fig. war.

BELLOT, OTTE, bèlo, lot', [beau], adj. pretty, good-looking, handsome. [Subst.:] Mon petit bellot, ma petite bellotte, my pretty dear.

BELLOY, belwa (Pierre-Laurent Buirette de), poet. (1727-1775).

BELOCE, bœlos', sf. Bot. bullace: a kind of wild plum.

BÉLOMANCIE, bèlomansi, [Gr.: βέλος, dart; μαντεία, divination], sf. belomancy: a kind of divination by means of arrows.

BÉLOSTOME, bèlostôm, [Gr.: βέλος, arrow; στόμα, mouth], sm. Entom. belostoma: a genus of very large aquatic bugs, also called fish-killer.

BELVÉDER, bèlvédèr, BELVÉDÈRE, bèlvédèr, [Ital.: bel, beautiful; vedere, view], sm. belvedere: a) Arch. a construction on the top of a house or of a hill, commanding an extensive view; b) Bot. summer cypress, salsola scoparia.

BELVISIACÉES, bèlviziasé, BELVIZIÉES, bèlvizié, sf. pl. Bot. belvisia: a family of plants.

BELZÉBUTH, bèlzébu, sm. Beelzebub. V. Beelzebuth.

BÉMOL, bémol, [bé; mol], sm. Mus. flat. [Adject.:] Le ton de si —, the key of B flat.

BÉMOLISER, bémolizé-r, va. Mus. to mark with a flat.

BEN, bèn, [Ar.: bân], sm. Bot. ben, the horse-radish-tree, moringa pterygosperma. Huile de —, ben-oil, ben-nut-oil. Noix de —, ben-nut.

BÉNACE, bœnas', [Low Lat.: bena, sort of plough], sf. Agr. 1. plough used in Touraine; 2. plot (of land). Chacun a maintenant sa goulée de —, every one now has a bit (mouthful) of land.

BÉNARDE, bénard', [O. Fr.: bernard, a fool, a dolt, derived from one Bernard], sf. door-lock with a key hole on each side.

BÉNÉDICITÉ, bénédisité,* [Lat.], sm. grace (before meat). Dire le —, to say grace, to ask a blessing, [Pl. bénédicités.]

BÉNÉDICTIN, E, bénédiktan, tin', [Lat.: benedictus], s. and adj. Benedictine (monk or nun). L'ordre des Bénédictins, the Benedictine order. [Fig.:] C'est un —, he is a ripe scholar, a very learned and laborious student. C'est un travail de —, that's a long work of patience and learning.

BÉNÉDICTION, bénédiksyôn; in poet. siôn, [Lat.: benedictio, from benedicĕre, to bless], sf. 1. consecration: a) the act of blessing and setting apart for holy use; b) Milit. the religious ceremony performed on presenting colours to a regiment. La — d'une église, d'un cimetière, the consecration of a church, of a cemetery (or burial-ground). La — des drapeaux, the presentation and consecration of colours (or flags).

2. benediction: a) in churches, etc., the act of invoking the blessing of God on a congregation, or on persons married; b) blessing, prayer or kind wishes uttered in favour of a person or thing. a) Nous entrâmes en l'église au moment où le prêtre donnait la —, we entered the church just as the priest was pronouncing the benediction. — nuptiale, nuptial benediction, the religious ceremonial of marriage. b) Mon père me donna sa —, my father gave me his blessing (or benediction).

3. blessing: a) grace, favour, or advantage conferred by a blessing; b) thanks, expression of gratitude, respect or veneration. a) Dieu l'a comblé de bénédictions, God has loaded him with blessings. Maison de —, house of plenty. Pays de —, land of plenty, land flowing with milk and honey. Les vignes, cette année, sont chargées de grappes, c'est une —, the vines this year are loaded with fruit, it is a blessing! Il engraissait, que c'était une —, he was blessed by growing amazingly stout. [This expression is often used ironically:] Le temps était affreux, il pleuvait que c'était une —, the weather was awful, it rained famously. Je lui ai donné des bénédictions, I blessed him, I can tell you; didn't I curse him nicely.

b) Sa charité lui attirait les bénédictions des pauvres, his charity drew down on him the blessings of the poor. Sa mémoire est en —, his memory is blessed (or is held in respect, in veneration).

BÉNÉDICTIONNAIRE, bénédiksyonèr', sm. benedictionary: a book containing forms of benedictions.

BÉNÉFICE, bénéfis', [Lat.: beneficium; bene, well; facĕre, to make], sm. 1. benefit: a) advantage; b) favour, privilege. Nous recevons double grâce et — de notre Dieu au baptême, in baptism we receive a twofold benefit from our God. Fén. — de temps, the benefit of time. — de nature, Med. relief (of the bowels, etc.) by a spontaneous effort of nature. — de loi, benefit (privilege or advantage) of the law. — d'inventaire, Law-t. the benefit of exemption from liability for debts exceeding the assets of a deceased person whose estate one inherits. Hériter par (or sous) — d'inventaire, to accept a succession on condition of not being liable for debts in excess of the assets. J'accepte tout cela sous — d'inventaire, Fig. I admit (or accept) all that for what it is worth. — de cession, assignment of goods in payment of one's debts. — d'âge, the favour (or privilege) of being allowed to hold an office or manage one's property before the age fixed by law. Représentation à —, Theat. benefit, benefit night (or performance). Il croit en Dieu sous — d'inventaire, Fig. Fam. he is religious when it suits his interest.

2. Comm. profit, gain. — brut, gross profit. — net, net profit, clear gain. A —, with a profit. Bénéfices très considérables, large profits. Il ne faut pas faire du bien pour en tirer —, we must not do good for the sake of gain.

3. benefice: a) Feudal. fee, a grant of lands for life; fief, an hereditary grant; b) living, the estate or revenue attached to ecclesiastical functions. — à charge d'âmes, benefice with cure of souls. — sécularisé, impropriated benefice: one that may be held by a layman. Prov.: Les chevaux courent les bénéfices et les ânes les attrapent, horses compete for benefices, but asses get them. Il faut prendre le bénéfice avec les charges, you must take the good with the bad. Ce n'est pas un bénéfice sans charge, it is not all profit.

4. parsonage, rectory: the residence attached to a benefice.

5. Diamond-cut. diamond waste.

BÉNÉFICENCE, bénéfisâns', sf. beneficence.

BÉNÉFICIAIRE, bénéfisièr', adj. 1. beneficiary: Feudal. held as a fee for life; 2. Law-t. not liable for debts beyond the amounts of the assets.

BÉNÉFICIAIRE, sm. 1. Feudal. beneficiary: the holder of a fee; 2. Law-t. heir who accepts a succession without liability for debts in excess of the assets; 3. actor (or other person) for whom a benefit is given.

BÉNÉFICIAL, E, bénéfisial, al', adj. of (or belonging to) a benefice or living. Les revenus bénéficiaux, the revenues of benefices.

BÉNÉFICIER, bénéfisié, sm. beneficed clergyman, incumbent of a benefice.

BÉNÉFICIER, vn. Comm. (with sur) to make a profit (by or on).

BÉNÉFICIER, va. Min. to work with a profit.

BÉNÉFICIER (SE), v. refl. to be worked with a profit.

BENÊT, bœnè; the t is mute, but the s of the pl. is heard as z before a vowel, [from Lat. benedictus, blessed], adj. and sm. 1. foolish, silly; 2. a booby, simpleton, fool, dolt, numskull.

BÉNÉVOLE, bénévol', [Lat.: benevolus], adj. benevolent, kind, gentle. Lecteur —, gentle, kind reader. Auditeur, spectateur —, hearer, spectator present from pure good-will.

BÉNÉVOLEMENT, bénévol'mân-t, adv. benevolently: kindly, from pure goodwill.

BENGALE, bangal, sm. Geog. Bengal. Feu de —, Bengal light (or fire), blue light. Rose de —, Bengal rose.

BENGALI, E, bangali, adj. Geog. Bengali or Bengalee; Bengalese.

BENGALI, sm. 1. Bengali or Bengalee (language of Bengal); 2. Ornith. bengaly, Bengal finch.

BÉNI, E, béni, pa. p. blessed. — soit le ciel, blessed be Heaven. Enfant — par son père, a child blessed by his father. V. Bénit.

BÉNIGNEMENT, béniny'mân-t, adv. benignly, benignantly.

BÉNIGNITÉ, béninyité, [Lat.: benignitas], sf. benignity: a) kindness, graciousness; b) mildness (of seasons, medicines, or diseases).

BÉNIN, IGNE, bénan béniny', [Lat. : benignus ; bene, well], adj. benign, benignant : a) kind, benevolent, gracious ; b) Ironic. easy, easy-going, tame, spiritless ; c) favourable, mild, of a mild nature. Il n'est pas d'homme plus —, there is no man more benignant. Humeur bénigne, benignant humour. Ciel —, benignant Heaven. Influences bénignes, benign influences. Une saison plus bénigne, a milder season. Un astre plus —, a more benignant (or favourable) star. Petite vérole bénigne, benign small pox. Remède —, a benign (mild or gentle) remedy.

BÉNIR, bénir, [Lat. : benedicĕre], va. to bless : a) to consecrate, to hallow (for religious uses) ; b) to consecrate (flags, colours) ; c) to pronounce a benediction or blessing on, to give one's blessing to ; d) to praise (God) ; e) to load with favours. — une église, to consecrate a church. — une cloche, to bless (or christen) a bell. — un abbé, une abbesse, to consecrate (to instal) an abbot, an abbess. — des époux, un mariage, to bless a married couple, to, give the nuptial benediction. — les assistants, to give the benediction to a congregation. Il a béni ses enfants à son lit de mort, he blessed his children on his death bed. — le Seigneur, to bless the Lord. Nous bénissons notre aventure, we bless (glory in or rejoice in) our adventure. Trop heureux en mon mal, je bénis ma défaite, too happy in my misfortune, I bless my defeat. Les pauvres bénissent sa mémoire, the poor bless his memory. C'est pourquoi Dieu le bénit, therefore God blesses him, loads him with blessings. Dieu vous bénisse ! God bless you !

BÉNISSABLE, bénissabl', adj. worthy to be blessed.

BÉNIT, E, béni, bénit', BÉNI, E, béni, p. pa. adj. blessed, consecrated, hallowed. V. Bénir. Chandelles bénites, blessed or consecrated candles. Pain bénit, consecrated bread. Eau bénite, holy water. C'est pain bénit, that is just as it should be ; he has got what he deserved. Eau bénite de cour, vain promises. [The forms Benit, bénite, are at present used only with regard to a ceremonial blessing pronounced by a priest, bishop, etc.]. Marie était bénie entre toutes les femmes Mary was blessed above all woman. Ce roi est béni par son peuple, that king is blessed by his people. Des armes qui ont été bénites par l'Église ne sont pas toujours bénies du ciel sur le champ de bataille, arms blessed by the Church are not always favoured by Heaven on the field of battle.

BÉNITIER, bénityé, [bénir], sm. holy-water vase, vessel, basin or pot.

BENJAMIN, banzhaman, pnm. Benjamin : a) Bibl. Hist. the youngest son of Jacob ; b) Fig. youngest son, darling, favourite.

BENJOIN, banzhwan, [Port. : beijoim ; from Ar.], sm. 1. Bot. benjamin-tree, styrax benzoin ; 2. benzoin, gum benjamin.

BENNE, bèn, [Lat. : benna] sf. 1. skip scuttle : a broad shallow basket ; 2. measure of capacity with vintagers.

† BENOÎT, E, bœnwâ, wat', [O. Fr. : from Lat. : benedictus], adj. 1. blessed ; 2. (in an ill sense) sanctimonious.

BENOÎT, pnm. Benedict, bennet.

BENOÎTE, bœnwat', sf. Bot. bennet, avens.

BENOÎTEMENT, benwat'mân, adv. sanctimoniously.

BENSERADE, banserad (Isaac), poet (1612-1691).

BENZINE, banzin', [from Low. Lat. : benzoe, like benjoin], sf. Chem. benzine.

BENZOATE, banzoat', sf. Chem. benzoate.

BENZOIQUE, banzoik', adj. Chem. benzoic.

BÉOTIEN, béosyan, [from Béotie, Bœotia in Greece whose inhabitants were reputed for being dull or stupid], sm. Bœotian : block-head, dullard, dunce. Tu n'as pas, je t'assure, l'oreille béotienne, you are by no means dull of hearing, I assure you. Lesage, Gil. B. VII, 3.

BÈQUE-BOIS, bèk'bwâ, sm. Ornith. nut-hatch. [Pl. Bèque-bois.]

BÉQUÉE, béké, sf. V. Becquée.

BÈQUE-FLEUR, bèk'-flœr, sm. Ornith. humming-bird. [Pl. Bèque-fleurs.]

BÉQUETER, bék'té- V. Becqueter.

BÉQUILLARD, békiyard, [béquille], sm. an old cripple who walks with a crutch.

BÉQUILLE, békiy', [bec], sf. 1. crutch (to walk with) ; 2. Agr. spud, Dutch hoe ; 3. crutch- or T-handle (of a lock) ; 4. Naut. pl. shores (to prop a stranded vessel. Marcher avec des béquilles, to walk with [or go on) crutches ; 2. Fig. to be on one's last legs.

BÉQUILLER, békiy,ér, vn. to walk with a crutch or with crutches.

BÉQUILLER, va. 1. Agr. to loosen the soil with a Dutch hoe ; 2. Naut. to shore up (a ship).

BÉQUILLON, békiyôn, sm. crutch-handled walking-stick.

BER, bèr, [berceau], sm. Naut. cradle.

BÉRANGER, beranzhé, [Pierre-Jean de], poet, song-writer (1780-1857).

BÉRAUD, bérô, [Antoine], dramatic author (1792-1860).

BERBÈRE, bèrbèr, adj. and s. Berber : said of certain hordes inhabiting the north coasts of Africa.

BERBÉRIDÉES, bèrbéridé, sf. pl. Bot. berberideæ, berberidaceæ : an order of plants of which the barberry (berberis vulgaris) is the type.

BERBERIS, berberis, sm. Bot. berberis, barberry.

BERCAIL, bèrkay', [Low Lat. : berbicalium, from berbex, sheep], sm. sheepfold, fold. Ramener au — une brebis égarée, to bring back a stray sheep to the fold Fig. to bring a heretic within the pale of the Church ; to turn a person from the error of his ways.

BERCE, bèrs, sf. Bot. cow-parsnip, heracleum sphondylium.

BERCEAU, bersô, [Low Lat. : berciolum, from bersa, osier hurdle], sm. 1. cradle : a) baby's bed ; b) childhood, infancy, beginning, origin ; c) birth-place ; d) Shiph. cradle : frame on which a ship is built ; e) an instrument used in mezzotinto engraving. a) Un enfant couché dans son — a child lying in its cradle. Dans les salles de cet hôpital les berceaux sont trop rapprochés, the cradles are too celos together in the wards of that hospital. b) Les enfants apprenaient dès le — à..., from their infancy, children learned to... Les arts sont encore au — dans ce pays, the arts are still in their infancy in that country. Étouffer le monstre au —, to stifle the monster at its birth, to nip the evil in the bud. c) Florence a été le — de la peinture moderne, Florence was the cradle of modern painting. La Saxe a été le — du luthéranisme, Saxony was the cradle of Lutheranism.

2. Arch. semicircular vault ; 3. Gard. arbour, bower. Allée en —, an arcade of verdure. — de la Vierge, Bot. traveller's joy, clematis vitalba.

4. Typ. table (of a printing-press).

BERCELLE, bersel, sf. Technol. pincers used by enamellers.

BERCELONNETTE, bèrsœlonèt, sf. child's cot, swing-cot.

BERCEMENT, bèrsmân-t, sm. rocking.

BERCER, bersé-r, [berceau]. [takes a cedilla (ç) before a and o. Nous berçons, je berçais, je berçai, que je berçasse, berçant] va. 1. to rock : to move backwards and forwards as in a cradle ; 2. to lull (to sleep). On berce les enfants pour les apaiser et les endormir, we rock children to quiet them and send them to sleep. Plus ils sont bercés par les orages, plus ils dorment profondément, the more they are rocked by the storms, the sounder they sleep. Chateaub. Génie, I. V. 3. [Fig. :] Pour bercer leurs soucis, to lull their cares.

3. to rear, to bring up. Avoir été bercé d'idées généreuses, to have been reared (or brought up) in generous sentiments.

4. to delude : to deceive, to lull with vain hopes or promises. On le berça de vaines promesses, he was lulled (or deluded) with vain promises. Un espoir frivole le berça longtemps, a frivolous hope long deluded him.

5. Engr. to cradle : to hack a copper-plate with a cradle, for mezzotinto.

BERCER (SE), v. refl. 1. to rock one's self ; 2. Fig. to lull, to delude (or deceive) one's self. Il se berce d'idées chimériques, he deludes himself with chimeras.

BERCEUSE bèrsœz' sf. 1. rocker : a baby's nurse ; 2. lullaby (song).

BÉRENGER berangé [Laurent-Pierre] prose-writer (1739-1822).

BÉRET, BERRET, beré', [Low Lat. : bereta, from birrus, red stuff], sm. 1. berret : a flat woollen cap worn by the Basque peasants 2. a woman's cap.

BERGAME, bèrgam', [from Bergamo, in Italy], sf. a coarse kind of tapestry.

BERGAMOTE, bèrgamot', [Ital. : bergamotta], sf. Bot. 1. bergamot pear ; 2. bergamot orange, mella rosa ; 3. comfit-box lined with the rind of the bergamot orange.

BERGAMOTIER, bèrgamotyé, sm. bergamot-orange-tree.

BERGAT, berga, sm. Fish. eel-basket : net for catching eels.

BERGE, bèrzh', [perhaps Ger. : Berg, elevation], sf. 1. bank (of a river or canal) ; 2. a large boat 3. Naut. steep rock rising above the surface of the water.

BERGELADE, bèrzh'lad', sf. Agr. oats and vetches sown together for fodder.

BERGER, bèrzhé ; the r is always mute, but the s of the pl. is heard as z before a vowel, [Low Lat. : berbicarius, from berbex, sheep], sm. 1. shepherd ; 2. Past. Poet. swain : lover, suiter, wooer. L'heure du —, the happy moment, the golden hour. L'étoile du —, the planet Venus.

BERGERAC, bergherak, [Cyrano de], comic writer (1620-1655).

BERGÈRE, bèrzhèr', sf. 1. shepherdess ; 2. Past. Poet. lover, lass, nymph ; 3. easy chair : cushioned arm-chair ; 4. (formerly) a kind of morning cap ; 5. Ornith. wagtail.

BERGERETTE, bèrzhœrèt', [bergère], sf. 1. shepherd-girl, young shepherdess ; 2. œnomel : a beverage made of wine and honey.

BERGERIE, bèrzhœri, sf. 1. sheepfold, sheepcot ; 2. sheep-farm : an establishment for improving the breed of sheep. Enfermer le loup dans la —, to shut up the wolf, with the sheep ; Fig. to leave a person in a place where he may do mischief ; Med. to heal a sore prematurely.

3. (generally in the pl.) pastorals, pastoral poems.

BERGERON, bèrzhœrôn, sm. short smock frock.

BERGERONNETTE, bèrzhœronèt', [bergère], sf. 1. shepherd-girl ; 1. Ornith. wagtail. V. Bergerette.

BÉRIBÉRI, bèribéri, [Singhalese], sm. Med. beriberi : a disease peculiar to Malabar and Ceylon.

BÉRICHON, bérishô*n*, BÉRICHOT, bérisho, sm. Ornith. the wren.

BÉRIL, V. Beryl.

BERLE, bèrl', [Lat. : berula], sf. Bot. skirret, sium sisarum.

BERLINE, bèrlin', [from Berlin, where first made], sf. berlin : a kind of double-seated travelling carriage.

BERLINOIS, E, bèrlinwà, wâz', adj. 1. of Borlin 2. smf. Berliner.

BERLINGOT, bèrla*n*go, [berline], sm. 1. single-seated berlin, sort of gig ; 2. a caramel sweetmeat.

BERLOQUE, bèrlok', [for breloque], sf. Milit. breakfast drum, dinner-drum ; Battre la —, 1. to beat the dinner-drum ; 2. to beat the dismissal after an alert ; Fig. to talk wildly, to ramble in one's speech.

BERLUE, bèrlu, [ety. doubtful ; perhaps from Lat. : bis, double ; lux, lucem, light], sf. dim or dazzled sight, dimness of sight, purblindness. Avoir la —, 1. to be dim-sighted or purblind ; 2. Fig. to have a confused or imperfect notion. Il a la —, he is a hare-brained fellow.

BERME, bèrm', [Dutch : breme, edge], sf. 1. Fortif. berm ; 2. Civ. Eng. berm, surf-beam (of a canal).

BERMUDES, bèrmud', sf. pl. Geog. the Bermudas, Sommers's Isles.

BERMUDIENNE, bèrmudièn', sf. Bot. bermudiana.

BERNABLE, bèrnabl', [berner], adj. deserving to be laughed at, ridiculous.

BERNACHE, bèrnash', BERNACLE, bèrnakl', sf. 1. Ornith. barnacle goose ; 2. Moll. barnacle, anatifa.

BERNARD, bèrnar', pnm. Bernard.

BERNARDIN, E, bèrnarda*n*, in', smf. Bernardine or Cistercian : monk or nun of St. Bernard.

BERNARDIN DE SAINT-PIERRE, bèrnarda*n* de sâ*n*-pierr [Jacques-Henri], prose-writer and naturalist : author of Paul et Virgini (1737-1814).

BERNARD-L'HERMITE bèrnar-lèrmit', sm. Crust. hermit-crab.

BERNE, bèrn', s. Geog. Bern, Berne.

BERNE, sf. blanketing : tossing in a blanket.

BERNE, sf. Naut. waft. Pavillon en —, ensign half-mast high.

BERNÉ, E, bèrné, pa. p. 1. blanketed ; 2. Fig. derided, ridiculed, flouted.

BERNEMENT, bèrn'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. blanketing : tossing in a blanket ; 2. Fig. bantering, ridicule, flouting.

BERNER, berné-r, [Span. : bernia, woollen stuff], va. to toss in a blanket, to ridicule, to make a fool of, to flout.

BERNEUR, bèrnœr, sm. 1. blanketer : one who tosses a person in a blanket ; 2. derider, flouter.

BERNICLE, bèrnikl', sf. V. Bernacle.

BERNIQUE, bèrnik, interj. Pop. (expressing disappointment) deuce (or devil) a bit, not a bit of it !

† BERNIQUET, bèrnikè, [origin unknown], sm. box to contain bran. Etre au —, to be brought to beggary. Mettre au —, to reduce to beggary (only used in these expressions).

BERNIS, bèrnis, [François-Joachim de], prelate and poet (1715-1794).

BÉROALDE DE VERVILLE, béròald de vervil, [François], tale-writer (1558-1623).

BERQUIN, berka*n*, [Arnauld], essayist, (1749-1791).

BERNOUS, bèrnous. V. Burnous.

BERRET, bèré. V. Bérel.

BERRI, BERRY, béri, sm. Berry, a province of France.

BERRICHON, ONNE, bèrishô*n*, on', adj. and s. 1. of or belonging to Berry ; 2. a native of Berry.

BERS, bèr, sf. pl. side-ladders (of a hay-cart, etc.

BERTAUDER, bèrtôdé-r, va. V. Bretauder.

BERTAVELLE, bèrtavèl', sf. V. Bartavelle.

BERTHE, bèrt', [from queen Berthe], pnf. Bertha. Prov. : Au temps où — filait, long ago, in days long past.

BERTHE, sf. berthe, bertha : cape or flounce round the top of a corsage.

BERTIN, berta*n*, [chevalier Antoine de], poet (1752-1790) ; — [Louis-François], essayist (1766-1841).

BERUBLEAU, bérublô, [corr. of Ger. Bergblau], sm. green bice, mountain green.

BÉRYL, béril, [Lat. : beryllus ; Gr. : βήρυλλος], sm. Min. beryl.

BESACE, bœzas', [Ital. : bisaccia ; bis, double ; saccus, bag], sf. wallet, beggar's wallet. Être à la —, to be reduced to beggary. Mettre, réduire à la —, to reduce to beggary, to beggar, to ruin. Prov. : Chacun porte sa besace avec soi, no one is faultless.

BESACIER, bœzasyé, sm. wallet-bearer, beggar, tramp.

BESAIGRE, bœzegr', [bis ; aigre], adj. tart, sour. Tourner au —, to turn sour.

BESAIGUË, bœzègu, [bis ; aigue), sf. twibill : a) Carp. holing axe, one end shaped like a mortise chisel, the other like a firmer ; b) Agr. a double-headed mattock ; c) Mil. a kind of halberd.

BESANT, bœzâ*n*-t, [Lat. : Byzantium], sm. 1. bezant, besant, byzantine : a coin struck at Byzantium ; 2. Herald. bezant.

BEZANTÉ, E, bœzâ*n*té, adj. Herald. bezanty.

BESAS, bezas, BESET, bœsé, [Lat. : bis, double ; Fr. : as], sm. ambsace, double ace (at dice).

BESI, bezi, m. kind of pear.

BESICLES, bœzikl', [Lat. : bis, twice : oculus, eye], sf. pl. spectacles : a doube eye-glass. Mettez vos —, put on your spectacles ; Fig. look well into it, consider the matter well.

BÉSIGUE, bézig', BÉSY, bézi, [origin unknown], sm. bezigue : a game at cards.

BESOCHE, bezosh [Gascon : besoch], sf. Agr. kind of spade for planting trees.

BESOGNE, bœzony', [besoin], sf. work : a) labour, occupation, business, employment ; b) piece of work, business, job, affair. a) J'ai beaucoup de —, I have a great deal of work. Une rude —, a hard job. Je vais à ma —, I am going to my work. Abattre de la —, to get through a lot of work. Mettre la main à la —, to set to work. Mettre quelqu'un en —, to set a person to work, to find work for a person. — de commande, work done to order. — d'affection, work that one likes, a labour of love, a favourite occupation. Être âpre à la —, mou à la —, to be eager at one's work, to be languid or remiss at one's work. Ne songer qu'à sa —, être tout à la —, to think of nothing but one's work, to be absorbed in one's work, one's occupation. Elle fait la grosse —, she does the hard work. Aller vite en —, to be quick at work ; to be precipitate or hasty. Il faut lui mâcher la —, everything must be got ready for him. Il s'endort sur la —, he goes to sleep over his work. Donner, tailler de la — à quelqu'un, Fig. to cut out work for a person, to throw difficulties or obstacles in a person's way.

b) Voilà de la bonne —, that is good work. — délicate, grossière, delicate work, coarse work. Aimer la — faite, to have an aversion to work. Plus de bruit que de —, more noise than work. Faire plus de bruit que de —, to talk much and do little. Faire de bonne (or de la bonne) —, to do one's work well, to make a good job of a thing. [Ironic. :] Vous avez fait là une belle —, you have made a fine piece of work (a fine mess) of it. Prov. : Selon l'argent la besogne, like saint like incense ; the work is according to the pay.

BESOGNER, bœzonyé-r, vn. to work. Nous avons bien besogné, we have worked well. C'est à lui mal besogné, it is ill done on his part.

BESOGNEUX, EUSE, bœsonyœ, yœz', [besoin], adj. needy, necessitous. Une famille besogneuse, a needy family.

BESOIN, bœzwa*n*, [doubtful ; perhaps soin with the prefix], sm. 1. want : a) need, necessity, demand ; b) indigence, poverty ; c) craving (of the natural appetites) ; d) desire, longing (of the mind). a) Le — de secours était pressant, the want or need of help was urgent. Le — d'argent où il se trouvait, the want of money which he experienced. Le — d'argent sur la place était grand, the demand for money in the market was great. Les besoins publics, the public necessities (or requirements). On apportait le blé à mesure des besoins de la consommation, corn was brought in proportion to the wants (or demands) of consumption. b) Être dans le —, to be in want, to be needy or necessitous. Tous les deux étaient tombés dans le —, both had come to want, had fallen into poverty. Il est au-dessus du —, he is above want. c) Les besoins du corps, the wants of the body. — de nourriture, want of food, craving for food. Épuisé de fatigue et de —, exhausted by fatigue and hunger. Les besoins de l'âme, de l'esprit, du cœur, the wants (desires or longings) of the soul, of the mind, of the heart.

2. need : a) want, necessity ; b) occasion for something ; c) exigency, emergency. a) Boire sans —, to drink without need, without necessity. Exposer franchement ses besoins, to state frankly one's needs (necessities or wants). Subvenir aux besoins de quelqu'un, to supply a person's wants or needs. Faire —, to be wanted or needed. Cela me fait bien —, I greatly want (or need) that. b) Ce que le — demande, what occasion requires. Il n'y a pas —, there is no need or occasion for it.

3. emergency, pinch. En de si grands besoins, in such great emergencies. Ainsi donc, au —, ton courage abat, so then your courage fails you at the pinch. Mourir de —, to die of want (or starvation), to be starved to death.

4. necessary, necessity. Le tabac est devenu pour lui un —, tobacco has become a necessary for him. Des chemises et autres besoins semblables, shirts and other necessaries.

AU BESOIN, adv. phr. in case of need, if need be, if necessary or needful ; at need. Cela servira au —, that will be useful in case of need. On connaît ses amis au —, a friend in need is a friend indeed. Au — nous en ferons usage, if needful (or necessary) we will make use of it.

AVOIR BESOIN DE, verb. phr. to want ; to need, to be in want of, to stand in need of, to require, to have occasion for (or to). J'ai — de vous, I want you. J'ai — que vous lui parliez, I want you to speak to him. J'ai — d'air et de marcher, I want (or stand in need of) air and walking exercise. Cet arbre a — d'être arrosé, that tree wants watering. Avez-vous — de quelque chose ? do you want anything ? Je n'ai plus — de rien, I no longer want for (or stand in need of) anything. J'en ai assez —, I want it badly enough. J'ai — d'aller à un tel endroit, I have occasion to go to such a place. Il n'avait aucun — de fermer la porte, he had no occasion to shut the door. Il n'a pas — qu'on lui dise deux fois la même chose, he does not require to be told the same thing twice ; there is no necessity to tell him the same thing twice. Merci, je n'ai — de rien pour le moment, thank you, I am in want of nothing for the present.

IL EST BESOIN, verb. phr. it is necessary or needful. Il est — que je parte bientôt, it is necessary for me to start soon, I must start soon. Qu'est-il — de tant de paroles ? what need (necessity or occasion) is there for so many words ? Qu'est-il — que nous allions à Paris ? what need (occasion or necessity) is there for us to go to Paris ? why need we go to Paris ? Toutes les fois que — sera, whenever necessary. Mourez s'il est — pour eux, die for them, if necessary (or if needs be). Corn. — Prov. : On a souvent besoin d'un plus petit que soi, a mouse may be of service to a lion. C'est dans le besoin qu'on connait ses amis, a friend in need is a friend indeed. Besoin fait la vieille trotter, necessity makes the old wife trot.

BESSON, ONNE, bèsô*n*, son'. [Lat. : bis, twice], adj. twin. Enfants, agneaux bessons, twin children, twin. Deux bessons, two twins.

BESTIAIRE, bèstièr', [Low Lat. : bestiarius, from bestia, wild beast], sm. 1. Rom. Hist. bestiarius, beast-fighter 2. bestiaire : a book about beasts, especially certain fables and apologues written in the middle ages.

BESTIAL, E, bèstial, al', [Lat. : bestialis], adj. bestial : beastlike, beastly, brutish. Penchants bestiaux, bestial (or beastly) propensities.

BESTIALEMENT, bèstial'mâ*n*-t, adv. bestially : beast-like, brutishly.

BESTIALISER, bestializé, va. Neol. to bestialize. Se —, to become bestialized.

BESTIALITÉ, bèstialité, sf. bestiality.

BESTIASSE, bèstias', sf. dolt, simpleton, a very stupid person.

BESTIAUX, bèstiô-z, sm. pl. cattle, stock of cattle, live-stock (of a farm) : never said of sheep and goats alone. V. Bétail.

BESTIOLE, bèstiol', [Lat. : bestiola, dim. of bestia], sf. 1. small animal, insect ; 2. simpleton, fool.

BESTION, bèstiô*n*, [Lat. : bestia], sm. 1. small animal ; 2. pl. figures of animals on tapestry ; 3. Naut. figure-head of a ship representing an animal.

BÊTA, béta, [bête], sm. numskull, stupid fellow.

BÉTAIL, bétay', [Lat. : bestia, animal ; O. Fr. : bestail], sm. cattle, live-stock (of a farm). Gros —, large cattle : horses, mules, asses, cows, oxen. Petit —, small cattle : sheep, goats, pigs.

BÊTE, bèt', [Lat. : bestia], sf. 1. beast, brute, dumb creature : any animal except man. La — est privée de raison, the brute is destitute of reason. Bêtes à corne, horned cattle, black cattle : oxen, cows, etc. Bêtes à laine, sheep. Bêtes à poil, goats and pigs. Bêtes de somme, beasts of burden. Bêtes de trait, draught animals. — épaulée, a shoulder-shotten (or worn-out) animal ; Fig. an unchaste woman, a soiled dove. Bêtes féroces, beasts of prey, carnivorous beasts. Bêtes farouches, shy beasts. Bêtes sauvages, wild animals. Bêtes fauves, fallow deer : stags roebucks. Bêtes noires, wild boars. Bêtes puantes, foxes, badgers, pole-cats, weasels etc. Bêtes rousses ou carnassières, wolves, foxes, badgers, pole-cats. — à Dieu, à bon Dieu, ou à Martin, ladybird, ladybug, coccinella. — à feu, glow-worm. — noire, cockroach, black-beetle. Remonter sur sa —, Fig. to get on one's legs again. Il faut prendre la — par les cornes, one must take the bull by the horns. C'est chercher la petite —, that's trying to pick holes in a man's coat. Prov. : Morte la bête, mort le venin, dead dogs don't bite, dead men tell no tales. Qui se fait bête le loup le mange, one may be too good to live ; make yourself a sheep and the wolf will eat you.

2. fool, simpleton. Je n'ai été qu'une —, I was but a fool. C'est une bonne —, he is a good-natured simpleton, a poor easy fool. Faire la —, to play the fool, to act like a fool.

3. creature ; (in speaking of a male), fellow, dog ; (of a female) jade, gipsy. Une fine, une maligne —, a sly (or cunning) creature ; a sly (deep or cunning) fellow (or dog) ; a sly (or cunning) jade or gipsy.

4. aversion, antipathy. C'est ma — noire, that is my aversion. Pour les femmes, elles étaient toutes ses bêtes, as for women, they were all his aversion. Je hais la révolution, qui est ma — noire, I detest revolution, it is my aversion.

5. loo : a) a game at cards ; b) the sum paid by a loser. Faire sa —, to pay one's loo.

BÊTE, adj. foolish, silly, stupid. Le vin ne tue pas l'homme, il le rend —, wine does not kill men, it makes them beasts, brute beasts. Avoir un air —, to have a stupid look, to look like a fool. Vraiment nous sommes bien bêtes, truly we are very stupid. Pas si —, I am not such a fool. Il est — comme une oie, un pot, comme une cruche, he is as silly as a goose ; he is a regular fool. Il est plus méchant que —, he is more rogue than fool. Qu'il a l'air — ! what a fool he looks !

BÉTEL, bétèl, [Malay, through Port.], sm. 1. betel-pepper, pawn ; 2. betel : a masticatory composed of areca-nut, betel-pepper leaves and shell-lime.

BÊTEMENT, bèt'mâ*n*-t, adv. foolishly, like a fool, stupidly. Il a agi —, he acted like a fool.

BETHLÉEM, bètléem, s. Geog. Bethlehem.

BÉTILLE. bétiy', sf. Indian muslin.

BÊTISE, bétiz' or bètiz', [bête], sf. 1. folly, foolishness, stupidity : want of sense ; 2. foolery, piece of folly, foolish thing ; nonsense, piece of nonsense. Il est d'une rare —, his foolishness (or stupidity) is something uncommon. Faire et dire des bêtises, to do and say foolish things, to indulge in fooleries. Quelle — ! what nonsense ! Vous avez fait une grande —, you have done a very foolish thing. Il ne dit que des bêtises, he talks nothing but nonsense. J'ai eu la — de le croire, I was foolish enough to believe him.

BÉTOINE, bétwan', [Lat. : betonica], sf. Bot. betony. — officinale, common (or wood) betony, woundwort. — de montagne, leopard's bane, arnica montana.

BÉTON, bétô*n*, [Proven. : betum, putty, from Lat. bitumen], sm. 1. Mason. concrete ; 2. Med. colostrum : the first milk after delivery.

BÉTONNAGE, bétonnazh, sm. 1. Mason. laying of concrete ; 2. concrete masonry.

BÉTONNER, bétoné-r, va. Mason. to lay (or cover with) concrete.

BETTE, bèt', [Lat. : beta], sf. Bot. white-beet, beta cicla. V. Betterave.

BETTERAVE, bet'rav', sf. Bot. beet, beet-root. — champêtre, mangold wurzel, mangel-wurzel. — rouge, red beet.

BÉTULACÉ, ÉE, bétulasé, adj. Bot. betulaceous.

BÉTULACÉES, betulasé, BÉTULINÉES, betuliné, sf. Bot. betulaceæ : trees and shrubs of the birch family.

BÉTUSE, bétuz', sf. 1. Fish. cask for conveying live fish ; 2. Agr. oat-bin.

BÉTYLE, betil, [Gr. : βαίτυλος], sm. Myth. bætulus : sacred stone worshipped as an idol.

BEUGLANT, bœglâ*n*, sm. Pop. a low music-hall or café.

BEUGLANT, adj. lowing, bellowing. Des vaches beuglantes, lowing cows.

BEUGLEMENT, bœgl'mâ*n*-t, sm. bellowing : a) lowing of cows and oxen, roaring of a bull ; b) Fig. loud roaring or shouting of persons.

BEUGLER, bœglé-r, [Lat. : buculus, dim. of bos, ox ; O. Fr. : beugle, bugle, bœuf], vn. to bellow : a) to low, as of bulls, cows, etc. ; b) Fig. to roar, to shout. Cet acteur ne parle pas, il beugle, that player does not speak, he roars (bellows or shouts). Il se mit à —, he set to (began) roaring. [Actif.:] — une chanson, to roar (or bellow) out a song.

BEURRE, bœr, [Lat. : butyrum, thence but're, beurre], sm. butter : a) the fatty part of milk ; b) any substance resembling butter ; c) an old chemical term for any deliquescent substance. — frais, fresh butter. — salé, salt butter. — en livre, lump or roll butter. Motte de —, tub or lump of butter. — en pain, butter in pats. — noir, Cook. browned or burnt butter. — fondu, melted, clarified butter. — fort, rance, strong, rank or rancid butter. Lait de — butter-milk. Tartines de —, slices of bread and butter. — de cacao, butter of cacao. — de cire, butter of wax. — d'antimoine, de zinc, d'étain, de bismuth, butter (or chloride) of antimony, zinc, tin, bismuth. — de montagne, de pierre, de roche, rock butter. Promettre à quelqu'un plus de — que de pain, to promise any one what cannot be performed. C'est promettre plus de — que de pain, much bran, little meal. Cela met du — dans les épinards, that helps to make the pot boil. Jamais — ne veut tenir sur mon pain, no butter will ever stick to my bread. Prov. : On ne peut manier le beurre qu'on ne s'en graisse les doigts, one cannot touch pitch, without soiling one's fingers.

BEURRÉ, E, bœré, pa. p. buttered. Du pain bien —, well buttered bread. Il sait de quel côté son pain est —, he knows when his bread is well buttered.

BEURRÉ, sm. Bot. butter-pear.

BEURRÉE, sf. slice of bread and butter.

BEURRER, bœré-r, va. to butter : a) to cover with butter ; b) Pastry-e. to dip in butter. — du pain, to butter bread.

BEURRERIE, bœrœri', sf. butter-dairy, buttery.

BEURRIER, bœryé, sm. 1. butter-man, dealer in butter ; 2. butter-dish.

BEURRIÈRE, bœryêr', sf. 1. butter-woman, dealer in butter ; 2. butter-boat.

Ce livre n'est bon que pour la —, this book is fit only for the trunk-maker.

BÉVUE, bévu, [bé = bis : vue], sf. blunder : error caused by ignorance or inattention. Grosse —, gross blunder. Une étrange —, a strange blunder. Faire de pareilles bévues, to make such blunders.

BEY, bè, [Turk. ; bey, lord.], sm. bey : in Turkey, governor of a province.

BEYLIK, bélik, sm. beylick : province governed by a bey.

BEYLIER, bélyé, sm. Technol. weav. slubbing-billy, slubbing-machine.

BEYLIEUR, bélyœr, sm. Technol. weav. slubber.

BÉZOARD, bézoar, [Pers. : padzehr, through Port. bezuar], sm. bezoar.

BEZOCHE, bézosh', [besoche], sf. sharp spade (for cutting the roots of trees).

BIAIS, biè-z, [Low Lat. : bifax ; bis, twice ; facies, face], sm. 1. slope, slant, obliquity ; 2. Fig. bias, bent. Ce mur présente un —, that wall presents a slant, slants all awry. Cette allée a un —, that alley runs slanting. Le mauvais goût est une fausseté de jugement, un — naturel dans les idées, bad taste is a perversion of the judgment, a natural bent (or bias) in the ideas. Chateaub. Génie. III. v. 5.

3. way, manner. Vous avez pris le bon — pour toucher son cœur, you have taken the right way (or course) to touch his heart. Mol. B. Gent. III. 6. Prendre le bon —, to go the right way to work. User de —, to employ subterfuges.

4. shift, expedient. Prendre des —, to use shifts, to have recourse to indirect means. On a cent — pour le rendre public, they have a hundred expedients for making it public. Je ne sais quel — ils ont imaginé, I do not know what expedient they have imagined.

EN BIAIS, DE BIAIS, adv. phr. aslant, askew, sloping, slopingly, obliquely across. Couper une étoffe de —, to cut a piece of stuff on the bias, on the cross (both as to the warp and the weft). Couper du bon —, du mauvais —, to cut with the right slope, with the wrong slope.

BIAIS, sm. Dress-m. cross-strip : a strip cut obliquely across the piece, on the bias.

BIAIS, adj. skew, awry, sloping, slanting. Un pont —, a skew-bridge.

BIAISEMENT, bièz'mân-t, sm. 1. slanting, sloping ; 2. evasion, shift, shuffling, expedient, indirect means.

BIAISER, bièzé-r, vn. 1. to slant, to slope, to go aslant ; 2. Fig. to shuffle, to shift. Ce mur biaise, this wall runs aslant, on a slant. S'il trouve une barrière de front, il biaise naturellement, et va à droite ou à gauche, if he finds an obstacle in front, of course he slopes off to the right or left. Nous ne pouvons souffrir qu'on biaise sur les principes de la religion, we can not tolerate any shuffling on the principles of religion. Boss. Relat. C'est un homme qui biaise, he is a shuffler.

3. to temporize : to have recourse to indirect or dilatory means. Il est des circonstances où l'on doit savoir —, there are circumstances in which it is advisable to temporize.

BIAISEUR, EUSE, bièzœr, œz, smf. shuffler, trickster.

BIATOMIQUE, biatomik', [Lat. : bis, twice ; atomus, atom], adj. Chem. biatomic.

BIBASIQUE, bibazik', [Lat. : bis, twice ; basis], adj. Chem. bibasic.

BIBELOT, bib'lo, [origin doubtful], sm. gew-gaw, knick-knack : trifling ornament, gimcrack, toy. Toute espèce de bibelots, all sorts of knick-knacks.

BIBERON, ONNE, bib'rôn, ron', [Lat. : bibère, to drink], smf. bibber, bibler, wine-bibber ; tippler, toper.

BIBERON, sm. 1. drinking-glass with a short spout (for the use of paralytics who cannot hold a common glass steady) ; 2. feeding-bottle (for babies). Élever un enfant au —, to bring up a child by hand.

BIBI, bibi, sm. 1. woman's bonnet worn formerly ; 2. Fam. chickabiddy : familiar term of affection ; 3. Pop. myself. C'est pour — cette fois-ci, it's for number one this time.

BIBICHE, bibish, sm. Fam. word of endearment, ducky.

BIBLE, bibl', [Gr. : βιβλίον, book], sf. Bible : the Old and New Testaments.

BIBLIOGRAPHE, bibliograf', sm. bibliographer.

BIBLIOGRAPHIE, bibliografi, [Gr. : βιβλίον, book ; γράφειν, to write], sf. bibliography.

BIBLIOGRAPHIQUE, bibliografik', adj. bibliographic, bibliographical.

BIBLIOLOGIE, bibliolozhi, [Gr. : βιβλίον, book ; λόγος, discourse], sf. bibliology : an account of books, bibliographical science.

BIBLIOMANE, biblioman', sm. bibliomaniac, bibliomanist.

BIBLIOMANIE, bibliomani', [Gr. : βιβλίον, book ; μαίνομαι, to be mad ; μανία, folly], sf. bibliomania, book-madness.

BIBLIOPHILE, bibliofil', [Gr. : βιβλίον, book ; φιλέω, I love], sm. bibliophile, bibliophilist.

BIBLIOPHILIE, bibliofili', sf. bibliophilism.

BIBLIOPOLE, bibliopol, [Gr. : βιβλίον, book ; πωλεῖν, to sell], sm. bibliopolist : a book-seller.

BIBLIOTHÉCAIRE, bibliotékèr', [Lat. : bibliothecarius], sm. librarian.

BIBLIOTHÈQUE, bibliotèk', [Gr. : βιβλίον, book ; θήκη, casket], sf. 1. library : a) room in which books are kept ; b) a collection of books ; 2. book-case, set of book-shelves. — bleue, folklore books : collection of folklore books. — vitrée, glazed book-case. — à coulisse, book-slide. — tournante, revolving book-case. — publique, free, public library. — municipale, town, municipal library. C'est une — vivante he is a walking library.

BIBLIQUE, biblik', adj. 1. biblical ; 2. bible. Style —, biblical style. Société —, Bible Society.

BIBLISTE, biblist', sm. biblist.

BIBLISTIQUE, biblistik', sf. biblistics : knowledge of the different editions of the Bible.

BIBLORHAPTE, biblorapt, [Gr. : βίβλος, paper ; ῥάπτω, I sew], sm. box-file : box in form of a book (to certain papers).

BIBREUIL, bibrœy, sm. Bot. cow-parsnip.

BIBUS, bibus, [orig. unknown], sm. trifle. Une affaire de —, a trifling (insignificant or paltry) affair.

BICAPSULAIRE, bicapsulèr', [Lat. : bis, twice : capsula, capsule], adj. Bot. bicapsular.

BICARBONATE, bikarbonat', [Lat. : bis, twice ; carbonate], sm. Chem. bicarbonate.

BICARBONÉ, E, bikarboné, adj. Chem. bicarbonated, bicarburetted.

BICARBURE, bikarbur', [Lat. : bis, twice ; carbure], sm. Chem. bicarburet.

BICEPS, bisèps, [Lat.], adj. and sm. Anat. biceps ; the biceps muscle.

BICÊTRE, bisêtr', sm. 1. Bicêtre : the name of a village near Paris and of a lunatic asylum there situated ; 2. bedlam. Envoyer un fou à —, to send a lunatic to bedlam. Un échappé de —, a bedlamite, a man mad enough for bedlam.

BICHE, bish', [orig. unknown], sf. Zool. 1. hind : the female for the stag ; 2. (a term of endearment) dear, love, dove, darling. Ma —, ma petite —, my love, my little darling. V. Pied-de-biche.

3. Herald. serpent. V. Bisse.

BICHET, bishè-t, [bixa, scientific name for rocouyer], sm. arnotto, annotto, or roucou : a dye-stuff.

BICHETTE, bishèt', [biche], sf. little dear, little darling. Ma —, my little darling.

BICHOF, BISCHOF, [Ger. : Bischof], sm. bishop : a hot spiced wine.

BICHON, ONNE, bishôn, shon', [abbrev. of barbichon], smf. 1. Maltese dog, lap-dog ; 2. (term of endearment for a child) little dear, darling, love.

BICHONNER, bishoné-r, va. 1. to curl, to frizz, to frizzle ; 2. Fig. to dress up, to bedizen.

BICHONNER (SE), v. refl. 1. to curl, frizz, or frizzle one's hair ; 2. Fig. to dress one's self up.

BICIPITAL, E, bisipital, tal', [biceps], adj. Anat. bicipital. Les tendons bicipitaux, the bicipital tendons.

BICONCAVE, bikônkav', [Lat. : bis, twice ; concave], adj. Opt. concavo-concave.

BICONVEXE, bikônvèks', [Lat. : bis, twice ; convexe], adj. Opt. convexo-convex.

BICOQ, bikok, sm. Technol. prop or strut (of a gin for raising heavy weights).

BICOQUE, bikok', [Ital. : bicocca, little castle], sf. 1. paltry fortress ; 2. a small town ; 3. a wretched little house ; shed, hovel.

BICORNE, bikòrn', [Lat. : bicornis; two-horned], adj. bicorn, bicornous.

BICUSPIDÉ, E, bikuspidé, [Lat. : bis, twice ; cuspis, point], adj. 1. Anat. bicuspid ; 2. Bot. bicuspidate.

BICYCLE, bisilk', [Lat. : bis, twice ; Gr. : κύκλος, circle], sm. bicycle : velocipede with two wheels ; Fam. bike.

BICYCLETTE, bisiklet, sf. bicycle, safety bicycle. — sans chaîne, chainless bicycle. — de course, de route, roadster bicycle. — de course sur piste, path racer.

BICYCLISME, bisiklism', sm. cycling.

BICYCLISTE, bisiklist, smf. cyclist.

BIDAUCT, bidòkt, sm. Technol. soot used in dyeing.

BIDENT, bidân, sm. 1. a two-pronged fork ; 2. Bot. water-hemp ; bidens tripartita.

BIDENTÉ, E, bidânté, [Lat. : bis, twice ; dens, dentis, tooth], adj. 1. Anat. bidental ; 2. Anat. and Bot. bidentate, bidentated.

BIDET, bidè, [Ital. : bidetto], sm. 1. cob, pony, nag : a small horse ; 2. bidet : a toilet article. Pousser son —, to make one's way, to get on in the world.

BIDON, bidôn, [orig. uncertain ; perhaps a corr. of bedon, an old word signifying drum], sm. 1. large pitcher (of wood or metal) ; 2. can (for oil, etc.) ; 3. Milit. canteen; 4. Naut. grog- or wine-tub.

BIEF, byé or byèf, BIEZ, biez, sm. Civ. Eng. 1. reach (of a canal). — supérieur, upper reach : the reach above a lock. — inférieur, lower reach : the one below a lock. — de partage, summit level reach.

2. race (of a mill). — d'amont, upper race, mill-pond, mill-dam. — d'aval, lower race.

BIELLE, byèl', [orig. unknown], sf. Mach. connecting-rod, side-rod. — d'accouplement, coupling-rod. — de commande, driving rod. — de parallélogramme, motion-rod. — de parallélogramme à double bride, main link. — de tiroir, valve-rod. — pendante, cylinder or piston side-rod. Grande —, main connecting-rod. Tête de —, cross-head Corps de —, body of connecting-rod. Pied de —, top end of connecting-rod.

BIEN, bya*n*; the n is always mute, [Lat. : bene], sm. 1. good : a) the opposite of evil and of harm; b) goodness, righteousness, virtue; c) benefit, welfare, well-being, prosperity. Le — et le beau, the good and the beautiful. La science du — et du mal, the knowledge of good and evil. Le souverain —, the sovereign good, the summum bonum. Le — suprême, the supreme good. Cela fit plus de mal que de —, that did more harm than good. Il y a du — et du mal dans cet ouvrage, there are both good and bad in that work. Ce voyage lui a fait du —, that voyage has done him good. Cet homme fait du — sans ostentation, that man does good without ostentation. Faire le —, to do good. Qui fait — à tous peut dormir sûrement, he who does good to all may sleep in security. Dire du — de quelqu'un, to speak well of a person. Rendre le — pour le mal, to render good for evil. Vouloir du — à quelqu'un, to wish well to a person, to wish a person well. Grand — leur fasse, much good may it do them.

b) Le — et la justice régnaient alors, virtue (or goodness) and justice then reigned. Homme de —, a good (or vituous) man. Gens de —, honest people. Femme de —, a virtuous woman. Se porter au —, to incline towards good, towards virtue. Un pas vers le —, a step in the right direction. Il voit cette fille en tout — et en tout honneur, he visits that young lady with the best and most honourable intentions.

c) Un homme à qui vous avez fait tant de —, a man to whom you have done so much good, on whom you have conferred so many benefits. Faire du — à quelqu'un, to do good to a person, to promote a person's welfare. Il ne cesse de faire du — à ses sujets, he never ceases to do good to (to promote the welfare of) his subjects. Faire du — à quelque chose, to do good to a thing. La paix fera du — au commerce, the peace will do good to trade, will improve trade. Le — public, the public good (weal or prosperity). Travailler au — public, to labour for the public good. Le — particulier doit céder au — général, the good (or the interests) of individuals must yield to the public good (or interests).

2. gift, good thing, boon, blessing, pleasure, advantage, treasure, possession. Les biens de l'esprit, the gifts of the mind. Les biens du corps, the gifts of the body : health and strength. Les biens de l'âme, the gifts of the soul : the virtues. Les biens temporels, the good things of this world, temporal blessings. Biens éternels, eternal treasures, the bliss of heaven. La santé est le plus précieux des biens, health is the most precious of boons. J'ai le — d'être de vos voisins, I have the pleasure of being one of your neighbours. Le temps est contraire aux biens de la terre, the weather is unfavourable for the fruits of the earth.

3. property, estate; (in the plural) goods possessions. — patrimonial, patrimonial estate. — substitué, entailed estate, estate tail. Lorsqu'on a du —, when one has property. Biens fonciers (ou immeubles), lands, landed estate (or property), real estate. Biens meubles, personal estate (or property), moveable goods. Avoir du — au soleil, to have real property : buildings or land. — de campagne, an estate in the country. Il a mangé son —, he has lavished away his property. Il a dépensé le plus clair de son —, he has run through the best part of his fortune. Faire une cession de biens, to make an assignment of one's property. Prov. : Le mieux est l'ennemi du —, leave well alone. Bien mal acquis ne profite jamais, ill-gotten wealth never prospers. Le bien vient en dormant, fortune comes when least expected. Nul bien sans peine, no pleasure without pain. Qui bien fera, bien trouvera, do well and have well. V. Tout, Aimer.

À BIEN, adv. phr. successfully. Mener une entreprise à —, to conduct an undertaking successfully. Aller à —, venir à —, se terminer à —, to end well, to come to a happy issue, to succeed.

EN BIEN, adv. phr. 1. honestly; 2. in a favourable light (or point of view). On ne trompe point en —, there is no cheating honestly. Prendre en —, to put a favourable construction on, to take in good part, to receive favourably. Ce mot peut être pris en — comme en mal, that word may be taken in a good sense, as well as in a bad sense. Cela ne me touche ni en —, ni en mal, that does not concern me in the least.

BIEN, bya*n*; byè-n, before a vowel or a mute h : as, bien écrire, bien honorable, biénékrir, biènonorabl'; but some persons retain the nasal sound, and pronounce these words : bia*n* nékrir', bia*n*nonorabl') adv. 1. well : a) not ill, in a proper manner; b) rightly, aright, justly; c) correctly, accurately, skilfully; d) perfectly, thoroughly; e) right, proper; f) Ironic. fine; g) formally, clearly, expressly, fully; h) copiously, abundantly.

a) Il a — employé son temps, he has made good use of his time. Il se conduit —, he behaves well. Une chose — ou mal faite, a thing well or ill done. Champ — cultivé, a well cultivated field. Aller —, 1. (of persons) to be well, to be in good health; 2. (of things) to go (or get) on well, to prosper, to succeed, to flourish. Il va aussi — qu'il est possible, he is as well as a man can be. Tout va —, all's well. Tout cela va —, that's all right. Ses affaires vont fort —, his business is prospering, is going on well. Venir —, to grow well, to flourish (as plants). Tourner —, to turn out well, to take a favourable turn. [Bien sometimes precedes the verb :) Bien lui a pris de s'en aller, it was well for him that he went away. Comme — vous savez, as you well know. — lui prit de son indifférence, his indifference was a lucky circumstance for him.

b) J'avais — jugé cet homme-là, I had rightly judged that man. Est-ce que j'ai — entendu ? have I heard aright ?

c) Il parle —, he speaks well. Il écrit —, he writes well. Il chante —, he sings well. Voilà qui est — pensé, — imaginé, that is well thought, well imagined. d) Connaître — quelqu'un, to know a person thoroughly. Je vois — que..., I see well that... Je sais fort — que ..., I know perfectly well that... Je comprends — que..., I perfectly understand that... e) Cela est —, that is well. Croyez-vous que cela soit — ? do you think that that is well (right or proper) ? C'est —, c'est très bien, good, very good; that is right, very right. C'est —, on fera ce que vous désirez, very good, we will do as you wish. Il est — de garder une certaine dignité, it is well to maintain a certain dignity. Il serait — que vous lui fissiez des excuses, it would be well (right or proper) for you to apologize to him. f) C'est — à vous de parler ainsi, it is all very fine for you (it ill becomes you) to talk in that manner.

g) Il est — entendu que..., it is well understood that... Cela est — établi dans le contrat, that is expressly stated in the contract. Il est — et dûment investi de cette magistrature, he is fully and duly invested with that magistracy.

h) Il mange —, he eats well. Il boit —, he drinks well.

2. Ironic. in a fine plight (pretty pickle or nice mess). Nous voilà —, we are in a nice mess ! Le voilà — ! he is in a pretty pickle !

3. (before an adjective or an adverb) very; (before a comparative) much, far; (before a participle) much, very much, well, very well Il est — savant, he is very learned. Elle est — malheureuse, she is very unhappy. J'en suis — aise, I am very glad of it. Il est déjà — loin, he is already very far off. Il est arrivé — à propos, he arrived very opportunely. Il est — mal, he is very bad, in a very bad state. Il est — malade, he is very ill, very unwell. Il fut — surpris, he was much (very much or greatly) surprised. Il a été — attrapé, he has been finely taken in. Il est — plus âgé que vous, he is much older than you. Il y va de — plus, much more is at stake. — moins, much (or far) less.

4. comfortable, at one's ease. Il se trouve — dans son lit, he is very comfortable in his bed. Nous sommes très — ici, we are very comfortable here. On est très — dans ce fauteuil, one is very comfortable in this armchair.

5. on good terms, in favour. Être (ou vivre) — avec quelqu'un, to be (or to live) on good terms with a person. Être — avec soi-même, to be on good terms with one's self, to have a quiet conscience. Il est — auprès du roi, he is in favour with the king.

6. good-looking, handsome. Cette femme est —, that woman is good-looking. Il a deux filles qui sont fort —, he has two daughters who are very handsome.

7. (with de and the definite article) many, a great (or good) many : followed by a noun plural; much, a great (or good) deal : followed by a noun singular. — de la peine, much trouble, a great deal of trouble. — des gens, many people, a great many people. Cette contrée renferme — des prairies fertiles, that country contains a great many fertile meadows (or a great deal of fertile meadow land). [In some instances the articles is suppressed :] — d'autres, many others. — d'autres que vous, many others besides you.

8. full, quite. Il y a — trois ans que je ne l'ai vu, it is full three years since I saw him. Il y a — deux lieues d'ici là, it is full two leagues (or a good two leagues) from here to there. Vous avez — raison, you are quite right. Voulez-vous — venir demain ? would you mind coming to-morrow ? Je le veux —, willingly; I have no objection whatever. Prov. : Bien est venu qui apporte, a bribe will enter without knocking. Tout est bien qui finit bien, all's well that ends well.

BIEN ET BEAU, adv. phr. V. Beau.

BIEN QUE, conj. phr. (with the subj. mood) though, although. — que leur naissance les destine au trône, although their birth destines them for the throne. — qu'il change d'état, il ne change point d'âme, though he changes his condition, he does not change his soul. — que renversé à terre, il se défendait encore, though thrown to the ground, he defended himself still.

SI BIEN QUE, conj. phr. (with indic. when the action is present or past; with subj. when future) 1. so that, in such sort that; 2. however, however much, how much so ever. La nuit nous surprit si — qu'il fallut nous arrêter en route, night overtook us, so that we were obliged to stop by the way. Je ne puis m'empêcher de croire, si — que je résiste, I cannot help believing, however much I resist.

EH BIEN, HÉ BIEN, interj. phr. well. Eh —, que faites-vous ? well, what are you doing ?

AUSSI BIEN, etc. V. Aussi.

BIEN-AIMÉ, E, byènèmé ; less correctly bian-nèmé, adj. 1. well-beloved, beloved ; 2. subst. darling, fondling. Fils —, well-beloved son. Jean, le disciple —, John the beloved disciple. Benjamin était le — de son père, Benjamin was his father's darling. C'est ma bien-aimée, she is my darling.

BIEN-DIRE, byân-dir', sm. 1. elocution : the art of speaking well ; 2. Ironic. fine speaking, fine talking. Pour disputer le prix de —, to dispute the prize of elocution. Être sur son —, to affect fine talking. [In such phrases as the following the hyphen is suppressed :] Le bien faire vaut mieux que le bien dire, it is better to do well than to speak well ; actions are better than words.

BIEN-DISANT, E, byan-dizân-t, ânt', 1. adj. fair-spoken ; 2. subst. fair-speaker (in opposition to médisant, evil-speaker).

BIEN-ÊTRE, byènètr' ; less correctly, bian-nêtr', sm. 1. welfare, well-being ; 2. comfort ; 3. comforts, comfortable existence. Le gouvernement veille au — du public, the government watches over the welfare of the public. La fièvre ayant cessé, il éprouva du —, the fever having ceased, he felt comfortable, felt relieved. Il regrette le — qu'il a perdu, he regrets the comforts (or the comfortable existence) he has lost. Accuser le —, Comm. to pass, to state in conformity.

† BIEN-FAIRE, byan-fêr, vn. to do good, to benefit. Il se plaît à — à tout le monde, he delights in doing good to everybody.

BIENFAISANCE, byanfœzâns' ou byanfèzâns', sf. 1. beneficence : active benevolence, doing good ; 2. charity. Une — éclairée, enlightened beneficence. La véritable grandeur est dans la —, true greatness consists in doing good. Œuvre de —, work of charity. Bureau de —, 1. charity board : a committee for relieving the poor ; 2. relief office : an office where the poor are relieved. Société de —, benevolent society. Contrat de —, a benefaction : deed of gift.

BIENFAISANT, E, byanfœzân-t, ânt' ; less correctly, byanfèzânt', [bien ; faire], adj. 1. beneficent : bounteous, bountiful, benevolent, kind ; 2. beneficial, salutary, helpful, serviceable. La bienfaisante nature, beneficent (bounteous or bountiful) nature. Des soins bienfaisants, helpful (kindly) attentions. Une pluie bienfaisante, a genial rain.

BIENFAIT, [bien ; faire], byanfè-t ; in the pl. the t is silent and the s is pronounced as z before a vowel sound, sm. benefit : a) boon, favour conferred ; b) kind act ; c) profit, advantage. On ôte du mérite au — qu'on retarde, a benefit delayed loses half its merit. Les bienfaits de la science, the benefits of science. Un — n'est jamais perdu, a benefit (or kind action) is never lost. Combler de bienfaits, to load with favours, with benefits. Rendre un —, to repay a benefit, a kindness. Les bienfaits s'écrivent sur le sable et les injures sur l'airain, benefits are traced in the sand and injuries are graven on brass.

BIENFAITEUR, TRICE, byanfètœr, tris', sm.f. 1. benefactor, m., benefactress f. ; 2. adject. beneficent.

BIEN-FONDS, byanfôn, sm. real estate : property in land or houses. Placer son argent en —, to invest one's money in land, in houses, in real estate. [Pl. Biens-fonds.]

BIENHEUREUX, EUSE, byènœrœ, œz' ; or byan-nœrœ, œz', with the nasal vowel, adj. 1. blessed, blest : said of persons and things ; 2. blissful : said of things only ; 3. blessed : beatified. — qui peut vivre en paix, blessed is he who can live in peace. Ce — moment n'est pas encore venu, that blessed or blissful moment is not yet come. État —, blissful state. Séjour —, blissful abode. Les esprits —, the blessed spirits. Celui qui obtient les honneurs de la béatification s'appelle Bienheureux, he who obtains the honours of beatification is styled Blessed.

BIENHEUREUX, EUSE, sm. f. blessed spirit ; pl. the blest. Le séjour des —, the abode of the blest.

BIEN-INTENTIONNÉ, E, byènantânsyoné, adj. 1. well-intentioned, well-minded, well-meaning ; 2. pl. subst. the well-intentioned.

BIENNAL, E, byènal, al', [Lat. : bis, twice ; annus, year], adj. biennial : lasting two years.

BIENSÉANCE, byansééâns', [Lat. : bene ; sedēre, to sit], sf. 1. decorum : propriety of speech or conduct, seemliness. Cela choque la —, that is an offence against decorum. Observer, négliger les bienséances, to observe, to neglect the proprieties. Les lois, les règles de la —, the laws the rules of decorum (or propriety). Bienséances oratoires, rhetorical proprieties.

2. convenience. Être à la — de quelqu'un, to suit a person's convenience. Par droit de —, solely to suit one's own convenience.

BIENSÉANT, E, byanséânt, ânt', adj. proper, becoming, decorous, decent.

BIEN-TENANT, ANTE, byantenân, ant, sm. f. adj. Law-t. person in possession. [Pl. Bien-tenants, antes].

BIENTÔT, byantô-t, [bien ; tôt], adv. soon : a) shortly, before long, ere long ; b) speedily ; c) easily. Je reviendrai —, I shall soon come back. Cela est — dit, that is soon said ; it is easy talking ; that is sooner (or more easily) said than done. A —, good bye for the moment.

BIENVEILLANCE, byanvèyâns', [Lat. : benevolentia], sf. 1. kindness : kind feeling, goodwill ; 2. benevolence : willingness to do good. La — avec laquelle vous m'écoutez, the kindness with which you listen to me. Avoir de la — pour quelqu'un, to have a kind feeling towards a person. Gagner, se concilier la — de quelqu'un, to gain, to conciliate a person's goodwill. Reçu avec — par le ministre, received with kindness by the minister. Une marque de —, a mark of kindness.

BIENVEILLANT, E, byanvèyân-t, ânt', adj. 1. kind, kindly disposed, well disposed ; 2. benevolent. Il s'est montré fort — pour moi, he showed himself very kindly disposed towards me. Accueil —, a kind welcome, a kind reception. Paroles bienveillantes, kind words.

BIENVENIR, byanvœnir, [bien ; venir], vn. to be welcomed, to be welcome, to be well-received. Se faire — de, to ingratiate one's self into the favour of, to manage to make one's self be welcomed.

BIENVENU, E, byanvœnu, adj. welcome : welcomed, well-received. Il est — partout, he is welcome everywhere. Vous ne seriez pas —, si vous lui disiez cela, you would not be well-received if you told him that ; he would not thank you for that information.

BIENVENU, E, sm. f. welcome person ; anything welcome. Soyez le —, la bienvenue, welcome ; you are welcome. Toutes vos lettres seront les bienvenues, all your letters will be welcome.

BIENVENUE, byanvœnu, sf. 1. welcome : a) first arrival at a place ; b) entrance, admission (of a person into a society, corporation, etc. ; 2. footing : money paid by a new member of a society, etc. ; 3. garnish money : payment formerly exacted from prisoners. Souhaiter la —, to welcome (on arrival or admission). Donner un repas pour sa —, to give a treat (to stand treat) on one's admission. Payer sa —, to pay one's footing.

BIÈRE, byêr', [orig. unknown ; Eng. : beer ; Ger. : Bier], sf. beer : malt liquor. Double —, double beer. — forte, strong beer. Petite —, small beer. — de table, table beer. — en fûts, beer in casks. — en bouteilles, bottled beer. — détaillée du fût, beer sold on draught. Débit de —, beer-shop, beer-house. Ce n'est pas de la petite —, that's no small matter.

BIÈRE, [Germanic orig., Ger. : Bahre ; Eng. : bier], sf. 1. bier, coffin ; 2. shell : a rough coffin made of cheap wood.

BIÈVRE, byèvr', sm. beaver. V. Castor.

BIEZ, bié, sm. V. Bief.

BIFÈRE, bifèr', [Lat. : bis, twice ; ferre, to bear], adj. Bot. biferous : bearing fruit twice a year.

BIFFACE, bifas', sm. erasure (of writing).

BIFFER, bifé-r, [orig. unknown], va. 1. to erase, to strike or cross out ; 2. Law-t. to cancel. — une ligne, to cross out a line. — une clause d'un contract, to cancel a clause of a contract.

BIFIDE, bifid', [Lat. : bis, twice ; findĕre, to split], adj. Nat. Hist. and Bot. bifid : cleft in two parts, forked.

BIFLORE, biflôr', [Lat. : bis, twice ; flos, floris, flower], adj. Bot. biflorous : two-flowered.

BIFOLIÉ, E, bifolyé, [Lat. : bis, twice ; folium, leaf], adj. Bot. bifoliate : two-leaved.

BIFORÉ, E, biforé, [Lat. : bis, twice ; foratus, pierced], adj. Bot. biforate.

BIFTECK, biftèk, [Eng. : beef ; steak], sm. beef-steak.

BIFURCATION, bifurkâsyôn, sf. bifurcation : forking, division into two branches or forks. La — d'une route, d'un chemin de fer, du tronc d'un arbre, de la racine d'une dent, etc., the bifurcation of a road, of a railway, of the trunk of a tree, of the root of a tooth.

BIFURQUÉ, E, bifurké, adj. 1. bifurcated, forked ; 2. adj. bifurcate, dichotomous.

BIFURQUER (SE), [Lat. : bis, twice ; furca, fork], sœ-bifurké-r, v. refl. 1. to bifurcate : to fork, to divide into two branches ; 2. to be bifurcated.

BIGAME, bigam', [Lat. : bis, twice ; Gr. : γάμος, marriage], adj. mf. 1. bigamous : married to two persons; 2. subst. bigamist.

BIGAMIE, bigami, sf. bigamy : a) the crime of having two wives or two husbands ; b) Canon-l. the act of marrying a second wife after the death of the first or of marrying a widow. — spirituelle, the holding of two incompatible ecclesiastical benefices.

BIGARADE, bigarad', [Proven. : bigarrado], sf. Seville (or bitter) orange.

BIGARADIER, bigaradyé, sm. Seville (or bitter) orange-tree.

BIGARRÉ, E, bigaré, adj. party-coloured, motley, piebald. Habit —, a party-coloured coat. Une livrée bigarrée, a motley (or piebald) livery. Style —, motley, piebald style.

BIGARREAU, bigarô, [bigarrer], sm. red-and-white-heart cherry.

BIGARREAUTIER, bigarôtyé, sm. red-and-white-heart cherry-tree.

BIGARREMENT, bigar'mân-t, sm. mixture of contrasting colours.

BIGARRER, bigaré-r, [origin doubtful; Lat. : bis, twice; variāre, to vary; varellus, dim. of varius], va. 1. to make or render party-coloured; 2. to make a motley (or medley) of; 3. Fig. to checker, to diversify; 4. Fig. to interlard, to intersperse. Elle a trop bigarré son ajustement, she has introduced too many colours into her dress. Toutes les nuances qui bigarrent la vie commune, all the shades that checker (or diversify) common-life. Sans — son discours de citations, without interlarding one's speech with quotations.

BIGARRURE, bigarur', sf. 1. party-colour; 2. medley, motley.

BIGÉMINÉ, E, bizhéminé, [Lat. : bis, twice; geminus, twin], adj. 1. Bot. bigeminate; 2. Arch. of a window divided into four parts. Fenêtre —, double gemel window.

BIGLE, bigl', [Lat. : bis, twice; oculus, eye], adj. squinting, cock-eyed; subst. squinter, squinting person.

BIGLE, [Eng. : beagle], sm. Sport. beagle: a small kind of hare-hound.

BIGLER, biglé-r, vn. to squint.

BIGNE, biny', [for buigne], sf. 1. bump on the head (caused by a blow); 2. Agr. a pronged mattock.

BIGNONIACÉES, binyoniasé, sf. pl. Bot. bignoniaceæ : family of plants of which the bignonia is the type.

BIGNONIE, binyoni, [from Abbé Bignon, librarian to Louis XIV], sf. Bot. bignonia, trumpet-flower.

BIGORNE, bigôrn', [Lat. : bicornis, two-horned], sf. 1. Tech. beak-iron : a kind of anvil with two beaks, one round, the other square; 2. beak (of a common anvil); 3. Naut. calker's cold chisel.

BIGORNEAU, bigórnô, [dim. of bigorne], sm. 1. hand-anvil (usually fixed in a vice); 2. Moll. periwinkle; Pop. winkle. Manger des bigorneaux, to eat periwinkles.

BIGORNER, bigórné-r, va. Tech. to forge (or shape) on a beak-iron.

BIGOT, E, bigo-t, got', [origin unknown], adj. bigot, bigoted. [Subst. :] Un —, une bigote, a bigot.

BIGOTERIE, bigot'ri, sf. bigotry.

BIGOTISME, bigotism', sm. bigotry.

BIGOUDI, bigoudi, sm. hair-curler.

BIGRE, bigr', BIGREMENT, bigremân, (euphemism for bougre), adj. adv. Fam. awful, awfully, terribly.

BIGUE, big', [Low Lat. : biga, rafter, beam], sf. sheers, pl. : an apparatus for raising heavy weights.

BIHOREAU, biorô, sm. Ornith. night-heron, ardea nycticorax.

BIJOU, bizhou, [Low Breton : bizou, ring for the finger; Lat. : bis, twice; jocus, joke, game], sm. jewel : a) trinket; b) Fig. anything elegant and ornate; c) love, darling. Elle a vendu tous ses bijoux, she has sold all her jewels. Cette maison est un —, that house is a jewel. Un — de montre, a love of a watch. Cet enfant est le — de la famille, that child is the jewel, the darling of the family.

BIJOUTERIE, bizhout'ri, sf. 1. jewellery or jewelry; 2. jeweller's trade.

BIJOUTIER, IÈRE, bizhoutyé, tyèr', smf. jeweller : one who makes or sells jewellery.

BIJUGUÉ, E, bizhughé, [Lat. : bis, twice; jugum, pair], adj. Bot. bijugate, bijugous.

BILABIÉ, E, bilabyé, [Lat. : bis, twice; labium, lip], adj. Bot. bilabiate.

BILAMELLÉ, E, bilamèlé, [Lat. : bis, twice; lamella, plate], adj. Bot. bilamellate.

BILAN, bilân, [Lat. : bilanx, balance], sm. 1. balance-sheet (of a trader or merchant); 2. schedule (of an insolvent's debts and assets). Déposer son —, to file one's schedule; Colloq., to stop payment, to suspend one's payments.

BILATÉRAL, E, bilatéral, al', [Lat. : bis, twice; lateral], adj. 1. bilateral : having symmetrical sides; 2. Law-t, synallagmatic : said of contracts imposing reciprocal obligations.

BILBAO, bilbao, s. Geog. Bilboa.

BILBOQUET, bilbokè, [bille; bocquet, an old word signifying head), sm. 1. cup and ball; 2. little tumbler : a puppet so formed and loaded as always to recover its upright position; 3. Print. job-work; 4. Mason. rubble-stone.

BILE, bil', [Lat. : bilis, bile], sf. bile : a) Physical. gall, the fluid which collects in the gall-bladder; b) Fig. ill-humour, choler, spleen. Un débordement de —, an overflow of bile. — de bœuf, ox-gall. Émouvoir, échauffer la — de quelqu'un, to stir up a person's bile. S'émouvoir, s'échauffer la —, to put one's self into a passion. Décharger sa — sur quelqu'un, to vent one's bile (ill-humour or spleen) on a person. — noire, melancholy, low spirits. Se faire de la —, to irritate one's self, to make one's self uneasy.

BILIAIRE, bilièr', adj. Anat. biliary. Calculs biliaires, biliari calculi, gall-stones. Canaux, conduits biliaires, bile-ducts, gall-ducts. Vésicule —, gall-bladder.

BILIEUX, EUSE, biliœ, œz', adj. 1. bilious : a) Med. pertaining to, consisting of, or caused by bile; b) Fig. choleric, passionate, splenetic. Fièvre bilieuse, bilious fever, gall-fever, gall-sickness. Tempérament —, complexion bilieuse, bilious temperament or constitution. Maladies bilieuses, bilious complaints or affections. C'est un homme —, he is a bilious (ill-tempered, morose or choleric) fellow.

2. subst. bilious person. Les — sont sujets à de graves maladies, the bilious are subject to serious diseases.

BILIGULÉ, E, biligulé, [Lat. : bis, twice; ligula, strap], adj. Bot. biligulate.

BILIMBI, bilanbi, [Mal. : bimbing], sm. Bot. bilimbi or blimbing : averrhoa bilambi, a tropical fruit.

BILINGUE, bilang, [Lat. : bilinguis; bis, twice; lingua, language, tongue], adj. bilingual, bilinguous : a) Nat. Hist. having two tongues; b) Philol. speaking two languages, or written in two languages. Inscription —, bilingual inscription.

BILLARD, biyar, [bille], sm. 1. billiards : a well-known game; 2. billiard-table; 3. billiard-room; 4. (formerly) mace : a peculiar kind of cue for striking the balls. — de terre, lawn billiards.

BILLARDER, biyardé-r, vn. 1. to make a foul stroke (by striking one's ball twice or hitting two balls at once; queuter is now the word used); 2. Man. to make an outward sweep with the fore legs : said of a horse; 3. to spread wide (as the horns of an ox, etc.)

BILLAUT, [Adam], poet, called the Virgile au rabot (d. 1662).

BILLE, biy, [orig. uncertain; Lat. : pila, ball; bulla, bubble], sf. 1. billiard-ball; 2. marble (to play with); taw : marble used to shoot with; 3. log (of timber); 4. wring-staff (for wringing skins, etc.); 5. packing-stick (for tightening the cords of bâles); 6. rolling-pin (for pastry); 7. Agr. cutting, set : a branch cut for planting; 8. sucker : shoot springing from the root of a tree; 9. square piece of steel, length of steel ready for forging; 10. Naut. becket. Blouser ou faire une —, Bill. to hole (or pocket) a ball, to make a hazard. Une — collée, a ball laid close to the band. Être à billes égales (or pareilles), to be even, to be on equal terms. Jouer aux billes, to play at marbles.

BILLEBARRER, biy'baré-r, [bille; barre], va. to streak, to stripe : to mark with streaks of a different colour.

BILLEBAUDE, biy'bôd', [bille; O. Fr. : baude, lively], sf. confusion, disorder. A la —, in confusion, confusedly.

BILLEBAUDER, biy'bôdé-r, vn. Sport. to straggle in hunting (said of hounds).

BILLER, biyé-r, [bille], va. 1. to wring (skins, etc.); 2. to roll out (paste or dough).

BILLET, byé-t, [Low Lat. : bulla, or from Eng., bill], sm. 1. note : short letter, billet, paper folded as a letter. Écrire, recevoir un —, to write, to receive a note. — doux, love-letter, billet-doux.

2. bill, hand-bill : a written or printed paper containing an announcement to the public; 3. circular letter, circular : an announcement addressed to certain individuals. — de naissance, de mariage, d'enterrement, circular announcing a birth, a marriage, a funeral. — de faire part, circular announcing some family event, as a birth, marriage or death; invitation to attend a marriage or funeral. Faire courir le —, to send round circulars. — d'invitation pour un dîner, an invitation to dinner.

4. ticket. — d'entrée, admission ticket. Prenez vos billets, take your tickets. Montrez vos billets, show your tickets. — d'aller et retour, return ticket. — de loterie, lottery ticket. — blanc, a blank. — gagnant, a prize. Tirer au —, to draw lots.

5. order : a gratuitous ticket admitting to a theatre, etc. Je ne puis disposer que de dix billets pour cette représentation, I can dispose of no more than ten orders for that performance.

6. note of hand, promissory note, bill (of exchange), note (of a bank). — de banque, bank-note. Un — de mille francs, a thousand franc note. — à ordre, bill payable to order; bill transferable by endorsement. — simple, note of hand, promissory note, bill of exchange payable to only the person in whose favour it is drawn. — à vue, bill payable at sight. — à présentataion, bill payable on demands. — au porteur, bill payable to bearer. — de complaisance, accommodation bill. — échu, bill due. — périmé, ticket overdue. — à courte échéance, short-dated bill. — à longue échéance, long bill, long-dated bill.

7. voting paper, ballot; 8. certificate. — de confession, Rom. Cath. Rel. certificate of confession. — blanc, blank paper, a blank. — de santé, bill (or certificate) of health.

9. Milit. — de logement, billet. — de garde, order to mount guard.

BILLETÉ, E, biyœté. adj. Herald. billeted, charged with billets.

BILLETER, biœté-r, [Il billette, il billettera.] va. 1. to ticket (goods); 2. Milit. to billet (soldiers).

BILLETTE, biyèt', [billet], sf. 1. toll table or notice of tolls to be paid; 2. custom-house receipt for duties paid; 3. billet : a) a log of fire-wood; b) Herald. an oblong rectangular figure; c) Arch. an ornament consisting of a round moulding interrupted at intervals.

BILLEVESÉE, bilvœzé, [O. Fr. : bille, ball; vezé, full of wind], sf. 1. silly stuff, trash, nonsense ; 2. crotchet, whimsical notion. Tous les propos qu'il tient sont des billevesées, all he says is mere trash. Mol. F. Sav. II, 7. Il tient à publier ses billevesées, he is bent on publishing his crotchets.

BILLION, bilyôn, [Lat. : bis, twice ; million], sm. billion : a thousand millions (1,000,000,000), according to the French and American system of numeration ; according to the old system, which still prevails in England a billion is a million millions (1,000000,000000).

BILLON, biyôn, (bille ; Low Lat. : billio], sm. 1. copper coin ; 2. debased coin ; silver or gold below the legal standard ; 3. public office where base or light coin is purchased for recoining. Monnaie de —, copper coin.

4. Agr. ridge (of ploughed land) ; 5. short stem (of a vine) ; 6. Carp. balk : a log of deal timber.

BILLONNAGE, biyonazh', sm. 1. illegal traffic in base or light coins ; 1. Agr. ridging (of ploughed land).

BILLONNEMENT, biyon'mân-t, sm. 1. illegal traffic in coin ; 2. debasing of coin.

BILLONNER, biyoné-r, vn. 1. to trafic in base coin ; 2. to buy up coin for exportation or melting down.

3. Agr. to ridge (ploughed land) ; 4. to castrate (horses, bulls, etc.).

BILLONNEUR, biyonœr, sm. utterer of (or dealer in) debased coin.

BILLOT, biyo, [bille], sm. 1. block. — d'enclume, anvil-block. — de cuisine, chopping-block. On lui a coupé la tête sur le —, he lost his head on the block ; he was beheaded. J'en mettrais ma tête sur le —, I would lay (or stake) my life on it.

2. yoke : a stick attached to the neck of a dog to prevent it from hunting, or of a cow, etc. to prevent it from straying.

BILOBÉ, E, bilobé, [Lat. : bis, twice ; lobus, lobe], adj. Bot. bilobed, bilobate, bilobated : two-lobed.

BILOCULAIRE, bilokulêr', [Lat. : bis, twice ; loculus, cell, from locus, place], adj. Nat. Hist. bilocular : two-celled.

BILOQUER, biloké-r, [Lat. : bis, twice ; locāre, to place] va. Agr. to break up (land) for winter fallow.

BIMANE, biman', [Lat. : bis, twice ; manus, hand], adj. Nat. Hist. bimanous : two-handed.

BIMANES, biman', sm. pl. Nat. Hist. bimana : two-handed animals.

BIMARGINÉ, E, bimarzhiné, [Lat. : bis, twice ; margo, marginis, margin], adj. Conch. bimarginate.

BIMBELOT, ban͡b'lo, [formed from bibelot], sm. plaything, toy.

BIMBELOTERIE, ban͡b'lotœri, sf. 1. toy-manufacture, toy-trade ; 2. toys, gew-gaws.

BIMBELOTIER, ÈRE, ban͡b'lotyé, tyèr', smf. toy-man : toy-maker, toy-dealer.

BIMENSUEL, ELLE, bimanzuel, adj. half-monthly, fortnightly. Une revue bimensuelle, a fortnightly review.

BIMESTRE, bimèstr', [Lat. : bis, twice ; mensis, month], adj. bimensal, bimonthly, bimestrial.

BIMÉTALLIQUE, bimétalik, adj. bimetallic : referring to bimetallism.

BIMÉTALLISME, bimétalism', [Lat. : bis, twice, double ; metallum, metal], sm. bimetallism : name given to a monetary system in which gold and silver are standard coin.

BINAGE, binazh', [biner], sm. 1. Agr. hoeing, hand-hoeing, horse-hoeing ; 2. second tillage ; 3. Rom. Cath. Rel. saying mass in two places on the same day.

BINAIRE, binèr', [Lat. : binarius, bini, two by two], adj. binary : a) Arith. consisting of two figures only ; b) Chem. composed of two elements ; c) Mus. containing two minims or two crotchets on a bar. Nombre —, binary number. Système —, binary scale (of notation). L'eau, l'acide carbonique, la potasse sont des composés binaires, water, carbonic acid, potash are binary compounds.

BINARD, binar, sm. lorry, truck : a carriage having four low wheels of equal height.

BINÉE, biné, sf. trough, crib (for oxen).

BINER, biné-r, [Lat. : bini, two by two], va. 1. Agr. to give (land) a second tillage ; 2. Rom. Cath. Rel. to celebrate mass at two places in the same day.

BINET, binè, [biner], sm. save-all. Faire —, to use the save-all ; Fig. to make the most of what remains.

BINETTE, binèt', [biner], sf. 1. Agr. hoe, horse-hoe ; 2. Pop. an ugly face, mug, gib.

BINOCLE, binokl', [Lat. : bini, two by two ; oculus, eye], sm. 1. double eye-glass, double-opera-glass ; 2. binocle, binocular telescope.

BINOCULAIRE, binokulêr', adj. binocular.

BINÔME, binôm', [Lat. : bis, twice ; Gr. : νομός, law], sm. Alg. binomial.

BINOT, bino, sm. Agr. a light plough for loosening the surface soil.

BINOTER, binoté, va. to plough with a light plough.

BIOCHIMIE, bioshimi, [Gr. : βίος, life ; chimie], sf. biochimia : vital chemistry.

BIODYNAMIQUE, biodinamik', [Gr. : βίος, life ; δύναμις, force], sf. biodynamics : the doctrine of vital forces.

BIOGÉNÈSE, biogenès, [Gr. : βίος, life ; γένισις, generation], sf. biogenesis : the process of generation of life from life, as opposed to spontaneous generation.

BIOGNOSE, biognose, [Gr. : βίος, life ; γνῶσις, knowledge], sf. biognosis : the investigation or knowledge of life.

BIOGRAPHE, biograf', sm. biographer.

BIOGRAPHIE, biografi, [Gr. : βίος, life ; γράφειν, to write], sf. biography.

BIOGRAPHIQUE, biografik', adj. biographical, biographic. Dictionnaire —, biographical dictionary.

BIOLOGIE, biolozhi, [Gr. : βίος, life ; λόγος, word, discourse], sf. biology : the science of life.

BIOLOGIQUE, biolozhik', adj. biological.

BIOLOGISTE, biolozhist', sm. biologist.

BIOTAXIE, biotaksi, [Gr. : βίος, life ; τάξις, order], sf. biotaxy : classification according to the sum of the morphological nature.

BIOXYDE, bioksid', [Lat. : bis, twice ; oxyde], sm. Chem. bioxide.

BIPARTI, E, biparti, [Lat. : bis, twice ; pars, part], adj. Bot. bipartite.

BIPÉDAL, E, bipédal, al' ,[Lat. : bis, twice ; pes, pedis, foot], adj. bipedal : two feet in length.

BIPÈDE, bipèd', [Lat. : bis, two ; pes, pedis, foot], adj. bipedal : two-footed, two-legged.

BIPÈDE, sm. 1. biped : animal with two legs ; 2. Man. any two of a horse's legs. — antérieur, the two fore-legs (of a horse) ; — postérieur, the two hind-legs. — latéral, one hind-leg and one gore-leg on the same side. — diagonal, one hind-leg and one fore-leg on opposite sides.

BIPELTÉ, E, bipèlté, [Lat. : bis, twice ; pelta, shield], adj. Zool. bipeltate : having a double shield.

BIPENNE, bipèn', BIPENNÉ, E, bipêné, [Lat. : bipennis], adj. Entomol. bipennate, dipteral, two-winged.

BIPENNE, sm. Entomol. dipteran. Les bipennes, the diptera.

BIPÉTALÉ, E, bipétalé, [Lat. : bis, twice ; pétale], adj. Bot. bipetalous.

BIPLAN, biplàn, sm. Aviat. biplane, two-deck aeroplane.

BIPOLAIRE, bipolêr', [Lat. : bis, twice ; polaire], adj. Phys. bipolar : having two poles.

BIPOLARITÉ, bipolarité, sf. bipolarity. La — d'un aimant, de la pile voltaique, the bipolarity of a magnet, of a voltaic pile.

BIQUADRATIQUE, bikuadratik', [Lat. : bis, twice ; quadratique], adj. Alg. biquadratic : involving the fourth power, of the fourth degree.

BIQUE, bik', [Gr. : βήχη, she-goat], sf. she-goat, nanny-goat.

BIQUET, bikè, sm. 1. kid : young he-goat ; 2. money-scales : balance to weigh coins.

BIQUETER, bik'té-r, 1. vn. to kid : to yean, as a goat ; 2. va. to weigh (money).

BIQUETTE, bikèt', sf. kid : young she-goat.

BIRIBI, biribi, [Ital. : biribisso], sm. 1. biribi : a game of chance ; 2. Milit. slang : companies of discipline in Algeria ; 3. jemmy used by house-breakers.

BIRLOIR, birlwâr, sm. button, catch (to fasten up a sash-window).

BIROSTRÉ, E, birostré, [Lat. : bis, double ; rostrum, beak], adj. Ornith. birostrate.

BIS, E, bi, biz', [Low Lat. : bisus, dark brown], adj. 1. brown (as bread, pastry, etc.) ; 2. dark, dark-skinned, swarthy as persons]. Pain —, brown bread, thirds. Pain bis-blanc, household bread, seconds. Cette femme est bise, a la peau bise, that woman is dark-skinned, has a dark skin.

BIS, bis, [Lat. : bis, twice], interj. encore, twice : a word used in theatres, to demand the repetition of a song, etc. Tout le parterre a demandé, a crié — ! all the pit cried encore ! Cet air a eu les honneurs du —, that air had the honour of an encore.

BIS, adv. Numéro [No.] 10 bis, number (or No.) 10A, No. 10 1/2 : expedients to avoid changing the following numbers of a series when a fresh number is added.

BISAGE, bizazh', [bis], sm. second dyeing.

BISAÏEUL, bizayœl, [bis ; aïeul], sm. great-grandfather.

BISAÏEULE, bizayœl', sf. great-grandmother.

BISAILLE, bizay', sf. 1. coarse flour : thirds ; 2. mixed peas and vetches (for pigeons).

BISANNUEL, ELLE, bizannuèl, èl', [Lat. : bis, twice ; annual], adj. Bot. biennial. Plantes bisannuelles, biennial plants, biennials.

BISBILLE, bisbiy', [Ital. : bisbiglio, murmuring], sf. wrangling, jangling, bickering. Ces gens sont toujours en —, those people are always at odds, at variance, always wrangling.

BISCAÏEN, biskayan, [from Biscaye, Biscay in Spain], sm. 1. wall-piece : a large musket fired from a stand ; 2. a grape-shot.

BISCHOF, bishof, sm. bishop. V. Bichof.

BISCORNU, E, biskòrnu, [bis, twice ; cornu], adj. 1. irregular, ill-shaped ; 2. Fig. odd, uncouth, queer, outlandish. Esprit —, ill-constituted intellect, crotchety mind. Style —, queer, uncouth style.

BISCOTIN, biskotan, [Ital. : biscottino], sm. sweet-biscuit.

BISCOTTE, biscot, [Ital. : biscotto ; Lat. : bis, twice ; coctus, baked], sf. rusk.

BISCUIT, biskui, [bis; cuit], sm. biscuit: a) sea-bread b) a kind if light cake; c) unglazec porcelain, parian. — à la cuiller, finger biscuit. S'embarquer sans biscuits, to go to sea without biscuit; Fig. to commence an enterprise without due preparations. Statuette de —, biscuit (or parian) statuette. — de mer, 1. sailor's biscuit; 2. cuttle-fish bone.

BISE, biz', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. north-wind: said of any cold wind coming from the north or north-east; 2. Fig. winter; 3. Ichth. bonito, auxis bisus.

BISEAU, bizô, [orig. unknown], sm. 1. bevel: sloping edge of a board, etc.; 3. basil: a) slant given to the edge of a chisel, etc. basil-edged chisel; b) slanting facet of a table diamond. Taillé en —, bevilled (as a board, etc.), basilled (as the edge of a chisel, plane-iron, etc.). Instruments à —, Mus. wind instruments in which the current of air is made to vibrate by impinging on a slanting edge, as in the flute, flageolet, etc.

3. Kissing-crust: soft crust produced by loaves just touching each other;

4. Typog.: foot-stick, side-stick.

BISEAUTAGE, bizôtazh', sm. bevelling.

BISEAUTER, bizôté-r, va. to bevel (cards at the edge). Cartes biseautées, bevel-edged cards. Les fripons seuls se servent de cartes biseautées, none but sharpers use bevel-edged cards. Glace biseautée, bevelled looking-glass.

BISER, bisé-r, [bis], vn. Agr. to turn orown or rusty (said of cereals).

BISER, va. to re-dye, to dye a second time.

BISET, bizê, [bis], 1. sm. Ornith. rock-pigeon; 2. adj. Pigeon —, rock-pigeon.

3. a national guard doing duty without uniform: 4. a course gray cloth.

BISETTE, bizèt', [bis], sf. 1. edg.ng: a narrow lace; 2. Ornith. scoter, black-diver.

BISEXE, bisèks', etc. V. Bissexe, etc.

BISMUTH, bismut, [orig. unknown], sm. bismuth: a metal, tin-glass.

BISON, bizôn, [Lat.], sm. Zool. bison.

BISONNE, bizon', [bis], sf. a gray fabric used for linings.

BISQUAIN, biskan, sm. sheepskin dressed with the wool on.

BISQUE, bisk', sf. bisk: a) odds of fifteen points given at tennis; b) cullis, fish-soup.

BISQUER, biské-r, vn. to go wild (with vexation), to be vexed.

BISSAC, bisak, [bis; sac], sm. wallet. V. Besace.

BISSECTION, bisèksyôn, [Lat.: bis, twice section], sf. Geom. bisection.

BISSER, bisé-r, [bis], va. to encore. Cet air a été bissé, that air was encored.

BISSEXE, bisèks', adj. V. Bissexuel.

BISSEXTE, bisèkst', [Lat.: bissextus], sm. bissextile: the extra day added to February in leap year.

BISSEXTIL, E, bisèkstil, il', [Lat.: bis, twice; sextus, sixth], adj. bissextile. Année bissextile, leap year, bissextile.

BISSEXUEL, ELLE, bisèksuèl, èl', [Lat.: bis, twice; sexus, sex], adj. Bot. bisexual.

BISSOC, bisok', [Lat.: bis, twice soc], sm. Agr. plough with two shares, double-plough † BISSUS, b.sus. V. Byssus.

† BISTOQUET, bistoké, sm. sort of billiard-mace.

BISTORTE, bistôrt', [Lat.: bis, twice; tortus, twisted], sf. Bot. bistort, snake-weed.

BISTORTIER, bistôrtyé, BISTOTIER, bistotyé, sm. a wooden pestle.

BISTOURI, bistouri, [orig. unknown; perhaps Lat.: bis and tortus, twisted], sm. Surg. bistoury.

BISTOURNAGE, bistournazh', sm. Vet. Surg. castration (of animals by twisting the spermatic cords).

BISTOURNÉ, E, bistourné, adj. 1. twisted; 2. crooked.

BISTOURNER, bistourné-r, [Lat.: bis, twice; tourner], va. 1. to twist; 2. Vet. Surg. to castrate (by twisting the spermatic cords).

BISTOURNER (SE), v. refl. to become twisted or crooked.

BISTRE, bistr', [orig. unknown], sm. bistre, bister: a browri pigment.

BISTRÉ, E, bistré, adj. 1. coloured with bistre; 2. tanned, swarthy, tawny.

BISTRER, bistré-r, [bistre], va. 1. to colour with bistre; 2. to make brown, t embrown, to tan.

BISULCE, bisuls', BISULQUE, bisulk, [Lat.: bis, twice sulcus, furrow], adj. Zool. bisulcate: cloven-footed.

BISULFATE, bisulfat, [Lat.: bis; sulfate], sm. Chem. bisulphat.

BITERROIS, E, bitérwa, was, smf. Geog. of Béziers, native of Béziers; 2. adj. belonging to the town of Béziers.

BITORD, bitôr, [Lat.: bis, twice; tortus, twisted), sm. Naut. spun yarn.

BITTE, bit', [Scand.: biti, rafter], va. Naut. bit, bitt.

BITTER, bité-r, va. Naut. to bit (a cable, etc.).

BITTER, bittère, [Dut., Eng.: bitter], sm. bitters: a spirituous liquor.

BITTON, bitôn, sm. Naut. small bits, sheet-bits.

BITTURE, bitur', sf. Naut. range (of a cable).

BITUME, bitum', [Lat.: bitumen], sm. bitumen. — élastique, mineral caoutchouc, elaterite, or elastic mineral pitch.

BITUMINER, bituminé-r, va. to cover with bitumen.

BITUMINEUX, EUSE, bituminœ, œz', adj. bituminous.

BITUMINIFÈRE, bituminifêr', [Lat.: bitumen; ferre, to bear], adj. bituminiferous.

BITUMINISATION, bituminizâsyôn, sf. Chem. bituminization.

BITUMINISER, bituminizé-r, va. to bituminate, to bituminize: to convert into (or to combinee with) bitumen; 2. to cover with bitumen.

BIVAC, bivak, sm. V. Bivouac.

BIVALVE, bivalv', [Lat.: bis: twice; valva, valve], adj. bivalve: bivalved, bivalvous. Coquille —, bivalve shell.

BIVALVE, sm. bivalve. Les huîtres sont des bivalves, oysters are bivalves.

BIVALVULAIRE, bivalvulêr', adj. bivalvular.

BIVEAU, bivô, [O. Fr.: bever, to slant], sm. bevil.

BIVOUAC, bivwak, [Ger.: Beiwache, Beiwacht], sm. Mil. bivouac.

BIVOUAQUER, BIVAQUER, biv-waké-r, vn. 1. Milit. to bivouac; 2. Colloq. to pass the night in the open air. Quand je bivouaquais sur les bords du Danube, when I bivouacked on the banks of the Danube. P. L. Cour.

BIXA, biksa, sf. Bot. old name for rocou, rocouyer, bixa.

BIXACÉES, biksasé, sf. pl. Bot. bixaceæ: a family of shrubs of the genus bixa.

BIZARRE, bizar',[Span.: bizarro, brave], adj. odd: a) whimsical, fantastical; b) uncouth, strange, singular. Un homme —, an odd sort of man. Opinion —, whimsical, fantastic notion. Habit —, an uncouth garment. Quelle — destinée! what a strange fate!

BIZARRE, sm. 1. an oddity; 2. the whimsical, the fantastical. C'est un —, he is an oddity. Cet auteur se plaît dans le —, that author delights in the fantastical.

BISARREMENT, bizar'mân-t, adv. oddly: a) fantastically, whimsically; b) uncouthly, strangely. Il est toujours — habillé, he is always oddly dressed.

BISARRERIE, bizarœri, sf. oddity: a) whimsicalness, fantasticalness; b) oddness, strangeness. La — des modes, the oddity (oddness, fantasticalness) of the fashions. La — de son humeur, the oddness (oddity) of his humour. Cet homme est sujet à de grandes bizarreries, that man is subject to great oddities.

BLAFARD, E, blafar, ard', [Ger.: Blei, lead; bleich, pâle; O. Ger.: faro for farbig), adj. 1. palish, dim, dull: deficient in brightness or colour; 2. wan: sallow, palish, pallid (as the complexion). Couleur blafarde, dim colour. Ciel —, dull sky, leaden sky. Lumière blafarde, lurid light. Visage teint —, pale face, wan (or sallow) complexion.

BLAGUE, blag', [Ger.: Balg, pouch], sf. 1. tobacco-pouch; 2. Vulg. or Fam. humbug, gammon, fudge, bounce, bouncer, lie, falsehood; 3. gift of the gab. — en caoutchouc, indian rubber pouch. Dire des blagues, to draw the long bow, to throw the hatchet. Avoir de la —, to have the gift of the gab. Quelle bonne —! what a joke! Une mauvaise —, a bad joke. — dans le coin, all joking aside.

BLAGUER, blaghé-r, vn. 1. to draw the long bow: to tell extravagant stories; 2. (actively) to humbug, to gammon, to hoax.

BLAGUEUR, EUSE, blaghœr, ghœz, smf. humbug, humbugger, hoaxer.

BLAIREAU, blèro, [orig. unknown], sm. 1. Zool. badger; 2. badger's-hair pencil (for painting in water-colours); 3. badger's-hair brush (for applying varnish); 4. shaving-brush.

BLÂMABLE, blâmabl', adj. blamable: deserving blame, censurable, reprehensible. Je n'y vois rien de —, I see nothing blamable (nothing to blame, nothing to be blamed) in it. Être —, to be blamable, to be to blame, to deserve blame.

BLÂME, blâm', sm. 1. blame: a) imputation of a fault, censure, dispraise; b) fault: reproach. Le — et l'éloge, blame and praise. Encourir un — sévère, to incur severe blame. Il ne mérite pas le —, he does not deserve blame, he is not to blame. Sans —, blameless. Éviter le —, to avoid being blamed. Porter tout le —, to bear all the blame. Donner le — de quelque chose à une personne, to lay the blame of a thing on a person. Tout le — en tombe, en retombe sur lui, all the blame falls on him. Rejeter sur un autre tout le — d'une chose, to throw all the blame of a thing on another person. Prendre sur soi le — d'une affaire, to take on one's self the blame of an affair.

2. reprimand: formal censure pronounced by a tribunal.

BLÂMER, blâmé-r, [Lat.: blasphemâre; early Fr. blasmer], va. 1. to blame: a) to express disapprobation of, to find fault with, to censure; b) to reproach with. La première chose dont il fut blâmé, the first thing for which he was blamed. On le blâma d'avoir ainsi parlé, he was blamed (or they blamed him) for having so spoken. Ne blâmez pas de fausseté ceux qui..., do not reproach with falseness those who... Pascal.

2. to reprimand. Il fut blâmé en justice, he was judicially reprimanded.

BLANC, BLANCHE, [O. H. Ger.: blanch, shining], blân, blânsh'; the c of the masculine is always mute except in the phrase du blanc au noir, which is pronounced: du blan-kô-nwâr;, adj. mf. 1. white: a) of the colour of snow or milk; b) having less colour than other things of the same kind; c) gray, hoar, hoary (with age): hoar (as frost); d) pale. a) — comme neige, (ou comme la neige), white as snow. Satin —, white satin. Sel —, white salt: as opposed to bay-salt. Papier —, white: as opposed to coloured or soiled.

b) Vin —, white wine. Bière blanche, pale beer, pale ale. Poivre —, white pepper. Des mûres blanches, white mulberries. Sauce blanche, white sauce, melted butter. Avoir le teint —, la peau blanche, les mains blanches, to have a white (or fair) complexion, a white skin, white hands. L'homme est — en Europe, noir en Afrique man is white in Europe, black in Africa. Pain —, white bread. Il a mangé son pain — le premier, he has eaten the best first; Fig. he has come down in the world; he is not so well off as he was. Viande blanche, white meat: poultry, veal, etc., as opposed to beef, mutton, game, etc. Argent —, silver money: Arme blanche, side arms, swords. Monnaies blanches, silver coins. De la monnaie blanche, small change in silver. Eau blanche, 1. bran mash: bran and water for horses; 2. Goulard's water (or extract): acetate of lead dissolved in water. Carets blanches, the lower cards of the pack: as opposed to court-cards or honours, Avoir carte blanche (subst.), to hold none but low cards.

c) Barbe blanche, white (or gray) beard. Cheveux blancs, white hair. Il est tout — de vieillesse, he is quite white (or hoary) with age. Les cheveux blancs du sage, the sage's hoary head. Gelée blanche, hoar frost.

d) Être — de colère, to be pale with anger. — comme un linge white as a sheet, pale as death. Cette encre est blanche, this ink is pale.

2. blank: a) not written or printed void, containing nothing; b) Poet. not rhymed. Papier —, blank paper. a) Un livre —, a book of blank paper. Billet —, blank ticket, a blank. Page blanche, blank page. Une ligne blanche, a blank line; Typog. a white line. Nuit blanche, a sleepless (or blank) night. b) Vers blancs, blank verse. Carte blanche, V. Carte.

3. clean: not soiled. Linge —, clean linen. Chemise blanche, a clean shirt. Assiette blanche, a clean plate. Verre —, a clean glass. — de lessive, just clean from the wash perfectly clean. Mettre quelqu'un en (or dans de) beaux draps blancs, Ironic. to place difficulties (or obstacles) in a person's way Vous vous êtes mis dans de beaux draps blancs, you have got yourself into a pretty hobble, into a nice mess.

4. Fig. clear: unsullied, innocent. Sortir d'une accusation, d'une affaire, — comme neige, to get clear of an accusation, to leav the court without a stain on one's repu tation; to get out of on affair with unsullied honour. Vous n'êtes pas —, you are not blameless. Prov.: C'est bonnet blanc et blanc bonnet, it is six of one and half a dozen of the other.

BLANC, BLANCHE, smf., white (man, woman, child). Fils d'un blanc et d'une négresse, son of a white (or white man) and a negress Fille d'une blanche et d'un nègre, daughter of a white (or white woman) and a negro. Dans ce pays il y a moins de blancs que d'hommes de couleur, in that country there are fewer white than coloured people.

BLANC, sm. 1. white: a) the colour opposed to black; b) white garments; c) the white part of anything; d) mark to shoot at; e) chalk; any white substance employed as a pigment, etc.; f) Typog. a blank space.

a) Un beau —, a fine (or beautiful) white. Distinguer le — du noir, to distinguish white from black. Voir tout en —, to see everything in a favourable light. — mat, a dead (or dull) white. — sale, a dingy (or dirty) white. — de lait, milkwhite, milky white. — de perle, pearl white, pearly white (or whiteness). Mettre du noir sur du —, to put pen to paper, to write, to set up for an author. Saigner quelqu'un jusqu'au —, to bleed a person freely (or to the last drop of blood); Fig. to drain a person of all his money, of all his resources. Mettre un homme au —, to win all a man's money (at play); to ruin a man. Aller, passer, changer du — au noir, to go from one extreme to the other, to be always in extremes. Dire — et noir, to say first one thing and then the contrary, to contradict one's self. Si vous dites —, il dira noir, if you say white, he will say black; say what you may, he will contradict you.

b) S'habiller de —, to dress in white. Être en —, to be in white. Ne porter que du —, to wear nothing but white. Vouer un enfant au —, to make a vow that a child (from its birth till a certain age) shall wear nothing but white. Magasin de —, linen warehouse, white-goods warehouse. Il y aura lundi prochain une vente de —, there will be a sale of white goods next Monday.

c) Le — de l'œil, the white of the eye. [Fig.:] Regarder quelqu'un dans le — des yeux, to look a person full in the face. Ils se sont mangé le — des yeux, they have had a fierce dispute (or a serious quarrel). Il rougit jusqu'au — des yeux, he blushed up to his very eyes. — d'œuf, the white of an egg, white of egg. Prenez six blancs d'œufs, take six whites of eggs, the whites of six eggs. — de poulet, de chapon, etc., slice from the breast of a fowl, of a capon, etc. — de baleine, spermaceti.

d) Tirer au —, to shoot at a mark. Donner dans le —, to hit the mark, to strike the white. De but en —, pointblank, straight for the mark Fig. pointblank, bluntly, inconsiderately. Il alla lui dire de but en — que... he went and told her point-blank that...

e) Faire une croix sur une porte avec du —, to make a cross on a door with chalk. — d'Espagne, — de Meudon, Spanish white, whiting, purified chalk. — de chaux, lime-wash, white-wash. Donner un — de chaux à un mur, to lay a coat of white-wash on (to white-wash) a wall. — de céruse (or de plomb), white-lead, ceruse. — de zinc, zinc white. — de fard (or blanc), pearl-powder: subnitrate of bismuth (for the face).

f) Laissez beaucoup de — entre le titre et la matière, leave plenty of white between the title and the text. Une ligne de —, a white line, of blank space. Laisser plus de —, to leave more space.

2. blank: space left vacant in a written or printed paper. Le notaire a laissé des blancs dans le contrat pour y mettre les noms des contractants, the notary has left blanks in the contract to insert the names of the contracting parties. Le copiste a réservé un — pour une ligne qu'il n'a pu lire, the copyist has left a blank for a line which he could not decipher. Laisser une ligne en —, to leave a line blank (or a blank line). Procuration en —, a power of attorney in which a blank is left for the name of the party to be appointed. Endossement en —, a blank indorsement. Blanc-signé. V. Blanc-seing.

3. Cook. white sauce: melted butter or any sauce containing flour not browned Mets au —, a dish served with white sauce.

4. blank: an old French coin. Six blancs valaient deux sous et demi, six blancs were worth two sous and a half (five-farthings).

5. Bot. — d'eau, the water-lily, nenuphar. — de Hollande, white poplar.

À BLANC, adv. phr. Chauffer à —, to give a white heat to, to raise to a white heat (as iron, etc.). Il a gelé à —, it is a white (or hoar) frost. Poudre à —, full powdered (so as to hide the natural colour of the hatr).

BLANC, [Louis], historian (1811-1882); — (Charles), historian, brother of the preceding (1813-1882).

BLANCARD, blânkar, BLANCHARD, blânshar, sm. a kind of white linen made in Normandy and Silesia.

BLANC-AUNE, blânkôn, sm. Bot. gray (or white) alder. [Pl. Blancs-aunes].

BLANC-BEC, blânbèk, sm. green-horn: a raw inexperienced youth. [Pl. Blancs-becs.]

BLANC-BOURGEOIS, blân-bourzhwâ, sm. Bak. firsts: best white flour.

BLANC-CUL, blân-kul, sm. Ornith. bulfinch. [Pl. blancs-culs.]

BLANCHAILLE, blânshay, [blanc], sf. Ichth. small fry, white-bait.

BLANCHÂTRE, blânshâtr', adj. whitish.

BLANCHE, blânsh', sf. 1. the white ball (at billiard); 2. Mus. minim. V. Blanc.

BLANCHEMENT, blânsh'mân-t, adv. cleanly, clean.

BLANCHERIE, blânsh'ri, sf. Metall. blanching-house. V. Blanchisserie.

BLANCHET, blânshè, sm. blanket: a) Pharm. woollen strainer or fillter; b) cloth put in the tympan of a printing-press.

BLANCHET, [l'abbé François], prose-writer (1707-1784).

BLANCHET, ETTE, blânshé-t, èt', adj. rather white, whitish.

BLANCHEUR, blânshœr, [blanc], sf. 1. whiteness; 2. purity, innocence; 3. cleanliness; 4. Astron. white spot. La — de la neige, the whiteness of snow. De petites blancheurs de la même nature que la voie lactée, small white spots of the same nature as the milky way.

5. white, covered with white. Des flots blanchis d'écume, waves white with foam, white-created waves.

BLANCHIE, blanshi, sf. Carp. board or plank smoothed with the jack-plane.

BLANCHIMENT, blânshimân, sm. 1. bleaching (of fabrics, wax, tallow, etc.); 2. blanching: a) cleansing of metals; b) Gard. whitening of celery, lettuces, etc. by earthing or tying up; 3. white-washing (of walls or ceilings).

BLANCHIR, blânshir, [blanc], va. 1. to whiten: to white, to make or render white, to cover with white. — les dents, to whiten the teeth. Le soufre blanchit la laine, sulphur whitens wool. L'âge a blanchi ses cheveux, age has whitened his hair. Elle s'est blanchi le visage, she has whitened her face (with pearl-powder or other cosmetic). Quand les neiges viennent — les Alpes, when the snows whiten the Alps. Sa tête blanchie par les années, his head grown gray with age. Blanchi sous les armes, grown gray in arms (in military service). Blanchi dans les affaires, grown gray in business, in affairs of State, in public business. Une muraille blanchie, a white-washed wall. Sépulcres blanchis, Script. whited sepulchres; Fig. hypocrites. Des éclairs de chaleur blanchissaient de temps en temps l'horizon, flashes of heat lightning illuminated the horizon from time to time. G. Sand.

2. to bleach (textile fabrics, wax, tallow, etc.) ; 3. to wash (soiled linen, etc.) ; 4. to wash for (a person), to do washing for. — des draps, des serviettes, des chemises, to wash sheets, napkins, shirts. Donner du linge à —, to give linen to be washed, to send linen to the wash. — quelqu'un, to do person's washing, to wash for a person. Chemise mal blanchie, a shirt badly washed. Il est logé, nourri et blanchi, he has his lodging, board, and washing.

5. Fig. to disculpate : do clear from blame or reproach ; (in an ironical sense) to whitewash. Ses amis sont venus à bout de le —, his friends have succeeded in disculpating him, in clearing him of all blame. Il est parvenu à se —, he has managed to prove his innocence.

6. (in various arts) to dress, to trim, to give a first dressing, filing, or grinding to. — une planche avec la varlope, to smooth a plank (or board) with the jack-plane.—avec la lime une pièce forgée, to rough-file forged iron. — à la meule, to rough-grind. — la sole d'un cheval, to pare the sole of a horse's foot.

7. to clean, to polish (silver plate, etc.) ; 8. Metal. to decarbonize (cast-iron) ; 9. Forest. to blaze (trees for felling) ; 10. Typog. to white out : to put more space between the lines ; 11. to blanch : a) Cook. to parboil, to scald [vegetables, meat, etc.) ; b) Gard. to whiten by earthing or tying up, as celery, lettuce, etc. ; 12. to tin (sheets of iron, etc.).

BLANCHIR, vn. 1. to whiten : to get white ; 2. to bleach (as textile fabrics, wax, etc.) ; 3. to fade (as colours) ; 4. to blanch (as celery, lettuce, etc.) ; 5. to wash. Mettre des toiles sur l'herbe pour —, to lay linen on the grass to bleach. Cette couleur jaune n'est pas solide, elle blanchit promptement, that yellow colour is not fast, it soon fades. Ma barbe a bien blanchi, my beard has grown very grey. Cette femme blanchit bien le linge, that woman washes well, is a good laundress. Faire —, to whiten, to bleach, to blanch. Faire — à la rosée, avec du chlore, to bleach by exposure to sun and air, to bleach with chlorine. Faire — des légumes, de la viande, to scald, to parboil vegetables, meat.

6. to turn, grow or become white or gray. Vos cheveux ont un peu blanchi, your hair has become rather gray. Cet homme commence à —, that man is beginning to turn gray (or is getting old). — dans le service, to grow gray in the service. — sur ses livres, to grow gray over one's books.

7. to graze : to touch slightly ; Fig. to miss, to fail, to be of no avail. La balle n'a fait que — sur sa cuirasse, the ball merely grazed his cuirass. Voilà des raisons qui ne valent rien, tout cela ne fait que —, those are reasons of no value, they are all beside the mark. Prov. : Tête de fou ne blanchit pas, a fool's head never grows gray. A blanchir la tête d'un nègre on perd sa lessive, one cannot get blood out of a stone.

BLANCHIR (SE), v. refl. 1. to be bleached : to whiten, to bleach, to become white ; 2. to do one's own washing ; 3. to white (or whiten) one's self. Cette toile ne se blanchit pas facilement, that linen is not easily bleached, does not bleach easily. Se — contre une muraille, to white one's self against a wall.

4. to disculpate one's self, to prove one's innocence, to clear one's character. On m'accusait, je suis parvenu à me —, they accused me, I have succeeded in proving my innocence.

BLANCHIS, blâ*n*shi, sm. Forest. blaze : mark on a tree to be felled.

BLANCHISSAGE, blâ*n*shisazh', [blanchir], sm. 1. washing ; 2. wash. Le — use le linge, washing wears out linen. Payer le —, to pay the washing. Envoyer au —, to send to the wash.

BLANCHISSANT, E, blâ*n*shisâ*n*-t, â*n*t', adj. 1. whitening ; 2. covered with foam or froth, foaming, foamy, frothing, frothy. La mer blanchissante, the foam-covered sea.

BLANCHISSERIE, blâ*n*shis'ri, sf. 1. bleach-works, bleaching-establishment ; 2. bleaching-trade, washing-trade. — de fin, laundry for clear-starching.

BLANCHISSEUR, EUSE, blâ*n*shisœr, œz', smf. 1. washerman, m. ; washerwoman, f. laundress ; 2. bleacher. Blanchisseuse de gros, washerwoman for house-linen. Blanchisseuse de fin (or en fin), clear-starcher. Blanchisseuse de dentelle, lace-cleaner.

BLANCHŒUVRIER, blâ*n*shœvrié, [blanc ; œuvre], sm. whitesmith, edge-tool maker.

BLANC-MANGER, blâ*n*-manzhé, sm. Cook. blanc-mange : white jelly, made of milk and other ingredients.

BLANC-RHASIS, blâ*n*-razis, BLANC-RAISIN, blâ*n*-rèzan, sm. Pharm. white ointment (for burns).

BLANC-SEING, blâ*n*-san, BLANC-SIGNÉ, blâ*n*-sinyé, sm. blank signature : a signature on blank paper to be filled up by the person to whom it is confided. [Pl. blancs-seings, blancs-signés.]

BLANC-SOUDANT, blâ*n*-soudâ*n*, sm. white-heat, welding-heat.

BLANDICES, blandis', [Lat. : blanditia], sf. pl. blandishments.

BLANQUE, blâ*n*k', [Ital. : blanca], sf. 1. lucky-bag : a game of chance, played by drawing numbers out of a bag or box ; 2. blank : losing number or ticket. A la —, at all hazards.

BLANQUET, blâ*n*kèt', [blanc], sm. small fry · fish for bait.

BLANQUETTE, blâ*n*kèt', [blanc], sf. 1. blanquette : a) a kind of white pear ; b) a white wine of Languedoc ; c) hashed lamb, mutton, or veal with white sauce ; 2. a kind of white grapes (commonly called chasselas doré) ; 3. kelp : the ashes of calcined seaweed ; 4. Distil. low wines : the produce of the first distillation for brandy.

BLAPS, blaps, [Gr. : βλάψις]. sm. Entom. blaps, darkling beetle, churchyard beetle.

BLAQUET, blakè, sm. Ichth. whitebait.

BLASÉ, E, blazé, pa. p. ; adj. 1. palled : a) blunted, dulled, deadened ; b) surfeited, cloyed, sickened ; c) used up ; 2. hardened, case-hardened. — par les voluptés, palled by sensual pleasures. Il est — sur tout, he has lost all relish for enjoyment, he is used up. C'est un homme —, he is a man that is surfeited with pleasure.

BLASER, blazé-r, [orig. unknown], va. 1. to pall : a) to blunt, to deaden, to impair (the taste, appetite, senses, feelings, etc.) ; b) to cloy, to surfeit, to sicken ; 2. to harden ; Colloq. to case-harden : to render insensible to (shame). Les excès blasent le goût, excesses pall the taste. Je suis blasé sur tout, I am sick of everything. L'habitude du vice l'a blasé, il ne sait plus rougir, habitual vice has case-hardened him, he has forgotten how to blush.

BLASER (SE), v. refl. to be palled, cloyed, or surfeited. Se — sur (or de), to be palled with ; to have no relish for ; to be insensible of (or indifferent to). Se — sur les vrais plaisirs, to have no relish for true pleasures. Il ne se blase pas sur vos souffrances, he is not indifferent to your suffering G. Sand.

BLASON, blazô*n*, [orig. unknown ; perhaps Ger. blasen, to blow, to give renown to], sm. 1. coat of arms, armorial bearings ; 2. heraldry, blazon, blazonry, emblazonry : all these words are used to signify the art of drawing, describing and explaining coats of arms.

BLASONNEMENT, blazon'mâ*n*-t, sm. blazoning : the art of describing and explaining armorial bearings.

BLASONNER, blazoné-r, va. 1. to emblason : to blazon, to draw or paint armorial bearings ; 2. to blazon : a) to describe coats of arms, by explaining their metals, colours, charges, etc. in methodical order ; b) Engr. to indicate the metals and colours by lines in certain prescribed directions.

3. Fig. to blame, to criticize, to censure. C'est un homme qui blasonne tout le monde, he is a man who censures (or has something to say against) everybody.

BLASONNER (SE), v. refl. to be blazoned. Les armes de France se blasonnent ainsi, the arms of France are blazoned as follows.

BLASONNEUR, blazonœr, sm. 1. blazoner : one who explains armorial bearings ; 2. censor, critic ; slanderer.

BLASPHÉMATEUR, TRICE, blasfématœr, tris', smf. 1. blasphemer ; 2. adj. blaspheming, blasphemous.

BLASPHÉMATOIRE, blasfématwâr, adj. blasphemous.

BLASPHÈME, blasfèm', [Lat. ; Gr. : βλασφημία βλάπτειν, to hurt], sm. blasphemy : a) outrage in language against God or religion ; b) atrocious calumny. Dire, proférer des blasphèmes, to utter blasphemies. C'est un — de parler de lui comme vous faites, it is blasphemy (or an atrocious calumny) to speak of him as you do. Quel — ! what blasphemy !

BLASPHÉMER, blasfémé-r, vn. [Il blasphème, il blasphémera, il blasphémerait.] to blaspheme. C'est — contre la Providence, that is blaspheming against Providence. C'est — que de médire de cet homme, it is blasphemy to speak evil of that man.

BLASPHÉMER, va. to blaspheme. — le saint nom de Dieu, to blaspheme God's holy name. — ce qu'on ignore, to blaspheme (revile or disparage) knowledge one does not possess.

BLASTE, blast, [Gr. : βλαστός, germ], sm. Bot. tigel ; bud part of the vegetable embryon which develops by germing.

BLASTÈME, blastèm', [Gr. : βλάστημα, sprout], sm. Anat. Bot. blastema.

BLATIER, blatyé, [Low Lat. : bladum, wheat], sm. corn-tranter : petty dealer in corn.

BLATTE, blat', [Lat. : blatta], sf. Entom. cock-roach.

BLAUDE, blôd', [Provin.,], sf. V. Blouse.

BLAVELLE, blavèl', BLAVÉOLE, blavéol' sf. corn-flower, blue-bottle.

BLÉ, blé, [Low Lat. : bladum, wheat], sm. 1. corn : grain, any of the cereals, as wheat, rye, barley, etc. ; 2. (when used without a qualifying word) wheat. Blé-froment, wheat (of any kind). Blé-siegle, rye. — barbu, bearded wheat. — ergoté (or cornu), spurred (or ergoted) corn. V. Seigle. Grands blés, wheat and rye. Petits blés, oats and barley. — méteil, meslin : wheat and rye mixed. — noir, — rouge, — sarrasin, buckwheat. — de Turquie, d'Espagne, de l'Inde, maize, Indian corn ; (in America) corn. — d'abondance (or de Smyrne), Egyptian wheat, mummy wheat (bearing several ears on one stalk). Un épi de —, an ear of wheat, a wheat ear. — en vert, growing (or standing) corn. Un sac de —, a sack of wheat. La halle au —, the corn exchange, the corn-market. Un tas de —, a heap of wheat. Fig. Crier famine sur un tas de —, to cry famine in the midst of plenty. Manger son — en vert, en herbe, Fig. to spend one's money before receiving it ; to eat the calf on the cow's belly. Prov. : Bon champ semé bon blé rapporte, as you sow so shall you reap.

3. corn-field, wheat-field. Se cacher dans un —, to hide one's self in a cornfield. Être pris comme dans un —, to be caught without the possibility of escape.

BLEIME, blèm', [blême), sf. Vet. Surg. bleyme : inflammation of the sensitive sole of a horse's foot.

BLÊME, blêm', [orig. doubtful ; Ger. : bleich, pale ; O. Fr. : blesmir, to make livid], adj. 1. wan, pale, pallid ; 2. pale-faced ; 3. dim, dull. Avoir le visage —, to have a pale face. Teint —, pale complexion. Il devint — de frayeur, he turned pale with fright. Jour —, dull day.

BLÊMIR, blêmir, vn. to turn, become (or grow) pale ; to blanch.

BLÊMISSEMENT, blêmissmâ*n*, sm. turning pale, livid.

BLÉMOMÈTRE, blémomètr', [Gr. : βλῆμα, throwing ; μέτρον, measure], sm. Milit. spring-gage : an instrument for testing the strength of gun-lock springs.

BLENDE, bla*n*d', [Ger. : Blende], sf. Mineral. blende : sulphuret of zinc, black jack.

BLENNOPHTALMIE, blènoftalmi, [Gr. : βλέννα, mucus ; ὀφθαλμία], sf. Med. blennophthalmia : purulent ophthalmia.

BLENNORRAGIE, blènorrazhi, [Gr. : βλέννα, mucus ; ῥήγνυμι, to thrust out ; ῥαγή, eruption], sf. Med. blennorrhagia.

BLENNORRHÉE, blènorré, [Gr. : βλέννα, mucus ; ῥέειν, to flow], sf. Med. blennorrhœa, gleet.

BLÉPHARITE, bléfarit', [Gr. : βλέφαρον, eye-lid], sf. Med. blepharitis.

BLÉPHAROPLASTIE, blefaroplasti, [Gr. : βλέφαρον, eye-lid ; πλάσσειν, to form], sf. Med. blepharoplasty.

BLÉPHAROPLÉGIE, blefaroplegi, [Gr. : βλέφαρον, eye-lid ; πλήσσειν, to strike], sf. Med. blephepharoplegia : paralysis of the muscles of the eye-lids.

BLÈSEMENT, blêz'mâ*n*, sm. lisping.

BLÉSER, blézé-r, [Lat. : blæsus], va. to lisp.

BLÉSITE, blézite, sf. lisping : a vicious mode of speaking which consists in substituting one consonant for another, as in pronouncing gerbe, chavel, zèrb', z'val instead of zhèrb', shavœl.

BLESSANT, E, blèsa*n*-t, â*n*t', adj. offensive : causing anger, pain, or disgust. Un propos —, an offensive remark.

BLESSÉ, E, blèsé, pa. p. and adj. 1. wounded ; 2. hurt, injured ; 3. Fig. wounded, smitten ; hurt, offended, shocked ; 4. diseased, disordered. — en duel par son adversaire, wounded by his antagonist in a duel. — gravement par une tuile, seriously hurt (or injured) by a tile. Cœur — profondément, a heart deeply wounded. — d'un langage si dur, hurt by language so harsh. — dans son honneur, injured in his honour. Sa réputation blessée par la calomnie, his reputation injured by calumny.

BLESSÉ, E, smf. wounded person. Le — fut porté à l'hôpital. the wounded man was carried to the hospital. Les morts et les blessés, the killed and the wounded.

BLESSER, blèsé-r, [orig. doubtful], va. 1. to wound : a) to hurt or injure by any cutting, thrusting, or crushing instrument or weapon ; b) to hurt in any way physically, mentally, or morally ; to cut, to gall. a) — quelqu'un légèrement, sévèrement, à mort, to wound anyone slightly, severely, mortally. — d'un coup de pierre, d'un coup d'épée, d'un coup de feu, to wound with a stone, with a sword, with a fire-arm. Il fut blessé au bras, he was wounded in the arm. b) Il est tombé sur une pierre qui l'a blessé à la tête, he fell on a stone which wounded him in the head (which wounded or cut his head). [Fig. :] Son orgueil en fut blessé, his pride was wounded (hurt or galled) by it. — quelqu'un, to wound (or hurt) a person's feelings. — quelqu'un au cœur, to wound (or cut) one to the heart. L'ingratitude de son fils l'a blessé au cœur, his son's ingratitude has wounded (cut or stung) him to the heart. — quelqu'un dans ses sentiments les plus chers, to wound a person in his dearest affections.

2. to hurt : a) to cause pain by bodily harm ; b) to cause harm or injury, to be injurious, harmful or prejudicial to ; c) to pinch (by pressure), to gall (by abrasion). a) Le coup n'était pas assez fort pour me —, the blow was not hard enough to hurt me. Il a été grièvement blessé par une chute, he has been severely hurt by a fall. b) Une lumière trop vive blesse la vue, too bright a light hurts the eyes (or is injurious to the sight). c) Ces souliers me blessent, these shoes hurt (or pinch) me. Vous ne savez pas où le soulier le blesse, Fig. you do not know where the shoe pinches him. Cette selle blesse mon cheval, this saddle galls my horse. Le joug blesse les jeunes bœufs, the yoke pinches (or galls) young oxen. [To gall is used only when the skin is abraded.]

3. to injure : a) to hurt or wound, literally or figuratively ; b) to be injurious or prejudicial to, to wrong, to harm ; c) to damage, to lessen. a) Connaître quel organe intérieur a été blessé, to know what internal organ has been injured. —, en bêchant les racines d'un arbre, to injure the roots of a tree in digging. b) Les clauses de ce contract blessent mes intérêts, the clauses of that contract injure (are prejudicial to) my interests. Cela ne blesse personne, that injures (wrongs or offends) nobody. — l'honneur, la réputation de quelqu'un, to injure (or wound) the honour, to injure (or damage) the reputation of a person.

4. to offend : a) to offend against, to be an offence against, to infringe ; b) to shock, to annoy. a) — les règles, to offend (or offend against, or infringe) the rules. — la pureté de la langue, to offend against the purity of the language. En agissant ainsi vous blessez les convenances, in so acting you offend against propriety, against decorum. Une telle conduite blesse les convenances, such conduct is an offence against decorum. b) — l'oreille, to offend (or grate upon) the ear. — les oreilles par des paroles désagréables, to offend the ear by disagreeable language. S'il y a quelque chose dans ma lettre qui vous blesse, if there be anything in my letter that offends (hurts or shocks) you. Ici tous les objets vous blessent, vous irritent, here, every object annoys and irritates you.

BLESSER (SE), v. refl. 1. to wound, injure or hurt one's self ; 2. to wound each other (or one another) ; 3. to be hurt or offended, to take offence. C'est un homme susceptible qui se blesse facilement, he is a sensitive man and easily takes offence.

BLESSURE, blèsur', [blesser], sf. 1. wound : a) hurt caused by a weapon ; b) Fig. grief, sorrow, chagrin ; 2. hurt, injury (from accidental causes). — légère, grave, mortelle, slight, severe, mortal wound. Il mourut de ses blessures, he died of his wounds. Coups et blessures, Law-t. assault and battery. Rouvrir une —, to reopen a wound. Un seul mot suffit pour rouvrir sa —, a single word sufficed to revive his grief. Vos regards vont rouvrir mes blessures, your looks will reopen my wounds (or revive my sorrows).

BLET, TTE, blê, blèt', (orig. unknown]. adj. bletted : over-ripe, half-rotten, sleepy. Poire blette, sleepy pear. Les nèfles ne sont bonnes que quand elles sont blettes, medlars are not good till they are bletted (sleepy or half-rotten). A l'état —, in a bletted (or over-ripe) state.

BLETTE, blèt', sf. Bot. strawberry-blite, blitum virgatum.

BLETTIR, blètir, vn. to blet : to become over-ripe or sleepy, as certain fruits.

BLETTISSEMENT, blètis'mâ*n*-t, sm, bletting : over-ripeness, sleepiness (of medlars, etc.).

BLEU, E, blœ, [Ger. : blau], adj. 1. blue, Une robe bleue, a blue dress. Des yeux bleus blue eyes. Pierre bleue, blue-stone, blue vitriol. Cordon —, 1. the blue ribbon of the order of the Holy Ghost ; 2. a Knight of the Holy Ghost ; 3. Colloq. good cook, thorough cook. Conte —, silly (or absurd) story. Bas bleu. V. Bas.

2. blue, purple, livid, black and blue (in speaking of the skin). Maladie bleue, the blue disease, cyanosis. Quand le sang lui porte à la tête, il devient —, when the blood rushes to his head (or when he has a determination of blood to the head) he turns blue (or livid). L'endroit de la contusion est encore bleu, the place bruised is still black and blue. En être —, rester —, Fam. to be thunder-struck. Une colère bleue, a violent rage.

BLEU, sm. 1. blue : the colour ; 2. bruise, pinch : dark mark on the skin produced by a pinch or a blow. — de roi, King's blue. — turquin, a dark shade of blue. — de ciel, sky-blue. — d'azur, azure blue. — de Prusse, Prussian blue. — de cobalt, cobalt blue. — de montagne, mountain blue ; natural carbonate of copper. N'y voir que du —, Fam. to be puzzled, to be unable to make anything out of it.

BLEUÂTRE, blœatr', [bleu], adj. bluish.

BLEUET, blœê, sm. V. Bluet.

BLEUIR, blœir, [bleu], va. to blue. — un métal, to blue a metal. Un métal bleui, blued metal. Des mains bleuies par le froid, hands blue with cold.

BLEUIR, vn. 1. to turn blue ; 2. to shine with a blue lustre.

BLEUIR (SE), v. refl. to blue one's self. Il s'est tout bleui contre cette peinture, he has blued himself all over against that paint.

BLEUISSAGE, blœisazh, sm. bluing.

BLEU-MANTEAU, blœ-mântô, sm. Ornith. sea-gull. [Pl. bleus-Manteaux.]

BLEUISSOIR, blœisswar, sm. watchmaker's tool to shade with blue.

BLEUTAGE, blœtazh, sm. the act of giving a blue tint, tinting with blue.

BLEUTÉ, blœté, adj. Paint. bluish.

BLIN, bla*n*, [de belin, O. Fr. for ram], sm. Naut. ram : an apparatus used to knock away the shores in launching a ship

BLINDAGE, bla*n*dazh', [blinder], sm. blindage : a) Milit. timber disposed so as to protect a wall, etc. against cannon ; b) Naut. blinde, fenders, iron-plates to protect a ship ; c) Civ. Eng. hoarding ; Autom. dust casing, dust cover, steel sheeting.

BLINDER, bla*n*dé-r, [from blinde], va. 1. Milit. to blind : to protect with blinds or screens ; 2. Naut. to protect (a ship) with fenders or sheeting ; to cover with iron plates (so as to render a ship shot-proof), to iron-clad. Train blindé, armour-plated train. Vaisseau blindé, an iron-clad vessel, an iron-clad.

BLINDES, bla*n*d', [Ger. : blind, blind], sf. pl. Milit. blinds.

BLOC, blok, [Ger. : Block as in Eng. block and extended to many languages], sm. 1. block : mass (of wood, stone, iron, etc.) ; 2. log, (of wood) ; 3. stock (block set on end) ; 4. lump : a mass of things thrown together ; (in trade) a job-lot ; 5. stocks : an instrument of punishment. Un — de marbre, a block of marble, of stone. Blocs erratiques, Geol. erratic boulders. — de bois, block (or log) of wood. — de fer, de plomb, block (lump or mass) of iron, of lead. Ces blocs déifiés, ces métaux qu'on adore, these deified stocks and stones, these metals which they adore. Faites un — de ces marchandises, put those goods into one lump, make a job-lot of those goods. Moteur d'un seul —, Autom. motor with cylinders all in one piece. Visser à —, to screw tight. — réversible, reversing block.

EN BLOC, adv. phr. in a lump, in the lump. Acheter en —, to buy in the lump. Passer un marché avec un entrepreneur en —, to make a bargain with a contractor by the lump.

A BLOC, adv. phr. Naut. block and block, close together (as the two pulleys of a tack'e.)

BLOCAGE, blokazh', sm. Mason. 1. rubble-stones, rubble-work ; 2. Typog. turning : putting letters upside-down to replace sorts that are wanting.

BLOCAILLE, blokay', sf. Mason. rubble-stones, rubble-work.

BLOCHET, bloshé, sm. Carp. intertie.

BLOCKHAUS, blokôs, [Ger. : Block ; Haus], sm. Milit. block-house.

BLOCUS, blocus, [from Blockhause], sm. blockade : investment of a town by troops, or of a port by ships. Faire le — d'une place, d'un port, to blockade (or invest) a fortress, to blockade a port.

BLOND, E, blô*n*-t, blônd', [orig. unknown], adj. 1. fair : a) fair complexioned ; b) light-flaxen (as the hair), fair-haired, golden haired. Il est —, he is fair, fair-complexioned, fair, (or light-) haired. Cette dame est blonde, that lady is fair, fair-complexioned. Le — Apollon, the flaxen haired (or golden-haired) Apollo. Cheveux blonds, fair (light or flaxen) hair. Perruque blonde, flaxen wig (or peruke). La blonde aurore, the whitening dawn, the golden dawn. Il est — et délicat, he is dainty and over-nice (over-particular, difficult to please),

2. light-coloured ; 3. white. Sauce blonde, white sauce.

BLOND, sm. 1. fair (or light) colour (said chiefly of the hair and complexion.) Ses cheveux étaient d'un — parfait, her hair was beautifully fair. D'Antin était d'un fort beau —, D'Antin was of a beautifully fair complexion. St. Simon. 294. 2. — ardent, fiery red, carroty. — hasardé. Ironic. red, sandy. Une barbe blond ardent, a fiery-red beard. — cendré, pale auburn [Blond ardent, etc. are invariable, whatever the gender or number of the noun they qualify.] Blond de veau, 1. pale veal gravy ; 2. blond-lace : a kind of pillow-made silk lace, of the colour of raw silk. 3. fair-complexioned man or boy. Un beau —, a handsome fair-complexioned man.

BLONDASSE, blô*n*das', adj. sallow, tallow-faced. Un petit homme goussant et —, qui paraissait hébété, a short thick set tallow-faced man, who looked scarcely half-sharp. St. Sim. 114. 266.

BLONDE, blônd', sf. 1. fair woman or girl : the English frequently use the word blonde in this sense, especially as opposed to brunette ; 2. blonde (or blond) : a fine kind of silk lace. V. Blond.

BLONDELET, ETTE, blônd'lè, lèt', adj. rather fair, fairish.

BLONDIER, ÈRE, blô*n*dyé, dyêr', [blond], smf. blond-lace maker, blond-maker.

BLONDIN, E, blô*n*da*n*, din', smf. 1. a fair person, a light-haired person (of either sex) ; 2. Fig. beau, spark, gallant. Et de ces blondins écouter les sornettes, and to listen to the flummery of those gay gallants. Mol., Ec. des f. II, 5. Une petite blondine, a fair little lass.

BLONDIR, blô*n*dir, va. to whiten, to turn (or become) white. Les blés commencent à —, the wheat is turning white, is assuming a golden hue.

BLONDISSANT, E, blô*n*disâ*n*-t, ant', adj. 1. whitening, white ; 2. Poet. whitening, golden. Les campagnes blondissantes, the fields white for harvest. Les épis blondissants, the golden ears.

BLOQUER, bloké-r, va. 1. Milit. to blockade (a fortress or port) ; 2. Bill. to drive a ball straight into a pocket ; 3. Typog. to turn (of letter) ; 4. Mason. to dub out : to fill up holes in the face of a wall. — une place, un port, to blockade or invest a fortress, to blockade a port. Une ville bloquée par terre et par mer, a town blockaded by land and sea. Bloqué par un adversaire habile, thwarted by an able adversary. Une bille bloquée, un bloqué (subst.), a ball pocketed, a winning hazard.

BLOSSIR, blosir, vn. V. Blettir.

BLOTTIR (SE), blotir, v. refl. to squat, to crouch ; to squat down, to crouch down, to skulk. Se — dans un coin, to skulk in a corner. Un renard blotti dans son terrier, a fox crouching (or skulking) in his hole.

BLOUSE, blouz', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. round frock, blouse ; 2. smock-frock (worn by peasants, etc.] ; 3. round pinafore (for children) ; 4. pocket (of a billiard table).

BLOUSÉ, E, blouzé, adj. 1. Bill. holed, pocketed ; 2. Fig. misled, deceived.

BLOUSER. blouzé-r, va. 1. to hole, to pocket (a ball at billiards) ; 2. Fig. to mislead, to deceive, to dupe ; 3. to beat (the kettle-drum).

BLOUSER(SE), v. refl. 1. Bill, to hole (or pocket) one's own ball ; 2. to mistake, to make a mistake, to go wrong, to take a wrong course.

BLUET, bluè, [bleu], sm. 1. Bot. blue-centaury, blue corn-flower, blue-bottle ; 2. Bot. common whortleberry, bilberry ; 3. Ichth. blue-shark.

BLUETTE, bluèt', [Norm. : berluette, beluette, spark], sf. 1. spark, sparkle ; 2. Fig. spark, flash (of wit or humour) ; 3. literary trifle. Il y a quelques bluettes d'esprit dans cet ouvrage, there are a few flashes of wit in that work. Il a écrit des bluettes amusantes, he has writen some amusing trifles.

BLUTAGE, blutazh', [bluter], sm. bolting or dressing (of flour).

BLUTEAU, blutô, [bluter], sm. bolting or dressing machine (for flour).

BLUTER, bluté-r, [O. Fr. : bulcter, for bureter, from bure, hair-cloth], va. to bolt or sift flour.

BLUTERIE, blut'ri, sf. bolting-house, bolting-mill. Huche à —, bolting-hutch.

BLUTOIR, blutwâr, sm. bolting or sifting machine.

BOA, boa, [Lat.], sm. 1. Nat. Hist. boa boa constrictor ; 2. boa : a fur wrapper for the neck. Un boa de putois, a fitch boa.

BOBÊCHE, bobèsh', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. sconce : a concave piece of metal or glass placed on the top of a candlestick to catch tallow that runs down ; 2. socket (of a candlestick) ; 3. thin piece of steel welded with iron to form the edge of chisels, axes, etc.

BOBINE, bobin', [orig. unknown], sf. bobbin : spool or reel on which cotton, silk, etc., are wound ; Elect. coil, bobbin. — de Ruhmkorff, sparking coil. — d'inducteur, induction coil, field coil. — à enroulement conique, conically wound field coil. — d'induction à étincelles, induction coil.

BOBINER, bobiné-r, va. to reel (silk), etc.).

BOBINETTE, bobinèt', sf. wooden latch (of a door).

BOBINEUR, EUSE, bobinœr, œz', smf. reeler, winder (of silk, etc.).

BOBINEUSE, sf. reeling-machine.

BOBO, bobo, [onomat.], sm. (in nursery language) trifling ailment, hurt, or sore, sore place.

BOCAGE, bokazh', [for boscage ; Low Lat. : boscus], sm. grove : a shady wood of small extent.

BOCAGER, GÈRE, bokazhé, zhêr's adj. 1. woodland, wood : of or belonging to groves and woods ; 2. covered with groves or woods. Nymphes bocagères, wood nymphs. La grotte bocagère, the woodland grot. Flûtes bocagères, rustic pipes. Ces rives bocagères, those shady banks. Le pays est frais et —, the country is green and well-wooded.

BOCAL, bokal, [Ital. : bocale], sm. 1. wide-mouthed bottle, carboy, glass jar ; 2. vase, globe (for gold fish) ; 3. glass globe (used by engravers, shoemakers, etc. to concentrate light on their work) ; 4. mouth-piece (of a bugle, or other brass instrument). Les bocaux de pharmacien, apothecary's globes.

† BOCANE, bokân, [Bocan, a well-known dancing-master in the XVIIth c.], old dance in vogue in the 17th c.

BOCARD, bokar, [Ger.: pochen, to knock; O. Ger. : bochen, to crush], sm. Metal. stamp-mill, stamping-mill, crushing-machine (or mill).

BOCARDACE, bokardazh', sm. Metal. stamping, crushing (of ores).

BOCARDER, bokardé-r, [bocard], va. to stamp or crush (as metallic ores).

BOCHE, bosh, [of uncert. origin ; probably an abbrev. of caboche, contemptuously used for head]. sm. German. C'est un —, he is a German, a square-headed German.

BOCK, bok, [Ger. : Bockbier, sort of beer], sm. glass of beer.

BODIN, bodâ*n*, [Jean], French prose-writer (1520-1596).

BODRUCHE, bôdrush', V. Baudruche.

BOËTTE, BOUETTE, bœwet, [from Low Breton : boued], sf. Fish. bait for codfishing.

BŒUF, bœf ; pl. bœ-z ; the f of the sing. is always pronounced except in bœuf gras and bœuf salé, and by some persons even in those phrases ; in the pl. the f is always mute and the s heard as z before a vowel sound [Lat. : bos, bovis], sm. 1. ox : a) bullock, castrated bull ; b) the generic name for the bovine genus of animals. — de labour (or de trait), working-ox, draught-ox. Un attelage de bœufs, a team of oxen. Accoupler les bœufs, to yoke oxen. Travailler comme un —, Fig. to work like an ox, to work hard. Un troupeau de bœufs, a herd of oxen

(when in the field), a drove (when on the road to market). Mettre la charrue (or la charrette) devant les bœufs, to put the cart before the horse. Le — gras, the fat ox : a prize ox formerly taken in procession round Paris at Shrovetide. Les bœufs sauvages, wild oxen. — à bosse, the zebu (Indian or Brahmin ox). — musqué, musk ox. — de mer, bœuf marin, manatee, lamantin, sea-cow. Prov. : Donner un œuf pour avoir un bœuf, to throw a sprat to catch a herring.

2. Fig. a big powerful man ; a great lubberly fellow. C'est un —, he is as big (or as strong) as an ox. Moustapha n'était qu'un gros — appelé sultan, Mustapha was nothing but a great lubberly fellow called a sultan.

3. beef : the flesh of any animal of the ox kind. Aloyau de —, rib of beef. Conserve de —, potted, canned beef. Culotte de —, buttock of beef. Extrait de —, extract of beef. — épicé, spiced beef. Jarret de —, shin of beef. Gîte de —, leg of beef. Graisse de —, beef suet. Une langue de —, an ox tongue, a neat's tongue. Un filet de —, a tender loin of beef. Paleron de —, aitch bone of beef. Surlonge de —, sirloin of beef. Un — aux choux, a plate of beef and cabbage. — à la mode, boiled beef : beef stewed with carrots. — bouilli, boiled beef. — en daube, spiced beef. — salé, salt (or corned) beef. — fumé, hung beef. — saignant, under-done roast beef.

BŒUF, adj. Pop. great, stunning, enormous. C'est un succès —, it is an enormous success.

BOG, bog, sm. Pope Joan : a game at cards.

BOGHEI, boghé, [Eng. : buggy], sm. buggy : a kind of gig or dog-cart.

BOGUE, bog', [Provençal : boga], sf. 1. Bot. husk (of a chestnut) ; 2. Ichth. sea-bream.

BOHÉ, boé, BOHEA, boeha, [Chinese], adj. adj. Thé bohé, bohea tea, bohea.

BOHÊME, boêm', sf. Geog. Bohemia ; Fig. La Bohême, the world of unsuccessful, improvident, or incapable artists, authors, and professional men.

BOHÊME, smf. 1. gipsy, wanderer, vagrant ; 2. dissolute or disorderly person. Une troupe de bohêmes, a band of gipsies. Mener une vie de bohême, to lead a disorderly or dissolute life. V. Bohémien, smf.

BOHÉMIEN, ENNE, boémian, èn', adj. Bohemian : a) of or belonging to Bohemia ; b) a native of Bohemia.

BOHÉMIEN, NNE, smf. 1. gipsy, vagrant, vagabond ; 2. idle, dissolute, or improvident person.

BOIARD, boyar, V. Boyard.

BOILEAU-DESPRÉAUX, boilô-dépréô [Nicolas], poet and critic (1636-1711).

BOINDIN, boindân, [Nicolas], dramatic author (1676-1751).

BOIRE, bwâr, [Lat. : bibĕre, O. Fr. : beivre, boivre, boire], [Je bois, tu bois, il boit, nous buvons, vous buvez, ils boivent ; je buvais ; je bus, tu bus, il but, nous bûmes, vous bûtes, ils burent ; je boirai ; je boirais ; bois, buvons, buvez ; que je boive, que tu boives, qu'il boive, que nous buvions, que vous buviez, qu'ils boivent ; que je busse, que tu busses, qu'il bût, que nous bussions, que vous bussiez, qu'ils bussent ; buvant, bu.] va. 1. to drink : a) to swallow a liquid ; to drink is often followed by the adverbs: in, off, up, down; b) to spend in drink. Il boit du vin, he drinks wine. Vous buvez de la bière, you drink beer. Il but du poison, he drank poison. Buvez un verre d'eau, drink a glass of water. — une rasade, un rouge bord, to drink a bumper, a brimmer. — son vin à petits coups, to sip one's wine. — un doigt de vin, to drink a thimbleful of wine, to take a sip (or sup) of wine. — son soûl, tout son soûl, to drink one's fill. — la santé de quelqu'un, to drink a person's health. — le vin du marché, to drink a glass of wine over a bargain. — le vin d'étrier, to drink the stirrup-cup, to take a parting glass. Ce n'est pas la mer à —, that is not such a difficult matter. [Fig. :] Une riante troupe semblait — la joie à pleine coupe, a gay company seemed to quaff joy from brimming cups. — le calice jusqu'à la lie, to drain the cup (of sorrow or humiliation) to the dregs. b) Il but ainsi son héritage, he thus drank away all his patrimony : he spent his all in drink. Il a toute honte bue, he has drained shame to the dregs ; he is shameless.

2. to swallow (shame), to pocket, endure or put up with (an affront). Ayant bu la première honte, having swallowed the first shame. Il faut que je boive l'affront, I must pocket the affront. Mol. Préc. rid. sc. 16. Il boit, en expirant, le plus horrible affront, he endures, when expiring, the most horrible affront.

3. to imbibe, to drink in, to suck up or in, to soak up, to absorb. L'éponge boit l'eau, the sponge sucks up water. La terre, brûlée par le soleil, but la pluie, the ground, parched by the sun, drank (or sucked) in the rain.

BOIRE, vn. 1. to drink : a) to swallow liquor ; b) to tipple, to be addicted to drinking strong liquors. a) — à la fontaine, to drink at the fountain. — dans un verre, dans le creux de sa main, to drink out of a glass, out of the hollow of one's hand. Ils ont passé la nuit à —, they passed the night in drinking. Chanson (or air) à —, drinking (or convivial) song, an anacreontic. — à longs traits, à la régalade, to drink deep. — sec, to drink hard ; to drink neat spirits. — à tire-larigot, — comme un templier, comme un trou, comme une éponge, to drink hard ; to be a great drinker, to drink like a fish. Verser à —, to pour out drink. Donnez-moi à —, give me some drink, something to drink. A — ! some drink ! give us some drink ! Donner à —, to sell drink, to keep a public-house, wine-shop, beer-shop, etc. Ici on donne à — et à manger, victuals and drink sold here. Faire — un cheval, to water a horse. Mener — un cheval, to lead a horse to water. — à la santé (or — la santé) de quelqu'un, to drink to the health of a person, to drink a person's health. — au prompt retour, à l'heureux voyage de quelqu'un, to drink to a person's speedy return, to his pleasant journey. Donner quelque chose pour — (or donner un pour- —) à un ouvrier, à un cocher, to give drink-money (or something to drink) to a workman, to a coachman. b) Il est sujet à —, he is addicted to drink (or to drinking). Alors, il se mit à — de plus belle, after that, he set to drinking more than ever. Il a renvoyé son cocher parce qu'il buvait, he has discharged his coachman because he drank (or was given to drink). Il boira après vous, Fig he will live longer than you. Prov. : Qui a bu boira, once a drunkard, always a drunkard. On ne saurait si peu boire qu'on ne s'en sente, when the liquor is in the wit's out. Plus on boit, plus on veut —, ever drunk, ever dry. On ne saurait faire boire un âne s'il n'a soif, a man may lead his horse to water, but twenty cannot make him drink. Il ne faut pas dire : fontaine je ne boirai pas de ton eau, we can never say, that we shall not be obliged to do a thing. V. Vin.

2. to blot, to run, to sink. Ce papier boit parce qu'il n'est pas collé, this paper blots (or runs) because it is not sized.

3. Technol. Faire — les peaux, to soak skins. Faire —, Needle-w., to full in, to hold in : to sew together two widths of silk, etc. of unequal length, so that they shall be even at each end.

BOIRE (SE), v. refl. to be drunk. Ce vin se boit au dessert, this wine is drunk with the dessert. Il se boit beaucoup de vin dans ce pays, there is a great deal of wine drunk in that country.

BOIRE, sm. 1. drink, drinking. Le — et le manger, victuals and drink, food (or meat) and drink. Il est tellement préoccupé de cette affaire qu'il en oublie (or qu'il en perd) le boire et le manger, he is so absorbed in that business that he forgets his meals (or forgets to eat and drink). C'est elle qui lui apprête son boire et son manger, she it is who prepares his meals for him.

2. creek, inlet (of a river) ; 3. Fish. intake : channel connecting ponds, moats, etc. with a river.

BOIS, bwâ-z, [Low Lat. : boscum ; O. Fr. : bosc, bogs, bois], sm. 1. wood : a) the hard substance of trees and shrubs ; b) timber for building and other uses ; c) fire-wood, fuel ; d) an extent of land covered with trees, bushes, etc. ; e) Agr. branches, shoots. a) — vert, sec, résineux, green, dry, resinous wood. — dur, blanc, vermoulu, hard, white (tender or soft), worm-eaten wood. — mort sur pied, dead wood. — de chêne, de sapin, de châtaignier, d'acajou, oak, deal, chestnut, mahogany. — de palisandre, rose-wood, violet ebony. — de senteur, perfumed wood. — de tuya, tuya wood. En —, de —, of wood, wooden. — médicinaux, — sudorifiques, medicinal woods, sudorific woods. Ustensiles en —, wooden utensils. Meubles de —, wooden furniture. Jambe de —, wooden leg. Pont de —, wooden bridge.

b) — de construction, de charpente (or à bâtir), timber, building timber. — de sciage, sawn timber. — d'équarrissage, square timber : said of trees that square six inches and upwards. — de charronnage, wheel-wright's timber. — d'ébénisterie, de menuiserie, timber (or wood) for cabinet-work, for joinery. — rond, — en grume, unhewn timber. — en état or en étant, standing (or growing) timber. — gisant or abattu, felled timber. — cru, unpainted wood-work. — déchiré, wood of vessels broken up. — de refend, cleft timber. — de démolition, old timber.

c) — à brûler (or de chauffage), fire-wood, wood fuel. — sec, dry wood. — vert, green wood. Menu —, small wood. — neuf, wood with the bark on conveyed by boat or by land carriage [as opposed to bois flotté]. — pelard, barked wood. — flotté, floated wood. — rond, fendu, round wood, split wood. Mettre du — au feu, to put wood on the fire. On lui fournit le — et la chandelle, they give him firing and light. Un stère de —, a stere (one cubic metre) of fire-wood. Une voie de —, a load (two steres) of wood. Aller au —, to fetch wood, to get in a stock of wood. Faire sécher le —, to season wood. Faire du —, Naut. to take fire-wood on board. Fig. and Prov. : Il ne faut pas mettre le doigt entre le bois et l'écorce, never interfere in family quarrels. Faire flèche de tout bois, to make use of all the means at one's disposal, to leave no stone unturned. Ne savoir plus de quel bois faire flèche, not to know what to do (or which way to turn) ; to be reduced to shifts, to one's last shift. Il est du bois dont on fait les flûtes, he is of an easy temper, of a yielding character. Il n'est pas ministre, général, etc., mais il est du bois dont on les fait, he is not a minister, general, etc., but be is of the right stuff (or material) for making them. Trouver visage de bois, to find the door shut, to find no one (or nobody) at home. On verra de quel bois je me chauffe, they shall see what sort of man I am. Voyant de quel bois il se chauffait, seeing what kind of man he was. Je ne me chauffe pas du même bois que lui, we are not chips of the same block. Il n'est bois si vert qui ne s'allume, the most patient will lose their temper sometimes. Le bois tordu fait le feu droit, crooked wood makes a straight fire. Il ne faut juger du bois sur l'écorce, one must not hang a man by his looks ; the proof of the pudding is in the eating. V. Doigt, faim.

d) Un — de chênes, de châtaigniers, a wood of oaks, of chestnuts, an oak wood, a chestnut wood. Un — d'oliviers, an olive wood or grove. — épais, thick wood. — de haute futaie, wood of timber trees. — taillis, coppice, copse, underwood. Traverser un —, to go through a wood. En plein —, in the middle of a wood. Un — infesté de loups, a wood infested by wolves. Un bouquet de —, a small wood, a cluster or clump of trees. — marmenteau, trees left for ornament, ornamental timber (in parks). Les hôtes des bois, the inhabitants of the woods : wild animals, especially birds. Être volé comme dans un —, to be robbed audaciously. Prov. : N'aille au bois qui a peur des feuilles, he that is afraid of wounds must not go to war.

e) Le vieux — de la vigne, the old wood of the vine. De peur que la vigne ne jette trop de —, for fear the vine should run too much to wood. Pousser beaucoup de —, to put forth a great many branches, shoots or suckers.

2. (of beds) bedstead ; 3. (of fire-arms) stock ; 4. staff (of a lance, etc.) ; the lance itself. Rompre un — avec quelqu'un, to break a lance with a person. Charger un homme de —, to load a man with blows, to rub him down with an oaken towel. Les bois de justice, the gallows : the wood-work of the guillotine.

5. horns, head (of a stag) ; 6. pins (at skittles). Abattre bien du —, to knock down lots of pins ; Fig. to get through a great deal of work in a little time.

7. Naut. hull (of a ship). Tirer en plein —, to fire at the hull of (or to hull) a ship. — d'arrimage, stow-wood, stowage billets.

8. [forms part of the popular names of a great variety of plants :] — d'absinthe or — amer, quassia, bitter-wood, staves-wood. — d'aigle or d'aloès, agila-wood, eagle-wood, agallochum. — d'amarante, amaranth. — d'amourette (grand et petit), mimosa (tamarin difolia and tenuifolia). — de Brésil, brazil, Brazil wood. — de campêche, logwood. — de Chypre (or de cyprès), prince-wood. — doux, cascarilla. — de lance, lance-wood. — de lessive (or de lièvre), laburnum. — marbré (or satiné), satin-wood. — néphrétique, horse-radish tree. — de perdrix, partridge wood. — à poudre, black alder. — puant, stink wood. — saint, guaiacum. — de Sainte-Lucie, mahaleb. — de teck, teak. — de trompette or de canon, trumpet-wood.

BOISAGE, bwâzazh', sm. 1. wood-work (of a house, etc.) ; 2. Shipb. framing (of a ship) ; the frame-timbers ; 3. Min. casing, planking, propping (of the shafts and cuttings in mines).

BOISÉ, E, bwâzé, adj. 1. wainscoted, panelled : lined with boards or planks ; 2. wooded, covered with wood (as a country). Pays —, well-wooded country, woodland country.

BOISEMENT, bwâz'mân-t, sm. planting of woods (for timber or fuel).

BOISER, bwâzé-r, [bois], va. 1. to wainscot : to cover a wall with boarding ; 2 Shipb. to put together the frame-timbers ; 3. to plant with trees (for timber or fuel).

BOISERIE, bwâz'ri, sf. 1. wainscot, wainscoting ; 2. Eccles. Arch. wainscot screen. — en panneaux, panelled wainscotting.

BOISETTES, bwaset, sfpl. sticks ; small dry branches picked up by the poor.

BOISEUX, EUSE, bwâzœ, œz', adj. woody, ligneous ; of the nature of wood.

BOIS-ROBERT, bwarôbêr, [François le Métel de), poet and dramatic author (1592-1662).

BOISSEAU, bwasô, [Low Lat. : bussulus ; Fr. : boîte], sm. 1. bushel : an old measure now replaced by the décalitre ; 2. plug-hole (of a tap or stop-cock) ; 3. the cylindrical part of a bark-mill. Vendre au —, to sell by the bushel. Un — de blé, a bushel of wheat. V. Lumière. [Pl. Boisseaux.]

BOISSELAGE, bwâs'lazh', sm. measuring (of corn).

BOISSELÉE, bwâs'lé, sf. bushelful, bushel. — de blé, bushel of corn. — de terre, space of land requiring a bushel of seed.

BOISSELIER, bwâs'lyé, [boisseau], sm. bushel-maker, white-cooper.

BOISSELIÈRE, bwâse'lyèr', sf. Ornith. shrike or butcher-bird.

BOISSELLERIE, bwâsèl'ri, sf. 1. white-cooper's trade, white cooperage : the making or selling of wooden measures, etc. ; 2. wooden ware : buckets, bowls, measures for dry goods, etc.

BOISSON, bwâsôn, [boire], sf. 1. drink : a) beverage, any liquid to be swallowed ; b) liquor of any particular kind, especially those that intoxicate ; c) drinking, drunkenness, habitual intoxication. Sa — ordinaire n'est que de l'eau, his usual drink (or beverage) is water only. Il a toujours de la — en cave, he always has wine (cider, ale, etc.) in his cellar. Être adonné à la —, to be given to drinking (or to drink), to be an habitual drunkard. Être pris de —, to be in liquor ,to be fresh, tipsy, intoxicated or drunk.

2. a weak drink extracted from the residue of grapes or from certain kinds of fruit ; 3. Naut. water acidulated with vinegar.

BOITE, bwat' ; the vowel is short, [Lat. : bibita, from bibĕre, to drink], sf. 1. maturity, ripeness (of wine or other liquor). Ce vin n'est pas encore en —, this wine is not yet fit to drink.

2. Vet, Surg. foot-sore, foot-soreness ; foot-halt (in sheep). Avoir la —, to be foot-sore.

BOÎTE, bwât', the vowel is long, [Low Lat. : buxida ; Lat. : buxus], sf. 1. box. — de chêne, oak box. — de fer-blanc, tin box ; (when the opening is small and round) tin-canister. — à double fond, box with a false bottom. — garnie de diamants, box set with diamonds. Le couvercle, le fond d'une —, the lid, the bottom of a box. — de la poste or — aux lettres, letter-box. — à charbon, coal-box, coal-scuttle. Jeter une lettre à la —, to post a letter. — -borne, pillar letter-box. — de quartier, district pillar-box. — à clous, nail-box. — à couleurs, box of colours. — à farine, flour dredger. — à faux-cols, collar-box. — au lait, milk-can. — à glace, Phot. plate-box. — à sécher les clichés, drying-box. — à médicaments, medicine chest. — à musique, musical box. — à thé, tea-caddy ; (when of tin or other metal) tea-canister. — à ouvrage, work-box. — d'outils, tool-box ; (if large) tool-chest. Prov. and Fig. : Dans les petites boîtes sont les bons onguents, the best goods are packed in small parcels (flatteringly said of persons of small stature). Il faudrait que cette dame fût toujours dans une —, that lady (is so delicate that she) ought always to be kept in a band-box (or under a glass-shade). Il semble qu'il sorte d'une —, he (is so daintily dressed that he) looks as if he had just stept out of a band-box.

2. case. — de montre, watch-case. — de violon, violin-case.

3. boxful, box. — de prunes, box (or carton) of plumes. — de pilules, box of pills. — de bonbons, box of sweet-meats, or comfits.

4. snuff-box. J'ai oublié ma —, I have forgotten my snuff-box.

5. Pyrotch. chamber, mortar : a short cannon fired in public rejoicings.

6. Technol. — à vent, wind-chest (of an organ). — à essieu, axle-box (of a wheel). — de secours, — fumigatoire, apparatus for reviving persons asphyxiated by submersion, strangling or noxious gases.

7. St. Eng. — à clapet or à soupape, valve-box. — à étoupes or à garniture, stuffing-box, gland and collar-box. — à feu, fire-box. — à fumée, smoke-box. — à soupape d'arrêt, stop-valve (or shut-off valve) box. — à soupape alimentaire, feed-valve, feed-box or feed-chest. — à tiroir, slide-valve nozzle.

8. Autom. box. — de condensateur, condenser box. — de direction, box for steering gear. — d'essieu, axle sleeve. — d'embrayage, clutch casing. — d'échappement, exhaust silencer. Anat. La — du crâne, — crânienne, the brain-pan, the skull.

9. Naut. — du gouvernail, rudder-case.

BOITEMENT, bwât'mân, [boiter], sm 1. halting, limping ; 2. irregular working (of a machine).

BOITER, bwâté-r, [boite, articulation], vn. to be lame, to halt, to limp (in walking). Il boite du pied gauche, he is lame of the left foot. Mon mal de pied me fait —, my bad foot makes me limp. — des deux pieds, to be lame of both feet. Un cheval qui boite, a lame horse. — tout bas, to be very lame.

BOITERIE, bwât'ri, sf. Vet. Surg. ameness, halting, limping.

BOITEUX, EUSE, bwâtœ, œz', adj. 1. lame : halt, limping. Cette femme est très boiteuse, that woman is very lame.

2. Fig. halting, limping. La marche lente et boiteuse de l'esprit humain, the slow and halting march of the human intellect. Phrase boiteuse, a halting phrase. Des vers —, halting (or lame) verses : not having the proper number of syllables. Le diable —, the Devil on two sticks.

3. bordered at one end or one side only (as shawls, ribbons, etc.) ; 4. Typog. Colonne boiteuse, column shorter than the others.

BOITEUX, EUSE, sm. f. lame person, a cripple. Un —, une boiteuse, a lame man, a lame woman. Les boiteux et les aveugles, the lame (or the halt) and the blind. Il ne faut pas clocher devant les boiteux, never halt before cripples ; never do anything to remind people of their natural infirmities.

BOÎTIER, bwâtyé, [boîte], sm. 1. box or surgical instruments, amputating-case ; 2. watch-case maker.

BOIT-TOUT, bwâ-tou, sm. 1. conical drinking glass without a foot so that it cannot be set down till emptied ; 2. one who spends all his money in drink, an invet-erate toper.

BOL, boll, [Gr. : βῶλος, sod of earth], sm. 1. Mineral. bole. — d'Arménie or — oriental, Armenian bole.

2. bolus : a) Med. a large pill ; b) Physiol. the pellet into which food is formed previous to deglutition. — alimentaire, bolus (or pellet) of masticated food.

BOL, bol, [Eng. : bowl], sm. a hemispherical basin. Un — de punch, a bowl of punch. Un — de lait, a bowl (or basin) of milk.

BOLAIRE, bolèr, adj. Mineral. bolary.

BOLÉRO, boléro, [Span.], sm. bolero : a Spanish dance.

BOLET, bolê-t, [Lat. : boletus], sm, Bot. boletus. — comestible, esculent boletus boletus edulis. — amadouvier, hard amadou, polyporus igniarius, BOLÉTIQUE, bolétik', [bolet), adj. boletic. Acide —, boletic acid.

BOLICHE, bolish', sf. Fish. kind of drag-net.

BOLIDE, bolid', [Gr. : βολίς, ἰδος], sm. aerolite : meteoric stone, fire-ball.

BOLIVIE, bolivi, sf. Geog. Bolivia.

BOLIVIEN, ENNE, bôliviœn, ien, adj Geog. Bolivian : pertaining to Bolivia. Bolivian : a native of Bolivia.

BOLLANDISTE, bolandist, smpl. Bollandist : one of those Jesuit writers who continued the lives of the saints Acta Sanctorum, commenced by John Bolland (1596-1665).

BOLOGNE, bolony', pn. Geog. Bologna (in Italy).

BOLONAIS, E, bolonè, èz', adj. and s. Bolognese.

BOLUS, bolus, V. Bol.

BOMBAGE, bô*n*bazh, [bomber], sm. Technol. blowing of glass-shades, bell-glasses, etc. ; glass-bending.

BOMBANCE, bô*n*bâ*n*s', [orig. doubtful ; Lat. : bombus, noise , O. Fr. : bobance, pride], sf. 1. feasting, good cheer, good living ; 2. jollification, merry-making, revelry. Faire —, to feast, to lead a merry life. Au milieu de ces bombances nocturnes, in the midst of these nocturnal revelries, Hamil. Gramm.

BOMBARDE, bô*n*bard', [Lat. : bombus, noise ; Low Lat. : bombarda], sf. 1. Milit. catapult (used in the middle ages) ; 2. Mil. bombard : a piece of ordnance formerly used ; 3. Mus. bombardo : a) a reed instrument of the same category as the bassoon and hautbois ; b) the swell of the reed stops in an organ ; 4. the mouth of a brick-kiln ; 5. Naut. bomb-ketch, bomb-vessel.

BOMBARDEMENT, bô*n*bardœmâ*n*-t, sm. Milit. bombardment. Le — dura trois jours, the bombardment lasted three days.

BOMBARDER, bô*n*bardé-r, va. to bombard. — une ville, to bombard a town.

BOMBARDIER, bô*n*bardyé, sm. 1. Milit. bombardier ; 2. Entom. bombardier-beetle.

BOMBASIN, bô*n*baza*n*, sm. BOMBASINE, bô*n*bazin', [Lat. : bombyx, silkworm], sf. bombazine : a mixed fabric of silk and wool for ladies' dresses.

BOMBE, bô*n*b', [Ital. : bomba ; Lat. : bombus, noise], sf. 1. bomb, bomb-shell, shell. Tomber comme une —, to fall like a bomb ; to happen suddenly or unexpectedly. Gare la — ! Look out for squalls !

2. a bomb-shaped bottle with a very short neck ; 3. Naut. Bombe de signaux, black signal ball.

BOMBÉ, E, bô*n*bé, adj. 1. bulged : swelled out, convex ; 2. barrelled (as the surface of a road or gravel walk). Verre bombé, bent glass, a glass shade (of clocks, etc.).

BOMBEMENT, bô*n*bœmâ*n*-t, sm. bulging, swelling out, convexity ; barrelling (of roads).

BOMBER, bô*n*bé-r, va. 1. to render convex ; 2. to cause to bulge (swell or jut out) ; 3. to barrel (a road, etc.) ; 4. to give fuller relief (or greater convexity) to ; 5. to bend (glass). — une route, to barrel a road. — un ouvrage de sculpture, to give fuller relief to sculpture. — un panneau, to give greater convexity to a pannel.

BOMBER, vn. 1. to become convex ; 2. to bulge (swell or jut) out. Ce mur bombe, this wall bulges out.

BOMBER (SE), v. refl. to grow convex ; to curve, to bend.

BOMBERIE, bô*n*b'ri, sf. bomb (or shell) foundry.

BOMBEUR, bonbœr, sm. glass-bender, glass-shade maker.

BOMBYCIDÉS, bô*n*bisidé, BOMBICIENS, bô*n*bisiâ*n*, sm. pl. 1. Entom. bombycidæ ; family of the silk worms of the genus bombyx.

BOMBYX, bô*n*biks, [Lat. : from Gr. : βόμβυξ], sm. bombyx : silkworm.

BÔME, bôm', [Dutch. : boom], sf. Naut. boom, spanker-boom.

BOMERIE, bom'ri, [Dutch. : bodemrye ; bodem, keel of a ship], sf. Mar. Naut. bottomry.

BON, BONNE, bô*n*, bon' ; the n of the masculine is pronounced only when the following word is a substantive beginning with a vowel sound : bon et brave, bô*n* è brave ; un bon ami, œn b*n*ami, [Lat. : bonus, good], adj. m. and f. [Comp. meilleur.] 1. good : a) profitable, wholesome, salutary, beneficial ; suitable, fit, proper, right ; favourable, fortunate, happy ; b) merciful, clement, benignant, benevolent, humane, kind ; good-natured, affectionate ; c) zealous in the performance of duties, functions, etc. ; d) possessing the qualities that constitute excellence (said of persons and things) ; e) excelling in the knowledge or practice of any science, study, art, accomplishment, etc. ; f) considerable, great, long, high, hard ; g) distinguished, honourable, worthy, respectable, loyal ; high, elevated ; h) full, complete ; i) safe, solvent, able to fulfil engagements (as traders, trading companies, etc.) ; valid, safe (as bills or securities) ; available ; j) witty, pleasing, amusing ; k) pleasing to the taste or smell, nice, palatable ; l) strict, accurate.

a) On lui a fait une très bonne proposition, they have made him a very good (or advantageous) offer. C'est une bonne affaire pour vous, it is a good affair for you. Pourrai-je vous être — à quelque chose ? can I be useful (of any use) to you? A quoi — ? what is the use (or the good) ? C'est un — métier, it is a good (profitable, lucrative) trade. Une bonne nourriture, good (wholesome) food. L'air est très — ici, the air here is good (pure or salubrious). L'exercice est — pour la santé, exercise is good for the health. Il m'a donné de bons conseils, he has given me good (salutary) advice. Le quinquina est — contre la fièvre, Peruvian bark is good against fever. Il est — que vous sachiez, it is proper (or right) that you should know. Manteau — pour toutes les saisons, a cloak proper (suitable or fit) for all seasons. Terrain — pour la vigne, soil suitable for the vine. Moisson bonne à couper, crop fit (or ready) to cut. Homme qui est — à tout, a man fit for anything. Trouver tout —, to be easily satisfied or pleased. Tout lui est —, nothing comes amiss to him. Cela n'est — à rien, that is good (fit or useful) for nothing. — compte, cheap. J'ai acheté cela à très — compte, I bought that very cheap. La bonne route, the right road. Vous arrivez au — moment, you arrive at the right moment. Trouver —, to think right, good or proper ; to allow, to permit. Trouvez — que je vous assure que..., allow (or permit) me to assure you that... Comme — vous semble, as seems good to you, as you think good, right, or proper ; as you like. Voulez-vous que je vous dise votre bonne aventure ? shall I tell you your fortune ? Bonne nouvelle, good (or favourable) news).—résultat, good (fortunate or favourable) result. Cela n'est pas de — augure, that is not of good omen, that bodes no good. Prendre les choses en bonne part, to take things in good part. Avoir bonne opinion de quelqu'un, to have a good (or favourable) opinion of a person. — an, bonne année, V. An, Année.

b) Prier le — Dieu, to pray to God, to pray God. S'il plaît au — Dieu, please God if it please God, God willing. Vous êtes mon — ange, you are my good (or guardian) angel. Mon — génie, my good genius. Un — roi, a good (or benignant) king. Une femme bonne et charitable, a good (or benevolent) and charitable woman. Elle est aimable et bonne, she is amiable and good-natured. Il est — pour tous, he is good (or kind) to all. Ce sont de bonnes gens, they are good (or kind-hearted) people. C'est une bonne âme, she is a good soul. Il a un — cœur (or le cœur bon), he has a good heart. [Ironic. :] Il est — là, avec les propositions qu'il nous fait, it is very kind of him to make us such proposals ; I like his making us such proposals. V. Bonhomme.

c) — chrétien, good christian. — père, — fils, good father, good son. Bonne mère, good mother. Un — magistrat, a good magistrate. Un — administrateur, a good administrator. Un — domestique, a good servant.

d) De bonnes troupes, good troops. — cheval, good horse. Bonne monnaie, good money. Bonne terre, good (or fertile) land. Bonne vue, good sight. Avoir l'oreille bonne, to have a good ear. Une bonne constitution, un — naturel, a good constitution, a good disposition. Avoir — pied, — œil, to be sound of wind and limb (or as sound as a roach) ; to be active and vigilant. Un — voilier, a good sailer ; a fast-sailing vessel. Une bonne montre, a good watch.

e) — chimiste, médecin, géomètre, good (skilful or clever) chemist, physician, geometrician. — avocat, able (or clever) lawyer (barrister or advocate). — orateur, poète, auteur, good orator, poet, author. — pilote, a good (or skilful) pilot. — architecte, clever architect. C'est une bonne épée or une bonne lame, une bonne plume, he is a good swordsman, a good writer. Apprendre la législation sous un bon maître, to learn legislation under an able master. — nageur, danseur, marcheur, good swimmer, dancer, walker.

f) Une bonne provision de livres, a good stock (or store) of books. Une bonne partie de ces contrées, a good (or considerable) part of those countries. Boire de bons coups, to drink good (long or deep) draughts. J'ai bonne envie de voir..., I have a great desire (or mind) to see... Un — nombre de voyageurs, a good number of travellers. Avoir — courage, to have great courage, to be very courageous. Elle lui infligea une bonne correction, she gave him a sound flogging. Une bonne fièvre, a high fever. Un — soufflet, a good (or hard) blow. J'ai une bonne course à faire, I have a good (or long) way to go.

g) Bonne famille, good family. La bonne société, good company. Homme de bonne compagnie, a well-bred man ; a man moving in good society. Votre sang est trop —, n'en craignez rien de lâche, your blood is too noble, fear no meanness from it. Un — bourgeois, a good (worthy or respectable) citizen. Une députation supplia le roi de revenir dans sa bonne ville de Paris, a deputation prayed the king to return to his good (or loyal) city Paris.

h) Il en a augmenté le nombre d'une bonne moitié, he has increased the number by a good half. J'ai fait quatre bonnes lieues, I have done (walked or ridden) four good leagues. Un — quart d'heure, a good quarter of an hour.

i) Une bonne maison de commerce, a safe (substantial or solvent) mercantile firm. Être — pour pouvoir payer, to be well able to pay. Vous savez que je suis — pour cette somme, you know that I am good (or safe) for that amount. Une bonne caution, valid security, substantial bail. Faire une dette bonne, to garantee a debt. Faire bonne garantie, to give good security. — pour mille francs, good for a thousand francs. Billet — pour deux personnes, ticket (or order) available for (or admitting) two persons (to a theatre, concert, etc.).

j) Un — mot, a witty remark, a witticism. Bonne répartie, a good repartee (or retort). — conte, a good story. Vous dites des bons mots et moi j'écris de mauvais contes, you converse wittily, and I write stupid stories. Volt. Lett. 7 mars 1764.

k) Ce gâteau est très —, this cake is very good or nice. Ce fruit a — goût, this fruit has a nice taste. Bonne odeur, nice (or pleasant) smell. Sentir —, to smell good (or nice).

l) Puisqu'on fait bonne garde aux murs, since they keep good (or strict) watch on the walls. Exécutez cet ordre, et m'en rendez — compte, execute this order, and give me a strict account of it.

2. (in a disparaging sense) foolishly good-natured, simple, silly, innocent, credulous. Vous êtes bien — de croire ce que dit chacun, you are very silly (foolish, innocent) to believe what every one says. Vous êtes —, vous ! how nice you are ! Voilà mille et mille bonnes gens qui n'en voient pas l'importance, there are thousands on thousands of simple folks who do not see its importance. C'est —, vous n'avez pas besoin de me le répéter, that will do, you have no need to repeat it. Je l'ai dit une bonne fois pour toutes, I have said it once for all.

3. (in an ill sense), regular, thorough. C'est un — vaurien, he is a regular scamp. Un — coquin, a thorough rascal, an arrant knave.

4. Bon à tirer, Typogr. ready or fit for press : a formula written on proof sheets to indicate that no further changes or corrections will be made by the author, editor, etc. [Subs. :] Un — à tirer, des bons à tirer, press proof, press proofs.

Idiom. phr. La donner, la bailler bonne, to deceive (or take in). Vous me la donnez bonne, you are trying to deceive me, to impose on me. La garder bonne, to bear malice, to have a grudge. En voilà une bonne ! that 's a good one (a lie) ! En dire de bonnes à, to give (a person) a good rating, a good lecture. A la bonne, innocently, artlessly. Je la lui garderai bonne, I owe him a grudge. Prov. : Bon jour, bonne œuvre, the better the day, the better the deed. Courte et bonne, short and merry, said of a life of sensual indulgence. Il fait bon vivre et ne rien savoir, when ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise. Il est bon de parler, et meilleur de se taire, speaking is good, but silence is better. La Font. Fab. VIII, 10. Ce qui est bon à prendre est bon à garder, what is good to take is good to keep. Beaumarchais. Bar. de Sév. VI, 1. V. Chat, Compte, Entendeur, Fuite, Maître, Malheur, Mine, Vin.

BON, sm. 1. good : a) the opposite of evil, often in an abstract sense ; b) good qualities, good points. Il a préféré le — à l'utile, he preferred the good to the useful. Raisonner avec eux sur le —, sur le beau, to reason with them on the good and the beautiful. Le — et le mauvais, the good and the bad. Cet homme a du —, that man has good qualities, there is some good in that man. [Colloq. :] Hier nous avons bu du —, yesterday we drank some good wine. Avoir du —, to have the advantage, to have the best of it. Il faut prendre le — avec le mauvais, you must take the good with the bad. Prendre son —, to seize one's advantage.

2. best, best of it. Le — de l'affaire, the best of the business, the fun of the affair, the cream of the joke. Le — est qu'en courant il a perdu sa botte, the fun of the thing is that in running he lost his boot. Le mari ne se doute point de la manigance, voilà ce qui est de —, the husband has no suspicion of the trick ; that is the best of it.

3. comfort, ease, rest. L'accès de fièvre passé, on a deux jours de —, the fit of ague past, the patient is at ease for two days. Quelques jours de —, a few days' enjoyment (or comfort). Il fait —, it is good, nice, comfortable, pleasant, advantageous ; it is nice (or pleasant) weather. Il fait — pour se promener, it is pleasant weather for walking. Il ne fait pas — avoir affaire à cet homme, it is not pleasant to have anything to do with that man. Il fait — l'entendre là-dessus, it does good to hear him talk on that subject. Il y fait —, it is a good opportunity. Il fait — ici, it is good to be here ; one is comfortable here.

4. sm. pl. the good. Tous les bons, all good men (or people). Dieu récompensera les bons et punira les méchants, God will reward the good and punish the wicked. Prov. : Les bons paient souvent pour les méchants, all are not thieves whom dogs bark at. Aux derniers les bons, the last are the best ; the last comers are sometimes the best served.

5. order (for the payment of money) ; cheque, draft (on a bank) ; debenture ; any written acknowledgment of indebtedness ; ticket (entitling the holder to receive something). — d'un banquier, order, cheque, or draft on a banker. — du trésor, treasury bond (in France), exchequer bill (in England). — de chemin de fer, railway debenture (payable at short date). — de pain, de soupe, ticket for bread, for soup. — à tirer. V. Bon, adj. Mettre son — à tout, to be easy-going yielding, complaisant ; to consent to everything.

BON, adv. good. Sentir —, to smell good or nice. Tenir —, to hold out, to stand firm (in speaking of persons) ; to hold good (of things). Coûter —, to cost dear.

2. good, right. — vous arrivez bien, good ! you come just in time. —, vous voulez me faire accroire, all right ! you want to deceive me.

TOUT DE BON, adv. phr. in earnest, in good earnest, really, seriously, downright. Se quereller tout de —, to quarrel downright. Il vit bien qu'elle lui parlait tout de —, he saw clearly that she spoke in good earnest. Parlez-vous tout de — ? are you speaking seriously ? Tout de —, votre doctrine est bien commode, really, your doctrine is very convenient.

BONACE, bonas', [Ital. : bonaccia], sf. Naut. calm, smooth sea ; fig. calm. Nous eûmes une grande —, we had a dead calm. Je changeai d'un seul mot la tempête en —, by a single word I changed the tempest into a calm. Corn. Ment. II. 5.

BONALD, bonald [Vicomte Louis de], philosopher and writer (1754-1840).

BONAPARTISME, bonapartism', sm. Bonapartism.

BONAPARTISTE, bonapartist', adj. and smf. Bonapartist.

BONASSE, bonass', [bon], adj. foolishly-good-natured, soft, silly.

BONASSEMENT, bonas'mân-t, adv. foolishly, sillily.

BONBANC, bônban, [bon ; banc], sm. a soft free-stone dug near Paris.

BONBEC, bônbèk, [bon ; bec], sf. talkative (or gossiping) woman.

BONBON, bônbôn, [bon repeated as in English goody goody], sm. sweetmeat : sugar-plum, comfit, succade.

BONBONNE, bônbon', [Provençal : boumbouno, changed into bombonne], sf. 1. carboy : large bottle for acids, etc. ; tin oil-van.

BONBONNIÈRE, bônbonyêr, sf. 1. box for sweetmeats, comfit-box ; 2. Fig. an elegant little house ; a kind of carriage.

BON-CHRÉTIEN, bôn-krétian, sm. bon-chrétien : a kind of winter pear. [Pl. bons-chrétiens.]

BOND, bôn, [bondir], sm. 1. bound : a) leap, spring, skip, bounce (of persons or animals) ; b) rebound, bounce (of a ball etc.). Il s'élança d'un seul — par-dessus la muraille, he cleared the wall at a single bound. En trois bonds, il fut en bas de l'escalier, in three bounds he was at the bottom of the stairs. La course du chat n'est qu'une succession de bonds, the pace of the cat is only a succession of bounds (or leaps). Son cheval a fait un —, his horse gave a bound. Par sauts et par bonds, Fig. by fits and starts, in a desultory manner, desultorily. Prendre la balle au —, to strike the ball on the rebound, on the bounce ; Fig. to do anything at the right moment (or in the very nick of time) ; to improve an opportunity. Faire faux —, to turn from the right course. Il m'a fait faux —, he gave me the slip. Faire faux — à quelqu'un, to disappoint (or fail) a person. Faire faux — à son honneur, to forfeit one's honour.

BONDE, bônd', [O. Dutch : bonge, provincial Ger. : Bunde], sf. 1. sluice : a) opening or vent for the escape of water, as from a pond, etc. ; b) penstock, flood-gate, water-gate (of a mill) ; 2. Fig. vent, free course. Lever, hausser, lâcher la —, to raise, to open the sluice.

3. bung-hole : the opening through which a cask is filled ; 4. bung : the stopple of a bung-hole ; in this sense bondon is also used.

BONDER, bôndé-r, [bonde], va. Naut. to load (a ship) cram-full : to overload. Un navire bondé, a ship laden to the utmost. Le théâtre était bondé de spectateurs, the threatre was crowded with spectators.

BONDIR, bôndir, [Lat. : bombitāre, to make a noise], vn. 1. to bound : a) to leap, to jump, to skip, (as persons or animals) ; b) to rebound, to bounce (as balls, etc.) ; c) Fig. to leap. Voyez ce cheval — dans la prairie, look at that horse bounding (capering, gambolling or frisking) in the meadow. Mon chien bondit de joie en me voyant, my dog bounded with (or for) joy on seeing me. — de rage, to bound with rage, to give a furious start. Cette balle est trop molle, elle ne bondit pas, this ball is too soft, it will not bounce. Le cœur me bondit de joie, my heart leaped for joy. Faire — le cœur, 1. to make one's heart leap (for joy) ; 2. (in a bad sense) to make one's stomach rise, to turn one sick, to make one sick at heart. Une saleté qui faisait — le cœur, a filthiness that turned one sick.

BONDISSANT, E, bô*n*disa*n*-t, â*n*t', adj. bounding : a) leaping, skipping, frisking ; b) rushing (as water). Les torrents bondissants, the rushing torrents.

BONDISSEMENT, bô*n*dis'mâ*n*-t, sm. 1. bounding : a) leaping, skipping (of animals) ; b) bouncing, rebounding (of a ball, etc.) ; 2. leaping, bounding (of the heart, with joy) ; 3. rising, turning (of the stomach, from nausea, disgust, or loathing).

BONDON, bô*n*dô*n*, [bonde], sm. 1. bung : stopper or stopple of a cask ; 2. bung-hole ; 3. a Neufchâtel cheese in the form of a bung.

BONDONNER, bô*n*doné-r, va. to bung (a cask).

BONDONNIÈRE, bô*n*donyêr', sf. bung-borer : a cooper's tool.

BONDRÉE, bô*n*dré, sf. Ornith. pern, honey-buzzard : Pernis apivorus.

BONDUC, bô*n*duk, sm. Bot. bonduc, nicker-tree, Molucca-bean plant : Guilandina bonducella.

BON-HENRI, bonâ*n*ri, sm. Bot. good-henry, wild spinach, English mercury.

BONHEUR, bonœr, [bon ; heur], sm. 1. good fortune, good luck ; fortune, luck (in a general sense). Il a eu le — d'éviter ce danger, he had the good fortune to avoid that danger. Il s'en est tiré avec le plus grand — du monde, he has got through it with the greatest good luck. Avoir du —, to be lucky. Il a eu un — constant, he has always been lucky. Avoir plus de — que de prudence, to be more lucky than wise. Porter — à, to bring good luck to. Un coup de —, a lucky hit (stroke, throw, or cast). Jouer de —, to play luckily, to be in luck. Il abuse de son —, he presumes on his good fortune his good luck makes him presumptuous. Son — semble l'abandonner, his good luck seems to be forsaking him ; he seems to be out of luck.

2. piece of good luck, of good fortune ; lucky event, circumstance, or thing. Un — inespéré, an unexspected piece of luck. Il lui est arrivé un grand —, a piece of great good luck has befallen him.

3. prosperity, welfare, well-being. Le — de l'État, the prosperity (or welfare) of the state.

4. success. Le — des armes françaises, the success of the French arms.

5. happiness, felicity. La vertu seule fait le — ici-bas, virtue alone is happiness here-below. Véritable —, true happiness. Jouir du — de la vie, to enjoy the happiness of life. Rien ne trouble son —, nothing disturbs his happiness.—sans mélange,happiness without alloy, unalloyed happiness. — éternel, everlasting happiness, eternal felicity. Le comble du —, the height of happiness. Il a eu le — de conserver longtemps sa mère, he had the happiness of seeing his mother long preserved to him. Depuis que j'ai eu le — de vous voir, since I had the happiness (or pleasure) of seeing you. Au petit —, come what may.

6. Bonheur-du-jour, what-not : a piece of furniture in which papers and other articles are kept for convenient use.

PAR BONHEUR, adv. phr. luckily, fortunately. Par — pour lui, je me trouvai là, luckily for him I was at hand.

BONHOMIE, bonomi, [bonhomme], sf. 1. (in a good sense) good-nature, easy temper, primitive simplicity ; 2. (in an ill sense) foolish simplicity, credulity. Une douce, une aimable —, a sweet, an amiable simplicity of character. Il a la — de croire tout ce qu'on lui raconte, he is simple enough to believe everything that is told him.

BONHOMME, bonom', [bon ; homme], sm. 1. (in a favourabke sense) good-natured man, worthy man, simple easy man. Le moine trouva un — qui, gagné par la compassion, alla avertir M. de..., the monk found a worthy man, who, moved by compassion, went and told M. de... Faire le —, to affect simplicty of character, to pretend to be a good easy man. Faux —, one who affects to be a good easy man, a hypocritical old fellow. [Pl. Bonshommes.]

2. a simple, credulous, easy-going man. C'est un — qui se laisse mener, he is an easy-going man who lets himself be led by the nose. Son — de mari ne se doutait de rien, her husband, good easy man, suspected nothing.

3. old man, old fellow, old fogey, old codger, good-man. Le — est bien vert, the old fellow is very vigorous. Un vieux —, an old fellow, an old fogey, an old codger.

4. (formerly applied by soldiers to the peasantry). Vivre aux dépens du —, to live on the peasantry. Jacques Bonhomme, a collective name for the French peasantry.

5. man, fellow (in speaking of or to a boy). Ce petit — travaille bien, this little fellow works well, studies well. Aller son petit — de chemin, to get along joggingly ; to go jog-trot. Prov. : Petit — vit encore, almost was never banged ; a creaking door hangs long on its hinges.

6. ill-drawn figure of a man ; 7. manikin, puppet : a toy for children ; 8. Bot. mullen.

† BONHOMMEAU. bonhomō; [bonhomme], sm. an old diminutive of bonhomme, a pitiable man. V. Bonhomme.

BONI, boni, [Lat. : genitive of bonus, good], sm. bonus : overplus, surplus : a) Fin. what remains of a vote or appropriation of money after the purpose for which it was intended has been accomplished ; b) Pawnbr. the sum returned to a pawner when his pledge sells for more than the amount of the loan with the interest thereon.

BONIFACE, bonifas, [Lat. : bona facies, good face], adj. Pop. simple, aetless, credulous.

BONIFACE, sm. Pop. simple-minded man, green-horn, flat.

BONIFICATION, bonifikâsyô*n*, [bonifier], sf. 1. improvement (of land by tilling, of wine by keeping) ; 2. Com. extra tare.

BONIFIER, bonifié-r, [bon], va. [Je bonifiais, nous bonifiions; que je bonifie,que nous bonifiions], va. 1. to improve (as land by tillage, etc.). — les terres en les fumant, en les marnant, to improve land by manuring, by marling.

2. to make good : to make up or supply what is wanting. Si la somme n'y est pas, je vous bonifierai ce qui manque, if the sum fall short, I will make good the deficiency.

BONIFIER (SE), v. refl. to improve, to get better. Plusieurs choses se bonifient lorsqu'on les garde, many things improve by keeping.

BONIMENT, bonimâ*n*-t, [bon], sm. 1. mountebank's speech or tricks (to attract spectators) ; 2. Fig. puffing, claptrap, humbug.

BONISSEUR, bonisseur' [bon], sm. mountebank, charletan. — de théâtre, showman.

BONITE, bonit', [Low Lat. : boniton], sf. Ichth. bonito, stripe-bellied tunny.

BONJOUR, bô*n*zhour, [bon ; jour], sm. 1. good-day, good morning ; 2. morning call, short visit. Je vous souhaite le —, I wish you good-day. —, monsieur, good morning, sir. — à M. le docteur, my compliments to the doctor. Vol au —, theft by a person who enters a house under pretence of calling on a inmate. C'est simple comme —, Fam. it is as easy as kissing my hand.

BONJOURIER, bô*n*zhouryé, sm. a thief who enters a house under pretence of visiting a resident.

BONNE, bon', [fem. form of bon], sf. 1. maid-servant, servant-maid, servant-girl ; 2. nurse-maid, nursery-maid, child's maid. chilfdren's maid. — à tout faire, general servant, maid of all work. — d'enfants, nursery maid. Contes de —, nursery tales.

BONNE-DAME, bon'dam', sf. Bot. orache, mountain spinach.

BONNEMENT, bonmâ*n*-t, [bon, bonne], adv. 1. simply, fairly, frankly, sincerely ; 2. precisely, exactly, really : in this sense always accompanied by a negative. Elle convient — de sa faute, she frankly avows her fault. Il dit tout — ce qu'il sentait dans le moment, he simply expressed his feelings at the moment. Un honnête homme vous dit une chose — et comme elle est, an honest man tells you a thing plainly and as it is. Il a tout — menti, he just simply told a lie. Je ne puis — oublier cette offense, I really cannot forget that offence.

BONNEMÈRE, bon'mère, [Joseph- Eugène), historian (1813-1891).

BONNET, bonè ; the t is never heard in conversation ; in the pl. the s is pronounced as z with the following vowel : bonnets élégants, bonē-z-élégâ*n*, [orig. unknown], sm. 1. cap : a) head-covering for men and boys, generally without brim or peak ; b) head-dress for women ; c) the ensign of certain dignities or professions.— de coton, de laine, de soie, cotton, woollen, silk cap. — de nuit, night-cap. — du matin, — de dentelle, morning cap, dress cap (worn by women). Monter un —, to trim a cap. — de police, Milit. foraging cap. — à poil, bear-skin cap, grenadier's cap. — d'âne, dunce's cap, fool's cap. — phrygien, — rouge, Phrygian cap ; cap of liberty : the symbol of revolution. — de docteur, doctor's cap. — carré, cap of a doctor of divinity. Prendre le —, to take a doctor's degree. Les gros bonnets, the bigwigs, the dons, the nobs : the heads of a corporation or profession. V. Chapeau.

Proverbs and idiomat. phrases. — Être triste comme un — de nuit, to be sad or down in the dumps ; to be as dull as ditch water. Mettre son — de travers, to be cross, ill-humoured, waspish. Avoir la tête près du —, to be hot-headed, hasty, passionate. Prendre une chose sous son —, to take a thing into one's head, to take up with an idle whim. Parler à son —, to talk to one's self. Consulter son —, to consult one's pillow. Ce sont deux têtes dans un —, they are hand and glove together, they have but one mind between them. C'est — blanc et blanc —, there are six of one and half a dozen of the other ; they are just alike. Mettre la main au —, to touch (or raise) one's cap (in salutation). Coup de —, touching one's cap. Le — à la main, cap in hand. Avoir toujours le — à la main, to be always bowing and scraping. Opiner du —, to signify assent or adhesion without stating one's reasons. Cette affaire a passé du — au —, that affair was decided (or settled) without discussion, without opposition. Y jeter son —, to give it up, to avow one's self beaten (or nonplussed). Tous les avocats, après avoir tourné le cas en mille manières, y jettent leur —, all the lawyers, after viewing the case in a thousand ways, give it up as insolvable. La Font. Fab. II. 20. Jeter son — par-dessous les moulins, to throw off all moral restraint, all sense of propriety ; to defy public opinion.

[This expression often occurs in the conclusion of old nursery tales with a very different meaning :] Et je jette mon — par-dessus les moulins, and so my story ends ; and that is all I know about it.

2. Bot. — d'électeur, elector's hat, Turk's cap, squash : a kind of pumpkin. — de prêtre, spindle-tree.

3. Anat. honeycomb-bag, reticulum : the second stomach of ruminants.

† BONNETADE, bon'tad', sf. raising (or taking off) one's hat or cap.

BONNETAGE, bon'tazh', sm. Artill. cap (covering the vent of a cannon).

BONNETEAU, bonetô, sm. the three-card trick, card-sharper's game.

† BONNETER, bon'té-r, va. 1. to salute by taking off one's cap ; 2. to pay servile court to (a person), to cringe to, to fawn upon.

BONNETERIE, bonètri, bon'tri, sf. 1. hosiery : stockings and all knitted goods, made by hand or machinery ; 2. hosiery-trade or manufacture.

BONNETEUR, bon'tœr, sm. 1. toad-eater, toady : a fawning knave ; 2. card-sharper, sharper.

BONNETIER, IÈRE, bon'tyé, tyêr', smf. hosier (man or woman).

BONNETTE, bonèt;, sf. 1. Fortif. bonnet ; 2. Naut. studding-sail ; 3. Fort. fortified outwork ; 4. Phot. cap : extra lens to modify the focussing of distance. — maillée, bonnet-sail. — lardée, a sail covered with tarred oakum (used to fother a leak).

BON-PLEIN, bôn-plan, sm. Naut. Porter —, to keep the sails full (of wind).

BON-QUART, bôn-kar. V. Quart.

BONSOIR, bônswâr, [bon ; soir], sm. good-evening, good-night. Donner, dire, souhaiter le — à quelqu'un, to bid, to wish a person good-night. — à M. votre frère, say good-night to your brother for me. Dire — à la compagnie, to wish the company good-night ; Fig. to take leave of the world, to die. Tout est dit, bonsoir, there is nothing more to be said, let us drop the subject.

BONTÉ, bônté, [Lat. : bonitas, goodness], sf. 1. goodness : a) the physical qualities which constitute value, excellence or perfection ; b) the moral qualities which constitute excellence, moral virtue, justice ; c) kindness of heart, benevolence ; d) active kindness, acts of kindness, kind acts ; e) good-nature. a) — des terres, goodness (fertility) of land. — d'une marchandise, d'un vin, the goodness (good quality) of merchandise, of wine. — de l'air, purity (or salubrity) of the air. b) La — de Dieu, the goodness of God. La bonté est un des attributs de Dieu, goodness is one of the divine attributes. La — d'une cause, the goodness (or justice) of a cause. Plein de —, full of goodness (benevolence, kindness). Il a tant de —, he is so good, so kind. Traiter quelqu'un avec —, to treat a person with kindness. — divine, — de Dieu ! gracious goodness ! good gracious ! (exclamations of surprise). d) Il vous a comblé de bontés, he has loaded you with kindness, with favours. Vous avez eu la — de m'écrire, you have had the kindness to write to me. Il nous a reçus avec beaucoup de —, he received us with great kindness. [Ironic. :] Ayez la — de ne plus revenir ici, have the kindness never to come here again. Ayez la — de vous taire, have the kindness (or be so good as) to keep silent. e) Homme d'une extrême —, a man of extreme good-nature. Vous avez trop de — pour lui, you are too easy, too indulgent with him. C'est pousser la — trop loin, that is being over-indulgent.

2. Phrenol. benevolence : an organ placed in the middle of the upper part of the brain.

BONZE, bônz', [Jap.], sm. bonze : a Buddhist priest.

BONZERIE, bônzœri, sf. monastery of bonzes.

BOOTÈS, boōtês, sm. Astron. Bootes : a northern constellation.

BOQUET, boké, sm. a wooden shovel, used by salters.

BOQUETEAU, bokœtô, [dim. of bosquet], sm. spinney : a grove or small wood.

BOQUETTIER, bokètyé, sm. wild apple tree ; wilding, crab-tree.

† BOQUILLON, bokiyôn, [O. Fr. : bosquillon], sm. woodman.

BORACIQUE, borasik', [borax], adj. Chem. boracic.

BORATE, borat', sm. Chem. borate.

BORAX, boraks, [Ar. : bauraq], sm. Chem. 1. borax : a biborate of soda ; 2. (in an impure state) tincal.

BORBORYGME, bôrborigm', [Gr. : βορβορυγμός, murmur], sm. Med. borborigmus : rumbling in the bowels.

BORD, bor ; the d is always mute ; the s of the pl. may be pronounced as z before a vowel, but such is not the general usage. [Celt. : bord ; Eng. : board], sm. 1. Naut. board : a) side of a ship ; b) stretch sailed on one tack ; c) the ship itself. Le — du vaisseau fut enfoncé par une lame furieuse, the ship's side was driven in by a heavy sea. Le — du vent, the weather side. Le — sous le vent, the lee side. Rouler — sur —, to roll from side to side. Changer de —, virer de —, to tack about, to veer. Vaisseau de haut- —, (formerly) a ship fit to navigate the high seas as opposed to vaisseau de bas- —, one fit only for coasting and river navigation ; 2. man of war, ship of the line : a vessel having several decks. Bord à —, board and board, board to board, alongside, side by side. Les deux vaisseaux étant — à —, the two vessels being alongside each other (or being yard-arm and yard-arm). b) Le navire courait des bords, the ship was beating to windward, was sailing on alternate tacks. Courir — sur —, to tack and tack about : so as to keep always about the same place. Le bon —, a good board. Le mauvais —, a stern board. Courir le bon —, Fig. to be a pirate, to practise piracy ; (by extension) to lead a life of debauchery. [Fig. :] Être du — de quelqu'un, to adopt a person's opinions or party. Il est seul de son —, he is alone of his opinion. c) Étant passé de son — sur celui de l'amiral, having gone from his own ship to the admiral's. Aller (or monter) à —, to go on board. Aller à — de, to go aboard of. Coucher à —, to sleep on board. Hors le —, par-dessus le —, overboard. Jeter par-dessus le —, to heave (or throw) overboard.

2. border, edge : extremity of a surface. Le — d'une table, the edge of a table. Le — d'une robe, d'un vêtement, the border (or hem) of a robe (or gown), of a garment. Le — d'une plaie, the edge of a sore. Les bords d'une blessure, the edges, the lips of a wound (cut or gash). Le — de l'aile de ce papillon est échancré, the edge (or border) of this butterfly's wing is scalloped. Mouiller le — de ses lèvres, to wet the edge of one's lips. Avoir un mot sur le — des lèvres, Fig. to have a word on the tip of the tongue, at one's tongue's end. Avoir l'âme sur le — des lèvres, to be near breathing one's last, to be at one's last gasp.

3. brim (of a hat), rim or brim (of a glass, of a vase, etc.). Chapeau à larges bords, à petits bords, à bords retroussés, broad-brimmed, narrow-brimmed hat ; hat with brims turned up, cocked hat. Le — d'un verre, the rim of a glass. Un rouge —, a brimmer, a bumper : a glass filled to the brim. La rivière coule à pleins bords, the river is full to the brim. La démocratie coule à pleins bords, democracy has full sway.

4. shore : flat coast, beach, margin (of the sea, of an island). Il s'avança jusqu'au — de la mer, he advanced as far as the sea-coast, the sea-side. Venir au —, to come to the shore, to get to land. Les bords africains, the African coasts. Il regagna le — à la nage, he swam to the shore. Les bords sombres, Poet. the gloomy shores (of Acheron, Cocytus, Styx) : the infernal regions.

5. bank (of a river) ; margin, border, edge (of any piece of water). Sur le — d'un fleuve, d'un ruisseau, on the bank (or margin) of a river, of a brook. Les bords du Rhin, the banks of the Rhine. En suivant les bords du lac de Genève, in followng the borders or shores of the lake of Geneva. Sur le — d'une onde pure, on the margin of a crystal pool.

6. brink (of a well, precipice, etc.) : Fig. verge, eve (of the tomb, of an event, etc.) Le — d'un puits, the brink, curb, margin of a well ; Mason. puteal : low wall round the mouth of a well. Le — d'un précipice, the brink (or edge) of a precipice ; Fig. the brink (or verge) of ruin. Être au — du tombeau, de la fosse, to be on the verge of the tomb, on the brink of the grave ; to have one leg in the grave. Quand nous sommes au — d'une pleine victoire, when we are on the verge (or on the eve) of a complete victory.

7. side (of a road, street, field, etc.). Maison de campagne qui est au — de la route, a country-house by the road-side.

8. binding, border, lace (to trim garments). Six mètres de —, six metres of binding.

9. Bell-foun. sound-bow ; the thickest part of the rim of a bell.

BORDAGE, bôrdazh', sm. 1. Naut. planking : the plank covering the frame timbers. — à clin, clinker-work. — à joints carrés, carvel-work.

2. bordering, binding (of shoes, hats, coats, etc.) ; 3. Civ. Eng. sheathing, poling (of a coffer-dam).

BORDAILLE, bôrday', sf. Naut. rough plank.

BORDAILLER, bôrdayé-r, vn. Naut. to beat up to windward.

BORDÉ, E, bôrdé, adj. 1. Naut. planked : covered with planks ; 2. Naut. boarded or hauled aboard (as the tacks of a sail) ; 3. bordered : surrounded ; 4. Her. fringed, bordered. — à clin, clinker-built. — à joints carrés, carvel-built. Cette île est bordée de rochers affreux, this island is surrounded by frightful rocks. Un petit sentier tout — de ronces, a narrow path all bordered by briars.

BORDÉ, sm. border, binding (of clothes).

BORDEAUX, bôrdô, n. 1. Geog. Bordeaux ; 2. sm. Bordeaux wine ; (when red) claret.

BORDÉE, bôrdé, [bord], sf. 1. Naut. broadside a) all the guns on one side of a ship ; b) volley fired from them ; 2. Fig. volley. Lâcher une —, to fire a broadside. Une — à boulets rouges, a broadside of redhot shot. Une — d'injures, a volley of abuse.

3. Naut. board : the stretch which a vessel makes on each tack in beating to windward.

BORDEL, bôrdèl, [O. Fr. : borde, little house, cabin], sm. brothel : house of ill fame.

BORDELAIS, AISE, bordelê, ais, smf. 1. Geog. native of Bordeaux ; 2. adj. of Bordeaux.

BORDEMENT, bôrd'mân-t, sm. 1. Herald. border, bordure ; 2. Paint. border.

BORDER, bôrdé-r, [bord], va. 1. Ship-b. to plank (the sides of a vessel). — à clin, to plank with lap-joints. — à joints carrés, to plank with jump-joints. Vaisseau bordé à clin, clinker-built (or lap-jointed) vessel. Vaisseau bordé à joints carrés, carvel-built (or jump-jointed) vessel.

2. to dorder : a) to extend along the sides or extremities of, to surround, to skirt, to bound ; to put a border along ; b) to apply a border, binding, or edging for strength or ornament ; to arrange the edges or borders of anything. a) Des gazons fleuris bordaient son île, flowery meads bordered her island. Fén. Tél. 1. Le quai qui borde la rivière, the quay which borders the river. Un ruisseau borde ce jardin, a brook borders (or runs along) the side of this garden. Une allée de peupliers borde l'étang, an avenue of poplars borders the lake. Les précipices qui bordent la route, the precipices which border (or skirt) the road. — un champ de fossés, de haies de murs, to border (or fence) a field with ditches, with hedges, with walls. — une allée, une plate-bande, Gard. to border a walk, a bed (with trees, flowers, etc.)

b) — d'hermine un manteau, to border a cloak with ermine. — une robe d'un volant, d'une frange, to border a robe (dress, gown or frock) with a flounce, with fringe ; to flounce, to fringe a dress. — un volant de dentelle, to border (or edge) a flounce with lace. — à plat, to border with galloon, ribbon, etc., sewed on flat. — à cheval, to bind with galloon or ribbon turned over the edge. — un filet, to put a cord along the edge of a net. — un lit, to tuck in the bed-clothes. — des souliers, to bind shoes. — un rideau de bleu, to border a curtain with blue.

3. to line : a) to stand in line along ; to place in a line ; to man (fortifications). La foule bordait les rues par où il devait passer, the crowd lined the streets through which he was to pass. On borda toutes les rues de soldats, they lined all the streets with soldiers. — un retranchement, to line (or man) an entrenchment. Les défenseurs ne furent plus assez nombreux pour — les brèches, the defenders were no longer in number sufficient to man the breaches

4. Paint. — un tableau, to border a painting : to paint the outer parts of a lighter or darker shade to give relief to the subject.

5. Engr. to bank up (a plate) : to put a rim or border of wax round it before applying the aquafortis to bite in.

6. Naut. — une côte, to run along a coast. — une voile, — les écoutes, to haul aft a sail, the sheets (of a sail). — Un vaisseau ennemi, to follow an enemy's vessel tack for tack in order to watch its motions. — les ponts, to lay a ship 's decks. — les avirons, to ship the oars.

BORDEREAU, bôrd'rô, [bord], sm. 1. note, detailed statement or memorandum (of receipts, payments, etc.) ; 2. Law-t. account stated ; 3. Typ. note or bill (of work done). Faire un — des dépenses, to make a memorandum of expenses.

† BORDERIE, bôrd'ri, sf. 1. small farm ; 2. quantity of land that can be tilled with two oxen.

BORDEYER, bôdèyé-r, vn. Naut. to beat or ply to windward, to ply by boards.

BORDIER, bôrdyé, adj. 1. Naut. lop-sided or lap-sided ; 2. sm. a lop-sided vessel ; 3. farmer who shares the produce of land with the owner.

BORDIER, [Henri-Léonard], historian (1817-1888).

BORDIGUE, bòrdig', [Low Lat. : bordigala, dim. of borda], sf. Fish. crawl (for catching fish).

BORDURE, bòrdur', [border], sf. 1. border : a) edging, binding (of hats, clothes, etc. ; b) row of trees, flowers, etc., along a walk ; c) frame of a picture or engraving ; d) Typ. ornamental lines or figures round a page ; e) Herald. bordure. La — d'un manteau, d'un chapeau, d'un soulier, the border of a cloak, the binding of a hat, of a shoe. La — d'un bois, the skirts, the edge of a wood. Une — de buis, de thym, Gard. a border of box, of thyme ; a box border, a thyme border. — de pavé, kerb or curb, kerb-stone or curb-stone of a pavement.

2. Naut. foot : lower edge of a sail.

BORDURÉ, E, bòrduré, adj. bordered : having a border.

BORE, bor', [borax], sm. Chem. boron.

BORÉAL, E, boréal, al', [Borée ; Lat. : borealis], adj. boreal : north, northern. Le pôle —, the north pole. Les climats boréaux, the northern climates. Latitude, déclinaison boréale, north latitude, north declination. Aurore boréale, aurora borealis, northern lights.

BORÉE, boré, [Lat. : and Gr. : Boreas], sm. Poet. Boreas ; the north wind, personified.

BORGNAT, bòrnya, sm. Ornith. the wren.

BORGNE, bòrny' [orig. unknown], adj. 1. one-eyed : having but one eye, blind of one eye. Homme, femme, cheval —, a one eyed man, woman, horse. Jaser comme une pie —, to chatter like a one-eyed magpie ; to be always prating. Prov. : Changer son cheval — contre un aveugle, to change a one-eyed horse for a blind one ; to have the worst of a bargain.

2. Fig. deficient in some necessary or desirable quality (nearly always in an ill sense) : mean, shabby, paltry ; obscure, dark, blind ; lame, silly ; muddled, confused. Maison, appartement —, mean, shabby house, apartment. Cabaret —, low public-house, hedge ale-house. Fenêtre —, window that admits light, but afforts no external view. Conte —, silly, unmeaning, or unintelligible story. Compte —, confused or muddled account. Chou —, a cabbage deprived of its terminal bud and therefore incapable of boiling (or forming a head). Ancre —, Naut. 1. anchor with only one arm ; 2. anchor without a buoy to mark its position. Fistule —, Med. fistula with only one orifice or opening.

BORGNE, sm. one-eyed person : man blind of one eye. Prov. : Au royaume des aveugles les borgnes sont rois, the one-eyed are kings among the blind.

BORGNESSE, bornyès', sf. one-eyed woman : always used in an offensive sense.

BORIN, boran, sm. pitman, collier.

BORINAGE, borinazh', sm. 1. coal-digging ; 2. gang of pitmen (or colliers).

BORIQUE, borik', [bore], adj. Chem. boric. V. Boracique.

BORNAGE, bòrnazh', [borner], sm. 1. setting of landmarks : marking of boundaries in unenclosed fields ; 2. Nav. limited coast sailing.

BORNE, bòrn', [Low Lat. : bodina, whence bodne and borne], sf. 1. landmark : stump, post (of wood or stone) to mark the boundaries of land in open fields ; 2. pillar, column, post (to mark the boundary of a state). Maudit soit celui qui transporte les bornes de son prochain, cursed be he that removeth his neighbour's landmarks. Fén.

3. goal : a) winning post (of an ancient circus) ; b) starting-post ; 4. post (of iron, wood, or stone to mark distances on roads), mile-stone (in England) ; 5. post, street-post (to keep carriages off the foot-pavement in streets) spur post, guard-post (to keep wheels from injuring entrance-gates). — kilométrique, mile-stone (in England). Borne-fontaine, street-post containing a water plug for flushing the kennels. Il est là planté comme une —, he stands there like a post.

6. Fig. limit, bound. Les bornes que je me suis fixées, the bounds I have set myself. Rester dans de justes bornes, to remain within due bounds. Son orgueil s'éleva au delà de toutes bornes, his pride went beyond all bounds. Lorsque les passions ont passé toute —, when the passions have passed all bounds. Cette grandeur sans —, this grandeur without bounds. Mettre des bornes à l'ambition, to set bounds to ambition. Sortir des bornes, to pass all bounds.

BORNER, bôrné-r, va. 1. to mark the bounds (of a field, etc., with posts, stumps, stakes) ; 2. Gard. to press the soil round the root of a plant with the dibble ; 3. to bound : to be or form the boundary of. Ma propriété est bornée par un cours d'eau, my property is bounded (or I am bounded) by a water course. Le Rhin bornait l'empire romain, the Rhine bounded (or was the boundary of) the Roman empire. La France est bornée au midi par les Pyrénées, France is bounded on the south by the Pyrenees. Borné par mon sujet, confined, restricted by my subject. L'instruction bornée des paysans, the limited or restricted education of the peasants.

4. limit : to bound, to confine, to circumscribe, to restrict, to restrain. Ce bois, devenu grand, bornera votre vue, that wood, as it grows up, will limit (bound or confine) your view. Nous avons borné l'enseignement aux premières règles du calcul, we have limited (or restricted) the instruction to the first rules of arithmetic. — son discours, to limit one's speech. Henri le Grand borna la fortune de ce prince, Henry the Great set bounds (or put an end) to the successes of that prince. Une fortune bornée, a narrow fortune, limited means. Intelligence bornée, stunted (narrow or shallow) intellect. Homme d'un esprit borné, a narrow-minded man. Un homme borné, a man of mean capacity.

BORNER (SE), v. refl. 1. to limit, confine, content, or restrict one's self, one another, each other ; 2. to keep within bounds, to practise self-restrain. Je me suis borné à demander, à exiger..., I contented mys lf with asking, with requiring... Se — au strict nécessaire, to confine or restrict one's self to bare necessaries, to what is absolutely necessary. C'est un homme qui sait se —, he is a man who knows how to keep within bounds, how to practise self-restraint.

BORNIER, bornié, [Vicomte Henri de], dramatic poet (1825-1891).

BORNOYER, bòrnwâyé-r, [O. Fr. : borgnoyer, from borgne], va. [conj. like aboyer.] 1. to bone : to look with one eye (the other being closed) along a line, edge, or surface, to ascertain whether it is straight or even ; 2. to stake or stump out a line for building a wall, planting trees, etc.

BORRAGINÉES, borazhiné, sf. pl. Bot. boragineæ, boraginaceæ.

BORRAGINÉ, ÉE, adj. Bot. boraginaceous : belonging to the genus Borago or its allies.

BORURE, borur', [bore], sm. Chem. boride.

BOSAN, bōzan, [Ar. : bouza], sm. bosa : a Turkish drink.

BOSEL, bozel, [perhaps from O. Fr. : bossel, bushel], sm. Arch. torus.

BOSNIE, bosni, pnf. Geog. Bosnia.

BOSPHORE, bosfor, pnm. Geog. Bosphorus. Le — de Thrace, the Thracian Bosphorus : strait of Constantinople Le — Cimmérien, the Cimmerian Bosphorus, the strait of Yenikale.

BOSQUET boskè-t, [Lat. : boscus, wood], sm. 1. grove : thicket (of bushes), clump (of trees) ; 2. Fig. bush. Sa barbe en — s'élevait, his beard grew like a bush.

BOSSAGE, bòsazh, [bosse], sm. Arch. bossage. — rustique, rustic bossage, rustic work. — vermiculé, — à chanfrein, vermiculated bossage, channelled bossage.

BOSSE, bos', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. bump : a) swelling caused by a blow or fall ; b) Phrenol. a protuberance on the skull indicating an organ of the brain. S'il tombe, s'il se fait une — à la tête, if he falls, if he gets a bump on the head. Ne demander, ne chercher que plaies et bosses, to be always ready for a fight. Avoir la — de la musique, to have the bump of music, to have a natural talent for music.

2. hump, hunch : a protuberance caused by a deviation of the spine or of the breastbone. Avoir une — devant, une — derrière, to have a hump in front, a hump behind.

3. hump : natural protuberance on certain animals. Le chameau a deux bosses, le dromadaire n'en a qu'une, the camel has two humps, the dromedary only one.

4. dint, dent, bruise (or metal vessels) ; 5. knoll, hillock : a small round eminence of the soil ; 6. Anat. prominence, protuberance (on a flat bone) ; 7. boss : an ornamental knob ; 8. Tennis. boss. Donner dans la —, to fall into the snare, to be taken in.

9. Sculp. and Paint. relief, relievo ; 10. the round, plaster casts. Ouvrages de ronde —, sculptures in alto-relievo, in the round : statues. Ouvrages de demi- —, sculptures in mezzo-relievo : figures projecting half their thickness from the background. Peindre, dessiner d'après la —, to paint, to draw from the round, from plaster models or statues.

11. embossment (of gold or silver plate) ; 12. Naut. stopper ; 13. carouse, revel ; 14. Pop. tuck-out : hearty meal. Se donner une —, to have a good tuck-out. Se donner une — de rire, to split one's sides with laughing.

15. Slang. head. Rouler sa —, to roam about the world Tomber sur la — de quelqu'un, to pitch into, to attack anyone.

BOSSELAGE, bos'lazh', [bosseler], sm. embossing (of gold or silver plate).

BOSSELÉ, E, adj. 1. embossed ; 1. bruised, dinted, dented ; 3. Bot. torous, torose. Argenterie bosselée, embossed silver plate. Soupière d'argent toute bosselée, silver souptureen bruised all over.

BOSSELER, bos'lé-r, [bosse], va. takes a second l before a mute syllable: Je bosselle, je bosselais ; je bosselai ; je bossellerai ; je bossellerais ; que je bosselle ; que je bosselasse ; bosselant, bosselé.) 1. to emboss (gold or silver plate) ; 2. to dent (or dint), to bruise (any hollow metal vessel]. Vous avez bosselé cette cafetière d'argent, you have bruised this silver coffee-pot. [Bossuer is more correctly used in the latter acceptation.)

BOSSELER (SE), v. refl. to be (or get) dinted, or bruised. Cette écuelle s'est bosselée en tombant, this porringer has got bruised (dented in) in falling.

BOSSELURE, bos'lur', sf. 1. embossing, embossment (of gold or silver plate) ; 2. bump ; 3. Bot. embossment.

BOSSEMAN, bos'màn, [prob. from Eng. boatswain], sm. Naut. boatswain's mate.

BOSSER, bosé-r, va. Naut. to stopper ; to stow the cable.

BOSSETTE, bosèt', [bosse], sf. boss : a) Arch. sculptured keystone, etc. ; b) ornament of a bridle bit.

BOSSOIR, boswâr, [bosse], sm. 1. Naut. cat-head ; 2. bow. — du vent, weather bow. — sous le vent, lee-bow. Ancre de —, bower anchor. Avoir l'œil au —, to keep a sharp look out.

BOSSU, E, bosu, adj. 1. humped (on the back or chest) ; 2. hump-backed, hunch-backed, crook-backed ; 3. pigeon-breasted. Rire comme un —, to laugh heartily.

4. hillocky, humpy, uneven (as the surface of the ground). Faire des cimetières bossus, to make fat grave-yards ; to cause a great mortality.

BOSSU, E, smf. hunch-back, hump-back, crook-back.

BOSSUER, bosué-r, va. to dent or bruise (silver plate, etc.).

BOSSUER (SE), v. refl. to be (or get) dented, indented or bruised.

BOSSUET, bosué, [Jacques-Bénigne, Bishop of Meaux], church orator and writer (1627-1704).

BOSTON, bostôn, sm. 1. Geog. Boston ; 2. boston : a game played with cards.

BOT, bo, [perhaps Ger. Butt], adj. m. Pied —, club-foot. Un pied —, a club-footed person. Des pieds bots, club-feet. Les deux frères sont pieds bots, both the brothers are club-footed (or have club-feet).

BOTANIQUE, botanik', [Gr. : βοτάνη, herb], sf. botany.

BOTANIQUE, adj. botanical, botanic. Nos recherches botaniques ne furent pas heureuses, our botanical researches were not successful. Jardin —, botanical garden.

BOTANISER, botanizé-r, vn. to botanize, to herborize.

BOTANISTE, botanist', sm. botanist.

BOTARGUE, botarg', sf. V. Boutargue.

BOTHNIE, botni, pnf. Greg. Bothnia.

BOTHRIOCÉPHALE, botriosèfal', [Gr. : βόθριον, dimple ; κεφαλή, head], sm. Nat. Hist. bothriocephalus : an intestinal worm.

BOTHRION, botriòn, [Gr. : βόθριον, small cell], sm. Med. bothrion : an ulcer of the cornea.

BOTRYOÏDE, botrioïd', [Gr. : βότρυς, bunch ; εἶδος, form], adj. Mineral. botryoidal : botryoïd, clustered.

BOTTE, bot', [Celt. : bótel, bunch], sf. 1. bottle, truss (of hay, straw, etc.) ; 2. bundle (of celery, lettuce, asparagus, etc.) ; 3. bunch (of carrots, turnips, or radishes) ; 4. roll [of parchment, three dozen skins) ; 5. hank (of silk). Une — de foin, a truss or bundle of hay. Une — de paperasses, a bundle of old papers. Avoir, mettre du foin dans ses bottes, to have ample resources ; to feather one's nest.

BOTTE, bot, [of dubious origin ; Low Lat. : botta], sf. 1. boot ; Wellington boot. Une paire de bottes, a pair of boots. Des bottes fortes, molles, vernies, strong (or heavy), limp, varnished (or patent leather) boots. Bottes à revers, topboots. Bottes à l'écuyère, riding boots, military boots. Bottes de sept lieues, seven-league boots. Coup de —, a kick. A propos de —, irrelevantly, nothing to the purpose, without rhyme or reason ; by the by. Graisser ses bottes, to grease one's boots, to prepare for a journey ; Fig. to prepare for death. Il y a laissé ses bottes, he died there, he left his bones there.

2. Man. Serrer la —, to grip a horse with one's legs in riding. Ce cheval va à la —, this horse snaps at his rider's legs. Aller à la —, Fig. to say sharp things, to make stinging remarks.

3. step (of an old-fashioned family coach) ; 4. clod (of earth or snow that adheres to the boot or shoe in walking) ; 5. butt : a large barrel for wine, oil, etc.

BOTTE, bot, [Ital. : botta], sf. Fenc. lunge, thrust. — en tierce, en quarte, lunge in tierce, in carte. Pousser, porter une — à quelqu'un, to make a thrust at a person : to attack a person with sharp words.

BOTTÉ, E, boté, pa. p. ; adj. booted : in boots, wearing boots. Chat —, puss in boots. C'est un singe —, he is like a monkey dressed up.

BOTTELAGE, bot'lazh', [botteler], sm. 1. bottling, trussing (of hay, straw, etc.) ; 2. bundling : tying up in bundles.

BOTTELER, bot'lé-r, [O. Fr. : bottel, dim. of botte, bundle], va. [takes a second l before a mute syllable ; Je bottelle, je bottellerai.] 1. to bottle, to truss (hay, or straw) ; 2. to bundle : to tie up in bundles.

BOTTELEUR, bot'lœr, sm. 1. trusser (of hay) ; 2. binder (of wheat-sheaves).

BOTTER, boté-r, [botte, boot], va. 1. to make boots for, to supply with boots ; 2. to put on (a person's) boots, to help (a person) on with his boots ; 3. vn. to make boots. — un régiment de cavalerie, to supply a cavalry regiment with boots. Ce cordonnier botte bien, that shoemaker makes good boots (makes boots that fit well). [Fig. :] Cela me botte bien, that just suits me, that is just the thing for me.

BOTTER (SE), v. refl. 1. to boot one's self, to put on one's boots ; 2. to get clods on one's feet in walking ; [in speaking of horses) to ball. Sans être obligé de me —, without being obliged to put on my boots. Se — bien, to wear good, handsome or well-fitting boots. Se — mal, to wear shabby or ill-fitting boots.

BOTTERIE, bot'ri, sf. bootmaker's shop, boot-trade.

BOTTIER, botyé, sm. bootmaker.

BOTTILLON, botiyòn, sm. bunch, small bundle (or vegetables, herbs, etc.).

BOTTINE, botin', [botte], sf. 1. half-boot, ankle-boot : a short or low boot or high shoe for men and boys ; 2. boot : a high shoe for women and girls fastened with laces, buttons, or side springs. — de chevreau, kid boot. — de chevreau glacé, patent kid boot. — cousue à la main, hand sewn boot. — de cuir verni, patent leather boot. — de cycliste, cyclist shoe. — à double semelle, double-soled boot. — à élastiques, side spring boot. — de fatigue, walking boot. Bottines pour jeunes gens, boys' boots. Bottines pour fillettes, girls' boots.

BOUBOULER, bouboulé-r, [Lat. : bubo, owl], vn. to hoot (as an owl).

BOUC, bouk, [Ger. : Bock], sm. 1. male goat, he-goat, goat ; 2. goatskin bottle, skin (for holding wine, etc.) ; 3. Fig. bad (or wicked) man. Barbe de —, 1. goat's beard : a pointed beard on the chin only ; 2. Bot. purple goat's-beard, tragopogon pratense. — émissaire, scape-goat. Un — d'huile, a skin of oil. Les brebis et les boucs, the sheep and the goats : the just and the injust, the righteous and the wicked.

BOUCAGE, boukazh', [bouc], sm. Bot. pimpinella, anise. — anis, pimpinella anisum, burnet. — mineur, burnet saxifrage.

BOUCAN, boukân, [of Caribean or Indian origin], sm. 1. buccan : a) smoking-house for meat ; b) grating on which meat is smoke-dried ; 2. Vulg. uproar, row. Faire du —, to kick up a shindy.

BOUCANAGE, boukanazh', sm. smoke-drying (of meat, etc.).

BOUCANER, boukané-[boucan], va. and n. to buccan : a) to smoke-dry meat ; b) to hunt the wild ox.

BOUCANIER, boukanyé, sm. buccaneer : a) one who kills wild oxen for their flesh ; b) gun used by buccaneers ; c) pirate.

BOUCAUT, boukô, [from bouc : formerly goat skins used as bottles], sm. hogshead : a cask for sugar and other dry goods.

BOUCHAGE, boushazh', [boucher, to stop up], sm. 1. stopping, stopping-up (of an opening or hole) ; 2. corking (of bottles).

BOUCHARDE, boushard', sf. Technol. Mason. scappling-hammer.

BOUCHE, boush', [Lat. : bucca, mouth], sf. 1. mouth : a) the cavity situated between the jaws ; b) the outward orifice of that cavity, the lips, the face ; c) the lips, tongue, etc., considered as the organs of speech ; d) the cavity considered as the receptacle for food ; e) the parts of a horse's mouth on which the bit acts ; f) orifice, opening, entrance; muzzle (of a fire-arm). a) Se rincer la —, to rinse one's mouth. Il a toujours la pipe à la —, he always has a pipe in his mouth. Ouvrir, fermer la —, to open, to shut one's mouth. Flux de —, an excessive flow of saliva ; Fig. loquacity, talkativeness. Faire venir l'eau à la —, to make one's mouth water ; Fig. to make one long for (or desire to possess) anything. Avoir la — sèche, la — amère, to have a parched mouth, a bitter taste in one's mouth. Bonne —, a pleasant taste in one's mouth. Cela donne bonne bouche, that leaves the mouth sweet, leaves a pleasant taste in the mouth. Garder pour la bonne —, to leave something nice for a finish ; Fig. to keep the best of a story for the last. Avoir mauvaise —, to have a disagreeable taste in one's mouth, to have foul breath. L'excès de boisson donne la mauvaise —, excess in drinking leaves a bad taste in the mouth (or causes foul breath). Demeurer sur la mauvaise —, to leave off eating or drinking with an unpleasant taste in the mouth ; Fig. to put up with a reverse, a check, an affront.

b) Une grande —, a large mouth. Une — fendue jusqu'aux oreilles, a mouth stretching from ear to ear. Faire la petite —, to purse up one's mouth ; Fig. to be fastidious, difficult to please, disdainful. Faire la — en cœur, Fig. to be all smirks and smiles. Je le vis arriver un jour la — en cœur au ministère, I saw him as he came one day with smiling mien to the ministry. Cluseret, Mém. 61. Les coins de la —, the corners of the mouth. Elle a la — bien meublée, she has a fine set of teeth. Cette homme est fort en —, he is a man of violent language. Il avait le sourire sur la —, he had a smile on his lips, a smile played about his lips. Embrasser sur la —, to kiss on the lips.

c) Je le tiens de sa propre —, I have it from his own mouth ; from his own lips. Dire tout ce qui vient à la —, to say whatever comes into one's head. Avoir la menace à la —, to use threatening language, to speak menacingly. Dire quelque chose de — et non de cœur, to say a thing with the lips and not with the heart, to say one thing and think another. Avoir la — sur le cœur, to speak from one's heart. A pleine —, fully, roundly, in plain terms. Ouvrir la —, to speak. Ne pas ouvrir la —, not to open one's mouth, to remain silent. Être dans la — de tout le monde, to be in everybody's mouth, to be town talk. Par la — du prophète Isaïe, by the mouth of the prophet Isaiah. Le Saint-Esprit l'explique par la — de saint Paul, the Holy Ghost explains it by the mouth (preaching, writings), of Saint Paul. Fermer la —, to close, to shut the mouth. Fermer la — à quelqu'un, to stop a person's mouth. On s'efforça en vain de me fermer la —, they vainly attempted to silence me. Aller (passer or voler) de — en —, to go (pass or fly) from mouth to mouth. Être fort en —, to be a bold talker. Dans sa —, dans leur —, according to him, to them. La déesse aux cents bouches, the hundred-mouthed goddess (Fame). Saint Jean — d'or, Saint John Chrysostom (Saint John the Golden-mouthed ; so called from his eloquence). C'est un saint Jean — d'or, he is a fine speaker.

d) Provisions (or munitions) de —, provisions for the table ; victuals, meat and drink, eatables and drinkables. Assez friand pour la — d'un roi, dainty enough for a royal mouth. Être sur sa —, être sujet à la —, to be a slave to one's belly, to be a great eater. Prendre sur sa —, ôter les morceaux de la —, to stint one's self in eating, to pinch one's belly. C'est une fine —, he (or she) is a dainty eater (or an epicure). Avoir — à cour (or en cour) to eat at the royal tables ; Colloq. to have a knife and fork at court. Traiter quelqu'un à — que veux-tu ? to regale one with the best of cheer, with all sorts of dainties. Être à — que veux-tu ? Fig. to live on the best of everything, to live in clover. On fit sortir de la place assiégée toutes les bouches inutiles, all useless mouths were compelled to leave the besieged town.

e) Ce cheval a une bonne (or belle) —, this horse has a good mouth. — sensible (or tendre), tender mouth. — dure (or forte), hard mouth. Assurer la — d'un cheval, to accustom the horse to the bit. Ce cheval est fort en —, this horse is hard-mouthed, has no mouth. N'avoir ni — ni éperon, to mind neither bit nor spur ; Fig. to be as stupid as an ass. [Bouche is also used in speaking of the ass, mule, camel, elephant, etc. ; but not of carnivorous animals, for which gueule is employed except in natural history : Le lion montra une gueule menaçante, the lion showed his threating jaws. La — du lion est garnie de dents incisives, the lion's mouth is furnished with incisors.

f) La — d'un volcan, the mouth (or crater) of a volcano. La — d'un four, the mouth of an oven. La — d'un canon, the mouth (or muzzle) of a cannon. — à feu, a piece of ordnance : cannon, mortar, etc. — de chaleur, hot air vent (or hole). La — d'un fleuve, the mouth of a river. Les bouches du Nil, the mouths of the Nile. Prov. : Bouche de miel, cœur de fiel, a honey tongue, a heart of gall. On le dit de bouche, le cœur n'y touche, speak fair and think what you will. La bouche parle de l'abondance du cœur, out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. Il arrive beaucoup de choses entre la bouche et le verre, between the cup and the lip there is many a slip.

BOUCHÉ, E, boushé, pa. p. ; adj. 1. stopped, stopped up ; 2. corked, stoppered (as bottles, etc.) ; 3. stupid, stolid ; 4. Mus. stuffed ; said of certain notes of the French horn produced by thrusting the hand into the bell. Le trou dans la haie est —, the gap in the hedge is stopped (or stopped up). Bouteille bien bouchée, a well-corked (stoppered or stopped) bottle. Bouteille bouchée à l'émeri, bottle with a ground glass stopper. Être —, to be stupid, dull of comprehension. Avoir l'esprit, l'entendement —, to be dull-witted, thick-headed. Je n étais pas assez — pour ne pas sentir cela, I was not dolt (or fool) enough not to perceive that.

BOUCHE-BOUTEILLES, boush-bouteil, sm. bottle-corker : machine for corking bottles.

BOUCHÉE, bouché, sf. 1. mouthful ; 2. small tart or patty. — de pain, mouthful of bread. Il n'en ferait qu'une —, he would make but one mouthful of it ; Fig. it would be nothing to him.

BOUCHEMENT, boush'mâ*n*-t, sm. Arch. stopping up, walling up (a door-way or window.)

BOUCHER, boushé-r, [O. Fr. : bousche, bundle of branches], va. to stop (or to stop up) : a) to fill up a hole or opening ; b) to block up ; to obstruct a passage, a road, a view ; c) to cork, to stopper (a bottle). On boucha les fenêtres, they stopped (walled or boarded) up the windows. — la vue, to obstruct, to intercept the view. Les arbres nous bouchent la vue, the trees obstruct our view. Des chariots bouchaient le passage, waggons blocked up the way. — un trou, to stop up a hole ; Fig. to pay a debt. — une bouteille, to cork a bottle. Se — le nez, to hold (or stop up) one's nose. Se — les yeux, les oreilles, to close one's eyes, to stop up one's ears ; Fig. to refuse to see, to hear.

BOUCHER (SE), v. refl. to be (or get) stopped up. L'égout s'est tout à fait bouché, the drain is quite stopped up.

BOUCHER, boushé ; the r is always mute, but the s of the pl. is pronounced as z before a vowel [from bouc. : originally, a killer of goats], sm. butcher. Garcon —, journeyman butcher, butcher's boy. C'est un vrai —, he is a regular butcher (said of a very cruel man ; of a bungling surgeon ,or of a general lavish of his soldiers' blood).

BOUCHERAIE, boush'rè, sf. Orn. goat-sucker.

BOUCHÈRE, boushêr', sf. butcheress ; butcher's wife, female butcher.

BOUCHERIE, boush'ri, sf. butchery : slaughter-house, butcher's-shop; 2. butcher-row, shambles, meat-market ; 3. butcher's meat ; 4. corporation of butchers ; 5. butchering trade ; 6. Fig. slaughter, butchery, massacre, carnage. Viande de —, butcher's meat. Toute la — fut sur le point de prendre les armes, all the butchers were on the point of taking arms. Ce ne fut point un combat, ce fut une —, it was not a fight, it was a butchery, a massacre. La — de plus de 600 citoyens, the massacre of more than 600 citizens. Volt. Mœurs, 130. Mener, envoyer des soldats à la —, to lead, to send soldiers to almost certain death.

BOUCHE-TROU, boush'-trou, [bouche, boucher, to stop up ; trou, hole], sm. 1. stop gap : a) anything used to stop a hole or supply a deficiency ; b) a casual substitute (in any post or office) ; 2. padding : matter introduced to swell the bulk of a book, etc. [Pl. Bouche-trous.]

BOUCHOIR, boushwâr, sm. oven-block (when of wood), oven-door (when of iron).

BOUCHON, boushô*n*, [O. Fr. : bousche, bundle of branches], sm. 1. stopper or stopple : a round plug to stop a bottle, cask, etc. ; 2. cork : a plug of bark of the cork-oak ; 3. cap, cover, lid (of an inkstand, hot-air vent, etc.) ; 4. a game played by throwing at copper coins placed on a cork : pitch or chuck-farthing, pitch and toss ; 5. float (of fishing line) ; 6. knot or inequality in the fibre of silk ; 7. wad, wadding (for cannon). — de liège, cork (for a bottle). — de cristal, glass stopper or stopple. — à l'émeri, ground glass stopper. — de bois, de papier ou de filasse, a wooden, paper, or tow plug. Mettre un — à, to cork, to stopper (a bottle). Oter le — à, to uncork, to unstopper (a bottle). Faire sauter le —, to let fly the cork ; to uncork a bottle of sparkling champagne or any effervescing beverage. Il aime à faire sauter le —, he likes to crack a bottle, he is given to drinking. Ce vin a un goût de —, this wine tastes of the cork. Jouer au —, to play at chuck-farthing.

8. bush : used as a sign for a wine-shop, public-house, etc. ; 9. a wine-shop, public-house, tavern. Prov. : Les rouliers s'arrêtent à tous les bouchons, carriers stop at every public-house. A bon vin il ne faut point de bouchon, good wine needs no bush.

10. wisp (of straw or hay) ; 11. bundle, packet (of linen, etc., roughly rolled or twisted up). Frotter un cheval avec un — de paille, to rub down a horse with a wisp of straw. Mettre du linge en —, to bundle (roll or twist up) linen.

12. (term of endearment) dear, darling, pet. Mon petit —, my little darling.

BOUCHONNEMENT, boushon'mân-t, sm. rubbing down (of a horse, with a wisp of straw).

BOUCHONNER, boushoné-r, va. 1. to bundle, crumple, roll, or twist up (as linen, etc.) ; 2. to rub down (a horse) ; 3. to caress, to fondle (a child).

BOUCHONNER (SE), v. refl. to rumple, to crumple ; to get rumpled or crumpled. Des étoffes qui se bouchonnent facilement, stuffs that crumple easily, that soon get crumpled.

BOUCHONNIER, boushonyé, sm. cork-cutter dealer in corks.

BOUCHOT, bousho, [O. Fr. : bousche, bundle of branches], sm. 1. Fish. crawl, fishing hurdles (for catching fish at the ebb of the tide) ; 2. pond for feeding or breeding mussels, etc.

BOUCHOTTEUR, boushotœr, [bouchot], sm. one occupied with the breeding or feeding of mussels for production.

BOUCHURE, boushyur, [boucher], sf. 1. whatever serves to stop up ; 2. a quickset edge.

BOUCIROLLE, bousirol', sf. Ornith. judcock, jack-snipe.

BOUCLE, boukl', [Low Lat. : buccula, part of a shield into which the arm passed], sf. 1. buckle ; 2. ear-ring, ring ; 3. door-knocker (in the form of a ring) ; 4. curl (of hair) ; 5. Vet. Surg. ring (for mares, etc.) ; 6. Arch. annulet : a flat ornament on a round moulding ; 7. Nat. Hist. spine, thorn (on the thornback or raia clavata) ; 8. Naut. staple, hank, ring. — de ceinture, belt buckle, waist-buckle. — de jarretières, de souliers, knee-buckle, shoe-buckle. Des boucles d'oreilles, ear-rings. Boucles de diamant, diamond ear-rings. Mettre en boucles, to put (hair) in curl, to curl. Boucles anglaises, boucles en tire-bouchon, ringlets.

BOUCLÉ, E, bouklé, pa. p. ; adj. 1. buckled : fastened with a buckle ; 2. curled, curly (as the hair) ; 3. Ichth. armed with spines (as the ray or skate). Aux cheveux bouclés, with curly hair, with hair in curls ; curly-headed.

BOUCLEMENT, boukl'mânt, sm. Vet. Surg. ringing, infibulation (of a man).

BOUCLER, bouklé-r, [boucle], va. 1. to buckle, to buckle up : to fasten with a buckle ; 2. to curl (hair) ; 3. to curl (in a neutre sense). — sa ceinture, sa cravate, to buckle one's belt, one's cravat. — sa chevelure, to curl one's hair. — une personne, to curl a person's hair. Ses cheveux bouclent naturellement, his hair curls naturally.

4. Naut. to close (a port) ; 5. to lock up (prisoners) ; 6. Vet. Surg. to ring or infibulate (a mare) ; 7. Agr. to ring (pigs) : to pass an iron wire through the snout to prevent them from rooting up the soil.

BOUCLER, vn. to bulge, to bulge out (as a wall not properly bonded).

BOUCLER (SE), v. refl. 1. to buckle one's self : to gird one's self; 2. to curl one's hair ; 3. to buckle, to be buckled. Prenez votre ceinture et bouclez-vous, take your belt and buckle yourself. Elle est, tous les soirs, une heure à se —, she takes an hour to curl her hair every night. Ces guêtres se bouclent par le côté, these gaiters buckle at the side.

BOUCLERIE, boukløeri, sf. buckle-making, buckle-trade.

BOUCLIER, bouklié, [from boucler ; boucle, the boss of a shield], sm. 1. buckler : a) shield, a piece of defensive armour borne on the left arm ; b) Fig. person or thing that protects or defends ; protection, defence. Des soldats armés de boucliers, soldiers armed with shields. Faire un — de son corps à quelqu'un, to be a person's shield (or buckler), to interpose one's own body between a person and danger. Levée de boucliers, a revolt, rising in arms, demonstration of attack, opposition or resistance. Qui fut tantôt le —, tantôt l'épée de son pays, who was in turns the shield and the sword of his country. Le — de la foi, the shield of faith. Son âge, sa faiblesse est son —, his age, his weakness protects him.

2. Min. : a moveable frame-work used as a protection in underground work ; 3. Conch. patella, limpet.

BOUCON, boukôn, [Ital. : boccone], sm. poisoned food or drink. Donner le — à quelqu'un, to poison a person.

BOUDDHIQUE, boudhik, adj. Buddhist, Buddhistic.

BOUDDHISME, bousdim', [Sans. :buddha. wise], sm. Buddhism : the religion of Buddha, BOUDDHISTE, boudist', sm. Buddhist : a follower of Buddha.

BOUDER, boudé-r, [orig. unknown], vn. to pout : to thrust out the lips, as in sullenness, contempt or displeasure ; 2. to sulk, to be sulky or sullen. Un enfant qui ne fait que —, a child that is always pouting, always sulky (sullen, or in the sulks). Ils boudent l'un contre l'autre, they are sulky with each other. — contre son ventre, to sulk over one's food, to spite one's belly, to refuse to eat from ill-humour ; Fig. to spite one's self : to refuse (through ill-humour) what one would like to have.

3. to be unable to play (said of a person who, at dominos, has no tablet with the right number of pips). Je boude, I cannot play. [In England a player so situated simply says (Go !)]

4. to shrink from, to avoid. C'est un homme qui ne boude pas, he is a man always ready to act, to speak. (Actively). Cet officier passe pour — le feu, that officer is reputed to be shy of getting under fire.

5. Gard. to be stunted (or arrested) in growth, not to thrive. Ces jeunes pommiers boudent, those young apple-trees do not thrive.

BOUDER, va. to pout at, to be sulky (or sullen) with. D'où vient que vous me boudez ? why are you sulky with me ?

BOUDER (SE), v. refl. to sulk with each other. Ces deux amants se boudent, those two lovers are in the sulks ; there is a coolness between those two lovers.

BOUDERIE, boud'ri, sf. 1. pouting : thrusting out of the lips in sullenness or ill-humour ; 2. sulking, sullenness, sulkiness, sulks, coolness. Leurs bouderies continuelles sont impatientantes, their continual sulking (or sulky fits) are annoying.

BOUDEUR, EUSE, boudœr, œz', adj. and s. 1. pouting 2. sulky, sullen ; 3. sulky person. Un enfant —, a pouting (or sulky) child. Une mine boudeuse, a sulky look. C'est un —, une boudeuse, he is a sulky fellow ; she is a sulky creature.

BOUDIN, boudan, [ety. unknown], sm. 1. pudding : an intestine stuffed with edible ingredients. — noir, hog's-pudding, black-pudding. — blanc, white-pudding (made of milk and minced fowl). S'en aller en eau de —, to come to nothing ; to end in smoke, to fail. Envoyer de son — à quelqu'un, to play a person a scurvy trick.

2. large curl (in the form of a sausage) ; 3. roll (of cloth, tobacco, etc.) ; 4. cloak-bag : round valise strapped behind a saddle ; 5. spiral (or helical) spring (coiled in the form of a cylinder) ; 6. Arch. torus (of a column) ; 7. flange (of a railway carriage wheel).

BOUDINADE, boudinad', [boudiner], sf Cook. quarter of lamb stuffed with force-meat and roasted.

BOUDINAGE, boudinazh', sm. Spinn. roving, slubbing.

BOUDINE, boudin', sf. bull's eye : knob in the centre of a sheet of window glass.

BOUDINER, boudiné-r, [boudin], va. Spinn. to rove, to slub.

BOUDINIÈRE, boudinyèr', sf. filler : small funnel for filling hog's-puddings, etc.

BOUDINOIR, boudinwâr, sm. Spinn. slubbing-billy, roving machine.

BOUDOIR, boudwâr, [bouder], sm. boudoir : a lady's private sitting-room.

BOUE, bou, [orig. unknown], sf. 1. mud, dirt (of streets, roads, etc.) ; 2. mire : the mud or sediment in ponds, ditches, etc. Des rues pleines de —, streets covered with mud, muddy streets. Un tas de —, a heap of dirt. J'ai été couvert de — par un fiacre, I have been covered with mud by a hackney-coach. Tirer quelqu'un de la —, to raise anyone from the dunghill. Traîner dans la —, to drag in (or through) the dirt, mud or mire ; Fig. to defame, to run down, to blacken. Une âme de —, a grovelling mind. La Bruy. 6.

3. mud ; clay or loam used in building. Des cahutes de — et de paille, huts of mud and straw. Maison faite de — et de crachat, house built of wattle and dab, of lath and plaster. [Fig. :] Cet amas de —, ce tas de —, this earthly ball, this lower world.

4. dirt : anything of no value. Je n'en fais plus de cas que de la — de mes souliers, I value it no more than the dirt on my shoes.

5. (in a religious mystical sense) dirt, dust of the earth, the human body. Dieu avait d'abord animé notre — d'un souffle d'immortalité, in the beginning God animated our clay with the breath of immortality. Mass. Car. Il sent que cette maison de — s'écroule, he feels that this earthly house is crumbling away.

6. Fig. mire, dunghill, miserable condition. Aujourd'hui dans le trône et demain dans la —, to-day on the throne to-morrow on the dunghill.

7. pl. Boues minérales, mineral mud-baths. Prendre les boues de Barbotan, to use the Barbotan mud-baths.

8. Geol. dirt-bed ; 9. sediment, deposit (at the bottom of inkstands) ; 10. Med. matter, pus (of a boil or abscess).

BOUÉE, boué, [orig. unknown], sf. Naut. buoy. — en baril, nun buoy. — conique, can-buoy or cone-buoy. — de sauvetage, lifebuoy. Marcher comme une —, to sail like a tub, to be a bad sailer (of a ship).

BOUEMENT, bouman-t, sm. Join. franking (of sash joints).

BOUEUR, bouœr, sm. dustman, scavenger.

BOUEUX, EUSE, bouœ'z, œz', adj. 1. dirty, muddy (as streets, roads, etc.). Chemin —, a muddy road. Des eaux noires et boueuses, black-muddy water.

2. foul : not clear, as letter-press or engravings ; 3. badly executed (as masonry or joinery).

4. Naut. Ancre boueuse (or de boue), kedge : a small anchor for warping.

BOUFFANT E, boufân-t, ânt', [bouffer], adj. 1. puffing, standing out well (as stout silks, etc.) ; 2. puffed, ample, full (as a lady's dress). Étoffe bouffante, stuff that stands out well (that does not cling to the figure).

BOUFFANT, sm. puff (of a sleeve or skirt).

† BOUFFANTE, sf. hoop, farthingale.

BOUFFARDE, boufard', sf. tobacco-pipe, pipe.

BOUFFE, bouf', [Ital. : bouffa], adj. comic : used only with regard to the Italian operatic stage. Chanteur —, buffo comico, comic opera singer.

BOUFFE, sm. Buffo comico, comic opera singer. Les Bouffes, the Bouffes theatre (of Paris).

BOUFFÉE, boufé, sf. 1. puff : a) a sudden emission of breath from the mouth, of steam from a boiler, of smoke from a chimney. b) a whiff of smoke, hot air, or gaseous fluid ; c) a gust of wind. Il m'envoyait des bouffées de tabac à m'étouffer, he blew out puffs (or whiffs) of tobacco enough to suffocate me. Il nous empoisonnait par des bouffées d'ail, he poisoned us with whiffs of garlic. — de vent, puff (or gust) of wind. Une — de fumée, a puff of smoke. Une — de chaleur, a gust (or puff) of warm air. Le vent soufflait par bouffées, the wind blew in gusts.

2. fit, touch, outburst : sudden and transient attack of disease, etc. Une — de fièvre, a fit of fever. Une — d'humeur, de colère, a fit of ill-humour, of anger. Ne faire une chose que par bouffées, to do a thing only by fits, by spurts, by fits and starts.

3. Med. — de chaleur, flush : sudden heat and redness of the face.

BOUFFER, boufé-r, [onomat.], va. 1. to puff, to swell, to puff out, to swell out : a) to distend, as the cheeks in blowing ; b) to stand out, as stout silks, starched muslin etc. — de colère, to be ready to burst with suppressed anger. Ce taffetas bouffe, this silk stands out well.

2. to rise (as bread in the oven) ; 3. Mason. to puff, to blister as plaster that becomes detached) ; 4. to budge out (as a wall).

BOUFFER, va. Butch. to blow up (a calf, etc., before skinning).

BOUFFETTE, boufet', [bouffe], sf. 1. tuft ; 2. favour, knot of ribbons.

BOUFFI, E, boufi, pa. p., adj. 1. [with up or out) puffed, swelled ; 2. puffy ; 3. bloated ; 4. Fig. bombastic, inflated, puffy, turgid. Chair bouffie, puffy flesh. Un chérubin à la face bouffie, a chubbyfaced cherub. Corps —, bloated body. Être — de colère, de rage, to be bursting with anger, with fury. — d'orgueil, de vanité, puffed up with pride, with vanity. Style —, inflated or turgid style.

BOUFFIR, boufir, [V. Bouffer], va. to puff or swell up or out. L'hydropisie lui a bouffi le corps, dropsy has bloated (or puffed up) his whole body.

BOUFFIR, vn. 1. to swell, to puff up or out; 2. to be puffed, to get or become bloated or puffy. Le visage lui bouffit tous les jours, his face gets more bloated or puffy every day.

BOUFFIR (SE), v. refl. to get or become bloated or puffy.

BOUFFISSURE, boufisur', sf. 1. Med. intumescence : swelling, bloatedness, puffiness. — du visage, swelling of the face, a swelled face.

2. Fig. vanity, vain glory ; 3. puffiness, turgidness, bombast, fustian : in speaking of style or language.

BOUFFOIR, boufwâr, sm. butcher's bellows (used to blow up calves, etc., before skinning them).

BOUFFON, boufôn, [bouffe ; from Ital. bouffone), sm. 1. buffoon : fool, jester ; merry-andrew, jack-pudding ; clown ; droll or funny fellow ; 2. laughing-stock, butt. Faire le —, to play the buffoon. Cet acteur est un — amusant, that player is an amusing buffoon. Le — du roi, the king's fool or jester ; the court fool. Servir de —, to be a butt, a laughing-stock. [Sometimes used in the feminine :]C'est une petite bouffonne, she is a droll little creature.

BOUFFON, ONNE, boufôn, fon', adj. 1. guffoonish : droll, funny ludicrous, farcical ; 2. sm. the low comic, the ludicrous, the funny, the farcical. L'opéra — (or bouffe), the comic opera. Avoir une mine bouffonne, to have a ludicrous air.

BOUFFONNER, boufoné-r, vn. to play the bouffoon, to indulge in drollery.

BOUFFONNERIE, boufonœri, sf. 1. buffoonery ; 2. piece of drollery, practical joke.

BOUFFRON, boufrôn, sm. Ichth. cuttlefish.

BOUGE, bouzh', [Low Lat. : bugia, a little dwelling], sm. 1. closet, lumber room : 2. hole, kennel : a paltry lodging. Il est logé dans un mauvais —, un vrai —, he lives in a miserable hole, in a regular hovel. Des bouges les plus noirs, des figures pâles sortaient, pale figures came out of the blackest hovels, Flaubert.

3. bulge : the swell or belly of a cask ; 4. Shipb. camber, convexity (of timbers, etc.) ; 5. cowry : shell used for money in Africa.

BOUGEOIR, bouzhwâr, [from bougie], sm. 1. taper-stand ; 2. flat candlestick, bedroom (or chamber) candlestick.

BOUGER, bouzhé-r, [Ital. : bulicare, to boil, from Low Lat. bullicāre ; Provençal : bolegar, to agitate], [takes an e mute after the g before a and o : Nous bougeons ; je bougeais ; je bougeai ; que je bougeasse ; bougeant.] to stir : a) to move, to budge ; b) to make a hostile movement. Si vous bougez vous tomberez, if you stir you will fall. Ne bougez pas de là, do not stir from there. Il ne bouge pas du cabaret, he is always at the public-house. Les mécontents n'osèrent pas —, the malcontents durst not stir, durst not make a move. Il ne bouge pas d'un doigt, he will not budge a step, an inch. Nous n'avons pas bougé d'ici, we have not moved from there.

BOUGETTE, bouzhèt', [bouge], sf. budget : small bag or sack.

BOUGIE, bouzhi, [from the town Bougie, in Algeria, where great quantities of wax were produced], sf. 1. candle, taper (made of wax, stearine or spermaceti) wax-taper, wax-candle, wax-light. — de stéarine, stearine candle. — de paraffine, paraffin candle. Pain de —, wax-taper (about the thickness of a quill and wound like a ball of string). Aux bougies, by candle-light. Cette femme paraît très belle aux bougies, that woman looks very beautiful by candle-light. V. Chandelle.

2. Elect. spark. — à étincelle double, plug with double spark. — avec électrode en forme d'étoile, sparking plug with star shaped electrode. Allumage par —, sparking plug ignition.

3. Surg. bougie : an instrument of metal, wax, gutta-percha, etc., used for distending mucous canals. — médicamenteuse, medicated bougie.

BOUGIER, bouzhié-r, [bougie], va. to wax.

BOUGILLON, bougzhiôn, sm. Pop. person all on the move, a fidget.

BOUGON. bougôn, sm. growler, grumbler.

BOUGONNER, bougoné-r, [orig. unknown], vn. 1. to grow, to grumble ; 2. va. to scold.

BOUGRAN, bougrân, [from Boukhara, a city in Asia], sm. buckram : a strong canvass used to stiffen collars of coats, etc.

BOUGRE, bougr', [like bugger in English, derived from Lat. Bulgarus, Bulgarian. The Bulgarians are accused of being given to Sodomy], sm. Vulg. bugger, buggerer ; blackguard, ruffian ; Fam. fellow, chap. Ce n'est pas un mauvais —, he is not a bad fellow. C'est un bon —, he is a brick. C'est un vilain —, un mauvais —, he is a nasty fellow.

BOUGREMENT, bougr'mân, adv. Pop. Vulg. extremely, awfully. Il est — fort, he is awfully strong. C'est — difficile, it's awfully hard.

BOUHOURS, bououœr, [Le Père Dominique, a jesuit], prose-writer (1628-1702).

BOUI-BOUI, boui-boui, sm. Pop. Gaff. a low theatre, low pot-house.

BOUILLABAISSE, bouyabais, [from Provençal : bouiabaisso], sf. 1. Cook. bouillabaisse : sort of provençal fish soup ; 2. confused medly of things.

BOUILLANT, E, bouyân, ânt', adj. 1. boiling : scalding or boiling hot ; 2. Fig. fiery, impetuous, hot-headed. Eau bouillante, boiling water. Caractère —, fiery, impetuous temper. Homme —, hasty man. — de colère, boiling with anger. Bouillante jeunesse, fiery youth. S'il est prompt et —, if he is hasty and hot-headed. [Cook. :] Chaud et —, piping hot, all hot.

BOUILLE, bouy', [boule], sf. fisherman's pole (for beating the water) ; a basket carried on the back for bringing the grapes to the vats.

BOUILLER, bouyé-r, [bouille], vn. Fish. to beat (the water with a pole).

BOUILLERIE, bouy'ri, sf. brandy distillery.

BOUILLEUR, bouyœr, [bouillir], sm. 1. boiler tube (of a steam-engine) ; 2. brandy-distiller. — de cru, one who distils the products of his own growing.

BOUILLEUR, adj. Tube —, boiler tube.

BOUILLI, E, bouyi, pa. p. 1. boiled ; 2. waxed (as leather). Un visage de cuir —, a face like parchment skin.

BOUILLI, sm. boiled beef : beef that has been used to make soup.

BOUILLIE, bouyi, sf. 1. pap (for babies) ; 2. thickened milk ; 3. hasty-pudding ; 4. rag pulp (to make paper). Cette viande s'en va en —, this meat is boiled to rags. Une âme de —, Fig. a milk-sop. Faire de la — pour les chats, to lose one's labour, to take pains for no gains.

BOUILLIR, bouyir, [Lat. : bullīre, to boil], [Je bous, tu bous, il bout, nous bouillons, vous bouillez, ils bouillent ; je bouillais ; je bouillis ; je bouillirai ; je bouillirais; bous, bouillons, bouillez ; que je bouille, que nous bouillions ; que je bouillisse, que nous bouillissions ; bouillant, bouilli.] vn. to boil : a) to be in a state of ebullition; to be agitated as if boiling ; b) to be boiling or burning hot ;

c) to ferment, to effervesce ; d) to be boiling, or cooking ; e) Fig. to be fiery, fervid, vigorous. L'eau bout, the water is boiling. Le pot bout, the pot boils. La tête me bout, my head is burning hot. Le vin bout dans la cuve, the wine ferments in the vat. Quand les olives auront assez bouilli, when the olives have boiled enough. La viande bouillait lentement, the meat was boiling slowly. — du lait à quelqu'un, to do or say anything to please a person : this is the only phrase in which bouillir is used in an active sense. Faire —, mettre —, to cause to boil, to set to boil. En faisant — de la viande, in boiling meat. Faire — la marmite (or le pot), to make the pot boil, to keep the pot boiling. Cela fait — le pot, that keeps the pot boiling, that supplies the means of living. [Fig. :] Le sang lui bout dans les veines, he is of a fiery temperament. Cela fait — le sang, that makes one's blood boil (causes impatience, irritation, indignation). Il n'est bon ni à — ni à rôtir, he is neither fowl nor good red herring : he is good for nothing. Si la mer bouillait, tous les poissons seraient cuits, if my aunt had been a man, she would have been my uncle.

BOUILLOIRE, bouywâr', sf. boiler : any vessel for boiling water ; kettle, tea-kettle.

BOUILLON, bouyôn, [bouillir], sm. 1. bubble (of steam in a boiling liquid, of air in any liquid) ; 2. bubbling, ripple : small wave or billow of falling, running or gushing water. Bouillir à petits bouillons, à gros bouillons, to boil gently, to simmer ; to boil fast, to wallop. L'eau sort à gros bouillons, the water is gushing out. Il n'y faut qu'un ou deux bouillons, it must only just boil.

3. Fig. ebullition, burst, outburst. Les bouillons de la colère, the ebullitions of anger. Dans les premiers bouillons de l'impatience, in the first ebullitions of impatience.

4. broth (of beef or other meat) ; 5. Cook. stock : broth used for making soups. — de veau, de poulet, veal broth, chicken broth. — coupé, broth (or stock) weakened by the addition of water. — aux herbes, herb soup. Une tasse de —, a cup or basin of broth. Être au —, to eat nothing but broth, but spoonmeat ; to be on low diet. Boire un —, Fig. to swallow a pill, to experience a heavy loss (in speculating). — pointu, an enema (or clyster)

6. air-bubble, blob (in glass or metal castings) ; 7. Dress-m. puff, puffing : hollow plait 8. Agr. liquid manure.

BOUILLON-BLANC, bouyôn-blân, sm. Bot. mullein, cow's lungwort : Verbascum thapsus.

BOUILLONNANT, E, bouyonân-t, ânt', adj. bubbling, boiling.

BOUILLONNEMENT, bouyon'mân-t, sm. ebullition : a) boiling, bubbling, rippling ; b) Fig. agitation, excitement.

BOUILLONNER, bouyoné-r, [bouillon], vn. 1. to bubble up or forth (as water, etc.) ; 2. to gush out or forth (as water, from a spring, blood from a vein) ; 3. to boil over, to boil, to be boiling (with anger or passion). — de colère, to be boiling with anger.

4. va. Dress-m. to puff, to trim with puffings, to full (a frill).

BOUILLOTTE, bouyot', sf. 1. kettle, boiler (for water) ; 2. hot water foot-warmer ; 3. bouillotte : a game at cards.

BOUJARON, bouzharôn, sm. Naut. tot : a small tin measure for grog, about a gill, or one eighth of an imperial pint.

BOULAGE, boulazh, [from old boulir for bouillir], sm. boiling, as of linen in the wash.

BOULAIE, boulé, [O. Fr. : boul, for bouleau], sf. birch plantation, birch-wood.

BOULAINVILLERS, boulânvillé, [Comte Henri de], historian (1658-1722).

BOULANGE, boulânzh', sf. baking (of bread), bakery. Bois de —, oven fuel, wood for heating ovens.

BOULANGER, boulânzhé-r, sm. baker. Garçon —, journeyman baker. Il vaut mieux payer le — que le médecin, better pay the baker than the doctor.

BOULANGER, boulânzhé-r, [orig. unknown], va. to bake : to make bread. Elle ne sait ni — ni traire, she can neither bake (bread) nor milk (cows).

BOULANGÈRE, boulanzhèr', sf. 1. baker's wife ; 2. female baker.

BOULANGERIE, boulânzhri, sf. 1. bakery, baker's-shop, bake-house ; 2. baking, baking-business.

BOULE, boul', [Lat. : bulla, bubble], sf. 1. ball : a) a round body in the form of a sphere ; b) Fig. the earth. — de bois, wooden ball. — creuse, hollow ball. Cette — terrestre, this earthly ball : the world. Une — de neige, a snow-ball ; Bot. guelder rose. — d'amortissement, Arch. finial in the form of a ball. Faire la — de neige, to gather like a snowball ; to go on increasing. Un obélisque surmonté d'une —, an obelisque with a ball at the top (or surmounted by a ball). Être rond comme une —, to be as round as a ball. Cet enfant est rond comme une —, that child is as round as a ball, as plump as a partridge. Le hérisson se met tout en une —, the hedgehog rolls itself up into a ball. Perdre la —, Fam. to lose one's head.

2. ballot-ball : a ball used for secret voting in deliberative bodies, boards of examiners, etc. — blanche, favourable or affirmative vote. — noire, negative or unfavourable vote. La — blanche, la — noire, the winning ball, the losing ball (in certain games of chance). La — noire lui tombe toujours, he is always unlucky.

3. bowl (to play at bowls or skittles) ; 4. bowls (the game) ; 5. bowling-green, bowling-alley. Le jeu de boules, the game of bowls. Un jeu de boules, a bowling alley. Aller à la —, to go to the bowling-green. Avoir la —, to hold the bowl, to be the first to play. Aller à l'appui de la —, to drive one's partner's bowl near the jack ; Fig. to second, to aid, to assist. Tenir le pied à —, to toe the mark, to stand fair (at skittles) ; Fig. to stand firm, to hold one's ground. Faire tenir pied à —, to keep a person close to his work. A la — vue, hastily, precipitately. Aussitôt la — vue, without considering or reflecting. Après — vue, after due consideration or reflection.

6. Pharm. Boules de Mars, d'acier, or de Nancy, steel-balls (made of bitartrate of potass and iron). L'eau de — est bonne pour les contusions, steel-ball water is good for bruises.

7. Meubles de boule, buhl-work : cabinet-work incrusted with brass and tortoise-shell.

[BOULE, the inventor of this style of work, lived in the reign of Louis XIV.]

BOULEAU, boulô, [from O. Fr. boul ; Lat. : betula], sm. birch-tree, birch.

BOULEDOGUE, boul'dog', [Eng.], sm. bull-dog.

BOULÉ, boulé, sm. Ornith. plover.

BOULÉE, boulé, [boule], sf. graves : refuse of tallow.

BOULER, boulé-r, [boule], vn. 1. to swell or puff out the crop (as the pouter pigeon) ; 2. to swell, to rise (as bread in the oven).

BOULER, va. 1. Vulg. to floor : to throw or knock down (a person) ; 2. Fish. to beat the water. V. Bouiller, va.

BOULET, boulè-t ; the t is rarely pronounced in conversation, but the s of the pl. is heard as z before a vowel (boule), sm. 1. cannon-ball, round shot (as distinguished from shells or hollow-shot). — ramé, à deux têtes, chain-shot, barshot. Tirer à boulets rouges, to fire red-hot shot. Être condamné au —, to be condemned to penal servitude with a cannon ball chained to one leg. Tant qu'il me restera un — dans le caisson, Fig. whilst I have a shot in the locker.

2. fetlock-joint (of a horse's leg).

BOULETÉ, E, boul'té, [boulet], adj. Vet. Surg. crowned, swelled or dislocated (said of the fetlock-joint).

BOULETTE, boulèt', [boule], sf. 1. small ball ; 2. pellet (of paper, etc.) ; 3. Cook. ball of forcemeat ; 4. poison-ball : poisoned meat laid about the streets to destroy stray dogs ; 5. blunder, mistake. Faire une —, to make a blunder.

BOULEUR, boulœr, sm. Fish. beater.

BOULEUX, boulœ, [boule], sm. 1. cob, stout back, roadster : a strong saddle-horse ; 2. plodder : a man who works well. C'est un bon —, he is an industrious man.

BOULEVARD, boul'var ; the d is always mute ; but the s of the plural is heard as z before a vowel. [Ger. : Bollwerk, fortification], sm. 1. (formerly) bulwark : a) the rampart of a fortress ; b) Fig. protection, defence ; 2. boulevard : properly, a street on the site of old ramparts, but now commonly applied to any wide street lined with trees. Malte fut longtemps le — de la chrétienté contre les Turcs, Malta was long the bulwark (or rampart) of Christendom against the Turks. L'union des citoyens est le plus fort — de l'État, the union of the citizens is the surest bulwark of the state. Se promener sur le —, to walk on the boulevard. L'animation est très grande sur les grands boulevards, the animation is very great on the principal boulevards.

BOULEVARDER, boul'vardé, vn. to stroll about the boulevards of Paris.

BOULEVARDIER, ÈRE, boul'vardié, ère, smf. frequenter of the boulevards, one who leads the life of the boulevards.

BOULEVARDIER, ÈRE, adj. of the character of the boulevards ; referring to the boulevards.

BOULEVARI, boul'vari, sm. Vulg. rumpus, row, shindy.

BOULEVERSANT, E, boul'vèrsân-t, ânt', adj. overwhelming, prostrating, distracting.

BOULEVERSEMENT, boul'vèrs'mân-t, sm. 1. overthrow, destruction, ruin, wreck ; 2. commotion, turmoil, confusion, disorder ; 3. consternation, panic. Le — d'un rempart par une mine, the overthrow (or destruction) of a rampart by a mine. Le — des éléments, the commotion of the elements. Cette nouvelle occasionna un grand —, this news caused great consternation, a treat panic. Le — des idées, the confusion of ideas.

BOULEVERSER, boul'vèrsé-r, [boule ; verser], va. 1. to throw down, to overturn : to demolish, to destroy. L'ouragan, le tremblement de terre a tout bouleversé, the hurricane, the earthquake has thrown down (demolished, destroyed) everything.

2. to agitate, to toss about. Quand la surface des mers est bouleversée par la tempête, when the surface of the seas is agitated by the tempest.

3. to derange, to turn upside down (or topsy-turvy). — tout dans une maison, dans une chambre, to turn everything topsy-turvy in a house, in a chamber.

4. Fig. to upset, to unsettle, to throw into confusion (or disorder), to derange, to distract. Cet événement bouleversa toute l'Europe, that event unsettled (or convulsed) all Europe. Ce ministre a bouleversé l'État, that minister has thrown the state into disorder. — l'ancienne législation, to subvert the old laws. — les règles de la justice, to subvert the rules of justice. Cette nouvelle lui a bouleversé l'esprit, that news deranged his intellect. Cela bouleverse toutes mes idées, that unsettles all my ideas. Cela m'a tout bouleversé, that has quite upset (or unhinged) me. Vous avez bouleversé toutes mes affaires, you have upset all my things.

BOULEVERSER (SE), v. refl. 1. to be turned upside down (or topsy-turvy); 2. to give way to painful emotions, to go into hysterics, to take on. On dirait que le monde entier doit se—pour nous ménager un plaisir, as if the whole world must be turned upside down to procure us a pleasure. Cette femme va encore se —, that woman is again going into hysterics.

BOULEVUE, boul'vu. V. Boule.

BOULIER, boulyé, [boule], sm. 1. Fish. a kind of net; 2. Infant sch. ball-frame : an abacus for teaching children to count.

BOULIMIE, boulimi, [Gr. : βούλιμος, βοῦς, ox; λιμὸς, hunger], sf. Med. boulimia, bulimy : an unnaturally voracious appetite.

BOULIMIQUE, boulimik', adj. Med. bulimic.

BOULIN, boula*n*, [perhaps boule; Low Lat. : bolinus, embossed work], sm. 1. pigeon-hole : cell in a dovecote; 2. Mason. putlog-hole; 3. putlog : the cross-bar on which the planks of a scaffold lie.

BOULINAGE, boulinazh', [bouliner], sm. Naut. sailing on a bowline.

BOULINE, boulin', [Eng. : bowline], sf. Naut. bowline. Aller à la —, to stand on a bowline : to sail close to the wind. Courir la —, to run the gantlet : a punishment now abolished.

BOULINER, bouliné-r, [bouline], vn. 1. Naut. to stand on a bowline : to sail close to the wind; 2. Fig. to slouch : to walk with a slouching gait. Il va boulinant, to have a slouching gait.

BOULINETTE, boulinèt', sf. Naut. the foretopsail bowline.

BOULINGRIN, boula*n*gran, [Eng. : bowling-green], sm. 1. bowling-green; 2. lawn; grass-plot (in a pleasure garden).

BOULINIER, boulinyé, [bouliner], sm. plyer. Bon —, a good plyer : a vessel that stands well to windward.

BOULOIR, boulwar, [bouler], sm. Technol. 1. perch, pole; 2. Mason. rake; tool for mixing lime, mortar.

BOULON, boulô*n*, [boule], sm. bolt. — taraudé, [or à vis), screw-bolt. — à clavette, keyed bolt, cotter-pin or bolt).

BOULONNER, bouloné-r, va. to pin, to bolt : to fasten together with bolts.

BOULOT, OTTE, boulo, lot', [boule], adj. 1. dumpy : short and thick, said of persons; 2. a dumpy person.

BOULOTTAGE, boulotazh, sm. Pop. grub, food; feeding.

BOULOTTER, bouloté. vn. 1, to get, to jog along; Pop. to grub along; 2. Pop. va. to feed, to grub. — beaucoup de pain, to eat a lot of bread.

BOUQUE, bouk', [bouche; Lat. : bucca], sf. 1. Naut. narrow channel; 2. Fish. tunnel net.

† BOUQUER, bouké-r, va. and vn. 1. to force to kiss; 2. to kiss unwillingly; 3. to knock under, to submit; 4. Sport. to unearth (a fox, badger, etc.). Faire —, to compel a person to do what he or she would fain avoid; to compel (a person) to submit (or to knock under). Moi seul j'ai fait — toute la faculté, unaided, I made all the faculty knock under. Reynard, Lég. II. 10. Je le ferai bien —, I will make him submit.

BOUQUET, boukè, [form of bosquet], sm. 1. cluster, clump (of trees, shrubs, or bushes forming a grove or wood of small extent). Il y a un — de bois derrière cette ferme, there is a small wood behind that farm-house.

2. nosegay, posy : a bunch of flowers tied together; 3. bouquet : a large bunch of flowers artistically arranged. Un — de violettes de roses, a nosegay of violets, of roses. Ramasser des fleurs pour faire un —, to gather flowers for a nosegay, for a bouquet. — de mariée, bride's bouquet. — de ceinture, waist or breast bouquet. Donner le —, to invite to dinner, etc. Rendre le —, to return an invitation, to give a return invitation. Avoir le — sur l'oreille, to have a bouquet on the ear : an allusion to an old custom of attaching a bouquet to anything for sale; in ludicrous style, said of persons. Cette fille a le — sur l'oreille, that girl is on the look-out for a husband (or is in the matrimonial market). Cette maison a le — sur l'oreille, this house is for sale, is to be disposed of.

4. bouquet : the peculiar aroma of choice wines. Ce vin à un — délicieux, this wine has a decilious bouquet.

5. birthday ode, sonnet, or madrigal; 6. birth-day present. Je lui offre chaque année des livres pour —, I give him some books every year as a birthday present. J'ai donné à ma sœur un châle pour son —, I have given my sister a shawl as a birthday compliment.

7. bouquet : a number of rockets, etc., fired simultaneously at the end of a pyrotechnical display; 8. Fig. finish : crowning stroke or incident. Le — fut magnifique, the bouquet was magnificent. C'est le —, voilà le —, that is the finish, the crowning stroke, that is the best of all; Iron. that is the worst of all. Réserver une chose pour le —, to reserve a thing for the finish.

9. bunch (of cherries, parsley, etc. tied together); 10. cluster (of fruit, etc. growing on one stem). Un — de cerises, a cluster or bunch of cherries. Mettez un — de persil, de fines herbes, dans la sauce, put a bunch (or faggot) of parsley, of sweet herbs, in the sauce.

11. tuft (of hair, etc.) La queue de l'éléphant est terminée par un — de soies rudes, the tail of the elephant is terminated by a tuft of coarse bristles. — de plumes, tuft or plume of feathers. Il porte au menton un — de barbe, he wears a tuft of beard on his chin. — de paille, wisp of straw : used to indicate that a thing is for sale [Typog. :] Cette feuille vient par bouquets, this sheet comes in patches : when the ink is unequally distributed.

12. Vet. Surg. a scabby affection of a sheep's nose and face.

BOUQUETIER, bouk'tyé, sm. flower-vase.

BOUQUETIÈRE, bouktyèr', flower-girl, flower-woman.

BOUQUETIN, bouk'ta*n*, [dim. of bouc], sm. Zool. bouquetin; ibex or the Alps.

BOUQUETON, bouk'tô*n*, BOUQUE-TOUT, bouk'tou, sm. Fish. shrimp-net.

BOUQUIN, bouka*n*, [bouc], sm. 1. old he-goat. Cornet à —, goat's horn trumpet. Sentir le —, to smell rank.

2. satyr, demon. Pied de —, cloven foot.

3. buck hare, buck rabbit; 4. Vet. Surg. V. Bouquet, Nº 12; 5. tip or mouth-piece (of a tobacco-pipe).

BOUQUIN, bouka*n*, [Flem. : boeckin : Ger. : Buch, livre], an old book. Ce n'est qu'un —, it is a worthless old book.

BOUQUINER, boukiné-r, vn. 1. to hunt after old books, to rummage old book stalls. 2. to pore over old books); 3. va. to buck (said of hares and rabbits).

BOUQUINERIE, boukin'ri, sf. 1. lot or heap of old books; 2. old (second-hand) book trade.

BOUQUINEUR, boukinœr, sm. book-hunter, person fond of old books.

BOUQUINISTE, boukinist', sm. dealer in old books; second-hand bookseller.

BOURACAN, bourakâ*n*, [Ar. : barrakan], sm. barracan : a kind of coarse camlet.

BOURBE, bourb', [orig. unknown], sf. mire, mud (in stagnant water).

BOURBEUX, EUSE, bourbœ, œz', adj. 1. muddy, miry; 2. sloppy, splashy (as a road)

BOURBIER, bourbyé, sm. 1. slough, mud-hole, quagmire; 2. Fig. scrape, mess. Tomber dans un —, to fall into a mud-hole. Il s'est mis dans le —, he has got into a scrape.

BOURBILLON, bourbiyô*n*, [bourbe], sm. 1. Med. core (of a boil or furuncle); 2. dab (of mud, thick ink, etc.).

BOURBONNIEN, ENNE, bourbonian, yèn' adj. Bourbon : belonging or peculiar to the Bourbon family. Nez —, a Bourbon nose.

BOURBONNAIS, bourbonè, sm. Geog. Bourbonnais : an old province of France, now forming the Allier and part of the Cher.

BOURCET, boursè, sm. Naut. Voile à —, lug-sail.

BOURCETTE, boursèt', sf. corn-salad, lamb's lettuce.

BOURDAINE, bourdèn', BOURGÈNE, bourzhèn', sf. Bot. alder-buckthorn, berry-bearing alder; rhamnus frangula.

BOURDALOU, bourdalou, sm. 1. hat-band; 2. slipper : an oblong urinal.

BOURDALOUE, [Louis], pulpit orator (1632-1704).

BOURDE, bourd', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. fib : lie falsehood, whapper, bouncer; 2. sham, humbug; 3. Fam. blunder, bull. Donneur de bourdes, hoaxer. Il nous conte de jolies bourdes, he tells us some pretty stories. Faire des bourdes, to make blunders, to say foolish things.

BOURDE, sf. Naut. shore : spar used as a prop.

BOURDER, bourdé-r, vn. 1. to fib, to tell lies 2 to hoax, to sham.

BOURDEUR, bourdœr, sm. fibber, liar.

BOURDIGUE, bourdig', sf. Fish. a kind of labyrinth constructed to catch fish.

BOURDILLON, bourdiyô*n*, [bourdon), sm. stave-wood : oak staves for casks.

BOURDON, bourdô*n*, [Low Lat. : bordonus, long stick], sm. 1. walking-staff, pilgrim's staff; 2. lance (formerly used by knights). — de Saint-Jacques, Bot. marsh-mallow, althæa officinalis.

BOURDON, bourdô*n*, [bourde], sm. Typ. out : words omitted by the compositor. Il y a plusieurs bourdons dans cette feuille, there are several outs in this sheet.

BOURDON, bourdô*n*, [orig. unknown], sm. 1. bourdon : double dispason of an organ; 2. drone : continuous base note of the hurdy-gurdy, etc.; 3. bass or G-string (of a violin); 4. great-bell. Le — de Notre-Dame, the great bell of Notre-Dame. Faux —, (in plain-song) counterpoint note for note.

BOURDON, sm. 1. humble-bee; 2. (or faux bourdon) drone : male of the hive -bee.

BOURDONNANT, E, bourdonân-t, ânt', adj. humming, buzzing. Des essaims bourdonnants buzzing swarms.

BOURDONNÉ, E, bourdoné, adj. Herald. pommettee : rounded off. Croix bourdonnée, pommettee (or pomel) cross.

BOURDONNEMENT, bourdon'mân-t, sm. 1. humming, buzzing ; buzz, hum ; 2. murmur: confused noise. — d'oreilles, Med. singing or humming in the ears. — amphorique, Med. amphoric resonance.

BOURDONNER bourdoné-r, [bourdon], vn. 1. to hum : a) to buzz as flying insects ; b) to drone, to make a humming or buzzing noise ; 2. to murmur. Une mouche bourdonne à ses oreilles, a fly buzzes about his ears. Les abeilles viennent en bourdonnant, the bees come buzzing. On bourdonnait contre lui, they murmured against him.

BOURDONNER, va. 1. to hum. Il bourdonne toujours quelques vieux airs, he is always humming some old tunes.

2. to bore, to bother, to pester. Ne cesserez-vous point de nous — de pareilles bêtises, will you never cease pestering us with such nonsense ?

BOURDONNET, bourdonè, sm. Surg. dossil : tent or plug of lint.

BOURDONNEUR, bourdonœr, sm. humming-bird.

BOURDONNEUR, adj. humming.

BOURG, bour-k, [Lat. : burgus ; Ger. : Burg], sm. town, market-town, borough.

BOURGADE, bourgad', sf. small town or large village.

BOURGAGE, bourgazh, sm. Law-t. an estate held by burgage tenure.

BOURGELAS, bourzh'la, sm. a kind of white grape.

BOURGÈNE, bourzhèn', sf. V. Bourdaine.

BOURGEOIS, E, bourzhwâ, wâz', [bourg], sm. s. 1. burgher, burgess ; citizen mf. citizeness f. [in ludicrous lang., cit, citess] ; townsman, townswoman. Un — considéré, a respected burgher, (or citizen). Une riche bourgeoise, a wealthy citizen (citizen's wife or daughter).

2. (in a collective sense) the whole body of citizens. Le — a pris les armes, the citizens have taken arms.

3. citizen : townsman, townswoman of the middle classes ; 4. master m., mistress f., employer mf.; Fam. governor. Un bon —, a worthy citizen. Les bourgeois et les ouvriers, masters and men, the employers and the employed. Où voulez-vous aller, mon — ? where do you want to go, governor ?

5. commoner (not a noble) ; 6. civilian (not a soldier) ; 7. (in an ill sense) an ill-bred or vulgar man or woman. Il est sans goût, c'est un —, he has no taste, he is a vulgar (or common) sort of person. Un petit —, simple individual. En dépit de leurs manières, ce ne sont que des bourgeois, in spite of their manners, they are only shopkeepers. Le bourgeois-gentilhomme, the shopkeeper turned gentleman. Ils sont toujours en —, they are always in plain clothes.

BOURGEOIS, E, adj. 1. of or belonging to a citizen ; 2. substantial, valid.

3. private. Comédie bourgeoise, private theatricals : in which the actors are not players by profession. Maison bourgeoise, plain well-kept house (as opposed to a mansion or palace) ; private house or residence (as opposed to an hotel or lodging-house). Pension bourgeoise, private boarding-house. Une famille bourgeoise, a good middle-class family. Cuisine bourgeoise, good plain cookery. Habit —, private or plain clothes (as opposed to uniform or court dress). A la bourgeoise, in a plain or simple manner. Vin —, pure wine, good sound wine.

4. common, vulgar : unrefined, indignified. Avoir l'air —, to have a common (or vulgar) air (said of one not up with modern ideas, old-fashioned, behindhand with the world). Je n'aime pas leurs manières bourgeoises, I don't like their simple, commonplace manners.

5. (used substantively) common-place. Ce que vous dites là est du dernier —, what you say is of the lowest common-place, Mol. Préc. rid. 4.

BOURGEOISE, sf. Bot. a bright red tulip.

BOURGEOISEMENT, bourzhwâzmân-t, adv. 1. in a citizenlike manner : plainly, simply, unpretendingly, unostentatiously ; 2. respectably ; 3. as a private individual. Il a toujours vécu —, he has always lived respectably, plainly, unostentatiously. Se mettre —, to dress plainly. La maison est à louer —, the house is to be let to private residents (not for purposes of trade).

BOURGEOISIE, bourzhwâzi, sf. 1. citizenship : the rights and immunities of a citizen. Droits de —, freedom of a city, municipal privileges. Avoir droit de —, to be free of a city ; to enjoy the rignts of a citizen. Obtenir le droit de —, to take up one's freedom.

2. (collectively) the citizens or burgesses, the middle classes. S'allier à la —, to marry into a city family. La haute —, gentry, middle-class people.

BOURGEON, bourzhôn, [orig. unknown], sm. 1. Bot. bud (of a tree, plant, etc. — à fleur (or florifère), flower-bud. — à fruit (or fructifère), fruit bud. — à bois, à feuilles, germ, leaf-bud.

2. young shoot (of the vine) ; 3. Fig. pimple (on the face), grog-blossom (when produced by excessive drinking) ; 4. Surg. Bourgeons charnus, healing granulations.

5. pl. Comm. long-staple wools.

BOURGEONNÉ, E, bourzhoné, adj. pimpled, pimply ; covered with pimples.

BOURGEONNEMENT, bourzhon'mân-t, sm. 1. Bot. budding ; 2. budding time.

BOURGEONNER, bourzhoné-r, vn. 1. to bud (as trees, plants, etc.) ; 2. to put forth pimples, to become pimpled (as the face) ; 3. Agr. to tiller (as wheat, etc.)

BOURGEONNIER, bourzhonyé, sm. Orn. bullfinch.

BOURG-ÉPINE, BOURGUE-ÉPINE, bourghépin', sf. Bot. alatern, rhamnus alaternus.

BOURGERON, bourzh'rôn, sm. round frock, smock-frock.

BOURGMESTRE, bourgmèstr', [Ger. : Burg, Meister ; Burgermeister], sm. burgomaster.

BOURGOGNE, bourgoin', sf. 1. Geog. Burgundy ; 2. Bot. sainfoin, onobrychis sativa. Vin de —, Burgundy wine, burgundy.

BOURGOGNE, sm. burgundy : Burgundy wine. Une bouteille de — vieux, a bottle of old burgundy.

BOURGUIGNON, ONNE, bourghinyôn, yon, adj. and smf. Burgundian.

BOURGUIGNOTTE, bourghuignot, sf. 1. helmet worn formerly ; 2. barrel of Burgundy wine. A la —, in the Burgundy manner.

BOURIGNON, bourinyôn, sm. Fish. minnow-net.

BOURLE, bourl', [Lat. : burra, coarse woollen stuff], sf. sham, deception, hoax, mystification.

BOURLET, bourlé, sm. V. Bourrelet.

BOURLINGUER, bourlanghé-r, vn. Naut. to labour, to be laboursome : to work hard, to strain, as a ship in a heavy sea.

BOURNOUS, bournoù, [Ar.], sm. burnous : an Arab cloak. V. Burnous.

BOURRACHE, bourash', [Low Lat. : borago], sf. Bot. borage.

BOURRADE, bourad', [bourrer], sf. 1. Sport. snap, snapping (of a dog at a hare while running) ; 2. blow, thump (with the but-end of a musket), buffet, cuff (with the fist) ; 3. Fig. sly hit (thrust or punch), home-thrust. Brissac donnait à Fagon des bourrades devant le roi, B. gave F. some sly thrusts in the king's presence, St. Sim. IX, 423.

BOURRAGE, bourazh', [bourrer], sm. 1. Min. tamping (of a charge for blasting) ; 2. stuffing.

BOURRAS, boura, [bourre], sm. coarse hempen cloth.

BOURRASQUE, bourask', [Ital. : borrasca], sf. 1. squall : sudden and violent gust of wind. Le canot, à peine en mer, fut assailli d'une —, the boat had scarcely got out to sea when it was assailed by a squall.

2. Fig. fit, outburst, explosion of passion, anger, ill-humour, etc. ; 3. paroxysm : sudden and violent attack or relapse of disease.

BOURRE, bour', [Low Lat. : burra], sf. 1. short hair (of cows, horses, etc. used for saddle pads, making mortar, etc.) ; 2. tag-wool, flocks (used for beds). — de laine or — lanice, refuse wool, tagwool. — tontisse, flock-wool (shearings of woollen cloth). — de soie, 1. floss silk : the external envelope of the cocoon ; 2. silk waste : waste silk or refuse silk.

3. trash, rubbish ; 4. padding : (irrelevant matter inserted to swell the bulk of a book, etc. Il y a bien de la — en cet ouvrage, there is a great deal of padding in that work.

6. wad, wadding (of fire-arms) ; 7. chaff (of clover) ; 8. fibrous down (covering the buds of certain plants) ; 9. goat's hair boiled in madder.

BOURREAU, bourô, (orig. unknown), sm. 1. executioner : headsman, hangman, Jack Ketch. Fouetté par la main du —, flogged by the public executioner, by the common hangman. Valet (now aide) de —, hangman's assistant. Un — d'argent, a spendthrift.

2. Fig. tormentor, torturer. Le remords sera son —, remorse will be his tormentor. Le vice est lui-même son —, vice is its own punishment, its own Nemesis. Être le — de quelqu'un, to be a person's plague or torment. Être le — de soi-même, to kill one's self with work.

3. brutal fellow, cruel wretch, brute. Voyez comme il maltraite son cheval, c'est un vrai —, see how he ill-treats his horse ; he is a regular brute.

4. villain, rascal, scoundrel.

BOURRÉE, bouré, [bourrer], sf. 1. faggot of twigs or brushwood (without any large sticks) ; 2. Mus. boree : a) a dance tune ; b) the dance itself ; 3. Sport. netting (of quails). Prov. : Fagot cherche bourrée, like to like ; birds of a feather flock together.

BOURRÈLEMENT, bourèl'mân-t, sm. 1. spasm : violent pain ; 2. Fig. pang, anguish. Avoir un — dans l'estomac, to have spasms in the stomach. Le — de la conscience, the pangs of conscience.

BOURRELER, bourœlé-r, [bourreau], [takes an è before a mute syllable : Il bourrèle je bourrèlerai ; je bourrèlerais.] va. to torment, to torture. La conscience bourrèle les méchants, conscience torments (or stings) the wicked. L'ambition le bourrèle sans cesse, ambition is ever goading him. Une conscience bourrelée de remords, a conscience tortured with remorse.

BOURRELLERIE, bourèl'ri, sf. collar-making, harness-making (for draught-horses).

BOURRELET, bour'lè, BOURLET, bourlè, [bourre], sm. 1. pad : generally round with a hole in the middle ; 2. porter's pad (for burden on the head) ; 3. porter's knot (for burdens on the shoulders ; 4. chair-pad (with a hole in the middle) ; 5. padded cap (for children, to protect the head) ; 6. padding : listing put round doors and windows to keep out the cold) ; 7. circular excrescense (round the stem of a tree) ; 8. Artill. swell of the muzzle (of a cannon) ; 9. Med. swelling round the loins (in dropsy) ; 10. Vet. Surg. cutidure : a swelling round a horse's foot just above the hoof.

BOURRELIER, bour'lyé, sm. 1. collar-maker, harness-maker (for draught-horses).

BOURRER, bouré-r, [bourre], va. 1. Sport. to tear fur from (a running hare) ; 2. to wad, pad, or stuff ; 3. to ram down or home (the charge of a fire-arm) ; 4. to push, to strike, to belabour. — à coups de crosse, to strike or push with the but-end of a musket. — une pipe, to fill a pipe (with tobacco). Un matelas bien bourré, a well stuffed mattress. On le bourra de coups de poing, they belaboured him with their fists. —quelqu'un, (dans une dispute), Fig. 1. to hit (or press) a person hard (in a dispute) ; 2. to rate (reprimand, abuse, or taunt) a person.

5. to stuff, to cram (with food, etc.). — un enfant de pâtisserie, to cram (or stuff) a child with pastry. — un enfant de grec et de latin, Fig. to cram a boy with Greek and Latin.

6. Min. to tamp (a blast-hole).

BOURRER (SE), v. refl. 1. to rate (abuse or taunt) each other ; 2. to cram or stuff one's self (with food, etc.).

BOURRER, vn. to bolt, to run away (as a horse).

BOURRETTE, bourèt', sf. floss silk : the envelope of the cocoon.

BOURRICHE, bourish', [of doubtful origin ; perhaps from bourre], sf. basket (long and narrow, for carrying game, fish, etc.). — de volaille, de gibier, a basket of poultry, of game. — d'huîtres, basket of oysters (containing 12 or 25 dozen).

BOURRICHON, bourishôn, sm. Slang. head. Se monter le —, to get excited.

BOURRIER, bourryé, sm. 1. chaff, straw : anything of little value ; 2. wheat thrashed but not winnowed ; 3. shavings, parings (of leather).

BOURRIQUE, bourrik', [from Provençal : bourrico ; Lat. : burricus, little horse], sf. 1. she-ass ; 2. half-starved ass (male or female ; 3. a wretched hack ; 4. Fig. ass, donkey : a stupid person.

BOURRIQUET, bourrikè, sm. 1. ass's foal, young ass ; 2. shear-bench (of tinmen) ; 3. Technol. horse ; 4. Min. whim, windlass ; 5. boss (of a slater or tiler).

BOURRIQUIER, bourrikyé, sm. ass-driver.

BOURRIR, bourir, vn. Sport. to whizz (as partridges in rising).

BOURROIR, bourwâr, sm. Min. tamping iron.

BOURRON, bourôn, [bourre], sm. wool in bags.

BOURRU, E, bouru, [bourre], adj. 1. crabbed, crusty ; 2. churlish, boorish, morose, surly ; 3. peevish, testy, waspish ; 4. Engr. rough, indistinct ; 5. unfermented (as wine). Un homme —, a crabbed man. Un esprit —, a morose, surly, waspish spirit. Avoir l'humeur bourrue, to be of a crusty temper (or humour). Si Dieu m'a créé —, — je dois vivre et mourir, if God made me churlish, churlish I must live and die. P. L. Cour. Moine —, a phantom monk (according to popular superstition) ; a bugbear.

BOURRU, sm. 1. churl, morose, crabbed or surly man ; 2. Mason. rough ashlar. Un fieffé —, a regular churl.

BOURSAULT, boursô, [Edme], poet and dramatist (1638-1701).

BOURSE, bours', [Low Lat. : bursa ; Gr. : βυρσα, hide], sf. 1. purse : a) small bag for money carried about the person ; b) pocket ; c) money, riches ; d) fund for some particular purpose ; e) in Turkey, a sum of 500 piasters. Une — en acier, a steel purse, — en argent, silver purse. — de fantaisie, fancy purse. — filet, net purse. — en soie, silk purse. Une — pleine d'or, a purse full of gold. — lourde, bien garnie, heavy, well-lined (or well-filled) purse. — plate, — légère, an empty purse, a light purse. Coupeur de bourse, cut-purse, thief. N'avoir, ne faire qu'une bourse, faire bourse commune, to have but one purse, to have a common fund. Les disciples de Pythagore ne faisaient qu'une même —, the disciples of Pythagoras put all their money in one common fund. Tenir la —, les cordons de la —, to hold the purse strings. Je l'ai payé de ma —, I paid it out of my own pocket. Sans — délier, without any outlay, without spending a penny. Avoir la — bien garnie, to have one's purse well-lined. Faire — à part, to keep one's own money. Avoir toujours la — à la main, to be always paying money. Disposez de ma —, draw on my purse. Loger le diable dans sa —, to have the devil in one's purse ; to have no money. La bourse ou la vie, your money or your life. Prov. : Selon ta bourse, gouverne ta bouche, cut your coat according to your cloth.

2. small bag (for any purpose). — à jetons, bag for counters.

3. exchange, stock-exchange, change : a) money-market, for the sale of public stock or other negotiable securities ; b) place, building in which the market is held ; c) business hours on the exchange. Aller à la —, to go to the exchange. Bruits de —, stock-exchange rumours. Qu'a fait la — ? what has been done on change ? Le cours de la —, stock-list, list of prices, quotation of prices. La — a monté, a baissé, the funds have risen, have declined. Après la —, after change hours. Jouer à la —, to speculate in the funds. Faire un coup de —, to make a lucky hit by speculating in the funds.

4. (in public schools or colleges) exhibition, scholarship, bursary (in Scotland) : a sum of money granted to pay, wholly or in part, the expenses of a pupil's education. Une — entière, free scholarship (which covers the whole cost of education). Demi- —, scholarship (covering only half the costs). Des places gratuites qu'on appelle en France des bourses, free admissions which in France are called bourses.

5. saddle-bag ; 6. Sport. purse-net, bag-net [for rabbits] ; 7. Zool. pouch (of marsupials) ; 8. Bot. vulva : wrapper of certain fungi ; 9. Anat. sac : pouch, bag ; 10. Surg. suspensory : a kind of bandage ; 11. pl. Anat. scrotum ; 12. Bot. — à pasteur, shepherd's purse or pouch, cass-weed ; bursa pastoris.

BOURSEAU, boursô, sm. Build. ridge-moulding (for slated roofs).

BOURSETTE, boursèt', sf. Bot. shepherd's purse, cass-weed ; bursa pastoris.

BOURSICAUT, boursikô, sm. 1. small purse ; 2. savings, hoard. Il s'est amassé un petit —, he has accumulated a little hoard, he has laid by a trifle.

BOURSICOTER, boursikoté-r, [bour-se], vn. 1. to lay by, to save, to hoard money ; 2. to speculate in the funds (on a small scale).

BOURSICOTIER, boursikotyé, sm. petty stock-jobber.

BOURSIER, ÈRE, boursyé, syèr', smf. purse-maker.

BOURSIER, sm. pupil who holds a scholarship (or exhibition) in a public school. [Adj. :] Les élèves boursiers, the scholars, exhibitioners or bursaries. — de la marine naval cadet.

BOURSILLER, boursiyé-r, vn. 1. to club together, to contribute (small sums) ; 2. to empty one's purse.

BOURSILLON, boursiyôn, sm. small purse.

BOURSON, boursôn, sm. fob : small pocket.

BOURSOUFLAGE, boursouflazh', sm. bombast, fustian. Discours plein de —, speech full of bombast.

BOURSOUFLÉ, E, boursouflé, adj. 1. swollen, swoln, swelled ; 2. bloated, puffed up or out, puffy. Visage —, swollen face. Chair boursouflée, puffy or bloated flesh.

3. Fig. inflated, tumid, turgid, bombastic, (in style or language). Un mélange du style poétique et boursouflé, a mixture of the poetic and bombastic styles.

BOURSOUFLÉ, sm. 1. bloated man ; 2. the bombastic, bombast, fustian. Ce gros —, that great bloated fellow. Je ne puis souffrir le —, I cannot endure bombast.

BOURSOUFLEMENT, boursouflœmân-t, sm. 1. tumidness, bloatedness, puffiness ; 2. expansion (of a substance by heat or chemical action).

BOURSOUFLER, boursouflé-r, [bourse ; souffler], va. 1. to swell : to cause to swell ; to puff up or out, to bloat.

BOURSOUFLER (SE), v. refl. Chem. to expand : to swell, to increase in volume. Le sulfate de soude se boursoufle par la chaleur sulphate of soda expands when heated.

BOURSOUFLURE, boursouflur', sf. 1. swelling or rising of the soil through volcanic agency ; 2. Med. bloatedness, puffiness (of the cellular tissue) ; 3. Fig. turgidness, tumidness ; bombast, fustian, rant. Son style n'est pas exempt de —, his style is not free from bombast.

BOUSAGE, bouzazh', [bouse], sm. dunging (in calico-dyeing).

BOUSCULEMENT, bouskul'mân, sm. 1. turning upside-down (or topsy-turvy) ; 2. bustling, jostling (as in a crowd).

BOUSCULER, bouskulé-r, [alteration from O. Fr. bouteculer], va. 1. to turn upside down (or topsy-turvy), to tumble, toss or throw about ; 2. to hustle, to jostle. Quand il entre dans cette chambre il bouscule tout, when he goes into that room he turns everything topsy-turvy. La foule nous bouscule horriblement, the crowd hustles us horribly.

BOUSCULER (SE), v. refl. to hustle or jostle each other (or one another) to push one another about Ils se pressent, se bousculent sans s'avancer, they crush and jostle each other without getting any forwarder.

BOUSE, bouz', [orig. unknown], sf. ox-dung, cow-dung.

BOUSER, bouzé-r, va. Agr. to floor (a barn) with a mixture of cow-dung and clay.

BOUSIER, bouzyé, [bouse], sm. Zool. dung-beetle.

BOUSILLAGE, bouziyazh', [bousiller], sm. 1. cob : a mixture of clay and straw for building ; 2. cob-wall or mud-wall ; 3. Fig. botch, bungle ; botched or bungled work : any work badly executed.

BOUSILLER, bouziyé-r, [bouse], vn. 1. to build with cob, clay or mud ; 2. va. to botch, to bungle : to slubber or scamp (work).

BOUSILLEUR, EUSE, bousiyœr, yœz', smf. cob or mud-wall builder ; 2. botcher, bungler. Cette couturière n'est qu'une bousilleuse, that dress-maker is only a bungler.

BOUSIN, bouzan, sm. 1. sandvent : the soft outside of freestone ; 2. inferior turf or peat (for fuel).

BOUSIN, bouzan, [seems to be derived from Eng. bousing], Vulg. boozing or bousing crib : a low public-house ; 4. noise, row, rumpus.

BOUSINGOT, bouzango, sm. 1. sailor's hat ; 2. Pop. drinking-place, pot-house.

BOUSQUER, bouské-r, va. Naut. to compel to work.

BOUSSARD, bousar, sm. Fish. shotten herring.

BOUSSOLE, bousol', [Ital. : bossolo, small box, from Lat. : buxus, box-wood], sf. 1. compass, mariner's compass ; 2. Astron. Pixis Nautica, the Compass : a southern constellation. — de marine (or compas de route), mariner's compass, sea compass. — d'arpenteur (or à lever les plans), surveyor's compass. — de poche, pocket compass. — de mineur, miner's compass (or dial). — à prisme, prismatic compass.

3. Fig. guide, director ; rule (of conduct). Vos conseils me serviront de —, your counsels shall be my rule of conduct. Perdre la —, Fam. to lose one's head.

BOUSTIFAILLE, boustifaï, sf. Pop. tuck-out, feast ; Fam. grub, food.

BOUSTIFAILLER, boustifaïyé, va. Pop. to grub, to stuff, to tuck in ; to guzzle drink.

BOUSTROPHÉDON, boustrofédon, [Gr. : βοῦς, ox ; στρέφω, I turn], sm. Antiq. boustrophedon : manner of writing alternatively from right to left, and from left to right (turning about as oxen do in ploughing).

BOUT, bou-t, [bouter], sm. 1. end : a) the extremity ; b) last or remotest part, in a general sense ; c) close, conclusion ; d) tip (of the ear, nose, tongue, etc.) ; e) bit, scrap, fragment ; f) way, manner, side. a) Le —, les deux bouts d'un bâton, the end, the two ends of a stick. Le — d'une rue, d'une galerie, d'un jardin, the end of a street, of a gallery, of a garden. Le mot qui est au — de la ligne, the word at the end of the line. Le haut — d'une table, the upper end of a table : the place of honour.

b) Il est logé à l'autre — de la ville, he lodges at the other end of the town. Aux deux bouts de la terre, to or at the ends of the world, all the world over. D'un — du monde à l'autre, from one end of the world to the other. Être logé au — du monde, to live in a remote quarter, in an out-of-the-way place. C'est le — du monde, c'est tout le — du monde, it is the very most, the very utmost. S'il a cent écus chez lui, c'est tout le — du monde, if he has a hundred crowns in hand, that is the very utmost. Si je vous écris lundi, c'est tout le — du monde, if I write to you on Monday, that will be the utmost I can do.

c) Le — de l'année, the end (or close) of the year. Au — de huit jours, at the end of a week, in a week's time. Être au — de sa carrière, to be near one's end, near the close of one's life. Joindre les deux bouts de l'an, to make both ends meet, to live within one's income. Il est à peu près au — de son travail, he is near the end of his work. Le — d'un sermon, d'un discours, the end (or close) of a sermon, of a speech. Il faut l'entendre jusqu'au —, you must hear him to the end, must hear him out. Au — du compte, after all, when all is said and done. Il est au — de son argent, he has got through his money. Quand il aurait un million, il en trouverait bientôt le —, had he a million, he would soon see the last of it. Être au — de son rôle, de son rôlet, de son rouleau, to be at the end of one's tether, at one's wit's end. Il n'est pas au —, he is not at the end of his troubles, he has more to suffer yet. — de l'an, service de — de l'an, anniversary mass for the dead (celebrated a year after death).

d) Le — de la langue, the tongue's end, the tip of the tongue. Le — de l'oreille, du nez, the tip (or end) of the ear, of the nose. Il a tout cela au — de la langue, de la plume, he has all that at his tongue's end, at his finger's end ; he speaks and writes on that subject with the utmost ease. Avoir un mot sur le — de la langue, to have a word at one's tongue's end. Dire une chose du — des dents, (or des lèvres), to say a thing without really meaning it. Rire du — des dents, to force a laugh. Montrer le — de l'oreille, to betray one's self, one's real intentions or feelings. Toucher du — du doigt, to touch lightly. Toucher à une chose du — du doigt, to be near attaining one's object, to be within a touch. Des bouts d'ailes, 1. fowl's wings (considered as a viand) ; 2. pinions, firsts : the quills from the end of a goose's wing. Mener quelqu'un par le — du nez, to lead a person by the nose. Il ne voit pas plus loin que le — de son nez, he sees no farther than the end of his nose.

e) Un — de lettre, a bit of a letter, a short letter. Un — de sermon, a short sermon. Des bouts de ruban, de corde, odds and ends of ribbon, of string. Un — de corde, Naut. a rope's end. Un — de chandelle, a candle's end. Des bouts de chandelle, candle-ends. Une économie de bouts de chandelle, paltry savings. Un — d'homme, a bit of a man, a diminutive man. Nous avons encore un bon — de chemin à faire, we have still a good bit of ground to get over. V. Chandelle.

f) Le bon —, the right end or way. Prendre une chose par le bon —, to take a thing by the right end, to get the right way to work. Par quelque — que vous preniez cette affaire, whichever way you take (or view) this affair. Prendre quelqu'un par tous les bouts, to circumvent a person on all sides. On ne sait par quel — le prendre, one does not know how to have (or take) him. Se mettre sur le bon —, to establish one's self on a grand footing, in grand style.

2. nipple (of the breast. V. Sein) ; 3. ferrule, tip (of a walking-stick, etc.) ; 4. button (of a foil) ; 5. muzzle (of a fire-arm). Appuyer le — d'un pistolet sur la poitrine de quelqu'un, to clap the muzzle of a pistol to a person's breast. A — portant, with the muzzle close to the object fired at ; Fig. point blank.

6. Ichth. sunfish, orthagoriscus mola ; 7. Naut. head ; bows (of a ship). Ce bâtiment a le — à terre, that vessel stands head to land. — au vent, head to wind.

À BOUT, adv. phr. at an end, exhausted. Être à —, to be exhausted, knocked up, done over. Ma patience est à —, my patience is exhausted, I am out of patience. Mon cheval était à —, my horse was knocked up. Être au — de ses peines, to be out of one's troubles. Vous n'êtes pas encore au —, you have not done yet. Nous sommes à — de ressources, our resources are quite exhausted. Il était bientôt au — de son rouleau, Fig. he was soon at his wit's end. Mettre à —, to overcome, to subdue ; to tire out, to put out of patience. Il me met à —, il met ma patience à —, he puts me out of patience, he tires out my patience. Pousser à —, to drive (or push) to extremity, to extremes ; to nonplus. Le peuple poussé à — par tant d'injustices, the people driven to extremity by so much injustice. Pousser à — ses maximes, to carry one's maxims to extremes. Prov : Au bout du fossé la culbute, a short life and a merry one ; let the worst come to the worst. Au bout le bout, the worst must come to an end.

À BOUT DE, pr. phr. Venir à — de, to overcome, to subdue, to get the better of, to succeed in : to manage. Il croit que son remède viendra à — de tout, he believes that his remedy will cure everything. Sans pouvoir venir à — de cette difficulté, without being able to overcome that difficulty. En viendrez-vous à — ? shall you be able to manage it ? Je n'ai jamais pu venir à — de ce livre, I have never been able to get to the end of that book. J'ai eu bien de la peine à en venir à —, I had a hard job to get through it.

À TOUT BOUT DE CHAMP, adv. phr. at every turn, every moment, incessantly, continually.

BOUT À BOUT, adv. phr. end to end. Tuyaux assemblés — à —, tubes joined end to end. Mettre — à —, to join together, to put or add together. Mettez — à — ces morceaux de ruban, join these bits of ribbon end to end. Si l'on mettait — à — toutes les heures qu'on perd, if we were to put together all the hours we lose.

D'UN BOUT A L'AUTRE, DE BOUT EN BOUT, adv. phr. from one end to the other, from end to end, from beginning to end. J'ai parcouru le parc d'un — à l'autre, I have gone over the park from end to end. J'ai entendu son discours d'un — à l'autre, I heard his speech from beginning to end. Elle lui dit de — en — toute la vérité, she told him the whole truth from beginning to end.

BOUTADE, boutad', [bouter], sf. 1. sally : sudden spurt or outburst of wit or humour ; 2. whim, freak, caprice. Poussez jusqu'à l'excès ma critique —, to carry to extremes my critical sally. Gens à boutades, whimsical people. D'où vient cette — ? whence this whim ? Par boutades, by fits and starts.

BOUTAGE, boutazh', sm. Pin-mak. papering (of pins).

BOUTANT, boutân, adj. m. Arch. V. Arc-boutant.

BOUT-À-PORT, BOUTE-À-PORT, bout à pôr, sm. Naut. harbour-master : person charged with the berthing of vessels in port.

BOUTARGUE, boutarg', BOTARGUE, botarg', [through Provençal boutargo, from Ar. boutarka], sm. botargo : pickled spawn of fish.

BOUT-DEHORS, boudœôr, sm. Naut. boom, studding-sail boom. — de beaupré, bowsprit boom.

BOUTE, bout', [Provençal : bouto], sf. 1. cask (for wine) ; 2. hogshead (for tobacco) ; 3. tub.

BOUTÉ, E, bouté, adj. 1. turned ropy (as wine) ; 2. Vet. Surg. straight-legged (as a horse).

BOUTE-CHARGE, bout-sharge, sm. Milit. bugle call for loading waggons and horses.

BOUTÉE, bouté, sf. Arch. abutment (of a bridge, arch or terrace).

BOUTE-DEHORS, boutdœôr, sm. 1. Naut. boom ; 2. puss-in-a-corner : a childish game. [Fig. :] Ils jouent à —, Fig. they are trying to supplant each other.

BOUTE-EN-TRAIN, boutântran, sm. [Pl. Boute-en-train]. 1. teaser : an old stallion kept near brood mares ; 2. piper : a bird that excites others to sing ; 3. exciter of mirth and gaiety. C'est le — de la compagnie, he is the life and soul of the company.

BOUTEFEU, bout'fœ, [bouter ; feu], sm. 1. Artill. linstock ; 2. gunner ; 3. incendiary ; 4. Fig. fire-brand, make-bate.

BOUTE-HORS, bout'hôr, sm. Naut. outrigger.

BOUTEILLE, boutèy, [Low Lat. : butticula, dim. of butta, a vase], sf. 1. bottle : a) a vessel with a narrow neck ; b) bottleful, the contents of a bottle. — de verre, de grès, de cuir, a glass, stone, leather bottle. Boucher, déboucher, décoiffer, to cork, uncork, to crack a bottle. Mettre en —, to bottle. Vider une — to empty, to drain a bottle. Laisser sa raison, ses sens au fond de la —, to leave one's reason, one's senses, at the bottom of the bottle. La — est sur le côté, the bottle is empty. Mettre une — sur le côté, to drink a bottle of wine. N'avoir rien vu que par le trou d'une —, Fig. to have taken only a very narrow view of things, to be ignorant of the world. La dive —, the divine bottle ; Rosy Bacchus. C'est la — à l'encre, Fig. it is a very obscure affair. Être dans la —, to be in the secret, in the intrigue, or plot. Je ne suis pas dans la — à l'encre, I am not in the secret. Porter les bouteilles, Fig. to walk gingerly (cautiously, as if carrying bottles). Il était avec moi dans la — du mariage, he was with me in the secret of the marriage.

b) — de vin, de bière, bottle of wine, beer. Ils avaient bu une — ensemble, they had drunk a bottle together. Aimer la —, to like the bottle, to be addicted to drinking. Payer —, to treat with a bottle. Payer une — à quelqu'un, to stand a bottle ; to treat a person to a bottle. Maison de —, small country house, lodge.

2. † bubble. — de savon, a soap-bubble ; 3. Electr. — de Leyde, Leyden jar or phial. 4. Vet. Surg. soft tumour between the branches of the lower jaw (of an animal) ; 5. bucket (of a chain pump).

6. pl. Naut. necessary, privy (of a ship).

BOUTEILLER, boutéyé-r nm. butler.

BOUTEILLER, vn. Glass-bl. to become full of air-bubbles.

BOUTE-LOF, bout'lof, sm. Naut. tack-boom, tack-piece.

BOUTER, bouté-r, [bout ; O. Fr. : bouter for mettre, to put], va. 1. to put ; 2. to paper (pins) ; 3. to flesh (a hide) ; 4. Naut. to push off (a boat) ; 5. Sport. to star, to put up (game). Quelle fantaisie s'est-il boutée dans la tête, what whim has he got into his head ?

BOUTER, vn. to get thick or ropy (as wine)

BOUTEROLLE, bout'rol', [bouter], sf. 1. chape (of a scabbard) ; 2. button-makers punch ; 3. lapidary's drill.

BOUTE-SELLE, bout'sèl, sm. Milit. trumpet sound to saddle ; boot and saddle.

† BOUTE-TOUT-CUIR, bout'toukuir', sm. spendthrift.

BOUTEUSE, boutœz', sf. pin-sticker.

† BOUTILLIER, boutiyé, [bouteille], sm. butler, cup-bearer. V. Bouteiller.

BOUTIQUE, boutik', [from Lat. : apotheca ; Gr. : ἀποθηκή, shop], sf. 1. shop : a) retail trader's place of business ; b) workshop : place where an artisan works, and Fig. where anything whatever is done ; c) stock of merchandise or of tools. Grande et belle —, large and handsome shop. — bien garnie, well-stocked shop. — de mercier, d'épicier, de cordonnier, mercer's, grocer's, shoemaker's shop. Tenir or avoir —, to keep shop, to be a shopkeeper. Ouvrir, fermer sa —, to open, to shut up one's shop. Se mettre or s'établir en —, ouvrir or lever —, to open a shop, to set up a shop. Fermer —, to shut up shop, to retire from business. Garçon de —, shop-boy, shopman. Fille de —, shop-girl, shop-woman. Il a vendu sa —, son fonds de —, he has sold his shop, his business, his stock and good-will. b) Il a chez lui toute une — de menuisier, he has quite a joiner's shop in his house, he has a complete set of joiner's tools at home. [Fig. :] Ce pamphlet sort d'une — que l'on connaît, that pamphlet comes from a well-known shop, a well-known pen. Cela vient (part or sort) de la — d'un tel, that comes or preceeds from so-and-so. Tenir — de philanthropie, to keep a philanthropy shop, to make a trade of philanthropy. Moi qui ne lève point — de philosophie, I who do not set up for a philosopher. Appeler cela un collège, ce n'est qu'une —, call that a college, it's a mere shop. Iron. Quelle — ! what a crib ! Toute la —, Fam. the whole lot, the whole bag of tricks. Je me suis débarrassé de toute la —, I have got rid of the whole lot.

2. stall, booth, standing (in a fair or market), stall (in a bazaar) ; 3. pedlar's pack ; 4. Fish. well-boat. Une arrière- —, a back shop.

BOUTIQUIER, ÈRE, boutikyé, yèr', smf. 1. shop-keeper ; tradesman, tradeswoman ; 2. (in an ill sense) petty tradesman or dealer ; huckster, chandler. Ce n'est qu'un —, he is only a pretty tradesman.

BOUTIS, bouti, [bouter], sm. Sport. rooting (or rootling) place (of wild-boars).

BOUTISSE, boutis', [bouter], sf. Mason. header : brick or stone placed end-wise to the face of a wall.

BOUTOIR, boutwâr, [bouter, to push], sm. 1. groin : snout of a wild-boar ; 2. paring or fleshing knife (used by curriers) ; 3. butteris (tool for paring horses' hoofs). Coup de —, Fig. angry remark, cross (or savage) reply.

BOUTON, boutôn, [bouter], sm. 1. bud : a) the germ of leaves or flowers ; b) an unexpanded flower. — à bois, à fleurs, à fruit, wood-bud, flower-bud, fruit-bud. — de rose, rose-bud : an unblown rose. [Bot. :] — d'or, crowfoot, butter-cup, king-cup. — d'argent, sneezewort, ptarmica vulgaris.

2. pimple, ruby, carbuncle ; Med. pustule. Il a le visage tout couvert de boutons, his face is covered with pimples. Boutons de variole, pocks : pustules of small pox.

3. nipple (of a woman's breast).

4. button : a) fastening for coats and other garments ; b) sight (of a gun) ; c) Bot. bud, gem, germ ; d) Chem. globule of metal, in assaying ; e) anything in the form of a button. — d'or, d'argent, de soie, de drap, gold, silver, silk, cloth button. — de chemise, shirt-button. — de devant de chemise, stud. — de nacre, mother-of-pearl button. — à queue, shank button. — uni, plain button. — d'oreille, ear-drop. Boutons de manchettes, wristband buttons, sleeve links. — façonné, figured button. — ciselé, chased button. Moule à —, button mould. Ne tenir qu'à un —, to hold only by one button, to be uncertain, precarious. Mettre le — bien haut, to render anything difficult. Mettre un cheval sous le —, to shorten the reins of a horse, to rein a horse tight. [Fig.:] Serrer le — à quelqu'un, to put the screw on a person. Un — de fleuret, the button of a foil. Le — de culasse, Artill. cascabel or the knob of the breech (of a cannon). — de feu, Surg. actual cautery, cauterizing iron.

5. knob, handle (of a door, lock, bolt, etc.) ; 6. Naut. wale-knot, pomiglion.

7. Electr. push. — allumeur, electric button push. — poussoir, electric push. — de sonnette, electric bell push. — de tirage, electric pull. — transmetteur, switch button. — de commutateur, d'interrupteur, button switch.

BOUTONNANT, E, boutonân, ânt', adj. buttoning. Une robe boutonnante, a dress or gown that buttons.

BOUTONNÉ, E, boutoné, adj. 1. pimpled : covered with pimples, as the face ; 2. buttoned : provided or fastened with buttons, as garments. Cet homme est toujours — jusqu'à la gorge, Fig. that man is very close, reserved.

BOUTONNEMENT, bouton'mânt, sm. Bot. budding : putting forth buds.

BOUTONNER, boutoné-r, vn. to bud : to be in bud, to put forth buds. Les poiriers ont boutonné de bonne heure, the pear-trees have budded early. Les poiriers sont déjà boutonnés, the pear-trees are already in bud.

BOUTONNER, va. and vn. to button (as coats, etc.). — son habit, to button one's coat. Un habit qui boutonne jusqu'au menton, a coat that buttons up to the chin. — la bonnette, Naut. to lace the bonnet (to a sail).

BOUTONNER (SE), v. refl. 1. to button one's clothes ; 2. to button, to be buttoned. Cet enfant ne sait pas se —, that child cannot button his clothes. Cet habit ne peut se —, that coat cannot be buttoned (or will not button). Cette robe se boutonne, that dress buttons, closes with buttons.

BOUTONNERIE, bouton'ri, sf. button-making, button-trade.

BOUTONNET, boutoné, sm. small bud.

BOUTONNIER, boutonyé, sm. button-maker (or manufacturer).

BOUTONNIÈRE, boutonyèr', sf. 1. button-hole ; 2. Fig. gash, incised wound ; Surg. deep incision. — fermée, false (or sham) button-hole. Faire une — à quelqu'un, to give one a deep gash.

BOUT-PERDU, boupèrdu, sm. Naut. short treenail (that does not go through the side of a ship). A bout-perdu, short-drove. [Pl. Bouts-perdus.]

BOUT-SAIGNEUX, bousènyœ, sm. Butch. sticking piece : scrag-end of a neck of mutton or veal. [Pl. Bouts-saigneux.]

BOUTS-RIMÉS, bourimé, sm. pl. bouts-rimés, rhymed endings : a social amusement resembling the English game of crambo. Un bout-rimé, a stanza made with given rhymes.

BOUTURAGE, bouturazh', sm. Hort. propagating by cuttings or slips.

BOUTURE, boutur', [bouter], sf. 1. Hort. slip, cutting ; 2. sucker : shoot from the root of a tree.

BOUTURER, bouturé-r, vn. Hort. 1. to put forth suckers ; 2. va. to propagate by cuttings or slips.

BOUVARD, bouvar, sm. hammer formerly used for striking coins.

BOUVEAU, bouvô, BOUVELET, bouvlè, [bœuf from Lat. bos, bovis], sm. steer : young ox.

BOUVEMENT, bouv'mân, [bouvet], sm. Join. moulding-plane.

BOUVERET, bouv'rè, sm. African bull-finch, pyrrhula peregrina.

BOUVERIE, bouv'ri, sf. ox-house, ox-hovel.

BOUVET, bouvè, sm. Join. plough. — à deux pièces, tongue and plough.

BOUVIER, bouvyé, [bœuf, from Lat. bos, bovis], sm. 1. neatherd : ox-driver, ox-keeper ; 2. Fig. boor : coarse ill-mannered fellow ; 3. Astron. Bootes : a northern constellation. C'est un vrai —, he is a perfect boor.

BOUVIÈRE, bouvyèr', sf. 1. neatherd (female) ; 2. Ichth. bull-head, miller's-thumb.

BOUVILLON, bouviyôn, sm. young bullock, steer, young ox.

BOUVREUIL, bouvrœy', sm. Ornith. bullfinch.

BOUVREUX, bouvrœ, sm. V. Bouvreuil.

BOVIDÉ, bovidé, [Lat. : bos, bovis, ox], sm. Zool. Les bovidés, the bovidæ.

BOVINE, bovin', adj. f. bovine. La race —, the bovine race : the cow-kind, the ox-kind. La peste —, the cattle plague.

BOXE, boks', [Eng. : box], sf. boxing, pugilism.

BOXER, boksé-r, va. and vn. to box : to fight with the fists.

BOXER (SE), v. refl. to box. Ils se sont boxés, they boxed each other.

BOXEUR, boksœr, sm. boxer : pugilist, prize-fighter.

BOYARD, BOIARD, boyar, [Russ., nobleman], sm. boyar : a title of nobility in Russia.

BOYART, boyar, sm. hand-barrow. V. Bayart.

BOYAU, bwâyô or boyô, [Lat. : botellus, sausage], sm. 1. gut : intestine, bowel. Les aliments passent de l'estomac dans les boyaux, the food passes from the stomach into the intestines or bowels. [In this sense the pl. guts is obsolete and vulgar). Les petits boyaux, les grands boyaux, the small intestine, the large intestine. Descente de —, abdominal hernia, rupture. Il a failli rendre tripes et boyaux, he well nigh brought his heart up. Boyaux de porc, chitterlings. Aimer quelqu'un comme ses petits boyaux, to love a person as the apple of one's eye.

2. flank (of a horse). Cheval étroit de —, thin- (or narrow-) flanked horse.

3. catgut : cord made of the entrails of animals. Corde à (or de) —, catgut. Râcler le —, to play badly on the violin, etc.

4. Milit. zigzag : branch of a trench running zigzag ; 5. long narrow passage or room ; 6. hose (of a fire-engine) ; 7. Bot. — pollinique, pollen tube.

8. Vet. Surg. Boyau violet, contagious typhus (in domestic animals).

BOYAUDERIE, bwâyôdri, sf. catgut manufactory, gut-works.

BOYAUDIER, bwâyôdyé, sm. gut-spinner, catgut-maker.

BOYCOTTER, boycot'e, [Engl. : Boycott], va. to boycott.

BRABANÇON, ONNE. brabânsôn, on', adj. Brabantine ; of or belonging to Brabant (in Belgium).

BRABANÇON, ONNE, smf. 1. Brabanter, Brabanson : a native of Brabant ; 2. sm. Le —, the Brabanson : the dialect of Brabant.

BRABANT, brabân, sm. a kind of plough.

BRACELET, braslé, [from bras, arm], sm. bracelet, armlet.

BRACHET, brashè, sm. brache : a sporting dog.

BRACHIAL, E, brakial, al', [Lat. : brachialis ; brachium, arm], adj. Anat. brachial. Nerfs brachiaux, brachial nerves.

BRACHIÉ, E, brakiè, adj. Bot. brachiate.

BRACHIOTOMIE, brakiotomi, [Gr. : βραχίων, arm ; τομή, amputation], sf. Surg. brachiotomy.

BRACHISTOCHRONE, brakistokron', [Gr. : βραχίστος, the shortest ; χρόνος, time], sf. Geom. brachistochrone : the curve of swiftest descent.

BRACHMANE, brakman', sm. V. Brahmane.

BRACHYCÉPHALE, brakisefal, [Gr. : βραχύς, short ; κεφαλή, head], adj. Nat. Hist. brachycephalic : short-headed.

BRACHYPTÈRE, brakiptèr', [Gr. : βραχύς, short ; πτερόν, wing], adj. Entom. brachypterous : short-winged.

BRACONNAGE, brakonazh', sm. poaching.

BRACONNER, brakoné-r, [braque, kind of hound], vn. to poach : to kill game illegally.

BRACONNIER, brakonyé, sm. poacher.

BRACTÉAL, E, braktéal, al', [Lat. : bractea, thin plate of metal], adj. Bot. bracteal.

BRACTÉATE, braktéat', adj. and sf. bracteate. Monnaie —, une —, bracteate a thin coin with the figure in relief on one side and hollow on the other.

BRACTÉIFÈRE, braktéifèr', [Lat. : bractea ; ferre, to bear], adj. Bot. bracteiferous : bearing bracts.

BRACTÉOLAIRE, braktéolèr', adj. Bot. bracteolate.

BRACTÉOLE, braktéol', sf. Bot. bracteole : a small bract.

BRACTÉOLÉ, E, braktéolé, adj. Bot. bractelolate.

BRADYPE, bradip', [Gr. : βραδύς, slow ; πούς, foot], BRADYPODE, bradipod', sm. Zool. bradypus, bradipod : the sloth.

BRADYPEPSIE, bradipèpsi, [Gr. : βραδύς, slow ; πέψις, coction], sf. Med. bradipepsy : slow and difficult digestion.

BRAGUE, brag', sf. 1. flap (of breeches) ; 2. cod-piece (of ancient armour) ; 3. Naut. breeching (of cannon) ; 4. brach : a sporting dog.

BRAGUETTE, braghèt', sf. V. Brayette.

BRAHMA, brâma, sm. Hind. Mythol. Brahma : the post-vedic Hindu deity.

BRAHMANE, braman', sm. Brahman, Brahmin.

BRAHMANIQUE, bramanik', adj. brahminical.

BRAHMANISME, bramanism', sm. Braminism.

BRAI, brê, [Scand. : brâk ; tar], sm. rosin or resin. — sec, colophany, black rosin. — liquide, tar.

BRAI, BRAY, brè, sm. winter barley, bigg : or bere Hordeum hexastichon.

BRAIE, brè, [Lat. : braca, breeches], sf. 1. napkin, clout (for babies) ; 2. Naut. piece of terred cloth ; 3. Typ. frisket-paper.

4. pl. breeches ; drawers. Il en est sorti, il s'en est tiré les braies nettes, he got off unharmed, he escaped scot-free.

BRAILLARD, E, brayar, yard', [brailler], adj. 1. brawling : speaking in a loud quarrelsome tone ; 2. bawling, squalling. Une femme braillarde, a brawling woman. Un enfant —, a bawling or squalling child.

3. Naut. speaking-trumpet.

BRAILLE, bray, [orig. unknown], sf. Agr. wheat-chaff.

BRAILLEMENT, bray'mân-t, [brailler], sm. 1. whinnying (of a horse) : 2. whining (of a dog) ; 3. bawling (of men, etc.) ; 4. squalling, or bawling (of children).

BRAILLER, brayé-r, [Low Lat. : bragulâre], vn. 1. to bawl : to shout ; 2. to brawl : to bawl importunately ; 3. Sport. to give tongue falsely (as a dog when not on the scent). Cet homme ne cause pas, il braille, that man does not talk, he bawls. — en chœur à l'opéra, to bawl in chorus at the opera.

BRAILLEUR, EUSE, brayœr, œz, adj. 1. bawling ; 2. squalling ; 3. brawling ; 4. whinnying (as a horse) ! Quel enfant —, what a squalling child !

BRAILLEUR, EUSE, smf. bawler; squaller ; brawler. Diable soit des brailleurs, devil take the bawlers, the brawlers.

BRAIEMENT, brêmân-t, sm. bray, braying (of an ass).

BRAIRE, brèr', [Low Lat. : bragĕre, bragire, of Celt. orig.], vn. to bray. L'âne se mit à —, the ass began to bray. [Fig. :] Cet homme ne chante pas, il brait, that man does not sing, he brays.

BRAIRE, sm. bray, braying. Un rire qui tient du —, a laugh that resembles braying.

† BRAIRÈTE, brèrèt', (from braie], sf. Bot. primrose.

BRAISE, brèz', [braiser], sf. braise, embers : a) live or burning coals (of wood) ; b) dead or extinguished wood coals, used for lighting charcoal fires, etc. La — donne beaucoup de chaleur, embers give a good heat. Gigot à la —, braised leg of mutton. V. Braisier, Braisière. Tomber de la poêle dans la —, to fall (or jump) out of the frying-pan into the fire. Le rendre chaud comme —, to take instant vengeance. Être chaud comme —, to be hot-headed, of a fiery temperament. Être sur la —, to be on thorns, on tenter-hooks : to be ill at ease. Il a passé là-dessus comme un chat sur —, he passed that matter over very lightly ; he handled that matter like a hot iron.

BRAISER, brèzé-r, [O. Fr. : braser, to burn ; Low Lat. : brasa : O. H. Ger. : brasen ; Ger. : braten, to roast], va. to braise : to cook in a braising pan with fire above and below. V. Braisière.

BRAISIER, brèzyé, sm. iron bin or box for quenched embers.

BRAISIÈRE, brèzyèr', sf. 1. Cook. braising pan : a stew-pan with a lid to hold live embers ; 2. douter : a sheet-iron vessel for extinguishing live embers.

BRAISINE, brèzin', sf. mixture of clay and horse-dung used for tempering steel.

BRAMEMENT, bram'mân-t, [bramer], sm. troating : the cry of stags and deer.

BRAMER, bramé-r, [H. Ger. : brähmen], vn. to troat (as stags, etc.).

BRAMIN, E, braman, min', V. Brahmane.

BRAN, brân, [Celt. : bran], sm. 1. bran : the coarsest part of wheat meal ; 2. saw-dust ; 3. excrement, fæces. — de Judas, freckle (on the skin). — de lui, (an exclamation of contempt) he be hanged ! a fig for him !

BRANCARD, brânkar, [Provençal : brancal, from branco, branch], sm. 1. hand-barrow, stretcher litter (for carrying) the sick or wounded). Formant à la hâte un — de verdure, hastily making a litter of boughs.

2. shafts (of a cart, waggon, etc.) ; 3. pole (of a four-wheeled carriage). Cheval de —, shaft-horse, thill-horse, thiller ; wheel-horse, wheeler (of four-horse carriages when placed two abreast).

BRANCARDIER, brânkardyé, sm. 1. stretcher-bearer ; 2. barrow-man : one who carries a hand-barrow ; 3. shaft-horse, thiller, wheeler. V. Brancard.

BRANCHAGE, brânshazh', [branche], sm. 1. branches, boughs, lop (of trees) ; 2. horns (of a stag).

BRANCHE, brânsh', [Low Lat. : branca, branch ; Celt. : brac, arm], sf. 1. branch :

a) shoot or bough of a tree ; b) offshoot of a root ; c) any arm or extended part proceeding from the main body of a thing ; d) a stream running into or parting from a larger one ; e) any part, section or subdivision of a main body or system ; f) a person or family descending from a common stock or parent ; g) leg of compasses ; h) the part of a bridle bit outside the horse's mouth ; i) Geom. either leg of a hyperbola.

a) — d'olivier, olive branch. Menues (or petites) branches, small branches ; branchlets. Mère (or grosse) —, principal branch or arm (of a tree). Sauter de — en —, to hop (or jump) from branch to branch ; Fig. to pass rapidly from one subject to another. S'accrocher à toutes les branches, to have recourse to all sorts of expedients, to leave no stone unturned. Se prendre, s'attacher aux branches, to pay more attention to trifles than to essentials. Il vaut mieux se tenir au gros de l'arbre qu'aux branches, it is better to deal with superiors than subalterns, with principals rather than underlings or agents. V. Oiseau.

b) C'est une racine qui étend ses branches par tous les sens, it is a root which spreads its branches in all directions.

c) Les branches d'un bois de cerf, the branches (or antlers) of a stag's horns. Les branches d'un lustre, the branches of a lustre, sconce or chandelier. Le chemin se partage en deux branches, the road divides into two branches ; the r ad forks.

d) Le Nil se divise en plusieurs branches, the Nile divides into several branches. Les branches du fleuve des Amazones sont presque innombrables, the branches (or tributaries) of the Amazon are almost innumerable. La Marne est une — de la Seine, the Marne is a branch (or tributary) of the Seine. Les branches d'une artère, d'une veine, d'un nerf, the branches of an artery, of a vein, of a nerve. Les branches d'une mine, the branches (strings or feeders) of a lode (mineral vein). Les branches d'une tranchée, Milit. the branches of a trench.

e) Une des branches de la littérature, one of the branches of literature. Les différentes branches des sciences, de l'administration, du commerce, etc,, the different branches of the sciences, of administration, of trade, commerce, etc. De là l'Église étendait ses branches par toute la terre, thence the Church spread its branches over all theearth. Bossuet. His. II. 7.

f) — aînée, elder branch. — cadette, younger branch. Ils sont issus de deux branches différentes, they sprang from two different branches. La couronne passa à la — cadette, the crown passed (or devolved) to the younger branch. Ma vieille —, Fam. my old chap, old fellow.

2. Archit. rib (of a groined vault) ; 3. bow (of a sword hilt) ; 4. sprig (of embroidery.)

BRANCHÉ, E, branshé, pa. p. 1. perched (as a bird, etc.) ; 2. hanged. Un mousse — sur une vergue, a sailor-boy perched on a yard-arm. V. Brancher.

BRANCHEMENT, brânsh'mân-t, sm. branching : division into branches, as of pipes for water or gas.

BRANCHER, brânshé-r, vn. Sport. to perch : said of feathered game, as pheasants, etc.

† BRANCHER, vn. 1. to hang (on the branch of a tree). Jadis on branchait les faux-sauniers, formerly they used to hang contraband salt-makers.

2. to divide into branches ; 3. to add a branch to (a gas or water main).

BRANCHETTE, brânshèt', sf. branchlet : a small branch.

BRANCHE-URSINE, brânshursin', BRANC-URSINE, brânkursin', [transcription of the Lat. of the middle ages : branca ursina, bear's foot], sf. Bot. brankursine, bear's-breech : Acanthus mollis. — bâtarde, cow-parsnip.

BRANCHIAL, E, brânshial, al', adj. Anat. branchial : relating to the branchiæ (gills) of aquatic animals.

BRANCHIATES, branshiat, smpl. Zool. branchiata : any of the several groups of animals provided with gills.

BRANCHIÉ, E, brânshie, adj. Anat. having gills.

BRANCHIER, brânshyé, adj. m. Falc. Oiseau —, brancher : a hawk that can hop from bough to bough, but cannot fly well.

BRANCHIES, brânshi, [Gr. : βράγχια], sf. pl. Anat. branchiæ : gills of aquatic animals.

BRANCHIFÈRE, brânshifĕr', [branchies ; Lat. : ferre, to bear], adj. Zool. having gills.

BRANCHIOPODE, brânshiopod', [Gr. : βράγχια, branchiæ ; ποῦς, πόδος, foot], sm. Hist. Nat. branchiopod, branchiopoda.

BRANCHIOSTÈGE, brânshiostèzh', [Gr. : βράγχια, branchiæ ; στέγω, I cover], adj. Nat. Hist. branchiostegous. [Subst. :] Les branchiostèges, the branchiostegans : cartilaginous fishes having a branchial membrane but no gill-covers.

BRANCHIOSTOME, brânshiostom', [Gr. : βράγχια, branchiæ ; στόμα, mouth], sm. Anat. gill opening.

BRANCHIS, brânshi, sm. Falc. block.

BRANCHU, E, brânshu, adj. 1. branchy, ramose : full of branches ; 2. Fig. branching, offering two alternatives. Canard —, the musk-duck : an American duck which perches on trees.

† BRAND, brân, sm. brand : a two-handed sword formerly used.

BRANDADE, brândad', [Provençal : brandar, to agitate], sf. Cook. brandade : cod prepared with cream, oil, and garlic, a Provençal dish.

BRANDE, brând', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. heath : a) ling, or heather, a plant ; b) a place overgrown with heather ; 2. Naut. dipped bavin : faggot of heather or furze covered with inflammable matter, for fireships.

BRANDEBOURG, brând'bour, [from the province in Germany], sm. frog : coarse braid or galloon crossing the breasts of a coat. Habit orné de brandebourgs, frogged coat.

BRANDEBOURG, sf. 1. a jacket with long sleeves ; 2. arbour, summer-house (in a garden).

† BRANDEVIN, brând'van, [Ger. : Branntwein], sm. brandy : alcohol distilled from wine.

† BRANDEVINIER, ÈRE, brând'vinyé, yĕr', smf. 1. canteen-keeper : sutler, brandy-seller ; 2. brandy-distiller.

BRANDILLE, brândiy', sf. Carp. pin-hole, peg-hole (in a rafter, etc.).

BRANDILLEMENT, brândiy'mân, sm. swinging, swaying or shaking about.

BRANDILLER, brândiyé-r, [brandir], va. and vn. 1. to swing or shake about ; 2. to dangle, to swing about.

BRANDILLER (SE), v. refl. to swing one's self, to swing one another (on a sway or swing).

BRANDILLOIRE, brândiywâr', sm. 1. swing or sway (for children) ; 2. Agr. swing-plough : one without wheels.

BRANDIR, brândir, [orig. unknown ; perhaps from O. Fr. brand, sword], vn. 1. to brandish : to flourish, to wield ; 2. Carp. to peg or pin (rafters, etc.). — un bâton, une épée, to brandish a stick, a sword. L'épée brandie d'un bras vigoureux, the sword wielded by a brawny arm.

BRANDON, brândôn, [Ger. : brennen, to burn; gebrannt, burnt; Brand, a fire-brand], sm. 1. wisp or bundle of burning straw carried for a light ; 2. brand, fire-brand, fire-stick ; Fig. fire-brand. Les brandons de guerre civile, the fire-brands of civil war. Un — de discorde, a brand of discord. Dimanche des brandons, Quadragesima Sunday : the first Sunday in Lent.

3. brand : small flag or wisp of straw placed on a stick in a cornfield, etc. to show that the growing crops have been seized for debt. Saisie- —, distraint or seizure of growing crops.

BRANDONNER, brândoné-r, va. to place brands in a field (to indicate that the crops have been seized for debt).

BRANÉE, brané, sf. fine bran or pollard mixed with water as food for pigs.

BRANLANT, E, brânlân-t, ânt', [branler], adj. shaky, shaking, tottering. Une poutre branlante, shaking beam. Avoir la tête branlante, to have a shaking head. C'est un château —, it is a tottering or shaky affair.

BRANLE, brânl', [branler], sm. 1. swinging, swing ; swinging, swaying or rocking motion. Le — d'une cloche, the swinging (or ringing) of a bell. Sonner en —, to ring a peal, to keep the bells going full swing. Mettre la cloche en —, to set the bell going. Le — d'un pendule, the swing (arc of vibration) of a pendulum.

2. impulse, impetus. Quel moteur a donné ce premier — à la machine de l'univers ? what moving power gave the first impulse to the machine of the universe ? Fén. Exis. de Dieu, I. 3. Ce sont eux qui donnent le — à la réputation, they are the persons who give the first start to fame. Mol. Préc. rid. sc. 9. Ce que je me propose pourrait donner un grand — à la chose, what I purpose might give a great impulse to the affair. Il donnait le — et le mouvement à tout, he gave impulse and activity to everything. Être en —, se mettre en —, to be in motion,to be put in motion, to be set going. Quand une fois il est en —,when once he is sets to work; when once he begins. Mettre quelqu'un en —, lui donner le —, to put one in motion, to set one going, to give one a start.

3. brawl : a) an old dance ; b) the music played to it, [Fig. :] — de sortie, a hasty retreat. Mener, ouvrir, commencer le —, to lead (or open) the dance ; Fig. to take the lead.

4. chap (of a vice) ; 5. Naut. hammock.

BRANLE-BAS, brânl'bâ, sm. 1. Naut. clearing (for action) ; 2. confusion, disorder, disarray. Branle-bas ! up all hammocks ! Faire —, to clear for action. C'est un — dans cette maison, that house is all in an uproar, all in confusion. [Pl. Branle-bas].

BRANLE-QUEUE, brânl'kœ, sf. Orn. wagtail. [Pl. Branle-queue.]

BRANLER, brânlé-r, [from brandeler, derived from brandir], va. 1. to swing ; 2. to shake, to wag ; 3. to brandish (a weapon). — les jambes, les bras, to swing one's legs, one's arms. — un dard, to swing (or brandish) a dart. — la tête, to shake one's head ; Fig. to refuse, to dissent. Je branlais la tête à chaque somme, I shook my head at each sum. Hamil. Gramm. 3.

BRANLER, vn. 1. to swing; 2. to shake, to sway; 3. to totter; 4. to give way, to waver (as troops). Ce plancher branle, this floor shakes. La tête lui branle, his head shakes. Les dents lui branlent, his teeth are loose. — dans le manche (or au manche), to shake (or be loose) in the handle; Fig. to be shaky or tottering. Ce ministre branle au manche, this minister is in a tottering state. Prov. : Tout ce qui branle ne tombe pas, a creaking door hangs long on its hinges.

5. to budge, to stir, to move. Ne branlez pas de là, do not stir from there. Ces écoliers n'osent — devant le maître, these scholars dare not stir in their master's presence.

BRANLOIRE, brã*n*lwâr, [branler], sm. 1. see-saw : a sway for children; 2. handle or lever (of forge bellows).

BRAQUE, brak', [orig. doubtful; O. Fr. : brachet], sm. 1. brach : a sporting-dog; 2. Fig. madcap, giddy-brained (for hare-brained) person; 3. adj. giddy, hare-brained.

† BRAQUEMART, brak'mar, [Wallon : brakète, short sword], sm. cutlass; a short and broad sword.

BRAQUEMENT, brak'mã*n*-t, sm. pointing, levelling, aiming (of guns, etc.).

BRAQUER, braké-r, [orig. unknown], va 1. to point (a gun or telescope); 2. to direct, to bend, to turn (one's looks). — un canon, to point, level (or lay) a cannon. Les canons étaient braqués sur la ville, cannon were pointed at the town. — une lunette, to point a telescope (at an object). — ses regards sur un objet, to bend one's eyes, one's looks on an object, to stare at an object. — les yeux sur, to stare at.

BRAQUES, brak', [Lat. : brachium, arm], sf. pl. claws, pincers (of lobsters and crayfish).

BRAS, bra-z, [Lat. : brachium, arm], sm. 1. arm : a) in pop. lang., the limb extending from the shoulder to the wrist; in Anat. the part from the shoulder to the elbow, the continuation to the wrist being the avant-bras, fore-arm; b) Fig. strength, power, might; c) the extremity of a lever, scale-beam, ship's yard, anchor, etc., anything resembling an arm; d) branch of a river, inlet, strait of a sea; e) tentacle of a polypus, or poulpe.

a) — droit, — gauche, right arm, left arm. Elle portait un enfant sur (entre or dans) ses bras, she carried a child in her arms. Porter un paquet sous le —, to carry a parcel under one's arm. A — tendu, with outstretched arm, at arm's length. Frapper à — raccourci, to strike or hit with all one's might. Il va les bras pendants, les bras ballants, he swings his arms in walking, he has a swinging walk (or gait). Il mourut entre mes bras, he died in my arms. Voir tout ce qu'on aime entre les bras d'autrui, to see all that one loves in another's arms. Arrêter, retenir le — à quelqu'un, to arrest, to stay, to hold back a person's arm. Avoir des bras, to carry one's arms gracefully (in dancing). Avoir les bras retroussés jusqu'au coude, to have one's arms bare to the elbows, one's sleeves tucked up to the elbows. Couper bras et jambes à quelqu'un, to render a person powerless or helpless. Demeurer les bras croisés, to remain with folded arms, to make no effort. Donner, offrir le —, to give, to offer one's arms. Se donner le —, to take each other's arm, to be, go, or walk arm in arm. Être dans les bras de Morphée, to be in the arms of Morpheus, to sleep. Passer des bras du sommeil dans ceux de la mort, to die (or be killed) in one's sleep. Faire les beaux bras, to affect grand airs. Faire les grands bras, to pretend to great credit, power or influence. Prendre le —, to take one's arm. S'appuyer sur le — de quelqu'un, to lean on a person's arm, to look to a person for assistance. Recevoir à bras ouverts, to receive with open arms. Tendre les bras (à quelqu'un), to put forth (to hold or stretch out) one's arms (to a person); to help, to welcome a person; to raise (or hold) up one's hands (in supplication). Dans cette conversation il le traita de monseigneur gros comme le —, in this conversation he mylorded him incessantly. Les bras m'en tombent, I am amazed, astounded at it. Prov. : Selon les bras, la saignée, set your sail according to the wind.

b) Toutes les choses humaines sont sous le — de Dieu, all human things are under the arm (power, government) of God. Un tyran appesantissait sur la ville un — de fer, a tyrant oppressed the city with an iron arm (or hand). Le — séculier, the secular (or civil) power (as distinct from the ecclesiastical). Dérober un criminel au — de la justice, to withdraw a criminal from the arm (reach or grasp) of justice. Corn. Hor. v. 3. Avoir les bras longs, to have far-reaching power (or extensive influence).

c) Les bras d'une machine, the arms of a machine. Les bras d'une équerre, the arms of a square. Les bras d'un fauteuil, the arms of an easy-chair. Siège à bras, arm-chair. Le — d'une vergue, the yard-arm. Le — d'une ancre, d'un aviron, the arm of an anchor, of an oar. — de balance, the arms of a scale-beam, or balance. — de levier, the arm of a lever. — de chèvre, the arms of a gin or derrick.

d) La Meuse reçoit un — du Rhin, the Meuse receives an arm of the Rhine. La rivière ayant réuni ses deux bras, the river having united its two arms. Ils sont séparés par un — de mer, they are separated by an arm of the sea.

2. hand : agent, person employed, workman, operative, labourer. Être le — droit de quelqu'un, to be a person's right hand (principal agent or factotum). Il n'a été que le — de quelqu'un, he was only the agent (instrument or tool) of another person. Cette terre exige un grand nombre de bras pour son exploitation, this estate requires a great number of hands to cultivate (or work) it. Des bras inutiles, useless hands. Les bras manquent, there is a deficiency of labourers, of labour. Avoir sur les bras, to hang on one's hands, to be burdened, troubled, or embarrassed with; to have the care or management of. Avoir beaucoup d'affaires sur les bras, to have many affairs (or much business) on (or in) hand. Un malheureux neveu m'est tombé sur les bras, an unlucky nephew has fallen on my hands. Cette pauvre veuve a cinq enfants sur les bras, that poor widow has five children to maintain.

3. flipper : pectoral fin of a whale; 4. pincers, claws (of a lobster or crayfish); 5. spur : offshoot of a mountain chain; 6. Naut. brace (of a yard-arm); 7. Mach. web (of a crank); 8. whip (of a windmill); 9. St. Eng. rod, side-rod. — de rappel, radius-rod. — d'excentrique, eccentric-rod.

A BRAS, A FORCE DE BRAS, adv. phr. by hand, by main force. Ils montèrent le canon à —, they mounted the cannon by hand. Moulin à —, hand-mill. Civière à —, hand-litter. Presse à —, hand-press. Voiture (or charette) à —, hand-cart, truck.

A TOUR DE BRAS, adv. phr. with all one's strength, with might and main.

A BRAS-LE-CORPS, adv. phr. by (or round) the waist. Il le prit à —-le-corps, he seized him round the waist.

BRAS-DESSUS, BRAS-DESSOUS, adv. phr. arm-in-arm. Bras-dessus, bras-dessous, s'en vont Colin et Colette, Colin and Colette go off arm-in-arm. Être bras-dessus, bras-dessous, to be very intimate. S'embrasser bras-dessus, bras-dessous, to embrace each other, to fall into each other's arms.

BRASAGE, brazâzh, sm. brazing : the operation of brazing metals.

BRASEMENT, braz'mã*n*-t, sm. brazing : joining with spelter (hard solder).

BRASER, brazé-r, [from braise], va. to braze : to join with spelter (hard solder).

BRASERO, brazéro [Span.], sm. brazier or brasier (to hold hot coals).

BRASIER, brazyé, [braise], sm. 1. fire of wood, coals, clear bright fire; 2. Fig. passion, flame; 3. brazier, chafing-dish : a vase to hold burning coals. Son corps est un —, he has a burning fever. Sa tête est un —, he is very fiery, very hot-headed.

BRASILLEMENT, braziy'mã*n*-t, sm. phosphorescence : luminosity or sparkling of the sea.

BRASILLER, braziyé-r, [braise], va. braize : to broil over live embers.

BRASILLER, vn. to sparkle : to be phosphorescent (as the sea).

BRASQUAGE, braskâzh, sm. operation of cementing with brasque.

BRASQUE, brask', [orig. unknown], sf. a mixture of loam and powdered charcoal for lining crucibles.

BRASQUER, braské-r, va. to line a crucible with loam and charcoal dust.

BRASSAGE, braszah', [brasser], sm. 1. mixing (or stirring) up; 2. mashing (of malt); 3. brewing (of beer, etc.); 4. brassage : charge for coining.

BRASSARD, brasar, [bras], sm. 1. brassart: armour for the arm; 2. armlet : anything worn round the arm to indicate rank or functions.

BRASSE, bras', [bras], sf. 1 Naut. the French fathom, equal to 5 f. 3.77 in. English rather more than 8 inches shorter than the English fathom. Être sur les brasses, to be in soundings.

2. † Pain de —, large loaf weighing from 20 to 25 pounds.

3. stroke (in swimming). Il sait à peine nager; il ne fait que deux ou trois brasses, he is no swimmer, he can only take two or three strokes.

BRASSÉE, brasé, sf. 1. armful : what the two arms can encircle or contain; 2. stroke (in swimming); 3. the quantity of land one man can plough in a day; 4 the quantity of silk warp required for one loom. — de bois, armful of wood.

BRASSEÏER, braséyé-r, va. Naut. to brace. V. Brasser.

BRASSER, brasé-r, [Low Lat. : braciāre, from brace, Celt. for fermented corn], va. 1. to mix, to stir up; 2. to tousle (a bed or mattress). — de l'or et de l'argent dans le creuset, to stir up gold and silver in the crucible. — une paillasse, to tousle a straw mattress.

3. to mash (malt); 4. to brew : a) to make beer, ale, etc.; b) Fig. to concoct, to contrive, to plot. — une trahison, to plot treason (or treachery). L'empereur ne savait rien de ce qu'on brassait contre sa famille, the emperor knew nothing of what was plotting (or being plotted) against his family. Perrot d'Abl., trans. of Tacitus.

Naut. to brace, to haul in the braces. — au vent, sous le vent, to haul in the weather braces, the lee braces. Brasse! or brassez!) brace up, haul in the braces.

BRASSER (SE), v. refl. to be brewing. Il se brassait une conspiration, there was a plot brewing.

BRASSERIE, bras'ri, sf. 1. brewery, brew-house; 2. beer-shop.

BRASSEUR, EUSE, brasœr, œz', smf. brewer.

BRASSEYAGE, braséyayh', sm. Naut. bracing.

BRASSEYER, braséyé-r, va. Naut. to brace. V. Brasser.

BRASSIAGE, brasiazh', sm. Naut. 1. length (of a cable); 2. depth (of water); 3. sounding.

BRASSICAIRE, brasikèr', [Lat. : brassica, cabbage], adj. 1. Bot. relating to the brassica (or cabbage) genus; 2. Subst. Entom. Les brassicaires, the cabbage butterflies.

BRASSICOURT, brasikour, [bras; court], adj. m. Cheval —, bandy-legged horse.

BRASSIÈRE, brasyèr', [bras], sf. 1. shoulder-strap, brace; 2. bodice with shoulder-straps; 3. pl. leading-strings (for children learning to walk). [Fig. :] Être en brassières, to be in leading-strings; to be under constraint, not to have full liberty of action.

BRASSIN, brasan, [brasser], sm. 1. mash-tub, mash-vat; 2. brewing : quantity of beer etc. brewed at once; 3. boiling : quantity of soap boiled at once.

BRASURE, brazur', [braser], sf. brazing : brazed joint.

BRAVACHE, bravash', [Ital. : bravaccio], sm. hector, bully, blusterer.

BRAVACHERIE, bravash'ri, sf. bullying, blustering, hectoring.

BRAVADE, bravad', [Ital. : bravata], sf. bravado : brag, bragging, blustering, boasting. Par —, out of bravado, in bravado. Faire — à, to brave, to defy. Sans vous faire —, without any disparagement to you.

BRAVADER, bravadé-r, vn. to brag, to boast.

BRAVE, brav', [Low Lat. : bravus; Ital. : bravo], adj. 1. brave : a) courageous, bold, valiant, intrepid; b. † fine, showy, spruce, smart. a) C'est un homme —, he is a brave man. Un — soldat, a brave (or gallant) soldier. L'éclatante vertu de leurs braves aïeux, the signal virtue of their brave ancestors. Corn. Cid. I. I. Il est fort —, — comme l'épée qu'il porte, he is very brave, brave as the sword he wears. Il n'est — qu'en paroles, he is brave only in words. Il est brave jusqu'au dégaîner, he is brave till it comes to the pinch, to the scratch. b) Vous voilà bien — aujourd'hui, how smart, how fine you are to day! — comme une noce, comme un jour de Pâques, as fine as fippence (five-pence), as fine as carrot fresh-scraped.

2. (when placed before the noun), worthy, honest; kind, obliging. C'est un — homme, he is a worthy man, an honest fellow. De braves gens, good sort of people. Vous êtes un brave homme d'être venu me voir, you are a good fellow for coming to see me.

3. Man. clever : said of a horse equally good for the saddle and for harness.

BRAVE, sm. 1. a man of spirit, a valiant, (gallant or courageous) man; pl. the brave. Se battre en —, to fight like a man of spirit, to fight bravely, gallantly. Un vieux —, a brave veteran. Faux —, hector, bully, braggart. Faire le —, to affect bravery, to hector, to bluster. C'est un — à trois poils, he is brave to the backbone; he is true blue, true as steel. [Colloq. :] Mon —, my good fellow.

2. (in an ill sense) bravo : hired assassin; ruffian. Il le fit assassiner par un brave qu'il paya, he hired a bravo to assassinate him.

BRAVEMENT, brav'mân-t, adj. bravely : a) valiantly, gallantly, courageously; b) cleverly, ably, finely. Il monta — à l'assaut, he bravely stormed the breach. Il s'est — tiré de cet embarras, he has cleverly extricated himself from that scrape. C'est — crié! dit le lion, superbly brayed! resumed the lion. La Font. Fab. II. 19. Il en a — pris son parti, he made his decision very wisely.

BRAVER, bravé-r, va. to brave : a) to defy, to set at defiance (or at nought), to beard; b) to face, to encounter fearlessly. Il alla le — jusque chez lui, he went and braved (defied or bearded) him even in his own house. — l'autorité, to brave (set at defiance) authority, or the authorities. Il bravait du regard son adversaire, he looked defiance at his adversary, he gave his adversary a look of defiance. Il vient — les morts, il vient — les dieux, he comes to brave the dead, to brave (or defy) the gods. Il brave l'effort de la tempête, he braves the violence of the storm. — le danger, — la mort, to brave, to face danger; to brave death.

BRAVER (SE), v. refl. to brave or defy each other (or one another).

BRAVISSIMO, bravisimo, interj. bravissimo!

BRAVO, bravo, [Ital.], 1. interj. bravo! capital! excellent! 2. sm. bravo : hired assassin, cut-throat [Pl. Bravi.]

BRAVOURE, bravour', [brave], sf. 1. bravery : valour, gallantry, courage; 2. pl. exploits, feats. Il montra beaucoup de —, he displayed great bravery. Il fatigue tout le monde du récit de ses bravoures, he wearies (or bores) everybody with the recital of his exploits.

3. Mus. Air de —, bravura. Genre de —, the bravura style.

BRAYER, bréyé-r, [brai], va. Naut. to pay : to cover with pitch or tar.

BRAYER, sm. Surg. truss (for hernia).

BRAYETTE, bréyét', [braie], sf. 1. slit or front opening (in modern trowsers); 2. flap, fall, † codpiece (in breeches and old fashioned trowsers).

BRAYON, bréyôn, [from broyer], sm. dead-fall : trap for polecats, weasels, etc.

BRAZIER, braziè, [Nicolas], vaudevillist, play-writer (1783-1838).

BREAK, brèk, [Eng.], sm. break, brake : carriage.

BRÉBEUF, brēbœf, [Guillaume de], poet (1617-1661).

BREBIS, brœbi-z, [Low Lat. : berbex, from Lat. vervex], sf. 1. ewe; female sheep, 2. Fig. sheep. Lait de —, ewe's milk. — pleine, ewe in (or with) lamb. — égarée, stray sheep. Le bon pasteur donne sa vie pour ses brebis, the good shepherd giveth his life for his sheep. Bib. John. x. II. — galeuse, scabby sheep; Fig. black sheep : a person of questionable reputation. On le fuit comme une — galeuse, all flee from him as from a scabby sheep. Il faut tondre les brebis et non les écorcher, one must not kill the hen with the golden egg. Donner la — à garder au loup, to commit the sheep to the care of the wolf. La — du bon Dieu, a meek or inoffensive person. Faire un repas de —, to make a dry meal, to eat without drinking. Prov. : Il ne faut qu'une brebis galeuse pour gâter tout un troupeau, one scabbed sheep will taint a whole flock. A brebis tondue Dieu mesure le vent, God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb. Qui se fait brebis, le loup le mange, make yourself a lamb and the wolf will eat you. Brebis comptées, le loup les mange, excessive prudence sometimes defeats its own end. Brebis qui bêle perd sa goulée, the ass that brays most eats least.

BRECCIOLAIRE, brèksiolèr', adj. Geol. brecciated. V. Brèche 4.

BRÈCHE, brèch', [Ger. : brechen, to break, as in all Teut. languages], sf. 1. gap : break or opening in a wall, etc. Réparer les brèches d'une clôture, to stop the gaps in a fence.

2. Milit. breach : gap made in the walls of a fortress, etc. Battre en —, to batter in breach (a fortress); Fig. to attack, assail or ruin (an argument, a person's credit or influence). Pratiquer une —, to effect a breach. Mourir sur la —, to die on the breach.

3. notch (in the edge of a cutting instrument); (in a general sense) breach, gap, opening, hole, break. Faire des brèches à un couteau, to make notches in a knife. Faire — à un pâté, to make a hole or gap in a pie. On a abattu cent arpents de bois dans cette forêt, c'est une grande —, they have cut down a hundred acres of wood in this forest, that is a great opening (or clearing). [Fig. :] Il a fait une — à son honneur, he has made a breach in his honour. Cela fait — à sa fortune, that makes a breach (or hole) in his fortune. Faire — aux immunités, aux privilèges d'une ville, etc., to make a breach in (to encroach on, invade, or infringe) the immunities, the privileges of a city, etc.

4. Geol. breccia : a kind of black marble with white or yellow spots; 5. conglomerate, pudding-stone. — osseuse, ossiferous conglomerate.

BRÈCHE-DENT, brèsh'dân, adj. gap-toothed, broken-mouthed : having lost one or more of the front teeth.

BRECHET, brœshè-t, [of doubtful origin; O. Fr. : brichet; Celt. : Eng. : brisket; Ger. : Brust], sm. Anat. breastbone, brisket: xiphoid cartilage. Avoir mal au —, to have a pain in the stomach.

BRÉCHIFORME, bréshifòrm', adj. Geol. having the form or appearance of breccia.

† BRÉDALER, brédalé-r, vn. to make a humming noise like a spinning-wheel.

BREDI-BREDA, brœdi-brœda, [onomat.], adv. hastily, hurry-skurry.

BREDINDIN, brœdandan, sm. Naut. garnet, stay-tackle.

BRÉDISSURE, brédisur', sf. Med. trismus capistratus : inability to open the mouth owing to the adherence of the gums and cheeks after ulceration.

BREDOUILLAGE, brœdouyazh', sm. sputtering, spluttering.

BREDOUILLE, brœdouy', sf. gammon (at trick-track or backgammon). Être —, en —, to be gammoned. Fig. to be crest-fallen. Revenir —, to return (from shooting) with an empty bag; to have failed in any affair. Sortir —, to go away as one came.

BREDOUILLEMENT, brœdouy'mân-t, sm. spluttering : speaking thick and hastily; jabbering.

BREDOUILLER, brœdouyé-r, [orig. unknown; O. Fr. : bredeler], vn. to splutter : to speak fast and indistinctly. On n'entend rien à ce qu'il dit, il ne fait que —, one can understand nothing of what he says, he only splutters.

BREDOUILLER, va. to sputter or splutter out; to jabber, to sputter, to gabble Il me bredouille mille protestations, he spluttered me a thousand protestations.

BREDOUILLEUR, EUSE, brœdouyœr, yœz', smf. splutterer. Quel —! what a splutterer!

BREF, brèf, BRÈVE, brèv', [Lat. : brevis, short], adj. 1. brief: a) short, of little duration or extent; b) curt, prompt, quick (as speech); c) concise, laconic (as style). Dans un — délai, very soon, in a short tune. A—délai, at short notice. Les circonstances présentes me rendent —, present circumstances make me brief. Être —, to be curt, brief, concise or laconic (in speaking or writing). Avoir le parler —, la parole brève, to be curt or laconic in speech. Une réponse brève, a curt reply. L'accent — de la colère, the curt accents of anger. Pour le faire —, pour faire —, to be brief.

2. short: a) Gram. opposed to long; b) opposed to tall. Une voyelle brève, a short vowel. Cette syllabe se prononce brève, this syllabe is pronounced short. Pépin le Bref, Pepin the Short.

BREF, adv. short. Parler —, to speak curtly (or sharply). En —, in short, briefly.

BREF, sm. 1. brief, breve : an official pontifical letter sealed with the fisherman's ring; 2. church calendar (indicating the daily services).

BREGIN, brœzhan, [Low Lat. : broginus], sm. Fish. a net with fine meshes.

BREGMA, brègma, [Gr. : βρέγμα], sm. Anat. bregma : the top of the head.

BRÉHAIGNE, bréèny, [orig. unknown], adj. barren : said of animals. Une jument —, a barren mare.

BRÉHAIGNE, sf. a sterile (or barren) woman.

BRELAN, brœlân, [O. Fr. : brelenc; Ger. : Brettling] sm. 1. brelan : a game played with three cards dealt to each player; 2. pair-royal, prial : three cards of the same value. Un — d'as, a pair-royal (or triplet) of aces.

3. gambling or gaming-house.

BRELANDER, brœlândé-r, vn. to play at cards, to be addicted to gaming.

BRELANDIER, ÈRE, brœlândyé, yêr', smf. gambler, gamester.

BRELÉE, brœlé, sf. Agr. winter fodder (for sheep).

BRELIQUE-BRELOQUE, brœlik', brœlok', adv. at random, slap-dash.

BRELLE, brèl', sf. raft (of timber).

BRELOQUE, brœlok', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. trinket; 2. charm : amulet, fancy ornament appended to watch-chains, etc.; 3. Milit. dinner-drum, breakfast-drum. Battre la —, Fam. to wander (in one's mind). V. Berloque.

BRELUCHE, brœlush', sf. coarse linsey-woolsey.

BRÊME, brêm', s. Geog. Bremen.

BRÈME, brèm', sf. Ichth. bream, abramis brama. — de mer, sea bream, common sparus centrodontus.

BRENEUX, EUSE, brœnœ-z, œz', [from bren, old form for bran], adj. dirty, filthy : covered with excrement.

BRÉSIL, brézil, sm. Geog. Brazil.

BRÉSIL, sm. Brazil-wood, brazil. Sec comme — (or du Brésil), as dry as dust.

BRÉSILIEN, ENNE, brézilian, èn, adj. and sm. f. Brazilian.

BRÉSILLER, bréziyé-r, [Brésil], va. 1. to dye red (with brazil-wood); 2. to break small (or to shivers), to shiver, to shatter; 3. vn. to fall into dust (from dryness). Une glace brésillée, a looking-glass broken to shivers.

BRÉSILLET, brésiyé, sm. braziletto, Pernambuco wood : an inferior kind of Brazil-wood. — des Indes, sapan wood.

BRETAGNE, brœtàny', sf. Geog. Bretagne, Brittany. La basse —, Lower Brittany. La Grande —, Great Britain.

BRÉTAILLER, brétayé-r, [brette], vn. (always used in an ill sense) to fight, to fence (with the sword).

BRÉTAILLEUR, brétayœr, sm. (in an ill sense) fighter, fighting man : bully, fire-eater.

BRETAUDER, brœtôdé-r, [Lat. : bistondĕre, to crop twice], va. to crop : to cut too short. — les cheveux de quelqu'un, to crop a person's hair too close, to cut one's hair unevenly. — un cheval, to crop a horse's ears.

† BRETÈCHE, bretesh, [Low Lat. : bretachia], sf. Milit. advanced work of a fortress, of a castle, machicolated battlements.

BRETELLE, brœtèl', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. strap (to carry a knapsack, pack, etc.); 2. strap, sling, (of a musket or rifle). 3. brace (to hold up breeches or trowsers). Les bretelles d'un havre-sac, the straps of a knapsack. Une paire de bretelles, a pair of braces (or suspenders). Il en a jusqu'aux bretelles, par dessus les bretelles, 1. he is in great difficulties, in a terrible scrape; 2. he has more than he can carry : he is intoxicated.

BRETESSÉ, E, brœtèsé, adj. Herald. embattled : crenellated.

BRETON, ONNE, brœtôn, on', adj. and smf 1. Breton : of Brittany 2. smf. Breton : a native of Brittany. [Naut. :] En breton, a-burton, athwart-ship. C'est du bas- — pour moi, it's Greek to me.

BRETONNANT, E, brœtonân-t, ânt', adj. speaking the Celtic dialect of Lower Brittany. Un Breton —, a Briton to the backbone.

BRETTE, brèt', [O. Fr. : britto, Breton, a sword made in Brittany], sf. rapier : a long sword.

BRETTELER, brètœlé-r, [bretter], [takes a second l before a mute syllable : Je brettelle, je brettelais, je brettelai, je brettellerai, je brettellerais, brettelant, bretteté; or with the grave è : je brettèle, je brettèlerai, je brettèlerais] va. 1. to cut stones (or scrape walls) with toothed instruments; to chase (gold or silver plate).

BRETTEUR, brètœr, [brette, sword], sm. (in a bad sense) bully, fighter, fighting-man.

† BREUIL, brœy', [Low Lat. : brogilum], sm. 1. Sport. coppice enclosed for a game preserve; 2. Naut. brail, garnet.

BREUILLER, brœyé-r, va. Naut. to brail up, to haul up the brails.

BREUVAGE, brœvazh', [Lat. : bibĕre, to drink; O. Fr. : boivre], sm. 1. beverage : anything to drink 2. draught (of wine, etc.); 3. Naut. bever : extra wine given to sailors; 4. Vet. Surg. drench : dose of liquid medicine for animals.

BRÈVE, brèv', [Lat. : brevis, short], sf. 1. Gram. short, short syllable; 2. Mus. note shorter than the preceding one; (formerly) breve : a note equal to two semi-breves of four minims. V Bref.

BREVET, brœvè-t, [bref], sm. 1. brevet : formerly, royal letters patent conferring some privilege or distinction. Ducs à —, dukes by letters patent (whose title was not hereditary). Il a reçu le — de sa pension, he has received the brevet (or warrant) for his pension. — de la Légion d'honneur, brevet of the Legion of Honour.

2. commission. — d'officier, officer's commission.

3. certificate, diploma. — de capacité, certificate of ability for teaching, etc. [Fig. :] Donner à quelqu'un —, son — d'étourdi, d'extravagant, to declare a person a madcap, an extravagant fellow. — d'apprentissage, indentures.

4. patent. — d'invention, patent for an invention. — d'importation de perfectionnement, patent for importation, for improvement (of an invention).

5. talisman, charm. Il vendit des brevets à chasser la fièvre, he sold talismans for curing fever.

6. decoction of woad and bran added to an indigo dye-vat.

BREVETABLE, brèv'tabl', adj. patentable capable of being patented.

BREVETÉ, E, brèv'té, adj. 1. patented; 2. appointed by letters patent. Invention brevetée, patent (or patented) invention. Fournisseur —, purveyor by appointment.

BREVETER, brèv'té-r, [takes an è before a mute syllable : Je brevète, je brevetais, je brevetai, je brevetterai, je brevetterais, brevetant.] va. 1. to grant a patent licence, or certificate to (a person); 2. to patent (an invention). Faire —, to patent, to take out a patent for (an invention). Se faire — par le gouvernement, to obtain a patent appointment (or an appointment by letters patent).

BREVEUX, brœvœ, [orig, unknown], sm. hook for catching lobsters and crabs.

BRÉVIAIRE, brévièr', [Lat. : breviarum, abridgement; brevis, short], sm. 1. breviary : Roman catholic prayer-book; 2. Fig. favourite book or author, vade-mecum. Tacite est mon —, Tacitus is my favourite author.

BRÉVICAUDE, brévikôd', [Lat. : brevis, short; cauda, tail], adj. Nat. Hist. short-tailed.

BRÉVICAULE, brévikôl', [Lat. : brevis, short; caulis, stem], adj. Bot. short-stemmed.

BRÉVIPÈDE, brévipèd', [Lat. : brevis, short; pes, pedis, foot], adj. Nat. Hist. breviped, short-footed.

BRÉVIPENNE, brévipèn', [Lat. : brevis, short; penna, feather], adj. Nat. Hist. brevipennate, short-winged. [Subst. :] Les brévipennes, the brevipennes : an order of birds including the ostrich.

BRÉVIROSTRÉ, ÉE, brevirostré, [Lat. : brevis, short; rostrum, beak], adj. Ornith. brevirostral, brevirostrate : short-billed.

BRÉVITÉ, brévité, [bref], sf. Gram. shortness of syllables.

BRIBE, brib', [O. Fr. : briber, to beg], sf. 1. hunch, hunk (of bread); 2. pl. scraps (of food), broken victuals, leavings (of meals); 3. scrap, odd bit (or end). Des bribes fort jolies d'un petit poème, very pretty scraps from a short poem.

BRIBRI, bribri, sm. Orn. yellow-hammer.

BRIC brik. V. Broc.

BRIC-A-BRAC, brikabrak, [onomat.,] sm. bric-à-brac, curios : old furniture, curiosities. Marchand de —, dealer in old furniture, in curiosities. Boutique de —, broker's shop, curiosity shop.

BRICK, brik, BRIG, brig, [Eng. : brig], sm. Naut brig : a two-masted vessel.

BRICOLE, brikol', [Ital. : briccola], sf. 1. breast-band, trace-band : the band placed across a horse's breast instead of a collar. 2. shoulder-straps (to carry a hand-barrow, etc.) 3. window-strap (of a carriage).

4. rebound (of a tennis ball) 5. bricole : rebound of a ball from the band at billiards. Coup de —, rebound or back-stroke. Jouer de —, to play the bricole game, Fig. to use indirect means. N'allez que par —, to use only ndirect (or underhand) means. De —, par —, indirectly, unexpectedly.

6. Naut. tendency to heel over for want of sufficient ballast.

7. Sport. pl. toils, nets (for deer, etc.).

8. Fam. odd job, small work, fadding work.

BRICOLER, brikolé-r, vn. 1. to play the bricole game (at billiards); 2. Fig. to use indirect (or underhand) means; 3. Fam. to do odd jobs; to potter about, to trifle about.

BRICOLEUR, brikolœr, sm. one who does odd jobs or small work. Pop. savetier.

BRICOLIER, brikolyé, sm. 1. off-horse: a horse harnessed to a two-wheel carriage abreast of the shaft-horse, 2. Fig. shuffling fellow, man who lives by expedients.

BRIDE, brid', [O. H. Ger.: Brittil], sf. 1. bridle (for a horse); 2. rein, reins (of a bridle); 3. Fig. curb check, restraint. Mettre une — à un cheval, to put a bridle on a horse. La main de la —, the bridle hand: the left hand. Serrer la — à un cheval, to hold in (or rein in) a horse. Tenir la — haute (or courte), to ride with a tight rein; Fig. to keep a strict hand over a person. Lâcher ou rendre la —, to loose or slacken the rein. Mettre (or laisser) la — sur le cou, to ride with a loose rein; Fig. to leave a person full liberty of action. Aller, courir à — abattue, to go at full gallop, at full speed; Fig. to do anything hastily, precipitately, without reserve or restriction. Je lui ai mis la — sur le cou, I let him take his own course. Lâcher la — à ses passions, to give the rein (or to give free course) to one's passions. Tenir en —, to rein in, to keep tight in hand; Fig. to curb, to hold in check. Pour tenir en — un peuple sans raison, to curb (or restrain) an unreasonable people (or nation). S'ils tiennent la — à leur impatience, if they curb their impatience. Une fureur sans —, unbridled fury. Aller — en main, Fig. to proceed cautiously. Il a plus besoin de — que d'éperon, he needs the curb rather than the spur. Brides à veaux, foolish arguments or reasons, absurd news, silly stories. Prov.: V. Cheval.

4. string (of a bonnet or cap); 5. loop used instead of a button-hole; 6. the stitches across the ends of a button-hole to keep it from tearing; 7. connecting thread (between the flowers of point lace); 8. Med. frænulum, frænum: a membranous filament connecting certain parts; 9. cramp, cramp-iron. — d'étrier, Mach. coupling-plate.

BRIDÉ, E, bridé, pa. p.; adj. 1. bridled; 2. Fig. curbed, restrained, restricted. Cheval sellé et — a horse saddled and bridled. Oison —, bridled gosling (or goose): gosling with a feather stuck in its nostrils to prevent it from getting through fences; Fig. a silly person, simpleton, noddle, booby.

BRIDER, bridé-r, va. 1. to bridle: a) to put a bridle on (a horse, etc.); b) to bind or gird tight, to confine; c) Fig. to curb, (restrain or hold in check). — un cheval, to bridle a horse. — son cheval, son âne, par la queue, to go the wrong way to work, to begin at the wrong end. Chacun bride sa bête, every one does as he pleases. — la bécasse, to make a fool of (to catch, trick or dupe) a person. La bécasse est bridée, the fool is caught. — la figure à quelqu'un d'un coup de fouet, to give one a cut across the face with a whip. Le béguin de cet enfant le bride trop, that child's cap confines it too much, is tied too tight. Il bride la fureur de la mer, he controls the fury of the sea.

2. to truss (a fowl for roasting).

BRIDER, vn. 1. to bridle; 2. to crease, to pucker (as clothes, from being too tight). Il est temps de —, it is time to bridle. Cet habit bride sous les bras, this coat puckers under the arms.

BRIDOIR, bridwâr, [bride], sm. 1. throat-lash (of a bridle); 2. lappet or string (of a woman's cap).

BRIDOISON, bridwâzôn, [bride; oison], sm. simpleton, booby, noodle.

BRIDOLE, bridol', sf. Shipb. wring-staff (for bending planks).

BRIDON, bridôn, sm. bridoon: snaffle-bridle.

BRIE, bri, [old form of broie from broyer, to pound], sf. brake (for kneading paste for macaroni, biscuits, etc.).

BRIE, sm. Brie cheese: a kind of soft cheese, so called from Brie, a province of France where it is made. Donnez-moi du brie, give me some Brie cheese.

BRIEF, ÈVE, brièf, èv', [Lat.: brevis, short], adj. brief, short. Description brieve, brief description.

BRIER, brié-r, [brie], va. to knead (paste for biscuits, etc.).

BRIEUX, briœ [Eugène], play-writer (b. 1858).

BRIÈVEMENT, briév'mân-t, adv. 1. briefly: concisely, succinctly, in few words; 2. soon, shortly, in a short time.

BRIÈVETÉ, briév'té, sf. brevity: a) shortness, briefness; b) conciseness, succinctness. La — de la vie, du temps, the brevity (or shortness) of life, of time. Cet auteur recherche la —, that author aims at conciseness, affects the laconic style.

BRIFAUD, BRIFAU, brifô, [brifer], sm. 1. glutton, gormandizer; 2. rude ill-mannered boy.

BRIFAUD, [Charles], poet and dramatist (1781-1857).

BRIFAUDER, brifôdé-r, va. to give wool the first combing.

BRIFE, brif', sf. hunch of bread.

BRIFER, brifé-r, [orig. unknown], va. to eat greedily, to devour.

BRIFEUR, EUSE, brifœr, œz', smf. gormandizer, ravenous eater.

BRIFIER, brifyé, sm. Build. ridge-lead (of a slated roof).

BRIG, brig, sm. V. Brick.

BRIGADE, brigad', [Ital.: brigata], sf. 1. brigade: corps of troops composed of two regiments; 2. body, troop, band; 3. gang (of carpenters, calkers, in a dockyard). Un général de —, brigadier-general, brigadier. — de gens-d'armes, two or more gendarms under an officer. — de sergents de ville, body (or detachment) of policemen. — de sûreté, police night watch.

BRIGADIER, brigadyé, sm. Milit. 1. corporal (of cavalry); (in the gendarmery) non-commissioned officer commanding a detachment; 2. Naut. bowman: foreman of a boat's crew; 2. Milit. (formerly) brigadier, brigadier-general.

BRIGAND, brigân-t, [Ital.: brigante], sm. 1. ruffian, brigand, bandit: armed robber, plunderer; 2. peculator, extertioner.

BRIGANDAGE, birgândazh', sm. 1. brigandage: robbery, plunder, with violence; 2. robbery, plunder (in a general sense); 3. peculation, extortion.

BRIGANDEAU, brigândô, [brigand], sm. 1. rogue, knave (said of agents and pettifogging lawyers who plunder their clients); 2. young rogue, scamp, rascal.

BRIGANDER, brigândé-r, vn. to act like a brigand: to plunder, to rob, to peculate.

BRIGANDINE, brigândin, sf. brigandine: a coat of mail.

BRIGANTIN, brigântan, [Ital.: brigantino], sm. Naut. brigantine: a hermaphrodite brig, having the mainmast of a schooner and the foremast of a brig.

BRIGANTINE, brigântin', sf. Naut. brigantine: the fore and aft mainsail of a hermaphrodite brig.

BRIGAUT, brigô, [O. Fr.: brigot], sm. large lop (for firewood).

BRIGITTE, brizhit', pmf. Bridget: a woman's name.

BRIGNOLE, brinyol', [Pn.: Brignole, from Brugnole], sf. Brignoles prune: a French plum.

BRIGUE, brig', [Low Lat.: briga, quarrel], sf. 1. manœuvre, intrigue (most frequently used in the sense of corrupt practices employed for obtaining office, preferment, etc.); 2. (in a good sense) canvassing, soliciting (of votes at elections); 3. competition (for office); 4. love-suit, courtship; 5. (in an ill sense) faction, cabal, party. Brigues dans les élections, election manœuvres. Les candidats commencèrent leurs brigues, the candidates began their manœuvres. Convaincu de —, convicted of corrupt practices. La — est nombreuse et puissante, the party (faction, cabal) is numerous and powerful.

BRIGUER, brighé-r, va. 1. to intrigue for (or after): to endeavour to obtain by indirect or corrupt practices; 2. (in a good sense) to canvass (sue or seek) for, to solicit (a favour, office or preferment). — les honneurs, to intrigue for honours (or distincions). Ces princes qui briguaient l'empire et votre main, those princes who aspired to the throne and your hand. Volt. Toutes les nations de l'Europe briguaient l'alliance de l'Angleterre sous le protecteur, all the nations of Europe sought the alliance of England under the protector. Volt. Siècle de L. XIV. vi. — le consulat, to canvass (or stand for) the consulship. — la faveur d'une personne, to court a person's favour.

BRIGUEUR, EUSE, brighœr, œz', smf. 1. petitioner, solicitor, suitor (for favour); 2. candidate (for office, etc.) 3. (in an ill sense) intriguer, plotter schemer.

BRILLAMMENT, briyamân-t, adv. brilliantly: a) brightly, glitteringly, b) splendidly.

BRILLANT, E, briyân-t, ânt', [briller], adj. brilliant: a) bright, shining, shiny, glittering, sparkling; b) radiant, beaming, flourishing; c) splendid, showy, dazzling, resplendent; d) remarkably skilful, ingenious or successful. a) Tout — d'or, all brilliant (glittering) with gold. Couleur brillante, bright (or brilliant) colour. Des yeux brillants, sparkling eyes. Son plumage est alors plus —, its plumage is then brighter (or more brilliant). De brillantes espérances, bright hopes. Un — avenir, a brilliant future. Au moment le plus — de ma vie, at the brightest moment of my life. b) — de santé, beaming with health. Une santé brillante, flourishing health. c) Un — spectacle, a brilliant spectacle, a splendid sight. Un bal —, a splendid ball. Le prince avait une suite brillante, the prince had a brilliant suite (or following). Le général était entouré d'un — état-major, the general was surrounded by a brilliant staff. d) Un orateur —, a brilliant orator. Un officier —, a brilliant officer. Un — exploit, a brilliant exploit. Un — mariage, a splendid match. Un style —, a brilliant style. Les passages qui vous ont paru les plus brillants, the passages which appeared to you the most brilliant.

BRILLANT, sm. briLiancy: a) dazzling brightness; b) lustre, splendour; Fig. glory; c) diamond cut in facets. Donner du — à l'acier, to give brilliancy (or brightness) to steel. Le — d'une pierre précieuse, the lustre (or brilliancy) of a precious stone. Son frère aîné n'avait pas tant de —, his elder brother had fewer brilliant qualties. Il y a du — dans ce poème, there is something brilliant in that poem. J'avais un — de cinq cents livres, I had a brilliant worth five hundred pounds. Faux brillants, imitation diamonds; Fig. meretricious splendour of language, tinsel ornaments.

BRILLANTÉ, E, briyânté, adj. 1. cut as a brilliant; 2. (of style) florid, ornate; (in an ill sense) meretricious.

BRILLANTÉ, sm. 1. dimity : a cotton tissue with inwoven figures; 2. a kind of machine-made lace.

BRILLANTER, briyânté-r, va. 1. to cut (a diamond) as a brilliant; 2. Fig. to honour, to dignify : to render florid or ornate (as style). Le syndicat n'était point alors brillanté par une place permanente dans les États, the syndicate was not then honoured by a permanent place in the states. Mirabeau.

BRILLAT-SAVARIN, briyat-saverân, [Anthelme], author of the Physiologie du gout (1755-1826).

BRILLEMENT, briy'mân-t, sm. brilliancy, shining, lustre.

BRILLER, briyé-r, [Lat. : beryllus, beryl; Ital. : brillare], vn. 1. to shine : a) to emit or reflect light; b) to be luminous,bright, or brilliant; c) to beam, to radiate; d) to glitter, glisten, or sparkle; e) to be conspicuous. La lune brille d'une lumière empruntée, the moon shines with a borrowed light. Les étoiles brillent, the stars glitter (or shine). — de l'éclat de l'or, to glitter like gold. Le feu brille dans ses yeux, fire sparkles in her eyes. Et d'un œil où brillait sa joie et son espoir, and with an eye beaming (or radiant) with her joy and hope. Il trouva le moyen de — par mille petits recits, he contrived to be brilliant with a thousand short stories. Hamil. Gramm. 4. Pour le voir — à la cour de France, to see him shine at the court of France. — par son absence, to be conspicuous by one's absence. Elle brillait dans toutes ses réponses, she was brilliant in all her answers. Tel brille au second rang qui s'éclipse au premier, a man may be very conspicuous in the second rank, and a nobody in the first. Volt. Hen. 1. Le désir de — nuit au talent de plaire, the desire of show is hurtful to the talent of pleasing. La Harpe. Prov. : Tout ce qui brille n'est pas or, all is not gold that glitters.

2. Sport. 1. to beat (a field) for game : said of a pointer; or setter 2. to net birds by torchlight.

BRILLOTTER, briyoté-r, vn. to shine in small matters, to be brilliant on a small scale.

BRIMADE, brimad', [brimer], sf. practical joke : vexation that new comers are made to endure in schools, especially St-Cyr, or in the army : a system of fagging; kicks and blows.

BRIMBALE, branbal', sf. brake : handle of a pump.

BRIMBALEMENT, branbal'mân-t, sm. jangling (of bells).

BRIMBALER, branbalé-r, [orig. doubtful; Fr. : brimber, to go and come], va. 1. to jingle(bells); 2. to sway (or swing) backwards and forwards.

BRIMBELLE, branbèl', sf. Bot. whortle-berry or bilberry.

BRIMBORION, branboriôn, [Lat. : breviarium ?], sm. 1. bawble, gimcrack, knick-knack; 2. pl. fooleries, trumpery, trash, rubbish. Une espèce de pyramide sur la tête, garnie de cent mille brimborions, a kind of pyramid on her head decked with thousands of bawbles. Que voulez-vous faire de tous ces brimborions ? what do you mean to do with all these fooleries,all this trumpery? Hamil. Gramm. 7.

BRIMER, brimé-r, [appears to be for brumer, brume, fog], vn. (in military schools) to play tricks on, to make (a pupil) the object of practical jokes.

BRIN, bran, [orig. unknown], sm. 1. Arboricult. stool : sucker of a tree. Quand on coupe les taillis, on laisse les brins les plus hauts et les plus droits pour venir en haute futaie, in cutting copse-wood, they leave the tallest and straightest stools to grow for timber. Arbre de —, tree with a single straight stem. Bois de —, whole timber (either round or squared with the axe only, as opposed to timber split or quartered with the saw). Un chêne de —, a fine stick of oak, a fine grown-oak — d'estoc, iron-shod staff, leaping-pole. [Fig. :] C'est un beau — d'homme, he is a tall well grown well-shaped or well-made) man. Un beau — de fille, de femme, a tall well-shaped girl, woman.

2. blade (of grass, wheat, etc.); sprig, spray, twig, slip, cutting (of a plant, shrub, etc.). Un — d'herbe, a blade of grass. Un — de bouleau, sprig or twig of birch. Un — de romarin, de sauge, a sprig of rosemary, of sage. Les brins d'un éventail, the sticks (or stretchers) of a (lady's) fan.

3. staple : fibre (of textile substances). Cordage de premier —, ropes made with the best quality of hemp. A — long, à — court, long-stapled, short-stapled (as cotton, wool, etc.).

4. morsel, bit, scrap; Fig. bit, jot, tittle, whit. Il n'a pas un — de paille pour se coucher, pas un — de bois pour se chauffer, he has not a bit of straw to lie on, not a bit of wood to warm himself. Il n'y en a —, there is nothing at all. Il fait chaud, il n'y a pas un — de vent, it is hot there is not a breath of air. Mme de Sév. Sans qu'il se doute — de ce que, without his having the least suspicion, the least inkling of what... La Font. Un — d'impétuosité, a touch of impetuosity. Un — de pain, de feu, a morsel of bread, a bit of fire.

BRINASSE, brinas', [brin], sf. hemp combings : refuse hemp.

BRINDE, brand', [Ger. : bringen; ich bringe dir's, I drink to your health], sf. toast, health. Porter, boire des brindes, to propose, to drink toasts. Il est dans les brindes, he is half-seas over (or three sheets in the wind); he is drunk or intoxicated.

BRINDILLE, brandiy', [brin], sf. Gard. fruit branch (or branchlet); sprig, twig.

BRINGUE, brangh', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. an ill-shaped horse; 2. Pop. an awkward ill-shaped woman. En bringues, all in pieces, in bits; in disorder.

BRINGUEBALE, brângh'bal', sf. handle (of a pump). V. Brimbale.

BRIO, brio, [Ital.], sm. Mus. sprightliness, spirit.

BRIOCHE, briosh', [orig. unknown], sf. 1. brioche : a sort of bun or sponge-cake; 2. Fig. blunder, mistake. Quelle —! what a blunder!

BRION, briôn, sm. 1. Bot. bryum, tree-moss; 2. Naut. forefoot (of a vessel).

BRIQUAILLONS, brikayôn, [brique], sm. pl. brickbats, broken bricks.

BRIQUE, brik', [Eng. : brick], sf. 1. brick : a rectangular mass of burnt clay. Un cent de briques, a hundred bricks. — crue, unburnt brick. Cuire des briques, to burn bricks. Fours à briques, brick-kiln. Terre à briques, brick clay. — réfractaire, fire-brick. Couleur de —, brick colour : a dull red. — anglaise, bath-brick. — vernissée, glazed brick.

2. bar, stick (of soap); 3. block, ingot (of tin).

BRIQUET, brikè-t, sm. 1. steel (for striking a light); 2. tinder-box; 3. short infantry sabre. Battre le —, to strike a light. — phosphorique, phosphorus box. — pneumatique, — à air, pneumatic tinder-box, fire syringe : producing fire by the sudden compression of air.

4. Sport. fox-terrier.

BRIQUETAGE, brik'tazh', [brique], sm. 1. brick-work; 2. imitation brick-work : plaster coloured and lined to imitate bricks.

BRIQUETÉ, E, brik'té, adj. 1. made of bricks; 2. imitating bricks; 3. brick-coloured; 4. Med. lateritious.

BRIQUETER, brick'té-r, va. 1. to brick; 2. to colour and line in imitation of brick-work.

BRIQUETERIE, brik'tri, sf. 1. brick-making; 2. brick-yard.

BRIQUETIER, briktyé, sm. brick-maker.

BRIQUETTE, brikèt', [brique], sf. artificial fuel, patent fuel (made of compressed coal dust and other substances).

BRIS, bri, [briser, to break], sm. 1. breaking (of seals placed on doors, etc., by legal authority); 2. breaking open (a door, etc.). Il est accusé de — de scellé, he is accused of breaking seals. Le juge ordonna le — des portes, the judge ordered the doors to be broken open. — de prison, breaking (out of) prison. — de marché, violent interference with persons bringing goods to market. Nous sommes assurés contre le — des glaces, we are insured against the breakage of our plate glass.

3. Naut. wreck, wreckage : fragments of a ship.

BRISANT, brizân-t, [briser], sm. 1. Naut. breaker : a) a reef, rock, or sandbank rising nearly to the surface of the water, b) wave or surf caused by the same; 2. breakwater (to protect constructions).

BRISAUDER, brizôder, va. Technol. to make the first carding (of wool).

† BRISCAMBILLE, briskânbiy', sf. V. Brusquembille.

BRISCARD, briskar, sm. an old soldier with stripes.

BRISE, briz', [orig. doubtful; O. Fr. : brize; Ital. : brezza; Eng. : breeze], sf. Naut. breeze. — de terre, land breeze. — de mer or du large, sea breeze. Jolie —, gentle (or moderate) breeze. — carabinée, stiff breeze.

BRISÉ, E, brizé, pa. p.; adj. 1. broken : a) shattered, wrecked; b) tremulous, faltering; c) bent, crooked, zigzag (as a line). Navire — par la tempête, a ship broken to pieces (or wrecked) by the tempest. Une branche brisée, a broken branch. Les idoles brisées par les chrétiens, the idols broken by the Christians. Une existence brisée, a wrecked life : life without hope, bowed down with sorrow or care. Caractère —, a moral wreck, a spirit-broken man. Accents brisés, broken (faltering) accents. Voix brisée, tremulous voice. Ligne brisée, bent, crooked line : formed of two or more straight lines joined at any angle.

2. knocked up, worn out, done over (with fatigue). Je suis si fatigué d'avoir été au lit que j'en suis —, I am so tired with lying in bed, that I man quite knocked up.

3. bowed down, broken down, overwhelmed. — par les souffrances, bowed down by suffering, by pain. Il avait le cœur — par la douleur, he was heart-broken with grief.

4. Archit. curbed. Comble —, curbed roof.

5. folding (as doors, etc.). Porte brisée, folding doors. Chaise brisée, folding chair, camp chair.

6. Her. rompu.

BRISE-BISE, briz-biz, sm. 1. list or anything laid on windows to keep out the wind ; 2. short window curtain.

BRISE-COU, briz'kou, sm. breakneck. Cet escalier est un vrai —, that staircase is a regular breakneck. [Pl. Brise-cou.]

BRISÉES, brizé, [briser], sf. pl. 1. Sport. blinks : boughs broken or cut to mark the run of game or a path in a wood ; 2. Fig. traces, track, trail, footsteps. Suivre les brisées de quelqu'un, to follow in a person's track (trail, or footsteps), to follow a person's lead or example. Aller, courir sur les brisées de quelqu'un, to tread in a person's steps, to rival or compete with a person (in any course of action). Revenir sur ses brisées, to retrace one's steps. Reprendre ses brisées, to resume an abandoned design, to renew one's efforts.

BRISE-GLACE, briz'glas', sm. 1. Naut. ice beam : to protect a ship against ice ; 2. Archit. starling (of a bridge). Bateau —, ice-boat (to break ice in canals, etc.). [Pl. Brise glace ou Brise-glaces.]

BRISE-JET, briz-djé, sm. stop-cock antiwaste tap.

BRISE-LAMES, briz'lam', sm. breakwater. — flottant, floating breakwater.

BRISE-LUNETTE, briz'lunèt', sf. Bot. euphrasia, eyebright.

BRISEMENT, briz'mân-t, [briser], sm. breaking. Le — des images, the breaking of images. Le — des flots contre la côte, the breaking of waves against the coast. — de cœur, contrition of heart.

BRISE-MOTTES, briz'mot', sm. Agr. clod-crusher : a heavy iron roller.

BRISE-OS brizô, sm. Orn. osprey, fishing-eagle.

BRISE-PIERRE, briz'pièr', sm. Surg. stone-crusher ; lithoclast, lithotrite.

BRISER, brizé-r, [orig. unknown], va. 1. to break : a) to part or divide by violence ; b) to break to pieces, to shatter, to shiver, to smash, to crush ; c) to ruin, to destroy ; d) to violate, to infringe. — un roseau, to break a reed. — tout ce qu'on ne peut emporter, to break (or destroy) all that cannot be taken away. Le coup lui brisa l'os, the blow broke the bone (of his arm, etc.) — une porte, to break (or break open) a door. — les mottes d'un champ labouré, to break (or crush) the clods of a ploughed field. — un miroir, to break a looking-glass. — en mille pièces, to break (shiver, shatter, smash) into a thousand pieces. Le navire échoua et fut complètement brisé, the ship ran ashore and was totally wrecked. — quelqu'un de coups, to belabour a person with blows. Les cahots de la voiture l'ont brisé, the jolting of the carriage has shaken him terribly. [Fig. :] — les ressort de l'âme et du corps, to break (or crush) the energies of both soul and body. — les liens d'amitié, to break (or sever) the bonds of friendship. — un traité, to break (violate or annul) a treaty. — son avenir, sa carrière, to ruin one's prospects, one's career. — l'effort des vents, to break the strength (or violence) of the wind. — ses fers, — le joug, to break one's chains, to throw off the yoke, to free one's self from tyranny or oppression. — notre espérance, to fustrate our hope. — l'orgueil de quelqu'un, to break (or bring down) a person's pride. — le cœur, o break one's heart.

2. to knock up, to weary, to harass, to annoy. Je suis brisé, I am knocked up (worn out, or done over). — le tympan à quelqu'un, to din one to death. Les cahots de la voiture sur ces pierres m'ont brisé, the jolting of the carriage over those stones has made me quite sore.

3. to break off, to interrupt, to discontinue. — un discours, to break off a speech. [In this sense often neuter :] Brisons là, brisons là-dessus, let us leave off there ; let us have no more on the subject.

4. Herald. to break, to diminish, — un écu, to diminish or rebate (a shield) with marks of cadency.

BRISER, vn. 1. to break (as waves against rocks) ; 2. to break to pieces 3. Sport. to mark down game by breaking branches. Le fracas des vagues qui brisent au loin sur les récifs, the roar of the waves breaking on the reefs in the distance. — avec quelqu'un, to break off with any one.

BRISER (SE), v. refl. 1. to break (to be broken or dashed) to pieces ; 2. Fig. to break (as the heart) ; 3. to fold (as a door, shutter, chair, etc.) ; 4. to take to pieces ; 5. to be refracted (as rays of light). Vaisseaux en danger de se — contre les rochers, vessels in danger of breaking (or of being broken) on the rocks. Les vagues qui vont se — contre ces écueils, the waves which break against these reefs. Fén. Tél. 9. Combien à cet écueil se sont déjà brisés, how many have been dashed to pieces (or wrecked) on these rocks ! [Sometimes without the pronoun :] Il a vu — son navire contre vos rochers, he has seen his vessel broken to pieces on your rocks. Les rayons lumineux se brisent en passant de l'air dans l'eau, the rays of light are refracted in passing from the air into the water.

BRISE-RAISON, briz'rèzôn, sm. wrong-headed person, [Pl. Brise-raison.]

BRISE-SCELLÉ, briz'sèlé, sm. seal-breaker : one who breaks open a door officially sealed. [Pl. Brise-scellé.]

BRISE-TOUT, briz'tou, sm. breaker, demolisher of one who easily breaks everything. [Pl. Brise-tout.]

BRISEUR, brizœr, sm. breaker. Les briseurs d'images, the iconoclasts.

BRISE-VENT, briz'vân, sm. Gard. screen : anything that shelters plants, etc., from the wind.

BRISIS, brizi, [O. Fr. : briseïs, from briser], sm. Arch. the angle of a curbed roof.

BRISKA, briska, [Russian], sm. britzska : a travelling carriage in Russia.

BRISOIR, brizwâr, sm. brake : a machine for breaking flax and hemp.

BRISOU, brizou, sm. V. Grisou.

BRISQUE, brisk', [orig. uncertain ; not an old word, perhaps from Welsh brysg, swift of foot, through Eng. brisk], sf. brisque : a) a game at cards b) trump, in this and some other games.

BRISSOTIN, brisotân, sm. partian of Brissot, a girondin, in 1793.

BRISURE, brizur' [briser], sf. 1. break : broken part, crack, flaw 2. folding joint (of a door, shutter, etc.) ; 3. Herald. rebatement, diminution : insertion of signs of cadency in coats of arms.

BRITANNIQUE, britanik, [Lat. : Britannia], adj. Britannic, British.

BRIZE, briz, [Gr. : βρίξα,] sf. Bot. quaking-grass, briza media.

BRIZEUX, brizœ, [Auguste], poet (1806-1858).

BROC, bro ; the final consonant is always mute, except in verse when rhymed with roc, froc, etc. [Low Lat. : brocchum, a man with projecting teeth], sm. 1. jug, pitcher : a vessel of wood or pewter, containing from 4 to 8 quarts, used by wine dealers ; 2. jugful.

BROC, brok, [broque, in Picardy for broche, spit], sm. spit. De — en bouche, hot from the spit ; Fig. quickly, promptly without loss of time. Manger une perdrix de — en bouche, to eat a partridge the moment it is taken from the spit. De bric en —, one (or some) way or other, by hook or by crook. De bric et de —, il s'est fait une jolie fortune, he has got rich by hook or by crook.

BROCAILLE, brokay', [for blocaille. sf. refuse paving-stones.

BROCANTAGE, brokântazh', [brocanter], sm. brokery, broker's trade ; dealing in old furniture, second-hand goods, etc.

BROCANTE, brokânt', sf. 1. extra work, odd job (done by a workman on his own account at meal times, etc.) ; 2. trifling sale, small bargain. Je n'ai fait que deux ou trois petites brocantes aujourd'hui, I have made only two or three small sales to-day.

BROCANTER, brokânté-r, [Eng. : broke, brokering], vn. to carry on the brokery trade, to buy and sell secondhand goods. Il allait toujours brocantant, he was always buying some old thing or other.

BROCANTEUR, EUSE, brokântœr, œz', smf. broker : dealer in second-hand goods, old furniture, etc.

BROCARD, brokar, [from broquer in Normand Fr. of Picardy, for brocher], sm. gibe, scoff, sneer, taunt. V. Broquart. Vous n'entendrez partout qu'injurieux brocards, you will hear nothing anywhere but insulting gibes. Boil Épît. x.

BROCARDER, brokardé-r, va. and vn. to gibe, to scoff, to sneer, to taunt. C'est assez —, we have had scoffing enough.

BROCARDEUR, EUSE, brokardœr, œz', smf. giber, scoffer, sneerer, taunter.

BROCART, brokar, Ital. : broccato], sm. brocade. — d'or, gold brocade. Habit de —, a coat of brocade.

BROCATELLE, brokatèl', [from O. Fr. : brocat, for brocart], sf. brocatelle : a) an imitation of brocade ; b) Min. a kind of coloured marble.

BROCHAGE, broshazh', [brocher], sm. Book-b., sewing : said only of books the sheets of which are sewed without back-bands, and put in paper covers.

BROCHANT, broshân-t, pr. p. — sur le tout, Herald. over all : passing over all ; Fig. overtopping all, surpassing all (as a finisher, as a climax). Il porte d'azur au lion d'or, à la fasce de gueules — sur le tout, he bears argent with lion or and fess gules over all. Il vient de faire une nouvelle sottise brochant sur le tout, he has just committed another folly surpassing all the rest. V. Brocher.

BROCHE, brosh', [Low Lat. : brocca, pointed thing], sf. 1. spit (for roasting). Mettre un gigot à la —, to spit a leg of mutton. Six broches chargées de gibier devant le feu, six spits loaded with game before the fire. Hamil. Gramm. II. Il faut encore un tour de — à ce morceau de bœuf, that piece of beef must have another turn on the spit. Faire un tour de —, to have a warm before the fire. Rognon à la —, kidney roasted on a skewer.

2. spindle (of a jenny). Filature à deux cents broches, a spinning mill with two hundred spindles. Drap à double —. thick cloth.

3. knitting-needle ; 4. spile, wind-peg, spigot (of a cask). Couper — à quelque chose, to put a stop to a thing.

5. Locksm. axis : the pin which enters the pipe of the key ; 6. Tal.-chandl. rod on which the wicks of candles are strung ; 7. skewer (used by butchers in dressing meat) ; 8. Jewel. brooch ; 9. tusk (of a boar) ; 10. broach : first shoot of a stag's horns ; 11. Bank. bills of exchange for small sums.

BROCHÉE, broshé, sf. 1. Cook. spitful (of meat) ; 2. Tal.-Chandl. rodful, stickful (of candles).

BROCHÉ, E, broshé, adj. 1. sewed or sewn (as books said only of those in paper covers or thin boards) ; 2. figured (as silk fabrics) ; 3. embossed (as linen fabrics) ; 4. badly executed, done hurriedly.

BROCHER broshé-r, Low. Lat. : broccāre, from brocca, spit ; O. Fr. : brochier then brocher], va. 1. to figure : to weave in patterns. — une étoffe d'or et d'argent, to figure (or work) a tissue with gold or silver.

2. to sew (books) : to sew the sheets together and put them in a paper wrapper. Il n'est pas nécessaire de relier ces livraisons, il suffit de les —, it is not necessary to bind those numbers, just sew them and put them in a paper wrapper.

3. Fig. to hurry through (or over), to execute hurriedly, carelessly, or negligently ; Colloq. to scamp (work). Cet écolier broche ses devoirs, that pupil hurries through his tasks.

4. Farr. to drive (a nail, in shoeing a horse, etc.) 5. to head (pins).

BROCHET, broshè-t, [broche], sm. Ichth. pike (or jack), esox lucius. — carreau, a four-year-old pike.

BROCHETER, brosh'té-r, [broche], va. to skewer : to fasten with skewers.

BROCHETON, brosh'tôn, sm. Ichth. pickerel : a small pike.

BROCHETTE, broshèt', [dim. of broche], sf. 1. skewer (to fix meat on a spit) ; 2. brochette : a small spit or large skewer for roasting or broiling small birds or fish. Une brochette d'éperlans, d'alouettes, a brochette of whitings, of larks.

3. Tech. pin (to fasten or hold anything) ; 4. stick (for feeding birds). Élever des oiseaux à la —, to bring up birds by hand. Élever un enfant à la —, to bring up a child daintily.

5. pl. clippings of skins (used to make size).

BROCHEUR, EUSE, broshœr, œz', smf. book-sewer.

BROCHOIR, broshwâr, [brocher, to clench] sm. Farr. shoeing-hammer.

BROCHURE, broshur', sf. 1. sewing (of books) ; 2. book-sewer's trade ; 3. pamphlet : a book not exceeding twelve sheets, sewed and put in a paper wrapper ; 4. inwoven pattern (on textile fabrics).

BROCOLI, brokoli, [Ital. : broccolo], sm. Gard. 1. broccoli : purple cauliflower ; 2. cabbage-sprout.

BRODÉ, E, brodé, pa. p. embroidered : worked with the needle ; Fig. embellished, overcharged, highly coloured (as a story). Un mouchoir —, an embroidered handkerchief. — au jour, embroidered in openwork open-worked.

BRODEQUIN, brod'kan, [Dutch and Flem. : brosekin], sm. 1. brodekin : a kind of half-boot ; 2. sock : the soccus of the ancients, a low-heeled shoe worn by comedians ; Fig. comedy ; 3. buskin : boot (laced or buttoned, worn by women and children) ; 4. redness of the feet caused by a foot-bath ; 5. pl. boots, boot, or bootikin : an instrument of torture. Chausser le —, to write (or play) a comedy. Mais quoi ! je chausse ici le cothurne tragique, reprenons au plutôt le — comique, but I am now strutting in the tragic buskin, let me at once resume the comic sock. Boil. Sat. 10.

BRODER, brodé-r, [Celt. and Germ. languages : brozd, point], va. 1. to embroider, to ornament with figures in needlework ; 2. to embellish, to overdraw, to overcharge, to amplify (a narrative or description) ; 3. to write like copperplate. — de soie, d'or, to embroider (or work) with silk, with gold. — un chiffre, une fleur, to embroider a cipher, a flower. — au crochet, to embroider in chain-stitch. Elle s'use la vue à —, she is ruining her eyes by embroidering. — une histoire, un conte, to embellish, to make up a story, a tale. Ne se permettre aucune fiction, ne — aucune circonstance, to indulge in no fiction, to overdraw or amplify no circumstance.

BRODERIE, brod'ri, sf. 1. embroidery ; 2. embellishment, exaggeration, amplification : 3. Mus. grace notes. — de soie, silk embroidery. Comment dans ce récit, distinguer du fond la —? how can we, in this narrative, distinguish exaggeration from fact ?

BRODEUR, EUSE, brodœr, œz', smf. embroiderer ; 2. embellisher (of a story, etc.) — de dentelles, de mousseline, lace-runner, muslin-sewer. Autant pour le — making handsome deductions for embellishments (or exaggerations).

BRODOIR, brodwar, sm. small bobbin around which silk to be embroidered is twisted.

BROIE, brwà, [broyer], sf. brake (for breaking hemp, etc.)

BROIEMENT, BROIMENT, brwàmân-t, sm. 1. grinding (colour) ; 2. pounding (with a pestle) ; 3. Metal. crushing, stamping (of ores, etc.) ; 4. Surg. crushing (of a limb, etc.) V. Broyer.

BROMATE, bromat', sm. Chem. bromate.

BROMATOLOGIE, bromatolozhi, [Gr. : βρῶμα, food ; λόγος, discourse], sf. bromatology : treatise on food.

BROME, brom, sm. 1. Chem. bromine ; 2. Bot. brome-grass.

BROMÉLÉES, bromélé, sf. pl. Bot. bromeliaceæ : a large family of monocotyledonous plants.

BROMÉLIACÉE, broméliasé, adj. Bot. bromeliaceous : resembling bromelia.

BROMÉLIE, broméli, [from Bromelius, a botanist], sf. Bot. bromelia, the pine-apple.

BROMIQUE, bromik', [brome], adj. Chem. bromic.

BROMURE, bromur', sm. Chem. bromide.

BRONCHADE, brônshad', [broncher], sf. stumble, trip.

BRONCHE, brônsh', [Gr. : βρόγχια], sf. Anat. bronchus. La ramification des bronches, the ramification of the bronchi, of the bronchial tubes.

BRONCHEMENT, brônsh'mân-t, sm. stumbling, tripping.

BRONCHER, brônshé-r, [O. Fr. : bronche, branch], vn. to stumble : a) Lit. or Fig. to trip, to make a false step ; b) Fig. to hesitate, to falter, to boggle, to flinch. Un cheval qui bronche, a stumbling horse. Une pierre m'a fait —, a stone made me stumble (or tripped me up). Les enfants ne bronchent pas devant lui, the children never falter before him. Jamais au bout d'un vers on ne te voit —, you are never seen to hesitate (or falter) at the end of a verse. Boil. Sat. 2. Il a reçu le coup sans —, he received the blow without flinching. Prov. : Il n'y a si bon cheval qui ne bronche, it is a good horse that never stumbles ; Fig. the best of men may err at times.

BRONCHIAL, E, brônshial, al', bronche]. adj. Anat. bronchial. Les arcs bronchiaux, the bronchial arches.

BRONCHIES, brônshi, sf. pl. V. Branchies.

BRONCHIQUE, brônshik, adj. Anat. bronchial, bronchic.

BRONCHITE, brônshit', sf. Med. bronchitis.

BRONCHOCÈLE, brônkosèl', [Gr. : βρόγχος, throat ; κήλη, tumour], sf. Med. bronchocele ; Pop. goitre, Derbyshire neck.

BRONCHOLITHE, bronkolit, [Gr. : βρόγχος, throat; λίθος, stone], sf. Med. broncholith : calculus which forms in the branchiæ.

BRONCHOPHONIE, brônkofoni, [Gr. : βρόγχος, throat ; φωνή, voice], sf. Auscul. bronchophony.

BRONCHORRHÉE, brônkoré, sf. Med. bronchorrhœa : pituitous catarrh.

BRONCHOTOMIE, brônkotomi, [Gr. : βρόγχος, bronchus ; τομή, section], sf. Surg. bronchotomy.

BRONTOLITHE, brôntolit', [Gr.: βροντή, thunder ; λίθος, stone], sm. brontolite, thunderstone.

BRONTOMÈTRE, bôntomètre', [Gr. : βροντή, thunder ; μέτρον, measure], sm. brontometer : an instrument to measure the intensity of atmospheric electricity in storms.

BRONZAGE, brônzazh, [bronze], sm. Technol. bronzing, browning (of copper goods).

BRONZE, brônz', [Ital. : bronzo from Lat. Brundusium, modern Brindisi], sm. bronze : a) an alloy of tin and copper ; b) Fig. iron, steel, flint, adamant, anything hard and insensible ; c) Sculp. a bronze statue ; d) Arch. monumental brass or bronze; e) bronze medal or coin ; f) Poet. cannon, ordnance. — d'ornement, ornamental bronze. — d'imitation, imitation bronze. Une colonne de —, a bronze column. Canons de —, bronze cannons : more generally, but incorrectly, called brass cannons. Le — sonore, the sounding bronze : bells. Avoir un cœur de —, to have a heart of flint, to be hard-hearted (or unfeeling). Âmes de —, intrepid souls. Un beau —, a fine bronze : a statue or other work of art. Les courtisans du cheval de —, the pickpockets of Pont-Neuf (so called from the bronze statue of Henri IV, on that bridge). — jaune, bronze powder ; Dutch gold-leaf reduced to powder.

BRONZÉ, E, brônzé, pa. p. ; adj. bronzed : a) coloured to imitate bronze ; b) tanned, sunburnt ; c) casehardened : insensible to danger, shame, or disgrace. Une statuette bronzée, a bronzed statuette. Des souliers bronzés, bronzed leather shoes. Un teint —, Visage—, a tanned, a sunburnt complexion. C'est un homme —, he is case-hardened ; he is insensible to danger, shame, etc.

BRONZER, brônzé-r, [bronze], va. to bronze : a) to colour like bronze ; b) to brown (a gunbarrel) ; c) to tan, to sun-burn (the complexion). — une statue de plâtre, to bronze a plaster statue. Bronzé par le hâle, par le soleil, sunburnt, tanned by the sun. Il a plu à la Providence de bronzer les hommes aux Grandes-Indes, Providence has been pleased to give the Hindoos a bronzed or tawny skin. Volt. Relat. 179.

BRONZER (SE), v. refl. 1. to become of a bronze colour ; 2. to be tanned or sunburnt ; 3. to steel, to grow hard. Son cœur s'est bronzé, his heart is steeled, has grown hard.

BROQUART, brokar, sm. brocket : a stag in its second year.

BROQUE, brok', sm. Gard. savoy (cabbage) sprout.

BROQUER, broké-r, [broche], va. Fish. to put a live fish on the hook (as a bait).

BROQUETTE, brokèt', [broche], sf. 1. ler's tack (when black), tin rack (when tinned); 3. (as a collective) tacks. Clouer avec de la —, to fasten with tacks.

BROSSAGE, brosazh', [brosse], sm. brushing (of clothes, etc.).

BROSSAILLES, brosay', sf. pl. V. Broussailles.

BROSSE, bros', [Low Lat. : brustia, what bristles; Ger. : Borste, Bürste, brush], sf. brush : a) an instrument made of bristles, etc., for cleaning, applying colours, etc.; b) a coarse pencil of bristles used by artist painters; c) brushwood, bushes, scrub; d) tuft of long hair growing on the legs of deer and other ruminants. — à chapeau, hat-brush. — à habits, clothes-brush. — à tête, à dents, à ongles, hair-brush, tooth-brush, nail-brush. — à barbe, shaving brush. — à peindre, painting brush, paint brush. Brosses pour la chaussure, shoe-brushes. — rude, — douce, hard brush, soft brush, — pour la peau, — à friction, flesh brush, friction brush. [Fig. :] Ce tableau est d'une belle —, this painting is by a good brush, is well executed.

BROSSÉE, brosé, sf. 1. brushing, scrubbing; 2. Fig. beating, drubbing. Donner au parquet une forte —, to give the floor a good scrubbing. Donner une bonne — à quelqu'un, to give any one a good beating, a sound thrashing.

BROSSER, brosé-r, va. 1. to brush; 2. to thrash, to drub; 3. to beat (at play). — un habit, to brush a coat. Se — la tête, to brush one's own hair. — un cheval, to brush (or rub down) a horse. Se faire — par son domestique, to be flesh-brushed by one's servant. — quelqu'un, to brush a person's clothes; Fig. to dust a person's jacket, to thrash a person.

BROSSER (SE), v. refl. to brush one's self, to brush one's own clothes. Se — le ventre, Fam. 1. to go without food; 2. to be obliged to do without something.

BROSSER, vn. 1. Sport. to brush, to scour; 2. to brush through, to pass hastily through. — dans les bois, to brush through the woods. Le cerf brosse, the stag is on the move. Il brossa à travers la compagnie et disparut, he brushed through the company and disappeared.

BROSSERIE, bros'ri, sf. 1. brush-making, the brush-trade; 2. a brush-manufactory. Il est dans la —, he is in the brush-trade.

BROSSES, bros [Charles de], historian (1709-1777).

BROSSEUR, brosœr, sm. Milit. brusher officer's servant.

BROSSIER, brosyé, sm. brush-maker brush-manufacturer.

BROSSURE, brosur', [brosse], sf. colour applied to skins with a brush.

BROU, brou, [brouter], sm. 1. walnut husk; the green outer shell on sarcocarp of the walnut; 2. husk, sarcocarp of almonds, etc. — de noix, or ratafia de — de noix, walnut cordial.

BROUAILLES, brouây, [O. Fr. : brueille, from Low Lat. : burbalia; burba. mire], sf. pl. guts, entrails (of fish, etc.)

BROUE, brou, sf. mist, fog.

BROUET, brouè-t, [Low Lat. : brodium], sm. 1. porridge, gruel; 2. (in an ill sense) bad broth; pot-liquor, dish-water; 3. caudle (for lying-in women). — noir, the back broth of the Spartans. — d'andouille, tripe liquor. Cela s'en est allé en — d'andouille, it all came to nothing; it ended in smoke.

BROUETTE, brouèt', [O. Fr. : berouette; Low Lat. : birota : Lat. : bis, twice, rota, wheel], sf. 1. wheelbarrow; barrow; 2. † bath-chair : a two or three-wheeled carriage for invalids, etc., propelled or drawn by hand. Etre condamné à la —, to be condemned to hard labour, to penal servitude. — à sacs, (diable), wool-sack barrow.

BROUETTÉE, brouété, sf. barrowful : the load of a wheel-barrow.

BROUETTER, broueté-r, va. 1. to wheel in a barrow; 2. to push or draw in a bath-chair.

BROUETTEUR, brouètœr, sm. 1. barrowman; 2. chair-man.

BROUETTIER, brouètyé, sm. barrowman.

BROUHAHA, brouaa, [onamat.], sm. 1. cheers (of approbation); 2. groans, shouts (of disapprobation); 3. uproar, hubbub, hullabaloo. Quel —! what an uproar.

BROUI, brouy, sm. blow-pipe (of an enameller).

BROUILLAGE, brouyazh', [brouiller], sm. 1. Agr. spreading of weeds to dry; 2. Min. interruption in the direction of a lode or vein (of ore).

BROUILLAMINI, brouyamini, [corr. of Bol d'Arménie, from Lat. boli armenii], sm. 1. Vet. Surg. plaster of Armenian bole; 2. Fig. hubbub, confusion, disorder, pother.

BROUILLARD, brouyar, [brouiller], sm. 1. fog; mist, haze : a) watery vapour; b) Fig. mistiness, haziness, obscurity. Un — épais, a dense fog. Il fait du —, it is foggy. N'y voir qu'à travers un —, to be dim- (or weak-) sighted. Je n'y vois que du —, it is all as mist to me; I can make nothing of it. Une créance hypothéquée sur les brouillards de la Seine, an unsecured (or worthless) debt; a draft on Aldgate pump. Etre dans les brouillards, to be in liquor, to be tipsy. Un esprit plein de brouillards, a muddle-headed person.

2. Book-k. waste-book. [Adject. :] Papier —, blotting paper.

BROUILLASSE, brouyas', [O. Fr. : brouillas, fog], sf. Naut. mist, slight fog.

BROUILLASSER, brouyasé-r, vn. to be misty or foggy. Il brouillasse, it is foggy, it drizzles. Used only impersonally.

BROUILLE, brouy' [brouiller], sf. disagreement, discord, variance. Il y a de la — dans cette maison, there is discord in that house. Etre en — avec une personne, to be at variance (or on ill terms) with a person.

BROUILLÉ, E, brouyé, pa. p. 1. mingled, mixed; beaten up; 2. embroiled, jumbled together, disordered, troubled, confused : mixed confusedly. Des œufs brouillés, eggs beaten up together. [Fig. :] Mes idées sont toutes brouillées là-dessus, my ideas are all in a jumble on that subject. On dit que son timbre est —, they say that his brains are muddled, that he is crack-brained. Les cartes sont bien brouillées, Fig. things are terribly embroiled, are in a terrible jumble.

3. fallen out (with), disunited; at variance, on ill terms. Amis brouillés, friends disunited, at variance. Etre — avec quelqu'un, to have fallen out (or disagreed) with a person. Etre — avec la justice, to have a bone to pick with the law, to be liable to prosecution for some offence. — avec le sens commun, at odds with common sense. Etre — avec l'argent comptant, to have no money, to be penniless.

BROUILLEMENT, brouy'mâ*n*-t, sm. mixing, mingling; (in an ill sense) jumbling.

BROUILLER, brouyé-r, [orig. unknown], va. 1. to mix or mingle (confusedly), to mix up together, to beat up (as eggs); to jumble, to throw into confusion; to confuse, to embroil. — plusieurs vins les uns avec les autres, to mix or mingle several kinds of wine. Il a brouillé tous mes papiers, he has mixed or jumbled together all my papers. — du vin, to make wine thick by disburbing the sediment. — les cartes, to shuffle the cards; Fig. to embroil matters, to cause confusion, discord, or disorder. — le teint, to spoil one's complexion. — une serrure, to hamper a lock (by forcing the wards). — les affaires, to embroil matters, to throw things into confusion. — la vue, to impair, to dim the sight. — l'esprit, les idées, to confuse one's mind, one's ideas. L'amour lui a brouillé la cervelle. love has turned his brain (or head). L'empereur Constance brouilla tout dans l'Église, the emperor Constantius threw the Church into confusion. Boss. His. II. 12. — quelqu'un, to puzzle, embarras or perplex a person. — du papier, to spoil paper, to scribble nonsense.

2. to set at variance, to cause discord or misunderstanding (between or among), to make mischief. Il s'efforçait de me brouiller avec vous, he endeavoured to set me against you (or at variance with you). — les gens, to make mischief between (or among) people, to set people at loggerheads.

BROUILLER, vn. 1. to blunder, to bungle, to fumble; 2. to make mischief, to cause trouble, confusion or disorder. Elles filaient si bien que les sœurs filandières ne faisaient que — au prix de celles-ci, they spun so well that the Fatal Sisters were but bunglers in comparison. La Font. Fab. V. 6. Il saisit avidement toute occasion de —, he was eager to seize every opportunity of making mischief.

BROUILLER (SE), v. refl. 1. to become (grow or get) confused, perplexed, embroiled. Les affaires de l'empire se brouillaient d'une terrible manière, the affairs of the empire becoming terribly embroiled, were falling into terrible confusion. Boss. His. I. 10. Ma mémoire se brouille, my memory gets confused. Cela s'était brouillé dans ma tête, that had become confused in my head. Le temps se brouille, the weather looks threatening, is changing for the worse; Fig. things look threatening, are assuming an unfavourable aspect. Se — en parlant, to get confused in speaking, to lose the thread of one's discourse.

2. to fall out, to disagree (or quarrel); to be at variance, on ill terms. Il se brouilla avec tous ses parents, he quarrelled with all his relations. Se — avec la justice, to come within the clutches of the law, to expose one's self to a criminal prosecution.

BROUILLERIE, brouy'ri, sf. 1. disagreement : difference, misunderstanding, quarrel, falling out 2. trouble : commotion, disturbance. Je prévois une — entre nous, I foresee a disagreement between us. Il connaît le fond et les causes de la — des deux frères, he knows the ground and the causes of the misunderstanding between the two brothers. Manassès excita des brouilleries parmi les Juifs, Manasses excited troubles among the Jews. En faisant la comparaison des lettres, je trouvais de la — avec les autres, on comparing the letters, I found some disaccord with the others.

BROUILLON, ONNE, brouyô*n*, yon', adj. 1. meddlesome, meddling, intermeddling, mischief-making; 2. blundering, bungling. Je ne saurais aucunement approuver ces humeurs brouillonnes, I cannot in any way approve these meddlesome, mischief-making humours. Le démon — dont il est possédé, the mischief-making devil which possesses him.

BROUILLON, ONNE, smf. 1. meddler, intermeddler, mischief-maker, busybody, makebate, marplot; 2. muddler, blunderer, blunderhead. Un séditieux et un —, a sower of sedition and mischief-maker. C'est une brouillonne, she is a busy-body, a mischief-maker.

BROUILLON, sm. 1. first (or rough) draft (of a writing); 2. scribbling paper; 3. Book-k. waste-book. Le — d'une lettre, the rough draft of a letter. Un cahier de —, a book of scribbling paper.

BROUILLONNER, brouyoné-r, va. to draft: to draw up, to make a first sketch (of a letter, etc.).

BROUIR, brouir, [O. Fr.: bruir, to burn], va. to blast, to blight (as young shoots or leaves by the sun after a frost).

BROUISSURE, brouisur', [brouir], sf. blight (of young shoots, etc., caused by the sun after a frost).

BROUSSAILLE, brousay', [brosse], sf. 1. thicket, brushwood, underwood; scrub (in Australia); 2. pl. bushes, briars, brambles. Son cheval s'écarte et fuit dans la —, his horse bolts and rushes into the thicket. Les sots sont la — du genre humain, fools are the scrub (or the brambles) of mankind. Des sourcils en broussailles, shaggy eye-brows.

BROUSSAILLEMENT, brousia'mán, sm. the spreading, the growing of brush-wood.

BROUSSE, brous', sf. a kind of soft cheese.

BROUSSIN, brousàn, sm. 1. gnarl: a knotty, and often beautifully veined excrescence of maple and other trees, used for veneers; 2. a dish of soft cheese prepared with vinegar and pepper.

BROUSSURE, brousur', sf. Agr. bunt, dust-brand, uredo segetum: caries of wheat.

BROUT, brou, [brouter], sm. browse, browse-wood. Mal de —, Vet. Surg. browsing disease.

BROUTANT, E, broután-t, ánt', adj. browsing.

BROUTEMENT, brout'mán-t, sm. browsing.

BROUTER, brouté-r, [O. Fr.: brouster], va. and vn. to browse: to eat grass or the shoots of trees. L'agneau broute le serpolet, the lamb browses on wild thyme. Prov.: Où la chèvre est attachée, il faut qu'elle broute, where the goat is tethered, there it must browse; Fig. we must accommodate ourselves to our circumstances. L'herbe sera bien courte s'il ne trouve de quoi brouter, the grass must be very short indeed if he cannot find wherewith to browse.

BROUTILLES, broutiy', sf. pl. 1. young shoots or twigs (of trees, etc.); 2. knick-knacks, trifles. Il n'est occupé qu'à des broutilles, he thinks of nothing but trifles.

BROUTURE, broutyur, sf. 1. browsing; 2. fresh shoots or branches nibbled at the ends.

BROYAGE, brwazh, [broyer], sm. pounding, crushing, grinding. V. Broyer.

BROYE, brwá, sf. 1. brake (for dressing hemp or flax); 2. V. Braye.

BROYEMENT, bråwmán-t or broy'mán-t, pounding, grinding, crushing.

BROYER, brwâyé-r, or broyé-r, [orig. uncertain; perhaps Ger.: brechen; Eng.: break], conj. like aboyer, va. 1. to pound: to bray with a pestle; 2. to grind: a) to chew, masticate, crunch or crush (with the teeth); b) to prepare paint with a muller or a mill; 3. to pulverise: to reduce to powder; 4. to crush, to smash. — une drogue dans un mortier, to pound a drug in a mortar. Les dents molaires broient les aliments, the molar teeth grind the food. — les couleurs, to grind colours. — la pierre dans la vessie, to crush the stone in the bladder. La roue lui broya la jambe, the wheel crushed his leg. — du noir, Fig. to have the blue devils; to give way to melancholy; to be in a brown study.

BROYEUR, brwâyœr, or broyœr, sm. 1. pounder, grinder 2. hemp-dresser: breaker of hemp. — d'ocre, a sorry painter.

BROYON, brwâyòn or broyòn, sm. 1. Typogr. brayer (for ink); 2. Sport. deadfall: trap for polecats and other vermin.

BRU, bru, [O. H. Ger.: Brût; Ger.: Braut, fiancée], sf. daughter-in-law: the wife of one's son.

BRUANT, bruán-t, [bruire], sm. Ornith. yellow-hammer.

BRUANTIN, bruántan, sm. Ornith. rice-bird, bobolink.

BRUCELLE, brusèl', sf. Bot. brown-wort.

BRUCELLES, brusèl', sf. pl. pliers, tweezers: small spring pincers.

BRUCHE, brush', [Lat.: bruchus; Gr.: βροῦχος, May-bug.], sf. Entom. pea-weevil.

BRUCINE, brusin', sf. Chem. brucia, brucine.

BRUEYS, bruyès, [David-Augustin de], poet and prose-writer (1640-1723).

BRUGNON, brunyòn, sm. nectarine, clingstone nectarine.

BRUINE, bruin', [Lat.: pruina], sf. drizzle, drizzling rain, Scotch mist. La — argentée des roues du bateau à vapeur, the silvery spray from the paddles of the steamer.

BRUINÉ, E, bruiné, adj. mildewed: spoiled by humidity, said of corn only.

BRUINER, bruiné-r, [bruine], vn. impers. Il bruine, it drizzles or mizzles. Il a bruiné toute la matinée, it has drizzled (or has been drizzling) all the morning.

BRUINEUX, EUSE, bruinœ, œz', adj. drizzly, drizzling.

BRUIRE, bruir', [orig. unknown; prob. imitative, also Low Lat.: brugitus from brūgĕre], vn. defect. [Je bruis, tu bruis, il bruit; je bruyais or bruissais; je bruirai, je bruirais; bruit.] vn. 1. to rustle; 2. to rattle; 3. to rumble; 4. to clatter; 5. to hum, to buzz. Le vent bruit dans la forêt, the wind rustles through the forest. On entend bruire les vagues, le vent, le tonnerre, we hear the waves roar, the wind howl (or whistle), the thunder roll (or crash). Les insects bruissaient dans l'herbe, the insects were buzzing in the grass. Les serpents à sonnettes bruyaient de toutes parts, the rattle snakes were hissing all around. Chateaub. Atala. Faire — les fuseaux, to make the spindles whirl; Fig. to make a great noise in the world.

BRUISINER, bruiziné-r, [O. Fr.: bruisier, for briser], va. to bruise or grind (as malt for brewing).

BRUISSANT, E, bruisán-t, ánt', adj. noisy, rattling, brawling. Les longs roulements du — tambour, the long rolling of the noisy drum.

BRUISSEMENT, bruis'mán-t, [bruire], sm. 1. noise; 2. roaring; 3. rattle, rattling; 4. rumbling; 5. buzzing, humming. — d'oreilles, noise in the ears, in the head. — d'une voiture, rumbling of a carriage. Le — des feuilles, the rustling of the leaves. Le — du vent, the soughing of the wind.

BRUIT, brui-t, [bruire], sm. 1. noise: a) sound of any kind, but chiefly when loud, confused, or disagreeable; din, rattle, rumbling, clatter, patter, pattering, particular kinds being distinguished by a great variety of words, as: roaring, whistling, rustling (of the wind); report (of a gun); bang, slam (of a door); crack, smack (of a whip); b) public talk, fuss, ado, sensation; c) quarrel, quarrelling; d) trouble, disturbance, riol, commotion. Grand —, a great noise. — éclatant, a loud noise, stunning noise. Un — à fendre la tête, a noise loud enough to stun one. Entendre du —, to hear a noise. Faire du —, to make a noise. Ce n'est point là de la musique, ce n'est que du —, that is not music, it is only a noise. Sans —, quietly, silently, without any fuss. Au — des cloches, at the sound of the bells. Le — du tambour, the roll of the drum. Le — de la guerre, the din of war. Se retirer loin du —, to withdraw (or retire) from the world, from the turmoil of life. Vivre loin du —, to live in retirement, in privacy. Faire plus de — que de besogne, to make more noise than work, to be all talk and little work. Mener grand —, to keep up a clatter.

b) Il n'est — que de cela, that is all the talk. Le commun —, the public voice. — public, common report (or talk). La beauté de Mlle Stewart commençait à faire du —, Miss Stewart's beauty began to be the talk (or to make a sensation). Hamil. Gram. 6. Cette nouvelle ne fit aucun — à Versailles, that news made no sensation at Versailles. Ce livre fait du —, that book makes a great noise (or sensation), that book is all the talk. Faire grand — de quelque chose, to make a great noise (fuss or ado) about a thing, to set a high value on a thing. Ces vertus dont vous faites tant de —, these virtues about which you make such a fuss.

c) Ils ont eu du — ensemble, they have had a quarrel. Il y a grand — dans ce ménage, there is great quarrelling in that house. Je ferai beau —, I shall make a fine noise. Là-dessus nous n'aurons point de —, we will not quarrel about that.

d) Il y a du — dans la ville, there is a disturbance in the town. On craint pour ce soir du — dans la ville, it is feared there will be rioting in the town to-night.

2. report, rumour. Bruits de Bourse, stock-exchange rumours. J'ai fait semer ce —, I set that rumour afloat. Les mauvais bruits qui courent de lui, the evil reports current about him. Un — assez étrange est venu jusqu'à moi, a rather strange report has come to my ears or to my knowledge, Rac. Iph. IV, 6.

3. fame, reputation; repute. Ils ont à soutenir le — de leurs exploits, they have to sustain the fame of their exploits. Il ne faut pas que mon nom paraisse, je n'ai pas bon —, my name must not appear, I am not in good repute.

4. sound, mention, echo. Les peuples tremblaient au seul — de son nom, the nations trembled at the mere mention of his name. Fén. Tél. 8. La gloire des armes est un vain —, the glory of arms is an empty sound

A GRAND BRUIT, adv. phr. 1. noisily, loudly; 2. with pomp, parade or ostentation; ostentiously. Chasser à grand —, to hunt with hound and horn.

A PETIT BRUIT, adv. phr. without ostentation, noise, or fuss; quietly, silently. Je me divertirai à petit —, I shall divert myself quietly.

SANS BRUIT, adv. phr. without noise or fuss; quietly, softly, gently. On le fit sortir sans —, they turned him out quietly. Prov.: Beaucoup de bruit pour rien, much ado about nothing. Beaucoup de bruit, peu de besogne, great cry, little wool. Le bruit pend l'homme, he that has an ill name is half-hanged. A beau se lever tard, qui a bruit de se lever matin, a good reputation will cover a multitude of sins. L'un a le bruit, l'autre lave la laine, the one has the name, the other the work.

BRÛLABLE. brulabl', adj. 1. burnable; 2. deserving to be burnt. Le livre le plus dangereux et le plus —, the most dangerous book, most deserving to be burnt by the hangman (or public executioner.)

BRÛLAGE, brulazh', sm. Agr. burning (of weeds, etc.)

BRÛLANT, E, brulân-t, ânt, adj. 1. burning : a) flaming, on fire; b) burning-hot, hot as fire, scorching, parching; c) fervid, fervent, ardent, glowing; d) inflamed, impassioned. Du bois —, burning wood. A la lueur de nos palais brûlants, by the light of our burning palaces. Des marrons brûlants, chestnuts burning hot. L'air est —, the air is suffocating, burning hot. Question brûlante, Fig. a burning question. Terrain —, Fig. dangerous ground. Fièvre brûlante, a burning fever. La peau de ce malade est brûlante, this patient's skin is burning hot. — d'amour, burning (or inflamed) with love. Un zèle—, burning (fiery, fervent or ardent) zeal. Piété brûlante, fervent piety. Une éloquence brûlante, burning (fervid, glowing) eloquence. Style —, glowing style. Les sables brûlants du désert, the hot, the burning sands of the desert.

2. Bot. stinging. L'ortie est une plante brûlante, the nettle is a stinging plant.

BRÛLÉ, E, brulé, pa. p.; adj. 1. burnt; 2. Fig. burning, fired, inflamed; 3. sunburnt, tanned. Une terre brûlée par le soleil, land burnt (or parched) up by the sun. — du désir de rentrer dans sa patrie, burning with the desire to return to his own country. Un cerveau —, une cervelle brûlée, a fanatic, an enthusiast. Avoir le teint — par le soleil, to be tanned or sun-burnt.

BRÛLÉ, sm. burn, burning. Cela sent le —, that smells of burning Fig. that looks suspicious, that has a bad look. Avoir un goût de —, to taste of burning, of burnt-to.

BRÛLE-AMORCE, brul amorse, sm. Mar. primer : apparatus for firing off a charge, as a signal at sea.

BRÛLE-BOUT, brul'bou, sm. save-all.

BRÛLE-GUEULE, brûl'gœl', sm. cutty-pipe : short pipe for smoking. [Pl. Brûle-gueule.]

BRÛLEMENT, brûl'mân-t, sm. burning : a) act of burning; b) sensation of burning.

BRÛLE-POURPOINT (A), brûl'-pour'-pwan, adv. phr. close to. Tirer un coup de feu sur quelqu'un à —, to fire at a person with the muzzle (of the gun, etc.) so near as to burn his clothes; Fig. to say a thing to a person's face, to his teeth; to give a home-thrust, to strike home. Raison, argument à —, a convincing reason, an irrefutable argument; a settler, a clincher.

BRÛLE-QUEUE, brûl'kœ, sm. Vet. Surg. cauting-iron, searing-iron. [Pl. Brûle-queue or Brûle-queues.]

BRÛLER, brulé-r, [Low Lat. : brustalāre, by degrees, brustlar, brusler, brûler], va. 1. to burn : a) to consume, wound or injure with fire; b) Fig. to inflame, to fire, to consume; c) to destroy, hurt or injure by intense cold; d) to corrode (as acids); Surg. to cauterize with fire, or any caustic substance; e) to use for fuel or lighting; f) to scorch, parch or dry up; to tan (the skin); g) to heat, to cause a sensation or heat, to parch. a) La maison a été brûlée de fond en comble, the house has been burnt to the ground. Les Romains brûlèrent Carthage, the Romans burnt Carthage. Les Grecs et les Romains brûlaient les morts, the Greeks and the Romans burned the dead. Il fut condamné à être brûlé vif, he was condemned to be burnt alive, to be burnt at the stake. — à petit feu, to burn with a slow fire. Cette étincelle m'a brûlé la main, that spark has burned my hand. J'ai touché un fer chaud qui m'a brûlé, I touched a hot iron and it burnt me. — des parfums, to burn perfumes. En vain sur ses autels ma main brûlait l'encens, in vain did my hand burn incense on his altars. Rac. Il n'a pas daigné — de l'encens sur mes autels, he did not deign to burn incense on my altars, Fén. Tél. 8. — l'encens devant, to burn ncense before, to flatter egregiously, to pay fulsome court to. — l'amorce d'un fusil, d'un pistolet, to fire a gun, a pistol. La ville fut prise sans — une amorce, the town was taken without firing a shot. — les métaux, to burn metals : to injure metals by overheating. b) Mille convoitises le brûlent, Fig. a thousand greedy desires consume (or torment) him. Quelque amour qui me brûle, whatever love inflames or fires me. La même ardeur me brûle, the same ardour fires me.

c) La gelée a brûlé les bourgeons, les racines des arbres, the frost has burnt (killed or blasted) the buds, the roots of the trees. La neige brûle les souliers, snow burns one's shoes. Le mercure solidifié par le froid brûle la peau, quicksilver solidified by cold burns the skin.

d) L'acide sulfurique brûle la peau, sulphuric acid burns the skin. — une verrue avec la pierre infernale, to cauterize a wart with lunar caustic. L'eau-forte brûle le linge, aqua fortis (nitric acid) burns linen.

e) — du bois, du charbon de terre, du coke, to burn wood, coal, coke. — des bougies, de la cire, de l'huile, du gaz, to burn candles, wax, oil, gas. — la chandelle par les deux bouts, Fig. to burn the candle at both ends; to be wasteful, extravagant.

f) Le soleil ardent brûlait les pâturages, the blazing sun burnt up the pastures. Le soleil lui a brûlé le teint the sun has tanned his complexion, has burnt his skin.

a) Cela brûle le sang, that heats (or inflames) the blood. Cette liqueur me brûle le palais, le gosier, that liquor burns my palate, my throat. La soif les brûlait, they were parched with thirst. Il a une fièvre qui le brûle, he is burnt up with fever. [Agr. :] Cet engrais brûle la terre, that manure overheats the soil. Les céréales brûlent la terre, cereals exhaust (or impoverish) the soil.

2. to roast (coffee, etc.); 3. to distil (wine for brandy).

Idiomat. phr. — une carte, to put (or throw) out to reject a card. — la cervelle à quelqu'un, to blow out a person's brains. — l'étape, un gîte, une poste, to pass a halting-place, sleeping-place, post town, without stopping. Peu à peu elle brûla quelques-uns de ses cercles, et à la fin ils cessèrent tout à fait, she gradually omitted her receptions and at last they ceased altogether. — ses livres, to burn one's books, Fig. to do one's utmost, to exhaust all one's resource. Je romprai ce mariage ou j'y brûlerai mes livres, I will do my utmost to break off that marriage. Mol., Pourc. I. 4. — le papier, to write with great warmth and spirit. — le pavé, to go, walk, or ride very fast; to tear along (the road, etc.). — la politesse (à), to dispense with all politeness (towards). — les planches, to play with spirit, to put life into one's play. — ses vaisseaux, to leave one's self no means of retreat from an entreprise. — les yeux, to hurt the eyes by excess of light.

BRÛLER, vn. to burn : a) to be on fire; to give heat or light; b) to scorch (as meat roasting), to burn to (as milk, etc., in a saucepan); c) to be very hot, burning hot; d) Fig. to be inflamed (with passion, etc.); e) to long, to desire ardently, to be eager, impatient, ardent; f) to make a near approach, to be near (at certain games); g) to overdraw (at vingt-et-un and other games). a) Quand la maison du voisin brûle, when one's neighbour's house is burning, is on fire. La bûche continuait à —, the log continued to burn, kept on burning. Tandis que sa maison brûlait de tous côtés, Fig. while his interests were in jeopardy, in danger on all sides. Le feu brûle, the fire burns, is burning up. Une lampe brûlait dans le sanctuaire, a lamp was burning in the sanctuary. Ce bois brûle bien, that wood burns well (gives a good heat). Cette lampe brûle bien, this lamp burns well (gives a good light).

b) Le rôti brûle, the meat is burning (or scorching); Fig. time presses, there is no time to lose (or to be lost). Le linge devant le feu a brûlé, the linen before the fire has got scorched.

c) La tête lui brûle, his head is burning hot. Les pieds lui brûlent, Fig. he is impatient to start, to be off, to go out. Les mains lui brûlent, he is eager to be doing. Le tapis brûle, (at cards) pay your stakes, down with your stakes!

d) — d'amour, to burn with love. Elle brûla de jalousie, she burned with jealousy. Il brûle du désir de se signaler, he burns with the desire to distinguish himself. Il brûle pour elle, he burns with love for her. Il brûle de se venger, he is burning with revenge; he breathes nothing but vengeance. Je brûle d'impatience de la voir, I am longing to see her.

e) Il brûle d'être à Paris, he longs (or is impatient) to be at Paris. Je brûle de vous revoir, I am impatient to see you again. Vous brûlez que je ne sois parti, you are impatient because I am not gone. Rac. Iphig. II. 5.

f) Vous n'y êtes pas encore, mais vous brûlez you have not succeeded yet, but you burn (you are very near it). g) J'ai brûlé, j'ai deux points de trop, I have overdrawn, I have two pips too many.

BRÛLER (SE), v. refl. 1. to burn one's self; 2. to be burnt, scorched, or parched; 3. to scald one's self (with a hot fluid). Les papillons viennent se — à la chandelle, moths fly at the candle and burn themselves. Se — à la chandelle, to blow one's brains out; Fig. to suffer loss or injury through deceitful appearances, to burn one's fingers. Tout un côté de sa perruque s'est brûlé, all one side of his wig was burnt. Se — à la main, à la jambe, to burn (or scald) one's hand, one's leg.

BRÛLERIE, brul'ri, sf. burning; distillery (for brandy).

BRÛLE-TOUT, brûl'tou, sm. save-all. [Pl. Brûle-tout.]

BRÛLEUR, EUSE, brulœr, œz', smf. 1. incendiary, fire-raiser; 2. brandy-distiller. Être fait comme un — de maisons, to have a ruffianly appearance, to look like a blackguard.

BRÛLIS, bruli, sm. 1. part of a wood or forest that has been burnt; 2. Agr. burning (of weeds, etc.)

BRÛLOT, brûlo-t, sm. 1. Naut. fire-ship; 2. Fig. party zealot, fire-brand, incendiary; 3. highly spiced dish; over-salted meat; 4. burnt brandy; 5. cutty pipe : short pipe (for smoking).

BRÛLURE, brulur', sf. 1. burn : injury caused by fire or any heated solid; 2. scald :

injury caused by a hot fluid ; 3. Agr. brand, blast, blight (of corn-crops).

BRUMAILLE, brumay', [brume], sf. Naut. haze slight fog.

BRUMAIRE, brumêr', [brume], sm. Brumaire : the second month of the French republican calendar (from 23rd Oct. to 21st Nov. inclusive). Le dix-huit —, the day on which Bonaparte overthrew the French republic. Un dix-huit brumaire, a revolution in favour of absolutism.

BRUMAL, E, brumal, al', adj. brumal : belonging to winter.

BRUMASSER, brumasé-r, vn. impers. Il brumasse, it is rather hazy or misty.

BRUME, brum', [Lat. : bruma, winter], sf. mist, fog.

BRUMER, brumé-r, vn. impers. Il brume, it is foggy or misty.

BRUMEUX, EUSE, brumœ, œz', adj. foggy, misty.

BRUN, brœn', BRUNE, brun', [O. H. Ger. : brün ; Ger. : braun], adj. m. f. brown : a) dusky, dark ; b) dark-skinned, dark-haired. Teint —, brown (or dark) complexion. Drap —, brown cloth. Cheval bai —, brown-bay horse. [Brun is invariable in such phrases as the following : Des étoffes — foncé, — clair, dark brown, light brown stuffs or tissues.] Beauté brune, a dark beauty. Elle est brune. she is dark-haired, dark-skinned, dark-complexioned.

BRUN, sm. 1. brown (the colour) ; 2. dark (dark-haired, dark-skinned) man or boy. Ce drap tire sur le —, est d'un beau —, this cloth inclines to brown, is of a fine brown. Il commence à faire —, it is getting dusk (or dark). — de montagne, umber, brown umber. — rouge, brown-ochre.

BRUNE, sf. 1. dusk (of the evening) ; 2. dark (dark-haired, dark-complexioned) woman or girl. Sur la —, à la —, about dusk, at dusk. L'aurore et la brune le retrouvaient toujours dans ce chemin perdu, dawn and dusk always found him in this straggling path. A. de Musset. Une petite brune vive et piquante, a little dark-haired woman, sprightly and engaging. Aller de la — à la blonde, to stray from dark to fair, to be inconstant in one's loves, to be a general lover.

BRUNÂTRE, brunât-r, adj. brownish : inclining to brown.

BRUNE, brun'. adj. V. Brun.

BRUNELLE, brunèl', [brun], sf. Bot. prunella vulgaris, self-heal.

† BRUNET, brunè, sm. 1. dark man or boy ; 2. Ornith. fieldfare.

BRUNETIÈRE, brun'tière, [Ferdinand], critic (1849-1907).

BRUNETTE, brunèt', sf. 1. brunette : dark woman or girl ; 2. Ornith. whimbrel, pigmy curlew, numenius phæopus ; 3. love-ditty, love-song. Une jolie —, a pretty brunette. Autant qu'une plus blanche, il aime une —, he loves a brunette as much as a fairer dame. Régnier. Sat. 7.

BRUNI, E, bruni, adj. browned : a) bronzed, darkened, tanned (as the complexion) ; b) burnished (as metals). Un teint — par le soleil, a complexion browned (or tanned) by the sun. De l'or —, burnished gold.

BRUNI, sm. 1. burnish : lustre, high polish (of metals) ; 2. burnished part (of plate, etc.) Le mat et le — d'une pièce d'orfèvrerie, the unburnished (or dead) and the burnished parts of a piece of plate.

BRUNIR, brunir, [brun], va. 1. to brown : to make (or paint) brown, to bronze, to darken ; to tan (the complexion) ; 2. to burnish : to polish (gold, etc.). — le teint, to tan the complexion. — une voiture, to paint a carriage brown. — de l'acier, to bronze steel. — de l'or, de l'argent, to burnish gold, silver. Le cerf brunit son bois, the stag polishes (or rubs) his horns.

BRUNIR, vn. to become brown or tanned. Il a bruni, he has become tanned.

BRUNIR (SE), v. refl. to burnish, to be burnished. Cette sorte d'or se brunit mieux, this kind of gold burnishes better.

BRUNIS, bruni, sm. burnish, polish.

BRUNISSAGE, brunisazh', sm. burnishing, polishing.

BRUNISSANT, brunissân, adj. becoming dark, brown.

BRUNISSEUR, EUSE, brunisœr, œz', smf. burnisher : one who polishes gold or silver.

BRUNISSOIR, bruniswàr, sm. burnisher : polishing tool.

BRUNISSURE, brunisur', sf. 1. Dye. browning ; 2. burnishing, polishing (of metals).

BRUSQUE, brusk', [Ital. : brusco], adj. 1. blunt : abrupt, bluff ; 2. abrupt, sudden, unexpected. Homme —, a blunt (or bluff) man. Style —, abrupt style. Une — repartie, a blunt reply. — départ, abrupt (sudden) departure. Prenant de brusques résolutions, taking sudden resolves. Une — attaque d'apoplexie, a sudden attack of apoplexy.

BRUSQUEMBILLE, bruskânbiy', [from a proper name], sf. 1. brusquembille : a game at cards ; 2. the ace and ten at this game.

BRUSQUEMENT, brusk'mân-t, adv. 1. bluntly : bluffly, offensively, harshly ; 2. abruptly : suddenly, unexpectedly.

BRUSQUER, bruské-r, [brusque], va. 1. to treat rudely, offensively, harshly ; to speak or act with rudeness or harshness towards a person. Je n'aurais pu m'empêcher de le —, I could not have helped being rude (or offensive) to him. [Neut. :] Il semble toujours commander et —, he seems to be always imperious and abrupt.

2. to press or push on, to hasten. C'était le moment de — l'entreprise, it was the moment to push on the undertaking. — la victoire, to make a bold stroke for victory. — la fortune, to court fortune at all risks, to make a short cut to fortune. — une affaire. to hurry on an affair. — l'aventure, to run the risk. — un dénouement, Theat. to precipitate the catastrophe, the conclusion. — une place de guerre, to attack a fortress by surprise. Ce soir même je brusque ma déclaration, this very evening I mean to risk (make) my declaration, Méry.

3. Naut. to bream (a vessel's bottom) ; 4. Cook. to singe (a fowl), before roasting.

BRUSQUERIE, brusk'ri, sf. 1. abruptness : a) bluntness, rudeness, bluffness b) suddenness, unexpectedness ; 2. offensive language, action, or manner. Sa — le rend insupportable, his rudeness renders him unbearable. La — de cette réponse me déconcerta, the bluntness of this reply disconcerted me.

BRUSQUET, ETTE, bruskè, èt', adj. rather blunt, bluff, or abrupt.

A BRUSQUIN, BRUSQUET, adv. phr. tit for tat, a Rowland for an Oliver.

BRUT, E, bru, brut', [Lat. : brutus], adj. 1. brute, brutish : void of reason. De tous les quadrupèdes, le cochon paraît être l'animal le plus —, of all quadrupeds the hog appears the most brutish. Une bête brute, a brute beast ; Fig. a stupid person, a stupid fool.

2. rough : a) unpolished, uneducated, rude, uncivil, (as persons) ; b) uncut (as diamonds), unhewn (as stones, timber, etc.). Un homme —, an uneducated man. Un caractère —, an uncivil disposition. Un diamant —, a rough (or uncut) diamond. Pierres brutes, rough (or unhewn) stones.

3. raw : not manufactured. Matière brute, raw material.

4. in the rough : unfinished. Cette statue est encore brute, this statue is still in the rough.

5. crude (as metals). Fer —, crude iron.

6. uncultivated (as land) ; 7. Nat. Hist. inorganic. Terrain —, land that has never been cultivated. Corps bruts, inorganic bodies (as minerals, etc.).

8. Comm. gross. Produit —, gross proceeds (of a farm, business, etc.). Recette brute. gross receipts. Poids —, gross weight.

BRUT, adv. Ce boucaut de sucre pèse — 100 kilogr., the gross weight of this hogshead of sugar is 100 kilograms.

BRUTAL, E, brutal, al', [Lat. : brutalis], adj. 1. brute, brutish : brutal, pertaining to the brute. Qui se laissent entraîner à leurs appétits brutaux, who indulge their brutish appetites. Vivant au gré d'un instinct —, living in accordance with a brutal instinct.

2. brutal : savage, cruel, inhuman, violent. Il fallut satisfaire à son — désir, it was necessary to satisfy his brutal desire. Leur brutale insolence, their brutal insolence. Ils se sont laissés aller à des actions brutales, they allowed themselves to proceed to brutal acts, to acts of brutality.

BRUTAL, sm. brute, brutal person.

BRUTALEMENT. brutal'mân-t, adv. 1. brutishly : like a brute ; 2. brutally : cruelly, savagely.

BRUTALISER, brutalizé-r, [brutal], vn. to treat brutally, to maltreat, to illtreat.

BRUTALITÉ, brutalite, sf. 1. brutishness : the quality of being brutish. En se laissant conduire par la — de leurs appétits, suffering themselves to be led by the brutishness of their appetites, by their brutish propensities.

2. brutality : a) violence, cruelty ; b) brutal action or language, ill-treatment. Sa — lui a fait beaucoup d'ennemis, his brutality (or violence) has made him many enemies. Il y a de la — à cela, there is brutality in that. Faire une —, to do a brutal action. Elle a bien à souffrir des brutalités de son mari, she has much to suffer from her husband's brutalities. Dire des brutalités à une personne, to say brutal things to a person.

3. brutal passion. Assouvir sa —, to satisfy a brutal passion.

BRUTE, brut', [Lat. : bruta. V. Brut], sf. 1. brute : a mere animal ; 2. Fig. stupid person.

BRUTIER, brutyé, sm. Ornith. bald-buzzard.

BRUTIFIER, brutifié-r, [brute], va. to brutify ; to render brutish.

BRUXELLES, brusèl', Geog. pn. Brussels. Point, dentelle de —, Brussels point, Brussels lace.

BRUXELLOIS, SE, brusèlwa, wâz', adj. and s. of Brussels. Les —, the natives (or inhabitants) of Brussels.

BRUYAMMENT, bruyamânt, adv. noisily : with great noise, fuss, or ado ; 2. clamorously, obstreperously.

BRUYANT, E, bruyân-t, ânt', [bruire], adj. 1. noisy ; 2. obstreperous ; 3. clamorous ; 4. boisterous, blustering. Musique bruyante, noisy music. Fuyons leurs bruyantes villes, let us fly their noisy cities. Homme —, boisterous man, loud talker. Sa gaité n'est point bruyante, his gaiety is not boisterous.

BRUYANT, bruyân-t, sm. V. Bruant.

BRUYÈRE, bruyèr', Low Lat. : brugaria], sf. 1. Bot. heath, heather, ling ; 2. heath, moor. Terre de —, heathy soil, peat mould. Coq de —, heath-cock, grouse. Pipe de —, briar (brier) pipe.

BRYACÉ, E, briasé, [bryon], adj. Bot. relating to mosses. Les bryacées (sf. pl.), the mosses.

BRYOLOGIE, briolodji, [Gr. : βρύον, moss ; λόγος, discourse], sf. Bot. bryology : the branch of botany which treats of mosses.

BRYON, BRION, briôn, [Gr. : βρύον, moss ; βρύω, I grow fast], sm. Bot. bryum, tree-moss.

BRYONE, brion', [Gr. : βρυωνία], sf. Bot. bryonia, bryony.

BRYONINE, brionin', sf. Chem. bryonine the active principle of bryony.

BRYOPHYLLE, briofil, [Lat. : bryophyllum from Gr. βρύω, I grow in abundance ; φύλλον, leaf], sf. Bot. bryophyllum.

BU, BUE, bu', pa. p. of BOIRE.

BUANDERIE, buând'ri, [buandier], sf. wash-house, laundry.

BUANDIER, ÈRE, buândyé, dyèr', [buée], smf. 1. washerman, launderer ; 2. washerwoman, laundress ; 3. bleacher (of new linen).

BUBALE, bubal', [Gr. : βούβαλος ; βοῦς, ox], sm. Zool. bubalis, antilope bubalus.

BUBE, bub', [Lat. : buba, from Gr. βουβών, tumour], sf. pimple.

BUBON, bubôn, [Gr. : βουβών, tumour], sm. Med. bubo.

BUBONOCÈLE, bubonosèl', Gr. : βουβών, the groin ; κήλη, tumour], sf. Surg. bubonocele : inguinal hernia.

BUCAILLE, bukay', sm. Bot. buckwheat.

BUCARDE, bukard', Gr. : βοῦς, ox ; καρδία, heart], sm. Conchol. heartshell, cockle.

BUCARDIER, bukardyé, sm. Conchol. bucardium, cockle.

BUCCAL, E, bukal, al', [Lat. : bucca, mouth], adj. Anat. buccal. Les muscles buccaux, the buccal (or cheek) muscles.

BUCCIN, buksan, [Lat. : buccina, trumpet], sm. Conchol. buccinum, whelk.

BUCCINAL, E, buksinal, al', adj. buccinal, trumpet-shaped.

BUCCINATEUR, buksinatœr, [Lat.], sm. Anat. buccinator : a muscle of the cheek.

BUCENTAURE, busântôr, Gr. : βοῦς, ox ; κένταυρος, a centaur], sm. Bucentaur : state barge at Venice.

BUCÉPHALE, buséfal', [Gr. : βοῦς ; κεφαλή, head], sm. Bucephalus : Alexander's horse ; b) steed, charger, battle horse ; c) Ironic. a sorry hack.

BÛCHE, bûsh', Low Lat. : busca, becoming by degrees busche, buche], sf. 1. log, billet, block (of fire-wood), lump (of coal) ; 2. stock, block : piece of wood ; 3. Fig. blockhead, loggerhead : thickhead, dolt. — de Noël, Christmas log, yule log. Elle s'émeut autant qu'une — de bois, she is as unfeeling as a stock. Cet homme est une vraie —, that man is a thorough blockhead, a regular stupid.

4. block (for wire-drawing, etc.)

BÛCHEMENT, bush'mân-t, [bûcher], sm. rough-hewing (timber or stone).

BÛCHER, bushé, [bûche], sm. 1. woodhouse wood-barn or -shed ; wood-pile (stack or wood) ; 2. funeral-pile (for burning the dead) ; 3. pile of faggots (for burning persons condemned to death by fire). Les honneurs du —, the honours of the funeral-pile. Monter sur le —, to be burnt at the stake. Les bûchers s'allumaient partout, the fires of persecution were kindled on all sides.

BÛCHER, va. 1. to hew (timber or stone) ; 2. to cut away (defective timber and replace it by sound) ; 3. to beat, to thrash, to drub (a person) ; 4. vn. to work hard, to hammer away, to drudge on.

BÛCHER (SE), v. refl. to beat one another.

BÛCHERON, bush'rôn, sm. woodman, wood-cutter.

BÛCHETTE, bushèt', sf. bit of stick, small wood. Les pauvres ramassent des bûchettes dans les bois, the poor pick up sticks in the wood. Tirer à la —, to draw lots with bits of stick.

BUCOLIQUE, bukolik', [Gr. : βουκολικός], adj. bucolic, pastoral. La poésie —, bucolic poetry.

BUCOLIQUE, sf. 1. bucolic : a pastoral poem ; 2. pl. Colloq. rattle-traps, traps, sticks, things : trifling personal effects. J'ai cela parmi mes bucoliques, I have it among my rattle-traps.

BUCRANE, bukran', [Gr. : βοῦς, ox κρανίον, skull], sm. Arch. bucrane : bull's skull sculptured on friezes.

BUDGET, budzhé-t, [Eng., from O. Fr. bougette, from bouge, pouch], sm. budget : a) the prospective annual statement of the national income and expenditure ; b) income and expenses of a family, etc. Le — doit être voté tous les ans, the budget must be voted every year. Le — d'une famille d'ouvrier, the budget (ways and means) of an artisan's family. Le — d'un ménage, household expenses. Boucler le —, to make both ends meet.

BUDGÉTAIRE, budzhétêr', adj. of (or belonging to) the budget.

BUÉE, bué, (buer), sf. 1. V. Lessive, the word now used ; 2. reek : damp vapour, steam on windows.

BUER, bué-r, (orig. doubtful ; perhaps Provin. Ger. büken ; Ger. bäuchen, to wash (linen)], vn. to reek (as bread in the oven).

BUFFET, bufé-t, [orig. unknown], sm. 1. cupboard, closet (for table-linen, plate, etc.) ; 2. side-board (in a dining-room) ; 3. service of plate ; 4. staff of servants for the table ; 5. refreshment-room (at balls, railway stations, etc.) 6. case (of an organ) ; 7 fountain in which the water falls in sheets from one basin to another ; 8. Milit. the parts of a helmet covering the cheeks. Son — était couvert d'argenterie, his side-board was covered with silver plate. Vins du —, dessert wines. — d'orgues, organ-case. Danser devant le —, Fam. to have nothing more in the locker : of one who has run through his money.

BUFFETER, buf'té-r, [Je buffète or buffette], vn. to drink wine from the cask : said of carriers who thus rob their employers.

BUFFETEUR, buf'tœr, sm. wine-stealer : a carrier who drinks part of the wine he is employed to carry.

BUFFETIER, ÈRE, buf'tyé, yère, smf. bar-keeper (in a hall, station, etc.).

BUFFLE, bufl', [Ital. : buffalo, through Lat. from Gr. βούβαλος], sm. 1. buffalo ; 2. Fig. stupid fellow, dullard, blockhead : 3. buff : leather of buffalo hide ; 4. buff-jacket. Se laisser conduire par le nez comme un buffle, to submit, to be led by the nose like a bull. On dit que vous vous êtes fait peindre à cheval, avec un buffle, they say that you have had your portrait taken on horse-back, in a buff-jacket. Repasser le — à quelqu'un, to give any one a thrashing.

BUFFLETERIE, bufl'tri or buflétri, sf. buff belts : cross-belts, shoulder-belts, of a soldier's uniform.

BUFFLETIN, bufl'tan, sm. 1. buffalo calf, young buffalo ; 2. buff-jacket.

BUFFLON, buflôn, sm. young buffalo (male).

BUFFLONNE, buflon', sf. cow (or female) buffalo.

BUFFON, bufon, [Georges-Louis, Leclerc, comte de), eminent naturalist (1707-1788).

BUGLE, bugl', [Eng. which is O. French for a horn instrument ; Lat. : buculus, dimin. of bos, an ox], sm. Mus. bugle-horn, bugle, key-bugle.

BUGLE, [Lat. : bugula], sf. Bot. bugle. — rampante, common bugle, ajuga reptans. Petite — rampante, middle consound.

BUGLOSSE, buglos', (Lat. : buglossa from Gr. : βοῦς, ox ; γλῶσσα, tongue], sf. Bot. bugloss, alkanet, anchusa officinalis.

BUGRANE, bugran', [Lat. : bucranium], sf. Bot. rest-harrow : ononis arvensis.

BUHOTIER, buotyé, [Provin. : buhot, shrimp], sm. Fish. prawn-net.

BUIE, bui, BUIRE, buir', [Provin.], sf. beaker, flagon : jug, pitcher, ewer.

BUIRETTE, buirette, sf. Agr. small cock of fresh-cut hay.

BUIS, bui-z, [Lat. : buxus], sm. Bot. 1. box : a) box-tree, box-bush ; b) box-wood ; 2. branch of box ; 3. Poet. flute, pipe (made of box-wood) ; 4. Shoemak. heel-stick. Le — arborescent, le grand —, box-tree. Le — humble, le — nain, dwarf box. Faux —, — piquant, butcher's broom. Le — est très dense et très dur, box-wood is very heavy and very hard.

BUISAIE, buisè, BUISSIÈRE, buisyèr', sf. box plantation, wood of box-trees.

BUISSON, buisôn, [buis], sm. 1. bush ; thicket, thorn-brake ; 2. spinny : a wood of small extent. Dieu apparut à Moïse dans un — ardent, God appeared to Moses in a burning bush. Battre les buissons, to beat the bushes (in search of game). Trouver — creux, to find the game flown ; Fig. not to find the person or thing one seeks. Guerre de buissons, bush-fighting, guerilla warfare. Ce n'est pas une forêt, ce n'est qu'un —, it is not a forest but only a spinny. Se sauver à travers les buissons, Fig. to back out of a discussion, to find a loop-hole, a means of escape (when hard pressed in argument). Il a battu les buissons, un autre a pris les oiseaux, he has been beating the bush and another has caught the hare. — ardent, Bot. evergreen thorn, pyracantha, cratægus pyracantha. — d'or, Min. a kind of agate.

BUISSONNAIE, buisoné, sf. place covered with bushes.

BUISSONNER, buisoné-r, vn. 1. to bush : to grow as a bush ; 2. Sport. to take to the bushes (as a stag).

BUISSONNEUX, EUSE, buisonœ, œz', adj. bushy : covered with bushes.

BUISSONNIER, ÈRE, buisonyé, èr', adj. living among bushes. Lapin —, bush rabbit : one that has no burrow. École buissonnière, hedge school : formerly said of unlicensed schools kept by persecuted sects. Faire l'école buissonnière, to play the truant : to run away from school ; to absent one's self from one's occupation.

BUISSONNIER, sm. tree trimmed as a bush.

BULBE, bulb', [Lat. : bulbus], sm. 1. Bot. bulb : onion-shaped root. Le — du lis, the bulb of the lily.

2. Anat. bulb. Le — d'un poil, the bulb (or root) of a hair. Le — de l'œil, the eye ball, the globe of the eye. Le — de l'urèthre, the bulb of the urethra. [As a botanical term bulbe has long been considered feminine, but it is now made masculine, as it always has been in its anatomical senses.]

BULBEUX, EUSE, bulbœ, œz', adj. bulbous, bulbose : a) Bot. bulbous-rooted ; b) Anat. having the form of a bulb.

BULBIFÈRE, bulbifèr', [Lat. : bulbus ; ferre, to bear], adj. Bot. bulbiferous.

BULBIFORME, bulbifòrm' (bulbe ; forme), adj. bulbiform.

BULBILLE, bulbiy', sf. Bot. bulbule, bulblet : small bulb.

BULBULE, bulbul', [dimin. of bulbe], sf. Bot. cyperus esculentus : earth-almond or rush-nut.

BULGARE, bulgar, smf. and adj. Geog. Bulgarian, Bulgar. Les Bulgares, the Bulgars or Bulgarians.

BULGARIE, bulgari, sf. Geog. Bulgaria.

BULLAIRE, bulèr', [bulle], sm. 1. bullary : copyist of papal bulls ; 2. bullary, bullarium : collection of papal bulls.

BULLE, bul', [Lat. : bulla], sf. 1. bubble : vesicle filled with air, air-bubble ; 2. Surg. bulla, bleb : vesicle containing a watery fluid ; 3. Archœol. bulla : metal ball worn as a neck ornament by young patricians of Rome. — d'air, air-bubble. — de savon, soap bubble. Les bulles du pemphigus, Med. the bullæ (or vesicles) of pemphigus.

4. bulla : leaden seal appended to papal bulls ; 5. bull : a) papal letters patent ; b) formerly, an ordinance of the emperor of Germany. Les bulles sont désignées par les premiers mots du texte, bulls are designated by the first words of the tectx as :Unigenitus, In cœna Domini, etc.).

BULLE, adj. and sm. Du papier —, du —, coarse paper, wrapping paper.

BULLÉ, E, bulé, adj. sealed with the bulla (pope's seal). Bénéfice bullé, benefice conferred by a bull. Être —, to have received a bull appointing to a benefice.

BULLETIN, bul'tan, [bulle, ball used formerly for voting ; Ital. : bulletino], sm. 1. voting paper. Mettre son — dans l'urne, to deposit one's vote in the urn (or ballot-box)

2. bulletin : official report of military events, of the health of sovereigns, etc.) Le prince va mieux, on ne donnera plus de —, the prince is better, no more bulletins will be published. — des lois, official journal in which all new laws are published.

3. ticket, receipt : acknowledgment of a notice, demand or deposit. — de demande en remboursement, ticket acknowledging that notice has been given to draw money (out of a savings-bank, etc.). — de bagages, luggage ticket.

BULLEUX, EUSE, bulœ, œz', [bulle], adj. Med. vesicular : presenting bullæ or vesicles.

BULLULÉ, E, bululé, adj. Bot. bullate.

BULTEAU, bultò, [bulle], sm. Forest. dotterel, dottard : a tree that has been topped.

BUNIADE, buniad', [Lat. : bunias, adis], sf. Bot. bunias orientalis, hill-mustard.

BUNION, buniôn, [Lat. : Gr.], Bot. earth-nut.

BUPHTALME, buftalm, sm. Bot. buphthalme, ox-eye.

BUPHTALMIE, buftalmi, [Gr. : βοῦς, ox ; ὀφθαλμός, eye], sf Med, buphthalmia : marked enlargement of the eye.

BUPLÈVRE, buplèvr', [Gr. : βούπλευρον], sm. Bot. hare's-ear.

BUPRESTE, buprèst', Gr. : βοῦς, ox ; πρήθω, I enflame], sm. Nat. Hist. buprestis, golden beetle.

BUPRESTIADES, buprestiades, smpl. Entom. buprestidæ : large family of golden beetles.

BURALISTE, buralist', smg. office-keeper. V. Bureau.

BURAT, bura, [Ital. : buratto], sm. a coarse woollen fabric.

BURATIN, buratan, sm. a coarse poplin (of silk and wool).

BURBOT, burbo, sm. Ichth. burbot, eelpout, lota vulgaris,

BURE, bur', [Low Lat. : burra], sf. 1. frieze, baize : a coarse woollen fabric formerly worn by the common people ; it was also called bureau and used for table covers, hence the modern acceptations of that word. V. Bureau ; 2. Fig. the poor. Le pourpre et la —, the rich and the poor.

3. Min. the shaft (of a mine).

BUREAU, burò, [from bure], sm. 1. writing-table, desk, bureau. — à tiroirs, writing-table. — ministre, knee-hole writing-table. Cette affaire est sur le —, that affair is under consideration. V. Bure.

2. counter : table on which money is counted, in a bank, counting-house, etc. Payer à — ouvert, to pay over the counter, to pay on demand.

3. office : a) place where government officials, public companies, or private individuals, transact business ; b) the staff of clerks employed therein. Les bureaux du ministère de la guerre, the offices of the ministry of war. Les bureaux de l'administration d'un chemin de fer, the offices of the directors of a railway company. Chef de —, head-clerk, first clerk (in a government office). Garçon de —, office messenger. L'air du —, the disposition, opinion, tendencies of persons in authority or charged with the management of affairs. Prendre l'air de —, to see how the land lies, which way the wind blows, what turn things are likely to take. Connaître l'air du —, to foresee the probable issue of any affair. L'air du — nous est contraire, things do not look favourable for us, the public opinion (or feeling) is against us. — des hypothèques, mortgage registration office. — de tabac, tobacconist's shop. — de poste, post-office. — des billets du chemin de fer, railway ticket-office. — de renseignements, inquiry office, information office. — d'arrondissement, district (or branch) post-office. — de bienfaisance, municipal relief for the poor. — de papier timbré, stamp-office ; shop of a person licensed to sell stamped paper. — des messageries, coach-office, waggon-office ; parcels-office (at a railway station, etc.) Le — de location d'un théâtre, the ticket-offices, the box-office. — de placement, registry-office for servants, clerks, etc. — de nourrices, register-office for wet-nurses. — d'adresse, intelligence-office, private inquiry office. — de télégraphe, telegraph office.

4. board : persons charged with the management of certain matters. — des longitudes, board of longitude : the astronomers charged with the compilation of the Connaissance des Temps, the French Nautical Almanack.

5. Collect. the president, vice-presidents and secretaries of a legislative body ; 6. standing committee. L'assemblée fut partagée en tant de bureaux, the assemply was divided into so many committees. Le rapporteur du premier —, the reporter of the first standing committee.

7. Collect. the president (or chairman) and secretaries of an academy, association or public meeting.

BUREAUCRATE, burôcrat', sm. bureaucrat, bureaucratist : a red tapist, an advocate of bureaucracy.

BUREAUCRATIE, burôkrasi, [bureau ; Gr. : κράτος, strength], sf. bureaucracy : red-tapism, a government in which underling clerks exercise undue power and influence.

BUREAUCRATIQUE, burôkratic', adj. bureaucratic.

BURETTE, burèt', [buirette ; from buire], sf. 1. cruet ; 2. feeding-can, oil-can, oil-feeder (for machines) ; 4. Chem. burette : a graduated measuring-glass.

BURGANDINE, burgândin'. V. Burgaudine.

BURGAU, burgô, [orig. unknown], sm. mother-of-pearl oyster.

BURGAUDINE, burgôdin', [burgau], sf. and adj. mother-of-pearl.

BURGRAVE, burgrav', [Ger. : Burg, town ; Graf, count], sm. ; 1. burgrave : hereditary governor of a castle or town ; 2. Fam. Les burgraves, sages with old-fashioned notions.

BURGRAVIAT, burgravia-t, sm. burgraviate : dignity of a burgrave.

BURIN, buran, [Ger. : bohren, to bore through], sm. 1. burin, graver : a) tool for engraving ; b) style of engraving ; 2. Fig. pen. Gravure faite au —, an engraving executed with the graver, a line engraving. Ce graveur a le — fin, ferme, this engraver has a fine, vigorous style. Le — de l'histoire, the pen of history. — de plâtrier, plasterer's parting-tool. — de dentiste, dentist's burin.

BURINER, buriné, va. 1. to engrave ; 2. vn. to write like copperplate. — une planche de cuivre, to engrave a copper-plate. Ce maître d'écriture burine, that writing-master writes a fine hand. — les dents d'un cheval, Vet. Surg. to make false marks on a horse's teeth.

BURINEUR, burinœr (burin), sm. 1. borer, engraver : one who works with a burin ; 2. Pop hard-worker, plodder. V. Bûcheur.

BURLESQUE, burlèsk', [Ital. : burlesco ; burla, mockery], adj. burlesque : ludicrous. Vers burlesques, burlesque verses. Termes burlesques, burlesques (or ludicrous) terms.

BURLESQUE, sm. burlesque. Le — n'est plus à la mode, burlesque is no longer in vogue.

BURLESQUEMENT, burlèsk'mân-t, adv. in a burlesque manner, ludicrously.

BURNOUS burnous, [Ar.], sm. burnoos : cloak with a hood worn by the Arabs.

BURON, burôn, [Provin.], sm. hut, cabin.

BURSAIRE, bursèr', [Low Lat. : bursa, purse] adj. having the form of a purse or pouch.

BURSAL, E, bursal, al', adj. fiscal. Édit —, fiscal edict imposing extraordinary taxes.

BUSARD, buzar, [buse], sm. 1. Ornith. buzzard 2. wooden pipe (for water).

BUSC, busk, [orig. uncertain ; Ital. : busto, bust], sm. 1. busk (for women's stays) ; 2. Civ. Eng. clap-sill, mitre-sill (of a lock gate).

BUSE, buz', [Lat. : buteo, onis, a kind of falcon], sf. 1. Ornith. buzzard. — pattue, rough-legged buzzard. — bondrée, honey buzzard. Prov. : On ne saurait faire d'une — un épervier, one cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear.

2. Fig. numskull, blockhead, dunce, dolt, fool. C'est une —, he is a fool.

BUSE, buz', [Flem. : buis, conduit], sf., 1. tew-iron, tewel (of furnace bellows) ; 2. pentrough (of a water-wheel) ; 3. wooden water-pipe ; 4. Naut. buss : small craft used in the herring fishery.

BUSNACH, buznak, [William-Bertrand], dramatic author (1832-1907).

BUSON, buzôn, [buse], sm. 1. Ornith. Guyana buzzard · 2. Fig. blockhead, dolt.

BUSQUÉ, E, buské, pa. p. 1. busked : having or wearing a busk ; 2. arched (as the face of a horse, etc.) ; 3. aquiline (as the human nose) ; 4. Needel-w. fulled, drawn up ; 5. meeting at an angle (as the gates of a canal lock).

BUSQUER, buské-r, [busc], va. 1. to busk. — un corset, to put a busk in stays, La mère a busqué cette petite fille, the mother has given the little girl a busk.

2. Needle-w. to draw up, to shorten ; 3. Civ. Eng. to cover with planks.

BUSQUER (SE), v. refl. to wear a busk.

BUSQUIÈRE, buskyêr', sf. busk-case (of stays).

† BUSSARD, busar, [O. Fr. : busse], sm. an old measure for liquids equal to 268 litres (60 imp. gallons).

BUSSY-RABUTIN, buzi-rabutan (Roger de), miscellaneous writer (1618-1693).

BUSTE, bust', [Ital. : busto], sm. 1. bust : a) sculptured or painted representation of the upper half of the human figure , b) the same parts of the real figure. Un — de plâtre, a plaster bust. Il s'est fait peindre en —, he has had his portrait taken half-length. Cet homme a un beau —, that man has a fine bust.

2. box of Damascus raisins.

BUT, bu-t ; the t is always heard in the sing. before a vowel sound ; it is silent in the pl. and the s is pronounced as z before a vowel sound, [for bout ; buter], sm. 1. butt (or but) : a) mark to shoot at ; b) Fig. aim, object of attack. Viser un — avec une flèche, to aim at a butt with an arrow. Frapper le —, to hit the mark. Manquer son —, to miss one's aim or mark,to fail in one's purpose. Il était le — de tous les coups, he was the butt for all the blows. Il m'a choisi pour le — de ses invectives, he has made me the butt of his invectives. Ce sera le — des efforts de l'ennemi, that will be the object of the enemy's efforts. Toucher au —, frapper au —, to hit the mark ; Fig. to guess right, to hit the right nail on the head.

2. goal : winning-post (for a race) ; 3. Fig. design, end, aim, object. Il arriva le premier au —, he arrived first at the goal. Le — de la course était à cinq cents pas, the winning-post was at five hundred paces. Aller au —, to come to (or to be to) the point. Quel était donc ton — ? what then was your object, your aim ? Cor. Cinna. v. 1. Pour parvenir à ce —, to attain this end (or object).

3. intent, purpose, view. Remplir (more correctly atteindre) son —, to fulfil one's purpose, to attain one's end (or object). Il agissait ainsi dans le — de, he acted thus with the purpose (or intention) of, with a view to, with intent to. Dans le même —, with the same intent (object or purpose) Le — de mes désirs, the object of my desires.

BUT A BUT, adv. phr. even-handed : a) without special advantage to either party ; b) without giving or taking odds (in games of chance or skill. Troquer — à —, to make an even exchange. Jouer — à —, to play without giving or taking odds. Nous sommes — à —, we are even.

DE BUT EN BLANC, adv. phr. 1. Artill. point-blank ; 2. Fig. bluntly, abruptly, without preamble or preparation Tirer de — en blanc, to fire point-blank, at point-blank range Venir de — en blanc à l'union conjugale, to rush abruptly into wedlock. Je ne le rebutais pas de — en blanc, I did not give him a point-blank refusal.

BUTANT, E, butân-t, ânt', adj. abutting, propping. Arc-butant, a flying-buttress. V. Arc-boutant, which is most used.

BUTE, but', [from buter], sf. Farr. butteris (for paring a horse's hoof).

BUTEAU, butô, sm. Ornith. buzzard.

BUTÉE, buté, [buter], sf. Mason. abutment, land-pier (of a bridge).

BUTER, buté, [form of boute·], vn. 1. to hit (the mark) ; 2. (with à) to aim (at), to have in view ; 3. † to tend (to or towards). Il a buté, he has hit (the mark). C'est à quoi je bute, that is what I am aiming at. Je bute à cet emploi, I have that place in view.

BUTER, va. 1. to butt : to push, to run against ; 2. Fig. to cross, to oppose ; 3. to prop, to prop up ; to buttress (a wall) ; 4. Guard. to earth (or hill) up (trees, etc.). Il est buté à cela, he is bent upon that. C'est un homme sans raison qui vous bute en tout, he is an unreasonable man who crosses (or, thwarts) you in everything. — un mur, to prop up a wall.

BUTER (SE), v. refl. 1. to butt (or run against) each other ; 2. Fig. to oppose each other 3. to be set, fixed, bent, or determined on ; to be obstinate. Fig. Ils se sont butés l'un contre l'autre dans l'obscurité, they ran against each other in the dark. Se — contre quelqu'un, to oppose a person. Il se bute, he shows his obstinacy.

BUTIN, butan, [Scand. ; Isl. : byti, share], sm. booty : a) spoil taken in war ; b) plunder, proceeds of a robbery ; c) prey (of wild beasts) ; d) spoils, prize profits, stores, gleanings, any thing gained by persevering industry. Les soldats revinrent chargés de —, the soldiers returned laden with booty. Faire du —, to plunder, to pillage. Partager le —, to divide the spoils, the booty. Il y a un riche — à faire dans ces vieux manuscrits, there are rich gleanings to be made in those old manuscripts. Le — de l'abeille, de la fourmi, Poet. the honeyed spoils of the bee,the stores of the ant.

BUTINER, butiné-r, [butin], vn. 1. to get, make or gather booty ; 2 to pilfer, to spoil, to plunder. Les soldats se dispersèrent pour —, the soldiers dispersed in search of booty. Les abeilles vont — sur les fleurs, the bees go and pilfer the flowers.

BUTINER, va to despoil, to pilfer. Les fleurs butinées par les abeilles, the flowers despoiled (or sucked) by the bees.

BUTINEUR, EUSE, butinœr, œz', adj. despoiling, pilfering, plundering. L'abeille butineuse, the pilfering bee.

BUTOIR, butwâr, [buter], sm. 1. Railw. buffer : an artificial apparatus for deadening the force of a concussion ; 2. currier's knife (for shaving leather) ; 3. clapstump : a stone, etc., set in the middle of a gateway for double gates to shut against.

BUTOME, butom', sm. Bot. gladiolus, flowering-rush.

BUTOR, butor, [Low Lat. : bitorius, butorius], sm. 1. Ornith. bittern ; 2. booby, lout, blockhead, dolt. Un gros — de valet, a great lout of a lackey.

BUTORDE, butòrd', sf. spooney, blockhead, dolt ; stupid girl or woman.

BUTORDERIE, butòrd'ri, sf. stupid blunder.

BUTTAGE, butazh , [buter], sm. 1. Gard. earthing up, hilling up (of plants or trees) ; 2. trenching (of ground to make it mellow).

BUTTE, but', [but], sf. 1. knoll, hillock, rising ground ; 2. butt : a) an embankment thrown up behind the targets at the end of a shooting range ; b) Fig. object attacked. Être en — à, to be the butt of, to be exposed to. Être en — aux coups de la fortune, to be exposed to the frowns of fortune. Son élévation l'a mis en — aux traits de l'envie, his rise has exposed him to the shafts of envy.

BUTTÉE, buté, sf. V. Butée.

BUTTER, buté-r, [butte], va. 1. Gard. to hill up, to earth up (a tree, etc.) ; 2. Agr. to trench (land) · 3. vn. to strike or stumble against. Cheval sujet à —, a horse apt to stumble. Le vieillard butta contre une pierre et tomba, the old man stumbled against a stone and fell. V. Buter.

BUTTOIR, butwâr, [butter], sm. 1. Agr. double-mould-board plough (used to earth up potatoes, etc.) ; 2. Mach. tappet, catch (of an eccentric).

BUTYRACÉ, E, butirasé, [Lat. : butyrum, butter], adj. Chem. butyraceous : resembling butter.

BUTYREUX, EUSE, butirœ, œz', adj. butyrous.

BUTYRINE, butirin', sf. Chem. butyrine : a fatty principle extracted from butter.

BUTYRIQUE, butirik', adj. Chem. butyric. Acide —, butyric acid.

BUTYROMÈTRE, butiromètr', [Gr. : βούτυρον, butter ; μέτρον, measure], sm. galactometer.

BUVABLE, buvabl', [boire], adj. drinkable. Ce vin est —, this wine is drinkable, fit to drink.

BUVANT, E, buvân-t, ânt', adj. drinking. Les cabarets sont pleins de chanteurs buvants, the taverns are full of drinking (toping) choristers. Être bien mangeant et bien buvant, to eat and drink well, to be in good health. Ils sont tous bien buvants et bien mangeants, they are all hearty eaters and drinkers !

BUVARD, buvar, sm. blotting book, blotting pad.

BUVEAU, buvô, sm. mason's bevil.

BUVETIER, buv'tyé, sm. tavern-keeper, coffeehouse-keeper.

BUVETTE, buvèt', sf. 1. tavern, refreshment-room, refreshment-bar ; 2. taproom : third-class refreshment-room at railway stations ; 3. draught (of any liquor) ; 4. drinking-party, carouse.

BUVEUR, EUSE, buvœr, œz', smf. drinker : a) one who drinks ; b) in a bad sense, one given to drinking, toper, drunkard. Buveur, buveuse d'eau, a water-drinker : a teetotaler. Elle est buveuse, she is addicted to drinking. Francs buveurs, jolly topers.

BUVOTER, buvoté-r, vn. 1. to sip : to drink little at a time ; 2. to tipple : to drink incessantly.

BUXACÉES, buksasé, [Lat. : buxus, box-tree], sf. pl. Bot. buxacæ : shrubs of the box family.

BUXINE, buksi'n, sm. Chem. buxine : an alkaloid extracted from boxwood.

BY, bi, [bief, from Flem. buis, canal], sm. draining-channel (of a small lake or fish-pond).

BYRONIEN, ENNE, byronyan, nyèn', adj. Byronian, of Byron (1788-1824).

BYSSACÉ, E, bisasé, adj. Bot. byssaceous.

BYSSE, bis', sm. V. Byssus.

BYSSUS, bissus, [Lat. from Gr. βύσσος], sm. byssus : a) Antiq. fine flax or fine linen ; b) Conchol. beard of the pinna and other mollusks , c) Bot. a kind of filamentous fungus.

BYZANCE, bizans, Anc. Geogr. Byzantium : old name for Constantinople.

BYZANTIN, E, bizântan, tin', [Lat. : bysantinus], adj. Byzantine, Byzantian.

BYZANTIN, sm. rose-colour, pink.

BYZANTINE, sf. the collection of Byzantine historians.

C

C, sé, sœ, sm. C : the third letter of the alphabet. Un grand C, un C majuscule, a capital C. Un petit c, un c minuscule, a small c, a little c. Le c marqué d'une cedille (ç) se prononce comme l's, the cedilla ç is pronounced like an s. (Ex. façade, garçon, reçu.)

C', contraction of Ce V. Ce.

C 1. chimie, chemistry ; 2. caisse, case of goods ; 3. coupon, coupon ; 4. coupure, cutting ; 5. consul, consul ; 6. centigrade, centigrade ; 7. citoyen, citizen ; 8. chant, canto ; 9. cent, hundred ; 10. comman eur, commander ; 11. centime, centime.

C.-à-D., c'est-à-dire, that is to say.

CAP., Capitaine, captain.

C. A. P. Cercle Athlétique de Paris, Paris athletic Club.

CART., 1. cartonné, in paper covers ; 2. cartonnage, boards.

C. ATT., coupon attaché with coupon.

C. C. 1. deux-cents, two hundred ; 2. Besançon (frappée à), struck at Besançon (of money) ; 3. Compte-courant, current account.

C. CIV., Code civil, civil code.

C. COMM., Code commercial, commercial code.

C.-D.-N., Côtes-du-Nord, Geog. Côtes-du-Nord.

C.-D'OR, Côte-d'Or, Geog. Côte-d'Or.

CENT., Centigrade, centigrade.

C. F. A., coût, frêt, assurance, cost, freight, assurance.

C. G. T., 1. Compagnie Générale Transatlantique, General Transatlantic Company ; 2. Confédération Générale des Travailleurs, General Confederation of workers.

CHAM. SYND., Chambre syndicale, syndics, council.

CHAR.-INF., Charente-Inférieure, Geog. Charente-Inférieure.

CH.-L. D'ARR., Chef-lieu d'arrondissement, chief town in an arrondissement.

CH.-L. DE C., Chef-lieu de canton, chief town of a canton.

Cie, Compagnie, company, Co.

CONF., Conferatur, comparez, compare.

CPT., comptant, cash, for cash.

C. R., Calendrier républicain, Republicain calendar.

C. T., Cabine Téléphonique, Telephone box.

Çà, sa, adv. here. Viens çà, Venez çà, come hither ! come here ! Çà et là, here and there, hither and thither, to and fro, up and down. Qui çà, qui là, some here, some there ; some this way, some that ; some one way, some another. De çà, V. De-çà. En çà, till now. Depuis deux ans en çà, from two years back till now, for the last two years.

Çà, interj. now ! so ! come ! Çà, travaillons, come, let us work ; come, work away ! Çà, voyons, now let us see. Or çà, que gagnez-vous par an ? come now, how much a year do you get ?

ÇA, sa, pron. (contraction of Cela, which see) that. Donnez-moi ça, give me that. Il faut que vous preniez ça, you must take that. C'est ça, that is it. Il n'y a pas de mal à ça, there is no harm in that. Comme ça, so, like that ; so so, middling ; Naut. right so ! Ça ira, that will do ! that is the thing ! that is the go ! Il ne faut pas parler comme ça, you must not speak like that (must not speak so or in that way). Comment vous portez-vous ? Comme ça, how do you do ? So so, (or middling).

CABALANT, kabalân, adj. caballing.

CABALE, kabal', [Heb.], sf. 1. cabala : a) the traditional and secret science of the Jewish rabbins ; b) magical or supernatural science , 2. cabal : a) plot, intrigue b) set of men leagued for some party or sinister purpose. Les docteurs de la —, the doctors of the cabala. Former des cabales, to form cabals. C'est un homme de —, he is an intriguer, a plotter. On a monté une — contre cette tragédie, they have got up a cabal against that tragedy. La — remplissait le parterre, the cabal filled the pit. Il sortit du Sénat suivi de sa —, he left the senate-house followed by his cabal.

CABALER, cabalé-r, [cabale], vn. to cabal. Vous cabalez ensemble, you are caballing together. On cabale pour lui, contre lui, they are caballing for him, against him. L'évêque de P. avait cabalé contre le roi, the bishop of P. had caballed against the king.

CABALETTE, kabalèt', [Ital. : cabaletta], sf. Mus. cabalette : a light and pleasing melody.

CABALEUR, kabalœr, sm. caballer : intriguer, plotter.

CABALISER, cabalizé-r, vn. to cabalize.

CABALISTE, kabalist', sm. cabalist : one skilled in the cabala.

CABALISTIQUE, kabalistik', adj. cabalistic, cabalistical : relating to magic or supernatural science.

CABALISTIQUEMENT, kabalistik'mân-t, adv. cabalistically.

CABALLIN, kabalan, [Lat. : caballus, horse], adj. Mat. Med Aloès —, horse aloes, caballine.

CABAN, kabân, [Span.], sm. 1. caban ; a kind of cloak with a hood and sleeves : 2. Naut. pilot-coat, dreadnaught.

CABANAGE, kabanazh (cabane), sm. camp place where huts are raised.

CABANE, kaban', [Low Lat. : capanna], sf. 1. cabin : a) hut, hovel ; b) a temporary shelter in the fields ; c) Naut. small room on shipboard. — de berger, shepherd's cabin. — à lapins, rabbit-cub, rabbit-hutch.

2. Poet. cot, cottage ; 3. (formerly) passage-boat (with a cabin in the middle of its length).

CABANEAU, kabanô, sm. cabin (of a fishing-boat).

CABANER, kabané-r, va. 1. to cabin : to live in a cabin ; 2. Naut. to capsize : to overturn while under sail. Le chasseur cabané sous une feuillée épaisse, the hunter, sheltered (hidden) under thick foliage.

CABANON, kabanôn, sm. 1. small cabin ; 2. dark hole, dark cell, dungeon (for refractory prisoners) ; 3. padded dark room (for raving madmen). Il est fou à mettre au —, he is mad enough to require a straight jacket.

CABARET, kabarè', [orig. unknown ; Ménage gives as possible caparetun, in Low Lat.], sm. 1. public-house, tavern, wine-shop, wine-vaults ; ale-house, beer-house, pothouse (in England). Hanter le —, to frequent the public-house. Pilier de —, a constant frequenter of the public-house. — borgne, low public-house, hedge-alehouse. Garçon de —, potman, tapster.

2. tea-table ; 3. tea-board ; 4. tea-service, tea-things : teapot, cups, saucers, etc. ; 5. liquor stand. On était auprès de plusieurs cabarets de thé et de café, they were at several tables on which tea and coffee were served. Un beau —, a handsome tea-service. — à liqueurs, liquor case, liquor a service : set of glasses, decanters etc.

6. Bot. asarabacca, asarum Europæum ; 7. Ornith. redpole : a kind of linnet.

CABARETIER, ÈRE, kabar'tyé, tyèr', smf. publican, tavern-keeper ; landlord m, landlady f, keeper or manager of a public-house.

CABARRE, kabar', sf. V. Gabarre.

CABAS, kaba'z, [Lat. : capax, which contains], sm. 1. frail : rush basket for figs, dried fruit, etc. ; 2. flat hand-basket (made of straw plait, used by women when marketing) ; 3. large flat basket formerly used by market porters ; 4. basket : an old-fashioned carriage ; 5. coal-scuttle bonnet : bonnet with the front not raised ; 6. Jest. an old straw hat. Cent paquets de raisins secs et deux cents — de figues a hundred packages of raisins and two hundred frails of figs. Je repris mon premier métier, j'endossai le —, I resumed my old occupation, and took to my porter's basket again. Nous sommes venus dans un méchant —, we arrived in a wretched old carriage Acad.

CABASSER, kabasé-r, [cabas], vn. 1. to chatter to babble ; 2. to cheat, to rob.

CABASSEUR, EUSE, kabasœr, œz', smf cheat ; thief.

CABASSET, kabasè, [cabas], sm. a kind of small helmet.

CABÉLIAU, kabéliô, sm. V. Cabillaud.

CABESTAN, kabèstân, [Span. : cabestante], sm. Naut. capstan (or capstern). — volant, crab : portable (or movable) capstan.

CABIAI, kabiè, sm. Zool. capybara water-hog.

CABILLAUD, kabiyô, CABLIAU, kabliô [Dutch : kabeljau], sm. Ichth. codfish, cod.

CABILLOT, kabiyo, [provin. : cabilhot], sm. Naut. toggle.

CABINE, kabin', [Eng., word modified from cabane to Eng. cabin], sf. (in merchant vessels) cabin.

CABINET, kabinè-t, [cabine], sm. 1. closet : a) small room dependent on a larger room or set of rooms ; b) small bedroom without a fire-place ; c) room in which a sovereign gives private audiences to his ministers, etc. — d'aisance, water-closet. — de bains, bathroom. — de toilette, toilet-room, dressing-room. — noir, dark closet. Avoir son entrée dans le — du roi (or dans le —), to have access to the king's closet, to the royal closet.

2. study : room for literary or scientific labour. Homme de —, a studious man. — de lecture, reading-room, news-room ; circulating-library.

3. office : a) room in which professional men, agents, etc., transact their business ; b) consultation-room (of a surgeon, physician, etc. ; c) chambers (of a judge or barrister). Le — d'un avoué, d'un notaire, an attorney's, a notary's office. — d'affaires, an agent's office, an agency office.

4. connection, practice, business (of a professional man). Cet avoué a un très bon —, that attorney has a very good connection (or practice). Cet agent d'affaires a vendu son —, that agent has sold his business. Il se fait de son — quarante mille francs par an, he makes forty thousand francs a year by his practices.

5. cabinet : a) piece of ornamental furniture with drawers and compartments, for keeping curiosities or valuables ; b) room or set of rooms for pictures, works of art, philosophical instruments, etc. ; c) collection kept in such rooms. — de tableaux, cabinet of paintings, picture-room, small picture gallery. — d'anatomie, cabinet of anatomy, anatomical museum. — d'histoire naturelle, cabinet (or museum) of natural history : a collection of stuffed annimals, etc. — de médailles, cabinet of medals. Il fait, il forme un —, he is making a collection (of works of art, etc.). — de physique, collection of instruments used in natural philosophy (experimental physics).

6. cabinet-council, cabinet : the principal minister of state, forming the executive government ; the ministry. Le — de Saint-James, the cabinet of St. James : the British government. La politique des cabinets européens, the policy of the European cabinets. Tenir —, to hold a cabinet-council. Le — tout entier donna sa démission, the whole cabinet (all the cabinet ministers) resigned. On a fait de l'adoption de cette proposition une question de —, the carrying of that motion is made a cabinet question.

7. (formerly) boudoir, conversation room ; conversazione. La place, Madame, que vous me laissiez prendre dans votre —, the place, madam, which you allowed me to take in your boudoir.

8. case (of an organ) ; 9. arbour, summer-house (in a garden).

CABIOU, kabiou, sm. Cook. cassareep.

CABIRES, kabir, smpl. Cabiri : ancient divinities of Semitic origin.

CÂBLE, kâbl', [Low Lat. : caplum, halter ; Lat. : capĕre, to hold], sm. Naut. 1. cable ; 2. cable's length : 200 metres, 100 fathoms. Câble-chaîne, chain-cable. Maître- —, sheet cable. — d'affourche, small-bower cable. — de remorque, tow-rope. — d'ajût, spliced cable. Cordage commis en —, cable-laid rope. Filer du —, to pay out more cable ; Fig. to gain time, to procrastinate. Filer le —, son — par le bout, to slip the cable ; Fig. to start in haste, to hurry off (or away). Son vaisseau était à deux câbles de l'écueil, his vessel was two cables' length from the rock.

3. telegraphic cable, submarine wire ; 4. submarine telegraphic message, cablegram.

5. Autom. cable. — d'acier, steel cable, — d'allumage, ignition cable. — compensateur, cable brake.

CÂBLÉ, E, pa. p. cabled : a) Naut. having a cable ; b) Arch. in form of a cable ; c) Herald. formed of or encircled by a cable. Ancre câblée, anchor with its cable. Moulure câblée, cable-moulding. Croix câblée, cabled cross.

CÂBLÉ, sm. cable-cord (for curtain loops and bell-pulls).

CÂBLEAU, kablô, CÂBLOT, kâblo, sm. Naut. cablet : a) boat's painter ; b) warp (for towing).

CÂBLÉE, kablé, sf. Naut. a cable's length.

CÂBLER, kablé-r, va. 1. to lay (or twist) ropes into a cable ; 2. to wire, to telegraph by cable. Je vous câblerai la nouvelle aussitôt, I will cable you the news immediately.

CABLIAU, kabliô, sm. V. Cabillaud.

CÂBLIÈRE, kabliêr', CÂBLURE, kablur', [câble], sf. a large stone used by fishermen instead of an anchor.

CABLOGRAMME, kablogram, [câble ; Gr. : γράμμα, letter], sm. cablegram : a message sent by submarine cable.

CABOCHE, kabosh', [Lat. : caput, head], sf. 1. pate, noddle, mazard (in ludicrous style) ; 2. Fig. head, head-piece ; a hobnail (for shoes) ; 4. Ornith. sparrow-owl. Je me heurtai la — contre la porte, I knocked my noddle against the door. Une bonne —, a good head-piece. Une grosse —, a thick-head, a logger-head. Vous avez la — un peu dure, you are rather dull-pated (or thick-headed). Mol. Étourdi IV. 1.

CABOCHÉ, E, kaboshé, adj. Herald. caboshed, caboched : said of an animal's head cut off close behind the ears.

CABOCHON kaboshôn, sm. cabochon : a precious stone polished but not cut.

CABOCHON, adj. Rubis —, a ruby polished but not cut.

CABOSSE, kabos', [caboche], sm. 1. Bot. cocoa (or cacao) capsule ; 2. Pop. bruise, lump.

CABOT, kabo, sm. Ichth. miller's-thumb, bull-head.

CABOT, kabo, sm. Slang. 1. low actor ; 2. a dog.

CABOTAGE, kabotazh', [caboter], sm. Naut. coasting. Petit —, navigation from headland to headland without losing sight of the coast. Grand —, navigation of the Mediterranean, the Baltic, or other narrow seas. Vaisseau de —, coasting-vessel. Commerce de —, coasting-trade.

CABOTER, kaboté-r, [from cabo, Span. for cape], vn. to coast ; to be employed in the coasting-trade.

CABOTEUR, kabotœr, sm. Naut. coaster : sailor engaged in the coasting trade.

CABOTIER, kabotyé, sm. Naut. coaster, coasting-vessel : any craft engaged in the coasting trade.

CABOTIN, E, kabotan, in, [cabot], sm. 1. strolling player ; 2. a sorry player. Tous les cabotins de la politique, all the petty meddlers in politics.

CABOTINAGE, kabotinazh', sm. the state or condition of strolling players.

CABOTINER, kabotiné-r, vn. 1. to be a strolling player ; 2. to play badly.

CABOULOT, kaboulô, Slang. sm. 1. a small café ; 2. a small lodging, a room spoken of with disdain. Quel — ! what a box !

CABRE, babr', [Lat. : capra, she-foat], sf. Naut. sheers : a hoisting apparatus.

CABREMENT, kabr'mân [cabre], sm. rearing ; rearing up.

CABRER, kabré, [Lat. : capra, she-goat], vn. to rear ; to prance : to stand on the hind legs, as a horse. Ne tirez pas sur la bride de ce cheval, vous le ferez —, do not pull that horse's rein, you will make him rear.

CABRER (SE), v. refl. 1. to rear, to prance about ; 2. to fly into a passion, to put one's self into a passion. Il se cabre du moindre mot, he fires up at the least word ; the least word puts him into a passion.

CABRER, va. to put (a person) into a passion ; Colloq. to rile, to irritate. Prenez garde, vous allez le —, mind, you will get him into a passion.

CABRI, kabri, [Lat. : capra, she-goat], sm. kid : young goat.

CABRILLON, kabryôn, sm. goat's milk cheese.

CABRIOLE, kabriol', [Ital. : capriola ; Lat. caper, capra, a goat], sf. 1. caper : frolicsome skip leap, or jump 2. Danc. capriole 3. (of horses) cabriole, capriole. Faire des cabrioles, to cut capers.

CABRIOLET, kabriolé, [cabriole], sm. cabriolet, cab : a two-wheeled vehicle with a hood. — de maitre, private cab, gentlemen's cab. — de place, hackney cab. — de remise, job cab. Place de cabriolets, cab stand.

CABRIOLEUR kabriolœr, sm. caperer, dancer.

CABRION, kabriôn, sm. 1. Naut. proppet : strut, short shore ; 2. scotch (for casks, etc.).

CABRON, kabrôn, sm. 1. kid-skin ; 2. burnishing tool.

CABUS, kabus, adj. m. bolled, headed. Des choux —, headed cabbages.

CACA, kaka, [Gr. : κάκκη ; Lat. : cacāre], sm. cack : excrement. Faire —, to cack. Fi ! c'est du —, fie ! that's nasty.

CACADE, kakad', [caca], sm. Vulg. 1. cacking ; 2. Fig. failure, miscarriage, abortive effort. Faire une vilaine —, to make a miserable failure.

CACAHUETTE, kakakuet, CACAHUATE, kakauat ; sp. popular name for the pistachio-nut, Fam. monkey-nut.

CACAO, kakao, [Span. ; Mex. : cacauatl], sm. 1. cocoa. [The botanical name is theobroma cacao as in French, but cocoa is the form in general use.] — caraque, Caraccas cocoa. Amande de —, cocoa bean ; (when stripped of the husk and crushed) cocoa-nib. Beurre de —, cocoa-butter. V. Chocolate.

2. the cocoa- (or cacao-) tree.

CACAOTIER, kakaotyé, sm. Bot. cocoa-tree (or plant), chocolate-tree.

CACAOTIÈRE, kakaotyèr', sf. cocoa plantation.

CACAOYER, kakaoyé, sm. CACAOYÈRE, kakaoyêr', sf. V. Cacaotier, Cacaotière.

CACARDER, kakardé-r, vn. to quack, to cry (of the goose). L'oie cacarde, the goose quacks.

CACATOA, kakatoa, CACATOÈS, kakatoès, sm. V. Cacatois.

CACATOIRE, kakatwâr', [caçāre, to have a stool], adj. Med. Fièvre —, fever accompanied by diarrhœa.

CACATOIS, kakatouâ, [Malay : kakatûa], sm. 1. Ornith. cockatoo ; 2. Naut. royal (sail). Grand — main royal. Petit — fore royal. — de perruche, mizen royal. — volant, flying royal.

CACCABER, CACABER, kakabé-r, vn. to cry (of partridges).

CACHALOT, kashalo, [orig. unknown], sm. Nat. Hist. cachalot (or cacholot), spermaceti whale, sperm whale.

CACHE, kash', [cacher, to hide], sf. 1. hiding-place (for persons or things), lurking-hole (for a person).

CACHE, kash, sm. Phot. mask.

CACHÉ, E, kashé, pa. p. 1. hidden, concealed, secreted ; 2. unseen, unperceived ; 3. secret. Serpent — sous l'herbe, a snake hidden under the grass. Ecueils cachés, hidden rocks. Sentiers cachés, by-paths, secret paths. Douleurs cachées, secret griefs. Cette homme est un trésor —, that man is a hidden treasure : he is a person of great merit, though little known. N'avoir rien de — pour quelqu'un, to have no secrets from a person. C'est un esprit —, he is a secret (reserved, uncommunicative) person. C'est un jeu —, it is an underhand trick or game.

CACHE-CACHE, kash'-kash', sm. hide-and-seek, whoop-and-hide : a juvenile game.

CACHE-COU, kash-kou, sm. neckerchief : article of female costume.

CACHE-CORSET, kash-korsé, sm. corset-cover, under-bodice, camisole.

CACHECTIQUE, kashektik', [Lat. : cachecticus ; Gr. : καχεκτικός], adj. Med. cachectic.

CACHE-ENTRÉE, kash'ântré, sm. shield, drop (to cover a key-hole). [Pl. Cache-entrée.]

CACHEMENT, kash'mân-t, [cacher], sm. concealing, hiding.

CACHEMIRE, kash'mir', sm. cashmere : a) a fine tissue of goat's hair, etc. ; b) cashmere shawl. C'est du — de l'Inde, it is Indian cashmere. Un —, un châle de —, a cashmere, a cashmere shawl. — français, French cashmere. Laine de —, cashmere wool.

CACHE-MISÈRE, kash-mizère, sm. Fam. sack-coat buttoned up to the chin to hide shabby clothes, or the absence of linen.

CACHE-NEZ, kash'-né, sm. 1. neck-wrapper, comforter ; 2. nose-band (of a bridle). [Pl. Cache-nez.]

CACHE-PEIGNE, kash'pèny', sm. curls, ribbons, pearls, etc., to conceal the comb at the back of a woman's head. [Pl. Cache-peigne.]

CACHE-POT, kash'po, sm. pot-case : an ornamental cover or exterior for a flower-pot. [Pl. Cache-pot.]

A CACHE-POT, adv. phr. Vendre du vin à —, to sell wine secretly without paying the duty.

CACHE-POUSSIÈRE, kash pousière, sm. 1. travelling dust-coat ; 2. Bicycl. gear-case ; 3. oil-hole clip.

CACHER, kashé-r, [Low Lat. : coacticāre ; Lat. : coactāre, to press in], va. 1. to hide : a) to conceal, to cut into a secret place (a person or thing) ; to secrete (said of things only) ; b) to keep from view, to keep out of sight ; c) to cover up, to veil ; d) to mask, to obstruct (the light, or a view). a) — quelqu'un, to hide a person. — de l'argent, to hide or conceal money. b) — son jeu, (at play) not to show one's cards ; Fig. to conceal one's projects or designs. Cachez vos cartes, hide your cards. Quel pays reculé le cache à mes regards, what distant land hides him from my view ? La prospérité cache les défauts, prosperity hides defects. c) — un tableau, to veil (or cover up) a picture. — sa gorge, to cover one's bosom. — sa figure dans ses mains, to hide (or cover) one's face with one's hands. Sous cet air d'indifférence il cachait une ambition démesurée, under that seeming indifference he concealed a boundless ambition. d) Ce mur cache la vue de la campagne, that wall hides (obstructs or masks) the view of the country. Vous me cachez la lumière, you hide (or mask) my light ; you stand in my light. — le vent à un vaisseau, to keep the wind from (or to take the wind out of) a ship's sails.

2. to conceal : to keep close or secret ; to make a secret of ; to forbear to disclose. — un bruit, not to mention a report. Je voudrais vous — une triste nouvelle, I would fain conceal some sad news from you. Il cacha son départ à tous ses amis, he kept his departure concealed from all his friends. — sa marche, to conceal one's plans, one's proceedings. — sa vie, to live in retirement. Ils ne me cachèrent pas leurs pensées, they did not conceal their thoughts from me. Je ne cache pas que mon intention est de réclamer, I make no secret of my intention to lodge a complaint. — son nom, son âge, to conceal (or keep secret) one's name, one's age. Il ne cache rien, he has no secrets. Prov. : Qui cache peut trouver, hiders are good finders.

CACHER (SE). v. refl. to hide (or conceal) one's self : a) to be hidden from view ; to be hiding (or in hiding), to lie snug (or close) ; b) to keep out of the way (of creditors, duns, etc.) ; c) to live retired ; to shun society ; d) to lurk, to skulk (for some evil purpose). Il se cache derrière un arbre, he is hiding behind a tree. Ces animaux se cachent dans des tanières, those animals conceal themselves in holes. Les étoiles se cachent, the stars are hidden from view. Ceux qui s'étaient cachés dans les bois, those who had hidden themselves in the woods. Aller se —, to go and hide one's self, to be ashamed to show one's self. Allez vous — pour jamais, go and hide your head for ever. Se — à ,to shun, to avoid. Dans son chagrin, il se cachait à ses amis, in his grief, he refused to see (he shunned or avoided) his friends. Se — de quelqu'un, Fig. to conceal one's sentiments, etc., from a person. Se — de quelque chose, to keep a thing secret, not to confess (avow, own or admit) a thing. Il ne se cache pas de dire que, he makes no secret of (he does not shrink from) saying that... Il ne s'en cache point, he acts openly. C'est un dessein dont on ne se cache pas, it is a scheme which no one need be ashamed to own.

CACHERIE, kash'ri, sf. affectation of secrecy.

CACHET, kashè, [cacher], sm. 1. seal : a) an engraved stamp for letters ; b) wax impressed with a seal. Un — bien gravé, a well engraved seal. — de chiffres, cipher seal. — d'armes, seal with coat of arms. Le — d'un fabricant, a manufacturer's seal (or stamp). Le — est rompu, the seal is broken. — volant, flying seal. C'est bien là son —, that is really his seal. Mettre un — sur la bouche à quelqu'un, Fig. to seal up a person's mouth, to enjoin secrecy.

2. signet, privy-seal (of the French king before the Revolution). Lettre de —, a letter under the king's signet (or privy-seal) : an arbitrary order of arrest, imprisonment or exiles. La lettre de — que vous m'avez fait l'honneur de m'écrire, the royal letter which you did me the honour to write. Être exilé par lettre de —, to be exiled by royal order. Une lettre de — l'envoya à la Bastille, a royal order consigned him to the Bastille.

3. ticket (for lessons, etc.) : card bearing a seal or signature. Ce maître de danse prend cinquante francs pour douze cachets, that dancing-master charges fifty francs for twelve tickets (or lessons). Nous payons au —, we pay by the lesson. On a quinze cachets pour vingt-cinq francs chez ce restaurateur, you get fifteen tickets (or meals) for twenty-five francs at that eating-house. Courir le — to give private lessons at a low price.

4. Fig. stamp : peculiar character, cast, make, kind, form. Son style a un — particulier, his style has a peculiar (or characteristic) stamp. Le — d'originalité est empreint sur cet ouvrage, this work bears the stamp of originality. Cet ouvrage porte le — de l'époque où il fut composé, this work bears the stamp of the period in which it was composed. Il a beaucoup de —, he is distinguished in his manners.

5. Pharm. cachet. Un — d'antipyrine, a cachet or capsule of antipyrine.

CACHE-TAMPON, kash-tànpôn, sm. hunt-the slipper : a juvenile game. Pl. cache-tampon.

CACHETÉ, E, kash'té, pa. p. sealed. Une lettre cachetée avec de la cire verte, a letter sealed with green wax. Soumissions cachetées, sealed tenders.

CACHETER, kash'té-r, [cachet], [takes a double t before a mute syllable : Je cachette ; je cachetais ; je cachetai ; je cachetterai ; je cachetterais ; cachette, cachetons ; que je cachette.] va. to seal : properly, to close or mark with a seal ; to close (a letter) with wax, a wafer, gum, etc. — une lettre, un paquet, une bouteille, to seal a letter, a parcel, a bottle. Cire à —, sealing wax. Pain à —, a wafer.

CACHETTE, kashèt', [cache], sf. hiding-place (for persons or things) ; (in an ill sense) lurking-place. Il avait mis son argent dans une —, he had put his money in a hiding-place.

EN CACHETTE, adv. phr. 1. in secret, secretly, in concealment, clandestinely ; 2. underhand, underhandedly. Faire quelque chose en —, to do a thing in secret. Être en —, to be in hiding, to be in concealment, to lie concealed. Agir en —, to act underhandedly.

CACHEUR, kashœr, sm. hider.

CACHEVEAU, kash'vô, sm. Ornith. diver, didapper.

CACHEXIE, kakèksi, [Gr. : καχεξία, κακός, bad], sf. Med. cachexia, cachexy : vitiated habit of body. — cancereuse, cancerous cachexia. — aqueuse, Vet. Surg. rot (in sheep).

CACHIBOU, kashibou, sm. Bot. cachibou resin (obtained from the bursera gummifera).

CACHOLONG, kasholòn, sm. Mineral. cacholong, pearl opal, mother-of-pearl opal.

CACHOT, kasho-t, [cacher], sm. 1. dungeon ; 2. black-hole : dark cell for refractory prisoners ; 3. (in a general sense) prison. Le condamné, s'étant révolté, fut mis au —, the convict having rebelled, was put into the dungeon. Le — des condamnés à mort, the condemned cell. Tirer quelqu'un des cachots, to deliver a person from prison.

CACHOTTE, kashot', sf. tobacco-pipe without a spur at the bottom of the bowl.

CACHOTTER, kashoté-r, [dimin. of cacher], va. to make secret (or mystery) of.

CACHOTTER (SE), v. réfl. to affect secrecy.

CACHOTTERIE, kashot'ri, sf. 1. affectation of secrecy, slyness ; 2. sly trick (or habit).

CACHOTTIER, ÈRE, kashotyé, èr', smf. person who affects secrecy about trifles.

CACHOU, kashou, [catechu], sm. catechu : cutch, gambier, formerly called Japan earth.

CACIQUE, kasik', [Haytian], sm. cacique, cazique, a chief among the native Indians of America.

CACOCHOLIE, kakokoli, [Gr. : κακός, bad ; χολή, bile], sf. Med. cacocholia : depraved state of the bile.

CACOCHONDRITE, kakokôndrit', sm. Nat. Hist. cacochondrite : a kind of venomous serpent.

CACOCHYLIE, kakokili, [Gr. : κακός, bad ; χυλός, chyle], sf. Med. cacocholy : depraved chylification.

CACOCHYME, kakokim', adj. 1. Med. cacochymic, cacochimical : suffering under a depraved state of the humours ; ill-conditioned, sickly ; 2. Fig. ill-conditioned, ill-humoured ; odd, eccentric, queer. Mon âme est très mal à son aise dans mon corps —, my soul is very ill at ease in my sickly body. Volt. Lett. Cideville, 10 mai 1764. C'est un esprit —, he has an ill-conditioned (or ill-balanced) mind. [Subst. :] C'est un pauvre —, he is a poor ill-conditioned creature.

CACOCHYMIE, kakokimi, [Gr. : κακός, bad ; χυμός, humour], sf. Med. cacochymia, cacochymy : a depraved state of the humours.

CACODYLE, V. Kakodyle.

CACOÈTHE, cakoet, [Gr. : κακός, bad ; ἦθος, nature], sm. adj. Med. cacoethes. Ulcère —, malignant ulcer.

CACOGRAPHIE, kakografi, [Gr. : κακός, bad ; γραφή, writing], sf. cacography : incorrect spelling.

CACOGRAPHIQUE, kakografik', adj. cacographic, cacographical.

CACOLET, kakolé, [provin.], sm. 1. pair of panniers or peds for beasts of burden ;

2. Milit. mule ambulance (for carrying two sick or wounded soldiers).

CACOLOGIE, kakolozhi, [Gr. : κακός, bad ; λόγος, discourse], sf. cacology : a vicious form of speech.

CACOLOGIQUE, kakolozhik', adj. cacological.

CACOPHONIE, kakofoni, [Gr. : κακός, bad ; φωνή, voice], sf. cacophony : a) Rhet. harsh or uncouth sound of words ; b) Mus. jarring or discordant combination of sounds ; c) Med. depraved state of the voice.

CACTACÉES, kaktasé, CACTÉES, kakté, sf. Bot. cactaceæ : a family of plants of which the cactus opuntia is the type.

CACTIER, kaktyé, CACTUS, kaktus, [Gr. : κάκτος], sm. Bot. cactus. — cochenillière, cochineal-tree, nopal. — opuntia (or raquette), Indian fig-tree.

CADASTRAL, E, kadastral, al', adj. cadastral : referring to the register of lands, to land estates for fiscal purposes.

CADASTRE, kadastr', [Low Lat. : capitastrum, register for a poll-tax ; Lat. : caput, head], sm. cadastre, cadastral survey : plans and registers of the area and valuation of all the land of a township, province, kingdom, etc.

CADASTRER, kadastré-r, va. to make the cadastre of : to survey and value.

CADAVÉREUX, EUSE, kadavérœ, œz', adj. cadaverous : corpse-like. Un teint —, a corpse-like paleness.

CADAVÉRIQUE, kadavérik', adj. cadaveric. Autopsie —, cadaveric autopsy, post mortem examination. Rigidité —, cadaveric rigidity, rigor mortis.

CADAVRE, kadavr', [Lat. : cadaver], sm. corpse : dead body ; (in a contemptuous sense) carcass. C'est un — ambulant, he is a walking corpse, he is like a walking ghost. Sentir le —, to have a presentiment of coming evil. Il y a un — entre eux, they have a skeleton in the cupboard. Savoir où est le —, to know the great secret of an affair.

CADE, kad', sm. Bot. Spanish juniper. juniperus oxycedrus. Huile de —, cade oil (extracted from cade by destructive distillation).

CADE, kad, [Lat. : cadus, cask], sm. barrel made use of by salters.

CADEAU, kadô, [provin. capdel ; O. Fr. : cadel from Lat. catellus, a little chain], sm. 1. Callig. ornamental flourish ; 2. flourished initial (in manuscripts) ; 3. pleasure party, treat, pic-nic. In those acceptations Cadeau is now seldom used.]

4. present : complimentary gift, compliment. Les petits cadeaux entretiennent l'amitié, small presents are the momentos of friendship. Il me fit — d'un beau libre, he made me a present of a beautiful book. Un riche —, a costly present. — nuptial, wedding present.

† CADELER, kad'lé-r, va. Callig. to flourish.

CADENAS, kad'na-z, [Lat. : catena, chain ; Provenç. : cadenat], sm. 1. padlock ; 2. clasp, snap : fastening of a bracelet, necklace, etc. ; 3. (formerly) gold or gilt case containing a knife, fork, and spoon. — à secret, puzzle-lock. — automatique, automatic padlock. — à combinaison à lettres, combination letter padlock. Mettre un — aux lèvres de quelqu'un, Fig. to shut up a person's mouth ; to gag a person.

CADENASSER, kadnasé-r, va. to padlock : to fasten with a padlock. Une porte cadenassée, a padlocked door.

CADENCE, kadàns', [Ital. : cadenza; Lat. : cadère, to fall], sf. cadence : a) fall of the voice according to the rhythm, in prose or verse ; b) rhythmical or measured succession of sounds of any kind ; c) close of a musical phrase ; d) embellishment, trill, quaver, preceding the close of a phrase in music ; e) measure of the steps in dancing or marching. — harmonieuse, harmonious cadence. Des cadences nombreuses, rhythmical cadences. Battre la —, to make a trill, shake or quaver (in vocal or instrumental music). Danser en —, to dance in cadence : to keep time in dancing. Ajuster ses pas à la — de l'air, to adjust one's steps to the cadence of the music. De lourds marteaux qui tombent en —, heavy hammers striking in regular succession. Des rameurs qui frappent les flots en —, rowers who strike the waves in cadence, in regular succession. La — du pas, the regularity of the step (in marching).

CADENCER, kadànsé-r, va. to cadence : a) to regulate by rythmical measure ; b) Mus. to quaver, shake or trill a note near the close of a phrase. Un air bien cadencé, a well cadenced air. Une prose nombreuse et cadencée, rhythmical and cadenced prose.

CADÈNE, kadèn', [Lat. : catena. chain], sf. chain to which convicts were fettered.

CADENETTE kad'nèt, sf. 1. long drooping curl ; 2. long plait of hair (formerly worn by soldiers).

CADET, ETTE, kadè-t, èt', [Low Lat. : capitettum, small head ; provin. : capdet], adj. 1. younger : said of a son or daughter born after another (when there are only two) ; 2. youngest (when more than two of either) ; 3. (in a more restricted sense) second (son or daughter), eldest but one ; 4. junior (in a general sense). Frère —, a younger brother, the youngest brother. Sœur cadette, the younger (or youngest) sister. La branche cadette d'une maison, the younger branch of a house (or family). La branche cadette des Bourbons, the younger branch of the Bourbon family.

CADET, sm. 1. younger brother, younger son (if there be two only) ; 2. (with the definite article) youngest brother or son (the last born if there be three or more) ; 3. junior : younger man ; 4. Milit. cadet. Il était —, il fut destiné à l'Église, he was a younger son and was intended for the church. Je suis son —, mais dans l'armée il est mon —, I am younger than he, but in the army he is my junior. C'est le — de mes soucis, Fig. that is the least of my cares. C'est un — de haut appétit, he is an extravagant young fellow.

CADETTE, sf. 1. younger (or youngest) daughter or sister ; 2. hewn paving-stone ; 3. the shorter of the two long cues used at billiards.

CADETTER, kadèté-r, va. to pave with hewn stones.

CADI, kadi [Ar. : qādhi], sm. cadi : Mussulman judge.

CADIL, kadil, sm. cadil : a name formerly given to the litre measure.

CADIS, kadi, sm. cadis : a kind of serge.

CADIX, kadis, pn. Geog. Cadiz.

CADMÉEN, ENNE, kadméan, èn', [from Cadmus, the founder of Thebes, 1566 years B. C. who introduced the original Greek alphabet], adj. Cadmean.

CADMIE, kadmi, [Gr. : καδμεία], sf. Chem. cadmia. — naturelle (or fossile), fossile cadmia — artifielle (or des fourneaux), sublimated oxide of zinc.

CADMIUM, kadmiom [cadmie], sm. Chem. cadmium.

CADOGAN, kadogàn, sm. V. Catogan.

CADOLE, kadol', [Provenç. : cadaulo], sf. latch (of a door).

CADOREUX, kadorœ, Provin.], sm. Ornith. goldfinch.

CADRAN, kadràn, [Lat. : quadrans, antis : quadrāre, to be square], sm. 1. dial : a) properly, a sun-dial, or plane on which hour lines are traced ; b) dial-plate, face (of a clock or watch). Un — solaire, a sun-dial. — horizontal, vertical, incliné, hortizontal vertical, inclined dial. — méridional, south dial. — d'une horloge, d'une montre, dial-plate, dial, face of a clock or watch. Faire le tour du —, to go all round the clock ; Fig. to make a complete circuit, to go the whole round (of opinions, etc.). Je me suis couché à huit heures, et j'ai fait le tour du —, I went to bed at eight and slept all round the clock (or till eight in the morning).

2. vice (used by lapidaries) ; 3. Agr. V. Cadranure.

CADRANÉ, E, kadrané adj. Agr. bark-cracked : said of trees attacked by a disease which causes the bark to crack in diverging lines.

CADRANNERIE, kadran'ri, sf. Naut. 1. compass-loft : workshop where marine compasses, barometers, etc. are made ; 2. the art of making compasses, etc.

† CADRANURE, kadran'yure, (cadran), sf. Agr disease in trees, which shows itself by cracks in the wood.

CADRAT, kadra, sm. Typog. quadrat.

CADRATIN, kadratan, sm. Typog. M-quadrat. Demi- —, N-quadrat.

CADRATURE, kadratur', sf. Horolog. dial-train : hour, minute, and second wheels of a watch or clock placed next the dialplate.

CADRE, kadr', [Lat. : quadrum, square], sm. 1. frame (of a picture, looking-glass, etc.). Un beau —, a beautiful frame. Un — doré, a gilt frame. — oval ou rond, round or oval frame. [Fig.] La mer d'un côté, les forêts de l'autre formaient le — de ce grand tableau [le champ de bataille], the sea on one side, the forests on the other, formed the frame of this grand picture [the battle-field]. Chateaub. Martyrs.

2. Arch. frame : ornamental border inclosing a space ; 3. Build. frame-work : a combination of timber, etc. ; 4. deckle : frame used in making paper.

5. Fig. outline : plan, arrangement of a work ; 6. compass ; limits. C'est un — heureux, mais il n'est pas bien rempli, the outline is happily conceived, but it is not well filled in (or up). On fait entrer bien des choses dans un tel —, many things may be comprised in such an outline. Renfermer dans un — étroit, to inclose within narrow limits, to reduce to a narrow compass.

7. Milit. skeleton, staff (of a regiment, etc.) : complement of officers (commissioned and non-commissioned) ; list of officers (of a company, regiment, etc.). Conserver les cadres forts et bien organisés, to keep the staffs of officers complete and well organized. Figurer sur les cadres d'une compagnie, to be on the muster-roll of a company. — de réserve, list, body of reserve officers.

8. Naut. cot : sleeping-place ; 9. sick list. La moitié de l'équipage était sur les cadres, half the crew was on the sick-list.

CADRER, kadré-r, vn. (avec, a, with) to square, to tally, to agree : to be in keeping or in harmony, to harmonize, to suit, to fit, to fall in with. Toutes choses cadrent au juste à vos desseins, every thing squares (or tallies) exactly with your designs. Votre comparaison ne cadre pas, your comparison does not suit. Les explications ne cadrent pas avec le texte, the explanations are not in harmony (or do not agree) with the text.

CADUC, kaduk, m., CADUQUE, kaduk', [Lat. : caducus; cadĕre, to fall], adj. 1. decaying, falling, crazy, crumbling, tumble-down (as a house, etc.); 2. decrepit, frail, declining, worn-out (as persons, animals, health, etc.) Maison vieille et caduque, an old tumble-down house. Santé caduque, declining health. Age caduc, declining age. Mal caduc, falling sickness, epilepsy.

3. Law-t. lapsed : null, void. Legs —, lapsed legacy. Donation caduque, void donation. Voix caduque, a vote that does no-count.

4. Bot. caducous : falling or dropping off early. Corolle, feuille caduque, caducous corolla, caducous leaf.

5. Anat. deciduous. Membrane caduque, deciduous membrane (of the uterus), membrana decidua.

CADUCÉE, kadusé, [Lat. : caduceum], sm. caduceus : a) the attribute of Mercury ; b) a rod carried by the king at arms and heralds in state ceremonies.

CADUCITÉ, kadusité, [caduc], sf. 1. caducity : a) tendency to fall, frailness, perishableness, craziness (of a building, etc.) ; b) decay, decline (caused by age) ; senility. — d'une maison, the crazy state of a house. Le vice le plus inséparable des choses humaines, c'est leur propre —, the defect most inseparable from human things is their intrinsic perishableness. Boss. His. II. 5. Dans la vie de l'homme la — précède la décrépitude, in the life of man caducity precedes decrepitude. La — commence à soixante-dix ans, senility begins at three score and ten.

2. Law-t. lapse, lapsing (of a legacy) ; nullity (of a donation, vote, etc.).

3. Bot. falling-off, deciduousness (of leaves, etc.).

CÆCAL, E, sekal, al', adj. Anat. cœcal.

CÆCUM, sékom, [Lat.], sm. Anat. cœcum : the first of the large intestines.

CÆSIUM, séziom, [Lat. : cœsius, blue], sm. Chem cæsium : an alkaline metal.

CAFARD, kafar, sm. Entom. cockroach blackbeetle : the common name for blatte f.

CAFARD, E, kafar, ard', [orig. unknown ; caphardum, Low Lat for a sort of disguise has been suggested], smf. hypocrite, sneak : canter, canting bigot. Faire le —, to play the hypocrite.

CAFARD, E, adj. hypocritical, sneaking, canting.

CAFARDER, kafardé-r, vn. to sneak, to play the hypocrite, to spy, to tell tales.

CAFARDERIE, kafard'ri, sf. canting, cant, hypocrisy.

CAFARDISE, kafardiz', CAFARDAGE, kafardazh, sf. cant, act of hypocrisy, piece of cant (or hypocrisy).

CAFÉ, kafé, [Turk. : qahweh ; Ar. : quahwah.], sm. 1. coffee : a) the fruit of the coffee-tree, coffee-beans (commonly, but incorrectly, called berries) ; b) a beverage made by infusing roasted coffee beans ; c) any infusion used as a substitute for coffee. — de Bourbon (or — Bourbon), Bourbon coffee. — de Moka (or — Moka), Mocha coffee, Mocha. — en poudre, ground coffee. — en grains, unground, whole coffee. Il prenait du — pour s'empêcher de dormir, he used to take coffee to keep himself from sleeping (or to keep himself awake). Tasse à —, coffee-cup. Tasse de —, a cup of coffee. Une demi-tasse de —, a small cup of black coffee. — au lait, coffee and milk. Couleur de — (or couleur —), coffee colour. Couleur de — au lait (or couleur — au lait), cream-colour. — de chicorée, chicory coffee.

2. coffee-time ; 3. coffee-house ; 4. (of hotels) coffee-room. Il tient un — he keeps a coffee-house. — concert, — chantant, music-hall. Garçon de —, waiter.

CAFÉIER, kaféyé, CAFIER, kafié, sm. 1. Bot. coffee-tree ; 2. coffee-planter, coffee-grower.

CAFÉIÈRE, kaféyêr', sf. coffee-plantation.

CAFÉINE, kaféin', sf. Chem. caffeine, theine : a crystalizable principle found in coffee and tea.

CAFÉIQUE, kaféik', CAFIQUE, kafik', adj. caffeic : said of an acid extracted from coffee.

CAFETAN, kaf'tân, [Turk. : qaftān], sm. caftan : pelisse of honour in Turkey and Persia.

CAFÉTERIE, kafét'ri, sf. coffee-plantation.

CAFETIER, kaf'tyé, sm. coffee-house-keeper.

CAFETIÈRE, kaf'tyèr', sf. coffee-pot.

CAFIER, kafyé, sm. Bot. coffee-tree.

CAFRE, kafr', adj. and smf. Caffre, Kaffir, or Kafir : a) of or belonging to Caffraria ; b) a native of Caffraria.

CAFRERIE, kafrœri, sf. Geog. Caffraria, Kaffraria.

CAFTAN, kaftân, sm. V. Cafetan.

CAGE, kazh', [Lat. : cavea, cavia, a hollow place), sf. 1. cage : a) an enclosure of wire, twigs, etc. for birds ; b) den, for wild beasts ; c) coop, for poultry ; d) Colloq. prison for offenders ; e) timber frame on which church bells are hung. On mettra les oiseaux en —, the birds will be caged. Don Quichote fit ouvrir la — des lions, Don Quichote opened the lions' cage (or den). Le duc de Nemours fut enfermé dans une — de fer à la Bastille, the duke of Nemours was shut up in an iron-cage at the Bastille. Il est en —, he is in durance vile, he is under lock and key. — à poulets, hen-coop. La — d'un clocher, the cage (or frame-work) of a belfry. Mettre un homme en —, to put a man in prison, to cage a man. Prov. : La belle cage ne nourrit pas l'oiseau, fair words butter no parsnips. Il vaut mieux être oiseau de campagne qu'oiseau de cage, liberty is better then splendid servitude. Ce n'est pas quand les oiseaux sont envolés qu'il faut fermer la cage, it is too late to shut the stable door when the horse is gone.

2. frame, frame-work (of a clock, watch, etc.) ; 3. Technol. case, casing ; 4. Arch. carcass, shell : the outer walls and roof of a house ; 5. glass-shade (of a chimney clock, etc.) ; 6. coffer, trunk (for live fish) ; 7. leap : a wicker apparatus for catching fish ; 8. grating (placed near the sluice of a fish-pond.) La — d'un moulin à vent, the carcass (or frame-work) of a windmill. — d'escalier, staircase : the space containing the stairs.

CAGÉE, kazhé, sf. cageful (of birds).

CAGEROTTE, kaz'hrot' [cage] sf. wicker strainer (for cheese).

CAGETTE kazhèt' sf. 1. small cage ; 2. bird-trap.

CAGIER, ÈRE, kazhyé zhyèr', smf. cage-maker, cage-seller.

CAGNARD, E, canyar, ard', [O. Fr. : caignard ; V. Cagne], adj. 1. lazy, slothful ; 2. skulking, cowardly. Un homme —, a lazy dog (or fellow), a lazy-bones.

CAGNARD, E, smf. lazy fellow m. ; lazy jade f.

CAGNARD, sm. Naut. weather-cloth.

CAGNARDER, kanyardé-r, vn. to laze, to lead a lazy life.

CAGNARDISE, kanyardiz', sf. laziness, slothfulness.

CAGNE, kany', [Ital. : cagna, bitch], sf. 1. bitch : female of the dog ; 2. slut, wench, loose woman.

CAGNEUX, EUSE, kanyœ, œz', adj. 1. knock-kneed, crook-kneed, in-kneed ; 2. crooked : said of the legs only ; 3. Subst. a knock-kneed person.

CAGNOT, kanyo, [provin.], sm. Ichth. tope, miller's dog, penny dog.

CAGNOTTE, kanyot', [orig. unknown], sf. (with gamesters) the portion of the stakes set apart for the keeper of a private gaming-house.

CAGOLER, kagōlé-r, [provin.], va. Naut. to let go with the stream (a boat).

CAGOT, OTE, kago, kagot', [provin.], smf. canting bigot.

CAGOT, OTE, adj. 1. bigoted, canting ; 2. Cagot : said of a tribe of outcasts resembling gipsies, inhabiting the Pyrenees, many of whom are afflicted with cretinism.

CAGOTERIE, kagot'ri, sf. 1. bigotry ; 2 piece (or act) of bigotry.

CAGOTISME, kagotism', sm. bigotry, pharisaism.

CAGOU, kagou (from Low Breton, a leper), sm. ; adj. 1. leper, leprous ; 2 Slang. expert thief, trainer of young thieves.

CAGOULE, kagoul', [Lat. : cuculla], sf. 1. cloak worn by monks ; 2. Milit. gas mask.

CAGUE, kag', [Dutch : kaag], sf. Naut. small sloop (used by the Dutch).

CAHIER, kayé, [of doubtful origin ; perhaps Lat. quaternum, a union of four sheets], sm. 1. paper book : a few sheets or leaves of blank or written paper stitched in a wrapper ; 2. quarter quire (six sheets of writing paper) — de papier, blank paper book. — d'écriture, writing-book, copy-book. — d'arithmétique, summing book, ciphering-book. — de papier réglé, ruled paper book — d'exemples, book (or sheet) of writing models. — de philosophie, de théologie, written lectures of philosophy, of theology. — de musique, manuscript music-book.

2. cahier : a) memorial, bill or statement addressed to a sovereign by a public body ; b) statement of conditions of a contract, etc. ; c) instructions given to representatives. — des doléances, bill, memorial or statement of grievances. Les cahiers de l'assemblée du clergé, the cahiers of the assembly of the clergy. — des charges, specifications : conditions of a contract for supplies, work, etc. — de frais, bill (or statement) of costs.

CAHIN-CAHA, kaan-kaa, [seems to be from Lat. qua-hinc, qua hac], adv. somehow, so so : not over well, poorly, lamely, indifferently. L'affaire va —, the affair gets on lamely. Il se porte —, he is so so ; he is poorly. Il a fait son devoir, mais —, he has done his task, but not over well.

CAHOT, kao, [orig. unknown, presumably, an onomat.], sm. jerk, jolt, jolting : unequal motion of a carriage on a rough road ; Fig. difficulty, obstacle. Un grand —, a great jolt. Je n'aime pas le — d'une voiture, I do not like the jolting in a carriage. Un chemin plein de cahots, a road full of jolts ; a jolting road. C'est une affaire difficile et qui aura bien des cahots, it is difficult business and will be attended with many ups and downs.

CAHOTAGE, kaotazh', sm. jolting : succession of jolts. Le — de cette voiture m'a brisé, the jolting of that carriage has shaken me to pieces.

CAHOTANT, E, kaotân-t, ânt, adj. jolting. Voiture cahotante, jolting carriage. Chemin —, jolting road.

CAHOTEMENT, kaot'mân, sm. jolting.

CAHOTER, kaoté-r, va. 1. to jolt; 2. Fig. to toss, beat or buffet about. Cette voiture nous a bien cahotés, that carriage has jolted us finely. Il fut longtemps cahoté par la fortune, he was long tossed (or buffeted) about by fortune.

CAHOTER, vn. to jolt. Une voiture mal suspendue cahote toujours, a carriage badly suspended always jolts.

CAHOTEUX, kaotœ, adj. jolting, shaking; uneven, rough (of a road).

CAHUTE, kaüt-, [Dutch : koje, kajuit; Ger. : Kajüte], sf. cabin : a) hut, hovel, shed; b) Naut. small room.

CAICHE, kèsh', sf. Naut. ketch : a small two-masted vessel.

CAÏD, kaid, [Ar. qāid], sm. Arab judge or magistrate.

CAÏEU, kayœ, [orig. unknown], sm. Bot. 1. offset-bulb (of a tulip); 2. clove (of garlic); 3. corm (of saffron).

CAIGNEZ, kaigné, [Louis-Charles], dramatist (1762-1842).

CAILHAVA, kailava, [Jean-François], dramatic author (1730-1818).

CAILLAGE, kayazh (cailler), sm. curdling (as of milk).

CAILLE, kay', [Low Lat. : quaquila; Low Ger. : Quackel], sf. Ornith. quail. Être chaud comme une —, to be ardent, eager, zealous, [Fig. :] Caille coiffée, kept mistress, lady of easy virtue.

CAILLÉ, E, kayé, adj. 1. curdled : turned to curds, as milk; 2. curdled, clotted (as blood). Lait —, curds. Sang —, clotted blood.

CAILLÉ, sm. 1. curd, : milk turned by rennet, acids, etc. (chiefly used in the pl.), curds; 2. (milk coagulated by heat) clotted (or clouted) cream.

CAILLEBOT, kaybot, sm. Bot. guelder-rose,

CAILLEBOTIS, kay'boti, sm. Naut. gratings (of the hatches).

CAILLEBOTTE, kay'bot', [cailler], sf. 1. curds; 2. clotted (or clouted) cream.

CAILLEBOTTER, kay'boté-r, va. 1. to curdle; 2. to clot, to clout.

CAILLEBOTTER (SE), v. refl. 1. to curdle; 2. to clot, to clout.

CAILLE-LAIT, kay-lè, sm. Bot. cheese-rennet, yellow bedstraw : Gallium verum. — grateron, cleavers, goose-grass : Gallium aparine.

CAILLEMENT, kay'mân-t, sm. 1. curdling; 2. clotting.

CAILLER, kayé-r, [Lat. : coagulāre], va. 1. to curdle; 2. to clot. La présure caille le lait, rennet curdles milk.

CAILLER (SE), v. refl. 1. to curdle; 2. to clot. Le lait se caille, milk curdles, turns to curds. Le sang se caille, blood curdles or clots. [With ellipsis of the pronoun :] Cela fait — le lait, that curdles (or turns) milk.

CAILLER, kayé'r, [caille, quail], sm. 1. quail-net; 2. quail-call.

CAILLETAGE, kay'tazh', [caille, quail], sm. twaddle; tattle, gossip, tittle-tattle, cackle, cackling : frivolous talk.

CAILLETEAU, kay'tô, [dimin. of caille, quail], sm. Ornith. young quail.

CAILLETER, kay-té-r, [caille, quail], vn, to twaddle : to cackle, to gossip, to prate.

CAILLETTE, kayèt', [cailler], sf. rennet . the inner lining of the fourth or true stomach of the sucking calf, used for curdling milk.

CAILLETTE, kayèt, [caille, quail], sf. gossip, twaddler, cackle, cackler : a person fond of tittle-tattle. C'est une —, she is a gossip. Cet homme est une franche —, that man is an arrant gossip, is a mere cackler.

CAILLIAUD, kayliô [Frédéric], traveller and naturalist (1787-1869).

CAILLOT, kayo, [cailler, to curdle], sm. 1. clot (as of milk, blood, or any coagulable substance); 2. Med. coagulum.

CAILLOTIS, kayoti, sm. Technol. kelp : a crude alkaline substance obtained from the combustion of sea-weeds.

CAILLOT-ROSAT, kayo-roza, sm. Gard. a kind of hard pear with a rose flavour. Pl. Caillots-rosats.

CAILLOU, kayou, [Lat. : calculus], sm. 1. flint, flintstone; 2. (when rounded by the action of running water) pebble; 3. Geol. boulder. — d'Égypte, Egyptian jasper. Un cœur de —, a stoney heart. Il a le cœur dur comme un —, his heart is as hard as a flint.

CUILLOUTAGE, kayoutazh, sm. 1. Mason. pebble-work; 2. Pott. flint-ware : the finest earthen-ware; 3. Road-mak. the stoning, the flinting of a road.

CAILLOUTÉE, kayouté, sf. 1. ornamental pebble-work (or rock-work); 2. flint pottery.

CAILLOUTER, kayouté-r, va. Road-mak. to cover with flints.

CAILLOUTEUR, kayoutœr, sm. 1. road-man : one who makes or repairs roads; 2. gunflint-cutter.

CAILLOUTEUX, EUSE, kayoutœ-z, œz', adj. pebbly, flinty : abounding in pebbles or flints. Sol —, a flinty soil.

CAILLOUTIS, kayouti, sm. road metal : flints or stones broken small. En —, metalled, macadamized (as a road).

CAÏMACAN, kaïmakân, [Ar.], sm. caïmacan : in Turkey, lieutenant of the grand vizir.

CAÏMAN, kaïmân, Span.], sm. Nat. Hist. cayman : a sub-genus of the alligator or merican crocodile — à lunettes, the eye-browed cayman, alligator palpebrosus.

CAIMANDER, kémandé-r, etc. V. Quémander, etc.

CAÏN, kain, sm. pn. Cain.

CAÏQUE, kaïk', [Ital. : caicco], sm. Naut. caïc or caïque : a) formerly, skiff or launch of a galley; b) small boat used in the Levant.

CAIRE, kèr', [Malay : kāyar, cord], sm. coir : the fibrous husk of the cocoa-nut, used for ropes, etc.

CAIRE (LE), lœ kèr', sm. Geog. Cairo. Le Caire est la capitale de l'Égypte, Cairo is the capital of Egypt. Il s'établit au Caire, dans les environs du Caire, he settled at Cairo, in the environs of Cairo.

CAISSE, kes', [Lat. : capsa; capĕre, to take], sf. 1. packing-case : a rough box or case in which goods are packed for carriage; 2. chest (of tea, sugar, soap, etc.); 3. case (of wine, etc. in bottles); 4. box, tub (for plants). Charger les caisses sur un camion, to load packing cases on a truck (or lorry). Emballer des objets dans une —, to pack up objects in a case. Il y a un bois entier d'orangers dans de grandes caisses, there is quite a forest of orange-trees in large boxes (if rectangular), in large tubs (if round or oval). J'ai acheté une — de pruneaux, I bought a case (or a box) of prunes. — d'emballage, packing-case. — à amputation, à trépan, case of amputating instruments, of trepanning instruments. — à médicaments, medicine chest. — à claire-voie, crate (for glass, earthenware, etc.).

5. any receptacle for money or valuables; cash-box (when portable); till, money-drawer (in a shop-counter); coffer, strong-box, iron-chest, safe (of a banker, merchant, etc.); 6. any office or place where money is paid or deposited : bank, counting-house, pay-office, cashier's office, cash-office, 7. cash in hand; 8. fund (for any special purpose). Avoir de l'argent en —, to have cash in hand. Tirer de l'argent de sa —, to take money out of one's cash-box. La — de la banque fut forcée par des voleurs, the bank safe was broken open by thieves. — contre le vol et l'incendie, burglar-and fire-proof safe. Les caisses de l'État, the coffers of the state. Allez à la — et vous serez payé, go to the cashier (or the cashier's office), and you will be paid. La — est fermée, the cash-office is closed. Livre de —, cash-book. Tenir la —, to be cashier, to keep the cash. — d'amortissement, sinking-fund. — de secours mutuels, sick fund. — militaire, military chest. — des pensions, pension-fund. — d'épargne, savings-bank. — de dépôts et de consignations, a government office (in France) where trust-moneys or funds under litigation may be deposited for safe keeping.

9. the body of a drum; the drum itself. Battre la —, to beat the drum. Grosse —, big drum. — du tambour, Anat. the drum of the ear : the cavity of the tympanum. Battre la grosse —, Fig. to make a noise, to advertise showily.

10. body (of a coach, etc.); 11. Naut. tank (for water); 12. shell (of a block); 13. Civ. Eng. caisson : a kind of small coffer-dam.

CAISSETIN, kes'tan, sm. small box.

CAISSIER, kesyé, sm. cashier (in a bank or counting-house).

CAISSIÈRE, késyêr', sf. cashier : a woman who acts as cashier, or money-taker in a shop.

CAISSON, kèsôn, sm. 1. caisson : a) Milit. military waggon, ammunition waggon, b) Civ. Eng. small coffer-dam. c) Arch. sunk panel (of a ceiling); d) Naut. cradle (for lifting a vessel out of the water for repairs); 2. Naut. locker; 3. boot, seat, box (of a carriage). Les — des vivres, the provision waggons.

4. Slang. head. Se faire sauter le —, to blow one's brains out.

CAJEPUT, kazh'put, [Malay], sm. Bot. cajeput or cajuput : a) tree of the order Myrtaceæ; b) a volatile oil extracted from its leaves.

CAJOLABLE, kazholabl', adj. cajolable : liable to be cajoled.

CAJOLER, kazholé-r, [O. Fr. : cageoler, to sing like a bird in a cage], va. to cajole : to wheedle, to coax, to fawn upon, to delude by flattery.

CAJOLER, vn. 1. Naut. to make short tacks in beating up against the wind; 2. to drive with the tide; 3. to chatter like the jay, to jabber.

CAJOLERIE, kazhol'ri, sf. cajolery : wheedling, coaxing, fawning.

CAJOLEUR, EUSE, kazholœr, œz, sm. f. cajoler, flatterer, wheedler, fawner.

CAJUTE, hazhut', [V. Cahute], sm. 1. Naut. cabin; 2. bureau bedstead.

CAL, kal, [Lat. : callus, hard skin], sm. 1. callosity : horny skin, indurated skin; 2. callus : a) Surg. new bony matter uniting a fractured bone; b) Bot. hard protuberance on a plant.

CALADE, kalad', [Ital. : calata], sf. Man. calade : slope, descent or declivity on a manege ground.

CALAGE, kalazh', sm. Naut. 1. striking, lowering (of a mast); 2. draught. V. Calaison.

CALAISON, kalèzôn, caler], sm. Naut. ship's gauge, draught of water : the depth that a vessel sinks into the water.

CALAMBAC, kalânbak, CALAMBAR, kalânbar, CALAMBOUC, kalânbouk, CALAM-

BAUR, kalàmbour, [Malay. : kalambak], sm. Bot. aloes-wood : called also agila-wood, eagle-wood and agallochum.

CALAMENDRIER, kalamàndrié, sm. Bot. common (or wall) germander, teucrium chamædrys.

CALAMENT, kalamàn't, [Gr. : καλαμίνθη], sm. Bot. calamint, melissa calamintha.

CALAME, kalam, [Lat. : calamus], sf. calamus : the reed with which the ancients used to write.

CALAMINAIRE, kalaminèr', adj. Pierre —, Mineral. calamine, lapis calaminaris.

CALAMINE, kalamin', sf. Mineral. calamine : native carbonate of zinc.

CALAMISTRER, kalamistré-r, [Gr. : καλαμίς, curling-iron], va. to curl (the hair). Cheveux calamistrés, curled hair, curly hair.

CALAMITE, calamit', [Lat. : calamus, reed], sf. calamite : a) Mineral. a fossil plant ; b) storax calamita, a gum-resin ; c) the load-stone.

CALAMITÉ, kalamité, [Lat. : calamitas], sf. calamity : disaster. distress, misfortune. — publique, public calamity. La mort de ce jeune homme est une — pour sa famille, the death of that young man is a calamity for his family.

CALAMITEUSEMENT, kalamitœz'-mânt, adv. calamitously.

CALAMITEUX, EUSE, kalamitœ-z, œz', adj. calamitous. Des temps —, calamitous times.

CALANDRAGE, kalândrazh', sm. 1. calendering (hot-pressing of new tissues); 2. mangling (of household linen, etc.).

CALANDRE, kalândr', [Low Lat. : calendra; Gr. : κύλινδρος, cylinder], sf. calender : a press for smoothing cloth, etc.; mangle for smoothing household linen.

CALANDRE, kalândr', [Low Lat. : caliendrum, bonnet ; Provenç. : calandra], sf. 1. calandra : a) Ornith. bunting; b) Entom. corn-weevil.

CALANDRELLE, kalândrèl', sf. Ornith. shore-lark.

CALANDRER, kalândré-r, va. 1. to calender (linen or cotton goods) ; 2. to mangle (household linen).

CALANDREUR, kalândrœr, sm. calenderer : hot-presser.

CALANQUE, kalanke, CALANGUE, kalângue, sf. small creek or cove in the Mediterraneum.

CALAO, kalao, sm. Ornith. hornbill.

CALCAIRE, kalkèr', [Lat.: calcarius], adj. calcareous : containing lime, resembling lime. Terrain —, calcareous soil. Pierre —, lime-stone. Spath —, calcareous spar or calc-spar. Tufa —, calcareous tufa, calc-tufa, tufaceous lime-stone.

CALCAIRE, sm. lime-stone. — hydraulique, hydraulic lime-stone. — primitif, primitive lime-stone. —ancien ou de transition, transition lime-stone. — coquillier, shelly lime-stone.

CALCANÉEN, ENNE, kalkanéan, èn', adj. Anat. calcaneal.

CALCANÉUM, kalkanéom, [Lat.], sm. Anat. calcaneum ; heel-bone, os calcis.

CALCARÉUX, EUSE, kalkaréœ, œz', [calcaire], adj. Min. calcareous.

CALCÉDOINE, kalsédwân', [Gr. : Καλχηδών], sf. Min. chalcedony.

CALCÉDONIEUX, EUSE, kalsédoniœ, œz', adj. Min. chalcedonic.

CALCEIFORME, kalséifòrm', [Lat. : calceus, shoe ; forme], adj. Bot. calceiform : slipper-shaped.

CALCÉOLAIRE, kalséolèr', [Lat. : calceolus, little shoe], sf. Bot. calceolaria, slipperwort.

CALCIFÈRE, kalsifèr', [Lat. : calx, lime ; ferre, to bear], adj. calciferous.

CALCIFICATION, kalsifikâsyôn, [Lat. : calx, lime], sf. Pathol. calcification, cretefaction.

CALCILITHE, kalsilit', [Lat. : calx, cis, chalk ; Gr. : λίθος, stone], sf. Min. compact lime-stone.

CALCIN, kalsân, sm. calcined glass ; bits of glass roughly broken up.

CALCINABLE, kalsinabl', adj. calcinable.

CALCINATION, kalsinâsyôn, sf. calcination, calcining : a) formerly, burning of lime ; b) in modern use, roasting of ores. Four de —, calciner, calcinatory, calcining furnace.

CALCINE, kalsin', sf. metalic oxide for enameing.

CALCINER kalsiné-r, [Lat. : calx, calcis, chalk], va to calcine : a) to burn (as lime) ; b) to roast (as ores). Rocs calcinés sous un soleil ardent, rocks calcined by a blazing sun. Un rôti calciné, roast meat burnt to a cinder. Mon sang est calciné, my blood is burnt up with fever.

CALCINER (SE), v. refl. to calcine : to become calcined.

CALCIUM, kalsiom, [Lat. : calx, calcis, chalk], sm. Chem. calcium : the metallic base of lime.

CALCIVORE, kalsivor, [Lat. : calx, calcis, chalk] ; vorāre, to devour], adj. calcivorous : said of lichens which eat into their limestone matrix.

CALCUL, kalkul, [Lat. : calculus, pebble], sm. 1. calculus : a) among the ancients, a stone or pebble used in counting ; b) Med. a stony concretion formed in the bladder, gall-ducts, or any part of the body , c) Math. mode of computation. — biliaire; biliary calculus, gall-stone. Calculs urinaires, urinary calculuses (or calculi). Avoir le —, to have the stone. V. Pierre.

2. calculation, reckoning : a) the act, art or result of calculating ; b) Fig. mental estimation of facts, measures, designs. — exact, accurate calculation. — faux, erroneous calculation, false reckoning. — intégral, integral calculus. — différentiel, differential calculus. — infinitésimal, infinitesimal calculus. Sauf erreur de —, errors excepted. Au delà de tout —, beyond all calculation. De — fait il aura perdu dix mille francs, taking everything into account (or counting everything) he will have lost ten thousand francs. Il avait fait d'avance son —, he had made his calculations (or laid his plans) beforehand. Se tromper dans son —, to be out in one's reckoning, to be mistaken. Cet homme est tout —, that man is guided by nothing but his own interest.

3. arithmetic : summing, ciphering, casting of accounts. Dans cette école on apprend le français, l'histoire et le —, in that school they learn French, history and arithmetic.

CALCULABLE, kalkulabl', adj. calculable.

CALCULANT, E, kalkulân-t, ânt', adj. calculating.

CALCULATEUR, kalkulatœr, sm. calculator, reckoner, computer. Un bon —, a good calculator (reckoner, computer, arithmetician.) Un prompt —, a quick reckoner.

CALCULATEUR, adj. m. calculative, calculating. Esprit —, calculating mind, schemer.

CALCULATOIRE, kalkulatwar, adj. calculatory, calculating. Opérations calculatoires, calculatory operations. Machine —, calculating machine.

CALCULER, kalkulé-r, va. to calculate : a) to compute, to suppute, to reckon ; b) to meditate, to weigh, to estimate (probabilities, facts, consequences, circumstances) ; c) to combine, to forecast, to adapt. — les distances des astres, to calculate (or compute) the distances of the heavenly bodies. — une éclipse, to calculate an eclipse. Il calcula combien son argent lui rapporterait, he reckoned how much his money would bring him in. — les événements, to calculate (or forecast) events. Les plans les mieux calculés, the best laid plans. Les éclipses calculées longtemps d'avance, eclipses calculated long beforehand. Calculé pour frapper les imaginations, calculated (or adapted) to strike the imagination. Tout bien calculé, taking everything into account. Avec une méchanceté calculée, with malice aforethought, with premeditated malice.

CALCULER, vn. 1. to calculate : a) to reckon, to suppute ; b) to plan, adjust, combine or forecast ; 2. (with sur) to count on, to reckon on. — bien, to calculate well (or correctly) ; to lay one's plans well. — mal, to make a wrong calculation, to calculate ill, to be out in one's reckoning. — odieusement sur la mort d'un frère, to odiously reckon on a brother's death. Il avait dépensé sans —, he had been spending without reckoning.

CALCULER (SE), v. refl. to be calculated : a) to be reckoned or counted; to be ascertained or determined ; c) to be combined, adjusted, devised. Cela peut se — de tête, that may be calculated mentally. Les opinions des hommes se calculent souvent d'après leur position sociale, men's opinions may often be ascertained by their social position. Des mesures qui se calculent longtemps d'avance, measures which are devised long beforehand.

CALCULEUX, EUSE, kalkulœ, œz', adj. Med. calculose, calculary. Affection calculeuse, a calculose affection (or disorder). Ce vieillard est —, this old man is afflicted with calculi, with the stone. La diathèse calculeuse, the calculary (or calculose) diathesis. [Subst. :] Un pauvre —, a poor creature afflicted with the stone.

CALE, kal', [Ital. : cala, from calare, to bring down], sf. 1. Naut. hold (of a ship). La — était pleine d'eau, the hold was full of water. Fond de —, the lowest part of the hold. Creux de la —, depth of hold. Être à fond de —, Fig. to be penniless.

2. sloping quay or landing-place (for boats) ; 3. Shipb. slip. — de construction, building slip. — couverte, building shed : slip covered by a roof.

4. Naut. keel-hauling, ducking : a punishment formerly inflicted on sailors. Donner la —, to keel-haul, to duck.

5. creek, cove : small bay.

CALE, kal', [Ger. : Keil, wedge], 1. wedge, prop : a piece of wood put under a table, etc., to keep it level or steady ; 2. Naut. chock, quoin.

3. a flat-crowned cap formerly worn by both sexes) ; 4. girl, wench.

CALÉ, E, kalé, pa. p. ; adj. 1. Naut. lowered (as a sail or mast) ; 2. wedged or propped up (as so as to be level or steady) ; 3. Colloq. well-settled, in a good position, well-off ; well-up, smart, clever. Il est — en latin, he's well-up in Latin. V. Caler.

CALEBASSE, kal'bas, [Span. : calabaza], sf. 1. calabash : the gourdlike fruit of the crescentia cujete. Les calebasses vidées et séchées servent à contenir des liquides, calabashes emptied and dried are used to hold liquids.

2. Pop. head, pate, chump.

CALABASSIER, kal'basyé, sm. Bot. calabash- tree, crescentia cujete.

CALÈCHE, kalèsh', [orig. doubtful ; Pol. : kolaska ; Ger. : Kalesche], sf. calash : an open carriage with a hood, frequently called a barouche in England ; b) a kind of hood worn by females.

CALEÇON, kal'sô*n*, [Ital. : calzoni breeches], sm. a pair of drawers, drawers. — de bain ou de natation, bathing or swimming drawers.

CALEÇONNIER, IÈRE, kal'sônié, ièr', smf. one who makes drawers.

CALÉDONIE, kalédoni, sf. Geog. Caledonia. La Nouvelle- — New Caledonia.

CALÉFACTEUR, kaléfaktœr, sm. calefactor : a kind of portable kitchen for cooking several dishes at once.

CALÉFACTION, kaléfaksyô*n*, (Lat. : calefactio ; calidus, hot ; facĕre, to make], sf. calefaction : the act of heating ; heat caused by fire.

CALÉIDOSCOPE, kaléidoskop', sm. V. Kaléidoscope.

CALEMBOUR, kalâ*n*bour, [Orig. uncertain ; probably from one Calemberg, a facetious character in German tales]. sm. pun : a play on words. Faire un —, to make a pun.

CALEMBOURISTE, kalâ*n*bourist, smf. punster.

CALEMBREDAINE, kalâ*n*brœdè*n*', sf. gammon, quibble, subterfuge. Répondre par des calembredaines, to give evasive answers.

CALENCAR, kalâ*n*kar, sm. calencart : a printed Indian calico.

CALENDAIRE, kalâ*n*dèr', [Lat. : calendarium, an account book], sm. church register.

CALENDER, kalâ*n*dèr'(Pers.: kalandar), sm. kalender or calender : a Mahometan monk.

CALENDES, kalâ*n*d', [Lat. : calendæ], sf. pl. 1. kalends : the first day of each month, among the ancient Romans ; 2. meeting of rural clergy convoked by the bishop : equivalent to a visitation in the Anglican church. Renvoyer aux calendes grecques, to put off indefinitely (or till to-morrow come never).

CALENDRIER, kalâ*n*drié, [O. Fr. : calendier, Lat. : calendarium], sm. calendar, Vieux —, the old (or Julian) calendar, old style. Nouveau —, the new (or Gregorian) calendar, new style. — républicain, the republican calendar (the one adopted by the first French republic in 1793 and abandoned in 1806). — perpétuel, perpetual calendar or almanac.

CALENDULE, kalâ*n*dul', [Lat. : calendula], sf. Bot. calendula : the marigold.

CALENDULINE, kalâ*n*dulin', sf. Chem. calenduline : an extract from the marigold.

CALENTURE, kalâ*n*tur', [Lat. : calēre, to be hot], sf. Med. calenture : a violent fever to which mariners are liable between the tropics.

CALEPIN, kal'pa*n*, [from Ambroise Calepino, a learned Italian and author of a Latin-Italian Dictionary (1436-1511)], sm. memorandum-book, note-book. Cela n'était pas dans son —, that was not in his note-book, he little expected that. Mettez cela dans votre —, Fam. take note of that.

CALER, kalé-r, [Ital. : calare, to lower], va. Naut. to strike, to lower (a sail, etc.) ; Fig. (in a neuter sense) to yield, to give way, to knock under, to show the white feather. — la voile, Fig. to lower one's tone, one's pretensions. Il fut obligé de —, he was obliged to yield, to submit. Il calera, he will give way, — des billes, (game at marbles) to shoot marbles.

CALER, vn. Naut. to sink into the water. Le navire cale trop, ne cale pas assez, the ship sinks too deep, has too great a draught of water ; the ship does not sink deep enough, has too slight a draught of water.

CALER, kalé-r, [cale, wedge], va. to wedge (or prop) up ; 3. to level, to bring to a level. Vis à —, levelling screw (of a theodolite, etc.).

CALFAIT, kalfè, sm. Naut. caulking-iron.

CALFAT, kalfa, sm. Naut. caulker.

CALFATAGE, kalfatazh', sm. Naut. caulking.

CALFATER, kalfaté-r, [orig. uncertain ; seems to be derived from Ar. Kalafat, of the same signification ; O. Fr. : cauquer, to tread ; Lat. : calcāre, to tread,] to trample (as of grapes). va. Naut. to caulk.

CALFATIN, kalfata*n*, sm. cauker's boy (or apprentice).

CALFEUTRAGE, kalfœtrazh', sm. stopping up (of chinks,) listing (of doors or windows).

CALFEUTRER, kalfœtré-r, [changed from calfater), va. 1. to stop up the chinks of, to list (doors or windows) ; 2. to keep close or snug. Chambre bien calfeutrée, a well-closed room. Il se tient bien tranquille, bien calfeutré, he keeps himself very quiet, very close.

CALFEUTRER (SE), v. refl. 1. to keep one's self warm (by stopping out cold and wind), to shut one's self up closely or snugly ; 2. Fig. to be secret, close, uncommunicative.

CALIBRAGE, kalibrazh' [calibrer], sm. gauging (or measuring) the calibre of shot, cannon, etc.

CALIBRE, kalibr', [orig. doubtful ; Ital. : calibro ; Ar. : qâlib, mould, model, perhaps Lat. quā librā, with what weight], sm. 1. calibre, caliber : a) the capacity of a pipe, tube, vein, etc. measured by its diameter ; b) the bore of fire-arms ; c) diameter of a bullet, cannon-ball, etc. ; d) Fig. compass or capacity of mind. Tuyau de dix centimètres de —, pipe (or tube) of ten centimetres in calibre. Le calibre de l'aorte était rétréci par une tumeur, the calibre of the aorta was narrowed by a tumor. Le — d'un canon, d'un fusil, the calibre (or bore) of a cannon, of a gun. Une pièce de gros —, a piece of ordnance of large calibre. Fusil de —, a musket of the regulation bore. Balle de —, a ball of the regulation calibre (or size). Compas de —, calipers, caliper-compasses. Il n'est pas du même — que vous, he is not of the same calibre as you, he has not your talent, he is no match for you.

2. Artill. shot-gauge ; 3. model, pattern (of a moulding) ; 4. mandril (of a potter) ; 5. gauge (used by turners) ; 6. mould (for bricks or tiles).

7. Archit. diameter (of a column).

CALIBRER, kalibré, va. 1. to give the calibre to (balls) ; 2. to measure the calibre of. Des balles bien calibrées, balls of the right calibre.

CALIBREUR, kalibrœr, sm. calibrator : instrument for measuring the diameter of tubes, etc.

CALICAL, E, kalikal, al', adj. Bot. calical ; belonging to the calyx of flowers.

CALICE, kalis', [Lat. : calix, calicis; Gr. : κάλυξ, envelop of the flower], sm. 1. chalice : a) formerly, any kind of drinking cup; b) in modern use, the communion cup ; 2. Fig. cup : a) anything received or endured (of good or evil); b) draught; c) sufferings, afflictions. Il faut que nous participions de son —, we must drink of his cup. Boire le —, to drink the cup ; to swallow the pill : to suffer anything painful or disagreeable. Boire le — jusqu'à la lie, to drink the cup of bitterness to the dregs. Le — amer de la vie, the bitter cup of life. Il faut avaler ce —, we must drink this cup, endure this affliction.

3. Bot. calyx : cup of a flower.

CALICHE, kalish', sf. Chem. caliche : an impure nitrate of soda found in guano beds.

CALICIFLORE, kalisiflor, [Lat. : calix, calicis, calyx ; flos, floris, flower], adj, Bot. calycifloral, calyciflorous : having the petals and stamens borne upon the calyx.

CALICINAL, E, kalisinal, adj. Bot. calycinal : pertaining to a calyx.

CALICIFORME, kalicifòrm', [calice ; forme], adj. Bot. caliciform : having the form of a calix.

CALICOT, kaliko, [from Calicut, in India], sm. 1. calico : a plain cotton tissue ; 2. (in an offensive sense) a counter-jumper : a draper's shopman.

CALICULE, kalikul', sm. Bot. calycle : a row of leaflets at the base of a calyx.

CALICULÉ, E, kalikulé, adj. Bot. calycled, calyculate, calyculated.

CALIFAT, kalifa-t, sm. caliphate, caliphship.

CALIFE, kalif'[Ar.: Khalifah, a successor] sm. calif, caliph : the name assumed by the successors of Mahomet.

CALIFORNIE, kalifòrni, sf. Geog. California.

CALIFOURCHON, kalifourshô*n*, [Lat. : calofurcium, fork ; æqualis, equal ; fourchon], sm. hobby-horse, hobby : mania, favourite pursuit. C'est son —, that is his hobby.

A CALIFOURCHON, adv. phr. astride, astraddle. Être à — sur un bâton, sur un banc, to be astride or astraddle on a stick, a bench. Se mettre à — (sur), to stride, to bestride, to straddle. Se tenir à —, to sit astride (on), to bestride.

CALIGINEUX, EUSE, kalizhinœ, œz', [Lat. : caliginosus ; caligo, inis, fog], adj. caliginous : misty, dim.

CALIMANDE, kalimâ*n*d, sf. Ichth. dab : platessa limanda.

CÂLIN, E, kâla*n*, in', [orig. unknown ; perhaps Walloon, calin, rascal], smf. 1. booby, ninny ; 2. cajoler, coaxer, wheedler.

CÂLIN, E, adj. cajoling, coaxing, wheedling. Je n'aime pas ses manières câlines, I don't like his fawning manners.

CALIN, kala*n*, [Port, : calaim], sm. calin, tea-lead : an alloy of tin and lead used for packing tea.

CÂLINER, kâliné-r, va. 1. to fondle, to cajole, to wheedle, to coax ; 2. to coddle ; 3. vn. to cajole, etc.

CÂLINER (SE), v. refl. to coddle one's self, to give way to self-indulgence.

CÂLINERIE, kâlin'ri, sf. 1. coaxing, wheedling ; 2. coddling, self-indulgence.

CALINO, kalino, sm. Calino : name of a personage figuring in vaudeville as a simpleton, a noodle.

CALINOTADE, kalinotad, sf. naïveté, simplicity worthy of Calino.

CALIORNE, kaliòrn', sf. Naut. hoisting tackle.

CALLEUX, EUSE, kalœ, œz', [Lat. : callus, ; callus, hard skein), adj. callous ; hard, indurated, horny. Les paysans avec leurs mains calleuses, the peasants with their horny hands. Corps calleux, Anat. corpus callosum : the great commissure of the brain. Ulcère —, an indurated ulcer.

Une conscience calleuse, a hardened conscience.

CALLICHROME, kalikrôm, [Gr. : καλός, beautiful ; χρῶμα, colour], sm. Entom. callichroma : musk-beetle.

CALLIGRAPHE, kaligraf', sm. calligrapher, calligraphist : a fine penman.

CALLIGRAPHIE, kaligrafi, [Gr. : κάλλος, beauty ; γράφειν, to write], sf. calligraphy : fine penmanship.

CALLIGRAPHIQUE, kaligrafik', adj. calligraphic.

CALLIOPE, kaliop', pnf. Calliope : a) Myth. the muse of epic poetry ; b) Astron. a minor planet between Mars and Jupiter.

CALLIPYGE, kalipizh', adj. Vénus —, the Callipygian Venus : a famous antique statue of that goddess.

CALLISTHÉNIE, kalisténi, [Gr. : καλός, beautiful ; σθένος, strength], sf. callisthenics : gymnastic exercises for improving health and beauty.

CALLOSITÉ, kalosité, [Lat. : callositas ; callosus, hard], sf. callosity : a) callousness, the state of being hard or indurated ; b) Med. induration of the skin ; c) Bot. a hard excrescence on plants ; d) Fig. callousness, insensibility. — morale, moral callousness, hardness of conscience.

CALLOT, kalo, sm. 1. rough block of slate (from the quarry) ; 2. boss : a large marble to play with.

CALMANDE, kalmând', sf. 1. calamanco : a glossy woollen tissue ; 2. Ichth. whiff : a fish allied to the turbot.

CALMANT, E, kalmân-t, ânt', [calmer], adj. 1. Med. calmative : soothing, composing ; 2 Fig soothing, composing. Potion calmante, a calmative (or composing) draught. Paroles calmantes et consolatrices, soothing and consoling words.

CALMANT, sm. Med. calmative, anodyne ; composing draught.

CALMAR kalmar, [Lat. : calamarium], calamus, reed-pen], sm. 1. pencase ; 2. Ichth. calamary, squid, sleeve-fish.

CALME, kalm', [Ital. : calma, perhaps, from Gr. καῦμα, heat], adj. calm : a) unagitated, quiet, serene, tranquil (as the elements, the passions, etc.) ; b) unruffled, composed, sedate (in manner or deportment) ; c) dull, flat, inactive (as trade). Une mer —, a calm sea. Une humeur —, a calm (or quiet) temper. La ville est redevenue —, the town is calm (or quiet) again. Les affaires sont calmes, business is flat, there is little business doing.

CALME, sm. calm : a) cessation of (or freedom from) motion, agitation or disturbance ; quietness, quietude, stillness ; b) calmness, composure, sedateness. — soudain, sudden calm. — plat, dead calm. Le — de la nuit, the stillness of night. En cette circonstance ayez du —, in this conjuncture, be calm. Il rendra quelque — à son cœur magnanime, it will restore some composure to his magnanimous heart. Corn. Nicom. IV. 2.

CALMER, kalmé-r, va. to calm : a) to free from motion or agitation, to still, to lull ; b) to tranquillize, to appease, to pacify, to quiet ; c) to allay, to assuage, to soothe. — les flots, to calm the waves. — les esprits, to calm (or tranquillize) men's minds. Il calma l'émotion populaire, he calmed the popular agitation or excitement. Elles calment un peu l'ennui qui me dévore, they soothe, in some degree, the weariness which consumes me. Rac. Mithr. IV. I. Des présents calmeraient son courroux, presents would appease his wrath. Rac. Ath. II. 5 — la fièvre, to calm (or allay) the fever. Cela n'est pas propre à —, (in a neut. sense) that is not very tranquillizing. — les douleurs physiques, to allay physical pains. Le peuple était répandu çà et là et paraissait calmé, the populace was spread about here and there and seemed calmed down. Thiers. La douleur est calmée par l'opium, the pain is calmed (allayed) by opium.

CALMER (SE), v. refl. 1. to calm one's self : to become (or get) calm, quiet, or composed ; 2. to be calmed, to calm down ; 3. to be allayed, assuaged, soothed. Calmez-vous, mon ami, be calm (be composed) my friend. La tempête s'est calmée, the storm has calmed down, has blown over. La douleur s'est calmée, the pain has been assuaged, allayed.

CALMER, vn. Naut. to become (or fall) calm, to calm down. Le vent commence à —, the wind is beginning to calm down. La mer a beaucoup calmé, the sea has become much calmer.

CALMIR, kalmir, vn. Naut. to calm down, to fall calm.

CALOMEL, kalomèl, CALOMÉLAS, kalomélas, Gr. : καλός, beautiful ; μέλας, black], sm. Mat. Med. calomel : the subchloride of mercury.

CALOMNIATEUR, TRICE, kalomniatœr, tris', smf. calumniator : slanderer, detractor, traducer ; libeller (if by writing). Un lâche —, a vile slanderer. C'est une calomniatrice, she is a slanderer, detractor, detractress. [Adj. :] Tous ces écrivains mercenaires et calomniateurs, all those mercenary and libellous writers.

CALOMNIE, kalomni, [Lat. : calumnia], sf. calumny : slander, detraction ; libel (if in writing). Une noire —, a vile calumny. Repousser une —. to repel a calumny. Publier une — contre quelqu'un, to publish a calumny, a slander, a libel against a person. Être en butte à la —, to be exposed to calumny, to calumniators (slanderers, libellers).

CALOMNIER, kalomnié'r, [Lat. : calumniari], va. to calumniate : to slander, to traduce ; to libel. On l'a indignement calomnié, they slandered him shamefully. Justifiez-vous sans le —, justify yourself without calumniating him. Il ne parle que pour —, his very word is slanderous.

CALOMNIEUSEMENT, kalomniœz'mân, adv. calumniously, slanderously.

CALOMNIEUX, EUSE, kalomniœ, œz', adj. calumnious, slanderous, libellous.

CALOMNIOGRAPHE, calomniograf', [calomnie ; Gr. : γράφειν, to write], sm. libeller : writer of calumnies.

CALONIÈRE, kalonyèr', [for canonnière], sf. pop-gun, pellet-gun.

CALOPHYLLE, kalofil', [Gr. : καλός, beautiful ; φύλλον, leaf], sm. Bot. calophyllum : which has beautiful leaves.

CALORICITÉ, kalorisité, [Lat. : calor, heat], sf. Physiol. caloricity : faculty of developing caloric.

CALORIE, kalori, [Lat. : calor, heat], sf. Phys., calory : thermal unit : the unit of heat, being the quantity required to raise by one centigrade degree the temperature of a kilogram of water.

CALORIFÈRE, kalorifèr', [Lat. : calor, heat : ferre, to bear], adj. heat-conveying. Tuyau —, tube conveying heat, hot-air pipe, hot-water pipe.

CALORIFÈRE, sm. general heating apparatus or stove. — à air chaud, hot air stove. — à eau chaude, hot-water heating apparatus. — à vapeur, steam-heating stove.

CALORIFICATION, kalorifikâsyôn, [Lat. : calor, heat ; facĕre, to make], sf. Physiol. calorification : production of animal heat.

CALORIFIQUE, kalorifik', adj. calorific. Rayons calorifiques, calorific rays.

CALORIMÈTRE, kalorimètr', [Lat. : calor, heat ; Gr. : μέτρον, measure], sm. Phys. calorimeter : instrument to measure the heat given out by a body in cooling.

CALORIMÉTRIE, kalorimétri, sf. Phys. calorimetry : the measuring of free caloric.

CALORIMÉTRIQUE, kalorimétrik', adj. calorimetric.

CALORIMOTEUR, kalorimotœr, [Lat. : calor, heat ; movēre, motum, to move], sm. Phys. calorimotor : an electric apparatus for developping intense heat.

CALORIQUE, kalorik', sm. Phys. caloric, heat. — libre, sensible heat. — latent, latent heat. — spécifique, specific heat.

CALOT, kalo, [cale], sm. 1. the crown of a soldier's shako (cap) ; 2. plain skull-cap ; 3. prop, wedge (to keep anything level or steady).

CALOTIN, kalotan [from calotte], sm. (a contemptuous name for priests or monks) shaveling.

CALOTTE, kalot', [perhaps from cale, bonnet], sf. 1. calotte : a) coif, close-fitting skull-cap ; b) in a special sense, the cap worn by priests and monks to cover the tonsure ; formerly also, the biretta or cardinal's cap ; c) anything in the form of a cap. — à oreilles. a skull-cap with ear lappets. Porter la —, to be in holy orders. Le pape lui a donné la —, the pope has made him a cardinal. Le gouvernement de la —, priestly government. L'influence de la —, priestly (or clerical) influence. A bas la — ! down with the priests !

2. Anat. the brain-pan : the upper part of the skull ; 3. Surg. skull-cap : a plaster covering the skull ; 4. Geom. segment of the sphere : more especially said of the smaller of the two parts into which a sphere is divided by a plane ; 5, rap on the head, box on the ear ; 6. lampoon, libel. Il mérite une paire de calottes, he wants his ears well-boxed.

7. Arch. calotte : the top of a spherical or spheroidal vault, small dome. [Fig. :] La — des cieux, the canopy of heaven. On ne trouverait pas son pareil sous la — des cieux, you would not find his match under the sun.

CALOTTER, kaloté-r, va. to box the ears of, to punch the head of.

CALOTTIER, kalotyé, sm. 1. calotte-maker, cap-maker ; 2. the walnut-tree (in certain provinces).

CALOTYPIE, kalotypi, [Gr. : καλός, beautiful ; τύπος, stamp], sf. Phot. calotype : kind of photography.

CALQUAGE, kalkazh, [calque], sm. tracing, the act of tracing.

CALQUE, kalk', sm. 1. tracing (of a drawing). Prendre un —, to copy a drawing on tracing paper.

2. Fig. servile copy (of any work or art), imitation.

CALQUER, kalké-r, [Lat. : calcāre, to tread], va. 1. to trace (a drawing], to copy by tracing ; to rub down (an engraving) ; 2. to imitate servilely, to copy. — une estampe, to copy a print. — à la vitre, to trace against the window. — à la pointe, to trace with a point. Un dessin calqué, a copied drawing. Des modes calquées sur les modes parisiennes, fashions copied from those of Paris.

CALQUOIR, kalkwâr, [calquer], sm. tracing-point.

CALUMET, kalumé, [chalumeau ; provin. : chalumet ; Lat. : calamus, reed], sm. calumet : a) Bot. a kind of reed used for pipes; b) the pipe of peace, among the Red Indians of North America.

CALUS, kalus, [Lat.: callus, hard skin], sm. 1. callosity: a) indurated skin, an induration; b) Fig. callousness, obduracy. Des mains laborieuses, endurcies de —, laborious hands hardened with callosities. Le méchant se fait un — contre le remords, the wicked man opposes callousness to remorse.

2. callus: a) Surg. new bony matter thrown out to unite the broken ends of a bone; b) Bot. hard protuberance where a branch has been injured.

CALVAIRE, kalvèr', [Lat.: calvaria, skulls], sm. 1. Calvary: a) Mount Calvary, where Christ was crucified; b) in Catholic countries, a hill with a chapel or cross on the top; c) in churches, a representation of the Passion and Crucifixion.

2. Fig. punishment, expiation, suffering.

CALVILLE, kalvil', [from Calville, a village in Normandy,] sm. Bot. calville: a kind of apple.

CALVIN, kalvân, [Jean], theologian and writer (1509-1564).

CALVINIEN, ENNE, kalvinyan, nyèn', adj. Calvinistic, Calvinist. Les églises calviniennes, the Calvinist churches.

CALVINISME, kalvinism', sm. Calvinism: the doctrine of Calvin.

CALVINISTE, kalvinist', smf. Calvinist, a follower of Calvin.

CALVITIE, kalvisi, [Lat.: calvities; calvus, bald], sf. baldness; Med. alopecia. Une — précoce, premature baldness.

CAMAÏEU, kamayœ, [Low Lat.: camateum or camahotus, from camœus, sardonyx], sm. 1. cameo: gem cut in relief out of a stone having two strata of different colours; 2. Paint. camayeu: a) the art of monochrome painting; b) a monochrome painting; c) in an ill sense, a painting deficient in colour.

CAMAIL, kamay', [O. Fr.: cap, head; mail, armour], sm. 1. camail: a) short cloak and hood worn by the catholic clergy in winter; b) bishop's cloak worn over the rochet or surplice; 2. cardinal: a short cloak worn by women.

CAMALDULE, kamaldul', adj. and smf. 1. Camaldolite; 2. Camaldolite monk or nun.

CAMARADE, kamarad', [Gr.: χαμάρα; Lat.: camera, chamber, room], 1. comrade: fellow soldier; 2. smf. comrade: companion, applied to persons of either sex (in the feminine compagne is mostly used), and often rendered into English by the words: mate, fellow. — d'aventure, fellow-adventurer. — de bouteille, bottle- (or boon-) companion, fellow-toper. — de chambre, chamber-fellow, chum. — de classe, class-fellow. Camarades de collège, fellow-collegians, chums (when occupying the same bed-room). — d'école, school-fellow. — d'enfance, comrade, companion from childhood. — d'étude, fellow-student. — de jeu, play-fellow, play-mate. — de lit, bed-fellow. — de malheur, d'infortune, fellow-sufferer. Un — de pension, a boarding-school mate. — de service, fellow-servant. — de table, messmate table-companion. — de voyage, fellow-traveller. Il court embrasser son ancien —, he runs to embrace his old comrade. C'est bien vous qui aiderez un — à sortir d'un mauvais pas, Iron. you are a good one to help a lame dog over the stile.

3. good friend, good fellow, good man: in addressing an inferior, even when unknown. Mon —, enseignez-moi, je vous prie, le chemin de..., my good fellow, pray, tell me the way to...

CAMARADERIE, kamarad'ri, sf. 1. companionship, intimacy; 2. (in an ill sense) clan, set, clique, coterie; 3. clanship. Cette — de vous et de Mlle Duplessis, this intimacy between you and M^{lle} D. Mme de Sév. 70. Son succès n'est pas de bon aloi, il est dû à la —, his success is not of the right stamp, it is owing to a clique, to party spirit.

CAMARD, E, kamar, ard', [camus], smf. a snub-nosed (or flat-nosed) person. La camarde, (in burlesque lang.) Death.

CAMARD, E, adj. 1. flat, snub: said of the nose; 2. flat-nosed, snub-nosed.

CAMARILLA, kamarilla, [Span.], sf. camarilla: a body of secret intriguers.

CAMARINE, kamarin', sf. Bot. crowberry, crake-berry.

CAMBISTE, kânbist', [Lat.: cambire, to exchange], sm. cambist: money-changer.

CAMBIUM, kânbiom, [Low Lat.], sm. Bot. cambium: viscid matter between the bark and wood of trees.

CAMBOUIS, kânboui-z, [provin.: camois, boue], sm. coom: old cart-grease.

CAMBRAI, kânbré, [Cambrai, where made], sm. 1. cambric: a very thin linen tissue; 2. machine-made lace, imitation-lace.

CAMBRE, kânbr', [Lat.: camerāre, to vault], sf. camber, cambering (of timber).

CAMBREMENT, kânbr'mân, sm. cambering, curving.

CAMBRER, kânbré-r, va. 1. to camber: to bend; 2. to give a curve or sweep to; 3. to block (leather for boot-legs). — une pièce de bois, to camber a place of timber; to make its upper surface convex. Une taille cambrée, slender waist. Jambes cambrées, bow legs.

CAMBRER (SE), v. refl. to camber: to become curved or bent, to arch slightly.

CAMBRÉSINE, kânbrézin', sf. a kind of cambric formerly made at Cambrai.

CAMBREUR, kânbrœr, sm. blocker (of boot-legs).

CAMBRIEN, ENNE, kânbrian, èn', [Eng. Cambrian; Welsh: Cymry; Cymru; of Wales], adj. Cambrian: of or belonging to Wales.

CAMBRIEN, ENNE, smf. Cambrian: a native of Wales.

CAMBRILLON, kânbryon, sm. stiffener (of a shoe).

CAMBRIOLAGE, kânbriolazh, [cambriole slang for room], sm. burglary, house-breaking.

CAMBRIOLER, kambriolé-r, va. to break into houses, to burglar.

CAMBRIOLEUR, kâmbriolœr, sm. burglar, house-breaker.

CAMBRURE, kânbrur', cambrer], sf. 1. camber, cambering; 2. curve, curving.

CAMBUSE, kânbuz', [Dutch: kabuys, ship-kitchen], sf. Naut. 1. steward's room (of a mercant) or passenger vessel; 2. (In an ill sense) low tavern or public-house.

CAMBUSER, kânbuzé-r, [cambues], va. to rinse (a cask).

CAMBUSIER, kânbuzyé, sm. Naut. 1. steward's mate (of a merchant vessel); 2. purser's steward (of a war vessel).

CAME, kam', [Ger.: Kamm, comb], sf. Mechan. cam, cog, wiper. Arbre à cames, cam-shaft. — de détente, tappet. — à déplacement, sliding-cam. — de distribution make-and-break cam — d'allumage, ignition cam. V. Chame.

CAMÉE, kamé, [Ital.: cameo], sf. 1. cameo: stone or shell of two colours sculptured in relief; 2. painting in camayeu. V. Camaïeu.

CAMÉLÉE, kamèlé, [Gr.: χαμέλαια, sort of plant], sf. Bot. widow-wail, cneorum tricoccum.

CAMÉLÉON, kaméléôn, [Gr.: χαμαιλέων], sm. 1. chameleon: a) Nat. Hist. a species of lizard; b) Fig. weather-cock, changeable person, 2. Astron. Chameleon Chamæleon: a southern constellation. — minéral, Chem. manganate of potash.

CAMÉLÉOPARD, kaméléopar, sm. V. Girafe.

CAMÉLIA, kamélia, [from Kamel, Jesuit father, latinised into Camellus], sm. Bot. camelia.

CAMÉLINE, kamélin', sf. Bot. camelina, gold-of-pleasure.

CAMELOT, kam'lo, [chameau], sm. 1. camlet: a textile fabric; 2. hawker, small dealer, news-vendor; 3. tramp, vagrant, cadger.

CAMELOTE, kam'lot', sf. 1. ill-executed work, worthless merchandise; 2. trash, rubbish. Ce n'est que de la —, it's nothing but cheap rubbish.

CAMELOTER, kam'loté-r, va. to weave in imitation of camlet.

CAMELOTER, vn. to make, to sell trashy merchandise.

CAMELOTIER, kam'lotié, sm. maker, seller of cheap and worthless articles.

CAMELOTINE, kam'lotin, sf. variety of camlet.

CAMEMBERT, kamanbèr, sm. Camembert cheese (made at Camembert (Orne).

CAMÉRIER, kaméryé, [Lat.: camera, chamber, room], sm. chamberlain (to the pope or to a cardinal).

CAMÉRIÈRE, kaméryèr', CAMÉRISTE, kamérist', sf. lady of the chamber to a princess; lady's maid.

CAMÉRISTE, kamérist, [Span.: camarista; Lat.: camera, chamber], sf. maid of honour, waiting-woman; maid to a lady of high rank.

CAMERLINGAT, kamèrlanga, sm. chamberlainship (at the papal court).

CAMERLINGUE, kamèrlang', sm. camerlingo: chamberlain to the pope.

CAMILLE, kamiy', pnmf. Camilius m., Camilla f.

CAMION, kamiôn, [orig. unknown], sm. 1. minikin: a very small sort of pin; 2. lorry, truck, dray; 3. wooden shoe (for a child); 4. vase in which house-painters mix their colours.

CAMIONNAGE, kamionazh', sm. cartage, carting, carriage.

CAMIONNER, kamioné-r, va. to carry on a truck, dray, etc., to carry.

CAMIONNEUR, kamionœr, sm. carter, drayman.

CAMISADE, kamizad', [Ital.: camiciata; Lat.: camisa, shirt], sf Milit. camisade: a) camisado or shirt; b) a night attack by men with shirts over their uniform; c) any sudden attack by night.

CAMISARD, kamizar, sm. Fr. Hist. Camisard: an insurgent Calvinist of the Cevennes.

CAMISOLE, kamizol', [Lat.: camisa, shirt], sf. under-bodice; sleeved-jacket, short night-gown. — de force, strait waistcoat (or jacket).

CAMOMILLE, kamomiy', [Lat.: camomilla, from Gr.: χαμαίμηλον], sf. Bot. camomile, chamomile. — romaine, common camomile, anthemis nobilis. — puante, stinking camomile, anthemis cotula. — pyrèthre, pellitory of Spain. — ordinaire, wild camomile.

† ÇAMON, samôn, interj. yes, indeed!

CAMOUFLAGE, kammouf'lazh, [camouflet], sm. Milit. concealing, hiding (troops, etc. by means of smoke, branches, etc).

CAMOUFLER, kamouf'lér, va. Milit. to conceal, to hide.

CAMOUFLEMENT, kamouflemân, sm. Thieves' arg. disguise (in dress).

CAMOUFLET, kamouflé, [orig. : doubtful : O. Fr. : chaumoufflet : chaud moufflet], sm. 1. puff of smoke blown into a person's face from a tube of lighted paper ; 2. Fig. affront, mortification ; 3. Milit. camouflet : a small mine. Recevoir un —, to receive an affront, to get a rap on the knuckles.

CAMOURLOT, kamourlo, sm. Technol. cement to fill up the joints of flagstones.

CAMP, kân, [Lat. : campus, field], sm. 1. camp : a) the space occupied by the tents of an army, in the field ; b) the army encamped ; c) Fig. party, faction. a) Établir (or asseoir) son —, to pitch one's camp Lever (Pop, ficher) un —, to raise (or break up) a camp : to quit an encampment ; Fig to decamp, to be off, to get away. Déserter son —, to abandon one's party. Prendre le —, to decamp, to be off : in this phrase camp has its original sense of champ, field. Lit de —, camp bedstead. La vie des camps, camp life, military life. b) Le — prit les armes, the camp flew to arms. Tout le— s'oppose à notre fuite, the whole camp is opposed to our flight. Mettre l'alarme au —, to alarm the camp ; Fig. to spread alarm among a faction (party, etc.). c) Se partager en deux camps, to divide into two camps, to split into two factions or parties. Il avait été dans notre —, he had been in our camp, he had been one of us. Le — d'Aristote, Aristotle's camp, the followers of Aristotle. Le — du drap d'or, His. the field of the cloth of gold.

2. lists : formerly, a space enclosed for combat. Demander le —, to demand trial by single combat. Juge du —, judge of the lists.

CAMPAGNARD, E, kânpanyar, yard', adj. mf. country : a) provincial ; b) rustic, rude, clownish. Gentilhomme —, country squire. Des manières campagnardes, clownish manners. Avoir l'air —, to have a countrified look.

CAMPAGNARD, E, smf. 1. countryman, country woman : person residing in a rural district ; 2. (In an ill sense) rustic. Les mœurs simples des campagnards, the simple manners of country people. Deux nobles campagnards, two country (or provincial) noblemen. Quel — ! what a clown !

CAMPAGNE, kânpany', [Ital. : campagna, from Lat. : campus, field], sf. 1. flat, open country as opposed to mountainous and wooded districts. Les campagnes de l'air, Poet. the fields of the air, the aerial plains. [Milit. :] Tenir la —, to hold possession of the open country. Les armées sont en —, the armies have taken the field. Être maître de la —, to be master of the country ; Fig. to have the advantage, the upperhand.

2. country : a) the fields, an extent of land in a general sense ; b) rural district, as opposed to towns ; provinces, as opposed to town (the metropolis). a) Errer dans la —, to wander in the country, or about the fields. Ils vantent les richesses de leurs campagnes, they extol the fertility of their fields. Dévaster les campagnes, to ravage the country, the country districts. Battre la —, to beat the country, the fields (in search of game) ; to beat up, to explore (for military purposes) ; Fig. to beat about the bush, to wander from one's subject (in speaking), to seek subterfuges ; to be delirious (as one in a fever). Vous avez fait là une belle —, Fig. You have been on a fine wild goose chase. b) Les gens de la —, country people. Les travaux de la —, country (or rural) occupations. Aller à la — to go into the country. Faire une partie de —, to form a party for the country, to go on a country party. Quand irons-nous à la — ? When shall we go to the country ? Maison de —, country-house. Biens de —, landed property. Curé, gentilhomme, médecin de — a country parson, gentleman, physician. Comédiens de —, provincial (or country) comedians, players.

3. country-house, country-seat. Il n'est pas en ville, étant parti hier pour sa —, he is not in town, having left yesterday for his country-seat. Nous avons une — agréable sur les bords de la Seine, we have a pleasant country-house on the banks of the Seine.

4. Milit. campaign : a) series of uninterrupted military operations ; b) the whole duration of a military expedition. Arrêter un plan de —, to decide on the plan of a campaign. Ouvrir la —, to open the campaign. Il a fait la — d'Égypte, he went through (or served in) the Egyptian campaign. Dans cette première —, in this first campaign. Ce fut la troisième bataille de cette —, that was the third battle of the campaign. Il y aura deux campagnes cette année, there will be two campaigns this year.

5. Milit. field. Canons de — field guns. Four, forge de — field oven, field forge.

6. Naut. cruise, voyage. Je m'appliquerai fortement cette—à la conversion des matelots, during this cruise I will labour hard to convert the sailors. D'Estrees à Seignelay in Jal.

7. season, year. Cette maison sera bâtie dans trois campagnes, that house will be built in three seasons, in three years.

EN CAMPAGNE, adv. phr. in the field, afield, at work, on the move, in operation. Allons, chasseur, vite en —, come, sportsman, hasten to the field. Il n'est en — de si bon matin que pour..., he is afield (or on the move) so early only to... Son imagination est en —, his imagination is at work. Tous les esprits sont en —, all heads are at work. On croit qu'il y a quelque ambassade en — it is believed that some embassy is in preparation. Le beau temps a remis tous les ouvriers en —, the fine season has set all hands to work again. En rase —, en pleine —, in the open country.

CAMPAGNOL, kânpanyol, [campagne], sm. Nat. Hist. vole, meadow-mouse, short-tailed field-mouse.

CAMPANE, kânpain, [Low Lat. : campana, bell], sf. 1. Arch. bell : ornament in the form of a bell in a capital ; 2. common name for flowers in the form of a bell.

CAMPANELLE, CAMPANETTE, kânpanèl', kânpanèt', [Lat. : campanella, little bell], sf. Bot. bindweed, corn-bine, convolvulu arvensis.

CAMPANILE, kânpanil', sm. CAMPANILLE, kânpaniy', [Ital., campanille : bell-tower.]

CAMPANULACÉES, kânpanulasé, sf. pl. Bot. campanulaceæ.

CAMPANULE, kânpanul', Low Lat. : campanula], sf. Bot. campanula : bell-flower. — blanche, Canterbury bell, campanula medium. — gantelée, throat-wort, trachelium. — raiponce, rampion, campanula rapunculus. — à feuilles rondes, harebell, bluebell, campanula rotundifolia.

CAMPANULÉ, E, kânpanulé, adj. Bot. campanulate, bell-shaped.

CAMPÉ, E, kânpé, pa. p. ; adj. 1. encamped, camped ; 2. Fig. placed, set. Bien — sur ses jambes, firm on one's legs, well set, well built. Un homme bien —, a man in a good position of fortune, reputation, etc.

CAMPÊCHE, kânpèsh', [Campêche], Geog. Campeachy in Yucatan], sm. Bot. logwood. Bois de —, Campeachy wood, logwood.

CAMPEMENT, kânp'mânt, [camper], sm. 1. camping, encamping ; 2. encampment, camp ; 3. day's march (from one encampment to another). Effets de —, camp equipage. L'ennemi n'était plus qu'à deux campements de la ville, the enemy was only two days from the town.

CAMPENON, kânpenon, [François-Nicolas-Vincent], poet (1772-1843).

CAMPER, kânpé-r, [camp], vn. 1. to camp, to encamp ; 2. Fig. to make but a short stay. Nous n'avons fait que — dans cet endroit, we made but a short stay at that place. Il campe, he has no settled abode, he is always moving from place to place.

CAMPER, va. 1. to camp, to encamp ; 2. Fig. to place, to set, to fix, to impute, to attribute. Villeroi avait campé son armée près de M., Villeroi had encamped his army near M. , Volt. — là quelqu'un, to leave one in the lurch, to give one the slip. Il campa son chapeau sur sa tête et partit, he clapped his hat on his head, and went off. Vous me la campez belle, you give it me finely.

CAMPER (SE), v. refl. 1. to encamp, to pitch one's camp ; 2. Fig. to place (or post) one's self, to clap one's self down, to instal one's self. Les Philistins vinrent se camper à Machmas, the Philistines pitched their camp in Michmash. Bib. 1 Sam. XIII. 5. Il se campa dans un fauteuil, he installed himself (clapped himself down) in an arm-chair. Il se campa devant moi, he posted himself before me. Il se campe bien, he stands well on his legs. Il se campe bien à cheval, he holds himself well on horseback he sits a horse well.

CAMPHÈNE, kânfèn' sf. chem. camphene : an artifical variety of camphor.

CAMPHINE kânfin' sf. Chem. camphine : carburet of hydrogen.

CAMPHOLIQUE kânfolik adj. campholic of a crystalline acid obtained from camphor.

CAMPHORATE kânforat' sm. Chem. camphorate.

CAMPHORIQUE kânforik' adj. camphoric.

CAMPHRE kânfr' [Low Lat. : camphora] sm. Bot. camphor. — raffiné, purified camphor.

CAMPHRÉ, E, kânfré, adj. camphorated camphorate.

CAMPHRÉE, kânfré, sf. Bot. camphorosma.

CAMPHRER, kânfré-r, va. to camphor, to camphorate.

CAMPHRIER, kânfrié, sm. Bot. camphor-tree.

CAMPHRONE, kânfron', sf. Chem. camphrone.

CAMPINE, kânpin', sf. campine : a fat pullet, from Campine in Flanders.

CAMPOS, kânpô, [from Lat. : campus], sm. 1. holiday (in schools) ; 2. rest, relaxation. Le maître a donné — à sa classe, the master has given his scholars a holiday. Prenez — aujourd'hui, take a rest (a holiday) to-day.

CAMUS, E, kamu-z, muz', [orig. uncertain ; Lat. : camurus, curved ; Span. : camusa, chamois, on account of the form of its nose], adj. 1. camous : snub, pug, flat (as the nose) ; 2. snub-nosed pug-nosed, flat-nosed (as persons or animals) ; 3. Fig. disappointed ; 4. non-plussed, dumfounded.

CAMUS, E, smf. snub- (or pug-) nosed person. Un vilain —, an ugly flat-nose l fellow. Une petite camuse, a little snub-nosed woman.

CAMUS, sm. Ichth. the dolphin.

CAMUSON, kamuzôn, [camus], sf. 1 snub-nosed woman or girl.

CAN, CANT, kân, sm. adge : the narrowest dimension of a piece of timber. V. Champ.

CANADIEN, ENNE, kanadiân, enne, smf. Geog. Canadian : native of Canada.

CANADIEN, adj. referring to Canada.

CANAILLE, kanay', [Ital. : canaglia, from Lat. canis, dog], sf. 1. rabble, riff-raff : a) the lowest of the populace ; b) vulgar or disreputable persons of any class ; 2. (in speaking of an individual) low-lived fellow ; rascal, scoundrel, scamp ; 3. pl. (jestingly, of children) brats ; 4. (adjectively) low, vulgar. Acheter les suffrages de la —, to buy the votes of the rabble. La — littéraire est ce que je connais de plus abject, I know nothing more abject that the rabble of literature. Volt. Lett. 24 Sept. 1766. C'est une —, he is a low fellow, a scamp. Des manières canailles, vulgar manners. Un propos canaille, a vulgar remark. Il a l'air bien —, he has a very villainous look.

CANAILLERIE, kanayeri, sf. black-guardism, villainy.

CANAL, kanal, [Lat. : canalis], sm. 1. canal : a) an artificial water-course for navigation, irrigation or water-supply ; b) a long sheet of ornamental water in a park ; c) Anat. duct, tube, meatus ; d) Bot. channel, duct. a) — navigable, — de navigation, navigable canal canal for navigation. Un pays coupé de canaux, a country intersected by canals. Le — de Suez, the Suez canal. Le — du Panama, the Panama canal. — latéral, lateral canal : one that follows the course of a river. — à point de partage, summit-level canal : one that passes across the ridge dividing two watersheds. — d'irrigation, canal for irrigating land. — de dérivation, a canal for conveying a supply of water. — de dessèchement, canal for draining (a marsh), main drain. c) — alimentaire, the alimentary canal : the stomach and intestines. — thoracique, thoracic duct. Le — de l'urèthre, the canal of the urethra. — vertébral, vertebral canal. — médullaire, the medullary canal : in bones, the hollow containing the marrow ; in exogenous plants, the hollow containing the pith. Le sureau a un large — médullaire, the elder has a large medullary canal. Creuser un —, to dig a canal.

2. channel : a) the hollow bed of a river, brook, etc. ; b) any passage for water whether on or below the surface ; c) pipe, tube, spout, conduit (for conveying water or other fluids) ; d) Arch. flute, fluting (of a column, etc.) ; e) Geog. a narrow sea, straits ; f) Fig. means, medium, instrumentality. a) On voit de là le — de la rivière, from there we see the bed of the river. Le fleuve s'est creusé un nouveau —, the river has made itself a new bed, has changed its course. b) Les eaux du puits artésien de Paris arrivent de Bourgogne par des canaux secrets, the waters of the Paris Artesian well come from Burgundy by hidden channels. On pense que de secrets canaux unissent les foyers de plusieurs volcans, it is thought that secret channels unite the fires of several volcanoes. c) Les canaux de la fontaine sont rompus, the pipes (or conduits) of the fountain are burst (or broken). — de bois, de plomb, de pierre, a wooden, leaden or stone pipe (or tube). e) Le — de Mozambique, the Mozambique Channel. Le — de la Manche, the English (or British) Channel. Le — d'Irlande, St. George's Channel. Le — de Bristol, the Bristol Channel. Faire —, Naut. (in the Mediterranean) to cross a channel. f) La prière, le canal des grâces, prayer, the means of grace. Vous ne réussirez que par le — d'un tel, you will succeed only through the medium (or instrumentality) of so and so. Je suis le — par où passent les instructions. I am the channel (or medium) through which the instructions pass. Bossuet.

3. race (of a water-mill) ; 4. Technol. groove. — de baguette, ramrod groove (of a musket). — du canon, the groove of a gun-stock (to receive the barrel). — de larmier, Arch. channel of a coping.

CANALICULE, kanalikul', sm. Anat. canaliculus · small channel.

CANALICULÉ, E, kanalikulé, adj. Bot. canaliculate, channelled, furrowed.

CANALIFÈRE, kanalifèr, [Lat. : canalis, canal ; ferre, to bear], adj. canaliferous : having canals or vessels.

CANALISABLE, kanalizabl', adj. canalizable.

CANALISATION, kanalizâsyôn, sf. canalization.

CANALISER, kanalisé'r, va. to canalize : a) to make (a river) navigable ; b) to make a canal through.

CANAMELLE, kanamel, [Lat. : canna, cane ; mel, mellis, honey], sf. Bot. sugar-cane.

CANANÉEN, ENNE, kananéân, ene, smf. Geog. Canaanite : a native of Canaan. adj. canaanitish.

CANAPÉ, kanapé, [Gr. : κωνωπεῖον, curtain, bed surrounded with curtains ; O. Fr. : conopé], sm. sofa, couch. Lit —, sofa bed-stead.

CANAPSA, kanapsa, [Ger. : Knapp-sack]. sm. 1. knapsack ; 2. man with a knapsack.

CANAQUE, kanak, smf ; adj Kanak : savage of the Polynesian Islands ; Fig. a wild man of the woods.

CANARD, kanar, [from cane, duck], sm. 1. Ornith. duck (genus) ; 2. (in a limited sense) drake : the male-duck. — domestique, common or domestic duck. — sauvage, wild duck, mallard. — privé, tame-duck, decoy-duck ; Fig. decoy : a sharper's confederate. Mouillé comme un —, wet through, dripping wet. Plonger comme un —, to dive like a duck ; Fig. to dodge like a duck, to get out of harm's way. Chasse aux canards, duck-shooting.

3. hoax, mystification, false news, idle or absurd story ; 4. Mus. quack : false note of a reed instrument ; 5. lump of sugar dipped in brandy, coffee, etc. ; 6. net for wild ducks ; 7. Pyrotech. water-rocket ; 8. air-passage (in mines) ; 9 Naut. pile-driver : a ship that pitches or plunges. Dire des canards, to hoax.

CANARD, E, adj. Bâtiment —, labour-some ship, pile-driver. Chien —, water spaniel, retriever for duck-shooting.

CANARDEAU, kanardô, sm. duckling : young duck or drake

CANARDER, kanardé-r, va. to fire at, to shoot from under shelter. Les soldats furent canardés des fenêtres de chaque maison, the soldiers were fired at from the windows of every house.

CANARDER, vn. 1. Mus. to quack : to blow a false note on a reed instrument ; 2. Naut. to pitch, to plunge.

CANARDIER, kanardié, sm. 1. wild-duck shooter ; 2. hoaxer.

CANARDIÈRE, kanardièr', sf. 1. decoy-pond (for catching wild ducks) ; 2. hiding-place to shoot from ; 3. loop-hole ; 4. duck-gun, wild-goose gun 5. duck-pond (in a park).

CANARI, kanari, sm. Orn. canary-bird, canary.

CANARIES, (Îles), kanari, sfpl. Geog. The Canary Islands.

† CANASSE, kanas, CANASTRE, kanastr', [Lat. : canistrum : a wicker-basket], sf. canister, tin case for tea.

CANCALE, kankal, Geog. Cancale ; 2. cancale oyster.

CANCAN, kânkân, [Lat. : quamquam, whence in O. Fr. quanquan], sm. 1. pother, fuss, noise ; 2. tittle-tattle, scandal ; 3. cancan : an extravagant (and often indecent) dance. Il fit un grand — de peu de chose; he made a great pother (or fuss) about a trifle. Il est en butte aux cancans d'une petite ville, he is exposed to the tittle-tattle of a country town.

CANCANER, kânkané-r, vn. 1. to tittle-tattle, to deal in scandal ; 2. to dance the cancan.

CANCANIER, ÈRE, kânkanyé, nyêr', adj. 1. addicted to tittle-tattle (or scandal) ; 2. (subst.) scandal-monger.

CANCEL, kânsèl, CHANCEL, shânsèl, [Lat. : cancellus], sm. 1. chancel (of a church) ; 2. the office where the great-seal used to be kept.

CANCELLER, kansèlé-r, [Lat. : cancellāre, from cancelli, bars railings] va. Law t. to cancel : to cross-bar, to cross out, to annul. Acte cancellé, cancelled deed.

CANCER, kânsèr, [Lat. for crab], sm. 1. Astron. Cancer : a) the Crab, a northern constellation ; b) the fourth sign of the zodiac on which the sun enters at the summer solstice. Le tropique du —, the tropic of Cancer.

2. Med. cancer. — des ramoneurs, soot-wart : an epithelial cancer of the scrotum.

CANCÉREUX, EUSE, kânséræ, œz', adj. cancerous.

CANCÉRIFORME, kansérifôrm', adj. Med. canceroid, canceriform.

CANCRE, kânkr', [cancer], sm. 1. Zool. crab ; 2. miser, skin-flint, hunks, curmudgeon ; 3. (in schools) dull scholar, dunce ; 4. poor fellow, poor devil.

CANCRELAR, kânkrœla, [Dutch : kakerlak], sm. kakerlach, an American cockroach.

CANCRIFORME, kânkrifôrm', adj. Zool. cancrine, cancriform, crablike.

CANCROÏDE, kankroïd, [cancer ; Gr. : εἶδος, form], adj. Med. cancroid.

CANDÉLABRE, kândélabr', [Lat. : candelabrum ; candela, candle], sm. 1. Antiq. candelabrum ; 2. chandelier : branch-candlestick, sconce.

CANDELETTE, kând'lèt', sf. Naut. anchor-stock tackle.

CANDEUR, kândœr, [Lat. : candor, whiteness], sf. 1. purity (of mind), moral purity ; 2. candour : sincerity, frankness, openness, freedom from disguise.

CANDI, E, kândi, [Ar. : qandah, cane-sugar], pa. p. 1. candied ; 2. adj. candy. Fruits candis, candied fruit. Sucre —, sugar candy.

CANDI, sm. 1. candy, sugar candy ; 2. candied fruit.

CANDIDAT, kândida, [Lat. : candidatus, from candidus, white], sm. candidate : one who aspires to, or is proposed for any office, functions, title, or dignity. Il se présentera, se portera, comme — aux élections prochaines, he will offer himself as candidate, will come forward as candidate at the next elections. — au doctorat, candidate for the degree of doctor.

CANDIDATURE, kândidatur', sf. candidateship, candidature.

CANDIDE, kândid', [Lat. : candidus, white], adj. 1. pure, pure-minded ; 2. candid : sincere, frank, open, free from disguise or reserve. Un homme —, a candid man. Physionomie —, candid physiognomy. Paroles candides, candid words.

CANDIDEMENT, kândid'mân-t, adv. candidly ; sincerely, without disguise.

CANDIR (SE), sœ kândir, [candi], v. refl. to candy, to become candied. Ce sucre ne se candit pas bien, this sugar does not candy well. Faire candir des fruits, to candy fruit.

CANE, kan', [orig. unknown], sf. Ornith. duck : the female of the drake. Marcher comme une —, to waddle like a duck. Faire la —, to dive, to plunge, to duck ; Fig. to get out of harm's way : to sneak off.

CANEFICIER, kan'fisyé, sm. V. Casse.

CANEPETIÈRE, kan'pœtyêr', sf. Ornith. little bustard, otis tetrax.

CANÉPHORE, kanéfor', [Gr. : κανηφόρος, basket-carrier], sf. Arch. canephora : statue of a girl with a basket on her head.

CANER, kané-r, [cane], vn to duck, to run away (from danger), to show the white feather.

CANEPIN, can'pan, sm. split lambskin (for testing the point of lancets).

CANETER, kan'té-r, vn. to waddle (like a duck).

CANETON, kan'tôn, sm. Ornith. duckling, young drake.

CANETTE, kanèt', sf. 1. Ornith. duckling, young duck (female) ; 2. common teal querquedula crecca ; 3. pot, jug (for beer containing about a pint).

CANEVAS, can'vâ, [Lat. : cannabis, hemp], sm. canvas or canvas : a) an open tissue for needle-work tapestry ; b) Naut. sailcloth ; c) groundwork, sketch, outline, skeleton of literary work, speech, song, etc. Elle n'avait au monde sa pareille à manier un —, she had not her equal in the world for embroidering on cancass, for needle-work tapestry. La Font. Broder le —, to embellish a story : to amplify, to exaggerate. Tracer son —, to prepare one's groundwork. Le — d'un discours, the groundwork (outline or sketch), of a speech, the skeleton of a sermon. Ce conte a servi de — à un fort joli opéra bouffon, that story has been made the subject (or groundwork) of a very pretty comic opera. Volt. Mœurs, Joseph.

CANEVETTE, kan'vêt', [Lat. : canava, cellar], sf. Naut. cellaret : case of bottles for liqueurs.

CANEZOU, kan'zou, sm. body (or corsage) without sleeves, generally made of muslin or net.

CANGRÈNE, kângrèn', sf. V. Gangrène.

CANGUE, kang, sf. cangue : a Chinese portable pillory.

CANICHE, kanish', [Lat. : canis, dog], smf. poodle, water-dog. Un —, a poodle-dog. Une — poodle bitch.

CANICULAIRE, kanikulêr', [canicule], adj. canicular. Jours caniculaires, canicular days, dog-days. Chaleur —, sultry heat (as in the dog-days).

CANICULE, kanikul', [Lat. : canicula], sf. 1. the dog-star, Sirius (in Canis Major, which constellation as well as the star itself were formerly called canicular in English) ; 2. the dog-days.

CANIF, kanif, [corrup. of Eng. knife], sm. penknife. Donner un coup de — dans le contrat, to be faithless to one's marriage vow.

CANIN, E, kanan, in', [Lat. : caninus ; canis, dog], adj. canine. L'espèce canine, the canine species. Faim canine, canine appetite. Dents canines, Anat. the canine (or eye) teeth. Ris —, sardonic smile.

CANINE, sf. 1. canine, dog-tooth, eye-tooth ; 2. fang, tusk (of certain animals).

CANINS, sm. pl. Nat. Hist. canina : the dog-tribe.

CANITIE, kanisi, [Lat. : canities ; canus, white], sf. whiteness, hoariness (of the hair).

CANIVEAU, kanivô, [canneau], sm. kennel-stone, gutter-stone. — d'écoulement d'eau, gutter.

CANNABIN, E, kanaban, in', [Lat. : cannabis, hemp], adj. Bot. cannabine, hempen.

CANNAGE, kanazh', [canner], sm. 1. measuring with the cane ; 2. caning, cane-bottoming (of chairs, etc.).

CANNAIE, kané, sf. cane-field, cane-brake.

CANNE, kan', [Lat. : canna, reed], sf. 1. Bot. cane : a) the name of various kinds of reeds, as the bamboo, the ratan, etc. ; b) walking-stick ; c) measure used in Italy.— à sucre, sugar-cane, — d'Inde, Indian shot, canna indica. Donner des coups de — à, to cane, to beat with a cane. Lever la — sur, to threaten with a cane. Vivre la — à la main, to walk about doing nothing ; to lead an idle life. — à vent, air-cane, air-gun walking-stick. — à épée, sword-stick. — à pêche, fishing-rod.

2. Glass-bl. blow-pipe, blowing pipe.

CANNEAU, kanō [canne], sm. Arch. fluting of a friese.

CANNEBERGE, kan'bèrzh', sf. Bot. cranberry.

CANNELAS, kan'la, sm. cinnamon comfit, candied cinnamon.

CANNELÉ, E, kan'lé, pa. p., adj. Arch. channelled, fluted.

CANNELÉ, sm. ribbed (or corded) silk.

CANNELER, kan'lé-r, [Je cannelle ou cannèle ; je cannelais ; je cannelai ; je cannellerai ou cannèlerai ; que je cannelle ou cannèle ; que je cannelasse ; cannelant.] va. 1. to channel, to flute (as a column, etc); 2. Technol. to groove.

CANNELIER, kanœlyé, sm. Bot. cinnamon-tree.

CANNELLAGÉ, ÉE, kanelasé, [Lat. : canna, reed], adj. Bot. canellaceous : pertaining to the cinnamon family.

CANNELLE, kanèl, [Lat. : canna, reed], sf. 1. Bot. cinnamon. — blanche, wild cinnamon, cannella alba. — giroflée, clove bark. Mettre en —, to break to pieces, to shivers ; Fig. to pull to pieces (a person's reputation, etc.).

2. tap (for a cask, etc.) ; 3. spile, faucet, spigot and faucet ; 4. groove, channel (of the eye of a needle).

CANNELURE, kan'lur', [canneler], sf. 1. Arch. fluting (of a column) ; 2. Technol. groove 3. Bot. stria, groove, fluting.

CANNER, kané-r, [canne] va. 1. to measure (with a cane) ; 2. to cane-bottom, to cane (chairs, etc.).

CANNETILLE, kann'tiy', [Ital. : cannatiglia], sf. 1. purl : silver or gold embroidery ; 2. silvered wire (to cover violin strings, etc.) ; 3. Millin. wire ribbon.

CANNETTE, kanèt', sf. 1. tap for a cask, etc. ; 2. spile, spigot and faucet ; 3. fuse (for firing a mine.)

CANNEUR, EUSE, kanneur, œz, (canne), sm. chair-caner.

CANNIBALE, kanibal', [Span. : canibal or caribal, varying forms for Carribees or Caribs], sm. cannibal : a) man-eater ; b) savage, ferocious man.

CANNIBALISME, kanibalism', sm. cannibalism : a) anthropophagy ; b) savageness, ferocity.

CANNIER, kanyé, sm. 1. cane-worker; 2. walking-stick maker.

CANON, kanôn, [Lat. : canna, reed], sm. 1. cannon : a) great gun, piece of artillery ; b) in a collective sense, artillery, ordnance, guns ; c) cannon-bone, shank (of a horse's leg) ; d) mouth-piece of a bridle-bit. — de bronze, bronze (or brass) cannon. — rayé, rifled cannon. — de campagne, field gun. — revolver, revolving cannon. — se chargeant par la culasse, breech-loading cannon. — a tir rapide, quick-firing gun. Le gros —, siege guns, siege artillery. Un coup de —, a cannon-shot. Fonderie de —, cannon foundry. A portée de —, within gun-shot. Le bruit du —, the roar of the cannon. Hors de portée de —, beyond (or out of) gun-shot. Braquer, pointer un —, to point, to level a gun. Enclouer un —, to spike a cannon. Tirer un —, to fire a cannon, let off a gun. Chair à —, Fig. food for cannon : troops recklessly exposed to slaughter. Poudre à —, gun-powder. Cannon-harpon, Whale-fish. gun-harpoon.

2. barrel : the tube of a fire-arm, of a quill, of a spring-balance, syringe, etc. — de fusil, gun-barrel. — rubané (or tordu), twisted barrel.— fusil, à — rayé, gun with a rifled barrel, a rifle.

3. pipe (of a key) : 4. nozzle, pipe (of bellows) ; 5. spout (of a water-pot) ; 6. jar (of a cylindrical form) ; 7. reel (for thread or yarn) ; 8. roll, stick (of brimstone) ; 9. canion, cannon : a) the thigh-part of old-fashioned hose ; b) the deep-flounce formerly appended to breeches ; 10. quill of a pen ; 11. an old liquid measure equal to half a quarter of a pint ; 12. (in modern usage) a glass. Voulez-vous boire un —? will you take a glass ?

CANON, sm. 1. canon : a) rule, decree, decision, especially in matters ecclesiastical ; b) catalogue of saints acknowledged by the Roman Catholic Church ; c) list of books regarded as inspired ; d) table of movable festivals ; e) formula of prayers for special occasions ; f) Math. formula, method, table ; g) Mus. canon, round : a kind of perpetual fugue ; h) Old. Law-t., ground-rent ; i) Print. a large kind of type. Les canons de l'Eglise, the canons of the Church. [Adject. :] Droit —, canon law, ecclesiastical law. Le — des Écritures chez les Juifs, chez les chrétiens, the canon of Scripture among the Jews, among the Christians. — à trois voix, Mus. canon, round for three voices. — emphytéotique, ground-rent.

CÃNON, kágnon (Span.) sm. cãnon : a deep gorge or ravine formed by watercourses.

CANONIAL, E, kanonial, al', [Lat., : canonicalis], adj, 1. canonical : regulated by the canon ; 2. prebendal : of or concerning a canon or prebendary. Heures canoniales, canonical hours. Offices canoniaux, canonical (prebendal or cathedral) services.

CANONICAT, kanonika, (Low Lat. : canonicus, canon). sm. 1. canonicate, canonry, canonship ; 2. Fig. sinecure. C'est un vrai —, it is an absolute sinecure.

CANONICITÉ, kanonisité, sf. canonicalness, canonicity.

CANONIQUE, kanonik', adj. canonical, canonic. Les livres canoniques, the canonical books, the canon of Scripture. Droit —, canon law. [Fig. :] Cela n'est pas —, that is not canonical, is contrary to rule.

CANONIQUEMENT, kanonik'mân-t, adv. canonically.

CANONISABLE, kanonizabl', adj. canonizable : worthy to be canonized.

CANONISATION, kanonizàsyôn, sf. canonization.

CANONISER, kanonizé-r, [Gr. : κανονίζειν, through Church Lat. canonizāre], va. 1. to canonize : a) to put in the catalogue of saints; b) to include (a book) in the canon of Scripture; 2. to praise, to extol, to glorify.

CANONISTE, kanonist', sm. canonist : one versed in the canon law.

CANONNADE, kanonad', sm. cannonade, cannonading.

CANONNAGE, kanonazh', sm. gunnery (the art).

CANONNER, kanoné-r, va. 1. to cannonade : to batter with cannon ; 2. Naut. to roll up a sail.

CANONNER (SE), v. refl. cannonade each other.

CANONNERIE, kanon'ri, sf. cannon foundry.

CANONNIER, kanonyé, sm. 1. gunner, cannoneer ; 2. cannon-founder. Maître —, Naut. master-gunner.

CANONNIÈRE, kanonyèr', sf. 1. loophole (for cannon) ; 2. (formerly) gunner's tent ; 3. (in modern usage) a tent with all its sides sloping to the ground ; 4. popgun, pellet-gun ; 5. Naut. gun-boat.

CANOPE, kanop, CANOPUS, kanopus, sm. Astron. Canopus : a star of the first magnitude in the constellation Argo-Navis.

CANOT, kano, [Span. : canoa, from Haytian canoa ; Eng. : canoe], sm. 1. ship's boat, yawl ; 2. canoe : small boat used by savages. Grand —, long-boat. — major, barge. — du commandant, captain's pinnace or gig. — de la provision, bumboat. — de sauvetage, lifeboat. — de plaisance, pleasure boat. — automobile, motor-boat. — de course, pleasure launch.

CANOTAGE, kanotazh' sm. boating (for amusement).

CANOTIER, kanotyé, sm. 1. rower, boatman ; 2. the owner of a pleasure-boat ; 3. boater (straw hat), yachting hat.

CANT, kân, sm. edge (of a plank, etc.). V. Champ.

CANTABILE, kântâbilé, [Ital.], sm. Mus. cantabile : an easy graceful melody.

CANTAL, kântal, sm. 1. Geog. Cantal : a department of France, in Auvergne ; 2. Cantal cheese, cantal.

CANTALABRE, kantalabr', sm. V. Chambranle.

CANTALOUP, kântalou (from Cantalupo, a town near Rome),sm. Gard. cantaloup : the large ribbed musk-melon.

CANTATE, kântat', [Ital., cantate, from Lat. cantatus, sung], sf. Mus. cantata.

CANTATILLE, kântatiy', sf. Mus. cantatilla.

CANTATRICE, kântatris', [Lat. : cantatrix], sf. cantatrice by profession : a female vocalist.

CANTER, kânté-r (cant), va. Technol. to place edgewise.

CANTHARELLE, kântarèl', [dimin. of Gr. κάνθαρος, cup], sf. Bot. cantharellus : an edible mushroom.

CANTHARIDE, kantarid', [Lat. : cantharis, idis, from Gr. κανθαρίς], sf. Entom. cantharis (pl. cantharides), Spanish fly, blister-fly.

CANTHARIDER, kântaridé-r, va. to sprinkle with cantharides.

CANTHARIDINE, kântaridin', sf. Chem. cantharidine : the active principle of cantharides.

CANTHARUS, kantarüs, CANTHÈRE, kantèr, [Gr. κάνθαρος, cup], cantharus : large two-handled drinking cup.

CANTILÈNE, kântilèn', [Lat. : cantilena, song], sf. Mus. cantilena : a ballad or sentimental melody.

CANTILEVER, kântilevœr, [from Eng.], sm. adj. Neol. cantilever : bracket used for supporting enormous weights, as in bridges.

CANTINE, kântin', [Ital. : cantina, a cellar], sf. 1. canteen : a place for the sale of liquors in barracks, prisons, etc. : 2. case of bottles, bottle-case.

CANTINIER, ÈRE, kântinyé, yèr', smf. canteen-keeper ; canteen-woman, sutler.

CANTIQUE, kântik', [Lat. : canticum ; cantus, song], sm. 1. canticle [obsolete], song of praise ; 2. hymn, psalm (sung in divine worship). Le — de Moïse, de Siméon, the song of Moses, Simeon's song. — des cantiques, the Song of songs, Solomon's Song. Cantiques spirituels, spiritual songs. — de Noël, Christmas carol. [Colloq. :] Vous avez échappé belle, vous pouvez chanter un bon —, you have had a narrow escape, you ought to sing for joy.

CANTON, kântôn, [Ital. : cantone], sm. canton : a) a small territorial district ; hundred (in England), cantred (in Wales and Ireland) ; b) each state of the Swiss confederation ; c) Herald. small square compartment in a coat of arms. En France, les arrondissements sont divisés par cantons, et les cantons par communes, in France, arrondissements are divided into cantons, and cantons into parishes (or townships). Le — de Genève, the canton of Geneva.

CANTONADE, kântonad', sf. Theat. slips, side-scenes. Parler à la —, to speak to a person behind the scenes.

CANTONAL, kântonal, al', adj. cantonal. Les comités cantonaux, the cantonal committees.

CANTONNÉ, E, kântoné, adj. 1. cantoned : a) established, isolated ; b) Milit. quartered in villages ; c) Arch. faced with pilasters, rustic quoins, etc. Toute la noblesse cantonnée à la campagne all the nobility isolated in the rural districts. Bâtiment —, cantoned building.

2. Herald. cantoned, cantonnée 3. Cook. flanked. Croix cantonnée de quatre étoiles, cross cantoned with four stars. Un gros dindon — de pigeonneaux, a large turkey flanked with young pigeons.

CANTONNEMENT, kânton'mân-t, sm. 1. cantonment : Milit. quartering of troops in villages ; country quarters ; 2. portion, section ; 3. field set apart for diseased cattle. — de pêche, portion of a river in which the right of fishing is let on lease.

CANTONNER, kântoné-r, va. 1. Milit. to canton : to lodge troops in villages ; 2. Fig. to separate, to divide ; 3. to isolate. — les troupes, to canton troops. Les troupes vont bientôt —, (in a neuter sense) the troops will soon go into cantonments. Luther et Calvin on cantonné la chrétienté, Luther and Calvin have divided Christendom Bossuet. — des bestiaux malades, to isolate diseased cattle.

CANTONNER (SE), v. refl. 1. to canton or fortify one's self ; 2. Fig. to isolate one's self. Sertorius se cantonna en Espagne, Sertorious cantoned (or fortified) himself in Spain. Ils se cantonnent et se divisent en des partis contraires, they isolate themselves and divide into hostile parties.

CANTONNIER, kântonyé', sm. 1. roadman, road-labourer ; 2. Railw. plate-layer ; way-keeper, watchman.

CANTONNIÈRE, kântonyèr', sf. 1. valance (of a bed or window); 2. corner iron (of a chest) ; 3. Naut. winding tackle (for the anchor) ; 4. Railw. signal-woman, gate-keeper.

CANULANT, kanulân, adj. Pop. tedious, boring.

CANULE, kanul', [Lat. : canula, small tube], sf. 1. spigot and faucet ; 2. pipe or nozzle (of a syringe) ; 3. Surg. canula.

CANULER, kanulé-r, va. Pop. to annoy, to bore.

CANZONE, kântson', [Ital.], sf. canzone : a short lyrical poem. Les canzones de Pétrarque, Petrarch's canzones

CAOUTCHOUC, kaoutshou, [Ind. : cahuchu], sm. caoutchouc, India-rubber. — vulcanisé, vulcanized India-rubber. Un —, 1. a waterproof ; 2. India-rubber shoe ; 3. tyre. Des caoutchoucs creux, hollow tyres. — plein, cushion tyre.

CAOUTCHOUTER, kaoutshouté, va. to cover with caoutchouc.

CAP, kap, [Lat. : caput, head], sm 1. † head. De pied en —, cap-a-pie, from head to foot. Cheval — de maure, a roan horse with a black head.

2. Geog. cape, headland. Le Cap Nord, the North Cape. Doubler un —, Naut. to double a cape. Le Cap de Bonne Espérance, the Cape of Good Hope.

3. Naut. ship's head. Mettre le — sur, to steer for. Avoir le — au large, to stand off, to stand for the open. Porter le — à terre, to turn a ship's head to land. Où est le — ? how is her head ? Le vent a changé — pour —, the wind has turned to the opposite quarter. — de boussole, lubber's point.

CAPABLE, kapabl', [Lat. : capax ; capĕre, to hold, to take ; Low Lat. : capabilis], adj. 1. capable : a) capacions, able or sufficient to contain, to admit, to receive etc. ; b) Fig. able to do, to execute ; qualified (for or to) ; c) calculated, likely ; d) able, clever. a) De toutes les figures c'est le cercle qui est le plus —, of all figures the circle is the most capacious (the perimeters being equal). La brèche était — de deux bataillons de front, the breach was capable of admitting (wide enough to admit) two battalions abreast. Segment — d'un angle donné, segment capable of containing a given angle. b) De quel crime un enfant est il — ? of what crime is a child capable ? Il était — des affaires, he was capable of (or qualified for) business. Quelque — que fût son esprit pour toutes sortes d'affaires, however capable (or qualified) his mind was for all sorts of affairs. Être — de tout, to be capable of anything : to stick at nothing; to be utterly unscrupulous. Est-ce que l'honnête homme est — de mentir ? is an honest man capable of lying ? [In a legal sense :] — de tester, capable of making a will. c) Partout où sa présence est — de nuire, wherever his presence is calculated (or likely) to be injurious. Ce sont des livres capables de vous amuser, they are books calculated to amuse you. d) Hommes capables et judicieux, capable (or able) and judicious men. Air —, a knowing air. Prendre un air—, to assume a knowing air.

2. sm. Faire le —, to pretend to ability, to have a high opinion of one's own capacity.

CAPABLEMENT, kapabl'mân-t adv, capably, with capacity, ably.

CAPACE, kapas', [Lat. : capax, acis]. adj. capacious : large, comprehensive.

CAPACITÉ, kapasité, [Lat. : capacitas], sf. capacity : a) capaciousness power of containing or receiving ; b) Fig. capability, parts, talents, intellectual power ; c) legal competency. a) Cuve d'une grande —, a vat of great capacity. La — d'un vaisseau, the capacity (burden) of a ship. La — du cerveau, the capacity (volume) of the brain. La — de l'estomac, the capacity of the stomach. Vous remplissez toute la — de son cœur, you fill the whole capacity of his heart, you fill every corner of his heart. Mesures de —, measures of capacity. Le litre est l'unité des mesures de — en France, the litre is the unit of French measures of capacity. — pour le calorique, Phys. capacity of heat, specific heat. — de saturation, capacity of saturation : the quantity of acid necessary to saturate a base. b) Selon la — de son esprit, according to his intellectual capacity (his ability or talents). Un homme d'une si grande —, a man of such great capacity (great parts or intellectual power). Il ne manque pas de —, he is not wanting in capacity, in parts. Les capacités, Polit. lang. the capacities : persons capable of exercising political rights. c) Il a — pour tester, he is capable of making (or competent to make) a will. Les titres et les capacités d'un ecclésiastique, the titles and certificates (or qualifications) of an ecclesiastic. — de l'accumulateur, Autom. efficiency of the storage battery.

CAPARAÇON, kaparasô*n*, [Span. : caparazon : augment. of capa, a cape, cover], sm. caparison : a) ornamental clothing for a horse ; b) formerly, horse armour.

CAPARAÇONNER, kaparasoné-r, va. to caparison.

CAPARAÇONNER (SE), v. refl. to bedizen or bedeck one's self, to deck one's self out.

CAPARASSE, kaparas', sf. boat-cloak.

CAPE, kap', [form of chape ; Low Lat. cappa], sf. 1. cape (or short-cloak) with a hood ; 2. hood, riding-hood. N'avoir que la — et l'épée, Fig. (of persons) to be of noble birth, but fortuneless ; (of things) to be all outside show, to have no real value. Rire sous —, to laugh in one's sleeve (or in secret). Dire sous —, to tell as a secret to insinuate secretly.

2. Naut. trysail, storm trysail. Mettre à la —, to bring to (or lie to). Être à la —, to be lying to. Ancre de —, floating anchor (used for lying to in a gale).

CAPÉER, CAPEYER, kapéé, [cape], vn. Naut. to lie to, to bring to.

CAPELAGE, kap'lazh', sm. Naut. top-rigging.

CAPELAN, CAPLAN, kaplâ*n*, [Provenç : capelan for chapelain], sm. 1. (in contempt) sorry chaplain (or priest) ; 2. Ichth. capelin or caplin : small fish of the smelt family.

CAPELER, kap'lé-r, va. Naut. to fix the top-rigging.

CAPELET, cap'lè, [O. Fr. : capel, for chapeau], sm. Vet. Surg. capellet : capped hock.

CAPELINE, kap'lin', [dimin. of cape], sf. 1. (formerly) broad-brimmed hat worn by ladies on horse-back ; 2. capeline : a) garden-hood, to protect the head and neck from the sun ; b) hood to cover the head and neck on leaving a ball-room ; 3. a kind of helmet. Homme de —, a soldier, a military man.

CAPENDU, kapâ*n*du, sm. Hort. short-start or short-shank : a kind of apple.

CAPENDU [Ernest], novelist and miscellaneous writer (1825-1868).

CAPERON, kap'rô*n*, sm. V. Capron.

CAPÉTIEN, ENNE, kapésya*n*, syèn', adj. Capetian : belonging to Hugh Capet, the founder of the third dynasty of French kings. Subst. Les Capétiens, the Capetian kings.

CAPHARNAÜM, kafarnaœm', [from Capernaum, a town in Galilee], sm. 1. lumber-room ; 2. house of ill fame, disorderly house.

CAPILLACÉ, E, kapilacé, [Lat. : capillus, hair], adj. Bot. capillaceous : resembling a hair.

CAPILLAIRE, kapilèr', [Lat. : capillaris], adj. capillary : fine as a hair. Les tubes capillaires d'une plante, the capillary tubes of a plant. [Phys. :] Attraction —, capillary attraction. Action —, capillary action. [Anat. :] Vaisseaux capillaires, les capillaires, capillary vessels, the capillaries : minute blood-vessels connecting the arteries with the veins.

CAPILLAIRE, sm. Bot. maiden-hair, asplenium adiantum nigrum. — du Canada, Canada maiden-hair, adiantum pedatum. — de Montpellier, Venus's hair, adiantum capillus Veneris. Sirop de —, capillaire.

CAPILLARIMÈTRE, kapilarimetr', [Lat. : capillus, hair ; Gr. : μέτρον, measure], sm. capillarimeter : instrument to measure the capacity of hair-tubes.

CAPILLARITÉ, kapilarité, sf. capillarity : a) the being as fine as a hair b) Phys. capillary action.

CAPILOTADE, kapilotad', [Span. : capirotada], sm. Cook. hash of cold roast meat. Mettre en —, Fig. to beat to a jelly, to pummel soundly.

CAPITAINAT, kapitena, sm. captaincy.

CAPITAINE, kapitèn', [Lat. : caput, head ; Low Lat. : capitaneus, chief], sm. captain : a) commander of a ship, of a troop of horse, of a company of foot ; b) warrior, officer well versed in the art of war ; c) chief, leader of any body of men. a) — de vaisseau, captain of a ship of the line. — de frégate, captain of a frigate. — de pavillon, flag-captain. — d'un vaisseau marchand, master (by courtesy, captain) of a merchantman. — de long cours, captain of a merchant vessel navigating the high seas (as opposed to one amployed in the coasting trade). — d'infanterie, de cavalerie, captain of foot, of horse, of infantry, of cavalry. b) Tant de renommés capitaines qui se sont élevés aux premiers honneurs militaires, so many renowned warriors who have risen to the highest military honours. Ce général était plus soldat que —, that general was a soldier rather than a captain. Quel grand — que Napoléon ! what a great captain Napoleon was ! c) — de louveterie, master of the wolf-hounds. — de brigands, captain or chief of brigands.

CAPITAINERIE, kapitèn'ri, sf. captaincy the office, residence, or jurisdiction of a captain of a royal hunt ; b) Milit. district under the command of a captain.

CAPITAL, E, kapital, al', [Lat. : capitalis ; caput, head], adj. capital : a) affecting the head or life ; b) chief, first in importance, principal, essential. a) Procès — capital prosecution, trial for life and death. Une accusation capitale, a capital charge. Condamner quelqu'un à la peine capitale, to condemn a person to capital punishment. Crime —, a capital crime. C'est un défaut —, it is a striking defect. b) La ville capitale, la capitale, the capital city, the capital. V. Capitale, sf. Le point —, the main point. Clause capitale, the capital (or most important) clause. Les hommes les plus expérimentés font quelquefois des fautes capitales, the most experienced men sometimes make capital (or fatal) blunders. Tableau —, the principal (or most important) painting (of a master). Dans une affaire qui lui serait capitale à lui et aux siens, in a matter that would be essential to him and his. Les sept péchés capitaux, the seven deadly (or mortal) sins. Ennemi —, mortal (or deadly) enemy. [Print. :] Lettre capitale, capital letter. V. Capitale, sf. La lettre capitale a été ainsi nommée parce qu'elle se met en tête d'un alinéa, the capital letter was first so called because it begins the first word of a paragraph.

CAPITAL, sm. 1. the chief concern, the principal thing, the capital or main point. Le — est d'avoir de quoi se pousser, the main point is to have the means of making one's way. Le — pour moi est de, the principal thing for me is to. Vous en faites sérieusement le — de votre défense, you seriously make it the main point of your defence.

2. capital : a) the principal of a debt, loan, etc. ; b) accumulated wealth or means of action, stock in trade, money, cash, etc. J'ai perdu le — et les intérêts, I have lost both capital and interest. Le — d'un artiste est son talent, an artist's capital is his talent, his professional skill. — productif, productive capital. — improductif, inactive, unproductive, unemployed capital. — social, social capital : the money and stock of a trading company. Les capitaux sont rares, capital is scarce, money or cash is scarce. Il a mangé son —, he has run (gone) through his capital.

CAPITALE, sf. 1. capital : chief town of a province, etc., metropolis of a country ; 2. capital, capital letter : large letter ; Print. upper-case letter.

CAPITALEMENT, kapital'mâ*n*-t, adv. capitally, chiefly, absolutely.

CAPITALISABLE, kapitalizabl', adj. capitalizable : realizable, capable of being converted into capital.

CAPITALISATION, kapitalizasyô*n* sf. capitalization, capitalizing.

CAPITALISER, kapitalizé-r, va. to capitalize : a) to add to the capital ; b) to realize, to convert into capital. — les intérêts, to capitalize interets. — un revenu, to capitalize revenue or income.

CAPITALISER (SE), v. refl. to be capitalized, to be realized, to be converted into cash.

CAPITALISTE, kapitalist', sm. capitalist ; possessor of capital, moneyed man.

CAPITAN, kapitâ*n*, [Span. ; Ital. : capitano], sm. hector, bully.

CAPITANE, kapitan', [Ital. : capitana], sf. admiral's galley, principal galley.

CAPITAN-PACHA, kapitâ*n*- pasha, [Ital.] sm. 1. capitan-pacha, great Turkish admiral; 2. admiral's vessel (in Turkey).

CAPITATION, kapitâsyô*n*, [Lat. : caput, head], sf. capitation, capitation-tax, poll-tax.

CAPITÉ, E, kapité, adj. Bot. capitate, headed : growing to a head.

CAPITEL, kapitèl, sm. lye of ashes and lime (used in making soap).

CAPITEUX, EUSE, kapitœ, œz', [Lat. : caput, capitis, head], adj. heady : said of wines apt to affect the head, intoxicating.

CAPITILUVE, kapitiluv', [Lat. : caput, itis, head ; lavāre, to wash], sm. head-bath : washing of the head.

CAPITOLE, kapitol', [Lat. : capitolium], sm. Capitol : a) temple of Jupiter in ancient Rome ; b) in the United States, the building where the congress meets ; c) government or state-house, seat or government.

CAPITOLIN, E, kapitola*n*, in', adj. Rom. Hist. Capitoline. Jeux capitolins, the Capitoline games.

CAPITON, kapitô*n*, [Ital. : capitone], sm. Technol. cappadine : waste or floss silk.

CAPITONNAGE, kapitonazh, sm. padding, stuffing.

CAPITONNER, kapitoné-r, [capiton], va. 1. to pad : to stuff with waste cotton, wool, etc. ; 2. to wad (a garment). Fauteuil capitonné, a stuffed (or padded) arm-chair.

CAPITOUL, kapitoul, sm capitoul : formerly the chief magistrate of Toulouse.

CAPITOULAT, kapitoula, sm. office, dignity of capitoul (at Toulouse).

CAPITULAIRE, kapitulèr', [Low Lat. : capitulatum ; capitulāre, to arrange under heads], adj. capitulary : relating to the chapter of a cathedral or to the chapters of books. Lettres capitulaires, Paleog., Illuminated capital letters at the beginning of chapters (in old manuscripts).

CAPITULAIRE, sm. capitulary : the laws and decrees of the Merovingian and Carlovingian monarchies (so called from being divided into chapters). Les capitulaires de Charlemagne, the capitularies of Charlemagne.

CAPITULAIREMENT, kapitulèr'mâ*n*, adv. capitulary. Décision prise —, decision taken in secret.

CAPITULANT, kapitulâ*n*-t, adj. m. 1. having a voice in chapter ; 2 Les cantons capitulants, (in Switzerland) the cantons that supplied troops to foreign states.

CAPITULANT, sm. capitular : member of a chapter.

CAPITULATION, kapitulâsyô*n*, sf. capitulation : a) Milit. act of surrendering to an enemy on stipulated terms ; b) treaty containing the conditions of surrender ; c) conciliation, yielding, giving way ; d) convention assuring to the subjects of one power certain privileges in the States of another ; e) Germ. Hist. contract made by the Emperor with the electors. Accorder une — honorable, to grant an honourable capitulation. N'attendez de moi aucune —, do not expect any yielding on my part. — de conscience, capitulation of conscience, compromise with conscience.

CAPITULE, kapitul', sm. 1. capitulum ; a) Bot. head of flowers ; b) Anat. protuberance of a bone ; 2. Rom. Lit. capitule : a short prayer.

CAPITULÉ, E, kapitulé, adj. Bot. capitular, capitulate, capitellate.

CAPITULER, kapitulé-r, [Low Lat. : capitulāre ; capitulum, a chapter], va. to capitulate : a) Milit. to surrender on conditions ; b) Fig. to yield, to come to terms. La ville capitula, the town capitulated. Vous ne me ferez pas —, you will not make me capitulate. — avec sa conscience, to capitulate, with one's conscience, to stifle one's scruples. Prov. : Ville qui capitule est à demi rendue, a town that capitulates is a town surrendered.

CAPLAN, kaplâ*n*, sm. V. Capelin.

CAPNOFUGE, kapnofuzh', [Gr. : καπνός, smoke ; Lat. : fugĕre, to flee from], adj. smoke-preventing.

CAPNOMANCIE, kapnomansi, [Gr. : καπνός, smoke ; μαντεία, divination], sf. capnomancy : divination by means of smoke.

CAPOLIN, kapola*n*, sm. Bot. capolin : sweet Indian cherry.

CAPON, kapô*n*, [Lat. : capon-em ; Gr. : κόπτειν, to cut ; for chapon, a castrated cock, capon], sm. 1. cajoler, hypocrite ; 2. cheat (at play) ; 3. dabster, adept (at cards, etc.) 4. sneak, coward ; 5. tell-tale (in schools). Tu as beau faire le —, tu perds ta peine, your cajolery is in vain, you lose your labour. Il est — à ce jeu-là, he is a dabster at that game.

CAPON, kapon, [provenç. : capon], sm. Naut. cat, cat-fall : tackle for catting the anchor.

CAPON, ONNE, adj. 1. cowardly, sneaking, mean ; 2. nominal : said of titles and offices without salary or functions. Quoi de plus — qu'une pareille conduite ? what can be more sneaking than such conduct ? Charge caponne, an official appointment without any salary or duties. Clefs caponnes sham keys : formerly, the insignia of nominal chamberlains at the Court of Spain.

CAPONNER, kaponé-r, vn. 1. to cheat, to play the cheat (at cards, etc.) ; 2. to play the sneak or tell-tale (at school) ; 3. to show the white feather, to show one's self a coward.

CAPONNER, va. 1. to coax, to cajole ; 2. Naut., to cat (the anchor).

CAPONNIÈRE, kaponyèr', sf. Fortif. caponiere : covered passage from the body of the place to an outwork.

CAPORAL, kaporal, [Lat. : caput, head], sm. 1. Milit. corporal ; 2. sort of common tabacco.

CAPOT, kapo, [cape, from Lat. caput, head], sm. 1. Naut. storm-coat, watch-coat ; 2. Naut. hood : a) a cover for a companion hatch, fire-engine, mortar, etc. ; b) small cape worn by knights of the Holy Ghost.

3. (cards) capot : the losing of every trick at piquet. Une série de capots, a series of capots.

4. Autom. bonnet, engine bonnet : cover for the machine.

5. Naut. Faire —, to capsize (while under sail).

CAPOT, adj. (invariable for gender and number.) 1. capot : said of a player (at piquet) who has lost every trick. Je suis capot, I am capot. Elle est capot, she is capot. Nous avons été capot, we have lost every trick. Faire quelqu'un —, to gain a great advantage over a person.

2. disconcerted, embarrassed, foolish. Être, demeurer, rester —. to be, to feel disconcerted (or embarrassed).

CAPOTAGE, kapotazh, sm. arranging of the hood or bonnet of an open carriage.

CAPOTE, kapot', [capot], sf. 1. capot : a long cloak with a hood worn by women ; 2. Milit. rough cloak (or great coat) worn by sentinels ; 3. long frock-coat (especially that worn by the French infantry in winter) ; 4. capote, drawn bonnet : female head-dress mounted on wire or whalebone and drawn in gathers ; 5. hood, head (of a cabriolet) ; 6. sheet-iron chimney pot.

CAPOTER, kapoté-r, vn. 1. Naut. to capsize ; 2. to put up the hood of a carriage.

CAPPARIDACÉES, kaparidasé, sf. pl. Bot. capparidaceæ : an order deriving its name from the caper-plant.

CÂPRE, kapr', [Lat. : capparis], sf. Bot. caper. Sauce aux câpres, caper sauce.

CAPRÉOLÉ, E, kapréolé, [Lat. : capreolus vine-tendril], adj. Bot. capreolate : having tendrils or claspers.

CAPRICANT, kaprikâ*n*, [Lat. : capra, she-goat], adj. m. Med. (of the pulse) capricant : uneven, leaping.

CAPRICE, kapris', [Ital. : capriccio, from Lat. capra, she-goat], sm. 1. caprice : a) fancy, humour ; b) freak, whim ; c) flight, sally (of the fancy) ; d) fit, sudden impulse. Suivez votre—, follow your caprice. Il a un — pour cette femme, he has a fancy, a caprice for that woman. Il faut que je m'en passe le —, I most indulge myself in that whim. Ce poète ne compose guère que de —, that poet seldom writes but from caprice. Les caprices de la fortune. the freaks of fortune. Les caprices de la mode, the changeableness of fashion. Le — de notre humeur est encore plus bizarre que celui de la fortune, the caprice of our humour is more whimsical still than that of fortune. La Rochef. Max. 45.

2. Mus. capriccio, voluntary. Ce pianiste a joué un fort beau —, this pianist has played a very fine capriccio.

3. Min. straggling vein (of coal).

CAPRICER (SE), kaprisé-r, v. refl. to indulge in a caprice.

CAPRICIEUSEMENT, kaprisiœz'mâ*n*, adv. capriciously, whimsically.

CAPRICIEUX, EUSE, kaprisiœ-z, œz', adj. 1. capricious : whimsical, freakish ; 2. subst. a capricious person.

CAPRICORNE, kaprikòrn', [Lat. : capricornus], sm. 1. Astron. Capricorn : a southern constellation, and the tenth sign of the Zodiac; 2. Nat. Hist. capricorn beetle. Le tropique du —, the tropic of Capricorn.

CÂPRIER, kâprié, [câpre], sm. Bot. caper-bush, caper-plant, capparis spinos.

CÂPRIÈRE, kâprièr', sf. 1. caper-bed ; 2. caper jar or pot.

CAPRIFICATION, kaprifikâsyô*n*, [Lat. : caprificus, wild fig-tree], sf. caprification : a process to hasten the ripening of figs.

CAPRIFIGUIER, kaprifighyé, sm. Bot. the wild-fig tree.

CAPRIFOLIACÉES, kaprifoliasé, sfp. Bot. caprifoliaceæ : plants of the honey-suckle family.

CAPRIMULGE, kaprimulzh', [Lat. : capra, she-goat ; mulgēre, to suck], sm. Nat. Hist. goatsucker.

CAPRIN, E, kapra*n*, in', [Lat. : capra, she-goat], adj. caprine. Bête caprine, a goat. La race caprine, the goat kind.

CAPRIPÈDE, kapripèd', [Lat. : capra, she-goat ; pes, pedis, foot], adj. capriped goat-footed.

CAPRIQUE, kaprik, adj. Chem. capric.

CAPRISANT, kaprizâ*n*, adj. m. Med. caprizant . uneven, leaping, said of the pulse.

CAPRON, CAPERON, kaprô*n*, [câpre] sm. Gard. hautboy : a large kind of strawberry.

CAPRONE, kaprọn', sf. forelock : tuft of hair over the forehead of certain animals.

CAPRONIER, kapronyé, sm. Gard. hautboy plant. V. Capron.

CAPSELLE, kapsèl', [Lat. : capsella, little box], sf. Bot. capsella, shepherd's purse.

CAPSULAGE, kapsulazh', sm. capsuling, capping : the application of capsules.

CAPSULAIRE, kapsulèr', [capsule], adj. capsular. Fruit —, Bot. capsular fruit [Anat. :] Ligaments capsulaires, capsular ligaments Cataracte —, capsular cataract.

CAPSULE, kapsul', [Lat. : capsula], sf. 1. capsule : a) Bot. pod, a seed-vessel which bursts at maturity ; b) Chem. small evaporating dish ; c) Anat. capsula, a membranous sac ; d) Pharm. a soluble envelope for certain nauseous medicines ; e) metallic cap for bottles, etc.

2. percussion-cap, copper-cap (priming for fire-arms).

CAPTAGE, kaptazh', sm. catchment, collecting (of mineral waters).

CAPTAL, kaptal, sm. captal : chief : formerly applied to certain governors of towns in the south of France.

CAPTATEUR, TRICE, kaptatœr, tris, smf. one who obtains some personal advantage by the use of flattery, deception or undue influence; inveigler; legacy-hunter.

CAPTATION, kaptâsyôn, [capter], sf. captation: in law, the obtaining of favour by enveigling flattery, deception, or undue influence. Testament obtenu par —, a will obtained by intrigue or undue influence.

CAPTATOIRE, kaptatwâr', adj. catching or taking in by intrigue. Manœuvres captatoires, intrigues, deceptions, undue influence to captivate favour. Testament —, legs —, a will, a legacy made with a view to captation.

CAPTER, kaptè-r, [Lat.: captāre, from capĕre, to take], va. 1. to captivate; 2. (in an ill sense) to obtain by underhand manœuvres. Ses manières captèrent l'attention, his manners captivated attention. — les suffrages, to bribe, to obtain by unfair means.

3. to collect (the waters of mineral springs).

CAPTEUR, kaptœr, adj. and sm. Naut. capturing. Un vaisseau —, or un capteur, a vessel that has taken a prize, a captor.

CAPTIEUSEMENT, kapsiœz'mân-t, adv. captiously.

CAPTIEUSETÉ, kapsiœz'té, sf. captiousness.

CAPTIEUX, EUSE, kapsiœ-z, œz', [Lat.: captiosus], adj. captious: misleading, deceptive, insidious. Des oracles ambigus et captieux, ambiguous and misleading oracles. Un discours —, a captious discourse. Un raisonneur —, a captious reasoner.

CAPTIF, IVE, kaptif, iv', [Lat.: captivus], adj. captive: a) taken in war and made a slave; b) enslaved; c) imprisoned, confined, under constraint. Ils emmenèrent les femmes captives, they led the women away captive. Racheter des Chrétiens captifs, to ransom captive Christians. La Grèce si longtemps captive, Greece so long enslaved. Un oiseau —, a captive or caged bird. Il ne faut point tenir les vérités captives, truths must not be held captive. Ballon —, a captive balloon.

CAPTIF, IVE, smf. captive, prisoner, slave.

CAPTION, kapsyôn, sf. captious argument.

CAPTIVANT, kaptivân, pa. p. and adj. captivating, charming. Ce roman est fort —, this novel is most captivating.

CAPTIVER, kaptivé-r, [Lat.: capĕre, captum, to take], va. 1. to captivate: a) to keep in confinement (obsolete in this sense); b) Fig. to take captive, to charm, to win over. Pour — un peuple inquiet et jaloux, to captivate (or win over) a restless and jealous people. Il captiva son auditoire, he captivated his audience. — l'attention, to captivate attention.

2. to bring under (or hold in) subjection, to subject, to master. L'amour captive l'homme, love subjects a man.

CAPTIVER (SE), v. refl. to bring one's self under subjection; to be attentive, submissive, obedient.

CAPTIVITÉ, kaptivité, sf. captivity: a) bondage, slavery; b) constraint, confinement. Racheter de —, to ransom from captivity. La — dans laquelle nous tiennent les passions, the bondage in which the passions hold us. Cette place me tient en —, this office (employment) confines me closely.

CAPTURE, kaptur', sf. capture. Les gendarmes ont fait deux captures ce matin, the gendarmes have made two captures this morning. La — d'un débiteur, the capture (arrest) of a debtor. La — d'un vaisseau marchand, the capture of a merchantman. Il conduisit ses captures à Brest, he took his captures (his prizes) into Brest. Une belle —, a fine capture; Ironic. a fine catch.

CAPTURER, kapturé-r, [Lat.: capĕre, captum, to take], vn. to capture, to succeed in taking. — un vaisseau, un débiteur, des marchandises, to capture a vessel, to capture (or arrest) a debtor, to capture contraband goods.

CAPUCE, kapus', [Ital.: cappuccio], sf. 1. cowl (of a Capuchin friar); 2. hood.

CAPUCHE, kapush', sf. capeline: a kind of hood worn by females.

CAPUCHON, kapushôn, sm. 1. hood; 2. cowl (of a monk); 3. Bot. hood (of certain flowers). Prendre le —, to take the hood, to become a monk.

CAPUCHONNÉ, E, kapushoné, adj. Bot. hooded: in the form of a hood, having a hood.

CAPUCIN, kapusan, sm. 1. Capucnin, Capuchin friar; 2. a canting hypocrite. Barbe de —, a long beard; Bot. wild chicory blanched for salad. Parler comme un —, to speak with a nasal twang. Tomber comme des capucins de cartes, to tumble over one another.

CAPUCINADE, kapusinad', sm. 1. a dull sermon; 2. affectation of piety.

CAPUCINE, kapusin', [capuce], sf. 1. Capuchin nun. A la —, cantingly, with affected piety.

2. Bot. nasturtium, Indian cress. Câpres capucines, pickled nasturtiums. Couleur —, nasturtium colour.

3. Milit. slide of a musket.

CAPUCINIÈRE, kapusinyèr', sf. 1. (in an offensive sense) Capuchin convent; 2. Fig. hotbed, nursery of bigotry, of fanaticism.

CAPULET, kapulè, sm. hood.

CAPUT-MORTUUM, kaput-mòrtuom, [Lat.: dead head], sm. Chem. caput-mortuum: worthless residuum after distillation. [Pl. Caput-mortuum.]

CAPVIRADE, kapvirad', [Lat.: caput, head · virer], sf. Agr. headland.

CAQUAGE, kakazh', [caquer], sm. 1. curing and barrelling (of herrings); 2. barrelling (of gunpowder or saltpetre).

CAQUE, kak', [caquer], sf. barrel, keg Prov.: La caque sent toujours le hareng, what is bred in the bone will never be got out of the flesh; cat after kind.

CAQUER, kaké-r, [Dutch: kaaken], va. 1. to cure and barrel (herrings, etc.); 2. to barrel (gunpowder or saltpetre).

CAQUEROLLE, kak'rol', [dimin. of caque], sf. a skillet with three legs

CAQUET, kaké-t, [caqueter], sm. 1. cackle, cackling: a) the cry of a hen, of a goose, etc. Fig. idle talk, babble, prate, prating, chatter, tattle, tattling · 2. pl. tittle-tattle, gossip, scandal. C'est un ignorant qui n'a que du —, he is an ignorant fellow, with nothing but cackle (babble or talk). Le grand — vient de la prétention à l'esprit, great loquacity proceeds from pretention to wit. Son — indiscret, her foolish babbling. Avoir du —, to be a great talker. Vous avez le — bien affilé, you have a good (well-hung) tongue of your own. Rabattre le — à quelqu'un, to stop a person's babble. — bon bec, the magpie (in La Fontaine's fables); Fig. a prating, gossipping woman. A tous les sots caquets n'ayons donc nul égard, let us take no notice of all silly tittle-tattlers, Mol. Tart. 1. 1.

CAQUETAGE, kak'tazh', sm. 1. cackling (of hens); 2. Fig. prattling, chattering, babbling; 3. tittle-tattle, gossip.

CAQUÈTE, kakèt', sf. carp-tub (of a fish-monger).

CAQUETER, kak'te-r, vn. [Je caquette or caquète; je caquetterai or caquèterai; je caquetterais or caquèterais.] to cackle: a) to make a noise as a hen or goose; b) Fig. to prate, prattle, chatter or babble); to tittle-tattle, to gossip.

CAQUETERIE, kakettri, sf. 1. cackling, prating, prattle, prattling; 2. tittle-tattle, gossip.

CAQUETEUR, EUSE, kak'tœr, œz', smf. cackler: tattler, prater.

CAQUETOIRE, kak'twâr', sf. 1. a low chair with a high back. V. Causeuse, the word now used.]; 2. cross-bar between the handles of a plough.

CAQUEUR, EUSE, cakœr, œz', smf. herring-curer.

CAQUEUX, EUSE, kakœ, œz', sm. gipsy, outcast: said of a degraded race in Brittany.

CAR, kar, [Lat.: quare, wherefore], conj. for: because, forasmuch as, inasmuch as. Vous ne le trouverez pas chez lui, — je viens de le voir dans la rue, you will not find him at home for I have just seen him in the street. Avec lui il y a toujours des si et des car, with him there are always ifs and buts; he is always full of objections.

CARABA, karaba, sm. cashew-nut oil.

CARABE, karab', [Gr.: κάραβος, crab], sm. Entom. carabus: a kind of beetle.

CARABÉ, karabé, [Port., from Ar. kahraba], sm. yellow amber.

CARABIN, karaban, [orig. unknown], sm. 1. skirmisher: a) light-horseman of the 16th century; b) at play, one who risks a stake or two and then quits the game. Tirer son coup en —, to fire one's shot and make off.

2. (disparagingly) saw-bones: a surgical student. — de St-Côme, barber-surgeon: St-Côme was formerly the Paris school of surgery. On vend le corps aux carabins, they sell the body to the surgeons.

† CARABINADE, karabinad, sf. 1. discharge of carbines; 2. student's trick.

CARABINAGE, karabinazh', sm. rifling (of a gun-barrel).

CARABINE, karabin', carabin], sf. 1. carbine or carabine: a short rifled musket for cavalry; 2. rifle: any gun with a rifled barrel.

CARABINÉ, E, karabiné, adj. 1. rifled (as a gun-barrel); 2. Naut. Brise carabinée, a stiff gale.

CARABINER, karabiné-r, va. to skirmish: a) Milit. to fight in small parties or detachments; b) at play, to risk a stake and quit the game.

CARABINER, va. to rifle (a gun-barrel).

CARABINEUR, karabinœr, sm. 1. rifler (of gun-barrels); 2. skirmisher (at play).

CARABINIER, karabinyé, sm. 1. carbineer; 2. rifleman.

CARACAL, karakal, [Span.], sm. Nat. Hist. caracal: a kind of lynx.

CARACARA, karakara, sm. Ornith. caracara: a Brazilian eagle.

CARACO, karako, sm. caraco: a short jacket formerly worn by women.

CARACOL, karacol, sm. Arch. Caracole.

CARACOLE, karakol', [Span.: caracol, snail], sf 1. Arch caracol: a spiral (winding) staircase; 2 caracole: a) Man. semicircular motion made by a horse; b) Milit. half-wheel of a squadron of cavalry.

CARACOLER, karakolé-r, vn. 1. Man. to caracole (as a horse); 2. to dodge about, to go first one way then another.

CARACOULER, karakoulé-r, vn. to coo (as pigeons).

CARACTÈRE, karaktèr, [Gr.: χαρακτήρ, mark], sm. 1. character: a) mark, sign, figure engraved or traced in any way; letter used in writing or printing. (V. No 2 below), handwriting, hand ; b) quality, title, capacity ; c) characteristic, peculiar quality, distinctive quality of mind, temper, disposition, or manners ; d) description or representation of the distinctive qualities of a person or thing ; e) the peculiar qualities impressed on a person by nature or habit ; the moral faculties, decision, firmness, energy of will ; f) expression, originality, individuality. a) Gravé en gros caractères, engraved in large characters. Les lettres de l'alphabet, les signes de ponctuation, les chiffres, sont des caractères, the letters of the alphabet, the stops, and figures are characters. Caractères symboliques, hiéroglyphiques, symbolical, hieroglyphic characters. Écrit en petits caractères, written in small characters. En algèbre, en astronomie, en chimie, on emploie un grand nombre de caractères de convention, a great many conventional characters are used in algebra, astronomy, and chemistry. J'ai reconnu votre —, I recognized your hand-writing.

b) Il dépouille le — d'ami quand il prend celui de juge, he lays aside the character of friend when he assumes that of judge. Les députés viennent ici avec un — public, the deputies come here in a public character. Il est sans — officiel, he is without any official character [quality or capacity).

c) Le — distinctif de la vérité, the distinctive character (characteristic or stamp) of truth. C'est un des caractères du génie, that is one of the characteristics of genius. L'imprévoyance est le — de la jeunesse, improvidence (want of foresight) is the characteristic of youth. Conserver le — des différents genres de littérature, to preserve the distinctive character of the different kinds of literature. La différence des caractères, the difference of characters (tempers, dispositions). D'un — irascible, of an irascible character (or temperament). Dompter les caractères intraitables, to subdue intractable characters (or tempers). C'est un bon — d'homme, he is a good sort of man, a well-disposed man. Les mauvais caractères sont toujours malheureux, ill-tempered people are always unhappy.

d) Les Caractères de Théophraste, de La Bruyère, the Characters of Theophrastes, of La Bruyère.

e) C'est le — qui domine en lui, in him the moral qualities predominate. Grand de génie et grand de —, great in genius and great in moral qualities. — décidé, decision of character, strength of mind. Comme il convenait à des hommes de —, as became men of strong mind. Dans cet entretien il fit preuve de —, in that conversation he gave proofs of character. La plupart des femmes manquent entièrement de —, most women have no character at all. Traduit de Pope. N'avoir pas de —, to be a common-place sort of person. C'est un homme à —, he is a man with a mind, a will of his own. C'est un —, he is a character(said of a man distinguished by some prominent moral quality).

f) Il a une physionomie sans — he has no expression in his face. La tête de ce portrait a un grand —, the head of that portrait is full of character, is very expressive. Cette comédie, cette musique, n'a point de —, that comedy, that music has no character, no originality.

2. Print. type, letter. Fondeur en caractères, type-founder. Ces caractères sont usés, this type (or letter) is worn out. Cet ouvrage est imprimé en beaux caractères, this work is printed in beautiful type.

3. talisman, amulet, charm, spell (consisting of written characters). On dit qu'il a un — à se faire aimer de toutes les femmes, they say he has a talisman (amulet, charm, or spell), to make all women love him.

CARACTÉRISANT, E, karaktérizân, ânt', adj. characterizing, characteristic.

CARACTÉRISER, karactérisé-r, va. 1. to characterize : to give a distinctive character to ; to individualize. Ce fait caractérise parfaitement notre homme, this fact perfectly characterizes our man. Ce qui caractérise cette maladie, what characterizes this disease. Les passions si bien caractérisées par Molière, the passions so well characterized by Molière. Le peintre n'a pas suffisamment caractérisé ses figures, the painter has not sufficiently individualized his figures.

CARACTÉRISTIQUE, karaktéristik', adj. characteristic.

CARACTÉRISTIQUE, sf. characteristic : a) distinctive character or sign ; b) Math. index of a logarithm. Une des caractéristiques des siècles de corruption, one of the characteristics of the corrupt ages. En francais, l's est la — du pluriel dans les noms, in French, the letter s is the characteristic of the plural in nouns.

CARACUL, karakul, [Russ.], sm. caracul : in reality the finest sort of Astrakhan fur, but generally the commoner sort sold under this name in Westhern Europe.

CARAFE, karaf', [Ital. : caraffa, from Ar. gharafa, to draw water], sf. decanter : glass bottle for wine, water, etc. at table. J'ai bu une — d'eau, I have drunk a decanter of water.

CARAFON, karafôn, sm. 1. small decanter (usually containing a quarter of a bottle of wine) ; 2. wine-cooler.

CARAGNE, karany', [Span. : caraña], sf. carana : a resinous gum. Gomme —, carana-resin.

CARAÏBE, karaïb, smf. Geog. Carribbee : a native of the Carribee Islands. [Adj. :] Langue —, the Carribean language.

CARAMBOLAGE, karânbolazh', [carambole], sm. Bill. carambole or cannon : the making one's own ball strike both the others. Un — difficile, a difficult cannon. Jouer le —, to play the carambole game.

CARAMBOLE, karânbol', [Span. : carambola], sf. Bill. the red ball.

CARAMBOLER, karânbolé-r, vn. Bill. to carambole or cannon, to make a cannon.

CARAMBOLEUR, karânbolœr, sm. a good cannon-player.

CARAMEL, karamèl, [Span. : caramelo from Ar.]. sm. caramel : burnt sugar.

CARAMÉLISER. karamélizé-r, va. 1. to convert (sugar) into caramel ; 2. to sweeten (or colour) with caramel, to mix with caramel.

CARAPACE, karapas' [Span. : [carapacho]. sf. 1. carapace : the dorsal shell of tortoises and turtles 2. Fig. armour.

CARAQUE, karak', [Ital. : caracal] sf. Naut. carrack : galleon, a large ship of burden formerly used.

CARAT, kara, [Gr. : κεράτιον, a seed used as a little weight], sm. 1. carat : a) each of the 24 parts into which a mass of metal is supposed to be divided in order to express the quantity of pure gold contained therein ; b) a weight of four grains used for pearls and small diamonds De l'or à 24 carats est de l'or pur, gold of 24 carats (or 24 carat gold) is pure gold. De l'or à 20 carats (or au vingtième carat), 20 carat gold (containing one sixth of alloy). Sot à 24 carats, an absolute fool. Ignorant à 23 carats, extremely ignorant.

2. small diamond (not exceeding a carat in weight). Une parure de carats, a set of small diamonds. Ce n'est que du —, it is showy but not worth much.

CARATURE, karature, [carat], sf. allo of gold and silver or of gold, silver and copper CARAVANE, karavan', Pers. : kārwān], sf. 1. caravan : a) a company or troop of travellers in the East ; b) formerly, cruise of the knights of Malta against the Turks ; 2. body, band, company, troop (of persons on an excursion in the country). Nous partîmes en —, we set off in a body. Faire ses caravanes, to lead a dissipated life, to travel a great deal.

CARAVANEUR, karavanœr, sm. Naut. Levant merchantman.

CARAVANIER, karavanyé, sm. conductor of a caravan.

CARAVANSÉRAI, karavânséré, CARAVANSÉRAIL, karavânséray, [Pers. : kār wān ; serāi, inn], sm. caravansary : in the East, an inn for travellers.

CARAVELLE, karavèl , [Ital. : caravella], sf. Naut. carvel, caravel : in Turkey, a large war-vessel ; in Portugal, a small lateen-rigged vessel.

CARBATINE, karbatin', [Gr. : καρβατίνα], sf. 1. shoe made of raw hide ; 2. green hide, green skin.

CARBAZOTIQUE, karbazotik', adj. Chem. carbazotic, picric.

CARBET, karbè, sm. 1. large cabin (for slaves) ; 2. Naut. shed (to shelter boats).

CARBONARISME, karbonarizm', [carbonaro], sm. carbonarism.

CARBONARO, karbonaro, [Ital. : charcoal-burner], sm. carbonaro : a member of a secret revolutionary society in Italy. [Pl. Carbonari.]

CARBONATE, karbonat', sm. Chem. carbonate.

CARBONATÉ, E, karbonaté, pa. p. adj. carbonated.

CARBONATER, karbonaté-r, va. Chem. to carbonate : to saturate with carbonic acid.

CARBONATER (SE), v. refl. to become carbonated.

CARBONE, karbon', [Lat. : carbo, carbonis, coal], sm. Chem carbon.

CARBONÉ, E, karboné, adj. Chem. carburetted. Gaz hydrogène —, carburetted hydrogen gas. V. Carburé.

CARBONEUX, karbonœ, adj. Chem. carbonaceous. Acide —, oxalic acid.

CARBONIFÈRE, karbonifèr, [Lat. : carbo, onis, charcoal ; ferre, to bear], adj. Geol. carboniferous : containing coal. Terrains carbonifères, coal measures.

CARBONIQUE, karbonik', adj. Chem. carbonic. Acide —, carbonic acid.

CARBONISATION, karbonizâsyôn, sf. Chem. carbonization : charring.

CARBONISER, karbonizé-r, va. to carbonize : to char. Se —, to become carbonized.

CARBONITE, karbonit', sm. Chem. carbonite : an explosive having a base of carbon.

CARBONNADE, karbonad', sf Cook. † carbonado : broiled meat.

CARBONOMÉTRIE, karbonométri, [Lat. : carbo ; Gr. : μέτρον, measure], sf. carbonometry : determination of the amount of carbonic given off by a living animal.

CARBOSULFURE, karbosulfur', sm. Chem. carbosulphuret.

CARBOUCHE, karboush, CARBOUILLE, karbouy', sf. Agr. burnt-ear : a disease of wheat.

CARBURATEUR, karburatœr, sm. carburetor : an apparatus for charging gases with carbon ; Autom. carburettor, vaporiser. — alimenté sous pression, pressure-fed carburettor.

CARBURATION, karburâsȯn, [carbure], sf. Metall. carburation : combining with carbon.

CARBURE, karbur', [Lat. : carbo, charcoal], sm. Chem. carburet. Le gaz d'éclairage est un — d'hydrogène, common coal gas is a carburet of hydrogen.

CARBURÉ, E, karburé, adj. Chem. carburetted. Hydrogène —, carburetted hydrogen.

CARBUROMÈTRE, karburometr', [carbone ; Gr. : μέτρον, measure], carburometer : an instrument used in estimating the quantities of carbon and hydrogen contained in food.

CARCAJOU, karkazhou, sm. Nat. Hist. carcajou : an American badger : meles Labradorica.

CARCAN, karkân, [Low Lat. : carcannum, from Scand.], sm. 1. carcan : an iron collar for attaching a criminal to a post, as in a pillory ; 2. carcanet : Jewel. collar (or neck chain) of precious stones ; 3. yoke (to prevent pigs from passing through hedges).

CARCASSE, karkas', [orig. uncertain ; Ital. : carcassa, a bomb or shell], sf. 1. carcass : a) body of a dead animal ; and, contemptuously, the body of a man, alive or dead ; b) Arch. frame-work, shell, skeleton : walls and roof of a building unfinished or partially destroyed ; c) Naut. ribs and timbers of a ship ; d) Technol. frame, frame-work ; e) Milit. Pyrotech. a hollow shot filled with combustibles ; 2. skeleton : a very lean man ; 3. shape, : wire frame or mounting of a cap, bonnet, etc. Tout le champ de bataille était encore couvert de carcasses de chevaux, the whole field of battle was still covered with the carcasses of horses. Prends garde que je ne te tombe sur la —, take care that I don't fall on your carcass, don't give you a drubbing. C'est une —, il n'a que la —, he is a mere skeleton, he is nothing but skin and bone.

CARCASSIÈRE, karkasyèr', sf. Naut. gun-boat.

CARCEL, karsèl, [from Carcel, the inventor], sm. Carcel : a kind of oil-lamp.

CARCHARIAS, karkarias, [Gr.], sm. Ichth. carcharias : shark.

CARCINOLOGIE, karsinolozhi, [Gr. : καρκίνος, crab ; λόγος, discourse], sf. carcinology : natural history of the crustaceæ.

CARCINOMATEUX, EUSE, karsinomatœ, œz', adj. Med. carcinomatous, cancerous.

CARCINOME, karsinom', [Gr. : καρκίνος, crab], sm. Med. carcinoma : cancer.

CARCINOSE, karsinoz, [Gr. : καρκίνος, crab], sf. Med. carcinosis.

CARDAGE, kardazh', [carder], sm. carding (of wool, etc.).

CARDAMINE, kardamin', [Gr. : καρδαμίνη, cress], sf. Bot cardamine, bitter cress — des prés, lady's smock, cuckoo-flower : the common bitter cress.

CARDAMOME, kardamom', [Lat : cardamomum, from Gr.], sm. Bot. cardamom : the capsules of certain tropical plants, which produce an agreeable aromatic spice.

CARDASSE, kardas', sf. 1. Bot. nopal ; 2. card or comb (for floss silk).

CARDE, kard', [Lat. : carduus, thistle], sf. 1. Bot. chard : the edible part of cardoons, white beet, etc. : 2. card : fuller's teasel, clothier's teasel (for raising a nap on woollen cloth) ; 3. carding-machine, gig-mill (for raising nap on cloth) ; 4. hand-card (for carding mattresses, etc.).

CARDÉE, kardé, sf. cardeful (of wool).

CARDER, kardé-r, [carde], va. 1. to card (wool) ; 2. to teasel (cloth). Le crin se carde difficilement, horse hair is not easily carded.

CARDÈRE, kardèr', sf. Bot. fuller's (or clothier's) teasel : dipsacus fullonum.

CARDERIE, kard'ri, sf. carding-house (for wool).

CARDEUR, EUSE, kardœr, œz', smf. carder (of wool, etc.).

CARDIA, kardia, [Gr. : καρδία, heart]. sm. Anat. cardia : the upper orifice of the stomach.

CARDIAIRE, kardièr', adj. cardiax Ver —, cardiarus : a worm said to have been found in the heart.

CARDIALGIE, kardialzhi, [Gr. : καρδία, heart ; ἄλγος, pain], sf. Med. cardialgia, heartburn.

CARDIALGIQUE, kardialzhik', adj. cardialgic.

CARDIAQUE, kardiak', [Gr. : καρδία, heart], adj. Anat. and Med. cardiac, cardiacal. Vaisseaux, nerfs cardiaques cardiac vessels, nerves. Médicaments cardiaques, cardiac medicines.

CARDIAQUE, sm. Med. cardiac : medicine for heart diseases. Un bon —, a good cardiac.

CARDIER, kardyé, sm. card-maker : one who makes or sells cards for carding.

CARDINAL, kardinal, [Lat. : cardinalis ; cardo, inis, hinge], adj. cardinal : a) principal, chief ; b) Gram. primary, not secondary or derived. Les points cardinaux, the cardinal points : east, west, north, and south. Les quatre vertus cardinales, the four cardinal virtues. Nombre —, cardinal number (one, two, three, etc. ; as opposed to ordinal, first second, third). Autel —, principal altar, high altar.

CARDINAL, sm. 1. cardinal : one of the seventy prelates of the Sacred College at Rome ; 2. Ornith. cardinal bird (or finch), the Virginian nightingale.

CARDINALAT, kardinala, sm. cardinalate cardinalship.

CARDINALE, kardinal', sf. Bot. cardinal flower, lobelia splendens or cardinalis.

CARDINALISER, kardinalizé-r, va. 1. to raise to the dignity of cardinal ; 2. Paint. to paint red.

CARDINE, kardin', sf. Ichth. whiff, rhombus megastoma.

CARDINEAU, kardinô, sm. Ichth. plaice.

CARDIOGRAPHE kardiograf [Gr. : καρδία, heart ; γράφειν, to write], sm. cardiograph : 1. a writer on heart diseases 1. an apparatus for registering the movements of the heart.

CARDITE, kardit', [Gr. : καρδία, heart], sf. Med. carditis : inflammation of the heart.

CARDITIQUE, karditik', adj. Med. carditic. Fièvre —, carditic fever.

CARDON, kardôn [Lat. : carduus, thistle], sm. 1. Bot. cardoon, 2. Nat. Hist. prawn.

CARDONNETTE, kardonèt', sf. V. Chardonnette.

CARÊME, karêm', [Lat. : quadragesima ; Low Lat. : quaresima, forty], sm. 1. Lent : the interval between Shrove Tuesday and Easter ; 2. fast, fasting (in general) ; 3. Lent sermons. Faire —, faire observer le —, to keep Lent. Rompre le —, to cease keeping Lent. Provisions de —, Lenten food. La mi-carême, mid-Lent : the fourth Thursday in Lent. Le — est bas, Lent begins early, falls early. Le — est haut, Lent begins (or falls) late. Mettre le — bien haut, to be very exacting in one's requirements ; to fix a very distant date for conferring a favour, etc. Visage de —, thin pale face. Ils font de la vie un —, they make life one long fast. Amoureux de —, a timid (or bashful) lover. Arriver comme Mars en —, to be sure to happen. Arriver comme marée en —, to arrive opportunely, in the nick of time, to be as welcome as fish in Lent. Ce prédicateur a fait imprimer deux carêmes, that preacher has published two series of Lent sermons.

CARÊME-PRENANT, karêm-prœnân, sm. 1. Shrovetide : the three days preceding Ash Wednesday ; 2. Shrovetide (or carnival) : mummeries or revels ; 3. Shrovetide mummer : person masked or disguised ; 4. Fig. an ill-dressed person, a regular guy. [Pl. Carêmes-prenants.]

CARÉNAGE, karénazh', [carène], sm. 1. Naut. careening ; 2. careening-dock.

CARENCE, karâns', [Lat. : carêre, to fail], sf. Law-t, total absence of assets.

CARÈNE, karen', [Lat. : carina], sf. 1. Naut. keel ; 2. bottom (of a ship from the water line to the keel) ; 3. careening, heaving down (for breaming or repairing) ; 4. Bot. carina : the keel-shaped part of a papilionaceous flower.

CARÉNÉ, E, karéné, pa. p., adj. 1. Naut. careened, hove down ; 2. Bot. carinate, carinated : keel-shaped.

CARÉNER, karéne-r, [carène], va. Naut. to careen, to heave down.

CARESSANT, E, karesân-t, ânt', adj. 1. caressing : fondling, fond ; 2. fawning (of animals, and also of persons, but always in a bad sense.) Un enfant —, a caressing child. Un chien —, a caressing or fawning dog. Un ton —, a caressing (or fondling) tone. De caressantes paroles, caressing words. Un regard —, a caressing (or fond) look.

CARESSE, karès, [Ital. : carezza ; Lat. : carus, dear], sf. 1. caress : act of endearment or affection ; 2. fawning. De perfides caresses, treacherous caresses. Ses caresses n'ont point effacé cette injure, his caresses have not effaced that insult. Les caresses de la fortune, the caresses (smiles or favours) of fortune. Faire des caresses à, to caress ; to show favour to. Manger quelqu'un de caresses, to kill any one with kindness.

CARESSER, karèsé-r, va. to caress : a) to treat with affection, to embrace tenderly, to fondle ; b) to stroke, to pat (a dog) ; c) in a bad sense, to fawn upon, to flatter ; d) with artists and authors, to make (a work) a labour of love, to execute con amore ; e) to cherish, to pamper. — un enfant, to caress a child. — un chien, to stroke (or pat) a dog. Le zéphyr caresse les fleurs, the zephir caresses the flowers. — un amour, un espoir, to cherish a love, a hope. Par des soumissions — son orgueil, to pamper one's pride by submission.

CARET, karè, Nat. Hist. hawk-bill, turtle, caretta imbricata.

CARET, karè, [O. Fr. : charet], sm. reel (used by rope-makers). Fil de —, rope-yarn.

CAREX, karéks, [Lat. : reed-grass], sm. Bot. carex : sedge, seg.

CARGAISON, karghézôn, [carguer], sf. 1. Naut. cargo : freight, load (of a ship) ; 2. shipping, lading. C'est le temps de la — des vins, des huiles, etc., it is the time for shipping wines, oils, etc.

CARGUE, karg', [carguer], sf. Naut. brail (of a sail).

CARGUER, kargé-r, [Provenç. : cargar, for charger], va. Naut. to brail, to clew up (a sail).

CARI, kari, [Tamil : kari, sauce], sm. Cook curry : a) an Indian condiment ; b) any dish prepared with it. Manger un —, to eat a curry.

CARIATIDE, kariatid', CARYATIDE, [Lat. : caryaris, from Gr. : Καρυάτις, woman of Caryæ, in L·coni], sf. Arch. caryatis, caryatid; pl. caryatides.

CARIBOU, karibou, sm. Zool. cariboo: the Canadian name of the reindeer.

CARICATURE, karikatur', [Ital.: caricatura; carricare, to load], sf. caricature: Paint.; a) an overcharged painting, a distorted representation or description of a person; b) a grotesquely dressed person.

CARICATURER, karikaturé-r, va. to caricature.

CARICATURISTE, karikaturist', sm. caricaturist.

CARIE, kari, [Lat.: caries, rotting], sf. 1. Med. caries: cariosity, decay of bones; 2. Bot. rot, decay (of trees); 3. Agr. smut, pepper-brand, stinking rust: a disease of wheat.

CARIÉ, E, karié, adj. 1. attacked by caries; carious, decayed, rotten; 2. Agr. smutty (as wheat). Dent cariée, a decayed (or rotten) tooth. Cœur —, Fig. a corrupt heart.

CARIER, karié-r, va. 1. Med. to attack with caries, to make (or render) carious; 2. to rot: to cause to rot or decay; 2. Agr. to affect with smut, to make smutty. Une affection scrofuleuse lui a carié plusieurs os, a scrofulous affection has caused caries in several of his bones. Une dent cariée suffit pour en — plusieurs autres, one decayed tooth is enough to spoil several others.

CARIER (SE), v. refl. 1. to become carious, to decay, to rot; 2. Agr. to become smutty.

CARIEUX, EUSE, kariœ, œz', adj. 1. Med. carious: rotten, decayed; 2. Agr. smutty

CARILLON, karivôn, [Low Lat.: quadrilio, quaternary], sm. 1. chimes: a) set of bells tuned to the musical scale; b) tune played on such bells; 2. chime, peal (of church bells). Les carillons sont fort communs en Flandre, chimes are very common in Flanders. Les carillons de la Samaritaine, the chimes of the Samaritan (formerly standing on the Pont-Neuf in Paris). Horloge, montre, boîte à —, musical clock, watch, box (in which steel springs produce the sounds). Sonner le —, to chime, to ring the bells. Sonner à double —, to ring a loud peal. A double, à triple —, Fig. loudly, violently. Il fut sifflé à double —, he was loudly hissed. — électrique, electric chimes.

3. noise, uproar, racket, pother. Ces enfants font un — insupportable, those children make an intolerable noise (uproar, racket). Sa femme lui fera un beau —, his wife will give him a fine scolding. Faire du —, to kick up a row. Le — des verres, the jingling of glasses.

CARILLONNEMENT, kariyon'mân, sm. chiming.

CARILLONNER, kariyoné-r, va. to chime, to play a chime; to ring a peal. J'ai eu beau — à sa porte, on ne m'a pas ouvert, in vain did I ring a loud peal at his door, no one came to open it.

CARILLONNEUR, kariyonœr, sm. chimer, bell-ringer ringer.

CARINAL, E, karinal, al', [carène], adj. carinate keel-shaped.

CARINÉ, E, kariné- adj. Bot. carinate, carinated.

CARISTADE, karistad', [Gr.: χάρις, grace], sf. charity: alms. Demander, donner la —, to ask, to bestow charity.

CARIVE kariv', sm. Bot. Guinea pepper.

CARLETTE, karlet, [provin.], sf. a sort of slate a square form of slate.

CARLIN, karlan, [Carlin, an Italian name], sm. 1. pug-dog: a kind of diminutive bulldog; 2. carlin, carline: an Italian coin worth about four pence.

CARLINE, karlin', [Ital.: carlina], sf. Bot. carline thistle.

CARLINGUE, karlang', sf. Naut. 1. kelson or keelson; 2. step (of a mast).

CARLISME, karlism', sm. Carlism: the political opinions held by the partisans of Charles X of France or Don Carlos of Spain.

CARLISTE, karlist', sm. Carlist: partisan of Charles X or of Don Carlos.

CARLOCH, karlok, sm. carlock: isinglass obtained from the sturgeon.

CARLOVINGIEN, ENNE, karlovanzhyan, zhyèn', adj. and s. Carlovingian: of Charlemagne. V. Carolingien.

CARMAGNOLE, karmanyol, [probab. from Carmagnola in Piedmont], sf. 1. carmagnole: a) a kind of jacket in vogue during the revolution of 1793; b) a revolutionary song and dance of the same period.

CARMAGNOLE, sm. carmagnole: a) a soldier of the first French republic; b) a violent Jacobin.

CARME, karm', [from Mount Carmel], sm. Carmelite: monk of Mount Carmel. Carme déchaussé, barefooted Carmelite.

CARME, sm. double four (on the dice, at trick-track). Un — me ferait gagner, double four would win me the game.

CARMELINE, karmœlin', [Span.: Carmelina], sf. the wool of the vicugna.

CARMÉLITE, karmélit', sf. Carmelitess: Carmelite nun.

CARMÉLITE, adj. Carmelite.

CARMIN, karman, [Low Lat.: carminium], sm. carmine: the colouring principle obtained from the cochineal insect. Des lèvres de —, Fig. cherry lips. [invariable as an adjective:] Le colibri à gorge carmin, the red-breasted colibri. Des robes carmin, carmine coloured robes.

CARMINATIF, IVE, karminatif, tiv', adj. Med. carminative.

CARMINATIF, sm. carminative.

CARMINE, karmin', [carmin], sf. Chem. cochenillin: carminic acid, the colouring matter of cochineal.

CARMINÉ, E, karminé, adj. carmine-coloured carmine.

CARNAGE, karnazh'. [Ital.: carnaggio: Lat.: caro, carnis, flesh], sm. carnage: a) slaughter, massacre, butchery; b) the flesh of animals killed. Sylla fit des carnages effroyables, Sylla made dreadful massacres. Quel — de toutes parts, what carnage on all sides! On a fait un grand — de gibier, they have made a great slaughter of game. Les lions, les tigres, etc., vivent de carnage, lions tigers, etc. live on carnage.

CARNASSIER, karnèr', adj. living on flesh. Mouche —, flesh-fly.

CARNASSIER, ÈRE, karnasyé, yêr', adj. 1. flesh-eating, voracious: ravenous after flesh (in speaking of animals); 2. over-fond of meat of animal food (in speaking of persons). Comme une bête carnassière, like a ravenous beast.

CARNASSIERS, sm. pl. Nat. Hist. the carnaria: carnivora.

CARNASSIÈRE, karnasyêr', sf. game-bag.

CARNATION, karnâsyon; in poet., siôn [Lat.: carnatio, fleshiness], sf. carnation: flesh-colour, flesh tint. Les carnations de ces tableaux sont fort belles, the carnations of this painting are very fine.

CARNAVAL, karnaval, [Lat.: carnevale; Lat.: carmen levāre, to put away meat], sm. carnival: shrovetide. Les carnavals des deux dernières années, the carnivals of the last two years.

CARNE, karn', [Lat.: cardo, inis, hinge] sf. corner (of a table, stone, etc.).

CARNE, karn', [Ital.], sf. Pop. bad meat.

CARNÉ, E, karné, adj. flesh-coloured, carnationed.

CARNET karné, [from Lat.: quaternio], sm. memorandum- or note-book. Carnet des échéances, bills-due book. — de banque, bank pass-book.

CARNIER, karnyé, sm. game-bag. V. Carnassière.

CARNIFICATION, karnifikâsyôn, sf. Med. carnification: the acquiring of a fleshy or muscular consistence.

CARNIFIÉ, E, karnifié, adj. carnified: changed into flesh. Un poumon —, a carnified lung.

CARNIFIER (SE) karnifié-r, v. refl. Med. to carnify: to acquire the appearance of flesh.

CARNIVORE, karnivor', [Lat.: caro, carnis, flesh, vorāre, to devour], adj. carnivorous.

CARNIVORES, sm. pl. Nat. Hist. the carnivora: flesh-eating animals.

CARNIVORITÉ, karnivorité, sf. carnivoracity, carnivorous propensity.

CARNOSITÉ, karnozité, sf. Surg. carnosity: a fleshy excrescence.

CAROGNE, karony', [provin. corr. of charogne], sf. Pop. hag, vixen.

CAROLIN, E, karolan, in', [Lat.: Carolus, Charles], adj. of or relating to Charlemagne or to Charles VI of Germany.

CAROLINE, sf. 1. Caroline, Carolina: woman's name; 2. Geog. Carolina. Caroline du Nord ou du Sud, North or South Carolina.

CAROLINGIEN, ENNE, karolânzhiân, èn [Lat.: Carolus, Charles], adj. Carolingian: of Charlemagne.

CAROLUS, karolus, [Lat.], sm. carolus: a gold coin issued by Charles VIII of France.

CARON, karôn, sm. Myth. Charon: the Stygian ferryman. La barque à —, Charon's boat.

CARONADE, karonad', [Eng. from Carron in Scotland where first made], sf. Artill. carronade: a short cannon of large bore.

CARONCULE, karônkul', [Lat.: caruncula; dimin. of caro, flesh], sf. caruncle: a) Med. a small fleshy excrescence; b) Bot. a small protuberance on certain seeds.

CAROSSE, karos', sm. rope-maker's sledge.

CAROTIDE, karotid', [Gr.: καρωτίς, ίδος,], adj. and sf. Anat. carotid. Artère —, or la carotide, the carotid artery, the carotid.

CAROTIDIEN, ENNE, karotidyan, dyèn', adj. carotid. Canal —, the carotid canal (by which the internal carotid passes through the temporal bone).

CAROTIQUE, karotik', adj. Med. carotic: relating to carus, the last stage of coma.

CAROTTAGE, karotazh, sm. Pop. Slang. swindling trick.

CAROTTE, karot', [Gr.: καρωτὸν], sf. 1. Bot. carrot: the plant and root; 2. roll (of leaf tobacco); 3. Fig. paltry stake (at play); 4. Fig. knavish trick, swindling trick. Ne vivre que de carottes, to live on next to nothing, to live badly. Jouer la —, to play paltry stakes. J'ai compris la —, I saw through the trick. Fam. Tirer une carotte à quelqu'un, to swindle (or cheat) a person out of something.

CAROTTER, karoté-r, vn. 1. to play paltry stakes; 2. va. to swindle (or dupe).

CAROTTEUR, EUSE, karotœr, œz'.

CAROTTIER, ÈRE, karotyé, èr', smf. 1. paltry player (at cards, etc.) ; 2. swindler, cheat.

CAROTTINE, karotin', sf. Chem. the colouring principle in carots.

CAROUB, karoub, sm. — de Judée, gall of the turpentine-tree.

CAROUBE, karoub', CAROUGE, karouzh', sf. [Late Lat. : carrubia, from Ar. kharrūbah], sf. Bot. carobbean, locust-bean, St. John's bread.

CAROUBIER, karoubyé', sm. Bot. carob, carob-tree, algaroba : locust-tree of the Levant.

CARPE, karp', [Lat. : carpa], sf. Ichth. carp. Faire la — pâmée, to sham fainting, to fall into a sham swoon. Muet comme une —, as mute as a maggot. Saut de —, a somersault.

CARPE, karp, [Gr. : καρπός, wrist], sm. Anat. carpus : the wrist. Les huit os du —, the eight bones of the wrist.

CARPEAU, karpô, sm. Ichth. young carp.

CARPELLAIRE, karpèlèr', adj. Bot. carpellary.

CARPELLE, karpèl', [Gr. : καρπός, fruit], sf. Bot. carpel.

CARPETTE, karpèt' (Eng. : carpet ; O. Fr. : carpit), sf. 1. a small carpet (for the middle of a room) ; 2. a young carp.

CARPHOLOGIE, karfolozhi, [Gr. κάρφος, flock ; λέγειν, to gather], sf. Med. carphology : morbid agitation of the hands.

CARPIE, karpi, sf. Cook. hashed carp.

CARPIEN, ENNE, karpyà*n*, pyèn', adj. Anat. carpal.

CARPIER, karpyé', sm., CARPIÈRE, karpyèr, sf. carp stew : store-pond for carps.

CARPILLON, karpiyô*n*, sm. a very small carp.

CARPOBALSAME, karpobalsam, [Gr. : καρπός, fruit, βάλσαμον, balsam], sm. Bot. carpobalsamum : the fruit of the Mecca balm-tree.

CARPOCRATIEN, ENNE, karpokrasyà*n*, syèn', smf. and adj. Carpocratian. : a follower of Carpocrates, an Alexandrian Gnostic of the 2*nd* century.

CARPOLITHE, karpolit', [Gr. : καρπός, fruit ; λίθος, stone], sm. 1. Paleontol. carpolite : fossil fruit ; 2. stone : hard part of certain pears.

CARPOLOGIE, karpolozhi, [Gr. : καρπός, fruit ; λόγος, discourse], sf. carpology : branch of plant anatomy which relates to the structure of fruits and seeds.

CARQUOIS, karkwâ-z, [altered from Low Gr. : ταρκάσιον, from Pers.] sm. quiver. Le — se portait sur le dos, the quiver was carried at the back. Vider son —, Fig. to empty one's quiver ; to shoot all one's bolts ; to say all one has to say.

CARRAPLE, karapl', [carré], adj. Geom. quadrable : squarable, that may be squared. La parabole est —, le cercle ne l'est point, the parabola may be squared, the circle cannot.

CARRARE, karar', sm. Carrara marble, carrara.

CARRE, kar', [Lat. : quadra, square], sf. 1. crown : flat top of a hat ; 2. shoulders and back (of the human bust, or of a coat, etc.) ; 3. square toe (or a shoe) ; 4. stake (at play) ; 5. corner (of a wood) ; 6. square : each side or face of the three-square blade of the small-sword or bayonet. Cet homme a une bonne — that man has a broad back and shoulders. Dans ce tripot on est volé comme à la — d'un bois, in that gaming-house people are robbed as at the corner of a wood.

CARRÉ, E, karé, d*a*. p. squared : a) cut or reduced to a quadrangular form ; b) Geom. quadrated, estimated in square units. Le bloc de marbre ayant été —, the block of marble having been squared. L'ellipse ayant été carrée, the elipse having been squared : its area (or square contents) having been found.

CARRÉ, E, [Lat. : quadratus], adj. 1. square : a) having four equal sides and four right angles ; quadrangular. Jardin —, square garden. Tour carrée, square tower. Table —, square table. Tous les soldats avaient le bouclier — long, all the soldiers had oblong square bucklers. Bonnet —, square cap worn by doctors of law, doctors of divinity, judges, and certain church dignitaries. [Naut. :] Voiles carrées, square sails. Poupe carrée, square poop or stern. Brassé —, braced square (as sails, when at right angles with the line of the keel). [Milit. :] Bataillon —, square battalion : formerly said of battalions having the men arranged in equal numbers in rank and file. V. Carré, sm. Le muscle — du menton, etc. Anat. the quadratus (or square muscle) of the chin, etc. [Math. :] Un mètre —, a square metre. Seize mètres carrées, sixteen square metres. Un nombre —, a square number : the product of two equal factors. Seize est un nombre —, étant le produit de quatre multiplié par lui-même, sixteen is a square number, being the product of four by itself. Racine carrée, square root. Cinq est la racine carrée de vingt-cinq, five is the square root of twenty-five.

2. square-shouldered, square-built, well-set. Garçon —, robuste, a robust square-shouldered youth. On vit avec étonnement ses épaules carrées, they were surprised on seeing his square (or broad) shoulders.

3. Rhet. well-turned, well-constructed ; full, flowing. Faire des périodes carrées, to form well-turned periods.

4. perpendicular, square, straight. Faire le trait —, to draw a line perpendicular to (or square with) another line. Le corsage est coupé — du haut, the body (of the dress) is cut square (or straight) across at top.

5. Fig. C'est une tête carrée, he is a man of sound judgment ; (in a bad sense) he is a stubborn fellow. Réponse carrée, a straight forward, firm or decided answer.

6. Une partie carrée, a party of four persons (two of each sex).

7. Royal, straightforward. Il l'a dit d'une façon carrée, he said so in a straightforward manner.

8. Demy, medium : said of a particular size of printing and drawing paper.

CARRÉ, sm. 1. square : a) a figure having four equal sides and four right angles ; b) a square piece of paper, etc. ; c) Arith. second power of a number ; d) Milit. troops arranged in the form of a square. a) Le côté, la diagonale d'un —, the side, the diagonal of a square. Un — long, an oblong square, a parallelogram. b) Donnez moi un — de papier que je prenne votre adresse, give me a bit (or scrap) of paper that I may take down your address. Tailler des carrés de lard, to cut bacon into squares or dice. c) Cent est le — de dix, one hundred is the square of ten. d) Former le —, to form troops into a hollow square. Enfoncer un —, to break through a square (of troops).

2. Gard. bed ; 3. basin : square sheet of water in a park ; 4. landing, landing-place (of a staircase) ; 5. breast (of mutton) ; 6. dressing-case (of a lady's toilet table) ; 7. die (for coining medals) ; 8. Paper-mak demy, medium : the size of paper most generally used for printing books. Grand —, double demy. Un — de fleurs, a bed of flowers. Ces deux locataires habitent sur le même —, these two tenants live on the same floor.

9. Naut. ward-room : common room for the officers on board of a ship of war ; 10. Naut. a square-rigged vessel ; 11. Naut. opening of a hatchway ; 12. sledge (used by rope-makers) ; 13. Fish. dipping-net (for minnows and other small fish ; 14. Arch. fillet : flat space between mouldings) ; 15. Anat. square muscle, quadratus (V. Carré, adj.) : 16. Goldsm. base, foot (of a piece of plate.

CARRÉ, [Michel], dramatist (1819-1872).

CARREAU, karô, [Lat. : quadrum, square], sm. 1. a thin slab of burnt clay, stone on marble used for flooring apartments, churches, etc., usually square, but sometimes rhomboidal or hexagonal : flooring- or paving tile ; (when made oblong and thicker) paving-brick ; 2. tile-, brick-, or marble-floor, floor (of any kind). — de terre-cuit, floor-tile. — vernissé, glazed tile. — de Hollande, Dutch tile. Coucher sur le —, to lie on the floor. Jeter les meubles sur le —, to throw furniture into the street. Jeter, coucher quelqu'un sur le —, to knock (or throw) one down, to strike one down (or throw) one down, to strike one down (or strike one to the ground), to lay one sprawling. Rester, demeurer sur le —, to be killed on the spot.

3. pane, square (of glass) ; 4. squab : a square cushion (to sit on) ; 5. hassock : a cushion to kneel on) ; 6. rubber-file : a coarse four-sided file ; 7. goose : tailor's pressing iron ; 8. Gard. bed (of onions, carrots, etc.). V. Carré ; 9. Mason. stretcher : stone laid lengthwise in the face of a wall ; 10. Fish. square dipping-net (for minnow and other small fishes); 11. housewife : a pocket-case for needles, thread, etc.

12. diamond (at cards). As de —, ace of diamonds. Je n'ai pas de —, I have no diamonds. Valet de —, the knave of diamonds ; Fig. contemptible fellow, mean wretch. Avoir toujours garde à —, to be always prepared for any emergency, to be never at a loss for an expedient. Fam. Se garder à —, to take serious precautions against an accident.

13. check, chequer : a cross-barred pattern of tissues. Pantalon à carreaux, check trowsers.

14. square. Carreaux de réduction, the method of squares (for reducing drawings, plans, etc.).

15. bolt : a square-headed arrow for a cross-bow ; 16. Fig. thunderbolt, bolt. Les carreaux de Jupiter, the bolts (shafts) of Jupiter.

17. Med. tabes mesenterica : tubercular disease of the mesenteric glands.

CARREAU, adj. Brochet —, Ichth. a very large pike (esox lucius).

CARRÉE, karé, sf. tester (of a bed), half-tester (when only half the lenght of the bed).

CARREFOUR, kar'four, [Low Lat. : quadrifurcum ; quatuor, four ; furca, fork], sm. 1. cross-road ; 2. (in towns) square, circus or open space where several streets meet or cross each other. Langage de —, low language.

CARREL, kar'el, [Armand], miscellaneous writer and historian (1800-1836).

CARRELAGE, kar'lazh', sm. 1. flooring with tiles or bricks ; 2. cobbling (of shoes).

CARRELÉ, kar'lé, sm. check silk : silk of a cross-barred pattern.

CARRELER, kar'lé-r, [carreau], va. 1. to floor with tiles or bricks ; 2. to cobble (old shoes). Chambre carrelée, room with a tile floor.

CARRELET, car-lè, sm. 1. Ichth. plaice, platessa vulgaris : 2. square dipping-net (for minnows, etc.) 3. small sword (with a three-square blade) ; 4. packing-needle ; 5. needle (with a lozenge-shaped blade).

CARRELETTE, kar'lèt, sf. polishing file.

CARRELEUR, kar'lœr, sm. 1. pavior (for brick or tile floors) ; 2. tramping cobbler.

CARRELIER, kar'lyé, sm. floor-tile maker.

CARRELURE, kar'lur', sf. 1. new-soling re-soling (of boots, etc.) ; 2. hearty meal.

CARRÉMENT, karémân, adv. 1. square, squarely ; 2. flatly. Tracer un plan —, to draw a plan square. Il me refusa —, he refused me flatly, he gave me a flat refusal.

CARRER, karé-r, [Lat. : quadrāre], va. 1. to square : a) to make square, to give a square form to ; b) Geom. to affect the quadrature of a curve ; c) Arith. to multiply a number by itself, to raise to the second power ; 2. Milit. to form (troops) into a square.

CARRER (SE), v. refl. 1. to strut along or about ; 2. to attitudinize : to affect grand airs. Se — dans un fauteuil, to seat one's self in an arm-chair quite at one's ease.

CARRICK, karik, [Eng.], sm. boxcoat : a coat with one long cape or several short ones.

CARRIER, karyé, [carrière, quarry], sm. quarry-man, stone-digger.

